18                                    STATEMENT OF THE CASE

19            Renard Polk, hereinafter Defendant, was charged by way of Amended Criminal

20    Complaint with two counts of Sexual Assault With a Minor Under Fourteen (14) Years

21    of Age and one count of Sexual Assault With a Minor Under Sixteen (16) Years of 22    Age. On April 25, 2000, defense counsel moved to have Defendant psychologically

23    evaluated. As a result, the trial court directed counsel to have Defendant evaluated by 24    a doctor. (1 A.A. 5). On June 27, 2000, defense counsel advised the court that he had

25    a report that recommended Defendant be sent to Lakes Crossing. (2 A.A. 7). On

26    August 1, 2000, pursuant to NRS 178.425, the trial court ordered Defendant remanded

27    to the custody of the Administration of the Mental Hygiene and Mental Retardation

28    Division for the Department of Human Resources for the detention and treatment at

1 a secure facility operated by the Mental Hygiene and Mental Retardation Division. (1
2 A.A. 8).

3 On November 2, 2000, State filed in open court an Order of Findings of 4 Competency and Order to Transport Defendant in Open Court. (1 A.A. 8). The court
5 agreed and found Defendant competent and ordered Defendant to be transported. (1
6 A.A. 8). On August 8, 2001, this matter was to go to trial. However, defense counsel 7 filed a motion for additional time to seek out a different plea and advised the court that 8 he was going forward with an insanity defense. (1 A.A. 13).

9 The charges were amended on January 7, 2002, by way of interlineation to three 10 counts of Sexual Assault With a Minor Under Fourteen (14) Years of Age. (2 A.A. at 11 123). Jury trial commenced on January 7, 2002. (1 A.A. 17). On January 9, 2002,
12 defense counsel moved for a mistrial. (1 A.A. 18). Trial court denied defense counsel's 13 motion for mistrial. (1 A.A. 18). On January 9, 2002, Defendant was convicted of 14 Attempted Sexual Assault With a Minor Under Fourteen and Sexual Assault With a 15 Minor Under Fourteen. (1 A.A. at 19).

16 The Defendant was sentenced to a maximum of one hundred twenty (120)
17 months and a minimum of forty-eight (48) months for Count I, Attempted Sexual 18 Assault With a Minor Under Fourteen. As for Count II, Sexual Assault With a Minor
19 Under Fourteen (14), Defendant was sentenced to life with a minimum of two hundred 20 forty (240) months. Count II is to run consecutive with Count I. In addition,
21 Defendant was ordered to pay $1, 493.40 restitution and ordered to lifetime
22 supervision upon release from any term of probation, parole or imprisonment. On April 23 3, 2002, Defendant filed a notice of appeal. The instant appeal followed.

24 STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

25 In January of 1999, Jahala was playing in her family's kitchen with her sisters:
26 Javan, Anna, and Jamila. While Jahala was playing around and wrestling her brother,
27 the Defendant wrestled her into the bathroom and shut the door. Behind this closed 28 door Defendant ordered Jahala to lie on the ground where he covered her mouth so she

1 could not scream. Defendant then proceeded to take off Jahala's clothes. (2 A.A. 63).
2 After getting Jahala naked, Defendant proceeded to get naked himself. He then laid
3 down on top of Jahala and put his penis in her "butt hole." (2 A.A. 64-65).

4 However, Defendant had difficulties performing. (2 A.A. 64, 68). As a result,
5 Defendant licked Jahala's anus to make penetration easier and increase his sexual 6 gratification. (2 A.A. 64, 68). Intimidated and scared of Defendant, Jahala built up
7 enough courage to tell her brother that he was hurting her. The pain of having her
8 brother's penis in her anus was unbearable for Jahala.

9 Upon hearing this news, Defendant let his sister get up from the floor.(2 A.A.
10 65). However, he was not sexually satisfied. Defendant sat on the toilet and grabbed 11 Jahala as she stood naked and told her to act like she was taking a "dump" while she 12 sat on his penis. (2 A.A. 67).

13 On March 13, 1999, Anna Polk was ten years old and in the forth grade. (2 A.A.
14 46, 226). On this day she and her sisters were planning a trip to the store. However,
15 Defendant, Anna's oldest brother, had other plans for Anna and did not allow her to 16 go to the store with her sisters. (2 A.A. 96, 261).

