FINANCIAL & INVESTMENT INFORMATION

FINANCIAL RESULTS:

PricePoint©, a standard industry computer model, was utilized to present the financial results of this business. The Seller's profit/loss statement projected out for 2014 was used in the computation. All supporting documentation will be provided for review during the Buyer's due diligence. As shown, numerous adjustments had to be made in order to convert the Seller's Profit and Loss, prepared for tax reporting purposes, to the actual cash flow of this business. This is not uncommon for small, privately-owned retail businesses.

One significant adjustment made to these financial statements was the adjustment of the expenses not directly related to this business.

SELLER'S DEBT:

All assets will be delivered free and clear of liens and encumbrances at the close of escrow, evidenced by a Bill of Sale.

ASKING PRICE AND TERMS:

The Seller is offering the business for $3.95,000 to include no inventory unless negotiated.

PRICEPOINT® VALUATION:

PricePoint©, was also used to estimate the value of this business. The valuation and other analyses, presented herein, assume that the Buyer will purchase this business without using some 3rd-Party financing (e.g., an SBA loan; or a bank loan). The noted sections that follow are contained within the 'Valuation and Selling Price Analysis' segment that appears in this document. The 'Adjusted Income Statements' section depicts the conversion of this business' financials from taxable profit and loss, to an approximation of the annualized cash flow for 2014. The Key Factors' section presents an analysis of the values used to calculate an appropriate multiplier for this business. This multiplier was calculated to be approximately 2.08 times the current annual cash flow. This is artificially low and due to the age of the business as compared to the comps available for a similar jewelry store with over $200K per year in adjusted net income.

This Acquisition Opportunity Summary contains Confidential Information, It is not to be shared with unauthorized parties and may not be reproduced without express written permission.

CASH FLOW SUFFICIENCY:

Note that this cash flow sufficiency, and the ROI & recapture numbers that follow, all improve substantially with minor improvements in the financing assumptions above. Extending the term of the loans or obtaining a more favorable interest rate both increase the attractiveness of this investment.

RETURN ON INVESTMENT:

At asking price, with a total investment of $395,000 Owner would potentially realize first-year return on total cash investment of 56%. At this rate, the total investment would be recaptured in approximately 23 months.

VALUATION PROCEDURES & CONDITIONS

GENERAL VALUATION PROCEDURES

The Price Point Valuation and Memorandum included the following procedures:

- Interviews were conducted with the client. A brief summary of the subject company's history and operating experience is included in this report.
- Research was conducted regarding company trends and the impact of the economy on the subject Company. Databases were used when available in the search for comparable companies.
- The financial records of the subject Company were analyzed regarding the firm's profitability and overall performance but were not independently verified. Projections and/or adjustments compiled or supplied by the Client may have been utilized.
- A subjective valuation was made of the Company's tangible and intangible assets with regards to the nature of the assets, their acquisition costs, and their market values. The Company's historical income statements and tax returns as provided by the Company were used in the valuation.
- The Income Approach was the main approach considered in the course of the Price Point valuation.

Limiting Conditions

The analysis and conclusions in this valuation are based in part on the following:

- A. This Confidential Memorandum includes a Limited Valuation which is not a Formal Appraisal. Only the information provided by the company was used to compute the valuation. Information, supplied by the client was the main information considered in this valuation, is from sources believed to be reliable and no further responsibility is assumed for its accuracy.
- B. This Valuation assumes marketable title to all of the tangible and intangible assets being considered herein and that the assets are free and clear of all encumbrances, except as fully disclosed in the financial statements or Sellers Disclosure.
- C. No opinion of title is being made. Sunbelt Business Brokers, their agents or employees accept no responsibility for matters of a legal nature affecting the Company, ownership interest or assets being considered.
- D. This report is not to be construed, directly or indirectly, as a recommendation to invest or to lend; it is strictly an independent valuation based upon the information, explanations and materials provided. Potential buyers, investors and/or lenders should perform their own analysis of the Company's financial position.

This Acquisition Opportunity Summary contains Confidential Information, It is not to be shared with unauthorized parties and may not be reproduced without express written permission.

E. This report is not intended for general circulation or publication, nor may it be reproduced or used for any purpose other than that specifically noted herein, without our written permission in each specific instance by Sunbelt Business Brokers of Las Vegas Inc.

We do not assume any responsibility or liability for losses incurred by the Company, the directors, shareholders or owners thereof, or to other parties, as a result of the circulation, publication, production or use of this report contrary to the provisions of this paragraph.

- F. The valuation was intended to help the client value the business and its assets. It is not intended for
- (1) tax purposes or any purpose regarding the IRS, (2) divorce, (3) partner dispute/buyout, (4) gifting or
- (5) any other purpose in which a self-contained comprehensive valuation is needed.

FIRANCIAL STATEMENTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

An essential step in the valuation of any company is an analysis of its financial performance over time. Analyzing a company's financial statements provides an indication of historical growth, liquidity, leverage, and profitability, all of which influence the value of a company's assets or equity. The valuation section of this report examines the trend of the subject Company's income statements, and financial information over the past three years if made available. If available, the Company's financial performance is often compared to its peers in its industry group as a means of measuring the Company's relative historical performance.

The subject Company's historical income statements have been adjusted to present the business as if it had been managed to maximize profitability. Since privately owned companies tend to keep reported profits and resulting taxes as low as possible, adjusting the financial statements is an important element to understanding the true earnings of the subject Company. A summary of the adjusted historical financial statements is contained in the valuation.

We have not audited or reviewed the financial statements of the subject Company. All adjustments were provided by the company and have not been verified for their accuracy. We have assumed that all financial records and adjustments are true and correct.

INDUSTRY RULE OF THUMB APPROACH

Most rule of thumb formulas are market-derived, which means that they are taken from actual market transactions. Many market-derived formulas value the entire business exclusive of real estate; some value just the goodwill; and some provide a combined value for trade fixtures, leaseholds, goodwill, licenses and other intangible assets.

This Acquisition Opportunity Summary contains Confidential Information, it is not to be shared with unauthorized parties and may not be reproduced without express written permission.

Asset Approach to Value

The Asset approach is a general way of determining the value of a business based on the value of its assets. This approach is often used when a business is heavily invested in hard assets such as equipment but is not normally weighted heavily when determining the final value of an ongoing concern

MULTIPLE OF DISCRETIONARY EARNINGS (SDE)

This approach assumes that an investor could invest in a property with similar investment characteristics, although not necessarily the same business. The computations using this approach generally determine that the value of the business is equal to the expected future income of the business divided by a rate of return. This involves the principle of capitalization.

COMPARABLES

If at all possible, the valuation will consider the sale price of similar businesses and often the asking price of similar businesses currently on the market in order to help determine value

JUSTIFICATION OF VALUATION

Valuation is based upon a hypothetical "willing buyer" and "willing seller" transaction. This review does not take into consideration strategic acquisitions or potential "synergies" that may occur in an acquisition. The analysis is based upon normal deal terms that occur in the marketplace for this size and type of business.

WEIGHTING METHODS

The selection of and reliance on the appropriate methods and procedures often depends on judgment and not on the basis of any prescribed formula. One or more approaches may not be relevant to the particular situation. More than one method under an approach may be relevant to a particular situation. Informed judgment is used when determining the relative weight to be accorded to indications of value reached on the basis of various methods or whether an indication of value from a single method should dominate. Judgments may be presented either in general terms or in terms of mathematical weighting of the indicated values reflected in the conclusion.

Other Market Conditions

Understanding the dynamics of the market place that drives the sale and acquisition of businesses and business ownership interests is critical in developing indications of value. The price paid for an investment does not always equal fair market value. Price and value can be influenced by the motivations of the seller and buyer, marketability of the business or business interest, terms of sale, and final costs of sale.

MOTIVATIONS OF THE SELLER AND BUYER

Motivations of the seller to sell can greatly influence the final price and timing of the sale. Conversely, the buyer's motivations to buy can be influenced by strategic or synergistic reasons other than a normal required rate of return. The sale of a business is usually handled in a highly confidential manner by the principals and professionals involved due to concerns regarding the ongoing viability of the business.

While there is generally no stigma attached to selling real estate and many other type investments, there often is stigma perceived when it becomes known that a business is for sale. Undue disclosure of a business being for sale may result in: loss of customers; suppliers changing their credit terms; banks changing their lending terms; employees concern for their jobs; and competitors using the information to their advantage. There are many legitimate reasons owners of businesses and business interests decide to sell such as retirement, ill health, time restraints, the desire to make other investments, death of a principal or burn out. Premature disclosure of a sale or a seller's sudden desire to sell can influence the final sales price. Buyers of businesses and business ownership interests do so out of the desire to: obtain immediate earnings; obtain established customers, supplier equipment and facilities; obtain favorable returns on the investment; life style considerations and/or to enhance strategic or synergistic positions. The concept of "Fair Market Value" assumes a generic buyer motivated for reasons of investment, not a strategic, synergistic or life style buyer who may be willing to pay more due to their unique motivations to buy. Unless otherwise indicated within this report, the value conclusions herein have not been influenced by extraordinary reasons to sell or the expectation of a special purpose buyer.

MARKETABILITY CONDITIONS

The price and value of a business or business ownership interest can be influenced by its marketability or lack thereof. Some businesses have more "curb appeal" than others. Location and appearance can have a significant impact on whether or not the investment can be sold and the price at which it can be sold. The consideration of these factors has been addressed within this report.

TERMS OF SALE

The acquisition of privately held businesses is typically done based on both equity capital and debt capital requirements. Sources of equity and debt capital will be greatly influenced by the type and size of the investment. Businesses with a lot of tangible assets will generally find more sources of capital than those with small amounts of tangible assets due to the perception of security in the event of liquidation. Most small to midsize companies never have the option of going public, thus their options of attracting equity and debt capital are limited to private sources. The price paid for a business can be greatly influenced by the terms of the sale. If the price is influenced by terms of sale, the price must be adjusted to reflect normal market terms of sale when determining fair market value. The indications of value determined within this report assume availability of equity and debt capital on normal market terms.

VALUATION COMPUTATION

This is an "Opinion of Value." This is not an appraisal and does not comply with USPAP standards. The analysis was based on limited market research and financial statements supplied by the owners of the business. We did not independently verify the accuracy of the financial statements or representations relating to the adjustments that were made to convert the net operating profit/loss to seller's discretionary earnings ("SDE").

The methods used in determining the value of the business were:

- 1. Calculate the Implied Value of Current Seller's Discretionary Earnings
 - A. Convert taxable "Profit/Loss" to "Seller's Discretionary Earnings," also known as "Annualized Adjusted Net or SDE." This is the actual cash flow of the business received by the owners.
 - B. Compute a multiplier relating specifically to the business using various "key" factors.
 - C. Multiply the SDE by the multiplier.
- 2. Test the computed value for reasonableness.
 - A. Comparables: Our firm has been involved in the sale of several similar types or sizes of businesses in the Las Vegas market. When possible, we compare the "for sale" price of this business against similar businesses listed or sold in this or other comparable markets.
 - B. Asset-based method.
- 3. Compute the following, from the new owner's perspective:
 - A. Cash flow sufficiency to support debt.
 - B. Number of times debt would be covered.
 - C. Return on total investment.
 - D. Recapture of total investment and cash investment
 - E. Cash on cash return on investment

GEOGRAPHIC AND ECONOMIC DATA 2014-2015

Clark County and Las Vegas:

Las Vegas is situated at the southern tip of Nevada in the Great Basin – the western region between the Sierra Nevada and Wasatch mountain ranges – which contains isolated mountains and has no drainage to the ocean. Official elevation of the city is 2,174 feet. Las Vegas is located 290 miles northeast of Los Angeles, 378 miles northwest of Phoenix, 675 miles southeast of San Francisco and 447 miles south of Rend.

