Respondents, by and through their counsel of record, hereby move, pursuant to SRCR, Part VII, Rules 3 and 7, for permission to file portions of Respondents' Answering Brief Appendix, Volumes I and II, under seal.

Each of these volumes contains papers or exhibits which the parties designated as "Highly Confidential" and were protected by the district court's order, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1, and should not be made public pursuant to the district court's order.

Because these records are protected by court order, Respondents respectfully request that portions of the Answering Brief Appendix, Volumes I and II, be filed under seal. See SRCR Part VII, Rule 7 ("Court records sealed in the trial court shall be sealed from public access in the Nevada Supreme Court subject to further order of that court.")

Dated this 9th day of December 2019.

5 The Parties jointly submit this Proposed Stipulated Confidentiality and Protective Order,
6 as follows:

7 In order to promote the efficient and expeditious disposition of the above captioned
8 matter, it is hereby stipulated that the following terms shall apply to the Parties' exchange of 9 information in connection with the case:

10 1. Designation of Information.

11 a. Any Party may designate any document, object, file, photograph, video, tangible
12 thing, interrogatory answers, answers to requests for admissions, testimony, or other material 13 portion thereof (collectively, the "Discovery Material") as "Confidential Information" (the 14 "Confidential Information") following a good faith determination that the information so 15 designated is or may reveal trade secrets or matters which are confidential or proprietary under 16 Nevada law or any other law the Court finds applicable. To designate documents, objects or 17 tangible things, a Party shall place the legend "Confidential" on each page of the document, or 18 securely affix the legend to the object or tangible thing. To designate written responses to 19 interrogatories or admissions, a Party shall place the legend "Confidential" on the face of the 20 relevant portions of the responses.

21 If any Discovery Material is disclosed in a form not appropriate for such placing or 22 affixing a legend, it shall be designated in writing by the producing Party as Confidential at the 23 time it is delivered to the receiving Party. The receiving Party shall treat print-outs, derivative

1 data or manipulations of such material in accordance with any designations of Confidential as 2 provided for herein.

3 b. This Proposed Stipulated Confidentiality and Protective Order is entered without 4 prejudice to the right of any person to use any Confidential Information lawfully owned by that
5 person in any manner that he, she or it may deem appropriate, and any disclosure by such person
6 shall not be deemed a waiver of any Party's rights or obligations under this Confidentiality
7 Stipulation and Protective Order.

8 c. Nothing herein shall be construed to restrict any Party's use of information that is 9 lawfully possessed or known prior to disclosure by another Party, or is public knowledge, or is 10 independently developed or lawfully acquired outside of the production and exchange covered 11 by this Confidentiality Stipulation and Protective Order. Nothing contained in this provision or 12 elsewhere in this proposed Stipulated Confidentiality and Protective Order is intended to or shall 13 alter or affect the rights or obligations of any party that exist independent of proposed Stipulated 14 Confidentiality and Protective Order, including but not limited to any claims of confidentiality or 15 privilege any Party may have over documents, data or information currently in the possession of 16 any other Party.

17 2. Deposition Testimony.

18 a. A Party may designate all or any portion of a deposition, including exhibits
19 identified therein, conducted in connection with discovery as "Confidential" on the record of a 20 deposition or by sending, within fourteen (14) days after receiving a copy of the deposition
21 transcript, a written notice to all counsel and to the witness, setting forth the page and line
22 numbers of the portions of the transcript, as well as any exhibits thereto, to be so designated. All 23 Parties shall label the relevant pages of all such designated transcripts in their possession with the appropriate legend. Until such fourteen (14) day time period expires, the entire volume of the transcript and all Exhibits, not previously designated with a legend, shall be treated as Confidential, unless otherwise specified.

b. The producing Party who discloses Confidential Information shall have the right, but is not required, to exclude from attendance at the deposition during such time as the Confidential is to be disclosed, any person other than the deponent and those who are set forth in this Order and who are allowed to have access to such Confidential by the terms of this Order. A Party does not waive any rights under this Order regarding confidentiality if it or he does not exercise its or his rights to exclude persons from attendance at any or all of the deposition.

