One defendant was voluntarily dismissed, five were granted summary judgment as to all claims in December 2017, and three were granted summary judgment in August 2018. The two grants of summary judgment have been appealed in separate appeals (Case Nos. 75053 and 76981). A timely Memorandum of costs was filed by Reading, and opposed in a Motion to Retax filed by the Respondent, who claimed that Reading could not be awarded fees because it was not a true party, and had not had judgment in its favor. The District Court granted an award of fees, which order has been appealed in a separate appeal (Case No. pending). Reading had

1 moved to amend the judgment to include Reading, but the District Court denied that Motion.
2 Reading also filed a timely motion for attorneys' fees was filed by Reading, joined by the

Cotter, Jr.; Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter; Ann Margaret Cotter, present in the gallery. MOTION TO ASSOCIATE COUNSEL (CAFORIO) set in P082942: There being no objection, COURT ORDERED, motion to associate ADVANCED from August 25, 2015 and GRANTED. MOTION TO INTERVENE ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Motion GRANTED. PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO EXPEDITE DISCOVERY AND SET A HEARING ON MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Argument in support thereof by Mr. Krum. Response by Mr. Ferrario, as to Mr. Cotter's termination, and request to stay this matter so claims can be addressed in ongoing arbitration proceedings in California. Mr. Searcy noted, the motion to intervene does not change anything because it is intervention in the same complaint, and the primary issue here involves the employment agreement. Mr. Krum provided the Court with a copy of the employment agreement and argued there is no basis for a stay. Court inquired as to whether anyone had an objection to advancing Reading International, INC's Motion to Compel Arbitration, set on August 25th in P082942, to next week. Mr. Krum stated he did, as the motion is untimely and he will need until sometime next week to file a response. Court so noted. COURT ORDERED, request for expedited discovery GRANTED, only as to those issues where a shareholder would have fiduciary duty claims. Upon counsel's inquiry, Court clarified, motion granted only on breach of fiduciary duty claims to shareholders; counsel cannot pursue whether or not it was appropriate for Mr. Cotter to be terminated; however, there is an overlap, which Mr. Robertson may have more of because it is cleaner for him. Court DIRECTED Mr. Krum to provide a more narrow scope of discovery. Mr. Krum stated he can do so, if not tomorrow, then by Thursday. Court so noted; Mr. Krum to SUBMIT on Thursday, August 13; Mr. Robertson, if he has anything to add, will do so at the same time by noon; any issues will be addressed by conference call on Friday, August 14, at 1:00 PM. Mr. Ferrario will circulate the call-in information. Mr. Ferrario advised he will be in trial in Louisiana and requested to continue the motion to compel arbitration. There being no objection, COURT ORDERED, Reading International, INC's Motion to Compel Arbitration currently set on August 25, 2015 in P082942 RESET to

Cotter, Jr.; Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter Argument by Mr. Ferrario that Mr. Crum's appears to be requesting the Court to get involved in retooling corporate processes and procedures; requests are overbroad; and he does not see any need for the expedited discovery request. Mr. Krum stated that Mr. Ferrario is re-arguing the motion he lost last week; that the requests are appropriate. Court noted Mr. Krum's requests were numbered 1-17 and Mr. Robertson's requests were numbered 1-33. Mr. Ferrario argued that there is nothing emergent with Mr. Robertson's requests, having nothing to do with the injunction but deal with matters that occurred three and four years ago. Argument by Mr. Robertson that they requested records going back three year three year history for many decisions made regarding compensation for the directors which is highly relevant to the issue of whether these directors were interested or disinterested regarding the termination of Mr. Cotter Jr. Court noting derivative issues would be handled in the normal course, inquired of Mr. Crum and Mr. Robertson as to which requests are more emergent issues which would be subject to injunctive relief. Following representations by counsel, COURT ORDERED, the following requests are permitted on an expedited discovery schedule within 30 days: as to Mr. Krum's requested Item Nos. 6, 11, 13, 14, 16 and 17 and as to Mr. Robertson's requested Item Nos. 26-30 and 33. Court encouraged counsel to serve the identified items on the appropriate people in order to respond within thirty days in anticipation of having a hearing set for some time in October, 2015. Mr. Ferrario advised that an appropriate Confidentiality Order will be circulated. MOTIONS TO ASSOCIATE COUNSEL (RHOW AND MOORE) set in P082942: There being no objection, COURT ORDERED, Motions ADVANCED from September 8, 2015, and GRANTED.;

MANDATORY RULE 16 CONFERENCE...PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION Appearances continued: Attorney Alexander Robertson for the Intervenor Plaintiffs; Attorney Alan Freer and Attorney Harry Susman for Ellen Marie Cotter and Ann Margaret Cotter, as well as Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr., in related case P082942. Mr. Susman participated by telephone. Mr. Krum stated parties need to proceed apace with the so-called expedited discovery, and detailed the status of document production. Mr. Krum noted the Company has begun producing a substantial amount of documents and they have agreed not to wait for that to finish before commencing depositions; Ellen Cotter is the only one who has not produced a single document to date, but they have been advised it will be done next week; parties have tentatively talked about commencing depositions in mid-November, with the scope divided by the issues raised in the Amended Complaint as well as some moving parts, such as the annual meeting scheduled on November 10. Mr. Krum also noted people being added to the RDI Board with personal relationships to Margaret or Ellen Cotter; parties have also talked about a briefing schedule for a hearing in the second week of February; they need to commence the Rule 16 disclosure process, so people can do what they need to do; however, he will be surprised if discovery that has been done so far is not a substantial part of the total production in this case. Finally, Mr. Krum requested a discovery cut-off in the spring and trial thereafter. Mr. Ferrario argued there is no need for expedited discovery, as an Amended Complaint has just been filed which postdates the request for preliminary injunction; they have done the protective coding process with iterations, as well as imaged computers; yesterday, he talked about depositions to Noah, as Mr. Searcy was unavailable, about the concern of what they were supposed to discuss given the filing of the Amended Complaint; Mr. Krum indicating a preliminary injunction hearing in February belies the need for immediate relief. Mr. Ferrario requested the Court set a discovery schedule and dispense with the request for preliminary injunction. COURT ORDERED, today is the parties' joint case conference and the filing of the joint case conference report is WAIVED. Court inquired about 16.1 disclosures understanding that with ESI issues there is a rolling production. Parties agreed on 3 weeks. Mr. Ferrario added they have entered into a stipulated protective order. With regards to an ESI protocol, Mr. Ferrario advised the people behind Mr. Krum and Mr. Coburn have a spent a lot of time on it; parties have not entered into a written ESI protocol but they can reduce what has been discussed into writing. COURT ORDERED, status check on the ESI protocol SET on the Chambers calendar in 5 weeks. COURT ORDERED, Discovery OPENED AS OF TODAY, including counter claims. Ms. Moore, Mr. Searcy, and Mr. Ferrario advised they will be filing motions to dismiss on behalf of their clients. Court so noted. Mr. Ferrario advised that in going through company documents they have encountered a number of privilege issues and requested 6 weeks out to complete a privilege log. Colloquy regarding disciplines of experts. COURT ORDERED, discovery cut-off SET on August 26, 2016; percipient witness cut-off SET on April 29, 2016; if parties feel that is not enough time, they have some flexibility without impacting the trial date. Also present: Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr., and Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter, in related case P082942. Mr. Lattin participated by telephone. STATUS CHECK: SCHEDULING: Court acknowledged receipt of the status report and response to status report and inquired as to the status of accounting and inventory. Mr. Freer advised the accounting is being finalized and they are simply mapping values; they intend to file it by April 1st but sooner but he will be out of town next week. Mr. Shipley added that they need things to move along and do not see a good faith basis for the co-executors not to make a distribution of shares. Court noted counsel will get the accounting, either object or not, and someone will request authority for partial distribution. Mr. Krum advised that on the derivative case, counsel have conferred and reached an agreement on how to complete discovery and maintain the trial date; subject to any disputes that arise or discovery due to recent developments, counsel have agreed each lawyer for each set of litigants will conclude or do their best to conclude document production related activities, such as correct privilege logs and supplemental 16.1 disclosures, in the next 2 to 4 weeks; in terms of depositions, Mr. Searcy indicated he will provide dates for his client in April and if that does not work then in May; everyone has also agreed, subject to the Court's approval, to modify dates in the scheduling order, as follows: percipient witnesses to June 10th, the discovery cut-off to September 19th, initial disclosures to July 10th, and rebuttal disclosures to August 15th; however, they will not be modifying the deadline for dispositive motions and motions in limine. Mr. Ferrario responded that he agreed with Mr. Krum's announcement; they have kept the summary judgment date, but it is imperative that they keep the current trial date. Court noted that although it is not going to work counsel is welcome to SUBMIT a stipulation with those representations, signed by everyone; trial in this case is currently on the same stack as the Mace Management vs. Hard Rock case. Mr. Ferrario reiterated, they cannot lose this trial date. Finally, Mr. Krum advised that with regards to the probate case it is his opinion that they are dragging their feet with an eye toward retaining class B voting stock in the estate so they are in the position to vote that stock in the next annual shareholders' meeting. MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS SOUGHT BY DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN'S SECOND SET OF REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Following arguments by Mr. Searcy and Mr. Krum, including what they believe would be appropriate modifications to the RFP's, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED IN PART. 22 will be AMENDED to add the phrase "related to Reading or any of the parties in this litigation," without time limitation; SAME RULING for 23 and 24; 57 will be MODIFIED to add "related to Reading"; 65 is GRANTED as written; 68 will be MODIFIED to say "related to Reading, Margaret Cotter, or Ellen Cotter" and delete the term "personal"; 72 will be LIMITED, from 2010, and will relate only to management development; 73 is DENIED. Mr. Krum advised he will need 4 weeks. Court so noted. PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE DOCUMENTS UNDER SEAL (motion filed 3/16/16): COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED as unopposed. typically not staying the night in Los Angeles, and Ms. Cotter's hardship with pulling the children out of school. Mr. Ferrario advised there are 3 cases happening here: arbitration in Los Angeles, the trust case in Los Angeles, and this case; the 3 cases are colliding because of coinciding deadlines. Mr. Ferrario requested 30 days be added to fact discovery but the trial date maintained, and the Court order parties to sit down and work out an acceptable schedule; mediation on the 25th is supposed to address all the 3 cases. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY DIRECTED TO DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME On the phone: Ms. Shoshana Bannett, for Attorney Ekwan Rhaw. PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO COMPEL DIRECTOR DEFENDANTS' DEPOSITIONS ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Krum submitted an agreed schedule for depositions to the Court. COURT ORDERED, schedule MARKED as Court's Exhibit 1. (See worksheet.) Mr. Krum advised that with respect to the location for Mr. Kane's deposition, Mr. Kane wants to move it to San Diego; they also have one day for Mr. McEachern. Mr. Searcy advised Mr. Kane usually rides up with Mr. McEachern as he is uncomfortable driving and wants to stay close to his wife because of her condition. COURT ORDERED, Mr. Kane may have his deposition in San Diego. Court finds the issues expressed by Mr. Kane are appropriate for his convenience and for his wife's condition. PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY DIRECTED TO DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Krum advised he thinks parties have reached an agreement; with respect to request for production nos. 4 and 5 Mr. Searcy's clients will produce documents responsive to those requests and they will do a supplemental response indicating they have done so; there is a mutuality and Plaintiff previously agreed to do the same; on no. 18, Defendants have agreed to produce all responsive documents, and it appears a vast majority has already been produced; on no. 3, a point of confusion, he understands Defendants will respond to the request and produce documents; however, they are likely none, and by way of clarification, they are not asking Defendants to go to the phone company for documents that Mr. Kane does not have. Mr. Searcy concurred with Mr. Krum's representations. Pursuant to counsel's request, COURT ORDERED, motion to compel currently set on May 3rd RESET to May 5, 2016. Colloquy regarding hitting deadlines in light of the depositions. Ms. Hendricks advised they will need time before Mr. Cotter's deposition. Court NOTED, if it turns out documents are produced after depositions are completed and counsel feel the need to take a deposition on issues that came to their awareness as a result of newly produced documents, the Court will GRANT the request to take a deposition on those issues; however, it is better to produce documents ahead of time. 5-5-16 8:30 AM MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF JAMES J. Mr. Ferrario further advised that they have scheduled depositions in July and as a practical matter have agreed to extend the percipient witness date. Court noted the motion date is its real concern. PLAINTIFFS...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY INTERVENING PLAINTIFFS Also present: Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr. and Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter under related case P082942. Mr. Robertson participated by telephone. Court noted parties have agreed to extend their percipient witness date though October 14, 2016, where here the trial is on a stack that begins on November 14, 2016. COURT ORDERED, this means that not a single motion in limine or any related motion will be filed after the September 23, 2016 deadline, and no orders shortening time will be signed. Mr. Ferrario stated he conveyed this to all parties and they understand. Court signed the stipulation and order in open court and returned it to the Law Clerk to be routed back to counsel for filing. DEFENDANT ELLEN COTTER, MARGARET COTTER, GUY ADAMS, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, EDWARD KANE, JUDY CODDING, AND MICHAEL WROTONIAK'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY INTERVENING PLAINTIFFS...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY INTERVENING PLAINTIFFS: Arguments by Mr. Searcy and Mr. Robertson. Mr. Bragonje stated he had nothing to add to the written opposition. Colloquy between Court and counsel regarding any specific items such as documents produced under the protective order that are material non-public information counsel believes were in the possession of T2 Plaintiffs that they had made trades on, and request by Mr. Searcy to supplement his brief in order to set out those items. COURT ORDERED, motion to disqualify DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Counsel may file another motion. DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN'S MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR. TO PRODUCE ADEQUATE PRIVILEGE LOG: Following arguments by Mr. Searcy and Mr. Bragonje, COURT ORDERED, (1) a column with a numeric designation for each privilege entry will be ADDED; typically this is done with Bates numbers or sometimes sequential numbers; the Court will permit counsel to decide; however, this needs to be done so there is an ability for counsel to do a meet-and-confer; (2) documents that existed after the filing of the complaint will be ADDED; (3) counsel will CONFIRM there are no additional documents that fall within that period for which discovery was previously ordered. JOINT MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT, NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS AND SCHEDULING OF SETTLEMENT HEARING ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME...PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME Also present: Attorney James Murphy, Bar No. 8586, for non-party Diamond A Investors and Diamond A Partners. JOINT MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT, NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS AND SCHEDULING OF SETTLEMENT HEARING ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Ferrario stated there is no objection. Mr. Murphy advised his clients wish to lodge an objection to the settlement; they tried to file papers yesterday but those were rejected; they also tried to enter an appearance by filing a notice of appearance but that was rejected as well. Colloquy regarding payment of the appropriate court fees. Mr. Murphy reiterated he was tasked to object. Mr. Ferrario argued this is procedurally improper. Copy of Mr. Murphy's brief submitted to the Court. Mr. Ferrario further argued Mr. Shapiro has been involved since prior to the filing of the Complaint by T2, his deposition has been taken, and he is late to these proceedings. Argument by Mr. Krum and

