Thank you all for your time and your service today.

THE COURT: All right, thank you, Mr. Portz. On behalf of defendant, I'm going to ask -- I guess, we could go with you, Mr. Tanasi first on behalf of Mr. Hobson. Would you like to introduce yourself and your client?

MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. Good morning, folks. Thank you in advance for your time and your careful consideration in this case because what you've heard so far are charges and allegations. You have not heard evidence.

And so I just want to thank you in advance for your careful consideration of the evidence in this case. Again, my name is Rich Tanasi, and I've been appointed by the court to represent Tony Hobson. Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Tanasi.
Mr. Maningo, Ms. Lobo, would you like to introduce yourself as well as your client?

MR. MANINGO: Yes, sir, thank you. Good morning, everyone. My name's Lance Maningo. Together with Adrian Lobo we represent Brandon Starr. This is Brandon Starr. To the charges and the allegations made by the State he has pled not guilty and question challenge all of those charges.

We work for the law firm Bellon & Maningo, and within my firm there are several other attorneys and support staff that I just want to read the list of names to see if you have any familiarity. Is there anyone's name that was not called that's here? All right. No one has raised their 9 10 Ladies and gentlemen, at this point in time, what 11 we're going to commence is what is called jury selection 12 They also call it voir dire. process. 13 During this process, you're going to be asked 14 questions bettering on your ability to sit as fair and 15 impartial jurors. The term "fair and impartial" will come up

To accomplish this, questions will be asked by myself as well as counsel for the parties, if they choose. On occasion, some of the questions will seem quite personal, and bear in mind that they are necessary so counsel and the Court can make an intelligent determination as to your capability to serve here fairly and impartially on this matter.

It's important that you know the difference and significance of full and complete honest answers to all the questions we are asked of you -- that we ask of you. Please do not try to withhold anything that might indicate bias or prejudice of any sort by any of you.

Should you fail to answer truthfully or if you are hiding things or withholding anything touching upon your qualifications, that fact may tend to contaminate your verdict and it will cause concerns for you with the Court.

I'm going to a general examination of all of you while you're seated in this whole audience. And then what I'll do is I go into special questions of people that are in this portion here, but that's based on the other group that we have as well.

So first of all, at some point of this process -of this selection process, as we talked about it last night, there's roughly 40 some of you that were let go last night.

And so both sides or even the Court will make a determination as to one particular person not serving as a juror.

Understand that these are called challenges, and please don't be offended should you be excused by one of the challenging procedures. And please don't show me your delight when you're excused from one of the challenging procedures, okay?

Ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to take this opportunity to explain to you my personal feelings about our system. People come from all over the world to take part in what is offered to them from the United States, one of it which is this system, the way that we deal with disputes.

Obviously, I'm involved because a dispute couldn't be resolved. And that's in both criminal and civil matters. Our system says that if it can't be resolved, then the parties have a right to present their case to a jury of their peers. That's what you all come in for.

Understand this; this is the one area in our system of justice and our system of government in which the people have a direct impact on what happens in their community and a direct say on what happens in their community.

You know, you might say well, you might have a -- I have a right to note. Sure, you do, but that doesn't have as much direct impact as individuals in a jury have.

For those of you, there's many of you probably here, that have been on a jury before. You understand exactly what I'm talking about. For those of you that have not been on a jury before, if you are selected as a jury, I can tell you that I've been doing this over 30 years, and in that time frame I've maybe heard two or three complaints from jurors as it not being a positive process.

So I want to tell you -- first of all, I want to thank you for taking part of your life to be here today.

Also, I want you to understand that the -- we'll get to the point where I'm going to -- I know that it's inconvenient for you. I want you to understand we all know that before we even get started. And so that's why we take this time to ask questions to make sure that we get a fair and impartial juror on both sides, understanding your concerns in the time frame that you're going to be possibly asked to give.

So, once again, if you are excused, I will tell you thank you, and I'll send you back to the jury commission room, and maybe they can put you on a different type of jury. And oftentimes, it's not -- there's nothing personal that comes from the parties here. I don't allow you all to know whose asking you to leave, because it's been my experience that sometimes jurors, they get offended by that and they'll wait around and they ask the attorney why didn't you keep me? I thought I'd be a great -- you know, what -- for whatever reason you think that they're excusing you when -- but in the previous proceedings that's what we do. Is if the State wanted you to be excused, they'd have to stand up and excuse you.

And it got to be a problem, and so now we do it basically we'll hear -- we'll see discussions up here. In size of group, we're going to do it when you're outside and we'll just have a big discussion about it.

So if you wish to respond to a question when I'm asking questions or the parties are asking questions, just raise your hand. We'll get to you. We try to go in order.

The reason we have you seated the way you are, we have a number -- you all have a number on your badge and you're in order.

When you raise your hand and I do call on you, please tell us your badge number. On your chest you all have a badge and there's a number on there that says badge number. There's a number that also says juror ID number. But the badge number, for example, I'll use Ms. Valenzuela is in our number one position today. Her badge number is 04-0001. I'm just going to ask for the three digits. And obviously, it's 1 so you'd say I'm badge number 1, okay? So you'd raise your hand, say my name is Patricia Valenzuela, and I'm badge number 1. That way we know exactly who we're talking to and whose speaking to the Court, okay? All right. Does anyone have any questions about that? All right.

Also, before we get started on the main question, I need to get some other questions out of the way. Is there anyone here that's been convicted of a felony? Okay. No one has raised their hand. Is there anyone here that is not a United States citizen? No one has raised their hand.

Okay. Is there anyone who has such a sympathy, prejudice or bias relating to age, religion, race, gender or national origin that they feel would affect their ability to be open-minded, fair and impartial jurors? Okay. Jim.

JUROR NO. 022: My name is Robert Gross, Badge No.

1 22. THE COURT: Okay. What do you want to tell me, 2 3 Mr. Gross? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: Well, I'm -- I find 4 5 myself particularly good at looking at people and figuring 6 out what they're all about --7 THE COURT: Okay. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: -- or at least a little 8 9 bit, but I can get a -- make a decision on somebody based on just looking at them. I can -- you know, just look into 10 their eyes, you know, they're dull, they're glossy, you know, 11 12 they're on something, look at their demeanor, they're moving around, they're anxious, they're worried or stuff of that 13 14 nature. 15 And I also do have another bias --16 THE COURT: Okay. 17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: -- that when you 18 answered -- when you asked that question, I will answer it --19 I will raise my hand. 20 THE COURT: Okay. Well, that's what we're doing 21 right now. I just asked if there's anyone that has any 22 sympathy, prejudice or bias relating to age, religion, race, 23 gender or national origin.

I'm not sure if you will ask this question, but a bias know, it would be a violation of your oath if you take the oath, and for example, the best example I give is here in the State of Nevada, the speeding -- there was no speeding -- it wasn't against the law to go over 55 miles an hour in the state of Nevada. There was no speed limit in the state of Nevada in the rural areas.

And when they enacted that back in, sometime ago, and they put 55 on, there was a lot of people in those areas that said well, we grew up here, we don't have to abide by the 55 mile speed limit.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: To hell with it, yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. So you understand what I mean?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: Yeah.

THE COURT: So -- but if you were on a jury and the whole issue is whether or not speed is a violation, and I instruct you that if you find that the person's going over 55 miles an hour that the instruction would be that he's guilty. If he's going under 55, the instruction would be not guilty. And you say well, you know what, they proved that he was going over 55, but I don't like the speed limit, I know what the Court's telling me, but I'm not going to follow his instruction. That's what I'm getting at. Is that what you mean?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: I mean, the jury cannot make a wrong decision.

1 THE COURT: Okay. 2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: And a person cannot be 3 tried twice. THE COURT: Okay. 4 5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: And within the -- if he 6 falls within that -- the quideline between what I personally 7 feel, it -- he could -- you know, if he really did do 8 something wrong, I may rule innocent and potentially hang a 9 jury or potentially. 10 THE COURT: All right. 11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: Depending on how I'm 12 feeling on the case. 13 THE COURT: Well, you understand you'd be 14 instructed on what the law is and you're -- the jury sits as 15 a fact finder? You don't have to worry about the law at all. 16 All you have to do is determine what the facts are. 17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: Yeah. 18 THE COURT: And if you find that the facts fit 19 within the law that say that based on those facts, he's 20 guilty, you're saying that you wouldn't be able to do that? 21 Are you saying you can't find --22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: In some cases, yes. 23 THE COURT: So are you saying you can't find people 24 guilty? 25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 022: Some -- some.  4
              THE COURT:
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 004: Yeah.
 6
              THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any family like your

              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 004: I could ask them -- 9
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 0:04: -- but just letting 10 11
    you know.
12
              THE COURT: All right. How old are they?
13
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 004: Five and seven.
14
              THE COURT: Okay. And so what time do you usually 15 go to work?
16
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 004: 4:00 to 3:30.
17
              THE COURT: How do they get to school?
18
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 004: My brother.
19
              THE COURT: Okay. So would you be willing to do 20 that, ask them and see if they could watch them if you're 21 here on this?
22
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 004: Yeah, I can ask them.
23
              THE COURT: Okay. You don't perceive there would be any issues with work, do you?
25
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 004: I work in construction

so I don't know.

THE COURT: Yeah. I want everybody to understand this, too, is if you're fearful that you'd believe you're going to lose your job because you're in a jury pool, the law will protect you on that. You will not lose your job if you were here serving as a juror.

There are some questions, though, you might want to ask your employers is whether or not they will pay you while you're here. You will be paid by the Court, but not to the extent that many of you are making on your job. So all right, Mr. Baugus, thank you so much, okay? Anyone else? The back row? Okay. All right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Hi. My name is Patricia Valenzuela, and No. 1:

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes. My husband is disabled, and I already made some of -- I have a doctor's appointments for the following weeks.

THE COURT: Next week?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: And I'm the only one there, and I'm driving him everywhere, and I'm -- we only have one car.

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 001: And sometimes you take 1 2 -- he takes month or two to get appointments. THE COURT: All right. I understand. Okay, thank 3 4 All right. All right. Okay. you. 5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 012: Hi. 012, Judy 6 Greenhough. Judith Greenhough. 7 THE COURT: Uh-huh. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 012: Sir, I'm 68, single, 8 9 live alone, on social security and I do some independent 10 contractor work from home to make ends meet. So three weeks would be a real dent and hardship for me financially. 11 THE COURT: Okay. What type of work do you do? 12 13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 012: I'm called a facilitator for a company here in town. It's strictly 14 15 commission work. I do phone call work, consult their -their participants and do computer work and host phone calls. 16 17

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. All right. All right. In the second row. Could you pass all the way down to the your left if there's anyone. Nobody. Okay, just -- all right.

              THE COURT: Where do you work?
8
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 046: Complex Care at Tenaya.
9
             THE COURT: Where?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 046: Complex Care, Tenaya.
11
   It's long-term acute care.
12
              THE COURT: So there's no one else there that does your job that could help?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 046: We are short. I'm off with my wife who's also a traveling professional, and we have 1 2 a two-year-old son and an eight and a nine-year-old daughter. THE COURT: So your wife travels as well? 3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yes, she does day 4 5 trips, whereas, I typically go a few days at a time. 6 THE COURT: Okay. 7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: But we coordinate our 8 travel schedule in one where one of us can be home for the 9 children. 10 THE COURT: I understand. Okay. Thank you. All 11 right. 12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 062: Bob Zagby. 13 THE COURT: Could you pass it all the way down to the end here. Is there anyone else in this third -- third 14 15 row? No one? No one? Okay, you do. All right, there you 16 go. 17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: Dale Sanderson, 055. 18 THE COURT: Uh-huh. 19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: I'm a commissioned 20 salesperson, but that's not the real issue. I've had a event 21 registered reserved since last fall. I have airline tickets 22 for May 14, returning on May 22 with a hotel reservation and 23 one of those is non-refundable. 24 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. All right. 25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 057: Sean Deson, 057.

THE COURT: Uh-huh.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 057: I own and operate my own company, which is a finance company, and nobody else works for me, and if I'm not doing it, it's not getting done.

THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 062: Robert Zagby, Badge 62.

I own and operate a small business with three employees.

Without me there, it's basically going to come to a grinding halt affecting everybody's salaries.

THE COURT: What type of business?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 062: Screen print and embroidery.

THE COURT: Okay. There's no -- you don't have a manager or anybody or -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 062: No, no.

THE COURT: Okay, thank you. Anyone in the front row? All right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 068: Robert Howell, Badge No. 068. I own a small business with my brother. We have to write checks on a daily basis to run -- we're in the towing industry so to run certain calls. If him or I are not there, those calls can't be ran.

I also do outside sales where I have to service accounts every other week and hoping the next three weeks I'll be on those properties two out of the next three weeks

1 so --THE COURT: 2 Okay. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 068: -- that would be very 3 hard for me. 4 Okay, thank you. All right. Go ahead. 5 THE COURT: 6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 071: Maria Funes, Badge No. 7 I work full-time and I have a four-year-old that is 8 usually at the daycare, and I usually pick up after work and it seems like it's going to be a hardship not being able to 9 go to work if I -- without the money, I can't pay for the 10 daycare, and I really don't have family here in town to help 11 12 me. 13 THE COURT: Are you single? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 071: No, I have my husband, 14 15 but we both work, and that's like our only place to depend 16 on, the daycare. 17 THE COURT: What does your husband do? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 071: He's a teacher. 18 19 THE COURT: And what do you do? 20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 071: I work at Aria Casino 21 as a gardener. 22 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. Anyone else? Jim, out 23 in the audience. Do you have -- sir, you okay? All right. 24 UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not after hearing 25 everybody else.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 074: My badge number is 074. 1 2 My name Cozy Meyer. I have tickets to go to Indianapolis on 3 Sunday night, and I'll be gone until a week after that for a 4 board retreat. So I will not be available for that 5 three-week period. THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anyone in -- just 7 keep passing it to your right there if we --8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 075: My name is Leanna 9 Hernandez. 10 THE COURT: Can you speak a little closer to the 11 mic? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 075: My name is Leanna 12 Hernandez. My badge number is 75. I am a single mother. I 13 14 go to school, and I won't be in town between the 19th and the 15 24th. 16 THE COURT: What do you have planned for the 19 to 17 the 24th? 18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 075: I will be out in 19 California for vacation but as well as business. 20 THE COURT: What type of business? 21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 075: I'm a contract 22 specialist. 23 THE COURT: A what? 24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 075: Contract specialist for 25 Diamond Resorts International.

THE COURT: So that's -- you're going there, you're 1 going to make a vacation out of a business trip; is that 2 3 what's happening? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 075: Part of the -- part of 4 the first few days it will be for business --5 6 THE COURT: Uh-huh. 7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 075: -- and I'm -- the last 8 few days I took vacation time to -- to take my daughter. 9 THE COURT: Okay, Okay, thank you. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 080: My name is Shelly 10 Littlejohn, Badge No. 80. I returned home yesterday. 11 buried my father on Saturday. I am the power of the estate, 12 13 and with the three hours difference from here to the east coast it makes it very hard. I just received the death 14 15 certificate yesterday 3:00 p.m. so I haven't had a chance to do anything that needed to get done. 16 THE COURT: Okay. Are you planning on the services 17 18 in the next couple of weeks? Is that --19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 080: Yeah, I have to get 20 everything pretty much done. 21 THE COURT: Okay. Sorry for your loss. 22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 080: Thank you. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 083: Your Honor, Mark 23 24 Spencer, Badge No. 83. I'm an endurance athlete and I've got 25 a six-day, 160-mile running race across the desert starting next week. I got a few thousand dollars invested in it, and more importantly, I've been training for it for nearly a year.

              THE COURT: Okay. When is the race?
 4
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 083: It starts next Thursday
    and goes through to the following Thursday.
 7
              THE COURT: What type of race is it?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 083: It's 160 miles across the desert.
10
              THE COURT: Are you running?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 083: Yes, sir. Yes, Your Honor.