When business owners consider whether to expand their companies or whether to relocate their companies, they look for a great business environment within a great location. They want low taxes, plenty of appropriate space, skilled workers, a livable city and interesting things to do when work is done.

Here in Southern Nevada, we offer the advantage of some of the lowest taxes in the United States—no state corporate tax as well as no personal income tax. Our workforce is both educationally and internationally diverse, young and highly service oriented, and capable of staffing operations 24-7. Our spectacular geography affords us almost unlimited outdoor adventures from great golfing, to skiing within a 45-minute drive from Las Vegas to one of the world's top rock climbing experiences at Red Rock Conservation Area 10 minutes outside of Las Vegas. And few places on earth can compete with the entertainment, dining and shopping that Las Vegas has to offer.

Our location is strategically located within the heart of the 11 western states. The massive California market as well as those in our bordering states of Arizona, Utah, Oregon and Idaho are easily reached in one day. Southern Nevada has one of the world's most domestically and internationally connected airports, and the area is also served by major rail lines and highways that make travel to California quick as well as connecting our area easily throughout the western United States and beyond to Mexico and Canada. We also link the world with a superior telecommunications structure. One of the world's largest data centers is located in Las Vegas because of what this area offers in terms of quality employees combined with being one of the least weather disaster prone places of the United States. Our universities graduate science and engineering students who are eager to continue to work and live in Southern Nevada.

The area also leads the country with more than five times the national concentration in the arts, entertainment, recreation and visitor industries. As a worldwide tourism and convention destination, Southern Nevada hosts more than 40 million visitors per year. The greater Las Vegas area alone welcomes about 3 million visitors per month. A significant percentage of these people are international visitors—in 2008, 600,000 Chinese visitors traveled to the United States and more than 90 percent of them made a stop in Nevada. People travel the world over to be in Southern Nevada. Why not already be here? According to the National Chamber Foundation's Enterprising States Report 2013, Nevada's rankings are as follows:

- #1 Business Birth Rate
- #2 Small Business Survival Index
- #2 Job Placement Efficiency
- #2 Bridge Quality
- #4 Tax Environment for Mature Firms
- #6 Long-term Job Growth
- #6 Gross State Product Growth
- #6 STEM Job Growth
- #7 Entrepreneurial Activity
- #8 Growth in Share of National Exports
- #13 Broadband Speed Availability
- #15 High-tech Share of All Businesses
- #17 Economic Output per Job
- #18 High School Advanced Placement Intensity
- #19 Road Quality
- #22 Cost of Living

Southern Nevada Economy to Continue Growth in 2015

Since the end of the Great Recession, Southern Nevada has lagged behind the majority of the country in achieving a full economic recovery. It wasn't until 2012 and 2013 that employment numbers for the Las Vegas Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) started exhibiting healthy growth, with gains of 2.7 and 3.1 percent, respectively (Chart 1). Looking ahead, we expect nonfarm employment to continue to grow at increasing rates, with projected increases of 3.6 percent in 2014 and 3.8 percent in 2015. The Las Vegas unemployment rate reached its peak of 14.4 percent back in third quarter 2010 and has been steadily declining ever since (Chart 2). As of fourth quarter 2013, the rate has dropped 5.5 percentage points to 8.9 percent. We can expect a rate of 8.2 percent by the end of 2014 and a rate of 7.6 percent by the end of 2015.

Southern Nevada Economy

Traditionally the driving force in the Southern Nevada economy has been the tourism and hospitality industry. It supports one in every 11 jobs in the region and generates more than $9 billion in gaming revenue to the economies of the cities in Clark County. More than 21,000 conventions (22,027) and meetings brought in more than 5 million convention delegates (5,107,416) to Las Vegas in 2013 and generated more than $6 billion to the economy. With more than 150,000 hotel rooms, Las Vegas is one of the largest convention and resort destinations in the United States and attracts almost 40 million visitors annually.

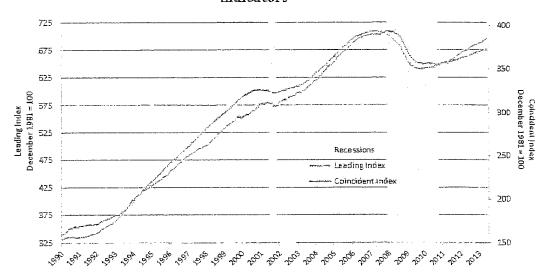

Las Vegas is headquarters for the world's two largest Fortune 500 gaming companies, Harrah's Entertainment and MGM Resorts International. The city is also home to the world's largest concentration of firms in the gaming machinery and technology sectors.

In addition to the world-class entertainment, dining and shopping opportunities afforded visitors to the Southern Nevada region, the area is also home to Switch Communications data facility, the largest commercially available and independent technology "ecosystem" in the world. Additional initiatives involving research and development, mineral mining, electrical machinery, medical tourism, optical and medical equipment, aviation equipment and clean energy give Southern Nevada a strong base from which to conduct business going forward.

After nearly five decades of steady population and construction growth, the region, like most of the United States, was hard hit by the economic downturn, but the area has shown signs of strengthening in both its housing and employment sectors along with a return of people moving here as well as visitors who provide significant fuel to the economy.

CBER Southern Nevada Economic Indicators

Three components of CBER's Southern Nevada Leading Index—the Philadelphia Fed's Leading Indexes for Arizona and California and the S&P:500 Index—increased for July 2013. All three are up year-over-year. The number of total passengers passing through McCarran Airport fell slightly and is above its value for July 2012. The coincident index remained flat, a consequence of conflicting jobs reports

CBER Clark County Business Activity Index

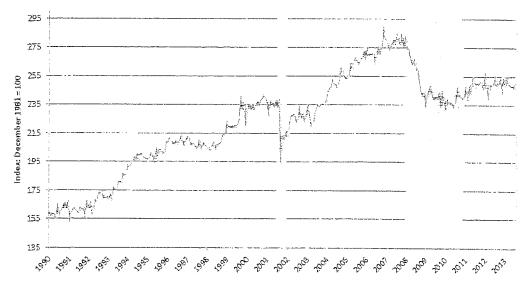

CBER's Clark County Business Activity Index increased in July 2013. Las Vegas nonfarm employment, the lone component to decrease for the month, fell by 0.09 percent. Clark County taxable sales increased by 2.25 percent during the same time period. Seasonally adjusted gaming revenues experienced robust gains, increasing by 8.19 percent from June.

CBER Clark County Tourism Index

As measured by CBER's Clark County Tourism Index, activity in the tourism sector increased for July 2013. The growth can be attributed to seasonally adjusted gaming revenues, which rose by 8.19 percent for the month. Passengers emplaned and deplaned at McCarran Airport fell by 1.59 percent. Las Vegas hotel/motel occupancy also decreased, by 0.02 percent.

CBER Clark County Construction Index

CBER's Clark County Construction index decreased for June but is still up year-over-year. Two of the three components declined for the month. Residential permits fell by 24.82 percent. Las Vegas construction employment also declined, by 2.06 percent. Commercial permits once again experienced large gains, but remain at a low and volatile level.

Clark County Sales Tax - Taxable Sales

Consumer spending has been consistently strong in the past few years, both at the local and national levels. In Southern Nevada, we use Clark County taxable sales to measure levels of consumer spending (Chart 4). Taxable sales grew by 6.2 percent and 4.8 percent in 2012 and 2013, respectively. We predict robust growth moving forward, with year-over-year gains of 5.5 percent in 2014 and 5.6 percent in 2015. The larger increases are mostly the result of stronger employment and total wage growth.

Sunbelt Business Brokers of Las Vegas Inc. has based our presentation and analysis upon information, which includes but is not limited to the financial statements and a seller's disclosure statement, supplied by the Seller, officers and/or representatives of the company. The Seller has reviewed this presentation and has authorized its dissemination to pre-screened potential buyers.

Sunbelt Business Brokers of Las Vegas and its representatives did not make an attempt to independently verify these representations, and, therefore, does not make any expressed nor implied warrantees as to the conclusions drawn. During the due diligence process, it is the responsibility of the Buyer, with the aid of an accountant and/or attorney, if necessary, to independently verify all representations which have been made by the Seller, particularly as they relate to the adjustments made to the profit and loss statements.

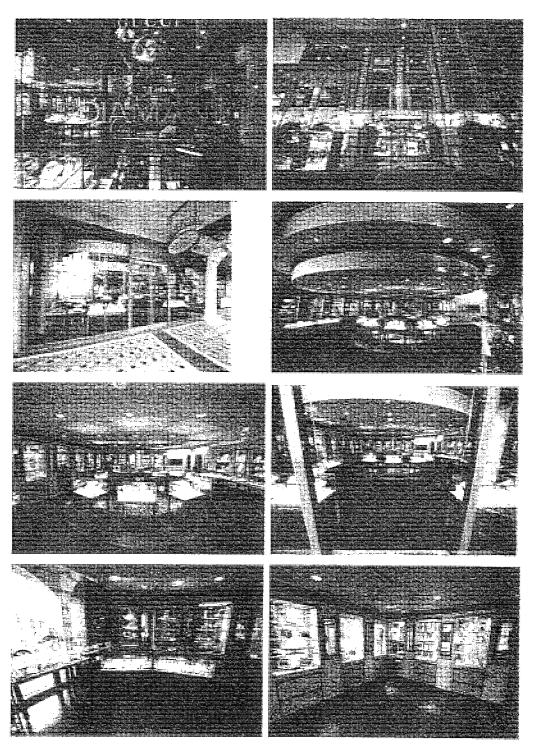

Readers of this report should understand that statements are not guarantees of value or results. Many factors could affect the company's actual financial results and cause them to vary materially from expectations. Factors that can affect the company's actual results include, among other things, future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance, availability and prices of raw materials, product pricing, the competitive environment and related market conditions, operating efficiencies, access to capital, actions of governments, regulatory factors and other risks.

Sunbelt Business Brokers cautions readers not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements or projections that may be have been used in the analysis of value. It is the responsibility of the Buyer to verify all representations and to make a final purchase decision based on their own independent investigation.

Except where otherwise indicated, this Report speaks as of the date hereof. Neither the delivery of this Report nor the purchase of the Company shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in the affairs of the Company since the date hereof. Neither the Company nor Sunbelt and its representatives undertake any compulsion to update any of the information discussed herein.

Len,

I added a file for Diamante in the shared files but only put in an amendment that sets the price. Please put in the listing docs.

FYI - Sales 850,000 and Profit 200,000. We are using the numbers he knows he will break by 12/31 and will update them when we have the exact numbers.

Alan,

Please find my comments/suggestions in red. I prefer you to market the sales for 2014' at $800,000 and my net profit should be a few percent better, we don't really discount much and my margin is greater.

