10 Not applicable.

11 (H) The date that the proceedings commenced in the district court:

12 MDB Trucking, LLC, filed its Cross-Claim against Versa Products Company, Inc., and 13 RMC Lamar Holdings, Inc., f/k/a Ranch Manufacturing Company (subsequently dismissed

15 Case No. CV15-02349 was December 4, 2015.

16
17 (I) A brief description of the nature of the action and result in the district court, 18 including the type of judgment or order being appealed and the relief granted by the 19 district court:

20 This case arises from a personal injury action. On December 4, 2015, Ernest and Carol 21 Fitzsimmons filed a complaint styled Fitzsimmons v. MDB Trucking, LLC, et al., in the Second 22 Judicial District Court, Case No. CV15-02349 (the "Fitzsimmons Action"). Numerous other 23 plaintiffs' cases were subsequently consolidated into the Fitzsimmons Action. Two additional 24 cases resulting from the same accident were filed but not consolidated with the Fitzsimmons
25 Action, Remmerde v. MDB Trucking, LLC, Case No. CV-00976, and Bible v. MDB Trucking,
26 LLC, Case No. CV16-01914. The personal injury claims all related to multiple traffic accidents
27 which occurred when a semi-trailer owned and operated by MDB inadvertently dumped a load of 28

1 gravel on the freeway. MDB settled all of the underlying plaintiffs' claims and thereafter
2 pursued its Cross-Claim for Contribution against Versa. All three cases were subsequently 3 dismissed by the District Court's order granting case-ending sanctions, pursuant to NRCP 37.
4 All three cases are currently on appeal from that order, in Supreme Court Case Nos. 75022,
5 75319 and 75321, respectively.

7 On January 5, 2018, Versa filed a Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs Pursuant to 8 NRCP 37 and NRCP 68 ("Motion for Attorneys' Fees") and a Verified Memorandum of Costs
9 ("Memorandum of Costs") wherein it sought attorneys' fees in the amount of $228,500.50 and 10 costs in the amount of $58,773.06 from MDB. Thereafter, MDB timely filed a Motion to Retax
11 and Settle Costs ("Motion to Retax") and opposed the Motion for Attorneys' Fees. After full 12 briefing, the District Court heard oral argument on the Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Motion to 13 Retax on April 6, 2018, at which time it took the matters under advisement. The District Court 14 entered its final written Order on June 7, 2018, wherein it granted in part and denied in part the 15 Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Motion to Retax. Specifically, Versa's request for attorneys' 16 fees was denied, and its Verified Memorandum of Costs was reduced by $16,774.78. MDB was 17 ordered to pay Versa costs in the amount of $41,998.28 and is appealing said cost award in its 18 entirety.

25 Supreme Court Case No. 75022, 75319 and 75321, respectively, all styled as MDB
26 Trucking, LLC, v. Versa Products Company, Inc., are pending to challenge the district court's 27 original grant of case ending sanctions.

7 Appellate Procedure. Mediation is scheduled to take place on July 18, 2018, and the parties are

Presently before the Court is the DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS PURSUANT TO NRCP 37 AND NRCP 68 ("the Motion for Fees") filed by Defendant/Cross-Defendant VERSA PRODUCTS, INC. ("Versa") on January 5, 2018. Versa contemporaneously filed the DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S VERIFIED MEMORANDUM OF COSTS ("the Memorandum of Costs"). Versa filed the ERRATA TO DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS PURSUANT TO NRCP 37 AND NRCP 68 ("the Errata") on January 10, 2018. The Errata changes the total amount of fees from $213,988.00 to $228,500.50.¹ Cross-Claimant MDB TRUCKING, LLC ("MDB") filed the CROSS-

28 FEES AND COSTS PURSUANT TO NRCP 37 AND NRCP 68. The Errata does not provide a reason for the discrepancy.

1 This case arises from a personal injury action. A COMPLAINT (“the Complaint”) was filed
2 by the Plaintiffs Ernest Bruce Fitzsimmons and Carol Fitzsimmons, on December 4, 2015.
3 Numerous other plaintiffs were joined into the Fitzsimmons case. It is alleged on July 7, 2014, the
4 Defendant Daniel Anthony Koski (“Koski”), while driving a truck for MDB, negligently spilled a
5 load of gravel into the roadway. The spilled gravel caused the driving Plaintiffs to lose control of 6 their vehicles and numerous accidents occurred. The Plaintiffs sustained physical and emotional
7 injuries as a result of the accidents. In response to the Complaint, MDB filed a THIRD-PARTY
8 COMPLAINT (“the MDB Cross-Claim”) June 15, 2016. The MDB Cross-Claim had two causes
9 of action relative to Versa: Implied Indemnification and Contribution.² MDB alleges it was not
10 Koski’s negligence that caused the gravel to spill; rather, the spill was caused by the “unreasonably
11 dangerous and defective” design and manufacture of the trailer that held the gravel. The MDB
12 Cross-Claim, 3:5-7. Therefore, MDB brought the Cross-Claim against the manufacturers of the 13 trailer and its components, including Versa. MDB avers Versa produced a solenoid valve which 14 would, “activate inadvertently allowing the gates to open and release the load [of gravel] carried by 15 the trailer.” The MDB Cross-Claim, 3:10-11. MDB also claims there were safer alternatives
16 available to Versa; the solenoid valve was unreasonably dangerous and defective; and Versa failed
17 to provide appropriate safety mechanisms regarding the solenoid valve. The MDB Cross-Claim, 18 3:12-18.

