CASE NO. CV16-00767

DEPT NO. B7

24 JUDGMENT

25 This matter came before the Court for a bench trial on August 29, 2017, through
26 September 8, 2017, the late Hon. Patrick Flanagan, District Judge, presiding. Plaintiff George
27 Stuart Yount, individually and in his capacity as owner of George Stuart Yount IRA, appeared 28

1 by and through his counsel of record, Richard G. Campbell, Jr., Esq. Defendants Criswell
2 Radovan, LLC, CR Cal Neva, LLC, Robert Radovan, William Criswell, and Powell, Coleman
3 and Arnold, LLP, appeared by and through their counsel Martin A. Little, Esq., of Howard &
4 Howard Attorneys PLLC. Defendants David Marriner and Marriner Real Estate, LLC,
5 appeared by and through their counsel of record, Andrew N. Wolf, Esq., of Incline Law Group,
6 LLP.

7 On September 8, 2017, at the conclusion of the trial and following the close of the
8 evidence, Judge Flanagan, ruling from the bench, orally stated his findings of fact, conclusions
9 of law and decision on the record in open court pursuant to NRCP 52. Judge Flanagan also
10 adopted the proposed findings of fact submitted by the defendants prior to trial. Transcript
11 1131:14-16.

12 On or about September 15, 2017, a transcript of the trial was filed, containing Judge
13 Flanagan's ruling from the bench. On September 15, 2017, the same day, Judge Flanagan
14 issued an AMENDED ORDER clarifying his award of damages to the various Defendants.

15 At the conclusion of his ruling from the bench, Judge Flanagan requested that 16 defendants' counsel prepare the judgment. Thereafter, Judge Flanagan suddenly fell ill and
17 passed away on October 6, 2017. Thereafter, on October 30, 2017, defense counsel jointly
18 submitted a proposed form of findings of fact, conclusions of law and judgment.

19 Subsequently, the matter was assigned to the undersigned District Judge. On November
20 13, 2017, the court held a status conference wherein the court directed the parties to file briefs
21 regarding the appropriate procedure to be followed after Judge Flanagan's untimely passing.
22 This briefing was completed on or about February 2, 2018. Based on the briefing, the court
23 determines that the primary rules which govern further proceedings by the undersigned
24 successor judge are NRCP 52 (findings by the court; judgment on partial findings), NRCP 58
25 (entry of judgment) and NRCP 63 (inability of a judge to proceed).

26 In this case, Judge Flanagan left an extensive record of his decision, including
27 summaries of witness testimony, the credibility of certain witnesses, his analysis of various trial
28 exhibits, and his determination of each claim for relief.

1           The court has reviewed the trial transcript in its entirety and the exhibits referenced in
2 the transcript and in Judge Flanagan's ruling. Pursuant to NRCP 63, the court hereby certifies
3 its familiarity with the record. Moreover, given the status of the case at the time of Judge
4 Flanagan's passing (evidence closed, closing arguments completed, and a completed ruling
5 from the bench on the merits, followed by his written Amended Order), and the detailed extent
6 of Judge Flanagan's ruling from the bench and his subsequently filed Amended Order dated
7 September 8, 2017, the court has determined, pursuant to NRCP 63, that the proceedings in this
8 case may be completed as set forth herein without prejudice to the parties.

9           Under NRCP 63, the court has discretion to recall witnesses. The court finds no need or
10 reason to recall witnesses. See: Smith's Food King v. Hornwood, 108 Nev. 666, 836 P. 2d 1241
11 (1992); and, Canseco v. United States, 97 F.3d 1224, 1227 (9th Cir. 1996) [successor judges
12 need only certify their familiarity with those portions of the record that relate to the issues
13 before them]. Compare: Mergentime Corporation v. Washington Metropolitan Area Transit
14 Authority, 166 F.3d 1257 (DC Cir. 1999). Accordingly, the court now enters judgment as
15 follows:

16           IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Plaintiff's Second
17 Amended Complaint, and each of the causes of action stated therein, are dismissed with
18 prejudice as to all Defendants.

