FOR THE PLAINTIFF: MARK G. KRUM, ESQ. AKKE LEVIN, ESQ.

> MARK E. FERRARIO, ESQ. KARA B. HENDRICKS, ESQ. MARSHALL M. SEARCY, ESQ. CHRISTOPHER TAYBACK, ESQ. KEVIN M. JOHNSON, ESQ. SHOSHANA E. BANNETT, ESQ. CAROLYN K. RENNER, ESQ.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, TUESDAY, JUNE 19, 2018, 8:39 A.M. 1 2 (Court was called to order) 3 THE COURT: Good morning. Does anyone have any 4 electronic drives they would like Mr. Doan and his team to 5 look at? 6 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, Your Honor, we do. 7 THE COURT: Team 1. Good morning. How have you 8 Thanks. Let me know when you're done. been. 9 In the meantime, I received late last night, I guess early this morning plaintiff's reply on the motion related to 10 11 the May 2 rulings and a motion to seal those. Does anyone 12 object to me signing the order shortening time on the motion 13 to seal and advancing it to this morning? 14 MR. KRUM: No. 15 I'm going to wait for a minute before we THE COURT: 16 start the motions. The order I'm going to go is I am going to 17 handle the motion first for relief based on noncompliance with 18 the Court's May 2, 2018, ruling before I go to any other 19 motions. And then, according to the notes I wrote last night, 20 my plan is to do the motion to compel and then to go to the 21 motion for summary judgment and then to the motion to dismiss, 22 if you need to order your stacks. 23 (Pause in the proceedings) 24 Okay. So these are good. MR. DOAN: 25 THE COURT: You need to get near the mike, Mike.

JA8345

MR. DOAN: Sorry. 1 2 THE COURT: You know better than that. 3 MR. DOAN: Okay. Yeah. I think there's some 4 standard exhibits and videos on one. Is that true? 5 MR. JOHNSON: Yes. 6 MR. DOAN: Okay. So those are traditional, so those 7 won't be part of this. 8 THE COURT: Okay. 9 MR. DOAN: The other set's good. The blank jury drive isn't labeled, but it should be good. It'll still be in 10 the box. So that's your call how you want to handle that. 11 12 THE COURT: Okay. 13 MR. DOAN: The other set, we a bad file name on it, 14 just the naming, so --15 THE COURT: Okay. 16 MR. DOAN: -- if we could fix that real quick. 17 THE COURT: Whose drive is it? 18 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Is that the orange one? 19 MR. DOAN: Yeah, the orange one. 20 THE COURT: What do you want -- come name the file. Come help rename the file. 21 22 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Sure. 23 THE COURT: It's easier if we all sit here and do it 24 now. 25 MR. KRUM: So, Your Honor, may we interject an observation and a question? 1 2 THE COURT: No, not yet. 3 MR. KRUM: Well, it's with respect to this. 4 THE COURT: Hold on. 5 MR. KRUM: Okay. 6 THE COURT: Are we reading the file in an 7 appropriate format? 8 Okay. Mr. Krum, you wanted to make an observation. 9 MR. KRUM: Well, the observation, Your Honor, is that we've not had an opportunity to complete processing the 10 documents that have been produced in the approximate last 11 12 week. 13 THE COURT: I'm not there yet. I'm not there yet, Mr. Krum. That's the first motion this morning. 14 15 MR. KRUM: Well, no. But for the purposes of our 16 drive I just wanted to apprise the Court that our view is that it's incomplete. We'll --17 THE COURT: That's the first two motions this 18 19 morning, Mr. Krum. 20 MR. KRUM: Okay. I wanted to make sure he knew if he need to. That's all. 21 22 THE COURT: He doesn't need to know that. He just 23 needs to know when he needs to come and check it and tell us 24 it's okay, start the next process. 25 MR. KRUM: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So make him do substantive stuff. 1 Make 2 him do process stuff. 3 All right. Mike, are we good on everything else? 4 MR. DOAN: Yeah, we're good. 5 THE COURT: Okay. So if you'd deliver the drives back to Dulce and we'll do what we need to. 6 7 Thank you, gentlemen, for coming. I appreciate your 8 time. 9 THE LAW CLERK: Are we doing time? THE COURT: Yes, they are on timers. 10 How much time do you think you need? 11 12 MR. FERRARIO: For what? 13 THE COURT: I'm going to put you on a timer, but you're going to tell me how much time you need, and then I'm 14 15 going to hold you to it. 16 MR. FERRARIO: Per motion? 17 THE COURT: How much time do we need this morning, 18 Mr. Ferrario? 19 MR. FERRARIO: I'm running a calculation in my head. 20 THE COURT: I'm watching your numbers run. There's steam coming out of your ears. 21 22 MR. FERRARIO: I would think no more than 20 minutes 23 per motion combined for both sides. 24 THE COURT: How much do you think you need, Mr. 25 Krum?

MR. KRUM: I think, Your Honor, 15 minutes per motion is sufficient.

THE COURT: And I'd said you had not to exceed an hour this morning not counting the stuff for the drives. So I'm going to allocate a total of 30 minutes to each side for you to split however you want among your motions, okay.

7 So, Cassandra, please keep track -- she left. Hold 8 on.

9 MR. KRUM: We had strict time limits in the 10 depositions in the Daimler v. Chrysler case, the securities 11 case, and the Daimler folks all spoke better English than most 12 of us, but they insisted on a translator.

13 THE COURT: Yeah. It doubles the time.
14 MR. KRUM: Well, so literally we had a clock person 15 starting and stopping when the lawyer's question ended and the 16 translation began.

17 THE COURT: Thirty minutes each, please.

18 Cassandra, if you could track them.

19 THE LAW CLERK: Got it.

THE COURT: All right. I said I wanted to start with the motion related to the compliance with the May 2 order.

23 MR. KRUM: Thank you, Your Honor. May I sit for24 this? My notes are on my computer.

25 THE COURT: Sure.

MR. KRUM: Thank you.

THE COURT: 2 Just make sure you keep your voice up. 3 MR. KRUM: So first by way of hopefully a timely 4 abbreviated background, recall that the original summary 5 judgment attached only the December 29 minutes. There was no mention of even the December 27 Gould email, much less the 6 7 December 21 special committee meeting. So when the documents 8 were produced in February, of course, there was nothing about 9 the December 21 special committee meeting, but there was the December 27 Gould email, as if the five had contemporaneously 10 shared and epiphany and somehow someone -- Gould had dictated 11 12 that.

13 But, of course, we learned from prior motion practice that what in fact happened supposedly as among the 14 15 five is the first event was the December 21 special 16 independent committee meeting. So I've done M&A work for 17 decades, and one of the things I've enjoyed about that is 18 being able to provide advice about business matters, not just 19 litigation. But I understand that in those circumstances 20 sometimes that entails molding what comes to be the evidence. 21 I've never seen anything like this. The GT lawyers, as we 22 know from the May 2 hearing, did not prepare the minutes of 23 the December 21 SIC meeting, special independent committee, 24 until after the motion had been heard, after we'd propounded 25 discovery, and then, as we heard from Mr. Bonner, well, no,

1 the discussion of ratification was privileged and so it didn't 2 appear in the minutes, or words to that effect. I'm not going 3 to go over all that again. That's just context. They clearly 4 sought to conceal the December 21 special committee meeting. 5 And we never received an explanation. Now, counsel for Mr. Gould said, we didn't think it was responsive. And we spoke 6 7 to that in our papers. I'll just reiterate that's 8 unbelievable.

9 GT lawyers participated in the entire ratification 10 process, and I put "ratification" in quotes and "process" in 11 quotes, Your Honor. That includes December 21 SIC meeting. 12 That includes the litigators present in the room today. So 13 May 2 you made an order that was clear and precise, 14 ratification, matters relating to the December 21 SIC meeting, 15 matters relating to the December 27 Gould email.

16 I understood counsel for defendants, GT counsel, to 17 indicate that in connection with the February 2018 production 18 they had previously collected all emails for GT attorney 19 Bonner and I assume Ferrario for Ellen Cotter, for Craig 20 Tompkins, for all the SIC members dating back to September of 21 '17. So in view of that, in view of the specificity of the 22 Court's May 2 order, and in view of the fact the GT lawyers 23 had participated in these events they knew exactly what they 24 had and they knew exactly what they needed to do on May 2. And what they could have done and should have done, Your 25

Honor, is a manual review of the emails they'd previously collected, which presumably they could have done in a week or two to produce the documents you ordered produced on May 2. They didn't do that. Those documents weren't produced until approximately -- not approximately, starting for all intents and purposes on June 9.

7 The whole schedule is in Exhibit A to our reply.8 Did Your Honor have a chance to look at that?

THE COURT: I did.

10

MR. KRUM: Thank you. So I'm going to -- 11 THE COURT: I took the opportunity while we were 12 looking at the drives.

MR. KRUM: I understand, Your Honor. I apologize it wasn't to the Court earlier.

I'd like to talk a minute about Exhibit 4 to the 15 16 It's a brief email chain dated December 20 concerning reply. 17 the scheduling of the December 21 SIC meeting. The document 18 was not produced and not logged until May 31. And on May 31 19 it was logged. The email was devoid of substance. There's 20 nothing privileged about it. You can see, Your Honor, it's 21 about scheduling the December 21 SIC meeting. Except, except that you can also see that the meeting was scheduled at the 22 23 request of GT lawyers, not SIC members, and that at least one 24 of them on December 20 didn't know why they were going to have 25 a special meeting on December 21. Respectfully, Your Honor, I

JA8352

1 think it was logged on May 31st as part of an effort, a 2 successful effort, to slow play plaintiff, exactly what you 3 directed counsel for defendants not to do on May 2.

4 There are other documents, Your Honor, that show 5 that what transpired is that prior to the December 21 SIC meeting GT counsel conferred with Craig Tompkins and Ellen 6 7 Cotter. The other documents and privilege log entries -- and 8 I'm inferring from the privilege log entry, I don't have 9 testimony about it and if I get to trial then I'm out of luck, 10 because they'll object, but I infer from these privilege log entries that following December 21 GT lawyers worked with 11 Craig Tompkins and Ellen Cotter to draft the December 27 Gould 12 13 email. Now, of course, the language in that email was used in 14 the agenda, it was used in the minutes. It's the legally 15 operative language. "Legally operative" is not my word. It's 16 language of legal consequence, according to Mr. Bonner.

17 So where does leave us, the result of this slow play 18 today? I've been unable to examine witnesses because I didn't 19 have documents, I had privilege logs. I got the privilege 20 logs, Your Honor, the ones on which I'm now supposed to rely, 21 on June 15. Defendants have since May 2 engaged in what 22 amounts to wilful noncompliance, delaying, logging documents 23 that aren't privileged and so forth. So plaintiff has been 24 unable to respond to the summary judgment motions, he is 25 unable to complete discovery in advance of trial, he is unable to use the evidence at trial for any purpose, whether to 1 2 respond to a ratification defense or otherwise. As we say in 3 other motions, there are other uses to which we can put it. 4 Thank you, Your Honor. 5 THE COURT: Thank you. 6 Mr. Ferrario. 7 MR. FERRARIO: Your Honor --8 MR. KRUM: Sorry, Mark. 9 How much time did I use? THE LAW CLERK: You have 23 minutes left. 10 11 MR. KRUM: Thanks very much. 12 MR. FERRARIO: I'm going to primarily address any 13 questions you have. 14 THE COURT: I don't have any questions, Mr. 15 Ferrario. 16 MR. FERRARIO: I do -- I do --17 THE COURT: I made an order. It was pretty clear. 18 MR. FERRARIO: And we complied. 19 THE COURT: Okay. 20 MR. FERRARIO: Okay? And, as a matter of fact, Judge, I went to the unprecedented step of producing otherwise 21 22 privileged documents provided I could get Mr. Krum to agree 23 there was no waiver. What this is, quite frankly, is just an 24 effort to take away from my client something Nevada law 25 provides, which is to ratify a prior decision. This whole thing has been turned on its head, okay. Ratification is 1 2 provided for under our statute, okay. This notion that 3 there's a ratification process or anything, it just -- it's a 4 farce, okay. And this is the problem I have with what Mr. 5 Krum is doing here. He doesn't want to address the merits, because he knows if he addresses the merits, it's over. 6 So 7 the only thing I would agree with Mr. Krum on is I've never 8 seen anything like this. I've never seen a derivative case 9 like this, you haven't, and he hasn't. You can't cite one case around the country that even approximates this. 10 I've 11 never seen a case where they abandon their damage expert yet 12 it's still the derivative case for the company. What's the 13 company going to get? They have no damage expert. I've never seen a case where we show up for trial and on a Friday he says 14 15 he's ready to go, but over the weekend emergency health issue, 16 boom, gone. I haven't seen that before. I've never seen a 17 case where we're here in Nevada talking about Nevada law and 18 they hire an expert from Delaware to talk about Delaware law. 19 You're right. I've never seen a case like this.

THE COURT: He was a very bright man.

21 MR. FERRARIO: So if -- I don't care how bright he 22 is. He doesn't know anything about Nevada law, apparently, 23 because he didn't cite one Nevada case. So do I agree with 24 Mr. Krum that I've never seen anything like this, you bet I 25 haven't. Because, you know what, it's so confounding that I

1 went back to basics over the weekend with Ms. Cowden after we 2 argued over what to put in our pleading, and I said, what is a 3 derivative case, a derivative case is supposed to bestow 4 benefit on the company, right?

THE COURT: The shareholders.

6 MR. FERRARIO: The shareholders, right, through the 7 company. So you tell me -- and I defy Mr. Krum to stand up 8 today given the case that he has with no damage expert, what 9 benefit is going to result to the company or the shareholders 10 from prosecuting this action. It doesn't exist.

11 So let's go back to where we are. This Court gave 12 Mr. Krum the benefit of the doubt and said, now go out and do 13 this and broad discovery. I have a little cheat sheet here, 14 I'll be happy to give it to. This shows you all the operative 15 dates on what we did and when we provided information. He 16 goes to this document that he says -- this email chain that 17 set up a meeting. Wow. That's an earth-shattering event. 18 You know what the problem is? He already knows about the 19 meeting. He asked people questions about the meeting. Does 20 the email tell him anything he doesn't already know? The 21 answer to that is unequivocally no, okay. He's deposed 22 everybody. Has he come to you and said that any document that 23 we've produced, any document, would spawn additional 24 questions? Any document disclosed to him, anything material 25 that he didn't know, has he told you that? Absolutely not.

And the reason is it doesn't impact what he already knows. 1 Ιt 2 doesn't impact what happened here. He cites in his pleading 3 the outrageous proposition that I would give advice to my 4 How foolish of me to tell the client that under client. 5 Nevada law there's a ratification option as a result of the decision Your Honor made. That's just ridiculous that I would 6 7 do that. But I quess under Mr. Krum's world my client would 8 have had to hire a separate lawyer to tell them what's in 9 Nevada law. Farcical. The whole thing is farcical, because 10 he knows that under Nevada law the legislature has provided 11 that my client could go back, okay -- not go back, today look 12 back and say, based on what I know and all the facts today, 13 okay, the directors, the independent directors could ratify 14 those decisions. That's just the harsh reality of Nevada law. 15 And unless he can point to some prejudice that's resulted to 16 him, which he can't and which he hasn't, all he's done is talk about this should have come that day, that privilege log 17 18 adjusted -- and Ms. Hendricks can address all the evolutions 19 of the privilege log and after we had the meet and confer and 20 what we gave him and even to the point, Your Honor, of giving 21 him privileged information provided he said it wouldn't be a 22 waiver, okay. But at the end of the day you have to be able 23 to say that this has impacted me adversely. It's not enough 24 to say, well, I got this email that talked about scheduling 25 the meeting that I already knew and I should have had it earlier. What the heck does that have to do with the price of beans? Nothing. That's what's missing here.

3 So it's nothing more than a smoke screen to avoid 4 the inevitable that results under Nevada law. Now, we have, 5 and Ms. Hendricks can address this, some documents that we're 6 prepared to give to Your Honor in camera that you can review. 7 But I would submit it's not going to change anything that 8 happened here; because, as I told you from the beginning, 9 okay, and has been evident through all the depositions -- and I must point out that Mr. Krum's desperation to avoid the 10 11 application of this law is best displayed in Ellen Cotter's --12 no, in his motion, his opposition to the directors' motion 13 where he deliberately misstates the testimony of the various 14 directors. And I read that this morning. That's on page 6 of 15 the directors' reply.

16 So this isn't about looking at the record, this 17 isn't about facts. This is about Mr. Krum and his client 18 deliberately misleading this Court and deliberately misstating 19 the evidence because they want to avoid the inevitable under 20 Nevada law. So before he stands up and says, oh, Ferrario's 21 crazy 'cause he gave advice to his client, before I stands up 22 and says he doesn't have any information or something he has 23 to tie that out to an issue that's relevant to the case. And 24 he hasn't done that. Not once in these pleadings does he 25 demonstrate any prejudice as it relates to this issue; because, as I told Your Honor when I first raised this issue 1 2 after your decision in December, okay, we had a situation --3 we had a sea change in the case. We had now directors that 4 had been declared independent by this Court, and that then 5 gave rise to the ratification option under Nevada law. There was a meeting held, a board meeting duly noticed that his 6 7 client attended where these directors ratified the decisions 8 that were the subject of the agenda, which is the option 9 decision and the termination of Mr. Cotter. That is nothing earth shattering, that is nothing nefarious. 10 There's nothing 11 wrong with that. And he hasn't cited to you a case, a 12 statute, nothing to support any of the claims he makes. And 13 he comes to this Court -- he hasn't said, I need to reexamine Mr. McEachern because I got this email, he hasn't come -- and 14 15 I've been through that with Your Honor hundreds of times 16 because you say you get 10 minutes to ask that question. He 17 hasn't come to you with any of that stuff.

18 THE COURT: It's only because you take longer.19 Other people would get 15.

MR. FERRARIO: And that's because I'm quick.

Anyhow, so that's what's at -- that's the problem I have with this motion, Your Honor. Now I guess the most bizarre thing is at the end he says now he has too many documents. It's pretty clear what's going on. In December something -- in December, late January leading up to the trial obviously, since he'd pulled his experts, there must have been 1 2 an issue with the experts. And that's going to be the subject 3 of another motion that's going to be filed regarding why we 4 ended up continuing this trial in the first place in January, 5 okay. Now here we are a few months later, he withdraws his 6 two experts, his main experts in the case. And what's he 7 doing now? He wants another continuance on the ratification 8 issue, which didn't even come about until Your Honor's 9 decision.

10 So you want to go back to the beginning? I've never 11 seen anything like this. And that much we agree on. And he 12 can't cite you a case to support anything he's talking about 13 here regarding ratification, not one. Matter of fact, he goes 14 so far as to contort what the committee that consists of Mr. 15 Gould, Ms. Codding, and Mr. Wrotniak, he keeps calling it a 16 special litigation committee, like it's a DISH committee and 17 things like that, and he cites cases that deal with those 18 types of committees. And he keep conflating what this 19 committee does. All he has to do is read the charter. So 20 instead of coming forward with something clear and concise, 21 it's just a bunch of crap thrown in the air, and he's hoping 22 that this Court bites on it.

