

1 After receiving responses from Tompkins and possibly Ellen Cotter regarding the 2 draft of what came to be Gould's December 27, 2017 email, GT attorney Bonner on 3 December 27, 2017 sent Gould an email, with a copy to GT attorney Ferrario, the "re" line 4 of which read "FW: for Bill Gould to sign," which RDI's privilege log also describes as 5 "communication regarding draft letter re Special Board Meeting." (See id., entries ending 6 in 59792 and 59937.) (Emphasis supplied.)

7 At his deposition, Gould identified the December 27, 2017 email³ which was sent 8 shortly before 8:00 p.m. Pacific by Marcia Wizelman, Gould's assistant, to Ellen Cotter, as 9 the notice ("call") by the five dismissed directors for "ratification" be raised and approved 10 at the next regularly scheduled board meeting. (See Ex. 5 hereto, at 530:2-10.) Gould 11 testified that he did not draft or edit the December 27, 2017 email, but rather that it was 12 drafted by GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario. (Id. at 530:18-25.)

13 However, none of the five other than Gould saw the December 27, 2017 email 14 (Dep. Ex. 527) prior to their depositions. McEachern testified with respect to Dep. Ex. 527 15 that "I don't recall having seen this before, but I do recall speaking in our [December 21, 16 2017] special committee [meeting] with Bill Gould and Judy Coddington about asking to 17 have this done." (See Ex. 7 hereto, at 544:3-8.) Coddington's testimony was to the same effect.
18 (See Ex. 4 hereto, at 231:7-232-5.) Wrotniak testified that he did not recall seeing Dep. Ex.
19 527 prior to preparing for his deposition. (See Ex. 10 hereto, at 91:17-92:4.) Kane also 20 testified that he had no recollection of seeing Dep. Ex. 527 prior to his deposition. (See Ex.
21 11 hereto, at 681:14-19.)

23 G. The December 27 Email was the Source of the "Ratification" Agenda for the 24 December 29, 2017 Board Meeting.

25 The text of December 27, 2017 email was used to prepare the corresponding 26 portion of the agenda for the December 29, 2017 board meeting. (See 5/2/18 hearing tr. at 27 56:25-57:5; Ex. 9 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, Ellen Cotter dep. tr. at 485:9-486:3.) The February

³ Ex. 6 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, marked as Dep. Ex. 527 and as Ex. P-1 from the 5/2/18 evidentiary hearing.

22, 2018 privilege log also identified an email exchange between Bonner with Tompkins, Ellen Cotter, Gould, and GT litigators regarding "Draft for your review," which was described as a "Communication regarding notice and agenda for upcoming board meeting," (See Ex. 1 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, entries ending in 60777 and 60780); see also id., entry ending in 60273, described as "[c]ommunication re draft board meeting materials.")

That agenda⁴ was distributed at approximately 5:30 p.m. Pacific on December 27, 2017. The draft minutes of the December 29, 2017 meeting⁵ reflect that they were prepared in part by copying from the agenda, which was prepared in relevant part based upon the December 27, 2017 email.

H. "Independent" Directors Approved "Ratification" to Terminate this Action.

1. Gould

Gould testified that the key factor in his vote to ratify the termination of Plaintiff as President and CEO of RDI was that this derivative litigation already had occurred. (Ex. 5 hereto, at 544:10-545:17.) He explained that he had voted against the termination of Plaintiff because the directors had given Plaintiff "a period of time to have his performance monitored, and then there would be an evaluation by the board. The actual termination occurred maybe a month before that. I viewed that as a mistake...[a]nd secondly, at the time I was worried... that would lead to extensive, expensive litigation, which turned out to be the case." He concluded that "the litigation has occurred, so I can take that factor out of my equation..." (Id.) Thus, Gould voted to "ratify" for reasons unrelated to the merits of the subjects of "ratification," and instead did so in furtherance of what he admitted was a "litigation strategy" for dealing with this derivative action. (Id. at 541:15-18.) Gould testified that "[m]y vote would be to terminate, to terminate the derivative action." (Id. at 547:17-19, 548:19-23.) He acknowledged that the reason he would vote to terminate this derivative action is that he was a defendant. (Id. at 548:24-549:4.)

⁴ The agenda was marked as Dep. Ex. 525, and is attached as Ex. 7 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion.

⁵ The draft minutes were marked as Dep. Ex. 526, and are attached as Ex. 21 hereto.

1 2. McEachern

2 With respect to his support for "ratification," McEachern testified as follows:

3 "And I believe we had -- I think we had a [Special Independent 4 Committee] call [on December 21, 2017] to talk about a couple of 5 issues that were still existing in this -- in this derivative case by Jim 6 Cotter, Jr., and we were trying to address them in a fashion to resolve 7 them."

8 (Ex. 7 hereto, McEachern 2/28/18 dep. tr. at 506:23-507:12.) (Emphasis supplied.)

9 When asked how the "ratification" vote would "resolve" issues remaining in this 10 derivative action, McEachern acknowledged that the "ratification" vote was to "cure any 11 issue anybody might think existed." (Id. at 507:13-508:2.) McEachern likewise testified 12 that he would "vote to dismiss the [derivative] lawsuit. (Id. at 526:14-21.)

13 3. Coddling

14 Coddling testified that the first time she learned of "ratification" was the 15 (telephonic) SIC meeting (of December 21, 2017). (Ex. 4 hereto, at 206:16-207:4.) When 16 asked if there was any discussion bearing upon the merits of the ratification decision as 17 distinct from the fact of ratification, Coddling testified there was no distinction in her 18 mind. (Id. at 205:8-207:14.)

19 Coddling identified Bonner and Ferrario and Quinn lawyers Tayback and Searcy 20 as lawyers who have spoken to the SIC. (Id. at 217:24-215:3.) She testified that the SIC has 21 never discussed engaging its own independent counsel. (Id.)

22 With respect to "ratification" of the decision to terminate Plaintiff as President and 23 CEO of RDI, Coddling admits that she does not know if the (May 21 and 29, 2015 and 24 June 12, 2015) minutes included as part of Exhibit 525, the Board package for the 25 December 29, 2017 meeting, are accurate. (Id. at 222:14-25.) She admitted that she was not 26 present and therefore does not know when Adams, Kane and McEachern determined to 27 vote to terminate Plaintiff as President and CEO. (Id.) Coddling also admitted that she 28 had never heard that Plaintiff was told at the May 29, 2015 meeting that the meeting 29 would reconvene telephonically at 6 p.m. and that, if he had not resolved his differences

1 with his sisters, they would proceed with the termination vote. (Id. at 229:20-230:2.)⁶

2 Coddington's understanding of what exactly she voted to ratify with respect to the 3 termination of Plaintiff was that RDI would not hire him as the CEO; and to ratify the 4 vote that was taken to not have him as the CEO. (Id. at 230:10-21.)

5 Prior to voting in favor of "ratification" with respect to the 100,000 share option, 6 Coddington had no discussions with Kane or Adams about what they did or did not do as 7 Compensation Committee members in determining to authorize the exercise of the 8 100,000 share option. (Id. at 258:6 – 15.)

9 As to her efforts generally to make an informed decision about the matters to be "ratified," 10 Coddington admitted she has not read any deposition transcript in this case other than her own and 11 has not looked at any deposition exhibits other than from her own deposition. (Id. at 230:3-9.)

12 In response to the question of whether she would vote to allow the derivative 13 lawsuit to proceed, she answered "I don't think it should go forward." (Id. at 234:12-17.)
14 She explained that she did not see the purpose of it or understand it. (Id.) When asked if her 15 decision to vote in favor of "ratification" reflected her view of this derivative action, Coddington 16 testified that she could not answer the question without disclosing an attorney client 17 communication. (Id. at 232:19-233:1.)

18 4. Wrotniak

19 Wrotniak first learned that "ratification" would be taken up at the December 29, 20 2017 Board meeting from a telephone call he and Coddington had with Ferrario and Bonner.
21 Wrotniak described the subject matter of the call as the agenda for the December 29 22 meeting and "protection for Reading." (Ex. 10 hereto, Wrotniak 3/6/18 dep. tr. at 41:2-42:25.)

24 ⁶ Prior to May 19, 2015, Adams and Kane (and McEachern) communicated to EC and/or between or among 25 themselves their respective agreement to terminate Plaintiff as President and CEO. (Ex. 13, Ellen Cotter 6/16/16 Dep.
26 Tr. 175:17-176:8; Ex. 8, Storey 2/12/16 Dep. Tr. at 96:5-97:4; 98:21-100:8, 100:14-101:11; Ex. 2, Adams 4/28/16 27 Dep. Tr. at 98:7-17, 98:18-99:22, Ex. 3, Adams 4/29/16 Dep. Tr. 368:15-370:5; Ex. 9, Storey 8/03/16 Dep. Tr. at 28 66:22-67:20; and Ex. 19 hereto, Dep. Ex. 131). Kane emailed Adams in which Kane agreed to second a motion for Plaintiff's termination, if necessary. (Ex. 16, Dep. Ex. 81.) Meanwhile, Gould and Storey objected that the directors had not undertaken an appropriate process regarding any decision to terminate Plaintiff as President and CEO, and requested that the directors meet prior to the May 21, 2015 meeting. (Ex. 20, Dep. Ex. 318, and Ex. 17 hereto, Dep Ex. 116.) Kane replied that there was no need to meet as "the die is cast." (Ex. 18, Dep. Ex. 117) The May 21, 2015 meeting was adjourned until May 29, 2015 at 11:00am. That meeting was then adjourned until 6:00pm that evening, and Plaintiff was told that he needed to resolve his disputes with his sister by then or he would be terminated. (Ex. 14 hereto, JJC Decl. ¶15).

1 The call lasted less than an hour and occurred in the days before the December 29 Board 2 meeting. (Id. at 44:3-22.) The May 31, 2018 privilege log includes entries that appear to 3 indicate that the call occurred on December 28, 2018. (Ex. 3 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, at entries 4 RDI 76466 and 76469.) Wrotniak testified that "[i]t was agreed" in that call that the 5 December 29 Board meeting would include "ratification." (See Ex. 10 hereto, at 87:7-22.)

6 Wrotniak received Dep. Ex. 525, the Board package for the December 29, 2017
7 (telephonic) Board meeting, at or about 8:30 p.m. Eastern on December 27, 2015. (Ex. 10, 8 at 39:17-40:19.) That was the first time he had seen the agenda. (Id.)

9 In explaining why he voted to ratify the termination of Plaintiff as President and 10 CEO of RDI, Wrotniak testified that he relied on the May 21 and 29, 2015 and June 12, 11 2015 Board minutes included in the Board package. (Id. at 71:18 – 72:6.) With respect to 12 the board minutes, he testified that he recalled noting "that approximately a week had 13 passed, giving everybody time to pause and to think[,]" but he admitted that he had no 14 information regarding whether anyone did so. (Id. at 62:20 – 63:20.)

15 As for what actually happened in connection with the termination of Plaintiff, 16 Wrotniak does not know. He does not recall ever learning that Adams, Kane, McEachern 17 and Ellen Cotter had agreed prior to the May 21, 2015 meeting to vote to terminate 18 Plaintiff. (Id. at 49:16 – 51:18.) For example, he testified he had never seen Dep. Ex. 81 19 (Ex. 16 hereto), the Kane May 18, 2015 email to Adams that memorializes their (prior) 20 agreement to vote to terminate Plaintiff. (Ex. 10, at 50:19-51:2.)

21 As to the May 21 and 29, 2015 and June 12, 2015 Board minutes that were the 22 stated basis for his "ratification" vote, Wrotniak admitted that he has no basis upon which 23 to determine whether those minutes are accurate or fairly depict what transpired. (Id. at 24 74:8-22.) (In fact, those minutes are rife with inaccuracies, as former director Tim Storey 25 confirmed.)⁷

27
28 ⁷ (Ex. 9 hereto, Storey 8/03/16 Dep. Tr. at 81:22 – 82:6; see also Ex. 15 hereto, Dep. Ex. 17 (Storey Handwritten notes from meeting))

1 Likewise, Wrotniak never heard or learned that, when the May 29 meeting 2 recessed to be reconvened telephonically at 6:00 p.m., Plaintiff was told that he needed to 3 resolve his disputes with his sisters, failing which the termination vote would proceed 4 when the meeting reconvened. (Ex. 10, at 65:10 – 18.)⁸ Wrotniak saw that the May 29 5 minutes referenced an agreement in principle, but he has never communicated with 6 anyone about that. (Id. at 66:3 – 13). Wrotniak does not know whether a vote to terminate 7 Plaintiff would have occurred had Plaintiff resolved his disputes with his sisters. (Id. at 8 67:3–13.) Wrotniak likewise has no understanding how the June 12 meeting came to be 9 scheduled. (Id. at 66:20–24.) Wrotniak does not recall ever talking to Gould about what 10 happened at the May 21 and 29, 2015 and June 12, 2015 meetings. (Id. at 65:19–66:2.)

11 With respect to his "ratification" of the use of RDI Class A nonvoting stock as 12 consideration for the exercise of the 100,000 share option, Wrotniak did not recall taking 13 any steps to inform himself other than reading Exhibit 525, the board package. (Id. at 14 79:3–7.) Wrotniak does not recall having heard anything about a pour over will or trust, 15 including whether it caused the 100,000 share option to be held or owned by the Trust 16 rather than the Estate. (Id., at 82:2–17.) Wrotniak testified that "that would have impacted 17 my investigation and thought process." (Id. at 82:18 – 83:10.) Wrotniak had no 18 communications with Kane or Adams about what they did in 2015 in response to the 19 request to exercise the 100,000 share option. (Id. at 83:11–1.)

20 As for his efforts generally to make an informed decision about the matters "ratified," 21 Wrotniak testified that he has not read any of the deposition transcripts in this derivative case and 22 has not talked with anyone about their deposition testimony. (Id. at 51:17–22)

23 Finally, Wrotniak testified that he has no understanding of the import or significance of 24 the two ratification votes that occurred on December 29, 2017 beyond what he was told by GT
25 lawyers Ferrario and Bonner. (Id. at 88:12–23.)

⁸ See evidence cited at footnote 3, supra.

1 5. Kane

2 Kane voted to "ratify" both matters raised at the December 29, 2017 board meeting.
3 (Ex. 11 hereto, Kane 4/20/18 dep. tr. at 686:11-13.) In doing in doing so, he voted in favor
4 of decisions he had made previously. (Id. at 686:14-16.) In voting to "ratify," Kane 5 acknowledged that he thought he was correct when he made the original decisions and 6 that he therefore voted for "ratification." (Id. 686:14-16.) With respect to how he would 7 vote on whether this derivative lawsuit should proceed or be terminated, Kane answered 8 "terminate it tomorrow, please sir." (Id., at 686:14-16.)

9 I. What Was Not "Ratified" Regarding the 100,000 Share Option.

10 1. Ownership of the 100,000 Share Option Remains an Issue in the Case.