19           IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Marriner's
20 and Marriner Real Estate's crossclaim against the other defendants is moot and is dismissed
21 with prejudice.

22           IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff
23 GEORGE STUART YOUNT, Individually and in his Capacity as Owner of GEORGE
24 STUART YOUNT IRA, shall pay William Criswell the sum of $1.5 Million in compensatory
25 damages.

26           IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff
27 GEORGE STUART YOUNT, Individually and in his Capacity as Owner of GEORGE
28 STUART YOUNT IRA, shall pay Robert Radovan the sum of $1.5 Million in compensatory

1 damages.

2 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff
3 GEORGE STUART YOUNT, Individually and in his Capacity as Owner of GEORGE
4 STUART YOUNT IRA, shall pay DAVID MARRINER, individually, the sum of $1.5 Million.

5 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that GEORGE
6 STUART YOUNT, Individually and in his Capacity as Owner of GEORGE STUART YOUNT
7 IRA, shall pay each defendant its costs of suit as allowed by law. Each Defendant shall file and
8 serve its verified memorandum of costs as required by Chapter 18 NRCP.

9 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that defendants
10 may seek recovery of their attorney's fees by an appropriate motion pursuant to NRCP 54(d)
11 and NRS 18.010, or as otherwise allowed by law.

HEARING ON MOTIONS

Richard Campbell, Esq., Daniel Polsenberg, Esq. and Adrienne Brantley-Lomeli, Esq. were present on behalf of the Plaintiff.

Martin Little, Esq. was present on behalf of Defendants Cal Neva Lodge, LLC, CR Cal Neva, LLC, Criswell Radovan, LLC, William Criswell, Powell, Coleman and Arnold, LLP. and Robert Radovan. Mark Simons, Esq. was present on behalf of Defendants Marriner Real Estate and David Marriner.

2:00 p.m. – Court convened with Court and Counsel present.

Court inquired Counsel if they wish to proceed with the Hearing on Motions and presented the fact that it will now be a third Judge presiding over the matter.

Counsel Simons advised the Court that Defendants Marriner Real Estate and David Marriner do not have a choice, they need to move forward.

Counsel Polsenberg requested a recess.

2:02 p.m. – Recess.

2:18 p.m. – Court reconvened with Court and Counsel present.

Counsel Polsenberg addressed and advised the Court that the parties have met and conferred two to three times and there is not a resolution.

Court advised it is aware of the appeal pending and is aware that the parties have stipulated to extending briefing until January. The Court addressed the fact that the Nevada Supreme Court has jurisdiction over the judgment and the inevitable appeal of this Court's decision/s today. The Court advised that it will first take argument on the Defendant's Motion to Disqualify.

The Court inquired Counsel Polsenberg regarding representation of the Defendants in a prior case.

Counsel Polsenberg responded to the Court's inquiry, advised that he did not confer with the Defendant's prior to his representation of Plaintiff in this matter and argued that it is not a substantially related case.

Counsel Little advised the Court that the conflict issue came up at the first settlement conference in December, he e-mailed Counsel Polsenberg regarding the conflict issue the day after the settlement conference and addressed the untimely filing of the subsequent Motion to Disqualify.

Counsel Polsenberg advised the Court that he responded to Counsel Little's e-mail regarding the conflict in seven days and argued in opposition of the Motion to Disqualify.

Counsel Little argued in support of the Motion to Disqualify and argued that the delay in filing said motion was not to secure a tactical advantage.

COURT ORDERED: Defendant's Motion to Disqualify – DENIED.

Counsel Polsenberg to prepare a proposed order. The Court expressed frustration regarding motions filed exceeding the page limit in the pretrial order. Going forward in the case, the Court will strike any motion exceeding the page limit stated in the pre-trial order.

Regarding the Plaintiff Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law, For Relief from Judgment, to Alter and Amend the Judgment, to Amend the Findings and for New Trial, the Court inquired Counsel Polsenberg if the Plaintiff asking the Court to act as an intermediate Court of Appeals.

