IN CONNECTION WITH APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL
MASTER

Hearing Date: February 2, 2018
Hearing Time: 9:00 a.m.

20 Leon Greenberg, an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of 21 Nevada, hereby affirms, under the penalty of perjury, that:

22 1. I have been appointed class counsel in this case. I offer this supplement in 23 connection with the Court's instruction of January 25, 2018 and hearing on February 2, 24 2018 on the appointment of a Special Master.

NOMINATIONS FOR SPECIAL MASTER

25 2. My primary concern as class counsel in this case is that (A) A suitably 26 competent Special Master be appointed and (B) That the Special Master so appointed is 27 able to furnish the contemplated report quickly given the Rule 41(e) time at issue. This 28 case must proceed to trial, or judgment, by August 3, 2018, or 182 days after the

1 February 2, 2018 hearing. Accordingly, I have advised the potential Special Masters I
2 have contacted of a need to furnish the required report in about 45 days, or by 3 approximately March 20, 2018.

4 3. I have located five potential Special Masters who, in my opinion, all seem 5 well qualified for this appointment and have assured me that they can perform the 6 assignment within the time frame I have proposed. Each has submitted a letter of 7 interest or more detailed proposal:

8 Lester J. Levy of JAMS working with the firm of BrownGreer - Ex. "A"

9 Ali Saad, Ph.D., and Resolution Economics of Los Angeles, California - Ex. "B"

10 Craig Streiff, CPA and HSNO of Irvine, California - Ex. "C"

11 George Swarts, CPA, Las Vegas, Nevada - Ex. "D"

12 Michael Rosten, CPA, and Piercy Bowler Taylor & Kern, Las Vegas, Nevada -
13 Ex. "E."

14 4. The Court may wish to take cognisance that Lester J. Levy, Ali Saad or 15 Craig Streiff, and their associated firms, have extensive experience in wage and hour
16 litigation matters; in gathering large amounts of information from "static" record 17 sources such as the trip sheets at issue in this case; and all have advised me they have 18 significant experienced staff available to immediately commence work on this 19 assignment. Both George Swarts and Michael Rosten have assured me that they have 20 carefully reviewed what is involved and are confident of their ability to perform the 21 Special Master appointment and if not presently staffed with sufficient employees to 22 perform the work can readily obtain the necessary staff to do so.

23 PROPOSED ORDER FOR SPECIAL MASTER APPOINTMENT

24 5. At Ex. "F" is a proposed form of Order for the Special Master
25 Appointment. This was delivered to defendants' counsel on January 30, 2018.
26
28

THE TRIP SHEETS AFTER JUNE OF 2014 SHOULD BE REVIEWED

1 6. At the January 25, 2018 hearing defendants’ counsel claimed there is no
2 need to conduct a review of trip sheets for the time period of July 2014 to December 3 31, 2015 because it is “not disputed” that proper minimum wages were paid during that 4 time. This is untrue. All of the trip sheets, through the end of the class period,
5 December 31, 2015, should be reviewed.

6 7. Defendants, in opposing plaintiffs’ motion for partial summary judgment
7 refuse to agree that the “Minimum Wage Subsidy” and “QTY” entries in the 2013-
8 2015 Quickbooks records (those entries only exist for the 2013-2015 period) are an 9 accurate record of the hours worked each pay period. Those entries do not demonstrate 10 any minimum wage violations at $7.25 an hour after June of 2014. Yet defendants 11 insist all of those 2013-2015 entries are not accurate. If defendants agreed those 12 entries were accurate the Court would have to grant plaintiffs’ motion for partial 13 summary judgment for $174,839.

14 8. Plaintiffs have never claimed those 2013-2015 Quickbooks entries are an 15 accurate record of hours worked. Their partial summary judgment motion seeks to 16 bind defendants to their prior deposition testimony about those entries. Defendants
17 now urge the Court to bind the plaintiffs to those entries (plaintiffs never conceding 18 they are accurate) when they absolve defendants of liability after June of 2014 and 19 ignore them when those same entries establish defendants’ liability prior to July of 20 2014.

21 9. In addition, defendants’ expert, Scott Leslie, examined the actual trip
22 sheets for 17 pay periods for the 2013-2015 period. He found that in 15 of those 17
23 pay periods the trip sheets contain more hours worked than those Quickbooks entries, 24 including 5 of the 6 such pay periods he reviewed occurring after June of 2014. This 25 means it should be presumed that for over 85% of the 2013-20125 pay periods those 26 Quickbooks entries understate the hours worked shown on the trip sheets. See Ex. “G” 27 one page excerpt of his report (his Exhibit “6”), relevant information set forth in the

The Special Master should be directed to review all of the trip sheets throughout the entire class period ending on December 31, 2015.

I have read the foregoing and affirm the same is true and correct.

LESTER J. LEVY – SPECIAL MASTER

We appreciate the opportunity to provide this statement of qualifications for Lester Levy to serve as Special Master in Murray v. A Cab Taxi Service, LLC. As the Special Master in this matter, Mr. Levy and his administrative team can provide the following services:

- Receive, process, and catalog electronic or hard-copy files reflecting payroll records, trip sheets, and other relevant documentation.
- Create a secure repository for the electronic storage of all relevant documents, accessible through an online interface.
- Develop criteria for the review of documents to determine time in, time out, break times, and resulting hourly wage, as well as any other analysis required by the Court.
- Create protocols to address documentation anomalies, such as missing data points, illegible records, and other variances that might affect the assessment of each document's contents.
- Swiftly evaluate hundreds of thousands of documents in accordance with defined review protocols and render determinations as to the resulting hourly pay.
- Prepare a full report for the Court and the parties to the litigation outlining the results of the Special Master's review.
- Participate as needed in meetings, telephone conferences, or status conferences scheduled and directed by the Court.

KEY ASSUMPTIONS

We understand the Special Master will be tasked with the evaluation of approximately 300,000 records created by class members during their work for A Cab Taxi Service, LLC. The Special Master will assess the documents in question, analyze the number of working hours recorded in each, compare those hours to electronic payroll records, and determine the hourly wage. Because of the high volume of documents involved, the Special Master would be required to utilize administrative support services in performing this analysis. If selected, Mr. Levy would consult with BrownGreer, PLC, a Richmond, Virginia law firm with substantial experience in the administration of class action, mass tort, and wage and hour programs. After reviewing all relevant documentation, the Special Master will prepare a report for the Court describing his findings. Significantly, the parties and the Court need the Special Master to perform these tasks within 45 days. For reference, we have attached copies of the CVs for both Lester Levy and BrownGreer.

Counsel Comments

"Lester's honest and direct style creates a trusting relationship and open dialogue with attorneys and their clients. He transforms the most complex and emotionally challenging disputes into a process the parties can use to constructively resolve their differences. He quickly identifies the key issues, sets a course of action including a range of possible settlements, then gets it done."

"...There are a lot of people who are not in the courtroom...that ought to be thanked, in particular, Mr. Levy, the special master, who, from my observations...has done an outstanding job shepherding this through, a very lengthy, time-consuming, difficult litigation because of the number of parties; and he simply has done a wonderful job, bringing this to a resolution."

RESULTS DRIVEN CLAIMS ADMINISTRATION

We administer and process claims for settlements arising from class actions, multidistrict litigation, government enforcement proceedings, and other aggregation vehicles. Our court-supervised and voluntary settlement program experience covers a broad range of causes of action involving a wide variety of industries. We blend technology and human resources to provide the most effective, efficient, and accurate claims resolution designs and systems, allowing us to handle any program no matter how large or complex. Our portfolio of work includes many of the largest and most complex programs in history, with our team performing significant administration or review roles in major programs involving over 30 million class members and the disposition of more than $33 billion in payments to qualifying claimants.

The expedited resolution of approximately fifty thousand personal injury claims could not have been achieved without the extraordinary effort and outstanding work put forth by BrownGreer PLC in its role as Claims Administrator.

THE ANSWER TO YOUR LITIGATION MANAGEMENT NEEDS

We are highly skilled in litigation management and support, and have served as the Project Management Office and as Special Master for national litigations. We begin tracking information at the start of litigation, or we can come in midstream to gather data and organize the process. Leveraging our unique experience in centralizing information and data, scheduling, and keeping track of discovery, we developed MDL Centrality as a centralized hub for multiple claim management. MDL Centrality eliminates cumbersome, inefficient, and outdated practices to save all parties time and money.

Fact Sheet Exchange:

Exchange Fact Sheets and supporting documents through a secure online portal instead of by email or mail.

Claim Form Export:

Export data and documents from Fact Sheets to Claim Forms, eliminating the need to spend time and money manually re-entering information already provided.

Docket Central:

Automatically download and store court filings, eliminating the need to spend time and money uploading and distributing documents manually.

Document Repository:

Store documents in a secure, online repository, eliminating the need to pay for and maintain a separate document storage solution.

Harness the Power of Modern Information Management to Save Time and Money

- Stop wasting time completing PDF Fact Sheets and serving them by email. Enter Fact Sheets online in a central database that gives you instant access to reports that aggregate all Fact Sheet responses.
- Stop paying to upload pleadings and orders to a document distribution vendor. Let MDL Centrality automatically harvest pleadings and Orders from ECF Notifications and send automated notification emails to all counsel.
- Stop paying to create and maintain a stand alone document repository. MDL Centrality is a central hub that hosts Fact Sheets, pleadings and Orders, and a document repository.
- Stop manually creating a database of Fact Sheet answers or relying on individual counsel to tell you what their cases look like. MDL Centrality creates an instant, real time database of Fact Sheet responses that you can use to monitor submissions, select bellwether cases, and review Fact Sheet responses for completeness.
- Stop negotiating settlement without a clear understanding of the potential number claims and the type of claimed injuries. The parties can use the data in MDL Centrality to satisfy the Court that a potential settlement is fair and should be approved. Then MDL Centrality can export Fact Sheet data to the settlement program, which will lead to rapid, efficient settlement program.

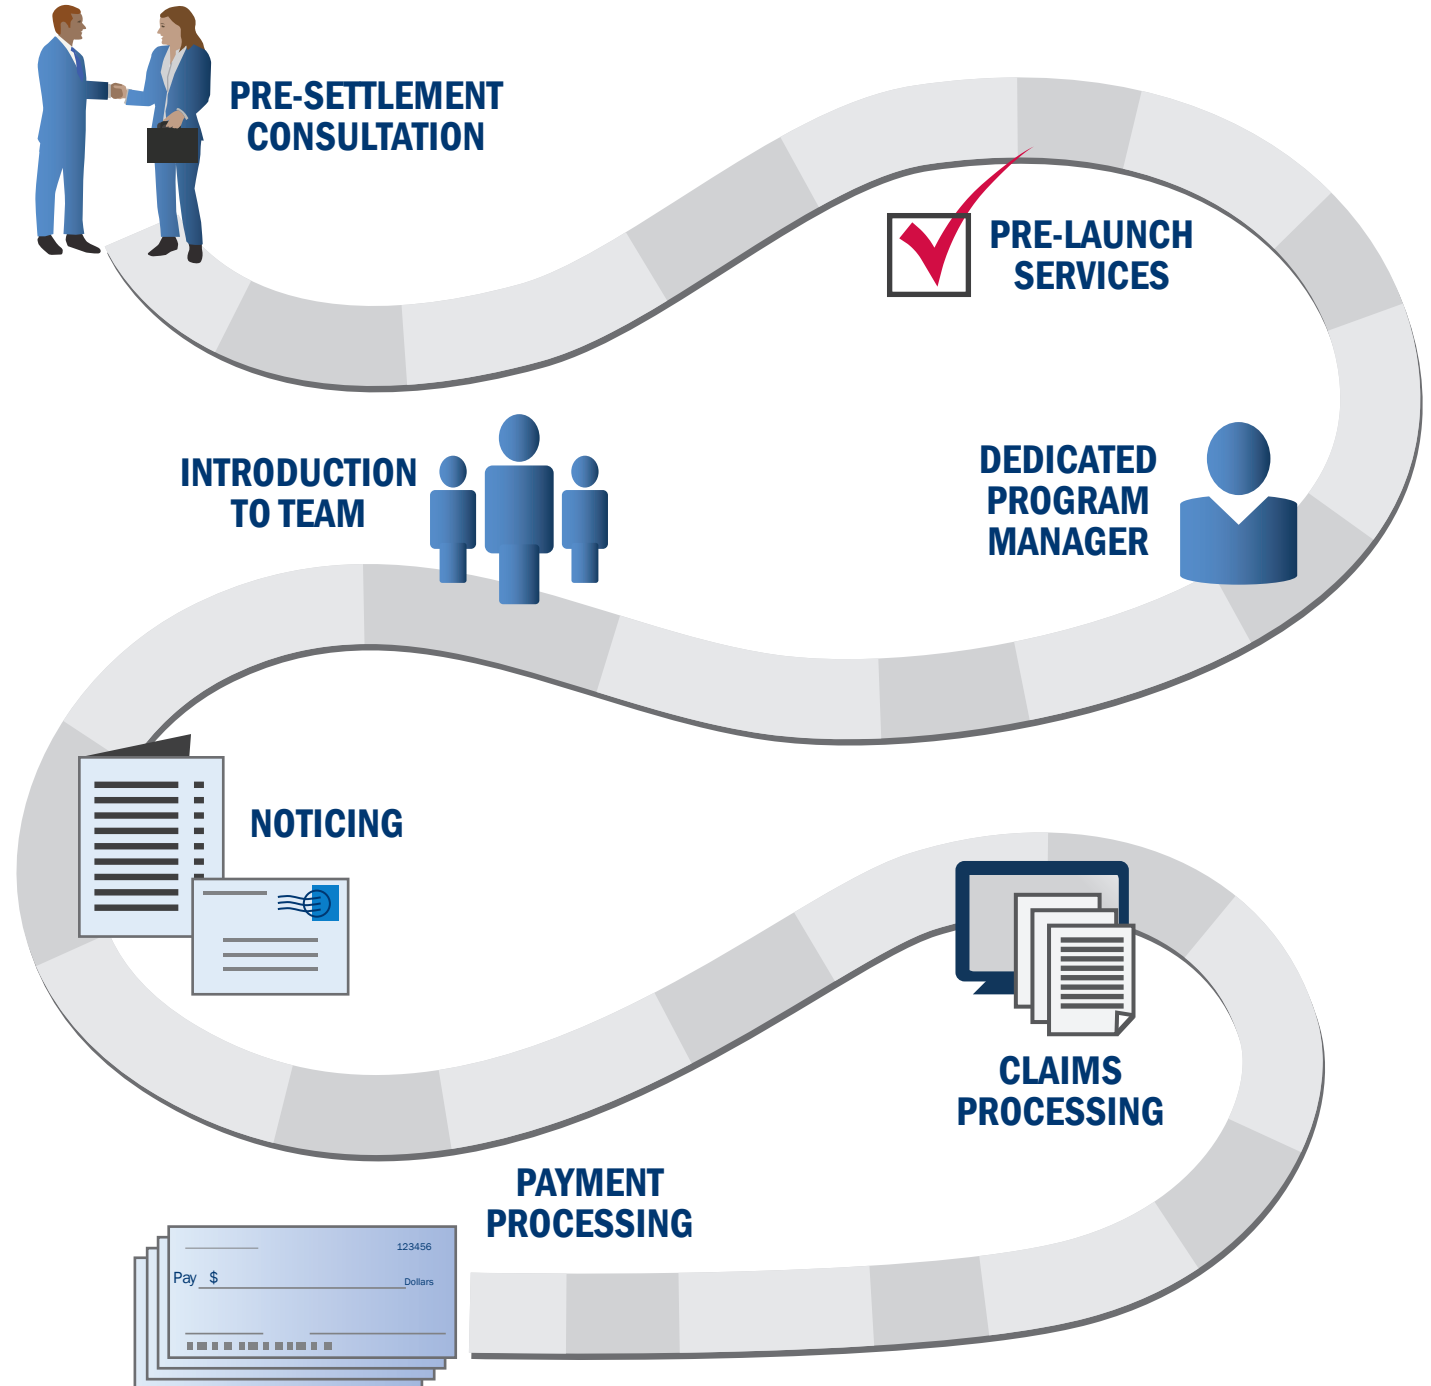

All features of MDL Centrality can be utilized as stand-alone products or combined to meet your unique case requirements.

TAILORED SOLUTIONS

Beginning with pre-settlement consultation services, BrownGreer seeks out opportunities to add value and expertise to your settlement program. Before launching a program, we will review all settlement documents and coordinate with the parties to identify all tasks, deliverables, and deadlines. Your program receives a dedicated program manager that will be at the parties' disposal. Supported by the program team, this dedicated client representative will deliver point of contact continuity and experience, and be an ever-ready resource for receiving any inquiry of any kind.

We readily implement all noticing, claims processing, and payment processing components of each program using cutting edge technology and applying best practices within the legal and software industry that support our services. Throughout the program, we provide immediate access to case data and reports through secure web-based portals, reflecting our commitment to transparency and client-collaborative services.

SETTLEMENT PROGRAM ROADMAP

A WIDE RANGE OF SETTLEMENT EXPERIENCE

BrownGreer supports a broad spectrum of industries, including financial services, pharmaceuticals, medical devices, consumer products, agricultural products, healthcare, retail businesses, and federal, state, and local government. We receive and process claims for settlements arising from class actions, multidistrict litigation, government enforcement proceedings, and other aggregation vehicles. Our court-supervised and voluntary settlement program experience covers causes of action including antitrust, bankruptcy, consumer protection, labor and employment, and products liability. In addition to this experience, we have successfully administered many settlements alleging violations of consumer protection statutes, such as the telephone Consumer Protection Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act, Truth in Lending Act, Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, and Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. The selected matters presented here are just a small sample of our representative notice and settlement administration experience.

Re: Proposal for Special Master Assignment in Murray, et al., v. A Cab Taxi Service LLC

Dear Mr. Greenberg:

Resolution Economics is pleased to provide you and the Court with this proposal. The paragraphs below provide a general description of the wage and hour services we provide, including our work in large scale data entry, a specific breakdown of the proposed work, and an estimate of fees associated with our proposal.

