DISTRICT COURT
CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

CHEYENNE NALDER,

CASE NO.: 07A549111

Plaintiff,

DEPT NO.: XXIX

vs.

GARY LEWIS,

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO INTERVENE

Date: 9/19/2018
Time: Chambers

Cheyenne Nalder, through her attorney, David A. Stephens, Esq., opposes the Motion to Intervene filed by United Automobile Insurance Company, as follows:

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

Initially, Counsel for Plaintiff apologizes for the lateness filing of this opposition to the motion to intervene. Counsel first learned of this motion to intervene on September 10, 2018. Counsel then contacted Matthew Douglas, Esq., by email requesting an extension of time to respond to the motion in that he had never received the motion to intervene.¹

Mr. Douglas responded by stating that the motion to intervene was served by mail on August 17, 2018. Counsel for Plaintiff indicated that it had not been received. Mr. Douglas then indicated

¹ Counsel for Plaintiff does not mean to imply, by this statement, that counsel for UAIC did not serve the motion properly. He can only represent that he did not receive the motion. He does not know the reason why it was not received.

1 that he needed to know the grounds for opposing the motion before he could agree to an extension.
2 Thus, it became easier to do the research and file the opposition late, than do the research on the 3 possible grounds to get an extension of time to file an opposition. Thus, this opposition is being 4 filed late.

5 II. FACTS

6 On the 8th day of July, 2007, Defendant, Gary Lewis, ("Lewis"), ran over Cheyenne Nalder,
7 ("Cheyenne"), while he was driving his vehicle on private property located in Lincoln County,
8 Nevada.²

9 Cheyenne was a minor at the time of the accident.

10 Gary Lewis carelessly and negligently drove his car such that it struck Cheyenne Nalder.

11 This accident caused serious injuries to Cheyenne.

12 Following the accident, Cheyenne, with her father as guardian ad litem, filed suit against 13 Lewis. Lewis did not respond to the suit. Therefore, on June 3, 2008, Cheyenne obtained a default
14 judgment against Lewis for $3,500,00.00. A notice of entry of this judgment was filed on August 15 26, 2008.

16 When the lawsuit was filed, and at the time the judgment was entered on June 3, 2008,
17 Cheyenne was represented by Christensen Law Offices.³

18 None of that judgment has ever been paid, with the exception of $15,000.00, which was 19 later paid by United Auto Insurance Company, ("UAIC"), following a suit filed against UAIC, 20 which was alleged to be the insurer for Lewis at the time of the accident, for bad faith, failure to 21 defend, and other claims for relief.

22 In 2018, Cheyenne, due to the fact she had reached the age of majority, filed a motion to 23 amend the judgment to make herself the plaintiff, rather than her father, who had been her guardian

25 ² These statements of facts are based upon allegations in the pleadings filed in this matter, and 26 the statements made in the motion to intervene.

27 ³ It is counsel's understanding that Cheyenne is still represented by Tom Christensen, Esq., 28 and also by Dennis Prince, Esq., in the litigation and pending appeals involving UAIC's duty to defend Lewis and any related claims.

1 ad litem.

2 The amended judgment was signed by this Court and filed on March 28, 2018. On May 18, 3 2018, a notice of entry of judgment was served on Mr. Lewis.

4 Until it filed this motion to intervene, UAIC had never appeared in this lawsuit. Now it
5 seeks to intervene.

6 III. UAIC IS NOT ENTITLED TO INTERVENE IN THIS MATTER

7 It is too late for UAIC to file a motion to intervene.

8 A party cannot intervene into a matter where a judgment is final.

9 "We conclude that once the district court dismissed this case with prejudice, it lost 10 all jurisdiction concerning that judgment, except to alter, set aside, or vacate its 11 judgment in conformity with the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure."

12 SFPP, LP v. District Court, 123 Nev. 608, 173 P.3d 715, (2007).

13 While the SFPP case involved a dismissal of the case, rather than judgment in the case, the 14 analysis still applies. Here, there is a judgment which disposes of all issues in the case. It is too late 15 to intervene. That final judgment disposed of all issues in the case.

16 "To avoid any confusion regarding this matter, we clarify that a final judgment is one
17 that disposes of all the issues presented in the case, and leaves nothing for the future
18 consideration of the court, except for post-judgment issues such as attorney's fees 19 and costs. A post-judgment order awarding attorney's fees and/or costs may be 20 appealed as a special order made after final judgment, pursuant to NRAP 3A(b)(2).

21 See Smith v. Crown Financial Services, 111 Nev. 277, 280 n. 2, 890 P.2d 769, 771 n.

23 Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416, 417 (2000).

24 Thus, this Court lacks the jurisdiction to even consider a motion to intervene after the entry
25 of a final judgment, which has occurred.

26 Additionally, the Nevada Supreme Court has held, "The plain language of NRS 12.130 does 27 not permit intervention subsequent to the entry of a final judgment." Lopez v. Merit Insurance Co., 28 109 Nev. 553, 556, 853 P.2d 1266, 1268 (1993). Thus, the language of the statute on intervention

1 has been held to not permit intervention after the entry of a final judgment.

2 Because final judgment has been entered in this case, the court lacks jurisdiction to consider
3 a motion to intervene. Additionally, it has been held that the statute on intervention does not allow 4 a post judgment intervention in a case.

5 For these reasons it is respectfully requested that this Court deny the motion to intervene.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR INTERVENTION

I.

Response to Plaintiff's Fact Section

UAIC notes that it has set forth the factual background in regards to this matter in its initial motion and refers the Court to same. However, UAIC must also briefly respond to Plaintiff's fact section.

Plaintiff notes that the original judgment in this case was filed August 26, 2008. What Plaintiff fails to mention, however, is that, thereafter, Plaintiff failed to renew this 2008 judgment against Lewis pursuant to Nevada law. Specifically, as this Court is aware, under N.R.S. 11.190(1)(a) the limitation for action to execute on such a judgment would be six (6) years, unless renewed under N.R.S. 17.214. Accordingly, the date to renew said judgment would have been, by the latest, August 26, 2014. This was never done and, as such, Plaintiff's judgment in this matter expired as a matter of law in 2014. Accordingly, Plaintiff's ex parte attempts to amend this judgment without advising the Court of same was improper.

Additionally, Plaintiff agrees she filed suit against UAIC alleging bad faith for failure to defend Lewis, but fails to note that two United States District court judges found and, the Ninth Circuit for the U.S. Court of Appeals has affirmed, that UAIC committed no bad faith in the handling of Plaintiff's claims against Lewis. However, the Court also found, in late 2013, that UAIC had a duty to defend Lewis. Initially, in late 2013, there was no active need to defend Lewis as, this suit had gone to judgment and, the time to vacate this judgment under N.R.C.P. 60 had passed. Only after the completely opaque attempt to try an 'end around' the expiration of this judgment and, the jurisdiction of the Nevada Supreme Court and Ninth Circuit, by Plaintiff's amendment of the judgment here, did a 'new' controversy arise for which UAIC believes its duty to defend has again been triggered. Of course, as set forth in UAIC's initial Motion, its initial

1 attempt to retain counsel for Mr. Lewis to defend him and seek relief from this alleged ‘amended
 2 judgment’ has been thwarted by Plaintiff’s own counsel who claims he also represents Lewis
 3 and has attempted to forbid any action on his behalf.

4 Indeed, UAIC must note that Plaintiff’s counsel admits in his response that Mr.
 5 Christensen continues to represent his client on this original judgment and in the ongoing
 6 Appellate matters. Accordingly, for Plaintiff’s co-counsel in this case, Mr. Stephens, to allege he 7 was merely seeking to amend the judgment for Cheyenne upon reaching majority, while ignoring 8 Mr. Christensen’s continued representation of her and, apparently, the judgment-debtor, Mr.
 9 Lewis – as well as the ongoing appellate matters – stretches the bounds of reality. As will be set 10 forth in detail below, we see an attempt of fraud upon the court which should not be 11 countenanced.

13 II.

14 ARGUMENT

15 It is clear from Plaintiff’s Opposition that it is late and, as such, this Court may disregard 16 it and grant UAIC’s Motion. Alternatively, should this Court consider the merits of the 17 Opposition it is also clear that Plaintiff does not dare dispute that UAIC has properly followed 18 the procedure for intervention pursuant to NRCP 24(a)(2) nor, that UAIC does not have an 19 interest which will negatively impacted should its intervention be denied as it is not adequately 20 represented herein. Rather, the Plaintiff’s sole argument appears to be a technical one – that as 21 judgment has been entered, UAIC can no longer intervene. However, UAIC will note that the 22 cases cited by Plaintiff are distinguishable and, more importantly, what Plaintiff is attempting is 23 a fraud upon the court which should overcome the normal prohibition against such an 24 intervention. Accordingly, UAIC asks this Court to grant its Motion to intervene. Alternatively, 25 that this Court may vacate or set aside the Amended Judgment on its own Motion.
 28

A. Plaintiff's Opposition is clearly late and, as such, should be stricken or disregarded.

As this Court knows, E.D.C.R. 2.20(e) requires any Opposition to be a Motion to be filed within 10 days of service. Here, as the present Motion was filed and served August 16, 2018, allowing 3 days for mailing, the Opposition was due no later than September 4, 2018. As the present Opposition was filed on September 14, 2018 it is technically late and this Court may disregard it and grant UAIC's Motion.

(e) Within 10 days after the service of the motion, and 5 days after service of any joinder to the motion, the opposing party must serve and file written notice of nonopposition or opposition thereto, together with a memorandum of points and authorities and supporting affidavits, if any, stating facts showing why the motion and/or joinder should be denied. Failure of the opposing party to serve and file written opposition may be construed as an admission that the motion and/or joinder is meritorious and a consent to granting the same. (emphasis added).

As this Court can see, Plaintiff's Opposition is clearly late pursuant to rule. Moreover, Plaintiff, while alleging she did not receive the Motion, makes no argument that it was not properly served. As such, this Court can exercise its discretion and choose to disregard this Opposition.

Given the lateness of the Opposition and lack of valid excuse justifying same, UAIC asks this Court to disregard the late Opposition and instead construe the failure to timely file an Opposition as an admission the Motion is meritorious and grant same.

B. Alternatively, Plaintiff's Opposition that UAIC is not Entitled to Intervene is Based on Distinguishable Case Law and, in any event, this Court should Exercise its Equitable Authority and Allow said Intervention Based upon Fraud Upon the Court.

For her Opposition, Plaintiff essentially makes one argument – that as this case involves a recently amended judgment which Plaintiff argues is “final” and, thus, UAIC is “too late” to intervene. However, some of the cases cited are distinguishable and, additionally, UAIC argues this involves a ‘fraud upon the court’ and, as such, this Court may exercise its discretion and allow this Intervention or, vacate the Amended Judgment on the Court's own Motion.

First, Plaintiff cites to the case of SFPP, LP v District Court, 123 Nev. 608 (2007) for the proposition that, generally, a court loses jurisdiction of a case after entry of a final judgment. However, as Plaintiff's own brief notes, the Court in SFPP clearly noted an exception to this rule when a party seeks "to alter, set aside, or vacate its judgment in conformity with the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure." Id. Here, UAIC has sought this intervention so as to file just such a Motion, under NRCP 60, and seek relief from a final judgment. Attached to UAIC's Initial Motion, as Exhibit "I", is a copy of UAIC's proposed responsive pleading to this action, a Motion for Relief from the Judgment pursuant to N.R.C.P. 60. As UAIC seeks a Motion for relief from judgment under Rule 60, it falls into the exception outlined by the Court in SPFF and, accordingly, that case serves as no bar to UAIC's Motion.

Similarly, Plaintiff relies upon Lee v GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424 (2000), for the general proposition that a final judgment is one that disposes of all the issues in this case. In so ruling, the court in Lee was explaining that the Respondent's motion to dismiss the appeal, which the Appellant therein had filed on the judgment, because a post-judgment motion (regarding costs was still pending) was not well taken because the post-judgment proceeding on fees did delay enforcement of the judgment. Accordingly, the rule set forth in Lee only concerns the appealability of a final order has absolutely nothing to do with the separate concerns of a Rule 60 Motion for Relief from judgment. As such, like the SPFF case discussion above, the present matter is distinguishable because UAIC seeks to intervene to file a timely and good faith Motion, under NRCP 60, seeking relief from a final judgment. As such, the Lee case also serves as no bar to Plaintiff's Motion.