statement by Mr. Robertson. Court noted its concern with Mr. Ferrario's form, i.e. the Court usually does a 60-day setting from execution of the form instead of the 55 days requested, and that it usually does not require the objectors to serve everyone on the case but requires them to serve counsel who will then serve everyone. The Court understands the issues raised by Mr. Krum and Mr. Murphy but believes it is appropriate to address the issue as to whether it is a fair settlement at the time of a fairness hearing, as opposed to a preliminary approval hearing. Court further NOTED a website must be added. COURT ORDERED, hearing SET for October 6, 2016 and directed Mr. Ferrario not to place the Judicial Executive Assistant's name or number but his own office number, as well as the date, in the order. PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Following arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Ferrario, COURT ORDERED, motion to compel GRANTED; parties need to resume Mr. McEachern's deposition only and ask questions; an answer may be designated as confidential if it is appropriate to do so; if Mr. Krum wishes to re-open any other depositions it will have to be addressed after this one. Mr. Krum to file a motion. Court further noted it is improper to instruct a witness not to answer a question based on relevance; if there is a problem regarding the public nature of a disclosure then the appropriate thing to do is designate that portion of the deposition as confidential.;

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR. TO PRODUCE OR LOG ALL RESPONSIVE DOCUMENTS IN COMPLIANCE WITH COURT'S ORDER ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Searcy confirmed he has received Plaintiff's supplemental privilege log; counsel argued the log still fails the Court's order and requested to schedule a conference call with the Court where they can go over the deficiencies. Mr. Krum submitted on the papers. COURT ORDERED, since a privilege log has been produced, the Court will REQUIRE counsel to meet and confer at an actual meeting where they sit down and talk, or, hold a conference call; if parties have resolved their differences on the log it is to be sent to the Court so it can be discussed. PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO AMEND COMPLAINT ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Krum argued in support of the motion. Mr. Ferrario argued potential delay in proceedings and Mr. Searcy noted he has made his clients available for deposition. COURT ORDERED, motion to amend complaint GRANTED. The Court FINDS that demand would be futile on the Board under the circumstances; however, this does not preclude counsel for Defendants from filing a motion to dismiss related to other issues. At request of the parties, COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Plaintiff's Motion to Vacate and Reset Pending Dates and to Reopen Discovery on Order Shortening Time RESET from Thursday, August 11, to Friday, August 12, 2016 at 8:30 AM. counsel for filing. Argument by Mr. Krum in support of the instant motion, noting discovery is incomplete, discovery has taken place due to the developments of the last 60 days or so regarding the offer to acquire the stock, and the October 6th hearing date on the T2 Plaintiffs' settlement. Response by Mr. Ferrario as to this litigation draining the company's resources and that they have made it clear in their papers that this idea of sandbagging is not going to happen. Further argument by Mr. Krum regarding the offer. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Ferrario and Ms. Hendricks advised parties agreed to move their expert disclosure date to August 25th. Mr. Krum noted that is without prejudice to anybody's rights. COURT ORDERED, the motion to reopen and vacate the trial date is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. The Court does not agree with Mr. Krum's assessment related to the potential impact of the settlement of T2, based on representations made to the Court in writing and orally; however, the Court recognizes that several depositions are ongoing; those will be completed as schedules permit.;

Mr. Krum inquired whether the Court has read the email exchange. Court NOTED it does not read counsel's emails. Mr. Krum advised he asked counsel for an initial week of one possible expert disclosure, meaning the balance would be made today; however, Mr. Searcy said no. Mr. Searcy stated, the expert date has been moved 3 different times, with the last being August 18; the Court had expressed some concerns, but as an accommodation to Mr. Krum, they gave him an additional week; Mr. Krum is now asking for more time, but he ought to be held to the date that the parties agreed to. Mr. Ferrario noted this issue was not entirely clear to him in the email, but what is troubling at this stage in the proceedings is that it does not make any sense that the expert is still looking for something to support his opinion. Mr. Krum advised the request is only for a second week for one possible designation. COURT ORDERED, request DENIED; however, if additional information is provided to Mr. Krum that counsel does not otherwise have now that results in his expert needing to provide an opinion or supplemental opinion, counsel may file a motion on OST to have that expert file an opinion or supplemental designation.;

does not know at this stage if the actions Mr. Searcy's clients have taken related to the exercise of the option were information directly related to communications from counsel; it may be appropriate for a motion in limine to not permit that to go to the jury because it is not information for which Defendants will be seeking protection under the business judgment rule. JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO OBTAIN EXPEDITED DISCOVERY ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Motion DENIED; it is not appropriate to do the discovery that is requested on the motion for approval of class settlement.;

JOINT MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT, NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS AND SCHEDULING OF SETTLEMENT HEARING ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME...HEARING Also present: Attorney Nicholas Santoro for Craig Tompkins, Defendant, in the T2 matter. Attorney Jahan Raasi, Pro Hac Vice pending, present with Mr. Murphy. Mr. Robertson participated by telephone. Arguments by Mr. Santoro, Mr. Ferrario, Mr. Raasi, Mr. Krum, and Mr. Tayback. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED given the language contained in paragraph 21; it does not appear there is sufficient consideration to support any release of this type; however, this does not preclude the T2 Plaintiffs from dismissing their claims voluntarily. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, all matters currently scheduled for October 25, 2016 RESET to November 1, 2016 at 8:30 AM. At the request of Mr. Ferrario, Court permitted the parties to confer in the hallway. Matter RECALLED. Mr. Ferrario, as a proposal, read page 4 of Diamond's objection, and stated he believes this can be solved and no further burden would be placed on the company to send out mailers and incur cost; they will limit the release to claims asserted by T2 in this lawsuit, period. Court directed counsel to submit a revised version. Colloquy regarding continuing the matter and scope of the release. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED to 1:00 PM today. Proceedings resumed with Mr. Ferrario, Mr. Tayback, Mr. Johnson, Ms. Hendricks, Mr. Santoro, and Mr. Murphy in the courtroom, as well as Ms. Shoshana Bennett on the telephone. Court acknowledged receipt of the revised version of the settlement agreement and noted, per the Law Clerk, that Mr. Krum still objects. Mr. Murphy advised he has reviewed the revised version. Court noted its discomfort with paragraph 4(a) "and any other Defendants' releasees", the long description, and, given the lack of consideration, the two words "Reading and" at the beginning of 4(a). Mr. Murphy added his concern as to "whereas all the parties...". Court further noted "asserted or unasserted" needs to be removed. Mr. Murphy stated it should read "asserted in the T2 action". Court so noted. Court, RECONSIDERING its denial, GRANTED the motion for preliminary approval given the adjustments made to the release language, recognizing that the people who were not parties to the T2 action are not being released and that Reading itself is not executing

COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ADVICE OF COUNSEL DEFENSE ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME...MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, JUDY CODDING, AND MICHAEL WROTHNIK'S JOINDER TO READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S MOTION TO RECONSIDER OR CLARIFY ORDER GRANTING JAMES J COTTER, JR'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ADVICE OF COUNSEL DEFENSE ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Motion GRANTED IN PART; if documents or information were not provided to Mr. Kane and Mr. Adams, it does not fall within the delineated items in the October 3rd order. Court briefly RECESSED for a conference call in another matter. Proceedings resumed. Following further arguments by counsel, COURT ORDERED, as follows: PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO VACATE AND RESET PENDING DATES AND TO REOPEN DISCOVERY ON SHORTENED TIME (FOURTH REQUEST): Motion GRANTED to the extent a motion to compel has been sought and relief has been received or not, to the extent it relates to Mr. Tompkins' information on the privilege log, and to the extent that the depositions of Mr. Kane, Ms. Coddington, Mr. Adams, Mr. McEachern, Mr. Tompkins, the 30(b)(6), and 5 experts, need to be completed. The goal is to complete them as soon as possible, and the Court is hopeful they are done by December 2nd. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, matter SET for Status Check on December 1, 2016, regarding the status of depositions and resetting the trial date. INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO 3) ON PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE PURPORTED UNSOLICITED OFFER...DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S JOINDER IN INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO.3) ON PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE PURPORTED UNSOLICITED OFFER...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 3 RE THE PURPORTED UNSOLICITED OFFER: 56(f) relief GRANTED because depositions have not been completed and the document has not been produced. Motion CONTINUED to December 1, 2016, for Mr. Krum to FILE a supplemental opposition related to those issues. INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO. 2) RE: THE ISSUE OF DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 2 ON THE ISSUE OF DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE: Because of the request for 56(f) relief and because depositions have not been completed, this matter is CONTINUED to December 1, 2016. The Court anticipates there will be a discussion of any supplemental brief at that time. Court further notes that the independence issue needs to be evaluated on a transaction or action-by-action basis because the independence related to each needs to be separately evaluated; even though facts overlap, the Court cannot evaluate this in a vacuum. RECESS. Proceedings resumed. Following further arguments by counsel, COURT ORDERED, as follows: INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO. 4) ON PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 4 RE PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Motion GRANTED IN PART; as to formation and revitalization (activation) of the committee the motion is GRANTED; as to utilization of the committee, the motion is DENIED; formation and revitalization includes a decision by the company to make use of their previously dormant executive committee and put people on that executive committee. INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO. 1) RE: PLAINTIFF'S TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT CLAIMS...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 1 RE PLAINTIFF'S TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT CLAIMS: Motion DENIED as there are genuine issues of material fact as to the issues related to interested directors participating in the process. Court made a disclosure regarding participating in a forum in 2013 with Chief Justice Steele and stated the Court does not believe this will affect its ability to be fair and impartial. status reports it appears counsel will not be ready for trial. Upon Court s inquiry, Mr. Krum stated they have 1 1/2 days of expert depositions to finish and they have one of those days scheduled for next week. Mr. Krum referenced three categories of documents. Court advised it signed an Order which, it believes, correctly reflects the issues related to the advice of counsel issue. Court informed Mr. Krum if he has a new document production issue it would have to be raised in a Motion, not in the status report. Mr. Krum stated it has to do with an offer of documents and once they have those issues resolved they can schedule the depositions. Mr. Krum will file that motion next week. Upon Court s inquiry, Mr. Johnson has no objection to the motion being filed on an Order Shortening Time. Counsel advised they will speak and try and work out a date. Colloquy regarding Motion to Reconsider. Mr. Krum stated he will file his reply on Monday. Pursuant to representations of counsel, COURT ORDERED, Motion to Reconsider ADVANCED to December 8, 2016 at 8:00 a.m. At that time other scheduling issues and supplemental briefing will be discussed. Court held the conference call in the 17th floor courtroom of the Regional Justice Center (RJC). Hearing (8:30 AM) (Judicial Officer: Gonzalez, Elizabeth)

Hearing re: Motion to Compel

Motion Denied;

Journal Entry Details:

Court noted this is the supplemental briefing requested by the Court about the attorney-client documents that were reviewed and relied upon by the board members in making their decisions. Mr. Ferrario submitted on their pleading. Argument by Mr. Krum. COURT ORDERED, given the Nevada Supreme Court's decision in Wynn vs. Okada, while the Court understands that the at issue waiver remains viable and there are certain circumstances under which discovery into the information provided to a board for exercise of their business judgment rule is appropriate, the Court has been specifically told that inquiring behind attorney client privilege to the opinions provided to the board members and basis for those opinions as well as the substantive information provided by the attorneys to the board is inappropriate for discovery purposes, unless there is a waiver. As the Court does not see a waiver that has occurred merely by the production of the email communications asking the questions, the request for this information to be disclosed is DENIED. This does not preclude Mr. Krum at a later period in time if he is able to establish that an at issue waiver exists, because they place it in issue, then the Court will not reconsider its ruling, but at this point the Court has not been convinced. Court inquired as to when parties would be ready for trial. Counsel advised they have 2 - 3 depositions left. Court noted this trial will occur before Wynn vs. Okada, appx. January 16. COURT ORDERED, matter SET for status check on Monday, September 25, at 8:30 AM. Parties to provide a date by which they can file their motions. Trial anticipated to take 2 - 3 weeks. 9-25-17 8:30 AM STATUS CHECK: RESETTING TRIAL;

APPEARANCES CONTINUED: Attorney Shoshana Bannett for Defendant William Gould. Mr. Krum, Ms. Bannett, and Mr. Tayback appeared by telephone. Mr. Ferrario advised they spoke amongst themselves; RDI would like to go to trial the first quarter of 2018 as they definitely wish to go before Wynn Okada. Mr. Krum concurred as to scheduling trial here in the first quarter, as he has personal conflicts the end of 2017 and a spring break and a family trip beginning March 16, 2018. Court inquired how long counsel anticipate trial will take. Mr. Krum replied that it would be foolish to go for less than 3 weeks. Ms. Bannett advised that Mr. Rhow, Mr. Gould's counsel, has a trial in January and February. Court noted that as it does not have a regular courtroom counsel are encouraged to use electronic exhibits. Court further noted that this will be a jury trial. Mr. Ferrario noted that the estimate for the length of trial should then be 4 weeks. Mr. Krum agreed. Court noted its preference would be January. Mr. Krum advised that some expert witnesses said January may be problematic, but they only need a day or two so it should not be impossible. DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, WILLIAM GOULD, JUDY CODDING, MICHAEL WROTHIAK'S SUPPLEMENT TO MOTIONS FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT NOS. 1, 2, 3, 5 AND 6...REQUEST FOR HEARING ON DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S PREVIOUSLY FILED MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT [Advanced from January 8, 2018]: Following arguments by Mr. Tayback and Mr. Krum regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 1, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED IN PART. It is GRANTED with respect to Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Coddington, and Michael Wrothiak, and DENIED as to Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Guy Adams as there are genuine issues of material fact related to the disinterestedness of each of those individuals. As a result, they cannot at this time rely on the business judgment rule. Mr. Tayback inquired whether there is a ruling on the aspect of the motion that goes to the inability to hold those individuals personally liable for this claim. Court noted that for those 3 individuals, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Guy Adams, there is no ruling to that effect. Following arguments by Mr. Tayback and Mr. Krum regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 2, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED IN PART to the extent counsel is asking the Court to make a determination as to whether there has been a showing of a lack of disinterestedness. There is a lack of disinterestedness for Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, and Guy Adams. With respect to the other directors who are involved in the motion, there does not appear to be sufficient evidence presented to the Court to proceed with a claim of lack of disinterestedness. Following arguments by Mr. Tayback and Mr. Krum regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 3, COURT ORDERED, because of the failure of damages related to an unenforceable, unsolicited, and non-binding offer, the Court is GRANTING the motion; however, Plaintiff is not precluded from utilizing that factual basis for claims of a breach of fiduciary duty. Following argument by Mr. Searcy regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 5, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED. Following argument by Mr. Searcy regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 6, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED. DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE IRRELEVANT SPECULATIVE EVIDENCE: Following arguments by Mr. Rhow and Ms. Levin, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED as premature. ~ Following Mr. Krum's re-argument of his answer to the Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 1 as to Mr. Gould, Court reiterated it has granted summary judgment for Mr. Gould. ~ PLAINTIFF JAMES COTTER JR'S MOTION IN LIMINE NO. 3 REGARDING AFTER-ACQUIRED EVIDENCE: Following arguments by Ms. Levin and Ms. Searcy, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED. Mr. Searcy advised that his recollection is that there was a written order, but it has been 2 years. Mr. Morris advised the hearing was in September of 2016. Mr. Searcy added his recollection is that there was a written order but he will look for it; the Supreme Court is not directing the Court enter an order. speaking objections, or counsel will be excused from the courtroom, held in contempt, or have their pro hac vice admission revoked. Mr. Krum argued the exclusionary rule apply in opening statements. COURT ORDERED, the exclusionary rule will be imposed after opening statements. Court acknowledged receipt of proposed voir dire questions and noted that the Defendants have no objections to the Plaintiff's proposed questions. Mr. Morris objected to the Defendants' proposed and supplemental questions, arguing that they are ambiguous and will not elicit germane responses. Reply by Mr. Tayback. COURT ORDERED, OBJECTION to 12 OVERRULED; the question will be PERMITTED to the extent it is seeking the juror's experience in dispute resolution. Following further argument by Mr. Morris and Mr. Tayback regarding the section on relevant attitudes 1 through 10, COURT FURTHER ORDERED, 1, 9, and 10 in this section will be PERMITTED; the others are either duplicative or too much like a hypothetical question. Court reminded counsel that their brief opening remarks need to be fact-based. Court inquired whether parties would be using a jury notebook. Counsel advised they could not agree. Court noted that if there are add-on exhibits that are admitted and that counsel want to be placed in the jury notebook, they need to provide 15 copies, three-hole punched with their own binders if not sharing binders. Court further acknowledged receipt of proposed jury instructions and DIRECTED the parties to SUBMIT any special interrogatories by Wednesday (January 10, 2018) morning. In addition, all PowerPoint presentations to be used in the presentation of exhibits and examination of witnesses are to be PROVIDED to the other side at least 24 hours before use and a hard copy PROVIDED to the Clerk to be marked as a demonstrative exhibit. Mr. Krum advised there may be some experts with scheduling issues; one witness is travelling from New Zealand, but he assumes parties will accommodate people if they have to; Mr. Storey will only be in Las Vegas on January 17, 18, and 19. Mr. Ferrario advised Defendants' witnesses will generally be available, that they have made arrangements and told Mr. Krum who would be called first, and that they do not anticipate issues on availability; one director will not be available during the first two weeks of trial. Defendants submitted deposition transcripts in open court; Plaintiffs to submit theirs later as the transcripts are still en route via FedEx. After review of both sides' proposed orders for the September 16, 2016 hearing, Court SIGNED in open court the version submitted by Mr. Morris as accurately reflecting the Court's ruling. Signed order returned to counsel for filing. Court RECESSED for the parties to discuss any exhibits that they stipulate to. Proceedings resumed. Pursuant to stipulation, COURT ORDERED, Plaintiff's Proposed Exhibits 1 through 6, 23 through 33, 46, and 57, as well as Defendants' Proposed Exhibits 10035, 10050, 10051, 10133 through 10136, 10138, 10168, 10296, 10297, 10316, 10318, 10331 through 10333, 10352, 10354, 10374, 10375, 10393, 10403, and 10438 through 10448 are ADMITTED. Upon Court's inquiry, counsel estimated no more than 4 weeks for trial. Court noted its oldest case is ready to go on July 30th and that the instant case needs to go before that one starts; parties can tell the Court on Monday, April 30th. Mr. Ferrario advised the issue of what issues remain will impact the length of the trial; as they were getting ready for the last trial both sides submitted sets of jury instructions; it is like ships passing in the night as far as instructions that relate to the claims, so it would be his request that the Court set a hearing where it can weigh in on some of the jury instructions. Court stated those can be discussed after parties have gone through the depositions and privilege issues. Court noting the status report on discovery inquired about the review of additional information. Mr. Ferrario, indicating he is reading from prepared notes handed to him by Ms. Sheffield, advised that they had a very broad capture which returned 333 privileged documents and 11 that were not privileged; many of the documents they are producing is already in the possession of Mr. Cotter and they will produce the 11 on a rolling basis. Mr. Krum responded that he suspects the privileged documents would fall into 2 categories, which are the third party directors and then the rest of the people in the company; he requests that the privilege log on the third party directors be provided. Mr. Searcy noted that their practice has been to put the privileged documents on the RDI privilege log but he is happy to provide a privilege log with respect to the third party directors; one document may not be on the RDI log. Upon Mr. Ferrario's inquiry, Ms. Sheffield stated the privilege log on their end can be provided on June 4th. Mr. Ferrario noted their other alternative would be Friday (June 1st). Per Ms. Cowden's request, Court explained its ruling on the May 25th matters in chambers. Further arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Ferrario on pending document production. Court noted it anticipates the motion regarding dispositive issues being filed and ORDERED everything ordered produced to be PRODUCED forthwith.; directing the in camera review of documents withheld by Plaintiffs on work-product grounds; he has not seen a response. Court NOTED it cannot review the documents without having them. Mr. Krum inquired about the form of delivery. Court stated it is better for the documents to be in hard copy. At Mr. Ferrario's request for a date certain, Mr. Krum stated they can submit the documents to the Court this week. COURT ORDERED, status check SET for the in camera review on June 8, 2018 in Chambers. Mr. Ferrario advised the second issue is a revolving one regarding experts and Plaintiff needing to produce documents regarding experts; Plaintiff will not be calling Mr. Finnerty and Duarte Silva, and if that is the case additional motions need to be filed. Statement by the Court regarding collusion being an issue that can be made at trial as this is something that would not affect the dispositive motion deadline. Colloquy regarding resetting the two motions that are currently set for July 9th to June. Mr. Krum noted privilege log issues. Court directed counsel to file a motion for privilege log. Mr. Krum advised he can file his opposition to the 2 motions within 2 weeks. Court NOTED that will be June 18. Mr. Ferrario advised he can have his reply done by June 22; he has mediation on June 25th and 26th and can hopefully get back late at night on the 26th. Mr. Krum stated he can make June 27 work. Updated privilege logs in electronic, Excel format as well as the documents to be reviewed, in hard copy, are to be delivered to Chambers by Friday, June 22, at 8:30 AM. For purposes of the pre-trial motions, as an evidentiary sanction, the Court will infer and make a rebuttable presumption that the documents if timely produced would support Plaintiff's position that the ratification was a sham or fraudulent exercise. If there are remaining issues after the pre-trial motions, Mr. Gould, Ms. Coddington, Mr. McEachern, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Mr. Tompkins will appear for depositions for a period not to exceed one hour next week. instructions. Colloquy regarding the Court's ruling and the privilege log and documents to be provided in camera. ELLEN COTTER, MARGARET COTTER, AND GUY ADAMS MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT: Arguments by Mr. Tayback, Mr. Ferrario, and Mr. Krum. COURT NOTED that it has taken into consideration the inferences, the rebuttable presumption, as well as evidence submitted along with the motions. The typical practice is to have independent advisers provide information to the board and / or the special committees under NRS 78.138. While that is certainly cleaner practice, it is uncontested here that Greenberg Traurig, qualified and experienced counsel, under NRS 78.138(2)(b) gave legal advice related to the ratification to the directors the Court had previously determined to be independent. The advice given was protected by the attorney-client privilege based on the Wynn case, and the Court must honor the ratification by those independent directors and respect their business judgment after their reliance on Greenberg Traurig under NRS 78.138 (2)(b). For that reason, the motion for summary judgment is GRANTED. RECESS. NOMINAL DEFENDANT, READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S MOTION TO DISMISS PURSUANT TO NRCP12(B)(2), OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, NRC 12(B)(5) FOR LACK OF STANDING: Matter submitted. COURT NOTED Motion is MOOT unless there are remaining issues. Mr. Ferrario stated there is nothing left from his, Mr. Tayback's, and the directors' perspective. Mr. Krum responded that Plaintiff thinks the same of today's ruling as they did of the rulings made by the Court made on December 11th, that there is no reason for them to take the time of the parties and the Court to do anything other than pursue those rulings on appeal, as they already have. Court directed Mr. Krum to prepare an order related to the motion for relief and motion to compel, and Mr. Tayback to prepare findings of fact and conclusions of law related to Defendants' motions. COURT ORDERED, trial and all other future dates VACATED. Court noted it can still do an in camera review and minute order but it will not have any impact on future events, unless the case returns. Court informed Ms. Hendricks she does not need to submit documents in camera. Mr. Searcy appeared by telephone. Ms. Levin argued in support of the motion, noting that even with Mr. Krum's comments an agreement had been made with the other side to submit documents for the Court's review; their purpose was to decrease the burden on the Court, and they simply want to do this in one go and not have anything hanging out there. Mr. Ferrario stated he had nothing to add except to clarify that he could never get an answer from Mr. Krum as to what would be accomplished by the review. Mr. Searcy and Mr. Johnson advised they had nothing to add as well. COURT ORDERED, given the representations made by Mr. Krum in court to this Court, the Court will not conduct an in camera review that Mr. Krum said the Court did not have to do. ;