13
              THE COURT: My recorder does a lot of this type of things, too. That -- wow, that's a pretty -- 160 miles in the -- where?
15
16
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 083: So it's going to be out 17 in Logandale Trails by Valley of Fire. It's going to be five 18 marathons and on the sixth day a double marathon.
19
              THE COURT: So each day you do a different race?
20
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 083: Do a stage race.
21
              THE COURT: Okay. And you're in training now for 22
    that?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 083: I've been training for 23 a year for it.
24
25
              THE COURT: Wow. Okay. All right, thank you.

             PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 086: I don't have the General's number.
9
              THE COURT: Okay. All right, so you're waiting to 10
   be promoted to sergeant and -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 086: I'm waiting to be sent 12
    to -- 14
              THE COURT: -- and they actually -- 15
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 086: -- BLC to -- it's a -- 16 it's a course to get promoted to sergeant.
17
              THE COURT:
                         Okay. Oh, so -- all right.
18 do have you to go through this course? Is that what I'm 19 saying?
2.0
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 086: You have to go through 21
    it.
22
              THE COURT: And once get -- I know my marshal could explain it better to me, but, I guess, once you get selected, then you go through the course, and then if you pass that, 25 you get promoted?
24

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 086: That's correct. 1 2 THE COURT: All right. And you've been waiting 3 about a year to get on the list? 4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 086: About a year, year and 5 a half. 6 THE COURT: Okay. And I'm going to -- you know, 7 I'm going to keep you here for a little while. We're going 8 to ask some more questions, but I'm going to ask you maybe at a break you can call your commanding officer and ask if there's a possibility that if you're here, if it's going to 10 11 -- what it's going to do. 12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 086: Yeah, most certainly. 13 THE COURT: Okay? 14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 086: I can ask him about 15 getting a reschedule if it won't bring me back to the bottom of the list. 16 17 THE COURT: Right. That would be -- I don't want 18 to do that. I don't want to put you to the bottom, okay? 19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 086: Absolutely. 20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir. 21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 092: Your Honor, my name is 22 Carlton Dyer, Badge No. 092. I am the husband of a wife 23 that's disabled, broke her neck in flight coming into Las 24 And three weeks would be a great hardship on me because I'm the sole provider of my household.

Anyone else in that row? 1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 143: Christopher Jacks, No. 2 3 143. 4 THE COURT: Uh-huh. 5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 143: I have a full-time job 6 and a part-time job to pay for school and bills, and I'm also 7 a student. And I have finals coming up in about a week's 8 time. THE COURT: What's that, sir? I didn't hear you at 9 10 the end. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 143: Oh, sorry. I'm also a 11 12 student and I have finals coming up in about a week. 13 THE COURT: Where are you going to school? 14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 143: UNLV. 15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. 16 Anyone else in the back row there? No one in the 17 back row? Anyone in that second row from the back right there 18 on the left? 19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: My name is Tawana 20 Jackson-Jones, Juror No. 155. I have an appointment for my 21 passport on Friday at 10:00, and then I'm supposed to be 22 leaving out of the country between -- once I get my passport 23 I'm supposed to be leaving to Canada --24 THE COURT: When --25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: -- which is May --

              THE COURT: When are you planning on leaving to 2 Canada?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: May 11th.
              THE COURT: So if you don't get a passport, you don't get to go?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: Correct.
                                                    So I'm going
   to expedite my passport when I go in for my appointment on 8 Friday.
 9
              THE COURT: So if you don't get a passport on 10
   Friday, you won't be able to go to Canada?
11
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: Correct.
12
              THE COURT: So if you're here, you won't get a 13 passport so you wouldn't need to go to Canada. I'm just -- 14
    I'm just playing. Why do you want to go to Canada?
15
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: Because I got a job 16 opportunity there working for a company.
17
              THE COURT: You don't need to answer that, ma'am.
18
   I'm just -- I'm just -- we're getting to the end of this and I'm just venting a little bit, okay. All right. So you got a passport meeting for Friday, and if you don't get your 20 21 passport, you won't be able to go to Canada on Monday.
22
             PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: Correct.
23
              THE COURT: Do you have -- do you already have your 24 airline tickets to go to Canada -- 25
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: Yes, I do.
```

1
              THE COURT: -- or are you driving?
 2
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: I'm actually flying.
 3
              THE COURT:
                         Okay. You already have your tickets for that?
 5
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155:
 6
              THE COURT: Okay. Is it something that you could 7 reschedule?
 8
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: Probably, yeah.
 9
    Hopefully.
10
              THE COURT: What is it -- what is it for?
11
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: It's for -- I got a job 12 opportunity in Canada working for a big company for software.
13
              THE COURT: For what type of work?
14
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 155: It's for office clerk.
15
              THE COURT: Okay.
                               Okay. All right. Thank you.
16
             Anyone else in the back?
17
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 169: Nancy Manriquez, Badge 18
   No. 169.
19
             THE COURT: Uh-huh.
20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 169: It would be a financial 21 hardship. I'm a mother of two. I work two jobs, and I 22 actually have a trip planned. We're supposed to be leaving 23 tonight to Fresno for my dad's 79th birthday.
24
             THE COURT: Okay. So you're -- it's a hardship for 25 you because you're a mother of two; right?
```

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 169: I'm a single mother of 2 two.
 3
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
 4
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 169: And I work two jobs.
 5
              THE COURT: All right. And you're planning on going 6 to Fresno?
 7
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 169: Fresno tonight.
 8 already requested Thursday and Friday off at both jobs and 9 were granted to me.
10
              THE COURT: Okay. Okay.
                                       Thank you.
11
              Anyone else? All right. Okay. Now -- 12
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: My name Janer Pacheco.
13
              THE COURT:
                         Okay.
14
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: Badge No. is 076.
15
              THE COURT:
                          Okav.
16
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: The reason I can't serve 17 is about a year ago I lost part of my family back in Puerto 18
   Rico because of a robbery. I don't think I can participate in 19
    a trial like this due to that.
              THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Thank you, Mr. Pacheco.
20
   All right. Anyone else?
22
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 077: Yes, sir. Dan Powers, 077.
24
              THE COURT:
                          Uh-huh.
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 077: I'm good up until May 25th. I'm a deacon at Holy Spirit Parish. And on the 25th I drive cross country to Michigan and fly down to Atlanta to hook up with a parish team to fly to Jamaica and work with -- in the slums there. But up until May 25th I'm good to go.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 078: Donna Zheng, No. 078.

I'm a full-time college student and I have an exam tomorrow that can't be rescheduled. And I also have following exams on next -- on next week.

THE COURT: Where are you a student at?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 078: UNLV and CSN.

THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Thank you.

Anyone else? Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 062: I'm Regina Lockhart,

062. I'm the main breadwinner at my house. I recently started a job, a new job. They don't -- I don't have any vacation time saved up and they don't compensate us financially. So with helping my dad and one of my adult kids and my own bills with me and my husband, I would be devastated for three weeks with no pay.

THE COURT: Well, so everyone is kind of rest assured, you do get paid for being here. It's not --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 062: But it's only --

THE COURT: $\operatorname{\mathsf{--}}$ probably what a lot of you are used to, but $\operatorname{\mathsf{--}}$

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 062: Yeah, I wouldn't make my 2 bills, any of them.
 3
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
 4
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 062: I mean --
              THE COURT:
 5
                          Okay.
                                 Thank you, ma'am. I understand.
 6
   I do.
           I do.
7
              Is anyone else in the row there? Okay.
8
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 178: My name is Marcia Mauer.
9
   My Badge No. is 03-0178. I have several reasons.
                                                       The first 10
   one is I'm a diabetic and I do shots three times a day.
11 haul medicine here, it has to be refrigerated.
12 something happened to it, I'd be lost until the next month I 13 get a refill.
14
              The second reason is I work at the Clark County 15
   School District. I've been there 14 years. I'm secretary to 16 three deans. The next three weeks is a lot of paperwork for 17 kids who were expelled, suspended, are going to other schools, 18 and we have to get this all done by a certain time, and also 19 we have to get them back to do their finals. And it's just a 20 lot of work and my three deans would probably die if I didn't 21 come back for three weeks. So I really need to be there.
22
              THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you, Ms. Mauer.
23
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 178: Thank you.
24
              THE COURT:
                          Is there anyone else?
25
              Ladies and gentlemen, I think this would be a good time for me to kind of talk to you a little bit about this. I want to preface this by telling you that I truly believe -I've been doing this over 30 years. And I truly believe that we have the best system in the world. A lot of people come to the United States because of our system. Not necessarily because they think it's such a great place to live all the time. They like how the government deals with the people.

And a lot of people move here from -- some of you who have come here from other countries probably will attest to this.

With that being said, people that live here their whole life and lack of -- and I have issues with some of our teachers, not with you personally, but we don't seem to teach our civics anymore in school and a lot of people don't really understand. They don't have civic lessons. I mean, when I was kid I was going why do I need to hear this, why do I need to hear that.

Well, as I grew up and got into the system, I understand it a lot better now of why it's so important is there's -- the one area where the public has total connection with the system is right here. This is the one place -- I mean, you can all say I have a connection because I have to vote or you get an opportunity to vote a president in or vote legislators in or whatever, and you have -- or you can call your legislator or you can call your congressman, yeah, that's true. But where you actually have a say in what happens in your community, a direct say, is right here.

You all get to part -- be part of the system directly where you don't have to go through an election process, you don't have to -- well, I guess you can say this is kind of your election process because we're fettering you through this, but this is the one time where you have the opportunity to actually take part and to see what's actually happening in your community. Many of you may say, you know, I really don't want to do that. We pay big money to judges to make our decisions for us, but that's not how our system works is that -- and in this case both Mr. Hobson and Mr. Starr have a right to a trial by a jury of their peers.

And that is such a fundamental right that -- that there's so much case law in that area and so much litigation in that area that once you really grasp that understanding you understand why I'm spouting off to you now. We all know, every judge down here, all the parties that are involved all know that it's a hardship for you. And particularly in Las Vegas it's a hardship in light of the fact that many individuals work under circumstances where they're single parents, they only have one income, the income is based on tips, and if they're not working they're not getting that. We understand that.

And something, though, I want you all to understand this as well, as voting individuals is that we have actually addressed whether or not jurors should be paid the salary that they get upon verification. If they're down here giving us their time, they should be paid for that. The voters said absolutely not. As a matter of fact, the voters say jurors aren't entitled to be compensated at all. But the courts, under the way the best that we could said, no, that's not fair because we take into consideration that -- and so you get a minimal amount.

You know, if -- I always say when I become God, I'd love to be able to just do -- pay everybody what they -- that they get and so it wouldn't even be a question. Most of you individuals here now saying that financial issues. And we understand that. I do. I will tell you that what -- that's going to be discussed. Everything that I just asked you and what I was writing down, we're all going to discuss that.

Some of you will be excused, some of you may not get excused at this point. I'm not saying that you won't be. But you can see just based on that one question how many people we put basically at odds of what's happening here today.

And please don't feel -- I appreciate your answers and I want you to understand that we don't -- we don't consider them lightly. That's why I'm taking the time now just to address it with all of you. Because -- because I've had it -- quite honestly, I've had it where every single individual in here has raised their hand to that question, and that -- that's fine. But so we're going to move on. I'm not telling you no at this point, but we have some other questions I'll get to and then I'm going to -- I'm going to give you a break and I'm going to address it with the parties, okay. All right.

So other than what you've already told me, is there any -- anything else that you believe for any other reason you would be unable to serve as a juror here. The gentleman here says he's got -- he's looking at back surgery. Some people say I can't -- I can't sit for awhile. The young lady has diabetes, we have to address that. Is there -- for any other reason? Okay. All right. Let's -- we'll start in the back row.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: I'm Carla Coffers, Badge No. 05.

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Earlier I said about my grandkids, my son leaves at 3:00 in the morning. And I'm there for the kids and one of the reasons is because in February we were robbed horribly. And they turned around — and we got security and everything in March. Three and a half weeks later they came back, the same people. And there is a case and detectives on it, but it was very traumatic to my grandchildren. It's — I mean, over $20,000 worth of stuff was taken. And — the house.

 5
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
 6
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Any my grandkids.
                                                             He's

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 117: They were robbed numerous times. The last time they were robbed they beat my brother until -- so bad that he lost sight in his right eye. So I don't know if I could be impartial on this.

THE COURT: I got you. Okay.

Anyone else? Okay. Let's see. Ladies and gentlemen, at this point in time we're going to take a recess.

During this recess you are admonished not to talk or converse amongst yourselves or with anyone else on any subject connected with this trial, read, watch, or listen to any report of or commentary on the trial or any person connected with this trial by any medium of information, including, without limitation, newspapers, television, the Internet, or radio, or form or express any opinion on any subject connected with this trial until the case is finally submitted to you.

Although you're not jurors, I will expect you to follow that admonition at this time and do not discuss the case amongst you and what's going on in here, okay. So right now it's 3:30. I'm going to give you a 15 minute break.

Remember where you're seated because when you come back in I'm going to ask that you go back to the same seat that you're in.

And let's -- I'll give you some time to exit the courtroom.

It's pretty crowded.

So, Jim, you want to go ahead and facilitate that, exit the courtroom, get them out of here.

Any questions before you leave at this time? We have one question here. Sir?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Are we allowed to leave personal items in here?

THE COURT: Take -- take them with you now, okay. You know, I would hope that nothing would be taken from in here.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. No, that's --

THE COURT: But just -- I don't want to be responsible for something. When you become a jury, I'll let you leave everything here.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's magazines. I'm not worried. I just wanted to know if I could leave it here.

THE COURT: All right. Okay. So we'll be at east while the jury leaves the room, okay. So go ahead and let's go out, guys.

(Prospective jury panel recessed at 3:29 p.m.)

THE COURT: Okay. We're outside the presence of the jury. I just wanted to at this point in time, I'll give you all a break, but I wanted to give you an opportunity to maybe converse amongst yourselves there as to what we just had happen. And -- I mean, there's a number of individuals in here, I would say practically every single one of them on this panel has some type of concern that they have with serving on a jury for three weeks. I knew that was going to happen. I mean, that's just how it is.

So what I'd like to do is if you want to do it now, I mean, I'll address it with you. Or if you want to see if you guy can get together at all and look at the reasons and then present that to me, and then I'll address it. Obviously, if you both are agreeing to something, I'm not even going to -- I won't even go any further. I will tell you, though, I'm concerned about two individuals that speak Spanish here, those two.

I also want you to know, as well, as that what I tried to do and I want the record to reflect, we have two African-Americans in this pool. Both African-Americans are asking to be released. One of them has concerns with a doctor's appointment about back surgery. Address that with --talk to counsel about that. The other one that's on our pool has -- has plans to leave to -- to Canada. And I -- she did say that she would do what she can to -- to -- or she would probably be able to reschedule it, so I understand that. I'm just throwing that out there so you know.

There's a number of individuals that have doctors appointments. There's a number of individuals that have issues involving traveling. And so I'd like, if you could all get together on this and then when I come back we can talk about, okay. Is that -- is that fair?