Resolution Economics has provided consulting services and expert testimony in hundreds of class action wage and hour matters. We are probably the leading firm in the country in the analysis of data in wage and hour and employment discrimination cases. In connection with our consulting and litigation work, we are frequently asked to create databases from either handwritten or printed hard copy documents, often consisting of tens or hundreds of thousands of pages. We are also frequently asked to prepare presentations on our findings, calculate exposure or damages for use at mediation, arbitration, or trial. We have previously worked on behalf of the parties or as a neutral expert retained by both parties.

Resolution Economics has significant experience in creating usable databases from voluminous, otherwise unusable paper records. Representative projects include:

- Rowe Entertainment, et al., v. William Morris, et al.: Data entry of relevant information from tens of thousands of hard copy live performance contracts gathered from numerous live concert promotion companies. Also performed extensive analysis of the data.
- Butler, et al., v. Home Depot: Data entry of relevant information from tens of thousands of hard copy employment applications from over 100 stores. Extensive statistical analysis performed on this data.
- Ellis, et al., v. Costco: Data entry of relevant and critical information from tens of thousands of applicant resumes in relation to a gender discrimination in promotions claim
- In re: Burns and Roe: Data entry of over 250,000 work site paper records dealing with asbestos-related health claims

- CRST v. TransAm: Data entry of about 20,000 pages of payroll records in relation to a breach of contract dispute
- Cooke v. Fremont-Rideout Health Group: Data entry of tens of thousands of timecards and patient census records relating to wage and hour claims
- Fogg v. DOJ: Data Entry and then statistical analysis of between 600,000 and 700,000 pages of hard copy employment documents.

Project Overview

1. Data Entry of Time Records

It is our understanding that there are currently approximately 300,000 paper trip sheet time records, containing various information related to the hours and time worked, breaks taken, and trips made by employee taxi drivers. Given the volume of the records, we propose only entering key and critical pieces of information from the trip sheets to be able to perform calculations related to the minimum wage. Based on our understanding of the requirements of the Court, such information would include, but not be limited to: employee name and ID, work start and end times and dates, and break start and end times. We understand there is no need to capture the trip detail, unless required by the Court. In the event that any information on the records would be missing or illegible, a note would be made, and reasonable assumptions based on known information would be applied. A single database would be constructed from these data entered records.

2. Calculation of Damages

If asked to, Resolution Economics could calculate the average hourly earnings based on fares/earnings from a payroll source and the hours database that is created using computerized statistical programming to streamline and automate the process. This programming would not be performed in excel, which is not well suited to such calculations, but either in SAS or STATA, which are code programming languages well suited to the manipulation of large amounts of data, and which also contain powerful analytical tools that could summarize and analyze the data. At the direction of the Court, minimum wage pay shortfalls would be calculated in instances where the average hourly earnings were below the statutory applicable minimum hourly rate. Any assumptions and calculation methodology would be reviewed with the Court to ensure accuracy. A summary spreadsheet containing calculated damages by class member would be provided at the conclusion.

Please see the attached sheet for a summary of the proposed budget in connection with the above projects. Thank you for the opportunity to provide you and the Court with this proposal. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (310) 275-9137.

Very truly yours,

Re: Michael Murry & Michael Reno v A Cab Taxi Service LLC, A Cab LLC & Creighton J. Nady
Special Master Project

Dear: Mr Greenberg

At you request we have reviewed the sample of daily trip sheets you sent over and have reviewed the information about this case that you have provided. As such we would like to submit this proposal to be considered for appointment as the Special Master for this project.

HSNO Background

HSNO is a forensic accounting firm. My office is in Irvine California, but we have multiple offices throughout the United States and London.

With over 40 years of experience, our team of forensic specialists is extremely skilled and knowledgeable in various fields of legal services. In addition, our professionals have a broad range of experience working closely with legal professionals and appearing as expert witnesses.

Our size and focus on forensic accounting makes us uniquely qualified to quickly respond special projects such as this one.

Scope

It is our understanding that this project will involve the computation of the hour worked by individuals in the class from the Daily trip sheets. These trip sheet include the shift start time, shift end time, breaks taken, and additional information regarding the number of fairs and additional information. Following the computation of hours, a comparison computation will be performed to determine if the minimum wages paid are in compliance with minimum wage requirements.

It is our understanding that approximately 300,000 daily trip sheets are available and will be included in the analysis.

Proposal - 100% Analysis

The obvious crux of this project is the extraction of the critical data from the 300,000 trip sheets. We estimate that the input of the critical data will take between 45 and 60 seconds per record and between 3,750 and 5,500 hours for the entire data set. Additional hours will be required for Quality Control to insure the accuracy of the data and analysis of the data following extraction.

HSNO proposes employing a Data Input labor force supervised by existing HSNO staff with years of experience. This combination will insure the integrity of the data set and the computation of minimum wage. We estimate the cost of a 100% verification project with the parameters above could be between $418,000 and $550,000 to completion.

Proposal - Statistical Sampling

True Statistical sampling is very different from just selecting a sample of document and assuming the computed result is representative of the total population. HSNO would propose as an alternative a true statistical sample performed by a statistician and supervised by HSNO. HSNO could then take the resulting data and compute the actual damage with a high level of confidence. A brief description of Statistical sampling is below.

Random sampling is a statistical technique used to make inferences about an entire population, based on information gathered from a subset of the population. Sampling is used in all areas of research when it is impossible or cumbersome to obtain information about each member of a population. The benefit of random sampling methods results from the fact that the information obtained from the random sample is likely to be representative of the population from which it was drawn. According to the theory of probability, if all members of the population have an equal chance of being selected, then it is likely that the resulting sample will be unbiased and representative of the population.

For example, the determination of total hours worked per week, based on a random sample, is expected to agree with the corresponding population value. The theory of probability allows the specification of how far the population values might differ from their sample estimates, and therefore the accuracy of the estimate can be calculated. Statisticians specify the accuracy of estimates in terms of a confidence interval.

A confidence interval has three (3) components: A point estimate giving the best single numeric estimate of the quantity being estimated, a margin of error, and a degree of confidence that the true value of a parameter being estimated is within the confidence interval. Generally, the larger the sample size, the smaller the confidence interval. There is no absolute standard for determining when the confidence interval is small enough. It is up to the user of statistics to evaluate when the accuracy of the confidence is adequate. Frequently, a 95% confidence interval is used, meaning that if the population was repeatedly sampled, 95% of the time the sample would contain the true mean, or average parameter value being sampled. The margin of error can be used to determine the range with in which the parameter value being sampled falls.

For a wage and hour class action case that involves hundreds or thousands of plaintiffs and voluminous data with respect to hours worked and compensation paid, statistical sampling can provide a reasonable estimate of damages while significantly reducing the cost of individually analyzing the time and payroll records of every class member. Sample size can be increased to obtain the confidence interval sought.

Conclusion

Statistical sampling is generally more time efficient and economically feasible for this type of analysis. HSNO is ready and willing to engage in a statistical analysis or a full analysis of the available data. When we have full access to the data set and specifics of the time frame available we will be able to refine our estimate of the cost.

CAREER PROFILE

Mr. Swarts has over thirty years' experience as a tax and financial consultant and expert witness in the real estate, medical, retail and gaming industries in the Las Vegas area. He has also worked as a lobbyist in the Nevada Legislature and represented clients before the Las Vegas City Council and the Clark County Commission. He is enrolled to practice before the Nevada Gaming Commission and Nevada Gaming Control Board. Mr. Swarts has been certified as an expert in Federal District Court, Federal Bankruptcy Court, State of Nevada District Court, and State of Delaware Superior Court. He has also served for over six years as Director and Chairman of the Audit Committee of Primadonna Resorts, Inc., a publicly held corporation.

Mr. Swarts was Partner in charge of the Gaming Industry Practice and Litigation Support for the Las Vegas office of Laventhol & Horwath. Prior to its merger with Laventhol & Horwath in 1982, he was the managing partner of Swarts, Bowler and Gamett, CPA's, a firm founded by Mr. Swarts in 1975. He is an experienced public speaker, and has delivered speeches on the Las Vegas economy and gaming industry in Las Vegas, Atlantic City, Monte Carlo, and Shannon, Ireland. He and his former partner Saul Leonard put on the Laventhol and Horwath Gaming Conference in Las Vegas and Atlantic City during Mr. Swarts' years as a partner in the firm.

In 1988, Mr. Swarts left Laventhol and Horwath and began his practice as George C. Swarts, CPA.

In 1995, Curtis G. Swarts joined the firm as tax partner and the current firm of Swarts & Swarts was formed.

George Swarts practices primarily in litigation support as an expert witness and as a Special Master and Receiver in both State and Federal District Courts. Listed below are cases that Mr. Swarts has worked on.

The Honorable Kenneth Cory
Eighth Judicial District
200 Lewis Avenue
Las Vegas, NV 89155

Dear Judge Cory:

We appreciate the opportunity to submit our proposal to provide services to the court, specifically to determine the daily records and create the per pay period records required by the law. Then, calculate the minimum wages due, as the product of the hours worked and minimum wage in effect, per pay period. The resultant amount will be compared against actual payroll, per applicable payroll period as derived from QuickBooks accounting records, for the purpose of computing any shortfalls in wages paid.

We believe we are the best choice for these services because we are the only Nevada-based firm that truly maintains technical resources and excellence at least on the level of the large national firms while providing superior professional service with a personal touch that only a less bureaucratic firm can achieve.

We have a dedicated forensic accounting team that works regularly with attorneys and judges as court-appointed experts and investigators, creating court-ready reports.

We believe that our detailed response to the request for proposal demonstrates that:

- We have extensive experience in forensic accounting, auditing and data mining
- We are the largest Nevada-owned firm performing audits and advisory services
- We are committed to providing our clients with technical excellence and superior service. Our principals and managers and/or seniors will be onsite throughout the engagement, not just a day or two at the beginning and end.

As you read our proposal, you will see that we have the necessary experience, technical expertise and other resources required for an engagement of this magnitude.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Michael L. Rosten, CPA, CFE, Shareholder

PBTK – The Right Choice

PBTK – THE RIGHT CHOICE FOR TECHNICAL EXCELLENCE AND SUPERIOR SERVICE

“Quality is never an accident; it is always the result of high intention, sincere effort, intelligent direction and skillful execution; it represents the wise choice of several alternatives ...” - Will A. Foster

This is not only our motto, but also the objective of everything we do. We have the experience, technical expertise and other resources typically only found in large national firms, and provide superior service with a personal touch that only a less bureaucratic firm can achieve.

Piercy Bowler Taylor & Kern (referred to herein as “PBTK” or “the Firm”) has offices in Reno, Las Vegas, and Salt Lake City and is the largest Nevada-owned accounting firm in Nevada. Our Las Vegas office is the second largest office of any firm in the Las Vegas area. Currently, we have a staff of approximately 75, including approximately 30 CPAs and approximately 30 auditors.

FIRM QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

Talent, Experience and Technical Resources. Technical excellence and superior service is the objective of everything we do and we back these ideals with talented and experienced professionals. Our goal is to put more knowledge and experience on each assignment than our competitors, unlike most national firms that plan to push tasks to the lowest staff level or smaller firms that have not made adequate investment in resources.

In other words, our business strategy is to be the best with quality assurance processes designed to achieve that result.

Howard B. Levy, our Director of Technical Services, is one example of our investment in technical resources. Mr. Levy co-authored a risk-based audit manual commercially marketed to and used by many firms throughout the United States and elsewhere in the world. He has also served on standard-setting committees of the AICPA and provided technical consulting services to the United States Government Accountability Office (GAO), among others.

Our human resources policies are designed find, hire, and retain the best and the brightest. Periodic performance evaluations of associates through principals, competitive compensation, accelerated advancement for high achievers, matching technical talents and personal characteristics to engagement requirements, and timely continuing professional education and on-the-job training are key elements of these policies.

The primary focuses of our accounting and auditing practice for more than 20 years has been government, not-for-profit, construction, and gaming industries in Nevada and Utah. Prospective clients are screened to ensure that the principals meet our high standards of integrity and business ethics. We believe that the image of our Firm is reflected in the image of our individual clients.

Engagement Scope & Objectives

Based upon the Second Amended and Supplemental Complaint filed August 19, 2015 (“Amended Complaint”), we understand that A Cab Taxi Services, LLC and A Cab, LLC (the “Defendants”) have been accused of not paying the minimum wage required by Nevada’s Constitution, Article 15, Section 16, to persons employed as taxi cab drivers. The Amended Complaint states that there are at least 200 putative class action members.

Defendants have not electronically maintained source data for time and attendance data for the taxi cab drivers, but claim to have retained daily Trip Sheets for each taxi cab driver employed.

The objective of the subject Court-ordered neutral retention will be:

1. Create an electronic database by employee for hours worked, subject to retrieval by:

Employee and Individual Date(s) Worked

2. Based upon the actual hours worked determined from Trip Sheets will multiply by applicable minimum wage in effect for each payroll period, resulting in the minimum wages due.
3. The minimum wage due by employee will then be compared against the actual payroll per period, as maintained in QuickBooks accounting records of the Defendants.
4. Any wage shortfalls will be reported to the Court.

Project Plan

Attorney Leon Greenberg informed us that around 300,000 relevant Trip Sheets were produced by the Defendants, spanning the years 2007-2015 (“Scope Period”). We received and have analyzed sample Trip Sheets, for Michael P. Murray (TA# 24453) and Michael Reno (TA# 17799). Accordingly, we understand that the daily Time Start is contained in the upper right-hand corner of the first page and Time End is contained in the lower right-hand corner of the second page. Ancillary information that may be insightful includes various date/time notations on meter reading details, fuel-up receipts and daily Validated Drop tickets. Further, times for snack, meal and breaks are in the lower right-hand corner of the first page. Due to allegations in the Amended Complaint, we request appropriate guidance on identifying misreporting in those data fields, which is considered important to our efficient and effective extraction of information regarding hours worked. If there is not a mechanism to identify such alleged misreporting, please so state.

A parallel analysis will be performed on the QuickBooks accounting records, resulting in wages by individual per payroll period, for comparison against the minimum wages computed from Trip Sheets.

Minimum wages by individual per payroll period will be determined by multiplying hours worked by the applicable minimum wage; those minimum wages will be compared against actual wages, to determine any shortfalls.

Engagement Approach (in order of priority/timing):

- Obtain a Court-order or Minute-order, authorizing PBTK services on behalf of the Court, which should incorporate the hourly personnel rates outlined elsewhere herein. Our appointment is anticipated to be in accordance with Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 53, which will give us standing with the Court for purposes of this instant dispute.
- Initial Kickoff Meeting with Plaintiff and Defense counsel, to discuss issues and concerns prior to engagement performance. Concurrently, obtain supporting records relevant to our appointment, to include Trip Sheets, lists of cab drivers with cab assignments, QuickBooks accounting database(s) containing wage payment histories by individual. If we determine that there was another third-party payroll service/agent, we will also obtain that information.
- Determination of the individual class members (“Class Members”), which will be our effective control point for assembling a record of hours worked by employee.
- Establish the dates of employment for each Class Member, to establish an initial expectation of tenure within the Scope Period.

NOTE: The previous two procedures may be irrelevant, if, for example, the existing Trip Sheets themselves are the best evidence of employee/cab existence, hours worked and employment tenure.

- A “Beta Test” team, comprised of one or more of the assigned Key Personnel, will be dedicated to design data accumulation worksheets and to test data extraction from Trip Sheets. This process testing phase is considered critical to the larger data management project, to identify and streamline any obstacles to efficient and effective performance of the dedicated Input Team.
- The data input template generated by our “Beta Test” team will be circulated among counsel and the Court, to illicit suggestions and comments, which we will consider in our neutral role.
- From each Trip Sheet, we will extract the following data [See sample for Michael Reno, attached]:
 - Taxi cab driver name.
 - Taxi cab driver number (TA#).
 - Start Time, with hour and minutes (e.g., 01:15 or 12 hours later 13:15). Although the Start Time contains seconds, since they are omitted from End Time, that variable becomes meaningless. Further, timing under one minute will likely lack significance.
 - End Time, with hour and minutes (e.g., 08:15 or 20:15).
 - Breaks taken in hours, to be the aggregate of Breaks, Snack and Meals. These will be individually entered within one worksheet cell (e.g., for break, meal, break: Sum of 1.0 + 0.5 + 0.5, which would result in 2.0).

- If there is illegible or otherwise corrupted time-stamping, we will look for other alternative times, within that Trip Sheet or perhaps filed with the immediately prior or subsequent one. For example, Taxipass Voucher(s) and Totals, Meter Time. It should be noted that one of the samples provided to us (A CAB 01471) is for Cab #1323 on October 8, 2010; however, the meter details is for cab # 2323, a possible mismatch in filing of data (#1323 v. #2323). Circumstances such as this will require the investment of unanticipated/unbudgeted problem resolution time. See highlighting, on attached sample.
 - For any anomalies, illegibility or suspected records/data exceptions, we will devise and use a Coded System, which will be contained in its own separate field.
- We will attempt to resolve anomalies and data exceptions by inquiry of counsel, which will be on a joint basis. For example, the previous apparent mismatch between Cab #1323, filed with meter details that appear to be for Cab #2323, which may simply be the result of a filing error.
 - Each member of the Input Team will have a dedicated computer for utilization on the project, including read/write access to a centralized file location on our internal Computer Network.
 - Periodic data input control checks will be cross-performed by the Input Team, amongst themselves, on a routine basis.
 - A master file will house the input data, only accessible by Key Personnel. Data will be incorporated into this master file, only after quality control checks and analyses have been performed. For example, direct tracing of data input back to source PDF. Also, overall analytics for individual taxi cab drivers, total hours per day, total hours per week, etc.
 - Multiple archived iterations of the master file will be maintained, to protect and preserve the input of data. This will follow a three stage backup process with three full time-phased backups being available at any point-in-time, performed no less frequently than daily. This will be in addition to our routine ongoing Network backup processes.
 - Once an hours-worked database has been created, those hours worked will be extended at the applicable minimum wage in effect, resulting in a computed minimum wage due per employee.
 - A separate database of actual employee wages paid by payroll period will be developed from QuickBooks or third-party payer accounting records, concurrent with our analysis and extraction of Trip Sheets.
 - For determining possible wage shortfalls by employee per period, actual wages paid per payroll period will be compared against the minimum wages computed by PBTK. We plan to consider all categories or pay for the exercise, with the exception of tips.