Page 9- The lease was negotiated aggressively by the Seller who is also experienced as a commercial property owner, property manager and landlord. The leased premises is for 1,875 Sq Ft and expires on December 31, 2023. The lease is for $30 psf for years one through 3 and can increase in years 4 and again in year 8 if certain-sales of $937,5000 are achieved on an annual basis. Percentage rent of 6% of Gross Revenue each year in excess of the Natural Breakpoint, for example year 1-3 is 6% over $937,500 are achieved on annual basis, can be earned by the landlord if annual goals are met.

Raffi,

I can back down the sales to 800K if you wish. Please go through each page and just email me any changes or additions you want with page number and section name. I will then go through your comments, make the changes and submit to our marketing department. It will take a few days to get the ads up and running.

Raffi,

I have made all of the changes as requested. Thanks for your feedback. Looks to me to be exactly what we wanted and showcases the lease and Tivoli on top of the profitability of the business and the first class look of the store. Give me your thumbs up and I will send off to the marketing dept.

ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF RETAIL LEASE

THIS ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF RETAIL LEASE ("Assumption") of the Lease by and between Great Wash Park LLC (as "Landlord") and Luxury Holdings LV, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company, dba Diamanti Fine Jewelers, (as "Tenant"), as amended ("Lease"), is entered into by Diamanti Fine Jewelers LLC ("Assignee"), Robert G. Reynolds ("New Guarantor"), Raffi Tufenkjian ("Guarantor"), Landlord and Tenant to assign Tenant's rights and Obligations under the Lease (a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A") to Assignee and modify the existing Lease Guaranty.

- The parties agree to keep the terms of this Agreement confidential except as necessary to disclose in the ordinary course of business, or to legal counsel and accountants, or as required by law. Landlord's consent to this Agreement is conditioned upon the parties' ongoing compliance with this paragraph.
- 2. This Assumption shall have no effect unless Guarantor delivers to Landlord at the time of execution of this Assumption $50,000 in exchange for Landlord's fully executed counterpart. Such payment shall be in full satisfaction of Tenant and Guarantor's liabilities accrued to date under the Lease, however Guarantor shall remain liable under the Lease pursuant to the terms of the New Guaranty attached hereto as Exhibit "B."
- 3. This Assumption shall have no effect unless Guarantor and New Guarantor deliver to Landlord at the time of execution of this Assumption fully executed counterparts of the New Guaranty attached hereto as Exhibit "B."
- The Lease is modified as follows: Section 1.3(c) and 1.3(d) of the Lease are deleted in their entirety.
- 5. Neither Tenant nor Assignee claims any modification, defense or offset of any of its obligations under the Lease. Tenant hereby assigns, conveys and transfers all of its rights as Tenant under the Lease to assignee. Tenant irrevocably assigns all right, title and interest to any furniture, fixtures and equipment in the leased premises as of the date of this Assumption ("the FF&E") to Assignee, and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Assignee and Landlord from any and all claims by any creditor or third party claiming an interest in the FF&E.
- 6. Assignee assumes, undertakes, and accepts all of Assignor's obligations as Tenant under the Lease. Assignee acknowledges that Assignee's obligation under Lease Section 1.3(a), as amended, is to pay $554.63 per month, due with each Rent payment beginning April 1, 2015, with the last payment due on October 1, 2016. Assignee requests that all notices due under the Lease be provided to Assignee at that address provided below for New Guarantor.
- 7. Upon full execution of all documents and payments required under this Assumption, Assginee's balance due under the Lease will be adjusted so that all Rent and other charges accrued prior to April 1, 2015 shall be considered paid. For the avoidance of doubt, Assignee shall pay all rent and other charges due on April 1, 2015, though the end of the Lease Term and Guarantor and New Guarantor shall remain liable for such charges pursuant to the terms forth in the New Guaranty (Exhibit "B" to this Assumption.)

- 8. Tenant, Assignee, Guarantor and New Guarantor agree that this Assumption shall be governed by the laws of the State of Nevada and each party agrees to submit to the subject matter and exclusive personal jurisdiction of the courts of Nevada.
- This Assumption supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreement and discussion of the parties regarding the subject matter, and this Assumption constitutes the entire agreement of the parties related thereto.

Everything went smoothly.

That old man can't operate that business, but Raffi's Uncle will be there for a while.

I sat down with Raffi from 8:15 AM - 9:00 AM, and went over all the inventory, including the consignment. At the end of the day, Bob bought all the inventory that Raffi actually owed. That was $47,000. Everything else Bob purchased from the consigners. So, our extra 10% is $4,700.

I seem to recall when I was on vacation on time, that you had to handle a closing for me. You received a pretty good amount of the commission for that. I would like to look it up, do you remember which transaction it was?

I have let Anita know and she will handle documents, closing, etc. Len I am not sure if you plan to be here.

Raffi has stated they already did an inventory, and it "has been handled". We do not know of any adjustments in reference to the commission per your email below.

Also, the sale date/closing date is effective tomorrow, the 24th.

Len,

This is not right or acceptable. Raffi was fully aware that COST was going to be his cost plus the 10% on any inventory sold to Bob. Every seller we have sells his inventory at cost and we get the commission. It is clear in our listing agreement that we get paid for inventory. I absolutely agree that we do not get commission on consignment inventory however. Raffi was 100% clear on this and if he tried to negotiate that with you because I was out of the country, that would not be appropriate. He has discussed this with me numerous times and was and is fully aware of the commission on the inventory.

I just got off the phone with Raffi. Here is some information you need for the closing on the sale from Raffi to Bob Reynolds:

- 1. Bob just received his funds from South Africa.
- 2. He intends to give a check to Ron tomorrow (Friday) from his local bank. Obviously
 - a. Bob doesn't know the exact amount he'll owe at closing, and
 - b. it will take a couple of days to clear.

- 3. He'll probably send it for $395,000 selling price less $10,000 previously deposited and disbursed EMD = $385,000.
- 4. Inventory:
 - a. Most of the inventory in the store is on consignment.
 - b. Raffi is going to hook Bob up directly with the consignment company.
 - c. Anything Bob doesn't want to take over, Raffi plans to return.
 - d. Any inventory that is owned by Raffi will be offered to Bob "at cost." If Bob wants to purchase it, they will handle it outside of escrow. Raffi says he can't pay us a commission on that because he is selling is "at cost." He also says it isn't going to be much money.
- 5. They want to close as soon as possible next week.
- 6. The name of Bob Reynolds's company is "Diamanti Fine Jewelers, LLC." I don't have the FEIN or address.
- 7. With regard to the Lease:
 - a Raffi is expecting to receive the lease assignment document from the Landlord shortly
 - b. I don't know what the lease assignment fee is
 - c. Bob has been approved already for the assignment.
 - d. Raffi paid March rent of $7,351.50
 - e. The refundable deposit that Bob can buy from Raffi is $4,687.50.
- 8. Raffi paid the Personal Property Tax of $768.38. It runs through June 30, 2015.
- 9. Allocation of the Purchase Price:
 - a. $100,000 for FF&E
 - b. $295,000 for Goodwill

Let me know if you need anything else, or call the Buyer or seller. I assume that you have the Authorization to Open Escrow form from the parties. Go ahead and do the searches and docs.

Raffi,

I tried returning your call twice but got no answer. I understand you want to close tomorrow morning. I have no problem with that. You are welcome to close escrow but I have asked Escrow not to release funds to you until we have resolved the inventory portion of the commission.

I have no problem with you doing a transaction with Bob on the inventory but it is clear he will be purchasing some inventory. I am not sure if it is $50,000 or $150,000 but it needs to be confirmed in writing by both you and Bob to escrow so that they can properly compute or commission. Once the commission is computed then Anita can release the funds.

I have been clear with you since the beginning on your responsibility to pay the commission on any inventory sold to Bob. Although you may not agree that you should pay a commission on inventory sold at cost, it is both normal and a regular happening with our transactions. Per our confidentiality agreement, the buyer has some responsibility in ensuring that we receive our commission. If the Buyer interferes with the payment of the fee due to the broker they are also financially responsible. It is in the best interest of both you and Bob to ensure we get paid appropriately and based on the purchase price adjusted for the actual inventory purchased.

Just to be clear. Any inventory purchased by the Buyer after the closing from you would also be something we should get paid commission on. You can not pick a small amount to be included in the sale and then have an agreement with the Buyer to sell him more later. I am sure you would not do that but I just want to be clear on what is and is not appropriate or acceptable in this situation.

Subject: Closing on Diamanti

From: Alan Horwitz < lvbusinessbroker@gmail.com >

To: BOB Reynolds assess33@live.com

Time: Monday, March 23, 2015 4:12:55 PM GMT-07:00

Bob.

I understand that you may be closing as early as tomorrow. Congratulations. Diamanti is a great business and a real opportunity. Because of the nature of this type of business we never knew and will not know until closing how much inventory you are actually purchasing from Raffi vs what is being transferred and is on consignment.

For your information, the fee due to Sunbelt also includes commission due on anything purchased out of Raffi's inventory since it is part of the assets being sold. (nothing is due Sunbelt on the consignment merchandise) It also says in the confidentiality agreement in section 3 of the document attached that you as the buyer have some financial responsibility to ensure we are paid correctly by the seller.

All that I am asking is that any and all inventory being purchased from Raffi before or after closing needs to be accounted for and included in the purchase price AT THE CLOSING so that Sunbelt is paid accordingly. You need to do an inventory with Raffi and determine what you will want from his inventory and what the cost is to be.

I know that both you and Raffi do not intend to do anything other than what is appropriate however I just want to be sure that we are clear - ANY AND ALL INVENTORY PURCHASED must be added to the purchase price so that Sunbelt can receive the appropriate fee due. If for some strange reason you decide to purchase additional inventory from Raffi after the closing then Sunbelt would be entitled to their small portion. It is just best that the inventory is taken and accounted for at the closing. If you have any questions at all please feel free to call Len Krick.

DECLARATION OF ROBERT G. REYNOLDS

Robert G. Reynolds, declares as follows:

- 1. I am 85 years old and I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein, I am competent to testify to these facts, and will testify so if called upon.
- 2. I am a Plaintiff in this action, both personally and as the manager of Diamanti Fine Jewelers, LLC, a Nevada Limited Liability Company.
- 3. I became interested in purchasing Raffi Tufenkjian's business, Diamanti Fine Jewelers, after reviewing the revenue projection, costs of doing business, and consequential profitability of the business together with the location of the store near my house and the basic management skills needed to operate the business.
- 4. I agreed to purchase Raffi's inventory at cost. I did not agree to pay Raffi anything more than cost. When I purchased Raffi's inventory for $134,253.44, Raffi represented to me that was his actual inventory cost. I discovered that Raffi added 10% to the inventory costs (and the amount I paid to acquire the inventory) until after I had purchased the business and my wife found the computer feature that permitted us to print an item's cost history.
- 5. In October 2016, during a meeting with my landlord's manager, I mentioned owning the built-in cabinets and counter and other FF&E located within the store. The landlord's manager disagreed with me and pointed me to the provisions in the lease establishing that the FF&E are part of the leased premises and that the landlord holds title to those items.
- 6. Shortly thereafter, I reviewed the Bill of Sale for the business and refreshed my memory that Raffi had agreed to deliver clean and clear title to the FF&E items, so I called Raffi's business broker and asked that Raffi either provide some further assurance of ownership to these items or refund the money I had paid for the FF&E. I never received a response from Raffi.