19 The Court entered an ORDER (“the December Order”) on December, 8, 2017, granting the
20 DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY,
21 INC.’S MOTION TO STRIKE DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT MDB
22

23 ² Versa filed CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY INC.’S MOTION TO DISMISS CROSS-
24 CLAIMANT, MDB TRUCKING, LLC’S THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR IMPLIED INDEMNITY PURSUANT
25 TO NRCP 12(B)(5) (“the MTD”) on June 27, 2016. The Court granted the MTD on October 19, 2016.
26

1 TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO NRCP 35; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE,
2 FOR AN ADVERSE JURY INSTRUCTION ("the Motion to Strike"). The Court found MDB's
3 disposal of the electrical systems that control the solenoid which operated the Versa valve crippled
4 Versa's ability to present its case. The December Order, 13:11-12. As a result, the Court dismissed
5 MDB's sole remaining cross-claim against Versa.

7 The Court finds Versa is not entitled to an award of attorneys' fees. In general, a district
8 court may not award "attorney fees... unless authorized to do so by a statute, rule or contract."
9 U.S. Design & Constr. v. I.B.W.W. Local 357, 118 Nev. 458, 462, 50 P.3d 170, 173 (2002). NRCP
10 68 provides:
11

12 (a) The Offer. At any time more than 10 days before trial, any party may serve an 13 offer in writing to allow judgment to be taken in accordance with its terms and 14 conditions.

15 ...

16 (f) Penalties for Rejection of Offer. If the offeree rejects an offer and fails to obtain a
17 more favorable judgment,

18 (1) the offeree cannot recover any costs or attorney's fees and shall not recover
19 interest for the period after the service of the offer and before the judgment;
20 and

21 (2) the offeree shall pay the offeror's post-offer costs, applicable interest on 22 the judgment from the time of the offer to the time of entry of the judgment
23 and reasonable attorney's fees, if any be allowed, actually incurred by the 24 offeror from the time of the offer....

25 An award of attorney's fees and costs pursuant to NRCP 68 requires an evaluation of the 26 following factors:
27

28 (1) whether the plaintiff's claim was brought in good faith; (2) whether the defendants' offer of judgment was reasonable and in good faith in both its timing and amount; (3) whether the plaintiff's decision to reject the offer and proceed to trial was grossly unreasonable or in bad faith; and (4) whether the fees sought by the offeror are reasonable and justified in amount.

1 Beattie v. Thomas, 99 Nev. 579, 588–89, 668 P.2d 268, 274 (1983). A court may only award
2 reasonable attorney’s fees. The following factors are to be examined in determining whether the 3 fees sought are reasonable:

5 (1) the qualities of the advocate: his ability, his training, education, experience, professional
6 standing and skill; (2) the character of the work to be done: its difficulty, its intricacy, its 7 importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed and the prominence and 8 character of the parties where they affect the importance of the litigation; (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer: the skill, time and attention given to the work; (4) the result: whether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived.

9 Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat. Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969).

10 Versa served MDB with an offer of judgment for $1,000.00 per plaintiff (“the Initial Offer”)
11 on May 4, 2017. The Motion for Fees, Exhibit 1. The following day, the parties attended
12 mediation. The Motion for Fees, 6:20-21. At mediation, MDB demanded $175,000.00 from Versa
13 and another cross-defendant, RMC LAMAR HOLDING, INC. (“Ranco”), the manufacturer of the
14 trailer. TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS, HEARING ON MOTION FOR ATTORNEY FEES
15 AND COSTS AND MOTION TO RETAX, April 6, 2018 (“Transcript”), 10:4-10. Versa offered
16 $100,000.00, and Ranco offered $50,000.00 (“the Mediation Offer”). MDB rejected the Mediation
17 Offer, and indicated MDB would settle for no less than $175,000.00 from Versa and Ranco.
18 Transcript, 10:13-15. The Motion for Fees alleges Versa telephoned MDB approximately two
19 business days later offering to settle for $175,000.00 (“the Final Offer”). The Motion for Fees, 7:2-20 3. At oral argument the Court queried MDB about the Final Offer. The Court took a brief recess to 21 allow counsel for MDB to call co-counsel for details on the specifics of the Final Offer. Transcript,
22 31:7-14. MDB conceded Versa made the Final Offer, and that it was made “in close proximity” to 23 the mediation. Transcript, 32:2-15. MDB contends the Final Offer was not for $175,000.00,
24 although co-counsel could not recall the specific amount. Transcript, 32:3-8.
25
26
27
28

1 Versa is not entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to NRCP 68. MDB's claim was
2 brought in good faith. Further, the Court finds it was not unreasonable for MDB to reject the Initial
3 Offer. The Opposition to the Motion for Fees argues the Initial Offer was unreasonable because it
4 "amounted to less than one half of one percent (0.005) of the total settlement amount MDB paid to
5 plaintiffs...." The Opposition to the Motion for Fees, 7:2-3. The Court agrees. The fact Versa
6 made an offer of $100,000.00 one day later and was willing to meet MDB's full demand two 7 business days later clearly demonstrates the Initial Offer of $1,000.00 per plaintiff was 8 unreasonable and not made in good faith. MDB's decision to reject the Mediation Offer and 9 especially the Final Offer were unreasonable, but those rejections cannot be the basis for awarding
10 Versa attorneys' fees. NRCP 68 applies to written offers. The Court has been presented with no
11 document evincing the Mediation Offer or the Final Offer were reduced to writing. An analysis of
12 the first three Beattie factors leads to the conclusion Versa is not entitled to fees pursuant to NRCP
13 68; therefore, a Brunzell analysis of the reasonableness of the fees requested is unnecessary.³

15
16
17 The Motion for Fees avers Versa is entitled to attorneys' fees pursuant to NRCP 37 because 18 the December Order issued case-concluding sanctions against MDB. NRCP 37 provides:

19 (b) Failure to Comply With Order.

