particular claim to any particular category or amount of damages. For example, Defendants have no idea what relief Plaintiff is seeking in connection with the "involuntary retirement of Storey" or "process/process failures in connection with nomination and retention of directors, including Codding and/or Wrotniak." Plaintiff's list of claims/damages is indecipherable and nonsensical; Plaintiff has attempted to reserve the right at trial to pursue any claim he wants and seek whatever damages he wants. Defendants cannot prepare for trial based on these inadequate disclosures, which amount to nothing but gamesmanship and are highly prejudicial.

RDI's Position:

RDI contends the equitable relief sought would result in significant disruption of RDI management and the pursuit of its long term business strategy. Additionally, RDI joins in the statement of the Director Defendants regarding Plaintiff's purported damages.

Hi Laura,

Please see the attached incident description provided by our office staff Laura Lopez. We make every effort here to shield our employees from any personal complications. We do not allow visitors in the packing house for that very reason. We try to keep the drama down and make this a pleasant environment in which to work. I hope we do not receive any more visitors like this.

Thank you, Karen and David

A gentlemen came in on 03/29/2018 looking for James Cotter Jr. I told him that Jim Jr. did not work out of this office. He started asking me if Jr. lived up at the front house. I told him no Jr. did not live at the house up front. He started asking for Jim Jr's address or what office he worked out of or if I had a phone number for him and I told him that I could not give out that kind of information. He was very persistent trying to get information about Jim Jr. which made me uncomfortable because I'm not to give out personal information. He did not look like any kind of professional person, just a scruffy off the street looking guy. He then asked me to mail a paper to Jim Jr and left.

Re: James J. Cotter, Jr., v. Margaret Cotter, et al., Case No. A-15-719860-B / P-14-082942-E

Dear Counsel:

We recently learned that a debt collector purporting to represent AlixPartners LLP, the consulting firm that employs Dr. John D. Finnerty (Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr.'s rebuttal damages expert), appeared at the offices of Cecelia Packing Corporation and demanded to see Plaintiff regarding unpaid bills to AlixPartners. Apparently, this field visit was triggered by the fact that Plaintiff's account was in a delinquent status and Plaintiff had not responded to earlier debt collection inquiries made via telephone and mail.

In the parties' December 8, 2017 Joint Pretrial Memorandum, submitted on the eve of the initial trial date for this matter, Plaintiff represented to the Court and Defendants that each of his disclosed experts—including Dr. Finnerty—would appear at trial and "will offer opinion testimony., (See 12/8/17 J. Pretrial Mem. at 24-25.) Plaintiff made similar representations to the Court and Defendants regarding the anticipated appearances of each of his experts at the final pretrial conference held on January 5, 2018. (See 1/5/18 Hr'g Tr. at 28:4-32:10.)

The recent visit from the AlixPartners representative calls into question the continued accuracy of Plaintiff's previous representations regarding the anticipated appearances of his experts. As you are aware, Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e)(1) creates a duty "to supplement at appropriate intervals,, a party's initial disclosures, disclosures regarding expert testimony, and pretrial disclosures whenever the previously-disclosed information "is incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective informative has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing., In light of Plaintiff's obligations under NRCP 26(e)(1), and given the parties' need to file another Joint Pretrial Memorandum in less than two weeks, we ask that Plaintiff confirm by Wednesday, May 9, 2018 which of Plaintiff's disclosed experts will appear at the forthcoming trial.

In addition, in each of the deposition subpoenas (duces tecum) that they served upon Plaintiff and his experts, Defendants sought the production of all communications between the expert "and Plaintiff, Plaintiff's counsel, or anyone acting on their behalf, relating to this litigation, and "documents sufficient to identify the total fees paid to [the expert] for any work [the expert] performed on behalf of Plaintiff or Plaintiff's counsel during the course of this litigation., (See, e.g., Dep. Subpoena (Duces Tecum) to John Finnerty, Req. Nos. 2, 6.) Information pertaining to the expert fees incurred by Plaintiff and his payment—or nonpayment—thereof is captured by these requests. Such information should be produced to Defendants, as it is not privileged. See Subpoenaed Witness v. United States, 171 F.3d 511, 513 (7th Cir. 1999) ("[I]nformation regarding . . . fees is not protected by the attorney-client privilege because the payment of fees is not a confidential communication...); Ralls v. United States, 52 F.3d 223, 225 (9th Cir. 1995) (the attorney-client privilege "applies only to confidential professional communications, and the payment of fees is usually incidental to the attorney-client relationship,,); Vingelli v. United States, 992 F.2d 449, 452 (2d Cir. 1993) ("fee arrangements do not fall within the attorney-client privilege because they are not the kinds of disclosures that would not have been made absent the privilege and their disclosure does not incapacitate the attorney from rendering legal advice,); Washington v. Sheppard, 52 Wash. App. 707, 711, 763 P.2d 1232, 1234 (Wash. Ct. App. 1988) ("the amount, source, and manner of payment of the fee [must] be disclosed.).

Accordingly, we further request that Plaintiff confirm by Wednesday, May 9, 2018 that, pursuant to Defendants' ongoing document requests and Plaintiff's obligation to timely supplement his document production, he will produce forthwith all correspondence with his expert witnesses regarding their fees and his payment (or nonpayment) of any amounts he owes or has owed resulting from expert services in this matter. Should Plaintiff fail to provide the requested assurances or fail to agree to produce all responsive information regarding his (non)payments to his experts, Defendants will be compelled to bring a motion before the Court. Defendants are available to meet and confer on Wednesday morning if any of this is unclear.

Very truly yours,

Marshall M. Searcy, III

Subject: RE: Cotter/RDI

Marshall,

I have your letter transmitted at approximately 9:30 p.m. on Monday night, which demands a response within less than 48 hours. As a pretext for demanding a response in less than 48 hours, you claim to have "recently" learned that AlixPartners, who employs Dr. John D. Finnerty, an expert designated by plaintiff, apparently has a fee dispute with plaintiff. When I did not meet your less than 48 hour deadline, you sent an email last night at 7:22 p.m. eastern demanding that I be available this morning to speak because the matter is "urgent."

That is utter fiction. Counsel for defendants have known about this matter for months, as evidenced by the fact that Mr. Ferrario raised it months ago. He likewise referred to it in court last week when he opted to obfuscate and accuse rather than speak to the failure of defense counsel to produce and/or log certain documents regarding the "ratifications" upon which they seek to have the case dismissed. Simply put, there is nothing "urgent" about the matter raised in your letter of Monday, which matter you delayed raising by months.

For those reasons and others, your letter is recognized for what it is, namely, a pretext to create a dispute you intend to use to raise with the Court in an effort to prejudice plaintiff and deflect attention from the machinations of defense counsel that resulted in the rulings of May 2. This squarely is in the category of Mr. Ferrario's unfounded and shameless implications last week to the effect that what transpired in January precipitating a trial continuance was a fiction perpetrated by plaintiff. We have no obligation to acquiesce to, much less facilitate, additional misuse of the litigation process by defense counsel.

As to Dr. Finnerty, you may and should understand that we do not intend to call him as a witness at trial presently anticipated to occur in July. That advice moots both the claimed "urgency" and any reason to meet and confer. If you maintain something remains, kindly advise what it is and we can speak at a mutually convenient time. For me, the first such time will be Monday, when I can be available until 5 p.m. eastern.

Mark

Re: James J. Cotter, Jr., v. Margaret Cotter, et al., Case No. A-15-719860-B / P-14-082942-E

Dear Mark:

I write in response to the numerous inaccuracies in your May 10, 2018 email to me, which purports to "moot"—but does not actually address—the two simple questions posed in my May 7, 2018 letter to you.

First, my letter asked that you "confirm by Wednesday, May 9, 2018 which of Plaintiff's disclosed experts will appear at the forthcoming trial." (5/7/18 Searcy Ltr. at 2.) There is no reason that you could not answer this basic question over a 48-hour period. Indeed, this inquiry was perfectly reasonable in light of the potential consequences of Plaintiff's apparent unpaid debt to AlixPartners (and possibly other experts), the rapidly-approaching trial for which Defendants need to prepare, the parties' upcoming Joint Pretrial Memorandum (due in about one week), Plaintiff's previous representations to the Court, and Plaintiff's continuing obligations under NRCP 26(e)(1). You have now informed us that Dr. Finnerty will not be appearing at trial, but have avoided my actual question, which was not specific to him. Are there any other experts, previously disclosed by Plaintiff, that will not be appearing at trial? If so, who?

Second, my letter requested that you "confirm by Wednesday, May 9, 2018 that, pursuant to Defendants' ongoing document requests and Plaintiff's obligation to timely supplement his document production, [Plaintiff] will produce forthwith all correspondence with his expert witnesses regarding their fees and his payment (or nonpayment) of any amounts he owes or has owed resulting from expert services in this matter." (5/7/18 Searcy Ltr. at 2.) Plaintiff previously produced some of these materials prior to expert depositions in 2016. (See, e.g., Dep. Exs. 428, 467, 476.) Such communications are responsive, relevant, and not privileged, and Plaintiff has a duty under Rule 26(e)(1) to supplement his production. Again, there is no reason that you could not answer this "yes/no" question in a 48-hour period. You did not, and your May 10 email ignores this question entirely. Please answer the question: Are you producing the requested communications? If so, when can we expect them?

Finally, the attorney colloquy in your email is irrelevant, incorrect, and unnecessarily vituperative. Defendants were informed about the visit to Cecelia Packing Corporation by the AlixPartners debt collector in late April—which is far from "months" ago, as you inaccurately assert. Similarly, Defendants' request that Plaintiff supplement his existing production to include relevant, newly-generated documents is in no way a "misuse of the litigation process by defense counsel"; rather, it is something that Plaintiff—like all litigants—is required to do by Nevada procedure. And your insinuation that Defendants' request has anything to do with issues surrounding the production of ratification documents is sadly misguided.

I ask that you actually respond to my two simple questions, originally posed on Monday, by the end of the day today. Should Plaintiff agree to produce the requested documents (as he is obligated), we are happy to meet and confer with you regarding a production schedule, including on Monday, May 14 as you suggest. But there is no reason for further baseless delay, especially in light of the rapidly-approaching trial.

Very truly yours,

Marshall M. Searcy, III

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendants' disingenuous Motion to Compel is nothing more than a litigation tactic aimed at disparaging the plaintiff before trial under the guise of raising an "urgent" discovery issue. Defendants ran to the Court before making meaningful efforts to resolve the purported discovery issue and despite knowing that it was rendered moot when Plaintiff's counsel advised, on May 10, that Mr. Finnerty would not testify as an expert at trial.

The Motion is also baseless: Defendants did not ask Cotter for, nor do they need or are they entitled to, correspondence between him and his experts regarding expert fee payments. Such documents have no bearing on the issues in this case as to which discovery long ago. Defendants acknowledge as much: They have not supplemented their own production with the type of documents they now seek from Plaintiff. For these reasons and those stated below, the Court should deny Defendants' Motion to Compel.

II. ARGUMENT

A. The Motion to Compel is Untimely.

A party may not "delay a motion to compel with impunity." Gault v. Nabisco Co., 184 F.R.D. 620, 622 (D. Nev. 1999) (quoting The Rutter Group, Federal Civil Procedure Before Trial, ¶ 11.753 (1998)). Thus, courts have denied motions to compel filed on or after the discovery deadline, e.g., E.E.O.C. v. Pioneer Hotel, Inc., 2014 WL 5045109, *1 (D. Nev. Oct. 9, 2014), and after the time set for filing dispositive motions. Gault, 184 F.R.D. at 622. "Untimeliness is sufficient ground, standing alone, to deny a discovery motion." Williams v. Las Vegas Metro. Police Dep't., 2015 WL 3489553 *2 (D. Nev. June 3, 2015) (citing Affiliated FM Ins. Co. v. LTK Consulting Servs., Inc., 2012 WL 1903149, *5 (W.D. Wash. May 25, 2012)).

$\begin{array}{c} \mathbf{MORRIS\ LAW\ GROUP} \\ \textbf{411\ E.\ Bonneville\ Ave., STE.\ 360\cdot LAS\ VEGAS, NEVADA\ 89101} \\ \textbf{702/474-9400\cdot FAX\ 702/474-9422} \end{array}$

Here, discovery closed last October, 2017. Dispositive motions were due to be filed no later than November 9, 2017. Plaintiff's experts had produced their documents in response to Defendants' subpoenas more than a year earlier and been deposed. See Exs. 1-6 to Motion to Compel, on file. The Court only reopened discovery in January 2018 for the limited purpose of allowing Plaintiff to conduct discovery on the purported ratification and demand futility. As Defendants concede, the expert fee documents Defendants belatedly seek for the first time do not have a thing to do with ratification and demand futility.

Further, counsel for the moving Defendants knew no later than April 17, 2018—and likely earlier¹—that a bill collector had stopped by a Cotter-owned company to collect the purported bill from AlixPartners, expert Finnerty's company. See Motion to Compel, Ex. 9 (April 17, 2018 email from David Roth to Margaret Cotter). But their counsel did not raise this issue with Plaintiff's counsel until May 7. See id., Ex. 10. Based on this (knowing) delay alone, the Motion should be denied.

David Roth first received word of the bill collector a month earlier, on March 29, 2018, the same day the bill collector allegedly stopped by Cecilia Packing Co. See id. (Email dated March 29, 2018 of Laura Lopez to David Roth). Counsel for RDI, who advised the Court that his client intends to join in Defendants' Motion, was aware of a billing dispute as early as January, when counsel for RDI raised the matter with counsel for plaintiff.

В. Defendants' counsel did not make good faith efforts to confer before filing the Motion.

Before bringing a motion to compel discovery, the moving party's counsel must make a "good faith" effort to meet and confer with opposing counsel to resolve the dispute. EDCR 2.34 (d). The rule contemplates an in-person or telephone conference. Id. If a telephone conference "was not possible, [counsel's] affidavit shall set forth the reasons." Id. Further, the affidavit must state "what was resolved and what was not resolved and the reasons therefore."

Consistent with their practice in this case, moving Defendants' counsel failed to comply with EDCR 2.34(d). Defendants' counsel first wrote Plaintiff's counsel on May 7, after hours, giving Plaintiff's counsel less than 48 hours to advise: (1) which experts he plans to call at trial; and (2) whether he will supplement his document production with correspondence between him and his experts. See Motion to Compel, Ex. 10.

On May 10, Plaintiff's counsel, Mark Krum, responded and advised that Mr. Finnerty would not be called at trial and that this should moot the issue, but still offered to speak, if necessary, on Monday May 14, advising he would be available until 5 p.m. EST. Motion to Compel, Ex. 12.

Rather than taking Plaintiff's counsel up on this offer, Defendants' counsel fired off another letter on May 10. See id., Ex. 13. Although Mr. Searcy wrote that he was "happy to meet and confer" regarding a "production schedule," id. at 2 (emphasis added), he did not offer to meet and confer about the basis for his requests. Indeed, the next day, on May 11—before having the telephone conference offered by Plaintiff's counsel—Defendants served their Motion to Compel. See Motion to Compel (electronically served on May 11, at 3:54 pm).

Thus, the record belies Mr. Searcy's "belie[f]" that he made "good faith" efforts "to resolve this matter without Court intervention." Id. at page iv (Declaration of Marshall M. Searcy III), ¶ 16. Mr. Searcy's declaration also failed to acknowledge that Mr. Finnerty not testifying resolved Defendants' May 7 request for documents between Finnerty and Plaintiff based on the bill collector's March 29 visit. Nor did he explain why a telephone conference was not possible. Defendants' failure to comply with EDCR 2.34(d) provides a separate basis to deny Defendants' Motion.

- C. There is no Legal Basis for the Motion to Compel.
 - Plaintiff Has no Obligation to Respond to Expert Subpoenas.