Finally, Plaintiff relies on Lopez v Merit Ins. Co., 109 Nev. 553 (1993), for its main argument that NRS 12.130 does not permit entry intervention subsequent to entry of a final judgment. First, UAIC would like to point out that this case is distinguishable from the standpoint that Lopez dealt with a situation where an insurer was seeking to intervene in a case filed by its insured against an alleged tortfeasor and, not as here, where UAIC is seeking to intervene to protect its insured from a judgment on a suit filed by a claimant. As this Court is likely aware, the case of Allstate Ins. Co. v Pietrosh, 454 P.2d 106 (1969), provides generally that an insurer is bound by judgments in favor of its insured against a tortfeasor, when it fails to intervene, for purposes of any Underinsured Motorist claim made by its insured. Accordingly, the Court in Lopez was dealing with a completely different situation than the case at bar in that, in Lopez, the insurer was seeking intervention after judgment to potentially alleviate its Underinsured motorist obligations on a judgment in favor of its insured and against a tortfeasor where it had an affirmative obligation to intervene before judgment to do so.

Quite simply, that is not the situation here. UAIC not Plaintiff's insurer and, more importantly, UAIC had no such opportunity to intervene prior to entry of this 'amended judgment.' As discussed in UAIC's initial Motion, Plaintiff failed to renew the original, 2008, judgment in this case pursuant to Nevada law. Specifically, as this Court is aware, under N.R.S. 11.190(1)(a) the limitation for action to execute on such a judgment would be six (6) years, unless renewed under N.R.S. 17.214. Upon realizing the judgment had never been timely renewed, UAIC filed a Motion to Dismiss the Appeal for Lack of Standing with the Ninth Circuit (in the sister litigation on appeal, which is also set forth in UAIC's initial Motion) on March 14, 2017. Thereafter, on February 23, 2018 the Nevada Supreme Court issued an order accepting this second certified question and ordered Appellants to file their Opening brief within 30 days, or by March 26, 2018. A copy of the Order accepting the second certified question was attached as Exhibit 'B' to UAIC's initial Motion. In accepting the certified question, the Nevada Supreme Court rephrased the question as follows:

In an action against an insurer for breach of the duty to defend its insured, can the plaintiff continue to seek consequential damages in the amount of a default judgment obtained against the insured when the judgment against the insured was not renewed and the time for doing so expired while the action against the insurer was pending?

On August 2, Plaintiff (Appellant therein) filed her Opening Brief on this question and, UAIC has yet to file its Response Brief and, accordingly, the above-quoted question and, issue, remains pending before the Nevada Supreme Court. Despite the above, in what appears to be a clear case of forum shopping, Plaintiff retained additional Counsel (Plaintiff's Counsel herein) who filed an ex parte Motion before this Court on March 22, 2018 seeking to "amend" the 2008 expired judgment to be in the name of Cheyenne Nalder individually. A copy of the Ex Parte Motion is attached to UAIC's initial Motion as Exhibit 'C.' Thereafter, this Court, obviously not having been informed of the above-noted Nevada Supreme Court case, entered the amended judgment and same was filed with a notice of entry on May 18, 2018. A copy of the filed Amended Judgment is attached to UAIC's initial Motion as Exhibit 'D.' Upon learning of this "amended judgment" and "new" action (the sister case A-18-772220-C), on July 19, 2018¹, and, given the prior United States District Court's ruling that Gary Lewis is an insured under an implied UAIC policy for the loss belying these judgments, UAIC immediately sought to engage counsel to appear on Lewis' behalf in the present action. A copy of the Judgment of the U.S. District Court finding coverage and implying an insurance policy is attached to UAIC's initial Motion as Exhibit 'G.' Following retained defense Counsel's attempts to communicate with Mr. Lewis to defend him in this action and, potentially, vacate this improper amendment to an expired judgment – retained defense counsel was sent a letter by Tommy Christensen, Esq. – the other Counsel for Plaintiff judgment-creditor herein and in the above-referenced appeal – stating in no uncertain terms that Counsel could not communicate with Mr. Lewis, nor appear and defend him in this action and take action to get relief from this amended judgment. A copy of Tommy Christensen's letter of August 13, 2018 is attached to UAIC's initial Motion as Exhibit 'H.'

1 In this way, the case at bar is simply not analogous to Lopez as UAIC simply never had a
2 duty to intervene prior to this amended judgment, much less ability to do so. That is, the original
3 2008 judgment was expired and only by Plaintiff's improper attempt to file this 'amended
4 judgment' earlier this year did a need to intervene arise. Moreover, UAIC never even knew of 5 these surreptitious actions on the expired judgment until July 2018 and, thus, intervening prior to 6 that date would have been an impossibility. Accordingly, given the circumstances – Plaintiff 7 attempting to improperly amend an expired judgment while such issues were on appeal in 8 another matter – this Court should use its equitable and discretionary authority to allow such 9 intervention here even if technically 'after judgment.'

11 Additionally, UACI argues that the circumstances set forth above also offer additional 12 reasons to allow UAIC's intervention in this circumstance. That is, the clear conflict of interest 13 and attempts at perpetrating a fraud upon the court by Plaintiff. As noted above, Plaintiff is 14 represented by Mr. Christensen. Mr. Christensen also purports to be counsel for Lewis and has 15 informed UAIC's first retained counsel for Lewis that he may not appear and attempt to vacate 16 this judgment. Now, after learning of this and trying to intervene itself to protect Lewis and, its 17 own interests, UAIC is told by Plaintiff it cannot intervene. So, per Plaintiff, UAIC's retained 18 defense counsel cannot move to vacate this amended judgment and – UAIC cannot either. This is 19 clearly an attempt at a fraud upon the court solely to benefit Plaintiff and her counsel - and same 20 should not be tolerated.²

23 In NC-DSH, Inc. v Garner, 125 Nev. 647 (2009) the Nevada Supreme Court set forth the 24 definition of a fraud upon the Court in considering motion for relief from judgment under NRCP
25 60. In NC-DSH, Inc. the lawyer for a plaintiff's malpractice case forged settlement documents
26 and disappeared with the settlement funds. Id. In allowing the Plaintiff's Rule 60 motion to set 27 aside the dismissal (and settlement) the Court set forth the following definition for such a fraud,

as follows:

“The most widely accepted definition, which we adopt, holds that the concept embrace[s] only that species of fraud which does, or attempts to, subvert the integrity of the court itself, or is a fraud perpetrated by officers of the court so that the judicial machinery cannot perform in the usual manner its impartial task of adjudging cases ... and relief should be denied in the absence of such conduct.

Id at 654.

In the case at bar it seems clear that Plaintiff’s counsel (Mr. Christensen) is attempting just such a fraud. That is, besides the original judgment being expired and, the effect of its expiration on appeal before both the Nevada Supreme Court and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, Plaintiff still attempted this ‘amendment of judgment’. Moreover, Mr. Christensen (Plaintiff’s additional Counsel) represents both the judgment-creditor and judgment-debtor. Further, in his role as counsel for Plaintiff and Defendant, Mr. Christensen is attempting, as an officer of the court, to prevent UAIC from exercising its contractual and legal duty to defend Mr. Lewis and vacate this farce of a judgment by telling UAIC’s first retained counsel to not file the motion for relief from this judgment. Additionally, Plaintiff is now seeking to deny UAIC a chance to intervene. UAIC pleads this clearly a fraud perpetrated by officers of the court so that the judicial machinery cannot perform in the usual manner its impartial task of adjudging cases. In other words, Mr. Christensen, Counsel for Plaintiff, is seeking on the one hand to enforce an invalid judgment and, with the other, prevent anyone from contesting it – by representing both sides. This is the definition of a conflict of interest. After all, Plaintiff’s is attempting to improperly “fix” an expired multi-million judgment, while at the same time Counsel for Plaintiff is also claiming to represent the judgment-debtor (Lewis) and arising retained counsel not to vacate the amended judgment. How could this possibly benefit Mr. Lewis? Is having a multi-million dollar judgment against him which had expired be resurrected by an improper amendment of the judgment to his benefit? Is preventing anyone

² Indeed, perhaps this should be reported to the State bar.

1 from vacating or setting aside this improper amended judgment to his benefit? In short, it does
2 not – it only benefits Plaintiff and her counsel. UAIC argues this is clear fraud and collusive
3 conduct and, at the very least, the Court should therefore exercise its equitable power and allow 4 UAIC's intervention and, thereafter, hold an evidentiary hearing on this fraud.

6 Should this Court decline to allow UAIC to intervene, UAIC further pleads, in the 7 alternative, that this Court vacate the 2018 "amended judgment" on its own Motion given the 8 clear fraud that appears to have been perpetrated and is set forth herein. As this Court is aware,
9 District Courts have the inherent power to set aside judgments procured by extrinsic fraud. Lauer
10 v District Court, 62 Nev. 78, 140 P.2d 953. In the case at bar the potential extrinsic fraud
11 abounds. Besides the inherent conflict of interest of Plaintiff's Counsel, it also true that Plaintiff 12 failed to advise this court that 1) the 2008 judgment had expired and, 2) that the issue over the 13 effect of same expired judgment was before both the Nevada Supreme Court and the U.S. Court
14 of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit when it filed its ex parte Motion to amend this judgment.
15 Extrinsic fraud is usually found when conduct prevents a real trial on the issues or, prevents the 16 losing party from having a fair opportunity of presenting his/her defenses. Murphy v Murphy, 65
17 Nev. 264 (1948). The Court may vacate or set aside a judgment under Rule 60 on its own 18 Motion. A-Mark Coin Co. v. Estate of Redfield, 94 Nev. 495 (1978).

21 Given the fairly egregious attempt to prevent UAIC from vacating the improper attempt 22 to amend an expired judgment, when such judgment was procured without notice, while these 23 issues were on appeal and, with Plaintiff's counsel representing both sides – UAIC pleads with 24 this Court to exercise its own discretion and authority to vacate the amended judgment based on 25 all of the above.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, UAIC asks this Court grant it leave to intervene in this matter to protect its interests and LEWIS'. Alternatively, that this court exercise its inherent authority and discretion to vacate or set aside the improperly obtained amended judgment for the reasons set forth above.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Defendant, Gary Lewis, was left high and dry by his insurance company, UAIC, back in 2007 when he was sued by Cheyenne Nalder and UAIC did not defend him, resulting in a large judgment against him in case 07A549111. As a result of UAIC's failure, it became the Defendant in a lawsuit brought by Nalder and Lewis against it. That case is currently on appeal in the 9th circuit. The instant lawsuit is brought by Nalder against Lewis and UAIC has hired Randall Tindall to file pleadings on behalf of Gary Lewis. Tindall is the third attorney UAIC has hired to defend Lewis, but the first to disregard his ethical duties of communication with his client and complying with his client's reasonable requests regarding representation. See NRPC 1.2, 1.4 and 3.3.

1 The Motion filed by Tindall has been filed without authority and against the express wishes of the 2 client and should be stricken.

Re: Stop telling the Court you represent me.

Dear Mr. Tindall :

You have never communicated with me and I have never retained you to represent me. I am writing to make it very clear to you that I do not want you to make any representations or communications on my behalf without first getting my authority to do so in connection with the lawsuits that are currently pending in Nevada. I left Nevada at the end of 2008. I believe the actions you have taken on my behalf are fraudulent, improper and inaccurate. You already know all of this because Steve Rogers, who was previously hired by UAIC to represent me, also was told this and then did not file anything on my behalf. I have had the issues explored by my own counsel and I do not agree that your actions are in my best interest. My attorney defending me in these two cases is Breen Amtz. My attorney representing me against UAIC is Thomas Christensen. Please communicate with him regarding my desires. Please withdraw your three motions filed on my behalf and discontinue making any representations to the court that you are acting on my behalf. You are not.

Thank you.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I.

3 INTRODUCTION

4 This Court made a mistake of law based on incomplete/incorrect facts presented in and 5 Ex Parte Motion to Amended Judgment, when entering the Oder granting the Motion on March 6 28, 2018. The judgment which Plaintiff, Cheyenne Nalder ("Cheyenne") moved to amend was 7 entered on June 3, 2008. The judgment creditor, Cheyenne's guardian ad litem, James Nalder,
8 did not renew the Judgment as required By Nevada Law before it expired on June 3, 2014, six 9 (6) years after it was entered.

11 The Amended Judgment ostensibly revived the expired Judgment, despite the fact that 12 Cheyenne presented this Court with no legal support for such revival. Cheyenne's Motion 13 proposes that tolling provisions applicable to causes of action are also applicable to the deadlines
14 to renew judgments. However, none of the authority cited in her Motion supports 15 misappropriating tolling provisions applicable to certain causes of action to extend the time to 16 renew a judgment, nor does any other authority. Pursuant to NRCP 60, the Court should declare 17 that the Amended Judgment is void and that the original judgment has expired, and therefore is 18 not enforceable.

