

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

JOSHUA RAY HONEA, Appellant,
vs.
THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Respondent.

No. 76621

FILED

JAN 08 2020

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER

On September 27, 2019, this court entered an order remanding this appeal to the district court for the limited purpose of conducting an evidentiary hearing to determine whether juror misconduct occurred and, if so, whether any misconduct was prejudicial. The order directed the district court to conduct the evidentiary hearing and enter a written order within 90 days, and then directed the district court clerk to transmit the written order to this court within 5 days thereafter.

The district court clerk has filed a request, on behalf of the district court, for an extension of time to enter the written order after hearing and transmit it to this court.<sup>1</sup> Cause appearing, the request is granted as follows. NRAP 26(b)(1)(A). The district court and district court clerk shall have 14 days from the date of this order to enter the written order after hearing and transmit it to this court.

It is so ORDERED.

Pickering, C.J.

<sup>1</sup>It appears the district court conducted the evidentiary hearing on November 21, 2019.