Counsel Polsenberg advised the Court that the Plaintiff does want the Court to rule on the motions and he agrees with the Court's previous statement that any ruling by the Court is going to go up on appeal. Counsel Polsenberg further advised that the parties are attempting to articulate their arguments to situate the parties for resolution discussions without having to bother the Supreme Court. Counsel Polsenberg argued in support of the Plaintiff Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law, For Relief from Judgment, to Alter and Amend the Judgment, to Amend the Findings and for New Trial. Counsel Polsenberg argued that the Court should grant the rule 27 motion and allow the deposition of Mosaic. Counsel Polsenberg argued that there was not intentional interference with the contract and argued in support of a new trial.

The Court advised the parties that the Court has no intention of setting aside Judge Flanagan's findings that the seven causes of action brought by Mr. Yount were not proven. The Court is inclined to set a damages hearing to allow proof related to claims by the Defendant's made against Mr. Yount and allow Mr. Yount to answer those claims.

Counsel Simons argued that the Plaintiff Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law, For Relief from Judgment, to Alter and Amend the Judgment, to Amend the Findings and for New Trial was untimely. Counsel Polsenberg objected to an argument being made to the Court that is not included in the brief; objection overruled.

Counsel Simons argued a jurisdictional issue with the Nevada Supreme Court. Counsel Simons provided the Court with an Order from the Nevada Supreme Court issued August 24, 2018 and asked the Court to take judicial notice of said order.

Counsel Simons argued further that the Plaintiff Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law, For Relief from Judgment, to Alter and Amend the Judgment, to Amend the Findings and for New Trial is untimely and cannot be considered by the Court.

Counsel Polsenberg renewed his objection to the timeliness argument made by Counsel Simons.

The Court advised that it does not believe Counsel Simons is acting in bad faith, the Court is not going to touch the judgment against the Plaintiff and the Court will likely grant post judgment discovery for purposes of damages. The Court is inclined to pause this matter and request counsel to brief the issue of timeliness.

3:35 p.m. – Recess.

3:46 p.m. – Court reconvened with Court and Counsel present.

COURT ORDERED: The Court does not intend to do anything further in this case pending further order from the Nevada Supreme Court. The Court will give counsel the opportunity to brief why they believe this Court may have jurisdiction to act and, if the Court agrees, it may or may not act upon that jurisdiction. The Court will not matriculate the oral pronouncements made today into writing, if and until the Nevada Supreme Court informs the Court it should or until counsel convinces the Court that it has remaining jurisdiction. Counsel Polsenberg argued that the Court has jurisdiction to hear the rule 27 motion.

COURT ORDERED: The Court declines to exercise its jurisdiction to hear the rule 27 motion. The Nevada Supreme Court has jurisdiction over this case. The Court invites, but is not ordering, further briefing regarding jurisdiction.

3:50 p.m. - Court stood in recess.

9. Indicate the date the proceedings commenced in district court (e.g., date complaint, indictment, information, or petition was filed):

Plaintiff/Respondent's Complaint was filed April 4, 2016.

10. Provide a brief description of the nature of the action and result in the district court, including the type of judgment or order being appealed and the relief granted by the district court:

This case arises from a dispute over shares in a real estate development project. Plaintiff/Respondent investor sued the Defendant/Appellant developers for various claims including fraud and conversion to obtain a refund of his investment based upon his allegations that he did not receive the shares that he had been promised. Specifically, Respondent allegedly believed that he was receiving $1 million in equity shares from one investor in the project when he in fact received $1 million of identical equity shares from another investor. After receiving his shares, Respondent actively meddled in the project's financing in an attempt to supplant their own financing. Without funding, the project ultimately fell into bankruptcy.

