VS.			'n
STATE OF NEVADA,	{	Clerk of Supreme	Court
Respondent.	}

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Pursuant to Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure 3(i)(1)(B), Appellant may move for an extension of time to file an opening brief and appendix upon demonstration of good cause. To that end, the due date of the opening brief and appendix was December 31, 2018. There was one previous request for an extension. Mr. Lester M. Paredes, despite requesting the extension, left the firm and failed to inform anyone of the situation. In short, Appellant is now respectfully requesting an extension to file the opening brief and appendix because the associate who was assigned this appeal, Lester Paredes, Esq., is no longer with the office and failed to inform the office that he did not file the opening brief and appendix. Appellant is filing this request for an extension of thirty days, March 6, 2019.

CONCLUSION

Counsel is requesting an extension for thirty days and for the new due date to be on March 6, 2019. Delay was not intended to show disrespect to the Court, and counsel apologizes for any inconvenience caused.

DATED this 3rd day of February, 2019.
