RESPONSE TO ORDER OF SUPREME COURT
(Explanation why Nevada Supreme Court Should KEEP the Case)

Respondent DIANE MIZRACHI herein responds to the ORDER of the Nevada Supreme Court filed March 30, 2015, stating why this Nevada Supreme Court should retain this case, as opposed to relinquishing this matter to the newly formed Court of Appeals.

Respondent does not oppose what this court feels is appropriate. However, for the following reasons, Respondent believes it is appropriate to remain in the Nevada Supreme Court:

1. Petitioner will allege this is a "religious issue" as he desires the holidays on the JEWISH CALENDAR; rather than the standard calendar. While Respondent does not consider this a religious issue, she is sure that Petitioner will do so. For that reason it is appropriate this matter be resolved once and for all.

2. This may be considered an issue of first impression, as it has not been addressed before. (Perhaps because common sense generally dictates.) Petitioner will allege the court had not addressed this issue. Respondent believes this is an issue of custody, in the discretion of the District Court.

3. The most valid reason Respondent feels this matter should remain in the Nevada Supreme Court is that Respondent feels she may be forced to continue to litigate this matter to the Nevada Supreme Court, because Petitioner will continue the battle, rather than settle on the decision of the Court of Appeals. While Petitioner can afford to continue litigation, Respondent cannot.

CONCLUSION

Respondent requests this matter remain in the Nevada Supreme Court for the above stated reasons.

Dated this 10 day of April, 2015.