3. Disclosure of Confidential Information.

Confidential Information shall not be disclosed to anyone other than the attorneys of record in this action, the Court and its personnel, and to the following other persons, but then only for purposes of prosecuting or defending this action and only to the extent reasonably necessary to accomplish such purposes:

i. those attorneys, paralegals and staff of the Parties' attorneys and of the respective law firms of the attorneys who are engaged by each Party in connection with the Lawsuit;

ii. court reporters, stenographers or video operators at depositions, court or arbitral proceedings at which Confidential Information is disclosed;

iii. clerical and data processing personnel involved in the production, reproduction, organizing, filing, coding, cataloging, converting, storing, retrieving, review, and translating of Confidential Information, to the extent reasonably necessary to assist the Parties or their Representatives in connection with the Lawsuit;

iv. in-house counsel for the Parties and those members of their staffs who are engaged in the conduct of this matter;

v. third party experts or independent consultants, who are retained by a Party or counsel for a Party to assist in this action, provided that each is provided with a copy of this Order and that such expert or consultant executes Exhibit A to this Order, agreeing to be bound by this Order:

vi. the Parties, and such officers, directors, and employees of the Parties as outside counsel for the Parties deem necessary to assist in connection with the Lawsuit;

vii. Party-affiliated persons who have been noticed for depositions or trial testimony:

viii. non-party persons, including former employees and individual counsel of said witness, who have been noticed or subpoenaed for depositions or subpoenaed for trial testimony;

ix. any person reflected as an author, addressee, or recipient of the Confidential Information being disclosed or any person to whom counsel for a Party in good faith believes likely received the Confidential Information in the ordinary course of business;

x. any other person designated by the Court, upon such terms as the Court may deem proper;

1 xi. the defendants' insurers and reinsurers, as required in the ordinary course
2 of business, provided that each is provided with a copy of this Order and the insurers and 3 reinsurers execute Exhibit A to this Order, agreeing to be bound by this Order, before the 4 Confidential Information is disclosed to it; and

5 xii. any other person as all Parties may agree to in writing.

7 b. Any person to whom Confidential Information is disclosed pursuant to subparts i.-
8 iv. and vii.-xii. above shall be advised that the Confidential Information is being disclosed
9 pursuant to an order of the Court, that the information may not be disclosed by such person to 10 any person not permitted to have access to the Confidential Information pursuant to this 11 Protective Order, and that any violation of this Protective Order may result in the imposition of 12 such sanctions as the Court deems proper.

13 4. Signature of Order and Consent to Stipulated Confidentiality and Protective 14 Order.

15 Any individual described in paragraph 3(a)(v) and 3(b)(vi) must sign an affidavit in the 16 form attached hereto as Exhibit A prior to receiving any information designated as 17 "Confidential" by a Party other than the Party which has retained the expert or consultant.
18 Counsel of record for the Party that has retained the expert or consultant shall maintain the 19 original of each affidavit signed pursuant to this paragraph, and, with respect to any individual 20 that will be testifying as an expert witness, forward a copy of the affidavit to all other counsel of 21 record within ten (10) days after the individual is identified as a testifying expert witness. The 22 parties agree that they will not disclose Confidential Information to non-party witnesses or 23 consulting experts if the facts available present a good faith basis to believe that the non-party
24 witness or consulting expert would not abide by this Order, or would have a material conflict, or

AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 that the disclosure would otherwise cause irreparable injury. Any Party seeking to prevent the 2 disclosure of Confidential Information to a non-party witness or consulting expert pursuant to 3 the terms of this paragraph bears the burden of proof to demonstrate a material conflict exists,
4 and after a meet and confer on the issue must, within six days after the meet and confer, file a
5 motion with the Court in that regard. No Confidential Information shall be disclosed to the 6 non-party witness or consulting expert until the Court resolves such a motion.

7 5. Pleadings and Other Court Filings.

8 The parties acknowledge that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file
9 Confidential Information under seal. Any party seeking to include Confidential Information
10 in a motion or other pleading or as an exhibit or attachment to a motion or other pleading shall 11 seek to file it under seal pursuant to Rule 3 of the Nevada Rules for Sealing and Redacting Court 12 Records or by any other proper means. The parties agree not to oppose such motions, if the 13 document is properly marked as Confidential Information. If a motion or pleading filed with 14 the Court discloses Confidential Information, such designated portions shall be redacted to the 15 extent necessary to conceal such information in any motion or pleading filed publicly with the 16 Court, pending ruling by the Court on a motion to file it under seal. Unredacted motions or 17 pleadings containing Confidential Information shall be filed under seal, if the Court agrees
18 after proper motion. The parties agree not to oppose such motions, if the document is properly 19 marked as Confidential Information. When a Party, in good faith, determines that it is 20 necessary to bring the specific content of such Confidential Information to the attention of this 21 Court in the body of a motion or other pleading, then it shall file a motion seeking to disclose the 22 Confidential Information to the Court in camera or by such other means as the Court may deem appropriate. Such motion may disclose the general nature, but shall not disclose the substance, of the Confidential Information at issue.