23 So at the end of the day we've done what we had to 24 do, he's failed to show any prejudice, and if he can present 25 you with a document or something and say, hey, I need to go ask more questions, then Your Honor could say, like she has to 1 2 me many times, then you get another 10 minutes or 20 minutes 3 or an hour with this witness and have at it. But he hasn't 4 even done that. It's pretty obvious what's going on here. 5 They don't have a case, they don't want to try the case, and 6 they're using any means available to them to delay this 7 proceeding and continue to cost the shareholders millions of 8 dollars. That's what's going on here. 9 THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. KRUM: Okay. Thank you. Well, most of that's -- I don't know whether it's from college debate or whether it's Trump politics. It's irrelevant fiction intended to deflect and distract.

14 THE COURT: I think it's Wynn experience.
15 MR. KRUM: Pardon me?

16 THE COURT: Wynn experience.

MR. KRUM: Well, I'm not speaking to that. I haveplenty of secondhand Wynn experience.

Okay, Your Honor. First of all, I've had it with this, these repeated innuendos, emergency health issue and so forth. Mr. Cotter's -- one of his physicians provided an affidavit or declaration. I thought that was good enough, but apparently that person is presumed to be a liar and I'm presumed to be a liar.

THE COURT: Mr. Krum, please direct your comments to 1 me.

2	MR. KRUM: And, Your Honor, I appreciate that Mr.
3	Ferrario's under pressure from clients and that the clients
4	dislike my client. I wish we were above that, okay. The
5	physician in question is somebody with whom I've had a
6	professional relationship for 20 years. I know the person to
7	be of integrity. But I knew I was going to get more of this
8	innuendo today, and I was concerned about something that was
9	said yesterday, so I circled back and confirmed with the
10	physician that Mr. Cotter had the procedure that was described
11	to you in the declaration. So can we stop that, I hope?
12	Now, on to
13	THE COURT: I think there's a motion next week on
14	it.
15	MR. KRUM: Well, I haven't seen that.
16	MR. FERRARIO: There will be coming. And it has
17	nothing to do
18	THE COURT: Mr. Searcy, did you serve your motion?
19	MR. FERRARIO: It will probably be served today.
20	And it has nothing to do with whether he had the procedure.
21	THE COURT: Wait, Mr. Ferrario. It's Mr. Searcy's
22	motion.
23	MR. FERRARIO: Huh? We're going to join.
24	MR. SEARCY: That's being served today, Your Honor.
25	MR. KRUM: Okay. Now, so, Your Honor, the next thing is who's deliberately misleading the Court. Look, they're the ones that came and told you, they showed up on December 29, they looked at the package. Well, we know that that's inaccurate. There's a whole history here. Then he says, well, I knew that the December 21 meeting occurred, what more do I need. Well, how'd it occur? I didn't get that from any of them.

MR. FERRARIO: We called it.

THE COURT: Mr. Ferrario.

MR. KRUM: And, so, for example, Your Honor, Exhibit 3 to our reply tells me something I didn't know, that Craig Tompkins precipitated the meeting. I now know that I need to depose him about the whole ratification process. He was a critical participant from before it went to independent directors to drafting the operative document.

And Exhibit 4, Your Honor, the email, it doesn't tell me anything I knew? Excuse me? None of these directors testified that the December 21 special independent committee meeting had been called by GT lawyers. None of them testified -- Mr. McEachern didn't testify that he even knew why it was called until he showed up. So, yes, it's news, Your Honor.

So I need to find out from Tompkins and Ellen Cotter what exactly they communicated to somebody else. It may only be the subject matter, Your Honor, depending on how these privilege issues play out, but I'm entitled to that, because a privilege log doesn't substitute for testimony. And I'm 1 2 entitled to hear from Margaret Cotter why she gave me a sworn 3 interrogatory response that excludes written communications 4 about ratification. And what else did she not tell me? And 5 then, of course, Mr. Gould, you know, he was the only "independent," I put that in quotes, director involved. 6 So, 7 Your Honor, yes, the whole process, the ratification process 8 has been concealed, the discovery process has been undermined, 9 and what you ordered on May 2 hasn't been provided. Thank 10 you.

THE COURT: Thank you.

12 If we could go to the motion to compel, please. Mr. 13 Krum, we're on your next motion.

MR. KRUM: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

First, Your Honor, the SIC charter provides it with, quote, "authority to enter and bind the company in connection with Cotter-related proceeding." That includes this case. The charter itself, Your Honor, makes clear that the committee is empowered and as such is what is typically called a special litigation committee.

Point two. GT lawyers made no effort to maintain any confidence or privilege of SIC members, the SIC itself, or any independent director vis-a-vis anyone, not Craig Tompkins, not even Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, defendants in this case, who stand to benefit from a supposed independent business judgment of SIC members or the five, depending upon 1 2 how you view it. The independent committees do not share 3 privilege or common interest with a full board where, as here, 4 their work entails assessing the conduct of other members of 5 the board. Talk about nonsensical. That's as if the members 6 of the jury and the litigants can have a relationship of that 7 nature. Where a special committee doesn't maintain its 8 information as privileged and confidential vis-a-vis 9 potentially adverse board members -- that's the key, are they potentially adverse -- such information isn't privileged and 10 11 confidential, is not privileged and confidential.

12 Well, they say, well, none of that happened here 13 because it was five who voted at the December 29 meeting. Well, the meeting effectively was called for the purposes of a 14 15 ratification summary judgment motion by the three. The email 16 says the five, but there's no evidence that Kane or Wrotniak 17 knew about it beforehand. In fact, the evidence by privilege log entries from which we infer, because Wrotniak couldn't 18 19 specify the day, whether it was December 26, 27, or 28, but 20 the privilege log entries indicate that Wrotniak first learned 21 about ratification on December 28th, the day after the Gould 22 email.

23 So what happened here is the same thing that 24 happened in two of the cases we cited, Kline versus FPL and In 25 Re Parr Pharmaceuticals. The independent committee takes some action to bring a matter before the full board for a vote of 1 2 all the supposedly independent members of that full board. 3 And FPL it was an evaluation committee, in Parr it was a 4 committee that conducted and investigation and recommended dismissal of the derivative suit. But the same thing happened 5 as here. "Independent directors," and I put that in quotes 6 7 all the time, caused a matter to be taken up before the full 8 board, all independent directors, including those who caused it and those who didn't vote it, and the cases find that the 9 information, because it was disclosed to board members who 10 11 were not part of the independent group who voted, either 12 wasn't privileged or privilege was waived.

The same kind of thing happened in Wardleigh, Your Honor, where it was a homeowners association and owners. And the question was, you know, what was the lineup. So the law isn't not Nevada law, it's consistent with Nevada law.

Attorney work product. If it's prepared in anticipation of litigation, it's not what they claim it is in the ratification summary judgment motion, independent business judgment on RDI business matters.

So the opposition was great, Your Honor, because it's a perfect exercise in question begging. It says, "RDI's committee does not have different objectives from the rest of the board." Well, that says everything and nothing. They say, "There's no separation between Mr. Tompkins's interests and the interests of the SIC," which is in effect because he reports to Ellen Cotter, says, the SIC and defendant Ellen Cotter have the same interests. The best part is that the opposition to search that GT, quote, "may have discussed in confidence certain ratification-related with Ellen and Margaret Cotter," quote, "in no way constitutes waiver of the attorney-client privilege," close quote.

8 Why is that? And the answer is, quote, "Unity of 9 interest between RDI and Ellen and Margaret Cotter, who share 10 a common interest in responding to plaintiff." Excuse me. 11 These are supposed to be independent directors who engaged in 12 a good-faith process resulting in an informed decision to, 13 quote, "ratify" prior conduct of directors, including Ellen 14 and Margaret Cotter. Either they were that, which is what the 15 motion claims they were, or they were at SLC that said, we 16 don't want this case around anymore. But they can't have it 17 They cannot be both. They cannot share supposedly both ways. 18 privileged information used by supposedly independent 19 directors to make a supposedly good-faith, informed decision 20 independent of the people who were the subject of the 21 decision, defendants Ellen and Margaret Cotter and Craig 22 Tompkins, who reports to them and works for ostensibly an 23 [unintelligible] RDI. They can't share that information and 24 claim that it's privileged and confidential. They can't both 25 be -- they can't share that information and be independent

1 directors, which is why all this caselaw says independent 2 committees and independent directors should not use company 3 counsel. This isn't extraordinary stuff, Your Honor. This is 4 something we took for granted back in the '80s when I was a 5 takeover lawyer in New York. Somebody makes an offer for the company, you get a committee of independent directors to 6 7 evaluate the offer, they hire independent advisors, 8 independent lawyers, independent bankers and so forth. 9 Nobody, nobody, except someone who didn't know what they were 10 doing or didn't think they could control the independent 11 people uses company counsel. Why did they do it here? You 12 know, there were a couple times early in the case I thought, 13 they're not paying attention, not sweating the details. But 14 what this whole ratification exercise shows is that it is 15 Craig Tompkins and more particularly outside counsel, GT is 16 the means by which Tompkins and Ellen Cotter control the 17 independent directors. GT advised the ratification people, 18 the independents, all of them. Not only the SIC, they had 19 phone calls on the 28th, if that's what the logs fairly 20 indicate, which we can surmise, with Wrotniak, Kane, who 21 didn't recall having it, and got everybody lined up the day 22 before. But they didn't -- and now we look back and we go, 23 oh, my goodness, GT advises the compensation committee, they 24 advised in all matters.

So, Your Honor, they can't have it both ways, and they can't argue with the evidence. You know, I understand the argument about the quote on McEachern. McEachern wasn't on the compensation committee. He was on the SIC. And he testified that what the SIC did was to act to resolve these issues. And Mr. Gould wasn't confused about the SIC making the request. He was clear about that. That's what transpired.

8 So, Your Honor, the bottom line is this isn't simply 9 an issue about privilege. This is an issue about privilege 10 related to whether these directors are independent, which goes 11 go both summary judgment motions. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you.

13 Mr. Ferrario.

MR. FERRARIO: Your Honor, I stand guilty as charged 14 15 for advising my client as to what NRS 78. I think 140 says. 16 And he hasn't cited one case anywhere, okay, that says a 17 lawyer can't talk to members of a board about Nevada law. He 18 says that this is something orchestrated by Craig Tompkins or 19 Ellen Cotter or Margaret Cotter. What he's missing and what 20 he's distorting is this wasn't orchestrated by anybody other 21 than the Nevada Legislature when they passed the law.

THE COURT: So, Mr. Ferrario, let me stop you. This doesn't really relate to this motion, but since you've brought it up, NRS 78.140(4) says, "The fact that the vote or votes of the common or interested director or directors are not counted 1 for purposes of subsection 2 does not prohibit any 2 authorization, approval, or ratification of a contract or 3 transaction to be given by written consent pursuant to 4 subsection of NRS 78.35 [sic] regardless of whether the common 5 or interested director signs written consent or abstains in 6 writing from providing consent."

7 That seems to limit the type of items which 8 ratification can be used for. Can you discuss that issue with 9 me.

MR. FERRARIO: Well, actually this is something 10 11 we've debated in this case from the beginning as to why you 12 were saying these directors weren't independent, because under 13 Nevada law you have a much broader protection for directors than you do under Delaware and elsewhere. And so this whole 14 15 thing started off by a way for Mr. Krum to say these were 16 interested directors. And the only way you could say that is 17 were they interested in this transaction or occurrence. And 18 he said they were, that they were doing that to -- and the transaction or occurrence is the termination of Jim Cotter, 19 20 Jr., and --

THE COURT: And I made a determination on summary judgment. What I'm trying to get from you is is the ratification process that the Nevada Legislature has authorized in NRS 78.140(3) and (4) limited to a contract or transaction, as opposed to other kinds of actions that

1 officers and directors of a company take. That's what I'm 2 trying to focus on.

3 MR. FERRARIO: I don't believe it is. You have to 4 talk about what "transaction" means, okay. And the 5 transaction at issue, for example, in the 100,000 -- you know, exercise of the 100,000-share option, that's a transaction, 6 7 okay. Now, again, if you take it out of that, then the board 8 can ratify any decision. That's just general corporate law. 9 So either way he's out, okay. There's nothing that prevents a board from being fully informed and going back and saying, you 10 11 know what, I'm going to ratify that decision. It happens all 12 the time, okay. And under that statute the Nevada -- under 13 our corporate statute, under our corporate governance, okay, you can clearly do that. That's what our legislature has 14 15 said. Even in a situation where you have an interested 16 director involved in the transaction and the other board 17 members know it, somebody may benefit from the transaction or the contract, our legislature says you can ratify that, 18 19 independent directors, you can do that. That's what happened 20 here under Nevada law.

THE COURT: What I'm trying to get from you, Mr. Ferrario, and you're circling around for me, is there are other kinds of activities that are the subject of this litigation that do not clearly fall within the words in my mind "transaction" or "contract."

1 MR. FERRARIO: I understand what you're saying. 2 THE COURT: I'm trying to find out from you the 3 basis on which you think ratification under that statute can 4 be expanded to cover what have been alleged as what I'll call 5 business torts for lack of a better term.

6 MR. FERRARIO: What was the -- no. The transaction 7 here was the termination of Mr. Cotter, Jr.

THE COURT: The termination of Mr. Cotter.

9 THE COURT: Yeah. The transaction here was the company, okay, allowing the exercise of the option, okay. 10 Those are the events that were at issue. Terminating his 11 12 contract, okay. That's what was involved here. And now if 13 you get outside of that, then where are we? What's our doctrinal framework for this case, then? Because I've said 14 15 this to you and you've acknowledged there's no other case in 16 America that approximates this. This is nothing more than a 17 personal case by James Cotter, Jr., to get his job back. And 18 we're at the most bizarre point --

19 THE COURT: You and I see lots of personal cases in20 Business Court, Mr. Ferrario.

21 MR. FERRARIO: Exactly. But, you know what, they're 22 called breach of contract cases. They're not called 23 derivative cases. And this is a derivative case, okay, by Mr. 24 Cotter, Jr., where we're now at the bizarre point after 25 spending millions of dollars in defense costs, blowing through the policy where they're not even seeking damages, nor can they articulate to you a damage theory that would benefit the shareholders. We're down to this. Because of their withdrawal of their experts, we're down to can this Court reinstate Mr. Cotter. And how is that going to benefit the shareholders? There's not one case in America that authorizes that type of relief. That's what's happening here.

8 So, you know what, I agree with Mr. Krum. This is 9 like politics today where one side just throws out anything they can, creates a big kerfuffle, and then people think that 10 11 there's something there. There's nothing here. And so, yes, 12 I think we fall within the confines of that statute. And if 13 we don't, then it's incumbent upon him to come to this Court 14 and say why a board cannot go back and ratify prior decisions, 15 an independent board. This board -- if we ended up in the 16 bizarre situation where somehow Mr. Cotter was reinstated, 17 again, something not seen anywhere in the United States under 18 any caselaw, this independent board could fire him the next 19 day under our law, under our business judgment rule. Because 20 what's happening here is Mr. Cotter is asking this Court to do 21 violence to some of the statements made by our Supreme Court 22 in the recent Wynn case because he wants this Court to manage 23 this company when this Court has said there's independent 24 directors out there who can manage the company. So we end up 25 in this bizarre dialogue, okay.

But I can tell you we've tried to figure out why it 1 2 is, why would the independence be an issue at the beginning. 3 Well, under Nevada law if you're involved in a transaction or 4 occurrence and you stand to benefit, which is what they 5 argued, right, at the beginning, Mr. Guy Adams stands to benefit financially from this -- first they said all the 6 7 directors stand to benefit because they stay on the board. 8 Now, that's the claims the made. It seems to fall within NRS 9 78.140, and that's why we utilize that. Did we advise the board? Absolutely. Did we say, now that the Court has said 10 11 that you're independent, independent directors whether there's 12 that statute or whether it's under general corporate law can 13 always ratify. And that decision, Your Honor, that decision is protected by Nevada's business judgment rule. 14

So if you order us to produce something, we'll do it. We've slogged through everything. I would apologize to the Court and to Counsel we ran into issues previously not encountered with our vendor, we lost our earlier contact and we ended up with somebody new, and it was a nightmare.

21 MR. FERRARIO: Well, it was not fun for anybody. 22 THE COURT: It's better than when the storage 23 company decided to destroy the documents in CityCenter.

THE COURT:

20

24 MR. FERRARIO: That is true. It is better than 25 that. But it wasn't much better than that, because --

32

I'm sorry to hear that.

1 THE COURT: Ms. Hendricks remembers having to deal
2 with that, so --

MS. HENDRICKS: Yes.

4 MR. FERRARIO: So anyhow, if you want us to produce 5 anything, that's fine. Again, we've given them everything. There's no mystery here. I've been candid with the Court from 6 7 the beginning as to how this happened, that it was -- and they 8 somehow think, oh, it's a litigation strategy. Him filing the 9 complaint is a litigation strategy whether he -- whether he --10 what claims he puts in is a litigation strategy, okay. This 11 is something available under Nevada law. My client took 12 advantage of it, the decisions were ratified. And if you want 13 more discovery from us, we'll be happy to comply. 14 THE COURT: Is there anyone else who wants to speak 15 against the motion to compel?

16 MR. SEARCY: I think Mr. Ferrario has covered it.17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Mr. Krum.

19 MR. KRUM: How much time?

20 THE LAW CLERK: You have 11 minutes.

21 MR. KRUM: Thanks very much.

22 THE COURT: For the rest of the motions.

23 MR. KRUM: Understood, Your Honor.

24 Your Honor, the December 29 minutes say that the so-25 called ratification was based on NRS 78.140. The ratification

1 summary judgment is based on that statute, nothing else. So 2 the question you asked is the question that needs to be 3 answered. And the answer is no. 78.140 by its plain terms 4 applies only to contracts or transactions between the 5 corporation and a director or officer of the corporation. We had lots of interesting discussions internally about the 6 7 history of this, because, of course, in Nevada there isn't 8 much history, whether it's this particular statute or any 9 other. But the reality is it's a means by which so-called 10 interested director transactions can avoid being voided or voidable. Well, neither the, quote, "ratification" of the 11 12 terminate of plaintiff nor the, quote, "ratification" of the 13 compensation committee approval of the acceptance of Class A 14 nonvoting stock is consideration for the so-called 100,000-15 share option are interested director transactions. And 16 there's certainly no transaction, nothing on the first one. 17 And the second one, it's an approval of a process, it's not 18 the, for example, issuance of a contract, it's not the 19 issuance of an option. It's just the approval. So, no. Βv 20 it's plain terms NRS 78.140 does not apply to the matters that 21 were purported ratified. If it did, which it doesn't, a 22 decision must be made -- pursuant to the statute it must be 23 made by independent directors acting in good faith. And the 24 evidence shows neither here. The evidence shows there are 25 material questions about their independence starting with the use of company counsel to advise them to make a decision about the directors whose conducts were ratified.

But beyond that, I mean, I was candidly, Your Honor -- one of the other factors we cite in the brief is conflating the company and the independent directors. And both Mr. Bonner and Mr. Wrotniak did that.

So, now, let me be clear. Director independence is relevant to whether they can invoke the business judgment rule. The claims in this case are for breaches of fiduciary duty, they're not for lacking independence. And the independence is I think put at issue, and I'm going to repeat myself and waste my precious time, so I won't do that, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

15

Do you have anything else?

So the motion for relief and the motion to compel are both granted in part. The Court will conduct an in-camera review after receiving updated Excel electronic privilege logs to be delivered, both the documents and the electronic Excel spreadsheet, Friday by 8:30 a.m.

For purposes of the pretrial motions as an evidentiary sanction the Court will infer and make a rebuttable presumption that the docs, if timely produced, would support the plaintiff's position that the ratification was a sham or fraudulent exercise.

