Re: Brandon Jefferson vs. State, Docket no. 70732.

Dear Mr. Jefferson:

Pro se parties are not permitted to file an appendix to their briefs unless ordered to do so by this court. NRAP 30(i). If the court's review of the complete trial court record is necessary, the court will direct the district court to transmit the record. Pro se parties are not required to cite the record in their briefs, but are encouraged to do so if possible. See NRAP 28(e)(3). Therefore, we are returning the appendix, unfiled.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "L. Hamilton".

L. Hamilton