Journal Entry Details:

Arguments by Ms. Levin and Mr. Ferrario. Ms. Levin provided supplemental examples of costs marked as Court s Exhibit 1. (See worksheet) Following arguments by counsel, COURT ADVISED the categories in the Memorandum of Costs and Disbursement are retaxed for Number 3. The expert witnesses are reduced to $250,000.00 for Mr. Klausner, $250,000.00 for Mr. Roll, the $152 amount for Mr. Strombom is compensated and Mr. Foster s amount of $201,000 is compensated. With respect to the statutory limitation, COURT FINDS that given the nature of this particular case, is it appropriate to exceed the statutory limitation, that the amounts that have been requested in large part by defendants are excessive. With respect to any costs by Mr. Gould, those costs are too late. With respect to Category 12, the amount is reduced to $450,000.00. With respect to Categories 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17, the Motion to Retax is GRANTED.;

THIS MATTER CAME BEFORE THE COURT on the Motion for Attorneys' Fees filed by nominal defendant Reading International, Inc. ("RDI"). Defendants Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, Guy Adams, Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, Judy Coddling, and Michael Wrotniak ("Defendants") filed a Joinder to the Motion for Attorneys' Fees. Akke Levin and Steve Morris appeared on behalf of Plaintiff. Mark Ferrario appeared on behalf of RDI. Marshall M. Searcy and Kevin M. Johnson appeared on behalf of Defendants. The Court, having considered the papers filed and arguments made in support of and in opposition to the Motion for Attorneys' Fees, and for good cause appearing, finds that this case does not meet the standards of NRS 18.010 to support an award of attorneys' fees. The fact that the Court ultimately granted summary judgment based upon ratification by the directors that the Court found to be independent does not make plaintiff's case a vexatious claim. Wherefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the Motion for Attorneys' Fees and the Joinder are DENIED.

DATED this 15 day of November, 2018.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Appearances continued: Attorney Michael Hughes for the Defendants; Attorneys Michael Searcy and Christopher Tayback, Pro Hac Vice pending, for the Defendants; Attorney Alexander Robertson for Intervenors; in related case P082942, Attorney Mark Ferrario for Reading International; Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr.; Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter; Ann Margaret Cotter, present in the gallery.

MOTION TO ASSOCIATE COUNSEL (CAFORIO) set in P082942: There being no objection, COURT ORDERED, motion to associate ADVANCED from August 25, 2015 and GRANTED.

MOTION TO INTERVENE ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Motion GRANTED.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO EXPEDITE DISCOVERY AND SET A HEARING ON MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Argument in support thereof by Mr. Krum. Response by Mr. Ferrario, as to Mr. Cotter's termination, and request to stay this matter so claims can be addressed in ongoing arbitration proceedings in California. Mr. Searcy noted, the motion to intervene does not change anything because it is intervention in the same complaint, and the primary issue here involves the employment agreement. Mr. Krum provided the Court with a copy of the employment agreement and argued there is no basis for a stay.

Court inquired as to whether anyone had an objection to advancing Reading International, INC's Motion to Compel Arbitration, set on August 25th in P082942, to next week. Mr. Krum stated he did, as the motion is untimely and he will need until sometime next week to file a response. Court so noted.

COURT ORDERED, request for expedited discovery GRANTED, only as to those issues where a shareholder would have fiduciary duty claims. Upon counsel's inquiry, Court clarified, motion granted only on breach of fiduciary duty claims to shareholders; counsel cannot pursue whether or not it was appropriate for Mr. Cotter to be terminated; however, there is an overlap, which Mr. Robertson may have more of because it is cleaner for him. Court DIRECTED Mr. Krum to provide a more narrow scope of discovery. Mr. Krum stated he can do so, if not tomorrow, then by Thursday. Court so noted; Mr. Krum to SUBMIT on Thursday, August 13; Mr. Robertson, if he has anything to add, will do so at the same time by noon; any issues will be addressed by conference call on Friday, August 14, at 1:00 PM. Mr. Ferrario will circulate the call-in information.

Mr. Ferrario advised he will be in trial in Louisiana and requested to continue the motion to compel arbitration. There being no objection, COURT ORDERED, Reading International, INC's Motion to Compel Arbitration currently set on August 25, 2015 in P082942 RESET to September 1, 2015 at 8:30 AM.

Cotter, Jr.; Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter

Argument by Mr. Ferrario that Mr. Crum's appears to be requesting the Court to get involved in retooling corporate processes and procedures; requests are overbroad; and he does not see any need for the expedited discovery request. Mr. Krum stated that Mr. Ferrario is re-arguing the motion he lost last week; that the requests are appropriate. Court noted Mr. Krum's requests were numbered 1-17 and Mr. Robertson's requests were numbered 1-33. Mr. Ferrario argued that there is nothing emergent with Mr. Robertson's requests, having nothing to do with the injunction but deal with matters that occurred three and four years ago. Argument by Mr. Robertson that they requested records going back three year three year history for many decisions made regarding compensation for the directors which is highly relevant to the issue of whether these directors were interested or disinterested regarding the termination of Mr. Cotter Jr. Court noting derivative issues would be handled in the normal course, inquired of Mr. Crum and Mr. Robertson as to which requests are more emergent issues which would be subject to injunctive relief. Following representations by counsel, COURT ORDERED, the following requests are permitted on an expedited discovery schedule within 30 days: as to Mr. Krum's requested Item Nos. 6, 11, 13, 14, 16 and 17 and as to Mr. Robertson's requested Item Nos. 26-30 and 33. Court encouraged counsel to serve the identified items on the appropriate people in order to respond within thirty days in anticipation of having a hearing set for some time in October, 2015. Mr. Ferrario advised that an appropriate Confidentiality Order will be circulated.

MOTIONS TO ASSOCIATE COUNSEL (RHOW AND MOORE) set in P082942: There being no objection, COURT ORDERED, Motions ADVANCED from September 8, 2015, and GRANTED.

- MANDATORY RULE 16 CONFERENCE...PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Appearances continued: Attorney Alexander Robertson for the Intervenor Plaintiffs; Attorney Alan Freer and Attorney Harry Susman for Ellen Marie Cotter and Ann Margaret Cotter, as well as Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr., in related case P082942.

Mr. Susman participated by telephone.

Mr. Krum stated parties need to proceed apace with the so-called expedited discovery, and detailed the status of document production. Mr. Krum noted the Company has begun producing a substantial amount of documents and they have agreed not to wait for that to finish before commencing depositions; Ellen Cotter is the only one who has not produced a single document to date, but they have been advised it will be done next week; parties have tentatively talked about commencing depositions in mid-November, with the scope divided by the issues raised in the Amended Complaint as well as some moving parts, such as the annual meeting scheduled on November 10. Mr. Krum also noted people being added to the RDI Board with personal relationships to Margaret or Ellen Cotter; parties have also talked about a briefing schedule for a hearing in the second week of February; they need to commence the Rule 16 disclosure process, so people can do what they need to do; however, he will be surprised if discovery that has been done so far is not a substantial part of the total production in this case. Finally, Mr. Krum requested a discovery cut-off in the spring and trial thereafter.

Mr. Ferrario argued there is no need for expedited discovery, as an Amended Complaint has just been filed which postdates the request for preliminary injunction; they have done the protective coding process with iterations, as well as imaged computers; yesterday, he talked about depositions to Noah, as Mr. Searcy was unavailable, about the concern of what they were supposed to discuss given the filing of the Amended Complaint; Mr. Krum indicating a preliminary injunction hearing in February belies the need for immediate relief. Mr. Ferrario requested the Court set a discovery schedule and dispense with the request for preliminary injunction.