21 STATEMENT OF FACTS

22 This case involves a July 8, 2007 accident, Cheyenne Nalder, ("Cheyenne") who was 23 then a minor, alleged injuries. On October 9, 2007, Cheyenne's guardian ad litem, James Nalder, 24 filed a Complaint against Gary Lewis ("Lewis"). See Complaint attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

26 UAIC, the putative insurer for Lewis, initially denied coverage due to a lapse in 27

coverage¹. Lewis did not respond to the Complaint and a default was taken against him. Id. On June 3, 2008,² a judgment was entered against him in the amount of $3.5 million. See Judgment attached hereto as Exhibit “B”. James Nalder as guardian ad litem for Cheyenne was the judgment creditor. Id. NRS 11.190(1)(a) provides that a judgment expires in six (6) years, unless it is timely renewed. As such, the Judgment expired on June 3, 2014.

On March 22, 2018 nearly 10 years after the Judgment was entered, and nearly four (4) years after it expired, Cheyenne filed an “Ex Parte Motion to Amend Judgment in the Name of Cheyenne Nalder, Individually” (“Ex Parte Motion”) in her personal injury case, Case No. A-07-54911-C. See Exhibit “C.” Her Motion did not advise the Court that the Judgment she sought to amend had expired. Rather, it cited two statutes, NRS 11280 and 11.300, without explaining why they were applicable to her request, and asked the Court to amend the Judgment to be in her name alone. In short, the Court was not put on notice that it was being asked to ostensibly revive an expired judgment. Id.

With an incomplete account of the issues presented, the Court granted Cheyenne’s Ex Parte Motion and issued an Amended Judgment on March 28, 2018 which was filed with a Notice of Entry on May 18, 2018. See Exhibit “D.”

As the judgment had expired and an Amended Judgment could not be issued to revive it. UAIC brings the instant Motion pursuant to NRCP 60(b), as it has now been found to be the insurer of Lewis under an implied policy and, thus, has an interest in this matter, and seeks to avoid the Amended Judgment and declare that the original Judgment has expired.

² Judgments are entered when filed, not when a Notice of Entry is made. NRCP 58(c).

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Judgment Expired on June 3, 2014

Nevada law provides that the statute of limitations for execution upon a judgment is six(6) years. NRS 11.190(1)(b). The judgment creditor may renew a judgment (and therefore the statute of limitation) for an additional six years by following the procedure mandated by NRS 17.214. The mandated procedures were not followed. Therefore the judgment expired.

NRS 17.214(1)(a) sets forth the procedure that must ne followed to renew a judgment. A document titled "Affidavit of Renewal" containing specific information outlined in the statute must be filed with the clerk of the court where the judgment is filed within 90 days before the date the judgment expires. Here, the Affidavit of Renewal was required to be filed by March 5, 2014. No such Affidavit of Renewal was filed by James Nalder, the judgement creditor. Cheyenne was still a minor on March 5, 2014. The Affidavit of Renewal must also be recorded if the original judgment was recorded, and the judgment debtor must be served. No evidence of recordation (if such was required) or service on Lewis is present in the record.

The Nevada Supreme Court, in Leven v Frey, 123 Nev.399,168 P.3d 712 (2007), held that judgment creditors must strictly comply with the procedure set forth in NRS 17.214 in order to validly renew a judgment. Id. At 405-408, 168 P.3d 717-719. There is no question that neither Cheyenne nor her guardian ad litem did so. Therefore the Judgment expired.

1. The deadline to renew the Judgment was not tolled by any statute or rule

In her Ex Parte Motion, Cheyenne suggested that the deadlines mandated by NRS 17.214 were somehow extended because certain statutes of information can be tolled for causes of action under some circumstances. No such tolling applies to renewal of a judgment because renewal of a judgment is not a cause of action.

The introduction to NRS 11.090, the statute of limitation law, states that it applies to:

1 “...actions other than those from the recovery of real property, unless further limited by specific 2 statute...” The list which follows includes various causes of action for which suit can be brought.
 3 Nowhere in the list is renewing a judgment defined as or analogized to a cause of action.

4 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that actions to enforce a judgment fall under the six
 5 year “catch all” provision of NRS 11.090(1)(a). Leven at 403, 168 P.3d at 715 (“An action on a
 6 judgment or its renewal must be commenced within six years under NRS 11.190 (1) (a); thus a
 7 judgment expires by limitation in six years”). In summary, neither statute, NRS 11.190 nor NRS
 8 17.214, provides for any tolling of the time period to renew a judgment.

11 2. The deadline to renew the Judgment was not tolled by Cheyenne’s minority

12 Setting aside the fact that the deadline to renew a judgment is not an action to which 13 statutes of limitation/tolling apply, Cheyenne’s proposition that the deadlines set forth in NRS
 14 17.214 were tolled by her minority are inapt for a few reasons. First, the tolling statute cited by 15 Cheyenne, NRS 11.280, does not universally toll all statutes of limitations while a plaintiff is a 16 minor. Rather, it is expressly limited to actions involving sales of probate estates.

 18 Legal disability prevents running of statute. NRS 11.260 and 11.270 shall not 19 apply to minors or others under any legal disability to sue at the time when the 20 right of action first accrues, but all such persons may commence an action at any 21 time within 1 year after the removal of the disability.

22 Emphasis added. NRS 11.260 applies to actions to recover an estate sold by a guardian. NRS
 23 11.270 applies to actions to recover estates sold by an executor or administrator. Neither of those 24 causes of action are at issue here. Therefore, NRS 11.260 would not authorize tolling the 25 deadline for the renewal of a judgment while a judgment creditor was a minor. This statute 26 would not apply in any instance because the judgment creditor, James, was not a minor, and so 27 did not have a legal disability.

28 On March 5, 2014, the deadline to file the Affidavit of Renewal, Cheyenne was still a

1 minor. The judgment creditor was her guardian ad litem James Nalder. It was James Nalder, not
2 Cheyenne, who had the responsibility to file the Affidavit of Renewal by the March 5, 2014
3 deadline. The fact that Cheyenne, the real party in interest was a minor is not legally relevant.

4 As Cheyenne was not the judgment creditor at any time prior to the date of the issuance
5 of the Amended Judgment, anyone looking at the Judgment would believe that it expired on June 6 4, 2014, since there was no Affidavit of Renewal filed. If Cheyenne's apparent argument were 7 given credence, either the judgment never expired, because she was the real party in interest and 8 was a minor at the time, the Judgment would have otherwise expired, or the judgment did expire
9 but was revived upon her reaching the age of majority. To adopt this proposition would frustrate 10 the certainty NRS 17.214 was enacted to promote - the reliability of the title to real property.

11 If tolling of deadlines to amend judgments were sanctioned, title to real property owned 12 by anyone who had ever been a judgment debtor would be clouded, as a title examiner would not 13 know whether a judgment issued more than six years prior had expired pursuant to statute, or was 14 still valid, or could be revived when a real party in interest who was a minor reached the age of 15 majority. As the court held in Leven, one of the primary reasons for the need to strictly comply 16 with NRS 17.214's recordation requirement is to "procure reliability of the title searches for both 17 creditors and debtors since any lien on real property created when a judgment is recorded
18 continues upon that judgment's proper renewal." Id. At 408-409, 168 P.3d 712, 719. Compliance 19 with the notice requirement of NRS 17.124 is important to preserve the due process rights of the 20 judgment debtor. Id. If a judgment debtor is not provided with notice of the renewal of a 21 Judgment, he may believe that the judgment has expired and he need take no further action to 22 defend himself against execution.

23 3. Lewis' residency in California did not toll the deadline to renew the Judgment

24 Cheyenne's Ex Parte Motion next cites NRS 11.3000, which provides "If, when the cause
25 of action shall accrue against a person, the person is out of State, the action may be commenced
28

1 within the time herein limited after the person's return to the State; and if after the cause of 2 action shall have accrued the person departs from the State, the time of the absence shall not be 3 part of the time prescribed for the commencement of the action." Cheyenne's argument that the 4 deadline to renew the Judgment are tolled by NRS 11.300 fails because, again renewing a 5 judgment is not a cause of action. As the Supreme Court of North Dakota, a state with similar 6 statutes to Nevada regarding judgments, held in F/S Manufacturing v Kensmore, 789 N.W.2d
 7 853 (N.D. 2011), "Because the statutory procedure for renewal by affidavit is not a separate 8 action to renew the judgment, the specific time period[provided to renew] cannot be tolled under 9 [the equivalent to NRS 11.300] based on a judgment debtor's absence for the state." Id. At 858.

11 In addition, applying Cheyenne's argument that the time to renew a judgment was tolled
 12 because of the judgment debtor's absence from Nevada would have a similarly negative impact
 13 on the ability for property owners to obtain clear title to their property. Nothing on a judgment 14 would reflect whether a judgment debtor was outside of the state and a facially expired judgment
 15 was still valid. Therefore, essentially, a responsible title examiner would have to list any 16 judgment that had ever been entered against a property owner on the title insurance policy,
 17 because he could not be sure the judgments older than six years for which no affidavit of renewal 18 had been filed were expired or the expiration was tolled.

20 B. The Court made an Error of Law, Likely Based on Mistake of Fact, When it Granted
 21 the Ex Parte Motion to Amend Judgment

22 NRCP 60(b) allows this Court to relieve a party from a final judgment due to mistake
 23 (NRCP 60(b)(1) or because a judgment is void (NRCP 60(b)(4). Both of these provisions apply.

24 1. The Court made a mistake of law when it granted the Amended Judgment

25 Because the Ex Parte Motion was ex parte, it was not served on Lewis or UAIC nor did 26 Lewis or UAIC have an opportunity to make the Court aware that the Judgment had already 27 expired on its own terms, and that Cheyenne's position that the deadline to renew the judgment
 28

1 was tolled was inapt. The Ex Parte Motion did not advise the Court that the Judgment had 2 expired in 2014 and had not been properly renewed. Had the court been fully apprised of the 3 facts, it likely would not have granted the Ex Parte Motion. Since the Amended Judgment was 4 entered on March 28, 2018, and the Notice of Entry not filed until May 18, 2018, a motion to set 5 aside the amended judgment on the basis of mistake is timely as it is made within six months of 6 the entry of the judgment. Accordingly, this Motion is timely and this Court should rectify the 7 mistake and void the Amended Judgment in accordance with NRCP 60(b)(1).

9 2. The Amended Judgment is void.

10 As demonstrated above, the Judgment expired. It was not renewed. There is no legal or 11 equitable basis for the Court to revive it. The six-month deadline does not apply to requests for 12 relief from a judgment because the judgment is void. Therefore, the instant motion is timely.
 13 The Amended Judgment is void and, pursuant to NRCP 60(b)(4) this Court should declare it void 14 and unenforceable.

16 IV.

17 CONCLUSION

18 Since the Judgment expired in 2014, the Amended Judgment should not have been 19 issued. It should be voided, and the Court should declare that the Judgment has expired.

1 2. That Plaintiff, Gary Lewis, was at all times relevant to this action a resident of the 2 County of Clark, State of Nevada.

3 3. That Defendant, United Automobile Insurance Co. (hereinafter "UAI"), was at all times
4 relevant to this action an automobile insurance company duly authorized to act as an insurer in 5 the State of Nevada and doing business in Clark County, Nevada.

6 4. That the true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, partnership, associate 7 or otherwise, of Defendants, DOES I through V and ROE CORPORATIONS I through V, are 8 unknown to Plaintiffs, who therefore sue said Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs 9 are informed and believe and thereon allege that each of the Defendants designated herein as 10 DOE or ROE CORPORATION is responsible in some manner for the events and happenings
11 referred to and caused damages proximately to Plaintiffs as herein alleged, and that Plaintiffs 12 will ask leave of this Court to amend this Complaint to insert the true names and capacities of 13 DOES I through V and ROE CORPORATIONS I through V, when the same have been 14 ascertained, and to join such Defendants in this action.

15 5. That, at all times relevant hereto, Gary Lewis was the owner of a certain 1996 Chevy 16 Silverado with vehicle identification number 1GCEC19M6TE214944 (hereinafter "Plaintiff's 17 Vehicle").

18 6. That Gary Lewis had in effect on July 8, 2007, a policy of automobile insurance on the 19 Plaintiff's Vehicle with Defendant, UAI (the "Policy"); that the Policy provides certain 20 benefits to Cheyanne Nalder as specified in the Policy; and the Policy included liability
21 coverage in the amount of $15,000.00/$30,000.00 per occurrence (hereinafter the "Policy
24

1 7. That Gary Lewis paid his monthly premium to UAI for the policy period of June 30, 2 2007 through July 31, 2007.

3 8. That on July 8, 2007 on Bartolo Rd in Clark County Nevada, Cheyanne Nalder was a
4 pedestrian in a residential area, Plaintiff's vehicle being operated by Gary Lewis when Gary 5 Lewis drove over top of Cheyanne Nalder causing serious personal injuries and damages to 6 Cheyanne Nalder.

7 9. That Cheyanne Nalder made a claim to UAI for damages under the terms of the Policy
8 due to her personal injuries.