11 Plaintiff contends Kane and Adams, in breach of their fiduciary duties, authorized 12 Ellen Cotter as an executor of the estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. (the "Estate") to exercise a 13 supposed option to acquire 100,000 shares of RDI class B voting stock (the "100,000 share 14 option") so that EC and MC could prevail in the event non-Cotter shareholders challenged 15 them at RDI's 2015 Annual Stockholder Meeting ("ASM"). (See Second Amended Complaint 16 ("SAC"), ¶¶ 10, 102 – 108.) More particularly for present purposes, Plaintiff claims that Kane 17 and Adams breached their fiduciary duties by failing to take proper steps to determine 18 ownership of that option. (SAC ¶¶10, 107.) As the Court knows from prior motion 19 practice, Kane and Adams failed to obtain independent advice, failed to obtain a judicial 20 decision authorizing the exercise, and failed to obtain answers to the questions Kane 21 posed regarding whether the Estate owned the 100,000 share option.⁹ Plaintiff claims that 22 these failures constitute breaches of fiduciary duty, independent of the use of RDI class A 23 nonvoting stock as consideration for the exercise of the 100,000 share option. (SAC ¶¶10, 24 102-108; Plaintiff's May 18, 2018 Pre-Trial Memo Section II.B.2)

25 As explained by Kane, both in emails produced in this case by defendants and in 26 his deposition testimony, the issue(s) the compensation committee members needed 27 resolved to authorize (or not authorize) the exercise of the 100,000 share option included

⁹ See Ex. 2 hereto, Adams 4/28/18 Dep. Tr. at 215:24-216:22, 218:3-219:2, 220:9-20; Ex. 6 hereto, Kane 5/2/16 Dep. Tr. at 94:19-95:20, 100:23-102:21, 104:13-23.

the threshold issue of whether that option was the property of the James J. Cotter, Sr. Trust (the "Trust"), as RDI's Proxy Statement in 2014 and years prior had stated and as Plaintiff contended, or whether it was the property of the Estate, as Ellen Cotter contended. In an April 17, 2015 email, Kane summarized the issue(s) as whether there was "any legal reason why Ellen [Cotter], as executor, could not exercise" the share option. (See E-mail from Kane to Tompkins, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, Tim Storey, and Guy Adams, Apr. 17, 2015, 22:44, Exhibit 16 to James Cotter Jr's Reply in support of Motion to Reconsider Order, at 186.) In another email, Kane identified a particular legal issue as whether, by operation of the Trust documents of James J. Cotter, Sr. (under California law), the 100,000 share option had poured over into his Trust upon his death. (See E-mail from Kane to Storey, Apr. 18, 2015, 12:26, Exhibit 19 to James Cotter Jr's Reply in support of Motion to Reconsider Order, at 194.)

As Plaintiff previously demonstrated and the Court found, Adams and Kane testified that the sole basis upon which they concluded that the Estate owned the 100,000 share option was the substance of the advice of counsel, including attorney Craig Tompkins ("Tompkins"), at the time a Company "consultant" (and former officer), and the law firm of GT (collectively, "Company Counsel"). (Ex. 2 hereto, at 215:24-216:9 and 220:9-221:2); Ex. 6 hereto, at 94:19-95:20, 100:23-102:21 & 104:13-23)

2. Only the Use of RDI Class A Nonvoting Stock as Consideration for the Exercise of the 100,000 Share Option Was "Ratified."

The December 27, 2017 email prepared by GT lawyers (and reviewed if not edited by Tompkins and Ellen Cotter) and sent by Gould's assistant on behalf of the five "independent" directors (Dep. Ex. 527), the agenda for the December 29, 2017 RDI board meeting (Dep. Ex. 525), and the minutes from that meeting (Dep. Ex. 526) each describe the "ratification" of the exercise of the 100,000 share option as concerning only the use of RDI class A nonvoting stock as a consideration. Each reads as follows:

"The ratification of the decision of the Compensation Committee, as outlined in the Minutes of the September 21, 2015 Meeting of the Compensation Committee, to permit the estate of James J. Cotter, Sr.

1 to use Class A nonvoting stock as a means of payment for the 2 exercise of the option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class B voting 3 stock of RDI."

4 III. ARGUMENT

5 A. The Ratification MSJ Is Untimely.

6 As described above, the Court previously denied the Ratification MSJ because the 7 failure to file it in a timely manner was not shown to be excused. Nothing in the Motion 8 provides an excuse for the failure to timely file the Ratification MSJ. The Motion does not 9 even contend, much less show, that the very same choreography, and the same 10 purported ratifications, could not have occurred in time to have been the subject of a 11 timely summary judgment motion.

12 On the contrary, it now is clear from McEachern's testimony described above that 13 defendants chose not to pursue "ratification" when doing so would have enabled them to 14 file a summary judgement motion based thereon in a timely manner, but instead "tabled" 15 it. The Motion therefore should be denied.

16 B. NRS 78.140 Does Not Apply to the Matters Purportedly "Ratified."

17 The Ratification MSJ argues that "independent" members of the RDI board 18 "ratified" prior conduct of certain of them in terminating Plaintiff as President and CEO 19 of RDI in 2015 and later in 2015 in authorizing the acceptance of RDI class A nonvoting 20 stock as consideration for the exercise of the 100,000 option. NRS 78.140 is the sole 21 authority upon which they rely.

22 However, under the plain meaning of NRS 78.140, it applies solely to transactions 23 between the corporation and interested directors and/or officers. NRS 78.140 provides in 24 relevant part as follows:

25 Restrictions on transactions involving interested directors or officers; 26 compensation of directors.

27 1. A contract or other transaction is not void or voidable solely because:

28 (a) The contract or transaction is between a corporation and:

(1) One or more of its directors or officers; or

(2) Another corporation, firm or association in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers or are financially interested;

(b) A common or interested director or officer:

(1) Is present at the meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof which authorizes or approves the contract or transaction; or

(2) Joins in the signing of a written consent which authorizes or approves the contract or transaction pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 78.315; or

(c) The vote or votes of a common or interested director are counted for the purpose of authorizing or approving the contract or transaction, if one of the circumstances specified in subsection 2 exists.

2. The circumstances in which a contract or other transaction is not void or voidable pursuant to subsection 1 are:

(a) The fact of the common directorship, office or financial interest is known to the board of directors or committee, and the directors or members of the committee, approve or ratify the contract or transaction in good faith.

NRS.78.140 (emphasis supplied).

NRS 78.140 has no application here, as the plain language of the statute, italicized above, shows. Clearly, the purpose of NRS 78.140 is to create a path for the approval of director or officer self-interested transactions with the corporation that might otherwise be void or voidable. The specific language of subsection (1)(a) makes clear that, for the statute to apply, there must be a contract or transaction between a corporation and one or more of its directors or officers (or corporations with which they are affiliated in certain ways). Only that situation triggers the remaining provisions of Section 1, which are qualified by section (1)(a) and must be read in conjunction with section (1)(a). The "contract or transaction" in subsections (1)(b) and (1) (c) indisputably refers to the contract or transaction described in (1)(a), which is a contract or transaction between a

1 corporation and one or more of its directors or officers. Such a transaction is not void or 2 voidable, and the participation of the interested directors or officers as contemplated by 3 subsections (1)(b) and (1)(c) is permitted, if the board or committee ratifies the contract or 4 transaction in good faith as set forth in subsection (2).

5 Delaware's substantially similar counterpart, DGCL §144, likewise is limited to 6 contracts or transactions between a corporation and its directors and officers (or other 7 corporations in which its directors or officers have a financial interest):

9 (a) No contract or transaction between a corporation and 1 or more of its 10 directors or officers, or between a corporation and any other corporation . . . in 11 which 1 or more of its directors or officers, are directors or officers, or have a 12 financial interest, shall be void or voidable [a] solely for this reason, or [b] solely 13 because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the 14 board or committee which authorizes the contract or transaction, or [c] solely 15 because any such director's or officer's votes are counted for such purpose, if:

16 (1) The material facts as to the director's or officer's relationship or interest and 17 as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the board of 18 directors or the committee, and the board or committee in good faith 19 authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of 20 the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than 21 a quorum; or

23 (3) The contract or transaction is fair as to the corporation as of the time it is 24 authorized, approved or ratified, by the board of directors, a committee or the 25 stockholders.

26 See, e.g., Cinerama, Inc. v. Technicolor, Inc., 663 A.2d 1156, 1169 (Del. 1995) (§ 144 "deals 27 with the related problem of the conditions under which a corporate contract can be 28 rendered 'un-voidable' solely by reason of a director interest"). There is no basis under either NRS 78.140 or the parallel Delaware statute for applying the statute other than to a contract or transaction between the corporation and one or more directors or officers.

As the Ratification MSJ itself asserts, the purported ratifications were not of a contract or transaction between RDI and the Cotter sisters (or defendant Guy Adams).
The first subject of "ratification" was the 2015 board vote to terminate Plaintiff as CEO of RDI. While, of course, the Cotter sisters and therefore Guy Adams were interested in the 1 outcome of the termination vote, the matter "ratified" did not involve a contract or 2 transaction between any of them and RDI.

3 The same is true with respect to the purported ratification of the 2015 decision by 4 Kane and Adams to authorize acceptance of Class A non-voting stock as consideration 5 for the exercise of the 100,000 share option. By its terms, the "ratification" was not of the 6 underlying option agreement (between the Company and James J Cotter, Sr.). Nor did 7 "ratification" concern the validity (or ownership) of that assumed contractual right.
8 Rather, the "ratification" addressed only the subject of the consideration for the exercise.

9 Thus, the subject of the "ratifications" was not a contract or transaction between 10 RDI and its directors or officers. NRS 78.140 therefore is inapplicable.

11 Even if, arguendo, NRS 78.140 were to apply, that does not mean that the so-called 12 "ratification" was effective here. First, NRS 78.140(2)(a) requires that any decision 13 pursuant to that statutory provision be made by independent directors acting in "good 14 faith." As demonstrated herein, there are at a minimum disputed issues of material fact 15 with respect to whether the "ratifying" directors were independent, and whether they 16 acted in good faith and on an informed basis.

17 Second, the Ratification MSJ simply assumes without explanation or authority that 18 actionable conduct can be cured by "ratification." However, it cites absolutely no 19 authority for such proposition. Shoen v. SAC Holding Corp., 122 Nev. 621, 137 P.3d 1171
20 (2006), which it cites, is not authority for such a proposition. In Shoen, the Nevada 21 Supreme Court merely cited NRS 78.140 as "governing interested director transactions."
22 Shoen, 122 Nev. at 636 n. 34, 137 P.3d at 1181 n. 34. Defendants in Shoen did not assert 23 ratification as a defense or rely on NRS 78.140. And, in contrast to the so-called 24 ratification here, Shoen did not involve a board's "ratification" of a prior decision by the 25 board or board committee. Rather, Shoen involved a web of interested business dealings 26 and transactions between the corporation (Amerco) and the SAC entities that were 27 controlled by certain directors of Amerco. Thus, Defendants fail to cite any case applying 28 NRS 78.140, let alone a case applying it outside of a contract or transaction between a corporation and its director or officer

1 For the reasons explained above, NRS 78.140 by its terms does not provide for 2 curing actionable conduct; it merely provides for authorization of interested director 3 contracts or transactions by independent directors acting in good faith on an informed 4 basis.

6 C. The Moving Party Bears the Burdens of Proof.

7 1. The Moving Party Bears the Burden of Proving That the "Independent" 8 Directors "Resorted in Good Faith to an Informed Decision-Making Process."

9 Although the actions of the "independent" directors have been depicted for 10 litigation purposes as "ratification," they are the type of actions taken by a special 11 litigation committee seeking dismissal of a derivative action. The reason that the 12 Ratification MSJ does not refer to the "independent" directors as such is because their acts 13 and omissions over the few days in which the "ratification" "process" was executed 14 evidence a wholesale failure to perform a good faith and thorough investigation leading 15 to good faith and informed "ratification" decisions.

16 Where, as here, relief is sought based on the conduct of a subset or committee of a 17 board of directors to whom or which decision-making authority has been delegated, the 18 movant bears the burden of proving that those directors conducted a good faith and 19 thorough investigation. Jacksonville Police and Fire Pension Fund v. Brokaw (In re DISH 20 Network Derivative Litig.), 401 P.3d 1081, 1088 (Nev. 2017). In assessing "whether an 21 individual director or Board of Directors acted in good faith and, in turn whether 22 protection under the business judgment rule is available[.]" the Court may and should 23 conduct an "inquiry into the procedural indicia of whether the directors resorted in good 24 faith to an informed decision making process." Wynn Resorts, Ltd. v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 25 399 P. 3d. 334, 343 (Nev. 2017 (citing WLR Foods, Inc. v. Tyson Foods, Inc., 857 F. Supp. 492, 26 494 (W.D. Va. 1994)). This includes, among other things, "inquiry into the identity and 27 qualifications of any sources of information or advice sought which bear upon the 28 decision reached, the circumstances surrounding selection of the sources [and] the general topics ... of the information sought are imparted..." Id.

1 Moreover, evidence that "the investigation [by a special committee of supposedly 2 independent directors] has been so restricted in scope, so shallow execution, or otherwise 3 so pro forma or halfhearted as to constitute a pretext or sham... would raise questions of 4 good faith or conceivably fraud which would never be shielded by [the business 5 judgment] doctrine." In re DISH Network Derivative Litig., 401 P.3d at 1092 (citing and 6 quoting Auerbach v. Bennett, 47 N.Y.2d 619, 419 N.Y.S.2d 920, 393 N.E.2d 994, 1003 (1979)).

7 2. The Moving Party Also Bears the Burden of Proving the 8 Independence of the "Ratifying" Directors

9 A board of directors may "delegate to a committee of disinterested directors the 10 board's power to control corporate [derivative] litigation." Kaman v. Kemper Fin. Servs., 11 Inc., 500 U.S. 90, 102 (1991). Such a committee typically is called a special litigation 12 committee or an "SLC." Beam v. Stewart, A.2d 1040, 1055 (Del. 2004).

13 Where, as here, that has occurred, the moving party also bears the burden of 14 proving the independence of board members whose actions and/or decisions serve as the 15 basis for the relief sought. In re DISH Network Derivative Litig., 401 P.3d at 1088, 1089.
16 Therefore, the District Court "should not presume [a special litigation committee] to be 17 independent nor require the derivative plaintiff to bear the burden of proof" with respect 18 to the issue of independence. Id. at 1089.

19 Put differently, the party seeking dismissal of a derivative action based upon the 20 actions or recommendations of a board committee "bears the burden of persuasion" and 21 must "demonstrate that no material factual question exists regarding... independence [of 22 the committee members]." In re Oracle Corp. Derivative Litig., 624 A.2d 917, 920 (Del. Ch.
23 2003). The test of committee member independence is whether connections between 24 them and the directors who are the subject of the committee's decision "would weigh on 25 the mind of a reasonable special litigation committee member." Id. at 947. If so, those 26 connections "generate a reasonable doubt about the [committee members'] impartiality 27 because they suggest that material considerations other than the best interests of [the 28 corporation] could have influenced the[ir] inquiry and judgments." Id. Thus, the District

1 Court must "assess whether any improper influences prevented the SLC from impartially 2 considering the merits of a derivative suit before recommending it be dismissed." In re 3 DISH Network Derivative Litig., 401 P.3d at 1090.

4 Unlike the motions for partial summary judgment, in which Plaintiff bore the 5 burden of proof with respect to the issue of the independence of individual directors who 6 sought to invoke the business judgment rule, here the moving party bears the burden of 7 "establishing... independence by a yardstick that must be 'like Caesar's wife -- above 8 reproach.'" Beam v. Stewart, 845 A.2d 1040, 1055 (Del. 2004).

9 For the foregoing reasons, this Court's prior determinations that Plaintiff had 10 failed to raise disputed issues of material fact regarding the independence of the five 11 directors with respect to the matters that were the subject of motions for partial summary 12 judgment does not and cannot excuse the moving party here from satisfying its burden 13 of proof with respect to their independence. Simply put, both the burdens of proof and 14 the substantive standards applicable here are different than those which were applicable 15 to the motions for partial summary judgment.

16 Additionally, if the Court does not deny the Ratification MSJ, Plaintiff is entitled to 17 and hereby requests an evidentiary hearing with respect to both issues as to which 18 defendants bear the burden of proof, namely, independence and a thorough 19 investigation conducted in good faith. Shoen, 122 Nev. at 645, 137 P.3d at 1187. As the 20 record (including from May 2, 2018 evidentiary hearing) makes clear, questions of fact 21 and credibility, the latter on the part of both the "independent" directors and their 22 conflicted counsel, predominate.

23 D. The Ratification MSJ Satisfies None of the Burdens of Proof It Bears.

24 As demonstrated below, the Ratification MSJ fails to satisfy the burdens of 25 proving that there are no disputed issues of material fact with respect to both (i) the 26 independence of the "ratifying" directors, and (ii) whether those directors who approved 27 "ratification" as a result of a good faith, thorough investigation that enabled them to 28 make a good faith, informed decision.