              MS. MERCER: Yes, Your Honor.
             MS. LOBO: Yes.
5
             MR. TANASI: Of course.
6
              THE COURT: Okay.
7
             MS. MERCER: Just out of curiosity, how many 8 peremptories did you say you were going to keep? I mean, not 9 peremptories, alternates.
10
              THE COURT: Four.
11
             MS. MERCER: Four alternates?
              THE COURT: Yeah.
13
             MS. MERCER: Okay.
14
              THE COURT: Yeah. So we're looking to empanel 16 15 individuals.
16
              MS. MERCER: Okay.
17
              THE COURT: And so the first 28 will be subject to the peremptory challenges for the 12.
19
              MS. MERCER: Okay.
20
              THE COURT: And then the next ones, the rest of the 21 panel of the -- what I've put here, there would be -- we're 22 looking at four, and you'll be allowed one peremptory for -- 23 no, that's two.
24
              MS. MERCER: Yeah, it's two.
25
              THE COURT: Two peremptories for the alternates

each. Okay. All right, guys. So I'll -- we'll take a break 1 and I'll come back at a quarter 'til and then we'll just make 2 3 a quick record as to what -- who I'm going to excuse. Usually 4 I go throughout all those questions, but I'm going to -- we're 5 going to have to get more people for the panel. 6 MS. MERCER: Okay. 7 I'll tell you I already know that. THE COURT: 8 Okay. 9 (Court recessed at 3:34 p.m., until 4:01 p.m.) 10 (Outside the presence of the prospective jury panel) 11 THE COURT: Okay. We're back on the record in the 12 case of State of Nevada versus Tony Hobson and Brandon Star in 13 Case No. C303022. I would like the record to reflect the 14 plaintiff, their counsel, as well -- the State and their 15 counsel, as well as the defendants and their counsel. 16 I asked before we took a break for the parties to 17 review over the jury selection panel that we have at this 18 point and see if they could come to any consensus on who they 19 would agree to excuse. Have you been able to do that? 20 MS. MERCER: We did, Your Honor. 21 THE COURT: Were you able to? 22 MS. LOBO: Yes, Your Honor. 23 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Do you want to go ahead and give me the but I'm thinking he might be able to do it -- because you can do your blood work pretty quick, your lab work and that, and he hasn't really got a time. So I'm going to -- I'm going to let you -- I'll as some more questions on that. Because I'll get to the medical issues and he'll probably be saying something about that, okay.

MS. MERCER: Okay. And then we agreed upon Badge No. 048, Robinson.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. MERCER: Stull, Badge No. 050; Badge No. 066, Hampton; Mortensen, Badge No. 067; Whitten, Badge No. 068; Morales, Badge No. 069; Mara, Badge No. 072; Pacheco, Badge

Badge No. 097; Delappi, Badge No. 099; Valandingham, Badge No.
117; Jacks, Badge No. 143; and then as to Badge No. 155, Jackson-Jones, the parties were going to submit it to the Court's discretion.

THE COURT: Okay. I am going to excuse her because she has prepaid tickets to Canada, and that she has an appointment this Friday for her passport.

MS. MERCER: And then on Badge No. 169, Manriquez, the parties agreed upon excusing that juror, and Badge No. 178, Mauer.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Okay. What I'll do is I'll bring the jurors back in. It's 4:00 now. I'll bring the jurors back in. Let's see where we're at, and then maybe 2 I can get some more questions done. If not, I've asked for 3 another jury pool. We're going to get another 65 tomorrow. 4 MS. MERCER: Okay. 5 MR. TANASI: Okay. 6 THE COURT: And then we can -- we can look at it the 7 same way we did today with the panel. Okay. 8 Jim, why don't you bring them back in, then I'll go 9 ahead and -- and it looks like I'm going to be able to do all 10 day Friday. 11 MR. TANASI: All day Friday. 12 THE COURT: Yeah, we don't have a hearing Friday. 13 MR. TANASI: Okav. 14 THE COURT: Okay. 15 (Inside the presence of the prospective jury panel) 16 THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, I 17 appreciate your patience in this matter. Just for the record, 18 we're back on the record in Case C303022, State of Nevada 19 versus Tony Hobson and Brandon Starr. The record will reflect 20 the presence of the State and their attorneys, the defendants 21 and their attorneys, and all the members of the prospective jury panel.

MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

MS. LOBO: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, during the break, as I told you we were going to discuss all the issues that was brought up with that one question I had. And so I'm going to decide. Usually I go on to finish my questioning, but because it sparked such attention, we went ahead and had discussions on who we were going to excuse at this time. Understand that if your name is not called, that doesn't mean that we're not considering still what was said, it's just at the point in time that we're at this stage we're not in agreements and I'm not going to be excusing you at this point.

If you hear your name, you will be excused. I'm going to ask that you go back to the jury commission room and let them know you've been excused. And maybe they can get you another court with less time and it won't be as cumbersome for you. Please don't leave until after I call all the names, that way you guys don't trample each other trying to get out the door so fast, okay.

I will also tell you, though, I do appreciate you giving me your time and attention. And for what it's worth, for all of you that tried to get out of this just simply because you wanted to get out of it, that's on your conscience. I think this is important and just because you gave me your time, I appreciate that. And maybe I'll get to see you again sometime on a case that's probably more suited for you and your circumstances, okay. So if you hear your name, you will be excused.

MS. MERCER: Your Honor, may we approach, please?

THE COURT: What's that? 1 2 MS. MERCER: May we approach when they're done. THE COURT: Yes. 3 Uh-huh. 4 (Prospective jurors excused at 4:13 p.m.) 5 (Off-record bench conference) 6 THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, there was 7 one additional name that I neglected to call. I had it marked 8 here, but somehow I missed it. And it is Badge No. 066, 9 Christy Hampton. Okay. All right. 10 Ladies and gentlemen, what I want to do at this 11 point in time is I'm going to have my clerk call the next in order with the names that we have to fill in the spots we have 12 13 in this group here. And then -- and then I have to take 14 another recess because I have to bring another 65 individuals 15 in here and kind of go through what we just went through 16 tomorrow. All right. 17 So go ahead and call the names next in order. know we don't have enough to fill these boxes, but that's why 18 I have to call additional people. But go ahead and fill them 19 20 up. 21 THE CLERK: In seat No. 2 is going to be Badge 058.

THE COURT: Hold on. Don't -- don't move yet, okay, sir. Because it will be a waste of time for you to have to come up here and sit here and I just send you out again, all right. Just -- we're just going to make sure that you know where you're going to be tomorrow, okay. So as -- just so you know, it's counted 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 in the back row, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and so forth all the way up here to No. 32 is this position right over here, okay. All right.

Okay. So go ahead and call the name again.

THE CLERK: In Seat No. 2 is going to be Badge 058, Nitin Luhar. In Seat No. 3 it's going to be Badge 062, Regina Lockhart. In Seat No. 7 is going to be Badge No. 063, Angila Jenkins. In Seat No. 8 it's going to be Badge No. 065, Pamela Regan. In Seat No. 9 it's going to be Badge No. 070, Monte Lai. In Seat No. 15 it's going to be Badge No. 071, David Snyder. And -- and so the sooner you get 7 that done, the sooner you get your back surgery, is that what 8 you're saying? 9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yes. 10 THE COURT: Okay. And other than that, you don't 11 have any other means of transportation other than the 12 wheelchair that you're in? When you come down are you able to 13 get on the bus with the wheelchair? 14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yeah, they've got the lift. 15 16 THE COURT: Okay. And you said it takes about two 17 hours for you to get here? 18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yeah. 19 THE COURT: And are you planning on then either 20 tomorrow or Friday, are you planning on going in and getting your blood work done? 21 22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: I'm going to try. 23 THE COURT: Okay. And where do you have to go get 24 that done? 25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Oh, what is it.

off of Martin. 1 2 THE COURT: Okay. So are you able to just -- are 3 you able to just go in and do it, or do you have to make an 4 appointment? 5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: No, I can go in --6 THE COURT: Okay. 7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: -- and get lab work 8 done. 9 THE COURT: All right. And you've been waiting now 10 a few months to get this done? 11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yes. 12 THE COURT: Sir, I'm going to go ahead and release 13 you. I am finding that -- that there is cause to allow you to be released in this matter. I'll let you go ahead and let you 14 15 go back over to the jury. You have to let them know that 16 you're done, okay. 17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Okay. 18 THE COURT: So when you go out, you have to back 19 over there, okay. You know, good luck with your medical 20 issues. I hope you get it taken care of, okay. 21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yeah. 22 THE COURT: All right. So fill that spot, then. 23 THE CLERK: We done have anybody. 24 THE COURT: You don't have one yet? 25 THE CLERK: No, we don't have anybody until tomorrow

2 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So does anyone else 3 have any questions before I -- all right. Ladies and 4 gentlemen, okay -- oh, someone has a question. All right, 5 sir. Can you speak up because my marshal went outside? 6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 070: Yeah, actually, as I 7 said earlier, I'm real estate, if I don't work, I don't really 8 make any money. 9 THE COURT: Right. And I understand. 10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 070: I just had 11 [indiscernible] I served a jury before for shorter days. my wife only work part-time, I have a son. So I don't know --12 13 this kills me because three weeks is very too long for me. 14 THE COURT: Sir, what is your badge number?

THE CLERK: 070.

THE COURT: Okay. Yeah.

THE CLERK: Monte Lai.

THE COURT: Mr. Monte Lai.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 070: Yes.

THE COURT: Yeah. So I understand. We noted that.

And like I tried to tell everybody, we're not discounting what you've already told us. It's just we're looking to see -- I mean, you can see how tough it is to get juries. And quite honestly, you know, with all due respect to you, there's some issues that are a little bit probably more important. 1 2 I know -- I know that's not probably the best way to say it 3 and I'm not trying to put you on a different position, but at 4 this point in time I can't let you go, okay. All right? 5 does anyone else have any questions? 6 Okay. Sir? 7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Is it okay if --8 THE COURT: Hold on. What's your badge number? 9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Oh. 21. 10 THE COURT: Okay. Daniel Boggs? 11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: That's me. 12 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Boggs? 13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Is it okay to tell our 14 employer now that we may be out for [inaudible]? 15 THE COURT: Yeah. Yeah. 16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Okav. 17 THE COURT: Just let them know there's a potential 18 of that. 19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 021: Okay. 20 THE COURT: All right? So if you have to, it would 21 be good tonight to probably to do that. All right? Okay. 22 Ladies and gentlemen, this is my overnight 23 admonishment. It sounds exactly like the other one. 24 want you to understand you are -- although you are not my jury 25 yet, you are still in my jury panel and you've started this process.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 070: I'm Badge No. 70.

So you you're admonished not to converse amongst yourselves or with anyone else on any subject connected with this trial, read, watch, or listen to any report of or commentary on the trial or any person connected with this case and by any medium of information, including, without limitation, newspapers, television, the Internet, or radio. You are further admonished not to form or express any opinion on any subject connected with this trial until the case is finally submitted to you.

Ladies and gentlemen, what I'm going to do is I want to get the rest of the panel caught up to you. And you saw it took us probably a couple of hours to get to at least this stand. So what I'm going to do tomorrow, I anticipated that you would need to be back here by 10:00. Do not come in until 12:30, all right.

So I won't see you all until 12:30. I'm going to go ahead and start with the other panel, get them caught up, introductions, all that kind of thing, put them in place and get to the questions where we're at now. And then when you come back we'll fill in the spot and I'll go from there, okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So not 10:00. 12:30?

THE COURT: 12:30. Okay. Eat lunch, too, okay.

Before you come, eat lunch because we're going to go all the way through until -- when we start at 12:30, the group that comes in earlier is probably going to -- I'll be sending them out to lunch and then -- and then we'll get started again at 12:30 with everybody, hopefully. That's the plan. All right?

Okay. So we'll be at ease while you all leave the room. I'll see you all tomorrow morning. Make sure, once again, do not do any independent research on this matter, and don't get on the Internet and look things up, okay. All right.

(Prospective jury panel recessed at 4:26 p.m.)

THE COURT: Okay. We're outside the presence of the jury. What I wanted to explain to the parties is tomorrow, usually we have like a seating chart. This is what we have here that we use, what's in this group here. I'm just going to bring everybody in without that and just go on this list here just like we did today. And then when we're done, up to the point where we left off today, I'll bring everybody back in, we'll put them all in order to fit.

So these people that are here now will fit in that same order, and there's a number that we have to fill in from the new group. And then -- and then depending on how far we get, because -- and then I'll just ask some additional questions. I know based on some of the answers we just had we will have further challenges. I recognize that. That's why I said I need to call more people.

So I figure if we get started by 10:00 tomorrow, we'll probably be about this time frame, around -- around, you know, 11:30 or so. And I'll give you the same option to 3 challenge everybody like you did today, and then hopefully by 12:30 I can get back in to normal and we can get started. And 5 we'll have a number of people already excluded that will get 6 over those humps, okay? 7 MS. MERCER: Okay. 8 THE COURT: All right. You guy have anything you 9 want to put on the record at this time at all? 10 MS. MERCER: No, Your Honor. 11 MS. LOBO: Yeah, Judge. We just wanted our 12 objection noted for the record. We understand Mr. Oliver's 13 situation, the predicament we were in. It's just so that way 14 the issue is preserved. But we agree with the Court in terms 15 of it is a hardship, but for the record we had to objection.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. MERCER: And, Your Honor, they actually never objected. They just said that they couldn't agree to it. There's a difference.

THE COURT: Right, well, that's -- they couldn't agree to it.

MS. MERCER: Right.

THE COURT: So I took that as an objection.

MS. LOBO: An objection.

THE COURT: That's fair. That's why I wanted to ask

1 additional questions and -- and I think it's unfortunate under 2 these circumstances based on your previous objection. 3 tomorrow we'll have a new panel and we'll go from there and 4 we'll look at it and see what we can do, okay. 5 MR. TANASI: Thank you, Your Honor. 6 MR. MANINGO: Thank you, Judge. 7 MS. MERCER: Your Honor, with regards to Mr. Oliver, when he returned from the break, I just want to make a record that when he was addressing the Court, it sounded like he was about to start crying. His voice was cracking. 10 11 THE COURT: Yeah. It's clear to me that he's 12 struggling with his medical issue right now. And, you know, he is confined to a wheelchair and he had issues being able to 13 14 get to court. That's why I addressed that. And I'm sure that 15 he would be a great juror if he had the opportunity. 16 this point in time, I think it's probably not the best time 17 for him. And I -- I was kind of -- I was impressed with him 18 coming back after already asking to postpone it. Okay. 19 MS. MERCER: Thank you, Your Honor. 20 MR. MANINGO: Thank you, Judge. 21 MR. TANASI: Thanks Judge. 22 THE COURT: All right. We'll see you tomorrow, 23 okay. 24 (Court recessed at 4:30 p.m., until Thursday, 25 May 5, 2016, at 10:11 a.m.)

   last time or do you want me to go over it again what I'm going to do? We asked for a --
3
             MS. LOBO: I think I'm clear.
 4
              MR. TANASI:
                          Sure.
5
              THE COURT: -- whole -- a whole additional panel, 6 and I believe that it is -- how many is it?
7
              THE CLERK: A new panel of 65, Your Honor.
8
              THE COURT: 65 additional jurors.
9
              THE CLERK: And it starts with Badge No. 001 on the second page halfway down.
11
              THE COURT: Okay.
12
              THE CLERK: Is where the new panel begins.
13
              THE COURT: 00 -- okay. You should have a list and there's a black mark that goes an I cross.
15
              MR. TANASI: Yep.

22 like we did yesterday, and then go through the questioning.
23
   And when I get to the point where I ask that one question going to ask you all to go through preempts -- I mean,

4
              THE COURT:
                         Okay.
                         We reviewed it. I believe that there is

THE MARSHAL: Rise for the jury, please. Please be seated. Department 19 is back in session.

THE COURT: Thank you, Jim. Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. This is the time set for jury trial in a criminal matter in Case No. C-303022. It is State of Nevada is the plaintiff versus Tony Hobson and Brandon Starr, they're the defendants here.

I want the record to reflect the presence of the defendant, both their counsel, as well as counsel for State and all officers of the court.

Once again, are the parties ready to proceed in this matter?

MS. MERCER: Yes, Your Honor.

MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, you're in Department 19 of the Eighth Judicial District, County of Clark here in the State of Nevada. I am the presiding judge over this matter. My name is William Kephart. And I want to welcome you all here to the courthouse for purposes of jury selection.

You are right now involved in what is called voir dire, and before we get any further, I want to take an opportunity to introduce to you somebody that you might be coming into contact throughout this proceeding, if you -- during this point as well as if you become one of our jurors.

To my immediate left is Corey Schlitz (phonetic). She's a court clerk here working with my court clerk, Tia Everett, to immediate -- to the -- in the middle here. Both these a lady are -- handle my witnesses, they mark exhibits, they track my evidence, and they prepare my official record.

The reason we get started sometimes at this time is because I have morning calendars. I start my morning calendars at 8:30, and on occasion they may go a little bit longer, sometimes a little quicker, but these two ladies here handle my official record for that as well.