20 ...
21 (2) Sanctions--Party. If a party or an officer, director, or managing 22 agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to
23 testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit
24 discovery, including an order made under subdivision (a) of this rule
25 or Rule 35, or if a party fails to obey an order entered under Rules 16,
26 16.1, and 16.2 the court in which the action is pending may make such 27 orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the 28 following:

³ The Court would conclude, should it be necessary, the fees requested were reasonable and would satisfy the Brunzell factors.

1 (C) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying
2 further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the
3 action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a
4 judgment by default against the disobedient party;

5 In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the court shall require the 6 party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising that party or both to pay the 7 reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court
8 finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an 9 award of expenses unjust.

10 The Court finds an award of attorneys' fees would be unjust. Case-concluding sanctions
11 against MDB was a windfall for Versa. The Motion for Fees argues, "there is no substantial
12 justification for MDB's failure to preserve the evidence other than to obstruct discovery and 13 frustrate the progress of this litigation." The Motion for Fees, 8:23-25. However, the December
14 Order made clear "the Court does not find MDB intentionally disposed of the components in order
15 to harm Versa, nor were MDB's employees acting with any malevolence...." The December Order,
16 8:20-22. MDB did not intend to "obstruct discovery and frustrate the progress of this litigation" as 17 the Motion suggests. Although dismissal of MDB's claim against Versa was warranted, it was a
18 severe sanction. Further sanctions would be unjust.

19 The Court now turns to the issue of costs. The Court finds the costs supported by justifying
20 documentation to be reasonable; however, the costs award is reduced because some of the claimed
21 costs are not properly supported in the Memorandum of Costs. District Courts have "wide, but not 22 unlimited, discretion to award costs to prevailing parties." Cadle Co. v. Woods & Erickson, LLP,
23 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d 1049, 1054 (2015), recently upheld by Golightly & Vannah, PLLC
24 v. TJ Allen, LLC, 132 Nev. Adv. Op. 41, 373 P.3d 103, 107 (2016). Costs awarded "must be 25 reasonable, necessary, and actually incurred." Id. NRS 18.020 explains a prevailing party may, as 26 a matter of course, recover costs from an adverse party against whom judgment is rendered in 27 certain actions. These actions include those for recovery of money or damages exceeding 28

1 $2,500.00, and those that involve the title or boundaries of real estate. NRS 18.020(3); NRS
2 18.020(5). The specific costs that may be recovered by a prevailing party are enumerated in the
3 statute. In pertinent part, costs allowed are as follows: "Reporters' fees for depositions, including a
4 reporter's fee for one copy of each deposition," NRS 18.005(2); "Fees for... deposing witnesses,
5 unless the court finds that the witness was called without reason or necessity," Id. at (4);
6 "Reasonable fees of not more than five expert witnesses in an amount not more than $1,500.00 for 7 each witness, unless the court allows a larger fee after determining the circumstances surrounding
8 the expert's testimony were of such a necessity as to require a larger fee," Id. at (5); "The fee of any 9 sheriff or licensed process server for the delivery of service of any summons or subpoena used in
10 the action, unless the court determines that the service was not necessary," Id. at (7); "Reasonable
11 costs for photocopies," Id. at (12); "Any other reasonable and necessary expense incurred in 12 connection with the action, including reasonable and necessary expenses for computerized services
13 for legal research." Id. at (17). It is within a court's sound discretion to allow a reasonable award
14 of either part or all of the prevailing party's costs, and to apportion the costs between the parties.
15 NRS 18.050; see also Bergmann v. Boyce, 109 Nev. 670, 679, 856 P.2d 560, 566 (1993); Cadle
16 Co., 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d at 1054. However, statutes that allow recovery of costs must 17 be strictly construed. Bergmann, 109 Nev. at 679, 856 P.2d at 566. Accordingly, a court's 18 discretion should be "sparingly exercised" when it considers whether or not to award expenses that 19 are "not specifically allowed by statute and precedent." Bergman, 109 Nev. at 679, 856 P.2d at 20 566.

21
22 In order for a court to make an award of costs, the party seeking costs must file with the 23 clerk and serve upon the adverse party a verified memorandum of costs. NRS 18.110(1). Beyond 24 the memorandum of costs, the prevailing party must also provide the court with evidence, or 25
26
27
28

1 “justifying documentation,” which demonstrates how the costs being sought were “reasonable,
2 necessary, and actually incurred” in the action. Cadle Co., 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d at
3 1054. Accordingly, appropriate “justifying documentation must mean something more than a
4 memorandum of costs.” Id. Without such documentation, a court may not award costs. Id.

6 If the party against whom costs are sought wishes to dispute the costs, they must make a motion to 7 the court within three days of the memorandum’s filing. NRS 18.110(4). Once in receipt of that
8 motion, the Court will be allowed to settle the costs. Id.

