The following is my initial Vehicle Condition Report [VCR] outlining my findings after the inspection of the subject vehicle.

Additional Inspection Information

Please be advised that due to the nature of damage to improperly repaired collision or mechanical damaged vehicles it is sometimes necessary to conduct additional inspections and/or to dismantle certain parts to verify and analyze all remaining damage to the subject vehicle. In many instances when dealing with your original repairer or dealer this VCR may be sufficient information for them to complete a re-repair estimate for your review and authorization before any corrective measures begin. Please be advised that the re-repair process to a prior collision or mechanically damaged vehicle is different than the process that took place during the initial repair. All corrective measures must be performed by a facility familiar with the re-repair process of improperly repaired collision or mechanically damaged vehicles.

ASSIGNMENT:

I was retained by Mr. Derrick Poole to complete a Vehicle Condition Assessment for the subject vehicle listed above. This report contains my expert opinions as to the quality of the completed repairs, whether this vehicle should have been advertised, displayed and sold as a Chrysler CPO vehicle by the dealer. The nature and extent of the vehicle's deficiencies that existed at time of sale that was actually known or should have been known by the dealer, and the vehicle's inherent loss in value as a result of the subject accident.

INSPECTION AND LOCATION:

I inspected the subject vehicle at the office of Wreck Check Car Scan Center on May 20, 2016 at approximately 9:00 AM. My inspection included photographing the subject vehicle, product thickness readings of all exterior panels, inspecting the engine and trunk area, interior, underside and the front and rear suspensions.

QUALIFICATIONS:

My curriculum vitae is attached to this report. I am recognized in the automotive community as an expert in inspecting vehicles for the purpose of determining quality of collision and mechanical repair work, how collisions, and the damage caused by a particular collision or improper or substandard repairs can affect a vehicle's safety and safety systems, any deficiencies in repairs, and calculating vehicle inherent and repair related diminished value. In addition my experience extends to the evaluation of Actual Cash Value of vehicle, collision monitoring, determining total loss of damaged vehicles, dealer fraud and lemon law.

I have been qualified to testify in arbitration and trial on a multitude of occasions on the issues stated in the paragraph immediately herein above.

RESEARCH AND INVESTIGATION CONDUCTED:

Our office communicated with the vehicle owner and the Law Office of George O. West several days prior to my inspection at which time they briefly discussed the overall condition of the vehicle at the time after the purchase and also scheduled my inspection.

My inspection revealed several issues surrounding the vehicle condition that resulted in improper repairs and remaining damage due to the previous collision, which is also reflected on the Allstate body shop estimate dated March 26, 2017 that are listed below:

- 1. Improper alignment of the right and left wheel and tires. See photographs 7 & 8.
- 2. Improper gaps between exterior body panels. See photographs 9, 13, 14, 15 & 16.
- 3. Improper alignment of frame to body supports. See photographs 10, 11, 19, 20 & 22.
- 4. Witness marks on bolts. See photographs 12, 17.
- 5. Improper & abnormal tire wear. See photographs 21.

Also, my inspection revealed that it was evident that the subject vehicle suffered an impact to the left front and front causing damage, repair and/or replacement of the items listed on the Allstate Insurance damage estimate dated March 26, 2016, attached at Exhibit 3.

The damage was photographed without removing any shields or body parts and in clear view during my inspection.

^{# 1} IN THE DETECTION OF IMPROPER COLLISION & MECHANICAL REPAIRS AND THE LEADER IN THE EVALUATION OF DIMINISHED VALUE!

It is also my opinion that any automotive professional in the business of selling Certified Pre-Owned vehicles to the community who undertook the CPO inspection, and who had the body shop estimate in their possession, knew or should have know the nature and extent of the prior collision damage and the nature and extent of subsequent repairs. Furthermore, when Mr. Poole discloses the prior collision damage to any potential buyer he will never be able to recover financially to be made whole as the car has also sustained diminished value.

ITEMS REVIEWED AND RELIED UPON TO DATE:

1. All photographs taken upon my inspection, which are produced with this report, including those specifically identified and attached to this report.

2. 17 Photographs of new 2017 Dodge Ram 1500s taken by Rocco Avellini at 215 Dodge's dealership on August 31, 2016 at approximately 7:30AM depicting no offset of any beds to such vehicles.

3. The Allstate Insurance estimate dated March 26, 2014, which I am informed and believe was prepared approximately two months prior to the dealer entering the subject vehicle into its inventory and three months prior to purchase date of June 26, 2016.

4. Photographs of the repair to the subject vehicle, which I am informed were produced by the dealer in discovery process in this case, that were undertaken to the vehicle based upon the March 26, 2014 Insurance Estimate, which are attached to this report as Exhibit 3.

5. Portions of the deposition transcripts of Joshua Grant and Raymond Gongora.

6. The Chrysler CPO inspection checklist relating to the subject vehicle.

7. The Chrysler CPO Manual dated September 2013, which I am informed and believe was the CPO manual in effect at the time the vehicle was put in the dealer's inventory and sold to Mr. Poole. It is also my understanding that the 2013 CPO manual was produced and identified by the dealer in discovery as the CPO manual that was in effect at the relevant time period.

8. Carmax vehicle history report dated May 10, 2014 involving the subject vehicle.

DESCRIPTION OF PHOTOGRAPHS:

My findings are explained below and the photographs attached to this report will outline my opinions and the issues surrounding the improper repairs, safety issues and remaining damage to the subject vehicle:

- Right front and side view.
- 3. Left rear and side view.

over the years there has been some confusion regarding the words used to identify the two types of vehicle construction. Prior to popularity of uni-body construction the majority of the vehicle were assembled utilizing full frame construction however even after the majority of the vehicles were assembled utilizing uni-body construction the use of the word "frame" continued. There should be no confusion regarding the two types of vehicle construction, a uni-body vehicle does not have a full frame.

CERTIFICATION GENERAL INFORMATION:

Due to the nature and extent of the subject accident and the nature and extent of the repairs to the vehicle, this vehicle should not have been considered as or sold as a "Certified Pre-Owned" vehicle which will decrease the amount of money the vehicle owner can recover upon resale or trade in.

OPINIONS BASED UPON INFORMATION REVIEWED TO DATE:

1. The dealer knew or should have known the precise nature and extent of the collision damage caused by the previous collision, as well as the precise nature and extent and the repairs to the vehicle as a result of the previous collision when the dealer sold the CPO to Mr. Poole.

1 IN THE DETECTION OF IMPROPER COLLISION & MECHANICAL REPAIRS AND THE LEADER IN THE EVALUATION OF DIMINISHED VALUE!

2. The dealer should not have never displayed or sold the vehicle as a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle.

3. The vehicle has sustained diminished value due to the previous collision to the vehicle in or about March of 2013, which the dealer knew or should have known about at time of sale. This is addressed in a separate diminished value report submitted with this vehicle condition report.

4. The previous repairs done to the vehicle were not done correctly and were not to factory specifications.

The opinions expressed in this report are based on my experience, education, training, research and information supplied to me for review in regards to this matter to date. I may conduct additional analysis on this matter if I am presented with supplemental information, such as from any rebuttal report submitted by the opposing party, and therefore, I reserve the right to revise, delete, or change my opinions expressed in this report based upon such supplemental information. All opinions, conclusions and or recommendations included in this report are intended for the use in potential litigation or settling this matter and not for other purpose and can not be duplicated without the permission of Rocco J. CASE TITLE: DERRICK POOLE VS. SAHARA CHRYSLER JEEP YOUR CLIENT: SAHARA CHRYSLER JEEP OUR FILE NUMBER: 1607R10

April 27, 2017

Mr. Brian K. Terry Thorndal, Armstrong, Delk, Balkenbush & Eisinger 1100 East Bridger Avenue Las Vegas, Nevada 89125

Re: Case Title: Derrick Poole vs. Sahara Chrysler Jeep Your Client: Sahara Chrysler Jeep Claimant: Derrick Poole Our File No: 1607R10

Dear Mr. Terry:

ASSIGNMENT:

We were assigned to inspect, photograph, and review all supplied documentation regarding the claimant's 2012 Ram 1500, Vehicle Identification Number 1C6RR6GT8DS558275, to determine if it was appropriate for this vehicle to be sold as a Certified Pre-Owned Vehicle (CPO) by Chrysler Jeep Dodge Ram.

CONCLUSION:

The 2012 Ram 1500, currently owned by the claimant, fell within the manufacturer's build tolerances. The vehicle qualifies as a Certified Pre-Owned Vehicle and properly holds a Chrysler Certificate as a CPO.

The CARFAX Vehicle Report documented that the vehicle was involved in a minor accident on March 26, 2014, while in the use by the original owner. The CARFAX report was signed by the claimant when he purchased this truck.

The complaints reported on the claimant's vehicle were largely a result of repairs after the 2014 frontal impact and did not affect the credibility of Chrysler's Certified Pre-Owned Certificate. Other areas of the vehicle were within manufacturer build tolerances as explained below.

A CARFAX Vehicle History Report was generated on August 12, 2016, using the vehicle's

Vehicle Identification Number. The following entries of interest include:

- March 26, 2014 Accident Reported with disabling damages. Odometer reading at time of accident 6,632 miles;
- May 05, 2014 Vehicle offered for sale at Sahara Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep, Ram, Las Vegas, Nevada. Odometer reading 6,716 miles;
- May 06, 2014 Vehicle offered for sale as a Ram Certified Pre-Owned Vehicle; Chrysler Group, Certified Dealer in Las Vegas;
- May 30, 2014 Sold as a Chrysler Certified Pre-Owned vehicle, Certified Dealer in Las Vegas.

The claimant represented that numerous areas of the vehicle had been damaged and inadequately or improperly repaired and should not have been sold by Chrysler as a Certified Pre-Owned Vehicle. These areas of dispute include:

The front bumper was misaligned:

The front bumper was mounted centered on the frame and within the tolerances of the distance from the front edges of the front fenders as shown in photographs seventeen and eighteen. No damages were located to the front bumper mounts as shown in photographs nineteen through twenty-two.

The rear edge of the front bumper did not properly align with the front tires:

The tires and wheels were properly placed, within tolerances, in relation to the front of the frame. The left side distance from the rear edge of the front bumper to the left front tire was five inches. The right side distance from the rear edge of the front bumper to the right front tire was four and one quarter inches. The differences in the bumper measurements were due to the recent impact damage to the right side of the front bumper.

The pickup bed's side-to side measurement was off by an inch:

The ears mount on the pick-up frame were found robotically welded disproportionately on each side of the frame rails; however, the pick-up bed mounts weld areas are within manufacturer tolerances. The diagonal measurements and placement of the pickup bed was also within manufacturing tolerances as shown in Attachment II, Gap and Flush Dimensions.

The cab mounts were not properly centered:

The right side cab mount bolts were not centered in their mount bushings, although no displacement was discovered to the cab. However, the weld areas for the mounts are within tolerance specifications. How or why the cab mount bolts appear to be bent has not yet been determined.

The motor mounts were off-center in their mount pockets;

The mount ears on the motor mounts were found robotically welded disproportionately on each side of the frame rails; however, these weld areas are within tolerances. The appearance of accident displacement is only due to the large tolerances allowed in the manufacturer specifications.

The issues that the claimant represented above did not affect the 2013 Ram 1500 SLT from achieving a Chrysler Certified Pre-Owned Certificate. All measurements taken during the course of this inspection were within manufacturer's specified tolerances.

A service representative from Desert 215 Superstore stated that these issues are common manufacturing tolerances and was not accident or repair related.

After a comprehensive review and inspection of this vehicle it is my opinion that the vehicle was correctly certified as a Certified Pre-Owned Vehicle and able to be sold as such by Sahara Chrysler Jeep.

The conclusions expressed in this report are based on sound technical judgment and information available at the time of this report. Yeah it was certified

Ok, that's what I thought. What bank did you try the refi at?

State Farm

Ok, I'm thinking that it wasn't because of the accident, we wouldn't put a vehicle on the lot with a major accident on it.

Especially if it was certified,, in your car Carfax it will say minor accident no airbags deployed something like that. If they said - no because of the truck.

I INTRODUCTION

This case can be concisely summed up in a short sentence. If you know, you gotta tell, and a half truth is not the truth. This motion is not complicated. Defendant NEVADA AUTO DEALERSHIP INVESTMENTS LLC ("SAHARA") is a factory authorized and franchised Chrysler, Jeep Dodge dealership with a state of the art service department. This case involves the sale of a used 2013 Dodge "Certified Pre Owed" ("CPO) Ram 1500 pick up truck ("vehicle") to the Plaintiff on May 26, 2014. In a nutshell, and as alleged in the First Amended Complaint ("FAC") at Exhibit 1 ¶¶ 15-31, this case is primarily about adverse material information involving the vehicle that was actually known to SAHARA and to its Director of Used Car Sales, (Joshua Grant), and not disclosed to the Plaintiff on the day of sale. Additionally SAHARA's sales representative also made misrepresentations to the Plaintiff on the date of sale.

Most importantly, nowhere in SAHARA's moving papers do they present one kernel of evidence, nor do they even make any contention whatsoever that SAHARA actually disclosed this adverse material information to the Plaintiff with respect to the vehicle. This is because SAHARA has admitted, via requests for admissions, that SAHARA actually knew about the material information prior to time of sale, and that SAHARA never made any disclosure regarding that material information to the Plaintiff at time of sale. See Plaintiff's Concise Separate Statement ("SS") fact # 59-63. See also Exhibit 6 Def's RFA Resp. to Pltnf's RFA # 36-38.

Contrary to SAHARA's contentions and separate statement, the material or "outcome determinative" facts at issue in this motion have nothing to do with any events or occurrences that may have transpired after May 26, 2014. Rather this motion is solely about what happened on May 26, 2014, i.e. what was known to SAHARA,

1	was that information "material", and what was communicated to the Plaintiff, or more
2	appropriately, not communicated to the Plaintiff on May 26, 2014. Boiled down to its
3	essence, there are seven (7) issues or questions that the Court must analyze to determine
4	if genuine issues of material fact exist to require this case to proceed to a jury. They are:
5	(1) On May 26, 2014, (the date of the sale), was SAHARA and/or Joshua Grant,
6 7	SAHARA's Director of Used Cars, aware and/or in possession of facts, information or documents that might affect the vehicle's safety, value, marketability and/or desirability on the date of sale? (Yes)
8	(2) On May 26, 2014 would the information that was known to SAHARA and to
9 10	Joshua Grant have been "material" (important) to a reasonable buyer within the community to know about in making a decision on whether to purchase a Dodge CPO vehicle.? (Yes)
11	(3) On May 26, 2014 was this material (important) information disclosed to the
12	Plaintiff at the time of sale? (No)
13	(4) On May 26, 2014 did SAHARA make false representations to the Plaintiff about the vehicle? (Yes)
14	(5) Did SAHARA know or should they have known that the vehicle was not
15	properly "certified" as a Dodge CPO? (Yes)
16 17	(6) Had SAHARA disclosed the material information to the Plaintiff at time of sale, would he have entered the contract with SAHARA to purchase the vehicle? (No)
18 19	(7) Has Plaintiff suffered damages or other pecuniary loss and/or is he also entitled to equitable relief under NRS 41.600(b)(2)? (Yes)
20	The answers to the above issues compel denial of Defendant's motion and are
21	abundantly established and supported via Plaintiff's SS, which are referred to
22	throughout this opposition. SAHARA asserts two primary arguments in support of their
23	motion that they did not and/or could not have engaged in any statutory deceptive trade
24	practices involving the vehicle. First, SAHARA disclosed in writing to the Plaintiff, via a
25	Carfax, that the vehicle was in a previous accident. And secondly, that the vehicle
26	"passed" the CPO inspection undertaken undertaken by SAHARA's certified and trained
27	technician. While these two facts taken in isolation seem initially appealing, once the onion is peeled back a bit, SAHARA's arguments become entirely unavailing, requiring denial of SAHARA's motion and submission of this case to a jury.

As plead in the FAC, Plaintiff is not contending that SAHARA failed to disclose that the vehicle was in a previous "accident." Rather, Plaintiff is contending that merely disclosing that the vehicle was in a previous "collision/accident" was not sufficient disclosure given the additional adverse material information SAHARA and Joshua Grant actually knew about did not disclose to the Plaintiff concerning his CPO vehicle purchase. This is because SAHARA had superior, particularized and actual knowledge via an Allstate Collision Estimate of Record ("ACE"). The ACE clearly reflected the monetary damage as well as the nature and extent of the damage that was caused to the vehicle by the previous collision, see Exhibit # 2; ACE and SS fact # 59-63. This information would have been material (important) for any reasonable consumer in the community to know about in making an informed decision to purchase a Dodge CPO vehicle. SS fact # 22, 25, 26 and 32

17 action or otherwise inquire about the accident when it was initially disclosed to him, 18 19 Plaintiff did in fact specifically inquire into the nature and extent of the accident 20 with SAHARA's sales person after SAHARA's sales person mentioned the previous accident. Decl. of Plntf. ¶ 2, and SS fact # 61. Moreover, upon Plaintiff's specific 22 inquiry about the previous accident, Plaintiff was then mislead by SAHARA's sales 23 person, (Travis Spruell), who said it was only a "minor" accident, that the vehicle went 24 through and passed their 125 point comprehensive inspection, and if there was any 25 significant damage, they would not be selling it to him. Decl. of Plntf. ¶ 2 and SS fact # 26 27 61. SAHARA essentially allayed Plaintiff's concerns and inquires by misleading 28 him. Indeed, it was SAHARA that had far superior knowledge over that of the Plaintiff with respect to the exact nature and extent of damage that was caused to the vehicle as a result of the previous collision. See Exhibit 2, ACE and SS fact # 29.

