Case No.: 12 DR1 00391 1B

Dept. No.: 1

IN THE FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA
IN AND FOR CARSON CITY

MAYRA ARREGUIN,

Petitioner,

vs.

JAVIER RAMIREZ RIVAS,

Respondent.

ORDER DENYING MOTIONS

This matter is before this Court on a Motion filed on November 2, 2018 by the Respondent, Javier Ramirez Rivas seeking to modify custody/visitation, child therapist, child support, enforce prior order, order to comply, list parental rights, restitution of vacation/bear the expenses, et al.

The Court would note that a hearing and order were issued in the matter on June 6, 2018 following reports from the CASA representative.

At the hearing on November 29, 2018, the Respondent and Petitioner both appeared without any legal counsel and the CASA representative was present and had provided to the Court and parties an extensive report. Additionally the CASA representative reported to the Court that she was concerned about Respondent's conduct based on his heated and threatening comments to here.

1 The Court would note that throughout the hearing the Respondent was very
2 confrontational and accusatory toward the CASA representative and Petitioner. The CASA
3 representative did take responsibility for a vacation mishap based on miscommunication which
4 resulted in Respondent not being allowed to take the children on vacation, but it was reported
5 that the children did not want to go with the Respondent.

6 It is equally important to note that this has been and continues to be a very contentious
7 matter, it was represented by Petitioner and CASA that the children were doing well and that
8 they were doing good in school, except math. Help has also been set up for them regarding math
9 through the school. The CASA report and comments at the hearing suggest the children are 10 working well with Lisa Yesitis, LSW from the Ron Wood Family Center. It is clear that 11 Eduardo, the oldest child, wants minimal contact with his father based on the evidence presented,
12 but that Carlos wants to have a relationship with his father.

13 A review of NRS 125C.005, Ellis v. Carucci, 123 Nev. 145, 161 P.3d 239, (2007) and the 14 factors listed in NRS 125C.0035(4) continue to support the Petitioner having primary physical 15 custody given the following finding by this Court: (a) Eduardo is of sufficient enough age and 16 capacity to form an intelligent preference to be with his mother and have limited contact with his
17 father. As per the prior order of this Court, based on the recommendation of CASA and as the 18 therapist, supports the boys having input on being with their father. (b) Given the conflict
19 between the parties and the prior extensive issue concerning Respondent's conduct towards the 20 boys and the Petitioner, it is important to protect the children and place them in a safe
21 environment, which in this case is with their mother as represented in the CASA report. (c)
22 Respondent has no ability to cooperate to meet the needs of the children and chooses instead to
23 attack everyone from CASA, the prior therapist, and Petitioner. He is incapable of changing.
24 The Court's opinion is based on his continued accusations, loss of employment, and general
25 attitude. (d) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the children are being handled
26 by the Petitioner, CASA, and school representatives. The Petitioner represented the children are
27 doing well under the existing arrangement. (e) The existing nature of the children's relationships
28 with Respondent is being monitored by the Ron Wood Family Center and CASA in the Court's

1 opinion. (f) As reflected above, the previous abuse relating to the Respondent toward Eduardo
2 and the Petitioner, has been an ongoing pattern in this matter and is considered by the Court.

3 The Court would note that based on Respondent's aggression and continual attacks on
4 Petitioner, the CASA representative and the Court, the Court believes he was in contempt; and as
5 such, at the end of the hearing the Court had Respondent detained by security for a short period
6 of time in the detention cell so that he would settle down, allow the Petitioner and CASA
7 representative to leave the court house and to make Respondent reflect on his conduct.

8 Therefore, based on the foregoing and good cause appearing,

9 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the June 2, 2018 Order will remain in effect with the 10 changes reflected herein; and, as such, Respondent's Motion for a change of Custody is 11 DENIED. Therefore, the parenting time between the children, Eduardo and Carlos, will remain
12 at their discretion with their father, Mr. Ramirez. Respondent can go to Carlos' school and have
13 lunch with him provided it does not become abusive. As to Eduardo until Eduardo and school
14 officials, along with Lisa Yesitis, allow, Mr. Ramirez is to stay away from Eduardo's school.

15 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that until it is determined by and through Lisa
16 Yesitis, no new treatment will be obtained for the children. Eduardo is allowed to reduce the 17 number of sessions to once per month to support his ability to make his own decisions and given
18 how well he is doing. Therapy for Carlos is to be determined by Lisa Yesitis. If Eduardo wants
19 visitation with his father he can choose as to whether or not it should be supervised.