Budget Considerations

Ultimately, the budget is a result of two variables, time required to perform project procedures and the hourly rate charged. We have structured an engagement team with three components:

1. Management and Quality Control, front-line and overall
2. Input Team
3. QuickBooks Analysis Team

We have estimated the budget under two scenarios, the lower with an estimated total cost of approximately $105,000 (Scenario One); the second with an estimated total cost of approximately $220,000 (Scenario Two).

Scenario One. This budget estimate is based upon 15 seconds per Trip Sheet for data extraction, which correlates into 240 Trip Sheets per hour. Reserving approximately 20% for management, administration and quality control, plus an additional effort for determining actual wages paid, we have budgeted as follows:

- Management/Administration/Quality Control: 100 hours @ $250/Hr. = $ 25,000
 - Front-line Administration/Quality Control: 100 hours @ $130/Hr. = $ 13,000
 - QuickBooks Analysis Team: 100 hours @ $130/Hr. = $ 13,000
 - Input Team, staffing of around five individuals: 1,050 hours @ $50/Hr. = $ 52,500
- | | |
| TOTAL | $103,500 |

Scenario Two. This budget estimate is based upon 45 seconds per Trip Sheet for data extraction, which correlates into 80 Trip Sheets per hour. Reserving approximately 20% for management, administration and quality control, plus an additional effort for determining actual wages paid, we have budgeted as follows:

- Management/Administration/Quality Control: 150 hours @ $250/Hr. = $ 37,500
 - Front-line Administration/Quality Control: 300 hours @ $130/Hr. = $ 39,000
 - QuickBooks Analysis Team: 100 hours @ $130/Hr. = $ 13,000
 - Input Team, staffing of seven to ten individuals: 2,600 hours @ $50/Hr. = $ 130,000
- | | |
|-------|-------------------|
| TOTAL | $ 219,500 |

Realistically, the actual budget will likely fall between these two estimates, quite possibly at the mid-point of $160,000. The efficiency and effectiveness of the Input Team will be evaluated on a continuous basis, with necessary staffing modifications implemented immediately on an as-needed basis.

Deliverables

At the conclusion of our process, we will prepare a schedule of total hours worked for all class participants combined over the years 2007-2015 and hours worked by individual class participant over that timeframe. Those hours worked, as summarized from the Trip Sheets, will be extended at the applicable minimum wage. The resulting minimum wage will be compared to actual wages paid, to determine whether each employee received a minimum wage per payroll period. For those with indicated wage shortfalls, we will so identify in the master minimum wage shortfall database, which will be reported by us as total wage shortfall by employee, along with shortfall details by payroll period.

We anticipate issuing a Draft Report, for comment, directly to each of the attorneys, Attorney Greenberg for Plaintiffs and Attorney Rodriguez for Defendants (the "Attorneys"). A one-week comment period is planned; this will be extremely tight, but is designed to fit within the 45-day period of performance for this effort, which we understand has been imposed by the Judge.

Final results will electronically be filed directly with the Court, with a courtesy copy emailed directly to the Attorneys. We will support any further information needs of the Court or the Attorneys on a specific request basis. For example, daily, weekly, monthly or yearly hours worked. As mentioned previously, the second field for Start Time will be omitted from data extraction, which the transmittal letter will so specify.

Retention Terms

Standard terms of our typical engagement letters should be incorporated into the Court Order for our retention as Special Master:

- Our services will be performed in accordance with the standards for consulting services established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). Among other things, those standards require that we complete our assignments with integrity and objectivity. As defined in the AICPA's Code of Professional Conduct, objectivity is "a state of mind, a quality that lends value to a member's services. The principle of objectivity imposes the obligation to be impartial, intellectually honest, and free of conflicts of interest."
- Consulting services are intended only to assist management in meeting its operational, financial oversight, or other objectives, not to make significant management decisions or to perform other significant management functions directly. In other words, our services will be limited to information gathering and communication, advice and recommendations for you and your staff's consideration and possible acceptance and implementation. We will not accept responsibility for such management decisions or functions.
- An advance retainer of $25,000 will be required for this matter, payable upon engagement, to be applied against our final bill for the contracted services. Fees will be billed, together with out-of-pocket expenses, twice monthly as the work progresses, and our invoices will be payable upon presentation. Our invoices will be sent directly to the Defendant with a courtesy copy provided to the Court. Payment will be required within two weeks of invoicing; it is understood and agreed that failure to pay our invoices within two weeks may result in discontinuance of our services, particularly if the advance retainer is exceeded by the cumulative funds received, including the $25,000 advance retainer.

- We do not warrant or predict the development or outcome of this matter, and it is agreed that our fees and the payment of our invoices for this engagement are not to be contingent upon such outcome.
- We are not presently aware of any relationships or circumstances that we believe might be construed as a conflict of interest, but agree to advise you accordingly should any arise. However, our acceptance of this engagement shall be subject to the completion of our normal conflicts of interest search procedures and the satisfactory resolution of any possible conflicts identified as a result thereof. In the unlikely event that a potential conflict of interest or other issue arises, which in our judgment affects our ability to provide these services in accordance with applicable ethical or other professional standards, we may be required to suspend our services until a satisfactory resolution can be achieved. Should we terminate our services and resign from the engagement, it is understood and agreed that any professional fees incurred through such termination would be due and payable.
- All workpapers, documents and electronic files prepared or accumulated by us in support of our reports will remain our property at all times and will be retained by us for a limited time in accordance with our normal records retention policies and practices after which they will no longer be available. Management is responsible to maintain its own records in support of financial statements. Accordingly, we will not be responsible to the Company for loss or damage to our workpapers as a result of catastrophic events or physical deterioration. Original documents and other records provided to us in connection with our engagement will be returned as soon as practical following its conclusion.
- We will be subject to working with the data provided to us by counsel for the Plaintiff and Defendant. While we will attempt to assess the data provided for consistency and omissions, this engagement should not be considered a financial forensic investigation. Accordingly, the Court grants Michael Rosten and Piercy Bowler Taylor & Kern quasi-judicial immunity for purposes of performing those procedures specified by or arising from duties under this Court Order to Appoint Special Master in accordance with NRCP 53, for the A Cab minimum wage class-action labor dispute.

20 On January 25, 2018, with all the parties appearing before the Court by their 21 respective counsel as noted in the record, the Court granted plaintiffs' motion for
22 rehearing of plaintiffs' prior request to appoint a special master pursuant to Nev. R.
23 Civ. P. 53, such request being made as part of Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification
24 originally filed on May 19, 2015. Such request was originally denied by the Court in 25 its Order entered on February 10, 2016. In revisiting that prior order and entertaining
26 the argument of counsel for the parties at a continued hearing held on February 2,
27 2018, the Court hereby finds:

28 The parties do not dispute that the wages paid the class members every pay

1 period are accurately set forth in the preserved Quickbooks records of defendant A-
2 Cab. The parties cannot, at this time, present to the Court any agreed upon record of 3 the total hours worked during each of those pay periods by each class member.
4 Plaintiffs have maintained throughout this litigation that defendants failed to keep a
5 record of the total hours worked by each of the class members per pay period as 6 required under NRS 608.115. NRS 608.115 requires an employer to “establish and 7 maintain records of wages for the benefit of his or her employees, showing for each
8 pay period.....[t]otal hours employed in the pay period by noting the number of hours
9 per day.” Defendants have maintained that the only way to determine the hours
10 worked by the plaintiffs and the class members is to consult the tripsheets. Defendants 11 assert that those tripsheets set forth an accurate record of the amount of time that the 12 plaintiffs and the class members worked. Yet those tripsheets do not show the “total 13 hours employed in the pay period.” They record the time of day a taxicab driver started 14 their shift, the time of day they ended that shift, and the amount of non-working break 15 time that occurred during the shift.

16 In light of the above, the Court finds that the appointment of a Special Master is 17 the appropriate solution to determine the hours worked each pay period by each class
18 member and the amount of minimum wages, if any, that each one is owed based upon
19 A Cab’s records. The Special Master is being appointed to report on the hours
20 worked, and the wages paid, as documented in A Cab’s admittedly accurate records; to 21 what extent that information in those records demonstrates wages of less than the 22 minimum wage (that “lower tier” rate is $7.25 an hour since July 1, 2010) were paid
23 during any pay periods; and the amount of any such minimum wage deficiencies for 24 each class member.

25 The Court finds such a Special Master appointment pursuant to NRCP Rule 26 53(b) is appropriate in respect to the class members’ claims that are established by the 27 records the Special Master will review. Such claims will not require any determination
28 by a jury and must be determined as a matter of law based upon those records. The

1 Court also finds that such a Special Master appointment is appropriate under NRC
2 Rule 53(b) as the resolution of the class members' claims present complicated issues.
3 Whether minimum wages are owed for any particular pay period is quite simple when
4 the relevant information (hours worked and wages paid) is known. But in this case that
5 information must be gathered from over 200,000 trip sheets, a complex process.
6 Similarly, performing that calculation on many thousands of pay periods for 7 approximately 1,000 class members is also complicated and laborious.

8 The Court also finds a compelling imperative in so appointing a Special Master, 9 at defendants' expense, to perform this task is found in the Nevada Constitution, which 10 provides for the most stringent protections for Nevada's employees to ensure they are 11 paid the required minimum wage. It also directs this Court to grant all relief available
12 to effectuate its purpose of securing the payment of minimum wages owed to Nevada
13 employees. Therefore,

14 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that is
15 appointed Special Master in this case by the Court. The purpose of such Special
16 Master appointment is to determine for each class member, based upon the hours of 17 work set forth in their trip sheets for each pay period, and the wages they were paid in 18 each such pay period as set forth in A Cab's Quickbooks records, the unpaid minimum
19 wages they are owed by A Cab pursuant to Article 15, Section 16, of Nevada's
20 Constitution (the "MWA") under the "lower tier" or "health insurance provided"
21 minimum wage rate. That determination is to be made for all class members for all pay
22 periods falling entirely within the class period of October 8, 2010 through December
23 31, 2015. That determination is also to be made for those class members who were
24 granted a statute of limitations toll pursuant to this Court's Order entered on June 7,
25 2017 for all pay periods occurring entirely after the statute of limitations toll date listed
26 for them in Ex. "A" of that Order and prior to December 31, 2015. In determining the 27 hours of work shown by a trip sheet, the Special Master shall accept as correct the 28 characterization of time as "breaks" or "meals" or non-working time in the trips sheet

1 as accurate and subtract all such time from the interval between the start and end time
2 for the shift as recorded on the trip sheet. In determining all wages paid to a class
3 member during a pay period the Special Master shall include all items of taxable
4 income paid by A Cab to the class member during the pay period as recorded in A
5 Cab's Quickbooks records but shall not include any amounts identified as "Tips" or 6 "Tips Supplemental." A Cab shall, forthwith, provide the Special Master all records
7 necessary for the performance of its appointment and as the Special Master requests.
8 The first meeting of the parties and the Special Master directed by NRCP 53(d)(1) is 9 dispensed with. The Special Master shall deliver the report of their findings to the 10 Court and the parties no later than

11 The report so furnished shall state the total amount so owed, if any, for each 12 class member; the amount of hours each class member was found to have worked each 13 pay period for A Cab; and the amount of wages within the meaning of the MWA they 14 were paid each pay period by A Cab. The report shall also indicate every pay period
15 for every class member that the Special Master finds the records reviewed contained 16 incomplete or not fully legible information and for which no determination on whether 17 proper minimum wages were paid could be made.

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the costs of the Special Master shall be borne
19 by the defendant A Cab who shall, within _____ days of the entry of this Order
20 deposit with the Special Master the amount of _____ for their services;

21 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the Court will not be entertaining a motion for 22 reconsideration of this order by the defendants;

23 IT IS SO ORDERED.

18 Defendants.

20 ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR BIFURCATION AND/OR TO LIMIT

21 ISSUES FOR TRIAL PER NRCP 42 (b)

22 Plaintiffs' Motion for Bifurcation and/or to Limit Issues for Trial per NRCP 42(b) came on 23 for hearing before this Court on the Chambers Calendar on December 7, 2017. Oral argument was 24 not entertained but the parties were represented in their briefings to the Court. Plaintiffs were 25 represented by their attorneys, Leon Greenberg and Dana Sniegocki of Leon Greenberg 26 Professional Corporation. Defendants were represented by their attorneys, Esther C. Rodriguez of 27 Rodriguez Law Offices, P.C., and Michael K. Wall of Hutchison & Steffen, LLC.

28 . . .

1 Having considered the pleadings and motion papers on file herein, the Court DENIES 2 Plaintiffs' Motion for Bifurcation and/or to Limit Issues for Trial per NRC 42(b), except to the 3 extent that Plaintiffs seek to admit evidence of damages by representative sampling, pattern or 4 practice evidence, or other approximation.

5 Pursuant to the minute order distributed December 21, 2017, the Court finds the following:
6 NRS 608.115 requires, in relevant part, that employers keep records of its employee's wages and 7 hours worked for each pay period. NRS 608.115. Plaintiffs argue that because Defendants failed to 8 keep these records, and because employees do not have the records nor a duty to keep the records,
9 Plaintiffs should be allowed to present evidence of the employees' average hours worked per shift.
10 Defendants argue that it kept records of the actual hours its employees worked in the form of 11 handwritten tripsheets; and that evidence of approximation is inadmissible in lieu of the precise 12 data.

13 The Court further finds that Defendants' tripsheets document the hours each of its 14 employees worked during any given shift. Because the tripsheets are handwritten physical 15 documents, compiling data from the records requires litigants to undertake the task of locating and 16 compiling each employee's several tripsheets for each of the thousands of pay periods in question.
17 NRS 608.115 does not specify a particular medium in which employers must keep the records;
18 however, an employer cannot avoid liability under Nevada's Minimum Wage Act by keeping 19 records in a form that makes it virtually impossible for litigants to challenge the sufficiency of 20 compensation paid. NRS 608.115 requires that employers keep a record of its employees' hours
21 per pay period; the Court finds Defendants' trip sheets do not do so. In this case, an approximation 22 would provide a reasonably expeditious means of calculating and allocating damages, whereas an 23 individual calculation for each class member would impose impossible burdens on the litigants.
24 See Bell v. Farmers Ins. Exch., 115 Cal.App. 4th 715, 753 (2004).

25 Defendants understandably argue the disadvantages of such approximation evidence, and 26 we acknowledge that such an approach necessarily yields an average figure that will overestimate 27 or underestimate the right to relief of individual employees. See Id. We have weighed the 28 disadvantages of such evidence against the opportunity to vindicate an important constitutional

1 mandate in a manner that does not impose an undue burden on the court or the litigants. See Id.
2 Like under-compensation cases that employees have brought under the Fair Labor Standards Act,
3 calculation of damages on an individualized basis in this case would be impracticable and would
4 undermine the purpose and utility of class actions. See Smith v. Lowe's Home Centers, Inc., 236
5 F.R.D. 354, 357 (S.D. Ohio 2006).

6 For the foregoing reasons, and for other reasons argued by the Plaintiffs, the Court
7 ORDERS the following:

8 Plaintiff may present at trial evidence of approximate damages so long as he makes an 9 ultimate approximation (not merely advances a model by which damages could be approximated),
10 so long as there is a sufficient basis from which a reasonable inference of damages could be drawn,
11 and so long as the evidence is otherwise admissible. Defendant may counter by advancing 12 evidence of its employees precise shift length, by advancing its own approximation and 13 demonstrating its superior accuracy, or by advancing other evidence that would tend to negate the 14 reasonableness of the inference to be drawn from Plaintiff's evidence. See Anderson v. Mt.
15 Clemens Pottery Co., 328 U.S. 680, 688 (1946).

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2018, 10:15 A.M.

* * * * *

THE COURT: Good morning again.

MR. GREENBERG: Good morning.

THE COURT: We should let our record reflect that while we were waiting for some technical difficulties to be resolved with our JAVS system, I met with counsel in chambers and discussed informally the matters that were to be resolved today in preparation of entering the final order that will appoint a special master. We've had a wide-ranging discussion about a number of things. I think that it's appropriate for each side, if they wish to, to make any record of what we said in chambers. Other than that, I anticipate just going right back through the same things that we talked about but on the record this time, and hopefully having discussed it somewhat informally we'll be able to quickly get through the things that -- and resolve the things that remain to be resolved in order for the Court to enter an order.

We talked about -- well, let me just ask counsel, does either side feel a need to make a record of things that were discussed in chambers? If so, I'm happy to have you do so.

MS. RODRIGUEZ: I do, Your Honor. Thank you. Esther Rodriguez for the defendants. Just to make sure that my objection is clear about the proposed order, I would like an opportunity to submit revisions to the Court before you sign this. But the primary objection is that the last time we were before the Court, the Court made a determination that the only accurate method to determine hours for the class and for the class period was a review -- an actual review of the trip sheets by a special master. I would like to remind the Court that that has been the position

1 of the defendants for five years. That's always been the position, that the trip sheets
2 are the source document in which hours can be determined. You need hours to 3 determine -- plaintiff needs hours to determine damages and thus to determine any 4 type of liability and we've always stated that.

5 So the proposed order, however, is going far beyond what the Court
6 instructed us last week because it is asking the special master to not only calculate 7 hours but to calculate the pay that each driver was looking at and then to calculate 8 any underpayment of the violation of minimum wage. So basically we're asking the 9 special master to do what the plaintiffs should have done all along. They've never 10 done that.

11 I just want to renew my motion to the Court that summary judgment is 12 appropriate because it was plaintiffs who chose a different methodology, which the 13 Court has now determined was not appropriate. The actual review of the trip sheets
14 was necessary. I believe that they have failed to meet their burden of proof. We're 15 far past the close of discovery. We're on the eve of what was supposed to be trial.
16 And now we're in a do-over position to allow the plaintiffs at the defendants'
17 expense to now basically work up their case.