On September 8, following a bench trial, the Honorable Patrick Flanagan issued a lengthy oral opinion denying all of Respondent's claims and awarding Appellants compensatory damages, attorneys' fees, and litigation costs. This oral ruling was memorialized in a written "Amended Order" filed on September 8, 2018. Plaintiff/Respondent filed a Notice of Appeal from this Order on September 19, 2017, which created Case No. 74275 (the “Related Case”). Appellant/Respondents were satisfied with the judgment and did not appeal. Judge Flanagan subsequently died before a final judgment could be entered. On March 13, 2018, The Honorable Jerry Polaha entered a written Judgment which had been submitted to chambers by counsel for Co-Defendants David Marriner and Marriner Real Estate, LLC. The terms of the order materially differed from those of the September 19, 2017 Amended Order, and Appellants’ awards for lost development fees, management fees, attorneys’ fees, and costs. Thus, on March 27, 2018, Appellants filed a Motion to Amend and Motion for Attorneys Fees, seeking inclusion of those items.

On August 9, 2018, Plaintiff/Respondent filed in the Related Case a Motion to Determine Appellate Jurisdiction. In an August 24, 2018 Order on Jurisdiction, the Nevada Supreme Court stated that the March 12, 2018 Judgment “made no substantive changes to the terms of the amended order[.]” While this may have been true with respect to Plaintiff’s appeal (which challenged the district court’s entire judgment in toto), the terms were substantively different with respect to Appellants’ damages to the extent that it (unilaterally and without hearing) excised their awards for lost development fees, management fees, attorneys’ fees, and costs. Nevertheless, the district court refused to act on the Appellants’ motions, believing that it lacked jurisdiction based upon the Related Case.

11. Indicate whether the case has previously been the subject of an appeal to or original writ proceeding in the Supreme Court and, if so, the caption and Supreme Court docket number of the prior proceedings:

This currently the subject of the Related Case described above, Yount v. Criswell Radovan, LLC, Case No. 74275.

12. Indicate whether this appeal involves child custody or visitation.

This case does not involve child custody or visitation.

13. If this is a civil case, indicate whether this appeal involves the possibility of settlement:

At this time, it is unknown whether settlement is a possibility in this case.

CASE NO. CV16-00767

DEPT NO. B7

24 JUDGMENT

25 This matter came before the Court for a bench trial on August 29, 2017, through
26 September 8, 2017, the late Hon. Patrick Flanagan, District Judge, presiding. Plaintiff George
27 Stuart Yount, individually and in his capacity as owner of George Stuart Yount IRA, appeared
28

1 by and through his counsel of record, Richard G. Campbell, Jr., Esq. Defendants Criswell
2 Radovan, LLC, CR Cal Neva, LLC, Robert Radovan, William Criswell, and Powell, Coleman
3 and Arnold, LLP, appeared by and through their counsel Martin A. Little, Esq., of Howard &
4 Howard Attorneys PLLC. Defendants David Marriner and Marriner Real Estate, LLC,
5 appeared by and through their counsel of record, Andrew N. Wolf, Esq., of Incline Law Group,
6 LLP.

7 On September 8, 2017, at the conclusion of the trial and following the close of the
8 evidence, Judge Flanagan, ruling from the bench, orally stated his findings of fact, conclusions
9 of law and decision on the record in open court pursuant to NRCP 52. Judge Flanagan also
10 adopted the proposed findings of fact submitted by the defendants prior to trial. Transcript
11 1131:14-16.

12 On or about September 15, 2017, a transcript of the trial was filed, containing Judge
13 Flanagan's ruling from the bench. On September 15, 2017, the same day, Judge Flanagan
14 issued an AMENDED ORDER clarifying his award of damages to the various Defendants.

15 At the conclusion of his ruling from the bench, Judge Flanagan requested that 16 defendants' counsel prepare the judgment. Thereafter, Judge Flanagan suddenly fell ill and
17 passed away on October 6, 2017. Thereafter, on October 30, 2017, defense counsel jointly
18 submitted a proposed form of findings of fact, conclusions of law and judgment.

19 Subsequently, the matter was assigned to the undersigned District Judge. On November
20 13, 2017, the court held a status conference wherein the court directed the parties to file briefs
21 regarding the appropriate procedure to be followed after Judge Flanagan's untimely passing.
22 This briefing was completed on or about February 2, 2018. Based on the briefing, the court
23 determines that the primary rules which govern further proceedings by the undersigned
24 successor judge are NRCP 52 (findings by the court; judgment on partial findings), NRCP 58
25 (entry of judgment) and NRCP 63 (inability of a judge to proceed).

