

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Appellant,
vs.
TAREN DESHAWN BROWN, A/K/A
TAREN DE SHAWNE BROWN, A/K/A
"GOLDY-LOX",
Respondent.

No. 75184

FILED

OCT 11 2018

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DIRECTING SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING

This is an appeal from a district court order granting respondent Taren Brown's motion to suppress. In the underlying case, the State charged Brown with attempted murder with the use of a deadly weapon, assault with a deadly weapon, carrying a concealed firearm, and possession of a firearm with an altered or removed serial number. The district court subsequently granted Brown's motion to suppress all statements made by him to the police regarding the crimes charged, and the State filed this interlocutory appeal pursuant to NRS 177.015(2).

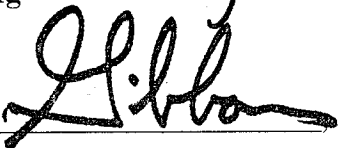

Having reviewed the briefs and record on appeal, we conclude that supplemental briefing is warranted. The State, in its brief in support of good cause for appeal, focuses on the merits of the district's court order suppressing evidence. However, NRS 177.015(2) calls for a preliminary showing of good cause to entertain the appeal and whether a miscarriage of justice would result if the appeal is not entertained. Accordingly, we direct the parties to provide supplemental briefing on the following issues:

1. Whether the suppressed evidence is of substantial importance in the case. See United States v. W.R. Grace, 526 F.3d 499, 505 (9th Cir. 2008).

2. Whether the suppression of the evidence in this case would significantly impair or terminate the State's ability to prosecute the case. People v. Null, 233 P.3d 670, 675 (Colo. 2010).
3. Whether the appeal was taken for the purpose of delay. See W.R. Grace, 526 F.3d at 505.

The supplemental briefs shall comply with the type-volume limitations in NRAP 32(a)(7)(A). The State's brief is due 11 days from the date of this order, with Brown's brief to follow 11 days from service of the State's brief. No reply shall be filed.