Defendants' Motion to Compel repeatedly suggests that (1) there are outstanding "document requests" to Plaintiff that ask for or encompass correspondence between him and his experts relative to the payment or non-payment of their fees; and that (2) Plaintiff previously responded to them. See, e.g., Motion to Compel at 1:12-15 ("Defendants' preexisting document requests cover all communications. . . . Plaintiff produced such correspondence prior to expert depositions in late 2016") (emphasis added); id. at 4:26-27 ("...documents... pertaining to the expert fees ... are captured by Defendants' existing document requests"); id. at 6:25-26 ("...documents... .pertaining to the expert fees . . . are captured by Defendants' existing document requests, and Plaintiff previously produced such documents on behalf of his experts")(emphasis added).

These representations are false. Defendants served no Rule 34 document requests on Plaintiff pertaining to payment of expert fees to which Plaintiff responded. Defendants served subpoenas on Plaintiff's experts back in October 2016 asking for fee payment documents to which the experts responded. See Motion to Compel, Exs. 1-3 (subpoenas); and Exs. 4-6 (deposition exhibits of documents produced by experts, such as Depo Ex. 428, bearing bates number "FINNERTY000029").

Thus, there are no "preexisting document requests" to which Plaintiff responded that he is under a duty to supplement under Rule 26(e)(1), as Defendants argue. Motion to Compel at 6:25-7:1. Plaintiff never had, nor does he now have, an obligation to respond to these expert subpoenas, Nev. R. Civ. P. 45(a).

> 2. Plaintiff has no obligation to supplement his expert disclosures with correspondence about the payment or non-payment of expert witness fees.

While Nev. R. Civ. P. 26(e)(1) requires parties to correct an expert report if the expert's compensation changes, nothing in Rule 26(e)(1) requires Plaintiff to supplement his expert disclosures with correspondence between him and any of his experts as to what fees were paid and what fees remain outstanding. Notably, Defendants do not point to a single statement in the expert reports or in the experts' testimony that is now incorrect or incomplete. Moreover, Defendants knew before filing their Motion that Mr. Finnerty will not testify at trial. Thus, their request for fee payment correspondence is misplaced for this reason, too.

> 3. Expert fee correspondence is not relevant to the subject matter of the case.

While a party is "under a duty to supplement at appropriate intervals its [initial] disclosures under Rule 16.1(a)," Nev. R. Civ. P. 26(e)(1), only documents that are "discoverable under Rule 26(b)"—i.e., "relevant to the subject matter" of the case and not privileged—are required to be produced. Nev. R. Civ. P. 16.1(a)(1)(B).

While arguing that letters between Cotter and his experts relative to the payment and non-payment of their fees are "clearly relevant," Motion at 5:19, Defendants' Motion does not bother to explain how or why. They cannot back up this hyperbolic statement because such correspondence has no bearing on Plaintiff's claims or Defendants' defenses.

$\begin{array}{c} \mathbf{MORRIS\ LAW\ GROUP} \\ \textbf{411\ E.\ Bonneville\ Ave.,\ STE.\ 360\cdot Las\ Vegas,\ Nevada\ 89101} \\ \textbf{702/474-9400\cdot FAX\ 702/474-9422} \end{array}$

This is so whether Mr. Finnerty testifies or not, but especially now that Mr. Finnerty will not testify.²

Even assuming fee payment correspondence were relevant, the cases cited by Defendants for the proposition that communications about expert billing are not privileged do not support that broad proposition. In Ralls v. United States, 52 F.3d 223 (9th Cir. 1995), for example, the court reversed and quashed the grand jury subpoena because the fee communications were "inextricably linked to privileged communications and [] therefore privileged." Id. at 224. Moreover, all cases cited by Defendants involve grand jury or special inquiry subpoenas served on lawyers, seeking fee arrangements. See, e.g., id. (grand jury subpoena on criminal defense attorney); see also In re Subpoenaed Grand Jury Witness, 171 F.3d 511 (7th Cir.1999) (federal grand jury subpoena served on attorney). Defendants did not cite to a single civil case in which a court ordered a party to disclose—much less without an outstanding discovery request—fee payment correspondence with his or her expert.

² Defendants' feigned concern about the impact of "lengthy [payment] delinquencies" on the appearance of Plaintiff's experts at trial, Motion at 5:22-25, is disingenuous and only underscores that Defendants' only motive for bringing the Motion is to disparage Plaintiff and reiterate the defamatory non sequitur regarding plaintiff's availability in January 2017.

III. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, the Court should deny Defendants' Motion to Compel in its entirety.

DEFENDANTS' PRE-TRIAL MEMORANDUM

Defendants Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, and Guy Adams, and Nominal Defendant Reading International, Inc., through their counsel of record, hereby submit the following pre-trial memorandum in accordance with this Court's 2nd Amended Order Setting Civil Jury Trial, Pre-Trial Conference and Calendar Call, dated May 4, 2018, and Local Rule 2.67. Defendants are filing separately because, after providing their redline edits to Plaintiff's "discussion draft" of the Pre-Trial Memorandum, Plaintiff unilaterally filed his own Pre-Trial Memorandum separately. When Defendants provided their proposed edits, Plaintiff's counsel responded at 2:53 p.m. that Defendants had "included material not properly included in a pre trial memorandum." See Ex. A (May 18, 2018 email chain). Also at 2:53 p.m., Defendants' counsel asked Plaintiff's counsel to explain what he was referring to. Id. Rather than providing any explanation, Plaintiff's counsel proceeded to file his own Pre-Trial Memorandum separately. After Plaintiff's Pre-Trial Memorandum had already been filed, Plaintiff's counsel responded and stated: "For example, it argues the not yet filed 'ratification' summary judgment motion. I am out to dinner and will leave it at that." However, Defendants' proposed edits properly described ratification as a defense. Thus, Defendants are now forced to file their own version of the Pre-Trial Memorandum separately.

II. OTHER PRETRIAL MATTER

A. Statement of Facts

Plaintiff's Statement:

In view of the significant prior proceedings in this case, including motions to dismiss and summary judgment motions, as well as the detail in the pending Second Amended Complaint (the particular allegations of which have been or will be admitted or denied in the individual defendants' respective answers), and the Court's resulting familiarity with this case, the parties respectfully provide the following abbreviated, summary statement of facts of the case:

Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. ("Mr. Cotter" or "Plaintiff") was and is a substantial shareholder and a director of nominal defendant Reading International, Inc. ("RDI" or the "Company"), as well as a former President and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"). Defendants Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter were and are members of the RDI board of directors (the "Board") and at all times relevant hereto have purported to be and/or been the controlling shareholder(s) of RDI. Each of the remaining individual defendants was at relevant times and is a member of the RDI Board, as well of certain Board committees.

The facts of this case include and concern acts and omissions of individual director defendants which the Plaintiff claims give rise to entail breaches of fiduciary duties individually and/or together with other acts and omissions, including with respect to the following matters: the threat to terminate Mr. Cotter as President and CEO of RDI, the termination of Mr. Cotter as President and CEO of RDI, the demand that he resign from the Board, RDI Board governance matters, RDI SEC filings and press releases, the search for a permanent CEO that resulted in Ellen Cotter becoming permanent CEO, the hiring and compensation of Margaret Cotter as EVP RED NY, the payment of certain monies to certain of the individual defendants and the actions and or lack of actions by each of the individual defendants in response to offers or expressions of interest by Patton Vision and others to purchase all of the outstanding stock of RDI.

Director Defendants' Statement:

On June 12, 2015, the Board of Directors of Reading International, Inc. ("RDI") voted to terminate Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. as President and CEO of RDI. Plaintiff claims that this decision was a breach of fiduciary duty. Plaintiff also claims various other breaches of fiduciary duty, including with respect to the search for a new President and CEO of RDI, the hiring of Margaret Cotter as an Executive Vice President for Real Estate -- NYC, and the approval by the Compensation Committee of the use of Class A stock by the Estates of James J. Cotter, Sr. (the "Cotter Estate") to exercise an option held by the Cotter Estate to purchase 100,000 shares of RDI Class B voting stock (the "Cotter Estate Stock Option Exercise").. The Director Defendants contend that they acted in the best interests of RDI stockholders at all times and fulfilled their fiduciary duties to the Company. The Director Defendants further contend that the actions taken by the Board and its committees is protected by the Business Judgment Rule and, furthermore, that none of the actions of which Plaintiff complains caused any damage to the Company.

In December 2017, this Court entered judgment on behalf of five of the nine current Directors of RDI—William Gould, Douglas McEachern, Edward Kane, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak—because there is no material issue of fact that these Directors were independent and disinterested. As a result, all of the corporate "transactions" alleged by Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. to be actionable breaches of fiduciary duty were indisputably approved by a majority of disinterested, independent directors, save for two: (1) the actions taken by Board members leading up to and including the termination of Plaintiff as CEO and President of RDI; and (2) the RDI Compensation Committee's approval of the Cotter Estate Stock Option Exercise. Following the Court's decision, the full RDI Board convened a Special Meeting on December 29, 2017 at the request of these five disinterested, independent directors to reevaluate these two remaining transactions.

After discussing Plaintiff's allegations as to the potential interestedness or non-independence of Mr. Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret Cotter, the independent directors addressed the challenged termination and stock-option decisions at the Special Meeting. In doing so, they were informed by the Company's counsel, their own extensive knowledge of the applicable facts, their previous corporate-board experience, and a further review of the contemporaneous RDI Board materials relevant to those decisions. The Board also allowed additional debate and comment. Ultimately, with Mr. Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret Cotter not voting, the RDI Board voted 5-1 (with only Plaintiff dissenting) to ratify Plaintiff's termination and the Compensation Committee's stock-option decision. With the RDI Board having met all of the legally required criteria, Nevada's business judgment rule therefore applies to those "transactions," as it does to the other corporate decisions questioned by Plaintiff in this derivative suit. Given the principal purpose of the Business Judgement Rule—to prevent the second-guessing of Board decisions—none of the actions of which Plaintiff complains (including these two actions specifically ratified in December) can now be invalidated or be a basis for a claim of damages regardless of any decision with respect to the independence of Guy Adams, Ellen Cotter, or Margaret Cotter. The five independent directors have exercised the authority vested in them by the Nevada Corporations Code, and their determination must under such law, be respected.

RDI's Statement:

RDI joins in the Director Defendants' Statement above.

B. List of Claims

Plaintiff's list of claims for relief is as follows:

- A. Breaches of the Duty of Care (SAC 1 179) (First Cause)

| 23 | For Plaintiff: |
| 24 | 1. Former Chief Justice Myron Steele will offer opinion testimony |
| 25 26 | relating to matters of corporate governance, including |
| 27 | regarding proper exercise of directors' fiduciary duties. Among | other things, he will offer opinion testimony regarding appropriate corporate governance practices and activities where a board of directors is faced with circumstances in which directors lack or may lack independence and/or disinterestedness, including the appropriate practices and activities to address such circumstances, and to evaluate the success of such practices and activities, including with respect to the following matters (i) the process used to terminate James J. Cotter, Jr. as President and Chief Executive Officer of Reading International, Inc. ("RDI")., (ii) the use of the Executive Committee of RDI's Board of Directors, (iii) the appointment of EC and MC to their respective current positions and the revised compensation and bonuses that they and Adams were given and (iv) the rejection of the Offer. ² Former Chief Justice Steele
| - 1 | |

² As stated in the Steele Report, it is Justice Steele's understanding that Nevada courts look to Delaware case law when there is no Nevada statutory or case law on point for an issue of corporate law. See, e.g. Brown v. Kinross Gold U.S.A., Inc., 531 F. Supp. 2d 1234, 1245 (D. Nev. 2008) ("Because the Nevada Supreme Court frequently looks to the Delaware Supreme Court and the Delaware Courts of Chancery as persuasive authorities on questions of corporation law, this Court often looks to those sources to predict how the Nevada Supreme Court would decide the question."); Hilton Hotels Corp. v. ITT Corp., 978 F. Supp. 1342, 1346 (D. Nev. 1997) ("Where, as here, there is no Nevada statutory or case law on point or an issue of corporate law, this Court finds persuasive authority in Delaware case law."); Cohen v. Mirage Resorts, Inc., 62 P.3d 720, 727 n.10 (Nev. 2003) ("Because the Legislature relied upon the Model Act and the Model Act relies heavily on New York and Delaware case law, we look to the Model Act and the law of those states in interpreting the Nevada statutes.").

- also will offer opinion testimony to rebut opinions offered by defendants' expert Michael Klausner.
- 2. Richard Spitz will offer opinion testimony relating to executive and CEO searches and RDI's supposed CEO search. It is anticipated that he will offer opinion testimony that the execution of the (supposed) executive search process undertaken at RDI in 2015 to find a CEO was not conducted properly and that the search failed, including because the selection of Ellen Cotter as CEO was not the product of completing the search process undertaken and was not a result of the search activities conducted.
- 3. Tiago Duarte-Silva will offer opinion testimony about money damages Plaintiff seeks by this action. It is anticipated that his opinion testimony will include opinions that (i) Reading's earnings have declined and underperformed since Ellen Cotter became Reading's CEO, and (ii) Reading's value has declined and underperformed since Ellen Cotter became Reading's CEO. Mr. Duarte-Silva also will offer opinion testimony to rebut opinions offered by defendants' expert Richard Roll.

For the Director Defendants:

Justice Steele is aware that the defendants in this action have filed a motion in limine because the Steele Report stated that the opinions therein were based on what a court that applied Delaware law would find. That phraseology was intended simply to refer to Justice Steele's years of experience in Delaware's well-versed body of law. The Delaware law on which Justice Steele relies neither supplants nor modifies the plain meaning of Nevada law, but only is used to inform Nevada law.

- 1. Michael Klausner Mr. Klausner will offer opinion testimony regarding the Board of Directors' proper exercise of their duties and obligations in connection with their decision to terminate James Cotter, Jr. as President and CEO and their decision not to pursue the third-party indication of interest, including as a rebuttal to Plaintiffs' expert Justice Myron Steele.
- 2. Jon Foster Mr. Foster will offer opinion testimony regarding the Board of Directors' decision-making and analysis in connection with their consideration of the third-party indication of interest, as a rebuttal to the expected testimony of Plaintiffs' expert Tiago Duarte-Silva.
- 3. Richard Roll Dr. Roll will offer opinion testimony about the claimed money damages being sought by Plaintiff in this action based on fluctuations or changes in RDI's stock price, including as a rebuttal to Plaintiffs' purported damages experts.
- 4. Bruce Strombom Mr. Strombom will offer opinion testimony to rebut the purported damages analysis set forth by Plaintiffs' expert Tiago Duarte-Silva.

For Reading international, Inc.:

H. Issues of Law

Plaintiff's Position:

Plaintiff's position is that any such issues will be raised with the Court in the context of jury instructions.

Director Defendants' Position:

19

24

In order to allow Director Defendants to adequately prepare for trial, they request an early conference on jury instructions.

Director Defendants believe that for each purported breach of fiduciary described in the Second Amended Complaint, each of them (1) were subject to the protections and presumptions afforded by Nevada's business judgment rule, (2) properly exercised their fiduciary obligations, (3) did not engage in any "intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of law" required by N.R.S. 78.138 to impose individual liability on corporate directors, and, although not relevant under Nevada law, and (4) were independent for each relevant decision made by the Board in which they participated. Their decisions were duly ratified by a majority of the Board consisting entirely of independent directors, and also did not result in any damages to RDI. Moreover, Plaintiff lacks standing to bring this derivative action or to derivatively assert certain claims (a) that are wholly personal to him, such as his termination claim and his claims that he was somehow "threatened" by one or more of the Defendant Directors, and (b) since he has not proven his allegations that demand would have been futile. Similarly, the equitable relief that Plaintiff seeks—i.e., reinstatement as President and CEO of RDI—is not available as a matter of law. Finally, Director Defendants' contend that the Board's December 29, 2017 vote ratifying the Board's earlier decisions with respect to Plaintiff's termination and the exercise of the 100,000 share option eliminated any potential issues remaining for trial.3

³ Additionally, certain documents remain which may be subject to in camera review regarding production shortly. See James J. Cotter, Jr. v. The Eighth Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, Case No. 18-16774, 134 Nev., Advance Opinion 32 (Nev. May 3, 2018).