18 So that's my standing objection to Your Honor's order, but I think that 19 the order needs to -- if the Court chooses to proceed, we need to look at what you
20 instructed us last week, which is the calculation of the hours; limit it to that. As far 21 as the time period that we're discussing, the 2014 to 2015, I represented to the 22 Court that based on the plaintiff's numbers and our review again, any liability for 23 July 2014 through December 2015 is going to be very, very minimal. We calculated 24 it out to be, based on just rounding up or rounding down, it's going to be about

1 $100 for the entirety of the class for that period. We don't believe that that's a 2 cost-effective review of trip sheets. But I just wanted to have that objection on the 3 record, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: So instead of reviewing the trip sheets for that period, what 5 would you suggest?

6 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I suppose I can make an offer of judgment for $100
7 from 2014 to 2015. But, you know, we discussed this, Your Honor. I'm not going 8 to change the defendants' position that it's only by an accurate review of the trip 9 sheets themselves -- a review of the trip sheets themselves that any liability can 10 be established.

11 THE COURT: Uh-huh. I made some general statements about why the 12 Court felt that ultimately it has turned out that the plaintiff's motion in 2015 to appoint 13 a special master may be not only the best way to resolve this dispute, but it may be 14 the only way. And I indicated that the reason that I would agree that it should be the 15 defendants who bear the burden of this, the cost of this is because they have not 16 provided the record-keeping. They have not provided the items which the statute 17 requires them to provide.

18 If we look at NRS 608.115, Records of Wages, it clearly requires an 19 employer to maintain records showing for each pay period the following information:
20 the gross wage, services, food, deductions -- and that's where a lot of these 21 categories of things come out -- tips, as well as tip supplement and other things.
22 And then the net cash paid to the employee and the total hours employed in the 23 pay period by noting the number of hours per day, as well as give the date of 24 payment.

1 It is both the gross wage, the net cash paid, as well as the total hours
2 employed which is at issue in this case. And I cannot determine that there is any 3 other rational or reasonable way to arrive at, first of all, the resolution of the question
4 of liability. Were they underpaid or not requires calculations based on these things.
5 And for that reason I do not view the plaintiffs' proposal as going way beyond what 6 the Court had ordered. I think that if there was agreement that the QuickBooks,
7 which I believe cover '14 and '15, correct, 2014 and '15, if they clearly depicted 8 the things that are required in this statute, then there would be no need to do an 9 analysis of the underlying trip sheets. That would mean they would have to reflect 10 the gross wage and the net cash wage or salary paid to each employee for each 11 pay period.

12 If there is not agreement that the QuickBooks reflect that in a way that 13 allows a person to figure out whether they were underpaid or not, then I think that 14 we have to go to the trip sheets. If the defendant, on the other hand, agrees that 15 the QuickBooks reflect in some clear fashion these numbers -- and I guess we're 16 talking mostly about the net cash paid, right? That's the -- is that the operative 17 number we're dealing with?

18 MR. GREENBERG: If you're using that term simply to exclude everything
19 paid except the tips, then that would be correct, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Yeah.

21 MR. GREENBERG: Because the tips aren't really paid by the employer, 22 but they are taxable --

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. GREENBERG: -- so the employer has to report them to the IRS.

1 THE COURT: So if there's agreement that the QuickBooks readily reflect
2 that number, then I would agree, Ms. Rosenberg, (sic) that the -- what did I say,
3 Rosenberg? -- Ms. Rodriguez, I would agree that we don't need to do the underlying 4 trip sheets for that. But if I'm understanding, you do not agree that those numbers
5 can be taken.

6 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I think we discussed that in chambers, Your Honor.
7 Well, two things. Let me try to respond. I will pull actual pay stubs and QuickBooks
8 data because I believe that that figure is there and I'll submit that to the Court with 9 copies to Mr. Greenberg if it's readily available, which I think it is. And also, I think 10 we discussed that Plan B was that if Mr. Greenberg already has a spreadsheet, 11 which he indicated he has already calculated that by itself without any other factors
12 taken into consideration, we may be able to reach a stipulation on that as well.
13 So I don't think that ultimately that's going to be a number that we have to have 14 a third party go back and re-calculate. I do believe it is readily available from one 15 of those two sources.

16 THE COURT: All right. I hope that that is the case. Then what I would 17 expect is that counsel would get together today and resolve that question of whether 18 or not the special master needs to go through the trip sheets for that time period
19 or whether it is a readily ascertainable number in the QuickBooks.

20 MR. GREENBERG: Your Honor --

21 THE COURT: Yes?

22 MR. GREENBERG: -- there's some confusion going on here. The QuickBooks 23 data has the pay information for the entire pay period -- the entire time period we're 24 dealing with, all the way back to 2007.

1 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

2 MR. GREENBERG: However, for the 2013 to 2015 period, those last three 3 years, it also purports to contain hours worked information.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. GREENBERG: Now, plaintiff moved for partial summary judgment
6 based on a combination of that information, --

7 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

8 MR. GREENBERG: -- the wage information in the QuickBooks and the hours 9 information in the QuickBooks from 2013 to 2015. We have never agreed that those 10 hours of work information in the QuickBooks are in fact accurate. The trip sheets --
11 the evidence we have, and this was in the supplement I gave Your Honor, is that 12 the trip sheets will actually show more hours of work information. The QuickBooks
13 hours of work information for that three year period is understated. But nonetheless, 14 because defendants relied on that and have represented them as accurate in this 15 proceeding, we believe we're entitled to partial summary judgment based on those 16 hours. When you look at that three year period in the QuickBooks, starting in July of 17 2014 you're not going to see any violation for minimum wage purposes because the 18 violation that's there prior to then has to do with the tip credit; the fact that internally 19 they were applying the tips against their minimum wage obligation.

20 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

21 MR. GREENBERG: But we have never conceded that there's nothing owed
22 after July of 2014 and we are confident that if you go and examine the trip sheets 23 you're going to find a great deal more hours that the drivers worked than is in the 24 QuickBooks records, which means that there is going to be a minimum wage liability

1 that we haven't yet calculated. And you can't calculate from the face of the 2 QuickBooks records because the QuickBooks' hours for that period just aren't 3 accurate, Your Honor.

4 So there's nothing for us to discuss about that. Your Honor has 5 already made the finding that the appropriate thing to do here is to go to the trip 6 sheets and get the hours out of the trip sheets for the pay periods, since the 7 employer did not keep those records. They didn't keep them accurately, either,
8 in respect to the 2013 to 2015 period. This is demonstrated by their own expert 9 who actually reviewed a bunch of the trip sheets --

10 THE COURT: Yeah.

11 MR. GREENBERG: -- for that period, and I included that in my supplement.
12 So there's no reason to limit the chronology of the trip sheet review, Your Honor.
13 The trip sheets should be reviewed. The special master should report on the 14 findings as to pay period hours that are found.

15 In respect to arriving at an understanding as to what each driver was 16 paid each pay period, absolutely I will work with defense counsel to review what 17 I've already provided to them. And if we can agree that the spreadsheets provided 18 accurately set forth the total gross wages for each driver for each pay period, then 19 the special master doesn't need to calculate that amount from the QuickBooks 20 data.

21 THE COURT: So in that event, if there is that agreement, the special master 22 would need to calculate only the hours?

23 MR. GREENBERG: They would need to calculate the hours to go with each
24 of those pay periods, Your Honor. We would know what each pay period is in terms

1 of what they were paid and what the hours were. I would request that the special
2 master at that point simply determine the deficiencies at the 7.25 an hour rate
3 because it's as a matter of law at that point. There's no reason we should then 4 be coming before Your Honor and arguing over 25,000 lines in an Excel file as to 5 whether those are in fact correct or not. I mean, defendants have not conceded
6 anything in terms of what we've presented to the Court so far in connection with the 7 partial summary judgment motion. It's a simple arithmetical calculation, Your Honor.
8 It should be entrusted to the special master to perform and it will essentially cost 9 him nothing to do.

10 And as a matter of law if you pay the individual $100 and you work 11 him 100 hours, it's only $1 an hour, so you owe him another 6.25 to make up to 12 7.25 an hour. There is no reason that we should be leaving this as an unresolved 13 issue within the scope of the special master's work. The special master should 14 ascertain the hours, he should have the amount paid every pay period, which is 15 what is required under the statute the defendants were supposed to keep. He 16 should either get that from the agreement of the parties, or if necessary he'll go to 17 the original QuickBooks data and figure out the gross amount paid each pay period
18 and then tell us what the deficiency is at the 7.25 an hour rate, if any, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: So the plaintiff would have no problem proceeding ahead
20 with the special master on that basis, with the understanding that if for some reason
21 the -- and how this would happen, I don't know, but if it turned out that the plaintiff
22 did not prevail as to the hours worked issue, whether the QuickBooks were accurate
23 or not, then at the end of the day whenever judgment time comes around, plaintiff 24 could be required to pay for that portion of the special master's work.

1 MR. GREENBERG: Well, Your Honor, I suppose that could be part of the 2 requirement.

3 THE COURT: I would think --

4 MR. GREENBERG: I'm not concerned with that because it's clear from the 5 investigation we've done that there are significant amounts of money owed to the 6 class. In fact, the defendants don't disagree that there is.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. The short answer may be that if we -- even with that 8 understanding you've got apparently defense experts that say -- that show that 9 that's not accurate. Is that right?

10 MR. GREENBERG: The defendants' expert has attested for the period
11 we have hours in the QuickBooks records from 2013 to 2015, those hours are 12 understated. That is his conclusion. He examined approximately 30 pay periods.
13 Of the 30 pay periods, he found that the trip sheets had more hours stated in them
14 for about 27 or something.

15 THE COURT: All right. Then the way that the order should be finalized 16 is that the special master will calculate those numbers from the trip sheets, with 17 the understanding that it may be that it may be that at the end of the day here it's 18 possible that the Lord -- that the Court -- good grief -- that the Court -- where did
19 that come from? That the Court may alter the allocation of who pays for what parts
20 of the special master's work. While I don't anticipate that that would happen, I think 21 to my mind it comes down to this. If the defendants show that they did comply by 22 virtue of the QuickBooks with an accurate depiction of what the net cash was and 23 the total hours for that pay period, then it may be that the Court would say, well, 24 then it's not appropriate to order the defendants to pay for that and it may get shifted

1 over to the plaintiffs responsibility.

2 While I don't anticipate, at least from what the plaintiff is telling me,
3 while I don't anticipate that that would happen, I suppose there needs to be at least 4 -- so that nobody is surprised, I'm looking at arriving at a just determination here
5 of what the liability, if any, of the defendants is and including in that whether or not 6 they complied with the statute because that is the basis that I have used to say that,
7 yes, I think the defendants must pay for this study.

8 MR. GREENBERG: The order as presented to Your Honor can specifically
9 note that the Court is reserving the possibility in the future that it may impose a 10 portion of the special master costs --

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 MR. GREENBERG: -- upon the plaintiffs, depending upon its findings.
13 And that will just be clear in the order, if Your Honor would like that.

14 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Now, one of the things we talked about also 15 in chambers was the names submitted by the defendant do not have any C.V., 16 Curriculum Vitae or anything else that indicates to the Court what they might 17 anticipate might be charged for those services. And I would very much like to 18 have them before selecting anyone to be the special master here. Another thing 19 we discussed is the Court's hope that if possible we do not have to go outside of 20 the state and perhaps not outside of Las Vegas to find our special master. Given 21 that we have a time crunch here, it seems to me that even with the communications 22 of today it may add a little bit of extra time if we have to communicate things to 23 someone who's outside the state.

24 MR. GREENBERG: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: So -- and as I understand it, Ms. Rodriguez, the three that 2 you suggested are all within the state, correct?

3 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 MS. RODRIGUEZ: And I can get those CVs to you quite quickly.

8 THE COURT: Yes?

9 MR. GREENBERG: -- if I could just address the third nominee of Ms.
10 Rodriguez, Christine Lambrecht (phonetic). I do have an objection to that.
11 Ms. Lambrecht was designated as an expert witness in the Thomas v. Yellow Cab 12 litigation that I prosecuted. She also has a long-standing relationship with the 13 industry in the form of the Yellow-Checker-Star company --

14 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

15 MR. GREENBERG: -- that she has consulted to --

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. GREENBERG: -- prior to the litigation. So I don't believe she would be 18 an appropriate person to be appointed special master involving this sort of dispute 19 with this industry.

20 THE COURT: All right. Well, I'll bear that in mind. If you still wish to submit 21 her C.V., you may do so.

22 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I will, Your Honor. I've never had any contact with her.
23 She's never been an expert witness for me.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I don't know if any of these proposed special masters
2 have ever served as a witness on behalf of Mr. Greenberg or on behalf of plaintiffs
3 in a class action. Perhaps we can get that similar disclosure right now.

4 THE COURT: Sure.

5 MR. GREENBERG: Your Honor, I have no prior relationship with any of the 6 people I have nominated --

7 THE COURT: Very good.

8 MR. GREENBERG: -- as an expert, as a consultant in any matter.

9 THE COURT: Now, the problem, Ms. Rodriguez, is I need this like yesterday.
10 Can you get it to me by tomorrow?

11 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Today's Friday? Is today Friday? Yes.

12 THE COURT: Oh, yeah. Hello. By Monday, then.

13 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Oh, yes. Absolutely, Your Honor. Yes. I'm not sure
14 these people -- I haven't submitted things to them like Mr. Greenberg did, so I 15 don't know if they can work up a budget and a proposal by Monday on what they 16 anticipate, but I'll do the best I can, certainly.

17 THE COURT: Very good. And what I think is also important is the question 18 of whether or not they are equipped to handle something --

19 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Right.

20 THE COURT: -- of this magnitude in this short of time. And when I say short
21 of time, I'm accepting Mr. Greenberg's estimation that it should be around 45 days 22 that this project takes, at which point we will at the very least be in a position to 23 figure out whether or not a trial is yet to be considered or whether we don't need 24 a trial.

1 MS. RODRIGUEZ: So as far as moving forward on the proposed order, can 2 we get a revision that Mr. Greenberg and I can work together to incorporate some of 3 the things that we talked about in chambers in terms of, like, start times, end times, 4 and the columns and things that the special master is to look at?

5 THE COURT: If you can do that by Monday. And if you disagree with the --
6 or would you? Are you saying that you would anticipate that that would be an order 7 that you would --

8 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Stipulate?

9 THE COURT: Yeah, stipulate to or something.

10 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I would hope so, based on what we talked about, but --

11 THE COURT: You never know.

12 MS. RODRIGUEZ: -- which is, you know, taking out the file -- the things to 13 be deleted and the things to be added and whether we can agree upon the pay.

14 THE COURT: Yeah. I recognize that asking you two to agree on anything 15 is probably a 50/50.

16 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Challenge.

17 THE COURT: 50/50 at best.

18 MS. RODRIGUEZ: 50/50.

19 MR. GREENBERG: Probably less than that, Your Honor.

20 Your Honor, what I would propose, given the urgency here as well,
21 is the form of order I submitted to the Court with my supplement actually is not 22 really complete in terms of giving instructions regarding like the missing end time
23 we were discussing in chambers. And I actually had drafted an order addressing 24 that, but now we've had some further discussions about perhaps how that should

1 be addressed. What I was going to say, Your Honor, is given the urgency here
2 Your Honor could certainly enter the order as I've previously given to Your Honor
3 on Monday --

4 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

5 MR. GREENBERG: -- and we can simply get an amended order to Your 6 Honor giving the special master those instructions so the appointment can be 7 made and they can get geared up and get to work. That is a possibility, Your Honor.
8 I'm just mentioning it to the Court. I don't know how the Court wishes to proceed.

9 THE COURT: Yes, and if we had to do that then I would do that. I would 10 rather, though, at least begin by hopefully Monday having an order that both sides
11 agree at least accurately depicts what the Court is trying to do.

12 MR. GREENBERG: I will work diligently with defendants' counsel, to forward
13 to them, say, I hope no later than three o'clock this afternoon a revised order 14 pursuant to our discussions in chambers.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. GREENBERG: Defendants are essentially asking for inclusion of 17 additional information --

18 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

19 MR. GREENBERG: -- to be gathered by the special master. We have no
20 objection to that being done, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Do we need to discuss on the record anything about 22 we had looked at one of the -- I don't know what you call this page.

23 MR. GREENBERG: A trip sheet, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Trip sheet. That is a trip sheet, huh?

1 MR. GREENBERG: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: The infamous trip sheet. Okay.

3 MR. WALL: Front and back.

4 THE COURT: And we had talked about having a separate column to depict 5 whether or not the special master was using something other than what normally 6 fits in the time-end box to calculate the time end, namely either the time when a 7 meter depicts, which was in the middle column, or when the car was gassed up at 8 in this case Arco, which is in the left-hand column at the top. Do we need to discuss 9 or make any decision about that?

10 MR. GREENBERG: I think we have an agreement, and I will confirm with 11 defense counsel, that in the event of this circumstance where there is no time out 12 stamp, the special master should note those two times, those two other times --

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. GREENBERG: -- and provide a calculation based on those times.
15 And that can be investigated further, but it should be noted in detail in his review
16 of the trip sheets. Is that correct, counsel?

17 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I'm agreed. Yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay, very good. Very good. Anything else that we need 19 to resolve before locking you all up in a room together until the proposed order 20 is produced?

21 MR. GREENBERG: Well, again, Your Honor, I will get that revised order 22 to defense counsel I hope by three o'clock today. I do anticipate getting it to 23 Your Honor, say by three o'clock on Monday.

24 THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. GREENBERG: And hopefully Your Honor will be able to sign that order
2 Monday or Tuesday. We do need to move as quickly as possible here.

3 THE COURT: That is my intention.

4 MR. GREENBERG: Otherwise --

5 THE COURT: And I should tell you, my intention is to sign this, whatever
6 it is I'm going to sign to resolve these kinds of issues, to sign it and to have it on 7 record as of Monday, recognizing, as you have said, that it may be that it has to 8 be amended from time to time to account for things encountered along the way.