17 After Anna's sisters left for the store, Defendant forced Anna into his bedroom.
18 After forcing her into his bedroom, Defendant took Anna's pants and panties off
19 against her will. Defendant then sat naked in a chair and forced Anna to sit on his lap.
20 With Anna, Defendant's younger sister sitting naked on his lap, Defendant put his 21 "dick" in her "butt hole" and began moving around. However, Defendant was not 22 getting the sexual gratification he desired. (2 A.A. 99).

23 As a result, he pushed Anna on to the floor. (2 A.A. 100). While Anna laid 24 naked face down on the floor, Defendant, once again, attempted to achieve sexual 25 gratification by putting his penis in Anna's anus.(2 A.A. 100). However, Anna could 26 not bear the pain. She begged and pleaded with Defendant to stop. However,
27 Defendant was determined and did not want to hear Anna complain anymore. As a 28

1 result, he put a pillow over Anna's head and covered her mouth while he continued
2 to satisfy his sexual needs by penetrating her anally with his penis.

3 When Jahala and Jamila came home from the store, they witnessed Anna crying.
4 (2 A.A. 101). Before they got an opportunity to ask Anna what was the matter, Anna
5 informed them that "he did it again." (2 A.A. 72). Jahala and Jamila were aware 6 Defendant had been doing this to her consistently since she was five or six years old.
7 (2 A.A. 93, 103). However, after this incident, unlike the other incidents, the girls told 8 an adult. (2 A.A. 70).

9 Jamila, the oldest sister, called Aunt Susan and she immediately came over to 10 the house. (2 A.A. 70, 76, 156). Jamila informed Aunt Susan, since Anna was too
11 scared to speak, of the cruel acts Defendant was performing upon Anna. (2 A.A. 108).
12 Aunt Susan called the police. (2 A.A. 109).

13 When the police arrived, they insisted Anna be taken to Sunrise Hospital for 14 examination. (2 A.A. 73). However, the police were unable to talk to Defendant when 15 they arrived at the house because he had fled from the scene. (2 A.A. 113).

16 In the early hours of August 14, 1999, Defendant telephoned dispatch and turned 17 himself in for "raping his little sister." (2 A.A. 265; Respondent's Appendix (R.A.) 2).
18 Detective Timothy Moniot interviewed Defendant and listened to his voluntary
19 statement inside juvenile hall. (2 A.A. 268; R.A. 1). During this interview Defendant
20 admitted to molesting Anna Polk, his younger sister, by sticking his "penis" in her
21 "booty" more than one time while she cried and said "no." (R.A. 6, 12). In addition,
22 Defendant admitted to "almost" penetrating his sister Jahala. (R.A. 17).

ARGUMENT

I.

THE STATE PROPERLY ELICITED TESTIMONY REGARDING DEFENDANT'S PRIOR DRUG USE

A. Defendant did not properly preserve this issue raised on direct appeal

The Defendant alleges the State improperly elicited testimony of Defendant's prior drug use. He asserts that this evidence was unduly prejudicial because it implicated him in uncharged misconduct in violation of NRS 48.045. However, the Defendant failed to properly preserve this issue for appeal, and in the alternative, his argument is without merit.

The Defendant failed to properly preserve this issue for review by making a proper and timely objection at trial. Objections to alleged errors must be lodged at trial in order to preserve appellate review. McCullough v. State, 99 Nev. 72, 74, 657 P.2d 1157, 1158 (1983); see also State v. Taylor, 114 Nev. 1071, 1077, 968 P.2d 315, 320 (1998), Emmons v. State, 107 Nev. 53, 61, 807 P.2d 718, 723 (1991). "When an appellant fails to specifically object to questions asked or testimony elicited during trial, but complains about them, in retrospect upon appeal, we [this Court] do not consider his contention a proper assignment of error." Greene v. State, 113 Nev. 157, 931 P.2d 54, 65-6 (1997) (quoting Wilson v. State, 86 Nev. 320, 326, 468 P.2d 346, 350 (1970)).

By failing to make a timely objection to the line of questioning regarding Defendant's drug use, Defendant waived any objection to the introduction of this evidence. As a result his appeal should be denied.

B. It Was Not Plain Error for the Trial Court to Permit References to Defendant's Drug Use Without Holding a Hearing

Even if counsel had properly objected, the court acted within its discretion in allowing the State to question Defendant about his passion to learn and how it related to his drug use.

1 In general, district courts are vested with considerable discretion in determining
2 the relevance and admissibility of evidence. Castillo v. State, 114 Nev. 271, 956 P.2d
3 103, 107 (1998), citing Atkins v. State, 112 Nev. 1122, 1127, 923 P.2d 1119, 1123
4 (1996). A district court's decision to admit or exclude evidence rests within its sound
5 discretion and will not be disturbed unless it is manifestly wrong. Libby v. State, 115
6 Nev. 45, 52, 975 P.2d 833, 837 (1999).