If there are remaining issues after the pretrial 1 2 motions, Gould, Codding, McEachern, Ellen Cotter, Margaret 3 Cotter, and Tompkins will appear for depositions not to exceed 4 an hour next week. 5 Okay. So we're going to take a short break before 6 we go to motion for summary judgment, which is the next item 7 on my agenda. 8 MS. HENDRICKS: Your Honor, can I get the specifics 9 on what you want on a privilege log again? I wasn't writing fast enough. I want to make sure we get --10 11 THE COURT: Do you want my little blurb that I send 12 out on every case? 13 MS. HENDRICKS: That would be great. THE COURT: I sent it out in your case about three 14 15 years ago. I'll go get it now. 16 (Court recessed at 9:33 a.m., until 9:42 a.m.) THE COURT: Ms. Hendricks, if you'd approach. 17 Ι 18 printed this off an old CMO because I couldn't find the 19 CityCenter one. The CityCenter one I put it in a footnote, 20 but this one was on a whole page. 21 MR. FERRARIO: Your Honor, you were talking really 22 fast, and none of us know what you said, okay. 23 THE COURT: You want to hear the really important 24 part? Wait. Wait. 25 MR. FERRARIO: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Can I say that part that matters for the 2 rest of the morning?

MR. FERRARIO: Yes.

THE COURT: I'll say it slow. For purposes of pretrial motions, i.e., what we're going to do now, as an evidentiary sanction the Court will infer and make a rebuttable presumption that the documents if timely produced would support the plaintiff's position that the ratification was a sham or fraudulent exercise.

10 MR. FERRARIO: So that would seem to at least -- it 11 impacts the motion filed by the directors --

12 THE COURT: It impacts the rest of what we're doing 13 this morning.

MR. FERRARIO: And I'll deal with that in our motion, because I beg to differ. I don't think it impacts the motion we filed at all. But if that's the case, then -- 17 THE COURT: That's why I took a break, so you could 18 digest it. Do you need me to take another break so you can 19 digest it since I read it again?

20 MR. FERRARIO: I think I get it now. But you were 21 speaking really fast on who wanted deposed. So --

THE COURT: If remaining issues after the pretrial motions, i.e., what we do today, Gould, Codding, McEachern, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Mr. Tompkins not to exceed one hour.

Okay. That was what we didn't --1 MR. FERRARIO: 2 THE COURT: Isn't it nice I wrote it down so I would 3 be able to remember it. 4 MR. FERRARIO: And then -- all right. So we'll get 5 on scheduling that. 6 MS. HENDRICKS: And then, Your Honor, if I may, this 7 is helpful --8 THE COURT: I said if issues remain after the 9 pretrial motions, because you may rebut the presumption and I may grant your motion. So I'm not saying you can't. 10 11 MR. FERRARIO: That's pretty hard to when we have a 12 rebuttable presumption. 13 THE COURT: Do you want me to take a break for you guys to communicate among yourselves, or are we ready? 14 15 MR. FERRARIO: No, I get where we're at. I mean, 16 I'm happy to go forward. I think I get where we're at. 17 THE COURT: All right. 18 MS. HENDRICKS: I do have a question on the 19 privilege log you want produced on Friday. I want to make 20 sure I understand correctly. 21 Every category that is identified on a THE COURT: 22 privilege log to be prepared, which is listed on the handout I 23 gave you, is required to be included. 24 MS. HENDRICKS: There have been multiple privilege 25 logs. So my understanding was the privilege logs related to

JA8380

1 these specific issues. So we have --

THE COURT: That is correct.

MS. HENDRICKS: -- after May 2nd, and then there was an earlier privilege log I think in February.

5 THE COURT: That related to these two meetings and 6 the ratification process.

MS. HENDRICKS: Okay. And we've produced most -- or a good deal of those documents already to Mr. Krum in the last couple weeks, so I'm just producing to you the documents that remain on the privilege log that have not already been provided to Mr. Krum.

12 THE COURT: Correct. For my in-camera review.
13 MR. KRUM: Well -14 THE COURT: I need a hard copy of the document -15 Mr. Krum, please be quiet.

16 I need a hard copy of the documents, I need an 17 electronic version of the privilege logs.

MS. HENDRICKS: Of the privilege logs.

THE COURT: I'm happy to take -- because, as you may know from other cases, I will then mark and seal certain documents that I've reviewed as part of my in-camera review so you have a record in case you need to seek appellate review. And Dulce will seal portions of that. Like the privilege log won't be sealed, but the documents I review will be. MS. HENDRICKS: Okay. I understand. We'll get on

1 it. 2 THE COURT: Mr. Searcy. 3 MR. SEARCY: Your Honor, I apologize. I have one 4 logistical question, as well. Will the Court be reviewing the 5 documents in camera and then the depositions will proceed after the Court --6 7 THE COURT: I have asked for the documents to be delivered at 8:30 so I can get them done on Friday. 8 9 MR. SEARCY: Thank you, Your Honor. 10 THE COURT: Because I can't imagine it's more than I reviewed last week. Or was it the week before? 11 12 MR. SEARCY: I believe it was the week before, Your 13 Honor. 14 THE COURT: Okay. 15 MR. KRUM: Your Honor, my question for the benefit 16 of everyone. Some documents have been produced, but they've 17 been redacted. I would assume that you wish to have them 18 provided to you in unredacted form. 19 THE COURT: The redacted version and the unredacted 20 version need to be provided to me. The redactions, if they 21 are redacted for something other than personal identifiers or 22 medical issues, I need to have the unredacted version. Ιf 23 it's about someone besides Mr. Cotter's medical condition, I 24 don't really need to know about it. But otherwise I need the 25 redacted and unredacted document.

MS. HENDRICKS: Okay.

2 THE COURT: And Ms. Hendricks knows that, because 3 she's had to go through this a lot. 4 MS. HENDRICKS: I have. We'll get it to you on 5 Friday. 6 THE COURT: More than other people. 7 Okay. Anything else before I go to the motion for 8 summary judgment, which is my next agenda item up? 9 MR. KRUM: No, Your Honor. Okay. Mr. Tayback. 10 THE COURT: 11 MR. TAYBACK: Your Honor, in light of the last 12 order, and I know that allocation of time, I'm going to be 13 fairly concise. 14 THE COURT: Okay. 15 There are two points that I want to MR. TAYBACK: 16 The first one is revisit something that has been make. 17 discussed in the context of the other motions, which is the 18 idea that whether ratification under NRS 78.140 applies. That 19 whole proposition started because the plaintiff has pled his 20 case and alleged that the transactions as he described them 21 were in fact voidable or void because they were conducted by interested directors. If that's the case and we are moving 22 23 that the claims that the plaintiff has asserted, if that's the 24 case, then ratification under this statute applies.

If that's not the case, then the question of the disinterestedness of the directors of the three remaining defendant directors really doesn't matter. But however you slice it, the fact is the claims, such as they are, of his termination, the estate's redemption of Class A stock for Class B stock options, and the kind of related issues of the hiring of Ellen Cotter, those have all been approved by indisputedly [sic] a majority of independent directors.

8 Now, you've raised the issue of this rebuttable9 presumption. And I certainly think --

THE COURT: It's an evidentiary sanction.

MR. TAYBACK: I understand. The evidence that we have submitted is undisputed. The evidentiary sanction that you're inferring or imposing from -- that indicates, I think you said, that it would be a sham transaction --

15 THE COURT: His allegation in his pleading is sham 16 or fraudulent exercise.

MR. TAYBACK: -- is rebutted by the context of this 17 18 meeting, and the record is all in front of you, which is that 19 the board was provided with a board package in advance of the 20 meeting, each of the directors undisputedly testified that 21 they reviewed that, that they took advice of counsel, that they based their decision upon their history and interactions 22 23 with the plaintiff over the course of their time on the board, 24 his temperament was ill suited, and, tellingly, by the fact 25 that the entire board was there, including the plaintiff, and when the plaintiff was offered an opportunity to speak to each of the two issues the plaintiff refused to say anything with respect to either of the issues, with respect to any aspect of them. He raised no issues, and in fact cast the only vote against both of those ratification votes.

You can call it a sham, and if the evidentiary 6 7 sanction is to say that his allegation of it being a sham 8 would be true, there is no evidence that supports that. That 9 is to say, all the evidence rebuts that. And that is the definition of a rebuttable presumption. If it's presumed it's 10 11 a sham, you have to look at the evidence. And the evident 12 undisputedly shows that this was an informed board, a majority 13 of whom have been determined to be disinterested, and in fact they exercised their power under Nevada law to ratify these 14 15 two decisions. There is no contrary evidence. So the 16 presumption is rebutted.

THE COURT: Anything else?

18 MR. TAYBACK: Any questions?

19 THE COURT: Anybody else want to speak on favor of 20 this motion?

MR. FERRARIO: We're joining.
THE COURT: All right. Mr. Krum.
MR. KRUM: I'm sorry. How much time?
THE LAW CLERK: You have 8 minutes.
THE COURT: And you need to save some for the last

1 motion, which is the demand futility issue.

2 MR. KRUM: Understood, Your Honor. So I'll be 3 brief. Thanks.

So the moving party bears the burden with respect to independence, and they've failed to do that.

The other point I haven't made yet is no one 6 7 purported to ratify the decision of the compensation committee 8 that the estate owned the 100,000-share option. And we 9 submitted evidence, all the Kane emails you've seen before 10 where he raised that as an issue at the time. So, as I said, 11 the independence is an issue raised by the motion. It doesn't 12 matter whether they acted as a special committee or not. And 13 I've already spoken to that issue. Thank you.

THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

15 MR. TAYBACK: I would only say in support of my 16 argument that in fact the whole concept of the application of 17 the law of this case being governed by the idea that this was 18 a transaction governed by NRS such that it's susceptible to 19 ratification specifically under that code comes from his 20 second amended complaint at paragraph 53 where he seeks to 21 void it and claims that it's void precisely because it was an interested transaction. If interestedness does not matter, 22 23 then, frankly, the stock option issue shouldn't be at issue in 24 this case, because Mr. -- Adam's independence is the only 25 basis upon which there was a material fact that prevented summary judgment previously. If it doesn't matter that he was 1 2 interested because it wasn't a company transaction, the same 3 is true with the termination; it was approved by a majority of 4 independent directors at the time. And we're entitled to 5 summary judgment that way. 6 MR. FERRARIO: Your Honor, on --7 THE COURT: Did anybody else want to say something 8 on this motion? 9 MR. TAYBACK: Page 53, not paragraph 53 of his 10 second complaint. I would just ask the Court --11 MR. FERRARIO: 12 THE COURT: Did you have something you want to say? 13 MR. FERRARIO: Real quick, ask the Court how this is a derivative claim on the 100,000-share option. Because --14 15 and on the issue of whether it's the estate or the trust, what 16 we pointed out is Your Honor in the early parts of these 17 proceedings --18 THE COURT: When we were doing injunctive relief 19 issues. MR. FERRARIO: -- indicated that if it's in the 20 estate, that the executors control it. This option 21 22 indisputably was granted to Jim Cotter, Sr., and never put in 23 the trust. And do under the Court's directive that came down 24 in I think --25 THE COURT: Three years ago.

1	MR. FERRARIO: yeah, August or September, the
2	executors went forward and exercised the only the only
3	possible harm that could result would be harm to the company
4	for the exchange of the A shares and B shares. He's provided
5	no evidence that that wasn't equivalent value. You could have
6	paid it with cash, or you could have paid it with stock. So
7	there's it's not a derivative claim, period. The option
8	either existed if taking his thing at the trust level or at 9	the estate level, either way it could be exercised. It's not
10	harm to the company. The company got value. That's what
11	missing here. And the fact that Mr. Kane may have raised a
12	question, who cares? He denies is he now saying Mr. Kane
13	shouldn't have raised the question? What's his complaint now?
14	Because originally it was the exchange of A shares for B
15	shares. It now has morphed in desperation to try to keep this
16	faux issue alive, when just go back, ask him what the harm is
17	to the company. See if he can articulate it.
18	THE COURT: Okay. Anything else, Mr. Krum?
19	MR. KRUM: Your Honor, I just want to reiterate this
20	ratification motion is predicated on NRS 78.140. So
21	everything we discussed before also is dispositive.
22	MR. FERRARIO: That's the transaction.
23	THE COURT: I know. I've been asking questions.
24	MR. KRUM: It's not. That's my point.
25	THE COURT: Wait. Don't fight with each other.

1 You're directing your arguments to me. I'm the one you've got 2 to convince.

3 Here the Court has taken into consideration the 4 inferences, the rebuttable presumption, as well as the 5 evidence that has been submitted along with the motions. The typical practice is to have independent advisers provide 6 7 information to the board and/or special committees under NRS 8 78.138. While that is certainly a cleaner practice, it is 9 uncontested here that Greenberg Traurig, qualified and 10 experienced counsel, under 78.138(2)(b) gave legal advice to the -- related to the ratification to the directors that the 11 12 Court had previously determined to be independent. The advice 13 given was protected by the attorney-client privilege based 14 upon the Wynn case -- it's the Wynn case, right -- the Wynn 15 case, and the Court must honor the ratification by those 16 independent directors and respect their business judgment 17 after their reliance upon Greenberg Traurig under NRS 78.138(2)(b). 18

As a result, that motion is granted.

20 Next? Is there anything left? Do I need to go to 21 demand futility?

22 MR. KRUM: Your Honor, our answer is yes. The Court 23 denied summary judgment motions, partial summary judgment 24 motions with respect to a host of subjects. The ratification 25 motion was directed at two. The Court also didn't rule on motions that weren't brought with respect to matters such as what I'll for shorthand call the attempted extortion of Mr.

 Cotter to get him to settle personal issues with his sisters.

4 THE COURT: Those aren't derivative claims, though.5 Those are direct claims.

6 MR. KRUM: Well, I don't know that that's correct, 7 Your Honor. But to the point for answering the question you 8 asked, I'm speaking of what hasn't been disposed of in the 9 case.

THE COURT: Right.

11 MR. KRUM: We filed a motion on that, Honor. And I 12 don't think any of us understood that to be the ruling on 13 December --

THE COURT: So I'm going to go away, and I want you guys to look at your versions of the pleadings. And I'm going to come back in a few minutes, and you're going to tell me what remains.

18 MR. FERRARIO: Whether I even have to argue this19 motion.

20 THE COURT: That is correct.

21 MR. FERRARIO: All right. Good.

22 THE COURT: Because I don't think that anything else 23 is left.

24 MR. FERRARIO: I don't think anything else is left.
25 THE COURT: But I've been wrong a lot lately.

48

(Court recessed at 9:57 a.m., until 10:20 a.m.) 1 2 THE COURT: Counsel, after you've had a chance to 3 check your pleadings, discuss it with your teams, what do you 4 believe is left? 5 MR. FERRARIO: Your Honor, first point, we would submit the motion that the company filed regarding standing to 6 7 Your Honor for decision. I won't argue it. 8 THE COURT: It's moot. Unless there's something 9 left, it's moot. 10 MR. FERRARIO: Okay. That's going to be the Court's 11 ruling, fine. Then there is nothing --12 THE COURT: Unless there's something left. 13 MR. FERRARIO: There's nothing left from Mr. Tayback's perspective, my perspective, or the directors of the 14 15 There's nothing left. company. 16 THE COURT: Mr. Krum, do you think there's anything 17 left? 18 MR. KRUM: Your Honor, we think the same thing about today's ruling as we thought about the rulings that you made 19 20 on December 11th. And there's no reason for us to take the 21 time of the parties and the time of the Court to do anything 22 other than pursue those on appeal, as we already have. 23 THE COURT: So at this point, Mr. Krum, if you would 24 prepare an order related to the motion for relief and motion 25 to compel.

49

And, Mr. Ferrario, if you will prepare -- and Mr. 1 2 Tayback, if you will prepare findings of fact and conclusions 3 of law related to your motions, I'll get them signed. 4 Does anybody want me to go ahead and do the in-5 camera review related to the motion for relief and motion to 6 compel? 7 Well, the answer, I think it's -- Your MR. KRUM: 8 Honor, I think it's moot given what you're ruling. Well, it is. But, you know. 9 THE COURT: I'm not going to ask -- the answer is, 10 MR. KRUM: 11 sure I do. But I'm not going to ask Your Honor to do that. 12 THE COURT: Okay. 13 MR. KRUM: Nothing will come of it. So I'll do a review, I'll do a note, but 14 THE COURT: 15 it won't have any impact on any future events unless the case 16 returns. Right. That's what I understood the 17 MR. KRUM: 18 circumstances would be, and for that reason I'm not going to 19 ask you to do that. 20 THE COURT: Okay. So, Ms. Hendricks, you're off the 21 hook. 22 MS. HENDRICKS: Thank you, Your Honor. 23 THE COURT: But please keep that list. 24 I might keep that in a very safe MS. HENDRICKS: 25 place for next time.

1 THE COURT: Well, I try to put it in a footnote in 2 all the case management orders because people --3 MS. HENDRICKS: I remember it in the CityCenter 4 case, but it's just been a little while. 5 THE COURT: Okay. 6 MR. FERRARIO: Thank you, Your Honor. 7 MR. TAYBACK: Thank you. 8 MR. KRUM: Thank you. 9 THE COURT: The trial date's vacated. MR. FERRARIO: Thank you. 10 THE COURT: All future dates are vacated, and the 11 12 sealing motions are granted. 13 Don't yell at me anymore, Mr. Ferrario. 14 MR. FERRARIO: I didn't yell at you a lot. How 15 quickly -- you're now Judge Ochoa. 16 THE PROCEEDINGS CONCLUDED AT 10:22 A.M. * * * * * 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

This matter came before the Court on June 19, 2016 for hearing 1 on plaintiff's (i) Motion for Relief Based on Noncompliance with the 2 Court's May 2, 2018 Rulings (the "Motion for Relief") and (ii) Motion to 3 Compel (the "Motion to Compel"). Mark G. Krum and Akke Levin 4 appeared for plaintiff James J. Cotter Jr.; Christopher Tayback, Marshall M. 5 Searcy and Kevin M. Johnson appeared for defendants Ellen Cotter, 6 Margaret Cotter and Guy Adams, and for former defendants Doug 7 McEachern, Judy Codding, Michael Wrotniak and Edward Kane; Mark E. 8 Ferrario and Kara B. Hendricks appeared for nominal defendant Reading 9 International, Inc. ("RDI"); Shoshana E. Bannett and Carolyn K. Renner 10 appeared for former defendant William Gould. 11

The Court, having considered the papers filed in support of and in opposition to both the Motion for Relief and the Motion to Compel, having heard oral argument with respect to both, and for good cause appearing:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED the Motion for Relief and the 16 Motion to Compel each are GRANTED IN PART. In particular, the Court 17 will conduct an in camera review of documents withheld based on claims of 18 attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product or both. Updated 19 privilege logs in electronic, Excel format as well as the documents to be 20 reviewed, in hard copy, are to be delivered to Chambers within five 21 business days of entry of this order. For the purposes of the pretrial 22 motions, as an evidentiary sanction, the Court will infer and make a 23 rebuttable presumption that the documents if timely produced would 24 support plaintiff's position that the ratification was a sham or fraudulent 25 exercise. If there are remaining issues after the pretrial motions, Mr. 26 Gould, Ms. Codding, Mr. McEachern, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and 27 /// 28

Traurig, the Court having read and considered the pleadings filed by the parties; having considered the oral and written arguments of counsel, and with the intent of rendering a decision on all remaining claims before the Court, pursuant to NRCP 56; the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On September 2, 2016, Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. filed his Second Amended Complaint, which asserted derivative claims for breach of the duty of care (Count I), breach of the duty of loyalty (Count II), breach of the duty of disclosure (Count III), and aiding and abetting breaches of fiduciary duty (Count IV). Plaintiff asserted Counts I-III against Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, Guy Adams, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak (collectively, the "Original Defendants"), each of whom currently serve as directors of Reading International, Inc. ("RDI" or the "Company"). Plaintiff asserted Count IV against only Margaret and Ellen Cotter.

2. Nominal Defendant RDI is a Nevada corporation headquartered in Los Angeles, California, and publicly traded on the NASDAQ Stock Exchange.

3. Plaintiff James Cotter, Jr. ("Plaintiff") is an RDI stockholder and currently serves as a director on RDI's Board of Directors (the "Board"). On June 1, 2013, Plaintiff was appointed President of RDI. On August 7, 2014, Plaintiff was appointed CEO by RDI's Board. On June 12, 2015, the RDI Board voted to terminate Plaintiff as the Company's President and CEO a 5-2 vote. Directors Kane, McEachern, Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret Cotter voted in favor of Plaintiff's termination, directors Gould and Timothy Storey (a non-party to this litigation) voted against terminating Plaintiff at that time, and Plaintiff abstained from the termination vote.

4. Storey left RDI's Board in October 2015. Codding and Wrotniak joined RDI's Board as directors on October 5, 2015 and October 12, 2015, respectively.

5. Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, as two of three trustees of a trust established by their deceased father, James J. Cotter, Sr., and as co-executors of the estate of James J. Cotter Sr., control in excess of 50% of the class B voting stock of RDI.

3 6. Following various motions for partial summary judgment brought by Kane, 4 McEachern, Codding, Adams, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Wrotniak, as well as a separate 5 motion for summary judgment filed by Gould, the Court determined at a hearing held on 6 December 11, 2017 that there were no genuine issues of fact related to the disinterestedness 7 and/or independence of directors Kane, McEachern, Codding, Wrotniak, and Gould (the 8 9 "Dismissed Defendants" or the "Independent Directors"), and granted summary judgment in 10 their favor. The Court determined that there were genuine issues of material fact related to the 11 disinterestedness and/or independence of directors Guy Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret 12 Cotter (the "Remaining Defendants"), and denied summary judgment. The Court entered its 13 summary judgment ruling pursuant to a written order dated December 28, 2017. 14

7. On January 4, 2018, the Court certified as final under NRCP 54(b) the portion of the Court's December 28, 2017 order granting summary judgment to the Dismissed Defendants with respect to all of Plaintiff's claims asserted against them.

As a result of the Court's December 11, 2017 ruling and December 28, 2017 8. 18 order, all of the corporate actions alleged by Plaintiff in his Second Amended Complaint to be 19 actionable breaches of fiduciary duty were approved by a majority of disinterested, independent 20 directors, except for two: (1) Plaintiff's June 12, 2015 termination as President and CEO of RDI; 21 and (2) the September 21, 2015 decision by directors Kane and Adams, as two of three members 22 of RDI's Compensation and Stock Options Committee (the "Compensation Committee"), to 23 approve the exercise of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class B voting stock in RDI held 24 by the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. 25

9. On December 29, 2017, the RDI Board convened a special telephonic meeting for 1 which the agenda included the proposed ratification of (1) Plaintiff's June 12, 2015 termination 2 as President and CEO of RDI; and (2) the September 21, 2015 decision by directors Kane and 3 Adams, as two of three members of RDI's Compensation Committee, to approve the use of Class 4 5 A Stock to pay for the exercise of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class B voting stock 6 in RDI held by the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. (collectively, the "Remaining Challenged 7 Decisions"). In advance of this meeting, all members of the Board were provided with 8 documents to review, which included copies of the minutes from the Board meetings held on 9 May 21, 2015, May 29, 2015, and June 12, 2015, which concerned Plaintiff's termination, as 10 well as other materials for consideration in connection with any ratification of the Remaining 11 Challenged Decisions. 12

13 10. Lawyers from Greenberg Traurig, counsel for RDI, provided advice relating to 14 ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions to members of the RDI Board. Among other 15 things, Greenberg Traurig lawyers participated in (i) a December 21, 2017 meeting of the Special 16 Independent Committee of RDI's Board (the "SIC"), the members of which were directors 17 Gould, McEachern and Codding, and (ii) the December 29, 2017 special meeting. Pursuant to 18 NRS 78.138(2)(b), the Greenberg Traurig lawyers provided legal advice to the RDI Board 19 relating to the scope of NRS 78.140, as well as legal advice regarding the Board's fiduciary 20 duties under Nevada law, including the duties of due care and loyalty.

21 11. Director Gould, the Company's Lead Independent Director, summarized the first
22 issue for consideration: ratification of the actions taken by the Board relating to the termination
23 of Plaintiff as President and CEO of RDI.

In addition to their review of the Board materials provided, Independent Directors
Codding and Wrotniak, who were not members of the RDI Board at the time of Plaintiff's termination, stated that they were drawing on their "extensive knowledge about the Board's

1	reasons for the	e termination of Mr. Cotter, Jr.," including their observations of Plaintiff's
1	"behavior and	demeanor in Board meetings" since each joined the Board over two years ago.
2	13.	Director Codding expressed her view that Plaintiff "did not possess the
3	knowledge, ex	operience, ability, temperament or demeanor to be chief executive officer of the
4	Company," an	opinion with which Mr. Wrotniak concurred.
5	14.	Members of the Board also discussed the materials that had been provided to
6	them in advan	ce of the meeting.
7	15.	Director McEachern then made a motion, seconded by Director Codding, as
8	follows:
9		BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Board ratifies the actions taken by
10		the Company's board members relating to the termination of James J. Cotter, Jr. as President and CEO as such actions are outlined in the
11		minutes of the Board meetings held on May 21, 2015, May 29, 2015 and June 12, 2015.
12	16.
13		After an opportunity for further discussion, the proposed resolution was adopted
14		Directors Codding, Gould, Kane, McEachern, and Wrotniak voted in favor of the th Plaintiff casting the sole vote in opposition. The Remaining Defendants—Ellen
15
16	_	ret Cotter and Guy Adams—abstained from the vote.
17	17.	Director Gould then introduced the second issue for consideration: ratification of
18	the 2-0 September 21, 2015 decision by RDI's Compensation Committee (with members Adams
19		ng in favor) to permit the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. to use Class A non-voting
20		neans of payment (as opposed to cash) for the exercise of an option to purchase
21		s of Class B voting stock in RDI.
22	18.	Counsel for RDI summarized the information regarding the matter considered by
23	-	ation Committee in 2015, including the fact that acceptance of stock was within the
24		he Compensation Committee as Administrators of the 1999 Stock Option Plan
25	under which t	he stock option was granted.

Members of the Board then generally expressed their awareness of the 19. 1 information as well as their review of the Board materials and Compensation Committee 2 minutes, and opened the floor up for discussion. 3 20. The Board noted, among other things, that the Compensation Committee had 4 discretion under the 1999 Stock Option Plan to allow the use of Class A Shares to exercise 5 options to acquire Class B Stock, that the Company was at the time buying in its Class A Shares 6 under its stock repurchase plan, and that the market price of Class A shares has significantly 7 increased since the date of the transaction. 8 A motion was made by Director McEachern and seconded by Director Wrotniak, 21. 9 as follows: 10 BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Board ratifies the decision of the Compensation Committee of the Company, as outlined in the minutes of 11 its September 21, 2015 meeting, to permit the Estate of James J. Cotter, 12 Sr. to use Class A non-voting stock as the means of payment for the exercise of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class B voting stock 13 of the Company. 14 The proposed resolution was then adopted by a 5-1 vote. Directors Codding, 22. 15 Gould, Kane, McEachern, and Wrotniak voted in favor of the resolution, with Plaintiff casting 16 the sole vote in opposition. The Remaining Defendants-Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Guy 17 Adams-abstained from the vote. 18 The Board then moved, without objection, that its resolutions include the 23. 19 "authorization to take such other actions as may be necessary to accomplish the matters approved 20 herein." 21 After denying without prejudice the Remaining Defendants' prior motion for 24. 22 summary judgment based on ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions at the 23 December 29, 2017 RDI Board meeting, the Court in January 2018 allowed discovery with 24 respect thereto. On May 2, 2018, following an evidentiary hearing, the Court granted a motion 25 filed by Plaintiff to compel RDI and the Dismissed Defendants to produce and/or list on 26 privilege logs all documents relating to (i) the December 21, 2017 meeting of the SIC, during 27 which potential ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions was discussed; (ii) a 28

December 27, 2017 email sent by Gould on behalf of the Independent Directors requesting that ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions be added to the agenda for the December 29, 2017 meeting; and (iii) the subject of ratification, not limited by time.

ł

25. On June 1, 2018, the Remaining Defendants filed a motion seeking summary judgment in their favor (the "Motion for Summary Judgment"). The Remaining Defendants argued, inter alia, that the Remaining Challenged Decisions had been properly ratified by a majority of disinterested, independent directors pursuant to NRS 78.140.

26. Plaintiff filed a Motion to Compel and a Motion for Relief, in which he argued that RDI, the Dismissed Directors and the Remaining Defendants had not fully complied with the Court's May 2, 2018 rulings. Plaintiff's motions sought relief in the form of, inter alia, the provision of revised privilege logs, in camera inspection by the Court of certain documents, the production of additional documents, renewed depositions of certain previously-deposed individuals, delay of the scheduled July 9, 2018 trial on Plaintiff's claims against the Remaining Defendants, and the preclusion of any ratification defense by the Remaining Defendants.

27. On June 19, 2018, the Court held a hearing on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and Motion for Relief, as well as the Remaining Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment. The Court first heard argument on Plaintiff's motions, which is granted in part.<sup>1</sup> For purposes of any pretrial motions, as an evidentiary sanction, the Court infers and makes a rebuttable presumption that the documents at issue, if timely produced, would support Plaintiff's position that the ratification was a sham or fraudulent exercise.

28. The Court then heard argument on the Remaining Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment. For the reasons outlined at the June 19, 2018 hearing and as set forth below, the Court grants the Remaining Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment.

29. After consideration of the evidence presented by the parties in response the Remaining Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, the Court concludes that such evidence is sufficient to overcome the inferences and rebuttable presumption that the ratification process was a sham or fraudulent exercise.

30. The Court finds all of the requirements for the application of NRS 78.140, and the business judgment rule, are met with respect to the RDI Board's actions ratifying Plaintiff's termination and the approval of using Class A stock for the contested option exercise (the Remaining Challenged Decisions).

31. The RDI Board ratified each of the remaining challenged transactions, with the five affirmative votes being those directors whose disinterestedness and independence the Court had previously determined in its December 11, 2017 ruling and December 28, 2017 order.

The December 29, 2017 ratification vote was "in good faith," as required by NRS 32. 10 78.140(2)(a). The directors who were not present at the time these matters were initially 11 decided-directors Wrotniak and Codding-reasonably informed themselves of the relative 12 merits of the decisions, including by reviewing contemporaneous materials and drawing on their 13 personal knowledge gleaned in their two years of Board service; corporate counsel was present 14 and advised the entire Board of its fiduciary duties under Nevada law, as well as the history of 15 each decision; no ratifying director had a personal stake in the derivative litigation brought by 16 Plaintiff or in the particular transaction ratified; and discussion and debate occurred prior to the 17 final votes, with all directors-including Plaintiff-afforded the chance to ask questions or make 18 comments.

33. With respect to the Remaining Challenged Decisions and the RDI Board's subsequent ratification of them, all of the preconditions necessary for a "valid interested director transaction" under NRS 78.140(2)(a) are present.

34. The independent majority of RDI's Board who voted in favor of ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions on December 29, 2017 had a rational business purpose for doing so and exercised their good faith business judgment.

35. The Court also takes into consideration that RDI's Independent Directors engaged the Company's counsel, Greenberg Traurig, which provided legal advice regarding ratification.While it would have been better practice for the Independent Directors to have engaged independent advisers to provide information to the Board and/or any special committees under NRS 78.138, it is uncontested that Greenberg Traurig is qualified and experienced.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

37. The business judgment rule is a "presumption that in making a business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company." Shoen v. SAC Holding Corp., 122 Nev. 621, 632, 137 P.3d 1171, 1178-79 (2006).

38. "The business judgment rule does not only protect individual directors from personal liability, rather, it expresses a sensible policy of judicial noninterference with business decisions and is designed to limit judicial involvement in business decision-making so long as a minimum level of care is exercised in arriving at the decision." Wynn Resorts, Ltd. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cnty. of Clark, 399 P.3d 334, 342 (Nev. 2017).

39. Nevada Revised Statute 78.140 provides that a "contract or other transaction is not void or voidable solely because" it is between a Nevada "corporation and [o]ne or more of its director or officers[,]" or because an interested or non-independent director "is present during a meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof which authorizes or approves the contract or transaction," or the votes of an interested director are counted for the purpose of authorizing or approving the contract or transaction, if "[t]he fact of the common directorship, office or financial interest is known to the board of directors or committee, and the directors or members of the committee, other than any common or interested directors or members of the committee, approve or ratify the contract or transaction in good faith." NRS 78.140(2)(a).

40. Citing NRS 78.140, the Nevada Supreme Court has made clear that the business judgment rule applies "in the context of valid interested director action, or the valid exercise of business judgment by disinterested directors in light of their fiduciary duties." Shoen, 122 Nev. at 636, 137 P.3d at 1181.

Nevada Revised Statute 78.138(b)(2) provides that, "[i]n exercising their 41. 1 respective powers, directors and officers may, and are entitled to, rely on information, opinions, 2 reports, books of account or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, 3 that are prepared or presented by ... [c]ounsel ... as to matters reasonably believed to be within 4 the preparer's or presenter's professional or expert competence." Here, the Court finds that 5 RDI's Board, including the Independent Directors, were entitled to rely upon Greenberg 6 Traurig's advice in making their decisions to ratify the Challenged Remaining Decisions. 7 The substance of the advice provided by Greenberg Traurig to RDI's Board and 42. 8 its Independent Directors is protected by the attorney-client privilege and may not be considered 9 by the Court. See Wynn, 399 P.3d at 341-42. 10 As the Remaining Challenged Decisions were ratified by a majority of 43. 11 independent, disinterested directors, the Court grants the Remaining Defendants' Motion for 12 Summary Judgment. 13 Any conclusion of law stated above that is more appropriately deemed a finding 44. 14 of fact shall be so deemed. 15 ORDER 16 Based upon the forgoing, the Court grants the Remaining Defendants' Motion for 17 Summary Judgment. Judgment is entered in favor of Defendants Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, 18 and Guy Adams on all claims asserted by Plaintiff. 19 Due to the fact that the Court's ruling moots RDI's Motion to Dismiss Pursuant to NRCP 20 12(b)(2), or in the Alternative, NRCP 12(b)(5) for Lack of Standing, the Court further denies 21 without prejudice RDI's Motion to Dismiss. 22 As here are pending issues remaining in the probate matter, the cases are ordered 23 deconsolidated. Dated this L day of August 2018. 24 25 26 alez, District Court Judge 27 28

RECEIVED

Traurig, the Court having read and considered the pleadings filed by the parties; having considered the oral and written arguments of counsel, and with the intent of rendering a decision on all remaining claims before the Court, pursuant to NRCP 56; the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On September 2, 2016, Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. filed his Second Amended Complaint, which asserted derivative claims for breach of the duty of care (Count I), breach of the duty of loyalty (Count II), breach of the duty of disclosure (Count III), and aiding and abetting breaches of fiduciary duty (Count IV). Plaintiff asserted Counts I-III against Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, Guy Adams, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak (collectively, the "Original Defendants"), each of whom currently serve as directors of Reading International, Inc. ("RDI" or the "Company"). Plaintiff asserted Count IV against only Margaret and Ellen Cotter.

2. Nominal Defendant RDI is a Nevada corporation headquartered in Los Angeles, California, and publicly traded on the NASDAQ Stock Exchange.

3. Plaintiff James Cotter, Jr. ("Plaintiff") is an RDI stockholder and currently serves 16 as a director on RDI's Board of Directors (the "Board"). On June 1, 2013, Plaintiff was 17 appointed President of RDI. On August 7, 2014, Plaintiff was appointed CEO by RDI's Board. 18 On June 12, 2015, the RDI Board voted to terminate Plaintiff as the Company's President and CEO a 5-2 vote. Directors Kane, McEachern, Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret Cotter voted in favor of Plaintiff's termination, directors Gould and Timothy Storey (a non-party to this litigation) voted against terminating Plaintiff at that time, and Plaintiff abstained from the termination vote.

4. Storey left RDI's Board in October 2015. Codding and Wrotniak joined RDI's Board as directors on October 5, 2015 and October 12, 2015, respectively.

5. Ellen Cotter and Margaret Cotter, as two of three trustees of a trust established by their deceased father, James J. Cotter, Sr., and as co-executors of the estate of James J. Cotter Sr., control in excess of 50% of the class B voting stock of RDI.

6. Following various motions for partial summary judgment brought by Kane, 4 McEachern, Codding, Adams, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Wrotniak, as well as a separate 5 motion for summary judgment filed by Gould, the Court determined at a hearing held on 6 December 11, 2017 that there were no genuine issues of fact related to the disinterestedness 7 8 and/or independence of directors Kane, McEachern, Codding, Wrotniak, and Gould (the 9 "Dismissed Defendants" or the "Independent Directors"), and granted summary judgment in 10 their favor. The Court determined that there were genuine issues of material fact related to the 11 disinterestedness and/or independence of directors Guy Adams, Ellen Cotter, and Margaret 12 Cotter (the "Remaining Defendants"), and denied summary judgment. The Court entered its 13 summary judgment ruling pursuant to a written order dated December 28, 2017. 14

7. On January 4, 2018, the Court certified as final under NRCP 54(b) the portion of the Court's December 28, 2017 order granting summary judgment to the Dismissed Defendants
with respect to all of Plaintiff's claims asserted against them.

As a result of the Court's December 11, 2017 ruling and December 28, 2017 8. 18 order, all of the corporate actions alleged by Plaintiff in his Second Amended Complaint to be 19 actionable breaches of fiduciary duty were approved by a majority of disinterested, independent 20 directors, except for two: (1) Plaintiff's June 12, 2015 termination as President and CEO of RDI; 21 and (2) the September 21, 2015 decision by directors Kane and Adams, as two of three members 22 of RDI's Compensation and Stock Options Committee (the "Compensation Committee"), to 23 approve the exercise of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class B voting stock in RDI held 24 by the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. 25

9. On December 29, 2017, the RDI Board convened a special telephonic meeting for 1 which the agenda included the proposed ratification of (1) Plaintiff's June 12, 2015 termination 2 as President and CEO of RDI; and (2) the September 21, 2015 decision by directors Kane and 3 Adams, as two of three members of RDI's Compensation Committee, to approve the use of Class 4 5 A Stock to pay for the exercise of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class B voting stock 6 in RDI held by the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. (collectively, the "Remaining Challenged 7 Decisions"). In advance of this meeting, all members of the Board were provided with 8 documents to review, which included copies of the minutes from the Board meetings held on 9 May 21, 2015, May 29, 2015, and June 12, 2015, which concerned Plaintiff's termination, as 10 well as other materials for consideration in connection with any ratification of the Remaining 11 Challenged Decisions. 12

13 10. Lawyers from Greenberg Traurig, counsel for RDI, provided advice relating to 14 ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions to members of the RDI Board. Among other 15 things, Greenberg Traurig lawyers participated in (i) a December 21, 2017 meeting of the Special 16 Independent Committee of RDI's Board (the "SIC"), the members of which were directors 17 Gould, McEachern and Codding, and (ii) the December 29, 2017 special meeting. Pursuant to 18 NRS 78.138(2)(b), the Greenberg Traurig lawyers provided legal advice to the RDI Board 19 relating to the scope of NRS 78.140, as well as legal advice regarding the Board's fiduciary 20 duties under Nevada law, including the duties of due care and loyalty.