- 7. After I agreed to purchase the business and was conducting my due diligence investigation I asked for and reviewed monthly Nevada Sales and Use Tax Returns and I compared those Sales Tax Returns to the information in the business computer. The numbers did not match up exactly but the discrepancies appeared to be the result of a difference in the accounting method used by Raffi to record sales in the computer vs. the way his CPA reported those sales to the State of Nevada. In combination with Raffi's assurances of accuracy for the 2014 financial statement in the Business Summary, I was satisfied with my due diligence and chose to proceed with the purchase.
- 8. During my deposition, Raffi's attorney's questions refreshed by anger and frustration at losing more than half a million dollars and I let my anger show. I regret and apologize for my use of profanity at deposition.

Pursuant to NRS 53.045, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated this HTC day of September 2018.

Robert G. Reynolds

Raffi,

I have been contacted by the Buyers who would like you to contact them. Bob is looking for a letter from the landlord stating that the fixtures he purchased from you were owned by you as the Seller and not the landlord. Either that or he is requesting $100,000 from you since he says that you claimed that the value of the assets and fixtures you were transferring to him were $100,000. If you would please contact Bob to resolve the issue I would appreciate it.

Regards,

Alan Horwitz; P.C. Senior Business Intermediary

The Opposition fails to present a legitimate, cogent basis to avoid summary judgment being entered against the Plaintiffs. Indeed, instead of presenting admissible evidence to substantiate their claims, the Opposition presents nothing more than the quintessential "gossamer threads of whimsy, speculation and conjecture."

Notably, the Plaintiffs made no effort to distinguish which arguments were made on behalf of Reynolds, and which were made on behalf of Diamanti. This failure is particularly fatal to Reynolds' individual claims. As such, at a minimum, summary judgment is required against the individual claims of Reynolds, however, Defendants submit that summary judgment against all of the Plaintiffs' claims is appropriate in this circumstance.

II. EVIDENTIARY OBJECTIONS

A party must submit admissible evidence in opposition to a motion for summary See, e.g., NRCP 56(e). Thus, the following evidentiary objections to the judgment. Opposition are directly applicable here:

Best Evidence and Parol Evidence Rule: A large part of Reynolds' Opposition consists of his tortured interpretation of the lease. Indeed, Plaintiffs' attempt to create an issue of fact out of the plain language of the Lease is expressly prohibited by Nevada law because (a) there are no vague or unambiguous provisions of the Lease and (b) the Landlord expressly acknowledges the assignment of the FF&E from Luxury Holdings to Diamanti. Consequently, the Court should disregard the Opposition's arguments regarding the plain language of the Lease and Guaranty Assignment. See Lease and Guaranty Assignment at Recital ¶ 5, Exhibit L.

Hearsay:

FF&E: Reynolds contends that someone working for the Landlord 0 thought that Landlord owned by FF&E. In support of this argument, Reynolds offers an out of court statement from a third party that cannot be considered for the truth of the matter asserted. This self serving declaration is entirely inadmissible and is the textbook example of inadmissible hearsay. Consequently, the Plaintiffs cannot avoid summary judgment based upon such.

Customer List: Similarly, Reynolds also contends that someone he 0 hired told him that the individuals on the Customer List were unfamiliar with the Jewelry Store. Again, that is an out of court statement from an unidentified third party to Reynolds that cannot be considered for the truth of the matter asserted. 1 It is inadmissible and cannot serve as a basis to avoid summary judgment.

III. SUMMARY OF UNDISPUTED FACTS

This section is a summary of the salient, undisputed facts that apply to each of the claims asserted by Plaintiffs, none of which have been refuted by Plaintiffs with admissible evidence:

- The business summary marketing brochure informed the reader that it was based on forward looking financial projections, informed the reader to do its own due diligence, and expressly disclaimed reliance upon any of its contents. See Marketing Brochure at pgs. 4, 16, 18, 22, 41, Exhibit N.
- Reynolds testified that he read and understood the disclaimers. See Deposition of Reynolds at pgs. 101 – 119, Exhibit A.
- When Reynolds made the initial offer to purchase the business in either his personal name or the name of an assignee, he contractually agreed that he relied solely on his own examination of the business, and nothing else: "... PURCHASER has relied solely upon their personal examination of the business in making this Offer" See Offer to Purchase and Sale of Business Assets ¶ 12, Exhibit C.

- Plaintiffs also agreed that the Closing of the transactions would supersede the Offer, with the exception of express warranties, such as the non-reliance provision: "Except for express warranties made in this Contract, the Closing of this transaction shall supersede this Contract." Id. ¶ 20 (emphasis added).
- It is unclear how, or even if, Plaintiffs can obtain any rescission related relief due to their failure to actually bring the landlord into the lawsuit.
- Reynolds engaged in all of the due diligence he felt was necessary, which involved his review of the Jewelry Store's financials on the Computer's point of sale system that he had unfettered access to. See Declaration of Raffi at \P 12 – 17; see also Declaration of David Tufenkjian, Exhibit H.
- Reynolds was aware he could have cancelled the deal at any time. See Deposition of Reynolds at pg. 71, ll. 17 – pg. 72, ll. 14, Exhibit A.
- In reviewing the financials, Reynolds was aware that the Jewelry Store's numbers did not match the Sale and Use tax forms, which were larger because they were joint tax submittals. See id. at pg. 112, ll. 1 - 21, Exhibit A.
- However, Reynolds was satisfied with the information on the Computer and his own due diligence, and chose to close the transaction. Id.
- Before closing, Reynolds assigned the entire transaction to his entity, Diamante. Closing Agreement ¶ 14, Exhibit I.
- At closing, Diamanti contractually agreed that (i) it performed its own investigation, (ii) that no representations where made, (iii) that the business' future performance would be based on its own resources and labors, and thus, (iv) it relied on nothing from the Seller. See Closing Agreement at bates DEFTS 226 (last paragraph above bold font), id.
- Reynolds admitted that he takes no issue with the price he paid for the inventory, and in fact he did agree to that price. See Deposition of Reynolds at pg. 158, ll. 17 – Il. 23, Exhibit A; see also id. pgs. 157 – 158; id. at pg. 158, Il. 2 – 4.

• There is no admissible evidence that Raffi ever re-entered the Jewelry Business in Las Vegas, Nevada after closing. See Declaration of Raffi ¶ 26, Exhibit B. The changing of the store name was done by Raffi as a courtesy to the company that was taking over the Galleria Mall store. And other than that change of name, Plaintiffs presented zero evidence of Raffi re-entering the Jewelery Business, and the reason for there being no evidence is because Raffi went into the cabinet business

- The Landlord confirmed that the furniture, fixtures, and equipment within the leased premises were transferred from Luxury Holdings to Diamanti, precisely as agreed to in the Purchase Agreement. See Lease and Guaranty Assignment at Recital ¶ 5, Exhibit L.
- Plaintiffs have presented no evidence that any provision of any of the transactional documents was breached as Diamanti received a fully functioning business.
- Reynolds had operated the business more than two years before filing this suit.

IV. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. SUMMARY JUDGMENT IS REQUIRED AGAINST THE MISREPRESENTATION CLAIMS.

Reynolds and Diamanti acknowledge that their misrepresentation claims hinge on the following alleged representations:

- The Jewelry Store's revenues did not match the business summary marketing brochure;
- Diamanti did not acquire ownership of the furniture fixtures, and equipment;
- Plaintiffs dispute the cost of the inventory;
- Plaintiffs did not receive a customer list;
- Raffi breached the non-compete provision in the operative transactional documents.

1. There is No Justifiable Reliance as a Matter of Contract.

The Defendants provided this Court with a litany of law stating that claims for fraud are barred when a contract includes a non-reliance provision. This law plainly states that "parties to contracts who do want to head off the possibility of a fraud suit will sometimes insert a 'no-reliance' clause into their contract, stating that neither party has relied on any representations made by the other." FMC Technologies, Inc. v. Edwards, 2007 WL 1725098 at *4 (9th Cir. June 12, 2007) (quoting Vigortone AG Prods., Inc. v. PM AG Prods., Inc., 316 F.3d 641, 644 (7th Cir. 2003)). This rule is consistently reaffirmed in the 9th Circuit. See Bank of West v. Valley Nat'l Bank of Ariz., 41 F.3d 471, 477 – 78 (9th Cir. 1994); see also Paracor Finance, Inc. v. General Capital Corp., 96 F.3d 1151, 1155, 1159 – 60 (9th Cir. 1996). Reason being, if they are not enforced, then it would "excuse a lie made by one contracting party in writing." Abry Partners V, L.P. v. F & W Acq. LLC, 891 A.2d 1032, 1058-59 (Del. Ch. 2006).

Here, Plaintiffs provided no authority rebutting the above case law presented by the Defendants, which is demonstrative of the fact that the law is well-accepted and must be followed. Instead, after Reynolds' initial claims of being duped were refuted by the documents, his claims now morphed to that he was instructed to review the Business Summary. According to the Closing Agreement, however, the Plaintiffs contractually agreed that no representations were made whatsoever:

The parties hereto agree that no representations have been made by either party, or agent/broker if any, other than those specifically set forth in this agreement and the sale agreement(s). It if further understood and agreed that Buyer has made his own independent investigation of the subject business and has satisfied himself with his ability to conduct the same, and is now purchasing the said business with the clear and distinct understanding and agreement that all profits are future, to be arrived at from his own resources and labors.

See Closing Agreement at bates DEFTS 226 (last paragraph above bold font), Exhibit I (emphasis added). Thus, just as in the Consolidated Edison case, the parties have agreed that the only representations made to one another are those specifically identified in the

(702) 17 pertinent transactional documents. Consolidated Edison v. Northeast Utilities, 249 F. Supp. 2d 387, 408 (S.D.N.Y. 2003)

And just like in Bank of the West, also discussed at length in the Motion for Summary Judgment, Diamanti agreed that it conducted, engaged in, and moved forward solely based upon its own investigation, and did not rely on anything or any statement from any other party. Notably, the Opposition makes no attempt to address or refute these directly applicable cases.

Plaintiffs also admitted that at the transaction's inception, "Robert G. Reynolds or entity to be formed by purchaser..., "made the express warranty that he has" relied solely upon their personal examination of the business in making this Offer" See Offer to Purchase and Sale of Business Assets at pg.1 and ¶ 12, Exhibit C. As an express warranty, this survived closing: "Except for express warranties made in this Contract, the Closing of this transaction shall supersede this Contract." See Offer and Acceptance Agreement ¶ 20, Exhibit C (emphasis added).

Reynolds even admitted in his deposition that he agreed no representations were made by either party:

Mr. Balducci: Turn to DEFTS 226. All right. There is - - one of the final paragraphs above the bold ones says, "The parties hereto agree that no representations have been made by other party, or agent/broker if any, other than those specifically set forth in this agreement and sale agreements."

> Do you agree with me that's what that first sentence says in that particular paragraph?

Mr. Reynolds:

Mr. Balducci: And you signed and agreed to that in this contract?

Mr. Reynolds: Yes.