20 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent may have visitation on 21 Sundays between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. provided the children elect to do so. Additionally, he 22 may have a telephone call with the children at 6:00 p.m. every Wednesday, again at the 23 children's discretion. If they choose not to do so they are to text Mr. Ramirez. Respondent is to
24 have any eight (8) hour visitation period with the children during the Christmas Holidays, again
25 subject to their input, and Lisa Yesitis's approval on where and when.

26 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that Petitioner shall do her best to improve
27 communicating with the Ron Wood Family Center and CASA. The Court acknowledges that 28 Petitioner is taking co-parenting classes.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that Mr. Ramirez shall seek independent therapeutic services to address with his anger, dealing with his children, how his behavior is offensive to other people, and its impact on the children. If he so chooses, he should have a parental evaluation done, at his own expense, and engage in co-parenting classes.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED based on Mr. Ramirez now having a gross monthly income of approximately $1,900.00 that he shall now pay $400.00 a month in child support.

Dated this 30th day of November, 2018.

MOTION

Present: Plaintiff in her proper person; Raquel Knecht, Interpreter; Defendant in his proper person.

Statements were made by Court and parties.

Melanie McCormick, CASA representative made statements from behind the bar.

COURT ORDERED: It will contact Ms. Yesitis and see about getting a new therapist and she will meet with the boys. If the children want to visit with their father it is up to them. Mr. Ramirez will have the ability to contact any teacher, doctor or any professional regarding the children. Ms. Arreguin is to give Eduardo's phone back to Mr. Ramirez. On a limited basis the children can go to work with their stepfather and any money the children make is theirs and Mr. Ramirez is not to take it under any circumstance. Ramirez is not to make any threats under any circumstance. Mr. Ramirez is to pay $100.00 per month per child until he gets a job.

Further statements were made by Court, parties and McCormick.

COURT ORDERED: Ms. Arreguin is to double check with the doctor that there is no danger for the children to work with their stepfather for three or four hours.

Further statements were made by Court and parties regarding Eduardo's cell phone.

COURT ORDERED: Eduardo can keep his cell phone and contact Mr. Ramirez anytime he wants. Mr. Ramirez cannot call or text the child unless the child initiates the text.

Further statements were made by Court and Deft.

Ramirez requested that the children be allowed to go to a free camp. Arreguin indicated that if the children want to go she has no objection.

COURT ORDERED: It allows the therapist to determine if they should go to the camp.

Further statements were made by Court, Ramirez and McCormick.

COURT ORDERED: All exchanges are to be at CASA. It keeps the existing schedule but the children will have the ability to say they don't want to go.

STATUS CHECK

Present: Patricia Bisbee, Interpreter; Pltf. in her proper person; Deft. in his proper person

Statements were made by Court and parties. Statements were made by Chris Bayer, CASA representative from behind bar.

COURT ORDERED: It will keep things the same. Both parties will have joint physical custody of the children. Court will change the exchange to the library with the following provisions: the pick-up parent shall remain in the children's section while the arriving parent leaves the children in the stacks near the check-out counter at the location where they can see other parent at the other end of the room. Court will be no talking between the parents/adults during the exchange. Each parent will send an e-mail once a week to the other parent on the days that the boys leave their custody and go to the other parent, it will contain only children information (school, medicine, clothing) no discussion of adult information or concerns, questioning or anything beyond that. One e-mail, once a week, with a copy of each e-mail to the CASA Rep. No texting or phone calls between parents except in an emergency. If either parent takes a parent takes the children to the doctor they are to obtain a written note from the doctor outlining what medication is required and how often. Then they will copy that and send it to the other parent. Mr. Rivas will notify Ms. Arreguin each time one of the boys has been taken to the doctor, the C Center or any other service provider and that he do this in his once a week parent e-mail. Ms. Arreguin will contact Dr. Hall the C Center or any other service provider directly after the children have visited with Mr. Rivas to ask them their recommendations. Each parent will obtain their own separate medication for the boys. Alternatively, the parent obtaining the medication attempts to divide in half and put it in Eduardo's backpack and include mention of it in the once a week e-mail. Each parent is responsible to obtain school and medical information on their own separately. Each parent will purchase separate clothes, books and over the medicines, if possible. The children are to care no toys, none school books, or extra clothes between houses. The current child therapist will stay in affect. The parents will not engage in any physical discipline in respect to the children. It will leave everything else in place at this time.