9 10. That Cheyanne Nalder offered to settle his claim for personal injuries and damages
10 against Gary Lewis within the Policy Limits, and that Defendants, and each of them, refused to 11 settle the claim of Cheyanne Nalder against Gary Lewis within the Policy Limits and in fact 12 denied the claim all together indicating Gary Lewis did not have coverage at the time of the 13 accident.

14 11. That Plaintiff, Gary Lewis has duly performed all the conditions, provisions and terms
15 of the Policy relating to the loss sustained by Plaintiff, Cheyanne Nalder, and has furnished and 16 delivered to the Defendants, and each of them, full and complete particulars of said loss and 17 have fully complied with all of the provisions of the Policy relating to the giving of notice of 18 said loss, and have duly given all other notices required to be given by the Plaintiffs under the 19 terms of the Policy, including paying the monthly premium.

20 12. That Plaintiff, Cheyanne Nalder, is a third party beneficiary under the Policy as well as a 21 Judgment Creditor of Gary Lewis and is entitled to pursue action against the Defendants directly 22 under Hall v. Enterprise Leasing Co., West, 122 Nev. 685, 137 P.3d 1104, 1109 (2006), as well as 23 Denham v. Farmers Insurance Company, 213 Cal.App.3d 1061, 262 Cal.Rptr. 146 (1989).

24

- 1 13. That Cheyanne Nalder conveyed to UAI her willingness to settle her claim against Gary
2 Lewis at or within the policy limits of $15,000.00 provided they were paid in a commercially 3 reasonable manner.
- 4 14. That Cheyanne Nalder and Gary Lewis cooperated with UAI in its investigation
5 including but not limited to providing a medical authorization to UAI on or about August 2, 6 2007.
- 7 15. That on or about August 6, 2007 UAI mailed to Plaintiff, Cheyanne Nalders' attorney, 8 Christensen Law Offices, a copy of "Renewal Policy Declaration Monthly Nevada Personal 9 Auto Policy" for Gary Lewis with a note that indicated "There was a gap in coverage".
- 10 16. That on or about October 10, 2007 UAI mailed to Plaintiff, Cheyanne Nalders' 11 attorney, Christensen Law Offices, a letter denying coverage.
- 12 17. That on or about October 23, 2007, Plaintiff, Cheyanne Nalder provided a copy of the 13 complaint filed against UAI's insured Gary Lewis.
- 14 18. That on or about November 1, 2007, UAI mailed to Plaintiff, Cheyanne Nalders' 15 attorney, Christensen Law Offices, another letter denying coverage.
- 16 19. That UAI denied coverage stating Gary Lewis had a "lapse in coverage" due to non-17 payment of premium.
- 18 20. That UAI denied coverage for non-renewal.
- 19 21. That UAI mailed Gary Lewis a "renewal statement" on or about June 11, 2007 that 20 indicated UAI's intention to renew Gary Lewis' policy.
- 21 22. That upon receiving the "renewal statement", which indicated UAI's intention to renew 22 Gary Lewis' policy, Gary Lewis made his premium payment and procured insurance coverage
23 with UAI.
- 24

23. That UAI was required under the law to provide insurance coverage under the policy Gary Lewis had with UAI for the loss suffered by Cheyenne Nalder, and was under an obligation to defend Gary Lewis and to indemnify Gary Lewis up to and including the policy limit of $15,000.00, and to settle Cheyenne's claim at or within the $15,000.00 policy limit when given an opportunity to do so.

24. That UAI never advised Lewis that Nalder was willing to settle Nalder's claim against Lewis for the sum of $15,000.00.

25. UAI did not timely evaluate the claim nor did it tender the policy limits.

26. Due to the dilatory tactics and failure of UAI to protect their insured by paying the policy limits when given ample opportunity to do so, Plaintiff, Nalder, was forced to seek the services of an attorney to pursue his rights under her claim against Lewis.

27. Due to the dilatory tactics and failure of UAI to protect their insured by paying the policy limits when given ample opportunity to do so, Plaintiff, Cheyanne Nalder, was forced to file a complaint on October 9, 2007 against Gary Lewis for her personal injuries and damages suffered in the July 8, 2007 automobile accident.

28. The filing of the complaint caused additional expense and aggravation to both Cheyanne Nalder and Gary Lewis.

29. Cheyanne Nalder procured a Judgment against Gary Lewis in the amount of $3,500,000.00.

30. UAI refused to protect Gary Lewis and provide Gary Lewis with a legal defense to the lawsuit filed against Gary Lewis by Cheyanne Nalder.

31. That Defendants, and each of them, are in breach of contract by their actions which include, but are not limited to:

24

- 1 a. Unreasonable conduct in investigating the loss;
- 2 b. Unreasonable failure to provide coverage for the loss;
- 3 c. Unreasonable delay in making payment on the loss;
- 4 d. Failure to make a prompt, fair and equitable settlement for the loss;
- 5 e. Unreasonably compelling Plaintiffs to retain an attorney before making payment
- 6 on the loss.

7 32. As a proximate result of the aforementioned breach of contract, Plaintiffs have suffered
8 and will continue to suffer in the future, damages in the amount of $3,500,000.00 plus 9 continuing interest.

10 33. As a further proximate result of the aforementioned breach of contract, Plaintiffs have 11 suffered anxiety, worry, mental and emotional distress, and other incidental damages and out of 12 pocket expenses, all to their general damage in excess of $10,000.00.

13 34. As a further proximate result of the breach of contract, Plaintiffs were compelled to 14 retain legal counsel to prosecute this claim, and Defendants, and each of them, are liable for 15 their attorney's fees reasonably and necessarily incurred in connection therewith.

16 35. That Defendants, and each of them, owed a duty of good faith and fair dealing implied 17 in every contract.

18 36. That Defendants, and each of them, were unreasonable by refusing to cover the true
19 value of the claim of Cheyanne Nalder, wrongfully failing to settle within the Policy Limits 20 when they had an opportunity to do so, and wrongfully denying coverage.

21 37. That as a proximate result of the aforementioned breach of the implied covenant of 22 good faith and fair dealing, Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer in the future, 23 damages in the amount of $3,500,000.00 plus continuing interest.

1 38. That as a further proximate result of the aforementioned breach of the implied covenant
2 of good faith and fair dealing, Plaintiffs have suffered anxiety, worry, mental and emotional
3 distress, and other incidental damages and out of pocket expenses, all to their general damage
4 in excess of $10,000.00.

5 39. That as a further proximate result of the aforementioned breach of the implied covenant
6 of good faith and fair dealing, Plaintiffs were compelled to retain legal counsel to prosecute this 7 claim, and Defendants, and each of them, are liable for their attorney's fees reasonably and 8 necessarily incurred in connection therewith.

9 40. That Defendants, and each of them, acted unreasonably and with knowledge that there 10 was no reasonable basis for its conduct, in its actions which include but are not limited to:
11 wrongfully refusing to cover the value of the claim of Cheyanne Nalder, wrongfully failing to 12 settle within the Policy Limits when they had an opportunity to do so and wrongfully denying 13 the coverage.

14 41. That as a proximate result of the aforementioned bad faith, Plaintiffs have suffered and 15 will continue to suffer in the future, damages in the amount of $3,500,000.00 plus continuing 16 interest.

17 42. That as a further proximate result of the aforementioned bad faith, Plaintiffs have 18 suffered anxiety, worry, mental and emotional distress, and other incidental damages and out of 19 pocket expenses, all to their general damage in excess of $10,000.00.

20 43. That as a further proximate result of the aforementioned bad faith, Plaintiffs were 21 compelled to retain legal counsel to prosecute this claim, and Defendants, and each of them, are 22 liable for their attorney's fees reasonably and necessarily incurred in connection therewith.

1 44. That Defendants, and each of them, violated NRS 686A.310 by their actions, including
2 but not limited to: wrongfully refusing to cover the value of the claim of Cheyanne Nalder,
3 wrongfully failing to settle within the Policy Limits when they had an opportunity to do so and 4 wrongfully denying coverage.

5 45. That NRS 686A.310 requires that insurance carriers conducting business in Nevada 6 adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation and processing of 7 claims arising under insurance policies, and requires that carriers effectuate the prompt, fair and 8 equitable settlements of claims in which liability of the insurer has become reasonably clear.

9 46. That UAI did not adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt 10 investigation and processing of claims arising under its insurance policies, and did not 11 effectuate the a prompt, fair and/or equitable settlement of Nalder's claim against Lewis in 12 which liability of the insurer was very clear, and which clarity was conveyed to UAI.

13 47. That NAC 686A.670 requires that an insurer complete an investigation of each claim 14 within 30 days of receiving notice of the claim, unless the investigation cannot be reasonably 15 completed within that time.

16 48. That UAI received notice of Nalder's claim against Lewis, at the very latest, on or 17 before August 6, 2007. That it was more than reasonable for UAI to complete its investigation of 18 Nalder's claim against Lewis well within 30 days of receiving notice of the claim.

19 49. That UAI did not offer the applicable policy limits.

20 50. That UAI did failed to investigate the claim at all and denied coverage.

21 51. That as a proximate result of the aforementioned violation of NRS 686A.310, Plaintiffs
22 have suffered and will continue to suffer in the future, damages in the amount of $3,500,000.00
23 plus continuing interest.

1 52. That as a further proximate result of the aforementioned violation of NRS 686A.310,
2 Plaintiffs have suffered anxiety, worry, mental and emotional distress, and other incidental
3 damages and out of pocket expenses, all to their general damage in excess of $10,000.00.

4 53. That as a further proximate result of the aforementioned violation of NRS 686A.310,
5 Plaintiffs were compelled to retain legal counsel to prosecute this claim, and Defendants, and 6 each of them, are liable for their attorney's fees reasonably and necessarily incurred in 7 connection therewith.

8 54. That the Defendants, and each of them, have been fraudulent in that they have stated
9 that they would protect Gary Lewis in the event he was found liable in a claim. All of this 10 was done in conscious disregard of Plaintiffs' rights and therefore Plaintiffs are entitled to 11 punitive damages in an amount in excess of $10,000.00.

12 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, pray for judgment against Defendants, and each of them, as 13 follows:

14 1. Payment for the excess verdict rendered against Lewis which remains unpaid in 15 an amount in excess of $3,500,000.00;

16 2. General damages for mental and emotional distress and other incidental 17 damages in an amount in excess of $10,000.00;

18 3. Attorney's fees and costs of suit incurred herein; and

19 4. Punitive damages in an amount in excess of $10,000.00;

	Winner, Thomas E.	Attorney for Intervenor

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- E. Breen Arntz, Esq., present on behalf of Deft. David A. Stephens, Esq., present on behalf of Pltff. in A772220.

The Court disclosed Mr. Tindall worked with the Court in the firm for Farmers Insurance and does not see any conflict. Mr. Winner stated he does not see a conflict. Mr. Christensen stated he and Mr. Lewis does see a conflict because Mr. Lewis submitted a complaint to the bar because Mr. Tindall's representation is not authorized by Mr. Lewis and contrary to his interest. Court inquired what that has to do with the conflict. Mr. Christensen stated he is a Third Party Deft. in the cross claim and third party complaint that was filed. Further, Mr. Christensen requested the Court recuse at this time. Colloquy. Mr. Christensen requested time to review issues and from the very beginning the intervenor filed motion to Intervene. On the face of those motions, the certificate of service was improper on both motions and in both cases. On one it did not have anything filled in as to who was served and on the other one it was checked electronic service but Mr. Stephens was not on the Court's electronic service platform at the time that they signed and also did not have any service for Mr. Lewis or any attorney representing Mr. Lewis and those motions are defective to begin with. When Mr. Stephens discovered these motions were filed, filed oppositions and delivered courtesy copies to the Court prior to the hearing date. The Intervenor also filed replies and those oppositions were not considered by the Court and the Court granted the motions that were not properly noticed and then had an order prepared that was not run by anyone in the case and did not sign stipulated judgment that was submitted to the Court prior to the hearing on the motion but did sign order allowing intervention which is improper. Post judgment intervention is clear Nevada law that you cannot intervene after trial and that is in the other case that is already to judgment. Additionally, still waiting for the stipulated judgment in this case and have no information why we have not received that. Gary Lewis submitted bar complaint against Mr. Tindall for his entering appearances on his behalf. Court stated he is not hearing this as it does not come before this Court. Mr. Winner objected to counsel advising of the bar complaint. Mr. Christensen further stated bar counsel immediately dismissed the bar complaint and said Mr. Tindall is involved in this ongoing case and they were not going to do anything. If a judge refers this to the bar, then they will investigate. Further, Mr. Christensen requested the Court refer Mr. Tindall to the bar. There has been letters sent to Mr. Tindall from Mr. Lewis advising his to stop representing him, stop putting forth frivolous defenses in case on Mr. Lewis' behalf and Mr. Tindall refuses to. Colloquy. Opposition by Mr. Winner as to the request for this Court to recuse and believes the new pleadings are frivolous and a clumsy effort forcing the Court to appoint another judge on the case. Colloquy. Further opposition by Mr. Winner. Due to this Court and Mr. Tindall having a previous working relationship, to avoid the appearance of impropriety and implied bias, this Court hereby disqualifies itself and ORDERS, this case be REASSIGNED at random.