9 MR. GREENBERG: Yes, Your Honor, and I appreciate that. And you
10 asked if we could just make anything on the record here. I would just like to put 11 a statement on the record here, Your Honor, that plaintiffs have agreed, and it was 12 discussed in chambers, to significantly reduce the burden of the special master's 13 cost by clearly over fifty percent by agreeing to an appropriate statistical analysis 14 and summary of the trip sheets to arrive at the information that we're seeking to 15 get here, so that a determination of the merits of this case can be made. Plaintiffs 16 would agree to that and would agree to be bound by that. Defendants have not 17 taken up plaintiffs on that offer, but I wish that to just simply be clear on the record
18 because I do anticipate the defendants will be seeking appellate review --

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MR. GREENBERG: -- based upon an allegation that this is unduly
21 burdensome. And it is not the intention of plaintiffs to unduly burden the defendants 22 with the special master appointment. It is not in the interest of my clients to see that 23 undue resources are devoted to the cost of the special master, as those resources 24 may not be able to pay my clients' claims.

1 THE COURT: Is that accurate, Ms. Rodriguez, that you would not stipulate
2 to a statistical sample -- how does that go?

3 MR. GREENBERG: A statistical sampling of the trip sheets --

4 THE COURT: Of the trip sheets.

5 MR. GREENBERG: -- to arrive at the hours worked for purposes of --

6 THE COURT: As opposed to going through all of them.

7 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Your Honor, it's the defendants' position that it's a day
8 late and a dollar short and this remains plaintiffs' burden of proof. So it's a little late 9 in the game to suggest now at this point a statistical sampling, so at this point we 10 would not agree to that.

11 THE COURT: Why is it? What that sounds like is had it been proposed 12 earlier you would have.

13 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Well --

14 THE COURT: That would be very surprising to me.

15 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I think the Court has made a determination now at this 16 stage and that remains our position, which has always -- I don't know how many -- 17 I don't want to continue to say a hundred times defendants have always been very,
18 very clear we need to look at the trip sheets. They didn't want to look at the trip 19 sheets. Now, unfortunately, the defendants are bearing the cost for a review of 20 the trip sheets.

21 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

22 MS. RODRIGUEZ: And he's correct, I do anticipate that, you know, this 23 is not going to be the end of the story here, especially in what he represented in 24 chambers that it's his intent to do away with the defendants' trial altogether, to have

1 the special master do the work of the plaintiff and then just submit it for judgment.
2 So I do believe that's inappropriate, and now he's even wanting to shortcut it even 3 more to do just a statistical sampling. His experts could have done a statistical 4 sampling.

5 THE COURT: The only question is whether the defense would agree to 6 using a statistical sample as opposed to --

7 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Right.

8 THE COURT: -- looking at all the trip sheets. And the answer is they would 9 not?

10 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Not at this stage, no.

11 THE COURT: Yeah. All right.

12 MR. GREENBERG: Your Honor, the only other issue the Court may elect
13 to address right now is I anticipate once the order is entered, hopefully on Monday, 14 defendants will be seeking a writ or appellate review and presumably will be coming 15 here to ask for a stay of any actual proceeding of this case further while that 16 application is made. I'm not saying Your Honor should address that issue right now, 17 but you might find it efficient to do so. That's simply why I'm mentioning it.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MS. RODRIGUEZ: A writ on what? On the Court's -- the order that he's 20 going to sign Monday?

21 THE COURT: Yeah. That's what I understood him to be saying.

22 MR. GREENBERG: Yes, Your Honor. I anticipate when the order is entered 23 the defendants are going to seek to file their writ and they're going to ask Your 24 Honor, presumably, to stay the proceedings and the work of the special master

1 pending their seeking of such relief, which they have the right to do. It's just that 2 might bring us back here and I don't know if the Court wants to address that now.
3 It might be efficient to do so.

4 THE COURT: Well, I don't think --

5 MR. GREENBERG: That's why I mention it, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: I don't have it before me right now, the question or the issue.
7 I probably don't need to address it. The only thing I would say is you could probably 8 anticipate what I will do based on my belief, so tardily arrived at, that there is not 9 another reasonable way to proceed with any sense of accuracy in this lawsuit, and 10 largely because there has been such a fight all the way through at every stage, at 11 every turn. Anyway, so the chances that I would grant a stay -- I wouldn't say that 12 I wouldn't, but if I did it wouldn't be very long because this needs to get resolved.

13 MR. GREENBERG: I understand, Your Honor. I'm not suggesting Your 14 Honor should address this now. It was just a thought.

15 THE COURT: All right. Okay. Anything you want to say on that, Ms.
16 Rodriguez?

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. GREENBERG: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Then that will be the end of it. Thank you all for 21 your help. I anticipate, as I said, we'll get this order signed and in place by Monday.
22 Thank you all.

23 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Thank you, Judge.

24 MR. GREENBERG: We are -- the Court is not scheduling us for further

1 status on this at this time?

2 THE COURT: No. I anticipate I will get a final proposed writ, and if any 3 objections are noted, they may be noted. I will look at them and then I will make 4 the determination here's what's going to be the final writ, at least for now --

5 MR. GREENBERG: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: -- so that we can get started.

7 MR. GREENBERG: I agree. We need to move forward quickly, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you all.

9 MR. GREENBERG: Thank you, Your Honor.

10 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Thank you.

20 DEFENDANTS' SUPPLEMENT PERTAINING TO

21 AN ORDER TO APPOINT SPECIAL MASTER

22 Defendants, by and through their attorneys of record, hereby submit this Supplemental 23 Information as ordered by the Court on February 2, 2018. At the hearing pertaining to the 24 appointment of a Special Master, the Court ordered the parties to work together to propose an order
25 to the Court. The Court further inquired as to the scope of the Special Master's work in that 26 Defendants assert the scope should be limited to a review for accurate hours; while Plaintiffs assert
27 the Special Master should also review pay information, and perform calculations to determine 28 underpayment for each class member. The parties were able to agree on the majority of the

1 proposed order, but there remain areas of dispute. As such, Defendants' objections and proposed
2 Orders are attached hereto.

3 I. Objection to Proposed Scope of the Work of the Special Master

4 The Defendants' objections to Plaintiffs' proposed Order pertain to the scope of work of the 5 Special Master. The Court first expressed the notion of a Special Master at the Motions in Limine
6 hearing on January 25, 2018. At that time, the Court indicated it had concluded that the only 7 mechanism for obtaining an accurate accounting of hours was through a review of the drivers'
8 tripsheets; and thus the appointment of a Special Master would be appropriate for such a task.
9 Plaintiffs' proposed Order takes the Court's order 2 steps further and requests that, at Defendants'
10 expncse, the Special Master also review the Quickbooks data that was provided to Plaintiffs to 11 make a determination for each driver as to what they were paid. The final step requested by 12 Plaintiffs is that the Special Master then calculate any underpayment for each driver.

13 Plaintiffs are requesting that the Special Master in fact do what the Plaintiffs and their 14 "experts" have failed to do, but with the Defendants' footing the bill. The Plaintiffs have had all of 15 the data, including gross wages paid to each driver for each payperiod, at their disposal but chose to 16 utilize a different methodology to attempt to prove their case.

17 There is no reason that the Special Master should have to perform calculations of pay, and 18 calculations of underpayment; when the same data has already been provided to Plaintiffs and was 19 available to them to perform the calculations. The same Quickbooks data containing gross wages 20 that would be provided to a Special Master was provided to Plaintiffs in January, 2016. Further, the 21 pay stubs on their face reflect gross wages paid for the pay period in compliance with the statutes. A
22 pay stub demonstrating gross pay is attached as Exhibit 1. Each driver receives a paystub for each 23 payperiod which accurately reflects gross wages for that pay period. The Employer has been fully 24 compliant in retaining these documents.

25 A proposed Order limiting the scope of the Special Master to a review of hours only is 26 attached as Exhibit 2, with the highlighted revisions behind it.

27 II. Requested Clarifications to the proposed Order

28 At the very least, Defendants have requested clarification revisions to Plaintiffs' proposed

1 Order which Plaintiffs have refused to incorporate. These include 4 requested “housekeeping” or 2 clarification revisions.

3 Revision 1. Page 2, line 9: The insertion of “Plaintiffs assert that” the tripsheets do not show the 4 total hours worked in a pay period.

5 This limited wording is requested in that it is Defendants’ position that anyone who reviews
6 a tripsheet can easily ascertain what the total hours worked for that day were. In fact, Plaintiffs’
7 proposed Special Master estimates it takes 15 seconds to make this determination.

8 Defendants disagree with Plaintiffs’ legal interpretation of what NRS 608.115 requires.
9 Defendants’ position is supported with the fact that no state agency has ever found A Cab to be in 10 non-compliance with any record keeping; and Plaintiffs’ interpretation of the statute is a novel 11 concept which has not been tested.

12 Revision 2. Page 3, line 8. Defendants request the insertion of “The Court reserves a final 13 determination pertaining to which party will bear the costs or a portion thereof,
14 following the final report of the Special Master.”

15 This request stems directly from the Court’s direction at the hearing of February 2, 2018, 16 wherein the parties disagreed as to the cost-effectiveness of such a review, where any liability may 17 be very nominal.

19 wording following “the costs of the Special master shall be borne by the defendant A 20 Cab ‘at this time and pending a final determination by the Court’.”

22 A proposed Order incorporating these revisions is attached as Exhibit 3, with the 23 highlighted revisions behind these pages.

24 Defendants respectfully request the Court to consider these requested revisions which 25 address the scope of the work of the Special Master, as well as clarifications to the Court’s
26 directives. If the Court is inclined to consider an Order incorporating all of these requested changes 27 (scope of the work and clarification revisions), a new order incorporating all can be submitted to the 28 Court quickly for signature.

18 On January 25, 2018, with all the parties appearing before the Court by their 19 respective counsel as noted in the record, the Court granted plaintiffs' motion for 20 rehearing of plaintiffs' prior request to appoint a special master pursuant to Nev. R.
21 Civ. P. 53, such request being made as part of Plaintiffs' Motion for Class 22 Certification originally filed on May 19, 2015. Such request was originally denied by 23 the Court in its Order entered on February 10, 2016. In revisiting that prior order and 24 entertaining the argument of counsel for the parties at a continued hearing held on 25 February 2, 2018, the Court hereby finds:

26 The parties do not dispute that the wages paid the class members every pay
27 period are accurately set forth in the preserved Quickbooks records of defendant A-
28 Cab. The parties cannot, at this time, present to the Court any agreed upon record of the total hours worked during each of those pay periods by each class member.

1 Plaintiffs have maintained throughout this litigation that defendants failed to keep a
2 record of the total hours worked by each of the class members per pay period as
3 required under NRS 608.115. NRS 608.115 requires an employer to “establish and
4 maintain records of wages for the benefit of his or her employees, showing for each
5 pay period....[t]otal hours employed in the pay period by noting the number of hours
6 per day.” Defendants have maintained throughout this litigation that the only way to 7 determine the hours worked by the plaintiffs and the class members is to consult the 8 tripsheets. Defendants assert that those tripsheets set forth an accurate record of the 9 amount of time that the plaintiffs and the class members worked. Yet those tripsheets
10 do not show the “total hours employed in the pay period.” They record the time of day
11 a taxicab driver started their shift, the time of day they ended that shift, and the amount
12 of non-working break time that occurred during the shift.

13 In light of the above, the Court finds that the appointment of a Special Master is 14 the appropriate solution to determine the hours worked each pay period by each class
15 member and the amount of minimum wages, if any, that each one is owed based upon
16 A Cab’s records. The Special Master is being appointed to report on the hours
17 worked, and the wages paid, as documented in A Cab’s admittedly accurate records; to 18 what extent that information in those records demonstrates wages of less than the 19 minimum wage (that “lower tier” rate is $7.25 an hour since July 1, 2010) were paid 20 during any pay periods; and the amount of any such minimum wage deficiencies for 21 each class member.

22 The Court finds such a Special Master appointment pursuant to NRCP Rule
23 53(b) is appropriate in respect to the class members’ claims. The Court also finds that 24 such a Special Master appointment is appropriate under NRCP Rule 53(b) as the 25 resolution of the class members’ claims present complicated issues. Whether 26 minimum wages are owed for any particular pay period is quite simple when the 27 relevant information (hours worked and wages paid) is known. But in this case that information must be gathered from over 200,000 trip sheets, a complex process.

1 Similarly, performing that calculation on many thousands of pay periods for
2 approximately 1,000 class members is also complicated and laborious.

3 The Court also finds a compelling imperative in so appointing a Special Master,
4 at defendants' expense at this time, to perform this task is found in the Nevada
5 Constitution, which provides for the most stringent protections for Nevada's
6 employees to ensure they are paid the required minimum wage. It also directs this 7 Court to grant all relief available to effectuate its purpose of securing the payment of 8 minimum wages owed to Nevada employees. Therefore,

9 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that is
10 appointed Special Master in this case by the Court. The purpose of such Special
11 Master appointment is to determine for each class member, the hours of work set forth
12 in their trip sheets for each pay period. That determination is to be made for all class
13 members for all pay periods falling entirely within the class period of October 8, 2010
14 through December 31, 2015. That determination is also to be made for those class
15 members who were granted a statute of limitations toll pursuant to this Court's Order 16 entered on June 7, 2017 for all pay periods occurring entirely after the statute of 17 limitations toll date listed for them in Ex. "A" of that Order and prior to December 31, 18 2015; and

20 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in determining the hours of work shown by a
21 trip sheet, the Special Master shall accept as correct the characterization of time as 22 "breaks" or "meals" or non-working time in the trips sheet as accurate and subtract all
23 such time from the interval between the start and end time for the shift as recorded on 24 the trip sheet. The Special Master in their report shall also note the indicated start and
25 end time of "break" or "meal" time entry on each trip sheet. In the event that no shift
26 end time is recorded or fully legible on a trip sheet the Special Master shall indicate in 27 their report the times on that trip sheet's copy of the printed receipt that included
28

1 “Meter Details” and that trip sheet’s copy of the printed fuel purchase receipt and use
2 the earlier of each time to arrive as a “shift end” time for purposes of calculating the
3 hours worked during the shift. If no legible “Meter Details” or fuel purchase receipt
4 time exists on that trip sheet the Special Master shall not calculate any hours of work
5 for that trip sheet and that shift and shall record that they are unable to arrive at a
6 working hours total, or perform a minimum wage underpayment calculation, for the 7 class member for the pay period including that trip sheet. In determining all wages
8 paid to a class member during a pay period the Special Master shall include all items
9 of taxable income paid by A Cab to the class member during the pay period as 10 recorded in A Cab’s Quickbooks records but shall not include any amounts identified
11 as “Tips” or “Tips Supplemental.” The Special Master shall rely on the parties’
12 stipulated agreement as to the wages paid to the class members each class period if the 13 parties so agree to stipulate.; and

14 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that A Cab shall, forthwith, provide the Special
15 Master all records necessary for the performance of its appointment and as the Special
16 Master requests. The first meeting of the parties and the Special Master directed by 17 NRCP 53(d)(1) is dispensed with. The Special Master shall deliver the report of their 18 findings to the Court and the parties no later than

19 The report so furnished shall state the total amount of hours each class member 20 was found to have worked each pay period for A Cab. The report shall also indicate
21 every pay period for every class member that the Special Master finds the records
22 reviewed contained incomplete or not fully legible information and for which no 23 determination on whether proper minimum wages were paid could be made. At the 24 request of any party, the Special Master shall provide the report’s foregoing findings
25 in an Excel file.

26 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the costs of the Special Master shall be borne
27 by the defendant A Cab who shall, within _____ days of the entry of this Order
28 deposit with the Special Master the amount of _____ for their services,

1 the Court also expressly reserving the possibility that it may in the future direct some
2 portion of the Special Master's cost be shifted to the plaintiffs if the Special Master's
3 report documents circumstances that the Court finds warrant it doing so.;

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court will not be entertaining a motion for 5 reconsideration of this order by the defendants;

22 originally filed on May 19, 2015. Such request was originally denied by the Court in
23 its Order entered on February 10, 2016. In revisiting that prior order and entertaining
24 the argument of counsel for the parties at a continued hearing held on February 2,
25 2018, the Court hereby finds:

26 The parties do not dispute that the wages paid the class members every pay
27 period are accurately set forth in the preserved Quickbooks records of defendant A-

6 laborious.

7 The Court also finds a compelling imperative in so appointing a Special Master,
8 at defendants' expense at this time, to perform this task is found in the Nevada
9 Constitution, which provides for the most stringent protections for Nevada's
10 employees to ensure they are paid the required minimum wage. The Court reserves a 11 final determination pertaining to which party will bear the costs or a portion thereof, 12 following the final report of the Special Master. It also directs this Court to grant all 13 relief available to effectuate its purpose of securing the payment of minimum wages
14 owed to Nevada employees. Therefore,

15 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that is
16 appointed Special Master in this case by the Court. The purpose of such Special
17 Master appointment is to determine for each class member, based upon the hours of 18 work set forth in their trip sheets for each pay period, and the wages they were paid in 19 each such pay period as set forth in A Cab's Quickbooks records, the unpaid minimum
20 wages they are owed by A Cab pursuant to Article 15, Section 16, of Nevada's
21 Constitution (the "MWA") under the "lower tier" or "health insurance provided"
22 minimum wage rate. That determination is to be made for all class members for all 23 pay periods falling entirely within the class period of October 8, 2010 through 24 December 31, 2015. That determination is also to be made for those class members 25 who were granted a statute of limitations toll pursuant to this Court's Order entered on 26 June 7, 2017 for all pay periods occurring entirely after the statute of limitations toll 27 date listed for them in Ex. "A" of that Order and prior to December 31, 2015; and 28

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in determining the hours of work shown by a
2 trip sheet, the Special Master shall accept as correct the characterization of time as
3 “breaks” or “meals” or non-working time in the trips sheet as accurate and subtract all
4 such time from the interval between the start and end time for the shift as recorded on
5 the trip sheet. The Special Master in their report shall also note the indicated start and
6 end time of “break” or “meal” time entry on each trip sheet. In the event that no shift
7 end time is recorded or fully legible on a trip sheet the Special Master shall indicate in
8 their report the times on that trip sheet’s copy of the printed receipt that included
9 “Meter Details” and that trip sheet’s copy of the printed fuel purchase receipt and use
10 the earlier of each time to arrive as a “shift end” time for purposes of calculating the 11 hours worked during the shift. If no legible “Meter Details” or fuel purchase receipt
12 time exists on that trip sheet the Special Master shall not calculate any hours of work
13 for that trip sheet and that shift and shall record that they are unable to arrive at a
14 working hours total, or perform a minimum wage underpayment calculation, for the 15 class member for the pay period including that trip sheet. In determining all wages
16 paid to a class member during a pay period the Special Master shall include all items
17 of taxable income paid by A Cab to the class member during the pay period as 18 recorded in A Cab’s Quickbooks records but shall not include any amounts identified
19 as “Tips” or “Tips Supplemental.” The Special Master shall rely on the parties’
20 stipulated agreement as to the wages paid to the class members each class period if the 21 parties so agree to stipulate.; and

22 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that A Cab shall, forthwith, provide the Special
23 Master all records necessary for the performance of its appointment and as the Special
24 Master requests. The first meeting of the parties and the Special Master directed by 25 NRCP 53(d)(1) is dispensed with. The Special Master shall deliver the report of their
26 findings to the Court and the parties no later than

27 The report so furnished shall state the total amount of unpaid minimum wages
28 so owed, if any, for each class member; the amount of hours each class member was

1 found to have worked each pay period for A Cab; and the amount of wages within the
2 meaning of the MWA they were paid each pay period by A Cab. The report shall also
3 indicate every pay period for every class member that the Special Master finds the 4 records reviewed contained incomplete or not fully legible information and for which
5 no determination on whether proper minimum wages were paid could be made. At the 6 request of any party, the Special Master shall provide the report's foregoing findings
7 in an Excel file.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the costs of the Special Master shall be borne
9 by the defendant A Cab at this time and pending a final determination by the Court,
10 who shall, within _____ days of the entry of this Order deposit with the Special
11 Master the amount of _____ for their services, the Court also expressly 12 reserving the possibility that it may in the future direct some portion of the Special 13 Master's cost be shifted to the plaintiffs if the Special Master's report documents
14 circumstances that the Court finds warrant it doing so.