Also, to -- three ladies over is Christine Erickson. She's my court recorder. If you look around the room, you'll see a bunch of microphones as well as some cameras around the room as well. Not only are you being recorded audibly, you're being recorded visually. So I always say if you make dirty faces or anything, we pick that up.

It's a real sensitive system so I'm going to ask that you turn your phones off. It picks vibrations and oftentimes I'll hear from Ms. Erickson that she's having trouble picking things up because there's something vibrating.

Many times the attorneys, they're always busy and they've got other work going on and they keep their phones with them, and I have to remind them as well because they'll set them on their table and sometimes you'll even hear it.

It will vibrate and it vibrates through the system.

So at this point in time, go ahead and turn your phones off, okay?

You've met already my marshal, that's Jim Kinnally. A lot of people call them bailiffs. He's the individual you will be coming in contact most of all in this proceeding, and if you are a juror, that's how you communicate with the Court.

Ladies and gentlemen, the way our courtroom is set up, it's -- I have probably the smallest courtroom in the courthouse, and so that's why you're seated the way you are. You are actually the second half or portion of a jury panel that we're working on. We did 65 yesterday, we're on the second 65 today.

There's a number of individuals that we're still talking to in that, but I wanted to get you all caught up. I don't have the room to put a hundred and some people in here, otherwise, I would have, and we would have been done with you yesterday. But because of that, that's why you're here now.

They're due to be back here at 12:30 today. So we would have you mixed in.

So basically, we're starting at very beginning again of what we went through yesterday already. So I guess, yesterday was our dry run.

But, first of all, I want to tell you if
2 something's happening that you they'd to leave the courtroom 3 because of an emergency, please let me know by raising -- 4 okay, sir?
              JUROR NO. 041: Yeah.
                                     I'm in --
              THE COURT: Hold on. Jim, can you give him a mic?
7
   Sir, on your chest, you have a badge there. Can you give me 8 the three digits of your badge number and your name?
9
              JUROR NO. 041: You want my full name?
10
              THE COURT: Yes.
              JUROR NO. 041: Michael Voutsinas. Michael 11
   Voutsinas. The last four numbers are 0041.
12
13
              THE COURT: Okay. All right, Mr. Voutsinas, what 14 did you want to tell me?
15
              JUROR NO. 041: I'm in high school still.
16
              THE COURT: Okay.
17
              JUROR NO. 041: And I have finals coming up this 18 week, and so I just wanted to know how I'm supposed to juggle 19 this and -- 20
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 041: -- trying to -- 22
              THE COURT: All right. I'll get to you on that, 23 all right? I will. I have -- I get to another area, I'll be 24 asking questions for people that are going to be inconvenienced by this, and that's where you'd be on that,
```

1 okay? 2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 041: Okay. THE COURT: What I'm saying now is if there's 3 4 anyone that has an emergency that they have to leave the 5 room, please don't just get up and walk out. Raise your hand 6 and let us know that you have an emergency or something's 7 happening that you need to leave the room. You can't hear? Okay. And if you can't hear me --8 9 is there anyone that can't hear me now? We have a gentleman 10 back there that that he can't. I have some equipment that will help, okay? Do you have trouble hearing as well? 11 UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's a little 12 13 tough, yeah. 14 THE COURT: All right. Jim, we have another 15 gentleman here as well. 16 (Pause in the proceedings) 17 THE COURT: Can you hear me now, sir? Sir, can you 18 hear me? Can you hear me? UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He has hearing 19 20 aids. 21 UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A little bit. 22 THE COURT: Okay. Jim, in the second row there's a 23 gentleman as well that has trouble hearing. Just put it on 24 and hang it underneath. Down. 25 THE MARSHAL: No, no, in front of you.

          Does that help?
 3 UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.
 4
              THE COURT: All right. Okay. So on behalf of 5
    State, I'm going to ask them to introduce themselves to you, and I'm going to ask them to make a brief statement of the nature of the case and state any witnesses that they believe 8 that they'd be intending to call.
 9
              Keep in mind the information they provide to you, 10
    I'll be asking further questions based on this. Ms. Mercer, 11
    Mr. Portz. Okay.
              MR. PORTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. And good 12
    morning, everyone. Thank you all for taking the time out of

              MR. PORTZ: Sure.
20
              THE COURT: -- right now we're pretty muffled with 21 as many people that's in here.
22
              MR. PORTZ: Thank you. Good morning. Can everyone

Liz Mercer. We are deputy district attorneys at the Clark County District Attorney's Office, and we represent the State of Nevada in the case against Tony Hobson and Brandon Starr.

Mr. Hobson and Mr. Starr are charged with committing a series of armed robberies throughout the Las Vegas Valley from October 28th, 2014 through November 25th, 2014. In total, there are 14 separate events in this case. They generally are -- revolve around fast food restaurants and there's one convenience store, 7-Eleven.

Now, in this case, these are takeover style armed robberies. They typically take place at night. Times when the stores are closing, and only the employees at the stores are present. By takeover style armed robberies, I mean that the defendants are alleged to have broken into these restaurants, taken the employees by force or fear of violence or actually using violence to confine them in their stores and then take property specifically cash from the stores or personal property from their victims and then flee the scene.

On occasion in this 14 series robbery, they used a getaway driver by the name of Donte Johns. Donte Johns is the half brother of the Defendant Tony Hobson. Now, as of today, they stand charged or today they stand charged with the following: Thirteen counts of burglary while in possession of a deadly weapon, 14 counts of conspiracy to commit robbery, 40 counts of robbery with use of a deadly weapon, 3 counts of attempt robbery with use of a deadly weapon, 3 counts of conspiracy to commit kidnapping, 8 counts of first degree kidnapping with use of a deadly weapon and 1 count of attempt first degree kidnapping with use of a deadly weapon.

In total there are 43 individual victims listed in the charging document. Now, I'm going to go through a list of names of people that the State may call to trial. It's a very long list, and I will ask that you please pay attention to the names that are being called because the Court is going to ask you at some point later today whether or not you're familiar with any of those names.

The first group of people that I'm going to read from include victims or lay witnesses in this case. They're as follows: Angelica Abrego, Karina Aguilar, Lori Angie, Thomas Bagwell, Jose Borja, Guy Brown, Darnell Butler, David Caballero, Ashley Charmichael, Cornell Combs, Angelica Cornelas-Pedroz or Angelica Ornelas-Pedroz, Skyler Cox, James Dorame or Jesus Dorame, Gamaliel Enriquez, Jose Espinoza, Janie Fannon, Trevor Faraone, Alma Gomez, Vanessa Gonzalez-Aparicio, Holly Hadeed, Daniel Heffner, Jennifer Hernandez, Sergio Hernandez-Bautista, Jessica Hubbard, Laura Lopez, Luis Lopez, Jesus Lopez, Anthony Maddaford, Diana Mena, Juan Mendoza, Jorge Morales, Noemy Morrquin, Gabriela Oyoque, Shanon Poole, Guillermo Ramirez, Jose Romero, Idania a lot from us over the case of this trial, so I'll keep this very short. I want to thank you all in advance for your time and your careful consideration of all of the allegations and accusations that you have just heard. Thank you.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Maningo and Ms. Lobo, would you like to introduce yourselves or each other, as well as your client.

MR. MANINGO: Thank you very much, Your Honor. I'll take that one on.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MANINGO: Good afternoon, everyone. My name is Lance Maningo. This is Adrian Lobo. We're with the law firm Bellon & Maningo. We represent Brandon Starr. We contest every count that the State alleges against Brandon.

Just to be clear, Your Honor, just to be safe, everyone in my office that I'm going to list are other attorneys or support staff that I have. It's myself, Lance Maningo, Adrian Lobo, Peter Bellon, Elyse Grossman, Sherri Kendrick, Dawn Tranquillo, Larissa Bustamante, Carelli Navarez (phonetic), also in my office Rachelle Winn, Matt Lay. Witnesses we may call during this trial would include Investigator Toby Tobiason, Karren Starr, Rashida McCullough. Thank you, everyone.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Maningo.

MR. MANINGO: Thank you, sir.

Okay. For the record, no one has answered. 12 Ladies and gentlemen, because we're going to be 13 asking you questions, I'm going to ask that you all stand at 14 this time, raise your right hand. I'm going to have my clerk 15 swear you in, okay. 16 (Prospective jury panel sworn) THE COURT: 17 Is there anyone that would not take that 18 oath? All right. No one has indicated otherwise. 19 Ladies and gentlemen, we're going to commence what is called the jury selection process. It's also known as voir 20 21 dire. During this process you're going to be asked questions 22 bearing on your ability to sit as fair and impartial jurors. 23 The term fair and impartial will come up a lot. To accomplish 24 this, questions will be asked of you by myself, and also counsel for the parties if they choose.

On occasion some of these questions will seem somewhat personal, but they are necessary so that counsel, as well as the Court, can make an intelligent determination as to your capabilities to serve as fairly and impartially as you can in this case. It is important that you know the significance to full and accurate and complete honest answers to all the questions that we are about to ask you. Please do not try to hide or withhold anything which might indicate some type of bias or prejudice of any sort by any of you. Should you fail to answer truthfully, or if you hide or withhold anything touching on your qualifications, that fact may tend to contaminate your verdict, and it will possibly have a concern by the Court.

I'm going to conduct general examination of all of you while you're all seated here in the audience, and then there will be a point in time where, if you look here, my courtroom is small compared to a lot of the courts in the courthouse. That's why a lot of you are all sitting up here already. I mean, look, the courtroom is completely full. We had to put some chairs out for some other people to fit. That's always. So don't feel like you're being singled out or anything. And don't feel like I'm putting you up from for any particular reason. You're just -- you're just the next in order, okay.

So what happens is I'm going to question the whole group, and then the group seated up here, I'll be questioning you probably individually, and then turn it over to the parties and they'll question you they'd like. And there's -- during the selection process, some of you may be asked to leave. And it's not particularly -- please don't, you know, be offended by that because we're not -- we're not trying to single you out. It's just that during this process the whole purpose is to -- and the people know their -- the parties know their case.

Based on some of your answers, they may find that you're not probably well suited for this trial. So please don't be offended should you be excused by one of these procedures. They're called challenges. As I said, they're simply part of the procedure designed to protect the right of the parties under our system of government.

If you wish to respond to a question individually and in the affirmative, just raise your hand. And when we get to you, because we're going to be using a microphone. When you have the microphones, please talk directly into the mic. A lot of people hold it down and we can't hear you. You'll be hearing form my court recorder if we can't hear you.

And so when you do raise your hand and we give you the mic, on your chest right now you all have a badge. On that badge there's a number on there and it's a pretty long number. We try to use the last three digits of the number.

always call on the No. 1 seat just for purposes of this. It's Carole Halford.

Ms. Halford, your number would be 003.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 003: Correct.

THE COURT: Okay. Does anyone have any questions about that? So if I call on Ms. Halford because she has her hand up, I'll point to her, she'll say my name is Ms. Halford, and my badge number is 003. That way we know who is talking on the record, we just don't see somebody just talking. And so based on the answers that you give, if you're being excused or you're being kept on, then we know who it is.

Also, I want to point this out now because we have such a big pool, is that I'll be taking breaks occasionally. I will tell you it's probably going to take -- I'm going to stop today at 5:00. I will be really surprised if the parties have come to a conclusion with this jury selection by 5:00, but I'm going to -- I'm going to stop by 5:00. I do -- I do so pretty much every day so you can arrange your schedules to reflect -- to understand that.

Also, during the time, though, I do take breaks.

And if you need a break, let me know. If there's someone in here and something is happening and you need to go to the restroom or you -- or there's an emergency or something, please let me know. Please don't -- don't hide it from me, and please don't just get up in the middle of the process and walk because that puts my marshal kind of at ease -- or not at ease.

So also, when you're outside, if you've already been out there, we don't have the best accommodations for jurors.

Oftentimes, you know, walking around the hall, just waiting around or whatever, and the parties will move in and out of the courtroom, meaning the State attorneys, the defendants, the defense attorneys. They've move in and out of the courtroom.

When they do so, they're specifically instructed not to communicate in any manner with the jury. They're not even supposed to look at you. So please don't think that they're trying to be rude or -- or trying to be mean to you at all. They're not. They're specifically designed or told not to do so and it would be a violation of their ethics to do so.

Also, if you come up to them and you try to start a conversation with them, then they are also told to make sure they notify the Court, so then your name comes out on the record by itself. A lot of people don't feel that they really want to do that. So please understand that. So while -- and also while you're in the courthouse throughout this proceeding, and if you are selected as a juror, you'll be given a different badge. Keep that badge on at all times, that way people know that you have -- that you're a prospective juror or possibly a juror.

You'll be admonished throughout the proceedings here. Every time we take a break you'll be admonished not to talk or converse amongst yourself or with anyone else on any subject connected with this trial, read, watch, or listen to any commentary or any newspapers medium, that type of thing, regarding this trial. A lot of it is on your honor.

And so what I do tell you to do, though, and if I catch you doing this, this really will get me upset. Do not go out in the hall when you get a break and get on your phone and take a selfie of yourself out in front of the courthouse, ha ha ha, I'm here in court and this is the case.

Do not do anything with regards to investigating the case. Don't investigate the attorneys, don't investigate the defendants. Don't look their names up, don't look up anything that has to do with this case. If someone -- today I said voir dire, I described it as jury selection. Don't get on there and get on -- on your Google and Google voir dire to find out what the definition of it is. And do not investigate me, okay. You'll be able to when we're all done. You'll have that full access and be able to look at it when we're all done. But I just wanted to kind of lay those ground rules first of all.

Also, if you have spouses that are -- and you'll hear this later. If you have spouses that have a question about actually what you're doing during the day, believe me, that's probably the most interested individuals when you're not at home or when you're not at work. They want to know where you're at. You can't even talk to them about the case. You can tell them that you're on a -- on a selection for jury, they probably know that already. And if you get selected as a juror, you can tell them that you are on a jury. You can't talk about the case. And if anyone tries to persist to ask you questions about the case, please let my marshal know and we'll put a stop to that, including your spouse.

Also understand, as soon as we get more room in the courtroom, because a lot of you are all going to be gone, we're only going to be seating 12 juror and 4 alternates in this case. And if -- if -- so at that point in time there's only going to 16 of this whole group that's going to be left. So there'll be space in the courtroom. If you'd like, you can bring anyone you'd like to this court proceeding, understanding, though, that that they're not to discuss with you anything about the case and tell you their point of you, that type of thing. It's all -- it's all up to the jurors.

And also, I don't -- I don't like -- I think it's rude when the parties are presenting their case when we have witnesses on the stand and people are walking into my courtroom. I have a button here that I can push and it locks those doors and I have done that. I have had press in here that have been in and out of my courtroom while I have witnesses on the stand and I have locked them in my courtroom. They always look over at my marshal like what did I do.

But I try to set the ground rules now. So if you invite anybody, please let them understand that they'll be -- have to stay in the courtroom while the proceedings are going forward. They can't go in and out. Obviously, if they have an emergency, that's different.

But to start this off with this whole group, has any one of you been convicted of a felony? Anybody here? Okay.

No one has raised their hand.

Is anyone not a United States Citizen? Okay. No one has raised their hand. Wait, did somebody raise their hand that is not a United States citizen? Okay. All right, sir.

THE MARSHAL: He doesn't understand English.

THE COURT: Sir, what's your name?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 061: Da Li.

THE MARSHAL: Da Li.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 061: Dasum Li.

THE CLERK: 061, Judge.

THE COURT: What number?

THE CLERK: 061 is the badge number.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. So it's Da Li?

MS. WU: Yeah.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 061: Yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. I heard two people answer.
                                                             Is 2 that -- are you just speaking for him or -- okay.
 3
   go. Mr. Li?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 061: Yeah.
 5
              THE COURT: You don't understand English?
 6
              MS. WU: No.
 7
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 061: No.
8
              THE COURT: No. Okay. So I just said some things 9 in English and you answered, and somebody answered for you, as 10
          So what's your native language?
   well.
11
             MS. WU: Chinese.
             PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 061: Chinese.
12
13
             THE COURT: Ma'am, who are you?
14
             THE MARSHAL: Who are you? What your name?
15
             MS. WU: Paytee (phonetic) Wu.
             THE COURT: What's your name?
16
17
             MS. WU: Paytee Wu. I'm wife.
18
              THE MARSHAL: Are you in the jury pool?
19
             MS. WU:
                     No.
20
              THE COURT: So do you understand English?
21
             MS. WU: No. No.
22
              THE COURT: Okay.
23
             MS. WU: Just --
              THE COURT: So when I asked if anyone's name I didn't call, you didn't raise your hand. That's why I'm a 25
24
```