Furthermore, contrary to SAHARA's contention that Plaintiff did not take any

Moreover, it was Joshua Grant, Director SAHARA's Used Car Department who had personally acquired and had possession of the ACE on May 5, 2014 which was only three (3) weeks prior to SAHARA reselling the vehicle to the community as a Dodge CPO. SS fact # 3. Had the information contained in the ACE been disclosed to the Plaintiff it would have revealed the following: that the CPO vehicle had sustained $4,088.77 in property damage and that the CPO vehicle, as a result of the previous collision, had the following components, parts and items replaced or repaired on it : • a replaced front bumper • a repaired left front frame end bracket • a replaced left front fender • a replaced right bumper bracket • a replaced radiator support • a replaced left outer and inner tie rod • a repaired front left wheel¹ and • a replaced aftermarket left stabilizer link.² Most significantly, the following facts are undisputed based on SAHARA's responses to Plaintiff's RFAs.

- That [SAHARA] had the [ACE] when it sold the subject vehicle to the Plaintiff, and that the [ACE] reflects repairs to the vehicle from a March 26, 2014 collision/accident. See Exhibit 7, Def's Resp. to Plntf's RFA # 17 and 23-30 and SS fact # 2 & 3.
 - That the ACE reflects the repairs of the list of repaired and replaced items set forth immediately supra. See Exhibit 7, Def's Resp to Plntf's RFA # 17 and 23-30 and SS # 9.

• That SAHARA never communicated or disclosed any of the contents of the ACE to the Plaintiff at time of sale. See Exhibit 6, Def's Resp. to Plntf's RFA # 36-38 and SS fact # 59, 60 & 62.

As set forth in more detail in Plaintiff SS fact # 92-100 the repair to the wheel was particularly problematic as it was not repaired according the manufacturer's specifications, and made the vehicle extremely unsafe.

 ^{27 &}lt;sup>2</sup> This is only a partial list. The full list of all items is disclosed and set forth on the Allstate
 28 Collision Estimate of Record ("ACE") at Exhibit 2

Suffice it to say, because SAHARA cannot and does not dispute that they did not communicate the information contained within the ACE to the Plaintiff on the date of sale, SAHARA argues that they did not have a legal obligation to disclose the information contained in the ACE, and even if they did, the nature and extent of the damage sustained to the vehicle as a result of the previous collision would not have been material (important) to any consumer in making a decision to purchase a CPO vehicle. Mot. 9: 8-11. However, as this opposition clearly establishes, Nevada law would have required affirmative disclosure of the information contained in the ACE, and Plaintiff's SS clearly establishes genuine issues of material (important) to any reasonable consumer within the community in making a decision in purchasing a Dodge CPO vehicle, (including the Plaintiff).

THE STANDARD AS WELL AS THE INQUIRY ON DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT IS STRAIGHT FORWARD AND COMPELS DENIAL OF DEFENDANT'S MOTION

Π

Pragmatically, the Court's ultimate inquiry on summary judgment is straight forward. The Court is to determine whether specific undisputed material facts, coupled with undisputed background or contextual facts, are such that a fact finder could return a verdict or decision in favor of the non-moving party. A material fact for purposes of summary judgment is an "outcome determinative" fact. See Wood v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 731, 121 P.3d 1026, 1031 (2005). A genuine issue of material fact is one where the evidence is such that a reasonable fact finder could return a verdict for the non-moving party. See Wood, id. As the Court in Liberty

Lobby 477 U.S. 242 (1986), Celotex 477 U.S. 317, (1986), (which was expressly adopted in Wood) stated:

In essence ... the inquiry [is] ... whether the evidence presents a sufficient disagreement to require submission to a jury, or whether it is so one sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law.

Consequently, the dispositive "question" with respect to the instant motion is -based upon the legal arguments set forth in this opposition coupled with Plaintiff's SS, could a reasonable fact finder find that Defendant SAHARA engaged in the enumerated statutory deceptive trade practices alleged in paragraph 31 of Plaintiff's FAC? The answer to the above question is a resounding "yes." Consequently, Defendant SAHARA's motion should be denied.

III

THE ENUMERATED STATUTORY DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES THAT ARE AT ISSUE, THE NATURE OF STATUTORY CONSUMER FRAUD AND THE SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCE BETWEEN "STATUTORY" CONSUMER FRAUD AND "COMMON LAW" FRAUD

17 ISTATUTORY" CONSUMER FRAUD AND "COMMON LAW" FRAUD
 18 Nevada's Consumer Fraud Statute, NRS 41.600, expressly incorporates the 19 Nevada Deceptive Trade Practices Act ("NDTPA") into its provisions via section (2)(e), 20 see fn. 4 infra. Consequently, any violation of the enumerated statutory deceptive trade
 21 practices found in Chapter 598 of the NRS are "deemed" to be statutory consumer fraud
 22 under NRS 41.600. See fn. 4 infra. As set forth the FAC at Exhibit 1, ¶ 31, Plaintiff
 23 alleges that SAHARA engaged in the following deceptive trade practices :

- A. Failing to disclose a material fact in connection with the sale of goods. [NRS 598.0923(2) and NRS 41.600(2)(e)]
- B. Represented that goods for sale are of a particular standard, quality or grade if he knows or should know that they are of another standard, quality, grade, style or model. [NRS 598.0915(7) and NRS 41.600(2)(e)]

JOINT APPENDIX 236

- C. Makes false representation as to the source, sponsorship, approval or certification of goods for sale. [NRS 598.0915(2) and NRS 41.600(e)]
- D. Making any other false representations in a transaction. [NRS 598.0915(15) and NRS 41.600(2)(e)]
- E. Violating a federal or state statute or regulation relating to the sale of goods. [NRS 598.0923(3) and NRS 41.600(2)(e)]³

As a threshold matter, Plaintiff has not plead any claim for relief for common law fraud, rather plaintiff has plead a claim for statutory consumer fraud a/k/a deceptive trade practices, pursuant to NRS 41.600(2)(e). Indeed, Plaintiff's claim is purely statutory in nature. Defendant SAHARA has erroneously stated what they believe the "elements" are to a statutory claim for consumer fraud claim pursuant to NRS 41.600. SAHARA cites Blanchard v Blanchard 956 P. 2d. 1382 (1992) and Barmettler v Reno Air 956 P. 2d. 1382, (1998) for this proposition. Blanchard and Reno Air set forth the elements of common law fraud and have nothing to do with statutory consumer fraud under NRS 41.600. The take way from this is that Defendants are apparently under the erroneous belief that statutory "consumer fraud," a/k/a deceptive trade practices under NRS 41.600 and common law fraud are "one in the same." See Mot. 10: 27-28, 11.1-5. They are not. See Betsinger infra.

Unlike common law fraud, a claim for consumer fraud/deceptive trade practices is a pure creature of statute. See NRS 41.600 and Chapter 598 (NDTPA). The NDTPA was promulgated by the Legislature to overcome the traditional hurdles associated with common law fraud involved in consumer transaction. The NDTPA is based upon a "uniform" act and is expressly predicated on specific enumerated violations. See NRS 598.0915 to 598.0925 inclusive and NRS 41.600(2)(a) through (e).⁴ Most notably, in Nevada, statutory consumer fraud under NRS 41.600(2)(e) expressly incorporates NRS 598.0923, which is part the NDTPA. NRS 598.0923(3) greatly expands the applicability of the NDTPA because NRS 598.0923(3) essentially :barrows" from other "qualifying" federal or state statutes or regulations that "relate to the sale of goods," such as 16 C.F.R. § 455.1(a)(1), which if violated by the Defendant also constitute statutory consumer fraud under state law pursuant to NRS 41.600(2)(e). See fn. 4, supra.

Claims based on statutory consumer fraud under NRS 41.600 and the NDTPA are entirely separate and distinct from a claim grounded in common law, as they are not cut from the same cloth. See Picus, Betsinger, and Dunlap infra. Claims based upon statutory consumer fraud a/k/a deceptive trade practices are to be liberally construed to effectuate their remedial objective, which is to give additional statutory rights and protections to consumers that involve consumer sales transactions, so as "to make it easier to establish then common law fraud." See Betsinger and Dunlap infra -- [both holding the legislative purpose behind a claim for statutory consumer fraud is to provide consumers with a cause of action that is easier to establish than common law fraud].

Statutory consumer fraud under the NDTPA addresses and involves broader concepts with respect to dealing with "deception" in consumer sales transactions. It entails specific statutory enumerated conduct or omissions that constitute statutory consumer fraud, and although many enumerated deceptive trade practices may "sound

- 2. As used in this section, "consumer fraud" means:
- 28 (e) A deceptive trade practice as defined in NRS 598.0915 to 598.0925, inclusive.

NRS 41.600(1) and (2) state in pertinent part :

2	through 598.0923 and Betsinger, infra at 435. In Dunlap v. Jimmy GMC of Tucson,
3	Inc. 136 Ariz. 338, 342; 666 P.2d 83, 87, 89 (Ariz. App.1983), which our Nevada
4	Supreme Court in Betsinger adopted, stated and held :
5	Consumer fraud is a cause of action which is separate and distinct
6	from common law fraud.
7	The elements of a private cause of action under the [Arizona Consumer Fraud Act] are 1) a false promise or misrepresentation 2) made in
8 9	connection with the sale or advertisement of merchandise and 3) the hearer's consequent and proximate injury.
10	* * *
10	The purpose of legislation such as Arizona's Consumer Fraud Act is to provide a remedy for injured consumers who need such protection to
12	counteract the disproportionate bargaining power which is typically present in consumer transactions. The legislative intent behind the
13	Consumer Fraud Act is to provide consumers with a claim for relief that is easier to establish than is common law fraud.
14	In Picus v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. , 256 F.R.D. 651, 658 (D. Nev. 2009) the Court
15	held that a private claim under the NDTPA seeking damages would require, at a
16	minimum, a victim of consumer fraud to prove that: (1) an act of consumer fraud by the
17	defendant (2) caused (3) damage to the plaintiff.
18	In its landmark decision, our Supreme Court in Betsinger v D.R. Horton 232 P.
19 20	3d. 433, 435 * 436, 126 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 17 (2010) rendered its first published opinion
20 21	setting forth the purpose and legislative objective behind the NDTPA, as well as
21	delineating the very significant distinctions between a claim for "statutory consumer
23	fraud," versus a claim based on "common law" fraud. In so doing the Supreme Court,
24	adopting Dunlap , also adopted the majority position of a liberal interpretation with
25	respect to claims involving statutory consumer fraud a/k/a deceptive trade practices
26	under NRS 41.600. The Betsinger Court succinctly stated and held :

...[T]he purpose of the consumer protection statute [is] to provide consumers with a cause of action that was easier to establish than common law fraud ... We AGREE with the Arizona Court of Appeals' reasoning in Dunlap. STATUTORY OFFENSES THAT SOUND IN FRAUD ARE SEPARATE AND DISTINCT FROM COMMON LAW FRAUD. Therefore, we conclude that deceptive trade practices, as defined under NRS Chapter 598, must only be proven by a preponderance of the evidence. Id at 435. Citing Dunlap v. Jimmy GMC of Tucson, Inc., 136 Ariz. 338, 666 P.2d 83, 88-89 (1983). [emphasis added] The elements of common law fraud set forth in Blanchard or Reno Air are not the elements of a statutory claim for "consumer fraud." Furthermore, in stark contrast, statutory consumer fraud only requires proof by a preponderance of evidence, see Betsinger, whereas common law fraud requires proof based upon "clear and convincing" evidence. J.A. Jones Const. Co. v. Lehrer McGovern Bovis, Inc. 120 Nev. 277, 89 P.3d 1009 (2004). IV THERE ARE GENUINE ISSUES OF MATERIAL FACT THAT SAHARA FAILED TO DISCLOSE A MATERIAL FACT IN CONNECTION WITH THE SALE OF GOODS A. A MATERIAL FACT IS A FACT THAT A REASONABLE PERSON WOULD ATTACH IMPORTANCE TO WITH RESPECT TO THE TRANSACTION AT ISSUE A fact is material if it concerns a subject reasonably relevant to the transaction at issue and if a reasonable person would attach importance to that fact. See Powers v. United Services Auto. Ass'n, 114 Nev. 690, 962 P.2d 596 (1998) ("Powers I") and Powers v United Services Ass'n 115 Nev. 38, 979 P.2d 1286 (1999) ("Powers II"). While Powers dealt with a bad faith insurance case involving what would have been material or important to a reasonable claims adjuster in investigating a claim which was denied based upon alleged insurance fraud committed by the insured], the "objective" materiality standard set forth in Powers is equally applicable to the instant case, and is also in line with numerous other jurisdictions with respect to what constitutes

"material" fact in a sale transaction, whether it be in the form of an omission or an affirmative misrepresentation.⁵ Obviously, what constitutes a "material" fact depends on the nature and type of the transaction at issue, but in determining what a "material" fact is, is based upon an objective standard which would turn is based upon what would be material to the reasonable consumer within the community. Furthermore, as also held in Powers, id, materiality is generally a question of fact for Woodside Homes Corp., 143 P.3d 283 25 (Utah 2006) [holding to be "material," the information with respect to fraudulent concealment action must be important, which, in turn, can be gauged by the degree to 26 which the information could be expected to influence the judgment of a person buying property or assenting to a particular purchase price], Colaizzi v. Beck, 895 A.2d 36 (Pa. B. THE INFORMATION ITEMIZED, DISCLOSED AND MONETIZED IN THE ACE WOULD HAVE BEEN "MATERIAL" (IMPORTANT) TO ANY REASONABLE CONSUMER WITHIN THE COMMUNITY IN MAKING A DECISION TO PURCHASE A DODGE CPO VEHICLE, INCLUDING THE PLAINTIFF

The ACE is attached as Exhibit 2.⁶ As a threshold matter, SAHARA concedes that the things that are important to a used car buyer when making a decision to buy a used vehicle, include: (1) safety, (2) value, (3) mechanical condition, (4) vehicle condition and (5) price. SS fact # 22. SAHARA further concedes that it important for SAHARA to make full disclosure to a used car buyer involving things that might affect the vehicle's (1) value, (2) safety, (3) desirability or (4) marketability. SS fact # 32. SAHARA further concedes that the things consumers within the community associate with a CPO and what a CPO vehicle projects to to the consumer are: (1) value, (2) quality, (3) safety, (4) competence, (5) assurance, (6) piece of mind and (7) trust, and that these are the very things that SAHARA wants to instill and engender into the mind of a consumer when purchasing a CPO vehicle. SS fact # 23-25. Furthermore, SAHARA concedes that the consumer within the community has the expectation when buying a Dodge CPO vehicle that it has: (1) value, (2) it has quality, (3) it is safe, (4) they have confidence and assurance in buying it, (5) they have peace of mind, and (6)

they trust the dealership selling it to them. SS fact # 26

Furthermore, Travis Spruell, SAHARA's sales person who sold the vehicle to the Plaintiff, testified that while he was not aware of the existence of the ACE, based upon his experience in selling hundreds of CPO vehicles to the community, in talking with

²⁵ 26 27

⁶ It must also be remembered that SAHARA and Joshua Grant, SAHARA's Director of Used Car Sales actually knew about the ACE and had it in its possession three (3) weeks prior to making the decision to resell the vehicle to the community at a CPO Dodge. SS fact # 3. SAHARA's knowledge of the ACE is relevant to: (1) SAHARA's legal duty to disclose these material facts, (2) for punitive damages and (3) with respect to whether the vehicle was properly "certified" as a CPO because it did not meet manufacturer's repair specifications. See infra. 12 consumers and getting to know what their expectations are involving CPOs, he believes that a consumer within the community who is going to buy a CPO from SAHARA would want to know that a CPO vehicle had $4,088.70 in previous damage to it, in addition to the nature and extent of the previous accident, IF the dealership actually knew about that information. SS fact # 54.