Mr. Balducci: And then the same would hold true with the next sentence in that paragraph?

Mr. Reynolds: Yes.

27

See Deposition of Reynolds at pg. 139, ll. 2-17, Exhibit A. In light of all of the foregoing, Plaintiffs contractually agreed there was no justifiable reliance by them in this matter and thus their misrepresentation claim necessary fails.

2. There is No Justifiable Reliance as a Matter of Law

Even putting the dispositive contractual provisions aside, Plaintiffs have not presented any evidence capable of creating an issue of fact on the issue of justifiable reliance. In Blanchard v. Blanchard, the Nevada Supreme Court defined the element of justifiable reliance:

In order to establish justifiable reliance, the plaintiff is required to show the following: the false representation must have played a material and substantial part in leading the plaintiff to adopt his particular course; and when he was unaware of it at the time that he acted, or it is clear that he was not in any way influenced by it, and would have done the same thing without it for other reasons, his loss is not attributed to the defendant.

Generally, a plaintiff making an independent investigation will be charged with knowledge of facts which reasonable diligence would have disclosed. Such a plaintiff is deemed to have relied on his own judgment and not on the defendant's representations.

Blanchard v. Blanchard, 108 Nev. 908, 911 – 912, 839 P.3d 1320 (1992) (emphasis added). Reynolds largely does not dispute the arguments presented by the Defendants. However, he attempts to claim that Raffi told him to look at the Business Summary. While Reynolds repeats this over and over again in his Opposition, as if it were something that Raffi told him in response to Reynolds' numerous requests for information, Reynolds testified to the exact opposite in his deposition:

Mr. Balducci: Prior to submitting this offer, how many conversations had you had with Raffi?

Mr. Reynolds: If I had one, it was too damn many. I don't know.

See Deposition of Mr. Reynolds at pg. 130, ll. 9 – 11, Exhibit A.

Then, contrary to what he claims in his Opposition, Reynolds claimed that he exclusively relied on a random listing on the internet that he was unable to authenticate, explain, or even identify:

Mr. Balducci:	So is your testimony today that you relied exclusively upon what appears to be an advertising listing on some kind of website on a document that no one can authenticate?
Mr. Chasey:	Objection, argumentative, misstates his testimony.
Mr. Reynolds:	Your answer is yes. The answer is yes.

Id. at pg. 126, ll. 12 – 19.

The foregoing demonstrates why the summary judgment standard is applicable here. Plaintiffs cannot rest on "the gossamer threads of whimsy, speculation, and conjecture[;]" and must instead set forth admissible evidence by "affidavit or otherwise" that creates a genuine dispute as to the material facts of this matter. Wood v. Safeway, 121 Nev. 724, 732, 121 P.3d 1026, 1031 (2006). There is absolutely no admissible evidence to substantiate what Reynolds is claiming. Discovery is closed and there is simply nothing to substantiate Reynolds' claims. Instead, at best, all Plaintiff has is belligerent argument and ad hominem attacks against Raffi. For example, Reynolds is the party that accused Raffi of being a "natural-born liar." See Deposition of Mr. Reynolds at pg. 72, ll. 12 - 14. This is also the same individual that was supposedly "alarmed" during due diligence but proceeded to close the transaction anyway:

Mr. Balducci:		do anything to independently verify the information on	the sales and use reports?
Mr. Reynolds:	Yeah, I tried.	I tried to cross-reference them with the point of sales. Mr. Balducci: Was this during due diligence that you're doing this or after?

All during. All during. Before, after, still. Mr. Reynolds:

Mr. Balducci: What did you learn when you reviewed these during the due diligence by comparing the sales and use to the point of sale?

Mr. Reynolds: That the numbers are everywhere.

Mr. Balducci: So during the due diligence period, you understood that the numbers were everywhere?

Mr. Reynolds: Yes.

Mr. Balducci: And did that raise an alarm?

Mr. Reynolds: Yes. (702)

See Deposition of Reynolds at pg. 112, ll. 1-21, Exhibit A.

All of the admissible evidence in this case irrefutably demonstrates that Plaintiffs did not justifiably rely on anything from Defendants. Summary judgment, therefore, should be entered on the misrepresentative claims.

3. Reynolds Admits He Takes No Issue with the Cost Paid for Inventory

Reynolds arguments concerning the cost of the inventory are just that: arguments. In contrast to his pleadings, Reynolds own testimony demonstrates that has no issues with the inventory cost:

I don't know, but why are you asking me that? I'm not Mr. Reynolds:

arguing about this. We counted it; I paid for it. End of story.

Mr. Balducci: Yes. You just told me you don't have a problem with > that, so I just want you to agree with what you already said. You'd agree with me you don't take any issue with the $134,253.44 paid for the jewelry products, rings, watches, diamonds, and other fine jewelry products?

Mr. Chasey: I'm going to object that it's vague. I'm not sure what - - what are you fine with? I mean - -

Mr. Reynolds: I don't have a problem with it.

See Deposition of Reynolds at pg. 157, ll. 16 – pg. 158, ll. 23, Exhibit A.

Reynolds must be bound by his own words, and therefore, Summary judgment is appropriate as to the issue concerning the costs paid for the inventory.

The Non-Compete Argument Is Non-Sensical

Reynolds' final basis for his misrepresentation claims is that Raffi supposedly violated a non-compete provision. Initially, this claim is not properly raised as a misrepresentation claim, since, at best, it would only relate to a breach of contract claim. Nevertheless, the claim still fails as Plaintiffs cannot carry their burden of supporting the allegation with admissible evidence. Specifically, Reynolds has provided this Court with a name change form for the purpose of arguing that Raffi competed with Diamanti. However, noticeably absent from the Opposition is any actual proof evidence of Raffi's working for a competing jewelry store.

Plaintffs had 14 months to engage in discovery in this case. They have failed to discover or produce a single shred of evidence which demonstrated that Raffi actually worked for another jewelry store. There is not one affidavit of someone saying they saw him working for a jewelry story. Plaintiffs have no independent knowledge of Raffi working at a jewelry store. Raffi had no income from a jewelry store during that time. In short, Plaintiffs have nothing other than an name change document that does not prove that Raffi competed with Diamanti. The failure to present actual admissible evidence of Raffi actually working for a competing jewlery company is fatal to Plaintiff's arguments as to this point.

B. BREACH OF CONTRACT

The Plaintiffs do not address this claim in their Opposition whatsoever. summary judgment must be entered against this claim.

C. REYNOLDS' INDIVIDUAL CLAIMS FAIL

1. Reynolds Lacks Standing

Reynolds did not address this issue in his opposition. Thus, summary judgment must entered on this point.

2. The Elder Abuse Statute is a Red Herring with No Application

Reynolds only argument is that other cases have determined that LLCs are a person. Reynolds' argument completely misapprehends (and mis-cites) the cases he is referring to. For example Redmond v. CJD concludes that an LLC is a "corporation" for the purpose of certain provisions of the bankruptcy code, not a person. See In re Brooke Corp., 506 B.R. 560, 571 (Bankr. D. Kan. 2014) ("The cases cited by the Trustee holding that an LLC is within the statutory definition of a "corporation" for purposes of the definition of "affiliate" are persuasive."). The Takacs case (a Federal, District Court case from another jurisdiction) is expressly limited to invoking federal removal jurisdiction as an agent of the federal government. See Takacs v. Am. Eurocopter, L.L.C., 656 F. Supp. 2d 640, 645 (W.D. Tex.

2009) ("Finally, corporations are 'persons' for purposes of § 1442(a)(1)."). Finally the Orgain case has a footnote that includes the express limitation that an LLC can invoke certain protections from the US Constitution to seek redress for violations of the equal protection clause.

There is no case even close to the situation here, where we have an express statute that defines what an elderly person here. But even if an LLC were a "person," Diamanti is not 60 years old – it was formed three years ago in 2015. Adopting Reynolds' tortured interpretation of the NRS would result in the most absurd result that could possibly exist. Indeed, under Plaintiffs arguing, Reynolds could form LLCs and receive the tax benefits and liability protections that NRS Chapter 86 provide, and yet, any arms length business dispute could result in Elder Abuse claims by Reynolds. This is blatantly absurd.

3. There was, and is, No Exploitation

Nevada's elder abuse statute defines "exploitation" as "any act taken by a person who has the trust and confidence of an older person or a vulnerable person ... to ..." either (1) obtain control over money through deception, intimidation or undue influence, or (2) convert money, assets, or property of the older person with the intention of permanently depriving them of such asset. NRS 41.1395(4)(b).

Here, the predicate element of trust and confidence does not exist. This is not a case where a family member or an in-home care taker took advantage of the person they are caring for. This was an arms-length commercial transaction, where Reynolds had his lawyer son assist him every step of the way. Reynolds basically admitted in his deposition that he has no claims, and the undisputed facts prove that. Summary judgment, therefore, must be entered against all of Reynolds individual claims.

DECISION

THIS MATTER having come before the Court on September 27, 2018 for hearing on Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, with appearances as noted in the Minutes and to be reflected in the proposed order to be submitted as directed hereinbelow;

AND, the Court having heard the argument of counsel and having then taken such Motion under advisement for further consideration, and being now fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court decides the submitted issues as follows:

Plaintiffs posit the following as being the genuine issues of material fact that preclude summary judgment:

In the case before this Court, the following

questions of fact remains (sic) unresolved:

- Did Reynolds reasonably rely on Raffi's misrepresentations of business revenue, title to the FF&E, Customers, and cost of inventory during due diligence?
- Is Reynolds entitled to the protection of NRS 41.1395, even though Reynolds' lost his money through a transaction consummated through Reynolds' 100% owned Limited Liability Company?

Opposition, p. 3, 11. 4-9.

Defendants maintain that disclaimers made within the "business summary marketing brochure" are part of the parties' contract which, according to Defendants, is set forth in Exhibits C and D to the Motion.

It appears to the Court that the brochure does indeed make the disclaimers urged by Defendants with respect to formation of the parties' contract itself—i.e. that there were no actionable misrepresentations inducing Plaintiffs to enter into the contract in the first place. In addition, section 12 of the contract (Ex. C) states the following:

MARK R. DENTON
DISTRICT JUDGE

12. INSPECTION OF ASSETS: ...PURCHASER has relied solely upon their personal examination of the business in making this offer and not upon any statements or representations made by BROKER, or his agents, in deciding to purchase or value the business. (Emphasis supplied.)

Section 7 within the same item reads as follows:

7. DUE DILIGENCE CONTINGENCY: Purchaser's offer is contingent upon Seller proving to Purchaser's satisfaction the financial condition of the business and/or after review of all the information requested with regards to the subject business...Contingency shall be automatically removed 14 days after execution of this agreement by both parties unless extended in writing. (Emphasis in original.)

Although there were disclaimers in entering into the contract and Plaintiffs undertook the obligation to conduct their own due diligence once the contract was formed, that is not to say that, in conducting their due diligence, Plaintiffs did not have

MARK R. DENTON DISTRICT JUDGE

MARK R. DENTON DISTRICT JUDGE

DEPARTMENT THIRTEEN LAS VEGAS, NV 89155 a right to rely upon the accuracy of things that were presented when requested. However, as is shown in Exhibit I to Defendants' Motion ("Business/Bulk Sale Transfer Instructions"):

The parties hereto agree that no representations have been made by either party, or agent/broker if any, other than those specifically set forth in this agreement and the sale agreement(s). It is further understood and agreed that the Buyer has made his own independent investigation of the subject business and has satisfied himself with his ability to conduct the same, and is now purchasing the said business with the clear and distinct understanding that all profits are future, to be arrived at from his own resources and labors.