1 1. Use of Company Counsel Establishes a Lack of Independence, as a 2 Matter of Law and Fact

3 Courts repeatedly hold that the use of company counsel, whether by special 4 committees or other supposedly independent directors, raises questions about the 5 independence of the advisors and, thereby, the committee and the individual directors.
6 Gesoff v. IIC Industries Inc., 902 A.2d 1130, 1147 (Del. Ch. 2006), subsequent proceedings, 7 2006 Del. Ch. LEXIS 161, 2006 WL 2521441 (Del. Ch. Aug. 22, 2006) ("[A] special 8 committee's decision to use the legal and financial advisors already advising the parent 9 'alone rais[ed] questions regarding the quality and independence of the counsel and 10 advice received")(citing In re Tele-Communications, Inc. Shareholders Litig., 2005 WL 11 3642727 (Del. Ch. Dec. 21, 2005)); see generally William T. Allen, Independent Directors in 12 MBO Transactions: Are They Fact or Fantasy?, 45 BUS. LAW. 2055 (1990). Thus, courts reject 13 determinations made by directors based on advice of counsel where such advice may be 14 tainted by a conflict of interest. In re Oracle Securities Litig., 829 F. Supp. 1176, 1189 (N. D.
15 Cal. 1993) (a board committee reliance on the inherently biased advice of in-house 16 counsel made the committee's determination "worthless.")

17 In In re Par Pharm., Inc. Derivative Litig., 750 F. Supp. 641 (S.D.N.Y. 1990), the 18 nominal defendant company moved to dismiss after a special litigation committee 19 conducted an investigation and recommended dismissal, and the supposedly 20 independent members of the company's board of directors accepted that 21 recommendation and voted to dismiss. The court denied the motion to dismiss, in part 22 because "the Committee failed to retain independent counsel," "but instead relied upon 23 the firm [that represented the Company] and its board in th[at] litigation." Id. at 644, 647.
24 The court described that counsel as having a "conflict of interest . . ." Id. at 647. With 25 respect to the jurisprudence, the Court observed that "[b]oth New York and Delaware 26 law contemplate that a special litigation committee be represented by independent 27 counsel." Id. (citing Spiegel v. Buntrock, 571 A.2d 767, 772 (Del. 1990); Kaplan v. Wyatt, 484
28 A.2d 501, 511 (Del. Ch. 1984), aff'd, 499 A.2d 1184 (Del. 1985); Byers v. Baxter, 69 A.D. 2d 343, 348, 419 N.Y.S. 2d 497, 500 (App. Div. 1979)).

1 Here, the "independent" directors have relied entirely on "advice" from Company 2 Counsel, who face actual, pervasive and debilitating conflicts arising from the fact that 3 the Company that employs and pays them is controlled by the Cotter sisters.

4 As to Craig Tompkins, RDI's General Counsel who reports to Ellen Cotter and to 5 whom GT attorneys report, Kane testified that he (Kane) understood that Tompkins was 6 on the side of Ellen Cotter in her disputes with Plaintiff, as well as that he (Kane) was of 7 the view that "Tompkins always acted in his own self-interest." (See Ex. 12 hereto, Kane 8 dep. 6/9/16 dep. tr. at 427:3-9, 428:2-9 and 432:13-25.) In the former regard, Kane at 9 deposition explained that the words he used in an email stating "according to [Ellen 10 Cotter], Craig is also on the 'team[,]'" meant that Tompkins "was [with] Ellen and 11 Margaret versus Jim." (See Ex. 6 hereto Kane 5/2/16 dep. tr. at 176:18-177:1, and Ex. 17 to 12 JJC 6/8/18 Motion (Dep. Ex. 105))

13 As to GT, GT lawyers ignored the conflicts with which they are faced and 14 consistently acted to further the interests of the individuals who control the Company 15 and employ them as Company counsel, both in this action and in the board room.

16 GT as counsel of record for nominal defendant RDI has acted vigorously to 17 terminate this case, thereby protecting and pursuing the interests of the Cotter sisters.
18 This began with a contrived motion to compel arbitration (following the filing of a 19 contrived arbitration) and included, among other things, motions to dismiss and motions 20 for summary judgment asserting bases available only to individual defendants.

21 During the pendency of this action, GT repeatedly has "advised" "independent" 22 directors, who have acted in reliance on GT's advice in making decisions that benefit 23 Ellen and Margaret Cotter, who control RDI, which employs and pays GT. For example, 24 GT in 2015 "advised" Kane and Adams, to work around rather than address the issue of 25 ownership of the so-called 100,000 share option.

26 With respect to the purported "ratification," GT lawyers actually viewed their 27 client as the Company. GT attorney Bonner testified as follows:

1 BY MR. FERRARIO:

2 Q Mr. Bonner, you currently work at Greenberg Traurig; correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And is a company called Reading International a client?

5 A Yes. It's a client of our firm.

6 Q Okay. And are you the principal contact for that client?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. And in your capacity as a lawyer for that client do you get involved with something called the special independent committee of the board of directors of Reading International, Inc.?

9 A Yes.

10 (See Ex. 15 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, 5/2/18 hearing tr. at 19:3-16.) (Emphasis supplied.)

11 In view of the foregoing, there can be little if any doubt that "ratification" is a 12 "litigation strategy" hatched by GT lawyers for use in this derivative action for the benefit 13 of defendants Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter. As described above, GT lawyers cleared 14 "ratification" with Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Tompkins before "advising" SIC 15 committee members Gould, McEachern and Coddington at the (previously concealed) 16 telephonic SIC meeting on December 21, 2017 that and how to use "ratification" as a 17 "litigation strategy." Next, GT lawyers provided Tompkins and Ellen Cotter drafts of 18 what came to be Gould's December 27, 2017 email on behalf of the "independent" 19 directors requesting that the two "ratification" matters be approved at the board meeting 20 on December 29, 2017. Presumably in an effort to avoid the open issue of the reliance of 21 Adams and Kane on GT's 2015 "advice" as the sole basis for their conclusion regarding 22 ownership of the 100,000 share option, the December 27, 2017 email omits that issue.

23 Most recently, GT lawyers have withheld evidence in discovery, the effect of 24 which was to conceal the actual "ratification" "process." Nevertheless, the May 30 and 31 25 supplemental productions and (facially inadequate) privilege logs reveal that 26 "ratification" was a "litigation strategy" approved by Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and 27 Tompkins, and that the "independent" directors simply did what GT lawyers told them 28 to do. To that end, GT lawyers belatedly prepared the minutes of the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting, but excluded the portion of the meeting concerning "ratification." They also failed to produce or log those minutes.

1 Now, the lawyers who "advised" the "independent" directors are asserting 2 attorney-client privilege, on behalf of the Company, with respect to their 3 communications with those directors in an effort to render the actual basis for the 4 "independent" directors' "ratification" decisions ("advice" from conflicted counsel) 5 undiscoverable. Tellingly, in the face of such conflicts, GT has not advised the 6 "independent" directors to seek advice from independent counsel.

7 As the foregoing shows, the record before the Court shows that the "independent" 8 directors lacked independence or, at a minimum, raises disputed issues of material fact 9 about their independence that require denial of the Ratification MSJ.

10 2. Other Factors Also Show a Lack of Independence

11 Courts have identified a number of factors to be considered in determining the 12 independence of directors as members of special litigation committees. Several of those 13 factors weigh decidedly against a determination of independence.

14 One such factor is whether the directors were members of the corporation's board 15 at the time of the alleged wrongdoing. In re KLA-Tencor Corp. Shareholder Derivative Litig., 16 No. C06-03445 JW Slip Op. at 5, 7 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 11, 2008) (finding a lack of 17 independence because one of two committee members was a member of the board 18 during the alleged wrongdoing). Gould, McEachern and Kane each were members of the 19 Board at the time of all complained of actions, and Coddington and Wrotniak were board 20 members at the time of several of the complained of actions.

21 Another factor is whether the directors participated in the alleged wrongdoing.
22 Grynberg v. Farmer, 1980 WL 1456, at *6 (D. Colo. Oct. 8, 1980). A similar factor is whether 23 they approved the conduct or transaction involving the alleged wrongdoing. KLA- 24 Tencor, Slip Op. at 5, 7. Here both are the case for each of the five insofar as he or she was 25 a Board member at the time.

26 And, critically here, whether the committee received advice from independent 27 counsel also is a factor. In re Par Pharm. Inc. Derivative Litig., 750 F. Supp. at 644 (denying 28 motion to dismiss the derivative action where the committee "did not obtain independent legal counsel but instead relied upon... counsel for [the nominal defendant corporation]

1 and its Board in this litigation.") As discussed above, none sought or obtained the advice 2 of independent counsel but, instead, accepted and relied on the advice of conflicted 3 Company Counsel.

4 Finally, statements "conflating the SLC and the Company" also weigh against a 5 finding of independence. KLA-Tencor, Slip Op. at 5, 7. Here, there are statements by 6 Company Counsel (Bonner's testimony identifying RDI as his client in his dealings with 7 the SIC) that do so, and statements by directors (e.g., Wrotniak's "protection for Reading" 8 statement) that do so.

9 In view of this evidence, there exists at a minimum disputed issues of material fact 10 regarding their independence, which requires denial of the Ratification MSJ.

11 3. The Evidence Shows an Inadequate if Not Fraudulent Process
12 Undertaken in Bad faith in Furtherance of a Preordained Result

13 Discovery to date, including as described above, shows that the "ratification" 14 scheme was conceived by GT lawyers, who first obtained approval from defendants 15 Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter to pursue it, and who then "advised" "independent" 16 directors to "ratify" certain conduct the Court previously found to be actionable.
17 Dutifully "advised," SIC members Gould, Coddington and McEachern on December 21, 2017 18 each agreed after a brief telephonic discussion claimed privileged to approve 19 "ratification." Next, GT attorneys worked with Tompkins and EC to draft the December 20 27, 2017 email Gould sent, purportedly on behalf of the "independent" directors, to 21 approve "ratification" of two matters. With respect to that email, Gould had no input into 22 the contents, and the other four did not even see it until their depositions in this case.
23 Wrotniak first heard about "ratification" on December 27 or 28, 2017, when he spoke 24 telephonically with GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario, who told him that "ratifying" prior 25 conduct would be on the agenda for the December 29, 2017 board meeting. Kane's 26 agreement was foregone, because it was his decisions that were being "ratified." As 27 Gould acknowledged at his deposition, "ratification" is a "litigation strategy." The 28 evidence shows that the preordained purpose of that "litigation strategy," which was

1 hastily carried out by "independent" directors in reliance on advice from conflicted 2 counsel.

3 When combined with the ongoing efforts of defense counsel to conceal what 4 actually transpired with respect to the purported ratifications, the evidence presents a 5 clear picture of a sham or fraudulent exercise undertaken to reach a preordained 6 conclusion, namely, "ratification" as a "litigation strategy" intended to bring about the 7 dismissal of this derivative action.

8 Thus, defendants have failed to bear the burden of showing that the 9 "independent" directors engaged in a good faith, informed decision-making process 10 leading to good faith, informed, disinterested and independent decisions. The 11 Ratification MSJ therefore must be denied, for this reason alone.

12 E. "Ratification" Did not Address All of the Issues Arising from the 13 Authorization of the Exercise of the 100,000 Share Option

14 As described above, and as admitted by Kane at the time, a threshold issue in 15 determining whether to authorize the exercise of the 100,000 share option was whether 16 that option was owned by the Estate. However, the "ratification" is confined to the use of 17 RDI class A nonvoting stock as consideration for the exercise. Thus, the purported 18 ratification does not eliminate the authorization of the exercise of the 100,000 share 19 option as an issue in this case.

20 F. Plaintiff is Entitled to Rule 56(f) Relief

21 Where a plaintiff properly identifies additional facts necessary to oppose a 22 summary judgment motion and seeks additional time to obtain that discovery, summary 23 judgment is improper. Aviation Ventures, Inc. v. Joan Morris, Inc. 121 Nev. 113, 117-18, 110
24 P.3d 59, 62 (2005). Where it is "unclear whether genuine issues of material fact exists," a 25 Rule 56(f) continuance allows for "proper development of the record." Aviation Ventures, 26 121 Nev. at 115, 110 P.3d at 60. Here, due to the delay of Responding Parties in providing 27 court-ordered discovery, Plaintiff through no fault of his own is not yet in a position to 28 present all "facts essential to justify the party's opposition." For the reasons set forth

1 above and in the accompanying declaration of Mark G. Krum, Plaintiff is entitled to 2 NRCP 56(f) relief.

3 IV. CONCLUSION

4 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Ratification 5 MSJ should be denied.

Nominal Defendant.) Hearing Time: 8:30 a.m.

I, Mark G. Krum, declare:

1. I am an attorney with Yurko, Salvesen & Remz, P.C., counsel for plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. ("Plaintiff"). I make this declaration based upon personal knowledge, except where stated upon information and belief, and as to that information, I believe it to be true. If called upon to testify as the contents of this declaration, I am legally competent to testify to its contents in a court of law.

2. The Motion for Summary Judgment filed on June 1, 2018 by defendants Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Guy Adams (the "Ratification MSJ") is predicated on the assumption that, because the Court found no disputed issues of material fact with respect to the disinterestedness of certain directors for the purposes of the matters raised in partial summary judgment motions argued on December 11, 2017, those directors therefore are disinterested and independent for all purposes, including for the purposes of the "ratification" on which the Ratification MSJ is based.

3. The Motion for summary judgment regarding demand futility filed on June 4, 2018 by counsel of record for nominal defendant Reading International, Inc. ("RDI") is predicated on the same assumption.

4. Because disinterestedness and independence are questions of fact, Plaintiff is entitled to discovery, including regarding the "ratification" "process," as the Court found on January 8, 2018 and ruled on May 2, 2018, when the Court ordered RDI and former defendants (the "Responding Parties") to provide additional documents and information with respect to "ratification" and matters related thereto, described below.

5. Likewise, Plaintiff is entitled to discovery regarding whether the "ratifying" directors acted in good faith and on an informed basis, which also are questions of fact. That discovery likewise concerns the "ratification" "process."

6. On or about January 12, 2018, Plaintiff issued subpoenas to the Responding Parties and document requests and interrogatories to the remaining defendants. By the end of February 2018, all but Gould purported to have produced or listed on a privilege log all responsive documents. Additionally, the remaining defendants provided

1 interrogatory responses.

2 7. As the Court knows from prior motion practice, Counsel for Plaintiff
3 learned for the first time at depositions of SIC members Doug McEachern, Judy Coddling
4 and William Gould of a meeting of the "Special Independent Committee" of the RDI 5 board of directors (the "SIC") in December 2017 at which "ratification" had been 6 discussed and "formally" approved.. As the Court also knows from prior motion 7 practice, counsel for Plaintiff specifically requested that counsel for the Responding 8 Parties produce minutes of that December 2017 SIC meeting.

9 8. Finally, on or about April 12, 2018, minutes of what turned out to be a 10 December 21, 2017 SIC meeting were produced for the first time. However, they were 11 produced in a wholly redacted form.

12 9. As a result of the foregoing, among other efforts on the part of the 13 remaining defendants and Responding Parties to frustrate Plaintiff's ability to obtain 14 discovery regarding the "ratification" "process," Plaintiff filed a motion for "omnibus 15 relief." That motion was heard on April 30, 2018, at which time the Court ordered an 16 evidentiary hearing, which occurred on May 2. At the end of the May 2 hearing, the 17 Court granted Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief in part, ordering that the Responding 18 Parties produce and/or log all documents responsive to three categories of information, 19 as follows:

20 THE COURT: ... So three categories, [i] the 12/21 special 21 committee meeting, whether its scheduling, content, scope, 22 minutes, whatever, related to that meeting; [ii] P-1 [the 12/27/18 23 email], whether its subject matter, preparation, drafting, circulation, 24 how we're going to get it on the agenda for the 12/29 meeting; and the third item is [iii] any discussion of ratification, not limited by time.

25 (5/2/18 hearing tr. at 79:6-13.) (Emphasis supplied.)

26 10. The Court on May 2, 2018 also granted the remaining defendants motion to 27 file what is the now filed Ratification MSJ, but instructed them not to file it until after 28 they had complied with the Court's May 2, 2018 order and also had afforded counsel for Plaintiff sufficient time to review and analyze the documents and privilege logs ordered

1 produced, and to then determine whether Plaintiff needed further discovery. In this 2 regard, the Court stated as follows:

3 THE COURT: Yeah. So I want Mr. Krum, instead of me
4 facing a 56(f) issue at the time you file that motion, he's ready to file 5 his opposition, I want him to have the opportunity to get these 6 documents with the privilege logs, look at them, and then have a 7 period of time he can decide

8 whether he needs to take additional depositions and, if you 9 fight about it, for me to rule on it. So I'm going to grant your request 10 even though I am hesitant to do so under the circumstances, but I 11 don't want to be in a position where you guys slow play them and 12 then I'm sitting back here again that he didn't get the stuff

13 (5/2/18 hearing tr. at 81:6-16.)