Finally, Noah Grant, SAHARA's F & I manager who was responsible for preparing the closing documents on the Plaintiff's vehicle, based on his experience in selling between 500 to 1000 Dodge vehicles to the community and his work experience at SAHARA, also agrees that if a dealer had knowledge about the nature and extent of the accident, (meaning they knew what parts were replaced and repaired, the amount of previous accident damage), or if he knew the vehicle has sustained $ 4,088.70 in damage due to the previous collision, those facts would be important to disclose to a consumer who is buying a CPO Dodge, and he would have disclosed those facts to Mr. Poole. SS fact # 43 & 44.

Based upon the materiality standard being an "objective" standard, based upon that standard being established and governed by a "reasonable consumer within the community," and based upon the sworn testimony of SAHARA's 30(b)(6) representative and SAHARA's Director of Used Car Sales, (Joshua Grant), SAHARA's sales person (Travis Spruell), and SAHARA's F&I manager (Noah Grant), with respect to the "objective" expectations of consumer within the community, the facts and information contained within ACE would have been material to any reasonable consumer who was purchasing a Dodge CPO vehicle. SS fact #64-66.

Pursuant to NRAP 30(a) counsel for both the Appellant and Respondent met and conferred well in advance and agreed on the content of the joint appendix in this appeal. Appellant's counsel prepared that joint appendix well in advance of the opening brief. However, Appellant is filing an Appellant's Appendix because of an oversight in his part of which he takes full responsibility for. Appellant's counsel, George O. West III, did not realize that he not include Defendant's Reply Brief in support of their motion for summary judgment, which is the main focus of this appeal. It was a document that was agreed to and included on both Appellant and Respondent's list of documents to be included in the joint appendix.

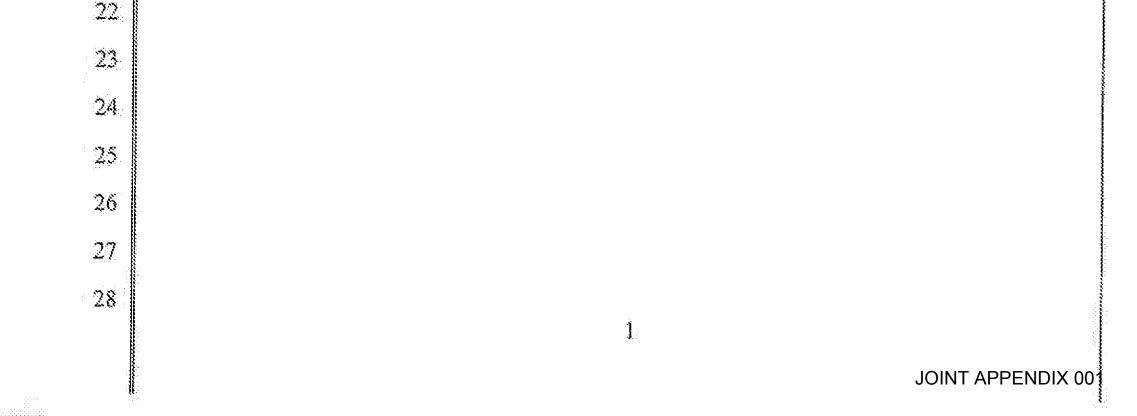

However, this error was not realized until Appellant's counsel was in final revisions of the opening brief just three days from the extended deadline to file the opening brief. The citations to the record were based upon an appendix without Defendant's reply brief on MSJ. While Appellant did not cite to Defendants' reply brief, it would be a required document under the NRAP that would potentially be essential to a decision with respect to the issues on appeal given the propriety of the grant of Defendants' summary judgment is at the core of this appeal.

Consequently, because of this late discovery, Appellant's counsel did not have sufficient time to redo all of the citations to the record in his opening brief because inserting Defendant's reply brief would have changed much of the citations to the record found in the opening brief. Appellant's counsel has informed Respondent's counsel of this oversight, has taken full responsibility for the inability to file a joint appendix, and has requested Respondent's counsel to file a Respondent's Appendix to include his client's Reply brief in MSJ to ensure a complete record, and should he need to cite to the reply brief, he can do so through a Respondent's Appendix.

4. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant WELLS FARGO DEALER SERVICES INC ("WFB") is believed to be a corporation organized and existing under the laws of California, and is authorized to do business in the State of Nevada, County of Clark, City of Las Vegas. Said Defendant is also the current "holder" and/or assignee of the Plaintiffs' Retail Installment Sale Contract ("RISC") a/k/a a "consumer credit contract," as hereinafter described.

5. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant COREPOINTE INSURANCE COMPANY ("COREPOINTE") is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Michigan, and is authorized to do business in the State of Nevada, and was the bond company that issued and underwrote the licensing bond to Defendant SAHARA pursuant to the provisions of NRS 482.345.

6. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant SAHARA was "dealer" and/or "new vehicle dealer" within the definition of NRS 482.020. Furthermore, at all relevant times, Plaintiff was a "consumer" as defined by 16 C.F.R. 433.1(b), and the RISC entered into between Plaintiff and SAHARA was a "purchase money loan" and "consumer credit contract" as defined by 16 C.F.R. 433.1(d) and (i).

7. On May 26, 2014, Plaintiff took delivery of and entered into a RISC a/k/a "consumer credit contract," with Defendant SAHARA for the financed purchase of a used 2013 certified pre-owed ("CPO") Ram 1500 Truck with 6,716 miles on it at time of sale ("vehicle"). The RISC called for Plaintiff to make 72 monthly payments in the

27	including doc fees, gap insurance, tax, title, emissions and finance charges, and
28	deducting the amount of the Plaintiff's trade, in, the total aggregate amount of payments

under the RISC was $ 47,126.16. It is this amount Plaintiff is obligated to pay to Defendant WFB over the loan term under the RISC, per the hereinafter referenced assignment of the Plaintiffs' RISC from SAHARA to WFB. To date, Plaintiff has made 23 monthly payments to Defendant WFB.

8. Shortly after the RISC was entered into with the Plaintiff, Defendant SAHARA assigned Plaintiffs' RISC to Defendant WFB, wherein WFB then became the assignce and "holder" of said RISC (a/k/a consumer credit contract), as well as the secured party under Article 9 of the UCC, to whom Plaintiff are is under an obligation to pay the balance on the contract. Said RISC had the following express contractual term as part of said RISC's terms and conditions :

JOINT APPENDIX 004

¹⁶ It is noteworthy to point out that this language is mandated by 16 C.F.R. §§ 433.1 and 433.2, (commonly known as the FTC Holder Rule), to be in all consumer credit contracts' and therefore makes such terms and conditions a matter of state contract law. However it should be noted that Plaintiff has 17 not plead a claim for relief based on the provisions of what is commonly known as the "FTC Holder Rule. 18 These C.F.R. sections do not establish or confer a federal private claim for relief under their provisions. See infra. It has been widely held that the mere mention, reference or even reliance on the provisions of the "FTC Holder Rule" in a Complaint does not confer federal question 19 jurisdiction. This is not only because such provisions do not create any type of private federal right of 20 action, but the Plaintiff's underlying claims are solely based on state law. Plaintiff is merely using the FTC Holder Rule provisions solely for purposes of preserving and asserting state law claims and remedies against the subsequent assignee and/or "holder" of the RISC a/k/a a "consumer credit contract." 21 See Walker Motors Sales, Inc. 162 F. Supp. 2d 786 (S.D. Ohio, 2000) [holding there is no private right of action under the "FTC Holder Rule" in an of itself without a state law derivative claiml; Glovier v. 22 Barton Homes, LLC, 452 F. 9. By virtue of said expressly agreed to contractual term, as integrated into the terms and conditions of the RISC, WFB, (the holder of the RISC), has contractually agreed to be subject to any and all defenses and claims that Plaintiff could assert against Defendant SAHARA (the seller) with respect to the vehicle.

10. At all relevant times Defendants were the partners, joint ventures, agents, employees, managers, supervisors, related companies, and servants, of each and every other Defendant herein, and were acting at all times within the scope, purpose and authority of said partnership, joint venture, agency, employment, and with the knowledge, consent, permission, acquiescence and ratification of their co-Defendants.

11. At all relevant times Plaintiff has complied with all of the terms and conditions under her RISC, except those which have been excused based on the deceptive trade practices of Defendant SAHARA, as hereinafter alleged.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES

II

[NRS 41.600(e); Statutory Consumer Fraud] 12. Plaintiff herein incorporates by reference and herein realleges paragraphs 1 through 10.

At all relevant times, Defendant SAHARA represented to the Plaintiff, both orally and in writing, and held out, and displayed for sale and represented that the vehicle to the Plaintiff as a CPO Dodge Ram 1500. Pursuant to the Chrysler Dodge CPO

It should also be expressly noted that Plaintiff is not making any affirmative claim for relief or seeking any remedies, relief or damages under any federal statute or regulation, but rather is only mentioning any federal statutes and/or regulations as further evidence that Defendant committed a deceptive trade practice under state law, because a violation of a federal regulations or statue "relating to the sale of goods is" an independent and actionable deceptive trade practice under Nevada state law pursuant to the NDTPA and does not turn or seek to invoke any claim, remedies or actions based on the federal statute or regulation mentioned. See NRS 598.0923(3).

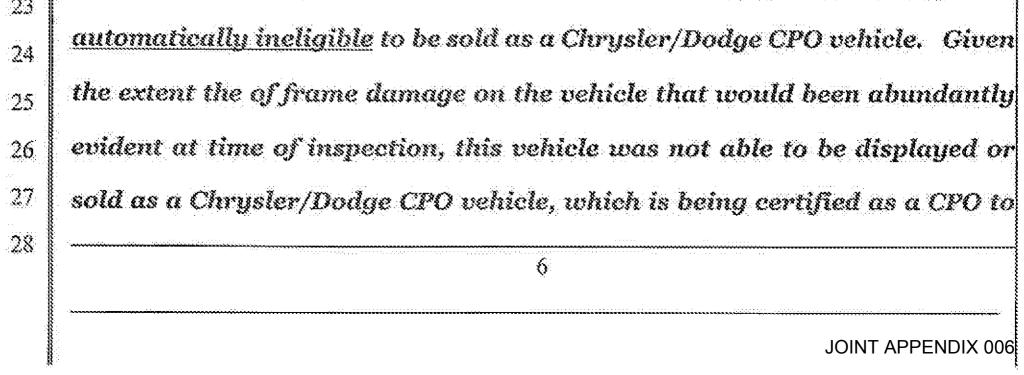

Inspection Standards between the manufacturer and a franchised dealership who participates in the Chrysler/Dodge CPO program, for a vehicle to qualify for the CPO program, the franchised dealer (SAHARA), must undertake and successfully complete a rigorous multistep certification process before it can advertise, represent, display or sell a vehicle to the community as a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle.

14. One of these important steps, prior to advertising, displaying or selling a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle to the community is the strictly mandated requirement to have a Chrysler/Dodge certified technician conduct a comprehensive 125 point inspection on the vehicle, which also specifically includes and encompasses an inspection of the vehicle for any frame/unibody damage or other indicia or indications of a vehicle having been involved in prior collision or collisions. Dealers are also required to run a Carfax on the vehicle. If these two critical steps are not undertaken by the dealership, a vehicle, including the Plaintiff's vehicle, cannot be advertised, displayed or listed for sale or actually sold as a Chrysler/Dodge "CPO" vehicle. Notwithstanding the content of any CarFax report, or the lack of any indication of any accident of frame damage to the vehicle that may be indicated on the CarFax, SAHARA had at all times an separate and independent duty to thoroughly inspect the vehicle to ensure it did not have any frame damage or other indicia that the vehicle had been in a previous collision or collisions.

15. Furthermore, under Chrysler/Dodge's own standards involving CPO vehicles, any vehicle that has sustained any frame damage are

and here and a second second give the consumer the piece of mind that the vehicle does not have any frame damage and to further induce consumers within the community to purchase a CPO vehicle at a higher price as compared to a comparable non CPO vehicle. Nevertheless, given the extremely negative stigma consumers attached to frame/unibody damaged vehicles, this important fact, which if known to SAHARA, or if it should have been known to SAHARA, was statutorily required to still be clearly disclosed to any consumer at time of sale, including the Plaintiff, as hereinafter alleged.

16. Indeed, one of the primary reasons for selling a Chrysler Dodge CPO vehicle is to reduce the consumer's perception of the risk involved with purchasing a used with respect to the vehicle having frame/unibody damage from a previous collision, previous accidents, and associated safety issues and diminished value to the vehicle. The consumer's reasonable expectation when purchasing a certified pre owned vehicle is that it does not have any frame damage of other conditions that will diminish its safety or value. This expectation on the part of the consumer is specifically created in the advertising materials, brochures and other information that is disseminated to the community with respect to buying piece of mind when purchasing a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle, which includes Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicles do not have any frame damage.

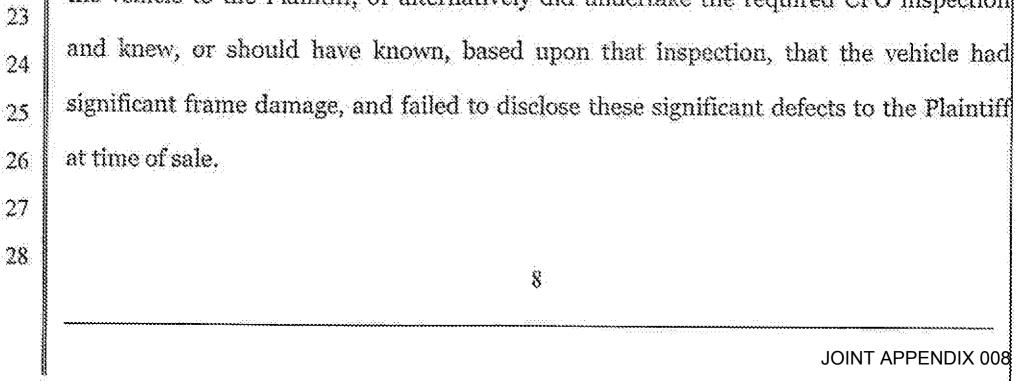

17. More specifically, it is advertised with respect Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicles
 that :

When you have a Chrysler Group Certified Pre-Owned vehicle ("CPOV") you have far more then just a "used" vehicle. You have confidence. You have pride. You have a great vehicle that you can trust. You're certified.

B. Every Chrysler, Jeep, Dodge and Ram CPOV can be counted on to go the distance. Our CPO vehicles must pass a strident certification process that guarantees only the finest late model vehicles get certified. Every value that passes is then subjected to a comprehensive 125 point inspection and a through reconditioning Ì process using Authentic Mopar Parts. 2 C. What would you expect to pay to have a qualified technician give 3 this vehicle such a thorough inspection ? 4 Only the finest late model vehicles we have are going to be certified D. to begin with, so the [CPO] vehicles you are checking out on the lot 5 are the best. 6 Moreover, a CPO vehicle, as compared to a comparable non CPO vehicle, 18. 7 will usually command and justify an increased selling price at least several hundreds of 8 dollars higher then a comparable non CPO vehicle, sometimes more then $ 1,500.00, and consumer's are willing to pay that increased price for the piece of mind that is advertised to them about purchasing a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle. Indeed, the aforementioned written and/or on line materials and advertisements which are disseminated to the community are there to provide a further inducement and incentive to the consumer to spend the extra money to purchase "piece of mind" and confidence with respect to a Chrysler/Dodge CPO certified vehicle. At no time was Plaintiff aware that the vehicle had extensive frame damage 19. at time of sale, but it was in May of 2015, Plaintiff first became aware that the vehicle had sustained significant frame damage. In truth and in fact, at the time of sale, the vehicle had significant frame damage. Consequently, SAHARA either did not undertake the required CPO vehicle inspection prior to listing, displaying, advertising and selling the vehicle to the Plaintiff, or alternatively did undertake the required CPO inspection

20. This information would have been a material (important) fact any reasonable consumer, including the Plaintiff, would want to know about and would also deem important in making a decision to purchase a used vehicle, especially with respect to a CPO vehicle, given the purchase of a CPO vehicle is to take much of the risk out of purchasing a used vehicle vis-à-vis the vehicle being in a previous serious collision and/or having frame and/or unibody damage and excessive body damage. Had Plaintiff been informed of said damage to the vehicle, he would not have purchased the vehicle and would not have entered into the RISC for the vehicle.

21. At all relevant times, SAHARA, as a vehicle dealer within this community, would know that any reasonable consumer, including the Plaintiff, associates a very negative stigma to frame and/or unibody damage caused by a previous collision or collisions to a vehicle, both as to its safety and as to its value. Such a negative stigma is further heightened with respect to a CPO vehicle given it is the consumer's expectation when purchasing a Chrysler/Dodge certified vehicle that they are avoiding purchasing a vehicle that has any such damage. Furthermore, Defendant SAHARA is fully aware of this expectation on the part of the consumer when they choose to decide to purchase a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle. Said frame damage to the vehicle affected the vehicle's safety and dramatically diminished its value.