} ORDER GRANTING
APPOINT A SPECIAL MASTER

} Hearing Date: February 2, 2018
Hearing Time: 9:00 a.m.

18 On January 25, 2018, with all the parties appearing before the Court by their 19 respective counsel as noted in the record, the Court granted plaintiffs' motion for 20 rehearing of plaintiffs' prior request to appoint a special master pursuant to Nev. R.
21 Civ. P. 53, such request being made as part of Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification
22 originally filed on May 19, 2015. Such request was originally denied by the Court in
23 its Order entered on February 10, 2016. In revisiting that prior order and entertaining
24 the argument of counsel for the parties at a continued hearing held on February 2,
25 2018, the Court hereby finds:

26 The parties do not dispute that the wages paid the class members every pay
27 period are accurately set forth in the preserved Quickbooks records of defendant A-
28 Cab. The parties cannot, at this time, present to the Court any agreed upon record of

1 the total hours worked during each of those pay periods by each class member.
2 Plaintiffs have maintained throughout this litigation that defendants failed to keep a
3 record of the total hours worked by each of the class members per pay period as 4 required under NRS 608.115. NRS 608.115 requires an employer to “establish and
5 maintain records of wages for the benefit of his or her employees, showing for each
6 pay period.....[t]otal hours employed in the pay period by noting the number of hours
7 per day.” Defendants have maintained throughout this litigation that the only way to 8 determine the hours worked by the plaintiffs and the class members is to consult the 9 tripsheets. Defendants assert that those tripsheets set forth an accurate record of the 10 amount of time that the plaintiffs and the class members worked. ^{① plaintiffs assert that} Yet those tripsheets
11 do not show the “total hours employed in the pay period.” They record the time of day
12 a taxicab driver started their shift, the time of day they ended that shift, and the amount
13 of non-working break time that occurred during the shift.

14 In light of the above, the Court finds that the appointment of a Special Master is 15 the appropriate solution to determine the hours worked each pay period by each class
16 member and the amount of minimum wages, if any, that each one is owed based upon
17 A Cab’s records. The Special Master is being appointed to report on the hours
18 worked, and the wages paid, as documented in A Cab’s admittedly accurate records; to 19 what extent that information in those records demonstrates wages of less than the 20 minimum wage (that “lower tier” rate is $7.25 an hour since July 1, 2010) were paid
21 during any pay periods; and the amount of any such minimum wage deficiencies for 22 each class member.

23 The Court finds such a Special Master appointment pursuant to NRCP Rule
24 53(b) is appropriate in respect to the class members’ claims that are established by the
25 records the Special Master will review. Such claims will not require any determination
26 by a jury and must be determined as a matter of law based upon those records. The 27 Court also finds that such a Special Master appointment is appropriate under NRCP
28 Rule 53(b) as the resolution of the class members’ claims present complicated issues.

1 Whether minimum wages are owed for any particular pay period is quite simple when
2 the relevant information (hours worked and wages paid) is known. But in this case that
3 information must be gathered from over 200,000 trip sheets, a complex process.
4 Similarly, performing that calculation on many thousands of pay periods for 5 approximately 1,000 class members is also complicated and laborious.

6 The Court also finds a compelling imperative in so appointing a Special Master,
7 at defendants' expense at this time, to perform this task is found in the Nevada
8 Constitution, which provides for the most stringent protections for Nevada's employees
9 to ensure they are paid the required minimum wage. It also directs this Court to grant
10 all relief available to effectuate its purpose of securing the payment of minimum wages
11 owed to Nevada employees. Therefore,

12 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that ② The court reserves a final determination pertaining to which party will bear the costs or a portion thereof, following the final report of the S.M.
13 appointed Special Master in this case by the Court. The purpose of such Special
14 Master appointment is to determine for each class member, based upon the hours of 15 work set forth in their trip sheets for each pay period, and the wages they were paid in 16 each such pay period as set forth in A Cab's Quickbooks records, the unpaid minimum
17 wages they are owed by A Cab pursuant to Article 15, Section 16, of Nevada's
18 Constitution (the "MWA") under the "lower tier" or "health insurance provided"
19 minimum wage rate. That determination is to be made for all class members for all pay
20 periods falling entirely within the class period of October 8, 2010 through December
21 31, 2015. That determination is also to be made for those class members who were
22 granted a statute of limitations toll pursuant to this Court's Order entered on June 7,
23 2017 for all pay periods occurring entirely after the statute of limitations toll date listed
24 for them in Ex. "A" of that Order and prior to December 31, 2015; and

25 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in determining the hours of work shown by a

2 the trip sheet. The Special Master in their report shall also note the indicated start and
3 end time of “break” or “meal” time entry on each trip sheet. In the event that no shift
4 end time is recorded or fully legible on a trip sheet the Special Master shall indicate in
5 their report the times on that trip sheet’s copy of the printed receipt that included
6 “Meter Details” and that trip sheet’s copy of the printed fuel purchase receipt and use
7 the earlier of each time to arrive as a “shift end” time for purposes of calculating the
8 hours worked during the shift. If no legible “Meter Details” or fuel purchase receipt
9 time exists on that trip sheet the Special Master shall not calculate any hours of work
10 for that trip sheet and that shift and shall record that they are unable to arrive at a
11 working hours total, or perform a minimum wage underpayment calculation, for the 12 class member for the pay period including that trip sheet. In determining all wages
13 paid to a class member during a pay period the Special Master shall include all items of 14 taxable income paid by A Cab to the class member during the pay period as recorded in 15 A Cab’s Quickbooks records but shall not include any amounts identified as “Tips” or 16 “Tips Supplemental.” The Special Master shall rely on the parties’ stipulated 17 agreement as to the wages paid to the class members each class period if the parties so 18 agree to stipulate.; and

19 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that A Cab shall, forthwith, provide the Special
20 Master all records necessary for the performance of its appointment and as the Special
21 Master requests. The first meeting of the parties and the Special Master directed by 22 NRC 53(d)(1) is dispensed with. The Special Master shall deliver the report of their 23 findings to the Court and the parties no later than

24 The report so furnished shall state the total amount of unpaid minimum wages so 25 owed, if any, for each class member; the amount of hours each class member was 26 found to have worked each pay period for A Cab; and the amount of wages within the 27 meaning of the MWA they were paid each pay period by A Cab. The report shall also 28 indicate every pay period for every class member that the Special Master finds the

1 records reviewed contained incomplete or not fully legible information and for which
2 no determination on whether proper minimum wages were paid could be made. At the 3 request of any party, the Special Master shall provide the report's foregoing findings in 4 an Excel file.

5 ^{(3) at this time and pending a final determination by the Court}
6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the costs of the Special Master shall be borne
7 by the defendant A Cab who shall, within _____ days of the entry of this Order
8 deposit with the Special Master the amount of _____ for their services,
9 the Court also expressly reserving the possibility that it may in the future direct some
10 portion of the Special Master's cost be shifted to the plaintiffs if the Special Master's 11 report documents circumstances that the Court finds warrant it doing so.;

ORDER GRANTING

Hearing Date: February 2, 2018
Hearing Time: 9:00 a.m.

On January 25, 2018, with all the parties appearing before the Court by their respective counsel as noted in the record, the Court granted plaintiffs' motion for rehearing of plaintiffs' prior request to appoint a special master pursuant to Nev. R. Civ. P. 53, such request being made as part of Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification originally filed on May 19, 2015. Such request was originally denied by the Court in its Order entered on February 10, 2016. In revisiting that prior order and entertaining the argument of counsel for the parties at a continued hearing held on February 2, 2018, the Court hereby finds:

The parties do not dispute that the wages paid the class members every pay period are accurately set forth in the preserved Quickbooks records of defendant A-Cab. The parties cannot, at this time, present to the Court any agreed upon record of

1 the total hours worked during each of those pay periods by each class member.
2 Plaintiffs have maintained throughout this litigation that defendants failed to keep a
3 record of the total hours worked by each of the class members per pay period as 4 required under NRS 608.115. NRS 608.115 requires an employer to “establish and
5 maintain records of wages for the benefit of his or her employees, showing for each
6 pay period....[t]otal hours employed in the pay period by noting the number of hours
7 per day.” Defendants have maintained throughout this litigation that the only way to 8 determine the hours worked by the plaintiffs and the class members is to consult the 9 tripsheets. Defendants assert that those tripsheets set forth an accurate record of the 10 amount of time that the plaintiffs and the class members worked. Yet those tripsheets
11 do not show the “total hours employed in the pay period.” They record the time of day
12 a taxicab driver started their shift, the time of day they ended that shift, and the amount
13 of non-working break time that occurred during the shift.

14 In light of the above, the Court finds that the appointment of a Special Master is 15 the appropriate solution to determine the hours worked each pay period by each class
16 member and the amount of minimum wages, if any, that each one is owed based upon
17 A Cab’s records. The Special Master is being appointed to report on the hours
18 worked, and the wages paid, as documented in A Cab’s admittedly accurate records; to 19 what extent that information in those records demonstrates wages of less than the 20 minimum wage (that “lower tier” rate is $7.25 an hour since July 1, 2010) were paid
21 during any pay periods; and the amount of any such minimum wage deficiencies for 22 each class member.

23 The Court finds such a Special Master appointment pursuant to NRCP Rule
24 53(b) is appropriate in respect to the class members’ claims that are established by the 25 records the Special Master will review. Such claims will not require any 26 determination by a jury and must be determined as a matter of law based upon those 27 records. The Court also finds that such a Special Master appointment is appropriate
28 under NRCP Rule 53(b) as the resolution of the class members’ claims present

1 complicated issues. Whether minimum wages are owed for any particular pay period 2 is quite simple when the relevant information (hours worked and wages paid) is 3 known. But in this case that information must be gathered from over 200,000 trip
4 sheets, a complex process. Similarly, performing that calculation on many thousands 5 of pay periods for approximately 1,000 class members is also complicated and 6 laborious.

7 The Court also finds a compelling imperative in so appointing a Special Master,
8 at defendants' expense at this time, to perform this task is found in the Nevada
9 Constitution, which provides for the most stringent protections for Nevada's
10 employees to ensure they are paid the required minimum wage. It also directs this 11 Court to grant all relief available to effectuate its purpose of securing the payment of 12 minimum wages owed to Nevada employees. The Court reserves a final 13 determination pertaining to which party will bear the costs or a portion thereof of the 14 Special Master following the final report of the Special Master.

15 THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Michael Rosten and the firm of 16 Piercy Bowler Taylor & Kern of Las Vegas, Nevada, is appointed Special Master in 17 this case by the Court. The purpose of such Special Master appointment is to 18 determine for each class member, based upon the hours of work set forth in their trip
19 sheets for each pay period, and the wages they were paid in each such pay period as set
20 forth in A Cab's Quickbooks records, the unpaid minimum wages they are owed by A 21 Cab pursuant to Article 15, Section 16, of Nevada's Constitution (the "MWA") under 22 the "lower tier" or "health insurance provided" minimum wage rate. That 23 determination is to be made for all class members for all pay periods falling entirely 24 within the class period of October 8, 2010 through December 31, 2015. That 25 determination is also to be made for those class members who were granted a statute of 26 limitations toll pursuant to this Court's Order entered on June 7, 2017 for all pay
27 periods occurring entirely after the statute of limitations toll date listed for them in Ex.
28 "A" of that Order and prior to December 31, 2015; and

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in determining the hours of work shown by a
2 trip sheet, the Special Master shall accept as correct the characterization of time as
3 "breaks" or "meals" or non-working time in the trips sheet as accurate and subtract all
4 such time from the interval between the start and end time for the shift as recorded on
5 the trip sheet. The Special Master in their report shall also note the indicated start and
6 end time of "break" or "meal" time entry on each trip sheet. In the event that no shift
7 end time is recorded or fully legible on a trip sheet the Special Master shall indicate in
8 their report the times on that trip sheet's copy of the printed receipt that included
9 "Meter Details" and that trip sheet's copy of the printed fuel purchase receipt and use
10 the earlier of each time to arrive as a "shift end" time for purposes of calculating the 11 hours worked during the shift. If no legible "Meter Details" or fuel purchase receipt
12 time exists on that trip sheet the Special Master shall not calculate any hours of work
13 for that trip sheet and that shift and shall record that they are unable to arrive at a
14 working hours total, or perform a minimum wage underpayment calculation, for the 15 class member for the pay period including that trip sheet. In determining all wages
16 paid to a class member during a pay period the Special Master shall include all items
17 of taxable income paid by A Cab to the class member during the pay period as 18 recorded in A Cab's Quickbooks records but shall not include any amounts identified
19 as "Tips" or "Tips Supplemental." The Special Master shall rely on the parties'
20 stipulated agreement as to the wages paid to the class members each class period if the 21 parties so agree to stipulate.; and

22 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that A Cab shall, forthwith, provide the Special
23 Master all records necessary for the performance of its appointment and as the Special
24 Master requests. The first meeting of the parties and the Special Master directed by 25 NRC 53(d)(1) is dispensed with. The Special Master shall deliver the report of their 26 findings to the Court and the parties no later than 45 days from the Special Master's 27 receipt of the deposit specified in this Order.

28 The report so furnished shall state the total amount of unpaid minimum wages

1 so owed, if any, for each class member; the amount of hours each class member was
2 found to have worked each pay period for A Cab; and the amount of wages within the
3 meaning of the MWA they were paid each pay period by A Cab. The report shall also
4 indicate every pay period for every class member that the Special Master finds the
5 records reviewed contained incomplete or not fully legible information and for which 6 no determination on whether proper minimum wages were paid could be made. At the 7 request of any party, the Special Master shall provide the report's foregoing findings
8 in an Excel file.

9 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the costs of the Special Master shall be borne
10 by the defendant A Cab who shall, within 10 days of the entry of this Order deposit
11 with the Special Master the amount of $25,000 for their services, the Court also 12 expressly reserving the possibility that it may in the future direct some portion of the 13 Special Master's cost be shifted to the plaintiffs if the Special Master's report
14 documents circumstances that the Court finds warrant it doing so.;

3. Kirstin Lambrecht, CPA

Ms. Lambrecht's curriculum vitae is attached as Exhibit 3. Ms. Lambrecht has expressed her interest in this appointment, indicating that she does not have a relationship with the transportation industry as Plaintiffs represented at the most recent hearing. Her interaction has been limited to preparing Yellow Cab's tax returns for the last few years, which led to her involvement in reviewing their records pertaining to the minimum wage issues lodged against them. If anything this experience has provided Ms. Lambrecht with a better understanding of the issues surrounding minimum wage claims by drivers. She can prepare a proposal if the Court deems one necessary.

With this supplement, Defendants do not waive their ongoing objections to this appointment of a Special Master as improper, and being forced to bear the costs thereof. Defendants are ill-equipped to finance this project.

Re: Michael Murray, et al. v. A Cab Taxi Service LLC and A Cab, LLC

Dear Ms. Rodriguez:

We appreciate the opportunity to provide a proposal for special master selection in the captioned matter. The following provides a brief introduction to our firm, a summary of the anticipated scope of work, and an assessment of potential fees to complete the scope of work.

ANTHEM FORENSICS

While Anthem was only formed in Nevada a decade ago, it has developed a recognizable brand with both attorneys and the courts in Clark County. Our firm is a boutique operation that specializes in the synergistic practice areas of forensic accounting, business valuation, and economic damage calculation. While the majority of our work is in litigation, we are often court-appointed or jointly retained by litigating parties (particularly in contentious marital dissolution matters), which speaks to our independence, credibility, and reasonableness.

Our firm is involved in projects of many sizes and our experienced professionals hold designations that demonstrate our commitment to specialization. We are accountants who do not perform traditional audits or prepare tax returns. But we do what most accountants cannot: we design creative, cost-effective, and probative solutions to complex problems. And we do it well.

SCOPE OF WORK

Pursuant to our discussion and review of the materials you have provided, we anticipate the following scope of work:

1. Analyze approximately 300,000 trip sheets ("trip sheets") that are currently maintained in a combination of electronic and source document formats.
2. Capture at least the following data fields from the trip sheets:
 - a. Driver name
 - b. Cab number
 - c. TA number
 - d. Date
 - e. Shift
 - f. Shift start time
 - g. Shift end time
 - h. Break start time
 - i. Break end time
3. The integrity of the data from the trip sheets must be tested and verified contemporaneous with its capture, which may involve procedures including, but not limited to, the following:
 - a. Creating a framework at the outset of the project ("initial framework") for identifying problematic issues related to 1) illegibility of handwritten data, 2) inconsistencies between expected data, employee-entered data, and captured data, 3) correlation discrepancies between data from the trip sheets and ancillary supporting data.
 - b. Effectively and efficiently modifying the initial framework in real-time to incorporate other problematic issues that may arise during the data capture process.
 - c. Establish a feedback loop with the Court and counsel to ensure that communication and procedures (both theoretical and applied) optimize the usefulness of the captured data.
4. Develop reporting templates that allow for meaningful dissemination of captured and tested data. If necessary, pre-conclusion reporting can be implemented to provide progress reports and interim observations.