21 11. Director Gould, the Company's Lead Independent Director, summarized the first
22 issue for consideration: ratification of the actions taken by the Board relating to the termination
23 of Plaintiff as President and CEO of RDI.

In addition to their review of the Board materials provided, Independent Directors
Codding and Wrotniak, who were not members of the RDI Board at the time of Plaintiff's termination, stated that they were drawing on their "extensive knowledge about the Board's reasons for the termination of Mr. Cotter, Jr.," including their observations of Plaintiff's

1	"behavior and demeanor in Board meetings" since each joined the Board over two years ago.
2	13. Director Codding expressed her view that Plaintiff "did not possess the
3	knowledge, experience, ability, temperament or demeanor to be chief executive officer of the
4	Company," an opinion with which Mr. Wrotniak concurred.
5	14. Members of the Board also discussed the materials that had been provided to
6	them in advance of the meeting.
7	15. Director McEachern then made a motion, seconded by Director Codding, as
8	follows:
9	BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Board ratifies the actions taken by
10	the Company's board members relating to the termination of James J. Cotter, Jr. as President and CEO as such actions are outlined in the
11	minutes of the Board meetings held on May 21, 2015, May 29, 2015 and June 12, 2015.
12
13
14	by a 5-1 vote. Directors Codding, Gould, Kane, McEachern, and Wrotniak voted in favor of the 15	resolution, with Plaintiff casting the sole vote in opposition. The Remaining Defendants—Ellen
16	Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Guy Adams—abstained from the vote.	C
17	17. Director Gould then introduced the second issue for consideration: ratification o
18	the 2-0 September 21, 2015 decision by RDI's Compensation Committee (with members Adam	S
19	and Kane voting in favor) to permit the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. to use Class A non-voting
20	stock as the means of payment (as opposed to cash) for the exercise of an option to purchase
21	100,000 shares of Class B voting stock in RDI.
22	18. Counsel for RDI summarized the information regarding the matter considered by
23	the Compensation Committee in 2015, including the fact that acceptance of stock was within the	e
24	discretion of the Compensation Committee as Administrators of the 1999 Stock Option Plan
25	under which the stock option was granted.

19.	Members of the Board then generally expressed their awareness of the information a	as well as their review of the Board materials and Compensation Committee minutes, and	opened the floor up for discussion.
20.	The Board noted, among other things, that the Compensation Committee had discretion un	der the 1999 Stock Option Plan to allow the use of Class A Shares to exercise options to acc	quire Class B Stock, that the Company was at the time buying in its Class A Shares
under its stoc	k repurchase plan, and that the market price of Class A shares has significantly increased sin	ce the date of the transaction.
21.	A motion was made by Director McEachern and seconded by Director Wrotniak,
as follows:
	BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Board ratifies the decision of the Compensation Committee of the Company, as outlined in the minutes of its September 21, 2015 meeting, to permit the Estate of James J. Cotter, Sr. to use Class A non-voting stock as the means of payment for the exercise of an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Class B voting stock of the Company.
22.	The proposed resolution was then adopted by a 5-1 vote. Directors Codding,
Gould, Kane	, McEachern, and Wrotniak voted in favor of the resolution, with Plaintiff casting the sole vote	in opposition. The Remaining Defendants-Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter and Guy
Adams—abs	tained from the vote.
23.	The Board then moved, without objection, that its resolutions include the
"authorizatio	on to take such other actions as may be necessary to accomplish the matters approved herein."
24.	After denying without prejudice the Remaining Defendants' prior motion for summary jud	Igment based on ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions at the December 29	9, 2017 RDI Board meeting, the Court in January 2018 allowed discovery with respect there	to. On May 2, 2018, following an evidentiary hearing, the Court granted a motion filed by Plair	ntiff to compel RDI and the Dismissed Defendants to produce and/or list on privilege log	s all documents relating to (i) the December 21, 2017 meeting of the SIC, during which potent	tial ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions was discussed; (ii) a

December 27, 2017 email sent by Gould on behalf of the Independent Directors requesting that ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions be added to the agenda for the December 29, 2017 meeting; and (iii) the subject of ratification, not limited by time.

25. On June 1, 2018, the Remaining Defendants filed a motion seeking summary judgment in their favor (the "Motion for Summary Judgment"). The Remaining Defendants argued, inter alia, that the Remaining Challenged Decisions had been properly ratified by a majority of disinterested, independent directors pursuant to NRS 78.140.

26. Plaintiff filed a Motion to Compel and a Motion for Relief, in which he argued that RDI, the Dismissed Directors and the Remaining Defendants had not fully complied with the Court's May 2, 2018 rulings. Plaintiff's motions sought relief in the form of, inter alia, the provision of revised privilege logs, in camera inspection by the Court of certain documents, the production of additional documents, renewed depositions of certain previously-deposed individuals, delay of the scheduled July 9, 2018 trial on Plaintiff's claims against the Remaining Defendants, and the preclusion of any ratification defense by the Remaining Defendants.

27. On June 19, 2018, the Court held a hearing on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and Motion for Relief, as well as the Remaining Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment. The Court first heard argument on Plaintiff's motions, which is granted in part.<sup>1</sup> For purposes of any pretrial motions, as an evidentiary sanction, the Court infers and makes a rebuttable presumption that the documents at issue, if timely produced, would support Plaintiff's position that the ratification was a sham or fraudulent exercise.

28. The Court then heard argument on the Remaining Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment. For the reasons outlined at the June 19, 2018 hearing and as set forth below, the Court grants the Remaining Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment.

29. After consideration of the evidence presented by the parties in response the Remaining Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, the Court concludes that such evidence is sufficient to overcome the inferences and rebuttable presumption that the ratification process was a sham or fraudulent exercise.

30. The Court finds all of the requirements for the application of NRS 78.140, and the business judgment rule, are met with respect to the RDI Board's actions ratifying Plaintiff's termination and the approval of using Class A stock for the contested option exercise (the Remaining Challenged Decisions).

31. The RDI Board ratified each of the remaining challenged transactions, with the five affirmative votes being those directors whose disinterestedness and independence the Court had previously determined in its December 11, 2017 ruling and December 28, 2017 order.

32. The December 29, 2017 ratification vote was "in good faith," as required by NRS 78.140(2)(a). The directors who were not present at the time these matters were initially decided—directors Wrotniak and Codding—reasonably informed themselves of the relative merits of the decisions, including by reviewing contemporaneous materials and drawing on their personal knowledge gleaned in their two years of Board service; corporate counsel was present and advised the entire Board of its fiduciary duties under Nevada law, as well as the history of each decision; no ratifying director had a personal stake in the derivative litigation brought by Plaintiff or in the particular transaction ratified; and discussion and debate occurred prior to the final votes, with all directors—including Plaintiff—afforded the chance to ask questions or make comments.

33. With respect to the Remaining Challenged Decisions and the RDI Board's subsequent ratification of them, all of the preconditions necessary for a "valid interested director transaction" under NRS 78.140(2)(a) are present.

34. The independent majority of RDI's Board who voted in favor of ratification of the Remaining Challenged Decisions on December 29, 2017 had a rational business purpose for doing so and exercised their good faith business judgment.

35. The Court also takes into consideration that RDI's Independent Directors engaged the Company's counsel, Greenberg Traurig, which provided legal advice regarding ratification.
 While it would have been better practice for the Independent Directors to have engaged independent advisers to provide information to the Board and/or any special committees under NRS 78.138, it is uncontested that Greenberg Traurig is qualified and experienced.

36. Any finding of fact stated above that is more appropriately deemed a conclusion of law shall be deemed so.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

37. The business judgment rule is a "presumption that in making a business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company." Shoen v. SAC Holding Corp., 122 Nev. 621, 632, 137 P.3d 1171, 1178-79 (2006).

38. "The business judgment rule does not only protect individual directors from personal liability, rather, it expresses a sensible policy of judicial noninterference with business decisions and is designed to limit judicial involvement in business decision-making so long as a minimum level of care is exercised in arriving at the decision." Wynn Resorts, Ltd. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court in & for Cnty. of Clark, 399 P.3d 334, 342 (Nev. 2017).

39. Nevada Revised Statute 78.140 provides that a "contract or other transaction is not void or voidable solely because" it is between a Nevada "corporation and [o]ne or more of its director or officers[,]" or because an interested or non-independent director "is present during a meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof which authorizes or approves the contract or transaction," or the votes of an interested director are counted for the purpose of authorizing or approving the contract or transaction, if "[t]he fact of the common directorship, office or financial interest is known to the board of directors or committee, and the directors or members of the committee, other than any common or interested directors or members of the committee, approve or ratify the contract or transaction in good faith." NRS 78.140(2)(a).

40. Citing NRS 78.140, the Nevada Supreme Court has made clear that the business judgment rule applies "in the context of valid interested director action, or the valid exercise of business judgment by disinterested directors in light of their fiduciary duties." Shoen, 122 Nev. at 636, 137 P.3d at 1181.

Nevada Revised Statute 78.138(b)(2) provides that, "[i]n exercising their 41. 1 respective powers, directors and officers may, and are entitled to, rely on information, opinions, 2 reports, books of account or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, 3 that are prepared or presented by ... [c]ounsel ... as to matters reasonably believed to be within 4 the preparer's or presenter's professional or expert competence." Here, the Court finds that 5 RDI's Board, including the Independent Directors, were entitled to rely upon Greenberg 6 Traurig's advice in making their decisions to ratify the Challenged Remaining Decisions. 7 The substance of the advice provided by Greenberg Traurig to RDI's Board and 42. 8 its Independent Directors is protected by the attorney-client privilege and may not be considered 9 by the Court. See Wynn, 399 P.3d at 341-42. 10 As the Remaining Challenged Decisions were ratified by a majority of 43. 11 independent, disinterested directors, the Court grants the Remaining Defendants' Motion for 12 Summary Judgment. 13 44. Any conclusion of law stated above that is more appropriately deemed a finding 14 of fact shall be so deemed. 15 ORDER 16 Based upon the forgoing, the Court grants the Remaining Defendants' Motion for 17 Summary Judgment. Judgment is entered in favor of Defendants Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, 18 and Guy Adams on all claims asserted by Plaintiff. 19 Due to the fact that the Court's ruling moots RDI's Motion to Dismiss Pursuant to NRCP 20 12(b)(2), or in the Alternative, NRCP 12(b)(5) for Lack of Standing, the Court further denies 21 without prejudice RDI's Motion to Dismiss. 22 As here are pending issues remaining in the probate matter, the cases are ordered 23 deconsolidated. Dated this L day of August 2018. 24 25 26 Gonzalez, District Court Judge 27 28

Director Defendants. 1

Review of the costs claimed here—which are far short of the entirety of the costs Reading 2 3 has incurred in this litigation—reveals that, even though the Defendants have been exonerated, 4 Reading, and its stockholders, have nonetheless been victimized. The culprit, however, is the 5 Plaintiff, James J. Cotter, Jr. Because of his "derivative" action, Reading was forced to expend enormous amounts of money to defend against Plaintiff's claims, both for itself, and on behalf of 6 7 the individual Director Defendant. Moreover, because of Plaintiff's spite, Reading was also forced 8 to defend against the claims of the T2 Parties, who duplicated Plaintiff's allegations but, after discovery, found them to be without merit, and and so voluntarily withdrew from the case, <sup>1</sup> but -9 Reading cannot even seek recovery of those costs from Plaintiff. It is a sad irony that Plaintiff, who 10 purported to be acting on behalf of Reading and its stockholders, is the one who, in pursuit of his own interests, did harm. 12

13 Even though Plaintiff's grievances were primarily focused on avenging what he saw as mistreatment of him by his sisters, by including all the other Directors within the scope of his 14 accusations, Plaintiff was able to continue the monstrous drain on Reading's resources for close to 15 three years. There can be little doubt that Plaintiff's inclusion of allegations against all other 16 17 directors, despite the lack of any evidence to support his claimed suspicions of the majority of them, was a calculated decision, because, had he not done so, then he would have been required to make 18 19 demand upon the board to even begin this litigation. It has now been conclusively demonstrated 20 that these allegations, at least as they pertained to a majority of the Directors, had no factual 21 support. Moreover, even if demand could have been excused, each of his claims could have easily been resolved by ratification, as ultimately occurred, thereby saving Reading millions of 22 23 dollars. The fact that Plaintiff not only persevered, but doubled down on his contentions following

representatives of the T2 Plaintiffs stated as follows: "We are pleased with the conclusions reached 26 by our investigations as Plaintiff Stockholders and now firmly believe that the Reading Board of Directors has and will continue to protect stockholder interests and will continue to work to 27 maximize shareholder value over the long term. .... We fully support the Reading Board and management team and their strategy to create stockholder value." 28

the voluntary withdrawal by the T2 Parties (major stockholders whose interests must certainly be recognized as aligned with investors rather than company management), shows that he was not driven to act to ensure the best interests that Reading and its stockholders were served. Instead, he continued the litigation for his own purposes. Because of his baseless allegations regarding Directors Codding, Kane, Gould, McEachern, and Wrotniak, Plaintiff effectively held Reading and its stockholders captive to this litigation until these claims were resolved.

Plaintiff's quest for vengeance, regardless of the cost to Reading, is the only thing that can explain his inexplicable actions. As the Court may recall, he had to amend his complaint because he had failed to include any allegation of damages to the corporation. And he then attempted to back up those allegations made only on pain of dismissal with speculative theories regarding peer group performances and market variables. The viability of such theories may be gauged by Plaintiff's subsequently revealed intent to forego them entirely from his trial presentation. As a result, the true plunder of Reading's assets was accomplished by the Plaintiff, despite his fiduciary duty, as a derivative plaintiff, to proceed with the best interests of the company in mind.

Plaintiff's true motivation—to obtain his own reinstatement over the objection of every other board member—was stripped bare by his abandonment of his monetary damage theories. Given that motivation, and the resulting calculated measures taken by Plaintiff to prolong these proceedings, it is no surprise that Readings costs soared ever higher, what with constantly added claims, incessant demands for discovery, and punitive rounds of depositions. Significantly, the two highest expenses costs for which Reading seeks reimbursement are the costs of E-discovery, and the cost of retaining rebuttal expert witnesses to counter Plaintiff's damage claims.

The limitations of NRS 18.110 do not permit this Court to return to Reading all that it has lost despite its success in this litigation. This Court cannot return the many hours of time that Reading's Directors and its management have had to devote to fruitless task of trying to satisfy Plaintiff's unquenchable thirst for discovery. This Court cannot return to Reading any goodwill Reading may have lost by investors exasperated by Plaintiff's wild allegations. Nor, despite the judgments in their favor, can the Court remove the indelible stain caused by three years of serial accusations made against Reading's Board of Directors. The court can, however, return to Reading and its stockholders a portion of the monies that have been drained from it, by requiring Plaintiff to pay the reasonable and necessary expenses of this litigation. That is an action that, unlike this litigation, would truly be in the best interests of Reading International, Inc., and which would be particularly appropriate given Plaintiff's fiduciary obligations to Reading and its stockholders as a derivative plaintiff.

INCURRED.

THE STATED COSTS WERE REASONABLE, NECESSARY, AND ACTUALLY

The Defendants in this action are entitled to an award of costs as they are the prevailing parties. NRS 18.020. The Nevada Supreme Court has made clear that a Memorandum of Costs 1 2 should include sufficient documentation to show that the claimed costs were reasonable, necessary, and actually incurred by the party. Police v. Brokaw (in Re Dish Network Derivative Litig.), 401 3 4 P.3d 1081, 1093 (Nev. 2017) ("Justifying documentation means "something more than a 5 memorandum of costs."); see also, Cadle Co. v. Woods & Erickson, LLP, 345 P.3d 1049, 1054 (Nev. 2015) ("In order to retax and settle costs upon motion of the parties pursuant to NRS 18.110, 6 a district court must have before it evidence that the costs were reasonable, necessary, and actually 7 incurred."). As shown below, and in Exhibits A, B, C, and D and their respective supporting 8 9 exhibits, the costs claimed here were actually incurred and were reasonable and necessary.

A. Clerks' Filing Fees and pursuant to NRS 19.0335(1)(b) and (e).

Pursuant to NRS 18.005(1) and (16), the prevailing party may recover costs incurred for the fees incurred for filing documents with the Court. The filing fees claimed herein include the filing fees mandated by NRS Chapter 19, including the initial filing fees, business court fees, and fees imposed for dispositive motions; fees for electronic filing are also included. Exs. A,  $\P$  4; C,  $\P$  3; and D, ¶ 3. Electronic filing is mandatory in the Eighth Judicial District Court. EDCR §§ 2.02 & 8.02.

As the payment of all the claimed fees was mandatory, and the amounts were set by statute 17 or court rules, these filing fees were reasonable and necessary. See Brochu v. Foote Enters., Inc., 18 19 381 P.3d 596, (Nev. 2012) ("As standard fees, the district court did not need additional 20 documentation to determine that the filing fees were actual and reasonable."). Reading should be 21 awarded $11,863.04 for this category of costs.

B. Reporters' Fees for Depositions.

The claimed costs include the costs incurred for copies of the transcripts of all depositions 23 noticed and taken by Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. ("Cotter, Jr."), including copies of the transcript 24 25 and of the video recording for each separately represented set of Defendants. Exs. A, ¶ 4; C, ¶ 3; 26 and D, ¶4. Leaving aside the depositions necessitated by the consolidated case involving the T2 27 Plaintiffs, for which no costs are claimed herein, Cotter, Jr. noticed and took depositions of 17 28 witnesses. Several of those witnesses were deposed over the course of multiple days, resulting in Greenberg Traurig, LLP 3773 Howard Hughes Parkway, Suite 400 North Las Vegas, Nevada 89169 (702) 792-3773 (702) 792-9002 (fax) 12 13 14 15 multiple transcript volumes (Guy Adams, three volumes; Judy Codding, two volumes; Ellen Cotter, 1 2 three volumes individually and one volume as PMK for Reading; Margaret Cotter, three volumes; 3 Bill Ellis, two volumes; Bill Gould, three volumes; Ed Kane; five volumes; Doug McEachern, four 4 volumes; Tim Storey, two volumes).

The Nevada legislature has expressly recognized the necessity that parties each obtain a copy of each deposition transcript by expressly authorizing such expense. NRS 18.005(2). Acquisition of a transcript of each deposition taken by the Plaintiff was necessary for each defense team. See Ex. A, ¶ 5; C, ¶ 4; and D, ¶ 4. Courts have recognized the necessity for obtaining copies of depositions of witnesses deposed by the opposing party. See Longo v. Chao, 2008 WL 2783509, *3 (W.D. Tex. 2008)(citation omitted) ("[M]odern discovery practices and trial preparation virtually require that a party obtain copies of the depositions of its own employees and witnesses that are taken by its opponents."); McInnis v. Town of Weston, 458 F. Supp. 2d 7, 31 (D. Conn. 2006) (acknowledging that once a party took a deposition, it was necessary for the opposing party to obtain a copy of the transcript).