COURT ORDERED, today is the parties' joint case conference and the filing of the joint case conference report is WAIVED. Court inquired about 16.1 disclosures understanding that with ESI issues there is a rolling production. Parties agreed on 3 weeks. Mr. Ferrario added they have entered into a stipulated protective order. With regards to an ESI protocol, Mr. Ferrario advised the people behind Mr. Krum and Mr. Coburn have a spent a lot of time on it; parties have not entered into a written ESI protocol but they can reduce what has been discussed into writing. COURT ORDERED, status check on the ESI protocol SET on the Chambers calendar in 5 weeks.

COURT ORDERED, Discovery OPENED AS OF TODAY, including counter claims. Ms. Moore, Mr. Searcy, and Mr. Ferrario advised they will be filing motions to dismiss on behalf of their clients. Court so noted.

Mr. Ferrario advised that in going through company documents they have encountered a number of privilege issues and requested 6 weeks out to complete a privilege log.

Colloquy regarding disciplines of experts. COURT ORDERED, discovery cut-off SET on August 26, 2016; percipient witness cut-off SET on April 29, 2016; if parties feel that is not enough time, they have some flexibility without impacting the trial date. Matter SET for Trial on the stack beginning November 14, 2016. Court noted based upon counsel's representation that trial is estimated to last 3 to 4 weeks. COURT ORDERED, jury demand, if any, to be filed within five (5) business days; otherwise, matter will be set for a bench trial. Trial Setting Order will ISSUE, which will be filed in the Business Court case.

COURT ORDERED, Plaintiff's motion for preliminary injunction VACATED. Court further

DIRECTED Mr. Krum, when he is ready to set the time for an evidentiary hearing, to re-notice the motion, file a supplemental brief, and a date will be negotiated.

Upon counsel's inquiry, Court clarified its ruling regarding the prior motion to dismiss and interlineation on the Court's order.

Mr. Robertson participated by telephone.

Following arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Tayback, COURT ORDERED, motion to compel GRANTED IN PART; with respect to request for production no. 3, Defendants are correct; they do not need to provide any information in the form of documents related to gross income; however, during the deposition, Mr. Krum may inquire as to percentage that the Cotter related income forms of the gross income to make any determination he thinks is appropriate. - Also present: Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr., and Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter, in related case P082942.

Mr. Lattin participated by telephone.

STATUS CHECK: SCHEDULING: Court acknowledged receipt of the status report and response to status report and inquired as to the status of accounting and inventory. Mr. Freer advised the accounting is being finalized and they are simply mapping values; they intend to file it by April 1st but sooner but he will be out of town next week. Mr. Shipley added that they need things to move along and do not see a good faith basis for the co-executors not to make a distribution of shares. Court noted counsel will get the accounting, either object or not, and someone will request authority for partial distribution. Mr. Krum advised that on the derivative case, counsel have conferred and reached an agreement on how to complete discovery and maintain the trial date; subject to any disputes that arise or discovery due to recent developments, counsel have agreed each lawyer for each set of litigants will conclude or do their best to conclude document production related activities, such as correct privilege logs and supplemental 16.1 disclosures, in the next 2 to 4 weeks; in terms of depositions, Mr. Searcy indicated he will provide dates for his client in April and if that does not work then in May; everyone has also agreed, subject to the Court's approval, to modify dates in the scheduling order, as follows: percipient witnesses to June 10th, the discovery cut-off to September 19th, initial disclosures to July 10th, and rebuttal disclosures to August 15th; however, they will not be modifying the deadline for dispositive motions and motions in limine. Mr. Ferrario responded that he agreed with Mr. Krum's announcement; they have kept the summary judgment date, but it is imperative that they keep the current trial date. Court noted that although it is not going to work counsel is welcome to SUBMIT a stipulation with those representations, signed by everyone; trial in this case is currently on the same stack as the Mace Management vs. Hard Rock case. Mr. Ferrario reiterated, they cannot lose this trial date. Finally, Mr. Krum advised that with regards to the probate case it is his opinion that they are dragging their feet with an eye toward retaining class B voting stock in the estate so they are in the position to vote that stock in the next annual shareholders' meeting.

MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS SOUGHT BY DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN'S SECOND SET OF REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Following arguments by Mr. Searcy and Mr. Krum, including what they believe would be appropriate modifications to the RFP's, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED IN PART. 22 will be AMENDED to add the phrase "related to Reading or any of the parties in this litigation," without time limitation; SAME RULING for 23 and 24; 57 will be MODIFIED to add "related to Reading"; 65 is GRANTED as written; 68 will be MODIFIED to say "related to Reading, Margaret Cotter, or Ellen Cotter" and delete the term "personal"; 72 will be LIMITED, from 2010, and will relate only to management development; 73 is DENIED.

On the phone: Ms. Shoshana Bannett, for Attorney Ekwan Rhow.

PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO COMPEL DIRECTOR DEFENDANTS' DEPOSITIONS ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Krum submitted an agreed schedule for depositions to the Court. COURT ORDERED, schedule MARKED as Court's Exhibit 1. (See worksheet.) Mr. Krum advised that with respect to the location for Mr. Kane's deposition, Mr. Kane wants to move it to San Diego; they also have one day for Mr. McEachern. Mr. Searcy advised Mr. Kane usually rides up with Mr. McEachern as he is uncomfortable driving and wants to stay close to his wife because of her condition. COURT ORDERED, Mr. Kane may have his deposition in San Diego. Court finds the issues expressed by Mr. Kane are appropriate for his convenience and for his wife's condition.

PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY DIRECTED TO DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Krum advised he thinks parties have reached an agreement; with respect to request for production nos. 4 and 5 Mr. Searcy's clients will produce documents responsive to those requests and they will do a supplemental response indicating they have done so; there is a mutuality and Plaintiff previously agreed to do the same; on no. 18, Defendants have agreed to produce all responsive documents, and it appears a vast majority has already been produced; on no. 3, a point of confusion, he understands Defendants will respond to the request and produce documents; however, they are likely none, and by way of clarification, they are not asking Defendants to go to the phone company for documents that Mr. Kane does not have. Mr. Searcy concurred with Mr. Krum's representations.

Pursuant to counsel's request, COURT ORDERED, motion to compel currently set on May 3rd RESET to May 5, 2016.

Colloquy regarding hitting deadlines in light of the depositions. Ms. Hendricks advised they will need time before Mr. Cotter's deposition. Court NOTED, if it turns out documents are produced after depositions are completed and counsel feel the need to take a deposition on issues that came to their awareness as a result of newly produced documents, the Court will GRANT the request to take a deposition on those issues; however, it is better to produce documents ahead of time.

IN SUPPORT OF T2 PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Also present: Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter , Jr., in related case P082942.

COURT ORDERED, motion to file exhibits under seal GRANTED.

Following arguments by Mr. Robertson, Mr. Krum, Mr. Tayback, and Mr. Ferrario on the T2 Plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction, COURT ORDERED its position has not changed and the shareholders' meeting will proceed as they did last year.

Court and counsel discussed the current trial setting, given the Court's schedule in the prior and subsequent stacks. Mr. Ferrario anticipated the trial would last 2 weeks. Mr. Krum advised that to be prudent he would say 3. Mr. Ferrario further advised that they have scheduled depositions in July and as a practical matter have agreed to extend the percipient witness date. Court noted the motion date is its real concern. Mr. Ferrario stated they will submit a stipulation moving the percipient witness date and continue to shoot for the November trial date.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Defendants' Motion to Compel Plaintiff to Produce Adequate Privilege Log, currently scheduled for May 27, 2016 in Chambers; Defendants' Motion to Disqualify Intervening Plaintiffs and Reading's Joinder thereto, currently scheduled for June 17, 2016 in Chambers, ADVANCED to Thursday, June 16, 2016 at 8:30 AM, with the understanding that counsel will determine an alternative date for argument, unless they wish to appear at 8:00 AM on a Monday or Wednesday.

Court inquired about the settlement conference in California. Mr. Ferrario advised it was done through the estate case with a private, retired judge mediator, in one day.

Also present: Attorney Aaron Shipley for James J. Cotter, Jr. and Attorney Alan Freer for Ann Margaret Cotter and Ellen Marie Cotter under related case P082942.

Mr. Robertson participated by telephone.

Court noted parties have agreed to extend their percipient witness date though October 14, 2016, where here the trial is on a track that begins on November 14, 2016. COURT ORDERED, this means that not a single motion in limine or any related motion will be filed after the September 23, 2016 deadline, and no orders shortening time will be signed. Mr. Ferrario stated he conveyed this to all parties and they understand. Court signed the stipulation and order in open court and returned it to the Law Clerk to be routed back to counsel for filing.

DEFENDANT ELLEN COTTER, MARGARET COTTER, GUY ADAMS, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, EDWARD KANE, JUDY CODDING, AND MICHAEL WROTONIAK'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY INTERVENING PLAINTIFFS...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY INTERVENING PLAINTIFFS: Arguments by Mr. Searcy and Mr. Robertson. Mr. Bragonje stated he had nothing to add to the written opposition. Colloquy between Court and counsel regarding any specific items such as documents produced under the protective order that are material non-public information counsel believes were in the possession of T2 Plaintiffs that they had made trades on, and request by Mr. Searcy to supplement his brief in order to set out those items. COURT ORDERED, motion to disqualify DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Counsel may file another motion.

DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, AND DOUGLAS MCEACHERN'S MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR. TO PRODUCE ADEQUATE PRIVILEGE LOG: Following arguments by Mr. Searcy and Mr. Bragonje, COURT ORDERED, (1) a column with a numeric designation for each privilege entry will be ADDED; typically this is done with Bates numbers or sometimes sequential numbers; the Court will permit counsel to decide; however, this needs to be done so there is an ability for counsel to do a meet-and-confer; (2) documents that existed after the filing of the complaint will be ADDED; (3) counsel will CONFIRM there are no additional documents that fall within that period for which discovery was previously ordered.

Also present: Attorney James Murphy, Bar No. 8586, for non-party Diamond A Investors and Diamond A Partners.

JOINT MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT, NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS AND SCHEDULING OF SETTLEMENT HEARING ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Ferrario stated there is no objection. Mr. Murphy advised his clients wish to lodge an objection to the settlement; they tried to file papers yesterday but those were rejected; they also tried to enter an appearance by filing a notice of appearance but that was rejected as well. Colloquy regarding payment of the appropriate court fees. Mr. Murphy reiterated he was tasked to object. Mr. Ferrario argued this is procedurally improper. Copy of Mr. Murphy's brief submitted to the Court. Mr. Ferrario further argued Mr. Shapiro has been involved since prior to the filing of the Complaint by T2, his deposition has been taken, and he is late to these proceedings. Argument by Mr. Krum and statement by Mr. Robertson. Court noted its concern with Mr. Ferrario's form, i.e. the Court usually does a 60-day setting from execution of the form instead of the 55 days requested, and that it usually does not require the objectors to serve everyone on the case but requires them to serve counsel who will then serve everyone. The Court understands the issues raised by Mr. Krum and Mr. Murphy but believes it is appropriate to address the issue as to whether it is a fair settlement at the time of a fairness hearing, as opposed to a preliminary approval hearing. Court further NOTED a website must be added. COURT ORDERED, hearing SET for October 6, 2016 and directed Mr. Ferrario not to place the Judicial Executive Assistant's name or number but his own office number, as well as the date, in the order.

PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME:

Following arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Ferrario, COURT ORDERED, motion to compel GRANTED; parties need to resume Mr. McEachern's deposition only and ask questions; an answer may be designated as confidential if it is appropriate to do so; if Mr. Krum wishes to re-open any other depositions it will have to be addressed after this one. Mr. Krum to file a motion. Court further noted it is improper to instruct a witness not to answer a question based on relevance; if there is a problem regarding the public nature of a disclosure then the appropriate thing to do is designate that portion of the deposition as confidential.