7 Since the Defendant failed to object to this testimony, this Court must review
8 the evidence under the plain error doctrine. See McCullough above. In this case, it
9 was not plain error for the court to admit references to the Defendant's conduct without 10 conducting a Petrocelli hearing. While a court should conduct a Petrocelli hearing
11 prior to admitting uncharged misconduct, a district court's failure to hold a Petrocelli
12 hearing is not plain error. Qualls v. State, 114 Nev. 900, 904, 961 P.2d 765, 767
13 (1998). Reversal is not necessary if: (1) the record is sufficient to determine that the 14 evidence is admissible, or (2) the result would have been the same if the trial court had 15 not admitted the evidence. Id.

16 Defendant claims that pursuant to NRS 48.045(2) that no reason existed to put 17 before the jury Defendant's prior drug use. NRS 48.045(2) states that:

18 Evidence of other crimes, wrongs or acts not admissible to prove the 19 character of a person in order to show that he acted in conformity 20 therewith. It may, however, be admissible for other purposes, such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident.

21 However, there was reason for the State to address Defendant's prior drug use.
22 Defense counsel continually claimed throughout the trial that the Defendant was not 23 mentally stable and in addition he did not remember certain things because he was high 24 and drunk.

25 Pursuant to NRS 48.045 (1)(a) evidence of a person's character or trait is 26 admissible if it is offered by the accused and similar evidence is also admissible if 27 offered by the prosecution to rebut such evidence.

1 In the instant case the State asked the Defendant if he remembered his 2 conversation with Dr. Paglini in which he informed Paglini that he lost his "passion to 3 learn" when he began using drugs in the ninth grade. This line of questioning was to 4 rebut defense counsel's continuing theme throughout the trial that Defendant is 5 mentally unstable and his voluntary confession that he raped his little sister is 6 unreliable.

7 In defense counsel's opening statement, as stated below, he addressed
8 Defendant's mental stability as well as Defendant's confession in which he claimed he 9 did not remember certain things because he was high and drunk:

10 Mr. Polk looks fine. You can look at him, he wears glasses, but he's not.
11 He's not fine. You will learn he has some problems. Not to the level of 12 he doesn't understand what's happening here, but he has some great 13 difficulties.

14 Mr. Polk went to that police station saying I feel bad, I want some help.
15 Now, it is Mr. Polk's position now that he's not guilty, that he hasn't 16 done this.

17 ***

18 And again, I want to reiterate that although he may look very straight 19 forward to you, he doesn't have to testify, but if he does, you'll see that 20 he's not quite altogether.

21 (A.A. 40-42)

22 This statement as well as Defendant's testimony, opened the door for the state and 23 made all evidence relevant pursuant to NRS 48.025 that addressed the issue of how and 24 why Defendant acts and says the things that he does. As a result it allowed the State
25 to inquire about Defendant's drug use.

26 However, this was not the only time defense counsel addressed Defendant's 27 ability to learn as well as his mental stability throughout the trial.

28 During cross examination of Susan Sims, Defendant's aunt, defense counsel asked Susan the following line of questions in regards to the Defendant's mental state as well as his passion to learn:

Q: Did he do well in school?

A: Renard was a great student in school.

1 Q: Study a lot?

2 A: Yes

3 Q: Did you know him to have any type of mental problems?

4 A: No

5 Q: You've never known him to have any type of mental problems?

6 A: No

7 Q: Have you ever known him to be hospitalized with mental problems?

8 A: No.

9 (2 A.A. 259-260).

10 In addition, in direct examination of Defendant, defense counsel stated
11 Defendant was mentally unstable (A.A. 282) even before the following examination 12 occurred:

13 Q: Have you ever been hospitalized for any mental instability?

14 A: Yeah

15 ***

16 Q: Did you do anything specifically that caused you to be hospitalized?

17 A: Yeah

18 Q: What did you do?

19 A: Tried to commit suicide.

20 Q: Why did you try to commit suicide?

21 A: Well, I guess you could say, they call it hari-kari or whatever in the
22 Chinese tradition or Japanese, some people call it "Sonichi."