In addition, the Defendants collectively took a total of eight depositions related to Plaintiff's claims. For each such deposition, the claimed costs include the reporters' fees for transcription, as 16 17 well as copies of the depositions. See Ex. C, ¶4. The deposition of Plaintiff occurred over the course of four days, requiring four volumes. Additional depositions taken by Defendants included 18 that of expert witnesses disclosed by Plaintiff. Id. 19 20 Costs of depositions may be awarded provided they were reasonably necessary to take at 21 that time, without regard to later developments that may eventually render the deposition unneeded 22 at the time of trial or summary disposition. See Frederick v. City of Portland, 162 F.R.D. 139, 143 23 (D. Or. 1995). Here, as noted by counsel, such depositions were necessary to flesh out Cotter, Jr.'s every-changing claims, and to determine the anticipated testimony of each of the potential 24 witnesses. See Ex. A, ¶ 5; C, ¶ 4; and D, ¶ 4. The taking of depositions was also necessary for 25 26 use in impeachment during cross examination. See Brochu v. Foote Enters., Inc., 381 P.3d 596, (Nev. 2012) ("It is well known that a party deposes the opposing party's expert witnesses . . . ."). 27 Reading should be awarded $164,628.25 for payments to deposition court reporters.

C. Expert Witnesses Expenses.

Reading incurred $1,403,751.94 for fees for five expert witnesses. NRS 18.005(5) allows for recovery of reasonable fees of "not more than five expert witnesses in an amount of not more than $1,500 for each witness, unless the court allows a larger fee after determining that the circumstances surrounding the expert's testimony were of such necessity as to require the larger fee." (emphasis added). Each of the experts for whom expenses are requested provided testimony in deposition, and prior to Plaintiff's withdrawal of all monetary damages claims after the aborted January 2018 trial, were prepared for and expected to testify at trial. Ex. C, ¶¶ 5-8, Ex. D, ¶¶ 6-9.

9 As set forth in more detail in Ex. C, ¶7, seven of the Defendants retained the following four 10 experts:

- Prof. Michael Klausner, who was retained to provide expert opinion and testimony on matters of corporate governance related to the termination of Plaintiff, to assist against Plaintiff's claim that Defendants breached their fiduciary duty in their decision to termination James Cotter, Jr.
- Professor Richard Roll, who was retained to provide testimony regarding potential damages associated with declines in Reading's stock price due to the alleged inappropriate termination of James Cotter, Jr. and more generally, the performance of Reading's stock after the termination, and to assist in defending against Plaintiff's claims that Reading's stock suffered as a result of his termination and other challenged board actions.
- Dr. Bruce Strombom, who was retained to review and evaluate the broad opinions expressed by Plaintiff's damages expert, Dr. Duarte-Silva, and to assess whether Dr. Duarte-Silva's measure of damages was accurate.
- Mr. Jonathan Foster, was asked to provide an opinion on the process by which Reading's Board considered the unsolicited offer from Patton Vision, LLC dated May 31, 2016 and whether that process was consistent with industry practice, and also to rebut certain claims made by Plaintiff's damages expert Dr. Duarte-Silva related to the unsolicited indication of interest. Such opinions were sought to assist in the defense against plaintiff's claims related to the unsolicited offer.

  - Prof. Alfred E. Osborne, who was asked to provide testimony and opinion on matters of corporate governance to address the broad array of allegedly improper actions that Plaintiff alleged the Reading Board of Directors took, including Plaintiff's claim that Mr. Gould breached his fiduciary duty as chair of the CEO search committee by recommending Ellen Cotter for the position of CEO, among other issues.

9 The statutory amount of $1,500 per expert was added in 1989 (up from $750) and has not been adjusted since. However, the express authority to award a greater amount of fees where 10 necessary shows that the legislature was well aware that for complex litigation, $1500 would be 11 inadequate. In Frazier v. Drake, the Nevada Court of Appeals held that "any award of expert 12 13 witness fees in excess of $1,500 per expert under NRS 18.005(5) must be supported by an express, 14 careful, and preferably written explanation of the court's analysis of factors pertinent to determining the reasonableness of the requested fees and whether the circumstances surrounding the expert's 15 testimony were of such necessity as to require the larger fee." 357 P.3d 365, 377 (Nev. Ct. App. 16 17 2015) (internal quotation omitted). Specifically, the Court stated:

[T]he importance of the expert's testimony to the party's case; the degree to which the expert's opinion aided the trier of fact in deciding the case; whether the expert's reports or testimony were repetitive of other expert witnesses; the extent and nature of the work performed by the expert; whether the expert had to conduct independent investigations or testing; the amount of time the expert spent in court, preparing a report, and preparing for trial; the expert's area of expertise; the expert's education and training; the fee actually charged to the party who retained the expert; the fees traditionally charged by the expert on related matters; comparable experts' fees charged in similar cases; and, if an expert is retained from outside the area where the trial is held, the fees and costs that would have been incurred to hire a comparable expert where the trial was held.

Id. at 377-78. Thus, in evaluating requests for such awards, district courts should consider facts that address the work the expert performed and its importance to the party's case, the expert's credentials, and the reasonableness of the fees in comparison to other similarly qualified experts.
However, in listing the foregoing factors, the court in Frazier noted that this list was not exhaustive, and that not all of these factors may be pertinent to all requests for additional fees. The Court 1 2 directed that "the resolution of such requests will necessarily require a case-by-case examination of 3 appropriate factors." Id.

1. The work the Experts performed and its importance to the Defendants' case.

An expert's importance to any defendant's case cannot be measured solely by consideration 6 7 of the direct impact of such opinion on the outcome. When a case is resolved before trial, the 8 importance of the expert opinion to the proper preparation of a defense must be considered. While 9 Defendants always maintained that Plaintiff did not have evidence to supported his claims that the a majority of the board was unduly influenced by considerations other than Reading's best interests, 10 subject to influence, in order to defense themselves and the Company, Defendants had to retain 12 experts to address Plaintiff's multiple theories of recovery, and also, to address his theories for 13 purported monetary damages suffered by Reading. See Ex. C, ¶ 6; Ex. D, ¶ 7. Damages were an essential element of each of Plaintiff's claims, and Defendants could not know in advance that the 14 15 court would ultimately rule in favor of Defendants on other elements of Plaintiff's claims. Nor could Defendants have imagined that Plaintiff intended to abandon his monetary damages claims, 16 17 which damages his expert had claimed exceeded $110,000 million, based solely on his opinion that Reading had underperformed under Ellen Cotter's tenure as CEO. Ex. E, Excerpts of Report of 18 19 Duarte-Silva, p. 14. Defendants' experts were required to perform in depth market analyses 20 relating to Reading's industries, requiring hundreds of hours of work. Ex. C, ¶ 7. This work involved extensive review of Reading's operations and performance, complex investigations of market events and trends, and rigorous comparisons of multiple complex data sets. Given that the 22 23 case was to be tried to a jury, rather than to the bench, it was also important to have an expert 24 capable of explaining the complex conclusions to layman.

25 Significantly, Dr. Duarte-Silva also had opined that the Defendants' decision not to follow 26 up on the unsolicited offer from Patton Vision meant that "at least $100 million were foregone 27 relative to Reading's market capitalization as of the offer date." Id. p. 15. Plaintiff's expert even 28 speculated that the amount "foregone" would exceed $155 million. Id. at 16. It was not until December 2017, less than one month before the scheduled trial, this Court properly determined that 2 no damages could be shown where the Patton Vision offer was non-binding. Until that ruling, to 3 insure a proper defense, Defendants had to be prepared to present expert testimony to show the 4 errors of Dr. Duarte-Silva's opinions. Ex. C, ¶¶ 6 and 7.

Additionally, Mr. Gould's engagement of a separate corporate governance expert was necessary due to the difference in the claims made against Mr. Gould, as compared with those made against other Director Defendants. Mr. Gould did not vote to terminate Plaintiff, and accordingly, needed an expert on corporate governance who would not offer an opinion on the propriety of Plaintiff's termination. Ex. D,  $\P$  5. Moreover, Mr. Gould's engagement of his expert was critical in securing his dismissal. Dr. Osborne responded to Plaintiff's numerous alleged breaches of fiduciary duty. This expert's opinion that Mr. Gould was independent and disinterested and did not breach any fiduciary duties by his actions on Reading's Board formed the basis of Mr. Gould's successful motion for summary judgment. Id. at ¶¶ 7, 9.

14 Furthermore, Defendants' engagement of its corporate governance experts was critical in the defense against Plaintiff's allegations of breaches of fiduciary duty, particularly in light of 15 Plaintiff's retention of a respected retired member of Delaware's Chancery Court judiciary. As the 16 17 Court is aware, this matter lasted several years and involved numerous (and constantly changing) claims asserted by Plaintiff. Accordingly, Defendants' experts collectively expended hundreds of 18 19 hours dissecting and rebutting Plaintiff's claims and Plaintiff's experts' reports. Defendants' expert 20 reports set forth the proper standards under Nevada law that guided Defendants' motions for 21 summary judgment, which this Court's ultimately granted. The experts greatly contributed to the 22 briefings filed by Defendants, which ultimately led to judgment in favor of all the dismissed 23 defendants. Ex. C, at ¶ 9; Ex. D, at 9.

2. The expert's credentials.

25 Each of Defendants experts are well known in their fields, with many academic and/or 26 professional accomplishments. See Ex. C, at ¶ 7 (describing the credentials of Experts Klausner, 27 Roll, Strombom, and Foster); Ex. D, at ¶ 6 (describing credentials of Expert Osborne).

3. The reasonableness of the fees.

8

The reasonableness of Defendants' experts' hourly rates is supported by the hourly rates charged by Plaintiff's own experts, which are the same or higher: Chief Justice Steele charged $1,075 per hour; Mr. Finnerty charged $1,070 per hour; Dr. Duarte-Silva and his team charged as high as $715 per hour; Richard Spitz charged $850 per hour; and Albert Nagy charged $650 per hour. Defendants needed qualified experts to refute the opinions and testimony of Plaintiff's experienced experts, such as the former Chief Justice of the Delaware Chancery Court. Ex. C, at ¶¶ 6 and 8; Ex. D, at 8.

4. Other relevant factors.

As noted above, the factors set forth in Frazier are not exclusive, and other factors may be 9 considered. Here, the Court should also consider the extent to which Plaintiff caused an increase in 10 expert expenses, by making a claim for damages that he did not indent to present at trial. 11 Significantly, it was only after the January 8, 2018 trial was vacated that it become apparent that, 12 13 despite the indications set forth in his Trial Witness List, Plaintiff did not intend to call his damages 14 expert witnesses. Here, the largest portion of Defendants' expert witness costs was for the damages experts, who were retained based upon the claims for monetary damages made by Plaintiff. Indeed, 15 as noted above, it was necessary to retain Dr. Strombom specifically to rebut some of Dr. Duarte-16 17 Silva's broader opinions and to challenge the means he used to measure such claimed damages. See 18 Logan v. Abe, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 31, 350 P.3d 1139, 1144 (2015) (affirming the district court's 19 award of costs for expert witness fees incurred by defense, where Plaintiff chose not to present his 20 own expert testimony). Particularly in the circumstances here, where Plaintiff was suing in a 21 purported representative capacity, he should be held responsible for all expenses incurred by 22 Reading that proved to be unnecessary due to his own withdrawal of claims.

Nevada courts frequently award expert fees beyond the "$1,500 per expert" where such an award is justified and appropriate. City of N. Las Vegas v. 5th & Centennial, LLC, No. 58530, 2014 WL 1226443, at *7 (Nev. Mar. 21, 2014) (affirming district court's award of over $200,000 for costs, a large portion of which was for expert witness fees); Scott-Hopp v. Bassek, No. 60501, 2014 WL 859181, at *7 (Nev. Feb. 28, 2014) (authorizing award of $11,934.35 for defense's expert doctor to review medical remedies and provide opinion on cause of injury). While the total

$1,403,751.94 requested for fees paid to Professor Klausner, Professor Roll, Ph.D., Dr. Strombom, Mr. Foster, and Prof. Osborne, appears a significant sum, it is less than 1.5% of the damages that Plaintiff claimed to seek. Reading should be awarded $1,403,751.94 for its expert witness expenses.

The Directors Defendants pursued discovery from several non-parties, requiring that such persons and entities be formally served. Ex. Reading should be awarded $1,001.86 for expenses related to service of process.

E. Compensation for the official reporter

Pursuant to NRS 18.005 (8), costs for payments to the court's official reporter may be awarded. Here, Reading incurred costs in the amount of 4,672.41 for copies of transcripts of hearings. See Ex. A, ¶ 7 Such transcripts were necessary to permit Defendants to prepare draft orders in accordance with court rulings, and to otherwise assure an accurate record of the Court's directives made in hearings. Id.

Reading should be awarded $4,672.41 for its fees paid to the official reporter.

18

F. Reasonable costs for photocopies and telecopies.

19 Provided that the actual expense incurred is shown, recovery for photocopies and telecopies 20 is recoverable. NRS 18.005(11) and (12). See Bobby Berosini, Ltd. v. PETA, 114 Nev. 1348, 1353, 21 971 P.2d 383 (1998) (requiring sufficient justifying documentation for photocopying charges); 22 Gibellini v. Klindt, 110 Nev 1201, 1205, 885 P.2d 540 (1994)(rejecting flat rate for copies based on total billable hours). Here, Exhibits A, ¶ 8; C, ¶ 11; and, and D, ¶ show the details related to such 23 24 copying and printing. These copies were necessary as, over the course of the three years of 25 litigation, the defense teams received documents that needed to be distributed to Defendants, 26 Plaintiff, expert witnesses, and others, and copied for use as exhibits in depositions. Id. 27 Additionally, copies of documents were used by the respective firms' attorneys and support staff for 28 preparing queries and responses for written discovery, and for briefing during the extensive motion

G. Reasonable costs for telephone calls.

Pursuant to NRS 18.005 (13), costs for long distance telephone charges may be awarded. Reading incurred a total of $887.10 in long distance telephone charges. Ex. C, ¶ 12. Reading also incurred charges for telephone conference calls in the amount of $250.96. Ex. A, ¶9. Because the legislature has recognized that the telephone expenses incurred specifically for the case should be compensable, it is reasonable to include conference call charges within this category of expense, as well. <sup>2</sup>

The nine individual defendants resided in various locations, including varying cities in in New York, varying cities in California, and even in New Zealand. See Ex. C,  $\P$  12. Additionally, the Director Defendants' two defense teams were located California, while Reading's defense team was located in Las Vegas. Telephone calls to discuss strategy between counsel and client, and among defense counsel, thus necessitated incurring long distance call charges and conference call charges. Id., Ex.A  $\P$  9.

Reading should be awarded $887.10 in long distance telephone charges and $250.96 for its costs for conferences calls, for a total of $1,138.06.

H. Reasonable costs for Postage.

Pursuant to NRS 18.005 (14), costs for postage may be awarded. Reading incurred a total of $4,103.97 for postage and shipping costs. As noted above, it was necessary to distribute documents to the Defendants, to assure they maintained knowledge of the proceedings. It was also necessary to distribute documents to Plaintiff. Accordingly, expenses were incurred for postage. Ex. A., ¶9, Ex. C., ¶13, Ex. D, ¶14.

discovery.

Pursuant to NRS 18.005 (15), costs for travel and lodging incurred while taking depositions and conducting discovery may be may be awarded. Reading incurred a total of $68,022 for such travel expenses, including travel agency expenses, airfare, taxi /Uber, meals, and lodging.<sup>3</sup> See Ex. A., ¶10, Ex. C., ¶14, Ex. D, ¶15, and exhibits cited therein. Meals are considered a part of necessary travel expenses. Madison Capital Co. v. Star Acquisition Viii, 214 P.3d 557, 561 (Colo. App. 2009) ("However, the cost of meals incurred as part of necessary travel expenses may be awarded, so long as the cost is demonstrated to be reasonable and necessary."). <sup>4</sup> If the travel itself was necessary, then it is obviously necessary that the traveler eat while away from home. The necessity of the depositions (and therefore, for the travel to such depositions) has been set forth in Part B above.

The expenses claimed here are reasonable and not excessive. The majority of the depositions taken in this matter occurred in Southern California, but others were taken in Northern California, New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and Missouri. Ex. A., ¶11, Ex. C., ¶14, Ex. D, ¶ 15. Readings' own counsel was required to travel by air and obtain meals and lodging for all depositions, but the Individual Defendants incurred such expenses only for those depositions held at a distance from Los Angeles. Id. None of the travel expenses reflect anything other than standard accommodations, i.e., the attorneys did not fly first class.

Reading should be awarded $68,052.13 for its costs for deposition related travel.

J. Any other reasonable and necessary expense.

Pursuant to NRS 17.005(17), the prevailing party may be awarded costs in addition to those expressly named in subparagraphs (1)-(16), provided the expense was necessary and reasonable. *Las Vegas Land Partners, LLC v. for expenses for E Discovery and scanning of documents; computerized legal research, courier costs, and travel and lodging expenses related to court proceedings, including expenses incurred in reparation for the January trial, which was expected to last 15-19 days.

1) E Discovery Costs.

Costs incurred to comply with discovery requests, including costs incurred by methods of acquiring and process information to be produced, are properly awarded as a reasonable and necessary expense. Here, Reading incurred $909,440.77 in e-discovery costs, for work performed by Navigant, and for webhosting and related costs for Relativity. These costs were incurred in order to comply with the discovery demanded by Plaintiff, and at times, ordered by the Court. Ex. A., ¶13, Ex. B., ¶5, Ex. D, ¶17. Police v. Brokaw (In re Dish Network Derivative Litig.), 401 P.3d 1081, 1093. (Nev. 2017) (e-discovery costs recoverable under NRS 18.005(17))

2) Computerized Legal Research.

13 Costs incurred for computerized legal research is expressly included as a permissible cost under NRS 18005(17). Here, use of computerized legal research was necessary to permit the 14 defense teams to prepare appropriate briefing of legal issues. Ex. A., ¶11, Ex. C., ¶15, Ex. D, ¶*. 15 Indeed, as one court stated, "the failure to use computerized legal research may be a basis for a 16 17 claim of malpractice in some instances." Am. Honda Motor Co. v. Motorcycle Info. Network, Inc., No. 5:04-cv-12-Oc-10GRJ, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 97948, at *19 (M.D. Fla. Sep. 17, 2007). In this 18 19 matter, where the Court acknowledged that the case of a derivative plaintiff seeking his own 20 reinstatement to his former position was unique, the need to use the most up-to-the-minute legal 21 research resources must be deemed necessary. Additionally, as the docket indicates, there was 22 extensive briefing of many issues in this matter, including multiple theories for dismissal and 23 summary judgment, discovery and privilege issues that required resort to appellate review by writ, 24 and other evidentiary issues.

(1993) (permitting award of "reasonable and necessary courier expenses under catch-all provision of NRS 18.005). Here, courier service was necessary to bring courtesy copies to the Court, and for when in-person filing was necessary. Moreover, as the Court no doubt recalls, many of the motions heard before the Court were brought on shortened time, making trips to the RJC necessary for obtaining the Court's approval of the orders shortening time, and making service by mail impractical. Ex. A., ¶13.