RDI's Position:

RDI joins in the Director Defendants' request for an early conference on jury instructions.

RDI contends that Plaintiff lacks standing to act on behalf of RDI, because he is unable to show that it would have been futile for him to make a demand on RDI's Board of Directors with respect to his most recently amended Complaint. Because standing is jurisdictional, this Court lacks jurisdiction to proceed with this matter.

RDI notes that all decisions related to the compensation of any board member in any capacity, are presumed pursuant to Nevada statute, regardless of any contention of personal interest, to be fair to RDI, pursuant to NRS 78.240(5).

All board decisions challenged by Plaintiff, with the exception of the termination of Cotter, Jr., were approved by a majority of directors whose decisions in that regard this Court has already determined were the exercise of valid business judgment. Additionally, the termination of Cotter, Jr, and the decision by the Compensation Committee to permit the Estate of Cotter, Sr. to pay for the exercise of its option to purchase shares with shares that it already owned are decisions that have been ratified by a majority of the independent members of RDI's board. Accordingly, Plaintiff will be unable to prove any damages incurred by RDI.

Additionally, as the result of the Court's Dember 2017 ruling, much of the proposed testimony of former Justice Steele (specifically, that related to his conclusions (ii)-(iv)) has been rendered irrelevant. The Court's dismissal of the claim related to the rejected "offer" also renders testimony related to Steele's conclusion (iv) irrelevant. Moreover, because Steele's testimony involves application of the "entire fairness" doctrine, a doctrine inconsistent with Nevada law, Steele's proposed testimony with respect to his conclusion (i) is likely to confuse the jury.

Additionally, RDI joins in the position of the Director Defendants.

K. Estimated Length of Trial

Defendants estimate 15 days; 80 trial hours.

L. Other Issues

Director Defendants' Statement:

Plaintiff's list of claims above neither complies with the rules for pretrial disclosures nor provides any clarity about what claims Plaintiff actually intends to prove at trial or what relief (money or equitable) he seeks. Eighth District Rule of Practice 2.67(b)(2) requires Plaintiff to provide "[a] list of all claims for relief designated by reference to each claim or paragraph of a pleading and a description of the claimant's theory of recovery with each category of damage requested." The Director Defendants intend to address at trial any purported breaches of fiduciary duty—and will show that Plaintiff's claims are baseless—but must be told which specific actions are at issue in order to properly prepare their defense.

Plaintiff states that he will pursue claims for breaches of fiduciary duty potentially based on each and every allegation in the Second Amended Complaint by, for example, stating his intent to pursue "[b]reach(es) of the duty of care and abdication of fiduciary responsibilities by some or all acts and omissions in SAC." This provides no more information than if Plaintiff had never made his pre-trial disclosures—he may or may not pursue a claim based on any act or omission mentioned or alluded to anywhere in the Second Amended Complaint.

Plaintiff's list of claims also fails to recognize that Directors Codding, Gould, Kane, McEachern and Wrotniak are no longer defendants in this case, and purports to continue to assert claims of wrongdoing against each of these individuals. He apparently seeks to end-run the determination of this Court that the actions taken by these individuals are protected by the Nevada Business Judgment Rule and seeks to overturn decisions (for example, hiring Margaret Cotter or promoting Ellen Cotter) that the Board made by arguing, nevertheless, that these actions constituted breaches of fiduciary duty. Once independence and disinterestedness is established, however, such corporate action is protected.

Plaintiff's witness list similarly fails to shed any light on the claims Plaintiff intends to pursue—his list strays so far afield that Plaintiff has stated his intent to call Defendant Guy Adams' ex-wife (Lois Marie Kwasigroch) at trial.

Plaintiff also fails to disclose the actual monetary damages or equitable relief he intends to seek at trial. For example, Plaintiff states that his damages resulting from Defendants' alleged breaches of the duty of care are "injury to RDI's reputation and goodwill" and "impairment of shareholder rights due to SEC filings." If these are supposed money damages, Plaintiff does not state his claim for damages, or even explain what shareholder rights are purportedly impacted. With the exception of the equitable relief he seeks in connection with his termination from RDI (i.e., being reinstated as President and CEO), Plaintiff does not link any particular claim to any particular category or amount of damages. For example, Defendants have no idea what relief Plaintiff is seeking in connection with the "involuntary retirement of Storey" or "process/process failures in connection with nomination and retention of directors, including adding Codding and/or Wrotniak." Moreover, Plaintiff's damages expert is unable to testify to any causal link between any alleged breach of duty and any alleged damage to the Company. In connection with his claims related to the Cotter Estate Stock Option, Plaintiff "reserves" the right to seek equitable relief, but he does not disclose what equitable relief he may seek.

Plaintiff's list of claims/damages is indecipherable and nonsensical; Plaintiff has attempted to reserve the right at trial to pursue any claim he wants and seek whatever damages he wants. Defendants cannot prepare for trial based on these inadequate disclosures, which amount to nothing but gamesmanship and are highly prejudicial.

For example, it argues the not yet filed "ratification" summary judgment motion. I am out to dinner and will leave it at that.

Defendants have included material not properly included in a pre trial memorandum. Whether by design ot oversight, you provided it to us too late to have any discussion, much less reach agreement. We therefore need to file separately.

Noemi,

Attached is the pre-trial memo with our edits in redline. Let us know if there is anything you would like to discuss before filing with the court today.

We did not change this in the document, but think that a 10-15 day estimate for the trial length may be more appropriate.

Thanks,

Lauren Lindsay

Mark, Steve and Akke,

Looking ahead, based on the new scheduling order, we need to file the Pretrial Memo by May 18. The one filed Dec. 8 needs to be modified, given the grant of judgment to five of the defendants.

Would you like to take the lead on this, and circulate a new draft?

Thanks,

| The Plaintiff, through his counsel of record, hereby submits the |
|--|
| following pre-trial memorandum in accordance with this Court's 2 nd |
| Amended Order Setting Civil Jury Trial, Pre-trial Conference and Calendar |
| Call dated May 4, 2018 and Local Rule 2.67. This pretrial memorandum is |
| substantively the same as the joint pretrial memorandum previously |
| submitted by the parties on December 8, 2017, except that it has been |
| updated to reflect the Court's order of December 29, 2017 with respect to |
| motions for partial summary judgment, for summary judgment and motions |
| in limine on which the Court ruled on December 11, 2017. A draft of this |
| pretrial memorandum was provided to counsel for defendants at 2:40 p.m. |
| on Tuesday, May 15, 2018, after counsel for nominal defendant Reading |
| International, Inc. ("RDI") had asked if counsel for plaintiff would modify |
| the joint pretrial memorandum filed previously "given the grant of |
| judgment to five of the defendants." Notwithstanding the modest and |
| straightforward edits required, counsel for defendants and RDI provided no |
| response to the May 15, 2018 draft until approximately 2:10 p.m. Friday, |
| May 18, the afternoon the pretrial memorandum was to be filed and a |
| courtesy copy provided to the Court. The lateness of this response was only |
| half of the problem; defendants included in their revised draft of the joint |
| pretrial memorandum matter not appropriately included, as well as |
| arguments to which counsel for plaintiff would respond, but for the |
| eleventh hour provision of defendants' draft. Faced with such |
| gamesmanship by counsel for defendants, counsel for plaintiff had little if |
| any choice but to file this separate pretrial memorandum. |

See Section II. I.

OTHER PRETRIAL MATTER II.

Α. Statement of Facts

In view of the significant prior proceedings in this case, including motions to dismiss and summary judgment motions, as well as the detail in the pending Second Amended Complaint (the particular allegations of which have been or will be admitted or denied in the individual defendants' respective answers), and the Court's resulting familiarity with this case, the parties respectfully provide the following abbreviated, summary statement of facts of the case:

Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. ("Mr. Cotter" or "Plaintiff") was and is a substantial shareholder and a director of nominal defendant Reading International, Inc. ("RDI" or the "Company"), as well as a former President and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"). Defendants Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter were and are members of the RDI board of directors (the "Board") and at all times relevant hereto have purported to be and/or been the controlling shareholder(s) of RDI. Each of the remaining individual defendants was at relevant times and is a member of the RDI Board, as well of certain Board committees.

The facts of this case include and concern acts and omissions of individual director defendants which the Plaintiff claims give rise to entail breaches of fiduciary duties individually and/or together with other acts and omissions, including with respect to the following matters: the threat to terminate Mr. Cotter as President and CEO of RDI, the termination of Mr.

Among other things, he will offer opinion testimony regarding appropriate corporate governance practices and activities where a board of directors is faced with circumstances in which directors lack or may lack independence and/or disinterestedness, including the appropriate practices and activities to address such circumstances, and to evaluate the success of such practices and activities, including with respect to the following matters (i) the process used to terminate James J. Cotter, Jr. as President and Chief Executive Officer of Reading International, Inc. ("RDI")., (ii) the use of the Executive Committee of RDI's Board of Directors, (iii) the appointment of EC and MC to their respective current positions and the revised compensation and bonuses that they and Adams were given and (iv) the rejection of the Offer. ² Former Chief Justice Steele also will offer opinion

² As stated in the Steele Report, it is Justice Steele's understanding that Nevada courts look to Delaware case law when there is no Nevada statutory or case law on point for an issue of corporate law. See, e.g. Brown v. Kinross Gold U.S.A., Inc., 531 F. Supp. 2d 1234, 1245 (D. Nev. 2008) ("Because the Nevada Supreme Court frequently looks to the Delaware Supreme Court and the Delaware Courts of Chancery as persuasive authorities on questions of corporation law, this Court often looks to those sources to predict how the Nevada Supreme Court would decide the question."); Hilton Hotels Corp. v. ITT Corp., 978 F. Supp. 1342, 1346 (D. Nev. 1997) ("Where, as here, there is no Nevada statutory or case law on point or an issue of corporate law, this Court finds persuasive authority in Delaware case law."); Cohen v. Mirage Resorts, Inc., 62 P.3d 720, 727 n.10 (Nev. 2003) ("Because the Legislature relied upon the Model Act and the Model Act relies heavily on New York and Delaware case law, we look to the Model Act and the law of those states in interpreting the Nevada statutes.").

Justice Steele is aware that the defendants in this action have filed a motion in limine because the Steele Report stated that the opinions therein were based on what a court that applied Delaware law would find. That phraseology was intended simply to refer to Justice Steele's years of experience in Delaware's well-versed body of law. The Delaware law on testimony to rebut opinions offered by defendants' experts Michael Klausner and Alfred Osborne.

- 2. Richard Spitz will offer opinion testimony relating to executive and CEO searches and RDI's supposed CEO search. It is anticipated that he will offer opinion testimony that the execution of the (supposed) executive search process undertaken at RDI in 2015 to find a CEO was not conducted properly and that the search failed, including because the selection of Ellen Cotter as CEO was not the product of completing the search process undertaken and was not a result of the search activities conducted. Mr. Spitz also will offer opinion testimony to rebut opinions offered by defendants' expert Alfred Osborne.
- 3. Albert Nagy will offer opinion testimony in rebuttal to defendants' expert Alfred Osbourne. Among other things, it is anticipated that he will offer opinion testimony that Margaret Cotter's compensation from RDI is not within a reasonable range for a person with her experience and qualifications.
- 4. Tiago Duarte-Silva will offer opinion testimony about money damages Plaintiff seeks by this action. It is anticipated that his opinion testimony will include opinions that (i) Reading's earnings have declined and underperformed since Ellen Cotter became Reading's CEO, and (ii) Reading's value has declined and underperformed since Ellen Cotter became Reading's CEO. Mr. Duarte-Silva also will offer opinion testimony to rebut opinions offered by defendants' expert Richard Roll.

which Justice Steele relies neither supplants nor modifies the plain meaning of Nevada law, but only is used to inform Nevada law.

COURT RECORDER: TRANSCRIPTION BY:

JILL HAWKINS FLORENCE HOYT

District Court Las Vegas, Nevada 89146

Proceedings recorded by audio-visual recording, transcript produced by transcription service.

APPEARANCES:

FOR THE PLAINTIFF: MARK G. KRUM, ESQ. AKKE LEVIN, ESQ.

FOR THE DEFENDANTS: MARSHALL M. SEARCY, ESQ.

KEVIN M. JOHNSON, ESQ.

TAMI COWDEN, ESQ.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, MONDAY, MAY 21, 2018, 8:54 A.M. 1 2 (Court was called to order) THE COURT: That takes me to page 3, which is the 3 4 Cotter case. Good morning. 5 MR. KRUM: Good morning, Your Honor. 6 MR. SEARCY: Good morning. 7 THE COURT: Who's arguing the motion? 8 MR. SEARCY: I'm arguing the motion, Your Honor. 9 THE COURT: All right? MR. SEARCY: And, again, it's Marshall Searcy for 10 11 defendants Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Don Adams. 12 Your Honor, this motion is about seeking answers to 13 basic questions, questions that are fundamental to the trial that we're supposed to have in July and the one that we were 14 15 supposed to have in January. THE COURT: No. The one we had in January. 16 actually almost started. The jury was here. 17 18 MR. SEARCY: That's right. The jury was here, Your 19 And that question --THE COURT: Just no Mr. Cotter. 20 MR. SEARCY: -- is has plaintiff paid his experts, 21 22 does he have expert testimony to put on, and were those 23 experts available to testify when he called in sick. 24 The opposition that's been submitted and all the 25 correspondence in the case show that there are no answers to these questions. There's no answer anywhere in plaintiff's brief. The only answer that we've received has to do with plaintiff's expert Mr. Finnerty [phonetic], and Mr. Finnerty, as we saw, has sent out a bill collector to Mr. Cotter and said, you haven't paid me.

When we presented that to plaintiff the answer we got back basically, Your Honor, was, you got me, I'm not going to call Finnerty.

Well, we're entitled to know about the rest of those experts, because we have reason to believe based upon Mr. Finnerty's, the fact that he hasn't been paid, that those other experts haven't been paid, either. Mr. Finnerty was a rebuttal expert, and his bill should actually be much smaller than the other experts that plaintiff, we suspect, hasn't paid. And if plaintiff isn't going to call those experts because he hasn't paid those experts, then we should be entitled to know that, and the Court should be entitled to know whether or not those experts were paid at the time we were supposed to go to trial back in January.

The only answer that we've gotten back from plaintiff on this is a lot of excuses. And, Your Honor, this is really a straightforward application of Rule 26. Rule 26, especially Rule 26(e), says that there's a duty to supplement materials relating to a claim or defense when a party learns that in some material respect the information disclosed is incomplete or incorrect. Clearly the information about payments to experts here is incomplete, because we haven't received it. But we don't know as a result of that whether or not those experts will be coming to trial.

THE COURT: You received it at the time you took their depositions. You haven't received updated information since the trial was cancelled at the last minute due to Mr. Cotter's illness.

MR. SEARCY: That's correct, Your Honor. We have not received updated information to know whether the bills that we received at the deposition have actually been paid.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SEARCY: And we're entitled to that information under Rule 26(e), particularly in light of the fact that that pertains to trial that's right around the corner, hopefully on July 9th, as Your Honor indicated.

THE COURT: No, no. It is July 9th. There's no questions about that.