10 The Motion for Fees requests expert witness fees in the amount of $13,706.49. The Motion
11 for Fees, 15:13-17. The Motion to Retax argues the amount of expert fees requested is 12 unreasonable for the following reasons: the expert, Garrick Mitchell, M.S., P.E. (“Mitchell”), had
13 no useful opinions; Mitchell’s testimony would not aid the trier of fact, and was merely repetitive
14 of other experts; Mitchell conducted no independent testing; and Mitchell is a mechanical engineer
15 who does not possess the requisite level of expertise to make determinations better suited for an 16 electrical engineer. The Motion to Retax, 9:3-26.

18 This action involved millions of dollars in claimed damages. Versa’s defense rested entirely
19 upon disproving MDB’s theory that the valve manufactured by Versa malfunctioned. The only way
20 Versa could accomplish this was through the use of an expert witness. The Motion to Retax argues
21 Mitchell did not offer a viable opinion about the cause of the spill, but this does not discredit
22 Mitchell’s value as an expert because Versa did not necessarily have to prove what was responsible
23 for the incident. Given Versa’s potential exposure, it was not unreasonable for Versa to retain 24 Mitchell to perform extensive analysis and evaluation, which required two site inspections. The 25 Court finds the amount of expert fees requested is reasonable and necessary.
26
27
28

1 The Motion to Retax points out the Memorandum of Costs is devoid of evidence or 2 justifying documentation pertaining to certain costs. The Motion to Retax, 3:4-5. The failure to
3 support a memorandum of costs leaves the court and the party against whom costs are sought with
4 nothing upon which a determination of reasonableness can be made. It may be that the party
5 against whom costs are sought assesses a memorandum of costs and determines the costs are
6 reasonable and a motion to retax would be unnecessary. If the party against whom costs are sought
7 does not file a motion to retax, the court still cannot award costs without evidence or justifying
8 documentation. Cadle Co. places the burden upon the party seeking costs to affirmatively
9 demonstrate the costs are reasonable, necessary, and actually incurred when the motion is filed. The 10 failure to provide justifying documentation at the outset results in additional work for the Court as 11 well as the parties. At oral argument counsel for Versa informed the Court it is their common
12 practice to attach a self-created “disbursement diary” to the memorandum of costs, and to only “dig
13 up” documentation if there is a controversy. Transcript, 26:22-24. While this may be counsel’s
14 common practice, it does not comport with the requirements set forth by the Supreme Court of 15 Nevada. The Motion to Retax argues $16,774.78 in costs are unsupported in the Memorandum of 16 Costs and should therefore be denied. The Motion to Retax, 6:3-4. The Court agrees. The 17 remainder of the costs are supported with the requisite justifying documentation.

18 The Motion to Retax argues for a reduction in the costs award on several other grounds:
19 costs related to the Plaintiffs’ claims⁴; costs incurred subsequent to Versa’s offer of judgment;
20 expert witness costs exceeding $1,500.00; and costs not specifically provided for in NRS 18.005.
21 The Court finds these arguments are without merit. First, Versa had a right to defend against the

24
25
26
27
28 ⁴ The Plaintiffs asserted negligence claims against MDB and strict liability claims against Ranco and Versa. FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES filed August 23, 2016.

1 Plaintiffs' claims underlying MDB's claim for contribution. Second, Versa is entitled to recover
2 costs incurred prior to the offer of judgment. The Reply in Support of the Motion to Retax
3 concedes an award of costs is not limited to those incurred after an offer of judgment; rather, it
4 argues the Opposition to the Motion to Retax contradicts the Memorandum of Costs and the Motion
5 for Fees. The Reply in Support of the Motion to Retax, 5:22-26. It alleges the Memorandum of
6 Costs and the Motion for Fees indicate the only costs sought are those incurred subsequent to the 7 offer of judgment. The Court finds no such contradiction warranting the retaxing of costs on this
8 basis. Third, as discussed supra, Versa is entitled to recover their expert witness costs. Finally, the 9 courier fees for delivery of depositions, the compact disc fees, and exhibit fees are reasonable and 10 necessary expenses in the litigation, and are therefore recoverable pursuant to NRS 18.005(17).

13 It is hereby ORDERED the DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS
14 COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS PURSUANT TO
15 NRCP 37 AND NRCP 68 is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. Versa's request
16 for attorneys' fees is denied. MDB shall pay Versa's costs as set forth below.
17

18 It is FURTHER ORDERED the CROSS-CLAIMANT MDB TRUCKING LLC'S
19 MOTION TO RETAX AND SETTLE CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY
20 INC.'S VERIFIED MEMORANDUM OF COSTS is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN
21 PART. The amount of costs requested in the DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA
22 PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S VERIFIED MEMORANDUM OF COSTS is reduced by 23 $16,774.78. MDB is ordered to pay costs in the amount of $41,998.28.