1
   little confused, but okay. What's your native language, 2 Chinese?
 3
              MS. WU: Yes.
 4
              THE COURT: Mr. -- you're here with Mr. -- Mr. Li, 5 or Da Li?
 6
              THE MARSHAL: It's her husband.
 7
              THE COURT: Oh, okay. That explains it. All right.
 8
   Can the parties approach.
9
                     (Off-record bench conference)
10
              THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Li, Juror No. 061, I'm going 11 to release you back to the jury commission room.
12
              Do you understand, ma'am? I really appreciate you 13 coming down, though, and wanting to be part of the system, but, unfortunately, at this point the parties aren't comfortable with the fact that you don't understand English, 16
15
   okay.
17
              Jim, why don't you do me a favor. Do you want to 18 walk them over there?
19
              THE MARSHAL: Excuse me?
20
              THE COURT: Walk them over there, okay. Thanks, 21
   Jim.
22
              Okay.
23
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042:
                                         [Inaudible].
24
              THE COURT: Huh? What's your badge number, ma'am?
25
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042: I'm sorry. No
```

1 understand English. It's -- 2
              THE COURT: What's your badge number?
 3
              THE CLERK:
                         042.
 4
              THE COURT: 042?
 5
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042:
                                          Si.
              THE COURT: Okay.
 7
              THE CLERK: Anita Ramirez-Horna.
 8
              THE COURT: All right. Ms. Anita Ramirez-Horna?
 9
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042: Yes.
10
              THE COURT: Okay. Ma'am, how long have you lived in 11 the United States?
12
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042: 15 years.
13
              THE COURT:
                          15 years?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042: Yeah.
15
              THE COURT: Okay. Are you working here?
16
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042: Yes.
17
              THE COURT: What do you do for work?
18
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042: Work at market.
19
              THE COURT: You work in a market?
20
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042: [Inaudible] market.
21
              THE COURT: Okay. All right. What's your native 22 language, Spanish? Okay. So you don't feel comfortable with 23
    -- you don't understand the language? I mean, I understand 24 the legal issues, but if I brought an interpreter in, would 25 you be more comfortable?
```

1
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042: [Inaudible].
 2
              THE COURT: Interpreter? Do you understand that?
 3
              Whey don't -- why don't you do that. Call and see 4 if they have an interpreter, okay. I'm going to call and see 5 if we have an interpreter.
 6
              I'm going to call and see if we have an Spanish 7 interpreter, okay.
 8
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 042: Okay. All right.
 9
              All right. Anyone else with that concern? Anyone 10 else that has issues with English?
11
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: Spanish.
12
              THE COURT: Jim.
13
              THE MARSHAL: He speaks Spanish, also.
14
              THE COURT: All right.
15
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: Janer Pacheco.
16
              THE COURT: What's your badge number, sir?
17
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: 76.
18
              THE COURT: So it's Janer Pacheco?
19
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: Yes.
              THE COURT: Okay. How long have you been in the 20 21
    United State, sir?
22
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: Four year.
23
              THE COURT: How many years?
24
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: Four.
25
              THE COURT: Four years? Where are you -- where are
```

1
    you from?
 2
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: Puerto Rico.
 3
              THE COURT:
                          And what's your native language?
 5
              THE COURT: You feel uncomfortable here with the 6
    English?
             Do you understand what I'm saying?
 7
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: No.
 8
              THE COURT: Why would you shake your head no if I 9 asked you if you understand what I'm saying? Okay. Did we 10 call?
11
              THE CLERK:
                                They're sending one over.
                         Yes.
12
              THE COURT: We probably need two.
13
              THE CLERK:
                          Okay.
14
              THE COURT:
                          Okay. I'm going to get an interpreter 15 for you, okay, sir?
16
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 076: Okay.
17
              THE COURT:
                         Anyone else? All right. No one else 18 has raised their hand. Is there anyone who has such a 19 sympathy, prejudice, or bias relating to age, religion, race, 20 gender, or national origin that they feel would affect their 21 ability to be open-minded and fair and impartial jurors? Do 22 you all understand that? Do you want me to repeat it?
23 everyone okay with that? Anyone want me to repeat it?
24
              Okay. Is there anyone that has a concern of that 25
            You have a sympathy, prejudice, or bias relating to age, religion, race, gender, or national origin that you believe that you couldn't be fair and impartial and open-minded? Anyone? Okay. No one has raised their hand.

Are any of you acquainted with the defendants here,
Mr. Starr or Mr. Hobson or their attorneys, Mr. Tanasi, Mr.
Maningo, and Ms. Lobo? Or any attorney or associate that's in Mr. Maningo's office that he named off? Anyone? Okay. No one raised their hand.

Are any of you acquainted with the Deputy District Attorneys here, Ms. Mercer and Mr. Portz?

Okay. What about anybody -- are you acquainted with any of the deputies in the District Attorney's office that you know that works in the DA's office or investigators in that DA's office? Anybody? Okay. No one has raised their hand.

Are any of you acquainted with any of the witnesses whose names were previously mentioned by Mr. Portz, as well as Mr. Maningo?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: No. 031, Your Honor.

I'm not sure actually. I was a middle school teacher here in town from 2010 through 2013.

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: And it was like 95 percent Hispanic in my school and like ten of those names sounded very familiar.

1
             THE COURT:
                          Okay.
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: So I won't know until I see them, to tell you the truth.
 3
 4
              THE COURT: Okay. All right. Okay. Well, you'll 5 let us know if you're -- 6
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: Yes, sir.
 7
              THE COURT: -- if you're selected as a juror? Is 8 there anything about any of those names specifically that you 9 believe stands out that you believe that would affect your 10 ability to be fair and impartial here?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: If it was one of my 11 students in there, I would not be able to be impartial, to 12 tell you the truth.
13
14
              THE COURT: What's that?
15
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: If one of my students 16 was a victim in this case, I would not be able to be 17 impartial.
18
              THE COURT: Okay.
19
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: To tell you the truth, 20
   sir.
21
              THE COURT: So maybe some of those -- those names 22 that were read off you think may -- and you -- 23
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: Again, I wouldn't know 24 until I saw their faces, but -- 25
             THE COURT: Okay.
```

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: -- a lot of the names sounded very familiar. But, again, it's Hispanic names, so I wouldn't know until I saw them.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, maybe at the point when the State, if they're asking questions, you can address that with --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: -- they'll address that with you, okay.

All right. Thank you. Let's see. And your number was -
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: 031.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Argento. Okay. Thank you.

Anyone else? Anyone else acquainted with any of the names that were previously called?

Ladies and gentlemen, this trial is -- I mean, you can probably just kind of surmise based on what Mr. Portz indicated on the -- on the number of counts that are in this case. This is a big case. It's going to take a lot time to do it. And the State has told me that they anticipate, once we get a jury, roughly two weeks.

Is that right?

MS. MERCER: Two to three weeks, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. So with that -- okay, let's just say three weeks. I'm going to count the rest of this week, as well. Would serving that period -- period of time present an undue burden upon any of you? That's the one we get -- yeah.

    Don't worry. That's where we always get the questions, okay.
 2
    We'll just start in the back row and work our way throughout 3 the whole -- the whole courtroom, okay. So once again, 4 identify yourself by name and your badge number.
 5
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 003: Carole Halford, No. 3.
 6
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
                                 What's -- what's your concern?
 7
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 003: I have plans at the end 8 of this month to go to a 90th birthday party for my mom in 9 Albuquerque.
10
              THE COURT:
                          When is it that you plan on leaving?
11
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 003: The 26th of May.
12
              THE COURT:
                         Okay. And that's already scheduled?
13
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 003: Yes, sir.
14
              THE COURT:
                          Okay. Anything else?
15
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 003: No.
16
              THE COURT: All right.
                                      Thank you.
17
              Anyone else in the back row? Okay.
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Carla Coffers, No. 005.
18 19
    Carla Coffers, No. 005.
20
              THE COURT: Speak into the black -- the little fuzzy 21 thing.
            There you go. Okay.
22
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Carla Coffers, No. 005.
23
              THE COURT:
                          Okay
24
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: I'm -- my son is a 25 single father and he goes to work at 3:00 in the morning.
                                                                So

```
I'm grandma and every day I get them off to school, the kids, and then I'm there for them after school. And there really isn't an alternative for someone to do that.
 3
 4
              THE COURT: Okay.
                                 How many children?
 5
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Two, ages 9 and 13.
 6
              THE COURT: Okay.
                                 So there's no one else in the 7 family that can help?
 8
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. No, it was difficult today.
 9
              THE COURT: Jim, we have just one for now.
10
              THE CLERK: Well, we've got two headsets.
11
              THE COURT:
                         Sorry, ma'am.
12
                         He's going to bring one microphone and
              THE CLERK: 13 two headsets -- 14
              THE COURT: All right.
15
              THE CLERK:
                          -- so you Council speak to [inaudible].
16
              THE COURT:
                          Oh, great. Great. Okay. All right.
17
              Okay.
                     Anything else?
18
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005:
19
              THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
20
              Anyone else in that row?
21
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: Anthony Raftery, 006.
22
                          Okay.
              THE COURT:
23
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: I have three young kids 24 at home and a pregnant wife that is not doing so great.
25
              THE COURT: How far along?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 006: About 15 weeks.
 2
              THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.
 3
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 007: Susan Miller.
 4
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
 5
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 007: 007. I'm a small business owner. I wear probably five hats at work and I don't know how I'd possibly miss three weeks of work.
 8
              THE COURT: What's that? I didn't hear you.
 9 can't -- I can't hear you.
10
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 007: You can't hear me?
11
              THE COURT: No.
                              There you are.
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 007: All right. Sorry.
12
13
    Susan Miller, 007. I'm a small business owner and I wear 14 about five hats at work and I just don't know how I could miss three weeks of work.
15
16
              THE COURT: Okay. What type of work is it?
17
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 007: It's a digital graphics 18 business. I have 15 employees that I work with constantly.
19
              THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Thank you.
20
              Anyone else? Ma'am? Okay. Could you pass it all 21 the way down to the other end of your row.
22
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 019: Certainly.
23
              THE COURT: And just keep it in order here.
24
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 019: You bet.
25
              THE COURT:
                         Okay.
```

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 012: Taylor Kilgore, No. 12.
1
   I wouldn't be able to financially support myself. I only have 2 3
   one part-time job.
 4
              THE COURT:
                         All right. Do you have a family?
 5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 012: My family is out of 6 state.
 7
                          Do you have any children?
              THE COURT:
 8
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 012: No.
              THE COURT: And what do you do for work?
9
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 012: I work at CSN.
10
              THE COURT: Are you a student, as well?
11
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 012: Yes.
12
13
              THE COURT: Okay. What are you studying?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 012:
14 Theater.
1.5
              THE COURT:
                          Theater. Okay. Thank you.
16
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: Todd Cressman, Juror No.
17
   013.
         Lucky number 13.
18
              THE COURT: Okay.
19
             PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: I'm a dentist in town, 20
   Your Honor. I have an office staff of about 12 people who 21 don't work unless I'm there. I would -- all the names we've 22 read, probably a dozen of those people you've read are 23 probably patients of mine. I have about 15,000 patients of 24 record in town. I've already seen -- there's another juror 25 here there's a patient of mine and my office manager happens to be in this jury pool, also, so that would get a little complicated.

THE COURT: Yeah. Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 013: And I'm also the sole breadwinner for my -- my household. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 018: My name is Patricia Dooley, Juror No. 018. I live in Laughlin, Nevada, and I don't drive well in traffic. I was driven here today by my husband. And to be on a trial for three weeks would, especially at my age, be very draining to try to make that trip on a daily basis. I certainly wouldn't want to be staying at a casino for three weeks, either.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you, Ms. Dooley.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 019: Judge, Vincent Gaeta, Juror No. 19. And before I give you all the reasons why I can't be here, I would be delighted to serve, but is there gap between the jury selection and when the trial begins --

THE COURT: No.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 019: -- to wrap up some things. Because I am the CEO of a [indiscernible] company in San Francisco and I travel back and forth routinely and have appointments on the calendar that I could reschedule if given the time.

THE COURT: Well, the only -- the only gap would be in the time frame when I'm in another calendar. So in the mornings on some of the days we won't get started until later. Some days I might not get started until 1:00. I anticipate tomorrow we'll get started probably around 10:00. And then Friday -- do we have a hearing Friday, too?

THE CLERK: Yes, we do, at 8:30.

THE COURT: So probably 10:00 on Friday, as well.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 019: And I don't want to give you reasons why I can't or am unable. I'd be delighted to do it. It's interesting to me to have the opportunity. Just I'm concerned that if it's something that does take two weeks with things on the calendar and some high-level meetings to reschedule it could --

THE COURT: What do you do again?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 019: I do offsite commercial record information management business in the Bay Area. So like you have a custodian of records.

THE COURT: Uh-huh.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 019: We used to actually do all the record retention for the Clark County Detention Center, State of Nevada Attorney General, customers in town here, as well. Sold that business in 2003. That's what brought me here --

THE COURT: Okav.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 019: -- to the state because I love it, and I have the same business in the Bay Area, as well.

THE COURT: All right. Okay. Thank you. Can you pass that forward all the way to your left.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 025: My name is Stephanie Outley, No. 025.

THE COURT: Okay.

2.0

prospective juror No. 025: Next week my parents are going out of town to Hawaii, and the week after that my mom is going to Italy for three weeks. And my sister is a single mother and I promised her I would help her take care of my niece, she's only six years old and my grandma is 86 and she can't stay in the house alone that long. I have a full-time job and we already arranged for time I can leave early so I can go help pick up my niece from school and go home to my grandma.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Pass it forward and all the way to your left there, ma'am. Pass it all the way down.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 026: Carol Shubinski, 026.

And I am a teacher K5 science lab, and if I would have to have a substitute every day for three weeks that would actually mean double work because every night then I would have to come home, go to the school, plan all my lessons for the next day, get everything ready, and then come here the next day. Plus, my husband and I only have one car. He's a substitute teacher, so he has -- he brings me in the morning and then he goes. And then he'd have to pick me up. Plus, we're primary caregivers for my 10 year old grandson. We also have to take him and get him from school. So thank you.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Rick, 027. Mine is just purely economic. I've been off work for three months now. And even on unemployment, it doesn't pay my bills. And so I knew that this would probably come up today. I stopped at a bank and I got receipts of today's date of my savings and checking accounts, how depleted they are. I can't make my monthly payments. That's a long time. So I've depleted any moneys I've got in the bank. I've got to find work and I've got to find it now.

THE COURT: How long have you been on unemployment? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: Three months.

THE COURT: Okay. So --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: And I know you could say, well, gee, you've got all the time in the world. No, I don't, because it's depleting all my savings.

THE COURT: What do you do for work?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: I sell vacation ownership. That -- that used to be a great job. I did it for 12 years. It's terrible now. It's a luxury item in life that people don't buy.

THE COURT: Do you have any leads on a job that you think you're going to get in the next three weeks?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: There's always a chance. This is actually a good time of year to be looking because they're -- they're going to gear up for spring and summer. And -- but so far I haven't had a bite yet.

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: The industry has bene hurt a lot. I can't even go into an old industry. For 25 years I worked on the casinos here in town building hotels. I was a superintendent. I can't get a job in that, either, even with all that experience.