22. Pursuant to NRS §§ 41.600(e), 598.0915, and 598.0923 Defendant SAHARA engaged in statutory consumer fraud/deceptive trade practices by knowingly

27. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and herein realleges paragraphs 1 through 23 and 26.

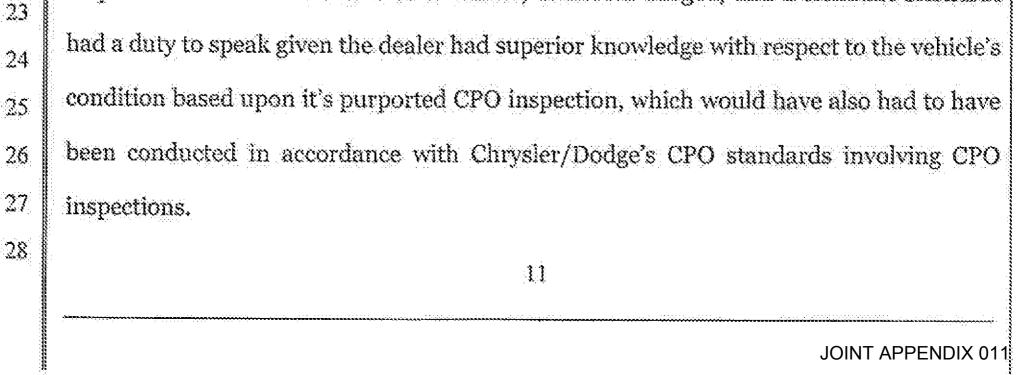

28. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant SAHARA was a franchised Chrysler/Dodge dealership and participant in the Chrysler/Dodge CPO program. By virtue of its status as a franchised Chrysler/Dodge dealer who was a participant in the Chrysler/Dodge CPO program, and given the rigorous undertakings and requirements the dealer has to go through to properly certify a Dodge as a CPO under the CPO program, SAHARA had vastly superior knowledge about the condition of the vehicle. This was based on the purported mandatory CPO inspection undertaken on the vehicle, and as such had a duty to disclose the true and accurate condition of the vehicle to the Plaintiff, which SAHARA knew, or should have known about.

29. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant SAHARA intended for the Plaintiff to act upon the Defendant's omissions in conducting the sale, delivery and inspection of the vehicle as a CPO vehicle, as herein alleged, and Defendant SAHARA

Furthermore, Plaintiff detrimentally relied 3 and/or acted upon on Defendant's omissions with respect to the vehicle being a CPO 4 vehicle. $ Based on the aforementioned deceptive conduct and affirmative 31. 6 engagement in deceptive trade practices and/or consumer fraud, Defendant SAHARA 7 has acted unconscionably and has unclean hands, and by virtue of said conduct, 8 Defendants SAHARA and WFB, (as the assignee and "holder" of the RISC), are estopped 9 10from claiming the RISC is valid and/or otherwise enforceable. 11 ΣV 12 FORTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR RESTITUTION/UNJUST ENRICHMENT AGAINST DEFENDANT WFB ONLY 13 [NRS 41.600(3)(b) and Common Law] 14 Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and herein realleges paragraphs 32. 15 1 through 23, and 26 through 31. 16 Based on the aforementioned deceptive trade practices, as herein alleged, 33. 17 Defendant SAHARA and WFB has been unjustly enriched to the detriment to the 18 19 Plaintiff, and Plaintiffs are entitled to the return of his down and monthly payments 20under the RISC, and said Defendants hold said funds as constructive trustee for the 21 benefit of the Plaintiff. 22

35. An actual controversy has arisen and now exists between Plaintiff and the Defendant with regard to the validity, enforceability and/or violability of the aforementioned RISC, and Plaintiffs' right to Rescission and/or Restitution. Plaintiff contends the RISC is void ab initio and/or voidable and that they are entitled to rescission and restitution. Defendants contend the RISC is valid and enforceable and that Plaintiff is not entitled to Rescission and/or Restitution under the RISC, and that Plaintiff are still obligated to pay the remaining balance in the agreed upon monthly payments to WFB.

36. Plaintiff desires and seeks a judicial determination as to voidability and/or enforceability of the aforementioned RISC relating to the vehicle.

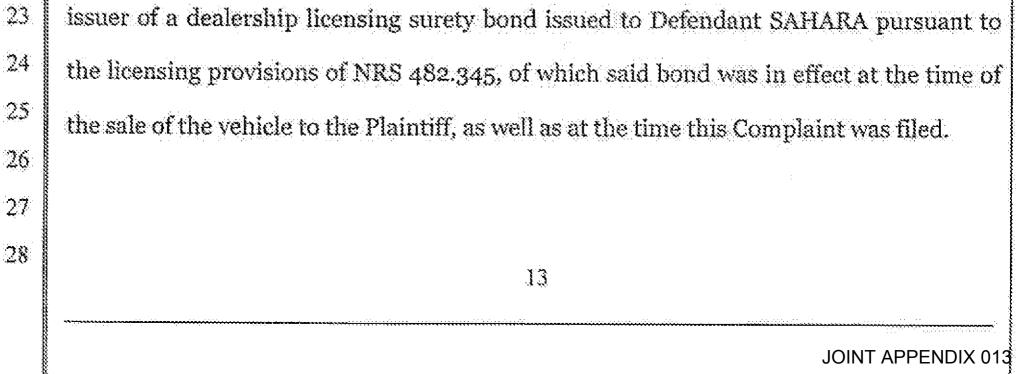

37. A judicial declaration is necessary and appropriate at this time under the circumstances in order for the parties to be able to ascertain their rights, obligations and remedies under the aforementioned RISC.

Based on Plaintiff counsel's experience in this types of matters, it is somewhat common practice

23 for many local dealerships in the Las Vegas area to have the buyer sign an arbitration agreement, not explain it to them out of the numerous documents the consumer is signing in succession on the date of sale. It is also not uncommon for a dealership to have a buyer sign an arbitration agreement, and not 24 give him or her a copy of the same with their paperwork. Consequently, if Defendant SAHARA produces a 25 copy of valid arbitration agreement bearing the Plaintiff's signature, Plaintiff will enter into a stipulation and order to be filed with the Court to have this matter heard via binding arbitration pursuant to said arbitration agreement, provided that said stipulation and order also makes clear that SAHARA is required 26to follow all of its payment obligations under the arbitration service's rules for consumer arbitrations when billed for the same, and that failure to comply with any those payment obligations can constitute a 27 waiver of SAHARA's right to contractual mandatory arbitration which would require Plaintiff to arbitrate any of the claims stated herein. 28 15

2. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Plaintiff is a resident of the State of Nevada, County of Clark.

3. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant NEVADA AUTO DEALERSHIP INVESTMENT LLC d/b/a SAHARA CHRYSLER, JEEP DODGE ("SAHARA") limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada and is authorized to conduct business in the State of Nevada, and is located in the City of Las Vegas State of Nevada, County of Clark, where the herein referenced Retail Installment Sales Contract ("RISC") was entered into, and the deceptive trade practices took place. 2

4. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant WELLS FARGO DEALER SERVICES INC ("WFB") is believed to be a corporation organized and existing under the laws of California, and is authorized to do business in the State of Nevada, County of Clark, City of Las Vegas. Said Defendant was a previous "holder" and/or assignee of the Plaintiffs' Retail Installment Sale Contract ("RISC") a/k/a a "consumer credit contract," as hereinafter described, of which Plaintiff made payments to WFB based on the assignment of the RISC to WFB and it was WFB's capacity as a "holder" of the RISC in which those monthly payments were made, as hereinafter alleged.

5. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant COREPOINTE INSURANCE COMPANY ("COREPOINTE") is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Michigan, and is authorized to do business in the State of Nevada, and was the bond company that issued and underwrote the licensing bond to Defendant SAHARA pursuant to the provisions of NRS 482.345.

6. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant SAHARA was "dealer" and/or "new vehicle dealer" within the definition of NRS 482.020. Furthermore, at all relevant times, Plaintiff was a "consumer" as defined by 16 C.F.R. 433.1(b), and the RISC entered into between Plaintiff and SAHARA was a "purchase money loan" and "consumer credit contract" as defined by 16 C.F.R. 433.1(d) and (i).

7. On May 26, 2014, Plaintiff took delivery of and entered into a RISC a/k/a "consumer credit contract," with Defendant SAHARA for the financed purchase of a used 2013 certified pre-owed ("CPO") Ram 1500 Truck with 6,716 miles on it at time of sale ("vehicle"). The RISC called for Plaintiff to make 72 monthly payments in the amount of $ 654.53. To date as of the filing of this Complaint, Plaintiff made all of his monthly payments to WFB, including payments under the initial RISC when the RISC was assigned to WFB from SAHARA shortly after Plaintiff purchased the vehicle from SAHARA. Plaintiff put down $ 4,000.00 in trade for the vehicle, which was the agreed upon price of his trade in. After adding all other ancillary charges, including doc fees, gap insurance, tax, title, emissions and finance charges, and deducting the amount of the Plaintiff's trade in, the total aggregate amount of payments under the RISC was $ 47,126.16. It is this amount Plaintiff was initially obligated to pay to Defendant WFB over the loan term under the RISC, per the hereinafter referenced assignment of the Plaintiffs' RISC from SAHARA to WFB.

8. Shortly after the RISC was entered into with the Plaintiff, Defendant SAHARA assigned Plaintiffs' RISC to Defendant WFB, wherein WFB then became the assignee and "holder" of said RISC (a/k/a consumer credit contract), as well as the secured party under Article 9 of the UCC, to whom Plaintiff are is under an obligation to pay the balance on the contract. Said RISC had the following express contractual term as part of said RISC's terms and conditions :

NOTICE : ANY HOLDER OF THIS CONSUMER CREDIT CONTRACT IS SUBJECT TO ALL CLAIMS AND DEFENSES WHICH THE DEBTOR COULD ASSERT AGAINST THE SELLER OF GOODS OR SERVICES OBTAINED PURSUANT HERETO OR WITH THE PROCEEDS HEREOF. RECOVERY HEREUNDER BY THE DEBTOR SHALL NOT EXCEED AMOUNTS PAID BY THE DEBTOR HEREUNDER.¹

It is noteworthy to point out that this language is mandated by 16 C.F.R. §§ 433.1 and 433.2, 19 (commonly known as the FTC Holder Rule), to be in all consumer credit contracts' and therefore makes 20 such terms and conditions a matter of state contract law. However it should be noted that Plaintiff has not plead a claim for relief based on the provisions of what is commonly known as the "FTC Holder Rule. These C.F.R. sections do not establish or confer a federal private claim for relief under their provisions. 21 See infra. It has been widely held that the mere mention, reference or even reliance on the provisions of the "FTC Holder Rule" in a Complaint does not confer federal question 22 jurisdiction. This is not only because such provisions do not create any type of private federal right of action, but the Plaintiff's underlying claims are solely based on state law. Plaintiff is merely using 23 the FTC Holder Rule provisions solely for purposes of preserving and asserting state law claims and remedies against the subsequent assignee and/or "holder" of the RISC a/k/a a "consumer credit contract." 24 See Walker Motors Sales, Inc. 162 F. Supp. 2d 786 (S.D. Ohio, 2000) [holding there is no private right of action under the "FTC Holder Rule" in an of itself without a state law derivative claim]; Glovier v. 25 Barton Homes, LLC, 452 F. Supp. 2d 657, (W.D. La., 2006) [holding purchasers' action against holder did not arise under federal law for the Court to be able to be vested with federal-question jurisdiction, 26 notwithstanding purchasers' reliance and mentioning of the FTC holder rule to bring in the assignee/holder]; Mathis vs Gibson 2008 WL 2330537 (D.S.C. 2008) [holding Federal District Court 27 did not have federal question jurisdiction based on the assertion of state law claims, as permitted and preserved by the FTC Holder Rule, against a subsequent holder]; Frichhorn vs Lake County Chrysler 28 2006 WL 2970236 (N.D. Ohio, 2006) [holding a complaint's reference to the FTC Holder Rule either to

By virtue of said expressly agreed to contractual term, as integrated into 9. the terms and conditions of the RISC, WFB, (the holder of the RISC), has contractually agreed to be subject to any and all defenses and claims that Plaintiff could assert against Defendant SAHARA (the seller) with respect to the vehicle while it was the holder of the original RISC between Plaintiff and SAHARA.

At all relevant times Defendants were the partners, joint ventures, agents, 10. employees, managers, supervisors, related companies, and servants, of each and every other Defendant herein, and were acting at all times within the scope, purpose and authority of said partnership, joint venture, agency, employment, and with the knowledge, consent, permission, acquiescence and ratification of their co-Defendants.

At all relevant times Plaintiff has complied with all of the terms and 11. conditions under her RISC, except those which have been excused based on the deceptive trade practices of Defendant SAHARA, as hereinafter alleged.

13. At all relevant times, Defendant SAHARA represented to the Plaintiff, both orally and in writing, and held out, and displayed for sale and represented that the vehicle to the Plaintiff as a CPO Dodge Ram 1500. Pursuant to the Chrysler Dodge CPO Inspection Standards between the manufacturer and a franchised dealership who participates in the Chrysler/Dodge CPO program, for a vehicle to qualify for the CPO program, the franchised dealer (SAHARA), must undertake and successfully complete a rigorous and comprehensive multistep certification process before it can advertise, represent, display or sell a vehicle to the community as a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle.

One of these important steps, prior to advertising, displaying or selling a 14. Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle to the community is the strictly mandated requirement to have a Chrysler/Dodge certified technician conduct a comprehensive 125 point inspection on the vehicle, which also specifically includes and encompasses an inspection of the vehicle for any frame/unibody damage or other indicia or indications of a vehicle having been involved in significant prior collisions. Dealers are also required to run a Carfax on the vehicle. If these two critical steps are not undertaken by the dealership, a vehicle, including the Plaintiff's vehicle, cannot be advertised, displayed or listed for sale or actually sold as a Chrysler/Dodge "CPO" vehicle. Notwithstanding the content of any CarFax report, including the lack of any indication or an actual indication of a previous collision or accident to the vehicle on the Carfax report, SAHARA, at all times had an separate and independent duty to thoroughly inspect the vehicle to ensure it did not have any frame damage or other indicia that the vehicle had been in a significant collision or collisions, and to make full disclosure to any potential buyer regarding the findings on their inspection.

15. Furthermore, under Chrysler/Dodge's own standards involving CPO vehicles, any vehicle that has sustained any frame damage are automatically ineligible to be sold as a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle. Furthermore, when a vehicle that is going to be sold as a CPO vehicle has sustained a significant previous collision damage, the nature and extent of that previous collision and the damage and repairs related to that collision would be abundantly clear to the dealer given the dealer's obligations to have all CPO vehicles go through Chrysler/Jeep's comprehensive inspection process with a Chrysler certified technician.

16. Given the extent the of damage caused by the previous collision/accident to the vehicle, the nature and extent of that previous collision damage and the extent of the repairs to the vehicle would been abundantly evident and discovered at time of SAHARA's comprehensive CPO inspection process. As a CPO vehicle, such marketing and selling of a CPO is to give the consumer the piece of mind that the vehicle does not have any previous significant collision and/or frame damage, and to further induce consumers within the community to purchase a CPO vehicle at a higher price as compared to a comparable non CPO vehicle.

17. Nevertheless, given the extremely negative stigma consumers attach to vehicles that have been in significant previous collisions, this important fact, which was known to SAHARA, prior to the vehicle's sale to the Plaintiff, (as hereinafter alleged), was statutorily required to still be clearly disclosed to any consumer at time of sale, including the nature and extent of the previous collision if it was known or should have been known by SAHARA, prior to the sale of the vehicle to the Plaintiff.

Indeed, one of the primary reasons for selling a Chrysler Dodge CPO vehicle is to reduce the consumer's perception of the risk involved with purchasing a used with respect to the vehicle having and/or suffering significant previous collisions

1	and/or prev	vious accidents, and the perceived safety issues and diminished value to the
2	vehicle that	t previous collisions can cause to a vehicle in the mind of the consumer,
3	including t	he Plaintiff. The consumer's reasonable expectation when purchasing a
4	certified pre	e owned vehicle is that it does not have any significant previous collisions or
5	accidents of	r frame damage or other conditions that will diminish its safety or value,
6	which woul	d be material and important to any reasonable consumer purchasing a CPO

13	19.	More specifically, it is advertised with respect Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicles
14	that :
15 16	А.	When you have a Chrysler Group Certified Pre-Owned vehicle ("CPOV") you have far more then just a "used" vehicle. You have confidence. You have pride. You have a great vehicle that you can trust. You're certified.
17 18 19 20	В.	Every Chrysler, Jeep, Dodge and Ram CPOV can be counted on to go the distance. Our CPO vehicles must pass a strident certification process that guarantees only the finest late model vehicles get certified. Every vehicle that passes is then subjected to a comprehensive 125 point inspection and a through reconditioning process using Authentic Mopar Parts.
21 22	C.	What would you expect to pay to have a qualified technician give this vehicle such a thorough inspection ?
23 24	D.	Only the finest late model vehicles we have are going to be certified to begin with, so the [CPO] vehicles you are checking out on the lot are the best.
25	20.	Moreover, a CPO vehicle, as compared to a comparable non CPO vehicle,
26		command and justify an increased selling price at least several hundreds of
27		her then a comparable non CPO vehicle, sometimes more then $ 1,500.00,
28	uonaro ingi	8

and consumer's are willing to pay that increased price for the piece of mind that is advertised to them about purchasing a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle. Indeed, the aforementioned written and/or on line materials and advertisements which are disseminated to the community are there to provide a further inducement and incentive to the consumer to spend the extra money to purchase "piece of mind" and confidence with respect to a Chrysler/Dodge CPO certified vehicle.