MDB TRUCKING, LLC; et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER

Presently before the Court is the DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS PURSUANT TO NRCP 37 AND NRCP 68 ("the Motion for Fees") filed by Defendant/Cross-Defendant VERSA PRODUCTS, INC. ("Versa") on January 5, 2018. Versa contemporaneously filed the DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S VERIFIED MEMORANDUM OF COSTS ("the Memorandum of Costs"). Versa filed the ERRATA TO DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS PURSUANT TO NRCP 37 AND NRCP 68 ("the Errata") on January 10, 2018. The Errata changes the total amount of fees from $213,988.00 to $228,500.50.¹ Cross-Claimant MDB TRUCKING, LLC ("MDB") filed the CROSS-

¹ The Motion for Fees lists attorneys' fees in the amount of $228,500.50. The Motion for Fees, 13:14, 16:15. The incorrect figure of $213,988.00 appears in the AFFIDAVIT OF JOSH COLE AICKLEN, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS'

28 FEES AND COSTS PURSUANT TO NRCP 37 AND NRCP 68. The Errata does not provide a reason for the discrepancy.

1 This case arises from a personal injury action. A COMPLAINT (“the Complaint”) was filed
2 by the Plaintiffs Ernest Bruce Fitzsimmons and Carol Fitzsimmons, on December 4, 2015.
3 Numerous other plaintiffs were joined into the Fitzsimmons case. It is alleged on July 7, 2014, the
4 Defendant Daniel Anthony Koski (“Koski”), while driving a truck for MDB, negligently spilled a
5 load of gravel into the roadway. The spilled gravel caused the driving Plaintiffs to lose control of
6 their vehicles and numerous accidents occurred. The Plaintiffs sustained physical and emotional
7 injuries as a result of the accidents. In response to the Complaint, MDB filed a THIRD-PARTY
8 COMPLAINT (“the MDB Cross-Claim”) June 15, 2016. The MDB Cross-Claim had two causes
9 of action relative to Versa: Implied Indemnification and Contribution.² MDB alleges it was not
10 Koski’s negligence that caused the gravel to spill; rather, the spill was caused by the “unreasonably
11 dangerous and defective” design and manufacture of the trailer that held the gravel. The MDB
12 Cross-Claim, 3:5-7. Therefore, MDB brought the Cross-Claim against the manufacturers of the 13 trailer and its components, including Versa. MDB avers Versa produced a solenoid valve which 14 would, “activate inadvertently allowing the gates to open and release the load [of gravel] carried by 15 the trailer.” The MDB Cross-Claim, 3:10-11. MDB also claims there were safer alternatives
16 available to Versa; the solenoid valve was unreasonably dangerous and defective; and Versa failed
17 to provide appropriate safety mechanisms regarding the solenoid valve. The MDB Cross-Claim, 18 3:12-18.

19 The Court entered an ORDER (“the December Order”) on December, 8, 2017, granting the
20 DEFENDANT/CROSS-CLAIMANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY,
22

24
25
26
27 ² Versa filed CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY INC.’S MOTION TO DISMISS CROSS-
28 CLAIMANT, MDB TRUCKING, LLC’S THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION FOR IMPLIED INDEMNITY PURSUANT
TO NRCF 12(B)(5) (“the MTD”) on June 27, 2016. The Court granted the MTD on October 19, 2016.

1 TRUCKING, LLC'S CROSS-CLAIM PURSUANT TO NRCP 35; OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE,
2 FOR AN ADVERSE JURY INSTRUCTION ("the Motion to Strike"). The Court found MDB's
3 disposal of the electrical systems that control the solenoid which operated the Versa valve crippled
4 Versa's ability to present its case. The December Order, 13:11-12. As a result, the Court dismissed
5 MDB's sole remaining cross-claim against Versa.

7 The Court finds Versa is not entitled to an award of attorneys' fees. In general, a district
8 court may not award "attorney fees... unless authorized to do so by a statute, rule or contract."

9 U.S. Design & Constr. v. I.B.W.W. Local 357, 118 Nev. 458, 462, 50 P.3d 170, 173 (2002). NRCP
10 68 provides:
11

12 (a) The Offer. At any time more than 10 days before trial, any party may serve an 13 offer in writing to allow judgment to be taken in accordance with its terms and conditions.

14 ...

15 (f) Penalties for Rejection of Offer. If the offeree rejects an offer and fails to obtain a more favorable judgment,

16 (1) the offeree cannot recover any costs or attorney's fees and shall not recover
17 interest for the period after the service of the offer and before the judgment;
and

18 (2) the offeree shall pay the offeror's post-offer costs, applicable interest on 19 the judgment from the time of the offer to the time of entry of the judgment 20 and reasonable attorney's fees, if any be allowed, actually incurred by the offeror from the time of the offer....

21 An award of attorney's fees and costs pursuant to NRCP 68 requires an evaluation of the 22 following factors:
23

24 (1) whether the plaintiff's claim was brought in good faith; (2) whether the 25 defendants' offer of judgment was reasonable and in good faith in both its timing and 26 amount; (3) whether the plaintiff's decision to reject the offer and proceed to trial was 27 grossly unreasonable or in bad faith; and (4) whether the fees sought by the offeror are reasonable and justified in amount.
28

1 Beattie v. Thomas, 99 Nev. 579, 588–89, 668 P.2d 268, 274 (1983). A court may only award
2 reasonable attorney’s fees. The following factors are to be examined in determining whether the 3 fees sought are reasonable:

5 (1) the qualities of the advocate: his ability, his training, education, experience, professional
6 standing and skill; (2) the character of the work to be done: its difficulty, its intricacy, its 7 importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed and the prominence and 8 character of the parties where they affect the importance of the litigation; (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer: the skill, time and attention given to the work; (4) the result: whether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived.