14 11. On June 1 and 4, 2018, respectively, the remaining defendants filed the 15 renewed Ratification MSJ and RDI file the renewed Demand Futility MSJ. As described 16 below, what the Court sought to avoid has happened. The remaining defendants and the 17 Responding Parties have slow played Plaintiff, whose counsel has not an opportunity to 18 do what he is entitled to do and what the Court ordered he be afforded the opportunity 19 to do.

20 12. On May 30 and 31, 2018, Greenberg Traurig ("GT"), for RDI and/or for the 21 Responding Parties, made supplemental productions of thousands of pages of 22 documents and produced two (facially deficient) voluminous, supplemental privilege 23 logs. Dozens upon dozens of documents relating to one or more of the foregoing three 24 categories have been withheld based on claims of attorney-client privilege, the work 25 product doctrine, or both, as reflected by entries on those privilege logs. As 26 demonstrated in a separate motion, Plaintiff seeks the production of those documents, 27 asserting that those documents are not privileged and are not properly claimed to be 28 subject to work product protection and, even if they were subject to proper claims of privilege and/or work product protection, both were waived.

13. However, even if the documents listed on the May 30 and 31, 208 privilege logs are properly withheld based on claims of attorney-client privilege, work product or both, they must be properly logged so counsel for Plaintiff is able to use the entries on the

1 privilege logs for the various purposes for which they are required, including to examine 2 witnesses (who claim not to recall) to learn what communications were had between and 3 among the counsel for RDI, the remaining defendants and/or the Responding Parties 4 with respect to the three subject matters of the Court's May 2, 2018 order. Because the 5 May 30 and 31, 2018 privilege logs suffer from several facial deficiencies, including the 6 failure to identify each sender and recipient by name, and the failure to describe the 7 subject matter of the documents logged in terms that are not so general as to be 8 meaningless, counsel for Plaintiff is unable to use those logs even identify the subjects 9 matter of dozens upon dozens of logged communication, much less examine witnesses to 10 confirm the subject matters and/or the participants.

11 14. On June 6, 2018, I met and conferred telephonically with counsel for RDI
12 and the remaining defendants and the Responding Parties (except for Gould) regarding 13 the May 30 and 31 document productions and privilege logs. On June 8, counsel for RDI 14 advised that the responding parties would be making supplemental productions of 15 documents and would provide a revised privilege log.

16 15. On Saturday, June 9, 2018, GT made a further supplemental production of 17 documents, producing over 2000 pages of documents. Counsel for Plaintiff has not 18 completed the review of those documents, but it appears that they are largely if not 19 entirely draft SEC filings and email communications regarding those drafts.

20 16. About the close of business on June 11, 2018, GT made another 21 supplemental production of documents, the total volume of which is in excess of 3000
22 pages. The documents were password protected and counsel for Plaintiff was not 23 provided with password until June 12. Faced with deadlines for oppositions to the 24 recently renewed summary judgement motions, counsel for Plaintiff did not review those 25 documents yesterday or today.

26 17. Last night, at approximately 8 p.m. Pacific on Tuesday, June 12, 2018, GT 27 made another supplemental production of documents, the total volume of which appears 28 to be over 1000 pages. Counsel for Plaintiff has not yet reviewed these documents.

1 18. Also on June 12, 2018, GT attorney Kara Hendricks advised that a 2 supplemental and/or superseding privilege log would be produced today, June 13, 2018.
3 It has not been produced at the time of completion of this declaration..

4 19. Counsel for Plaintiff will need time to complete the review of documents
5 produced on June 9, 2018, and to commence and complete the review of documents 6 produced on June 11 and 12, 2018. Counsel for Plaintiff likewise will be time to review a 7 supplemental privilege log, if and when it is produced. If the course of discovery is any 8 indication, such a log is unlikely to cure all of the deficiencies from which the May 30 and 9 31, 2018 logs suffered. Even if it did so, Plaintiff has not had the opportunity to use the 10 that log for any purpose, or the May 30 and 31, 2018 logs to further depose any of Ellen 11 Cotter, Craig Tompkins, Margaret Cotter, William Gould, Judy Coddington, Michael 12 Wrotniak and/or Ed Kane, each of whom was (according to documents produced on May 13 30 and 31, 2018 and/or entries in the May 30 and 31, 2018 privilege logs) party to 14 communications that concerned one or more of the three subjects of the Court's May 2, 15 2018 order.

16 20. Simply put, the remaining defendants and the Responding Parties have not 17 complied with the Court's May 2, 2018 order, delayed compliance or both, as a result of 18 which Plaintiff has not had an opportunity to obtain the discovery the Court ordered 19 Plaintiff was entitled to obtain. As indicated by Plaintiff's description of certain of the 20 documents produced on May 30 and 31, 2008, as well as by Plaintiff's description of 21 certain entries on the May 30 and 31, 2018 privilege logs, Plaintiff reasonably expects that 22 additional discovery (without regard to whether the Court orders the production of 23 additional documents) will evidence the contemporaneous involvement of defendants 24 Ellen Cotter and/or Margaret Cotter, along with RDI counsel Tompkins, in the 25 "ratification" "process," together with extensive disclosure to Ellen Cotter and to 26 Tompkins of matter supposedly privileged and confidential vis-à-vis at least the 27 remaining defendants. Plaintiff also reasonably anticipates this discovery will reveal not 28 only with whom each of the supposedly independent directors communicated about

1 “ratification” and the other particular matters that were the subject of the Court’s May 2, 2 2018 order, but also will evidence what they did and did not do in determining to 3 approve “ratification.” All such evidence will go to the question of the independence of 4 the directors whose independence is a basis for the Ratification MSJ and the summary 5 judgment motion based on demand futility, and/or to the question of whether those 6 directors acted in good faith and on an informed basis in approving “ratification.”

Reading International Announces Trial Court Decision to Appoint Temporary Trustee Ad Litem to Obtain Offers to Purchase RDI Voting Stock in James J.
Cotter, Sr., Voting Trust

Culver City, California, - (BUSINESS WIRE) – February 23, 2018 – Reading International, Inc. (the “Company”) today announced that the California Superior Court has issued a statement of decision (the “Statement of Decision”) in the matter In Re: James V. Cotter, Living Trust, Ellen Marie Cotter, Margaret Cotter, Petitioners, vs. James J. Cotter, Jr., Respondent, Case No: BP159755 (the “Cotter Trust Case”), relating to Mr. James J. Cotter, Jr.’s February 8, 2017 petition to appoint a temporary trustee ad litem (a “Temporary TAL”) to pursue a sale of the Class B Voting-Stock owned, before his death, by Mr. James J. Cotter, Sr. These shares represent more than 66% of the outstanding voting power of our Company. In response to Mr. Cotter, Jr.’s petition, the California Superior Court has determined to appoint a Temporary TAL “with the narrow and specific authority to obtain offers to purchase the RDI stock in the voting trust, but not to exercise any other powers without court approval, specifically the sale of the company or any other powers possessed by the trustees.”

In a prior statement of decision dated December 8, 2017, the California Superior Court determined Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter to be the sole trustees of the James J. Cotter, Sr., Living Trust (the “Cotter Trust”), and Margaret Cotter to be the sole trustee of the voting trust to be created under the Cotter Trust (the “Voting Trust”). The Statement of Decision, except with respect to the limited authority granted to the Temporary TAL, leaves Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter in place as trustees, with all powers granted to them under the applicable trust documents, over all other matters relating to the Cotter Trust, the Voting Trust and their respective assets, including authority to vote the Class B Stock held by the Cotter Trust and/or the Voting Trust.

The Statement of Decision does not name a Temporary TAL, but provides that if the parties cannot agree on a Temporary TAL, one will be appointed at some future date by the California Superior Court.

Our Company’s Board of Directors previously established a Special Independent Committee comprised of directors William Gould (our lead independent director who also serves as the Chair of the Special Independent Committee), Judy Coddington and Douglas McEachern to, among other things, address any potential change of control transaction relating to the sale of the shares of Class B Voting Stock, which may now or in the future be held by the Cotter Trust.

The Charter of the Special Independent Committee includes the following statements: “Due to the fact that the Voting Stock held by the [Cotter] Trust and the [Cotter] Estate represents less than 5% of the outstanding equity of the Company, there is a risk that the interests of the person or group acquiring such a controlling block would not be consistent with the long term business strategy adopted by the Company’s Board or would otherwise be inconsistent with the interest of holders of Class A Common Stock or other holders of Class B Common Stock. The Board had previously determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders for the Company to pursue its long-term business strategy as an independent company. Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and/or an entity in which they have a controlling interest may be involved in the Trust Share Sale Process as a potential purchaser of such shares, and have advised the Board that they intend to continue with the implementation of the business strategy adopted by the Board. Mr. Cotter, Jr., voted against approval of that business strategy.” A complete copy of the Special Independent Committee Charter will be attached to our filing on Form 8-K, being made with respect to this press release.

Our Company has advised the California Superior Court that it opposes the appointment of a Temporary TAL, as it believes that such an appointment is not in the best interests of our Company and our stockholders generally. Such a marketing process, conducted without the participation or support of the Board of Directors and without any protections for minority stockholders, risks an acquisition of control that does not reflect our Company’s value and growth opportunities and transfers value from our stockholders to a potentially unqualified individual or group. Moreover, irrespective of who may eventually end up with control, such a process risks distracting key employees from executing our business plan and disrupting present and future business relations, valuation creation strategies and development projects.

Our Board of Directors has not changed its position that it is in the best interests of our Company and our stockholders generally to continue the independent pursuit of our Company’s current business plan and that a sale of the Company at this time would not be in the best interests of stockholders generally. The Special Independent Committee and our Board of Directors will monitor further developments arising out of the Statement of Decision and determine what steps, if any, should be taken in the best interests of our Company and our stockholders generally.

As previously announced, on December 11, 2017, the District Court in Nevada in the matter Cotter vs. Cotter, et al., Case No.: A-15-719860-B, Dept. No. XXVII (the “Cotter Derivative Litigation”) dismissed all derivative claims against Directors Judy Coddington, William Gould, Edward L. Kane, Doug McEachern and Michael Wrotniak determining that Mr. James J. Cotter, Jr., had failed to demonstrate any “genuine issues of material fact related to the disinterestedness and/or independence of those directors.” On December 29, 2017, these five directors (constituting a majority of our Board of Directors) voted to ratify the actions of our Board of Directors in terminating Mr. Cotter, Jr., as President and CEO, and the actions of our Compensation Committee in permitting the Cotter Estate to use shares of Class A Non-Voting Stock to pay the exercise price of options held by the Cotter Estate to acquire Class B Voting Stock. Based on this ratification, our Company intends to seek dismissal of Mr. Cotter, Jr.’s derivative claims relating to these actions.

Forward-Looking Statements

Our statements in this press release contain a variety of forward-looking statements as defined by the Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements reflect only our expectations regarding future events and operating performance and necessarily speak only as of the date the information was prepared. No guarantees can be given that our expectation will in fact be realized, in whole or in part. You can recognize these statements by our use of words such as, by way of example, “may,” “will,” “expect,” “believe,” and “anticipate” or other similar terminology.

These forward-looking statements reflect our expectation after having considered a variety of risks and uncertainties. However, they are necessarily the product of internal discussion and do not necessarily completely reflect the views of individual members of our Board of Directors or of our management team. Individual Board members and individual members of our management team may have different views as to the risks and uncertainties involved, and may have different views as to future events or our operating performance.

Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or underlying our forward-looking statements are the following:

- Future actions, developments and decisions by one or more litigants, a temporary trustee ad litem or other trustee or guardian appointed by a court, or the courts, including appellate courts, in the above-described legal matters.*
- Future actions by members of the Cotter family or their respective affiliates and representatives.*
- Future actions by the Company’s Special Independent Committee or the Board of Directors or any of the Company’s stockholders.*
- Future actions of third parties.*

The above list is not necessarily exhaustive.

Given the variety and unpredictability of the factors that will ultimately influence the matters covered in this press release, no guarantees can be given that any of our forward-looking statements will ultimately prove to be correct. Actual results will undoubtedly vary and there is no guarantee as to how our securities will perform, either when considered in isolation or when compared to other securities or investment opportunities.

Finally, we undertake no obligation to publicly update or to revise any of our forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required under applicable law. Accordingly, you should always note the date to which our forward-looking statements speak.

KRUM: 2 Q. Good morning, Mr. Kane. 3 A. Morning. 4 Q. Is there any reason that you cannot provide 5 truthful, accurate and complete testimony today? 6 A. No. 7 Q. You're not taking any medication or anything of 8 that nature that would impair your ability to do so? 9 A. No. 10 Q. I'm going to remind you of a couple ground 11 rules that we will need to follow today to make this go 12 as efficiently as possible. First, please afford me the 13 time and perhaps an extra breath to finish my questions 14 before you begin to answer. In turn, I will attempt to 15 do the same. That way we will not be speaking over each 16 other and we'll have a better, more comprehensible 17 transcript. That's particularly true today, because if 18 we talk at the same time, one or both of us will not 19 hear the other. You recall that, right? 20 A. Yes. 21 Q. And of course, that was a segue to the next 22 admonition. It's particularly important today that you 23 provide audible responses in words because I may not 24 understand an "uh-huh" or a "yeah" even if the court 25 reporter does. And the court reporter may not. And

Page 669 1 that will result in an erroneous transcript. What did 2 you do to prepare for your deposition today, Mr. Kane? 3 A. First, could you make this a little louder, I'm 4 having a little trouble hearing. 5 MR. SEARCY: It is a little soft. 6 Mark, the phone was little soft. Maybe you could 7 repeat your question. 8 MR. KRUM: Of course. I actually forgot an 9 admonition. 10 Q. If you need to take a break, Mr. Kane, let me 11 know. I'm not going to be able to discern that by 12 looking at you. I'd ask only that you answer any 13 question that's pending before you ask for a break. And 14 I will add to that, Mr. Kane, that I hope to not need to 15 have you appear for another deposition. Obviously I 16 think I do, and I have some matters that I intend to 17 cover as quickly as possible, and I'm hopeful that we 18 will do so before we take a break and that will leave 19 you the rest of the Friday to enjoy. So with that by 20 way of admonitions, my first question is what did you do 21 to prepare for your deposition today? 22 A. I reviewed some testimony that I had previously 23 given that was provided to me by Mr. Searcy. And I 24 think there was some documents in there that I also 25 briefly reviewed.	Page 671 1 directors? 2 A. Yes. 3 Q. By the way, I'm going to call Reading 4 International RDI, if that's okay with you. 5 A. Fine. 6 Q. Mr. Kane, at any time prior to that telephonic 7 board meeting on December 29, 2017 were you party to any 8 communications with Judy Coddington about the termination 9 of Jim Cotter, Jr. as its president and CEO of RDI? 10 A. I can't recall any such conversations. 11 Q. At any time prior to the telephonic board 12 meeting on December 29, 2017 were you party to any 13 communications with Michael Wrotniak regarding or that 14 referenced the termination of Jim Cotter, Jr. as 15 president and CEO of RDI? 16 MR. SEARCY: Let me just pose the objection. 17 Vague. 18 You can answer, Ed. 19 THE WITNESS: I cannot recall any such 20 conversations. 21 MR. KRUM: 22 Q. You've eliminated quite a few of my follow-up 23 questions which should please you. At the -- strike 24 that. 25 A. Strike it should please me?
Page 670 1 Q. When you refer to testimony you have previously 2 given, Mr. Kane, are you referring to prior deposition 3 testimony in this case? 4 A. Yes, I am. 5 Q. Were you provided transcripts or excerpts of 6 transcripts or both? 7 A. I'm not sure I know the difference. If I may, 8 perhaps Mr. Searcy could describe better what he 9 provided me. 10 MR. SEARCY: I don't get to answer any of the 11 questions, Ed. Just do your best with the question. 12 THE WITNESS: I think they were transcripts of 13 prior depositions that you had with me. 14 MR. KRUM: 15 Q. What I meant, Mr. Kane, by the word excerpts is 16 whether you were provided something less than complete 17 deposition transcripts to review. Do you recall? 18 A. I think they were complete. But I don't know 19 how I would know if there was something left out, to 20 tell you the truth. It's been so long since you last 21 deposed me. However, my best guess is that they were 22 complete transcripts. 23 Q. Let's move forward. Mr. Kane, you recall that 24 on the morning of December 29, 2017 there was a 25 telephonic meeting of the Reading International board of	Page 672 1 Q. That was my own comment. I apologize. It was 2 not directed at you, sir. 3 A. Okay. 4 Q. Did there come a time when you heard or learned 5 that ratification of prior actions or decisions would be 6 taken up or considered at the December 29, 2017 7 telephonic board meeting? 8 A. I cannot recall whether I had such -- I may 9 have, but I just can't recall them. 10 Q. What is your best recollection, Mr. Kane, about 11 when you first heard or learned that ratification of 12 anything would be or was going to be taken up at the 13 December 29, 2017 board meeting? 14 A. I can't recall if I -- if there was any -- any 15 conversation, any communication regarding the December 16 29th meeting. There may have been, but I just don't 17 have any recollection of such. 18 Q. The following question, Mr. Kane, is asked for 19 the purpose of assisting you in terms of remembering 20 events at a particular time. I'm not asking about your 21 personal life, sir. December 25th, Christmas day, was a 22 Monday, right? 23 A. If you say so. I don't have a calendar. I 24 wouldn't know one way or the other. 25 Q. You can accept that from me. Nobody will argue

