Respondent Reading International, Inc. (“Reading,” “RDI,” or the “Company”) through its counsel of record, Greenberg Traurig, LLP, respectfully submits the following erratum to its Answering Brief, submitted November 27, 2019.

On page 14, footnote 6 of its Answering Brief, RDI asserted that Appellant Cotter, Jr. had failed to include a specific document in its Appendix. Appellant’s counsel has advised, and counsel below has confirmed, that the document was, in fact, included in the record, filed under seal as JA6530-A. The undersigned had failed to identify the document in question because of having located it in a different portion of the record below (also filed under seal) than that used in the joint appendix, leading to a failure to identify the document in the Table of Contents of the documents filed under seal. Accordingly, RDI asks that Footnote 6 of its Answering Brief in Appeal No. 76981 be stricken and disregarded, or if the Court prefers, for leave to file a corrected brief in its entirety. Counsel apologizes for the error.

Respectfully submitted this 6th day of December 2019.