9 Brunzell v. Golden Gate Nat. Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31, 33 (1969).

10 Versa served MDB with an offer of judgment for $1,000.00 per plaintiff (“the Initial Offer”)
11 on May 4, 2017. The Motion for Fees, Exhibit 1. The following day, the parties attended
12 mediation. The Motion for Fees, 6:20-21. At mediation, MDB demanded $175,000.00 from Versa
13 and another cross-defendant, RMC LAMAR HOLDING, INC. (“Ranco”), the manufacturer of the
14 trailer. TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS, HEARING ON MOTION FOR ATTORNEY FEES
15 AND COSTS AND MOTION TO RETAX, April 6, 2018 (“Transcript”), 10:4-10. Versa offered
16 $100,000.00, and Ranco offered $50,000.00 (“the Mediation Offer”). MDB rejected the Mediation
17 Offer, and indicated MDB would settle for no less than $175,000.00 from Versa and Ranco.
18 Transcript, 10:13-15. The Motion for Fees alleges Versa telephoned MDB approximately two
19 business days later offering to settle for $175,000.00 (“the Final Offer”). The Motion for Fees, 7:2-20 3. At oral argument the Court queried MDB about the Final Offer. The Court took a brief recess to 21 allow counsel for MDB to call co-counsel for details on the specifics of the Final Offer. Transcript,
22 31:7-14. MDB conceded Versa made the Final Offer, and that it was made “in close proximity” to
23 the mediation. Transcript, 32:2-15. MDB contends the Final Offer was not for $175,000.00,
24 although co-counsel could not recall the specific amount. Transcript, 32:3-8.
25
26
27
28

1 Versa is not entitled to an award of attorneys' fees pursuant to NRCP 68. MDB's claim was
2 brought in good faith. Further, the Court finds it was not unreasonable for MDB to reject the Initial
3 Offer. The Opposition to the Motion for Fees argues the Initial Offer was unreasonable because it
4 "amounted to less than one half of one percent (0.005) of the total settlement amount MDB paid to
5 plaintiffs...." The Opposition to the Motion for Fees, 7:2-3. The Court agrees. The fact Versa
6 made an offer of $100,000.00 one day later and was willing to meet MDB's full demand two
7 business days later clearly demonstrates the Initial Offer of $1,000.00 per plaintiff was
8 unreasonable and not made in good faith. MDB's decision to reject the Mediation Offer and
9 especially the Final Offer were unreasonable, but those rejections cannot be the basis for awarding
10 Versa attorneys' fees. NRCP 68 applies to written offers. The Court has been presented with no
11 document evincing the Mediation Offer or the Final Offer were reduced to writing. An analysis of
12 the first three Beattie factors leads to the conclusion Versa is not entitled to fees pursuant to NRCP
13 68; therefore, a Brunzell analysis of the reasonableness of the fees requested is unnecessary.³

15
16
17 The Motion for Fees avers Versa is entitled to attorneys' fees pursuant to NRCP 37 because 18 the December Order issued case-concluding sanctions against MDB. NRCP 37 provides:

19 (b) Failure to Comply With Order.

20 ...
21 (2) Sanctions--Party. If a party or an officer, director, or managing 22 agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to
23 testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit
24 discovery, including an order made under subdivision (a) of this rule
25 or Rule 35, or if a party fails to obey an order entered under Rules 16,
26 16.1, and 16.2 the court in which the action is pending may make such 27 orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the
28 following:

³ The Court would conclude, should it be necessary, the fees requested were reasonable and would satisfy the Brunzell factors.

1 (C) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying
2 further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the
3 action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

5 In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the court shall require the 6 party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising that party or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court 7 finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

8 The Court finds an award of attorneys' fees would be unjust. Case-concluding sanctions
9 against MDB was a windfall for Versa. The Motion for Fees argues, "there is no substantial
10 justification for MDB's failure to preserve the evidence other than to obstruct discovery and 11 frustrate the progress of this litigation." The Motion for Fees, 8:23-25. However, the December
12 Order made clear "the Court does not find MDB intentionally disposed of the components in order
13 to harm Versa, nor were MDB's employees acting with any malevolence...." The December Order,
14 8:20-22. MDB did not intend to "obstruct discovery and frustrate the progress of this litigation" as 15 the Motion suggests. Although dismissal of MDB's claim against Versa was warranted, it was a 16 severe sanction. Further sanctions would be unjust.

18 The Court now turns to the issue of costs. The Court finds the costs supported by justifying
19 documentation to be reasonable; however, the costs award is reduced because some of the claimed
20 costs are not properly supported in the Memorandum of Costs. District Courts have "wide, but not 21 unlimited, discretion to award costs to prevailing parties." Cadle Co. v. Woods & Erickson, LLP,
22 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d 1049, 1054 (2015), recently upheld by Golightly & Vannah, PLLC
23 v. TJ Allen, LLC, 132 Nev. Adv. Op. 41, 373 P.3d 103, 107 (2016). Costs awarded "must be 24 reasonable, necessary, and actually incurred." Id. NRS 18.020 explains a prevailing party may, as 25 a matter of course, recover costs from an adverse party against whom judgment is rendered in 26 certain actions. These actions include those for recovery of money or damages exceeding 27
28