1 Q. Okay. This calls for a yes or no response, 2 Mr. Kane. Was counsel, meaning an attorney who 3 represents you and/or an attorney who represents RDI, 4 the source of some or all of the information you 5 received regarding T-2 and the intervening plaintiffs? 6 A. Sir, I can't recall so I can't say yes or no. 7 Q. Very well. 8 MR. KRUM: Let's take a break. 9 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Off the record. The time is 10 10:21 a.m. 11 (Recess.) 12 MR. KRUM: Back on the record. So in light of what 13 we've covered and how we've covered it and the 14 circumstances that bear upon that I don't have anything 15 further at this time. Mr. Kane, thank you for your 16 time. Have a nice day, sir. 17 THE WITNESS: Thank you. You too. 18 MR. SEARCY: Thank you. 19 MR. 1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 "Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Guy Adams Motion for Summary Judgment" 3 (the "Ratification MSJ") argues that certain Reading International, Inc. ("RDI" or the 4 "Company") directors, pursuant to NRS 78.140, "ratified" certain prior conduct that 5 remains at issue in this case and that, because the Court previously had determined that 6 no disputed issues of material fact existed regarding their independence with respect to 7 the matters raised in motions for partial summary judgment, those directors are 8 independent for the purposes of the Ratification MSJ which, they argue, therefore should 9 be granted. The Ratification MSJ must be denied for a number of independent reasons, 10 including the following:

11 NRS 78.140 has no application here and, even if it did, would not warrant the 12 relief sought by the Ratification MSJ. By its terms, NRS 78.140 applies solely to contracts 13 and transactions between the corporation, here RDI, and the interested directors and/or 14 officers, here, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Guy Adams. Here, neither of the matters 15 purportedly ratified are contracts or transactions between RDI and any or all of those 16 defendants. Moreover, even if NRS 78.140 applied here, which it does not, it requires any 17 decision made pursuant to it be made by independent directors acting in good faith.

18 Unlike the motions for partial summary judgment, in which Plaintiff bore the 19 burden of proof on the issue of the independence of individual directors who sought to 20 invoke the business judgment rule, here the moving party bears the burden of proving (i) 21 the independence of the board members whose actions and/or decisions serve as the 22 basis for the relief sought, and (ii) that those directors conducted a good faith and 23 thorough investigation. The Ratification MSJ fails to satisfy either of those burdens.

24 With respect to the independence of the directors whose conduct serves as the 25 basis for the Ratification MSJ, it proffers no evidence whatsoever. That failure alone 26 requires denial. Moreover, the record evidence shows a lack of independence, as a matter 27 of fact and law. First, the "independent" directors here relied entirely on "advice" from 28 counsel representing RDI. Courts repeatedly have found that the use of company counsel evidences a lack of independence of the supposedly independent committee and/or

1 individual directors who do so. Second, other factors considered in determining director 2 independence also show a lack of independence, as shown below.

3 With respect to whether the directors whose conduct serves as the basis for the 4 Ratification MSJ conducted a thorough investigation in good faith, resulting in an 5 informed decision-making process, the sole evidence proffered in support of the Motion 6 is the minutes of the December 29, 2017 board meeting, as if defendants had succeeded in 7 concealing from Plaintiff and the Court the hasty, sham exercise that preceded that 8 meeting and resulted in the preordained result, "ratification." What the belatedly 9 produced evidence and privilege logs show is that the "ratification" scheme was 10 conceived by GT lawyers, who first obtained approval from defendants Ellen Cotter and 11 Margaret Cotter to pursue it, and then "advised" supposedly independent directors to 12 "ratify" certain conduct the Court previously found to be actionable, all for the purpose of 13 creating a purported basis on which to seek dismissal of this derivative action.

14 For their part, not one of the supposedly independent board members undertook 15 in good faith to make an informed decision; instead, each did as he or she was "advised" 16 by the conflicted lawyers on whom they mistakenly relied. Indeed, privilege log entries 17 appear to indicate that RDI in-house counsel Craig Tompkins and defendant Ellen Cotter 18 herself at least reviewed if not provided input regarding the operative language of 19 Gould's December 27, 2017 email. Of course, that became the operative language of the 20 agenda for the December 29, 2017 board meeting and, ultimately, the draft minutes 21 which serve as the basis for the ratification MSJ.

22 Independent of the foregoing, the purported ratification with respect to the 23 exercise of the so-called 100,000 share option by its terms does not "ratify" the disputed 24 determination regarding ownership of the purported option, which remains at issue in 25 this case. That alone also requires denial of the Ratification MSJ.

26 Separately, Plaintiff is entitled to relief under NRCP 56(f). Plaintiff is still 27 reviewing and analyzing privilege logs and documents produced on May 30 and 31, 28 2018, as well as thousands of pages of documents produced on Saturday, June 9, 2018, Monday and Tuesday, June 11 and 12, and anticipates receiving a further supplemental

1 privilege log to be produced on or about June 13, 2018. The Court previously ruled that 2 Plaintiff is entitled to time to review such material to determine what further discovery if 3 any Plaintiff needs. Given the significance of the responsive documents not disclosed 4 (produced and or logged) until the very end of May 2018, and in view of the 5 supplemental productions of June 9, 11 and 12, 2018, as well as the advice that a 6 supplemental and/or superseding privilege log will be produced on or about June 13, 7 2018, Plaintiff is entitled to Rule 56(f) relief.

8 Finally, if the Court does not deny the Ratification MSJ or provide Plaintiff with 9 Rule 56(f) relief, Plaintiff is entitled to and requests an evidentiary hearing with respect to 10 both issues as to which defendants bear the burden of proof, namely, independence and 11 a thorough investigation conducted in good faith. Shoen v. SAC Holding Corp., 122 Nev.
12 621, 645, 137 P.3d 1171, 1187 (2006). As the record (including from May 2, 2018 13 evidentiary hearing) makes clear, questions of fact and credibility, the latter on the part 14 of both the "independent" directors and their conflicted counsel, predominate.

15 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

16 A. Creation and Delegation of Authority to the SIC

17 In August 2017, the RDI board of directors to (the "Board") authorized the 18 formation of a "Special Independent Committee" (the "SIC" or "SLC"). (See Ex. 1 hereto, 19 RDI's February 23, 2018 Form 8-K.) On or about February 23, 2018, RDI filed a Form 8-K 20 with the SEC. That Form 8-K attached and disclosed publicly for the first time the 21 Charter of the SIC. (Id. at Ex. 99.2) (The charter was admitted as defendants' Ex. B at the 22 May 2, 2018 evidentiary hearing.) Section IV of the Charter describes the responsibilities 23 and duties of the SIC, including the authority delegated to it with respect to this 24 derivative action and other lawsuits (defined therein as "Cotter Related Proceedings").
25 The Charter states in relevant part as follows:

26 RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

27 To fulfill its responsibilities and duties, the [SIC] is authorized to, in its discretion:

28 *****

ii. ... [I]nstruct legal counsel representing the Company to take certain actions, including but not limited to, file pleadings or other papers, appear in any proceedings... and otherwise take such steps as the [SIC] deemed to be in the best interest of the Company in any Cotter Related Proceedings [which includes this derivative action] or

B. The Inception of "Ratification" With the SIC.

According to deposition testimony of former defendants and current RDI directors Douglas McEachern ("McEachern") and William Gould ("Gould"), the subject of ratification was first raised with them by lawyers from Greenberg Traurig ("GT"). McEachern testified that the subject of ratification was raised "in late Fall sometime of 2017," at which time it was tabled. (See Ex. 7 hereto, McEachern 2/28/18 dep. tr. at 548:21-550:1.) McEachern explained that the "main focus was on the termination of Jim Cotter,

1 Jr." (Id.) McEachern also testified that "ratification" was within the purview of the SIC's 2 responsibilities, as follows:

3 "It was delegated to the [SIC] to handle this type of matters. We were 4 approving [ratification]...."

5 (Id. at 507:1-508:2, 546:1-10.) (Emphasis supplied.)

6 Gould testified that the first communication he had regarding ratification was 7 telephonically in mid or late November 2017 with GT lawyers Michael Bonner ("Bonner")
8 and Mark Ferrario ("Ferrario"). (See Ex. 6 hereto, Gould 4/5/18 dep. tr. at 509:13-15.)

9 Gould testified that "ratification" was within the scope of his responsibilities as Chair of 10 the SIC, as follows:

11 "I was the chairman of the special [independent] committee and [GT 12 lawyers Bonner and Ferrario] were discussing [ratification] with me in my 13 capacity as the chairperson of that committee."

14 (Id.)

15 C. GT Previously Cleared "Ratification" With Defendants Ellen and Margaret 16 Cotter.

17 1. Late 2016 and Early 2017

18 For the first time on May 30 (and 31), 2018, GT produced supplemental privilege 19 logs jointly on behalf of RDI and the five dismissed directors. The May 30 log discloses 20 for the first time what apparently were communications in November or December 2016 and 21 January 2017 regarding "ratification," among other things. (Although the log entries are 22 deficient on their face, the inclusion of them in the log must mean that they concern 23 "ratification.") The first entry, dated November 22, 2016, is an email from Craig 24 Tompkins, who then was special counsel to Ellen Cotter as CEO of RDI (Ex. 18 to Plaintiff 25 James J. Cotter Jr.'s Motion to Compel, Filed on June 8, 2018 ("JJC 6/8/18 Motion")), 26 Tompkins 10/18/17 dep. tr. at 60:1-12), to GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario, copied to 27 Ellen Cotter, the subject of which is "alternative approaches: attorney-client privileged 28 attorney work product communication." (See Ex. 2 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, entry ending in 71278.) The next entry is a December 7, 2016 email from Ferrario to Tompkins and Quinn Emanuel attorneys Marshall Searcy and Christopher Tayback, the subject of which is the 1 attached "option memo." (See id., entry ending in 67300.) The next two entries are dated 2 January 6 and 7, 2017, concern "alternative litigation resolution approaches" and are 3 between Tompkins and Bonner, and copied to Ferrario and to Ellen Cotter. (See id., entries 4 ending in 71290 and 64891.)

5 2. December 2017.

6 In December 2017, before seeking and securing approval of "ratification" from the 7 SIC on December 21 (described below), GT lawyers cleared the "ratification" "process" 8 with Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter and Tompkins.¹ On December 13, 2017, Ferrario and 9 Bonner exchanged emails with Tompkins, which emails were copied to Ellen Cotter, 10 regarding the subject of a "Special Committee." (See Ex. 1 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, entry 11 ending in 60907 and 60911; see also Ex. 3 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, GT May 31, 2018 privilege 12 log, entries ending in RDI 73538, 76569, 76783.) Those emails are described as 13 "Communication[s] regarding Ratification process." (Ex. 1 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, entries 14 ending in 60907 and 60911.)

15 Again on December 15, 2017, Bonner exchanged emails with Tompkins, which 16 emails also were copied to Ellen Cotter, regarding "Misc." (See Ex. 1 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, 17 entries ending in 60823 and 60824.) Those emails are described as "Communication[s] 18 regarding ratification process." (Id.)

19 Also on December 15, 2017, Ferrario discussed the subject of ratification with 20 Margaret Cotter in person. (See Ex. 16 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, Margaret Cotter's February 14, 21 2018 Interrogatory Responses, No. 2.) (Margaret Cotter's interrogatory responses 22 disclosed this communication regarding "ratification," but not others described herein.)

23 On December 21, 2015, Bonner sent an email to Tompkins, copied to Ellen Cotter 24 and Ferrario, regarding "special committee/stockholder action alternatives." (See Ex. 1 to 25 JJC 6/8/18 Motion, entry ending in 60533.) Ellen Cotter at her deposition acknowledged 26

27 ¹As to Craig Tompkins, RDI's General Counsel to whom GT attorneys report, Kane at deposition explained that the 28 words he used in an email stating "according to [Ellen Cotter], Craig is also on the 'team[.]" meant that Tompkins "was [with] Ellen and Margaret versus Jim." (See Ex. 14 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, Kane 5/2/16 dep. tr. at 176:18-177:1; Ex. 17 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion (Dep. Ex. 105).)

1 receiving this email. (See Ex. 9 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, Ellen Cotter 4/4/18 dep. tr. at 479:21-2 480:6.)

3 D. The SIC Approves "Ratification."

4 The SIC met telephonically with GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario on December
5 21, 2017. (See Ex. 5 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, redacted minutes of that December 21, 2017
6 meeting; see also GT May 31, 2018 Privilege log, entries CN 2075, 2174, 2494, 2504, 2634.)
7 As described below, they approved "ratification" of the two decisions which thus became 8 the subject of "ratification" votes at the December 29, 2017 Board meeting.

9 McEachern testified that the SIC at the December 21, 2017 telephonic meeting 10 approved ratification in an effort to "resolve" certain issues that remained in this 11 derivative action, stating as follows:

12 "[I]t was delegated to the [SIC] to handle this type of matters. We were 13 approving [ratification]. ... I think we had a call [on December 21, 14 2017] to talk about a couple issues that were still existing in this -- in 15 this derivative case by Jim Cotter, Jr., and we were trying to address 16 them in a fashion to resolve them."

16 (See Ex. 7 hereto, at 507:1-508:2, 546:1-10.) (Emphasis supplied.)

17 With respect to the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting, Gould testified that the SIC 18 "formally [took] action" to advance "ratification." (See Ex. 5 hereto, at 529:10-18.) As to the 19 purpose of the "ratification(s)," Gould admitted that "ratification might be a litigation 20 strategy" employed in this derivative action (in an effort to create a basis upon which to 21 seek dismissal in advance of trial). (See id., at 541:15-18.)

22 With respect to the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting, Coddling testified that Bonner 23 and/or Gould explained the notion of ratification with respect to the two matters later 24 taken up at the December 29, 2017 Board meeting. Coddling testified that the SIC 25 approved "ratification," explaining that she did not distinguish between the process or 26 fact of "ratification" and the merits of the two "ratification" decisions (that defendants 27 claim were made at the December 29, 2017 Board meeting). (See Ex. 4 hereto, at 205:24-28 207:4.)

E. GT Works With Tompkins and Ellen Cotter to Effectuate the "Ratification" by "Independent" Directors

The next day, December 22, 2017, GT lawyers followed through with the ratification scheme. Ferrario's assistant sent emails, one to Tompkins' assistant and one to Ellen Cotter's assistant, regarding "call re letter for special committee meeting re ratification." (See Ex. 2 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, at entries RDI 67258 and 64872.) Tompkins responded and an email chain ensued. (See Ex. 1 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, entries ending in 60258, 60260, 60262, 60265 and 60267.) (The "letter for special committee meeting re ratification" it appears to refer to what came to be the December 27, 2017 email from Gould purportedly on behalf of the five "independent" Directors.)