26 In this case, Judge Flanagan left an extensive record of his decision, including
27 summaries of witness testimony, the credibility of certain witnesses, his analysis of various trial
28 exhibits, and his determination of each claim for relief.

1           The court has reviewed the trial transcript in its entirety and the exhibits referenced in
2 the transcript and in Judge Flanagan's ruling. Pursuant to NRCP 63, the court hereby certifies
3 its familiarity with the record. Moreover, given the status of the case at the time of Judge
4 Flanagan's passing (evidence closed, closing arguments completed, and a completed ruling
5 from the bench on the merits, followed by his written Amended Order), and the detailed extent
6 of Judge Flanagan's ruling from the bench and his subsequently filed Amended Order dated
7 September 8, 2017, the court has determined, pursuant to NRCP 63, that the proceedings in this
8 case may be completed as set forth herein without prejudice to the parties.

9           Under NRCP 63, the court has discretion to recall witnesses. The court finds no need or
10 reason to recall witnesses. See: Smith's Food King v. Hornwood, 108 Nev. 666, 836 P. 2d 1241
11 (1992); and, Canseco v. United States, 97 F.3d 1224, 1227 (9th Cir. 1996) [successor judges
12 need only certify their familiarity with those portions of the record that relate to the issues
13 before them]. Compare: Mergentime Corporation v. Washington Metropolitan Area Transit
14 Authority, 166 F.3d 1257 (DC Cir. 1999). Accordingly, the court now enters judgment as
15 follows:

16           IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Plaintiff's Second
17 Amended Complaint, and each of the causes of action stated therein, are dismissed with
18 prejudice as to all Defendants.

19           IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Marriner's
20 and Marriner Real Estate's crossclaim against the other defendants is moot and is dismissed
21 with prejudice.

22           IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff
23 GEORGE STUART YOUNT, Individually and in his Capacity as Owner of GEORGE
24 STUART YOUNT IRA, shall pay William Criswell the sum of $1.5 Million in compensatory
25 damages.

26           IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff
27 GEORGE STUART YOUNT, Individually and in his Capacity as Owner of GEORGE
28 STUART YOUNT IRA, shall pay Robert Radovan the sum of $1.5 Million in compensatory

1 damages.

2 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff
3 GEORGE STUART YOUNT, Individually and in his Capacity as Owner of GEORGE
4 STUART YOUNT IRA, shall pay DAVID MARRINER, individually, the sum of $1.5 Million.

5 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that GEORGE
6 STUART YOUNT, Individually and in his Capacity as Owner of GEORGE STUART YOUNT
7 IRA, shall pay each defendant its costs of suit as allowed by law. Each Defendant shall file and
8 serve its verified memorandum of costs as required by Chapter 18 NRCP.

9 IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that defendants
10 may seek recovery of their attorney's fees by an appropriate motion pursuant to NRCP 54(d)
11 and NRS 18.010, or as otherwise allowed by law.

2:00 p.m. – Court convened with Court and Counsel present.

Court inquired Counsel if they wish to proceed with the Hearing on Motions and presented the fact that it will now be a third Judge presiding over the matter.

Counsel Simons advised the Court that Defendants Marriner Real Estate and David Marriner do not have a choice, they need to move forward.

Counsel Polsenberg requested a recess.

2:02 p.m. – Recess.

2:18 p.m. – Court reconvened with Court and Counsel present.

Counsel Polsenberg addressed and advised the Court that the parties have met and conferred two to three times and there is not a resolution.

Court advised it is aware of the appeal pending and is aware that the parties have stipulated to extending briefing until January. The Court addressed the fact that the Nevada Supreme Court has jurisdiction over the judgment and the inevitable appeal of this Court's decision/s today. The Court advised that it will first take argument on the Defendant's Motion to Disqualify.

The Court inquired Counsel Polsenberg regarding representation of the Defendants in a prior case.