1 $2,500.00, and those that involve the title or boundaries of real estate. NRS 18.020(3); NRS
2 18.020(5). The specific costs that may be recovered by a prevailing party are enumerated in the
3 statute. In pertinent part, costs allowed are as follows: "Reporters' fees for depositions, including a
4 reporter's fee for one copy of each deposition," NRS 18.005(2); "Fees for... deposing witnesses,
5 unless the court finds that the witness was called without reason or necessity," Id. at (4);
6 "Reasonable fees of not more than five expert witnesses in an amount not more than $1,500.00 for
7 each witness, unless the court allows a larger fee after determining the circumstances surrounding
8 the expert's testimony were of such a necessity as to require a larger fee," Id. at (5); "The fee of any 9 sheriff or licensed process server for the delivery of service of any summons or subpoena used in
10 the action, unless the court determines that the service was not necessary," Id. at (7); "Reasonable
11 costs for photocopies," Id. at (12); "Any other reasonable and necessary expense incurred in 12 connection with the action, including reasonable and necessary expenses for computerized services
13 for legal research." Id. at (17). It is within a court's sound discretion to allow a reasonable award
14 of either part or all of the prevailing party's costs, and to apportion the costs between the parties.
15 NRS 18.050; see also Bergmann v. Boyce, 109 Nev. 670, 679, 856 P.2d 560, 566 (1993); Cadle
16 Co., 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d at 1054. However, statutes that allow recovery of costs must 17 be strictly construed. Bergmann, 109 Nev. at 679, 856 P.2d at 566. Accordingly, a court's 18 discretion should be "sparingly exercised" when it considers whether or not to award expenses that 19 are "not specifically allowed by statute and precedent." Bergman, 109 Nev. at 679, 856 P.2d at 20 566.
21

22 In order for a court to make an award of costs, the party seeking costs must file with the 23 clerk and serve upon the adverse party a verified memorandum of costs. NRS 18.110(1). Beyond
24 the memorandum of costs, the prevailing party must also provide the court with evidence, or 25
26
27
28

1 “justifying documentation,” which demonstrates how the costs being sought were “reasonable,
2 necessary, and actually incurred” in the action. Cadle Co., 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d at
3 1054. Accordingly, appropriate “justifying documentation must mean something more than a
4 memorandum of costs.” Id. Without such documentation, a court may not award costs. Id.
5 If the party against whom costs are sought wishes to dispute the costs, they must make a motion to 6 the court within three days of the memorandum’s filing. NRS 18.110(4). Once in receipt of that
7 motion, the Court will be allowed to settle the costs. Id.

9 The Motion for Fees requests expert witness fees in the amount of $13,706.49. The Motion
10 for Fees, 15:13-17. The Motion to Retax argues the amount of expert fees requested is 11 unreasonable for the following reasons: the expert, Garrick Mitchell, M.S., P.E. (“Mitchell”), had 12 no useful opinions; Mitchell’s testimony would not aid the trier of fact, and was merely repetitive
13 of other experts; Mitchell conducted no independent testing; and Mitchell is a mechanical engineer
14 who does not possess the requisite level of expertise to make determinations better suited for an 15 electrical engineer. The Motion to Retax, 9:3-26.
16

18 This action involved millions of dollars in claimed damages. Versa’s defense rested entirely
19 upon disproving MDB’s theory that the valve manufactured by Versa malfunctioned. The only way
20 Versa could accomplish this was through the use of an expert witness. The Motion to Retax argues
21 Mitchell did not offer a viable opinion about the cause of the spill, but this does not discredit
22 Mitchell’s value as an expert because Versa did not necessarily have to prove what was responsible
23 for the incident. Given Versa’s potential exposure, it was not unreasonable for Versa to retain 24 Mitchell to perform extensive analysis and evaluation, which required two site inspections. The 25 Court finds the amount of expert fees requested is reasonable and necessary.
26
27
28

1 The Motion to Retax points out the Memorandum of Costs is devoid of evidence or
2 justifying documentation pertaining to certain costs. The Motion to Retax, 3:4-5. The failure to
3 support a memorandum of costs leaves the court and the party against whom costs are sought with
4 nothing upon which a determination of reasonableness can be made. It may be that the party
5 against whom costs are sought assesses a memorandum of costs and determines the costs are
6 reasonable and a motion to retax would be unnecessary. If the party against whom costs are sought
7 does not file a motion to retax, the court still cannot award costs without evidence or justifying
8 documentation. Cadle Co. places the burden upon the party seeking costs to affirmatively
9 demonstrate the costs are reasonable, necessary, and actually incurred when the motion is filed. The 10 failure to provide justifying documentation at the outset results in additional work for the Court as 11 well as the parties. At oral argument counsel for Versa informed the Court it is their common
12 practice to attach a self-created “disbursement diary” to the memorandum of costs, and to only “dig
13 up” documentation if there is a controversy. Transcript, 26:22-24. While this may be counsel’s
14 common practice, it does not comport with the requirements set forth by the Supreme Court of 15 Nevada. The Motion to Retax argues $16,774.78 in costs are unsupported in the Memorandum of 16 Costs and should therefore be denied. The Motion to Retax, 6:3-4. The Court agrees. The 17 remainder of the costs are supported with the requisite justifying documentation.

21 The Motion to Retax argues for a reduction in the costs award on several other grounds:
22 costs related to the Plaintiffs’ claims⁴; costs incurred subsequent to Versa’s offer of judgment;
23 expert witness costs exceeding $1,500.00; and costs not specifically provided for in NRS 18.005.
24 The Court finds these arguments are without merit. First, Versa had a right to defend against the
26

27
28 ⁴ The Plaintiffs asserted negligence claims against MDB and strict liability claims against Ranco and Versa. FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES filed August 23, 2016.