DEFENDANT'S OPPOSITION TO INTERVENOR'S MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO NRCP 60

Defendant, Gary Lewis, by and through his counsel, E. Breen Arntz, Esq., opposes Intervenor's motion for relief from judgment.

UAIC's motion is unsupported by Nevada authority and is frivolous. UAIC misstates Nevada's statute of limitations and tolling statutes. UAIC misstates Nevada cases regarding actions on a judgment to obtain a new judgment and its relationship to the optional and additional process to renew a judgment by affidavit. UAIC's motion is not supported by authority, is not timely, is not brought in good faith and is contrary to law. In addition, UAIC's

1 motion to intervene was not properly noticed, is contrary to the well settled law in Nevada should
2 have been denied and UAIC's resulting motion in intervention should now be denied, stricken
3 and the intervention denied. The intervention statute provides for intervention prior to trial not 4 after judgment. NRS 12.130 Intervention:...1. ...(a) Before the trial, any person may intervene in 5 an action or proceeding.... Nevada law does not allow for intervention after judgment. In 6 addition UAIC waived their right to direct the defense and their right to intervene when they 7 refused to defend Lewis and failed to indemnify him. UAIC claims to have a direct and 8 immediate interest to warrant intervention. However the California court in Hinton v. Beck, 176
9 Cal. App. 4th 1378 (Cal. Ct. App. 2009) has held just the opposite: "Grange, having denied 10 coverage and having refused to defend the action on behalf of its insured, did not have a direct 11 and immediate interest to warrant intervention in the litigation."

14 The only facts and procedural history relevant to UAIC's motion in intervention for relief 15 from the judgment in this action are that Nalder was born April 4, 1998. That UAIC refused to 16 defend their insured Lewis following Cheyenne's injury. Nalder sued Lewis. UAIC was notified 17 of the litigation. UAIC refused to defend or indemnify Lewis. The original Judgment was 18 entered on August 26, 2008. It is a final judgment. Lewis and Nalder sued UAIC to collect on the 19 judgment among other claims. Mr. Lewis moved from Nevada and was not subject to service of 20 process in the State of Nevada from at the latest December of 2010 to the present. This case was 21 removed to federal court by UAIC. The federal district court erroneously granted summary 22 judgment in favor of UAIC on December 20, 2010. Exhibit 1. This erroneous ruling was 23 appealed to the Ninth circuit who reversed the trial court and ordered further proceedings 24 consistent with that order.

27 On remand the district court issued an order holding UAIC liable for insurance coverage
28 of the incident and ordering payment of the policy limits but erroneously failing to award

1 consequential damages in the amount of the judgment on October 30, 2013. Exhibit 2. This
2 failure to award the amount of the judgment as damages to Lewis and Nalder was again appealed
3 to the Ninth Circuit. UAIC made three undisputed payments toward the judgment on June 23, 4 2014; June 25, 2014; and March 5, 2015.

6 Following the District court's finding of coverage UAIC did not take any immediate steps
7 to intervene in the Nevada action. UAIC did not take any action in 2014 to defend their insured 8 regarding the expiration of the judgment which they claim -- wrongly -- could be done as early as 9 August 26, 2014. UAIC did not take any action in 2015 to defend their insured. UAIC did not 10 take any action in 2016 to intervene and defend their insured. UAIC did not take any action in 11 2017 to intervene and defend their insured. Now UAIC has obtained a void order allowing 12 intervention and filed a frivolous motion for relief from judgment. This is not timely. UAIC by 13 failing to defend has waived their right to intervene. The motion to intervene should not have 14 been granted and now the motion in intervention must be denied, stricken and the intervention

18 The case of Hinton v. Beck, 176 Cal. App. 4th 1378 (Cal. Ct. App. 2009) is dispositive of 19 the issue in this case. In Hinton the court affirmed the trial court's striking of the insurers 20 complaint in intervention and concluded "Hamilton speaks directly to the case before us because 21 Grange rejected the opportunity and waived the chance to contest the liability of its insured when 22 it denied Beck a defense. Hinton settled with Beck by agreeing to forego execution of her default
23 judgment against him in exchange for an assignment of his rights against Grange. Grange may 24 not now inject itself into the litigation because it lost its right to control the litigation when it
25 refused to defend or indemnify Beck." Likewise UAIC lost its right to control the litigation when 26 it refused to defend or indemnify Lewis.

In regard to the validity of the judgment UAIC misstates Nevada law throughout its motion. NRS 11.190 is the statute of limitations for many types of actions including an action on a judgment. It's time calculation is tolled by many statutes in the same section. Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 24 Nev. 154, 161, 50 P. 849, 851 (1897) The three applicable here are NRS 11.200 (the time in NRS 11.190 runs from the last transaction or payment), NRS 11.250 (the time in NRS 11.190 runs from the time the person reaches the age of majority) and NRS 11.300 (the time in NRS 11.190 is tolled for any time the defendant is out of the state of Nevada). Nowhere does NRS 11.190(1)(a) say "unless renewed under NRS 17.214." In fact it says within six years "an action upon a judgment...OR the renewal thereof." (emphasis added)

The judgment remains collectible even in the absence of an action upon the judgment or renewal of the judgment for three reasons. UAIC made three undisputed payments toward the judgment on June 23, 2014; June 25, 2014; and March 5, 2015. Pursuant to "NRS 11.200 Computation of time. The time in NRS 11.190 shall be deemed to date from the last transaction ... the limitation shall commence from the time the last payment was made." Further, when any payment is made, "the limitation shall commence from the time the last payment was made." Therefore, UAIC's last payment on the judgment extended the expiration of the six-year statute of limitations to March 5, 2021.

Additionally, NRS 11.250 outlines various circumstances that prevent the running of the statute of limitations and states, in relevant part:

If a person entitled to bring an action other than for the recovery of real property be, at the time the cause of action accrued, either:

1. Within the age of 18 years;

the time of such disability shall not be a part of the time limited for the commencement of the action (emphasis added).

Cheyenne Nalder was a minor when she obtained the judgment. She turned 18 on April 4, 2016.

1 Therefore, the earliest that the six-year statute of limitations runs is April of 2022. This judgment
2 was never recorded and the provisions of NRS 17.214 relating to real property have no
3 application here.

5 Pursuant to NRS 11.300, the absence of Lewis from the State of Nevada tolls the statute of 6 limitations to enforce a judgment and it remains tolled because of his absence. See Bank of 7 Nevada v. Friedman, 82 Nev. 417, 421, 420 P.2d 1, 3 (1966) and Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 24
8 Nev. 154, 161, 50 P. 849, 851 (1897)

10 The averments of the complaint and the undisputed facts are that, at the 11 time of the rendition and entry of the judgment in 1882, the appellant was out of 12 the state, and continuously remained absent therefrom until March, 1897,
13 thereby preserving the judgment and all rights of action of the judgment creditor
14 under the same. Notwithstanding nearly fifteen years had elapsed since the entry 15 of the judgment, yet, for the purposes of action, the judgment was not barred — 16 for that purpose the judgment was valid.

17 UAIC admits that North Dakota is a state with similar renewal methods to Nevada. While 18 they are partially correct there is a crucial difference in the renewal statutes between North
19 Dakota and Nevada. The language of the renewal statute in North Dakota contains a ten year 20 period in the body of the statute. The Nevada renewal statute refers one back to the statute of 21 limitations for judgments. Further, the case cited by UAIC, F/S Manufacturing v. Kensmoe, 798
22 N.W.2d 853 (N.D. 2011) supports the validity of the judgment here. As that Court notes:

24 Of course, it may be easier to renew a judgment by affidavit; but it by no 25 means follows that the old judgment may not be made the basis of a new suit, and 26 many cases arise where it is an advantage to be able to bring suit, instead of 27 renewing by affidavit — the case at bar being an example. It is our conclusion that 28 the two remedies are not inconsistent, and that a judgment creditor may either sue upon his judgment, or renew it by affidavit ... Id at 857.

These tolling statutes present a catch-22 for the use of NRS 17.214 and the “strict compliance” interpretation given by the Nevada Supreme Court. One of the terms of the statute

1 in Nevada is that the renewal needs to be brought within 90 days of the expiration of the statute of 2 limitations. If that 90-day period is strictly construed, any renewal attempt pursuant to NRS
3 17.214 by Nalder at the present time, or earlier as argued by UAIC, might be premature and 4 therefore may be ineffective because it would not be filed within the 90 day window prior to 5 expiration of the statute of limitations.

7 NRS 17.214 was enacted to give an optional, not “mandatory,” statutory procedure in 8 addition to the rights already present for an action on the judgment. UAIC claims the plain,
9 permissive language of NRS 17.214: “A judgment creditor...may renew a judgment,” (emphasis
10 added) mandates use of NRS 17.214 as the only way to obtain a new judgment. UAIC cites no
11 authority for this mandated use of NRS 17.214. The legislative history demonstrates that NRS
12 17.214 was adopted to give an easier way for creditors to renew judgments. This was to give an 13 option for renewal of judgments that was easier and more certain, not make it a trap for the 14 unwary and cut off rights of injured parties. This is contrary to the clear wording of the statute
15 and the case law in Nevada. See Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 24 Nev. 154, 161, 50 P. 849, 851

18 The law is well settled that a judgment creditor may enforce his 19 judgment by the process of the court in which he obtained it, or he may elect 20 to use the judgment as an original cause of action and bring suit thereon and 21 prosecute such suit to final judgment.

22 Where as here, the timing of the expiration is in doubt, the best way to obtain a new 23 judgment is the common law method, which is only supplemented by the statutory renewal
24 method, not replaced. See Mandlebaum at 161-162

26 In the absence of direct legislation restricting or limiting the 27 common law rule of the right of action upon judgments, there are found 28 within our statutes provisions from which the court is authorized in holding, as a matter of inference, that no change in that rule was intended, otherwise some legislative restriction or limitation of the right under the common law rule would have been included in the statute other than the

1 one barring the action if not commenced within six years after the right
2 accrued. In other words, the legislature gave to the judgment creditor the 3 right of action at any time within six years after such right accrued without 4 other limitations. Furthermore, the statutory law preserved that right as 5 against the judgment debtor who might be out of the state, by allowing 6 such action to be commenced within the time limited after his return to the 7 state, which might be, as in this case, long after the right of execution had 8 been barred.

9 We must therefore hold, that under the common law rule, which 10 prevails in this state, that the right of action upon an unsatisfied judgment is 11 a matter of course...

12 This has been the law in Nevada for over a hundred years. It has not been modified by the 13 legislature. UAIC's motion for relief from judgment should be denied, it is untimely and 14 frivolous. UAIC's Motion in Intervention should be stricken and Intervention revoked.

25 The motion is ripe, and we now rule on it.

I. Background

2 Plaintiff Gary Lewis ("Lewis") is a resident of Clark County,
3 Nevada. (Compl. ¶ 2 (#1).) Plaintiff James Nalder ("Nalder"),
4 Guardian ad Litem for minor Cheyanne Nalder, is a resident of Clark
5 County, Nevada. (Id. at ¶ 1.) Defendant United Automobile
6 Insurance Co. ("UAIC") is an automobile insurance company duly
7 authorized to act as an insurer to the State of Nevada and doing
8 business in Clark County, Nevada. (Id. at ¶ 3.) Defendant is 9 incorporated in the State of Florida with its principal place of
10 business in the State of Florida. (Pet. for Removal ¶ VII (#1).)

11 Lewis was the owner of a 1996 Chevy Silverado insured, at 12 various times, by Defendant. (Compl. at ¶ 5-6 (#1).) Lewis had an 13 insurance policy issued by UAIC on his vehicle during the period of 14 May 31, 2007 to June 30, 2007. (MSJ at 3 (#17).) Lewis received a
15 renewal statement, dated June 11, 2007, instructing him to remit
16 payment by the due date of June 30, 2007 in order to renew his
17 insurance policy. (Id. at 3-4.) The renewal statement specified
18 that "[t]o avoid lapse in coverage, payment must be received prior 19 to expiration of your policy." (Pls.' Opp. at 3 (#20).) The 20 renewal statement listed June 30, 2007 as effective date, and July
21 31, 2007 as an "expiration date." (Id.) The renewal statement also 22 states that the "due date" of the payment is June 30, 2007, and 23 repeats that the renewal amount is due no later than June 30, 2007.
24 (MSJ at 7-8 (#17).) Lewis made a payment on July 10, 2007. (Id.)