ASSESSMENT OF POTENTIAL FEES

In conjunction with our review of the information you provided and the anticipated scope of work outlined above, we estimate that Anthem's fees to complete that scope of work will range from $200,000 to $250,000. I have attached my CV for your review and ask that you please contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Joseph L. Leuanae

CPA, CITP, CFF, CFE, ABV, ASA

Joseph L. Leuanae has been providing litigation support and financial valuation services for over 20 years. His engagements in these areas involve the application of forensic or investigative accounting techniques, the valuation of businesses and intangible assets, and the quantification of economic damages.

The following is a summary of Mr. Leuanae's forensic accounting, business valuation, and economic damage calculation experience.

Forensic/Investigative Accounting

Mr. Leuanae's forensic accounting experience includes the investigation and/or reconstruction of accounting records in cases relating to marital dissolution, embezzlement, fraud detection and documentation, theft, intellectual property, contract disputes, shareholder disputes, wrongful termination/death, personal injury, and business interruption. Sample experience includes the following:

- Performing investigative accounting relative to the valuation and tracing of marital/community assets in divorce cases.
- Performing investigative accounting in commercial litigation matters.
- Reconstructing accounting records as a result of theft, floods, fire, and other natural disasters.
- Performing investigative accounting analyses relative to criminal fraud trials and claims.

Financial Valuation

Mr. Leuanae's financial valuation experience includes valuing businesses and intellectual property in a number of diverse industries and in both cooperative and contentious appraisal environments. Sample experience includes the following:

- Performing valuations for matters involving marital dissolution, including assessing separate vs. community property allocations.
 - Consulting on synergy considerations in business combination transactions.
 - Performing valuations for shareholder disputes and buy-outs.
 - Performing valuations to assist with gift and estate tax planning.

Economic Damage Calculation

Mr. Leauanae's economic damage calculation experience includes the analysis and preparation of economic damage calculations for matters involving contract disputes, business interruption, and intellectual property infringement. He has also analyzed and quantified economic losses in personal injury, wrongful death, and wrongful termination matters. Sample experience includes the following:

- Analyzing plaintiff/defendant claims for lost profits, and the diminution of business value, in commercial litigation matters.
- Computing economic damages relative to intellectual property infringement.

Kirstin has 20 years of experience in public accounting, providing a full range of tax, business consulting and accounting services. She began her career with a large local firm located in Richmond, Virginia where she provided tax and business valuation services. Upon relocating to Las Vegas, she worked at RSM McGladrey for eight years where she continued to provide annual tax preparation services to a variety of clients including closely held businesses, high wealth individuals, fiduciary and non-profits. While at RSM McGladrey, she obtained her Certified Valuation Analyst certification ("CVA") from the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts as well as the AICPA's ABV Credential. While she no longer maintains these designations, her clients continue to benefit from her training and experience in this area.

In 2007 Kirstin joined Gerety and Associates, CPAs as a Tax Manager and has continued to manage a variety of tax - both federal and state, research and consulting engagements. Over the past few years, while increasing her income tax experience, she has also focused on gift and estate tax issues including probate accounting reports and litigation support as well as non-profit compliance. She promoted to Director in 2015.

Kirstin graduated from University of Nevada, Reno with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Marketing and then later completed the coursework required to obtain her CPA license at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Nevada State Society of CPAs.

Kirstin has been involved in several cases either independently or assisting Daniel T. Gerety with drafting of opinions and producing calculations and analyses. The cases are as follow:

- Christopher Thomas and Christopher Crag v. Nevada Yellow Cab Corporation; Nevada Checker Cab Corporation; and Star Cab Corporation. Prepared calculations of possible underpayment of minimum wages due to taxi cab drivers as required by the Nevada Minimum Wage Amendment.
- FK&G, LTD, LLC vs. Robert Foisie and FK&G, LTD vs. Bradley H. Glennon. Assisted with the preparation of expert report on the capital accounts of FK&G, LTD, calculated interest on promissory notes, drafting of opinion of reasonable management fees.
- Canarelli vs. Canarelli. Preparation of trust accounting for the year ending 12/31/14. Analysis of accounting from 2000 through 2013; wrote letter to quantify unexplained cash outflows and consult on case.
- Mashelle Begovich and Mary Sophia Smith v. Mark S. Chase, Trustee of the Milos Sharkey Begovich Trust. Engaged to review investment and loan activities of Trustee for reasonableness and consultation regarding malpractice claim.

Swarts, CPA regarding actions taken by management of various closely held real estate developments including the refinancing, mergers, spin-offs and amendments made to various operating agreements of each of the closely held entities. Observed testimony of Mr. Swarts during his deposition and during arbitration. Case settled prior to arbitration ruling.
 - Testamentary Trust of George A. Steiner Trust, Case No. P41337 consolidated with P42062. On June 14, 2012 prepared report analyzing the Twenty Third Accounting for the trust for the year ended December 31, 2011. On August 4, 2011, prepared expert report to rebut information contained in Objection to Twenty Second Accounting filed on behalf of Russell Steiner. Report contained analysis of how trustees' decisions affected the income beneficiaries financially, an analysis of what was principal vs. income, and whether the accounting provided to the court was in accordance with the Nevada Revised Statutes. On September 15, 2011 responded to rebuttal of my report. On November 1, 2011 wrote expert report on analysis of how corporate dividends of closely held consolidated group of corporations were classified on a partnership return. On June 14, 2012 wrote expert report of my analysis of the Twenty Third Accounting of the G. A. Steiner Trust. On September 26, 2012 wrote a rebuttal report to the Expert Opinions of Chris Wilcox, Peter K. Ellison and Curtis D. Trader. On October 27, 2013 wrote report regarding the 23rd and 24th Annual Accountings. On January 15, 2014 wrote rebuttal report to the Expert Opinions of Chris Wilcox, Curtis Trader, David Denis, Ronald Gilson, Craig Aronoff, and D. Gordon Smith.
 - Steven L Dahl vs. Ronald Henry, Trustee of the Lloyd L. Dahl Testamentary Trust. On September 19, 2011 I prepared draft of expert witness report computing damages incurred by beneficiary from the Trustee's management of trust assets.
 - Emil Frei, III vs. Daniel V Goodsell. Clark County District Court. Work entailed calculation of damages pertaining to a malpractice suit on estate planning matters. Deposition taken January 28, 2011 and Testimony given in District Court February 22, 2011

 - Reta Leseberg and Mark Leseberg vs. R. Glen Woods, Esq., and Woods Erickson Whitaker Miles & Maurice. Clark County District Court. Dan's work was to rebut another experts report regarding damages in a conflict of interest suit. His deposition was taken September 22, 2010 and he assisted attorney in deposition of the other expert. Testimony given in District Court December 23, 2010.

- Eric Nelson v. Lynita Nelson divorce case. Clark County Family Court. Meeting with attorneys to help with negotiation of property settlement. Dan testified on October 20, 2010 regarding business and tax risks and values of various ongoing businesses and investments and whether tax attributes could be transferred in an divorce. Prepared expert report on March 21, 2011 regarding tax issues of ownership of LLC holding a Mississippi Casino which rebutted other CPAs report. Prepared expert report on July 5, 2012 regarding the accounting and separate identity of the Eric L. Nelson Nevada Trust. Report was used to counter alter-ego claim. Testified in Family Court on July 18th, July 19th, July 23rd, and August 20, 2012.
- Christian Buck and Anne Buck-Fenn, Christian & Anne Buck LLC v. John Hoffman and Leonard C. Buck. Second Judicial District Court of Nevada in and for the County of Washoe. This case went to trial. Dan's report and testimony in court involved determination of damages due to improper funding and management by the trustee.
- HSK Trust v. Jason Hecker. Clark County Probate Court. Gerety & Associates, CPAs prepared the trust accounting and Dan testified regarding the mismanagement of trust assets by the trustee.
- Christopher W. Chingros and Arthur S. Chingros v. Carolyn A. Chingros. Clark County District Court. Dan wrote a report regarding valuation of a limited partnership distributed and the underfunding of a trust upon death of grantor. Deposition taken June 30, 2010.
- Thomas A. Hantges, USACM Liquidating Trust v. Lucius Blanchard; Lucius Blanchard Children's Irrevocable Trust and Palomino Partners Limited Partnership. Michael W. Carmel, Chapter 11 Trustee for the Estate of Thomas A. Hantges v. Thomas A. Hantges and Trustees of the Hantges Children's Education Trust. USACM liquidating Trust v. Eagle Ranch, LLC; Eagle Ranch Residential, LLC; Willowbrook Residential, LLC, etc. United States Bankruptcy Court, District of Nevada. Expert report covered and reviewed all cash transactions and loans with USA Commercial Mortgage, accounting of loans and payback of loans between related entities, analyzed the set up of the Trust, reasonableness of the Trust's earnings, investment, profits, cash flow and amortization from loans with USA Commercial Mortgage and rebuttal of other expert witness' report.
- Rowell v. Frontier Logistics, LP. Dan helped determine the value of minority partner buyout of several LPs and S-Corps. He consulted with Frontier and attorneys to help arrive at a fair value to offer to buy out a disgruntled partner. He also reviewed many of the filings to give input on case. Case settled through Arbitration by American Arbitration Association in Houston, TX.
- Valeria Saint Clair v. Michael Foresta; dealing with trust and partnership accounting. Case was settled out of court.
- Thomas G. Wiley Trust. Clark County District Court. Dealt with dispute between co-trustees and preparation of proper trust accounting to determine personal vs. trust expenses. The accounting Dan prepared was accepted as part of the settlement agreement.
- Mark Brandenburg, as trustee of the Ghelfi Family Residual Trust v. Daniel E. Rubin, entailed the taxation of the share of profits in a partnership agreement and the allocations and taxation of these interests. Dan testified in the arbitration. Dan's testimony was accepted over the other experts in this case.

- Other cases have included two executive compensation suits. Michael Starr v. MGM Mirage, United States District Court, District of Nevada. Provided declaration of lost benefits. Klem Belt v. Health South, had deposition taken in Albuquerque, NM regarding lost benefits of terminating deferred compensation plan and split-dollar life insurance agreement. There have been a number of estate and trust accounting matters and one divorce case in which the attorneys on both sides relied on Dan's advice to tell them what the tax consequences would be, based on drafts of the property settlement agreements. Another case that went to arbitration was a lawsuit against Bank of America. Dan was Bank of America's expert witness. The case involved trustee matters and the taxation of life insurance.

Dan has been a Special Master to the Court three times. On April 23, 2015, in the matter of the Bernard Trust dated May 2, 1985, the District Court of Clark County, Nevada appointed Dan successor trustee of the Bernard Trust and as a special master under NRCP 53 to review accountings and investigate assets, income and expenses of the Bernard Trust. He was also appointed as Special Administrator of the Estate of James Gerke in the related Probate case on the same matter. At one time, he was Co-Special Master to the Court with Governor Bob Miller and retired Judge Richardson on the William Perry case in Clark County District Court. He wrote the report that advised the Judge on what should be done with the money that was confiscated until it could be determined who the creditors were. The other case dealt with the valuation of a business and the split up of an estate between its heirs and was held in Clark County Probate Court. Dan evaluated the business valuations that were prepared, and the opinion of another accounting firm that was an expert on the case, and then advised the Judge on how to proceed.

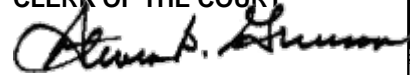

Dan has spoken to numerous groups over the years including twice for the Illinois CPA Society's Real Estate Conference regarding asset protection and how real estate investments should be held. He has also spoken to the Southern Nevada CPA Society regarding estate tax planning. Dan has not authored any articles. Lorman Educational Services may have published one of the presentations that he co-wrote and presented titled Estate Planning in Nevada. Dan wrote the section titled Estate, Gift and GST Tax after the 2001 Tax Act. This talk was presented on February 19, 2002. His most recent presentations have been as follows:

Attorneys for Plaintiffs

DISTRICT COURT
CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

MICHAEL MURRAY, and MICHAEL
RENO, Individually and on behalf of others
similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

and CREIGHTON J. NADY,

Defendants.

Case No.: A-12-669926-C

Dept.: I

ORDER MODIFYING COURT'S PREVIOUS ORDER OF FEBRUARY 7, 2018
MASTER

On February 7, 2018, the Court entered an Order Granting Plaintiffs' Motion to Appoint a Special Master. That Order appointed as a Special Master in this case Michael Rosten of Piercy Bowler Taylor & Kerns in Las Vegas, Nevada. Since entry of that Order, the Court has received correspondence from Defendants' counsel, Esther Rodriguez, concerning a purported conflict of interest with the appointment of Mr. Rosten as Special Master. The Court has also received a responsive letter from Plaintiffs' counsel, Leon Greenberg.

As of this writing, it has been at least nineteen (19) days since the Court Ordered that a Special Master be appointed, and yet inadequate progress is being made toward implementation of that Order. The Court is extremely concerned with the passage of time in this matter for reasons previously expressed.

In order to prevent one more issue from injecting itself into these proceedings,

1 and in light of the possibility that any local firm may trigger another objection due to 2 purported conflicts of interest, the Court rescinds its appointment and its selection of 3 Michael Rosten and the firm of Piercy Bowler Taylor, & Kerns as Special Master and 4 selects Dr. Ali Saad and the firm of Resolution Economics to be the Special Master in 5 this case. Mr. Rosten and Piercy Bowler Taylor & Kerns may present their bill for 6 services rendered to the Defendant A Cab who shall have 10 days to pay the same and 7 this matter will proceed to its conclusion.

8 The Court's Order of February 7, 2018 appointing a Special Master is hereby 9 amended to substitute Dr. Ali Saad and the firm of Resolution Economics where that 10 Order referred to Michael Rosten and the firm of Piercy Bowler Taylor & Kerns. The 11 various time limits for action to be taken under that Order shall now commence from 12 the date of entry of this Order. All other terms of the Court's Order of February 7, 13 2018 in this case shall remain in effect.

1 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2018, 10:13 A.M.

2 * * * * *

3 THE CLERK: Michael Murray versus A Cab Taxi Service. Case Number
4 A669926.

5 THE COURT: Will counsel enter their appearances, please.

6 MR. GREENBERG: Leon Greenberg, Dana Sniegocki, Christian Gabroy
7 and Kaine Messer for plaintiff.

8 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Esther Rodriguez for the 9 defendants. And Creighton J. Nady is present as well.

10 MR. NADY: Good morning.

11 THE COURT: Good morning. Thank you all for being able to come on short 12 notice. I thought that it was important that we try and get through this latest issue
13 as quickly as possible in order to proceed ahead with all dispatch and all due speed
14 on the Court's previous order.

15 I have a packet of documents which I have received and which I will 16 make a record of. The first is the order granting plaintiff's motion to appoint a
17 special master. As you will recall, I advised the parties on January 25th, I'm sure 18 as a surprise to both sides, that the Court was going to grant the motion which had 19 been filed some two years previously, May 19th of 2015, to appoint a special master
20 and the Court indicated the reasons why it was doing so. You will recall we met 21 approximately a week after that to try and attend to the details necessary and make 22 -- and get that to proceed ahead with all dispatch. After both sides nominating 23 several parties and of course the Court selected Mr. Rosten from Piercy Bowler, 24 then I received an email on Monday, February 12th, from Michael Rosten, who

1 indicates as follows. It was actually addressed to my JEA, Joan Lawson. "Joan,
2 as we discussed, I have attached correspondence received last week related to 3 our special master appointment which addresses the issue of our managing 4 shareholder's brother being a cab driver for A Cab. But after close of the class 5 period, because of counsel's disagreement this seems a prime issue for 6 consideration by Judge Kenneth Cory."

7 And with that I received the letter of February 9th from Ms. Rodriguez
8 and a responsive letter dated the same date, February 9th, from Mr. Greenberg.
9 Upon receiving these and looking at them, as you can probably tell from the order
10 which I then entered on February 13th -- it was filed that date, anyway, and signed 11 on that date, I entered a minute order first indicating why I was just proceeding
12 ahead and modifying the previous order. Much of my concern is that we not stop 13 and sort out issues that could arise along the way if we had a more deliberative
14 process. We're at a different stage of the passage of time in this case. And on 15 that basis and because I indicated that it is possible that any local firm who might 16 be appointed in the place of Michael Rosten and Piercy Bowler might have some 17 connection to one side or the other, and if so then we would have a further issue 18 along the way that wouldn't make any progress towards the significant job that 19 needs to be done by the special master in this case. And on that basis I entered 20 the order of February 13th.

21 I then received from Ms. Rodriguez a fax dated February 13th which 22 transmits her letter of the same date in which she raises objection to the fact -- 23 mostly, I think, and you can correct me if I'm wrong, Ms. Rodriguez, mostly to the 24 fact the Court had ordered the defendant to pay the bill of Mr. Rosten. That letter

1 included a number of allegations which prompted plaintiff's counsel then on the 2 next day, Valentine's Day, to send a letter -- it looks like I have the original of the 3 letter. I don't know, it must have been hand delivered. It indicates copies to 4 Esther Rodriguez and Michael Wall by email. I'm not clear at this point -- I assume,
5 Ms. Rodriguez, that you received this letter by email. At any rate, this is where 6 Mr. Greenberg is at pains to clarify the record from his perspective or clarify the 7 allegations presented by Ms. Rodriguez in her letter from the previous day.

8 That brings us to this point, and I thought I'd better get the people
9 in here because we're going to wind up with some kind of a giant issue that once 10 again takes time away from the work at hand based on these allegations of -- and 11 this certainly is not the first time that we've had counsel, rather than dealing with 12 the issues of the case, have taken to sniping at each other.