MR. SEARCY: Well, okay. As we learned from the last hearing. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. SEARCY: And that's what this goes to. Rule 26(e), plaintiff is required to supplement that information. There's no question that information about payments to experts is relevant to claims and it's relevant to issues as to 1 whether or not plaintiff may have misled this Court about 3 whether or not he was ready to go to trial back in January. 4 THE COURT: That's really what you're trying to do; 5 right? It's really about whether I was misled. 6 MR. SEARCY: That is-7 THE COURT: It's not really as much about what the 8 bills are and what happened; it's whether they lied to me about Mr. Cotter being ill or whether there was some other 10 reason. 11 MR. SEARCY: That is a fundamental issue here, Your 12 Honor. Absolutely. However --13 THE COURT: Just be straight up and say it. MR. SEARCY: Let me be absolutely clear. That is 14 15 100 percent one of the reasons. However, it's not the only 16 reason. 17 THE COURT: All right. 18 MR. SEARCY: The other reason is we do have a trial 19 coming up. 20 THE COURT: Because, you know, there's still some people who don't believe Mr. Cotter was actually sick. 21 22 MR. SEARCY: There's some who are skeptical. 23 THE COURT: I required a letter from the doctor and 24 an affidavit before I believed him. And I got it, and I 25 believe the doctor would not have put his medical license on the line to say Mr. Cotter's too sick to come for trial. But that's up to you guys whether you believe it or not.

MR. SEARCY: There's some skepticism, Your Honor --

THE COURT: I am aware of that.

MR. SEARCY: -- especially in light of these expert bills that we're seeking information about whether or not there was payment. And, frankly, Your Honor, with the July 9th trial coming up we should know whether or not those experts are going to be coming to trial. That's also a fundamental issue.

THE COURT: You should know that.

MR. SEARCY: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Let's see. Ms. Levin, are you handling

14 this one?

MS. LEVIN: I am.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MS. LEVIN: Your Honor, this is -- I think the Court alluded to it, but this motion is really about something different. It's disingenuous, and it's a distraction. Apart from the delay in filing the motion and the absence of making any meaningful efforts to meet and confer, Mr. Krum was ready to discuss these matters on May 14. And even though Mr. Krum mooted the issue on which it was based, which is Mr. Finnerty's bill collector arriving at one of the sister companies, nevertheless they filed this motion. But the motion was moot before it was filed, because, as I said, the expert -- Mark Krum already advised opposing counsel that Mr. Finnerty would not be an expert at trial.

The other thing is, Your Honor, there are no outstanding document requests to the plaintiff. They repeatedly say in their motion, well, you know --

THE COURT: But don't you have a duty to supplement?

MS. LEVIN: Maybe experts do. There were subpoenas served on the experts in 2016.

THE COURT: Well, but the parties have a duty to supplement, too; right?

MS. LEVIN: But in response to what? I mean, they haven't identified any outstanding document requests to the plaintiff that these documents are responsive to. Remember, they're asking for correspondence between the plaintiff and his experts regarding to the payment or nonpayment of the fees. They haven't pointed to a single document request to what that is that's responsive to -- that's outstanding. And although they are saying that this is clearly relevant, they're saying clearly relevant, they're not bothering to explain to the Court or to us what relevance --

THE COURT: Well, you got the relevance a minute ago, didn't you?

MS. LEVIN: Well, yeah. But if that's the relevance, then we're talking about a whole different motion,

1 Your Honor. 2 THE COURT: Yes. It's a different issue. MS. LEVIN: Yeah. And I think that -- the trial 3 4 prep, there's a time and place to disclose experts. We both 5 served pretrial memorandums -- memoranda, and so it's a distraction. I think it's too late, and there's nothing 6 7 outstanding. And they're speculating about other experts, but they don't know. 8 9 THE COURT: Okay. Thanks. MS. LEVIN: Thank you, Your Honor. 10 THE COURT: So the motion's granted in part. 11 12 plaintiffs will produce updated billing statements for each of 13 the experts they intend to use at trial. They are not required to produce their own correspondence with the experts 14 15 at this point, but updated billing information is something 16 that falls within the scope that is required to be provided. I am denying the request for sanctions and 17 18 attorneys' fees. 19 So that takes me to your pretrial conference. 20 what experts are coming for trial? 21 Well, Your Honor --MR. KRUM: 22 THE COURT: See how I managed to hit that, the next 23 step that it's relevant to? 24 Yeah. That's good, Your Honor. MR. KRUM: 25 received even later than usual by the -- you know, understanding some sandbagging is a methodology that they've employed. So we received about 2:15 on Friday their first proposed redline of the pretrial, and then a second one about a half hour later. So we didn't have a chance to process that. I note, by the way, Your Honor, the track changes showed most of the changes they made were made on Tuesday. There were some made on Thursday, and a single change beyond Friday.

So, among other things, to go to the point you raised, Your Honor, they changed the experts that are being called. So we'll have to look at that. I don't know if I [inaudible].

THE COURT: So answer my question. Just tell me. Are there any of your experts, other than Mr. Finnerty, that you know are not coming?

MR. KRUM: Not today. But that may change. And we will apprise them as you've just ordered. Well, that's not what you ordered, but --

THE COURT: I ordered billing statements and up-to-date payment ledgers.

So previously we had identified the jury notebooks, we'd worked on the electronic exhibits, we'd done the preinstructions, we'd done the jury instructions. You guys had talked to me about PowerPoint issues. We have previously been through this all once before because we were starting trial when Mr. Cotter became ill.

So is there anything from that last pretrial conference, other than a reselection of alternate jurors that we will do at our final pretrial conference, that we need to talk about?

MR. KRUM: No.

THE COURT: Do you still think it's going to take the full three weeks?

MR. KRUM: 80 hours is the estimate that we had,
Your Honor, so, yeah, we expect the two weeks. I believe that plaintiff has a longer estimate.

MR. SEARCY: Three weeks is fine, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything that you are going to update, other than arguably the list of experts, from which you previously provided me for our January trial that failed?

MR. SEARCY: That may well be, Your Honor. Well, so, for example, as you know, we've had discovery ordered which has not yet been provided. There was some provided before. We had motion practice and so forth. So there might be exhibits. I say might.

THE COURT: So the reason I'm asking you is, remember, we have an electronic exhibit protocol in place in this case --

MR. KRUM: Right.

THE COURT: -- and I have things I have to do if 1 2 we're going to have stuff --3 Did you return all their drives to them? 4 Okay. So we're going to have to start over with all 5 the drives. So if you're going to add them, make sure that you give me enough advance notice so we can have the guys from 7 our IT department be here for your calendar call, which should 8 be on June 25th --9 Am I correct? THE CLERK: 18th. 10 11 THE COURT: -- June 18th with all your drives so we 12 can run that. 13 MR. KRUM: Understood. THE COURT: Okay. All right. Final pretrial 14 15 Anything else you want to update me on, other conference. 16 than you're going to file a nasty motion after you get the 17 bills? I got that part. 18 MR. SEARCY: That's right, Your Honor. And, if I may, I don't believe that the Court set a time frame on 19 20 production of the invoices, the updating billing statements. 21 MR. KRUM: Well, how about three weeks after they 22 produce what you ordered them to produce? 23 THE COURT: How about a week. MR. KRUM: 24 Two weeks, Your Honor. 25 THE COURT: How about a week?

It's a Memorial Day holiday. 1 MR. KRUM: 2 MR. SEARCY: A week is acceptable to us, Your Honor. 3 THE COURT: How about 10 days? 4 MR. SEARCY: Ten days. 5 Ten real days, not ten judicial days. THE COURT: 6 MR. KRUM: Well, that still puts me in the Memorial 7 Day weekend, Your Honor. In fairness to me, I have to spend 8 the day on the plane going back to my office. I do my best, 9 Your Honor. When you scheduled that evidentiary hearing I was 10 in Minneapolis on my way back. 11 THE COURT: I understand, Mr. Krum, when we moved 12 I understand. I'm not criticizing you about your that up. 13 travelling from the East Coast to here on a regular basis. 14 What I am concerned about is that you are trying to 15 get to June 4th to produce this, which will then put any 16 motion that I'm having up on the eve your trial. I don't want that happening. I want them produced by May 30th. 17 18 MR. KRUM: Okay, Your Honor. That'll be on the 19 timetable that we'll be filing our motion. 20 THE COURT: Mr. Krum, May 30th. 21 Of course, Your Honor. MR. KRUM: 22 THE COURT: Thank you. 23 MR. KRUM: I'm just tired of not getting what you 24 ordered them to produce until the day before it's too late.

As I said, what you ordered on May 2nd we still don't have,

and I'll be reporting on whatever the state of play is later this week.
              THE COURT: Thanks.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES INTRODUCTION

In December 2017, this Court entered judgment on behalf of five of the nine current Directors of RDI—William Gould, Douglas McEachern, Edward Kane, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak—because these Directors are independent as a matter of law. As a result, all of the corporate "transactions" alleged by Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. to be actionable breaches of fiduciary duty were indisputably approved by a majority of disinterested, independent directors, save for two: (1) the actions taken by Board members leading up to and including the termination of Plaintiff as CEO and President of RDI; and (2) the RDI Compensation Committee's approval of the exercise of a stock option held by the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. With respect to those transactions, the outcome-determinative vote was cast by Director Guy Adams, and the Court concluded there were issues of material fact as to his independence that precluded judgment as a matter of law in his favor.

Following the Court's decision, the full RDI Board convened a Special Meeting on December 29, 2017 at the request of five disinterested, independent directors to reevaluate these two remaining transactions. Such reconsideration made logical sense, given that Plaintiff is asking that those Board decisions be re-reviewed through this litigation. This reexamination was also appropriate under NRS 78.140 and the Nevada Supreme Court's decision in Shoen v. SAC Holding Corp., 122 Nev. 621, 636, 137 P.3d 1171, 1181 (2006), which provide that a transaction involving or depending on an interested director shall become "valid" and subject to the business judgment rule following an informed ratification at any time.

After discussing Plaintiff's allegations as to the potential interestedness or non-independence of Mr. Adams, the independent directors addressed the challenged termination and stock option decisions at the Special Meeting. In doing so, they were informed by the Company's counsel, their own extensive knowledge of the applicable facts, their previous corporate board experience, and a further review of the contemporaneous RDI Board materials relevant to those decisions. The Board also allowed additional debate and comment. Ultimately, with Mr. Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret Cotter not voting, the RDI Board voted 5-1 (with only Plaintiff dissenting) to ratify Plaintiff's termination and the Compensation Committee's stock option decision. With the RDI Board having met all of the legally-required criteria, Nevada's business judgment rule therefore applies to those "transactions," as it does to the other corporate decisions questioned by Plaintiff in this derivative suit. Because Plaintiff's breach of fiduciary duty claims cannot survive upon an application of Nevada's business judgment rule and his aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty claim also fails without a cognizable breach, and judgment in favor of Defendants as to all claims is fully warranted.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Plaintiff Failed to Show a Genuine Disputed Material Issue of Fact as to the Disinterestedness of William Gould, Edward Kane, Judy Codding, Michael Wrotniak, or Douglas McEachern

Plaintiff filed his currently-operative Second Amended Complaint in this action on September 2, 2016, which asserts broad derivative claims for breach of the fiduciary duties of care, loyalty, candor, and disclosure against the other eight current members of the RDI Board: Douglas McEachern, Edward Kane, William Gould, Judy Codding, Michael Wrotniak, Guy Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret Cotter—as well as an additional claim for aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty against Ellen and Margaret Cotter. (See Second Am. Compl. ("SAC") ¶ 173-200.) As Plaintiff subsequently clarified, his Second Amended Complaint identifies six "actions or transactions" by these RDI directors that he claimed were "independently entailing or constituting breaches of fiduciary duty": (1) the supposed threat to terminate Plaintiff "if he did not resolve [the Cotter family] trust disputes"; (2) Plaintiff's actual termination; (3) the authorization of the exercise of the 100,000 share option by the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr.; (4) the permanent CEO search, which resulted in Ellen Cotter's selection; (5) the decision to hire Margaret Cotter as Executive Vice President, Real Estate Development-New York; and (6) the Board's response to the indications of interest presented by Patton Vision. (See, e.g., Pl.'s Opp'n to Ind. Defs.' Suppl. Mot. for Summ. J. Nos. 1 & 2 at 5-6, filed on Dec. 1, 2017.)

In conformity with the case management schedule set forth by the Court, the Director Defendants moved for summary judgment on each of these issues, as well as generally as to all claims with respect to their independence and disinterestedness. At the hearing on the Director

Defendants' motions held on December 11, 2017, the Court determined that Plaintiff failed to raise a genuine issue of triable fact as to the disinterestedness and/or independence of Directors Wrotniak, Codding, McEachern, Kane, and Gould. (See Helpern Dec., Ex. A (12/29/17 Notice of Entry of Order).) In light of Nevada's strong business judgment rule and consistent with well-established law, the Court granted summary judgment in favor of these directors on all breach of fiduciary duty claims asserted by Plaintiff. (Id.) Separately, the Court granted summary judgment in favor of all directors on the claims related to Patton Vision "because of Plaintiff's failure to show damages related to an unenforceable, unsolicited, nonbinding offer." (Id.) Shortly thereafter, Plaintiff moved for reconsideration of the Court's ruling, which the Director Defendants opposed. At a hearing held on December 28, 2017, the Court denied Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration and indicated it would enter a written order later that day granting summary judgment in favor of Directors Wrotniak, Codding, McEachern, Kane, and Gould on all claims—which it subsequently did. (Id.)

B. A Majority of Independent, Disinterested RDI Directors Subsequently Ratified the Board's Decision to Terminate Plaintiff and the Compensation Committee's Decision to Permit the Exercise of a Share Purchase Option

Plaintiff cannot reasonably dispute that a majority of disinterested, independent RDI directors approved two of the transactions identified as "breaches" by Plaintiff, thereby triggering the application of Nevada's business judgment rule as to those decisions: the search for a permanent CEO of RDI, which culminated in the hiring of Ellen Cotter, and the hiring of Margaret Cotter as Executive Vice President, Real Estate Development-New York. See Shoen, 122 Nev. at 632, 137 P.3d at 1178-79; NRS 78.138(3), (7); see also Goldman v. Pogo.com, Inc., No. Civ. A. 18532-NC, 2002 WL 1358760, at *2 (Del. Ch. June 14, 2002) ("Only upon a showing by a challenger that raises a reasonable doubt as to the independence and/or disinterestedness of a majority of a company's directors who approved the challenged transaction

Discounting the votes of Guy Adams and Margaret Cotter, the selection of Ellen Cotter was approved by a vote of 5-1, with Plaintiff voting "no" and Ellen Cotter abstaining. (See Helpern Dec., Ex. C). Discounting the vote of Mr. Adams, the decision to hire Margaret Cotter was approved by a vote of 5-0, with each of the Cotters abstaining. (See Helpern Dec., Ex. D).

will the presumption of director fealty which lies at the core of the business judgment rule be rebutted.") (citation omitted).

Accordingly, only the following RDI Board decisions were arguably made without a majority of disinterested, independent RDI directors voting in favor: (1) Plaintiff's June 12, 2015 termination, which was approved by legally-independent directors McEachern and Kane, as well as Mr. Adams and the Cotter sisters, for whom independence/disinterestedness remains a jury question; and (2) the September 21, 2015 decision by RDI's Compensation Committee, consisting of legally-independent director Kane and director Adams, to approve the use of Class A Stock to pay the exercise price of an option held by the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr.²

The full RDI Board subsequently met on December 29, 2017. (See Helpern Dec., Ex. B (12/29/17 RDI Board Minutes) at 1.) Counsel for the Company was present, and updated the Board both on the status of this litigation as well as the content of Plaintiff's allegations as to why Mr. Adams was purportedly not "independent" with respect to the at-issue decisions. (Id. at 3.) Counsel further informed the Board as to the scope of NRS 78.140 ("Restrictions on Transactions Involving Interested Directors or Officers"), as well as the Board's fiduciary duties under Nevada law, including the duties of due care and loyalty. (Id. at 4.) Without conceding the independence or disinterestedness of any directors that remain as Defendants in this action, the RDI Board then proceeded to consider the actions taken leading up and including Plaintiff's termination, as well as the option decision. (Id. at 4-5.) Mr. Adams, as well as Margaret and Ellen Cotter, did not vote on either issue—leaving the ultimate decisions to the five disinterested, independent directors. (Id. at 4-6.)

1. The Ratification of Actions Taken by Board Members Relating to the Termination of Plaintiff as President and CEO of RDI

Following the introduction by counsel, Lead Independent Director Gould summarized the

² The Board's decision not to further pursue the Patton Vision indication of interest is no longer at issue because of the Court's prior ruling that Plaintiff has failed to show any damages resulting from that decision. However, that claim would also be untenable due to the vote of a majority of disinterested directors in favor of not pursuing that indication of interest; discounting the votes of Mr. Adams and the Cotter sisters, the Board's response to the Patton Vision indication of interest was approved by a vote of 5-0. (See Helpern Dec., Ex. E.)

first issue for consideration: ratification of the actions taken by the Board members relating to the termination of Plaintiff as President and CEO of RDI, as such actions are outlined in the Minutes of the Board Meetings held on May 21, May 29, and June 12, 2015. (Id. at 4.) All directors were provided copies of the referenced Minutes. (Id.) In addition to their "thorough" review of the relevant Board materials, Directors Codding and Wrotniak, who were not yet members of the RDI Board at the time of Plaintiff's termination, stated that they were drawing on their "extensive knowledge about the Board's reasons for the termination of Mr. Cotter, Jr.," including their observations of Plaintiff's "behavior and demeanor in Board meetings" since each joined over two years ago. (Id.) Director Codding expressed her view that Plaintiff "did not possess the knowledge, experience, ability, temperament or demeanor to be chief executive officer of the Company," an opinion with which Mr. Wrotniak concurred. (Id.) Discussion then ensued regarding the Board materials, including the fact that Plaintiff had retained an outside consultant, Highpoint Associates, to assist him in his CEO duties—a fact that he did not disclose to the Board prior to his termination. (Id. at 4-5.)

Director McEachern then made a motion, seconded by Ms. Codding, as follows:

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Board ratifies the actions taken by the Company's board members relating to the termination of James J. Cotter, Jr. as President and CEO as such actions are outlined in the minutes of the Board meetings held on May 21, 2015, May 29, 2015 and June 12, 2015.

(Id. at 5.) After debate and further discussion, including an opportunity by Plaintiff to make comments, the proposed resolution was adopted by Directors Codding, Gould, Kane, McEachern, and Wrotniak, with Plaintiff casting the sole vote in opposition. (Id.) Plaintiff characterized the ratification as simply being a litigation device (id.), despite the fact that the five ratifying directors were no longer parties to his derivative litigation and have no personal stake in whether the litigation goes forward.

2. The Ratification of the Compensation Committee's Decision to Approve the Exercise of a Share Purchase Option Held by the Cotter, Sr. Estate

Director Gould then introduced the second issue for consideration: ratification of the September 21, 2015 decision by RDI's Compensation Committee to permit the Estate of James J.

1 Cotter, Sr. to use Class A non-voting stock as the means of payment (as opposed to cash) for the 2 exercise of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class B voting stock in RDI. under which the stock option was granted. (Id. at 5-6.) The disinterested, independent Board members then generally expressed their awareness of the information as well as their review of the relevant Board materials and Compensation Committee minutes, and opened the floor up for debate, including comment by Plaintiff. (Id.) The independent directors noted, among other things, that the Compensation Committee had discretion under the 1999 Stock Option Plan to allow the use of Class A Shares to exercise options to acquire Class B Stock, that the Company was at the time buying in its Class A Shares under its stock repurchase plan, that the market price of Class A shares has significantly increased since the date of the transaction, and that, from the point of view of the Cotter Estate, the same economic results could have been achieved by the sale of Class A shares into the market and using those sale proceeds to exercise the options to acquire Class B Stock. (Id.)

A motion was made and seconded, as follows:

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Board ratifies the decision of the Compensation Committee of the Company, as outlined in the minutes of its September 21, 2015 meeting, to permit the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. to use Class A non-voting stock as the means of payment for the exercise of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class B voting stock of the Company.

Counsel for the Company summarized the information regarding the matter considered by the discretion of the Compensation Committee as Administrators of the 1999 Stock Option Plan

(Id. at 6.) The proposed resolution was then adopted by Directors Codding, Gould, Kane, McEachern, and Wrotniak, with Plaintiff casting the sole vote in opposition. (Id.) Plaintiff failed to offer and substantive or material objection to the ratification, complaining simply that it was taken for a "litigation purpose." (Id. at 5-6.)

The Board then moved, without objection, that its resolutions include the "authorization to take such other actions as may be necessary to accomplish the matters approved herein." (Id. at 6.) Given the legal impact of the ratification of these previous decisions by a majority of disinterested, independent directors under NRS 78.140 and Nevada Supreme Court precedent, Defendants now bring this Motion for Summary Judgment as to all claims asserted by Plaintiff.

C. Plaintiff Took Full and Complete Discovery Regarding the Board's Ratification Decision and Does Not Challenge the Accuracy of the Relevant Board Meeting Minutes

After the Court reopened discovery regarding the Board's December 29, 2017 vote on ratification, Plaintiff pursued discovery on this subject, including through interrogatories, requests for production, subpoenas, and depositions. Plaintiff deposed William Gould, Edward Kane, Judy Codding, Ellen Cotter, Douglas McEachern, and Michael Wrotniak regarding the Board's ratification decisions. Plaintiff served document subpoenas on Judy Codding, William Gould, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, and Michael Wrotniak. Plaintiff served interrogatories and requests for production of documents on Guy Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret Cotter. Defendants (and dismissed former defendants) searched for, produced, and/or logged all documents relating to the Board's ratification vote, searching for documents dating back to 2015 (well before ratification was even being discussed) and using expansive search terms designed to capture all documents even potentially relevant.

During this process, Defendants sought to take Plaintiff's deposition. However, rather than appearing for deposition, Plaintiff (through his counsel) stipulated that he would not offer any written or oral testimony regarding the ratification process or meeting. In the words of Plaintiff's counsel: "Based on the deposition testimony and documents provided by defendants, we do not intend to offer testimony by Mr. Cotter about what happened regarding the ratifications at the December 29 telephonic board meeting, including the content of discussions, the accuracy of minutes and the reasons he voted against the ratifications." (See Helpern Dec., Ex. G (Correspondence between counsel regarding Plaintiff's deposition).) Accordingly, the accuracy of the minutes of the December 29, 2017 meeting of the Board of Directors cited and referenced throughout this Motion is not in dispute.

ARGUMENT

I. THE BUSINESS JUDGMENT RULE APPLIES TO ALL DECISIONS COMPLAINED OF BY PLAINTIFF

NRS 78.140 provides, in relevant part, that a "transaction" by a Nevada corporation such as RDI "is not void or voidable" because an interested or non-independent director is present during a meeting or joins in a board resolution approving the transaction if "[t]he fact of the common directorship, office or financial interest is known to the board of directors or committee, and the directors or members of the committee, other than any common or interested directors or members of the committee, approve or ratify the contract or transaction in good faith." NRS 78.140(2)(a) (emphasis added). Citing NRS 78.140, the Nevada Supreme Court has made clear that the business judgment rule applies "in the context of valid interested director action, or the valid exercise of business judgment by disinterested directors in light of their fiduciary duties." Shoen, 122 Nev. at 636, 137 P.3d at 1181 (emphasis added).

Here, all of the requirements for the application of NRS 78.140, and thus the business judgment rule, are met with respect to the Board's actions relating to Plaintiff's termination and the approval of the contested option exercise. All members of the RDI Board have long been aware of Plaintiff's claims that Mr. Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret Cotter are interested or not independent in light of their financial interests. Plaintiff made such allegations at the time of his termination, and in every iteration of his complaints; indeed, Plaintiff has not alleged that Mr. Adams' purported conflicts were not "known," but rather that RDI's directors went forward in the face of these known conflicts. (See, e.g., SAC ¶ 1, 6, 21, 33, 35, 37, 48, 49, 64-71.) The RDI Board has also repeatedly discussed Plaintiff's allegations at various board meetings, including at the December 29, 2017 Special Meeting. (See Helpern Dec., Ex. B (12/29/17 RDI Board Minutes) at 3-4 (corporate counsel summarizing allegations of interestedness/non-independence against Director Adams).) Thus, the "fact" of the purported "financial interest" alleged by Plaintiff was certainly "known to the board of directors" at the time a majority of independent, disinterested directors made their ratification decisions on December 29, 2017, as required by NRS 78.140(2)(a).

Moreover, as required by NRS 78.140(2)(a), the RDI Board ratified each of the remaining challenged "transactions" by a 5-1 vote, counting only the votes of those directors whose disinterestedness and independence Plaintiff cannot reasonably challenge. (See Helpern Dec., Ex. B (12/29/17 RDI Board Minutes) at 5-6.) And the December 29, 2017 ratification vote was certainly "in good faith": the directors who were not present at the time these matters were initially decided, Directors Wrotniak and Codding, reasonably informed themselves of the relative merits of the decisions, including by reviewing contemporaneous materials and drawing on their personal knowledge gleaned in their two years of Board service; corporate counsel was present and advised the entire Board of its fiduciary duties under Nevada law, as well as the history of each decision; no ratifying director had a personal stake in the derivative litigation brought by Plaintiff or in the particular transaction ratified; and discussion and debate occurred prior to the final votes, with all directors—including Plaintiff—afforded the chance to ask questions or make comments. (See id.) Accordingly, all of the preconditions necessary for a "valid interested director transaction" under NRS 78.140(2)(a), and thus the application of the business judgment rule under Shoen, are present.³

Significantly, nothing in the text of NRS 78.140 places any deadline or time limitation upon ratification. In fact, the Nevada Supreme Court in In re Amerco Deriv. Litig., 127 Nev. 196, 252 P.3d 681 (2011), acknowledged that a ratification that occurred years after the challenged conduct could have a potentially case-dispositive effect. See 127 Nev. at 217, 252 P.3d at 697, n. 6 (noting that a ratification that had apparently occurred in 2007, after the Shoen remand, could have had a dispositive effect, but refusing to reach the issue because it was raised for the first time on appeal); see also id., 127 Nev. at 233, 252 P.3d at 707 n.4 (Pickering, J., concurring in part and dissenting in part) (noting that "this issue is potentially dispositive in this case"). Nor should a deadline be unilaterally imposed here, especially given that Plaintiff continues to seek injunctive relief to reverse his June 12, 2015 termination and to be forcibly reinstated as RDI's CEO and President nearly three years after he was removed. As such, it makes logical sense that the present RDI Board can and should evaluate the actions leading up to and involving his termination, and either reverse or ratify the earlier decisions. Moreover, in the instant case, it would have been fruitless as a practical matter for the Board to have considered a motion for ratification prior to the Court's determination of the independence and disinterest of Directors Codding, Gould, Kane, McEachern, and Wrotniak; the effectiveness of any earlier ratification would have been subject to Plaintiff's claim that these directors were in fact not independent or disinterested.

Here, because the RDI Board properly ratified the earlier termination and option approval actions in conformity with NRS 78.140, "valid interested director" transactions are present and the business judgment rule applies—as it does to those transactions that the Court has already found to be the product of actions by a majority of disinterested, independent directors.

II. JUDGMENT ON ALL BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY CLAIMS IN FAVOR OF DEFENDANTS IS WARRANTED UNDER THE BUSINESS JUDGMENT RULE

In this litigation, Plaintiff has never contested that if the business judgment rule were to apply, his fiduciary duty claims would fail as a matter of law; instead, his entire argument has been that the business judgment rule does not apply. The business judgment rule is a "presumption that in making a business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company." Shoen, 122 Nev. at 632, 137 P.3d at 1178-79 (citation omitted); see also NRS 78.138(3) (codifying the rule under Nevada law). "The business judgment rule postulates that if directors' actions can arguably be taken to have been done for the benefit of the corporation, then the directors are presumed to have been exercising their sound business judgment rather than to have been responding to self-interest motivation." Horwitz v. SW. Forest Indus., Inc., 604 F. Supp. 1130, 1135 (D. Nev. 1985).

not concede the relevance of any independence/disinterestedness determination under Nevada law to any of the claims at issue.

Plaintiff has advocated, and the Court has accepted, a legal framework governing Plaintiff's Nevada law claims under which, "with respect to the challenged actions the individual director defendants [can] ... invok[e] the business judgment rule" if "the majority of those making the challenged decisions were independent generally and independent specifically with respect to the challenged decisions." (Pl.'s Opp'n to Ind. Defs.' Mot. for Partial Summ. J. (No. 2) re: Director Independence at 1, filed October 13, 2016.) "The business judgment rule does not only protect individual directors from personal liability, rather, it expresses a sensible policy of judicial noninterference with business decisions and is designed to limit judicial involvement in business decision-making so long as a minimum level of care is exercised in arriving at the decision." Wynn Resorts, Ltd. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cty. of Clark, 399 P.3d 334, 342 (Nev. 2017). Where "a majority of informed and disinterested directors of the Board voted in favor of the Transaction" at issue, the business judgment rule applies. Benihana of Tokyo, Inc. v. Benihana, Inc., 891 A.2d 150, 173 (Del. Ch. 2005) (examining whether the "voting directors" were disinterested and independent such that the business judgment rule should apply); Blackmore Partners, L.P. v. Link Energy LLC, No. Civ. A. 454-N, 2005 WL 2709639, at *7 (Del. Ch. 2005) ("The protections of the business judgment rule may still insulate a board decision from challenge so long as a majority of the directors approving the transaction remain disinterested."). Where a corporate decision is approved by a majority of independent, disinterested directors, the plaintiff's claim "fails for lack of a valid premise." In re Frederick's of Hollywood, Inc. S'holder Litig., No. C.A. 15944, 2000 WL 130630, at *7-8 (Del. Ch. Jan. 31, 2000) (granting a motion to dismiss because the merger was approved by a majority of disinterested directors); In re NYMEX S'holder Litig., C.A. Nos. 3621-VCN, 3835-VCN, 2009 WL 3206051, at *6 (Del. Ch. Sept. 30, 2009) (to state a duty of loyalty claim, a plaintiff "must plead sufficient facts to show that a majority of the Board of Directors breached the fiduciary duty of loyalty"); Benihana, 891 A.2d at 191 (dismissing breach of duty of loyalty claim after finding that a majority of disinterested and independent directors approved the transaction at issue).

As the Nevada Supreme Court has stressed, "even a bad decision is generally protected by the business judgment rule" Shoen, 122 Nev. at 636, 137 P.3d at 1181, and the rule protects corporate decisions whenever they can be "attributed to any rational business purpose." Katz v. Chevron Corp., 22 Cal. App. 4th 1352, 1366 (1994). Courts have routinely found that the same concerns that animated the majority of RDI directors in their termination decisions to be valid business judgments, immune from any claims under the operation of the business judgment rule. See, e.g., In re Walt Disney Co. Deriv. Litig., 906 A.2d 27, 72-73 (Del. 2006) (fact that a company's CEO cannot "work well" with its directors or executives, and requires "close and constant supervision," is a valid basis for terminating the officer, and is a decision protected by the business judgment rule); Carlson v. Hallinan, 925 A.2d 506, 540 n.232 (Del. Ch. 2006) (where "the evidence indicated that Carlson was not effective in the role of President of CR and that he had important managerial shortcomings," "firing him could have fostered CR's welfare" and was thus protected by the business judgment rule); Franklin v. Tex. Int'l Petroleum Corp., 324 F. Supp. 808, 813 (W.D. La. 1971) (an officer's "inability to perform adequately" and lack of "experience, expertise, and proper degree of affability" are protected reasons under the business judgment rule for his or her termination). Defendants have identified no cases where such matters were found not to support a determination to terminate.

The business judgment rule also protects the Compensation Committee's decision regarding the Estate's option exercise. See Friedman v. Khosrowshahi, No. CIV.A. 9161-CB, 2014 WL 3519188, at *12 (Del. Ch. July 16, 2014), aff'd, No. 442, 2014, 2015 WL 1001009 (Del. Mar. 6, 2015) (Absent "a clear or intentional violation of a compensation plan," compensation decisions made by a disinterested Board of Directors are protected by the business judgment rule). The Compensation Committee's decision was made in accordance with the Company's 1999 Stock Option Plan, which designates the Board as the ultimate controlling body with respect to stock option matters, the power held by the Compensation Committee being by delegation. (See Helpern Dec., Ex. H). Well before the Estate sought to exercise the option at issue, RDI had implemented this Stock Option Plan allowing exercise of options using Class A shares and a Company policy of repurchasing Class A shares when they were available. (See votes attributable to the Class B shares issued in the transaction have had no impact on any election.⁴ Moreover, the options were exercisable as a matter of right for cash; the only element of the transaction that was discretionary with the Compensation Committee and/or the Board was the use of Class A shares to pay the exercise price. Plaintiff has failed to provide any evidence whatsoever that the acceptance of Class A Shares to pay the exercise price caused any harm to RDI. The indisputable evidence is that such shares trade at a materially higher price today, then the price at which they were effectively repurchased by the Company.

Helpern Dec., Exs. H (1999 Stock Option Plan) and I (Minutes of 5/15/14 Board Meeting).) The

In light of the Board's recent ratifications, all of the RDI Board transactions challenged by Plaintiff are protected by Nevada's strong business judgment rule. Because Plaintiff has not shown, and cannot establish, that the challenged transactions were not attributable to any rational business purpose, all of his breach of fiduciary duty claims are legally untenable. No trial on them is necessary. Summary judgment should be entered in favor of Defendants on all breach of fiduciary duty claims.

III. ABSENT ANY COGNIZABLE BREACH, JUDGMENT ON PLAINTIFF'S AIDING AND ABETTING BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY CLAIMS IN FAVOR OF ELLEN AND MARGARET COTTER IS APPROPRIATE

In addition to his untenable breach of fiduciary duty claims against Mr. Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret Cotter, Plaintiff has also asserted a claim against Ellen and Margaret Cotter for aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty, in which he contends that his sisters "solicited and aided and abetted the decisions and actions of" the other RDI Directors that he claims constituted breaches of his fiduciary duties. (See SAC ¶¶ 193-200.) In Nevada, "[a]iding and abetting the breach of a fiduciary duty has four required elements: (1) there must be a fiduciary relationship between the two parties, (2) that the fiduciary breached, (3) the defendant knowingly received approximately 1.3 million votes, i.e., the votes of more than 75% of the Class B stockholders. (See Helpern Dec. Ex. F (RDI 11/13/15 Form 8-K).) The 100,000 shares obtained by the Estate through exercising the option did not make, and could not have made, any difference to the outcome of the vote, rendering nonsensical Plaintiff's argument, made throughout this litigation, about the Compensation Committee helping Ellen and Margaret Cotter supposedly perpetuate control.

and substantially participated in or encouraged that breach, and (4) the plaintiff suffered damage as a result of the breach." Guilfoyle v. Olde Monmouth Stock Transfer Co., Inc., 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 78, 335 P.3d 190, 198 (2014); see also In re Amerco Deriv. Litig., 127 Nev. at 225, 252 P.3d at 701 (same).

Given that the Court has awarded summary judgment to Directors Gould, Kane, McEachern, Codding, and Wrotniak on all breach of fiduciary duty claims against them, Plaintiff cannot sustain an "aiding and abetting" claim against Ellen and Margaret Cotter based on any of those directors' purported "breaches," as one cannot aid and abet a breach that does not exist. See Lift Certification Co. v. Thomas, No. A521533, 2008 WL 8588925 (Nev. Dist. Ct. Dec. 2, 2008) (because "Thomas did not breach his duty of loyalty to his employer Lift, while he prepared to change employment and compete with Lift, . . . it is not legally possible for American Equipment to have committed the Tort of Civil Aiding and Abetting"); Manzo v. Rite Aid Corp., No. Civ. A. 18451-NC, 2002 WL 31926606, at *6 (Del. Ch. Dec. 19, 2002) ("Because the breach of fiduciary duty claims are dismissed with prejudice, the claim against KPMG for aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty is similarly dismissed with prejudice.").

With respect to Director Adams, the fact that a majority of disinterested, independent RDI directors has now either approved or ratified all challenged transactions involving Mr. Adams is further evidence that he did not commit any breach of fiduciary duty, since his decisions were fully consistent with those of legally disinterested, independent directors. Moreover, since Adams is only one of eight directors and he voted either along with a majority of disinterested directors or had his decisions ratified by a majority of such directors means that any purported "breach" by him could not have caused any damages to RDI. Plaintiff's failure to show causal damages with respect to Mr. Adams, another required element, provides yet another reason why Plaintiff's aiding and abetting claim against Ellen and Margaret Cotter is unsustainable. Accordingly, judgment also should be entered in favor of Ellen and Margaret Cotter on Plaintiff's aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty claim—leaving no viable claims for trial.

Noah.

Yes, "testimony" as used in my email below includes written testimony with respect to motion practice regarding the purported ratifications. To clarify, my reference to the May and June 2015 board minutes was an illustration, not a limited exception, of matters otherwise raised in the litigation, independent of being raised in connection with what we in shorthand have called the ratifications.

Based on your representations below, we can likely agree to forego taking Plaintiff's deposition on the subject of ratification. However, before we do so, I want to confirm that where you indicate Plaintiff will not offer "testimony" about the Board's ratification decision—with the limited exception of possible testimony regarding minutes of prior Board meetings that were re-circulated in connection with the ratification decision—you are including written testimony (i.e., declarations and affidavits) in addition to oral testimony. To the extent there is motion practice regarding the ratification decision, does Plaintiff agree not to submit any fact declarations or affidavits about that Board decision or the December 29 meeting?

Best,

Noah

Subject: Re: Cotter/RDI -- Deposition of James Cotter, Jr.

Noah,

I almost lost track of your 2 a.m. email below. We appreciate receiving an explanation of why defenddants contend they need and are entitled to take the deposition of Plaintiff with respect to what we collectively have called the ratifications.

Based on the deposition testimony and documents provided by defenddants, we do not intend to offer testimony by Mr. Cotter about what happened regarding the ratifications at the December 29 telephonic board meeting, including the content of discussions, the accuracy of minutes and the reasons he voted against the ratifications. Insofar as "the Board's preparation for that meeting" refers to deposition exhibit 525 (and the same document bearing a different production number and including redactions, which marked at the deposition of Bill Gould), we do not intend to offer his testimony about that exhibit (which of course is different than testimony regarding certain of the exhibits in it, such as the May and June 2015 board minutes about which he has been examined previously). So that obviates the stated need for his deposition.

To follow up on our recent conversation, Defendants are entitled to take Plaintiff's deposition. Plaintiff participated in the December 29 Board meeting and to the extent he intends to offer any testimony about what happened at that meeting, including but not limited to the content of discussions, the accuracy of minutes, the reasons he voted against ratification, and/or the Board's preparation for that meeting, Defendants are entitled to know what Plaintiff intends to say. Please let us know by the end of the day Monday if you will agree to make Plaintiff available for deposition or if Defendants need to raise this issue with the Court.

DECLARATION OF MARK G. KRUM IN SUPPORT OF ORDER SHORTENING TIME ON JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL

I, Mark G. Krum, Esq., being duly sworn, depose and say that:

- 1. I am an attorney with the firm Yurko, Salvesen & Remz, P.C., attorneys for James J. Cotter, Jr., plaintiff in the above-captioned action ("Plaintiff"). I make this declaration based upon personal knowledge, except where stated to be upon information and belief, and as to that information, I believe it to be true. If called upon to testify as to the contents of this Declaration, I am legally competent to testify to the contents of this Declaration in a court of law.
- 2. By the instant motion, Plaintiff seeks an order: (1) compelling the production of documents responsive to the Court's rulings of May 2, 2018 which have been withheld based on claims of attorney-client privilege and/or attorney work product; (2) alternatively with respect to such documents withheld based on claims of attorney work product, for an in camera inspection of such documents to determine if they are properly withheld on that basis; and (3) compelling further deposition testimony from Gould, Codding, McEachern, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Craig Tompkins, or, alternatively, an order; (4) that defendants are precluded, whether by motion for summary judgment, at trial or otherwise, from asserting a defense based on the purported ratifications.
- 3. Defendants have just filed two renewed motions for summary judgment, one based on "ratification" and the other on "demand futility." The documents which are the subject of this motion bear directly on these motions, including the issue of independence. On information and belief, those documents, which were withheld based on claims of attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product doctrine, will prove that the "ratification" claimed to have been an independent business judgment by independent directors was in fact a "litigation strategy" approved and directed by defendant Ellen Cotter (with "advice" from attorney and former defendant Craig

Reason for Order Shortening Time

- Plaintiff respectfully submits that this Motion should be heard on an order shortening time because unless and until Plaintiff obtains the documents and information sought by this motion, Plaintiff will not be have obtained the discovery he needs and to which he is entitled with respect to the purported "ratification" by Gould, Codding, McEachern, and two other former director defendants of certain prior actionable conduct. More fundamentally, Plaintiff will not be able to provide the opposition to the remaining defendants' renewed "ratification" summary judgment motion and/or any defense they proffer at trial based on "ratification" plaintiff is entitled to and otherwise would be able to provide. For such reasons, Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Motion should be heard on an order shortening time rather than in the ordinary course. In particular, Plaintiff requests that this motion be set for hearing on Monday, June 18, 2018, when counsel for the parties are scheduled to appear before the Court.
- 5. This Declaration is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay. Discovery Disputes and EDCR 2.34 Conference
- 6. After receiving voluminous privilege logs on May 30 and 31, 2018, I reviewed those logs and, on June 4, 2018 wrote counsel for the responding parties and identified a number of issues with respect to those privilege logs and claims of privilege or work product made therein. On June 6, 2018, I met and conferred telephonically with counsel for RDI, the remaining defendants and former defendants McEachern, Codding, Wrotniak and Kane with respect to a number of discovery matters bearing upon the defendants renewed "ratification" and "demand futility" summary judgment motions, including matters which are the subject of this motion. MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Defendants have just filed two renewed motions for summary judgment, one based on "ratification" (the "Ratification MSJ") and the other based on claimed demand futility. The moving party in each bears the burden of proving the independence of the directors whose claimed independence is the basis and sine qua non of each motion.

The documents which are the subject of this motion bear directly on the issue of independence. These documents belie the premise of the summary judgment motions that the five dismissed directors are independent. More particularly, these documents will show that the December 2017 "ratifications" claimed to have been independent business judgments by independent directors were, instead, part of a "litigation strategy" approved by defendant Ellen Cotter and executed by directors who relied on the "advice" of lawyers who conferred with and took direction from Ellen Cotter.

The documents in question have been withheld based on claims of attorney-client privilege and/or the attorney work product doctrine. For the attorney-client privilege to apply, the communications claimed privileged must have been between an attorney and his or her client, for the purpose of facilitating the rendition of legal services, and must have been maintained as confidential. A board of directors' special committee with authority to act, such as the "Special Independent Committee" ("SIC") here, possesses its own independent attorney client privilege. Where, as here, the work of the committee entails assessing the conduct of other members of the board, the committee does not share its privilege or a common interest with the corporation's other board members or with the corporation. Of course, where the committee discloses its privileged communications to persons who are not members of it, such disclosures e waive any privilege with respect to the subject matters of those communications.

Here, the "independent" directors, including the SIC whose previously concealed approval of "ratification" was the means by which "ratification" was raised and assured success, did not maintain attorney-client privilege or confidences vis-à-vis the Company, or even vis-à-vis defendants Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, who stand to benefit from the actions of the "independent" directors, including in particular "ratification."

On the contrary, the lawyers "advising" the SIC and the other "independent" directors did just the opposite. They sought and obtained approval of the "ratification" "process" from Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Craig Tompkins (now RDI's General Counsel reporting to Ellen Cotter) before seeking and securing approval of "ratification" from the SIC. After obtaining approval of "ratification" from the SIC on December 21, 2018, the lawyers then apprised Ellen Cotter and Tompkins of the SIC's approval and obtained input from Tompkins and apparently Ellen Cotter regarding one or more drafts of the December 27, 2017 email before providing it to Gould to send on behalf of the "independent" directors. Thus, as to the operative language of the December 27, 2017 email, the agenda for the December 29, 2017 board meeting based thereon, and finally the minutes of the December 29, 2017 meeting which are the basis of the Ratification MSJ, the "work product" in question not only was disclosed to Tompkins and Ellen Cotter, it was subject to their contemporaneous input.

Disclosure of matter relating to all aspects of the "ratifications" to Tompkins, and separately to Ellen Cotter, shows that the matter was not treated as privileged or confidential to the SIC or the five. Even were that matter privileged and confidential, the disclosure of it to Tompkins, and separately to Ellen Cotter, waives any privilege with respect thereto.

For such reasons, documents which are the subject of the Court's May 2, 2018 order and which have been withheld on the basis of attorney-client privilege must be produced.

Independent of the foregoing, assertions that such documents or communications are protected by the work product doctrine are inconsistent with, and cannot be reconciled with, the position taken by defendants in the Ratification MSI that the purported ratifications were business judgments made by independent directors with respect to RDI business matters. In order to constitute attorney work product, documents must be prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial, and must be prepared by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative. To satisfy the "prepared in anticipation of litigation" requirement, the proper party opposing this motion must persuade the Court that these "ratification" communications were work of a special litigation committee undertaken in anticipation of use in this litigation. However, according to the Ratification MSJ, the "ratification" was an ordinary course "business judgment" of the five "independent" directors with respect to RDI business matters.

Defendants cannot have it both ways. They must either admit that the subject documents are not work product, or admit that the purported ratifications were not the result of business judgments and that the business judgment rule does not apply to them. Therefore, documents claimed to be subject to the work product protection must be produced or the Court must conclude that the five claimed independent directors are not independent. Additionally, even if the documents are determined to be subject to work product protection, Plaintiff has made a showing of substantial need for the documents because, without them, Plaintiff will be hard-pressed if not unable to show what actually happened in the "ratification" "process," which goes directly to the issue of independence upon which the renewed summary judgment motions are based.

In view of the foregoing, and for the reasons described herein, Plaintiff respectfully requests an order: (1) compelling the production of documents responsive to the Court's rulings of May 2, 2018 which have been withheld based on claims of attorneyclient privilege and/or attorney work product; (2) alternatively with respect to such documents withheld based on claims of attorney work product, for an in camera inspection of such documents to determine if they are properly withheld on that basis; (3) compelling further deposition testimony from Gould, Codding, McEachern, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Craig Tompkins; or, alternatively, an order (4) that defendants are precluded, whether by motion for summary judgment, at trial or otherwise, from asserting a defense based on the purported ratifications.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A. Creation and Delegation of Authority to the SIC

In August 2017, the RDI board of directors to (the "Board") authorized the formation of a "Special Independent Committee" (the "SIC" or "SLC"). (See Ex. 4, RDI's February 23, 2018 Form 8-K.) On or about February 23, 2018, RDI filed a Form 8-K with the SEC, which attached and disclosed publicly for the first time the Charter of the SIC. (Id.) (The charter was admitted as defendants' Ex. B at the May 2, 2018 evidentiary hearing.) Section IV of the Charter describes the responsibilities and duties of the SIC, including the authority delegated to it with respect to this derivative action and other lawsuits (defined therein as "Cotter Related Proceedings"). The Charter states in relevant part as follows:

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

ii. ... [I]nstruct legal counsel representing the Company to take certain actions, including but not limited to, file pleadings or other papers, appear in any proceedings... and otherwise take such steps as the [SIC] deemed to be in the best interest of the Company in any Cotter Related Proceedings [which includes this derivative action] or

iii. Participate in and direct legal counsel representing the Company to conduct negotiations and take actions to resolve matters related to the Cotter Related Proceedings...

iv. Report to the Board, as it determines to be appropriate (subject to the maintenance of attorney-client privileges and with due regard for and the institution of appropriate safeguards in order to take into account any conflicts of interest that may exist involving other members of the Board and without limiting its delegated authority under this Charter), its recommendations and conclusions with respect to the determinations delegated to it by this Charter; and

Ex. 4 (RDI's February 23, 2018 Form 8-K) (emphasis supplied.)

