HELIX ELECTRIC OF NEVADA, LLC,

Appellant/Cross-Respondent,

vs.

APCO CONSTRUCTION, INC., A NEVADA
CORPORATION,

Respondents/Cross-Appellant.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PETITION FOR REHEARING

Helix Electric of Nevada, LLC requests a 30-day extension of the deadline in which to petition for rehearing pursuant to NRAP 40, through May 11, 2022. NRAP 26(b)(1)(A). Without an extension, the petition would be due April 11, 2022. This is the first such motion related to this brief. And no prior requests for extension in this case have been denied or denied in part.

Good cause justifies the additional time. Undersigned counsel entered the case recently to assist with the petition and continue to familiarize themselves with the record. Work on the brief also has been hindered while attorneys at both Lewis Roca and Peel Brimley, Helix's principle law firm, have been out for long-planned family vacations and to deal with personal issues. The additional time will enable Helix's counsel to ensure the petition addresses all (but only) points and authorities essential to appropriate reassessment of the precedent-setting opinion in this important case.

Helix appreciates the Court's consideration.

Dated this 11th day of April, 2022.