Thus, for Plaintiffs to now say that they relied upon various representations regarding revenue, customer base, costs, FF& E, etc. is contrary to their express agreement that they were not so relying, and no such items are "specifically set forth in this agreement . . ." If, as Plaintiffs maintain, they ". . . moved forward at closing still believing that the revenue as reflected in the records reviewed and as presented in the Business Summary were factual and accurate . . ." (Opposition, p. 12, 11. 6-7), one would expect that they would have been referenced, but they were not. To say that they are material representations and to then proceed without reference to them eliminates any genuine issue going to inducement by representations, particularly in a commercial transaction of this magnitude. 1

The Court is also persuaded by the other aspects of the Motion.

Accordingly, all things considered the Court determines that the Motion has merit in its entirety, and it is GRANTED.

Counsel for Defendants is directed to submit a proposed order consistent with the foregoing and with briefing and argument supportive of the same. Such proposed order should be submitted to opposing counsel for review and signification of approval/disapproval. Instead of seeking to clarify or litigate meaning or any disapproval through correspondence directed to the Court or to counsel with copies to the Court, any such clarification or disapproval should be the subject of appropriate motion practice.

Notably, the language contained in the "Business/Bulk Sale Transfer Instructions" immediately after the language quoted therefrom hereinabove states in bold upper case that any misunderstanding of the agreement should be followed up by seeking legal and/or financial advice. Also, the bold, upper cas all language preceding such quoted language makes it clear that only the items listed in (A), (B), and (C) are deemed not to have merged into the "Business/Bulk Sale Transfer Instructions," which are themselves characterized as "this agreement" in such language.

This Decision sets forth the Court's intended disposition on the subject, but it anticipates further order of the Court to make such disposition effective of an order or judgment.

counsel, after due deliberation and consideration, and good and sufficient cause appearing, GRANTS Defendant's motion based on the following findings of fact and conclusions law:

FINDINGS OF FACT

- 1. This case concerns the sale of a business between the parties, and the subsequent efforts by Plaintiffs to rescind the sale based on Defendants' alleged misrepresentations as to the profitability of the business. The material facts relevant to the granting of this motion are not in dispute.
- 2. Plaintiff Robert Reynolds is a sophisticated former construction manager who retired and began investing in various real estate, including a hotel, a theater, and a shopping mall, over the span of the last 20 years. Each of these multi-million dollar transactions included due diligence periods to determine the viability and profitability of each investment.
- 3. In 2014, Reynolds began researching businesses in Las Vegas, Nevada, with the intent of purchasing a business in this jurisdiction, specifically in Tivoli Village. One such business was the Diamanti Fine Jewelry store, owned by Defendant Luxury Holdings. Reynolds expressed his interest to Diamanti's business broker, Sunbelt Business Brokers, who provided a "business summary marketing brochure" ("the Brochure") which contained extensive information relevant to a potential buyer, on January 5, 2015.
- 4. The Brochure specifically contained disclaimers concerning the accuracy and reliance upon its contents, and advising that any interested buyer must perform their own independent investigation into the business to determine if they want to purchase it.²
 - 5. Specifically, the Brochure contained the following disclaimers:
 - a. "It is the responsibility of the Buyer to verify all representations and to make a final purchase decision based on their own independent investigation."

- c. "During the due diligence process, it is the responsibility of the Buyer, with the aid of an accountant and/or attorney, if necessary, to independently verify all representations which have been made by the Seller, particularly as they relate to the adjustments made to the profit and loss statements."5
- 6. On January 12, 2015 Reynolds made an offer to purchase Luxury Holdings, and in that Purchase Agreement Reynolds contractually agreed that he relied solely on his own examination of the business, and nothing else.⁶
- 7. The Offer further states that any offer to purchase the business by Plaintiffs "is contingent upon Seller proving to Purchaser's satisfaction the financial condition of the business and/or after review of all the information requested with regards to the subject business ... Contingency shall be automatically removed 14 days after execution of this agreement by both parties unless extended in writing."⁷
- In response to the Offer, Defendant Luxury Holdings's manager, Defendant Raffi 8. Tufenkjian, submitted a counter-offer, which Reynolds accepted on January 13, 2015.
- 9. Reynolds engaged in due diligence, and admitted at his deposition that he knew he had the ability to cancel the purchase during the due diligence period.
- 10. At the end of the due diligence period, Reynolds chose to proceed with closing the sale, however he first assigned the entire transaction to his entity, Plaintiff Diamanti.

11. At closing, Diamanti contractually agreed that (i) it performed its own investigation, (ii) that no representations where made, (iii) that the business' future performance would be based on its own resources and labors, and thus, (iv) it relied on nothing from the Seller.8

- 12. Reynolds further admitted in his deposition that he agreed to the price he paid for the business's inventory, and he takes no issue with that price.⁹
- Finally, on March 24, 2015, the parties signed a Closing Agreement which 13. similarly contains an express agreement that Plaintiffs did not rely on any representations made by the Defendants:

The parties hereto agree that no representations have been made by either party, or agent/broker if any, other than those specifically set forth in this agreement, and the sale agreement(s). "It is further understood and agreed that the Buyer has made his own independent investigation of the subject business and has satisfied himself with his ability to conduct the same, and is now purchasing the said business with the clear and distinct understanding that all profits are future, to be arrived at from his own resources and labors. 10

- 14. Plaintiffs operated the business from March 24, 2015, through the present.
- 15. This case was filed on April 5, 2017. Plaintiffs asserted claims for intentional and negligent misrepresentation and breach of contract, alleging that Defendants misrepresented material facts including the revenue of the store, the cost of the inventory, and the list of previous customers. The breach of contract claim centers on identical allegations of fraud and/or misrepresentation, and does not identify any particular provision that was allegedly breached. The claims also include a claim for elder abuse.

- 16. Following several motions to dismiss, Plaintiffs filed a Third Amended Complaint on November 1, 2017.
- 17. On August 10, 2018, Defendants filed the motion for summary judgment that is currently before the Court.
- 18. In opposition to Defendants' motion, Plaintiffs argued that two material questions of fact remained unresolved: (1) whether Reynolds reasonably relied on Raffi's misrepresentations made during due diligence as to business revenue; title to the fixtures, furniture, and equipment ("FF&E"); customers; and cost of inventory; and (2) whether Reynolds is entitled to the protection of NRS 41.1395, even though the transaction was consummated through Reynolds's 100%-owned limited liability company.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

- 1. The Court is persuaded by Defendants' arguments, and finds summary judgment is appropriate in Defendants' favor.
- 2. Summary judgment is appropriate where no genuine issue of material fact remains and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Wood v. Safeway, 121 Nev. 724, 729, 121 P.3d 1026, 1029 (2005). The ultimate purpose of summary judgment "is to avoid a needless trial...." McDonald v. Alexander, 121 Nev. 812, 815, 123 P.3d 748, 750 (2005) (internal citations and quotations omitted). To overcome this motion, Plaintiffs cannot rest on "the gossamer threads of whimsy, speculation, and conjecture[;]" and must instead set forth evidence by "affidavit or otherwise" that creates a genuine dispute as to the material facts of this matter. Id. at 732, 121 P.3d at 1031. The substantive law controls which factual disputes are material and will preclude summary judgment. Wood, 121 Nev. At 731, 121 P.3d at 1031 (citing Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986)).
- 3. Claims for intentional and negligent misrepresentation both require that the plaintiff plead and prove he or she justifiably relied on the misrepresentation in question. Lubbe Barba, 91 Nev. 596, 540 P.2d 115 (1975) (outlining elements of intentional misrepresentation); Barmettler v. Reno Air, Inc., 114 Nev. 441, 449, 956 P.2d 1382, 1387 (1998) (providing that one who, without exercising reasonable care or competence, "supplies false information for the guidance of others in their business transactions" is liable for "pecuniary loss caused to them by their justifiable reliance upon the information" (emphasis added)). "Circumstances of mere suspicion will not warrant the court in coming to the conclusion that a fraud has been committed." Gruber v. Baker, 20 Nev. 453, 23 P. 858, 865 (1990).

- 4. Here, while Plaintiffs may have had a right to rely upon the accuracy of facts presented by other parties during Plaintiffs' due diligence period, Plaintiffs' argument that they relied upon representations regarding revenue, customer base, costs, etc. is contrary to the parties' express written agreement which included numerous disclaimers, quoted supra, that the Plaintiffs acknowledged they were not relying on the representations of any other party, and instead were responsible for investigating the business themselves.
- 5. While Plaintiffs asserted that there are material misrepresentations that formed the foundation of Plaintiffs' claims, Plaintiffs failed to reference any particular records which evidence such misrepresentations. Plaintiffs therefore did not show any genuine issue as to inducement by representations, particularly in a commercial transaction of this magnitude.
- 6. The lack of any actionable misrepresentations inducing Plaintiffs to enter the contract is fatal to each of Plaintiffs' claims, because a misrepresentation is a foundational element of each of Plaintiffs' claims. Thus, the second claimed material question of fact, which relates only to whether Plaintiffs' claim under NRS 41.1395 might be barred for another reason, is not material.
- 7. In addition to the lack of any actionable misrepresentation, the Court concludes that Plaintiffs are unable to establish the element of justifiable reliance on any statement made by Defendants, because the contractual disclaimers in the parties' written agreements bar such an argument as a matter of law.
- 8. In light of the above, the Court concludes that no genuine issues of material fact remain. Further, Defendants have established that they are entitled to judgment as a matter of law on all of Plaintiffs' claims. Defendants' motion for summary judgment is thus GRANTED in its entirety.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES
I.
INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND
Plaintiff ROBERT G. REYNOLDS, through Plaintiff DIAMANTI FINE JEWELERS, LLC (collectively "Plaintiffs") purchased a jewelry business from Defendant LUXURY HOLDINGS LV, LLC which was owned and operated by Defendant RAFFI TUFENKJIAN (collectively "Defendants").
Defendants moved for summary judgment under NRCP 56, arguing that the disclaimers in the agreement and closing documents failed to permit Plaintiffs to rely on anything but their own investigation; Defendants also argued for summary judgment based on the lack of merit to Plaintiffs' allegations of material misrepresentations.

 On October 12, 2018, this Court issued its Decision explaining that Defendants were entitled to summary judgment because the contract documents in which Plaintiff disclaimed reliance on any of Defendants' representations eliminated Plaintiffs' ability to raise the alleged misrepresentations in this lawsuit. See Decision, p.4, line 18 to p. 5, line 6, October 10, 2018 (Exhibit 1).

After Defendants' counsel's provided the draft Order to Plaintiffs' counsel, the undersigned noted that in addition to summary judgment being granted based on the effect of the contractual disclaimers, Defendants' draft Order granted Summary Judgment based on Plaintiffs' supposed failure to reference evidence of actual misrepresentations by Defendants. Counsel for the parties were unable to resolve the dispute and so, the Order Granting Summary Judgment was submitted to the Court without the undersigned's approval. On November 16, 2018, Notice of Entry of Order was given of the Order Granting Summary Judgment based on the contractual disclaimers and Plaintiffs' supposed failure to present evidence of Defendants' misrepresentations. See NEO Order Granting Summary Judgment, p.6, ¶ 5, November 16, 2018 (Exhibit 2).