Counsel Polsenberg responded to the Court's inquiry, advised that he did not confer with the Defendant's prior to his representation of Plaintiff in this matter and argued that it is not a substantially related case.

Counsel Little advised the Court that the conflict issue came up at the first settlement conference in December, he e-mailed Counsel Polsenberg regarding the conflict issue the day after the settlement conference and addressed the untimely filing of the subsequent Motion to Disqualify.

Counsel Polsenberg advised the Court that he responded to Counsel Little's e-mail regarding the conflict in seven days and argued in opposition of the Motion to Disqualify.

Counsel Little argued in support of the Motion to Disqualify and argued that the delay in filing said motion was not to secure a tactical advantage.

COURT ORDERED: Defendant's Motion to Disqualify – DENIED.

Counsel Polsenberg to prepare a proposed order. The Court expressed frustration regarding motions filed exceeding the page limit in the pretrial order. Going forward in the case, the Court will strike any motion exceeding the page limit stated in the pre-trial order.

Regarding the Plaintiff Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law, For Relief from Judgment, to Alter and Amend the Judgment, to Amend the Findings and for New Trial, the Court inquired Counsel Polsenberg if the Plaintiff asking the Court to act as an intermediate Court of Appeals.

Counsel Polsenberg advised the Court that the Plaintiff does want the Court to rule on the motions and he agrees with the Court's previous statement that any ruling by the Court is going to go up on appeal. Counsel Polsenberg further advised that the parties are attempting to articulate their arguments to situate the parties for resolution discussions without having to bother the Supreme Court. Counsel Polsenberg argued in support of the Plaintiff Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law, For Relief from Judgment, to Alter and Amend the Judgment, to Amend the Findings and for New Trial. Counsel Polsenberg argued that the Court should grant the rule 27 motion and allow the deposition of Mosaic. Counsel Polsenberg argued that there was not intentional interference with the contract and argued in support of a new trial.

The Court advised the parties that the Court has no intention of setting aside Judge Flanagan's findings that the seven causes of action brought by Mr. Yount were not proven. The Court is inclined to set a damages hearing to allow proof related to claims by the Defendant's made against Mr. Yount and allow Mr. Yount to answer those claims.

Counsel Simons argued that the Plaintiff Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law, For Relief from Judgment, to Alter and Amend the Judgment, to Amend the Findings and for New Trial was untimely. Counsel Polsenberg objected to an argument being made to the Court that is not included in the brief; objection overruled.

Counsel Simons argued a jurisdictional issue with the Nevada Supreme Court. Counsel Simons provided the Court with an Order from the Nevada Supreme Court issued August 24, 2018 and asked the Court to take judicial notice of said order.

Counsel Simons argued further that the Plaintiff Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law, For Relief from Judgment, to Alter and Amend the Judgment, to Amend the Findings and for New Trial is untimely and cannot be considered by the Court.

Counsel Polsenberg renewed his objection to the timeliness argument made by Counsel Simons.

The Court advised that it does not believe Counsel Simons is acting in bad faith, the Court is not going to touch the judgment against the Plaintiff and the Court will likely grant post judgment discovery for purposes of damages. The Court is inclined to pause this matter and request counsel to brief the issue of timeliness.

3:35 p.m. – Recess.

3:46 p.m. – Court reconvened with Court and Counsel present.

COURT ORDERED: The Court does not intend to do anything further in this case pending further order from the Nevada Supreme Court. The Court will give counsel the opportunity to brief why they believe this Court may have jurisdiction to act and, if the Court agrees, it may or may not act upon that jurisdiction. The Court will not matriculate the oral pronouncements made today into writing, if and until the Nevada Supreme Court informs the Court it should or until counsel convinces the Court that it has remaining jurisdiction. Counsel Polsenberg argued that the Court has jurisdiction to hear the rule 27 motion.

COURT ORDERED: The Court declines to exercise its jurisdiction to hear the rule 27 motion. The Nevada Supreme Court has jurisdiction over this case. The Court invites, but is not ordering, further briefing regarding jurisdiction.

3:50 p.m. - Court stood in recess.