1 Plaintiffs' claims underlying MDB's claim for contribution. Second, Versa is entitled to recover
2 costs incurred prior to the offer of judgment. The Reply in Support of the Motion to Retax
3 concedes an award of costs is not limited to those incurred after an offer of judgment; rather, it
4 argues the Opposition to the Motion to Retax contradicts the Memorandum of Costs and the Motion
5 for Fees. The Reply in Support of the Motion to Retax, 5:22-26. It alleges the Memorandum of
6 Costs and the Motion for Fees indicate the only costs sought are those incurred subsequent to the
7 offer of judgment. The Court finds no such contradiction warranting the retaxing of costs on this
8 basis. Third, as discussed supra, Versa is entitled to recover their expert witness costs. Finally, the 9 courier fees for delivery of depositions, the compact disc fees, and exhibit fees are reasonable and 10 necessary expenses in the litigation, and are therefore recoverable pursuant to NRS 18.005(17).
11

13 It is hereby ORDERED the DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS
14 COMPANY, INC.'S MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS PURSUANT TO
15 NRCP 37 AND NRCP 68 is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. Versa's request
16 for attorneys' fees is denied. MDB shall pay Versa's costs as set forth below.
17

18 It is FURTHER ORDERED the CROSS-CLAIMANT MDB TRUCKING LLC'S
19 MOTION TO RETAX AND SETTLE CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA PRODUCTS COMPANY
20 INC.'S VERIFIED MEMORANDUM OF COSTS is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN
21 PART. The amount of costs requested in the DEFENDANT/CROSS-DEFENDANT VERSA
22 PRODUCTS COMPANY, INC.'S VERIFIED MEMORANDUM OF COSTS is reduced by 23 $16,774.78. MDB is ordered to pay costs in the amount of $41,998.28.

DATE, JUDGE

COURT PRESENT

5/5/16 HONORABLE DAVID A. HARDY Dept. No. 15 A. Dick (Clerk) R. Walker (Reporter)	CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE Joseph Bradley, Esq. represented the plaintiffs, Ernest and Carol Fitzsimmons, who were not present. Brian Brown, Esq. represented Defendant, MDB Trucking, LLC, who was not present. Jessica Woelfel, Esq. represented Third-Party Defendant, RMC Lamar Holdings, Inc., who was not present. 4:35 p.m. – Court convened with counsel present. Court GRANTED Stipulation Pertaining to Amended Application for Court Order for Issuance of Commission to Take Deposition out of State. Whereupon, said Order was e-filed to the case docket. Counsel Bradley addressed and advised the Court discovery may be consolidated. Counsel further advised all parties are needed in order for possible resolution or a meaningful trial. Counsel Brown addressed and advised the Court he is comfortable filing a third party compliant against Versa Valve and requested stipulation that may reduce the process by 30 days. Counsel indicated, depending upon stipulation, he may be able to serve Versa Valve next week. Counsel Woelfel addressed the Court concurred that Versa Valve should be a party to this case. Counsel Bradley advised he preferred to have the third party complaint filed first then the plaintiffs may amend their complaint. Counsel indicated the plaintiffs are entitled to trial within 120 days and he not prepared to give up the October trial date but may be willing to accommodate a couple months extension. Counsel Brown advised the Defendant intends to file an opposition to the motion consolidating all cases. STATUS HEARING

Counsel Clayton advised the Court that the State Farm case (CV16-01087) has been settled, and he will be getting settlement documents to the Court within the next couple of weeks. COURT excused counsel Clayton from the remainder of the hearing. Counsel Kent concurred with counsel Clayton regarding CV16-01087, however noted that he has filed a new case regarding the carriers, in which MDB Trucking is the Plaintiff, and all clients present today have been named in the new lawsuit; and he further advised the Court that it is his intention today to get the parties served, and to perhaps set up a global mediation.

At this point in the hearing, the Clerk determined that the new case number is CV16-02091, MDB Trucking, LLC etal vs. Financial Pacific Insurance Company etal, and it is assigned to Department Eight.

COURT advised the parties that his Judicial Assistant has been contacted by the Clerk, and she is working on getting CV16-02091 transferred to Department 10. Counsel Brown advised the Court that he has not been served in CV16-01410, and therefore he is not appearing in that case.

COURT noted that no parties have been served in CV16-01410; and he further reviewed the procedural history of the cases.

Discussion ensued between the Court and counsel Bradley regarding the trial date set in CV15-02349, which was originally set for March 20, 2017, in Department Fifteen, however when the case was transferred to Department Ten, the March 20, 2017, date was vacated.

Upon questioning by the Court, counsel Bradley indicated that they would not object to some of the other cases being consolidated into their case.

Discussion ensued between the Court and respective counsel regarding consolidation of the cases.

Counsel Brown presented the Court and respective counsel with a draft of proposed discovery deadlines; and he further gave the Court information regarding the incident that occurred in these cases, which is why he believes that there will be 2 phases of discovery – first to determine why the gravel was on the road, and second to determine damages. Counsel Brown requested that the Court eventually enter an order which will guide the discovery process as the cases move forward.

COURT noted receipt of a Letter from counsel Aicklen indicating the need for a supplemental confidentiality agreement and further requesting this hearing.

Not Reported

Counsel Aicklen addressed the Court as to the letter and indicated that he will draft the supplemental confidentiality agreement and that he would be driving to Phoenix, Arizona on Monday, September 4, 2017 with the un-redacted discovery in digital format for opposing counsel and the expert to inspect and make written notes.

Counsel Wieczorek objected to the proposal of counsel Aicklen in regards to the supplemental confidentiality agreement and guidelines for the inspection of the un-redacted discovery.

COURT ENTERED ORDER that should there be additional dissemination of the un-redacted discovery beyond counsel and the expert present at the inspection, counsel Aicklen may bring the issues back to the Court. All issues shall be resolved as they arise.