Pursuant to NRCP 59(a), Plaintiffs request that this Court amend the Order Granting Summary Judgment to remove reference to the supposed lack of evidence concerning Defendants' misrepresentations.

STANDARDS FOR AMENDMENT OF JUDGMENT

Pursuant to NRCP 59(a), judgments may be opened and amended for any of seven (7) different grounds. See NRCP 59(a). Here, the judgment should be opened and amended to correct the irregularity in the proceedings or "any order of the court... by which either party was prevented from having a fair trial", namely the inclusion of a finding that Plaintiffs failed to present evidence of misrepresentations that this Court did not find. See NRCP 59(a)(1). Amendment is also called for here due to the surprise under NRCP 59(a)(3), defined as "some fact, circumstance, or situation in which a party is placed unexpectedly, to his injury, without any default or negligence of his own, and which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against." See Havas v. Haupt, 94 Nev. 591, 593, 583 P.2d 1094, 1095 (1978). Here, the basis for the Court's ruling as explained in the decision and the multiple bases set forth in the language of the Order Granting Summary Judgment are in conflict; corrective amendment is warranted and proper. See NRCP 59(a).

Motions to Amend a Judgment must be filed and served within ten (10) days of service of notice of entry of the judgment. See NRCP 59(b). Here, Defendants electronically served Notice of Entry of the Order Granting Summary Judgment on Friday, November 16, 2018. See NEO Order Granting Summary Judgment (Exhibit 2). Pursuant to NRCP 6(a) and because the time allowed by NRCP 59 is less than eleven (11) days, intermediate weekends and holidays are not included in the computation of time. Accordingly, with the three (3) additional days allowed due to non-personal service, the ten (10) day period to move to amend the judgment expires on Friday, December 7, 2018. This motion is filed well within the time allowed by NRCP 59.

Motions to Amend must state with particularity the grounds for amendment and the relief sought. See United Pac. Ins. Co. v. St. Denis, 81 Nev. 103, 399 P.2d 135 (1965) (citing NRCP 59 and NRCP 7(b)). Plaintiffs submit that the divergence between the Court's Decision and the Order Granting Summary Judgment is readily apparent and is explained in a sufficiently particular manner herein. Furthermore, the corrective amendment requested simply consists of removing the factual findings never made when this Court decided the matter.

THE IRREGULARITY PRESENTED BY DEFENDANTS' VERSION OF THE ORDER

This Court's Decision rested on the effect of the three (3) disclaimers in the agreements and documents signed by Plaintiffs, which collectively, recited that in choosing to buy the business Plaintiffs were not relying on any representations by Defendants' broker, had an obligation to conduct their own due diligence, and that no representations had been made by Defendants other than those specified in the documents (of which there were none). See Decision, p.2, line 24 to p.5, line 6 (Exhibit 1).

While this Court did note that the Court was persuaded by the other aspects of the Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, see id., p.6, lines 7-8, three (3) reasons suggest that this catch-all could not have referred to a fundamental failure to present evidence of Defendants' misrepresentations.

A. Plaintiffs Did Present Evidence of Defendants' Misrepresentations

In opposition to Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, Plaintiffs presented evidence of four (4) separate and material misrepresentations made by Defendants during Plaintiffs' due diligence.

1. Evidence Presented Showing Defendants' Misrepresentation of Revenue

First, Defendants misrepresented business revenue. While Plaintiffs were charged with conducting their own independent due diligence, requests for information consisted entirely of references back to the Business Brochure, so when the brochure represented that projected revenues for 2014 were $800,000, after the fiscal year ended and Plaintiffs requested updated revenue numbers, Defendants pointed Plaintiffs to the brochure with the indication that the revenue projection was then actual and no longer a projection. See Opposition to Motion for Summary Judgment¹, pp.7-8, § E (1) (Exhibit 3) (hereinafter the "Opposition"); see also Select Pages from the Deposition of Robert Reynolds (originally attached as Exhibit A to Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment) (attached here as Exhibit 4). Plaintiffs presented evidence that Defendants' represented that in 2014 the business revenue was $800,000. See id.

Plaintiffs further presented evidence that Defendants' business did not generate revenue even close to $800,000 in 2014. See Opposition, pp.11-14, § G (4) (Exhibit 3). The evidence presented by Plaintiffs demonstrated that the various conflicting sources of information reflected actual business revenue of $659,438 or as much as $748,801 in revenue for 2014. See id.

Plaintiffs presented evidence of Defendants' misrepresentation of business revenue.

2. Evidence Presented Showing Defendants' Misrepresentation of Customers

During motion practice, Plaintiffs also presented evidence demonstrating that, during Plaintiffs' due diligence, Defendants provided Plaintiffs with a "Customer List" identifying 1466 unique customers of the business. See Opposition, p.6, § E (2) (Exhibit 3).

Not only did Plaintiffs call the people on list and testify that the people on the list denied ever having been a customer, Plaintiffs presented Defendant Raffi Tufenkjian's own sworn deposition testimony that fully 50% of the people on the "Customer List" were not and had never been customers of the business. See Opposition, pp.9-10, § G (1).

Plaintiffs presented evidence of Defendants' misrepresentation of business customers.

¹ Plaintiffs' Opposition with exhibits was 407 pages. For ease of reference, the attachment of the Opposition to this Motion to Amend will omit exhibits and pages in voluminous exhibits not directly raised by this Motion to Amend.

28 | ///

3. Evidence Presented Showed Defendants' Misrepresented Inventory Costs

The third category of misrepresentations at issue in this case were the costs of inventory sold separate and apart from the business itself. Defendants agreed to sell the inventory at cost and Defendants provided Plaintiffs with an Inventory Report depicting what Defendants indicated were the actual costs of the inventory. See Opposition, pp.8-9, § E (3) (Exhibit 3).

After Plaintiffs were operating the business, Plaintiffs discovered that on February 22, 2015, Defendants had methodically gone through the computer system inventory and added 10% to the cost of the inventory. See Opposition, pp.10-11, § G (2). Defendants did not dispute this but argued that Plaintiffs verbally agreed to pay more than cost to cover the commission Defendants owed to their business broker. See id., p.10, lines 16-17.

Plaintiffs did present evidence that Defendants misrepresented inventory costs.

4. Evidence Presented Showing Defendants Misrepresented the FF&E

Defendants sold the Furniture Fixtures and Equipment (hereinafter "FF&E") by Bill of Sale in which Defendants represented owning the FF&E as a necessary corollary to selling the FF&E to Plaintiffs. See Opposition, p.11, lines 5-9 (Exhibit 3).

Despite representing that Defendants owned the FF&E, the lease presented by Plaintiffs during motion practice plainly demonstrates that Defendants leased – and did not own – the first nine (9) items of the FF&E, specifically the built-in cabinets and counters which comprised 75% of the value. See Opposition, p.11, lines 10-14.

Plaintiffs did present evidence of Defendants' misrepresentation of the FF&E ownership, as well the Defendants' misrepresentations of revenue, customer base, and cost of inventory.

B. Finding of Fact Concerning Misrepresentations Not Needed or Made for Summary Judgment Based on the Disclaimers

The Court decided that the contractual disclaimers signed by Plaintiffs indicating that the choice to buy the business was due to Plaintiffs' independent investigation and not reliance on Defendants representations concerning the business (whether true or false). See Decision, p.4, line 18 to p.5, line 6. In deciding that the contractual disclaimers were effective despite the unique qualities of this particular transaction, this Court eliminated the need to decide whether or not Defendants actually misrepresented material facts. In other words, the Court's legal decision to apply the contractual disclaimers prevents Plaintiffs from prevailing in this action regardless of whether the evidence demonstrates that Defendants misrepresented revenue, customers, costs, and ownership of the FF&E.

"[A]n order granting summary judgment shall set forth the undisputed material facts and legal determinations on which the court granted summary judgment." See NRCP 52(a). In this case, the Court's Decision made no findings of fact relating to the Defendants' misrepresentations, but rather the Court's decision rested on the effectiveness of the contractual disclaimers. See Decision (Exhibit 1). Of course, had the Court actually ruled on the parties' evidence to determine that Plaintiffs failed to present evidence to demonstrate Defendants' misrepresentations, the Court would have significantly overstepped the Court's discretion. See Woods v. Safeway, Inc., 121 Nev. 724, 731, 121 P.3d 1026, 1031 (2005) (where there are unresolved question of material fact such that a rational trier of fact could return a verdict for the non-moving party, the case must proceed to trial).

The Court's Decision Granting Summary Judgment to Defendants rested on the effectiveness of the contractual disclaimers and not as Defendants' draft order indicates the absence of evidence to demonstrate Defendants' misrepresentations.

C. Other Aspects Reasonably Meant Arguments Relating to Claim for Elder Abuse

This Court's Decision did also include a reference to "other matters" in Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment that the Court found persuasive. See Decision, p.5, lines 7-8 (Exhibit 1).

This reference is believed to be an indication of support for the decision against Plaintiff Robert G. Reynolds on his claim for Elder Abuse under NRS 41.1395 since the Court's Decision did not otherwise address Plaintiff Reynolds' Elder Abuse claim. This sentence in the Court's Decision cannot be a replacement for the specific findings of fact that Defendants' counsel incorporated into the Order since much more specificity would be expected and indeed required had that been the Court's intention. See NRCP 52(a).

IV.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiffs sued Defendants asserting claims for breach of contract, intentional misrepresentation, negligent misrepresentation, and elder abuse all arising from a series of misrepresentations made by Defendant Raffi Tufenkjian to Plaintiff Robert Reynolds during due diligence for the business purchase at issue. This Court decided this case based on contractual disclaimers. This Court did not weigh the evidence and decide that Plaintiffs failed to present sufficient evidence to prove Defendants' misrepresentations. Such a decision by this Court would have been contrary to Nevada law and would have made no sense.

Based on the foregoing and pursuant to NRCP 59(a), Plaintiffs request that this Court amend the Order Granting Summary Judgment by striking Paragraph 5, Paragraph 6, and the first nine (9) words in Paragraph 7 on page 6 of the Order Granting Summary Judgment.

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Defendant(s).

DECISION

THIS MATTER having come before the Court on September 27, 2018 for hearing on Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, with appearances as noted in the Minutes and to be reflected in the proposed order to be submitted as directed hereinbelow;

AND, the Court having heard the argument of counsel and having then taken such Motion under advisement for further consideration, and being now fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court decides the submitted issues as follows:

Plaintiffs posit the following as being the genuine issues of material fact that preclude summary judgment:

In the case before this Court, the following questions of fact remains (sic) unresolved:

- Did Reynolds reasonably rely on Raffi's misrepresentations of business revenue, title to the FF&E, Customers, and cost of inventory during due diligence?
- Is Reynolds entitled to the protection of NRS 41.1395, even though Reynolds' lost his money through a transaction consummated through Reynolds' 100% owned Limited Liability Company?

Opposition, p. 3, 11. 4-9.