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 027: There's just now work. It just happens the two things I do in life have been hurt drastically, the worse.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you, Mr. Poyner.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 031: 031, Chris Argento, Your Honor. I actually have a couple of reasons. The first is economic. I'm coming off of Chapter 7 bankruptcy in October. I'm self-employed and if I don't work I don't get paid. So taking two or three weeks off would be -- mean I couldn't pay my bills this month, either. I am also a single dad. I have shared custody of my son and he goes to daycare Monday, 3

   Wednesday, Friday, so I keep him home with me Tuesday and Thursday since I work from home. And I don't know what I would do with him, to tell you the truth. I'm happy to be on 6 another trial that is shorter if we could arrange that.
   not trying to get out of jury duty, but I just can't see how I would make that work.
 8
 9
              THE COURT:
                          I understand.
                                         Okay.
                                                Thank you.

16
              THE COURT: Okay.
17
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 032:

20
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 032: Thank you.

 7
    Most recently I was out of work for two and a half weeks for a 8 back injury, this was about three weeks ago, and have been 9 working 70-hour weeks trying to catch up to keep the bills

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 034: Not that I'm aware of.
20
              THE COURT: Okay. Okay. All right. Thank you.
21
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 034: Is now an appropriate

23
              THE COURT: Go ahead.
24
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 034: Also, in December my 25 house was robbed. They took just about everything of value.
```

1
    I lost a lot of money. We have not been able to replace most of those things, and it will probably take me a decade of work
    just to replace what was taken, the things that could be 4 replaced. And things that cannot that were family heirlooms 5 and things passed down from family members won't ever be 6 replaced.
               The insurance company paid us about 7.5 percent of 7
    the claim.
                That was another part of our problem and I have 8 very hard feelings about that and about people that would rob

 8
              THE COURT: And what do you do for work, again?

Anyone else in that row? 6 7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 045: My name is Angela Drahos, 045. And, Your Honor, I am a second grade teacher. 8 This is the last three weeks of school. I don't even know if 10 I can get a substitute for tomorrow. Substitutes in this 11 district are very difficult, and more than that my kids need 12 me there. We have state testing, and we have three more weeks 13 of just getting ready for third grade. And I work at a Title 14 I Hybrid school and they need me. THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you. 15 16 Anyone else in that row? 17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 048: My name is Jennifer Robinson, It's 048. I just started a brand new job at a law 18 19 firm after being out of work for three months. They do not 20 pay me if I am not there. I'm wondering if I'll have a job if 21 I'm on a case this long. So it would be a hardship on me. 22 I'm trying to play catchup on all the bills that I have. 23 THE COURT: Who is the law firm? 24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 048: Rushforth Firm in Summerlin.

THE COURT: First of all, I want everybody to be rest assured that you cannot lose your job because you're on a jury. And if you do and then the people that are letting you go are going to have a lot more trouble in this courtroom than you would even think about. So I want you to be rest assured of that. You will not lose your job for reasons of being on a jury, okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 048: Okay.

THE COURT: All right. So, I mean, I understand what you're saying and I'm taking it into consideration when we discuss this, okay. So anything else, Ms. Robinson?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 048: I, too, have a doctor's appointment tomorrow morning, as well, that I've had for a long time. I really don't want to reschedule, but --

THE COURT: Why wouldn't you tell me that first? It makes me kind of wonder if you really do.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 048: Oh, I do. I talked to them this morning and they --

THE COURT: Okay. What time is your doctor's appointment?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 048: 10:15.

THE COURT: 10:15? What type of appointment is it?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 048: A lady's appointment.

              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: I've canceled twice 3 because of juries.
 4
              THE COURT: Well, when's your appointment? When is 5 your next appointment?
 6
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: I've got to get it set 7
   up.
 8
              THE COURT: So you haven't set an appointment yet?
 9
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: No.
10
              THE COURT: How long have you been confined to the 11 wheelchair?
12
             PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Oh, for about -- well, 13
    since after Christmas.
14
              THE COURT: Of this year?
15
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: I was in an auto 16 accident.
17
              THE COURT: Okay. So just -- you mean Christmas of 18 last year?
19
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yeah, I've canceled 20 twice because of the jury.
21
              THE COURT: Okay. You canceled --
22
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: I've canceled --
              THE COURT: -- the doctor appointment twice because 23
   of this -- this -- 25
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yeah.

THE COURT: -- one time jury summons?
 1
 2
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: No, no. I've been -- 3
    let's see, it was the 29th of the December -- 4
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
 5
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: -- when I had plans.
 6
    They gave me a jury summons.
 7
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
 8
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: And then I canceled 9 that.
10
              THE COURT: You canceled the jury summons?
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yes, because -- 12
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
13
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: -- I was going to 14
   Escondido.
15
              THE COURT: Okay. So --
16
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Okay. And once -- once 17
    I get back there, they didn't send me another jury summons.
18
   And I'm going, well, what's going to happen? So I call them 19 up, and then they sent me the one for today.
20
              THE COURT: Okay.
21
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: And so until, you know,
   I get this out of the way, then I can have the back surgery, 22
23
   and after that physical rehab.
24
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
25
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Which I don't -- I don't
```

1 know how long that's going to take. 2 THE COURT: Okay. So the doctor has already told 3 you you have to have back surgery? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: Yes. 4 5 THE COURT: And you're just waiting to do the blood 6 work and everything --7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: 8 THE COURT: -- to get ready for it? 9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 047: To get all the lab work 10 done. 11 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Okay. Thank you. 12 All right. Can you pass it down to your -- to your left, sir, 13 all the way to that -- the second row down there. 14 Anyone in the second row? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 066: I guess that me. 15 16 Christy Hampton, Juror 66. 17 THE COURT: Okay. 18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 066: I run the business for 19 Todd Cressman who had already spoke. So it definitely would 20 have a negative impact on my business if I were not there. I 21 would not have the coverage to cover me not being there, and 22 it would also be a financial strain on myself being a single 23 woman that I do not have anybody else to depend on. 24 THE COURT: You guys want to flip a coin? You can see, I've got to weed through this. I'm running out of people.

THE COURT: I understand. I will tell you now, I promise you there's going to be a lot more questioning. If we get to the point where you both are going to -- I won't allow that. I'm sorry. I mean, the parties might not agree with it, but she's way down on the list. She may not even make it to the point. You may be excused before that. But I've got, you know -- I understand. I'll keep it in mind, okay. They might come up and say, well, Judge, we don't want either one of them.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 066: Well, obviously --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 066: Thank you.

THE COURT: Okay. All right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 067: My name is Jonna Mortensen, No. 67.

THE COURT: Uh-huh.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 067: My husband and I are self-employed. He's a chiropractor, and I manage the office, as well as the business. We recently lost our front desk girl so I'm trying to cover for her, also. So this would just be a big strain on our business and my mental health.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 068: My name is Kelly Whitten, No. 68.

THE COURT: Uh-huh. 1 2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 068: I'm the only money maker 3 in my household. I support my husband and my two kids. 4 have another one on the way and paying for that one out of 5 pocket. So definitely a financial hardship for three weeks out of work. 7 THE COURT: What do you do for work? 8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 068: I'm a registered nurse 9 at a small clinic. 10 THE COURT: And what does your husband do? 11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 068: He's unemployed. 12 THE COURT: What does he do when he works, or does 13 he not? 14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 068: He's been unemployed for 15 a very long time. He watches over our kids. They're 8 and 16 10. He takes them to school and back. 17 THE COURT: Where do you work 18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 068: I work at the Vaccine 19 Center. 20 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. 21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 068: Thank you. 22 THE COURT: Anyone else in that row? 23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 069: Yes. Melissa Morales, 24 Badge No. 069. I travel internationally for my job.

scheduled to leave the county on Monday, and will not be returning until about the 28th of May.

 2
              THE COURT: What type of work do you do?
 3
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 069: I work in healthcare, 4 the finance administration. My corporate office is based in 5
    Irving, Texas, but I travel significantly abroad, South 6
    America and Mexico.
 7
              THE COURT: Okay.
                                 Thank you.
 8
              Anyone else in that row?
 9
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 070: Yeah, my name is Monte 10
    Lai, Badge No. 70.
11
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
12

15
              THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir.
16
              Anyone else?
17
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 072: Good afternoon.
                                                            My name
18 is Mitsue Mara. My badge is 72.
19
              THE COURT: Okay.
20
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 072: I have my niece and her family visiting from Japan until the 11th, and I would like to

I'm Dalton 5 Plucker, No. 80. And I wouldn't be financially able to work 6 -- to do this for three weeks. I work for Bonanza Beverage as 7 a quality control in the draft department. 8 THE COURT: How long have you worked for Bonanza 9 Beverage? 10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 080: Nine months. THE COURT: Okay. And you work in quality control? 11 12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 080: Yes, sir. 13 THE COURT: What do you do in quality control? 14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 080: I go to all the casinos 15 and I go through all the bars and I pull out beer and then 16 toss it if it's out of date, check dates. 17 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Thank you. 18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 080: Thank you. 19 THE COURT: Anyone in the back row? 20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 084: My name is Jacqueline 21 Ayala, No. 084. Three weeks is not going to work for me 22 because I work for a company called Acceptance Now who is 23 owned by Rent-A-Center. We're currently located inside R.C. 24 Willey and there's only two employees working there. I fear 25 that when I got back on my job I might not be an assistant manager anymore. So since there's only two of working and our 1

 2 business hours are from Monday through Saturday from 10:00 to 3
    9:00, there's only two of us to cover shifts.
 4
              THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Ayala.
 5
              Anyone else in that row?
 6
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 097: My name is Veronica
 7
    Deleon and 097.
 8
              THE COURT:
                          Okay.
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 097: It would also be financially hard for me, and plus I work in a casino so I have 11 to make a certain amount of hours to keep my insurance since 12
10
    I'm 30 weeks pregnant right now. And also I'm going to be 13 having appointments for my prenatal appointments and actually 14 tomorrow I have an appointment for an ultrasound since I 15 haven't been feeling my baby move as I'm supposed to. So 16 they're going to make sure she's okay. And it'll be kind of 17 hard for me for that, too.
18
              THE COURT: When is your doctor's appointment?
19
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 097: Tomorrow.
20
              THE COURT: What time?
21
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 097: 4:30.
22
              THE COURT: Okay.
                                 Thank you.
23
              Anyone else?
              PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 099: Hi.
24
                                               Jaclyn Delappi,
25
    Juror 99.

THE COURT: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 099: I have a trip planned to Chicago May 25th. The tickets are paid for and everything is planned. I also have -- my husband and I both work in the healthcare field. His -- when he is on call and working, I'm the only one that is there for my children. I don't have anybody else to watch them. He goes in for a trauma call and then I also work at the hospital and I take a lot of on call. So my patients depend on me. And then also I have a doctor's appointment that I've been waiting four months to get in to see this doctor. And it's -- I have to check in --

THE COURT: When is that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 099: It's in the middle of May.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 117: Kenneth Valandingham. My badge number is 117. I have three reasons. I'm the only provider in my household. I have four kids and a wife. My wife is currently just on a call basis, a CNA. I work for the Palazzo Venetian. My second reason is I'm a Little League coach for my two boys, and the baseball games start at 5:00. And the third reason is my brothers own repair shops and they've been robbed numerous times and I think I would be impartial.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

MS. MERCER: 179. 1 2 THE COURT: Okay. Now, what is the record you're 3 making with regards to these ones? 4 MS. MERCER: The parties have stipulated to their 5 admission. 6 THE COURT: Okay. 7 MS. MERCER: Except for those exhibits that I just 8 listed off. 9 MR. MANINGO: And, Your Honor. 10 THE COURT: Okay. Hold on. The parties have 11 stipulated to the admission of all exhibits --12 MS. MERCER: Except for those. 13 THE COURT: -- except for these ones? 14 MS. MERCER: Yes. 15 THE COURT: Okay. So that's what I didn't 16 understand. Okay. 17 MR. MANINGO: I just -- we have made some agreements 18 with respect to exhibits. 19 THE COURT: Uh-huh. 20 MS. MERCER: I just didn't know that record was going to be made this morning and I don't have with me the 21 22 exhibit list and I don't know that I'm prepared to fully 23 acquiesce to that right this second, but -- thank you. 24 THE COURT: Okay.

MR. TANASI: And Court's indulgence.

THE COURT: Why don't we just go to the point when 1 2 you're moving to admit them just move to admit. And if 3 there's no objection, then I'm sure they'll say no objection. 4 MS. MERCER: Okay. I was just trying to --5 THE COURT: I appreciate what you're trying to do 6 here and trying to speed things along. 7 MR. MANINGO: Yeah, I'm not contesting it, Your I just didn't have the numbers --8 9 THE COURT: I understand. MR. MANINGO: -- in front of me. 10 THE COURT: It's fine. No heartburn here. 11 12 MR. MANINGO: Okay. Very good. 13 THE COURT: All right. 14 MR. MANINGO: Do you need this back, Liz? 15 MS. MERCER: Yeah, I do. 16 THE COURT: So are we ready to get the jury in, 17 then? The proposed panel? MS. LOBO: I actually, Judge, to take care of one 18 19 motion outside of the presence of the jury. And I'm making 20 this on behalf of Mr. Starr, and I believe Mr. Hobson, as 21 well. After looking at the juror list and going through the biographical data, it appears that we only have out of the 22 23 jurors that were ordered, 65, two African-American identifying 24 jurors that are in our pool.

At this time Mr. Starr and Mr. Hobson would be moving to strike the venire, and that would be pursuant to Williams v. State, and that citation for the record is 121 Nev. 934, where defendant is entitled to a fair cross-section of the entire community. In order for us to establish a prima facie violation, the defendant must show that the group alleged to be excluded is distinct, number two, that the representation of this group from the venire in which the jury is selected is not fair and reasonable in relation to the number of persons that are present in the community, and number three, underrepresentation is due to a systematic exclusion of the group in a jury selection process.

Preparing for today's jury trial to begin, I pulled the statistics for the Clark County demographics in 2015 being that African-Americans are totaling for a 10 percent of the population in Clark County. That being said, there is a deficiency of four that would be missing to meet the 10 percent requirement. Now, we do also have to show that that is a systematic exclusion. That proves to be a little bit more challenging because of the fact that the jury commissioner, at least to my knowledge, what has happened, how they get to a venire process is that they are pulled from driver's licenses.

And that since they are pulled from driver's licenses, a lot of underrepresented people do not get into the jury panel process and that is because they predominantly rely on public transportation or they bike or they walk to work. They don't have a driver's license, therefore, excluding them from the process of being able to serve on the panel. So we would be moving to strike the venire at this time and ask for a venire that would be representative of the population.

MS. MERCER: Your Honor, as Ms. Lobo has already indicated, they haven't met their burden under the third prong of showing the systematic exclusion. I just had this issue come up in March when I tried a case in front of Judge Scotti. We called the jury commissioner. They pull, not only from DMV records, but from Nevada Energy records so that those people who might not possess a driver's license or vehicle registration or identifying card are accounted for in the Nevada Energy databases. But if Your Honor wants to call the clerk in, I think that would probably be the safest route. I just don't know that it necessarily needs to be done right now.

THE COURT: What I'm going to do at this point in time is I'm going to ask -- yeah, I'm going to make a phone call. I'm going off the record.

(Court recessed at 1:19 p.m., until 1:38 p.m.)

THE COURT: Okay. We're back on the record in the State of Nevada versus Tony Hobson and Brandon Starr, in Case No. 303022. The record will reflect the presence of the plaintiff, their counsel, as well as defendants and their counsel.

This is prior to jury selection and the -- Ms. Lobo from the -- on behalf of both defendants has challenged the jury pool based on race. And so what I -- what I wanted to do is to make a record as to how the -- how we go about selecting jurors and how is it that we ended up in this particular pool with two African-Americans.

So I need to -- can you come on up?

MR. ESPINOZA: And, good afternoon, Your Honor.

Andre Espinoza. I'm staff training for the District Court.