Also present: Attorney Michael Sherman and Attorney Kristen Gallagher for Plaintiff James J. Cotter, Jr. in related case A735305.

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR. TO PRODUCE OR LOG ALL RESPONSIVE DOCUMENTS IN COMPLIANCE WITH COURT'S ORDER ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Searcy confirmed he has received Plaintiff's supplemental privilege log; counsel argued the log still fails the Court's order and requested to schedule a conference call with the Court where they can go over the deficiencies. Mr. Krum submitted on the papers. COURT ORDERED, since a privilege log has been produced, the Court will REQUIRE counsel to meet and confer at an actual meeting where they sit down and talk, or, hold a conference call; if parties have

resolved their differences on the log it is to be sent to the Court so it can be discussed.

PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO AMEND COMPLAINT ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Mr. Krum argued in support of the motion. Mr. Ferrario argued potential delay in proceedings and Mr. Searcy noted he has made his clients available for deposition. COURT ORDERED, motion to amend complaint GRANTED. The Court FINDS that demand would be futile on the Board under the circumstances; however, this does not preclude counsel for Defendants from filing a motion to dismiss related to other issues.

- COURT ORDERED, the OST submitted yesterday for a motion to compel production related to the advice of counsel will be SET for August 30, 2016. Upon the inquiry of Mr. Ferrario, Mr. Krum stated this motion pertains to Mr. Adams. OST signed in open court and returned to counsel for filing.

Argument by Mr. Krum in support of the instant motion, noting discovery is incomplete, discovery has taken place due to the developments of the last 60 days or so regarding the offer to acquire the stock, and the October 6th hearing date on the T2 Plaintiffs' settlement. Response by Mr. Ferrario as to this litigation draining the company's resources and that they have made it clear in their papers that this idea of sandbagging is not going to happen. Further argument by Mr. Krum regarding the offer. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Ferrario and Ms. Hendricks advised parties agreed to move their expert disclosure date to August 25th. Mr. Krum noted that is without prejudice to anybody's rights. COURT ORDERED, the motion to reopen and vacate the trial date is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. The Court does not agree with Mr. Krum's assessment related to the potential impact of the settlement of T2, based on representations made to the Court in writing and orally; however, the Court recognizes that several depositions are ongoing; those will be completed as schedules permit.

- Mr. Krum inquired whether the Court has read the email exchange. Court NOTED it does not read counsel's emails. Mr. Krum advised he asked counsel for an initial week of one possible expert disclosure, meaning the balance would be made today; however, Mr. Searcy said no. Mr. Searcy stated, the expert date has been moved 3 different times, with the last being August 18; the Court had expressed some concerns, but as an accommodation to Mr. Krum, they gave him an additional week; Mr. Krum is now asking for more time, but he ought to be held to the date that the parties agreed to. Mr. Ferrario noted this issue was not entirely clear to him in the email, but what is troubling at this stage in the proceedings is that it does not make any sense that the expert is still looking for something to support his opinion. Mr. Krum advised the request is only for a second week for one possible designation. COURT ORDERED, request DENIED; however, if additional information is provided to Mr. Krum that counsel does not otherwise have now that results in his expert needing to provide an opinion or supplemental opinion, counsel may file a motion on OST to have that expert file an opinion or supplemental designation.

JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO PERMIT CERTAIN DISCOVERY CONCERNING THE RECENT "OFFER" ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Motion GRANTED IN PART. A 30(b)(6) from the company related to the offer and the reason it was not pursued can be taken NOT TO EXCEED two (2) hours and the document requests that were attached may be RESPONDED TO within fifteen (15) days.

JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ADVICE OF COUNSEL DEFENSE ON ORDER SHORTENING

TIME: Motion GRANTED. To the extent any directors relied on advice of counsel in performing their duties which are the subject of the breach of fiduciary duty claim, which includes this, they cannot also protect the communication even though it is the company's privilege; so, the parties all have to make a decision. Upon Ms. Hendricks' inquiry, Court clarified, only the information provided to board members in the course of making their decision. Mr. Searcy inquired as to the Plaintiff asking his clients at trial if they received advice of counsel. Court stated that it does not know at this stage if the actions Mr. Searcy's clients have taken related to the exercise of the option were information directly related to communications from counsel; it may be appropriate for a motion in limine to not permit that to go to the jury because it is not information for which Defendants will be seeking protection under the business judgment rule.

- JOINT MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT, NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS AND SCHEDULING OF SETTLEMENT HEARING ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME...HEARING

Also present: Attorney Nicholas Santoro for Craig Tompkins, Defendant, in the T2 matter.

Attorney Jahan Raasi, Pro Hac Vice pending, present with Mr. Murphy.

Mr. Robertson participated by telephone.

Arguments by Mr. Santoro, Mr. Ferrario, Mr. Raasi, Mr. Krum, and Mr. Tayback. COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED given the language contained in paragraph 21; it does not appear there is sufficient consideration to support any release of this type; however, this does not preclude the T2 Plaintiffs from dismissing their claims voluntarily.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED, all matters currently scheduled for October 25, 2016 RESET to November 1, 2016 at 8:30 AM.

At the request of Mr. Ferrario, Court permitted the parties to confer in the hallway.

Matter RECALLED. Mr. Ferrario, as a proposal, read page 4 of Diamond's objection, and stated he believes this can be solved and no further burden would be placed on the company to send out mailers and incur cost; they will limit the release to claims asserted by T2 in this lawsuit, period. Court directed counsel to submit a revised version. Colloquy regarding continuing the matter and scope of the release. COURT ORDERED, matter CONTINUED to 1:00 PM today.

Proceedings resumed with Mr. Ferrario, Mr. Tayback, Mr. Johnson, Ms. Hendricks, Mr. Santoro, and Mr. Murphy in the courtroom, as well as Ms. Shoshana Bannett on the telephone.

Court acknowledged receipt of the revised version of the settlement agreement and noted, per the Law Clerk, that Mr. Krum still objects. Mr. Murphy advised he has reviewed the revised version. Court noted its discomfort with paragraph 4(a) "and any other Defendants' releasees", the long description, and, given the lack of consideration, the two words "Reading and" at the beginning of 4(a). Mr. Murphy added his concern as to "whereas all the parties...". Court further noted "asserted or unasserted" needs to be removed. Mr. Murphy stated it should read "asserted in the T2 action". Court so noted. Court, RECONSIDERING its denial, GRANTED the motion for preliminary approval given the adjustments made to the release language, recognizing that the people who were not parties to the T2 action are not being released and that Reading itself is not executing a release of those claims.

CLERK'S NOTE: Motions to Seal inadvertently set by Master Calendar on the November 4, 2016 Chambers calendar belong to a different case and are being VACATED.

- Also present: Attorney Ekwan Rhow for Defendant William Gould; Mr. Tompkins observing in the gallery. Court advised the new law clerk for Probate, Atty. John Waite, is observing today as well.

Ms. Bannett participated by telephone.

Following arguments by counsel, COURT ORDERED, as follows:

READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S MOTION TO RECONSIDER OR CLARIFY ORDER GRANTING JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ADVICE OF COUNSEL DEFENSE ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME...MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, JUDY CODDING, AND MICHAEL WROTONIAK'S JOINDER TO

READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S MOTION TO RECONSIDER OR CLARIFY ORDER GRANTING JAMES J COTTER, JR'S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS RELATED TO ADVICE OF COUNSEL DEFENSE ON ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Motion GRANTED IN PART; if documents or information were not provided to Mr. Kane and Mr. Adams, it does not fall within the delineated items in the October 3rd order.

Court briefly RECESSED for a conference call in another matter.

Proceedings resumed. Following further arguments by counsel, COURT ORDERED, as follows:

PLAINTIFF JAMES J. COTTER, JR.'S MOTION TO VACATE AND RESET PENDING DATES AND TO REOPEN DISCOVERY ON SHORTENED TIME (FOURTH REQUEST): Motion GRANTED to the extent a motion to compel has been sought and relief has been received or not, to the extent it relates to Mr. Tompkins' information on the privilege log, and to the extent that the depositions of Mr. Kane, Ms. Codding, Mr. Adams, Mr. McEachern, Mr. Tompkins, the 30(b)(6), and 5 experts, need to be completed. The goal is to complete them as soon as possible, and the Court is hopeful they are done by December 2nd. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, matter SET for Status Check on December 1, 2016, regarding the status of depositions and resetting the trial date.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO 3) ON PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE PURPORTED UNSOLICITED OFFER...DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S JOINDER IN INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO.3) ON PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE PURPORTED UNSOLICITED OFFER...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 3 RE THE PURPORTED UNSOLICITED OFFER: 56(f) relief GRANTED because depositions have not been completed and the document has not been produced. Motion CONTINUED to December 1, 2016, for Mr. Krum to FILE a supplemental opposition related to those issues.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO. 2) RE: THE ISSUE OF DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 2 ON THE ISSUE OF DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE: Because of the request for 56(f) relief and because depositions have not been completed, this matter is CONTINUED to December 1, 2016. The Court anticipates there will be a discussion of any supplemental brief at that time. Court further notes that the independence issue needs to be evaluated on a transaction or action-by-action basis because the independence related to each needs to be separately evaluated; even though facts overlap, the Court cannot evaluate this in a vacuum.

RECESS.

Proceedings resumed. Following further arguments by counsel, COURT ORDERED, as follows:

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO. 4) ON PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 4 RE PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS RELATED TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Motion GRANTED IN PART; as to formation and revitalization (activation) of the committee the motion is GRANTED; as to utilization of the committee, the motion is DENIED; formation and revitalization includes a decision by the company to make use of their previously dormant executive committee and put people on that executive committee.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT (NO. 1) RE: PLAINTIFF'S TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT CLAIMS...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO THE INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT NO. 1 RE PLAINTIFF'S TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT CLAIMS: Motion DENIED as there are genuine issues of material fact as to the issues related to interested directors participating in the process.

Court made a disclosure regarding participating in a forum in 2013 with Chief Justice Steele and stated the Court does not believe this will affect its ability to be fair and impartial.

DEFENDANTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY OF MYRON STEELE, TIAGO DUARTE-SILVA, RICHARD SPITZ, ALBERT NAGY, AND JOHN FINNERTY...DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S JOINDER IN DEFENDANTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY OF MYRON STEELE, TIAGO DUARTE-SILVA, RICHARD SPITZ, ALBERT NAGY, AND JOHN FINNERTY...READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S JOINDER TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY OF MYRON STEELE, TIAGO DUARTE-SILVA, RICHARD SPRITZ, ALBERT NAGY AND JOHN FINNERTY: Motion as to Mr. Finnerty WITHDRAWN per Mr. Searcy's request. Motion GRANTED IN PART, with respect to Chief Justice Steele, for the limited purpose of what appropriate corporate governance activities would have been including what activities directors are interested. As to the other experts, the motion is DENIED.