Defendants maintain that disclaimers made within the "business summary marketing brochure" are part of the parties' contract which, according to Defendants, is set forth in Exhibits C and D to the Motion.

It appears to the Court that the brochure does indeed make the disclaimers urged by Defendants with respect to formation of the parties' contract itself—i.e. that there were no actionable misrepresentations inducing Plaintiffs to enter into the contract in the first place. In addition, section 12 of the contract (Ex. C) states the following:

12. INSPECTION OF ASSETS: ...PURCHASER has relied solely upon their personal examination of the business in making this offer and not upon any statements or representations made by BROKER, or his agents, in deciding to purchase or value the business. (Emphasis supplied.)

Section 7 within the same item reads as follows:

7. DUE DILIGENCE CONTINGENCY: Purchaser's offer is contingent upon Seller proving to Purchaser's satisfaction the financial condition of the business and/or after review of all the information requested with regards to the subject business...Contingency shall be automatically removed 14 days after execution of this agreement by both parties unless extended in writing. (Emphasis in original.)

Although there were disclaimers in entering into the contract and Plaintiffs undertook the obligation to conduct their own due diligence once the contract was formed, that is not to say that, in conducting their due diligence, Plaintiffs did not have a right to rely upon the accuracy of things that were presented when requested. However, as is shown in Exhibit I to Defendants' Motion ("Business/Bulk Sale Transfer Instructions"):

The parties hereto agree that no representations have been made by either party, or agent/broker if any, other than those specifically set forth in this agreement and the sale agreement(s). It is further understood and agreed that the Buyer has made his own independent investigation of the subject business and has satisfied himself with his ability to conduct the same, and is now purchasing the said business with the clear and distinct understanding that all profits are future, to be arrived at from his own resources and labors.

Thus, for Plaintiffs to now say that they relied upon various representations regarding revenue, customer base, costs, FF& E, etc. is contrary to their express agreement that they were not so relying, and no such items are "specifically set forth in this agreement . . . " If, as Plaintiffs maintain, they ". . . moved forward at closing still believing that the revenue as reflected in the records reviewed and as presented in the Business Summary were factual and accurate . . . " (Opposition, p. 12, 11. 6-7), one would expect that they would have been referenced, but they were not. To say that they are material representations and to then proceed without reference to them eliminates any genuine issue going to inducement by representations, particularly in a commercial transaction of this magnitude.¹

The Court is also persuaded by the other aspects of the Motion.

Accordingly, all things considered the Court determines that the Motion has merit in its entirety, and it is GRANTED.

Counsel for Defendants is directed to submit a proposed order consistent with the foregoing and with briefing and argument supportive of the same. Such proposed order should be submitted to opposing counsel for review and signification of approval/disapproval. Instead of seeking to clarify or litigate meaning or any disapproval through correspondence directed to the Court or to counsel with copies to the Court, any such clarification or disapproval should be the subject of appropriate motion practice.

Notably, the language contained in the "Business/Bulk Sale Transfer Instructions" immediately after the language quoted therefrom hereinabove states in bold upper case that any misunderstanding of the agreement should be followed up by seeking legal and/or financial advice. Also, the bold, upper casel language preceding such quoted language makes it clear that only the items listed in (A), (B), and (C) are deemed not to have merged into the "Business/Bulk Sale Transfer Instructions," which are themselves characterized as "this agreement" in such language.

This Decision sets forth the Court's intended disposition on the subject, but it anticipates further order of the Court to make such disposition effective as an order or judgment.

DATED this day of October, 2018.

counsel, after due deliberation and consideration, and good and sufficient cause appearing, GRANTS Defendant's motion based on the following findings of fact and conclusions law:

FINDINGS OF FACT

- 1. This case concerns the sale of a business between the parties, and the subsequent efforts by Plaintiffs to rescind the sale based on Defendants' alleged misrepresentations as to the profitability of the business. The material facts relevant to the granting of this motion are not in dispute.
- 2. Plaintiff Robert Reynolds is a sophisticated former construction manager who retired and began investing in various real estate, including a hotel, a theater, and a shopping mall, over the span of the last 20 years. Each of these multi-million dollar transactions included due diligence periods to determine the viability and profitability of each investment.
- 3. In 2014, Reynolds began researching businesses in Las Vegas, Nevada, with the intent of purchasing a business in this jurisdiction, specifically in Tivoli Village. One such business was the Diamanti Fine Jewelry store, owned by Defendant Luxury Holdings. Reynolds expressed his interest to Diamanti's business broker, Sunbelt Business Brokers, who provided a "business summary marketing brochure" ("the Brochure") which contained extensive information relevant to a potential buyer, on January 5, 2015.
- 4. The Brochure specifically contained disclaimers concerning the accuracy and reliance upon its contents, and advising that any interested buyer must perform their own independent investigation into the business to determine if they want to purchase it.²
 - 5. Specifically, the Brochure contained the following disclaimers:
 - a. "It is the responsibility of the Buyer to verify all representations and to make a final purchase decision based on their own independent investigation."

- c. "During the due diligence process, it is the responsibility of the Buyer, with the aid of an accountant and/or attorney, if necessary, to independently verify all representations which have been made by the Seller, particularly as they relate to the adjustments made to the profit and loss statements."5
- 6. On January 12, 2015 Reynolds made an offer to purchase Luxury Holdings, and in that Purchase Agreement Reynolds contractually agreed that he relied solely on his own examination of the business, and nothing else.⁶
- 7. The Offer further states that any offer to purchase the business by Plaintiffs "is contingent upon Seller proving to Purchaser's satisfaction the financial condition of the business and/or after review of all the information requested with regards to the subject business ... Contingency shall be automatically removed 14 days after execution of this agreement by both parties unless extended in writing."⁷
- 8. In response to the Offer, Defendant Luxury Holdings's manager, Defendant Raffi Tufenkjian, submitted a counter-offer, which Reynolds accepted on January 13, 2015.
- 9. Reynolds engaged in due diligence, and admitted at his deposition that he knew he had the ability to cancel the purchase during the due diligence period.
- 10. At the end of the due diligence period, Reynolds chose to proceed with closing the sale, however he first assigned the entire transaction to his entity, Plaintiff Diamanti.

- 11. At closing, Diamanti contractually agreed that (i) it performed its own investigation, (ii) that no representations where made, (iii) that the business' future performance would be based on its own resources and labors, and thus, (iv) it relied on nothing from the Seller.8
- 12. Reynolds further admitted in his deposition that he agreed to the price he paid for the business's inventory, and he takes no issue with that price.⁹
- 13. Finally, on March 24, 2015, the parties signed a Closing Agreement which similarly contain⁵ an express agreement that Plaintiffs did not rely on any representations made by the Defendants:

The parties hereto agree that no representations have been made by either party, or agent/broker if any, other than those specifically set forth in this agreement, and the sale agreement(s). "It is further understood and agreed that the Buyer has made his own independent investigation of the subject business and has satisfied himself with his ability to conduct the same, and is now purchasing the said business with the clear and distinct understanding that all profits are future, to be arrived at from his own resources and labors. 10

- 14. Plaintiffs operated the business from March 24, 2015, through the present.
- 15. This case was filed on April 5, 2017. Plaintiffs asserted claims for intentional and negligent misrepresentation and breach of contract, alleging that Defendants misrepresented material facts including the revenue of the store, the cost of the inventory, and the list of previous customers. The breach of contract claim centers on identical allegations of fraud and/or misrepresentation, and does not identify any particular provision that was allegedly breached. The claims also include a claim for elder abuse.

- 16. Following several motions to dismiss, Plaintiffs filed a Third Amended Complaint on November 1, 2017.
- 17. On August 10, 2018, Defendants filed the motion for summary judgment that is currently before the Court.
- In opposition to Defendants' motion, Plaintiffs argued that two material questions 18. of fact remained unresolved: (1) whether Reynolds reasonably relied on Raffi's misrepresentations made during due diligence as to business revenue; title to the fixtures, furniture, and equipment ("FF&E"); customers; and cost of inventory; and (2) whether Reynolds is entitled to the protection of NRS 41.1395, even though the transaction was consummated through Reynolds's 100%-owned limited liability company.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

- 1. The Court is persuaded by Defendants' arguments, and finds summary judgment is appropriate in Defendants' favor.
- 2. Summary judgment is appropriate where no genuine issue of material fact remains and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Wood v. Safeway, 121 Nev. 724, 729, 121 P.3d 1026, 1029 (2005). The ultimate purpose of summary judgment "is to avoid a needless trial...." McDonald v. Alexander, 121 Nev. 812, 815, 123 P.3d 748, 750 (2005) (internal citations and quotations omitted). To overcome this motion, Plaintiffs cannot rest on "the gossamer threads of whimsy, speculation, and conjecture[;]" and must instead set forth evidence by "affidavit or otherwise" that creates a genuine dispute as to the material facts of this matter. Id. at 732, 121 P.3d at 1031. The substantive law controls which factual disputes are material and will preclude summary judgment. Wood, 121 Nev. At 731, 121 P.3d at 1031 (citing Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986)).
- 3. Claims for intentional and negligent misrepresentation both require that the plaintiff plead and prove he or she justifiably relied on the misrepresentation in question. Lubbe v. Barba, 91 Nev. 596, 540 P.2d 115 (1975) (outlining elements of intentional misrepresentation); Barmettler v. Reno Air, Inc., 114 Nev. 441, 449, 956 P.2d 1382, 1387 (1998) (providing that one who, without exercising reasonable care or competence, "supplies false information for the guidance of others in their business transactions" is liable for "pecuniary loss caused to them by their justifiable reliance upon the information" (emphasis "Circumstances of mere suspicion will not warrant the court in coming to the added)). conclusion that a fraud has been committed." Gruber v. Baker, 20 Nev. 453, 23 P. 858, 865 (1990).

- 4. Here, while Plaintiffs may have had a right to rely upon the accuracy of facts presented by other parties during Plaintiffs' due diligence period, Plaintiffs' argument that they relied upon representations regarding revenue, customer base, costs, etc. is contrary to the parties' express written agreement which included numerous disclaimers, quoted supra, that the Plaintiffs acknowledged they were not relying on the representations of any other party, and instead were responsible for investigating the business themselves.
- 5. While Plaintiffs asserted that there are material misrepresentations that formed the foundation of Plaintiffs' claims, Plaintiffs failed to reference any particular records which evidence such misrepresentations. Plaintiffs therefore did not show any genuine issue as to inducement by representations, particularly in a commercial transaction of this magnitude.
- 6. The lack of any actionable misrepresentations inducing Plaintiffs to enter the contract is fatal to each of Plaintiffs' claims, because a misrepresentation is a foundational element of each of Plaintiffs' claims. Thus, the second claimed material question of fact, which relates only to whether Plaintiffs' claim under NRS 41.1395 might be barred for another reason, is not material.
- 7. In addition to the lack of any actionable misrepresentation, the Court concludes that Plaintiffs are unable to establish the element of justifiable reliance on any statement made by Defendants, because the contractual disclaimers in the parties' written agreements bar such an argument as a matter of law.
- 8. In light of the above, the Court concludes that no genuine issues of material fact remain. Further, Defendants have established that they are entitled to judgment as a matter of law on all of Plaintiffs' claims. Defendants' motion for summary judgment is thus GRANTED in its entirety.