I'm just here to accompany the jury commissioner.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

MARIAH WITT, JURY COMMISSIONER, SWORN

THE CLERK: Thank you. Please be seated. If you could state your full name, spelling of the first and last name for the record, please.

THE WITNESS: Mariah Witt; M-a-r-i-a-h W-i-t-t.

THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Witt, thank you for being here today.

THE WITNESS: Of course.

THE COURT: You are the jury commissioner for Clark County, the Eighth Judicial District here in Clark County?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I am.

THE COURT: Okay. I called you in today because there's been a challenge made on behalf of the two defendants in this case as to the jury pool that we have here today. We are starting on Wednesday and in the middle of the week.

THE WITNESS: Correct.

THE COURT: And I know that that does change in some regards the number that you bring down; is that correct?

THE WITNESS: Well, the pool is smaller than we summon, but $\ensuremath{\mathsf{--}}$

THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: $\mbox{--}$ we should still be able to provide whatever size panel $\mbox{--}$

THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: -- you request normally.

THE COURT: Just for the record, I know you've testified in these matters before, can you explain on the record the manner in which the -- how it is that we go about for the purpose of the Eighth Judicial District selecting or summonsing individuals to serve on jurors --

THE WITNESS: Correct.

THE COURT: -- as jurors.

THE WITNESS: Sure. We have a master list which is compiled from Nevada DMV and Nevada Energy. So from that master list we create summonses on a weekly basis which are created six weeks in advance. And they're fairly large pools based on volume of trials. We typically have a much higher volume earlier in the week. So we summon 2,000 on a Monday, 1,500 on a Tuesday, 1,000 on Wednesdays, 1,000 on Thursdays, and 800 on Fridays. Okay. So we summon the pools, and then they're sent six weeks in advance.

And then when people receive their summons, they are directed to complete a qualifying questionnaire in advance of reporting, okay. Some of them do, some of them do not. So when they are here, if they have not done so, we ask them to do so while they're here. Okay. We have the tools do that now. So we have them complete that questionnaire when they actually appear.

So when they arrive they are scanned in for attendance and then I just enter into the system for a given case the number of people that were requested for that particular case, and then it will assign those people to the case based on the number of people that are actually in attendance.

THE COURT: Okay. There is a -- you provided the Court with a breakdown of in the manner of how -- how you summons. Not how, but the -- I guess the race of the individuals that are summonsed.

THE WITNESS: The race information of those that responded --

THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: -- to the request to provide the information.

1 THE COURT: So with respect to that, the report I 2 have here, it's entitled at the top race report, dated May 4, 3 2016. 4 THE WITNESS: Correct. 5 THE COURT: And it has a number of 101 -- I mean, 6 1,011 total individuals --7 THE WITNESS: Correct. 8 THE COURT: -- that responded; is that correct? 9 THE WITNESS: Yes, that's the total pool. 10 THE COURT: Okay. And that's for the Wednesday 11 pool? 12 THE WITNESS: Yes. 13 THE COURT: All right. And of that it has numbers consistent with individuals that completed the actual 14 15 questionnaire or the qualifications of individuals that 16 actually qualified and other reasons, individuals that have been excused, individuals that have been disqualified, 17 18 postponed, transferred, for everything, it goes -- it goes 19 through that and it gives us a number --20 THE WITNESS: Correct. 21 THE COURT: -- for each individual; is that correct? 22 THE WITNESS: Correct. And the completed number is 23 not people that completed the questionnaire. It is the number of people that were -- their service was considered complete 24 because they were not required to appear.

THE COURT: Okay. And the summonsing is done -- is 1 2 it done randomly? 3 THE WITNESS: Yes, the summonsing is done randomly. 4 It's built within the system. THE COURT: Okay. What I'm going to do at this 5 point in time, there's three documents. Can you -- can you 6 7 identify each one of these? I'm going to have them -- I'm 8 going to have them marked. 9 THE WITNESS: Okay. 10 THE COURT: So just for the record tell us what the 11 first document is. THE WITNESS: Okay. The first document is the race 12 13 report for May 4th for the entire pool. 14 THE COURT: Okay. 15 THE WITNESS: Okay. The second document entitled race report for attendance date 5/4/2016 is the race 16 17 composition of those in attendance for today, of those that 18 actually appeared. 19 THE COURT: Okay. THE WITNESS: And the third document is a race 20 21 report for Case C303022-1/2. That's the race composition for 22 this case. 23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you. 24 Do you have a copy of these, Mr. Tanasi? 25 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: And Mr. Maningo, Ms. Lobo?
1
2
              MS. LOBO: Yes.
 3
              MR. MANINGO: We do, yes. Thank you.
 4
              THE COURT: Okay. Do you have a copy, as well?
5
              MS. MERCER: Yes, Your Honor.
              THE COURT: Do you have any questions of the 6 7 commissioner?
8
             MS. LOBO:
                        Yes, Your Honor.
9
              THE COURT: Okay.
10
              MS. LOBO: If I may.
11
                              EXAMINATION
   BY MS. LOBO:
12
         Q
              Ms. Witt, I just have a couple of questions about 14 specifically NV Energy records. When somebody is receiving 15 public assistance, those records aren't captured by NV energy 16 and sent to your office; correct?
17
              I'm sorry, public assistance? I'm not following.
18 Correct. If they're having the State pay for their bills, they're receiving public assistance and they would not 19 20 be captured in the database?
21
         Α
              That information isn't provided to us specifically.
22
   The information that we receive on the list are the names and 23 addresses, the basic demographic type information that's 24 captured by a driver's license. It would not identify in our master list whether or not somebody was on public assistance.

25

Q I guess, let me -- that was maybe a poor question on my part. What I'm asking is that if somebody is receiving public assistance and they're not on the list because their name would not be provided as the property owner --

A Right.

Q -- then you wouldn't have access to that information to make your composition for the jury pool.

A Are you talking about for Nevada Energy? Is that what you're saying?

Q Correct. Specifically just for --

A That's why we use two sources. Actually, Nevada DMV is the primary source. According to EDCR I think it's 6.10, I can't remember now, which is the Eighth Judicial District Court Rules that cover the master list and where we pull our records. It designates Nevada DMV as the primary source and then says that additional sources may be added as deemed appropriate by the chief judge. And so Nevada Energy is actually the second source, and those are compiled together. They're merged, and then they make it into a single record. So part of the reason they do that is to have a wider base.

Q What do you know, if you know the breakdown since you said that -- that the DMV records are the primary source, do you know a percentage breakdown between the Nevada DMV records versus the Nevada Energy records?

A No, ma'am, they are merged into one record.

Verbatim Digital Reporting, LLC ◆ 303-798-0890

1	Q I understand that, but you said that Nevada DMV was
2	the primary source so it's greater than 50 percent accounting?
3	A I couldn't tell you what the percentage is, ma'am.
4	Q Okay. So you don't have that knowledge, you just
5	get the list. You're not part of the procedure process?
6	A Right. The master list is is something that's
7	done through our IT department.
8	Q Okay. And when you looking, I think it's at page
9	2, does your office have any sort of procedures when you see
10	that a race report for an attendance date is falling below the
11	demographic standards set forth by the census for Clark
12	County?
13	A We do not have a procedure in place.
14	Q You do not. Okay. So if somebody does not have an
15	energy bill in their name and does not have a driver's
16	license, that would not be captured as part of your list?
17	A I would assume not, ma'am. Huh-uh.
18	EXAMINATION
19	BY MR. TANASI:
20	Q Ma'am, if I may just ask you one quick questions.
21	So you told the Court a little bit about this No. 26 on the
22	first page in the completed section. I just wanted a little
23	bit more clarity on that.
24	A 26. Okay. I'm not following you, sir. Where are we talking about?

1	Q	Sure. On the first page.
2	A	On the race report for the day for the pool?
3	Q	Yes.
4	A	Okay.
5	Q	The African-American section, the No. 26 in the
6	completed	column, what does that mean again?
7	A	Okay. That's actually the number 26 refers to
8	the total	for Asian. The number under African-American is
9	actually	16.
10	Q	Okay. So, again, what does the number 16 completed
11	what d	oes the word completed mean?
12	A	Those would be the people that were not required to
13	appear.
14	Q	Okay. Okay, thank you, ma'am.
15	A	Uh-huh.
16		THE COURT: Anything further?
17		MS. MERCER: Just may I ask a couple brief questions.
18		EXAMINATION
19	BY MS. ME	RCER:
20	Q	Ma'am, do you have any idea as to whether people on
21	public as:	sistance still have to have an account with NV
22	Energy?
23	A	No, I don't have any knowledge.
24	Q	Okay. And with regards to DMV records, you're not
25	it's no	ot simply pulling people who possess driver's ı

1 licenses; correct?
 2
              That's correct. It pulls anybody that has a record 3 with the Nevada DMV, be it an ID card or driver's license.
 4
              Vehicle registration, anything like that?
 5
         Α
              Correct. Correct.
 6
              Okay.
                     Thank you.
 7
              THE COURT: Anything further?
 8
              MS. LOBO: No, Your Honor.
9
              MR. TANASI: No, Your Honor.
10
              THE COURT: Just so we're clear, for purposes of 11 this pool of the 1,001 individuals.
12
              THE WITNESS: Correct.
13
              THE COURT: There was actually 41 African-Americans 14 that were -- that were summoned; is that -- 15
              THE WITNESS: Well, that responded, sir.
16
              THE COURT: Responded to the summons. Okay.
17
              THE WITNESS: You can see at the bottom with the 18 category unknown. There's a large number of people that are 19
   -- where race is unknown because -- 20
              THE COURT: Oh, okay.
21
              THE WITNESS: -- they either didn't answer the 22 question or it was not provided.
23
              THE COURT: Okay. So you send it out as a whole to 24 just randomly to people that have driver's licenses, ID cards, 25 or NV Energy information --
```

THE WITNESS: Correct. 1 2 THE COURT: -- and you don't know what race they are 3 when you're doing that? 4 THE WITNESS: No, sir. 5 THE COURT: Okay. And as a result of that randomly 6 sent out, you have individuals that respond, and in this 7 particular case 464 individuals out of 1,001 were unknown 8 because they didn't respond; is that right? 9 THE WITNESS: Yes. 474, yes. 10 THE COURT: Okay. And then of that group there was 11 41 individuals who actually responded that identified themselves as African-American? 12 THE WITNESS: That's correct. 13 14 THE COURT: And of that group only 12 qualify; 15 correct? THE WITNESS: Correct. Hang on just a second. 16 17 Okay. Now, there are two that are in pool. That means that 18 there are two people that actually did not complete the 19 questionnaire. 20 THE COURT: Okay. 21 THE WITNESS: Correct. 22 THE COURT: But what I'm saying is that of the 41, 23 12 of them qualified; is that right? 24 THE WITNESS: They were in qualified status, yes --25 THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: -- from the pool.
2
             THE COURT: And two of them were in a pool, two of 3 them were excused, eight of them asked to postpone?
             THE WITNESS: Correct.
 5
             THE COURT: Okay. So of that we ended up with, as 6 we look at the last page, we have two, one female and one 7 male; is that correct?
8
             THE WITNESS: That is correct.
             THE COURT: And they both made it to this jury 9 10
   panel?
11
              THE WITNESS: Correct.
12
             THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any further questions as a result of my questions?
13
14
             MR. TANASI: No, thank you, Your Honor.
15
             MS. LOBO: No, Your Honor.
16
             THE COURT: Okay. Anything further?
17
             MS. MERCER: No, Your Honor.
18
             THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Witt, so much -- 19
             THE WITNESS: You're welcome.
20
             THE COURT: -- for your testimony.
21
             THE WITNESS: Of course.
22
             THE COURT: You may step down.
23
              Okay. Ms. Lobo, did you want to address the Court 24 any further?
25
             MS. LOBO: Your Honor, if I could just to make a very brief record --

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. LOBO: -- just as to the information that we have now. It's still the defense's position for both Mr. Hobson and Mr. Starr that there is a disparity and that it has been shown. I know that Ms. Witt doesn't have control over the records and who is subpoenaed, but we can see that there is some sort of disparity because she at least said that if somebody was on public assistance that they wouldn't be making it into the records.

And as far as that goes, the percentages that she provided and with the Court's calculation that I worked out it would be 4 percent and that I believe 3 percent actually showed up to day when the population demographic is at 10 percent. And so we believe that we have met the burden under Williams v. State and would ask for a different venire.

THE COURT: State, did you want to you respond at all?

MS. MERCER: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. At this point in time, and I'm going to quote specifically from the most recent case filed March 31, 2016, by the Nevada Supreme Court. It's 132 Nev. Adv. Op. 20, Jason Duval McCarty versus the State of Nevada. In that case they readdress the Batson issue. That's basically what your argument is here now.

And it's very clear that the opponent of the peremptory -- we're not even talking about a peremptory challenge, but you're trying to challenge the whole -- whole group, that you need to make a prima facie case of discrimination. And it's always your burden to persuade the Court, I guess I would say, for lack of a better word, regarding racial motivation, and I haven't seen that you've done that. So for that purpose I'm going to deny your motion to strike the whole panel and we'll go ahead and proceed. We made a record, okay. All right.

MR. TANASI: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: Thank you. Okay. Go ahead and bring the jury in.

MR. TANASI: Your Honor, one quick question.

THE COURT: Something else?

MR. TANASI: One matter, and this will be quick. Just with respect to the one ruling that was pending with respect to the lady, the gal who was pistol whipped and she was pregnant at the time, I was hoping to potentially get the Court's ruling on that before we even started jury selection just, again, in case factual questions like that may or may not come out. I just, again, I think it's a pretty sensitive topic and if the Court could just make a decision on that beforehand, that would be my request. I have the actual statement from the gal and I have her grand jury testimony.

can provide that to the Court if you'd like to review it.
 1
              THE COURT: Well, the -- the position you're taking 3 on this is that you do not want the State to address the fact 4 that the -- that the young lady who was pistol whipped was 5 pregnant.
 6
              MR. TANASI: Correct.
 7
              THE COURT: And, quite honestly, just -- Ms. Mercer?
 8
              MS. MERCER: I would just make a record that it's 9 not our fault the defendant chose a pregnant victim.
10
              THE COURT: Right.
11
              MS. MERCER: It's a circumstance of the case.
12 would note that when I pretrialed another employee who was 13 present, Diana Mena, she specifically said that her and the 14 other employees told the defendant she's pregnant, don't do 15 that, and the defendant did it again.
16
              THE COURT: Oh, okay. I wasn't aware of that.
                                                              Were
    you -- 18
              MR. TANASI: I wasn't aware -- 19
              THE COURT: -- aware of that?
20
              MR. TANASI: -- of that either, Your Honor.
21
              THE COURT: All right. Well, with that understanding -- 22
23
              MR. TANASI: I haven't had a chance -- 24
              THE COURT: -- and based on the representation by -- 25 by Ms. Mercer, I'm going to deny your motion, then.
```

MR. TANASI: Understood.

O

MR. MANINGO: Your Honor, briefly, and I'm sorry, this issue just came up so we didn't have the full opportunity to brief it, but I want to go back just briefly to the record that we made on challenging the venire. I would just want to cite that to the Williams case and State. And that's the one we've already cited, 125 P.3d 627. I believe that case suggests or states that there's a requirement of three sources that we pull from and the jury commissioner here in this — just now on the stand said that they only pulled from two, the Nevada Energy and the DMV.

THE COURT: But don't you have three sources in the sense driver's license, ID cards, and Nevada Energy?

MR. MANINGO: No. I would say no. I would say that the ID and the driver's license come from the same source.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MANINGO: Which is the Department of Motor Vehicles. And I also just want to make a record that I believe the Court's, with all respect, analysis and decision with Batson and discrimination is misplaced. I think this is more a challenge to the venire and I think the Williams case is more controlling than Batson.

THE COURT: Okay. I understand. Okay. Thank you.

MS. MERCER: Your Honor, Mr. Portz pointed out to me that Mr. Tanasi misspoke. It wasn't a pistol whipping, it was 2 a striking.