25 Defendant then issued a renewal policy declaration and 26 automobile insurance cards indicating that Lewis was covered under

1 an insurance policy between July 10, 2007 to August 10, 2007. (Pls'
2 Opp. Exhibit 1 at 35-36; MSJ at 4.)

3 On July 8, 2007, Lewis was involved in an automobile accident
4 in Pioche¹, Nevada, that injured Cheyanne Nalder. (MSJ at 3 (#17).)
5 Cheyanne Nalder made a claim to Defendant for damages under the
6 terms of Lewis's insurance policy with UAIC. (Compl. at ¶ 9 (#1).)
7 Defendant refused coverage for the accident that occurred on July 8,
8 2007, claiming that Lewis did not have coverage at the time of the 9 accident. (Id. at ¶ 10.) On October 9, 2007, Plaintiff Nalder, as 10 guardian of Cheyanne Nalder, filed suit in Clark County District
11 Court under suit number A549111 against Lewis. (Mot. to Compel at 3
12 (#12).) On June 2, 2008, the court in that case entered a default
13 judgment against Lewis for $3.5 million. (Id.)

14 Plaintiffs then filed their complaint in this action in Nevada
15 state court on March 22, 2009 against Defendant UAIC. On July 24,
16 2009, Defendant removed the action to federal court, invoking our 17 diversity jurisdiction. (Petition for Removal (#1).)

18 On March 18, 2010, Defendant filed the MSJ (#17). On April 9,
19 2010, Plaintiffs opposed (#20), and on April 26, 2010, Defendant
20 replied (#21). We granted leave for Plaintiffs to file a supplement
21 (#26), and Defendant filed a supplement (#33) to its reply (#21).

24

25 ¹ Plaintiffs' complaint originally alleged that the accident
26 occurred in Clark County, Nevada. It is unclear from the documents
27 which site is the correct one, but neither party disputes jurisdiction and the actual location of the accident is irrelevant to the disposition of this motion.

II. Summary Judgment Standard

Summary judgment allows courts to avoid unnecessary trials where no material factual dispute exists. N.W. Motorcycle Ass'n v. U.S. Dep't of Agric., 18 F.3d 1468, 1471 (9th Cir. 1994). The court must view the evidence and the inferences arising therefrom in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party, Bagdadi v. Nazar, 84 F.3d 1194, 1197 (9th Cir. 1996), and should award summary judgment where no genuine issues of material fact remain in dispute and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. FED. R. Civ. P. 56(c). Judgment as a matter of law is appropriate where there is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find for the nonmoving party. FED. R. Civ. P. 50(a). Where reasonable minds could differ on the material facts at issue, however, summary judgment should not be granted. Warren v. City of Carlsbad, 58 F.3d 439, 441 (9th Cir. 1995), cert. denied, 116 S.Ct. 1261 (1996).

The moving party bears the burden of informing the court of the basis for its motion, together with evidence demonstrating the absence of any genuine issue of material fact. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986). Once the moving party has met its burden, the party opposing the motion may not rest upon mere allegations or denials in the pleadings, but must set forth specific facts showing that there exists a genuine issue for trial. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). Although the parties may submit evidence in an inadmissible form — namely, depositions, admissions, interrogatory answers, and affidavits — only evidence which might be admissible at trial may be considered

2 R. Civ. P. 56(c); Beyene v. Coleman Sec. Servs., Inc., 854 F.2d
3 1179, 1181 (9th Cir. 1988).

4 In deciding whether to grant summary judgment, a court must
5 take three necessary steps: (1) it must determine whether a fact is 6 material; (2) it must determine whether there exists a genuine issue
7 for the trier of fact, as determined by the documents submitted to 8 the court; and (3) it must consider that evidence in light of the 9 appropriate standard of proof. Anderson, 477 U.S. at 248. Summary
10 judgment is not proper if material factual issues exist for trial.
11 B.C. v. Plumas Unified Sch. Dist., 192 F.3d 1260, 1264 (9th Cir.
12 1999). "As to materiality, only disputes over facts that might
13 affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law will properly
14 preclude the entry of summary judgment." Anderson, 477 U.S. at 248.
15 Disputes over irrelevant or unnecessary facts should not be 16 considered. Id. Where there is a complete failure of proof on an 17 essential element of the nonmoving party's case, all other facts
18 become immaterial, and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a
19 matter of law. Celotex, 477 U.S. at 323. Summary judgment is not a 20 disfavored procedural shortcut, but rather an integral part of the 21 federal rules as a whole. Id.

22 23 III. Analysis

24 Defendant seeks summary judgment on all claims on the basis
25 that Lewis had no insurance coverage on the date of the accident.
26 Plaintiff contends that Lewis was covered on the date of the 27 accident because the renewal notice was ambiguous as to when payment
28

1 must be received in order to avoid a lapse in coverage, and any
2 ambiguities must be construed in favor of the insured. Defendants
3 request, in the alternative, that we dismiss Plaintiffs' extra-
4 contractual claims, or bifurcate the claim of breach of contract
5 from the remaining claims. Finally, if we deny all other requests,
6 Defendant requests that we grant leave to amend

7 A. Contract Interpretation Standard

8 In diversity actions, federal courts apply substantive state
9 law. Erie R.R. Co. v. Tompkins, 304 U.S. 64, 78 (1938); Nitco
10 Holding Corp. v. Boujikian, 491 F.3d 1086, 1089 (9th Cir. 2007).
11 Under Nevada law, "[a]n insurance policy is a contract that must be 12 enforced according to its terms to accomplish the intent of the 13 parties." Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Neal, 64 P.3d 472, 473 (Nev. 2003).
14 When the facts are not in dispute, contract interpretation is a
15 question of law. Grand Hotel Gift Shop v. Granite State Ins. Co.,
16 839 P.2d 599, 602 (Nev. 1992). The language of the insurance policy
17 must be viewed "from the perspective of one not trained in law," and 18 we must "give plain and ordinary meaning to the terms." Farmers
19 Ins. Exch., 64 P.3d at 473 (internal quotation marks omitted).
20 "Unambiguous provisions will not be rewritten; however, ambiguities
21 are to be resolved in favor of the insured." Id. (footnote
22 omitted); see also Fed. Ins. Co. v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 184
23 P.3d 390, 392 (Nev. 2008) ("In the insurance context, we broadly
24 interpret clauses providing coverage, to afford the insured the 25 greatest possible coverage; correspondingly, clauses excluding
26 coverage are interpreted narrowly against the insurer.") (internal 27 quotation marks omitted); Capitol Indemnity Corp. v. Wright, 341 F.

1 Supp. 2d 1152, 1156 (D. Nev. 2004) (noting that "a Nevada court will
2 not increase an obligation to the insured where such was
3 intentionally and unambiguously limited by the parties"). "When a
4 contract is unambiguous and neither party is entitled to relief from 5 the contract, summary judgment based on the contractual language is
6 proper." Allstate Ins. Co. v. Fackett, 206 P.3d 572, 575 (Nev.

8 B. Plaintiff Lewis' Insurance Coverage on July 8, 2007

9 Plaintiffs contend that Lewis was covered under an insurance
10 policy on July 8, 2007, the date of the accident, because Lewis'
11 payment on July 10, 2007 was timely. Plaintiffs rely on the 12 sentence "[t]o avoid lapse in coverage, payment must be received
13 prior to expiration of your policy" contained in the renewal
14 statement. Defendant contends that "expiration of your policy" did 15 not refer to the expiration date of the renewal policy listed on the 16 renewal statement, but to the expiration of Lewis' current policy,
17 which coincided with the listed due date on the renewal statement.
18 Plaintiffs contend that Lewis reasonably believed that while there
19 was a due date on which UAIC preferred to receive payment, there was 20 also a grace period within which Lewis could pay and avoid any lapse
21 in coverage.

22 The renewal statement cannot be considered without considering
23 the entirety of the contract between Lewis and UAIC. Plaintiff
24 attached exhibits of renewal statements, policy declarations pages,
25 and Nevada automobile insurance cards issued by UAIC for Lewis. The 26 contract, taken as a whole, cannot reasonably be interpreted in 27 favor of Plaintiffs' argument.

1 Lewis received a "Renewal Policy Declarations" stating that he
2 had coverage from May 31, 2007 to June 30, 2007 at 12:01 A.M. (Pls'
3 Opp., Exhibit A at 29 (#20-1); Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 11-12 (#26-
4 1); Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 15 (#26-1).) The declarations page
5 stated that "[t]his declaration page with 'policy provisions' and
6 all other applicable endorsements complete your policy." (Pls'
7 Opp., Exhibit A at 29 (#20-1).) Lewis also received a Nevada
8 Automobile Insurance Card issued by UAIC stating that the effective
9 date of his policy was May 31, 2007, and the expiration date was
10 June 30, 2007. (Id. at 30; Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 11-12 (#26-1).)
11 The renewal statement Lewis received in June must be read in light
12 of the rest of the insurance policy, contained in the declarations
13 page and also summarized in the insurance card.

14 "In interpreting a contract, 'the court shall effectuate the 15 intent of the parties, which may be determined in light of the 16 surrounding circumstances if not clear from the contract itself.'" Anvui, LLC v. G.L. Dragon, LLC, 163 P.3d 405, 407 (Nev. 2007).
17 Plaintiffs contend that there was a course of dealing between Lewis
18 and UAIC supporting a reasonable understanding that there was a
19 grace period involved in paying the insurance premium for each
20 month-long policy. In fact, the so-called course of dealing tilts,
21 if at all, in favor of Defendant. Lewis habitually made payments
22 that were late. UAIC never retroactively covered Lewis on such 23 occasions. Lewis' new policy, clearly denoted on the declarations
24 page and insurance cards Lewis was issued, would always become 25 effective on the date of the payment.
26
28

1 Plaintiffs point to the fact that in April 2007, Lewis was
2 issued a revised renewal statement stating that the renewal amount
3 was due on May 6, 2007, a date after the effective date of the 4 policy Lewis would be renewing through the renewal amount. This
5 isolated occasion occurred due to the fact that Lewis added a driver
6 to his insurance policy, resulting in an increase in the renewal
7 amount, after UAIC had previously sent a renewal notice indicating 8 that a lower renewal amount was due on April 29, 2007. UAIC issued
9 a revised renewal statement dated April 26, 2007, and gave Lewis an 10 opportunity to pay by May 6, 2007, instead of April 29, 2007, when 11 the original renewal amount had been due upon expiration of his 12 April policy. In that case, Lewis made a timely payment on April
13 28, 2007, and therefore there is not a single incident Plaintiffs
14 can point to in which Lewis was retroactively covered for a policy
15 before payment was made, even in the single instance UAIC granted
16 him such an opportunity due to a unique set of circumstances.

17 C. Statutory Arguments

18 Plaintiffs' arguments that Lewis had coverage due to Nev. Rev.
19 Stat. § 687B.320 and § 687B.340 are untenable. Section 687B.320
20 applies in the case of midterm cancellations, providing that:

21 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, no
22 insurance policy that has been in effect for at least 70
23 days or that has been renewed may be cancelled by the 24 insurer before the expiration of the agreed term or 1 year
25 from the effective date of the policy or renewal,
26 whichever occurs first, except on any one of the following
27 grounds:

28

1 (a) Failure to pay a premium when due;

2 . . .

3 2. No cancellation under subsection 1 is effective until
4 in the case of paragraph (a) of subsection 1 at least 10
5 days and in the case of any other paragraph of subsection
6 1 at least 30 days after the notice is delivered or mailed
7 to the policyholder.

8 The policies at issue in this case were month-long policies
9 with options to renew after the expiration of each policy. Lewis'
10 June policy expired on June 30, 2007, according to its terms. There
11 was no midterm cancellation and Nev. Rev. Stat. § 687B.320 simply 12 does not apply. Plaintiffs' arguments that between terms is 13 equivalent to "midterm" simply defies the statutory language and the 14 common definition of midterm. In a Ninth Circuit case interpreting 15 Montana law, the Ninth Circuit noted that the district court's 16 observation that "the policy expired by its own terms; it was not 17 cancelled" was proper, and the Montana statute at issue in the case,
18 similar to the Nevada statute here, "appl[ies] only to cancellation
19 of a policy, not to its termination." State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins.
20 Co. v. White, 563 F.2d 971, 974 (9th Cir. 1977). The Ninth Circuit
21 went on to note that situations in which "the policy terminated by 22 its own terms for failure of the insured to renew" is controlled by 23 a different statute, which "does not require any notice to the 24 policy-holder when the reason for the non-renewal of the policy is 25 the holder's failure to pay the renewal premiums." Id.