21. On or about May 6, 2014, SAHARA acquired the vehicle from a private party. That private party informed and specifically told SAHARA's used car manager, Joshua Grant, that the vehicle had been in a previous collision in March of 2014, and also gave Mr. Grant a copy of the body shop repair order relating to the repairs that were undertaken on the vehicle as a result of the previous collision. The body shop estimate, which was in Mr. Grant's possession, indicated the vehicle had $ 4,088.00 in previous collision damage, and also disclosed the nature and extent of the previous damage caused by the accident, based upon the parts and components that were identified on the repair order and replaced or repaired on the vehicle as a result of the previous collision.

23. After briefly doing an initial visual assessment and inspection on the vehicle on May 6, 2014, Mr. Grant, at that point, made the initial decision and undertook the initial steps to resell the vehicle as a CPO certified vehicle. On or about May 8, 2017, (three days after the car logged into SAHARA's inventory and given a stock number), the vehicle was brought into SAHARA's service department by Mr. Grant to undergo the comprehensive CPO inspection process with one of their Chrysler certified technicians. Mr. Grant did not inform anyone in the service department of the previous collision the vehicle was in or given the body shop estimate regarding the vehicle to anyone in the service department.

24. At the time of the technician's inspection, all of the aforementioned repairs and replaced parts and components to the vehicle that were present due to the previous collision the vehicle was involved in, and were all present and abundantly obvious to the trained eye, including SAHARA's certified technician. As part Chrysler/Dodge's comprehensive CPO inspection process, the technician is required to prepare and sign off on the comprehensive check list, which the technician did.

25. Notwithstanding, and knowing of and/or having should have known of all the aforementioned items being repaired or replaced on the vehicle, and also having a good idea of the nature and extent of the previous damage and collision to the vehicle, SAHARA's technician did not note any of these items were repaired or replaced, either in the specific enumerated items set forth on the report, or in the area where "additional information" could have been noted on the report. This, not withstanding that SAHARA's mechanic and SAHARA's used car manager actually knew of the nature and extent of the previous collision, and also knew the car was going to be resold to the community as a CPO vehicle.

26. During the sales process, the SAHARA's salesperson was explaining the many advantages of buying a CPO vehicle, one of which was the comprehensive safety inspection the vehicle undergoes. After the deal was negotiated in the sale's department, Plaintiff was then brought into the F & I department to sign all the closing documents. One of the documents Plaintiff was presented with was a Carfax that indicated the vehicle had been in a previous accident. Plaintiff inquired about the accident and was concerned about the previous accident the vehicle had been involved in, which was not previously disclosed to him.

Plaintiff was then told that the vehicle had been through a comprehensive 27. safety inspection and if the previous accident was serious or significant, it would not have Plaintiff was then presented and reviewed the CPO inspection been certified a CPO. report as well that was prepared by SAHARA's technician. Having been told the car had gone through a comprehensive inspection, having been assured that the accident was not significant, and not seeing any indication on the CPO inspection report of anything being replaced or repaired or damaged, Plaintiff's concerns regarding the accident were resolved and he went forward with the sale.

28. Plaintiff not being made aware of nature and extent of the previous collision and repairs to the vehicle, it was in approximately mid May of 2015, Plaintiff first became aware of the nature and extent of the undisclosed damage to the vehicle, of which SAHARA had actual knowledge of prior to the time of sale, and did not disclose to him.

This information would have been a material (important) fact any 29. 18 19 reasonable consumer, including the Plaintiff, would want to know about and would also 20 deem important in making a decision to purchase a used vehicle, especially with respect to a CPO vehicle, given the purchase of a CPO vehicle is to take much of the risk out of purchasing a used vehicle vis-à-vis the vehicle being in a previous significant collision and/or having frame and/or unibody damage and excessive body damage. Had Plaintiff 24 been informed of the nature and extent of the damage to the vehicle which was in the 25 actual knowledge of SAHARA, he would not have purchased the vehicle and would not 26 have entered into the RISC for the vehicle.

At all relevant times, SAHARA, as a vehicle dealer within this community, 30. would know that any reasonable consumer, including the Plaintiff, associates a very negative stigma to vehicles which have been in a previous collision or collisions, both as to its safety and as to its value. Such a negative stigma is further heightened with respect to a CPO vehicle given it is the consumer's expectation when purchasing a Chrysler/Dodge certified vehicle that they are avoiding purchasing a vehicle that has any Furthermore, Defendant SAHARA, as a vehicle dealership who sells such damage. hundreds of CPO vehicles to the community, is fully aware of this expectation on the part of the consumer when they choose to decide to purchase a Chrysler/Dodge CPO vehicle. The information known to SAHARA relating to the nature and extent of the previous damage to the vehicle, in the mind of a reasonable consumer, would relate to the vehicle's safety and/or dramatically diminished its value, and would be important in making a determination in whether to purchase the vehicle. Consumers do not seek to purchase vehicles, especially CPO vehicles, with an accident history, and if an accident is disclosed to them and the dealer has actual knowledge of the nature and extent of that previous collision, SAHARA had the obligation to make full and complete disclosure to the Plaintiff relating to all information it had within its possession regarding the previous collision and the nature and extend of that accident, as it would have been material to Plaintiff's decision to purchase the vehicle.

III THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR EQUITABLE ESTOPPEL AS AGAINST DEFENDANTS SAHARA AND WFB ONLY

[NRS 41.600(3)(b) and Common Law]

36. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference and herein realleges paragraphs1 through 35

37. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant SAHARA was a franchised Chrysler/Dodge dealership and participant in the Chrysler/Dodge CPO program. By virtue of its status as a franchised Chrysler/Dodge dealer who was a participant in the Chrysler/Dodge CPO program, and given the rigorous undertakings and requirements the dealer has to go through to properly certify a Dodge as a CPO under the CPO program, SAHARA had vastly superior knowledge about the condition of the vehicle, as herein alleged. This was based on the purported mandatory CPO inspection undertaken on the vehicle, and as such had a duty to disclose the true and accurate condition of the vehicle to the Plaintiff, which SAHARA knew, or should have known about.

38. At all relevant times herein mentioned, Defendant SAHARA intended for the Plaintiff to act upon the Defendant's omissions/misrepresentations, (as herein alleged), in conducting the sale, delivery and inspection of the vehicle as a CPO vehicle, and Defendant SAHARA had a duty to speak given the dealer had superior knowledge with respect to the vehicle's condition based upon it's purported CPO inspection, which would have also had to have been conducted in accordance with Chrysler/Dodge's CPO standards involving CPO inspections.

27 39. At all relevant times herein mentioned, the Plaintiff was unaware of the 28 vehicle's deficiencies as herein described. ¹Furthermore, Plaintiff detrimentally relied and/or acted upon on Defendant's omissions with respect to the vehicle being a CPO vehicle.

3	40. Based on the aforementioned deceptive conduct and affirmative
4	engagement in deceptive trade practices and/or consumer fraud, Defendant SAHARA
5	has acted unconscionably and has unclean hands, and by virtue of said conduct,
6 7	Defendants SAHARA and WFB, (as the initial assignee and previous "holder" of the
8	RISC), are estopped from claiming the RISC is valid and/or otherwise enforceable, or
9	any other subsequent contract with WFB involving the vehicle.

17	Defendant SAHARA and WFB has been unjustly enriched to the detriment to the 18	Plaintiff, and Plaintiffs are entitled to the return of his down (the agreed amount of his
19	trade in), and monthly payments under the RISC, and said Defendants hold said funds aforementioned RISC entered into with SAHARA and then assigned to WFB, and Plaintiffs' right to Rescission and/or Restitution. Plaintiff contends the RISC is void ab initio and/or voidable and that they are entitled to rescission and restitution. Defendants contend the RISC is valid and enforceable and that Plaintiff is not entitled to Rescission and/or Restitution under the RISC, and that Plaintiff are still obligated to pay the remaining balance in the agreed upon monthly payments to WFB, under the initial RISC assigned to WFB and under any other subsequent contract entered into with WFB relating to the financing of the vehicle.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION.

This action stems from a vehicle purchaser who, after happily driving his vehicle for two years, failed to obtain a third refinance of the vehicle based on faulty information, and then proceeded down this path. Plaintiff's stance on this matter and the facts on which he allegedly bases his claims have significantly changed. Plaintiff Derrick Poole ("Plaintiff" and/or "Poole") purchased a 2013 Dodge Ram truck (the "Vehicle), on May 25, 2014 from 10 Nevada Auto Dealership Investments d/b/a Sahara Chrysler Jeep Dodge Ram ("Defendant" 11 and/or "Sahara" and/or the "Dealership"). Mr. Poole selected a Certified Pre-Owned 12 ("CPO") truck which he was informed, at the time of purchase, had a previous accident 13 14 prior to being acquired by the Defendant. The Vehicle not only had a comprehensive 125-15 point inspection, but additional warranties and other add-ons available only on CPOs.

Plaintiff happily drove the Vehicle incurring zero repairs, zero warranty claims, and 17 zero other safety issues for nearly two years. Plaintiff then sought a third refinance of the 18 Vehicle, which he had already successfully refinanced twice, in approximately May 2016, at 19 which time he allegedly was informed from an "internet report" (which he never produced), 20 21 and an "unidentified state farm representative" who never inspected the Vehicle, that it had 22 "frame" damage. Instead of going to Defendant's dealership and speaking with a manager 23 or mechanic, he contacted his sales person and claimed he was never told that the Vehicle was in any accident. Plaintiff then, of course, contacted an attorney, who filed a Complaint alleging significant "frame/unibody damage" and/or a significant collision. However, after receiving the CarFax signed by Plaintiff, which disclosed the previous accident, Plaintiff then amended his Complaint to change his allegations to include some non-legal duty to disclose each and every fact a car dealer might have regarding any used vehicle in their inventory, whether or not it had any effect whatsoever on a vehicle.

3 Defendant disclosed the accident, the single possibly stigma causing event, relating 4 to the Vehicle at the time of purchase. Plaintiff still purchased the Vehicle and drove it for 5 approximately 16,000.00 miles, over the course of three years, with no repair, no 6 maintenance issues, and no safety issues, and now wants all of his money back because he 7 8 essentially forgot that he purchased a car that had been in an accident. Defendant did not 9 deceive Plaintiff, in fact, it sold him a vehicle that it inspected, certified, and provided 10 additional warranties on. As such, this lawsuit as is evidenced by the convoluted First 11 Amended Complaint is trying to create non-existent duties, based on a hired expert's 12 "opinion." 13

II. STATEMENT OF UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS ("UF").

1. On or about May 5, 2014, Defendant acquired a used 2013 Dodge Ram truck, VIN1C6RR6GT8DS558275 (the, "Vehicle") from a private third-party. See Exhibit 1-Documents related to purchase of Subject Vehicle from Dale Hinton.

2. At the time of acquisition, the private third-party provided Joshua Grant ("J. Grant") copies of documents evidencing repairs on the Vehicle, in the form of an Allstate 20 estimate. See Exhibit 2- Excerpts of Deposition of Joshua Grant ("J. Grant Depo."), 97:23-98:21, Exhibit 3, Allstate estimate dated March 31, 2014 (photos omitted).

3. J. Grant had significant experience in dealing with used vehicles, and reviewed the Allstate estimate which were given to him by the third-party, specifically to determine whether the Vehicle had any indications of frame damage, and he did not observe information evidencing any such damage, which was confirmed by the subsequent inspection. Exhibit 2, 33:17-34:15, 99:2-18.

1	4. On May 8, 2014, the Vehicle underwent a detailed inspection by a certified
2	mechanic, Ray Gongora, to determine whether it could be a Certified Pre-Owned ("CPO")
3	Vehicle. Exhibit 4- Certified Pre-Owned checklist, Bates stamped NVAUTO000075-76.
4	5. The certified mechanic conducting the CPO inspection would have had a CarFax
5	prior or contemporaneous to performing the inspection, as such here, the mechanic would
7	have been aware of a previous accident on the subject Vehicle. Exhibit 5- Excerpts of
8	Deposition of Ray Gongora ("Gongora Depo."), 40:17-41:7.
10	6. It was not required for the inspecting technician to report any repaired items if
11	those repairs were performed correctly, only if it was not a proper repair. Id. at 38:18-39:12.
12	7 The Vehicle passed the CPO 125-point inspection performed by Ray Gongora
13	and accordingly was designated as a CPO vehicle in Defendant's inventory. See Exhibit 4,
14	Exhibit 5 at 56:9-18.
15	8. On May 26, 2014, Plaintiff entered into a contract with Defendant to purchase the
16	Vehicle with financing, and Plaintiff was also given trade-in value for his former vehicle in
17	the amount of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000,00). See Exhibit 6- Portion of Sales Contract.
20	9. At the time of the Vehicle purchase, sales person Travis Spruell went through a
21	Certified Pre-Owned Vehicle Delivery Check Sheet, which was signed by Plaintiff. Exhibit
22	8- Certified Pre-Owned Vehicle Delivery Check Sheet, NVAUTO000095-99.
23 24	10. Additionally, Defendant presented a CarFax to Plaintiff, dated May 10, 2014,
25	(the "CarFax") pursuant to the CPO Delivery Check Sheet. Exhibit 9-CarFax,
26	NVAUTO000079-86.
	11. The CarFax on both the front page, the second page, and on page 3 reflect that the Vehicle had been in an accident, and states "Damage reported". Id.

1	12. At the time of the sale of the Vehicle, Defendant disclosed the previous accident
2	and presented the CarFax reflecting the accident on the Vehicle to Plaintiff, and Plaintiff
3	signed the CarFax, acknowledging it had been in a previous accident. Id., see also Exhibit 7
4	at 18:3-19:9.
5	13. Despite being informed of the accident on the Vehicle, Plaintiff did not ask any
7	questions regarding any specifics about accident, he did not ask if there were any documents
8	regarding the accident, and he himself walked around the Vehicle. Exhibit 7, 19:2-20:6 .
9	14. At the time of the sale, the Vehicle had Six Thousand Seven Hundred Sixteen
10 11	(6,716) miles. It currently has approximately Twenty-Three Thousand Miles. See Exhibit 7,
11	89:8-10, Exhibit 8.
13	15. At the time of the sale, Defendant also provided and proffered Plaintiff
14	additional warranties for the Vehicle based on the fact that it was a CPO vehicle. Exhibit 10,
15	Excerpts of Deposition of Travis Spruell, 19:1-13, see also Exhibit 7, 32:21-24.
16	16. Plaintiff left with the Vehicle on the day he purchased it, and drove the Vehicle
17	over the course of the following three years with no problems whatsoever. Exhibit 7, 17:23 -
18	18:2.
19
20	17. Plaintiff has not personally experienced any safety issues with his Vehicle.
21	Exhibit 7, 39:7-24, 60:11-13.
22	18. Plaintiff did not have to have any repairs performed on the Vehicle during the
23 24	time he drove the Vehicle. Exhibit 7, 64:3-12.
25	19. Plaintiff subsequently got in to a collision accident in May 2017, during which
26	the Vehicle sustained approximately $5,000.00 of damage. Exhibit 7, 48:14-17.
	20. Plaintiff never attempted to perform any investigation, at the time of purchase, purchasing the Vehicle. Exhibit 7, 19:2-21.