 3
              THE COURT: Okay. So we're on a different issue
 4
          We're back on the original one.
 5
              MS. MERCER: The pregnant one.
 6
              THE COURT:
                         Yeah.
 7
              MS. MERCER: Yes. I just wanted to make that clear.
 8
              THE COURT: Well, he -- okay.
 9
              MR. TANASI: I apologize, Your Honor.
10
              THE COURT:
                          That's fine. Okay. All right.
                                                           So Mr.
11
    Maningo, you've made your record. I understand.
12
              MR. MANINGO: Thank you, sir.
13
              THE COURT: Okay. So go ahead and bring the jury 14 in, Jim.
15
              While he's doing that, there's eight peremptory 16 challenges, eight per side. Not per defendant, but per side, 17
    okay.
              MS. MERCER: Your Honor, as to the alternate 18 19 peremptory, do you require that we exercise it only on the 20 people in the alternate positions, or can it be -- 21
              THE COURT: Yeah, the alternates will be at the end.
              MS. MERCER: Okay.
22
23
              THE COURT:
                          They'll be at the end of the -- so you 24 have 1 through 12 -- 25
              MS. MERCER:
                           Okay.
```

THE COURT: -- is what you're going to be 1 2 challenging on your peremptory, so it would be the first 1 3 through 12. 4 MS. MERCER: Okay. 5 THE COURT: And then eight and eight. 6 MS. MERCER: Okav. 7 THE COURT: So 16 on top of that. The rest are 8 alternates. I mean, in this box. 9 (Inside the presence of the prospective jury panel) 10 THE COURT: Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. 11 This is the time set for trial in the Case No. C303022. the State of Nevada versus Tony Hobson and Brandon Starr. 12 They're the defendants in this matter. I want the record to 13 14 reflect the presence of the defendants, their counsel, as well 15 as counsel for the State, and all officers of the court. 16 For the record, are the parties ready to proceed in 17 this matter? 18 MS. MERCER: Yes, Your Honor. 19 MR. TANASI: Yes, Your Honor. 20 MS. LOBO: Yes, Your Honor. 21 MR. MANINGO: Yes, Your Honor. 22 THE COURT: Thank you. 23 Ladies and gentlemen, you're in Department 19 of the 24 Eighth Judicial District Court here in the State of Nevada, 25 County of Clark. My name is William Kephart. I am the presiding judge in this matter. I want to take the opportunity at this time to introduce my court staff with you. You may be coming into contact with, you'll hear their names occasionally throughout this proceeding.

Immediately to my left is Cori Schlitz. She's involved in the -- she's actually the court recorder in this matter. She's working with Tia Everette who is my permanent court reporter, I mean court recorder. And what they do, acting as clerk, is they swear in witnesses, they mark the exhibits, they keep track of the evidence, they prepare my official record. You'll -- if you're selected as a -- as a juror, as a matter of fact today because -- the reason why we're starting so late is I had a pretty long calendar this morning. And so that's what they're doing at the time, they're handling those for me.

Also, the third one over to my left is Christine Erickson. She's my court recorder. If you look around the courtroom you'll see a number of mics and you'll see a number of cameras throughout the courtroom. Everything you're saying and doing is being recorded either by audio or visually. So if you have a smirk on your face when I say something, then we catch it, okay. Just kidding.

But because we have it in that nature, we have some very sensitive equipment in here. I'm going to ask while you're in the courtroom please turn off your cell phones because we pick up the vibration if it's on vibrate, and certainly if it's -- if it makes a noise we pick that up. And everything, like I said, is being set and being recorded so, if need be, it's looked at later.

You've met my marshal already. His name is Jim Kinnally. A lot of people call them bailiffs. And he'll probably be the individual throughout this process and if you're selected as a juror that you'll have the most contact with. Anything that you want to do or communicate with the Court you do through my marshal.

At this time on behalf of the State, I'm going to ask them to introduce themselves to you and make a brief statement of the nature of the case and state any witnesses they intend to call in this matter if they wish.

Okay. Mr. Portz.

MR. PORTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. And good afternoon, everyone. My name is Nick Portz. With me is Liz Mercer. We are Deputy District Attorneys at the Clark County District Attorney's office and we represent the State of Nevada in the case against Tony Hobson and Brandon Starr.

Now, Mr. Hobson and Mr. Starr are alleged to have committed a series of armed robberies across the Las Vegas valley during the period of October 28, 2014, through November 25, 2014. There are 14 separate incidents. Most of these occur at fast food restaurants. There is one 7-Eleven included in this series. And this is an armed robbery series.

They are takeover style robberies in which the defendants are alleged to have entered the businesses, typically late at night, typically around closing hours, taken and confined the employees therein, and then used threats of violence or actual violence to either extract money from the businesses themselves or take property from those employees. When they completed these crimes they would then flee from time to time on occasion in a few of these series they would use as a getaway driver, Mr. Hobson's half-brother, a man by the name of Donte Johns.

As such they stand today charged with 13 counts of burglary while in possession of a deadly weapon, 14 counts of conspiracy to commit a robbery, 40 counts of robbery with use of a deadly weapon, 3 counts of attempt robbery with use of a deadly weapon, 3 counts of conspiracy to commit kidnapping, 8 counts of first degree kidnapping with use of a deadly weapon, and one count of attempt first degree kidnapping with use of a deadly weapon.

In total there are 43 individuals named as victims in the charging documents that will be read to you at some point later in these proceedings. Now, as -- excuse me. As Judge Kephart mentioned, I'm going to be reading to you a list of names of people that we may be calling at trial. It's going to sound like I'm ready from a phone book, but please pay attention because it's important. The judge is going to ask if you recognize any of these names later on down the road.

Now the first list plaintiff people's names I'm going to read are victims or lay witnesses in this case. These are people that are not associated with any police agency inside Nevada.

There is Angelica Abrego, Karina Aguilar, Lori Angie, Thomas Bagwell, Jose Borja, Guy Brown, Darnell Butler, David Cabllero, Ashley Charmichael, Cornell Comb, Angela Cornelas-Pedroz or Angela Ornelas-Pedroz, Skyler Cox, James Dorame or Jesus Dorame, Gamaliel Enriquez, Jose Espinoza, Janie Fannon, Trevor Faraone, Alma Gomez, Vanessa Gonzalez-Aparicio, Holly Hadeed, Daniel Heffner, Jennifer Hernandez, Sergio Hernandez-Bautista, Jessica Hubbard, Laura Lopez, Luis Lopes, Jesus Lopez, Anthony Maddaford, Diana Mena, Juan Mendoza, Jorge Morales, Noemy Morrquin, Gabriela Oyoque, Shannon Poole, Guillermo Ramirez, Jose Romero, Idania Sacba, Maria Sanchez, Jamie Schoebel, Alejandra Silva or Yanais Silva-Rios, Sonia Soto de Mason, Juan Tarango or Juan Taingo, George Thimakis, Jeronimo Urbina, Alejandra Uribe, Johana Vasquez, Rafael Velazquez-Borragan, Silvia Villegas, and Jamie Ward. You will also be hearing in this trial from, as I mentioned, the getaway driver, Donte Johns, the half-brother of Tony Hobson.

And we intend to call the following individuals from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. These are detectives and officers from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Detective Jeffery Abell, Detective Karl Lorson, Detective Ronald Matlock, Detective Linda Turner, Detective Theodore Weirauch or Ted Weirauch, and Officer William Moore.

We will also call these following crime scene analysts from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Noreen Charlton and Kristen Tucker Meckler. The following are forensic analysts. There is Crystal May who is a DNA analyst from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Eric Gilkerson who is a footwear impression analyst with the FBI from Quantico, Virginia. We also have individuals from the Henderson Police Department and we intend to call crime scene analyst Patrick Farrell.

Now, there's also a list of a number of officers associated with this case that I'm going to read. We do not intend necessarily at this point to call them, but they are noticed as witnesses, so I'm going to read their names, as well. The following are officers with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, C. Atwood, I. Austin, Austin Bone, G. Cahoon, P. Cartedepalma, S. Dulatre, J. Firestine, C. F. Orson, M. Franco, Malik Grego-Smith, Jorge Hager, C. Herrell, J. Landers, Kristin Long, Lucas Marshall, J. Marty-Pagan, Stephen Mohler, Eric Myrold, J. Nelson, K.

Pearson, J. Ramirez, J. Robertson, J. Robinson, B. Rocha, Lance Spiotto, Caesar Urena, J. Vance, J. Van-Dyke, L. Viray, M. Walt, Jason R.

The following are crime scene analysts in the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Adam Felabom, Olivia Klosterman, Jennifer Reiner, Shelly Shrum, and William Speas.
There's also DNA analyst Jessica Charak, latent print examiners Kathryn Aoyama and Heather Gouldthorpe, multimedia analysts from Metro Marc Moses and Patrick Flynn. Henderson Police Department detectives and officers E. Aiken, Joseph Ebert, and Bryan Hartshorn. The State has also noticed investigators from the Clark County District Attorney's office Craig Fabert, Jamie Honaker, and Marco Rafalovich.

And finally we may call custodians of records from various businesses associated with or tied to the crimes alleged herein, as well as custodians of records from the Clark County Detention Center, Henderson Police Department, and Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. Thank you all for your time.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Portz.

On behalf of the defendant, Mr. Tanasi, did you want to introduce your client and yourself to the jury.

MR. TANASI: Absolutely. Thank you, Your Honor. Good afternoon, folks. My name is Rich Tanasi.

I've been appointed to represent Mr. Tony Hobson. You'll hear

THE COURT: All right Jim, you want to bring the jury back? Christine, are we back on the record?

THE COURT RECORDER: Yeah.

[IN THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY]

THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead and have a seat guys.

We're back on the record in C303022. State of Nevada versus Tony Hobson and Brandon Starr. The jury had come back with a -- with a verdict form. It's a quite extensive verdict form. We've -- after reading the verdict in the jury foreman had -- well a number of individuals indicated that that was not the correct verdict so the jury foreman had indicated that he believed he may have made a mistake on a couple of those.

I asked them to return to the deliberation room to check to see if that, in fact, was the -- was the issue. And I asked them also if they do find any of them that were a mistake to correct them. The jury foreman is initialing the correction. Also, he's supplied the Court with a separate sheet of paper with a number of counts to look at to see. I guess -- Mr. Kozlowski you're the jury foreman, correct?

THE JURY FOREPERSON: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And you indicated that you may have - may have made a mistake?

THE JURY FOREPERSON: Yeah. It's a big list, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. Yeah. So, what you provided the Court was a -- is a sheet of paper with a number of counts labeled under the name of Brandon Starr and then a number of counts under the name of Tony Hobson?

THE JURY FOREPERSON: That's correct, sir.

1	THE COURT: And these are the ones that you corrected?
2	THE JURY FOREPERSON: Yes, sir.
3	THE COURT: Okay. And on the actual verdict form did you initial the
4	correction?
5	THE JURY FOREPERSON: Yes, sir.
6	THE COURT: Okay. And everyone was with you from the jury when
7	that occurred?
8	THE JURY FOREPERSON: Yes sir.

² JUROR NO. 12: Yes.

THE COURT CLERK: Juror number 14, are these your verdicts as read?

JUROR NO. 14: Yes.

THE COURT: All right. At this point in time, I'm going to ask the Clerk to record the verdict in the minutes of the Court.

Ladies and gentlemen, as you know the right to a jury trial is one of our basic and fundamental guarantees constitutionally. And I -- I don't know -- I'm sure I did it a number of times while we were selecting a jury is try to impress upon you how I feel about the right to a jury trial. I think it's -- separates us from the rest of the world in the sense that it gives the actual public an opportunity to be part of what's happening in their community to see what's happening, to see what goes on in the courtrooms.

Many of you -- many have never even been -- ever come here.

Would may have never seen anything other than what may appear on TV.

And from the jury selection you probably could take from that that a lot of the stuff that happens on TV is probably not as true as what you get to see in a courtroom.

I hope that it was a positive experience for you. I do tell you that I appreciate all the time that you spent on this. Your verdict in my opinion reflects that and I saw all of you were very conscientious. I can honestly tell you I've not -- I've never had a jury ask so many questions. And that's a good thing. You know some times it may appear that -- disturbing to the parties in that, but it shows us that you're listening and I really appreciate it.

I do because it tells that -- and you can ask the parties and their going to want to talk to you if you'd like to when we're done here to -- they're try to get a better understanding of what maybe they could've done to make it streamline better. Maybe what they could have done in their closing arguments that you could've appreciated it better.

But I do want to tell you that a lot of people try to get out of what you've done here and many of them you've probably heard it during the selection process that we had.

In my years of being here on the bench and in previously practicing I've -- this is almost close to 200 jury trials that I've done. And I can tell you that every jury there's always a few people that really try to get out of this let alone what they get out of at -- through the commissioner when they call in and they have reasons. And I want to tell you that you're reasons are valid for us and we take them -- we consider them always. And the hardest part a lot of times for the parties is jury selection because we know what it puts on all of you. Many of you will go home and talk about this probably for years.

Before I became a lawyer, one of the -- I was in college here at UNLV and I was on a jury when I was in college. I'll never forget it. I remember it, I remember the parties that were involved, I remember the judge and I thought it was pretty positive for me and part of that is kind of what helped me kind of steer my path the way I did and where I've ended up now. I've been doing this over 30 years now and I'm really impressed with juries that pay attention to these. It's very perturbing though to me when I have jurors that don't take this serious and it's not fair to the parties either in a criminal matter or a civil matter. It's not fair at all that people come on and they sit on the jury and they shirk their responsibility with it, they don't take it serious, they show up when they want to, we have to send the marshal's after people. It's just crazy. But I do want to tell you on behalf of the -- of counsel here, the parties of the Eighth Judicial District Court, I want to thank you for your careful deliberation in this matter in which you gave to this case.

It may arise now whether or not you can talk to anybody about the case. You can. You will be excused. I'm going to have you go back to the jury room and I'm going to come back and talk to you for a short period and thank you and I have some things I have -- I want to give you. And then the parties, like I said, they'll wait. Many of them will wait outside over by the jury commission where you get paid. Someone will want to talk to you. Understand this; you do not have to talk to anyone if you do not want to. If somebody persists and tries to get to you to try to get you to talk and you don't feel comfortable with that, notify my marshal and we'll put a stop to it.

However, if you'd like to talk to it you're free to talk to anyone you want to about it. Now you can talk to your spouses and you can explain to them where you were, if you haven't already. I hope you have 'cause maybe you won't have a spouse any more. But like I said, once again I want to thank you so much for your time and you'll be excused now. I'll have you exit and go back with the jury commission -- the jury room and I'll come out and talk to you, okay?

[JURY EXCUSED AT 2:24 P.M.]
[OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY]

THE COURT: Okay. All right. With respect to the Defendants here, Mr. Hobson and Mr. Starr, what I'm going to do at this point in time is remand you to custody of no bail and I'm going to set this for sentencing.

Because of the nature of the offenses here and the amount, I'm going to have to set it on a -- I want to set it on a special day just to give you guys time so if you want to argue further and there's so many counts and I think the Department of Parole of Probation would probably scream at me if I set it in the normal course so I'm going to set it out in August.

THE COURT CLERK: It's going to be actually the beginning of September, September 8th.

THE COURT: Is that going to work for you all? September?

MR. TANASI: It will, Your Honor.

MR. MANINGO: I believe -- I believe it will.

THE COURT: Okay. If it doesn't, please let us know and we'll adjust it for you, okay?

MR. TANASI: Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. So we'll remand you to custody that's set with no bail and set a sentencing date, September 8th.

THE COURT CLERK: September 8th at 8:30.

THE COURT: Okay. Is that -- what day is that?

THE COURT CLERK: Thursday. That's a Thursday.

THE COURT: Okay. Yeah, Thursday. Okay.

MS. MERCER: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Okay.

MR. TANASI: Thank you, Judge.

[PROCEEDINGS CONCLUDED at 2:25 P.M.]

ATTEST: I hereby certify that I have truly and correctly transcribed the audio/visual proceedings in the above-entitled case to the best of my ability.