B. The Inception of "Ratification" With the SIC

According to the deposition testimony of former defendants and current RDI directors Douglas McEachern and William Gould, the subject of ratification was first raised with them by lawyers from Greenberg Traurig ("GT"). McEachern testified that the subject of ratification was raised "in late Fall sometime of 2017," at which time it was tabled. (See Ex. 12, McEachern 2/28/18 dep. tr. at 548:21-550:1.) McEachern further testified that the "main focus was on the termination of Jim Cotter, Jr." (Id.) Gould testified that the first communication he had regarding ratification was telephonically in mid or late November 2017 with GT lawyers Michael Bonner and Mark Ferrario. (See Ex. 10, Gould 4/5/18 dep. tr. at 509:13-15.) Gould described this telephone call as follows: "I was the chairman of the special [independent] committee and [GT lawyers Bonner and Ferrario] were discussing [ratification] with me in my capacity as the chairperson of that committee." (Id.)

C. GT First Cleared "Ratification" With Defendants Ellen and Margaret Cotter.

Late last week, on May 30 (and 31), 2018, GT produced supplemental privilege logs jointly on behalf of RDI and the five dismissed directors. The May 30 log discloses for the first time what apparently were communications in November or December 2016 and January 2017 regarding "ratification," among other things. (Although the log entries are deficient on their face, the inclusion of them in the log must mean that they concern "ratification.") The first entry, dated November 22, 2016, is an email from Craig

Tompkins, who then was special counsel to Ellen Cotter as CEO of RDI (Ex. 18, Tompkins 10/18/17 dep. tr. at 60:1-12), to GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario, copied to Ellen Cotter, the subject of which is "alternative approaches: attorney-client privileged attorney work product communication." (See Ex. 2, GT May 30, 2018 privilege log at entry ending in 71278.) The next entry is a December 7, 2016 email from Ferrario to Tompkins and Quinn Emanuel attorneys Marshall Searcy and Christopher Tayback, the subject of which is the attached "option memo." (See Ex. 2, GT May 30, 2018 privilege log at entry ending in 67300.) The next two entries are dated January 6 and 7, 2017, concern "alternative litigation resolution approaches" and are between Tompkins and Bonner, and copied to Ferrario and to Ellen Cotter. (See Ex. 2, GT May 30, 2018 privilege log at entries ending in 71290 and 64891.)

In December 2017, before seeking and securing approval of "ratification" from the SIC on December 21 (described below), GT lawyers cleared the "ratification" "process" with Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter and Tompkins.1

Specifically, on December 13, 2017—a week before the SIC purportedly decided to present ratification to the board—GT attorneys Mark Ferrario and Michael Bonner exchanged emails with Tompkins, on which Ellen Cotter was copied, bearing the subject "Special Committee," which emails were withheld as privileged and described as "Communication[s] regarding Ratification process." (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log at entry ending in 60907 and 60911; see also Ex. 3, GT May 31, 2018 privilege log at entries ending in RDI 73538, 76569, 76783.)

Two days later, on December 15, 2017, GT attorney Bonner again exchanged emails with Craig Tompkins, on which Ellen Cotter was copied, entitled "Misc." (See Ex. 1, ¹As Kane testified, Craig Tompkins—RDI's General Counsel to whom GT attorneys report—is on Ellen and Margaret Cotter's side. (See Ex. 14, Kane 5/2/16 dep. tr. at 176:18-177:1 (interpreting email stating "according to [Ellen Cotter], Craig is also on the 'team[,]' " to mean that Tompkins "was [with] Ellen and Margaret versus Jim."); Ex. 17 hereto (Dep. Ex. 105)).

Also on December 15, 2017, GT attorney Ferrario discussed the subject of ratification with Margaret Cotter in person. (See Ex. 16, Margaret Cotter's February 14, 2018 Interrogatory Responses No. 2.) (Margaret Cotter's interrogatory responses disclosed this communication regarding "ratification," but not others described herein.)

On December 21, 2017, GT attorney Bonner emailed Tompkins, copied to Ellen Cotter and GT attorney Ferrario, regarding "special committee/stockholder action alternatives." (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log at entry ending in 60533.) Ellen Cotter at her deposition acknowledged receiving this email. (See Ex. 9, Ellen Cotter 4/4/18 dep. tr. at 479:21-480:6.)

D. The SIC Approves "Ratification"

The SIC met telephonically with GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario on December 21, 2017. (See Ex. 5, redacted minutes of that December 21, 2017 meeting; see also GT May 31, 2018 Privilege log at entries CN 2075, 2174, 2494, 2504, 2634.) As described below, they approved "ratification" of the two decisions which thus became the subject of "ratification" votes at the December 29, 2017 Board meeting.

With respect to the December 21, 2017 SIC telephonic meeting, the SIC's members testified as follows: McEachern testified that the SIC approved ratification in an effort to "resolve" certain issues that remained in this derivative action, stating:

> "[I]t was delegated to the [SIC] to handle this type of matters. We were approving [ratification]. ... I think we had a call [on December 21, 2017] to talk about a couple issues that were still existing in this -- in this derivative case by Jim Cotter, Jr., and we were trying to address them in a fashion to resolve them."

(Ex. 12, McEachern 2/28/18 dep. tr. at 507:1-508:2 and 546:1-10) (emphasis supplied).

Gould testified that the SIC "formally [took] action" to advance the purported ratification(s). (See Ex. 10, Gould 4/5/18 dep. tr. at 529:10-18.) Gould admitted that the purpose of the "ratification(s)," "might be a litigation strategy" employed in this derivative action (to create a basis upon which to seek dismissal in advance of trial). (See Ex. 10, Gould 4/5/18 dep. tr. at 541:15-18.)

Codding testified that Bonner or Gould explained the notion of ratification with respect to the two matters later taken up at the December 29, 2017 Board meeting. She testified that the SIC approved "ratification," explaining that she did not distinguish between the process or fact of "ratification" and the merits of the two "ratification" decisions (that defendants claim were made at the December 29, 2017 Board meeting). (See Ex. 8, Codding 2/28/18 dep. tr. at 205:24-207:4.)

E. GT Works With Tompkins and Ellen Cotter to Effectuate the "Ratification" by "Independent" Directors.

The next day, December 22, 2017, GT followed through with the ratification scheme. Ferrario's assistant sent an email to Tompkins (and other GT lawyers) regarding "call re letter for special committee meeting re ratification." (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in entries ending in 60162; see also May 31, 2018 Privilege log at entries RDI 76075 and 76151.) Tompkins responded and an email chain ensued. (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in entries ending in 60258, 60260, 60262, 60265 and 60267.) (The "letter for special committee meeting re ratification" appears to refer to what came to be the December 27, 2017 email from Gould purportedly on behalf of the five "independent" Directors.)

Also on December 22, 2017, GT attorney Bonner: (1) emailed Gould and GT lawyer Ferrario about the "ratification issue discussed yesterday" (Ex. 3, GT May 31, 2018 Privilege Log at entries RDI 76320 and 77234); (2) sent an email regarding the "derivative trial" to Gould, copying Ferrario, Ellen Cotter and Tompkins (Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in entries ending in 60005); and (3) sent an email to Ellen Cotter, her assistant Laura Batista, Tompkins and GT attorney Ferrario regarding "board time check" (which presumably refers to the scheduling of the Board meeting to have the

F. Litigation Counsel Prepares the December 27 Email Request for a Special Board Meeting to Address Ratification With Input From Tompkins and likely Ellen Cotter-Not Gould or the other "Independent" Directors.

On December 27, 2017, Bonner and other GT lawyers exchanged a number of emails with Tompkins with one or more drafts of what came to be the December 27, 2017 email request sent by Gould's assistant, purportedly on behalf of the five dismissed directors, to take up ratification at a special board meeting. (See Ex. 15, 5/2/18 hearing tr. at 59:1-8.) Several of those emails had file names such as "For Bill Gould to sign.msg," a subject of "For Bill Gould to sign," and a description of the emails as "Communication regarding draft letter re Special Board Meeting." (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in 57090, 59768, 59899, 59911, 59912, 59959, 60790, 60802 and 60810.) Another email read "Communication regarding board meeting, notice and ratification process." (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in 60798.) Other emails exchanged on December 27, 2017 between Tompkins and GT had file names including "Ratificat.zip?ratificat/For Bill Gould to sign," the subjects of which were "Ratification," and which are described as "Communication[s] regarding draft letter re Special Board Meeting" or "Communication[s] regarding Special Meeting Request." (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in entries ending in 60404, 60408, 60412, 60424, 60428, 60450, 60464, 60843, 60846.);

Several of the December 27, 2017 emails with file names such as "Ratificat.zip?ratificat/Ratification" and "Ratification.msg" and the subject "Ratification" also were copied to Ellen Cotter. (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in entries ending in 60450, 60452, 60464 and 60846; Ex. 2, 5/30/18 privilege log at entries ending in RDI 68619, 68626, 70083, 70095.)

Another December 27, 2017 email from Tompkins to Bonner and Ferrario concerned "ratification" according to the email subject line, but the privilege log provides no description of the communication. (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entry ending in 60843.) A subsequent entry also is an email regarding "ratification," and is from Bonner to Tompkins and Ferrario, but also copied Ellen Cotter. (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entry ending in 60846.)

After receiving responses from Tompkins and possibly Ellen Cotter (see id.) regarding the draft of what came to be Gould's December 27, 2017 email, GT attorney Bonner on December 27, 2017 sent Gould an email, with a copy to GT attorney Ferrario, the "re" line of which read "FW: for Bill Gould to sign," which RDI's privilege log also describes as "communication regarding draft letter re Special Board Meeting." (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in entries ending in 59792 and 59937) (emphasis supplied.)

At his April 5, 2018 deposition, Gould identified the December 27, 2017 email (Ex. 6, marked as Dep. Ex. 527 and Ex. P-1 from the 5/2/18 evidentiary hearing), which was sent shortly before 8:00 p.m. Pacific by Marcia Wizelman, Gould's assistant, to Ellen Cotter, as the notice ("call") by the five dismissed directors for the two "ratification" matters to be raised and approved at the next regularly scheduled board meeting or, failing that, at a special meeting, (See Ex. 10, Gould 4/5/18 Dep. Tr. at 530:2-10.) Gould testified that he did not draft or edit the December 27, 2017 email, but that it was drafted by GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario. (See Ex. 10, Gould 4/5/18 Dep. Tr. at 530:18-25.) As described above, Tompkins and apparently Ellen Cotter participated in drafting or reviewing draft(s) of the December 27, 2017 email.

Gould testified that the December 27, 2017 email had been approved (presumably by McEachern and Codding as SIC members). (See Ex. 10, Gould 4/5/18 Dep. Tr. at 525:10-17.) However, none of the five other than Gould saw the December 27, 2017 email (Dep. Ex. 527) prior to their depositions. McEachern testified with respect to Dep. Ex. 527 that "I don't recall having seen this before, but I do recall speaking in our [December 21, 2017] special committee [meeting] with Bill Gould and Judy Codding about asking to have this done." (See Ex. 12, McEachern 2/28/18 Dep. Tr. at 544:3-8.) Codding's testimony was to the same effect. (See Ex. 8, Codding 2/28/18 Dep. Tr. at 231:7-232-5.) Wrotniak testified that he did not recall seeing Dep. Ex. 527 prior to preparing for his deposition. (See Ex. 13, Wrotniak 3/6/18 Dep. Tr. at 91:17-92:4.) Kane also testified that he had no recollection of seeing Dep. Ex. 527 prior to his deposition. (See Ex. 11, Kane 4/19/18 dep. tr. at 681:14-19.)

G. The December 27 Email was the Source of the "Ratification" Agenda for the December 29, 2017 Board Meeting.

The text of the December 27, 2017 email was used to prepare the corresponding portion of the agenda for the December 29, 2017 board meeting. (See Ex. 15, 5/2/18 hearing tr. at 56:25-57:5; Ex. 9, Ellen Cotter dep. tr. at 485:9-486:3.) In that regard, GT attorney Bonner on December 26, 2017 exchanged emails with Tompkins, Ellen Cotter, Gould, and GT litigators, the subject line of which was "Draft for your review," described in the February 22, 2018 privilege log as "Communication regarding notice and agenda for upcoming board meeting." (See Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in entry ending in 60777 and 60780.) (See also Ex. 1, GT February 22, 2018 privilege log entries ending in 60273, which is described as "[c]ommunication re draft board meeting materials.")

That agenda (Dep. Ex. 525 (excerpts), Ex. 7 hereto) was distributed at approximately 5:30 p.m. Pacific on December 27, 2017. The draft minutes of the December 29, 2017 meeting (Dep. Ex. 526) reflect that they were prepared in part by copying from the agenda (Dep. Ex. 525), which was prepared in relevant part based upon the December 27, 2017 email (Dep. Ex. 527). GT attorney Bonner testified that the December 29, 2017 meeting minutes were memorialized on an expedited basis because of the "particular legal import" of "the ratification of the matters that were considered at the December 29 meeting." (See Ex. 15, 5/2/18 hearing tr. at 43:5-8.) Thus, the text of the December 27 email was the source of language of "particular legal import" to the purported ratifications.

Wrotniak first learned that ratifying prior conduct would be taken up at the December 29, 2017 Board meeting from a telephone call he and Codding had with GT lawyers Ferrario and Bonner. Wrotniak described the subject matter of the call as the agenda for the December 29 Board meeting and "protection for Reading." (Ex. 13, Wrotniak 3/6/18 dep. tr. at 41:2-42:25.) (Emphasis supplied.) (See also Ex. 3, GT May 31, 2018 privilege entries dated 12/28/18 ending in RDI 76390, 76391, 76466, 76469 and 76522.) The call lasted less than an hour and occurred just a day or so before the December 29 Board meeting. (Ex. 13, Wrotniak 3/6/18 dep. tr. at 44:3-22.) (See also Ex. 3, GT May 31, 2018 privilege entries dated 12/28/18 ending in RDI 76466 and 76469.) Wrotniak testified that "[i]t was agreed" in that telephone call that the December 29 Board meeting would address the ratification matters. (See Ex. 13, Wrotniak 3/6/18 Dep. Tr. at 87:7-22.)

III. ARGUMENT

A. Plaintiff Is Entitled to Review the Documents Sought Because They Are Not Privileged, and Even If They Were, the Privilege Has Been Waived.

Pursuant to Nev. R. Civ. P. 37(a) and 45(c)(2)(B), the Responding Parties should be ordered to produce any and all documents which have been withheld based on claims of attorney-client privilege or the work product doctrine (or, alternatively as to documents withheld based on claims that they are protected by the work product doctrine, the Responding Parties should be ordered to deliver them to the court for in camera review) and which mention, concern or in any way relate to (i) the December 21, 2017 meeting of the "Special Independent Committee" of the RDI Board of Directors, the members of which are Gould, Codding and McEachern, including its scheduling, content, scope, minutes or anything else related to that meeting; (ii) the December 27, 2017 email from Gould's assistant, marked as P-1 at May 2, 2018 evidentiary hearing, including its subject matter, preparation, drafting, circulation, how it would be used to get its contents on the agenda for the December 29, 2017 RDI Board of Directors meeting and otherwise related to that document; and (iii) ratification.