13 At any rate, to the extent that I'm accurate, Ms. Rodriguez, that your 14 objection in your most recent letter was that your client is being made to pay for 15 what Mr. Rodriguez -- I'm sorry, what Mr. Rosten has done, which I don't know if 16 there's a bill yet from him, whether we know how much that is, but the objection 17 to the defendant having to pay.

18 My view, and I'll hear from both sides before I rule on this, but my 19 view is that it's not untoward to have the defendant pay for the objection raised
20 to this local firm. It is unclear to me -- I mean, I don't have -- I have not made a 21 ruling and I aspire not to make a ruling on the issue of whether the brother of the 22 managing partner of Piercy Bowler actually is a member of this class. My purpose 23 in modifying the motion was to eliminate any possibility of this sort of thing, at least 24 as best as possible. So the only thing that I have in mind that I think needs to be

1 sorted out is this last objection raised by Ms. Rodriguez to having to pay for the bill
2 of Mr. Rosten and the firm of Piercy Bowler.

3 Ms. Rodriguez, do you have further argument to make in that regard?

4 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I do, Your Honor. Thank you. And you're correct, that 5 is the primary objection with the present draft order that was submitted to the Court.
6 There was a series of emails where the -- Mr. Greenberg sent me the proposed 7 email and I think gave me an hour or so to respond before he submitted it to the 8 Court. I actually didn't even see any of his email correspondence until about three 9 hours later --

10 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

11 MS. RODRIGUEZ: -- so that's why my letter came later in the day. I was 12 out of the office until later that afternoon.

13 But when Your Honor -- when we met at chambers and Your Honor
14 asked me to go back and talk to our proposed names and get some further budget
15 and C.V. and things like that, I did that. And I know that one of those proposed 16 people, Mr. Liano (phonetic) that we submitted, did substantial work over the 17 weekend reviewing things to try to put together a proposal as well, to be considered
18 by the Court for special master. And I assume all the other people that Mr.
19 Greenberg contacted, as well as I did, did work. None of those people have 20 submitted a bill to me, and I don't know if they've submitted a bill to Mr. Greenberg, 21 because that was part of the work --

22 THE COURT: I wouldn't expect them to do so.

23 MS. RODRIGUEZ: To be considered by the Court for appointment. That 24 was part of -- if you wanted to be considered, this is what the Court is asking you

1 to do. So I would not expect that we would be billed for any of that information
2 that was submitted to Mr. Rosten. That was one of my arguments before, was like,
3 I don't even know what has been submitted to Mr. Rosten.

4 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

5 MS. RODRIGUEZ: And that's going to be one of my requests to the Court
6 is that we no longer engage in any kind of ex parte communications with these 7 special masters. I don't think it's proper. And I argued this before when we met
8 in chambers that one party should not be communicating with select data --

9 THE COURT: What's the ex parte communication?

10 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I don't know. I don't know. I don't know what was 11 submitted to Mr. Rosten. I'm waiting to see his bill to see what he's reviewed.
12 In his proposal, along with some of the other folks, they said --

13 THE COURT: Oh, you mean prior to?

14 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Between Mr. Greenberg and the special master. Correct.
15 The proposed special master.

16 THE COURT: But you're talking about prior to --

17 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Correct.

18 THE COURT: -- the Court entering any order?

19 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Right. Right. I'm not talking about the most recent --

20 THE COURT: Well --

21 MS. RODRIGUEZ: -- thing that Your Honor just clarified this morning, that 22 it was an email from Mr. Rosten to the Court that apparently he didn't copy either 23 one of us on that as well --

1 MS. RODRIGUEZ: -- I'm assuming. I'm assuming Mr. Greenberg didn't
2 have notification of Mr. Rosten's communications with the Court, which I don't think
3 was altogether proper, either. Basically my problem with Mr. Rosten is I don't know
4 if he's ever been considered as a special master, but the very basic primer thing
5 that you do is run a conflicts check. Before I talked to any of these folks that we 6 submitted to the Court, I said here are the attorneys, here are the parties that are 7 involved, run a conflicts check before I even give you any additional data. It doesn't 8 appear that Mr. Rosten did that. I don't know if the guy that you've now appointed,
9 if he's done that; if Mr. Greenberg asked any of these people to run a conflicts
10 check. And it's not a matter of that they just have a relative out there that's a 11 cab driver. This is an actual current cab driver of A Cab that is the brother of the 12 managing shareholder of this firm.

13 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

14 MS. RODRIGUEZ: If there had been any circulation to the partners or the 15 managing shareholder to say this is who we're going to be involved with is A Cab --
16 I don't think that was done until obviously, what, two weeks later after -- or ten days
17 later after he's received notification of doing the proposal and doing the submission
18 to the Court. So that's my objection, is you should have started right there, run a 19 conflicts check and then you would know to raise that, to put the parties on notice.
20 I think Mr. Greenberg probably wouldn't even have submitted him if Mr. Rosten
21 had said my brother -- I mean, the brother works at A Cab.

22 THE COURT: Well, if he's a cab driver for A Cab, are you saying that you
23 would expect a putative special master, someone who is being considered, to run 24 a conflicts check with every member of the class, all the taxi drivers?

1 MS. RODRIGUEZ: No, absolutely not.

2 THE COURT: Well, how else --

3 MS. RODRIGUEZ: First of all, A Cab is one of the smallest cab companies
4 in town. There's not that many drivers to begin with, compared to something like 5 Frias or Yellow-Checker-Star or anything like that. So this is a very limited group.
6 So -- and Mr. Greenberg's response saying I've represented over 20,000 people
7 in the Las Vegas valley, so I have no idea who I've represented or whether there's 8 ever been a conflict and eventually probably somebody is going to be related, I think
9 that is a far stretch from the reality of going to a CPA firm and saying is your brother
10 a current cab driver of A Cab. I mean, that conflict is fairly obvious. I found three 11 people that don't have a relative at A Cab or that have never been represented 12 by Mr. Greenberg with my first phone calls. So that's also my problem with 13 understanding --

14 THE COURT: Well, that are currently cab drivers, but of those --

15 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Ever.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So, how many members of the class do we have?

17 MS. RODRIGUEZ: How many members of the class?

18 THE COURT: Mr. Greenberg, do you know?

19 MR. GREENBERG: Your Honor, there are in excess of 1,000 individuals.

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry, how many?

21 MR. GREENBERG: I would say in excess of 1,000.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. GREENBERG: There's some lack of precision there. It certainly is more 24 than 500, less than 1,500, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. Okay, thank you.

2 MS. RODRIGUEZ: And whether one of those cab drivers at A Cab is going
3 to be related to a managing shareholder of a CPA, I think the statistics are fairly low,
4 Your Honor, in reality.

5 THE COURT: Well, of course for this type of objection we wouldn't be limited
6 to the managing partner, either. Wouldn't it be anybody who's much of anything
7 with Piercy Bowler? So, I guess -- well, okay, let me -- go ahead and finish with 8 your --

9 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Well, along those lines, Your Honor --

10 THE COURT: And my question is really is your objection to having to pay
11 Mr. Rosten and Piercy Bowler for the time -- and I will say you brought up, you 12 know, what about -- are they supposed to pay for everything they did before they 13 were appointed, and my answer would be no.

14 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Okay. That's fair, Your Honor, and I appreciate that.
15 Part two, then, is from the time that they've been appointed, A Cab, per your order,
16 is supposed to furnish them with all of the trip sheets and all of the QuickBooks
17 data, etcetera, for them to review. We have not provided that to Mr. Rosten. And 18 I was just discussing that with Mr. Greenberg this morning that I'm glad I hadn't 19 provided that to him because he probably would have billed the heck out of it and 20 now we've been paying for it. So, Mr. Rosten should not have done any work as 21 of this date unless --

22 THE COURT: Well, it strikes me that perhaps we're objecting before we 23 know whether there's an issue.

24 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Exactly. I don't know. Maybe he's not even going to

1 submit a bill, but it's in your order for him to work up a bill and submit it to A Cab,
2 so that is my objection.

3 THE COURT: Well, certainly there's opportunity. One of the reasons I
4 made it 10 days to make a payment was to give opportunity to object if you found 5 anything --

6 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Uh-huh.

7 THE COURT: -- untoward in the billing. But what I am most concerned
8 with at this point is not having what I consider a side issue do anything to stop the 9 process of getting this matter brought to completion.

10 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Okay.

11 THE COURT: And so if there remains some objection to the bill after it's 12 submitted, certainly there would be opportunity to object to it without sort of hijacking
13 the process. So what I was concerned with when I saw this flurry of emails going 14 back and forth, allegations of ex parte communications and all manner of things, 15 you know, it goes -- I mean, I wouldn't be surprising anyone with the remark or the 16 observation that there is certainly less than the usual cordiality between counsel
17 in this case, and I don't want that to interfere with the litigation itself.

18 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Absolutely not, Your Honor. But I think you can probably 19 put yourself in my position where I've sent a letter to Mr. Rosten. Mr. Rosten was 20 very ambiguous about disclosing the conflict, anyway. First he sat on it. Then he 21 said, oh, by the way, my managing shareholder has a brother who works at A Cab.
22 So I had to ask him, can you give me a name? Can you tell me who this is? And 23 then he said -- I wish I had brought his email. I think I probably have it. He said
24 something like, oh, he's just a lowly cab driver at A Cab named Dennis Donahue.

1 And then I had to go back and find out, well, who is this person?

2 So the first part of that, I was very uncomfortable with Mr. Rosten's
3 handling of that whole situation, as I mentioned. I mean, this is basic attorney
4 protocol to have your client check for a conflict. I don't know if Mr. Greenberg asked
5 him to check for a conflict, but if he's ever being considered for a special master,
6 he should know to check for a conflict. That's the very first thing.

7 Number two is, I sent him a letter, then, saying I've consulted with my 8 co-counsel, I've consulted with my client. He's a current cab driver. We're asking 9 you to recuse yourself.

10 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

11 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I don't hear anything back. The next thing I hear is a 12 minute order from this Court.

13 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

14 MS. RODRIGUEZ: So obviously I'm thinking, well, what has triggered the 15 minute order? Who submitted things to the Court? I don't know if it's Mr. Greenberg
16 or Mr. Rosten.

17 THE COURT: Well, I would not really --

18 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I kind of suspected it wasn't Mr. Greenberg, that it was 19 Mr. Rosten, but I don't know. I'm sure he doesn't know.

20 THE COURT: Well, I would have been surprised if Mr. Rosten had handled
21 it any other way than to turn it over to the Court --

22 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Uh-huh.

23 THE COURT: -- the way that he did. I wouldn't have expected him -- at that 24 point he is -- he has been appointed.

1 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Right.

2 THE COURT: And it wouldn't make sense for him, in my way of thinking,
3 to engage then in some further conversation with you or with Mr. Greenberg about 4 the matter, other than to say, wait a minute, there's an issue that's been presented;
5 here you go, Judge. I mean, that's kind of the way I took the email that he sent.

6 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Except that we didn't see -- we were not privy to that 7 email, Your Honor. And I would think if he knows enough -- I looked at his proposal 8 again and he's put paragraphs in there about being appointed as a quasi-judicial 9 and we should receive immunity and not be sued and this and that. He knows
10 enough to put that in his proposal, but he doesn't know enough to copy the parties
11 on communications to the Court or to run a conflicts check. So I am very pleased 12 to see that Your Honor is considering somebody else because I don't know Mr.
13 Rosten. I've never had one discussion with him. But I think his handling thus far 14 did not -- it showed a lack of professionalism in his handling.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Where, number two --

17 THE COURT: Well, he's not here to defend himself --

18 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I don't know him, Your Honor, but.

19 THE COURT: -- and I don't propose to go into making a record against 20 someone who is not here to defend themselves because they got appointed as a 21 special master.

22 MS. RODRIGUEZ: I understand. But part two of your order says that the 23 Court is accepting or giving some credibility to the fact that Mr. Greenberg has said
24 because I've represented 20,000 people it's impossible to have a local firm come in

1 and handle this. That's what I'm understanding is your reasoning for appointing 2 an out-of-state person now.

3 THE COURT: My reasoning came as much from your letter as it did Mr.
4 Greenberg's.

5 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Okay. I think there's plenty of qualified local people, 6 so this is --

7 THE COURT: Well, that's not even on the table at this point.

8 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Well --

9 THE COURT: I made the appointment --

10 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Okay.

11 THE COURT: -- and I do not wish to change it again.

12 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Well --

13 THE COURT: Part of the reason why I selected Piercy Bowler was that I --
14 I don't remember if they were the absolute cheapest, but they were certainly less 15 than bringing in some outside firm.

16 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Uh-huh.

17 THE COURT: And I think I even made a comment in court at some point
18 when we were meeting subsequent to the Court's order -- subsequent to January 19 25th when I indicated I was granting that motion that I would have loved to have 20 used a local firm --

21 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Uh-huh.

22 THE COURT: -- and do away with communications problems. But I would 23 not and I will not allow a potential issue such as the one that's come up with this to 24 happen rather than get the work done. And it seems to me at this point the most --

1 the way that's most likely to do away with this kind of an issue because of somebody
2 in the special master's operation knows somebody on one side or the other of this 3 litigation, the way to do it is I'm going to use somebody outside, so I have appointed
4 Resolution --

5 MS. RODRIGUEZ: Dr. Saad.

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 MS. RODRIGUEZ: S-a-a-d? Okay.

8 THE COURT: Yes.

9 MS. RODRIGUEZ: And that's fine, Your Honor, but your question this 10 morning was about any obstacles that are going to prohibit the parties from moving
11 forward and that's why I'm raising this issue right now because I would like to know
12 whether Dr. Saad has even run a conflicts check so we don't run into anything else.
13 Since the first guy didn't, I don't know if this guy has --

14 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

15 MS. RODRIGUEZ: -- or what the relationship is with Mr. Greenberg. You
16 know, how he found this person. If we could get a little bit of that, then we know 17 there's not going to be an obstacle to the appointment of this person.

18 THE COURT: Well, certainly I will ask Mr. Greenberg to speak to that.
19 However, the time to object, I think, was when the names were submitted. The 20 time for each of you to object to what had been submitted was then.

21 MS. RODRIGUEZ: And I think I did, Your Honor. I did submit -- I asked 22 at that point -- we had this discussion in chambers where you said, well, you know, 23 go back and get some additional information.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MS. RODRIGUEZ: But I had no idea that these people hadn't run a conflicts
2 check and I just -- again, I thought that was a basic understanding, that we would 3 not be having a current employee of A Cab or a current cab driver. So we're back
4 to square one, and so I'm asking what has --

5 THE COURT: All right. Well, let's ask --

6 MS. RODRIGUEZ: -- has a conflicts check even been run with Dr. Saad.

7 THE COURT: Let's ask Mr. Greenberg to speak to that.

8 MR. GREENBERG: Your Honor, there is a conclusion being voiced to the 9 Court that Mr. Rosten did not run a conflict check, okay. I cannot speak to what he 10 did or did not actually do. I can only speak to my communications with him. And 11 when he was initially contacted, as was every one of -- I believe there were five or 12 six nominees I gave the Court -- every single one of those nominees did inquire 13 with me about any conflict based upon their firm's involvement in other matters.

14 THE COURT: You say they did inquire of you?

15 MR. GREENBERG: They did inquire and they were provided with a copy
16 of the complaint, the pleading in the case --

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. GREENBERG: -- so they could satisfy themselves that there was no 19 conflict.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. GREENBERG: What they did at that point I can't speak to, obviously, 22 Your Honor. So -- and Mr. Saad and Resolution Economics, Dr. Saad did that as 23 well and assured me.

24 Now, the Court is aware, in my view, this question of conflict is sort of

1 expanded by defendants beyond all kind of workable sort of sensibilities, but that's
2 not the issue here, Your Honor. Your Honor has made your decision how to handle
3 this. What Mr. Rosten did or didn't do, his services rendered in the six days he was 4 actually special master, those are all collateral issues I don't -- from my view, Your 5 Honor, I don't see that this is something that I should be addressing unless the 6 Court wishes --

7 THE COURT: No, I do not.

8 MR. GREENBERG: -- to hear from me about any of that, okay.

9 THE COURT: I do not.

10 MR. GREENBERG: Okay. The only thing I would like to hear today, and 11 I had a brief conversation with Ms. Rodriguez before Your Honor took the bench,
12 is a commitment from defendants to deliver to Dr. Saad overnight the necessary 13 materials so he can commence his work, which consists of the trip sheets which 14 are approximately 300,000 individual PDFs. I mean, I actually have with me today 15 the hard drive that was provided to me by defendants in the litigation which has 16 about three-quarters of those materials. Ms. Rodriguez represented to me before 17 you took the bench that she has everything prepared. She's prepared to give it 18 to the special master directly, which is fine. I mean, that way if it comes directly 19 from defendants there will be no question that there was any contamination or 20 mishandling by me in terms of getting the source materials to the special master.

21 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

22 MR. GREENBERG: So it's the trip sheets. Ms. Rodriguez has also advised 23 me that defendants want the special master to work with the raw QuickBooks data --

24 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

1 MR. GREENBERG: -- and come up with the gross wage numbers. There
2 was a provision in the order from February 7th saying the parties could potentially 3 stipulate as to what the gross wage amounts were --

4 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

5 MR. GREENBERG: -- per pay period because we've done work on that 6 on my end. Defendants are declining to enter into that agreement, which is fine.
7 They will also provide the raw QuickBooks data and that will be part of the special
8 master's work. I just want to see that the materials get to the special master as 9 soon as possible so he can get this done and we can meet the time pressures of 10 the litigation, Your Honor. So I have nothing further I need to address to the Court
11 or feel important to address to Your Honor besides that, unless you have questions.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So you do not know whether any conflicts check was 13 made or what was done in that regard?

14 MR. GREENBERG: It was represented to me by Mr. Rosten and every single 15 nominee I gave you --

16 THE COURT: No, I'm not talking about Rosten. I'm talking about Mr. Saad.

17 MR. GREENBERG: Yes, it was represented to me by Mr. Saad and his firm 18 that they did a conflicts check as well.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. GREENBERG: I can only tell you what they represented to me and 21 what they requested of me when I initially contacted them.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. GREENBERG: That was one of the first things they asked was, well, 24 we need to know who the parties are.