F. The December 27, 2017 Email Was Prepared by Litigation Counsel With Input From Tompkins and Probably Ellen Cotter, But Not Gould, and Not the "Independent" Directors, Who Did Not See It Before It Was Sent.

On December 27, 2017, Bonner and other GT lawyers exchanged emails with Tompkins about one or more drafts of what came to be the December 27, 2017 email² sent by Gould, purportedly on behalf of the five dismissed directors. Several privilege log entries describe the emails as "Communication regarding draft letter re Special Board Meeting." (See Ex. 1 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, entries ending in 57090, 59768, 59899, 59911, 59912, 59959, 60790, 60802 and 60810.) Also on December 27, 2017, Tompkins and GT lawyers exchanged the subjects of which were "Ratification," and which are described as "Communication[s] regarding draft letter re Special Board Meeting" or "Communication[s] regarding Special Meeting Request." (See id., entries ending in 60404, 60408, 60412, 60424, 60428, 60450, 60464, 60843, 60846.)

Several of the December 27, 2017 emails with the subject "Ratification" also were copied to Ellen Cotter. (See id., entries ending in entries ending in 60450, 60452, 60464 and 60846; Ex. 2, 5/30/18 privilege log, entries ending in RDI 68619, 68626, 70083, 70095.)

²² That email was marked as Dep. Ex. 527 and Ex. P-1 from the 5/2/18 evidentiary hearing. It is attached as Ex. 6 to the JJC 6/8/18 Motion.

1 the sender and/or recipients of the document listed on the logs; (ii) hundreds of entries 2 have subject matter descriptions that are woefully inadequate and or incomplete, in that 3 they failed to identify the subject matters of the log documents; (iii) there entries for 4 which either or both no attorney or no outside counsel is identified as a sender or 5 recipient; (iv) there entries that include identify centers or recipients with whom 6 privileged communications could not be shared; and (v) they contain no explanation of 7 the basis on which the documents log are claimed to be privileged, attorney work 8 product or both.

9 The June 9 and 11 supplemental document productions, and the presumably 10 forthcoming privilege log, are too late to remedy Responding Parties' noncompliance 11 with the Court's May 2, 2018 Orders.

12 For the reasons referenced above in demonstrated below, Plaintiff is entitled to the 13 relief sought by this motion.

14 A. The Responding Parties Concealed the December 21, 2017 SIC Meeting

15 1. The SIC Approved "Ratification" on December 21, 2017

16 The SIC met telephonically with GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario on December
17 21, 2017. (See Ex. 5 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, redacted minutes of that December 21, 2017 18 meeting.) As described below, they approved "ratification."

19 McEachern testified that the SIC approved "ratification" in an effort to "resolve" 20 certain issues that remained in this derivative action, stating as follows:

22 "[I]t was delegated to the [SIC] to handle this type of matters. We were 23 approving [ratification]. ... I think we had a call [on December 21, 24 2017] to talk about a couple issues that were still existing in this - 25 - in this derivative case by Jim Cotter, Jr., and we were trying to 26 address them in a fashion to resolve them."

27 (See Ex. 12 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, McEachern 2/28/18 dep. tr. at 507:1-508:2 and 28 546:1-10.) (Emphasis supplied.)

1 With respect to the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting, Gould testified that the SIC
2 "formally [took] action" to advance the purported ratification(s). (See Ex. 10 to JJC 6/8/18, 3 Gould 4/5/18 dep. tr. at 529:10-18.) As to the purpose of the "ratification(s)," Gould 4 admitted that "ratification might be a litigation strategy" employed in this derivative 5 action (in an effort to create a basis upon which to seek dismissal in advance of trial). (See 6 Ex. 10 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, Gould 4/5/18 dep. tr. at 541:15-18.)

7 With respect to the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting, Coddling testified that the SIC 8 approved "ratification," explaining that she did not distinguish between the process or 9 fact of "ratification" and the merits of the two "ratification" decisions. (See Ex. 8 to JJC 10 6/8/18 Motion, Coddling 2/28/18 dep. tr. at 205:24-207:4.)

11 2. The Responding Parties Concealed the 12/21/17 SIC Meeting

12 As the foregoing testimony of each of the SIC committee members makes clear, the 13 December 21, 2017 telephonic SIC meeting not only addressed "ratification," it did so 14 formally, in the sense that the SIC approved "ratification" and authorized SIC chairperson 15 Gould to take action in furtherance of the "ratification" the SIC had approved. The 16 documents and supplemental privilege logs produced on May 30 and 31 establish 17 unequivocally that GT lawyers contemporaneously were aware of the foregoing.

18 Nevertheless, except for belatedly producing minutes of the December 21, 2017 19 SIC meeting in entirely redacted form on or about April 12, 2018, counsel for the 20 Responding Parties failed to produce and/or list on a privilege log documents concerning 21 the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting until doing so for the first time on May 30 and 31, 22 2018.

23 Only counsel for Gould, who for months concealed his supposed loss of his 24 emails, dared offer an explanation for why counsel for the Responding Parties had 25 withheld (meaning neither produced nor logged) documents concerning the December 26 21, 2017 SIC meeting. That explanation was that the documents were "not responsive" to 27 Plaintiff's January 12, 2018 document requests. To say that explanation is disingenuous is 28 an understatement.

1 "Ratification" was the basis for one of the summary judgment motions do 2 without prejudice and with respect to which the Court ordered that Plaintiff wa 3 to discovery. "Ratification" was a subject covered at the December 21, 2017 SIC 4 The claim that documents concerning that meeting were "not responsive" must 5 for what it is, and after-the-fact prevarication intended to conceal the fact that 6 Responding Parties and their counsel sought to conceal from Plaintiff, and from 7 Court, the role played by the SIC, as advised by GT, in the "ratification" "process

8 At the May 2 evidentiary hearing, GT attorney Bonner acknowledged tha 9 discussed "ratification" at its December 21, 2017 meeting. Nevertheless, he appar 10 chose not to mention "ratification" in the meeting minutes he belatedly prepared 11 raises the unfortunate question of whether those minutes purposefully omitted 12 what transpired in anticipation of withholding them in subsequent discovery. T 13 with Bonner's testimony to the effect that the SIC on December 21, 2017 took no 14 action with respect to "ratification" (see 5/2/18 hearing tr. at 40:20-41:25) which t 15 contradicts the deposition testimony of each of the three SIC members, the regre 16 but unavoidable the question raised is whether subsequent withholding of evid 17 concerning the December 21, 2017 meeting was anticipated or planned in advan

18 Without regard to what if anything was done or planned prior to January 19 filing of the Original Ratification MSJ, what the record now makes clear is that t 20 Responding Parties purposefully withheld documents regarding the December 21 (8 p.m.) telephonic SIC meeting, starting with the January 3, 2018 Original Ratifi 22 MSJ that makes no mention of that meeting. As the Court stated at the April 30, 23 hearing, "I was never told about a special committee meeting. I was only told th 24 December 2[9]th meeting occurred and which hereby ratified the actions of the c 25 who remain parties to this case." (April 30, 2018 hearing tr. at 7:22-25.)

26 Obviously and indisputably, the entire discovery process with respect to 27 "ratification" and the independence of the five dismissed directors, including in 28 particular the SIC members, was undermined by the failure to produce and to lo

1 conceal evidence. Even if it is an honest mistake, the fact of the matter is that Plaintiff has 2 not been provided with what the Court ordered provided, and Plaintiff therefore cannot 3 do what he needs to do to respond to a "ratification" defense proffered at trial and, 4 separately, present the evidence he is entitled to present at trial with respect to the 5 independence of the Responding Parties. Unless the Court is to allow its May 2, 2018 6 orders to be ignored and the remaining defendants to benefit from the failure of the 7 Responding Parties to do what the Court ordered, the present trial date of July 9, 2017 8 must be vacated.

9 IV. CONCLUSION

10 For the foregoing reason, Plaintiff respectfully submits that this Motion should 11 be granted.

1 independently by "independent" directors. Such entries also show that Craig Tompkins, 2 who is now RDI's General Counsel and reports to Ellen Cotter, and defendants Ellen 3 Cotter and Margaret Cotter themselves, were participants in the "ratification" "process."
4 Remarkably, certain entries suggest that Tompkins and Ellen Cotter participated in the 5 preparation of the December 27, 2017 email sent by/for Gould. As the Court knows, it 6 was the language in that email that was used to prepare the operative portion of the 7 December 29, 2017 board agenda and, ultimately, the minutes of the December 29, 2017 8 board meeting that purportedly memorialize actions of a "legal consequence."

9 As demonstrated below, the May 30 and 31, 2018 privilege logs are facially 10 deficient, including because they contain dozens of entries that fail to adequately identify 11 the subject matters of the documents logged. As a result, counsel for Plaintiff cannot do 12 what Plaintiff is entitled to do with those logs, whether to challenge claims of privilege 13 with respect to entries that have subject matters that say nothing substantive, to use the 14 privilege logs to learn particulars of the "ratification" chronology or to use entries to 15 examine deponents who claim not to remember.

16 As demonstrated below, in addition to being hamstrung by the facially inadequate 17 May 30 and 31, 2018 privilege logs, counsel for Plaintiff has not been afforded the time 18 necessary to review documents. In that regard, Responding Parties made supplemental 19 productions of documents on June 9 (a Saturday) and 11, 2018. The former production 20 was in excess of 2000 pages and the latter in excess of 3000 pages. Additionally, 21 Responding Parties have indicated that they will be producing a corrected and/or revised 22 and/ or updated privilege log, which counsel for Plaintiff has not received, much less 23 reviewed.

24 As the foregoing indicates, Responding Parties have not complied with the 25 Court's May 2, 2018 orders and counsel for Plaintiff has not received, much less received 26 and had an opportunity to use, what the Court on May 2, 2018 ordered be provided. For 27 such reasons and the reasons shown below, Plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought by this 28 motion.

1 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

2 A. The Original Demand Futility and "Ratification" MSJs

3 On January 3, 2018, counsel for the remaining individual defendants filed a 4 motion entitled "The Remaining Director Defendants' Motion for Judgment as a Matter 5 of Law" (the "Original Ratification MSJ"). The Original Ratification MSJ was predicated 6 on a single piece of "evidence," which was draft minutes of a December 29, 2019 RDI
7 board of directors meeting. The Original Ratification MSJ argued that recently dismissed 8 directors had at a December 29, 2017 board meeting "ratified" certain conduct from 2015 9 with respect to which the Court had denied motions for partial summary judgment as to 10 the remaining defendants.

11 Also on January 3, 2018, counsel for nominal defendant Reading International, Inc.
12 ("RDI") filed a motion entitled "Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Show Demand Futility" 13 (the "Original Demand Futility MSJ").

14 In addition to his substantive oppositions to the foregoing motions, Plaintiff 15 invoked Rule 56(f). The Court denied both motions without prejudice and ordered that 16 Plaintiff was entitled to obtain discovery with respect to the matters on which those 17 motions were based, including "ratification."

18 B. The Court's May 2, 2018 Orders

19 On April 23, 2018, Plaintiff filed a "Motion for Omnibus Relief." The Motion for 20 Omnibus Relief stated that it was:

22 "based on the apparent intentional failure of RDI, Coddling, McEachern, and 23 Gould to either produce or list on a privilege log an obviously and 24 indisputably discoverable document concerning the very purported 25 ratifications upon which they previously based a motion for summary 26 judgment: The minutes of a December 21, 2017 meeting of the so-called Special 27 Independent Committee of the RDI Board of Directors, about which each of the 28 committee members (McEachern, Coddling, and Gould) testified and admitted that the subject of ratification was addressed at this meeting.

(4/23/18 Motion for Omnibus Relief at 2:5-13.)

1 On April 30, 2018, the Court heard Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief and 2 scheduled an evidentiary hearing, which occurred on May 2. Following that evidentiary 3 hearing, the Court on May 2, 2018 ordered that the Responding Parties supplement their 4 document productions and privilege logs. In particular, the Court ordered the 5 Responding Parties to make supplemental productions of responsive documents and 6 provide supplemental privilege logs, identifying the categories of information as follows:

8 THE COURT: ... So three categories, [i] the 12/21 special committee
9 meeting, whether its scheduling, content, scope, minutes, whatever, 10 related to that meeting; [ii] P-1 [the 12/27/18 email], whether its 11 subject matter, preparation, drafting, circulation, how we're going 12 to get it on the agenda for the 12/29 meeting; and the third item is 13 [iii] any discussion of ratification, not limited by time.

14 (5/2/18 hearing tr. at 79:6-13.)

15 The Court on May 2, 2018 also granted the remaining defendants motion to file 16 what is the now filed Ratification MSJ, but instructed them not to file it until after they 17 had complied with the Court's May 2, 2018 order and afforded counsel for Plaintiff an 18 opportunity to review and analyze the documents and privilege logs and then determine 19 whether Plaintiff needed further discovery. In this regard, the Court stated as follows:

20 THE COURT: Yeah. So I want Mr. Krum, instead of me facing a 21 56(f) issue at the time you file that motion, he's ready to file his 22 opposition, I want him to have the opportunity to get these 23 documents with the privilege logs, look at them, and then have a 24 period of time he can decide whether he needs to take additional 25 depositions and, if you fight about it, for me to rule on it. So I'm 26 going to grant your request even though I am hesitant to do so 27 under the circumstances, but I don't want to be in a position where 28 you guys slow play them and then I'm sitting back here again that he didn't get the stuff.

C. The Responding Parties' May 30 and 31 Document Productions and Supplemental Privilege Logs

By status report dated May 24, 2018, the Responding Parties reported to the Court that they had "completed the collection of William Gould, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Judy Coddling and Michael Wrotniak's documents pursuant to the Court's Order on May 2, 2018 [and] had not located any additional responsive nonprivileged documents that have not already been produced in these Directors' previous productions." (Defendants' Status Report Regarding Discovery dated May 24, 2018, at 1:15-19.) The report further stated that "RDI expects to complete its review and production on or before June 4, 2018 [and] [a]ll documents determined to be responsive, and not duplicative, will either be produced or logged on a privilege log." (Id. at 2:1-3.) During a teleconference with the Court on May 29, 2018, the Court informed them that June 4 and June 1 were too late.

1. The May 30 Production

At approximately 5:45 p.m. on May 30, 2018, counsel for RDI sent an email with a link to a supplemental production of documents. Included in that production for the first time were documents that concern the December 21, 2017 meeting of the "Special Independent Committee" (the "SIC") of the RDI board of directors, what came to be the December 27, 2017 email from Bill Gould and "ratification." (See Ex. 1 hereto, documents produced on May 30 that bear production numbers RDI0064314 – 19.) These documents are email invitations to RDI General Counsel Craig Tompkins and several Greenberg Traurig ("GT") lawyers to participate in a conference call on December 22, 2017, which is described as "Call re Letter for Special Meeting re Ratification." (Id.)

2. The May 30 Privilege Log

As for the May 30, 2018 privilege log, it is sixty-four (64) pages long and appears to include on average eight (8) entries per page. It contains dozens of entries, and probably well over 100, the email subject descriptions of which are insufficient under NRCP 26(b)(5) to enable Plaintiff to assess whether such communications are entitled to a privilege. Examples of those "email subject" descriptions include "to do list," "status,"

1 "latest draft," "joint defense communication, "Fwd:," "alternative approaches," "alternative 2 litigation resolution approaches," "the option memo," "who can work with GT 3 today.msg," "executive committee," and "the attorney-client communication.msg." The 4 log entirely fails to set out what "the nature" of those communications are to test the 5 alleged privileges.

6 The May 30, 2018 privilege log (Ex. 2 to Plaintiff James J. Cotter Jr.'s Motion to 7 Compel filed on 6/8/18 ("JJC 6/8/18 Motion")) contains dozens of entries responsive to one 8 or more of the three categories of documents which were the subject of the Court's May 9 2, 2018 order. Examples are described below.