6. Hearings.

If a Party wishes to use Confidential Information at a hearing before this Court or at trial, it shall notify the Court and each of the other Parties to this action of that fact at the time the hearing or trial commences, if and as feasible, and this Court may then take whatever steps it may deem necessary to preserve the confidentiality of said information during the course of and after the hearing or trial.

7. Disputed Designations.

Any Party may object to a "Confidential" designation by serving a written notice of objection on all Parties and any designating third party, specifying with reasonable particularity the material to which objection to the disputed designation is made. The Party or non-party who made such designation shall have ten (10) business days from the receipt of such written notice to conduct a conference with the Party giving written notice to discuss any and all such issues raised in the written notice. Absent a consensual resolution of such issues, the Party (or non-party) making the designation shall have the obligation of filing a motion with the Court in ten (10) business days after the conference or such other time as is agreed in writing. Nothing herein shall alter or affect which Party has the burden of establishing by that motion or opposing it that the Discovery Material is or is not entitled to protection as Confidential Information. Nothing herein abrogates the Parties' obligations to meet and confer prior to bringing any motions. Nothing contained herein, including in this paragraph, is intended to bar or shall have the effect of barring a non-designating Party from seeking relief from the Court with respect to the designation of any Discovery Material as Confidential.

Nothing in this Order shall prohibit a producing Party from designating, or otherwise waive a producing Party's right to designate, in accordance with this Order, any document, object, tangible thing, interrogatory answer, answer to requests for admissions, or deposition testimony as "Confidential" subsequent to its first disclosure or production.

In the event that a Party inadvertently produces two or more identical copies of any Discovery Material with dissimilar designations, once such a discrepancy is discovered, all copies of the Discovery Material shall be treated in accordance with the most restrictive confidentiality designation used for such material.

Nothing in this Order shall require disclosure of any information that a Party contends is protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other legally recognized privilege or immunity. The inadvertent production of any Discovery Material that includes any such privileged information during discovery in this matter shall be without prejudice to any later claim that such material is privileged under the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine or any other legally recognized privilege or immunity, and no Party shall be held to have waived any rights by such inadvertent production. Upon written request by the producing Party, the receiving Party shall (a) return the original and all copies of such Discovery Material containing privileged information, (b) shall destroy the original and all copies of such Discovery Material if they cannot be returned; and (c) shall not use such privileged information for any purpose unless allowed by order of the Court.

11. Disclosure in Other Proceedings.

If any Party is served with a subpoena or other process or discovery request, or is required to fulfill a disclosure obligation, that would require the production or disclosure, for some purpose other than this action, of any Confidential Information received by that Party in this action, the receiving Party shall notify the designating Party as soon as practicable of the subpoena, process or discovery request, or disclosure obligation, and if the designating Party so requests, shall take reasonable steps to permit the designating Party to oppose the subpoena, process, discovery request or disclosure obligation.

12. Termination of Litigation.

This action will be deemed to have terminated when all of the claims asserted by or against the Parties herein have been settled and compromised, or have been finally disposed of by judicial action, and all possible appeals have been exhausted or the time for filing any further appeals has passed. After the termination of this action, within thirty (30) days of a written request by the producing Party, each Party shall either return all Confidential Information to the Party that produced said information, or shall destroy same in a manner agreeable to the Party that produced said information and send a written confirmation to the Party that produced the information confirming that the required destruction has taken place.

13. Modification of this Order.

This Order may be modified by this Court at any time for good cause shown, or pursuant to a written Order by all persons and entities affected by the modification. The entry of this Order shall be without prejudice to the rights of any Party to apply for modification of this Order for additional or different protection where such protection is deemed necessary.

14. Continuing Force and Effect of this Order.

The provisions of this Order shall remain in full force and effect, and shall be binding after the termination of this action. The Court hereby specifically retains jurisdiction to enforce this Order after this action has been terminated.

15. Unauthorized Disclosure of Confidential Information.

If a Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Confidential Information to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designated Party of the unauthorized disclosures; (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Confidential Information; (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized
