Finally, the state asserts that Brandy's alleged statement was a statement against interest and therefore a hearsay exception. (State's motion, p. 8). Given that the police themselves did not seem to think that Brandy had done or was aware of anything preventing them from letting her drive away from the Moultrie stop unfettered, there is nothing to support the state's assertion that Brandy's alleged statement was against interest.

It is important to note that the only one of the hearsay arguments in the state's motion that the state offered at the preliminary hearing was the argument that the statement was offered for its effect on Kirkland. However, the state undercut its own argument on this issue by repeatedly stressing that Kirkland had consent to search – in other words, that the statement was offered for its truth.

The record in the instant case demonstrates that the stronger argument supports the ruling that the statement was hearsay. Especially because the state invented new justifications for admitting the statement that it did not offer at the preliminary hearing, the record is clear that the Justice Court did not commit egregious error.

At the time said Defendant entered his plea of guilty, this Court informed him of the privilege against compulsory self-incrimination, his right to a speedy trial, his right to a trial by jury, and his right to confront his accusers. IN THE FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA,
IN AND FOR ESMERALDA COUNTY

THE STATE OF NEVADA

Plaintiff,

٧.

MATTHEW LEON MOULTRIE

Defendant.

ORDER GRANTING THE STATE LEAVE TO FILE AN INFORMATION BY AFFIDAVIT

The Court has received the State's request to file an information by affidavit in this case; which request has been timely opposed by the Defendant. Because the Court finds that there was sufficient evidence presented during the preliminary hearing to support a finding of probable cause, that the Justice Court erred in discharging the Defendant, and that the arguments presented by the Defendant are insufficient to warrant denial, the Court now GRANTS the State's request.

FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

This case originates in a traffic stop performed by the Esmeralda County Sheriff's Office on December 11, 2011. During the stop, a deputy requested permission to search the vehicle and allegedly discovered methamphetamine belonging to the Defendant, a passenger in the vehicle. The Defendant was charged with possession of methamphetamine with the intent to distribute, with an enhancement for a second offense. A preliminary hearing was held on the charge; during the preliminary hearing the Justice of the Peace upheld a hearsay objection to prevent the deputy from testifying about whether he received consent to search the vehicle the Defendant was riding in.

I

Additionally, although the State filed the charge as a second offense, it was unable to provide evidence of a prior conviction at the preliminary hearing.

On the basis of the hearsay objection and the State's failure to prove a prior conviction, the Justice of the Peace discharged the Defendant and dismissed the charge. The State filed its request to file an information by affidavit 63 days after the discharge by the Justice Court. The Defendant opposed the State's request on the grounds that: 1) it was untimely, being filed outside the statutory fifteen day window; 2) the information filed by the State alleges a Class D Felony first offense rather than a Class C Felony second offense (which was originally charged); and 3) the Justice of the Peace did not commit egregious error when the hearsay object was upheld.

DISCUSSION

1. THE HEARSAY ERROR IN THE JUSTICE COURT WAS SUFFICIENT TO PERMIT THE STATE TO FILE AN INFORMATION BY AFFIDAVIT

The primary procedure for trying a defendant in District Court for felonies and gross misdemeanors is through preliminary hearing and bindover in the Justice Court. However, if a Defendant is discharged in the preliminary hearing, or if he waives his preliminary hearing, the State may file an information by affidavit in the District Court if that Court grants permission to do so. NRS 173.035(2) (2009). The statute governing the filing of informations by affidavit in the District Court does not specify a basis for a Court to allow the state to proceed by affidavits. Id. The Nevada Supreme Court has, however, held that the State should only be permitted to proceed on an information filed by affidavit to correct egregious error committed by the Justice Court; not to overcome deficiencies in the presentation of evidence at a preliminary hearing. State v. District Court, 114 Nev. 739, 741-42, 964 P.2d 48, 49 (1998). Thus, where the State fails to demonstrate probable cause as to one of the elements of the charged offense and a defendant is discharged, it may not attempt to recharge the defendant in the District Court. Cranford v. Smart, 92 Nev. 89, 89, 545 P.2d 1162, 1163 (1976).

Unfortunately, "egregious" error has not been identified or explained by the Nevada Supreme Court, nor are there any examples of what is egregious error in Nevada case law. Other jurisdictions have equated egregious error with plain error, which is generally defined as an error so significant that it affects the substantial rights of the parties. Ex parte Taylor, 666 So.2d 73, 84 (Ala. 1995). Actions to correct plain or egregious error should only be employed when a miscarriage of justice would likely occur otherwise. Id.; see also Valdez v. State, 124 Nev. 1172, 1190, 196 P.3d 465, 477 (2008).

Having defined as well as possible the parameters for permitting the State to file an information by affidavit, the Court turns now to the facts and law specific to this case. The first error the State complains of is the Justice Court's decision to uphold a hearsay objection raised by the Defendant when the State attempted to establish that the vehicle the Defendant's drugs were allegedly found in was searched subject to the driver's consent. It is well established law that a statement of consent to search given to police is not hearsay if offered for the purpose of explaining why an officer believed he had consent to search the vehicle. See NRS 51.035 (defining hearsay as a statement offered for the truth of the matter asserted); see also e.g. State v. Hodges, 672 S.E.2d 724, 731 (NC Ct. App. 2009) ("...[the statement of consent] was used to explain why [the Officer] believed he could conduct the search of the vehicle and proceeded to search the vehicle...[and] was not hearsay as it was admitted to explain his subsequent conduct.")

The Justice of the Peace erred when it upheld the hearsay objection to the Officer's statements about why he chose to search the vehicle in this case. The Defendant's statement of consent was admissible to explain the officer's subsequent conduct and to establish simply that the statement was made. See Id. As such the statement of consent was not hearsay and should have been admitted. An erroneous ruling on the rules of evidence is not normally significant enough to rise to the level of plain error; however, in this case the error prevented the Justice of the Peace from considering admissible evidence in making her determination of probable cause. Thus, the State's right to proceed in a criminal matter was substantially affected and the filing of an information by affidavit is the appropriate remedy.

THE JUSTICE COURT ALSO ERRED BY DENYING THE STATE'S MOTION TO AMEND THE INFORMATION

An information may be amended at any time prior to a verdict at trial so long as no additional or different offenses are alleged and the substantial rights of the defendant are not affected. NRS 173.095(1) (1995). Amendment to conform charges to the evidence is allowed if it does not change the theory of prosecution or negate the method of defense. State v. District Court, 116 Nev. 374, 377, 997 P.2d 126, 129 (2000); Green v. State, 94 Nev. 176, 177, 576 P.2d 1123, 1123 (1978).

In this case, the State sought to amend its information to remove the repeat offender element of the charges after it failed to provide any proof of the Defendant's prior conviction (if indeed there is a prior conviction) for possession during the preliminary hearing. Since the Defendant was not even in a trial and there was no verdict to be given, the State should have been permitted to amend the information. The Justice of the Peace denied the motion to amend and then discharged the Defendant because, among other things, the State had not proven that the Defendant was a repeat offender. This was an error, and warrants an order permitting the State to proceed by affidavit. The State presented sufficient evidence to establish probable cause as to all the elements of a first offense possession with intent to sell charge and it should have been permitted to proceed on that charge.

3. THE STATE'S DELAY IN FILING IN THE DISTRICT COURT, ALTHOUGH SIGNIFICANT, HAS NOT PREJUDICED THE DEFENDANT

Under NRS 173.035, a request from the State to file an information by affidavit must be filed within fifteen days after a defendant is discharged by the Justice Court. However, if the State misses the fifteen day deadline, denial of the motion to proceed by affidavit is not mandatory; rather, the Court has the discretion to deny and should do so if the Defendant is prejudiced by the delay. Berry v. Sheriff of Clark County, 93 Nev. 557, 558, 571 P.2d 109, 110 (1977). To warrant denial of the State's motion, the Defendant's showing of prejudice must be actual and will not be satisfied by speculation about what could have happened if the State had not delayed. Mello v. State, 93 Nev. 662, 664, 572 P.2d 533, 534 (1977).

The Defendant's first allegation of prejudice is that he has not been active in defending his case during the State's period of delay because he thought the case was finished. Crucially, however, the Defendant does not explain to the Court exactly what he could have been doing during the 63 day delay that he is unable to do now. The prejudice complained of is speculative and does not warrant denial of the State's motion. The Defendant also alleges that he is prejudiced by the delay since he is not a resident of Esmeralda County; however, it is unclear how this makes the State's delay prejudicial. Whether the Defendant was charged 63 days ago or today he still will have to travel to Esmeralda County and be subject to any attendant inconveniences. The Defendant's last allegation of prejudice is that he has not been able to consult with counsel during the delay because he did not know he was going to be re-charged; however, the Court is sure that the Defendant will have adequate time to consult with his counsel prior to trial.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons outlined above, the Court now GRANTS the State's motion to file an information by affidavit in this case.

A defendant who prevails on appeal must be allowed to withdraw the plea.

As contemplated by NRS 174.035(3), I expressly and in writing reserve my right to appeal for the purpose of obtaining a review of the District Court's adverse determination of my obtaining a review of the District Court's adverse determination of the state's motion for leave to file an information by affidavit (i.e. a review of District Court's decision to grant the state's motion for leave to file an information by affidavit); I also expressly and in writing reserve my right to withdraw my guilty plea.

VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA

I have discussed the elements of all the original charges against me with my attorney and I understand the nature of these charges against me. I have decided to enter my guilty plea herein after a review of North Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25 (1970) and Tiger v. State, 98 Nev. 555, 654 P.2d 1031 (1982). I understand that an "Alford plea is a guilty plea accompanied by a denial of the facts constituting the offense. In Alford, the Supreme Court held that such a plea is constitutionally sound if it is knowingly entered for a valid reason, for instance, to avoid the possibility of a harsher penalty. However, the district judge, in accepting the plea, must determine that there is a factual basis for the plea, and he must further inquire into and seek to resolve the conflict between the waiver of trial and the claim of innocence. The court's inquiry should be addressed to the defendant personally, and not simply to his counsel. Moreover, the district judge, as in accepting other guilty pleas, must also determine that the accused understands the elements of the offense with which he is charged." Tiger, 98 Nev. at 558.

I understand that the state would have to prove each element of the charge(s) against me at trial.

I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses and circumstances which might be in my favor. My attorney has thoroughly investigated my case and has acted exclusively in my best interest.

All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights and waiver of rights have been thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

I believe that pleading guilty and accepting this plea bargain is in my best interest and that a trial would be contrary to my best interest.

I am signing this agreement voluntarily, after consultation with my attorney and I am not acting under duress or coercion or by virtue of any promises of leniency, except for those set forth in this agreement.

I am not now under the influence of intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance or other drug which would in any manner impair my ability to comprehend or understand this agreement or the proceedings surrounding my entry of this plea.

My attorney has answered all my questions regarding this guilty plea agreement and its consequences to my satisfaction and I am satisfied with the services provided by my attorney.

Agreed to on this 22va day of _, 20/2.

---00----

THE COURT: Moultrie, 12-832, time and place set for sentencing. We have a PSI dated

December 30th in which the division recommends probation, 19 to 48 months underlying, five years

probation, all the standard costs and fees.

Mr. Moultrie is present represented by Mr. Arabia. We're going to hear from Chris and then from Mr. Moultrie and then from Mr. Glennen.

MR. ARABIA: All right. Well, your Honor, what I would ask is that you follow the recommendation of probation. Mr. Moultrie has had some issues. He's on probation and he's in drug court in Elko. He's moved into phase two. I didn't a hundred percent recognize him at first. He looks good. I think he's doing his best.

And as for this case, I think he put it well in his statement, I committed my crimes because I was being an idiot. And he at least recognizes that, so I think that would be appropriate that you put him on probation; and it would also be consistent with the plea deal we have on this case, which is a conditional plea pending appeal. So that's what I would ask.

Thank you, sir. THE COURT: 1 Mr. Moultrie, anything you'd like to say? 2 THE DEFENDANT: No, other than I'm doing 3 great, working full time. Just glad, not this Monday 4 but last Monday, I was phased into phase two of drug 5 court. 6 THE COURT: How long have you been clean 7 8 now? THE DEFENDANT: I've been clean almost eight 9 months now. 10 THE COURT: All right. Anything else you'd 11 12 like to say? THE DEFENDANT: No. 13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Glennen? 14 MR. GLENNEN: Your Honor, the presentence 15 report is well considered, and we would request that 16 your Honor follow it. I believe parole and probation 17 is requesting $500 on legal services in this case. 18 THE COURT: That's correct. 19 Anything else from the division? 20 OFFICER GODFREY: No, your Honor. We'd just 21 ask that it's consecutive to the Elko County case. 22 THE COURT: All right. We'll go ahead and 23 follow the recommendations of the division and make 24 it consecutive with all the standard fines and fees 25 and the 19 to 48 months suspended for five years, put 1 you on probation with all the terms that they're 2 3 recommending. What we normally do is we'll have the 4 division do an analysis of you and say, Does this guy 5 have an anger management problem or gambling problem 6 or whatever, and whatever they recommend to me that 7 you need, I'll go ahead and sign off on. 8 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. 9 THE COURT: And we'll put you on probation 10 for the five years. Hopefully you'll stay clean from 11 drugs and stay out of trouble. If you mess up, we'll 12 see you soon and we'll give you that 19 months. 13 Any questions for me about what's going on? 14 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir. 15 THE COURT: Good luck to you. 16 Thank you. THE DEFENDANT: 17 (Thereupon the proceedings 18 were concluded at 10:16 a.m.) 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

20	Q. Okay.
21	MR. ARABIA: I just want to object to
22	the characterization of it as meth and ask that that be
23	stricken and that the white crystal description remain.
24	THE COURT: I will strike that reference
25	to crystal meth until it's established.

	A. Yeah.
2	Q. Do you remember arriving at that traffic stop?
3	A. Yes.
4	Q. What did you observe when you first arrived?
5	A. A white SUV stopped. Deputy Kirkland searched

15	you had contact with Mr. Moultrie?
16	A. I advised Mr. Moultrie that I wanted to speak
17	to him.
18	Q. Was Mr. Moultrie in custody at this time?
19	A. Yes.
20	Q. Did he agree to speak with you?
21	A. Yes.
22	Q. Did you read him his Miranda rights?
23	A. Yes, I did.
24	Q. Did he understand them to your in your
25	A. Yes. As I read Miranda rights, I just don't go

:	right through them. I do each line at a time and have
,	them initial each line that they understand.
3	Q. Did that happen?
5	Q. Did you feel Mr. Moultrie understood the Miranda
6	rights warning?
7	A. Uh-huh.
8	Q. Did you indeed speak with Mr. Moultrie after you
9	gave the Miranda warning?
10	A. Yes.
11	Q. Now what was the nature of that interaction with
12	Mr. Moultrie?
13	A. It was about the substance that Deputy Kirkland
14	found, how it was packaged, whose it was.
15	Q. What did Mr. Moultrie say about what kind of
16	substance it was?
17	A. At first he said it belonged to a different
18	individual.
19	Q. Who was that?
20	A. Nick Stone.
21	Q. When you said at first, then did that story
22	change?
23	A. Yes.
24	Q. How did it change or
25	A. I explained to Mr. Moultrie that I find it hard to believe that somebody would leave their meth and money laying around. Knowing those people, they protect that stuff more than anything else, and then he admitted it was his.

- Q. So what in fact did he admit exactly?
- A. That it was his and that -- he said it was for personal use at first and then I explained to him it wasn't my first day on the job and the way it was packaged -- he knew how much every package weighed. In fact he weighed it and separated it himself. They don't do that for personal use.
- Q. Mr. Moultrie explained that he had weighed it and packaged it?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. What did you believe the substance was that was weighed and packaged?
 - A. Methamphetamine.
- Q. And why do you think that? Why did you think that at the time?
- A. Just from the look of it and the consistency of it. Then I tested it.
 - Q. And what kind of a test did you run on it?
 - A. A NIK, narcotics identification kit.
 - Q. And what was the results of that test?
 - A. Positive for amphetamine.

1	Q. Did you in the sequence of events in your
2	interaction with Mr. Moultrie, when did you run that test?
3	A. That was the last thing I did.
6	Q. So during the interview well, let me withdraw
7	that question.
8	Did you have occasion to personally
9	observe the what you believed was methamphetamine
10	andthe money that was associated with it that had been
11	taken
12	A. Yes.
13	Q by Deputy Kirkland?
14	A. Yes.
15	Q. Could you describe that in some detail as to
16	what exactly how it was packaged and how much money
17	there was?
18	A. Not looking at my report but I knew it was a
19	blue and white plastic box and when he found it, there
20	was actually one of the little packages was on the
21	outside with a I don't think it was a rubber band
22	MR. ARABIA: Wait. I'm going to object
23	to that. I think he's testifying as to what someone else
24	found. I think he should stick to what he found or saw.
25	MR. PHILIPS: I am testifying to what

	1 I saw.
	MR. ARABIA: I thought you said it was
	Matt. In that case I would withdraw the objection.
	Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) Continue on.
!	A. There was a blue and white package and it had (a one of the packages of the substance was on the
7	outside of it with I don't think it was a rubber
8	band. I think it was like a pony tail or hair tie or
9	something anyway, holding it on the outside. Inside
10	was more packages and there was fifty dollars in there.
11	That's when we got into what it weighed.
12	Q. Did you weigh it?
13	A. Yes.
14	Q. You weighed the so-called methamphetamine?
15	A. Yes.
16	Q. Do you recall, without looking at your report,
17	how much it weighed?
18	A. No, I don't recall.
19	Q. Okay. And how much money was there in total?
20	A. Fifty dollars.
21	Q. And what did Mr. Moultrie say about the money
22	and the what you believed was methamphetamine at the
23	time?
24	A. When he first said it, there was he had
25	weighed them out and packaged them in twenty-three grams I believe it was, I can't remember and those

2	would sell for fifty dollars.
3	Q. Did Mr. Moultrie admit that he was selling
4	methamphetamine?
5	A. Finally he did, yes.
6	Q. What did he say exactly?
7	A. He was selling for a guy named Mike out of
8	Silver Peak and he would be giving that money the
9	money was belonged to Mike.
10	Q. The money that had been confiscated, the fifty
11	dollars?
12	A. Yes. And any extra he could make off it, he
13	kept.
14	Q. Did Mr. Moultrie say how many sales he had made
15	or anything like that?
16	A. No, sir.
17	Q. What else did you talk to Mr. Moultrie about?
18	A. About setting up a deal with Mike in Silver Peak.
19	Q. Did that happen?
20	A. Kind of.
21	Q. Let me withdraw that question.
22	Did you try to set up something with
23	Mr. Moultrie and Mike?
24	A. Yes.
25	Q. And the purpose of that was what?

	A. To get the supplier.
	Q. And that would be Mr. Moultrie's supplier?
	A. Yes.
	Q. What did Mr. Moultrie say about whether he would or could do that?
	A. He said he would. He said that he would have to
•	text him, that they didn't call each other.
8	Q. And did that happen?
10	Q. Did Mr. Moultrie use his own phone or someone
11	else's phone?
12	A. I believe it was Brandy's phone, if I recall
13	correctly.
14	Q. Did Mr. Moultrie have that phone on his person
15	at the time you were talking with him?
16	A. Yes.
17	Q. And you had not confiscated that at the time?
18	A. No.
19	Q. Okay. And in fact was there some kind of setup
20	arranged or how did that turn out?
21	A. Yes, there was.
22	Q. What happened?
23	A. That vehicle was stopped.
24	Q. When you say that vehicle, whose vehicle was
25	stopped?

-	A. It was actually Nichole White and Mike.
2	Q. And this is the same Mike that you referred to
3	that Mr. Moultrie said he was selling for?
5	J HCAULIN.
6	MR. BRADSHAW: Yes.
8	A. The person he said he got his meth from that he
9	was selling it for.
10	Q. And the woman's name that you mentioned?
11	A. Nichole White.
12	Q. Do you know anything about her?
13	A. No.
14	Q. You said that the vehicle that those two people
15	were in was stopped?
16	A. Yes.
17	Q. Who stopped it?
18	A. Deputy Kirkland.
19	Q. Okay. Do you have any personal knowledge of what
20	the result of that stop was?
21	A. Yes. I was on that stop.
22	Q. And what happened?
23	A. We found nothing. He said he was coming to
24	get
25	MR. ARABIA: Objection. Hearsay.

	1 Q. (By Mr. Bradeham) W.
	Yes, Without quoting them
:	did you have occasion to find contraband or not? A. Nope.
Ę	enose two people detained in any way?
6	- Joseph Short time.
7	ode on the highway?
8	A. res. They actually agreed to come to the office
9	Q. So they did come to the office?
10	A. Yes.
11	Q. And you interviewed them there?
12
13	Q. And were there any further efforts made to effect
14	a buy from Mike using Mr. Moultrie?
15	A. He agreed to that but never heard from him.
16	Q. So it didn't happen?
17	A. Didn't happen.
18	Q. How much time did you give Mr. Moultrie to make
19	that happen?
20	A. I cannot remember without referring to my report.
21	I think it's in there.

1 THE COURT: Okay. 2 MR. BRADSHAW: Keep him handy. 3 And the State has no further witnesses. 4 THE COURT: Mr. Arabia? 5 MR. ARABIA: Your Honor, I just want to 6 state for the record that I've discussed with Mr. Moultrie 7 the fact that at this preliminary hearing, he does have 8 the right to introduce evidence and witnesses and whatnot 9 and to testify. We've discussed all of those issues. We're not going to present witnesses and he's not going 10 11 to testify today. 12 THE COURT: All right. 13 Are you ready to make a closing statement 14 or --15 MR. BRADSHAW: Yes, I'm ready. 16 THE COURT: All right. 17 MR. BRADSHAW: Thank you. 18 We're charging this person with 19 possession of a controlled substance with intent to sell. 20 We described that there was a highway stop based upon no 21 headlights in an area that the law requires headlights 22 to be on in; that it was in a certain portion of Esmeralda 23 County. 24 The vehicle was pulled over. The officer 25 had permission to search the car from the driver and the owner of the car and Mr. Moultrie was the passenger in the car.

Contraband was found in a backpack, which contraband ultimately was admitted by Mr. Moultrie belonged to him, that he was selling -- well, the contraband was described and tested for methamphetamine with a NIK test, and we heard testimony from the officer that he had been trained in administering the NIK test and that the NIK test returned a result of methamphetamine or methamphetamine derivatives -- I can't remember exactly what he said -- and that this defendant then admitted that the methamphetamine and some money that was found with it belonged to him and that he was selling methamphetamine for a person named Mike that lives -- lived in the area; that the officers tried to get Mr. Moultrie to set up a situation with Mike where they could make an arrest of Mr. Moultrie's dealer, who was alleged to be Mike. didn't happen.

So we believe that we've met the elements of the crime, that is, that this defendant in fact possessed methamphetamine and money, packaged in a way that, in the officers' judgment and professional experience and their opinions, was packaged for sale; that this defendant admitted that he was selling methamphetamine; that this happened in Esmeralda County.

And we believe that we have met the elements of the crime that we've alleged and we ask the Court to bind over as charged.

THE COURT: Okay.

Mr. Arabia?

MR. ARABIA: All right. I'm going to ask for a discharge. I've got five reasons. I think two of them are more evidentiary in nature and then three of them are legal, so I'll start with the evidence first.

I don't think there was any evidence introduced that there was any justification for the search, no consent, no reasonable suspicion. He made allusions to an incident where Matthew was actually, much like Brandy in this case who wasn't charged, wasn't doing anything wrong. There was no evidence of consent so there would have been no justification for the search and everything that followed would be fruits of the poisonous tree.

The second issue with the evidence is I don't think anything was admitted. I don't think there was items admitted into evidence or anything ID'd as such. There were references to things but I was waiting to object to evidence being admitted. If there was any, and I don't think that there was, which means that there wouldn't be anything to support the bindover.

The third thing is this case was charged as a C-felony and I'm going to -- I have a copy of the statute for Your Honor and for the State.

It's very clear in Section (2)(b) of the statute that for it to be a Category C felony as it's charged -- well, first of all, the way it's charged, there's supposed to be -- they're basically charging it as a second offence. There's nothing in the complaint alleging that there was ever a first offense, so there's that problem.

The second problem is there was no evidence introduced of a prior that would allow a bindover on a second offense. The way the statute reads is you would need to have a first offense, a Category D felony. They haven't introduced anything like that and he doesn't actually have any felony convictions, so that, right there, also would preclude a bindover, even if they introduced something, which they did not.

So based on the consent issue -- and if your ruling was definitive on that, I wasn't clear on that, that's why I brought that up. I wouldn't, you know, argue that in front of you but I do think that that issue, by itself, would justify it.

I don't recall them introducing exhibits and having them admitted by the Court. That's failure number two.

Number three, the complaint is not drafted in a way that gives us any notice that they were going for the second offense. They didn't introduce a prior which would be, you know, some evidence that the prior felony -- and they couldn't actually do that because there isn't one.

And so for all of those reasons, a discharge is warranted here. Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. BRADSHAW: First of all, I probably agree with the Category C-D issue and I move to amend the complaint to conform with the evidence to charge --

MR. ARABIA: That can't be done now.

MR. BRADSHAW: -- a Category D felony.

That's all I can do at this point. I don't have any evidence of any priors.

THE COURT: All right.

I do find that the State has not met its burden of proof in this matter for the various reasons that Mr. Arabia has stated on the record and the complaint is effective and cannot be amended at this time, so I am not binding the defendant over and he's been discharged from custody and any pretrial release obligations.

Court is adjourned.

DECLARATION OF CHRIS ARABIA, Esq. IN LIEU OF AFFIDAVIT AS CONTEMPLATED BY NRS 53.045

I, Chris Arabia, hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge:

Declarant is a duly licensed attorney in the State of Nevada and is the attorney for defendant Moultrie.

Declarant hereby incorporates the entirety of this motion into this declaration, as if fully set forth herein.

Declarant received in pre-trial discovery a copy of a purported prior conviction of defendant Moultrie for a Nevada gross misdemeanor offense. Declarant took no action from the time of discharge to the time the state's motion was filed (63 days). As far as declarant is aware, Moultrie does not reside in the Fifth Judicial District.

EXECUTED this 4th day of June

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

The defendant Matthew Moultrie ("Moultrie") was charged by criminal complaint with "Possession of Controlled Substance with Intent to Sell, in violation of NRS 453.337, a category "C" felony...."1 [Italics added, bold original.]

¹ The State has submitted a proposed information for an alleged category "D" felony violation of NRS 453.337 even though the complaint charged an alleged category "C" felony violation of NRS 453.337 (i.e. second offense). This was no accident, and it is no accident that the State's motion repeatedly refers to Possession with Intent without specifying the section of 453.337 or the category of felony involved. It is offensive that the State has tried to hoodwink this court and violate Moultrie's Due Process rights with a stealth move to a whole new charge.

NRS 453.337(2) provides in pertinent part:

- 2. Unless a greater penalty is provided in NRS 453.3385, 453.339 or 453.3395, a person who violates this section shall be punished:
- (a) For the first offense, for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.
- (b) For a second offense, or if, in the case of a first conviction of violating this section, the offender has previously been convicted of a felony under the Uniform Controlled Substances Act or of an offense under the laws of the United States or any state, territory or district which, if committed in this State, would amount to a felony under the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, for a category C felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

Additionally, NRS 453.337(2)(c) provides for punishment as a category "B" felony for some violations of 453.337.

The sole count of the complaint alleged:

COUNT I: POSSESSION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE WITH INTENT TO SELL, in violation of NRS 453.337, a category "C" felony, it is unlawful for a person to possess for the purpose of sale flunitrazepan, gamma-hydroxybutyrate, any substance for which flunitrazepan or gammahydroxybutyrate is an immediate precursor or any controlled substance classified schedule I or II, to wit; said defendant did METHAMPHETAMINE, a schedule controlled substance with the intent to sell. [Italics and underline added, bold original.] (Defense Exhibit A).

At the beginning of the preliminary hearing on March 21, 2012, the Justice Court read the charge in the criminal complaint filed by the state: "The defendant is charged with, Count 1, possession of controlled substance with intent to sell, a violation of Nevada Revised Statute 453.337, a Category C felony." (PHT 1-3). [Both emphases added.] The State made no comment in response.

As part of pre-trial discovery, the State provided a copy of a purported prior gross misdemeanor offense committed by Moultrie. (Defense Exhibit B).

ARGUMENT

I.

THE COURT SHOULD DENY THE STATE'S MOTION BECAUSE THE PROPOSED INFORMATION IS EXTREMELY UNTIMELY (FILED 63 DAYS AFTER THE PRELIMINARY HEARING AND NOT THE 15 DAYS OUTLINED IN THE STATUTE), THE STATE HAS SHOWN NO GOOD CAUSE FOR THE DELAY, AND THE DELAY HAS GREATLY PREJUDICED MOULTRIE

NRS 173.035 mandates that the information "shall be filed within 15 days after the holding or waiver of the preliminary hearing." [Emphasis added.]

NRS 178.556(1) provides that the District Court may dismiss an information that is not filed within 15 days after the preliminary examination.

The Nevada Supreme Court has ruled that minor violations of the 15-day rule do not require dismissal if the defendant is unable to show prejudice. Berry v. Sheriff, 93 Nev. 557, 559 (1977) (4day delay deemed insufficient to compel dismissal where no prejudice shown); Thompson v. State, 84 Nev. 682, 683 (1970) (9-day delay held insufficient where no prejudice shown).

Analyzing NRS 178.556(2), the section of the statute dealing with the 60-day speedy trial right, the High Court has held that dismissal is mandatory if the State fails to show good cause for violating the 60-day trial rule. Anderson v. State, 86 Nev. 829, 834 (1970). The logic of Anderson is appropriate to apply to the other half of NRS 178.556, the section containing the 15-day rule.

In the instant case, 63 days passed from the time of the preliminary hearing to the time of the state's filing of its motion and proposed information. This is nothing like the trivial delays in Berry and Thompson; the 48-day violation in the instant case is more than 3.5 times greater than the Berry and Thompson delays combined.

Furthermore, the state's delay has substantially prejudiced Moultrie. The Justice Court discharged him, he had reason to believe that the case was almost certainly finished once the 15 days passed (especially given the rarity of grand juries in the Fifth District), he has been living since late March/early April in a world without this case hanging over him, he had reason to forget about the case and his defense, he had reason not to confer with his attorney to optimize his trial defense, the defense has done nothing on this case and thereby permanently diminished the potential effectiveness of a defense, and Moultrie does not live in the Fifth Judicial District. (See Declaration of Chris Arabia at page 2 of this Opposition).

Additionally, the state has made \underline{no} showing of anything resembling good cause for its delay.

The state's long, causeless delay contravenes the spirit of NRS 178.556 and requires this Court to deny the state's motion.

II.

THE JUSTICE COURT DID NOT COMMIT EGREGIOUS ERROR AS CONTEMPLATED
BY NRS 173.035(2) AND THE STATE IS CLEARLY ABUSING THE STATUTE
FOR AN IMPROPER SECOND CHANCE AT PROSECUTING MOULTRIE;
THUS, THIS COURT SHOULD DENY THE STATE'S MOTION

The Nevada Supreme Court has articulated a clear standard for the types cases that justify the State's use of NRS 173.035(2) to circumvent a discharge by the Justice Court: "That statute contemplates a safeguard against egregious error by a magistrate in determining probable cause, not a device to be used by prosecutor to satisfy deficiencies in evidence at a preliminary examination, through affidavit." Cranford v. Smart, 92 Nev. 89, 91, 545 P.2d 1162 (1976). To avoid instances of prosecutors unfairly relying on NRS 173.035(2), the Cranford Court expressly adopted a more exacting standard than the previous "arbitrary or mistaken decision" standard described a mere four years earlier in Ryan v. Eighth Judicial District Court, 88 Nev. 638, 640, 503 P.2d 842 Subsequent (1972). Supreme Court interpretations NRS 173.035(2) evidently do not define "egregious." According to the Legal Dictionary, egregious means "extremely and conspicuously bad." The World English Dictionary ("outstandingly bad; flagrant") and Dictionary.com ("extraordinary in some bad way; glaring; flagrant") contain similar definitions connoting high-octane awfulness.

Regardless, the magnitude of error necessary for proper resort to NRS 173.035(2) is indisputably great; remarkably, the State has resorted to 173.035(2) even though the Justice Court clearly did not err in discharging Moultrie (had the Justice Court erred in the instant case, everyday errors, minor errors, and arguable errors of a magistrate would simply not suffice).

The state charged Moultrie with second offense, "C" felony Possession with Intent to Sell but offered no testimony or evidence that the instant case constituted a second offense as contemplated by NRS 453.337; under such circumstances, a discharge by the Justice Court was absolutely proper.

Alleged violations of NRS 453.337 can be charged as category "B," "C," or "D" felonies depending on the defendant's prior record, with the category "C" felony expressly available for certain second offenses. NRS 453.337(2).

In the instant case, the state charged Moultrie with a category "C" felony (See Defense Exhibit A), provided a copy of a purported prior offense to Moultrie as part of discovery (See Defense Exhibit B), 2 and offered no correction or amendment when the Justice Court read the complaint's allegation of a category "C" felony. (PHT 2-3).

During the preliminary hearing, the state failed to present any evidence of any purported prior offense. The state also never amended the complaint to a category "D" felony, an offense which does not require a prior transgression under NRS 453.337.

It was only after the state had presented and submitted its case, made its closing statement, and listened to Moultrie's closing statement that the state made an untimely motion to amend the complaint after conceding that it had not made the case for the offense charged. (PHT 40).

² The purported prior was for a gross misdemeanor in Nevada, which actually would not have satisfied the requirements of NRS 453.337(2)(b).

Rather than address this issue in its motion for leave of court to file an information by affidavit and proposed information, the state embarked on the much less taxing (and totally lawless) path of no resistance: the state simply changed the offense from the category "C" felony alleged in the complaint to a category "D" felony in the proposed information. (See state's Exhibit 2 and Defense Exhibit A). The state's concurrent omission throughout its motion of the section and felony of 453.337 hardly seems coincidental.

The state's omission of the prior offense from its laundry list of required elements also hardly seems coincidental. (State's motion, p. 9).

The state presented absolutely no evidence of an element of the offense charged. Therefore, the Justice Court quite properly discharged Moultrie and the state's assertion of "egregious error" is spurious, preposterous - outrageous.

В.

The Justice Court did not commit error in ruling a hearsay statement to be hearsay and even if a different court might have ruled differently, the Justice Court absolutely did not commit egregious error; the state's argument on the hearsay issue makes factual assertions not supported by citations to the record, and Moultrie moves to strike those assertions

At the preliminary hearing, Deputy Kirkland ("Kirkland") attempted to testify that during the traffic stop at the center of the instant case, a woman named Brandy said that Kirkland could search the vehicle, i.e. that Brandy gave consent. The Justice Court sustained Moultrie's objection based on hearsay. (PHT 8).

The state has claimed that Kirkland obtained permission and/or consent to search the vehicle. (See e.g. PHT 8-9, 11-13, 36). Thus, the statement attributed to Brandy was offered for its truth, i.e. to establish that Kirkland had consent. Citing NRS 51.035, the state contends that the statement was not hearsay because it was only offered for its effect on Kirkland. (State's motion, p. 8). This assertion is belied by the state's repeated reliance on the statement's truth-in other words, that Deputy Kirkland had permission-to justify the search.

The state next alleges that Brandy's statement was an implicating statement and that Moultrie adopted it as an admission by failing to dissent. (State's motion, p. 8). There is nothing in the record to establish that the alleged consent of Brandy was an implicating statement (and the police let her and her vehicle go, PHT 19, which suggests that the police felt that Brandy had neither engaged in nor was aware of any conduct for which she could implicate herself or anyone else).

There is also no evidence that Moultrie adopted or heard Brandy's alleged statement; there is only the state's assertion without citation that Moultrie was sitting next to Brandy (which should be stricken along with all similar assertions, so the defense moves to strike the following from the state's motion: lines 21-22 on page 6, lines 6-7 on page 7, and lines 7 and 16-17 on page 8). (State's motion, p. 8).

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Plaintiff,

v .

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR LEAVE OF COURT TO FILE INFORMATION BY AFFIDAVIT

MATTHEW LEON MOULTRIE,

Defendant.

MATTHEW LEON MOULTRIE, Defendant

AND TO: Christopher Arabia, Esq., Attorney for Defendant,

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned will bring on the above Motion for hearing before the above-entitled Court in the courtroom of the Esmeralda County Courthouse, Goldfield, Nevada, ON June 19th 2012, AT 10:00 A.M., or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard.

DATED this 9th day of May, 2012.

ARTHUR WEHRMEISTER

ESMERALDA COUNTY DISTRICT, ATTORNEY

ROBERT E. GLENNEN III Deputy District Attorney

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

1. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

On March 20, 2012, a Preliminary Hearing was held in the Esmeralda Justice Court for the defendant. (Exhibit 1, hereinafter PHT). At conclusion of that hearing, Defendant was not bound over on any charges. (PHT 40).

The State requests this honorable court and, based upon the following argument set forth herein below, respectfully asks this court to grant its Motion for Leave of Court to File Amended Information by Affidavit to include the discharged Count POSSESSION OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE WITH INTENT TO SELL.

2. FACTS

On March 21, 2012, a Preliminary hearing was held in the Justice Court of Esmeralda Township County of Esmeralda, State of Nevada for the defendant Matthew Leon Moultrie, hereinafter referred to as "Moultrie."

The defendant was discharged on Count I, possession of controlled substance with intent to sell, for unlawfully possessing METHAMPHETAMINE, a schedule I controlled substance with intent to sell (PHT 40).

On December 11, 2011, Deputy Matthew Kirkland, hereinafter referred to as Kirkland, while on patrol at approximately Esmeralda County Mile Marker 33, stopped a white SUV bearing Nevada registration 420 XKS, for no headlights (PHT 7).

Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw): Could you tell us how that contact occurred?

MATTHEW KIRKLAND: After I spoke with Brandy, I went back up to the vehicle, after I ran her, and I spoke with Brandy and asked 1 her if I could look in her vehicle. She said she -2 MR. ARABIA: Objection. Hearsay. 3 THE COURT: Sustained. 4 Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) Did you in fact search the vehicle? 5 6 A. Yes, I did 7 Q. And why did you search it? Did you have permission to 8 search? 9 A. Yes, I -MR. ARABIA: Objection. Hearsay. It's just trying to get around 10 the previous objection. 11 12 THE COURT: Sustained Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) What did you do to actually search the 13 14 vehicle? MR. ARABIA: What was that? I didn't hear. 15 MR. BRADSHAW: I asked the question, what did you do to actually 16 17 search the vehicle. 18 MR. KIRKLAND: I asked Brandy's permission. MR. ARABIA: And I have the same objection. 19 MR. BRADSHAW: He is not actually quoting Brandy at this time with 20 21 that question. THE COURT: I'll allow that answer. 22 BRADSHAW: Did you in fact search the vehicle? 23 24 KIRKLAND: Yes, I did. (PHT 8 - 9) Methamphetamine was found in a backpack, which Mr. Moultrie admitted belonged to him, and which tested positive for 26 methamphetamine after a NIK test by a trained officer. (PHT 27, 30).

28

The defendant then admitted that the methamphetamine and some money that was found with it belonged to him and that he was selling methamphetamine for a person named Mike that lived in the area. (PHT 27, 30).

3. STANDARD FOR INFORMATION BY AFFIDAVIT

According to NRS 173.035(2), the prosecuting attorney may file an Information by Affidavit, if, after preliminary hearing, the accused has been discharged. This is to correct egregious error by the lower court, and the Information must be supported by affidavits of competent witnesses. Here, the Justice Court committed egregious error by failing to allow testimony that the driver of the vehicle gave permission for the search of the vehicle while right next to Defendant, and by failing to bind Defendant over for trial despite evidence on each element of the crime being presented.

Nevada State law requires a justice court judge to forthwith hold a defendant to answer in the district court if it appears from the evidence produced at the preliminary examination "That there is probable cause to believe an offense has been committed and the defendant has committed it." Beasley v. Lamb, 79 Nev. 78, 378 P.2d 524 (1963). Marcum v. Sheriff, Clark County, 85 Nev. 175, 178 (Nev. 1969).

NRS 171.206 states in pertinent part:

If from the evidence it appears to the magistrate that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, the magistrate shall forthwith hold the defendant to answer in the district court... (emphasis added).

A preliminary hearing is not a trial. State v. Holt, 47 Nev. 233, 219 P. 557 (1923); Overton v. State, 78 Nev. 198, 370

P.2d 677 (1962). The issue of innocence or guilt is not before the magistrate. Marcum v. Sheriff, Clark County, 85 Nev. 175, 178-179 (Nev. 1969). That function is constitutionally placed elsewhere. Id. The full and complete exploration of all facets of the case is reserved for trial and is not the function of a preliminary examination. Id.

The evidence need not be sufficient to support a conviction. Maskaly v. State, 85 Nev. 111, 450 P.2d 790 (1969). Nor must the State produce the quantum of proof required to establish the guilt of the accused beyond a reasonable doubt. Robertson v. Sheriff, 85 Nev. 681, 462 P.2d 528 (1969). The State is not required to negate all inferences which might explain the defendant's conduct. Johnson v. State, 82 Nev. 338, 418 P.2d 495 (1966); Beasley v. Lamb, 79 Nev. 78, 378 P.2d 524 (1963).

It is firmly established that the finding of probable cause may be based on slight, even marginal, evidence. State v. Boueri, 99 Nev. 790, 795 (Nev. 1983). The State is merely required to present enough evidence to support a reasonable inference that the accused committed the offense. Kinsey v. Sheriff, 87 Nev. 361, 487 P.2d 340 (1971); Morgan v. Sheriff, 86 Nev. 23, 467 P.2d 600 (1970). The justice court should not concern itself if the evidence might, by itself, be insufficient to convict the defendant of the charged offense. McDonald v. Sheriff, 89 Nev. 326, 512 P.2d 774 (1973).

Identification by one witness may be sufficient enough to establish probable cause to believe the defendant committed the offense. Sheriff, Clark County v. Badillo, 95 Nev. 593, 594-595 (Nev. 1979). The fact that this testimony is in direct conflict with that of another witness is of no import at this stage of the proceedings. Id. The ultimate question of the credibility of the witnesses is for the Trier of fact at trial. Wrenn v.

Sheriff, 87 Nev. 85, 482 P.2d 289 (1971). A justice court does not consider defenses or pass on the sufficiency of the evidence to justify conviction, but only decides if there is enough evidence to bind over the defendant to the district court for trial. Woerner v. Justice Court, 116 Nev. 518, 1 P.3d 377 (2000), Parsons v. State, 116 Nev. 528, 10 P.3d 836 (2000), State v. Justice Court, 112 Nev. 803, 919 P.2d 401 (1996).

Under NRS 48.025, "all relevant evidence is admissible" at preliminary hearing. This is subject only to certain Constitutional or prejudicial exceptions. West v. State, 119 Nev. 410, 75 P.3d 808 (2003); Williams v. State, 118 Nev. 536, 50 P.3d 1116 (2002).

4. THE JUSTICE COURT'S EGREGIOUS ERRORS

The lower court committed egregious error by not binding the defendant over on the charge of POSSESSION OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE WITH INTENT TO SELL based upon the evidence presented, and further by preventing testimony that the driver of the car in which Defendant was seated consented to the search right in front of Defendant. The justice court was presented sufficient evidence at the preliminary hearing to establish probable cause to believe that an offense had been committed and that the defendant committed the offense. However the justice court failed to hold the defendants to forthwith answer in the district court. The Criminal Complaint alleged POSSESSION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE WITH INTENT TO SELL, in violation of NRS 453.337.

- offered to rebut an express or implied charge against influence or motive;
- (c) One of identification of a person made soon after perceiving the person; or
- (d) A transcript of testimony given under oath at a trial or hearing or before a grand jury; or
- The statement is offered against a party and is:
- (a) The party's own statement, in either the party's individual or a representative capacity;
- (b) A statement of which the party has manifested adoption or belief in its truth;
- (c) A statement by a person authorized by the party to make a statement concerning the subject;

- (d) A statement by the party's agent or servant concerning a matter within the scope of the party's agency or employment, made before the termination of the relationship; or
- (e) A statement by a coconspirator of a party during the course and in furtherance of the conspiracy.

Here, the statement ruled hearsay was by the defendant's driver, to the question may I search, answered 'yes' in defendant's presence. First, that statement is not offered for the truth of the matter, so is not hearsay. The 'yes' is offered only for the fact it was said, and the effect on the hearer: "I have consent to search". See Weber v. State, 121 Nev. 554, 576, 577, 119 P.3d 107 (2005).

Second, any statements by the driver are party admissions. Failure to dissent to implicating statements by another is ruled an adoptive admission. Maginnis v. State, 93 Nev. 173, 561 P.2d 922 (1977); McKenna v. State, 101 Nev. 338, at 345, 705 P.2d 614 (1985). Therefore, the consent by the driver was an admission by the driver adopted by the Defendant sitting next to her, and is not hearsay and should have been admitted. Finally, the driver's consent to search is a statement against her interest, and a hearsay exception. Soebbing v. Carpet Barn, Inc., 109 Nev. 78, 847 P.2d 731 (1993). Therefore, ruling that consent inadmissible is not only legal error, but egregiously so.

After considering all of the evidence presented in its totality, the justice court committed egregious error by not finding slight, or even marginal evidence, existed when it ruled, "Defendant is discharged. No probable cause shown." (PHT 40).

The Criminal Complaint alleged POSSESSION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE WITH INTENT TO SELL, in violation of NRS 453.337. This requires proof that: 1) On December 11, 2011; 2) in Esmeralda County; 3) Defendant; 4) possessed; 5) Methamphetamine; 6) intending to sell it. The evidence shows all of those elements. The crime was committed December 11, 2011 in Esmeralda County, (PHT 6), by Defendant (PHT 10), and a valid search was done of the vehicle which turned up methamphetamine (PHT 8,9), which tested positive for methamphetamine, (PHT 27), which belonged to Defendant, (PHT 27), that he weighed and packaged, (PHT 27), and which Defendant intended to sell. (PHT 30).

5. CONCLUSION

This Honorable Court should allow the State leave to file an Information by Affidavit. The "Proposed Information" is attached herein as Exhibit 2. In addition, this Court should find that the Amended Information by Affidavit is proper to correct egregious error in this case, namely, discharge of the defendant on the Criminal Complaint.

The State's motion should be GRANTED. DATED this day of 9th May, 2012.

Let the record show that the defendant was arraigned March 5th, 2012, and is present in court today represented by Christopher R. Arabia, Esquire, Public Defender for Esmeralda County. The State of Nevada is represented by Les Bradshaw, Deputy District Attorney for Esmeralda County.

Are the parties ready to proceed at this

MR. ARABIA: We are.

MR. BRADSHAW: Yes.

MR. ARABIA: Your Honor, there's one quick thing I want to put on the record before we go any further. There's a person by the name of Nicholas Stone who I represented on a probation hearing some time ago --I think it was -- I think it was back in late 2010 -- and his name does come up in passing in this case. I looked at it pretty closely and I don't see a conflict. could potentially be one down the road which -- a case that I was appointed in this court to Nick Stone on.

I'm ready to go forward with the prelim but I wanted to make sure that was on the record because, as I said, I've looked at this and I don't think that there's a conflict at this time. If one came up later,

	I may not be able to represent Nick Stone or something.
;	Obviously we can deal with that then but

6	MR. BRADSHAW: Yes. The State invokes
7	the exclusionary rule and I have two witnesses before the state today and I would request that all other witnesses

9	THE COURT: All right.
10	Do you have any witnesses?
11	MR. ARABIA: No.

5	Q. And her insurance?
6	A. Her insurance was valid.
7	Q. And was there did you say there was a

13	A. After I spoke with Brandy, I went back up to
14	the vehicle, after I ran her, and I spoke with Brandy
15	and asked her if I could look in her vehicle. She said
16	she
17	MR. ARABIA: Objection. Hearsay.
18	THE COURT: Sustained.
19	Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) Did you in fact search the
20	vehicle?
21	A. Yes, I did.
22	Q. And why did you search it? Did you have
23	permission to search?
24	A. Yes, I
25	MR. ARABIA: Objection. Hearsay. It's just trying to get around the previous objection.

2	THE COURT: Sustained.
3	Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) What did you do to actually
4	search the vehicle?
5	MR. ARABIA: What was that? I didn't
6	hear.
7	MR. BRADSHAW: I asked the question,
8	what did you do to actually search the vehicle.
9	MR. KIRKLAND: I asked Brandy's
10	permission.
11	MR. ARABIA: And I have the same
12	Objection.
13	MR. BRADSHAW: He is not actually quoting
14	Brandy at this time with that question.
15	THE COURT: I'll allow that answer.
16	Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) Did you in fact search the
17	vehicle?
18	A. Yes, I did.
19	Q. And what about the passenger? Where was he
20	during the search?
21
22	has in the passenger seat and I asked him
23	to step out and I recognized him from a stop about three

25	Q. So you had prior contact with the passenger?
	A. Yes, I did.
- 1

1	Q. And did you ascertain the passenger's name?
2	A. I knew his name as Matthew.
5	Q. Is Matthew, the passenger, here in the court
6	today?
7	A. Yes. He's sitting right there.
8	MR. BRADSHAW: And will the record
9	reflect that the witness has identified the defendant in
10	this matter
11	THE COURT: The record will reflect.
12	MR. BRADSHAW: Matthew Leon Moultrie?
13	Thank you.
14	Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) Then so where was
15	Mr where was the passenger when you were searching
16	the vehicle?
17	A. He was standing on the shoulder with Brandy.
18	Q. Was that in front or in back of the vehicle?
19	A. In front of the vehicle.
20	Q. Can you describe the results of your search of
21	the vehicle?
22	A. In the backpack, I found a
23	MR. ARABIA: Your Honor, at this point
24	I'm going to object to the search just because I haven't
25	heard anything that would provide legal justification for it, before we get too far into what may or may not have been recovered. What I'm inferring here is that they're claiming it was a consent search. There's no evidence that there was consent provided.