Court noted based on the status reports it appears counsel will not be ready for trial. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Krum stated they have 1 1/2 days of expert depositions to finish and they have one of those days scheduled for next week. Mr. Krum referenced three categories of documents. Court advised it signed an Order which, it believes, correctly reflects the issues related to the advice of counsel issue. Court informed Mr. Krum if he has a new document production issue it would have to be raised in a Motion, not in the status report. Mr. Krum stated it has to do with an offer of documents and once they have those issues resolved they can schedule the depositions. Mr. Krum will file that motion next week. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Johnson has no objection to the motion being filed on an Order Shortening Time. Counsel advised they will speak and try and work out a date. FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT : Court inquired as to the status of discovery. Mr. Krum advised they are done with half a day with a single expert on fact discovery; as he understands that based on emails exchanged with Mr. Ferrario regarding issues on offer discovery, the scope of the documents to be produced have now been resolved so they will not need a motion; documents issues to be resolved, unless a writ is taken up on that issue; the good news is that they can schedule depositions for fact witnesses; their projection is that offer documents will be produced next week; other witnesses advice of counsel witnesses. Court noted documents for advice of counsel are not in dispute and inquired when they can be produced. Mr. Ferrario stated he will talk to Mr. Krum out in the hallway; on the express of interest they are providing those to Mr. Krum. COURT ORDERED, motions will not be reset today. Matter SET for a status check on rescheduling motions on December

DEFENDANTS MARGARET COTTER, ELLEN COTTER, GUY ADAMS, EDWARD KANE, DOUGLAS MCEACHERN, WILLIAM GOULD, JUDY CODDING, MICHAEL WROTNIAK'S SUPPLEMENT TO MOTIONS FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT NOS. 1, 2, 3, 5 AND 6...REQUEST FOR HEARING ON DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S PREVIOUSLY FILED MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT [Advanced from January 8, 2018]:

Following arguments by Mr. Tayback and Mr. Krum regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 1, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED IN PART. It is GRANTED with respect to Edward Kane, Douglas McEachern, William Gould, Judy Coddington, and Michael Wrotniak, and DENIED as to Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Guy Adams as there are genuine issues of material fact related to the disinterestedness of each of those individuals. As a result, they cannot at this time rely on the business judgment rule. Mr. Tayback inquired whether there is a ruling on the aspect of the motion that goes to the inability to hold those individuals personally liable for this claim. Court noted that for those 3 individuals, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Guy Adams, there is no ruling to that effect.

Following arguments by Mr. Tayback and Mr. Krum regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 2, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED IN PART to the extent counsel is asking the Court to make a determination as to whether there has been a showing of a lack of disinterestedness. There is a lack of disinterestedness for Margaret Cotter, Ellen Cotter, and Guy Adams. With respect to the other directors who are involved in the motion, there does not appear to be sufficient evidence presented to the Court to proceed with a claim of lack of disinterestedness.

Following arguments by Mr. Tayback and Mr. Krum regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 3, COURT ORDERED, because of the failure of damages related to an unenforceable, unsolicited, and non-binding offer, the Court is GRANTING the motion; however, Plaintiff is not precluded from utilizing that factual basis for claims of a breach of fiduciary duty.

Following argument by Mr. Searcy regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 5, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED.

Following argument by Mr. Searcy regarding Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 6, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED.

DEFENDANT WILLIAM GOULD'S MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE IRRELEVANT SPECULATIVE EVIDENCE: Following arguments by Mr. Rhow and Ms. Levin, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED as premature.

Following Mr. Krum's re-argument of his answer to the Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment No. 1 as to Mr. Gould, Court reiterated it has granted summary judgment for Mr. Gould.

PLAINTIFF JAMES COTTER JR'S MOTION IN LIMNE NO. 3 REGARDING AFTER-ACQUIRED EVIDENCE: Following arguments by Ms. Levin and Ms. Searcy, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED. Evidence will be admitted at trial with a limiting instruction that it only goes to suitability. Counsel for Defendants to think about whether they want the limiting instruction and what the text will be.

PLAINTIFF JAMES COTTER JR'S MOTION IN LIMINE NO. 2 REGARDING THE SUBMISSION OF MERITS-RELATED EVIDENCE BY NOMINAL DEFENDANT READING INTERNATIONAL INC: Following argument by Mr. Krum, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED.

PLAINTIFF JAMES J COTTER JR'S MOTION IN LIMINE NO. 1 REGARDING ADVICE OF COUNSEL: Following argument by Ms. Levin, COURT ORDERED, motion DENIED.

RENEWED MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE EXPERT TESTIMONY OF MYRON STEELE BASE ON SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY: The Court DECLINED to re-hear argument as it had previously ruled on this motion.

COURT ORDERED, Calendar Call will REMAIN on December 18, 2017. Call-ins will not be permitted. The Court will ask at that time if the amount of time needed for trial will change given the rulings today and the space issue.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED, Final Pre-Trial Conference SET for January 5, 2018 at 3:00 PM. Parties do not need to bring their exhibits to this conference but need to bring their proposed jury instructions and proposed voir dire questions, which are to be exchanged beforehand; any limiting instructions that counsel think are appropriate need to be brought to the conference as well. Court and counsel will also discuss what exhibits they may wish to place in a jury notebook that will not be more than 3 inches thick.

- Ms. Bannett participated by telephone.

Proposed order denying Plaintiff's motion for stay and motion for reconsideration signed in open court and returned to counsel for filing.

With regards to the trial, Court advised jury selection will be in Judge Denton's courtroom on Monday, January 8th at 1 PM. Parties to bring all original deposition transcripts to the Pre Trial Conference, which will be in 10-C. Upon Mr. Ferrario's inquiry, Court stated its usual practice is that all of a witness' testimony be presented at one time. Mr. Morris advised that they were in Nevada Supreme Court yesterday on the writ that arose from the motion to compel production of emails between Mr. Krum and Mr. Alexander Robertson; the Supreme Court pointed out to them that they did not have a written order but a minute order and the transcript; Justice Gibbons said they can supplement the record after the argument; however, Plaintiff has a proposed order that tracks the minute order and transcript. Mr. Searcy advised that his recollection is that there was a written order, but it has been 2 years. Mr. Morris advised the hearing was in September of 2016. Mr. Searcy added his recollection is that there was a written order but he will look for it; the Supreme Court is not directing the Court enter an order. Court stated it will research if the prior proposed order was logged out in case a runner from another firm picked it up.

Mr. Edwards advised he had a brought over a motion yesterday. Court handed it to counsel in court and advised it is set for Monday at 8:30 AM.

Following arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Searcy regarding the instant motion, COURT ORDERED, certification GRANTED as all the claims related to disinterestedness of directors have been resolved.

- Electronic exhibit drives VALIDATED by Court I.T. on the record and LODGED with the Clerk.

Jury selection: Court advised that each side will have 4 peremptory challenges for jurors and 3 peremptory challenges for alternate jurors, a total of 28 people to pass for cause, and a final jury panel of 14.

Counsel randomly selected the seat numbers of the alternates. Court noted the first alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 12; the second alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 2; the third alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 10; the fourth alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 11; the fifth alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 6; the 6th alternate will be the one sitting in seat no. 13. Parties stipulated to having the alternate jurors remain blind until the conclusion of closing arguments. Court explained peremptory challenge and Batson challenge process.

Court reminded counsel to avoid speaking objections, or counsel will be excused from the courtroom, held in contempt, or have their pro hac vice admission revoked.

Mr. Krum argued the exclusionary rule apply in opening statements. COURT ORDERED, the exclusionary rule will be imposed after opening statements.

Court acknowledged receipt of proposed voir dire questions and noted that the Defendants have no objections to the Plaintiff's proposed questions. Mr. Morris objected to the Defendants' proposed and supplemental questions, arguing that they are ambiguous and will not elicit germane responses. Reply by Mr. Tayback. COURT ORDERED, OBJECTION to 12 OVERRULED; the question will be PERMITTED to the extent it is seeking the juror's experience in dispute resolution. Following further argument by Mr. Morris and Mr. Tayback regarding the section on relevant attitudes 1 through 10, COURT FURTHER ORDERED, 1, 9, and 10 in this section will be PERMITTED; the others are either duplicative or too much like a hypothetical question.

Court reminded counsel that their brief opening remarks need to be fact-based.

Court inquired whether parties would be using a jury notebook. Counsel advised they could not agree. Court noted that if there are add-on exhibits that are admitted and that counsel want to be placed in the jury notebook, they need to provide 15 copies, three-hole punched with their own binders if not sharing binders.

Court further acknowledged receipt of proposed jury instructions and DIRECTED the parties to SUBMIT any special interrogatories by Wednesday (January 10, 2018) morning. In addition, all PowerPoint presentations to be used in the presentation of exhibits and examination of witnesses are to be PROVIDED to the other side at least 24 hours before use and a hard copy PROVIDED to the Clerk to be marked as a demonstrative exhibit.

Mr. Krum advised there may be some experts with scheduling issues; one witness is travelling from New Zealand, but he assumes parties will accommodate people if they have to; Mr. Storey will only be in Las Vegas on January 17, 18, and 19. Mr. Ferrario advised Defendants' witnesses will generally be available, that they have made arrangements and told Mr. Krum who would be called first, and that they do not anticipate issues on availability; one director will not be available during the first two weeks of trial.

Defendants submitted deposition transcripts in open court; Plaintiffs to submit theirs later as the transcripts are still en route via FedEx.

After review of both sides' proposed orders for the September 16, 2016 hearing, Court SIGNED in open court the version submitted by Mr. Morris as accurately reflecting the Court's ruling. Signed order returned to counsel for filing. Court RECESSED for the parties to discuss any exhibits that they stipulate to.

Proceedings resumed. Pursuant to stipulation, COURT ORDERED, Plaintiff's Proposed Exhibits 1 through 6, 23 through 33, 46, and 57, as well as Defendants' Proposed Exhibits 10035, 10050, 10051, 10133 through 10136, 10138, 10168, 10296, 10297, 10316, 10318, 10331 through 10333, 10352, 10354, 10374, 10375, 10393, 10403, and 10438 through 10448 are ADMITTED.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED, by Monday morning (January 8, 2018), parties to inform the Court if they have resolved the issue on their deposition designations, objections, and counter designations.

- Per parties' agreement, order shortening time for Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief, as well as the order shortening time for the motion to seal, signed for April 30, 2018 at 8:30 AM.

Court inquired whether trial can be reset on the stack that begins on May 21 and ends on June 22. Mr. Ferrario advised that from the Defendants' perspective they can start on June 4 as it would accommodate everyone's schedule. Mr. Krum advised that does not work for the Plaintiffs due to some witnesses whose availability they do not know yet; they have witnesses whose conflicts that go through July 4th; the parties can make a joint recommendation on Monday or argue their respective bases; as for the May 21st stack, they cannot be ready as that is 4 weeks away and they are still trying to finish discovery; failing that, they will be spending time on motions. Upon Court's inquiry, counsel estimated no more than 4 weeks for trial.

Court noted its oldest case is ready to go on July 30th and that the instant case needs to go before that one starts; parties can tell the Court on Monday, April 30th. Mr. Ferrario advised the issue of what issues remain will impact the length of the trial; as they were getting ready for the last trial both sides submitted sets of jury instructions; it is like ships passing in the night as far as instructions that relate to the claims, so it would be his request that the Court set a hearing where it can weigh in on some of the jury instructions. Court stated those can be discussed after parties have gone through the depositions and privilege issues. Mr. Ferrario further advised they will be filing a motion on ratification issues tomorrow.

- Court noted there is an issue with Mr. Gould being unable to travel and a request to have him appear by video. Mr. Ferrario advised Mr. Gould is dealing with medical issues and doctor's appointments. Mr. Krum objected to the request; they agreed to this on an expedited basis on Monday (4/30/18), and he ended up flying back here to do the evidentiary hearing; as to substance, Plaintiff received an opposition to their motion with an explanation as to why the documents were not produced; the Defendants should have told them what happened, and so Plaintiff objects to Mr. Gould giving any additional explanation. COURT ORDERED, request to testify by video conference PERMITTED as the evidentiary hearing was set on shortened time. The Court appreciates Plaintiff's position but counsel can argue it. Court further directed that any exhibits that Mr. Ferrario intends to use at all with Mr. Gould be scanned to the witness, Bates stamped, and provided to all counsel by noon today. Mr. Krum to also provide documents to Mr. Ferrario if he intends to examine Mr. Gould on those. Parties to provide 2 copies of exhibits to the Clerk for marking and for the Court to follow along.