23 Q: You wanted to kill yourself?

24 A: Yeah

25 Q: Why did you want to kill yourself?

26 A: Because people told me I had to do something about it.

27 Q: Was that--how long were you hospitalized?

28 A: About a week.

1 Q: In that the only time you have been hospitalized psychiatric?

2 A: Hospitalized, yes; counseled, no.

3 Q: You've never been anywhere else?

4 A: Oh, Lake Crossing, that's right.

5 Q: Have you been prescribed prescription drugs for mental problems?

6 A: Yeah

7 (A.A. 282, 286, 287)

8 Since defense counsel solicited testimony about Defendant's education and his 9 mental stability he opened the door for the State to inquire about his learning ability
10 and how drug use has affected this ability. As stated supra, defense counsel's 11 continuing theme throughout the trial was that Defendant is mentally unstable and his 12 voluntary confession that he raped his little sister is unreliable. However, Defendant
13 himself admitted that his memory lapses occurred when he was high and drunk.(R.A.
14 6).

15 Therefore, the record is sufficient to determine that the inquiry into Defendant's
16 drug use is admissible. As a result, Defendant's appeal should be denied.

17
18 II.

19 THE COURT DID NOT ERR IN DENYING DEFENDANT'S
20 MOTION FOR MISTRIAL

21 Defendant claims the district court erred in denying his motion for mistrial. In 22 addition, Defendant claims that by inquiring about Defendant's plea the State violated
23 the attorney-client privilege. However, the Defendant failed to properly preserve this 24 issue for review. In addition, Defendant's claim is without merit.

25 A. Defendant did not properly preserve this issue raised on direct appeal

26 The Defendant failed to properly preserve this issue for review by making a 27 timely and contemporaneous objection at trial. In fact, Defendant's motion for a new 28 trial did not occur until the day after the State inquired into Defendant's plea in the case. (2 A.A. 315). As stated supra, objections to alleged errors must be lodged at trial

1 in order to preserve appellate review. McCullough v. State, 99 Nev. 72, 74, 657 P.2d
2 1157, 1158 (1983); see also State v. Taylor, 114 Nev. 1071, 1077, 968 P.2d 315, 320
3 (1998), Emmons v. State, 107 Nev. 53, 61, 807 P.2d 718, 723 (1991). “When an 4 appellant fails to specifically object to questions asked or testimony elicited during 5 trial, but complains about them, in retrospect upon appeal, we [this Court] do not 6 consider his contention a proper assignment of error.” Greene v. State, 113 Nev. 157,
7 931 P.2d 54, 65-6 (1997) (quoting Wilson v. State, 86 Nev. 320, 326, 468 P.2d 346, 8 350 (1970)).

9 By failing to make a timely objection to the line of questioning regarding 10 Defendant’s plea in the case, Defendant waived any objection to the introduction of 11 this evidence. As a result his appeal should be denied. However, if this Court does 12 address the merits, it should conclude that they are without merit.

13 B. The Trial Court Did Not Err When it Denied Defendant’s Motion for 14 Mistrial

15 Defendant alleges the trial court erred in denying Defendant’s motion for 16 mistrial because the State improperly inquired into his plea in the case. By inquiring
17 about Defendant’s plea in the case Defendant claims that the State improperly shifted 18 the burden of proof in the case and relies on this Court’s holding in Colley v. State, 98
19 Nev. 14, 639 P.2d 530 (1982).

20 Defendant claims that in Colley this Court held that it is generally outside the 21 bounds of proper argument to comment on a defendant’s failure to call a witness or 22 present a certain defense. However, this is not an accurate statement of the law in this 23 case. This case does not state that it is outside the bounds of proper argument to 24 comment on a defendant’s failure to present a certain defense.

25 In Colley, during trial Colley gave an alibi testimony in his own defense. On 26 cross-examination, the State asked Colley where Debra was. Colley responded that he 27 would “stand the fifth on that” and the defense counsel objected to the line of 28 questioning as being irrelevant. In response, the State stated “I believe that

1 Debra...was originally named as one of the alibi witnesses.” The defense moved for 2 a mistrial and the motion was denied. Id.

3 Defendant appealed from his conviction of attempted murder and battery with 4 intent to commit sexual assault with substantial bodily harm. On appeal Defendant 5 argued that the district court erred in denying the motion for a mistrial because the 6 State’s statement “impermissibly shifted the burden of persuasion to the defendant to 7 prove his innocence” by forcing him to explain why Debra did not testify at trial.

8 This Court concluded that Defendant’s argument is without merit and affirmed
9 Defendant’s conviction. This Court stated that although it is ordinarily impermissible
10 to comment on a defendant’s failure to call a witness, under the circumstances of this 11 case the statement was not justified. Id. However, this Court did not state that it was 12 generally outside the bounds of proper argument to comment on defendant’s failure to 13 present a certain defense.