21. Plaintiff only performed any kind of investigation into the Vehicle's history, independently, in approximately April or May 2016, when he attempted to obtain a third refinance of the Vehicle after driving it for approximately two years. Exhibit 7, 23:4-18. 22. Plaintiff's Vehicle was not inspected after the CPO inspection until May 2016, after he had driven it for two years, by his retained counsel's "expert" Rocco Avellini.
Exhibit 11, Plaintiff's Expert Report (without attachments).
23. Plaintiff continued to drive the Vehicle after Rocco Avellini inspected it, and after the filing of his initial complaint, prior to its inspection by Defendant's expert, Thomas Lepper. Exhibit 12, Defendant's Expert Report (without attachments).
24. Plaintiff continued to drive his vehicle for approximately, 5500 miles after his expert inspected, and allegedly found problems with the Vehicle. Exhibit 11 Expert Report, Exhibit 7, 17:23-18:2.
25. Plaintiff subsequently got into what he considers to be a major accident in May 2017, where the Vehicle sustained damage. However, according to Plaintiff, the Vehicle has been completely repaired from his collision. Exhibit 7, 35:5-36:5, 48:14-17 .
III. FACTS SUMMARY
The facts are clear. The Vehicle had been in a previous accident and Defendant disclosed this fact regarding the Vehicle to Plaintiff at the time of purchase. UFs 8-11.
Plaintiff, despite learning prior to his purchase, that the Vehicle had been in an accident from which it had to be towed, Plaintiff still chose to purchase the Vehicle. UFs 12-15.
Plaintiff then happily drove the Vehicle for nearly two years, without any problems. UF 15.
Upon Defendant's acquisition of the Vehicle, its experienced manager inspected documentation regarding a previous accident for any immediate signs that the Vehicle could not be a CPO. UFs 1-3. After seeing no such alarming information, Defendant's subsequent 1 2 inspection found the Vehicle to be suitable to be sold as a CPO vehicle. UFs 5-7. The only 3 significant fact regarding the Vehicle's history was that the Vehicle had been in a previous 4 accident, from which it had been fully repaired. UFs 1-2,10. Defendant represented to Plaintiff that it was selling a CPO vehicle, and accordingly sold a CPO vehicle to Plaintiff. UFs 5-13. 7

JOINT APPENDIX 055

The Vehicle also came with additional warranties from Defendant because it was a CPO. UF 15. The nature and extent of the accident previously sustained by the Vehicle is 10 not material, as all of the damage was repaired, and the Vehicle passed a 125-point 11 inspection by Defendant. UFs 1-7. Most significantly, the accident itself was disclosed to 12 Plaintiff at the time of the sale. UF 10-12. Defendant has no legal duty, and Plaintiff has not 13 14 cited any legal duty, to disclose any extra information a dealership may have on a used 15 vehicle aside from the fact that there was a previous accident. See generally, First Amended 16 Complaint ("FAC"). Defendant represented it was selling Plaintiff a vehicle that had passed 17 a CPO inspection and had met Chrysler CPO standards, and sold Plaintiff that Vehicle. UFs 18 4-16. 19

Ironically, Plaintiff, just prior to filing his original complaint, tried to claim that he discovered that the Vehicle had been in an accident, and also sustained over Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) of damage and/or frame damage. Exhibit 13, Plaintiff's 7th Supplement- Copies of Text Messages. However, during discovery, Plaintiff was unable to produce any documentation that would substantiate this contention, and only provides "opinion" from a hired plaintiff-oriented expert, as "evidence" for his allegations. Accordingly, summary judgment is appropriate as to all of Plaintiff's claims.

2	IV. LEGAL STANDARD
3	Pursuant to N.R.C.P. 56(c), summary judgment is appropriate when the pleadings
4	and other evidence on file, construed in a light most favorable to the non-moving party,
5	demonstrate that no genuine issue as to any material fact remains and the moving party is
6 7	entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See Holcomb v. Georgia Pacific, LLC, 128 Nev.
° 9	Adv. Rep. 56 *9-10, 289 P.3d 188, 192 (2012); and Wood v. Safeway, 121 Nev. 724, 729,
10	121 P.3d 1026, 1029 (2005). The substantive law controls which factual disputes are
11	material. See Wood, 121 Nev. at 731. A factual dispute is genuine "when the evidence is 12	such that a rational trier of fact could return a verdict for the non-moving party." Id.
13	The nonmoving party may not defeat a motion for summary judgment on the 14	"gossamer threads of whimsy, speculation, and conjecture." See Wood, 121 Nev. at 732.
15	The nonmoving party must by affidavit or otherwise, set forth specific facts demonstrating
16	the existence of a genuine issue of material fact for trial. See Id.
17 18	Here, Defendant is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law, since no genuine issue
19	of material fact remains regarding the fact that Defendant did not meet the requisites for
20	Plaintiff's claim for consumer fraud and/or deceptive trade practices. Accordingly,
21	Defendant is also entitled to judgment, as a matter of law, with respect to Plaintiff's other
22	claims and requested remedies.

24	V. LEGAL ARGUMENT
25	A. Plaintiff Fails to Satisfy the Requisites for his Claim for Consumer Fraud and/or Deceptive Trade Practices.
26	In order to prevail on a claim for Fraud/Deceptive Trade Practices, a plaintiff must the representation to be false; (3) the defendant intended to induce plaintiff to act or refrain 1 2 from acting on the misrepresentation; (4) the plaintiff justifiably relied on the representation 3 of defendant; and (5) the plaintiff suffered damages as a result of his reliance. Barmettler v. 4 Reno Air, Inc., 114 Nev. 441, 956 P.2d 1382, 1386 (Nev. 1998); Blanchard v. Blanchard, 5 108 Nev. 908, 839 P.2d 1320 (1992). Here, Plaintiff fails to actually produce evidence that 6 demonstrates any of these elements. In particular, Plaintiff fails to provide evidence that 7 8 Defendant made any false representation, or that Defendant knew or believed any 9 representations it made were false, or made any such representations without a sufficient 10 basis. Blanchard v. Blanchard, 108 Nev. 908 (1992).

Plaintiff alleges his first claim pursuant to NRS 41.600(2)(e), which provides that a 12 person may commence an action for the violation of "Deceptive Trade Practices", as 13 14 delineated in NRS 598.015 and 598.0923. However, Plaintiff's allegations do not constitute 15 any of the alleged specific "Deceptive Trade Practices" which are clearly defined within the 16 statute, and thus were not false representations. Plaintiff continually references a "stigma" 17 and "misrepresentations and/or omissions" regarding the subject Vehicle. See generally, 18 FAC. However, Plaintiff was fully aware that the Vehicle had been in a prior accident, and 19 that damage had been reported, as such he already was informed of and accepted any 20 21 associated "stigma" that there may be with respect to an accident. See UFs 9-13. The Vehicle was still a CPO pursuant to Defendant's inspection, and Plaintiff continually drove it without any actual problems with the Vehicle. UFs 16-18.

Indeed, Plaintiff testified simply that he wanted all of his money back, despite the fact he had been driving the Vehicle for the past three years. Exhibit 7, 87:13-24. Plaintiff specifically testified that his money could have been going "[T]owards paying off a vehicle that wasn't damaged before (he) bought it." Id. It is clear that Plaintiff forgot he had agreed

1	to purchase, and purchased a vehicle that he knew had been damaged before he bought it at
2	the time of purchase. See Exhibit 13. Plaintiff is grasping to impose a duty upon Defendant
3	regarding additional disclosures, which does not exist and for which he does not provide any
4	actual authority.
5	1. Defendant Did Not Make a False Representation as to the Source,
6 7	Sponsorship, Approval or Certification of Goods for Sale and thus did not engage in a deceptive trade practice per NRS 598.0915(2).
8	Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint contends that Defendant somehow engaged in
9	statutory consumer fraud/deceptive trade practices pursuant to NRS §41.600(e) and NRS
10	598.0915(2) by allegedly making a false representation as to the source, sponsorship,
11 12	approval or certification of goods for sale. See FAC,¶ 12. However, Plaintiff's First
12	Amended Complaint actually does not identify the allegedly false representation made to
14	Plaintiff regarding the source, sponsorship, approval, or certification of any goods for sale
15	by Defendant that constituted a deceptive trade practice under NRS 598.0915(2). See Id. at
16	10-12.
17	As admitted in Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint, the Vehicle underwent the 125-
18	point CPO inspection required for Defendant to certify the Vehicle as CPO. UFs 4-7, see
19 20	also, Plaintiff's FAC at 10-11. The mechanic who inspected the Vehicle testified that by 20
22	signing the 125-point inspection checklist, it was his opinion that the Vehicle qualified as a
23	factory-backed certified pre-owned vehicle (i.e. , "CPO"). Exhibit 5, 56:9-18 . The mechanic
24	who inspected the Vehicle had approximately twenty (20) years of experience and was
25	certified to work in the service department and received online training specifically from
26	Defendant. Id. at 12:11-13:4. Furthermore, expert Thomas Lepper opined that the Vehicle
27	was correctly certified as a Certified Pre-Owned Vehicle. See Exhibit 12. Defendant also

2 Furthermore, Plaintiff was informed of the Vehicle's CPO certification. Exhibit 7, 3 78:13-21. More importantly, Plaintiff also was informed that the Vehicle had been in a 4 previous accident. UFs 10-12. Plaintiff then, with the full knowledge that the Vehicle had 5 been certified CPO while being in a previous accident, made no further inquiries and 6 purchased the Vehicle. UFs 10-13. 7

Accordingly, no issue of material fact remains that Defendant knowingly made any false representation to Plaintiff regarding the Vehicle's source, sponsorship, approval, or 10 certification at the time Plaintiff purchased the Vehicle. As such, Defendant is entitled to a 11 judgment as a matter of law as to Plaintiff's claim that Defendant violated NRS § 12 598.0915(2). 13

2. Defendant Accurately Represented that the Vehicle was of a Particular Standard, Quality or Grade and thus Did Not Engage in a Deceptive Trade Practice per NRS 598.0915(7).

16 Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint contends that Defendant somehow engaged in 17 statutory consumer fraud/deceptive trade practices pursuant to NRS §41.600(2)(e) and NRS 18 598.0915(7) by allegedly knowingly representing falsely that the Vehicle for sale to Plaintiff 19 was of a particular standard, quality or grade, style or model. See First Amended Complaint 20 21 at 13. Again, however, Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint actually does not identify the 22 allegedly false representation knowingly made to Plaintiff by Defendant that constitutes a deceptive trade practice under NRS 598.0915(7). See Id. at 10-12.

Regardless, no evidence exists in this matter that establishes that the standard, quality, or grade of the Vehicle was anything other than CPO at the time Plaintiff purchased the Vehicle from Defendant. Cf. supra. Plaintiff does not allege and no evidence exists that Defendant did not perform the required 125-point inspection of the Vehicle before certifying the Vehicle as a CPO. Plaintiff does not allege and no evidence exists that demonstrates the Vehicle failed its 125-point inspection and Defendant certified the Vehicle as CPO regardless of this failure. See Id.

To the contrary, the only admissible evidence that exists demonstrates that the 5 Vehicle was inspected and accordingly certified as a CPO vehicle at the time Plaintiff 6 purchased it. See infra. Defendant's representative, Josh Grant, testified that he thoroughly 7 8 reviewed all information he received to determine whether the Vehicle was suitable to be 9 considered as a CPO before it was sold to Plaintiff. UF 2. Defendant's representatives 10 testified that the Vehicle underwent the required 125-point CPO inspection as was required 11 by Defendant, in order to certify the Vehicle as CPO. UFs 4-7, see also, FAC at 10-11. 12 Based upon his inspection, mechanic Ray Gongora, signed a CPO inspection checklist, 13 14 certifying the Vehicle as a CPO. Id., Exhibit 5., 38:18-39:2.

It is clear that Defendant could not, and did not knowingly make a false representation about the certification of the Vehicle, or otherwise falsely certified it, prior to it being sold to Plaintiff. Defendant had a sufficient basis for making the representation that the Vehicle was suitable for CPO. See supra. Blanchard. Accordingly, Defendant had a reasonable basis for representing that the Vehicle was a suitable and met CPO standards.

Plaintiff's expert attempts to opine that the Vehicle should not have been a CPO vehicle, however, he never inspected the Vehicle in 2014, at the time Defendant acquired it, did not inspect it in 2015, and did not inspect it until Plaintiff had driven it for two years, in May 2016. See Exhibit 11. Furthermore, Plaintiff's expert has not performed any CPO inspections himself, and did not do a CPO checklist inspection when he inspected the Vehicle in 2016. Exhibit 14, Excerpts from Deposition of Rocco Avellini, 21:20-22:12. The ONLY methodology that Mr. Avellini relies upon in rendering his opinion conclusions, and in making the various comments in his report, is his "observations" and experience. See Exibit 10. He proffers no solid data or evidence to support his conclusions, nor is he certified to opine on CPO certification, and/or what Defendant "knew or should have known" at the time of the CPO inspection. Id. Plaintiff's expert is not qualified to determine whether the Vehicle in 2014 (or at any time) was unsuitable for CPO certification when trained mechanic, Ray Gongora performed his inspection and certified the Vehicle. Id.

Plaintiff even testified that the only maintenance he ever did on the Vehicle was oil changes, until 2016 when he got an alignment on the Vehicle. Exhibit 7, 22:15-17. Plaintiff did not have any issues with his Vehicle, which evidences a lack of any actual problems with the Vehicle. Therefore, again, Defendant clearly did not knowingly make any representations about the standard or quality of the Vehicle that were false at the time of the Vehicle's sale.

15 The only "evidence" which the Plaintiff has to support any of his allegations that the 16 Vehicle was not properly certified as a CPO, and that there was damage from the 2014 17 accident which was not repaired properly, is opinion from his hired expert who inspected 18 the Vehicle two years after he purchased and drove it, and at the request of retained counsel. 19 UF 22, Exhibit 14, 32:8-9. Allegedly, at this expert inspection, Mr. Avellini noted many 20 21 observations" about the Vehicle, including improper repairs and residual damage. See 22 Exhibit 11. However, Mr. Avellini did not utilize any measurement specifications, dealer 23 specifications or tolerances, and/or other standards, and utilized a variety of unverifiable, 24 uncited, and unsubstantiated sources. Id. Mr. Avellini attempted to testify during his 25 deposition that there was a safety issue with a "reconditioned" wheel. Exhibit 14 at 166-167. 26 However, Mr. Avellini did not actually note any safety issues in his actual opinions, and Plaintiff drove the Vehicle for another year after Mr. Avellini's inspection, without incident

1	(save for the collision he was involved in). UFs 24-25; see also Exhibit 11. Clearly, there
2	could be no actual "safety" concerns, if the Plaintiff was then permitted to drive it for a year
3	(and thousands of miles) after his expert's inspection, and with no repairs. And, despite Mr.
4	Avellini's testimony, the First Amended Complaint does not actually allege any specific
5 6	safety issues and/or concerns. See generally, FAC.
7	Defendant had the Vehicle inspected and had a sufficient basis for making the
8	representation that the Vehicle was suitable for CPO. See supra., Blanchard. As such, it is
9	clear that Defendant could not, and did not knowingly make a false representation about the
10	certification of the Vehicle, or otherwise falsely certify its condition, or falsely represent
11
12	that the Vehicle met the Chrysler standards that were checked on the CPO checklist.
13	3. Plaintiff Does Not Allege that Defendant Knowingly makes any other false representation in a transaction, other than those relating to the CPO of the 14 15	Vehicle and therefore there is no deceptive trade practice pursuant to NRS 598.0915(15).
16	NRS 598.0915 is designed as a catchall for any other misrepresentations which were
17	not necessarily encompassed by the other delineated misrepresentations of NRS 598. Here,
18	the allegations within Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint relate directly to the
19	certification/quality of the Vehicle or the nature and extent of the accident, and Plaintiff's
20	expectations. See generally, FAC. As such, any allegations made by Plaintiff are 21
22	encompassed in the other specifically defined "deceptive trade practice" definitions in the
23 24	other sections of NRS 598.0915 as alleged in the First Amended Complaint. Id. Defendant
24 25	made no false representations regarding the overall quality, condition, and certification of
26	the Vehicle. UFs 4-16. Defendant disclosed that the Vehicle had previously been in an
27	accident where damage was reported. UFs 10-12. Plaintiff accepted that the Vehicle had
28	been in an accident, and made no reasonable investigation into any details. UFs 13, 20.

1	Plaintiff then happily drove his Vehicle for multiple years without any incident. UFs 16, 24.
2	Therefore, Plaintiff does not have a claim that Defendant engaged in "deceptive trade
3	practice" pursuant to 598.015(15).
4	4. Defendant Disclosed All Material Facts Which it was Legally Required to
5 6	Disclose, and therefore Did Not Commit a Deceptive Trade Practice Pursuant to NRS 598.0923(2).
7	Plaintiff continually alleges that he should have been informed of the nature and
8	extent of the previous accident. Plaintiff has failed to provide any actual legal citation which
9	would have required Defendant to provide Plaintiff with the Allstate estimate, or otherwise
10	inform him of the contents of the Allstate estimate. See generally, FAC. It is undisputed
11 12	that Defendant informed Plaintiff of the previous accident, and the CarFax reflected that
13	damage was reported, and that the Vehicle was towed. UFs 10-12. Plaintiff acknowledged
14	and accepted that the Vehicle had been in a previous accident prior to the finalization of his
15	purchase. UFs 13, 14, 21.
16	However, it is only the omission of a "material fact" which may constitute a false
17 18	representation. See Nelson v. Heer, 123 Nev. 217, 163 P.3d 420 (2007). Here, the only
19	"material fact" about the Vehicle's history was that there was a previous accident, and that
20	damage was reported. The nature and extent of any accident is not material, in particular,
21	because the Vehicle had been repaired prior to Defendant's acquisition of it, and then was
22	put through a comprehensive multi-point inspection. UFs 4-7. Mechanic Ray Gongora
23	specifically testified that in performing a CPO inspection pursuant to the CPO checklist, he
24	only had to notate or report damage that was improperly or shabbily performed, not any
25	conditions which had been repaired to CPO standards. Exhibit 5, 38:18-39:2 . As such, it is 26 27
27	purely speculative that Plaintiff would not have purchased the Vehicle if he had obtained any other additional information about specific parts that had been replaced/repaired on the Vehicle, or the amount of money which was spent on repairs or replacements. Again, Plaintiff purchased the car knowing it had sustained damage from a previous accident. UFs 10-13.