Court acknowledged receipt of in camera submission; minute order to ISSUE. Mr. Ferrario and Mr. Krum discussed witnesses they intend to call at the evidentiary hearing.

Attorney Carolyn Renner for Defendant William Gould observing in the gallery.

Mr. Ferrario advised some of the inbox was restored. Mr. Krum argued they were told they would be provided with a supplemental privilege log but not today; the problem is they want to be able to test Mr. Gould's knowledge; they do not believe they cannot make a determination today as to what Mr. Gould would testify to but they reserve the right to depose him further on the entries. Response by Mr. Ferrario.

Upon Court's inquiry, witness William Gould agreed to be given the oath by the Clerk over the audiovisual transmission. William Gould and Michael Bonner, SWORN and TESTIFIED. Exhibits presented. (See worksheet.) RECESS.

Exhibits and testimony CONTINUED. Following further arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Ferrario, COURT ORDERED, it is inclined to have Ms. Coddling, Mr. McEachern, Mr. Gould, Mr. Kane, Mr. Wrotniak, and RDI PRODUCE all documents which mention the scheduling or the holding or the minutes related to the December 21st special committee, or related to the subject matter contained in P1 or a draft of or the preparation of P1, or those that go to the discussion of the subject of ratification understanding there will be assertions of privilege. In addition, the Court will consider whether additional depositions need to be taken after production of the information once the volume of the information has been seen.

With respect to Plaintiff's motion for omnibus relief, COURT ORDERED, it is GRANTED in PART. The individuals the Court has outlined will PRODUCE the information the Court has outlined. If there is an issue related to logging that information on a privilege log, given the scope of the information ordered to be produced, the parties may work it out amongst themselves or ask the Court to address it.

With respect to the motion to compel production of documents and privilege log, that has been covered under the ruling made today; part of the alternative relief was that the Court require additional information.

Court reiterated that there are 3 categories - the December 21, 2017 special committee meeting, P-1, and any discussion of ratification, not limited by time.

With regards to the motion for leave to file summary judgment, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED; however, Mr. Krum is given the opportunity to review the documents and the Defendants are not to slow play him.

Colloquy regarding resetting trial. Mr. Ferrario advised they had originally requested June 4th. Court stated it does not think the parties will make that date. Based on counsel's representation, Court noted trial is estimated to take 3 weeks.

COURT ORDERED, matter SET for status check on May 25, 2018 in chambers as to whether the documents have been exchanged. Counsel to FILE a status report.

- Arguments by Mr. Ferrario, Ms. Hendricks, and Mr. Krum about the parties' disagreements on the search terms, the search process, and what has been harvested and provided. Court noted options and terminate are not true synonyms of ratification, but approve would be; additionally, counsel is welcome to claim attorney-client privilege and if those items are returned they are to be placed on a privilege log. Court reiterated a search for the word ratification from the beginning of time; if it is a reasonable synonym, such as approve, the Court will work with the parties on appropriate limits so they will not be burdened with a large number of false hits. Mr. Ferrario responded they will circulate additional limiting terms, and if they have another issue they will call again today.

DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF TO PRODUCE COMMUNICATIONS RELATING TO EXPERT FEE PAYMENTS AND APPLICATION FOR ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Following arguments by Mr. Searcy and Ms. Levin, COURT ORDERED, motion GRANTED IN PART. Plaintiffs will provide updated billing statements from each of the experts they intend to use at trial within 10 calendar days (not judicial days) or by May 30, 2018. They are not required to provide their own correspondence with the experts at this point. Request for sanctions and attorney's fees DENIED.

PRE TRIAL CONFERENCE: Mr. Krum advised the Plaintiffs received even later than usual about 250 the first proposed red line pre-trial memorandum, but his side has not had a chance to process it; he would note that most of the track charges were made on Tuesday, some on Thursday, and one on Friday; Defendants have changed the experts that are being called. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Krum stated they do not know who besides Mr. Finnerty is not coming for trial.

Defendants estimated 80 hours for trial. Plaintiff estimated 3 weeks.

Court noted if the parties are adding electronic exhibits to those previously designated for the trial that was supposed to commence on January 8, Courts I.T. will be present at Calendar Call on June 18 to validate them.

- Megan Sheffield, Paralegal to Mark Ferrario, also participated by telephone.

Court noting the status report on discovery inquired about the review of additional information. Mr. Ferrario, indicating he is reading from prepared notes handed to him by Ms. Sheffield, advised that they had a very broad capture which returned 333 privileged documents and 11 that were not privileged; many of the documents they are producing is already in the possession of Mr. Cotter and they will produce the 11 on a rolling basis. Mr. Krum responded that he suspects the privileged documents would fall into 2 categories, which are the third party directors and then the rest of the people in the company; he requests that the privilege log on the third party directors be provided. Mr. Searcy noted that their practice has been to put the privileged documents on the RDI privilege log but he is happy to provide a privilege log with respect to the third party directors; one document may not be on the RDI log. Upon Mr. Ferrario's inquiry, Ms. Sheffield stated the privilege log on their end can be provided on June 4th. Mr. Ferrario noted their other alternative would be Friday (June 1st). Per Ms. Cowden's request, Court explained its ruling on the May 25th matters in chambers. Further arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Ferrario on pending document production. Court noted it anticipates the motion regarding dispositive issues being filed and ORDERED everything ordered produced to be PRODUCED forthwith.

- Mr. Ferrario requested they address the first issue which is the continued review of some documents. Mr. Searcy stated that on May 25th the Nevada Supreme Court finalized its order directing the in camera review of documents withheld by Plaintiffs on work-product grounds; he has not seen a response. Court NOTED it cannot review the documents without having them. Mr. Krum inquired about the form of delivery. Court stated it is better for the documents to be in hard copy. At Mr. Ferrario's request for a date certain, Mr. Krum stated they can submit the documents to the Court this week. COURT ORDERED, status check SET for the in camera review on June 8, 2018 in Chambers.

Mr. Ferrario advised the second issue is a revolving one regarding experts and Plaintiff needing to produce documents regarding experts; Plaintiff will not be calling Mr. Finnerty and Duarte Silva, and if that is the case additional motions need to be filed. Statement by the Court regarding collusion being an issue that can be made at trial as this is something that would not affect the dispositive motion deadline.

Colloquy regarding resetting the two motions that are currently set for July 9th to June. Mr. Krum noted privilege log issues. Court directed counsel to file a motion for privilege log. Mr. Krum advised he can file his opposition to the 2 motions within 2 weeks. Court NOTED that will be June 18. Mr. Ferrario advised he can have his reply done by June 22; he has mediation on June 25th and 26th and can hopefully get back late at night on the 26th. Mr. Krum stated he can make June 27 work. COURT ORDERED, the two motions currently set for July 9th are RESET to June 27th, tentatively for 10 AM. Mr. Ferrario to check his travel plans.

THE COURT'S MAY 2, 2018 RULINGS AND APPLICATION FOR ORDER SHORTENING TIME...PLAINTIFF JAMES J COTTER JR'S MOTION TO COMPEL AND APPLICATION FOR ORDER SHORTENING TIME AND ORDER SHORTENING TIME: Following arguments by Mr. Krum and Mr. Ferrario. COURT ORDERED, the motion for relief and motion to compel are GRANTED IN PART. The Court will conduct an in camera review. Updated privilege logs in electronic, Excel format as well as the documents to be reviewed, in hard copy, are to be delivered to Chambers by Friday, June 22, at 8:30 AM. For purposes of the pre-trial motions, as an evidentiary sanction, the Court will infer and make a rebuttable presumption that the documents if timely produced would support Plaintiff's position that the ratification was a sham or fraudulent exercise. If there are remaining issues after the pre-trial motions, Mr. Gould, Ms. Coddington, Mr. McEachern, Ellen Cotter, Margaret Cotter, and Mr. Tompkins will appear for depositions for a period not to exceed one hour next week. RECESS.

Proceeding resumed. Court provided Ms. Hendricks with its privilege log instructions. Colloquy regarding the Court's ruling and the privilege log and documents to be provided in camera.

ELLEN COTTER, MARGARET COTTER, AND GUY ADAMS MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT: Arguments by Mr. Tayback, Mr. Ferrario, and Mr. Krum. COURT NOTED that it has taken into consideration the inferences, the rebuttable presumption, as well as evidence submitted along with the motions. The typical practice is to have independent advisers provide information to the board and / or the special committees under NRS 78.138. While that is certainly cleaner practice, it is uncontested here that Greenberg Traurig, qualified and experienced counsel, under NRS 78.138(2)(b) gave legal advice related to the ratification to the directors the Court had previously determined to be independent. The advice given was protected by the attorney-client privilege based on the Wynn case, and the Court must honor the ratification by those independent directors and respect their business judgment after their reliance on Greenberg Traurig under NRS 78.138(2)(b). For that reason, the motion for summary judgment is GRANTED.

RECESS.

NOMINAL DEFENDANT, READING INTERNATIONAL, INC.'S MOTION TO DISMISS PURSUANT TO NRCP12(B)(2), OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, NRC 12(B)(5) FOR LACK OF STANDING: Matter submitted. COURT NOTED Motion is MOOT unless there are remaining issues. Mr. Ferrario stated there is nothing left from his, Mr. Tayback's, and the directors' perspective. Mr. Krum responded that Plaintiff thinks the same of today's ruling as they did of the rulings made by the Court made on December 11th, that there is no reason for them to take the time of the parties and the Court to do anything other than pursue those rulings on appeal, as they already have.

Court directed Mr. Krum to prepare an order related to the motion for relief and motion to compel, and Mr. Tayback to prepare findings of fact and conclusions of law related to Defendants' motions.

COURT ORDERED, trial and all other future dates VACATED.

Court noted it can still do an in camera review and minute order but it will not have any impact on future events, unless the case returns. Court informed Ms. Hendricks she does not need to submit documents in camera.

- The Court is in receipt of the boxes delivered for in camera review by Greenberg Traurig. Based upon Mr. Krum's comments at the hearing on June 19, 2018, the Court will not be conducting an in camera review at this time. As the Court's current office does not allow storage of any documents not immediately being reviewed, Greenberg Traurig is ORDERED to RETRIEVE the documents. If the Nevada Supreme Court remands the case, the documents may then be returned to the Court for review.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Mr. Searcy appeared by telephone.

Ms. Levin argued in support of the motion, noting that even with Mr. Krum's comments an agreement had been made with the other side to submit documents for the Court's review; their purpose was to decrease the burden on the Court, and they simply want to do this in one go and not have anything hanging out there. Mr. Ferrario stated he had nothing to add except to clarify that he could never get an answer from Mr. Krum as to what would be accomplished by the review. Mr. Searcy and Mr. Johnson advised they had nothing to add as well. COURT ORDERED, given the representations made by Mr. Krum in court to this Court, the Court will not conduct an in camera review that Mr. Krum said the Court did not have to do.

- Arguments by Ms. Levin and Mr. Ferrario. Ms. Levin provided supplemental examples of costs marked as Court s Exhibit 1. (See worksheet) Following arguments by counsel, COURT ADVISED the categories in the Memorandum of Costs and Disbursement are retaxed for Number 3. The expert witnesses are reduced to $250,000.00 for Mr. Klausner, $250,000.00 for Mr. Roll, the $152 amount for Mr. Strombom is compensated and Mr. Foster s amount of $201,000 is compensated. With respect to the statutory limitation, COURT FINDS that given the nature of this particular case, is it appropriate to exceed the statutory limitation, that the amounts that have been requested in large part by defendants are excessive. With respect to any costs by Mr. Gould, those costs are too late. With respect to Category 12, the amount is reduced to $450,000.00. With respect to Categories 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17, the Motion to Retax is GRANTED.