14 As this Court concluded in Colley that it was justified to comment on 15 Defendant’s failure to call a witness, it should conclude that the State’s inquiry into 16 Defendant’s plea in the instant case was justified as well and as a result it did not shift 17 the burden of proof.

18 Here, defense counsel continually put Defendant’s mental stability into question.
19 As stated supra, in defense counsel’s opening statement he addressed Defendant’s
20 mental stability and claimed that even though Defendant looked fine he in actuality had 21 some great difficulties. (A.A. 40, 41, 42) In addition, in direct examination of 22 Defendant, defense counsel stated Defendant was mentally unstable. (A.A. 282) while 23 the following examination occurred:

24 Q: Have you ever been hospitalized for any mental instability?

25 A: Yeah

26 ***

27 Q: Did you do anything specifically that caused you to be hospitalized?

28 A: Yeah

1 Q: What did you do?
2 A: Tried to commit suicide.
3 Q: Why did you try to commit suicide?
4 A: Well, I guess you could say, they call it hari-kari or whatever in the
5 Chinese tradition or Japanese, some people call it "Sonichi."
6 Q: You wanted to kill yourself?
7 A: Yeah
8 Q: Why did you want to kill yourself?
9 A: Because people told me I had to do something about it.
10 Q: Was that--how long were you hospitalized?
11 A: About a week.
12 Q: In that the only time you have been hospitalized psychiatric?
13 A: Hospitalized, yes; counseled, no.
14 Q: You've never been anywhere else?
15 A: Oh, Lake Crossing, that's right.
16 Q: Have you been prescribed prescription drugs for mental problems?
17 A: Yeah

18 (A.A. 282, 286, 287)

19 NRS 48.045(1)(a) states that evidence of a person's character or trait is 20 admissible if it is offered by the accused and similar evidence is also admissible if 21 offered by the prosecution to rebut such evidence. This line of questioning, as stated
22 supra, as well as defense counsel's opening statement puts Defendant's mental stability
23 in question. Defense counsel continuously tried to convince the jury that the Defendant 24 was mentally unstable.

25 Defendant also cites NRS 49.095 which sets forth the general rule of privilege
26 between attorney and client. In relying on NRS 49.095 Defendant claims that the State
27 breached the attorney-client privilege when it inquired into Polk's plea in the case.
28 However, no confidential communication was disclosed.

1 Pursuant to NRS 49.055 a communication is confidential if it is not intended to 2 be disclosed to third persons other than those to whom disclosure is in furtherance of 3 the rendition of professional legal services to the client or those reasonably necessary
4 for the transmission of the communication.

5 Defense counsel continuously addressed Defendant's plea in pretrial hearings.
6 For example, On August 8, 2001, in the instant matter, defense counsel mentioned on 7 the record at pretrial hearings that Defendant was going forward with an insanity
8 defense. (A.A. 13). Once again on October 14, 2001, defense counsel stated that he 9 is ready for trial, however, in September he heard the Defendant was in a mental 10 facility and requested to obtain those records from the psychiatrist. (A.A. 14).

11 As a result of defense counsel disclosing to the court on the record Defendant's
12 plea in the case, no confidential communication was disclosed during the cross
13 examination of the Defendant. Hence, no attorney-client privilege was violated.

14 Therefore, it was proper to allow the State to cross-examine the Defendant and 15 inquire about his plea after Defendant had been hospitalized for possible psychiatric 16 reasons but still did not enter a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity. As a result, the 17 trial court did not err when it denied Defendant's motion for a new trial and 18 Defendant's argument must be denied.

19 C. Any Error Committed by the Trial Court Was Harmless

20 Even if the district court committed error by allowing the references as stated
21 above, the error was harmless in view of the overwhelming evidence of guilt presented 22 at trial. See Kelly v. State, 108 Nev. 545, 552, 837 P.2d 416 (1992) (errors in 23 admitting evidence "will be deemed harmless" when the evidence of guilt is strong).
24 The evidence of guilt was strong. It is clear that the result of the trial would have been 25 the same even without the references. In fact, both the victims identify the Defendant
26 as the man that sexually assaulted them and in addition, Defendant, himself, admitted
27 to molesting Anna Polk, his younger sister, and almost penetrating his sister Jahala.
28 (R.A. 6, 12, 17).

1 Accordingly, the Defendant's appeal must be dismissed.

2 CONCLUSION

3 Based upon the foregoing, the State respectfully requests that this Court dismiss
4 the Defendant's appeal.