Reading should be awarded $2,473.74 for its costs for couriers.

4) Additional travel and meal expenses.

Reading also seeks recovery of the expenses incurred by out of town counsel and the Individual Defendants for travel to court proceedings. Counsel for the Director Defendants incurred $82, 756.57 in travel expenses in order to appear at court proceedings. Ex. C, ¶ 17; Ex. D, ¶ 18. Reading incurred $87,657.20 in travel and lodging expenses for Reading's General Counsel, and the Director Defendants to travel and lodging to court proceedings and for witness preparation for trial. Ex. B, ¶ 6. Additionally, Reading incurred $16,067.67 for its counsel to travel to its corporate headquarters or other locations in order to meet with Company management to discuss the litigation and to prepare witnesses. Ex. A, ¶ 14.

Because it was anticipated that the January 8, 2018 trial would last at least 15 days, during which time Reading's General Counsel would be present as Reading's representative, Reading leased residential space for the anticipated trial period. Ex. B, ¶8. Leasing such space was projected to result in a cost savings over the cost of a daily hotel rate.. Id. It was reasonable to lease such space for such time period, as Reading had no reason to anticipate that Plaintiff would claim a sudden medical emergency to prevent the commencement of the trial.

Reading also incurred $6,099.27 in costs associated with a temporary satellite office space for its executive officers. Id. As Plaintiff had asserted that he intended to call upon virtually all of the Reading's executive officers for testimony, it was essential that a satellite office be established to allow Reading's executive officers to continue to operate and run the company effectively and efficiently. Such space was also expected to be used as a meeting place for Director Defendants and executive officers to discuss strategy and otherwise address the numerous issues that must be # attended to during the trial. Ex. B, ¶ 10.

In Las Vegas Land Partners, LLC v. Nype, No. 68819, n. 3, (Nev. Nov. 14, 2017), the 2 3 Supreme Court upheld, under the catch-all provision of NRS 18.005(17), the district court's award 4 to the successful party for expenses for his own travel, lodging, and meal expenses. While it is not 5 clear whether all of the travel expenses were for attendance at trial or at a mediation, the approved expense was obviously not incurred for deposition purposes, because the Court relied on the catch 6 7 all provision. In making its ruling, the Supreme Court cited with approval Madison Capital Co. v. 8 Star Acquisition Viii, 214 P.3d 557, 561 (Colo. App. 2009) (approving expenses for out of town counsel to attend court proceeding). Reading should be reimbursed *** for the expenses incurred 9 for its Directors and representatives to travel for trial preparation and court proceedings. 10

5. Parking Expenses

Reading seeks 1,470.15 for parking expenses. Ex. A, ¶ 15. Parking has been acknowledged as an expense that may be necessary under the catchall provision. See Brochu v. Foote Enters., Inc., 381 P.3d 596, (Nev. 2012) (noting that expenses of parking could be deemed reasonable with appropriate documentation). As the Judge Israel stated when granting $5,354.55 in parking expenses:

First, the reality is the various attorneys, legal assistants, parties and witnesses do not work or reside near the Regional Justice Center located in downtown Las Vegas, Nevada. Second, vehicular transportation was necessary to carry not only persons, but also the extensive exhibits to and from the courthouse, as well as to/from the various offices where depositions were taken. Obviously, these vehicles need to be staged somewhere near the courthouse and lawyers' offices throughout the litigation and ultimately, trial.

Aventine-Tramonti Homeowners Ass'n v. Vanguard Piping Sys., 2013 Nev. Dist. LEXIS 203, *20-21 (Eighth Jud. Dist Court, Dept. 22, Dec. 30, 2013). Here, Reading incurred charges for parking for court proceedings, and also at many of the depositions. See Ex. A., ¶15.

6. Cost of a trial suite and housing for staff for January 2018 Trial.

In preparation for the trial scheduled for January 8, 2018, Reading leased a suite of office space near the Regional Justice Center courtroom for use as a trial suite. This suite allowed the defense team of lawyers and paralegals, the majority of whom were from out of town, to have a close location to set up necessary computer and other support operations, as well as space to permit 1 2 the entire trial team to meet for purposes of strategy. Ex. B, ¶¶ Neither Greenberg Traurig's Las 3 Vegas offices, not those of the local counsel, could have accommodated the number of attorneys 4 and staff who were needed for the trial proceedings, particularly given that the trial was anticipated 5 to last several weeks. Id. at ¶¶ A close location is needed during trial, as documents may needed to be created quickly, or exhibits unexpectedly redacted due to in-court evidentiary rulings, and staff 6 7 who are in distant offices may not be able to respond quickly enough to provide the needed 8 materials in a timely manner. Id. At least one court has indicated that that temporary office space for 9 out of town counsel is a trial necessity. See Sanofi-Aventis Deutschland GmbH v. Genentech, Inc., 607 F. Supp. 2d 769, 779-80 (E.D. Tex. 2009) (denying motion to change venue in part because 10 necessary cost of temporary office space for out of town counsel would be less expensive in 11 12 existing forum than in proposed new venue).

law firm, organized by category and denoting expenses incurred by Reading or by this firm on 1 behalf of Reading, and related to this litigation. Each entry records the pertinent details, including 2 purpose and expense, of the service provided to Reading by the firm, of invoices sent to the firm by 3 the venders, and/or the details of receipts (accompanied by written narrative explanations where 4 5 appropriate) provided by the attorneys or the paralegal who claimed reimbursement for the listed item. Copies of the source documents for this compilation are available for review by the Court if 6 desired. Exhibit 2 contains is a true and correct copy a printout of the record of financial 7 assessments maintained by this Court. Exhibit 8 contains a true and correct copy of the pertinent 8 9 portions of Greenberg Traurig's Travel Reimbursement Policy.

3. Except where otherwise stated, the expenses included within this declaration and its 10 attached exhibits include only the expenses incurred by Reading for its own defense in this 11 12 litigation, and not through its indemnification obligations for the Individual Director Defendants. Additional expenses incurred by Reading, that were billed directly to Reading, are set forth in 13 14 Exhibit B, and exhibits thereto, which contains the Declaration of Craig Tompkins, Reading's General Counsel. The Director Defendants' expenses, for which Reading is statutorily obligated to 15 16 indemnify the Directors, are set forth in the Declarations of Marshall Searcy and Shoshana Bannet, which are also attached as exhibits C and D to Reading's Memorandum of Costs. 17

Reading incurred $3770.24 in clerk's filing fees, including fees for its initial appearance as a defendant, the business court filing fee, the dispositive motion filing fees, and e filing fees. The payment of such fees is mandated by statute or court rule See Ex. 1, Filing Fee
 Disbursement Details;

5. Reading incurred $53,344.70 in fees paid to court reporters related to depositions, including for costs of a copy of the written transcript and a copy of the video recording. See Exhibit 2, Record of Deposition Disbursements. This includes expenses for such copies for the 17 witnesses deposed by at the behest of Plaintiff, and for the 8 witnesses deposed by the Individual Defendants. Reading did not itself notice any depositions. However, I concur with the reasons stated by Marshall Searcy in his Declaration, ¶ 4, with respect to the need to obtain the copies of the deposition transcripts and to conduct the depositions of Plaintiff's witnesses. See also the reasons stated in Paragraph 9 as to the necessity of participation in depositions by Reading.

6. Reading did not individually retain any expert witnesses. However, as defendant in an action wherein the relief sought included the reinstatement of a terminated officer, Reading benefitted from the retention of the expert witnesses by the Individual Defendants, for the reasons stated by Marshall Searcy, Ex. C, ¶¶ 4-9, and by Shoshana Bannet, Ex. D, ¶¶ 4.

7 7. Reading incurred $3,794.89 in expenses for fees paid to the official reporter (or 8 Clark County, for transcripts of proceedings. See Exhibit 3, Official Reported Expenses. Such 9 transcripts were necessary to permit Defendants to prepare draft orders in accordance with court
10 rulings, and to otherwise assure an accurate record of the Court's directives made in hearings. Id

8. Reading incurred $2,930.27 in expenses for scanning and printing copies. See Ex. 4 11 12 Scanning/Printing Disbursement. Greenberg Traurig did not charge Reading for scanning or printing of documents internally, but did pass on the cost of such scanning or copying when outside 13 14 venders were used to copy or scan documents. Reading incurred expenses for copies where it needed to send hard copies of documents to the Readings representatives, to other parties, and 15 16 where copies of exhibits were needed for depositions. Physical or electronic copies of pleadings, briefs and exhibits were also made when needed to take to Court for use during hearings, for use 17 during strategy meetings among counsel, and for the exhibit binders prepared in anticipated of the 18 19 aborted January 2018 trial.

9. Reading incurred $250.96 in expenses for reasonable costs telephone conference.
 Such conferences were necessary to allow the multiple members of the defense teams to participate in discussions of strategy and updates as to events in the litigation. Additionally, at times, Reading hosted Court telephone conference hearings. See Ex. 5, Telephone Conferences.

10. Reading incurred $593.68 in expenses for reasonable costs for postage, i.e., shipping charges. See Ex. 6, Postage/Shipping Disbursement. My office is in Nevada, while Reading's corporate offices are located in California. Postage expenses were incurred when documents were sent to the client, and also, when it was necessary, pursuant to discovery obligations, to send either hard copies, or at times, disks or drives containing scanned copies of voluminous documents, to other parties. 2

11. Reading incurred $24,008.36 in expenses for reasonable costs for travel and lodging 3 incurred taking depositions and conducting discovery. Ex. 7, Deposition Travel Disbursement. A 4 5 total of 49 depositions, involving 25 witnesses, were taken in this matter. Seventeen of those witnesses were deposed at the behest of the Plaintiff. In setting depositions, the Parties agreed to 6 accommodate the convenience of the witnesses in terms of location where possible. Accordingly, 7 as none of the witnesses lived in Nevada, not a single deposition in this matter occurred in this state. 8 9 Instead, most depositions were held in various cities in Southern California, while others took place in New York, Massachusetts, Missouri, Pennsylvania, and in Northern California. Accordingly, an 10 attorney for Reading was required to travel out of state for each deposition. Significantly, holding 12 the depositions within Nevada would not have offered any costs savings, as counsel for the Director Defendants do not have offices in Nevada. Additional, Plaintiff's lead counsel, who took most if 13 14 not all of the depositions noticed by Plaintiff, moved out of Nevada during the pendency of this matter. 15

16 The presence of a Reading attorney at such depositions was necessary to protect the interests of Reading, including the opportunity to make appropriate objections. Additionally, the presence of 17 counsel for Reading was necessary to protect its attorney-client privilege, especially in light of the 18 19 fact that eight of its Reading's Directors and two of its general counsel were deposed – often over multiple days. Moreover, as a party that this Court repeatedly recognized had a right to substantive 20 participation, Reading was also entitled to protect its interests by examining the witnesses deposed 21 by the other parties, to determine the precise nature of their likely trial testimony. Furthermore, it is 22 increasingly customary for deposition testimony to be used in lieu of trial testimony, and 23 accordingly, any voluntary failure to attend a deposition would risk the client being foreclosed from 24 25 any opportunity to ask pertinent questions of a witness whose testimony is used at trial, and thus, a failure to adequately present the client. For these reasons, the attendance of an attorney 26 representing Reading was necessary for each deposition. 27

Ex. 8 sets forth the policy of Greenberg Traurig with respect to reimbursement for travel expenses. Ex. 8, GT Travel Reimbursement Policy. As can be seen, the firm does not permit 2 reimbursement for first class travel, luxury car rentals, mini-bar expenditures, entertainment, or 3 various personal expenses that might be incurred while away from home. Additionally, the firm has 4 5 obtained preferred rates for hotels in many areas, and requires that the rates for rooms booked at other hotels in those areas be similar to or lower than such preferred facilities. Moreover, the firm 6 requires more than just credit card receipts, but instead, requires submission of the receipt or invoice 7 provided by the goods or service provider (except for reasonable tips). As compliance with these 8 9 policies is required for reimbursement, these policies provide evidence that the expenses set forth in Ex. 7 are reasonable. 10

12. Reading incurred $47,324.41 in expense for computerized legal research. Ex. 9, 11 12 Computerized Legal Research Disbursement. The disbursements here show only the cost to access the computerized legal databases actually billed to the client, and does not include the 13 attorney time for performing the research. Computerized legal research was necessary in this 14 matter due to the complex legal issues involved in many years of motion's practice before the 15 Court, as well as several writ proceedings to the Supreme Court. Familiarity with the most current 16 legal doctrine and theory was necessary to develop strategy to support the defense against Plaintiff's 17 claims. 18

13. Reading incurred $2,473.74 for courier expenses. Exhibit 10, Courier

Disbursement. Courier services were used to deliver documents primarily to the court for filing, 20 where electronic filing was not permitted due to required sealing of confidential information, for 21 delivery of courtesy copies to the Court, or for delivery of stipulations to other counsel original 22 signatures were required. 23

14. Reading was required to incur $ 902,016.77 for E-Discovery services provided 24 through Navigant. See Declaration of Craig Tompkins, Motion Ex. B. Use of E-Discovery 25 services were necessary due to the document requests presented by Plaintiff, many of which 26 required searches of Reading's computer servers, email exchanges, and the like. Similarly, 27 28 scanning of documents was required to convert documents to searchable formats and to permit Page 5 of 6 LV 421194877v3 timely document production other parties. The E-discovery services and scanning of documents 1 was necessary in order to permit Reading to comply with its discovery obligations. 2 15. Reading incurred $16,067.67 for the expenses of its counsel travelling to meetings 3 to discuss litigation with Reading's Management and/or board members or committees. Ex. 11, 4 5 Non-Deposition Travel Disbursement. As noted above, my offices are located in Nevada, while Reading's corporate headquarters are located in California. In order to engage in face to face 6 meetings to inform Readings management of events, and to discuss strategy, and prepare witnesses 7 for deposition and trial testimony, travel was necessary. 8 16. Reading incurred $1,470.15 for parking. Ex. 12, Parking Disbursement. As the 9 Court is likely aware, parking in reasonable walking distance to the Regional Justice Center requires 10 11 payment at the rates set by the owner of the parking facility. 12 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct. 13 Dated this 24th day of August 2018. 14 15 /s/ Mark E. ### Policies/Travel Policies and Procedures

Related Documents

INTRODUCTION

The Firm's travel and expense reimbursement policy is based on the priority of the traveler's safety and comfort.

With that in mind, it is expected that travelers are mindful that travel costs must be reasonable and not extravagant. Further, since the IRS enforces strict time restrictions on the submission and payment of allowable expenses, all expense reimbursements are to be submitted within 30 days of incurring the expense.

Airlines / Trains

All airline reservations must be booked in coach or economy class with the airline that has the lowest appropriate fare. Upgrades in class or seat assignments for Firm travel will be considered a personal expense and not reimbursable unless it involves a 6-hour flight leg on an international trip. First-class travel on trains is permitted when necessary for attorneys/directors.

Travel should be planned as far in advance as possible to take advantage of advance purchase discounts. The more in advance the reservation is made, the higher the discount. Most carriers offer discounts for 14-day and 7-day advance purchases, while a few also offer 3-day advance purchase discounts. Generally nonrefundable tickets offer substantial discounts and are the Firm's preferred ticket type. If the trip has to be cancelled when using a non-refundable ticket, the credit can be used for future air travel.

Reimbursements for travel charged to a personal credit card are reimbursable only after the trip is concluded and NOT in advance of the scheduled travel dates. We strongly encourage booking travel through an approved travel agency that charges GT directly. Use of approved travel agencies eliminates use of personal credit lines prior to the travel dates.

Travel Charged to Firm Credit Card:

The Firm has established a credit card program with the approved travel agencies so that air/train travel is charged directly to the Firm and, therefore, requires no reimbursement. If you choose this option, the traveler is responsible for contacting the (GT approved) travel agency directly to make reservations. A valid client matter number must be provided to the travel agent at the time of booking.

When the traveler expenses the trip, the ticket receipt, with the client matter number noted, should be included with the expense report. Although there will be no personal reimbursement for the fare in this instance, the inclusion of this information provides a comprehensive view of the travel costs during the approval process

Miscellaneous Charges that ARE Reimbursable:

• Baggage fees for overnight travel

- Priority boarding fees, internet access fees and other such charges for attorney/director travel when necessary
- Travel ticket change fees
- Travel agency ticketing fees

Miscellaneous Charges that Are Personal and NOT Reimbursable:

- Airline club/lounge
- Fly Clear for TSA pre-travel clearance
- In-flight alcohol or snacks

Unused Tickets / Cancellations

Return unused or partially-used trip tickets to the travel agency as soon as practical, but certainly within 5 days of the cancelled trip. Credits for non-refundable tickets will be kept in the traveler's name to offset the cost of future travel. The travel agency will process refunds for refundable tickets to return to the Firm.

Passport Fees

If an employee is required to travel to a foreign country for business and currently does not possess a passport, the Firm will reimburse reasonable fees to secure a passport for such travel.

Automobile - Personal

The reimbursable mileage rate is based on the IRS optional standard mileage rate for U.S.-based offices. Note that Chrome River will automatically determine this rate. The purpose of mileage reimbursement is to cover the deductible costs of operating an automobile for business, including gas. As such, the Firm does not reimburse for gas in connection to the use of your personal automobile.

Parking at airports should be in long-term lots if the trip is in excess of 12 hours. Please plan enough time when leaving for the airport.

Car Rental

Car rentals for luxury, specialty sports cars, etc. should be avoided. Fuel incurred while using a rental car will be reimbursed based on the actual cost of the fuel. Receipts are required when in excess of $25.

Any employee renting a car for Firm business must have personal automobile insurance, including liability, since the traveler's individual policy is primary with respect to any accidents incurred that result in damage or injury to others. When on Firm business and renting a vehicle, the general policy is to decline the collision damage waiver provisions of the car rental agreement. This applies strictly to the relationship between the Firm employee and the car rental company and should not be construed to impact any other relationship. An employee found at fault is liable. The Firm has additional liability insurance to stand secondarily behind the employee's own policy. To the extent the employee's policy, including any deductible, is insufficient to cover any damage and loss of use charges to a rented vehicle, GT will cover the shortfall

Hotels

General Information

Hotel reservations can be made through the travel agent booking the airline reservation. Sensitivity to the fact that many clients closely scrutinize such expenses is expected. Accommodation at luxury hotels is not appropriate, unless dictated by a client.

The Firm will reimburse the standard room rate and related taxes. Scans of the complete original hotel folio which breaks down expenses between room, taxes, meals, parking, etc., and shows a zero balance must be submitted as supporting documentation. Credit card slips are not acceptable for hotel expenses. When submitting hotel bills, meals (room service, hotel lounges & cafes, etc.) must be totaled separately since lodging expenses are 100% deductible and meals are considered partially deductible.

Dry cleaning and laundry for stays of three nights or less, in-room movies, health club charges, beauty salon charges (or other personal grooming charges) or other sundries are considered personal expenses and therefore not reimbursable. In-room service bar expenses should be kept to a minimum and exclude alcoholic beverages.

The Firm has corporate rates at a number of hotels (see preferred listings below for attorneys and business staff). Using the respective preferred hotels when available is strongly encouraged. When these hotels are not available, travelers are expected to obtain lodging at rates equal to or less than the preferred hotel listing rates.

Receipts

Provide scanned original receipts for reimbursement (A detailed credit card slip showing payment, cancelled check and statement from vendor marked as paid) whenever possible for expenditures greater than $25.