As the Court already has ruled, such documents are responsive to several of Plaintiff's document requests. As explained below, the documents are not privileged or, even if they otherwise were privileged and/or subject to the attorney work product doctrine, both have been waived as to each of the subject matters identified in the immediately preceding paragraph.

B. Where, as Here, Dismissal of a Derivative Action is Sought Based on Decisions of a Committee or Subset of "Independent" Directors, the Moving Party Bears the Burden of Proving Their Independence.

A board of directors may "delegate to a committee of disinterested directors the board's power to control corporate [derivative] litigation." Kaman v. Kemper Fin. Servs., Inc., 500 U.S. 90, 102 (1991). Such committee typically is called a special litigation committee or an "SLC." Beam v. Stewart, A. 2d 1040, 1055 (Del. 2004). Where that has occurred, a moving party seeking relief based on the decision(s) of such committee bears the burden of proving the independence of board members whose actions or decisions serve as the basis for the relief sought, among other things. Jacksonville Police & Fire Pension Fund v. Brokaw (In re DISH Network Derivative Litig.), 401 P.3d 1081, 1088, 1089 (Nev. 2017).

Here, without regard to whether the actions of "independent" directors are or entail "ratification"—(as Plaintiff will demonstrate in response to a renewed summary judgment motion, they are not)—they are actions which defendants argue serve as a basis for seeking dismissal of this derivative action. Indeed, as described above, both Gould and McEachern testified that the ratification served to resolve remaining issues in the litigation. The SIC met and approved "ratification" of two matters (generally, the termination of Plaintiff as President and CEO of RDI and the use of RDI Class A nonvoting stock as consideration for the exercise of the so-called 100,000 share option). The SIC authorized Gould to send what came to be his December 27, 2017 email on behalf of the five "independent" directors calling for "ratification" to be raised at the next RDI board meeting. At that meeting two days later, each of the five voted in favor of the purported ratifications. Based on the foregoing, a renewed "ratification" motion for summary judgment has been filed by the remaining defendants, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Guy Adams.

The terms of the SIC Charter are not the only evidence that the SIC functioned as a special litigation committee or SLC. The testimony of SIC members about what they decided and authorized at the December 21, 2017 SIC committee meeting comports with the function of the SIC as an SLC. For example, Gould testified that GT attorneys Bonner and Ferrario communicated with him about "ratification" in his capacity as chair of the SIC, and that the SIC "formally" approved "ratification" and authorized what came to be his December 27, 2017 email.

Additionally, the May 30, 2018 privilege log produced by GT includes a March 21, 2018 email exchange between Tompkins and GT lawyers the subject of which is "SLC Resolution." (See Ex. 2, GT May 30, 2018 privilege log at entries ending in 68527, 69418 and 69420) (Emphasis supplied.) The log contains another March 21, 2018 email exchange between Tompkins and GT lawyers, the subject of which includes the words "resolution re special litigation committee." (See Ex. 2, GT May 30, 2018 privilege log at entry ending in 69421.) (Emphasis supplied.)

The independence of the SIC and the five therefore is an issue as to which Plaintiff is entitled to discovery. In re DISH Network Derivative Litig., 401 P.3d at 1088. Recently, in ruling on Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief, the Court ordered the Responding Parties to make supplemental productions of responsive documents and provide supplemental privilege logs, identifying the categories of information as follows:

> THE COURT: ... So three categories, [i] the 12/21 special committee meeting, whether its scheduling, content, scope, minutes, whatever, related to that meeting; [ii] P-1 [the 12/27/18 email], whether its subject matter, preparation, drafting, circulation, how we're going to get it on the agenda for the 12/29 meeting; and the third item is [iii] any discussion of ratification, not limited by time.

As shown above, a significant number of documents relating to one or more of the foregoing three categories have been withheld based on claims of attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or both. As demonstrated below, those documents are not privileged and are not properly claimed to be subject to work product protection and, even if they were subject to proper claims of privilege and/or work product protection, both have been waived. The documents therefore should be produced.

C. Independent Directors Charged with Acting as Such Do Not and Cannot Share Privilege with the Company, Much Less With Other Directors Whose Conduct is the Subject of Actions by the Independent Directors.

An SLC or other board committee with authority to act possesses its own independent attorney client privilege. Moore Business Forms, Inc. v. Cordant Holdings Corp., Nos. 13911. 14595, 1996 Del. Ch. LEXIS 56 at *6 (Del. Ch. June 4, 1996). Conversely, counsel to a special board committee passing on conduct of board members not on the committee does not have an attorney-client relationship or a privilege with the corporation's board, or even a common interest with the board, because the work of the committee necessarily entails assessing the conduct of other members of the board. SEC v. Roberts, 2008 U. S. Dist. LEXIS 64615, at *17 n.4 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 22, 2008).

Here, the SIC's charter, quoted above, makes clear that the SIC has "authority to enter into or bind the Company in connection with [this derivative action among other lawsuits]..." In fact, the SIC's charter specifies that the SIC "is authorized, in its discretion[,]" to report to the full RDI Board and, in doing so, may withhold certain information in order to protect its attorney client privilege:

> iv. [The SIC may] [r]eport to the Board, as it determines to be appropriate (subject to the maintenance of attorney-client privileges and with due regard for and the institution of appropriate safeguards in order to take into account any conflicts of interest that may exist involving other members of the Board and without limiting its delegated authority

However, where an SLC or other board committee to which authority has been delegated makes a report to the full board of directors, and/or where it otherwise discloses privileged communications to persons who are not members of it, such disclosures constitute a waiver of any privilege with respect to the subject matter(s) of those communications. Ryan v. Gifford, 2007 Del Ch. LEXIS 168, at *9 (Del Ch. November 30, 2007) (presentation of a report by special committee to the company's full board of directors constituted a waiver of privilege with respect to the subject matters of the report).

The attorney-client privilege is codified at NRS 49.095. For the attorney-client privilege to apply, the communications claimed privileged must have been between an attorney and his or her client, for the purpose of facilitating the rendition of legal services, and must have been maintained as confidential. Wynn Resorts, Ltd., 399 P.3d at 341 (citation omitted).

Here, as demonstrated above and by the privilege logs produced by RDI, throughout the "ratification" "process," disclosure of matter claimed privileged—whether regarding the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting, the December 27, 2017 Gould email on behalf of the "independent" directors, or "ratification" generally—was made not only to Craig Tompkins, but also to defendants Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, both of whom remain defendants in this case and stand to benefit from the actions of the "independent" directors, including in particular the members of the SIC, whose December 21, 2017 approval of "ratification" assured that a majority of the "independent" directors would "ratify" prior actionable conduct of the remaining defendants.

As the case law discussed herein makes clear, the subject matters of those communications are not privileged or, if they were privileged, privilege has been waived with respect to the subject matters thereof by disclosure of them to Tompkins, and separately by disclosure of them to Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter. NRS 49.385(1)("A person . . . waives the privilege if the person . . . voluntarily discloses or consents to disclosure of any significant part of the matter").

Even if some or all of those communications properly were claimed to be subject to the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product doctrine, the case law makes clear that, in circumstances such as those here, there was a waiver. For example, in Ryan v. Gifford, the court held that a special committee waived any privilege by presenting its report to the corporation's other directors because certain of them were defendants in a shareholder derivative action concerning conduct which was a subject of the committee's report. 2007 Del Ch. LEXIS 168, at *7-14. 2008 Del. Ch. LEXIS 2, at *12-24. The court held that the waiver of privilege from the presentation of the report operated as a complete waiver for all communications regarding the subject matters thereof. Id. See Wardleigh v. Second Judicial Dist. Ct., 111 Nev. 345, 355, 891 P.2d 1180, 1186 (1995) (disclosure of portions of communications claimed to be privileged waives the privilege as to the balance of such communications).

By the same analysis, the communications GT lawyers had with Tompkins, and the communications GT lawyers had with Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, each give rise to a waiver of any privilege with respect to all communications regarding the subject matters of these communications. As the privilege log entries described above reflect, GT lawyers had communications with Tompkins, and with Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter regarding "ratification" generally, and with both Tompkins and Ellen Cotter regarding the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting and the December 27, 2017 Gould email.

In Ryan v. Gifford, the court also concluded that because the special committee was formed to investigate [claimed] wrongdoing and in response to litigation in which" certain directors were named as individual defendants," "there can be no doubt that the common interest exception is inapplicable to extend the protection of the attorney-client privilege to the communications disclosed at the... board meetings." 2007 Del Ch. LEXIS 168, at *13. With respect to the handwritten notes of the attorneys engaged by the special committee, as to which attorney work product was claimed, the court ruled that those interview notes were to be produced to the Court for in camera inspection, to determine if in fact they reflected attorney work product. Id., 2007 Del Ch. LEXIS 168, at *16-17.

By the same analysis, insofar as GT will argue that RDI and the SIC share a common interest, such a claim fails because of the role of the SIC (assuming for the sake of analysis only that the SIC was comprised of independent directors who received advice from independent counsel, not conflicted counsel) supposedly was that of "independent" directors who made supposedly good faith, informed decisions with respect to whether to "ratify" prior conduct of certain other directors, including the remaining defendants Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Guy Adams.

The case of Klein v. FPL Group, Inc., 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19979 (S.D. Fla. 2003), in which a special committee first undertook certain action and then all supposedly independent directors voted with respect to the ultimate action, also is instructive here. In Klein v. FPL Group, in response to a demand to the company to commence an action against certain of its officers and/or directors, the company established a special committee (called the "Evaluation Committee") comprised of three outside directors. That special committee conducted an investigation and issued a report that recommended that dismissal of derivative actions be sought. That report was provided to the Company's full board of directors. The full board met and, with interested directors abstaining, the remaining directors agreed with the report that the derivative actions should be dismissed and authorized counsel to move to dismiss. Id. at *10. In ruling on a motion to compel discovery, the court held that "documents which members of the Board created or reviewed prior to the vote... to accept the [Evaluation] Committee's recommendation regarding dismissal of this lawsuit... are not privileged..." Klein, 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19979, at *32. With respect to claims of attorney work product regarding notes of witness interviews, the court ruled that "work-product protection has been waived by the manner in which the Report was prepared and communicated..." Id. at 38-39.

Other courts have held that a motion to terminate a derivative action pursuant to a special litigation committee recommendation waives the attorney-client privilege with respect to both the committee's report and all underlying data. Joy v. North, 692 F.2d 880, 893 (2d Cir. 1982), cert. denied, 460 U.S. 1051 (1983); In re PSE&G Shareholder Litig., 726 A.2d 994, 996 (N.J. Super. Ct. Ch. Div. 1998, aff'd on other grounds, 801 A.2d 295 (Del. 2002). By such an analysis, of all of the documents which are the subject of the instant motion should be produced.

Here, the documents which are the subject of this motion bear directly on the issue of independence. The documents listed on defendants' privilege logs described above are likely if not certain to provide unequivocal evidence that the "ratification" "process" was approved, if not directed, by one or both of defendants Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, together with Tompkins and GT lawyers. Such evidence, together with the communications with conflicted counsel who represent the Company but nonetheless purported to "advise" "independent" directors, will undermine claims of independence on the part of the five "independent" directors. Because the moving party in the renewed motions for summary judgment bear the burden of proving the independence of the directors whose claimed independence it is the basis and sine qua non for each motion, such evidence obviously is highly probative if not dispositive of that issue.

In the foregoing regard, the fact that "independent" directors relied on the advice of counsel (GT lawyers) who represent RDI and, in doing so, answer to the remaining defendants, starting with Ellen Cotter, separately evidences that those directors lack independence, as a matter of law. Gesoff v. IIC Industries Inc., 902 A.2d 1130 (Del. Ch. 2006), subsequent proceedings, 2006 Del. Ch. LEXIS 161, 2006 WL 2521441 (Del. Ch. Aug. 22, 2006) ("[A] special committee's decision to use the legal and financial advisors already advising the parent 'alone rais[ed] questions regarding the quality and independence of the counsel and advice received' "); id. at 1147 (citing In re Tele-Communications, Inc. Shareholders Litigation, 2005 Del. Ch. LEXIS 206, 2005 WL 3642727 (Del. Ch. Dec. 21, 2005)).

Consistent with the fact that the "independent" directors were advised by counsel who represent the Company and answer to Ellen Cotter, no efforts were made to maintain any attorney-client privilege or confidences held by the SIC or by any of the five "independent" directors vis-à-vis the Company, much less defendants Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter. On the contrary, GT lawyers did not even pay lip service to the independence of the SIC when it came to the subject of "ratification" and developments with respect to the "ratification" "process." They did just the opposite. GT lawyers sought and obtained approval of the "ratification" "process" from the Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and from Tompkins before seeking and securing approval of the 'ratification" "process" from the SIC and then Wrotniak (and possibly Kane).

After obtaining approval of "ratification" from the SIC on December 21, 2017, GT lawyers apprised Ellen Cotter and Tompkins of the SIC's decision and obtained input from Tompkins and apparently Ellen Cotter regarding one or more drafts of the December 27, 2017 email before providing it to Gould to send on behalf of the five "independent" directors. Thus, as to the operative language of the December 27, 2017 email, the agenda for the December 29, 2017 board meeting based thereon, and finally the minutes of the December 29, 2017 meeting, the "work product" in question not only was disclosed to Tompkins and Ellen Cotter, it was subject to their contemporaneous input.

That role continued through the preparation of the forthcoming, renewed "ratification" summary judgment motion. The May 30, 2018 privilege log contains entries from April 21 and 22, 2018, the subject matter of which includes the description "draft motion for summary judgment re ratification." (See Ex. 2, GT May 30, 20187 privilege log at entries ending in 68156 and 69304.) The first is an email from Tompkins to Quinn Emanuel lawyer Noah Halpern, with copies to Quinn Emanuel and GT lawyers and to Ellen Cotter. (Id.) The second is an email from Quinn Emanuel lawyer Tayback to GT lawyer Kara Hendricks, with copies to Quinn Emanuel lawyers, GT lawyers, Tompkins and to Ellen Cotter. (Id.) The foregoing communications evidence, among other things, the absence of an attorney-client privilege or, if there was one, waiver of it, as well as waiver of work product protection, with respect to all communications regarding each of the three subjects of the Court's May 2, 2018 order, namely, (i) the December 21, 2017 SIC meeting, (ii) the December 27, 2017 Gould email, and (iii) "ratification."

Independent of the foregoing, assertions that such documents are protected by the attorney work product doctrine are erroneous. Of course, "NRCP 26(b)(3) protects documents with 'two characteristics: (1) they must be prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial, and (2) they must be prepared by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative.' "Wynn Resorts, Ltd., 399 P.3d at 347 (quoting In re Grand Jury Subpoena (Mark Torf/Torf Envtl. Mgmt.), 357 F.3d 900, 907 (9th Cir. 2004)). Thus, to satisfy the "prepared in anticipation of litigation" requirement, RDI and the defendants must claim and persuade the Court that these "ratification" communications were work of a special litigation committee undertaken in anticipation of use in this litigation. However, according to RDI and defendants, the "ratification" documents pertained to a "business judgment" of the five "independent" directors. If that is what they claim, they cannot invoke the work product doctrine. They can only do so if they admit that "ratification" was not a business judgment by "independent" directors but, instead, a "litigation strategy" undertaken by all at the direction of conflicted counsel to obtain dismissal of this derivative action. Separately, documents prepared or reviewed by Craig Tompkins and Ellen Cotter cannot be claimed to be prepared by a representative of any of the "independent" directors. Therefore, documents claimed to be subject to the work product protection must be produced or the Court must conclude that the five claimed independent directors are not independent for the purposes of their "ratification" MSJ.