Plaintiff testified that he is "not really a mechanic or a car guy." Exhibit 7, 13:16. As 5 such, it is unlikely he would have knowledge of the individual replacement and/or repair 6 parts. And, again, the Vehicle was a CPO vehicle, therefore it is actually more likely that 7 8 Plaintiff would have still purchased the Vehicle, because he did, in fact, purchase it knowing 9 there was previous damage. UFs 8-13. Indeed, even Plaintiff's "expert" testified, that 10 hearing a car had sustained damage that required repairs in the amount of $4,088.77 would 11 not signify anything to him. Avellini Depo., 142:12-17. The Vehicle was repaired by another 12 shop through Allstate, and then the Vehicle passed a comprehensive inspection and was 13 14 properly and reasonably designated as a CPO vehicle, despite the previous accident. UFs 4-15 7. As such, not disclosing irrelevant details about an accident from which the Vehicle had 16 been repaired, prior to Defendant's acquisition of it, does not constitute a "deceptive trade 17 practice", a misrepresentation or a deceitful omission. Therefore, Defendant did not violate 18 NRS 598.023(2). 19

5. Defendant Did Not Misrepresent the Mechanical Condition of the Vehicle, and Did Not Violate any other State or Federal law, including 16 C.F.R. §455.1(a)(1).

Plaintiff has provided no admissible evidence that Defendant made any misrepresentations about the mechanical condition of the Vehicle at the time of sale. It is undisputed that Defendant conducted a 125-point CPO inspection on the subject Vehicle prior to Plaintiff purchasing it. UF 4. Additionally, it is an undisputed fact that Defendant sold Plaintiff a CPO vehicle, that came with a manufacturer's warranty, and specifically a "Mechanical Repair Service Contract for Manufacturer's Certified Vehicles." See UF 15, see also Exhibit 15, NVAUTO000077-78. It is also undisputed that Plaintiff did not make a single claim under this warranty (or any other one). UFs 17-18. Plaintiff drove his Vehicle for three years, and as of August 2017, he had not made any repairs, mechanical or otherwise, until he made repairs for his own collision. UFs 17-18. As such, there is no actual evidence that the Vehicle's mechanical condition was anything different from what Defendant represented; a CPO vehicle that is in a mechanical condition that meets applicable CPO standards.

9 Indeed, despite Plaintiff's "expert's" opinion that there are mechanical issues with 10 the Vehicle, the "expert" did not inspect the Vehicle until approximately two years after 11 Plaintiff purchased and drove it. UF 22, Exibit 10. Plaintiff did not make any repairs, and 12 kept driving the Vehicle continuously, even after filing this lawsuit, again until his own 13 collision. UFs 22-25. Plaintiff has not alleged or identified any actual mechanical problem 14 15 in the Vehicle. See generally, FAC. This is particularly notable because Plaintiff filed his 16 First Amended Complaint, after his expert's inspection, and he still failed to identify 17 anything that was actually mechanically uncertifiable. Defendant represented that the 18 Vehicle was in good mechanical condition, the Vehicle operated in a manner for the past 19 three-years that evidences that representation, and Plaintiff has provided no admissible 20 21 evidence to contradict those facts.

Additionally, Plaintiff has provided no other specific statutory or other legal duty mandating the disclosure of any details about repairs and/or replacements made to the Vehicle. See generally, FAC. Accordingly, there are no material facts in dispute regarding Defendant engaging in a "deceptive trade practice" as defined in NRS 598.023(3), and summary judgment, as a matter of law is appropriate as to Plaintiff's claims.

Defendant Did Not Make a Misrepresentation, and Plaintiff's Reliance Could Not Be Justified.

Although Defendant did not make any misrepresentations and/or unlawful 4 5 omissions, Plaintiff's reliance could not be justified. In order to establish justifiable reliance 6 on a purported misrepresentation, a plaintiff must show that: "[T]he false representation 7 must have played a material and substantial part in leading the plaintiff to adopt his 8 particular course..." Nevada Power Co. v. Monsanto Co., 891 F. Supp. 1406 (D. Nev. 9 1995). Here, Plaintiff testified that he was going to Defendant's dealership to look at 10 11 trucks. Exhibit 7, 10:24-11:1. In fact, Plaintiff had already been prequalified to purchase a 12 vehicle. Id. at 16:8-14. Plaintiff selected and test drove the Vehicle, and while on the test 13 drive was informed that the Vehicle was in an accident. Exhibit 7, 12:12-18, 15:16-18. 14 Then, Plaintiff was informed that the Vehicle was involved in an accident, and damage was 15 reported on the CarFax, prior to Defendant's acquisition of the Vehicle. UF 1-4, 10-12. 16 17 Despite being informed of the previous accident, Plaintiff undertook no independent 18 investigation of the accident and/or damage that was reported. UF 13. Plaintiff alleges that 19 since Defendant had the Allstate estimate, it had some vague duty to disclose that 20 information. See generally, FAC. However, it is undisputed that Plaintiff was informed that the accident occurred, and it is undisputed that Plaintiff accepted that fact. UFs 8-16.

Most importantly, Plaintiff purchased the Vehicle, and subsequently happily drove it for the following two years prior to filing his original complaint. UF 16. Fraudulent misrepresentation requires actual proof that a plaintiff was supplied false information. See Guilfoyle v. Olde Monmouth Stock Transfer, 335 P.3d 190 (Nev. 2014.) Again, here, Plaintiff has supplied no evidence that any "false representation" occurred. There is no evidence that any of Defendant's representations regarding the Vehicle's status and 1 2 certification as a CPO at the time of the sale were false or fraudulent. And, regardless, 3 Plaintiff should have undertaken a reasonable investigation of the accident, as opposed to 4 not asking any questions regarding damage, the nature, and/or the extent of the previous 5 accident (which occurred prior to Defendant's acquisition of the Vehicle and was repaired 6 through Allstate). Therefore, Plaintiff's reliance could not have been justified. 7

21

22

24

25

26

7. Plaintiff has Not Suffered Damages, and Cannot Recover Damages.

Regardless of any of these allegations, it is unclear precisely how Plaintiff has not 10 been damaged. Plaintiff testified that he merely wanted a "return of his money" and for 11 Defendant to take back his truck. Exhibit 7, 87:9-12. Plaintiff's Sixth Supplement also only 12 details (aside from attorneys' fees and punitive damages) damages in the amount of 13 14 payments that Plaintiff made on the truck, while he was driving it, for three years. See 15 Exhibit 16, Plaintiff's Sixth Supplement. Plaintiff received the Vehicle, and Plaintiff has 16 used the Vehicle over the course of the past three years, and in that bargained for exchange, 17 Plaintiff accordingly made payments. UFs 8, 14. As such, Plaintiff has not suffered even 18 nominal damages on which to recover, and enjoyed the full use of the Vehicle. 19

Additionally, even if Plaintiff had sustained actual damages, he is barred from 20 recovery. A party is under the duty to make a reasonable investigation of any "alleged misrepresentation" if that party has received information that would serve as a "danger 23 signal" and "red light" to a normal comparable person. Blanchard v. Blanchard, 108 Nev. 908, 839 P.2d 1320 (1992.) Plaintiff directly received information via the CarFax that the Vehicle had been in an accident, that damage had been reported, and that the Vehicle had been towed. UFs 10-12. Despite this information, Plaintiff did not ask whether Defendant had any documents relating to the accident, did not speak to any mechanic, and did not otherwise make any reasonable investigation. UF 13. The only thing Plaintiff did was allegedly ask a question about the accident, which the salesperson mentioned during the test drive of the Vehicle. Exhibit 7, 15:17-16:1. Plaintiff did not even inquire again at the time of acquiring the CarFax which specifically states that the Vehicle was towed. Id.

Plaintiff works in a mechanical profession, air conditioning, and owns his own 6 company which includes a company van, in addition to having purchased multiple vehicles 7 8 previously. Exhibit 7, 7:25-8:6, 13:25-14:19. A person of comparable intelligence and experience, would view the fact that the Vehicle has been in a reported accident with 10 damage, as a signal to do some investigation. As such, Plaintiff is barred from recovery as 11 he did not make any reasonable investigation into the facts which would signal a possible 12 "danger" and "red light" to a comparable person. Plaintiff has no admissible evidence that 13 14 Defendant engaged in any statutory "deceptive trade practices" or fraud. Additionally, 15 Plaintiff has failed to meet the requisites to establish his claim of consumer fraud, and 16 therefore, based on the undisputed facts, Defendant is entitled to summary judgment, as a 17 matter of law.

Plaintiff's Cause of Action for Rescission Fails as a Matter of Law, Because He В. Fails to Meet the Elements of that Claim.

Plaintiff claims that due to the alleged deceptive trade practices he is entitled to rescission. Plaintiff is not entitled to Rescission because Defendant did not engage in any "deceptive trade practices" therefore, he is not permitted a return of all of his payments. "Rescission is an equitable remedy which totally abrogates a contract and which seeks to place the parties in the position they occupied prior to executing the contract." Scaffidi v. United Nissan, 425 F. Supp. 2d 1172, 1183 (2005) citing Bergstrom v. Estate of DeVoe, 109 Nev. 575, 854 P.2d 860, 861 (Nev. 1993). Where a contract between two parties has been partially performed, and one party does not fully perform, the other has a choice of 1 2 remedies. Id. Here, Plaintiff's claim fails because Plaintiff and Defendant cannot be put in 3 the same position they occupied prior to executing the contract, because Plaintiff got into a 4 collision accident, which caused over $5,000.00 in damage to the Vehicle. UF 22. 5 Additionally, Plaintiff is barred from seeking both damages and restitution. "The law 6 is clear that damages and restitution are alternative remedies and an election to pursue one is 7 8 a bar to invoking the other in a suit for breach of contract. Mullinix v. Morse, 81 Nev. 451, 9 454, 406 P.2d 298, 300 (1965). Plaintiff must, "rescind or affirm the contract, but he cannot 10 do both. If he would rescind it, he must immediately return whatever of value he has 11 received under it, and then he may defend against an action for specific performance . . . and 12 he may recover back whatever he has paid..." Scaffidi v. United Nissan, 425 F. Supp. 2d 13 1172, 1183 (2005)(internal citation omitted)(emphasis added). Again, here, despite any 14 15 "notice" of rescission per the Complaint, Plaintiff continued to utilize the Vehicle and in 16 fact, put another 5,500 miles on the Vehicle, and got into a collision. UFs23-25. Plaintiff is 17 not entitled to Rescission, because the parties can never be put back into their original 18 position. See generally, Id. In Scaffidi, the Court found that summary judgment was 19 appropriate for that defendant dealership because the plaintiff did not provide evidence that 20 21 the defendant failed to perform, and the vehicle at issue in that case was totaled. Id.

Here, summary judgment is similarly appropriate, because Plaintiff has not produced any admissible evidence that Defendant actually engaged in any "deceptive trade practice" and the Vehicle has had an additional accident, repair work, and three additional years of use. In fact, Plaintiff is still utilizing the Vehicle. As such, Plaintiff has failed to meet the requisites for a claim for rescission, and there are no material facts in dispute regarding this claim, summary judgment for Defendant is appropriate, as a matter of law.

2	D. Plaintiff Fails to Satisfy the Requisites of Equitable Estoppel, therefore his
3	Claim Fails as a Matter of Law.
4	The doctrine of "equitable estoppel operates to prevent a party from asserting legal
5	rights that, in equity and good conscience, they should not be allowed to assert because of
6	their conduct." Nevada State Bank v. Jamison Partnership, 106 Nev. 792, 799, 801 P.2d
7 8	1377, 1382 (1990). The elements of estoppel are as follows:
9 10	(1) the party to be estopped must be apprised of the true facts; (2) he must intend that his conduct shall be acted upon or must so act that the party asserting estoppel has the right to believe it was so intended; (3) the party asserting estoppel must be ignorant of the true state of facts; (4)
11 12	he must have relied to his detriment on the conduct of the party to be estopped.
13	NGA #2 Ltd. Liab. Co. v. Rains, 113 Nev. 1151, 1160 (1997)(internal citation
14	omitted). Here, as detailed above, Plaintiff has failed to provide evidence that Defendant
15	conducted itself in a way that precludes it from asserting its legal rights and defenses. See
16 17	generally FAC. Plaintiff testified to only speaking with two individuals at Defendant's
17	dealership, Noah Grant and Travis Spruell. Exhibit 7, 21:9-11. Plaintiff was informed that
19	the Vehicle was in a previous accident and made no investigation into the nature and extent
20	of the accident at the time of purchase. Exhibit 7, 19:2-21. Both Noah Grant and Travis
21	Spruell testified to having no knowledge of the Allstate estimate and/or its contents prior to
22	this litigation. Exhibit 17, Excerpt of Noah Grant Deposition., 38:5-8; Exhibit 10, 63:25-
23 24	64:5. The Vehicle was thoroughly inspected and then certified as a CPO vehicle. UFs 4-7.
24	As such, the fact that Defendant specifically informed Plaintiff that he was
26	purchasing a CPO vehicle that had been in a previous accident, and the fact that it was
27	actually a CPO who had been thoroughly inspected are the true facts that were presented to
28	Plaintiff. Plaintiff has produced no evidence that he relied on Defendant's representations to

1	his "detriment." To reiterate, Plaintiff had no repairs performed on his car (until his own
2	collision). UFs 17-18. Plaintiff drove his car without any incident which could be
3	attributable to any of Defendant's conduct. Accordingly, summary judgment is appropriate
4	with respect to this claim.
5 6	E. Defendant is Entitled to Summary Judgment on Plaintiff's Claim for
7	Restitution/Unjust Enrichment Because He Fails to Meet the Requisites for his Claim.
8	Plaintiff fails to meet the basic requisites for a claim for unjust enrichment and his
9	claim fails, as a matter of law, with respect to Defendant. In Nevada, "[U]njust enrichment
10	occurs whenever a person has and retains a benefit which in equity and good conscience
11 12	belongs to another." In re Amaro Derivative Litig., 252 P.3d 681 (Nev. 2011)(internal
12	citation omitted). Here, Plaintiff paid monthly payments on the Vehicle, which he used
14	and/or had the ability to use, from the time of his purchase through the time of filing his
15	Complaint, and past that date. See generally, FAC, Exhibit 7, 20:24-21:3. In fact, Plaintiff
16	neither ceased using the Vehicle (aside from the collision he was in), nor sold it or
17	attempted to sell it. Id., Exhibit 7, 83:8-21. Plaintiff's claim for unjust enrichment fails, on
18	its face, because he has a full and adequate remedy at law. Plaintiff had a purchase
19
20 21	agreement for the Vehicle with Defendant, and Plaintiff obtained and utilized the Vehicle
22	for two (2) years prior to filing his Complaint and continued to use the Vehicle after he filed
23	his Complaint. See UFs 22-24. In fact, Plaintiff utilized the Vehicle until he got into a
24	collision accident in May 2017. Exhibit 7, 89:4-10. As such, Defendant has not been
25	unjustly enriched, as it has only been paid for Plaintiff's usage and ownership for the car to-
26	date, and therefore cannot be inequitably retaining any "benefit" that belongs to Plaintiff.