- 10 • The May 30, 2018 privilege log reveals for the first time that in 11 November and December 2016, and in January 2017, "alternative 12 approaches" and "alternative litigation resolution approaches" were 13 considered. Chronologically, the first was a November 22, 2016 email 14 from Craig Tompkins, who at the time was special counsel to Ellen 15 Cotter as CEO, to GT lawyers Bonner and Ferrario, copied to Ellen 16 Cotter, the subject of which is "alternative approaches...." (See May 30, 17 2018 privilege log entry ending in RDI 71278.) The next is a December 18 7, 2016 email from Ferrario to Tompkins and Quinn Emmanuel 19 lawyers Searcy and Tayback, the description of which is "the option 20 memo." (See May 30, 2018 privilege log entry ending in RDI 67300.)
21 (Based on the inclusion of these log entries on May 30, 2018 privilege 22 log, one reasonably could infer that one of the matters they address is 23 "ratification," but Plaintiff had no opportunity to ask deponents about 24 these documents previously because they had not been logged).
- 25 • The May 30, 2018 privilege log also includes seven entries dated 26 January 7, 2017 and January 9, 2017, most between Tompkins and GT 27 lawyer Bonner, all of which are copied to GT lawyer Ferrario and all 28 but one of which are copied to Ellen Cotter, all concerning "alternative litigation resolution approaches." (See May 30, 2018 privilege log entries ending in RDI forty-nine one, 71285, 71288, 64885, 64888, 71279 and 71282.) (Whether by design or oversight, these privilege log entries do not use the word "ratification.")

- Also on the May 30, 2018 privilege log are two December 22, 2017 entries regarding "call re: letter for special committee meeting re ratification," both from attorney Ferrario's assistant, one to Tompkins' assistant, and the other to Ellen Cotter's assistant and copied to Tompkins and Bonner. (See May 30, 2018 privilege log entries ending in 67258 and 64872.) It cannot be determined from reviewing these entries whether they refer to the same documents, described above, that were first produced on May 30, 2018.
- The May 30 privilege log also includes over three dozen entries relating to "ratification" and relating to the December 27, 2017 email from Gould that was one subject of the Court's May 2, 2018 order. These entries are dated December 26 and 27, 2017, and have subjects such as "Draft [for] your review," "Special Board Meeting," "Board agenda," "for Bill Gould to sign" and "Ratification." Most are emails between GT lawyers and by then RDI General Counsel Craig Tompkins. (See May 30, 2018 privilege log entries ending in RDI 68634, 68635, 65942, 67080, 68066, 68306, 68308, 68619, 68626, 68628, 68630, 68632, 70072, 70083, 70085, 70089, 70093, 70094, 70095, 70097, 70099 and 73495.) Gould is party to several. (See May 30, 2018 privilege log entries ending in RDI 68634, 6835, 67080 and 73495.) Ellen Cotter is copied on or the addressee of even more. (See May 30, 2018 privilege log entries ending in RDI 68634, 68635, 65939, 65942, 67080, 68619, 68626, 70083, 70095 and 73495.) The log also includes December 28, 2017 emails to which GT attorney Bonner, Ellen Cotter

1 and Craig Tompkins are party, the subject of which is "final version."
2 (See May 30, 2018 privilege log entries ending in RDI 65937 and 3 73079.)

4 Counsel for Plaintiff continues to review the May 30, 2018 privilege log.

5 3. The May 31 Production

6 At approximately 4:50 p.m. on May 31, 2018, counsel for RDI served and filed 7 supplemental disclosures. That pleading indicated that RDI was making a supplemental 8 production of documents bearing production Nos. RDI 0064970-5120

9 At approximately 8 p.m. on May 31, 2018, counsel for RDI sent an email with a 10 link to the supplemental production of documents. Included in that production for the 11 first time were clearly nonprivileged documents that relate to the December 21, 2017 SIC 12 meeting. These documents are 12/21/17 email invitations from Marcia Wizelman, Gould's 13 assistant, to SIC committee members and GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario to participate 14 in a conference call at 8 p.m. on December 21, 2017, which is described as "Special 15 Committee Meeting Conference Call." (Id.) (See Ex. 2 hereto, RDI0064970-72.) (It appears 16 that these documents concern the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting at which "ratification" 17 was approved, but Plaintiff has not had the opportunity to ask any deponent about these 18 documents because they were withheld until May 31, 2018.)

19 4. The May 31 Privilege Log

20 The May 31 supplemental disclosure also attached a further supplemental 21 privilege log, with respect to which the filing included a footnote at page 10 of 15 states 22 as follows:

23 "Please be advised that this log contains email sent to or from Craig 24 Tompkins that did not include any non-retained attorneys or other third-25 party recipients. This log was created after running the agreed-upon search 26 terms on data collected from Mr. Tompkins and using a predictive coding 27 model. Due to the volume of data collected from Mr. Tompkins, a manual 28 review of all emails was not completed and as such this log may include documents not relevant to this litigation, but this data was captured by the predictive coating model which assign these materials a response score of seventy or higher....."

1 (See RDI's May 31, 2018 Thirty-Second Supplemental Disclosures at p. 10, n. 1.)

2 Counsel for Plaintiff understands this footnote to indicate that this 115 page 3 privilege log, which appears to include over 550 entries, may include a significant 4 number of nonresponsive documents. Counsel for Plaintiff has not completed their 5 review of the May 31, 2018 privilege log and qualify the description of its contents herein 6 accordingly. Nevertheless, it is apparent that the May 31, 2018 privilege log is deficient 7 on its face. First, some entries do not identify a person as the sender and/or recipient of 8 the email in question. Second, the privilege log contains a significant number of entries 9 the subject description of which is inadequate to identify the subject matter(s) of the 10 document. Examples include "alternative approaches," "confidential attorney-client and 11 attorney work product communication," "alternative litigation resolution approaches," 12 "Reading legal matters," "notes from interview," "re," "sent on behalf of Ellen Cotter," "the 13 attorney-client communications," "FW," "can you review," and "call."

14 Many of these documents with subject descriptions that fail to identify the subject 15 matter(s) of the documents appear to be documents concerning "ratification" or other 16 matters that were the subject of the Court's May 2, 2018 order. For example, almost 17 twenty (20) entries dated 12/28/2017 have a subject description of "Re: Call." Although the 18 privilege log entries provide absolutely no information regarding the subject matter(s) of 19 the call(s), they may well reference telephone calls GT lawyers Bonner and/or Ferrario 20 placed on December 28, 2018 to "independent" directors the to discuss "ratification" 21 and/or the "ratification" "process." (See Ex. 3 to JJC 6/8/18 Motion, GT May 31, 2018
22 privilege log entries ending in CN 2657, QE 241907, RDI 76390, 76391, 76403, 76466, 23 76469, 76511, 76522, 76544, 76552, 76563, 76565, 76621, 76629, 76633, 76915, 77009, and 24 77154.) Coddling and Wrotniak testified about such a call, but could not place it in time.
25 Gould did not. Some of these entries reflect emails between SIC members (E. G. Coddling 26 and Wrotniak), but several others reflect emails to or from Kane, who was not a SIC 27 member. Some of these entries reflect emails between SIC members (E. G. Coddling and 28 Wrotniak), but several others reflect emails to or from Kane, who was not a SIC member.

1 These privilege log entries are the very first evidence that he had any communications 2 with anyone, much less GT lawyers, about "ratification" prior to the December 29, 2017 3 board meeting. His deposition testimony was to the effect that he had no such 4 communications. (See 3 hereto, Kane 4/20/18 dep. tr. at 672:4-17.) (Of course, Plaintiff was 5 unable to use these privilege log entries at the depositions of any of the four because 6 those entries were disclosed for the first time on May 31, 2018.)

7 5. Gould's May 31, 2018 Supplemental Production

8 By email transmitted at approximately 5:30 p.m. on May 31, 2018, counsel for 9 Gould made a supplemental production of documents. That production consisted of five 10 single page documents, each of which was a 12/21/17 email invitation from Gould's 11 assistant, Marcia Wizelman, to Coddling, McEachern, and GT lawyers Bonner and 12 Ferrario for a "special committee meeting conference call" at 8:00 p.m. on December 21, 13 2017, or a response to that email invitation. (See Ex. 4 hereto, WG 738-742.) In response to 14 the question from counsel for Plaintiff why these documents had not been produced 15 previously, counsel for Gould stated in a June 1, 2018 email as follows:

17 "These documents were not produced previously because meeting invites 18 related to the December 21, 2017 [SIC] meeting were not considered 19 responsive to document requests until the court ordered such information 20 to be produced on May 2."

21 As for a supplemental privilege log, counsel for Gould stated that "we sent all of 22 our privileged emails to Greenberg Traurig to include in the RDI privilege log. My 23 understanding is that the log that was provided last night included all of Gould's 24 privilege documents." The May 31, 2018 privilege log produced by RDI does not specify 25 which entries are for Mr. Gould.

26 6. The June 9, 2018 Production

27 On Saturday, June 9, 2018, GT made a further supplemental production of 28 documents, producing over 2000 pages of documents. Counsel for Plaintiff has not

1 completed the review of those documents, but it appears that they are largely if not 2 entirely draft SEC filings and email communications regarding those drafts.

3 7. The June 11, 2017 Production

4 About the close of business on June 11, 2018, GT made another supplemental 5 production of documents, the total volume of which is in excess of 3000 pages. The 6 documents were password protected and counsel for Plaintiff was not provided with 7 password. For that reason and because of the volume of documents, counsel for Plaintiff 8 has not reviewed them.

9 8. The June ??, 2018 Privilege Log

10 As of noon Pacific on June 12, 2018, GT has not produced a further supplemental 11 privilege log, as promised on June 9, 2018.

12 III. ARGUMENT

13 As the Court will recall, in response to Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief, the 14 Court on April 30, 2018 ordered an evidentiary hearing, which occurred in May 2, 2018.
15 At the conclusion of the May 2, 2018 evidentiary hearing, the Court ordered the 16 Responding Parties to supplement their document productions and privilege log(s) with 17 respect to three categories of documents/information, including "ratification" generally 18 and, more particularly, a December 21, 2018 meeting of the SIC, and a December 27, 2018 19 email sent by/for William Gould, which email purportedly was the means by which 20 "ratification" was raised and approved.

21 On May 30 and 31, 2018, the responding parties made supplemental productions 22 of documents and produce supplemental privilege logs. As described below, the 23 supplemental document production showed, among other things, that the Responding 24 Parties purposefully concealed the December 21, 2018 SIC meeting from Plaintiff and the 25 Court.

26 As described below, May 30 and 31, 2018 supplemental privilege logs are facially 27 inadequate, and amount to noncompliance with the Court's rulings of May 2, 2018. These 28 privilege logs are inadequate because, among other things, (i) some entries fail to identify

1 Subject to the foregoing general and specific objections, Defendant responds as follows:
2 Defendant spoke to Mark Ferrario in person, in New York, regarding the topic identified in 3 Interrogatory No. 7 on or about December 15, 2017. Details of the conversation with Mr.
4 Ferrario are subject to the attorney-client privilege.

5 INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

6 Identify each attorney who provided you or any member of the board of directors of RDI 7 advice concerning the substance of the matters to be discussed at the meeting held on December 8 29, 2017 to the extent it concerned Ratification.

9 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

10 Defendant incorporates by reference her General Objections. Defendant further objects
11 to this Interrogatory because it seeks information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client 12 privilege, work product doctrine, common interest privilege, or joint defense privilege.
13 Defendant further objects to the definitions of the terms "Identify" and "substance of the matters 14 to be discussed" as vague, ambiguous, overly broad (including as to time), unduly burdensome, 15 duplicative, and seeking information that is not within her possession, custody, or control.

16 Subject to the foregoing general and specific objections, Defendant responds as follows: 17 Mark Ferrario and Michael Bonner provided information regarding the topic identified in 18 Interrogatory No. 9.

19 INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

20 With respect to each person identified under Interrogatory No. 9, please specify:

- 21 a. The date(s) on which you spoke;
- 22 b. The method of communication, and the location of such discussion, if it was in 23 person;
- 24 c. Any other persons present for or privy to such communication; and
- 25 d. A detailed description of what was said.

26 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

27 Defendant incorporates by reference her General Objections. Defendant further objects
28 to this Interrogatory because it seeks information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client

1 privilege, work product doctrine, common interest privilege, or joint defense privilege.
2 Defendant further objects to the term “spoke” as vague and ambiguous because it is not clear 3 whether it is limited to oral communications or may also include written communications; 4 depending on what “spoke” means, the answer to the Interrogatory may necessitate the 5 preparation or the making of a compilation, abstract, or summary of or from Defendant’s 6 documents, the burden or expense of preparing or making it would be substantially the same for 7 Plaintiff as for Defendant, and therefore pursuant to N.R.C.P. 33(d), it is a sufficient answer to 8 specify the writings from which the answer may be derived or ascertained.

9 Subject to the foregoing general and specific objections, Defendant responds as follows:
10 Defendant spoke to Mark Ferrario in person, in New York, regarding the topic identified in 11 Interrogatory No. 9 on or about December 15, 2017. Details of the conversation with Mr.
12 Ferrario are subject to the attorney-client privilege.

13 Michael Bonner and Mark Ferrario provided information regarding the topic identified in 14 Interrogatory No. 9 during the December 29, 2017 meeting of RDI’s Board of Directors.

15 Mr. Bonner summarized the request for a special meeting at the behest of the five named 16 Directors (Coddington, Gould, Kane, McEachern and Wrotniak) pursuant to a letter dated 17 December 27, 2017 delivered to the Chair, pursuant to the Company’s Bylaws, Article 2, Section 18 7. Mr. Bonner also stated that the five requesting directors were the directors found to have been 19 independent and disinterested and who were each dismissed as defendants by the December 11, 20 2017 ruling of the Nevada District Court in the derivative litigation.

21 Mr. Bonner stated that the agenda items to be considered were brought under Nevada 22 Revised Statute Section 78.140. Mr. Bonner quoted from section 2(a) of NRS 78.140 for the 23 record of the meeting.

24 Mr. Bonner briefed the Board of their fiduciary duties under Nevada law, including the 25 duty of due care and the duty of loyalty.

26 In order to put the proposed ratification into perspective, Mr. Ferrario summarized the 27 nature of the allegations by the plaintiff in the derivative action (specifically reading into the 28

1 record the allegations relating to lack of independence of Director Adams) and referred the 2 Directors to the Board Materials.

3 Mr. Bonner briefly summarized certain of the information regarding the matter 4 considered by the Compensation Committee in 2015, at which time the Compensation 5 Committee had authorized the acceptance of Class A non-voting stock owned by the James J.
6 Cotter, Sr. Estate to pay for exercise of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's 7 Class B voting stock owned by the Estate. Mr. Bonner referred to the extensive record made by 8 the Compensation Committee in 2015, and the fact that the acceptance of stock was within the 9 discretion of the Compensation Committee as Administrators of the 1999 Stock Option Plan 10 under which the stock option was granted.