26 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 687B.340 provides:

1 1. Subject to subsection 2, a policyholder has a right to
2 have his or her policy renewed, on the terms then being
3 applied by the insurer to persons, similarly situated, for 4 an additional period equivalent to the expiring term if the
5 agreed term is 1 year or less, or for 1 year if the agreed
6 term is longer than 1 year, unless:

8 (b) At least 30 days for all other policies,
9 before the date of expiration provided in the policy the 10 insurer mails or delivers to the policyholder a notice of 11 intention not to renew the policy beyond the agreed
12 expiration date. If an insurer fails to provide a timely
13 notice of nonrenewal, the insurer shall provide the insured
14 with a policy of insurance on the identical terms as in the 15 expiring policy.

16 Plaintiffs argues that Nev. Rev. Stat. § 687B.340 indicates how 17 favorable the law is to the insured, and that there is no mention in 18 the statute that payment is a prerequisite to a policyholder's
19 "right to have his or her policy renewed." It is true that the 20 Nevada statute does not include a provision similar to the one in 21 the Montana statute providing that the section does not apply when 22 the insured has "failed to discharge when due any of his obligations 23 in connection with the payment of premiums for the policy, or the 24 renewal therefor" White, 563 F.2d at 974 n.3. The Montana
25 statute also stated that the section does not apply "[i]f the 26 insurer has manifested its willingness to renew." Id.

1 Plaintiffs, however, fail to give credit to the entirety of the
2 Nevada statute. The statute does not say that the policyholder's
3 policy must be renewed, it says that the insurer shall provide the 4 insured with a policy on "the identical terms as in the expiring
5 policy." One of the terms of the expiring policy was payment of the 6 renewal amount. UAIC did provide Lewis, the policyholder, with a
7 renewal statement indicating that UAIC would renew the insurance
8 policy as long as all the terms of the previous policy were met,
9 i.e., payment.

10 Defendant correctly points out that this statute does not fit
11 the circumstances of this case. Lewis' policy was not renewed not 12 because UAIC had an intention not to renew, but because Lewis failed
13 to carry out his end of the contract, that is, to pay a renewal
14 amount. Lewis' policy was renewed on the date payment was received,
15 but this date was after the date of the accident. Plaintiffs'
16 statutory arguments, therefore, do not pass muster.

18 IV. Conclusion

19 Defendant's motion for summary judgment on all claims shall be 20 granted because Lewis had no insurance coverage on the date of the 21 accident. The renewal statement was not ambiguous in light of the 22 entire contract and history between Lewis and UAIC. The term
23 "expiration of your policy" referred to the expiration of Lewis'
24 current policy, and Lewis was never issued retroactive coverage when 25 his payments were late. His renewal policy would always begin on 26 the date payment was received. We cannot find that Lewis was 27 covered between the expiration of his policy in June and payment for

28

1 his next policy without straining to find an ambiguity where none
2 exists, and creating an obligation on the part of insurance
3 companies that would be untenable, i.e., to provide coverage when 4 the insured has not upheld his own obligations under the contract to 5 submit a payment.

6 The statutes cited by Plaintiffs simply do not apply. The
7 expiration of Lewis' policy was not a midterm cancellation, and UAIC
8 was not obligated to provide an insurance policy despite Lewis'
9 failure to adhere to the terms of that policy.

10 Defendant's other requests are moot in light of our decision
11 granting summary judgment.

13 IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant's motion for 14 summary judgment on all claims (#17) is GRANTED with respect to all
15 of Plaintiffs' claims.

16 The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.

ORDER

Currently before the Court are a Motion for Summary Judgment (#88) and a Counter-Motion for Summary Judgment (#89). This case, originally ruled upon by the Honorable Edward C. Reed, is on partial remand from the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. The Court heard oral argument on October 22, 2013.

BACKGROUND

In July 2009, Defendant United Automobile Insurance Company ("UAIC") filed a petition for removal based on diversity jurisdiction. (Pet. for Removal (#1) at 1-2). Defendant attached Plaintiffs James Nalder, guardian ad litem for minor Cheyanne Nalder, real party in interest, and Gary Lewis's (collectively "Plaintiffs") complaint which had been filed in the Eighth Judicial District in Clark County, Nevada. (Compl. (#1) at 5-16).

The complaint alleged the following. (Id. at 5). Lewis was the owner of a 1996 Chevy Silverado and had an automobile insurance policy with Defendant on July 8, 2007. (Id. at 6). On July 8, 2007, Lewis drove over top of Cheyanne while Cheyanne was a pedestrian in a residential area and caused Cheyanne serious personal injuries. (Id. at 7). Cheyanne made

1 a claim to Defendant for damages and offered to settle the claim for personal injuries and
2 damages against Lewis within the policy limits. (Id.). Defendant refused to settle and denied
3 the claim all together indicating that Lewis did not have coverage at the time of the accident.
4 (Id.). Defendant was required to provide insurance coverage under the policy. (Id. at 9).
5 Defendant never informed Lewis that Cheyanne was willing to settle the claim for the sum of
6 $15,000, the policy limit. (Id.). Due to the dilatory tactics and failure of Defendant to protect
7 its insured, Cheyanne filed a complaint on October 9, 2007 against Lewis for her personal
8 injuries and damages. (Id.). Cheyanne procured a default judgment in the amount of 9 $3,500,000 against Lewis. (Id.). Plaintiffs alleged breach of contract, breach of the implied
10 covenant of good faith and fair dealing, bad faith, breach of Nev. Rev. Stat. § 686A.310, and 11 fraud against Defendant. (Id. at 9-14).

12 In March 2010, Defendant filed a motion for summary judgment on all claims. (See 13 Mot. for Summ. J. (#17)). In December 2010, Judge Reed issued an order granting
14 Defendant's motion for summary judgment on all claims and directed the Clerk of the Court
15 to enter judgment accordingly. (Order (#42) at 13). The order provided the following factual
16 history:

17 Lewis was the owner of a 1996 Chevy Silverado insured, at various times,
18 by Defendant. Lewis had an insurance policy issued by UAIC on his vehicle
19 during the period of May 31, 2007 to June 30, 2007. Lewis received a renewal
20 statement, dated June 11, 2007, instructing him to remit payment by the due
21 date of June 30, 2007 in order to renew his insurance policy. The renewal 22 statement specified that "[t]o avoid lapse in coverage, payment must be received prior to expiration of your policy." The renewal statement listed June 30, 2007 as effective date, and July 31, 2007 as an "expiration date." The renewal statement also states that the "due date" of the payment is June 30, 2007, and repeats that the renewal amount is due no later than June 30, 2007. Lewis made a payment on July 10, 2007.

23 Defendant then issued a renewal policy declaration and automobile
24 insurance cards indicating that Lewis was covered under an insurance policy between July 10, 2007 to August 10, 2007.

25 (Id. at 2-3).¹

26 The order stated the following. (Id. at 5). Defendant sought summary judgment on all 27

28 ¹ Record citations omitted.

1 claims on the basis that Lewis had no insurance coverage on the date of the accident. (Id.).
2 Plaintiffs argued that Lewis was covered on the date of the accident because the renewal
3 notice was ambiguous as to when payment had to be received in order to avoid a lapse in
4 coverage and that any ambiguities had to be construed in favor of the insured. (Id. at 5-6).
5 Defendants, in the alternative, requested that the Court dismiss Plaintiffs' extra-contractual
6 claims or bifurcate the claim of breach of contract from the remaining claims. (Id. at 6).

7 The order stated the following regarding Lewis's insurance coverage on July 8, 2007:

8 Plaintiffs contend that Lewis was covered under an insurance policy on 9 July 8, 2007, the date of the accident, because Lewis' payment on July 10, 2007
10 was timely. Plaintiffs rely on the sentence "[t]o avoid lapse in coverage, payment
11 must be received prior to expiration of your policy" contained in the renewal
12 statement. Defendant contends that "expiration of your policy" did not refer to 13 the expiration date of the renewal policy listed on the renewal statement, but to 14 the expiration of Lewis' current policy, which coincided with the listed due date
15 on the renewal statement. Plaintiffs contend that Lewis reasonably believed that 16 while there was a due date on which UAIC preferred to receive payment, there
17 was also a grace period within which Lewis could pay and avoid any lapse in 18 coverage.

19 The renewal statement cannot be considered without considering the 20 entirety of the contract between Lewis and UAIC. Plaintiff attached exhibits of 21 renewal statements, policy declarations pages, and Nevada automobile
22 insurance cards issued by UAIC for Lewis. The contract, taken as a whole,
23 cannot reasonably be interpreted in favor of Plaintiffs' argument.

24 Lewis received a "Renewal Policy Declarations" stating that he had 25 coverage from May 31, 2007 to June 30, 2007 at 12:01 A.M. (Pls' Opp., Exhibit
26 A at 29 (#20-1); Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 11-12 (#26-1); Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 27 15 (#26-1).) The declarations page stated that "[t]his declaration page with 28 'policy provisions' and all other applicable endorsements complete your policy."
(Pls' Opp., Exhibit A at 29 (#20-1).) Lewis also received a Nevada Automobile
Insurance Card issued by UAIC stating that the effective date of his policy was
May 31, 2007, and the expiration date was June 30, 2007. (Id. at 30; Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 11-12 (#26-1).) The renewal statement Lewis received in June must be read in light of the rest of the insurance policy, contained in the declarations
page and also summarized in the insurance card.

"In interpreting a contract, 'the court shall effectuate the intent of the parties, which may be determined in light of the surrounding circumstances if not clear from the contract itself.'" Anvui, LLC v. G.L. Dragon, LLC, 163 P.3d 405, 407 (Nev. 2007). Plaintiffs contend that there was a course of dealing between Lewis and UAIC supporting a reasonable understanding that there was a grace period involved in paying the insurance premium for each month-long policy. In fact, the so-called course of dealing tilts, if at all, in favor of Defendant. Lewis habitually made payments that were late. UAIC never retroactively covered Lewis on such occasions. Lewis' new policy, clearly denoted on the declarations page and insurance cards Lewis was issued, would always become effective on the date of the payment.

Plaintiffs point to the fact that in April 2007, Lewis was issued a revised renewal statement stating that the renewal amount was due on May 6, 2007, a date after the effective date of the policy Lewis would be renewing through the

1 renewal amount. This isolated occasion occurred due to the fact that Lewis
2 added a driver to his insurance policy, resulting in an increase in the renewal
3 amount, after UAIC had previously sent a renewal notice indicating that a lower
4 renewal amount was due on April 29, 2007. UAIC issued a revised renewal
5 statement dated April 26, 2007, and gave Lewis an opportunity to pay by May 6 6, 2007, instead of April 29, 2007, when the original renewal amount had been due upon expiration of his April policy. In that case, Lewis made a timely payment on April 28, 2007, and therefore there is not a single incident Plaintiffs can point to in which Lewis was retroactively covered for a policy before payment was made, even in the single instance UAIC granted him such an opportunity due to a unique set of circumstances.

7 (Id. at 7-9).

8 Plaintiffs appealed. (Notice of Appeal (#46)). In a two-page memorandum disposition,
9 the Ninth Circuit held, inter alia, the following:

10 We reverse the district court's grant of United Automobile Insurance
11 Company's motion for summary judgment with respect to whether there was 12 coverage by virtue of the way the renewal statement was worded. Plaintiffs 13 came forward with facts supporting their tenable legal position that a reasonable
14 person could have interpreted the renewal statement to mean that Lewis's
15 premium was due by June 30, 2007, but that the policy would not lapse if his premium were "received prior to expiration of [his] policy," with the "expiration date" specifically stated to be July 31, 2007. We remand to the district court for trial or other proceedings consistent with this memorandum. The portion of the order granting summary judgment with respect to the statutory arguments is affirmed.

16 (Ninth Cir. Mem. Dispo. (#82) at 2-3).

17 The pending motions now follow.

18 LEGAL STANDARD

19 In reviewing a motion for summary judgment, the court construes the evidence in the 20 light most favorable to the nonmoving party. Bagdadi v. Nazar, 84 F.3d 1194, 1197 (9th Cir.
21 1996). Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 56, a court will grant summary judgment "if the movant shows
22 that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to judgment
23 as a matter of law." Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(a). Material facts are "facts that might affect the outcome
24 of the suit under the governing law." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248, 106
25 S.Ct. 2505, 2510, 91 L.Ed.2d 202 (1986). A material fact is "genuine" if the evidence is such 26 that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party. Id.