Tips

Reasonable tips for driver, bellman and maid services are reimbursable and do not require a receipt.

12	EIGHTH JUDICIA	AL DISTRICT COURT
13	CLARK COL	UNTY, NEVADA
15	JAMES J. COTTER, JR., individually and derivatively on behalf of Reading International, Inc.,	Case No. A-15-719860-B Dept. No. XI
16	Plaintiff,	DECLARATION OF CRAIG
17		TOMPKINS IN SUPPORT OF
18	v. MARGARET COTTER, et al,	MEMORANDUM OF COSTS SUBMITTED BY READING
19		INTERNATIONAL, INC.
20	Defendants.
21
22	DECLARATION C	OF CRAIG TOMPKINS
23	I, Craig Tompkins, declare as foll	ows:
24	1. I am an active member of th	e Bar of the State of California and Executive
25	Vice President and General Counsel of	of Reading International, Inc. I make this
26	declaration in support of Defendant	Reading International, Inc's ("Reading")
27	Memorandum of Costs, as to the costs	billed to and paid directly by Reading, for
28	expenses incurred on Reading's own bel	half, or on behalf of the Director Defendants, in the course of this litigation. Except for those matters stated on information and belief, I make this declaration based upon personal knowledge and, if called upon to do so, I could and would so testify.

Reading was obligated by its By-Laws, Article VII – Indemnification, and its Articles of Incorporation, Article XIII – Directors' and Officers' Liability, and contractually, as permitted by NRS Chapter 78, to indemnify the Director Defendants for their defense expenses in this litigation. Based on this Court's ruling dismissing all of the Director Defendants from the matter, Reading's obligation also became statutorily imposed.

3. Reading has paid for costs incurred on its own behalf, as well as on behalf of the Director Defendants, throughout this litigation. As shown by the affidavit and declarations submitted by the defense teams, many of those costs were incurred and paid through the various law firms. However, Reading also paid for some costs directly.

4. Exhibit 1 contains a spreadsheet detailing the costs incurred by Reading, as described in greater detail below. The information contained in the spreadsheet was taken from records that were kept by Reading in the ordinary course of business.
Backup documentation is voluminous, but will be provided for review should the Court so desire.

20Reading incurred $902,016.77 in E-discovery costs for services 5. 21 performed by Navigant. See Exhibit 1; Exhibit 2 (Navigant Invoices). Such 22 expenses were incurred to allow Reading and the Director Defendants to comply with discovery requests made by Plaintiff in this matter. As the Court no doubt recalls, 23 Plaintiff made extensive discovery requests to Reading, which required that data be 24 25 harvested from the computers of Reading and the Director Defendants, and such data placed in searchable formats for review for responsiveness and privilege, and 26 27 production. The costs stated here include the fees for the professional IT services provided by Navigant; no attorney review time, which would have been billed separately by the various defense team law firms, was included in this cost statement.

6. Reading incurred $87,657.20 in costs for Director and Officer Travel to Depositions and Court Proceedings. See Exhibit 1. Reading's headquarters are located in California, and its Directors and Officers live in various states; none live in Nevada, where Plaintiff filed this action. Reading was required to have corporate representatives travel to Nevada for many court proceedings, including those where it was reasonable to anticipate that significant strategic decisions might be necessary.

9 7. Additionally, each of the Director Defendants were deposed, often 10 multiple times, and Reading was required to pay for the travel to and from depositions, 11 and at times, for lodging, for Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Douglas McEachern.
12 Id.

13 8. Reading incurred $60,987.30 in costs associated with temporary office 14 space for its defense trial teams. Id. In anticipation of the January 8, 2018 trial, which was scheduled to last 15-19 days, Reading leased temporary office space close to the 15 Court's building. This office space was provided to permit the out-of-town defense 16 counsel to have adequate work facilities for members of the trial teams, including 17 18 computer work stations and printing and copying capabilities. Such near-by facilities 19 were necessary to the anticipated short-term turn around that would have been required to produce pleadings, any necessary motions, and the like that typically 20become necessary amidst a trial. Such space was also expected to be used as a 21 22 meeting place for the defense teams to discuss strategy, engage in final witness preparation, and otherwise address the numerous issues that must be attended to 23 during a trial. Neither Reading's own counsel, nor any of the local counsel retained, 24 25 had sufficient available space to accommodate that needed here.

9. Reading agreed to the Director Defendants defense teams being led by counsel outside the forum state for several reasons, including respect for the preferences of the Director Defendants; familiarity with and confidence in the chosen firms and attorneys; convenience for the majority of the Director Defendants, 1 2 particularly those most actively involved in day to day strategic decisions, who would 3 otherwise have to travel to Nevada for counsel meetings; and Reading's own 4 representation led by Nevada counsel

5 10. Reading also incurred $6,099.27 in costs associated with a temporary satellite office space for its executive officers. Id. As Plaintiff had asserted that he 6 7 intended to call upon virtually all of the Reading's executive officers for testimony, it 8 was essential that a satellite office be established to allow Reading's executive 9 officers to continue to operate and run the company effectively and efficiently. Such 10 space was also expected to be used as a meeting place for Director Defendants and 11 executive officers to discuss strategy and otherwise address the numerous issues that 12 must be attended to during the trial.

13 11. Reading also incurred $6,108.30, Id., in expenses for leasing, for the 14 anticipated length of the January 8, 2018 trial, residential space for my use. I had anticipated staying in Nevada for several days of preparation time prior to trial, and 15 for the entirety of the trial. Leasing residential space for the month of January was 16 17 less expensive than the cost of a hotel room and services over the length of the 18 anticipated stay.

19 12.

This Affidavit is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

20 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that 21 the foregoing is true and correct.

DECLARATION OF COUNSEL MARSHALL M. SEARCY, III

I, Marshall M. Searcy III, state and declare as follows:

I am a member of the bar of the State of California, and am an attorney with Quinn
 Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP ("Quinn Emanuel"), attorneys for Defendants Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, Guy Adams, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Judy Codding, and Michael Wrotniak. I make this Affidavit based upon personal, firsthand knowledge, except where stated to be on information and belief, and as to that information, I believe it to be true. If called upon to testify as to the contents of this Affidavit, I am legally competent to testify to its contents in a court of law.

As permitted by the attorney ethical codes of both California and Nevada, while the above-named Defendants are my clients, as indicated under Nevada's corporate code, Reading International, Inc. is the party responsible for paying all costs incurred on behalf of these Defendants, each of whom prevailed in this litigation.

On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $5,390.00 in clerk's filing fees, including fees incurred pursuant to NRS Chapter 19 and electronic filing fees.
 Payment of all such filing fees was mandatory. Exhibit 1, Filing Fees.

On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $63,980.55 in fees paid to court reporters related to depositions, including for costs of 1 copy of deposition transcripts. See Exhibit 2, Deposition Court Reporters. This includes expenses for such copies for the 17 witnesses called by Plaintiff, as well expenses related to the transcription/recording of depositions noticed and taken by Defendants.

It was necessary for the Defendants I represented to participate in and obtain such copies or the transcripts and video recordings, as accurate records of the testimony were needed for use in motions for summary judgment, and also, for preparation of trial testimony. Additionally, transcripts of the testimony of my clients was necessary, as it was likely that Plaintiff hoped to use such testimony for purposes of impeachment at trial. The depositions were also necessary to flesh out the specific claims made by Plaintiff, which changed over time, and to determine the details of

Plaintiff's experts' anticipated trial testimony, to determine flaws in the analysis, or underlying information upon which the experts relied, and for use for impeachment during trial.

5. On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $1,227,096.94 in expert witness fees and expenses. See Exhibit 3, Expert Fees. In this action, Defendants engaged four qualified experts, who were necessary to defend against Plaintiff's claims and rebut Plaintiff's designated experts. Defendants' experts included Professor Michael Klausner, Professor Richard Roll, Ph.D., Dr. Bruce Strombom and Jonathan Foster.

6. In the present case, Plaintiff claimed damages of more than $110 million dollars in lost value to RDI. See Motion Exhibit E, Duarte-Silva Report at p. 14 ("Reading's underperformance since the Replacement Date equates to a loss of approximately $110 million in value."). Plaintiff engaged at least five experts to submit expert reports and provide expert deposition testimony. Even after Defendants brought a motion to compel, Plaintiff has never revealed how much he actually paid to most of these experts. However, to prepare a defense, Defendants had to respond to the following Plaintiff experts:

15 a. Dr. Tiago Duarte-Silva is a Principal in the Finance Practice at Charles River Associates ("CRA"). CRA is a nationally recognized consulting firm. Dr. Duarte-16 17 Silva testified that he has extensive experience in damages calculations, financial 18 statement analysis, loss causation, class certification, alleged earnings misstatements, 19 event studies/price impact analysis, valuation, and more. Dr. Duarte-Silva is an 20 adjunct professor at Boston College and publishes in top peer-reviewed academic and 21 practitioner journals. In addition to Dr. Duarte-Silva's billing rate of $630 per hour, 22 Dr. Duarte-Silva had a team of five that charged an additional $715 to $305 per hour. 23 Dr. Duarte-Silva submitted both an initial expert report and rebuttal expert report and 24 sat for deposition in this matter. While Dr. Duarte-Silva did not know the total amount 25 he and his team had billed, he could not definitively say if it was more or less than 26 $500,000. Plaintiff has never revealed how much he was charged by CRA or how 27 much he paid to CRA.

b. John Finnerty is the Managing Director at AlixPartners, LLP, a financial and operational consulting firm. Mr. Finnerty testified that he had extensive experience in securities valuation, derivatives valuation, solvency analysis, business valuation, the calculation of damages, and litigation support for matters including securities fraud, breach of contract, commercial disputes, valuation disputes, solvency, fairness, breach of fiduciary duty, and employment disputes. Mr. Finnerty is a Professor of Finance at Fordham University's Gabelli School of Business and was the founding Director of Fordham's Master of Science in Quantitative Finance Program. Mr. Finnerty has published 15 books and more than 100 articles and professional papers. Mr. Finnerty billed at a rate of $1,070 per hour. In addition to submitting a rebuttal expert report, Mr. Finnerty sat for deposition in this matter. Plaintiff has never revealed how much he was charged by AlixPartners or how much he paid to AlixPartners.

- c. Albert Nagy is a real estate consultant with Realty Capital Solutions, LLC. Mr. Nagy's cumulative professional experience in the real estate industry is in excess of 40 years.
  His practice includes consulting in real estate property, development and commercial real estate. Mr. Nagy's billed at a rate of $650 per hour. In addition to submitting a rebuttal expert report, Mr. Nagy sat for deposition in this matter.
  - d. Chief Justice Myron Steele was the former Chief Justice of the Delaware Supreme Court. Chief Justice Steele is now a partner at Potter Anderson & Corroon LLP, a reputable Delaware law firm with expertise in litigation and transaction matters involving Delaware corporations. In addition, Chief Justice Steele has served as an adjunct professor of law at University of Pennsylvania Law School, Pepperdine University Law School and University of Virginia Law School. Chief Justice Steele billed at a rate of $1,075 per hour. In addition to submitting both an initial expert report and rebuttal expert report, Chief Justice Steele sat for deposition in this matter.
  - e. Richard Spitz, Esq. is an experienced executive recruiter who spent over ten years at Korn Ferry International, Inc., a global leading executive search firm listed on the NYSE. Mr. Spitz engages in multiple professional activities including serving on

- boards of several organizations. Mr. Spitz billed at a rate of $850 per hour. In addition to submitting both an initial expert report and rebuttal expert report, Mr. Spitz sat for deposition in this matter.
- 7. To respond to the claims made by Plaintiff and to protect RDI and its directors from the threat of a nine-figure verdict, Defendants were obligated to engage their own expert witnesses as follows:
- 7 a. Professor Michael Klausner is the Nancy and Charles Munger Professor of Business 8 and Professor of Law at Stanford Law School and a visiting professor at New York 9 University School of Law. Professor Klausner teaches courses on corporate law, 10 corporate governance, business transactions, and regulation of financial institutions. Before beginning his academic career, Professor Klausner practiced law in 11 12 Washington, D.C. and was a White House fellow from 1989 to 1990, a law clerk for 13 Judge David Bazelon on the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in 1981-82, and a law clerk for Justice William Brennan on the 14 15 United States Supreme Court. Professor Klausner's expert opinion and testimony on matters of corporate governance related to the termination of Plaintiff James J. Cotter, 16 17 Jr. as CEO of Reading International, Inc. was necessary in the defense against 18 Plaintiff's claims of breach of fiduciary duty-specifically Plaintiff's claim that the 19 Defendants breached their fiduciary duty in their decision to termination James Cotter, 20 Jr. Professor Klausner prepared both an initial expert report and a rebuttal expert report in response to Plaintiff's expert, former Chief Justice Myron T. Steele. 21 22 According to Chief Justice Steele's expert report, he charged Plaintiff $1,075 per hour. Professor Klausner charged Defendants $950 per hour. In total, the charge for 23 24 Professor Klausner's expert services including all support staff services, administrative 25 expenses and travel for deposition, was $447,764.91.

b. Professor Richard Roll, Ph.D, is the Linde Institute Professor of Finance at the

California Institute of Technology and Professor Emeritus at the Anderson School of Management at the University of California, Los Angeles. Professor Roll is an expert in finance, statistics, and economics and his research focuses extensively on issues related to the performance of companies' stock and how companies' stock prices respond to new information. Professor Roll was asked to analyze potential damages associated with declines in Reading's stock price due to the alleged inappropriate termination of James Cotter, Jr. and more generally, the performance of Reading's stock after the termination. Professor Roll prepared both an initial expert report and a rebuttal expert report in response to Plaintiff's damages expert, Dr. Tiago Duarte-Silva and was prepared to address Plaintiff's rebuttal expert, John Finnerty, if the case went to trial. Dr. Duarte-Silva charged Plaintiff $630 per hour, and additionally had a team of five that charged between $715 and $305 per hour. In addition, Mr. Finnerty charged Plaintiff $1,070 per hour. Professor Roll charged Defendants $1,200 per hour. In total, the charge for Mr. Roll's expert services including all support staff services and administrative expenses was $425,165.00.

c. Dr. Bruce Strombom is an expert in economics and finance. Dr. Strombom has over 35 years of experience in corporate finance and financial and economic experience. Dr. Strombom was asked to review and evaluate the broad opinions expressed by Plaintiff's damages expert, Dr. Duarte-Silva, and to assess whether Dr. Duarte-Silva's measure of damages was accurate. Dr. Strombom only prepared a rebuttal expert report in response to Plaintiff's damages expert, Dr. Duarte-Silva. As noted above, Dr. Duarte-Silva and his team charged Plaintiff between $715 and $305 per hour. Dr. Strombom charged Defendants $690 per hour. In total, the charge for Dr. Strombom's expert services including all support staff services and administrative expenses was $152,352.50.

d. Jonathan Foster has over 30 years experience as an investment banker, private equity investor and corporate director. Mr. Foster is an authority on mergers and acquisitions, having spent more than 10 years in M&A at Lazard, where he was a managing director. Given his decades of experience, he was asked to provide an opinion on the process by which Reading's Board considered the unsolicited offer from Patton Vision, LLC dated

02686-00002/10351473.2

May 31, 2016, and whether that process was consistent with industry practice. Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint alleged that Defendants breached their fiduciary duties with respect to their handling of the unsolicited offer. Mr. Foster was also tasked with providing an opinion on certain assertions made by Plaintiff's damages expert Dr. Duarte-Silva related to the unsolicited indication of interest. Mr. Foster prepared a rebuttal expert report in response to Dr. Duarte-Silva's alleged damages related to the Patton Vision unsolicited indication of interest. As noted above, Dr. Duarte-Silva and his team charged Plaintiff between $715 and $305 per hour. Mr. Foster charged Defendants $990 per hour. In total, the charge for Mr. Foster's expert services including all support staff services and administrative expenses was $201,814.53.

12 8. The reasonableness of Defendants' experts' hourly rates is supported by the hourly 13 rates charged by Plaintiff's own experts, which are around the same rate or higher than 14 Defendants' experts:

9. Defendants' engagement of its corporate governance experts was critical in securing the ultimate outcome in the case—dismissal of all Defendants. As the Court is aware, this matter lasted several years and involved numerous (and constantly changing) claims asserted by Plaintiff. Accordingly, Defendants' experts collectively expended hundreds of hours dissecting and rebutting Plaintiff's claims and Plaintiff's expert reports. Defendants' expert reports set forth the proper standards that guided Defendants' motions for summary judgment, which this Court's

28

02686-00002/10351473.2

ultimately granted. The experts greatly contributed to the briefings filed by Defendants, which ultimately led to judgment in favor of all the Defendants.

3 10. On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $1,001.86 in costs
4 associated with the service of subpoenas on New Castle County Courthouse, Eidelman Virant
5 Capital Inc., Derek Alderton and Highpoint Associates. See Exhibit 4, Process Service. Service
6 of subpoenas on these non-party persons and entities was necessary to obtain their testimony and 7 documentary evidence.

8 11. On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $11,550.84 for 9 reasonable costs for telecopies and photocopies. See Exhibit 5, Telecopy and Photocopies. The 10 exhibit details the date the copies were made, the number of copies, the cost per copy, and the total 11 cost of copies. Over the course of nearly three years of litigation in this action, defense counsel 12 received documents that needed to be distributed to Defendants, Plaintiff, expert witnesses, and 13 others. The copies were also necessary for the firm's attorneys and support staff to undertake the 14 basic tasks of litigation, and for use as exhibits during depositions.

15 12. On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $887.10 in long 16 distance telephone calls. Exhibit 6, Long Distance Telephone Calls. Such long distance 17 telephone calls were necessary given that multiple Defendants and witnesses live across the 18 country (with one Defendant living abroad), and Plaintiff's and Reading's counsels' offices were 19 in Nevada, as is the Court.

20 13. On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $3,067.34 in 21 reasonable and necessary postage and shipping charges. Exhibit 7, Postage and Shipping. As 22 noted above, several Defendants and other witnesses live across the country (and abroad).
23 Accordingly, in order to keep the Defendants and witnesses apprised of filings and other 24 developments in the case, defense counsel must ship documents via U.S. Post and Federal 25 Express.

26 14. On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $28,111.18 for 27 deposition travel expenses, as set forth in Exhibit 8, Deposition Travel Expenditures. In this 28 matter, there were 49 depositions attributable to Plaintiff's claims. Those depositions took place in various parts of California, as well as in New York, Massachusetts, Missouri, Pennsylvania, and in Northern California. As noted in Paragraph 3 above, these depositions were necessary for the preparation of a defense in this matter. It was necessary that an attorney representing my clients be presented at each deposition, in order to protect their rights, make appropriate objections, and to ask pertinent questions of Plaintiff's witnesses.

6 15. On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $6,612.00 for 7 computerized legal research. Exhibit 9, Computerized Legal Research. Defendants' expenses
8 incurred in legal research, which are expressly authorized in NRS 18.005(17), are reasonable and 9 necessary in light of the complexity of this action.

10 16. On behalf of the Defendants I represented, Reading incurred $71,687.19 for travel
11 and lodging expenses incurred for purposes of appearing at court proceedings, for witness 12 preparation, and for meetings in Nevada among the defense teams. See Exhibit 10. Court 13 related Travel. Such travel was necessary as my own offices are located in California, while both 14 the Court and Reading's counsel's offices are located in Nevada.

19. This Declaration is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

16 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing17 is true and correct.

Executed on August 24, 2018, in Los Angeles, California.