Additionally, Nevada maintains the long-standing general rule that a plaintiff may not recover equitable remedies where a plaintiff has a full and adequate remedy at law. See

1	State v. Second Judicial Dist. Court in & for Washoe County, 49 Nev. 145, 159, 241 P. 317,
2	322 (1925). Since Plaintiff has an express agreement with Defendant regarding the
3	purchase of the Vehicle, his claims in equity fail, as a matter of law. UF 8. Therefore, entry
4	of summary judgment is appropriate for Defendant.
5 6	F. Plaintiff's Claim for Declaratory Judgment is Duplicative, Thus Summary
7	Judgment is Appropriate.
8	Plaintiff alleges that he entered into the RISC contract with Defendant and Wells
9	Fargo, and further alleges that he is entitled to Rescission and/or Restitution because the
10	RISC is void ab initio or voidable. Defendant maintains that the RISC is valid and binding
11	contract, and that Plaintiff accepted and utilized the full value for which he agreed,
12	including up until this date. The elements of an equitable claim for declaratory relief are:
13	1. A justifiable controversy exists between two or more parties;
14 15	 Regarding their respective rights pursuant to a contract; Such that the plaintiff asserts a claim of a legally protected right;
16	 The issue is ripe for judicial determination; and Plaintiff asks the court to determine the parties' relative rights under the contract.
17	See Nev. R. Civ. P. 57; NRS Chapter 30; Kress v. Corey, 65 Nev. 1, 189 P.2d 352 (1948).
18	Here, the "justifiable controversy" stems from Plaintiff's First Cause of Action for
19	Fraud/Deceptive Trade Practices, the contract itself, and the Parties' respective positions is
20	not what is actually at issue. Plaintiff's claim for Declaratory Judgment therefore completely
21 22	encompasses claims and defenses of both, Plaintiff and Defendant, which would be
23	resolvable ultimately at the time of trial (or pursuant to summary judgment). See FAC.
24	Here, Plaintiff has already alleged a claim for Rescission and therefore the declaratory
25	judgment claim is redundant and rendered moot by adjudication of the main action. See
26	FAC. The main purpose for the Declaratory Relief cause of action is solely related to the 27
28	other claims, upon which any voiding of the RISC is dependent. As such, a determination on
EET

1	the RISC is inappropriate and summary judgment is properly entered in favor of Defendant.
3	G. Plaintiff's Claim for Recovery Under the Auto Dealership Bond, does Not Satisfy the Requisites of that Claim, and therefore Fails as a Matter of Law.
4 5	Plaintiff asserts a claim under NRS 482.345(7), which provides in pertinent part:
6	If a consumer has a claim for relief against a dealer, distributor, rebuilder, manufacturer, representative or salesperson, the consumer
7 8	may: (a) Bring and maintain an action in any court of competent jurisdiction. If the court enters:
9 10	(1) A judgment on the merits against the dealer, distributor, rebuilder, manufacturer, representative or salesperson, the judgment is binding on the surety.
11
12	Here, this claim should be summarily dismissed, because the Court has not entered a
13	judgment on the merits against any "dealer, distributor, rebuilder, manufacturer,
14	representative or salesperson." Plaintiff has not obtained a judgment on the merits or a
15	judgment in any other capacity with respect to Defendant, and therefore, Corepointe should
16 17	be entitled to summary dismissal on this claim, as it is entirely premature, and subject only
18	to the entry of a judgment.
19	H. Plaintiff is Not Entitled to Punitive Damages.
20	Plaintiff cannot prevail on his punitive damages claim under Nevada law and it must,
21	therefore, be summarily dismissed. In Nevada, "a plaintiff is never entitled to punitive
22	damages as a matter of right." Dillard Dep't Stores, Inc. v. Beckwith, 115 Nev. 372, 380,
23	989 P.2d 882, 887 (1999). To prevail on a claim for punitive damages, a plaintiff must
24
25	prove "by clear and convincing evidence" the defendant "has been guilty of oppression,
26	fraud or malice, express or implied." Nev. Rev. Stat. 42.005(1). Typically, a Nevada
27	corporation cannot be held liable for punitive damages. N.R.S. 42.007 specifies the
28	exceptional circumstances when a company can be held liable for punitive damages, and

2	the employer is not liable for the exemplary or punitive damages unless:
3	(a) The employer had advance knowledge that the employee was unfit
4	for the purposes of the employment and employed the employee with a conscious disregard of the rights or safety of others;
5	(b) The employer expressly authorized or ratified the wrongful act of
6	the employee for which the damages are awarded; or (c) The employer is personally guilty of oppression, fraud or malice,
7	express or implied.
8	If the employer is a corporation, the employer is not liable for exemplary or
9	punitive damages unless the elements of paragraph (a), (b) or (c) are met by an officer, director or managing agent of the corporation who was expressly
10	authorized to direct or ratify the employee's conduct on behalf of the corporation.
11	See also Countrywide Homes Loans, Inc. v. Thitchener, 124 Nev. 725, 747, 192 P.3d 243, 12
13	257-258. NRS 42.001 defines the terms utilized in NRS 42.007(c) as follows:
14	1. "Conscious disregard" means the knowledge of the probable harmful consequences of a wrongful act and a willful and deliberate failure to act
15	to avoid those consequences. 2. "Fraud" means an intentional misrepresentation, deception or concealment
16	of a material fact known to the person with the intent to deprive
17	another person of his or her rights or property or to otherwise injure another person.
18	3. "Malice, express or implied" means conduct which is intended to
19	injure a person or despicable conduct which is engaged in with a conscious disregard of the rights or safety of others.
20	4. "Oppression" means despicable conduct that subjects a person to cruel and unjust hardship with conscious disregard of the rights of the 21	person.
22	The Supreme Court of Nevada has clarified recklessness or even gross negligence is
23	insufficient to impose punitive damages, and there must be more than a "theoretical" risk of
24	harm to a particular person. See Thitchener, 192 P.3d at 255. Plaintiff has plainly failed to
26	plead allegations to impose punitive damages on Defendant as a company. See generally,
27	FAC. Plaintiff has not provided evidence of any of the categories delineated in 42.007(a)-
28	(c). There was no unfitness by any employee alleged. Plaintiff does not allege that the employer "expressly authorized or ratified" any legally wrongful act. Again, PlaintiOff does 1 2 not provide any actual admissible evidence that Defendant engaged in any "deceptive trade 3 practices." And, his testimony that he would not had purchased the Vehicle if he had been 4 provided more information, is merely speculation and conjecture, which is insufficient to 5 defeat summary judgment. See Wood, 121 Nev. at 732. Any testimony by his expert is 6 equally conjecture, as he provided no actual measurements or proof regarding any frame 7 8 damage nor is he otherwise qualified to opine on whether the Vehicle should have qualified 9 as a CPO vehicle. See generally, Exhibit 11. There is no evidence that Defendant itself is 10 guilty of conduct meriting punitive damages, as by all accounts, Defendant abided by CPO 11 standards of submitting the Vehicle for inspection to its qualified mechanic, and then 12 certifying the Vehicle which was reasonably based on that inspection. UFs 4-7. Plaintiff 13 14 failed to sufficiently plead facts that suggest the Defendant's actions rose to the level 15 necessary to prevail on a claim for punitive damages. See FAC. At most, all of the 16 allegations, if taken as true, would amount to reckless or grossly negligent behavior, which 17 still fails to rise to the level of egregiousness necessary to impose punitive damages. Id. 18 Plaintiff has failed to make the requisite showing for punitive damages, and any such any 19 claim should be summarily dismissed. 20

VI. CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff has failed to meet the requisites for any of his causes of action, therefore they each fail. The undisputed facts, clearly merit summary judgment in favor of Defendant, as a matter of law, and as such, Defendant respectfully

11	Q. Was that also Nevada?	11	the only one that I really saw that wasn't talking to 12	A. Yes.	12	somebody, so I walked up to him and asked him about
13	Q. And how long were you with them?	13	the new vehicles.
14	A. Just shy of two years. I started in 2012 in	14	Q. Do you recall who that was?

20	Q. Do you currently reside here?	20	Q. What was your response then?
21	A. Yes, I do.	21	A. At that point I hadn't. But he had
22	Q. Do you rent or own a home?	22	mentioned that they had some really good used vehicles
23	A. I rent at this time.	23	for good prices.
24	Q. Do you currently own a vehicle?	24	Q. What was your understanding of used vehicles
25	<ol> <li>Just the one that I'm financing.</li> </ol>	25	at the time?

10

1 Q. Is that vehicle the one that is the subject 2 of this litigation? 3 A. Yes, it is. 4 My company owns a vehicle, but it's not 5 mine, 6 Q. Okay. There's another separate company 7 truck for Bulldog? 8 A. Yes, there is. Q. What is that? 9 10 A. It's a 2008 E250 Ford van. 11 Q. Going forward when I'm talking about vehicle or your vehicle, I'm going to be referring to the 2013 12 13 Dodge Ram that is the subject of this litigation. 14 Does that make sense? A. Yes, ma'am. 15 Q. When did you first purchase the vehicle? 16 17 A. I want to say it was in May of 2014. 18 Q. How did you go about locating this vehicle 19 in particular? A. I believe I was off of work because it was 20 21 Memorial Day, and I saw the commercial on TV for 22 Sahara Dodge. So I decided to drive down there and 23 take a look at new trucks. 24 Q. At that point in time, were you in the 25 market to buy a brand-new truck?

12

1 2	<ul> <li>You know, you are kind of buying somebody else's problems sometimes. But with the CPO vehicles,</li> </ul>
3	I understand they are, like, brand new.
4	Q. So after you expressed an openness to look
5	at used trucks were you always in the market to buy
6	just a truck?
7	A. Yes.
B	Q. So after you expressed your interest in
9	possibly buying a used vehicle, then what happened?
10	A. He walked me over to the newer trucks or
11	the used trucks and showed me some of them.
12	Q. Okay. And then the vehicle you ended up
13	with, did you locate that one yourself in particular?
14	A. I don't recall the exact event. But it was
15	on the line. There wasn't a lot of them right there.
16	I think there was maybe ten in total. So we walked by
17	a few of them and looked at them. When I looked at
18	that one, I realized that I wanted to test drive it.
19	Q. So you test drove the car at that point in 20	time?
21	A. Yes, I did.
22	Q. Sorry. Truck. If I say car, talking about
23	the truck.
24	A. I understand.
25	Q. So you test drove it at that point in time?

15	just visually looking at the interior. Like I said,	15	A. Not that I knew of, no.
16	I'm not really a mechanic or a car guy. So I don't	16	Q. Then after the test drive was over?

19	Q. What kind of vehicle did you have when you	19	Q. Okay. Anything else about that conversation

23	Q. Is the Durango also a truck?	23	was nothing to worry about.
24	A. It's an SUV.	24	Q. That was the only discussion that you had

GAREAX Glossary

Accident / Damage Indicator

CARFAX receives information about accidents in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and Canada. Different information in a vehicle's history can indicate an accident or demage, such as: salvage auction, fire damage, police-reported accident, crash test vehicle, damage disclosure, collision repair facility and eutomotive recycler records. Not every accident or damage event is reported and not all reported are provided to CARFAX. Details about the accident or damage event when reported to CARFAX (e.g. severity, impact location, airbag deployment) are included on the Vehicle History Report. CARFAX recommends you obtain a vehicle inspection from your dealer or an independent mechanic.

- According to the National Safety Council, Injury Facts, 2007 edition, 7% of the 245 million registered vehicles in the U.S. were involved in an accident in 2005. Over 75% of these were considered minor or moderate.
- CARFAX depends on many sources for its accident / damage data. CARFAX can only report what is in our database on 5/10/14 at 1:09:22 PM (EDT). New data will result in a change to this report.

CARFAX Price Adjustment™

Accidents, service records, number of owners and many other history factors can affect a vehicle's value. The CARFAX Price Adjustment is a tool that analyzes millions of used car transactions to measure how the combination of all the information reported to CARFAX affects the value of a particular vehicle. The vehicle's retail book value plus the CARFAX Price Adjustment will give you a more accurate measure of the vehicle's value. Use this tool, along with a vehicle inspection and test drive, to make a better decision about your next used car.

First Owner

When the first owner(s) obtains a title from a Department of Motor Vehicles as proof of ownership.

Ownership History

CARFAX defines an owner as an individual or business that possesses and uses a vehicle. Not all title transactions represent changes in ownership. To provide estimated number of owners, CARFAX proprietary technology analyzes all the events in a vehicle history. Estimated ownership is available for vehicles manufactured after 1994 and titled solely in the US including Puerto Rico. Dealers sometimes opt to take ownership of a vehicle and are required to in the following states: Maine, Massachuseits, New Jersey, Chio, Oklahoma, Pannsylvenia and South Dakota. Pease consider this as you review a vehicle's estimated ownership history.

Title Issued

A state issues a title to provide a vehicle ow ner with proof of ow nership. Each title has a unique number. Each title or registration record on a CARFAX report does not necessarily indicate a change in ow nership. In Canada, a registration and bill of sale are used as proof of ow nership.

1 your best and most accurate testimony here today. 2 As you sit here today, is there any 3 reason why you can't give your best and most 4 accurate testimony here today? 5 Α. Not at all. No issues of medications or lack of 6 Ο. 7 sleep or any other issues that might prevent you from giving your best testimony here today? 8 9 Α. No, sir. 10 So far, you are doing very good in Ο. 11 audiblizing your answers. It is human nature for 12 us to communicate with nonverbal signs. And 13 while I might be able to interpret a nod of the 14 head in the affirmative in the up and down, the 15 reporter needs to hear everything that is heard. 16 Α. Okay. 17 It is perfectly acceptable for us when Ο. 18 we are speaking face to face, we can interpret 19 nonverbal body language. We also have a tendency 20 as human beings that when we are talking face to 21 face, we sometimes fall into the habit of saying 22 yeah or uh-huh or those types of things. 23 Nonverbal communications and yeah or uh-huh and 24 those type of responses don't translate well on 25 the record. So if I do hear you say yeah or

1	answer, et cetera, et cetera. You will have an
2	opportunity to review your transcript if you
3	would like to do so and sign under penalty of
4	perjury.
5	However, I must caution you that if you
6	reserve your right to review your testimony and
7	make changes to it, you are giving testimony here
8	today. So when you review your deposition
9	testimony, if you choose to make what we call a
10	material change to your answer, that could be
11	damaging or not reflect well on your credibility
12	or believability at trial. The theory is that if
13	you say one thing today and you make a totally
14	different answer later on, you are less
15	believable. And we are talking about material
16	changes such as changing a no answer to a yes,
17	changing your answers or modifying them to the
18	extent that it changes the entire nature of your
19	response. I am not talking about typos or
20	something like that. So just be aware. And 21	that's the reason why it is best for you to give
22	your best and most accurate testimony here today.
23	You are not nailed to that chair. If
24	you need a break to go to the restroom, cup of
25	coffee, drink of water, just to take a break, I

1	Q. What did that entail?
2	A. What comes with the certified
3	warranties and, you know, what a certified CPOV
4	is.
5	Q. What based on your vast experience does
6	a certified pre-owned vehicle mean?
7	A. Just that it has got it comes with
8	extras, put it that way. Like a 125-point
9	inspection, it has got better warranties with it,
10	5 years sorry, 7 years/100,000 mile powertrain
11	warranty, 3 year/36 this is wonderful. I
12	can't get that out. Either way. You get the
13	additional, what is it, 3 months/3,000 miles.
14	Q. I'm sorry. 3 months
15	A 3,000 miles along with those, you
16	know, car rental allowances.
17	Q. And are you instructed and trained to
18	point these other additional advantages out to
19	consumers within the community who might be
20	considering buying a certified pre-owned vehicle?
21	A. Yes.
22	Q. Yes?
23	A. Yes.
24	Q. Given your four years at Sahara
25	Chrysler and having been involved in the auto

1	Q. The reason you would do that is because
2	it might affect the vehicle's safety, correct?
3	A. Yes.
4	Q. It might affect the vehicle's value,
5	correct?
6	A. Yes.
7	Q. That is one of the reasons why you
8	specifically point out to the consumer on a
9	CarFax, if you have it, that the vehicle has been
10	in an accident, to inform them of that, correct?
11	A. Yes.
12	Q. Now, based upon this particular CarFax,
13	Exhibit 2, it would appear that the vehicle was
14	in an accident on March 26, 2014, correct?
15	A. Yes.
16	Q. And because you don't have any
17	recollection as to what you said to Mr. Poole on
18	that day specifically other than pointing out the
19	accident, would pointing out the accident be
20	something that you as a salesperson in the CPO
21	process would take very seriously and be an
22	important thing to make sure the consumer knows
23	about it?
24	A. Yes.
25	Q. If you look at Exhibit 1, which is the

1	Allstate damage collision estimate
2	A. Uh-huh.
3	Q have you ever seen that document
4	before today?
5	A. No.
6	Q. Did you have any knowledge, information
7	at the time when you disclosed the accident to
8	Mr. Poole on Exhibit 2 on the CarFax that the
9	vehicle had previously that the accident the
10	vehicle had been in had caused $4,088.70 in
11	damage?
12	A. No.
13	Q. Had you known that, would you have told
14	him?
15	MS. SMITH: Objection. Calls for
16	speculation.
17	THE WITNESS: Sure. Why not?
18	BY MR. WEST:
19	Q. Why would you have told him that?
20	MS. SMITH: Objection. Calls for
21	speculation.
22	THE WITNESS: Well, give you all of the
23	information and make you make up your own mind.
24	If he didn't want to buy it, I could understand
25	why. That would be fine. But, I mean