KRUM: 21 Q My question is: Is Exhibit 508 the draft term 22 sheet that was apparently attached to Exhibit 333? 23 A I don't know. 24 Q Well, I bring to your attention that the 25 production numbers are in sequence. Do you see that?	Page 59 1 A Yes. 2 Q Okay. So with the benefit of Exhibit 333 -- 3 well, strike that. 4 Did you, in or about August of 2015, have 5 communications with Helen Cotter about your position 6 at or with Reading? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And what communications did you have? 9 A I don't recall specifically. 10 Q Is Exhibit 333 and Exhibit 508 part of those 11 communications? 12 A I don't know anything about Exhibit 333. As I 13 said, I don't have a recollection of Exhibit 508 other 14 than to say that it's drafted in the style in which I 15 draft these sorts of things. 16 Q In the -- well, strike that. 17 Was there a point in time in 2016 when you held 18 a position called Special Counsel to the CEO? 19 MR. FERRARIO: Did you say '16 or -- 20 MR. KRUM: '16. 21 MR. FERRARIO: This is '15. 22 MR. KRUM: Okay. 23 MR. FERRARIO: Do you want to make it broad? 24 MR. KRUM: Yeah. Thank you. Thank you. 25 BY MR. KRUM:
Page 60 1 Q Was there a time, Mr. Tompkins, that you held a 2 position called or to the effect of Special Counsel to 3 the CEO? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And when was that? 6 A It was at or about the same time that I became 7 Recording Secretary. I don't remember the exact 8 dates. 9 Q Well, can you put it in a time frame, like the 10 year or quarter? 11 A I think -- I think it was sometime near the 12 fourth quarter of 2015 would be my best estimate. 13 Q And do you recall the circumstances or the 14 context of how it occurred that you became Special 15 Counsel to the CEO? 16 A I was asked and I said yes. 17 Q You were asked by whom? 18 A I don't remember who broached the subject. 19 Q Well, was it Ellen Cotter? 20 A It could have been. 21 Q Could it have been somebody else? 22 A It could have been. 23 Q Who else would have broached that subject with 24 you? 25 A It could have been any one of a number of the	Page 61 1 directors. 2 Q Now, this draft term sheet indicates the 3 title President, Special Counsel to the CEO, 4 Chief Compliance Officer, and Recording Secretary. 5 Do you see that? 6 A Yes, I do. 7 Q And you actually have -- you're Chief 8 Compliance Officer now. 9 A Correct. 10 Q We've covered that. I'm not going to ask 11 you to repeat it. 12 And when did you become a recording secretary? 13 Late quarter of 2015, do you believe? 14 A I think so. I'm going to say late fourth 15 quarter. Sometime in the fourth quarter. 16 Q Thank you. 17 So did you have discussions or communications 18 with Ellen Cotter about taking the title of President? 19 A Yes. 20 Q When did you have those communications? 21 A I don't recall. 22 Q Well, did you have them before Jim Cotter, Jr., 23 was terminated as president? 24 A No. 25 Q How do you recall that you did not have them

 3 wasting anyone's time, I'm going to stop. Obviously, 4 I reserve my rights because we have some open issues.
 5 MR. FERRARIO: I understand.
 6 MR. KRUM: But I don't think we have a 7 circumstance where there's a question about where the 8 instruction has been given. And so I don't see any 9 point in crisscrossing this again.
 10 MR. FERRARIO: I appreciate that.
 11 MR. KRUM: So with that, we're done for the day

 13 MR. FERRARIO: Yeah.
 14 THE WITNESS: Great. Thank you.

1 Pursuant to N.R.C.P. 16, 26, 34, 37, 45, and EDCR 2.34 and 7.30, plaintiff James J.
2 Cotter ("Plaintiff") hereby moves the Court for relief against the remaining individual 3 defendants, former defendants William Gould, Judy Coddington, and Doug McEachern, 4 and nominal defendant Reading International, Inc. ("RDI") (collectively, "Responding 5 Parties"), who and which have failed to comply with this Court's rulings of May 2, 2018 6 when, in ruling on Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief, the Court ordered the 7 Responding Parties to make supplemental productions of responsive documents and 8 provide supplemental privilege logs, identifying the categories of information as follows:

9 THE COURT: ... So three categories, [i] the 12/21 special committee
10 meeting, whether its scheduling, content, scope, minutes, whatever, 11 related to that meeting; [ii] P-1 [the 12/27/18 email], whether its 12 subject matter, preparation, drafting, circulation, how we're going 13 to get it on the agenda for the 12/29 meeting; and the third item is 14 [iii] any discussion of ratification, not limited by time.

14 (5/2/18 hearing tr. at 79:6-13.) (Emphasis supplied.)

15 In particular and without limitation, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

16 (1) Order Responding Parties to provide privilege logs that satisfy the Court's 17 requirements, including in particular but not limited to (a) identifying by name and title 18 each author or recipient of a logged document; and (b) providing descriptions of the 19 subject matters of the documents logged sufficient to enable Plaintiff to understand what 20 the subject matters are and sufficient to enable the Court make a ruling on disputed 21 claims of attorney-client privilege and/or attorney work product, subject to in camera 22 review and, more particularly, specify as to each document logged whether it concerns or 23 in any way relates to (i) the December 21, 2017 meeting of the "Special Independent 24 Committee" of the RDI Board of Directors (the "SIC"), including its scheduling, content, 25 scope, minutes anything else related to that meeting, (ii) the December 27, 2018 email 26 from Gould's assistant, marked as P-1 at the May 2, 2018 evidentiary hearing, including 27 its subject matter, preparation, drafting, circulation, how it would be used to get its 28 contents on the agenda for the December 29, 2017 RDI Board of Directors meeting and otherwise related to that document, and/or (iii) ratification; (c) identify each attorney who

1 was party to each document logged and/or each attorney whose advice is contained in 2 each document logged; and (d) identify the basis on which each document logged is 3 claimed to be subject to the attorney-client privilege and/or the attorney work product 4 doctrine;

5 (2) Order William Gould, Judy Coddling, Doug McEachern, Ellen Cotter, 6 Margaret Cotter, Craig Tompkins and Ed Kane to appear for further deposition, should 7 Plaintiff choose to depose them further after these matters are resolved, and order that 8 the travel and lodging costs incurred by counsel for Plaintiff to further depose any one or 9 all of them with respect to these matters be awarded against the Responding Parties; and

10 (3) Order that trial of the captioned action be postponed until such time as 11 Plaintiff has had the opportunity to complete review of documents produced on June 9 12 and 11, 2018 and the privilege log(s) sought by this motion, pursue any motion practice 13 with respect to any disputed claims of attorney-client privilege and/or attorney work 14 product, review any documents subsequently produced and then take the depositions of 15 the persons identified in the immediately preceding paragraph.

16 Plaintiff further moves the Court, under EDCR 2.26, for an order shortening the 17 time for hearing this motion.

18 This Motion is based upon the pleadings and papers on file, the declaration of 19 Mark G. Krum, the exhibits attached hereto, the following memorandum of points and

SHORTENING TIME ON JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION FOR OMNIBUS RELIEF

I, Mark G. Krum, Esq., being duly sworn, deposes and says that:

1. I am an attorney with the firm Yurko, Salvesen & Remz, P.C., attorneys for James J. Cotter, Jr., plaintiff in the above-captioned action ("Plaintiff").

2. I make this declaration based upon personal knowledge, except where stated to be upon information and belief, and as to that information, I believe it to be true. If called upon to testify as to the contents of this Declaration, I am legally competent to testify to the contents of this Declaration in a court of law.

3. By the instant motion, Plaintiff requests that the Court:

- Order Responding Parties to provide privilege logs that satisfy the Court's requirements, including in particular but not limited to (a) identifying by name and title each author or recipient of a logged document; and (b) providing descriptions of the subject matters of the documents logged sufficient to enable Plaintiff to understand what the subject matters are and sufficient to enable the Court make a ruling on disputed claims of attorney-client privilege and/or attorney work product, subject to in camera review and, more particularly, specify as to each document logged whether it concerns or in any way relates to (i) the December 21, 2017 meeting of the "Special Independent Committee" of the RDI Board of Directors (the "SIC"), including its scheduling, content, scope, minutes anything else related to that meeting, (ii) the December 27, 2018 email from Gould's assistant, marked as P-1 at the May 2, 2018 evidentiary hearing, including its subject matter, preparation, drafting, circulation, how it would be used to get its contents on the agenda for the December 29, 2017 RDI Board of Directors meeting and otherwise related to that document, and/or (iii) ratification; (c) identify each attorney who was party to each document logged and/or each attorney whose advice is contained in each document logged; and (d) identify the

1 basis on which each document logged is claimed to be subject to the attorney-2 client privilege and/or the attorney work product doctrine;

- 3 • Order William Gould, Judy Coddington, Doug McEachern, Ellen Cotter, 4 Margaret Cotter, Craig Tompkins and Ed Kane are to appear for further 5 deposition, should Plaintiff choose to depose them further after these matters are 6 resolved, and order that the travel and lodging costs incurred by counsel for 7 Plaintiff to further depose any one or all of them with respect to these matters be 8 awarded against the Responding Parties; and
- 9 • Order that trial of the captioned action be postponed until such time as 10 Plaintiff has had the opportunity to complete review of documents produced on 11 June 9 and 11, 2018 and the privilege log(s) sought by this motion, pursue any 12 motion practice with respect to any disputed claims of attorney-client privilege 13 and/or attorney work product, review any documents subsequently produced and 14 then take the depositions of the persons identified in the immediately preceding 15 paragraph.

16 Reason for Order Shortening Time

17 4. Plaintiff respectfully submits that this Motion should be heard on an order 18 shortening time because unless and until Plaintiff obtains the documents and information 19 which are the subject of this Motion, which Responding Parties are obligated to provide 20 but have not provided, Plaintiff will not be able to complete the discovery he needs and 21 to which he is entitled with respect to the purported "ratification" by Gould, Coddington, 22 McEachern and two other former director defendants of certain prior actionable conduct.
23 More fundamentally, Plaintiff will not be able to provide the oppositions to the 24 remaining defendants renewed "ratification" and demand futility summary judgment 25 motions that Plaintiff otherwise would be able to provide. Plaintiff likewise will not be 26 able to proffer the evidence at trial respect to these matters that Plaintiff would were the 27 discovery which is the subject of this motion provided, as the Court previously ordered 28 on May 2, 2018. For such reasons, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Motion should be

1 heard on an order shortening time rather than in the ordinary course. In particular, 2 Plaintiff requests that this motion be set for June 19, 2018, when counsel for the parties 3 are scheduled to appear before the Court.

4 5. This Declaration is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

5 Discovery Disputes and EDCR 2.34 Conference

6 6. As the Court knows from prior motion practice, Counsel for Plaintiff 7 learned, for the first time, of a meeting of the "Special Independent Committee" of the 8 RDI board of directors (the "SIC") in December 2017 and depositions of SIC members 9 Doug McEachern, Judy Coddington and William Gould. As the Court also knows from prior 10 motion practice, counsel for Plaintiff specifically requested that counsel for the 11 Responding Parties produce minutes of that December 2017 SIC meeting.

12 7. Finally, on or about April 12, 2018, minutes of what turned out to be a 13 December 21, 2017 SIC meeting were produced for the first time. However, they were 14 produced in a wholly redacted form.

15 8. As a result of the foregoing, among other efforts on the part of the 16 remaining defendants and Responding Parties to frustrate Plaintiff's ability to obtain 17 discovery regarding the "ratification" "process," Plaintiff filed a motion for "omnibus 18 relief." That motion was heard on April 30, 2018, at which time the Court ordered an 19 evidentiary hearing, which occurred on May 2. At the end of the May 2 hearing, the 20 Court granted Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief in part, ordering that the Responding 21 Parties produce and/or log all documents responsive to three categories of information, 22 as follows:

23 THE COURT: ... So three categories, [i] the 12/21 special committee
24 meeting, whether its scheduling, content, scope, minutes, whatever, 25 related to that meeting; [ii] P-1 [the 12/27/18 email], whether its 26 subject matter, preparation, drafting, circulation, how we're going 27 to get it on the agenda for the 12/29 meeting; and the third item is 28 [iii] any discussion of ratification, not limited by time.

(5/2/18 hearing tr. at 79:6-13.) (Emphasis supplied.)

1 9. The Court on May 2, 2018 also granted the remaining defendants motion to 2 file what is the now filed Ratification MSJ, but instructed them not to file it until after 3 they had complied with the Court's May 2, 2018 order and afforded counsel for Plaintiff 4 an opportunity to review and analyze the documents and privilege logs and then 5 determine whether Plaintiff needed further discovery. In this regard, the Court stated as 6 follows:

7 THE COURT: Yeah. So I want Mr. Krum, instead of me facing a
8 56(f) issue at the time you file that motion, he's ready to file his 9 opposition, I want him to have the opportunity to get these 10 documents with the privilege logs, look at them, and then have a 11 period of time he can decide whether he needs to take additional 12 depositions and, if you fight about it, for me to rule on it. So I'm 13 going to grant your request even though I am hesitant to do so 14 under the circumstances, but I don't want to be in a position where 15 you guys slow play them and then I'm sitting back here again that 16 he didn't get the stuff.

17 (5/2/18 hearing tr. at 81:6-16.)

18 10. On June 1, 2018, one and two days following the production of documents 19 and supplemental privilege logs on the evenings of May 30 and 31, 2018, described 20 below, the remaining defendants filed the Ratification MSJ. Thus, what the Court sought 21 to avoid is exactly what happened. The remaining defendants and the Responding 22 Parties "slow played" Plaintiff, who has not an opportunity to do what he is entitled to do 23 and what the Court ordered he be afforded the opportunity to do.

24 11. On May 30 and 31, 2018, Greenberg Traurig ("GT"), for RDI and/or for the 25 Responding Parties, made supplemental productions (totaling thousands of pages) of 26 documents and produced two (facially deficient) voluminous, supplemental privilege 27 logs. Dozens upon dozens of documents relating to one or more of the foregoing three 28 categories have been withheld based on claims of attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or both, as reflected by entries on those privilege logs.

 12. Additionally, hundreds of entries on the May 30 and 31, 2018 privilege logs suffer from several facial deficiencies, including the failure to describe the subject matter

1 of the documents logged in terms that are not so general as to be meaningless. As a 2 result, counsel for Plaintiff is unable to use those to logs identify the subjects matter of 3 the communication, much less challenge claims of privilege or examine witnesses to 4 confirm the subject matters and/or the participants.

5 13. On June 6, 2018, I met and conferred telephonically with counsel for RDI
6 and the remaining defendants and the Responding Parties (except for Gould) regarding 7 the May 30 and 31 document productions and privilege logs. On June 8, counsel for RDI
8 advised that the responding parties would be making supplemental productions of 9 documents and would provide a revised privilege log. I believe the foregoing efforts, 10 made in good faith to resolve these matters without Court intervention, satisfy the 11 parties' obligations under EDCR 2.34.

12 14. On Saturday, June 9, 2018, GT made a further supplemental production of 13 documents, producing over 2000 pages of documents. Counsel for Plaintiff has not 14 completed the review of those documents, but it appears that they are largely if not 15 entirely draft SEC filings and email communications regarding those drafts.

16 15. About the close of business on June 11, 2018, GT made another
17 supplemental production of documents, the total volume of which is in excess of 3000
18 pages. The documents were password protected and counsel for Plaintiff was not 19 provided with the password until today. For that reason and because of the volume of 20 documents, counsel for Plaintiff has not reviewed them.

21 16. As of noon Pacific on June 12, 2018, GT has not produced a further 22 supplemental privilege log, as promised on June 9.

23 Certificate pursuant to EDCR 7.30((c))

24 17. For the reasons set out above and those stated more detailed below, good 25 cause exists to continue the July 9 trial date. Under EDCR 7.30(c), I certify that I 26

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

On April 30, 2018, in response to Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief, the Court ordered an evidentiary hearing, which occurred on May 2, 2018. At the end of that hearing, the Court granted in part Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief and, in particular, ordered that the Responding Parties produce and list on supplemental privilege logs documents regarding "ratification" and two other more particularized categories of information. Also on May 2, the Court granted a motion for permission to file a renewed summary judgment motion but, in doing so, specifically directed the remaining defendants not to file summary judgment motions until the Responding Parties had complied with the Court's order to produce and log additional documents. The Court explained this was required to afford counsel for Plaintiff an opportunity to review supplemental productions and privilege logs, seek relief from the Court respect to disputed claims of privilege and otherwise conclude the discovery to which the Court previously had determined Plaintiff was entitled, and to avoid Plaintiff needing to invoke NRCP 56(f).

Exactly what the Court sought to avoid has occurred. Responding Parties have slow played counsel for Plaintiff, making their belated supplemental productions of thousands of pages of documents and voluminous, facially inadequate supplemental privilege logs on the evenings of May 30 and 31, 2018, days before filing motions for summary judgment on June 1 and 4, 2018.

As demonstrated below, the May 30 and 31, 2018 supplemental document productions show, among other things, that Responding Parties purposefully sought to conceal from Plaintiff and the Court that the "Special Independent Committee" of the RDI board of directors (the "SIC") met telephonically on the evening of December 21, 2017 and "formally" approved "ratification."

As demonstrated below, the May 30 and 31 supplemental privilege logs included dozens of entries that suggest that the "ratification" "process" was not carried out