THE COURT: Sustained.

MR. BRADSHAW: I did ask -- sorry.

May I speak?

THE COURT: You may.

MR. BRADSHAW: I did ask the witness if he had permission to search. That would not be hearsay because he's not quoting anybody.

MR. ARABIA: Well, no, it is.

 $$\operatorname{MR.}$$ BRADSHAW: I'm asking him whether he felt he that had permission.

THE COURT: That's not what you asked him. There was nothing about what he felt.

Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) Did you have permission to search the vehicle?

MR. ARABIA: Again, I object because it's one thing to use that answer to move forward but at the point where we're going to start bringing the evidence in, there's no evidence that there was consent and so it's one thing, like I said, to say that, you know, he had permission for the purposes of moving forward in this hearing, but at the point where they're trying to

1 introduce the evidence, they either have to have consent 2 or reasonable suspicion and that's what we're missing at 3 this point. 4 THE COURT: Actually we're talking about 5 the backpack. Was there permission to search the backpack 6 is where we're at. Correct? 7 MR. ARABIA: Well, whose permission are 8 we talking about? 9 Here's the overall problem though. 10 The whole search portion of this started with they're 11 claiming that there was consent. They don't have any 12 evidence that there was and anything that follows from that is fruit of the poisonous tree, so I'm objecting 13 14 to all of that at this point. 15 MR. BRADSHAW: I've asked this witness whether he had permission to search the vehicle. 16 17 is not a hearsay issue because he's not quoting anybody. I'm simply asking him whether he obtained permission or 18 19 had permission to search. 20 THE COURT: The vehicle. 21 MR. BRADSHAW: The vehicle. 22 THE COURT: Now we're talking about a 23 backpack. 24 MR. BRADSHAW: Yes, but I believe that the objection is about the legality of the officer's search of the vehicle, so I guess I'm going back to that. I want to establish that this officer had permission from the owner of the vehicle to search the vehicle.

MR. ARABIA: And that's --

MR. BRADSHAW: If that's not an issue now, then I'll move forward.

MR. ARABIA: Well, it is an issue. saying that he had permission. There was hearsay offered which is inadmissible and I haven't heard anything else and, again, using that word as a mask for the fact they don't actually have it is not sufficient.

MR. BRADSHAW: I believe that the officer can testify whether he had permission or did not have permission to search the vehicle. That's not -- in my view, it's not a hearsay issue because he's not quoting anybody. He's simply stating his belief as to whether he had permission or didn't have permission.

MR. ARABIA: Well, he was testifying that he got the permission by asking a question of someone and then quoting their response, which is hearsay, and repackaging that as permission doesn't really get around the fact that what they're basically doing is they're saying they had permission in the form of a hearsay statement but it's not hearsay, so it's not an admissible statement no matter how you describe it.

MR. BRADSHAW: I've not asked this witness to quote anyone. I'm simply asking --

MR. ARABIA: The permission itself was a statement which is inadmissible so it's not admissible so it doesn't matter what he felt or whatever.

MR. BRADSHAW: I'm not asking him to testify as to what somebody quoted that's not available for cross examination in the court today. I'm simply asking him about his actions, did he or did he not obtain or have permission to search the vehicle.

THE COURT: The vehicle only. We're now moved on to the backpack. Did he ask -- it's your question but he needed permission to get in the backpack. That's not the vehicle so if you can get on to that, you can go forward.

MR. BRADSHAW: Okay.

May I consult with the witness? Can we take a two-minute break and let me consult --

MR. ARABIA: I'm going to object to that. I think we should move forward with the questioning.

MR. BRADSHAW: I just want to ask the witness about this document that I may or may not be able to introduce.

THE COURT: I'll allow you two minutes. We'll recess and you have two minutes.

1	(Recess.)
3	THE COURT: Okay. We're back on the
4	record.
5	MR. BRADSHAW: Thank you.
6	THE COURT: Mr. Bradshaw?
7	MR. BRADSHAW: Thank you.
8	Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) When you were searching the
9	vehicle, inside the vehicle what did you find?
10	A. Found a backpack.
11	Q. And did you search the backpack?
12	A. Yes, I did.
13	Q. What did you find in the backpack?
14	A. In the side compartment in the backpack was a
15	small black bag.
16	MR. ARABIA: Your Honor, I just want to
17	make sure that my objection to all this is noted.
18	THE COURT: So noted.
19	MR. ARABIA: Thank you.
20	Q. (By Mr. Bradshaw) What was in the small black
21	bag?
22	A. In the small black bag, there was a blue and
23	white plastic case. On the outside of the case was a
24	hair tie with a plastic bag with a crystal substance on
25	it. Inside the bag was fifty dollars plus a glass pipe.

1	Q. And where was the glass pipe?
4	you first encountered it?
5	A. It was on the outside pocket of the backpack.
6	Q. Then what happened?
7	A. I looked inside and I found the blue and white
8	case with white substance, crystal substance, on the
9	outside. At that point in time I placed Matthew in
10	handcuffs until I could figure out exactly what I was
11	dealing with.
12	Q. And why did you place him in handcuffs
13	specifically?
14	A. The backpack had was sitting right behind
15	him, where he was sitting and actually I think it was
16	on the floor board but I'd have to look at the notes
17	again to find out exactly where the backpack was sitting.
18	Q. Did you speak with Matthew about the backpack?
19	A. Yes, I did.
20	Q. And that would be the defendant in this matter,
21	Matthew Leon Moultrie?
22	A. Yes, I did.
23	Q. And what did Matthew say about the backpack?
24	A. He said the contents he didn't know that that
25	container was on it or in the backpack. He informed

Ī	me that that was Nick Stone's.
2	Q. Do you know who Nick Stone is?
4	Q. Who is he?
5	A. He's a gentleman that lives in Tonopah, Nevada,
6	and we three weeks prior, I was with NHP and I was on
7	that stop with them.
8	Q. Was Nick Stone involved in that other stop?
9	A. Yes, he was.
10	Q. Okay. Can you summarize for the Court the
11	articles that you believe that you found in the
12	backpack or the small case that was in the backpack?
13	Can you summarize that evidence that you found?
14	A. There was fifty dollars cash; there was a
15	glass pipe; there was a straw inside the blue and white
16	case. There was four small plastic bags of crystal
17	substance inside and one small bag on the outside of
18	the blue and white case held on by a hair tie.
19	Q. Do you have an opinion as to what the white
20	crystal substance was or is?
21	A. Yeah. At that point in time I had the opinion
22	that it was crystal meth.
23	Q. And what is that opinion based on?
24	A. On my training.
25	Q. And do you know how much, by weight of the