27 The moving party bears the initial burden of identifying the portions of the pleadings and
28 evidence that the party believes to demonstrate the absence of any genuine issue of material

1 fact. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323, 106 S.Ct. 2548, 2553, 91 L.Ed.2d 265
2 (1986). A party asserting that a fact cannot be or is genuinely disputed must support the
3 assertion by “citing to particular parts of materials in the record, including depositions,
4 documents, electronically stored information, affidavits or declarations, stipulations (including
5 those made for purposes of the motion only), admissions, interrogatory answers, or other
6 materials” or “showing that the materials cited do not establish the absence or presence of a
7 genuine dispute, or that an adverse party cannot produce admissible evidence to support the 8 fact.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c)(1)(A)-(B). Once the moving party has properly supported the 9 motion, the burden shifts to the nonmoving party to come forward with specific facts showing
10 that a genuine issue for trial exists. Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475
11 U.S. 574, 587, 106 S.Ct. 1348, 1356, 89 L.Ed.2d 538 (1986). “The mere existence of a 12 scintilla of evidence in support of the plaintiff’s position will be insufficient; there must be
13 evidence on which the jury could reasonably find for the plaintiff.” Anderson, 477 U.S. at 252,
14 106 S.Ct. at 2512. The nonmoving party cannot defeat a motion for summary judgment “by 15 relying solely on conclusory allegations unsupported by factual data.” Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d
16 1040, 1045 (9th Cir. 1989). “Where the record taken as a whole could not lead a rational trier
17 of fact to find for the nonmoving party, there is no genuine issue for trial.” Matsushita, 475
18 U.S. at 587, 106 S.Ct. at 1356.

20 I. Plaintiff James Nalder’s Motion for Summary Judgment (#88)

21 Nalder moves for partial summary judgment as to liability against Defendant. (Mot. for 22 Summ. J. (#88) at 1). Nalder makes three arguments which will be addressed in turn.

23 A. Ambiguous Contract

24 Nalder argues that because the renewal statement was ambiguous it must be strictly 25 construed against the insurance company pursuant to Nevada law and, thus, Lewis had 26 coverage at the time of the accident. (Mot. for Summ. J. (#88) at 10).

27 In response, Defendant argues that Lewis’s renewal statement is not ambiguous and 28 clearly demanded remittance of the policy premium for the subsequent term by the expiration

1 of the present policy period. (Opp'n to Mot. for Summ. J. (#90) at 15). Defendant argues that
2 a material issue of fact remains over whether the renewals were ambiguous. (Id.).

3 Nalder filed a reply. (Reply to Mot. for Summ. J. (#95)).

4 "Summary judgment is appropriate in contract cases only if the contract provision or the
5 contract in question is unambiguous." Econ. Forms Corp. v. Law Co., Inc., 593 F.Supp. 539,
6 540 (D. Nev. 1984). A contract is ambiguous if it is reasonably susceptible to more than one
7 interpretation. Shelton v. Shelton, 78 P.3d 507, 510 (Nev. 2003). Whether a contract is
8 ambiguous is a question of law. Margrave v. Dermody Properties, Inc., 878 P.2d 291, 293
9 (Nev. 1994). "The interpretation of an ambiguous contract is a mixed question of fact and 10 law." Econ. Forms Corp., 593 F.Supp. at 541. However, in Nevada, "any ambiguity or 11 uncertainty in an insurance policy must be construed against the insurer and in favor of the 12 insured." United Nat'l Ins. Co. v. Frontier Ins. Co., Inc., 99 P.3d 1153, 1156 (Nev. 2004).

13 In this case, the Court finds that the renewal statement is ambiguous based on the 14 Ninth Circuit's reverse and remand. The Court finds that the renewal statement is reasonably
15 susceptible to more than one interpretation as demonstrated by both Judge Reed and the 16 Ninth Circuit's conflicting interpretations. As such, the Court finds that, pursuant to Nevada
17 law, this ambiguity is construed against Defendant and in favor of the insured such that Lewis
18 was covered by the insurance policy on the date of the accident. The Court grants summary
19 judgment on this issue in favor of Plaintiffs.

20 B. Bad Faith

21 Nalder argues that Defendant's actions constitute bad faith. (Mot. for Summ. J. (#88)
22 at 19). Specifically, Nalder argues that Lewis properly renewed his policy pursuant to the 23 policy's renewal statements, Defendant renewed Lewis's policy, and then Defendant claimed
24 that there was a lapse in coverage. (Id.). Nalder asserts that Defendant never investigated
25 to determine whether Lewis was covered, made a snap decision that there was no coverage,
26 and left Lewis bereft of protection against Cheyanne's lawsuit. (Id.). Nalder contends that 27 these facts constitute bad faith which requires Defendant to compensate Lewis, pay for the 28 judgment currently entered against him, and pay for compensatory and punitive damages.

1 (Id.).

2 In response, Defendant argues that every case cited by Nalder involves a situation
3 where there existed a policy in force at the time of the loss. (Opp'n to Mot. for Summ. J. (#90)
4 at 21). Defendant asserts that, in this case, Nalder asks the Court to find an implied policy
5 from an ambiguity in the renewal. (Id. at 22). Defendant argues that Nevada law provides that 6 a court may review an insurer's actions at the time they were made to determine whether the 7 insurer's actions were reasonable as a matter of law and that bad faith cannot be premised
8 upon an honest mistake, bad judgment, or negligence. (Id. at 25). Defendant asserts that
9 Nevada law provides that an insurer cannot be found liable for bad faith, as a matter of law,
10 if it had a reasonable basis to contest coverage. (Id.). Defendant contends that if an insurer's
11 actions are reasonable the court can decide as a matter of law to dismiss the extra-contractual
12 claims. (Id. at 26). Defendant asserts that because Lewis admits that he did not make any 13 policy payments between June 12, 2007 and July 10, 2007 its actions were reasonable. (Id.).
14 Defendant contends that even if it may be found to owe coverage on an implied contract,
15 Plaintiffs must admit that a genuine dispute existed as to coverage at the time of the accident.
16 (Id.).

17 Nalder filed a reply. (Reply to Mot. for Summ. J. (#95)).

18 Nevada law imposes the covenant of good faith and fair dealing on insurers. Allstate
19 Ins. Co. v. Miller, 212 P.3d 318, 324 (Nev. 2009). A violation of the covenant gives rise to a
20 bad-faith tort claim. Id. The Nevada Supreme Court has defined "bad faith as 'an actual or 21 implied awareness of the absence of a reasonable basis for denying benefits of the [insurance]
22 policy.'" Id. (quoting Am. Excess Ins. Co. v. MGM, 729 P.2d 1352, 1354-55 (Nev. 1986). "To
23 establish a prima facie case of bad-faith refusal to pay an insurance claim, the plaintiff must
24 establish that the insurer had no reasonable basis for disputing coverage, and that the insurer
25 knew or recklessly disregarded the fact that there was no reasonable basis for disputing
26 coverage." Powers v. United Servs. Auto. Ass'n, 962 P.2d 596, 604 (Nev. 1998) opinion
27 modified on denial of reh'g, 979 P.2d 1286 (Nev. 1999).

28 In this case, the Court denies Nalder's motion for summary judgment on the bad faith

1 claims. The procedural history of this case demonstrates that Defendant had a reasonable
2 basis for disputing coverage during the time of the incident. As demonstrated by Judge
3 Reed's original order, there was arguably sufficient evidence to find a basis for Defendant to
4 deny Lewis benefits of the insurance policy. Even though the Ninth Circuit reversed and
5 remanded Judge Reed's original order, this Court finds that the procedural history of this case
6 demonstrates that Defendant had a reasonable basis to dispute coverage and, on one
7 occasion, had succeeded in that argument. The Court denies Nalder's motion for summary
8 judgment on this issue.

9 C. Pre and Post-Judgment Interest

10 Nalder argues that because there was arguable or possible coverage under the policy,
11 Defendant had a duty to defend Lewis. (Mot. for Summ. J. (#88) at 20). Nalder asserts that
12 Defendant's failure to provide coverage and its breach of the duty to defend was the proximate
13 cause of the default judgment being entered against Lewis. (Id.). Nalder contends that 14 Defendant has the duty to indemnify Lewis. (Id.).

15 In response, Defendant argues that there are court cases where an insurer who 16 investigated coverage and based its decision not to defend on a reasonable construction of 17 the policy was not liable for bad faith breach of the duty to defend even after the court resolved
18 the ambiguity in the contract in favor of the insured. (Opp'n to Mot. for Summ. J. (#90) at 33).

19 Nalder filed a reply. (Reply to Mot. for Summ. J. (#95)).

20 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that primary liability insurance policies create a
21 hierarchy of duties between the insurer and the insured. Allstate Ins., 212 P.3d at 324. One
22 of these contractual duties is the duty to defend. Id. A breach of the duty to defend is a
23 breach of a contractual obligation. See id. at 324-25. An insurer bears a duty to defend its 24 insured whenever it ascertains facts which give rise to the potential of liability under the policy.
25 United Nat'l Ins. Co. v. Frontier Ins. Co., Inc., 99 P.3d 1153, 1158 (Nev. 2004). Once the duty
26 to defend arises, it continues through the course of litigation. Id. "If there is any doubt about 27 whether the duty to defend arises, this doubt must be resolved in favor of the insured." Id.
28 "The purpose behind construing the duty to defend so broadly is to prevent an insurer from

1 evading its obligation to provide a defense for an insured without at least investigating the facts
2 behind a complaint.” Id. However, the duty to defend is not absolute. Id. “A potential for
3 coverage only exists when there is arguable or possible coverage.” Id. “Determining whether
4 an insurer owes a duty to defend is achieved by comparing the allegations of the complaint
5 with the terms of the policy.” Id. If an insurer breaches the duty to defend, damages are
6 limited to attorneys’ fees and costs incurred by the insured to defend the action. See Home
7 Sav. Ass’n v. Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co., 854 P.2d 851, 855 (Nev. 1993) (holding that an insured
8 was not barred from further pursuing recovery from insurance company for fees and costs
9 incurred in defending an action); Reyburn Lawn & Landscape Designers, Inc. v. Plaster Dev.
10 Co., Inc., 255 P.3d 268, 278 (Nev. 2011) (discussing damages related to an indemnitor’s duty 11 to defend an indemnitee).

12 In this case, as discussed at oral argument, the Court finds that Defendant breached
13 its contractual duty to defend Gary Lewis in the underlying action. As such, Gary Lewis’s
14 damages are limited to the attorneys’ fees and costs he incurred in defending that action.
15 However, the Court awards no damages to Gary Lewis because he did not incur any fees or 16 costs in defending the underlying action because he chose not to defend and, instead, took 17 a default judgment.

18 As such, the Court grants in part and denies in part Nalder’s motion for summary
19 judgment. The Court grants summary judgment for Nalder on the ambiguity issue and finds
20 that there is an ambiguity in the renewal statement and, thus, the policy is construed in favor
21 of coverage at the time of the accident. Defendant must pay the policy limits of the implied
22 insurance policy. The Court denies summary judgment for Nalder on the remaining bad-faith
23 claims. The Court grants in part and denies in part summary judgment for Nalder on the duty
24 to defend issue. The Court finds that Defendant did breach its contractual duty to defend but 25 denies Nalder’s request for damages for that breach.

26 II. Defendant’s Counter-Motion for Summary Judgment on All Extra-Contractual
27 Claims or Remedies (#89)

28 Defendant seeks summary judgment on all of Plaintiff’s claims for extra-contractual

1 remedies and/or bad faith claims because there was a genuine dispute as to whether
2 coverage existed at the time and its actions were reasonable. (Counter Mot. for Summ. J.
3 (#89) at 15). Defendant argues that because it had a reasonable basis to deny coverage there
4 can be no bad faith. (Id. at 16).

5 Nalder filed a response and Defendant filed a reply. (Opp'n to Counter Mot. for Summ.
6 J. (#96); Reply to Counter Mot. for Summ. J. (#97)).

7 The Court grants Defendant's counter-motion for summary judgment on Plaintiffs' extra-
8 contractual claims and/or bad faith claims. As discussed above, the procedural history of this 9 case demonstrates that Defendant had a reasonable basis for disputing coverage during the 10 time of the accident and, thus, there is no bad faith on the part of Defendant.

11 CONCLUSION

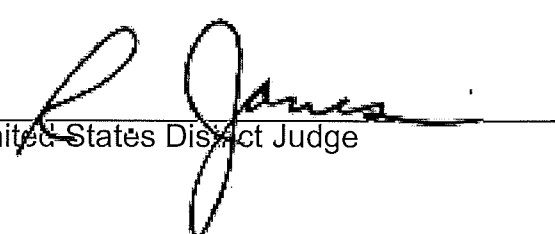

12 For the foregoing reasons, IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiff James Nalder's Motion for
13 Summary Judgment (#88) is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. The Court grants
14 summary judgment in favor of Nalder and finds that the insurance renewal statement
15 contained an ambiguity and, thus, the statement is construed in favor of coverage during the 16 time of the accident. The Court denies summary judgment on Nalder's remaining bad-faith
17 claims.

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant's Counter-Motion for Summary Judgment
19 on All Extra-Contractual Claims or Remedies (#89) is GRANTED. The Court grants summary
20 judgment on all extra-contractual claims and/or bad faith claims in favor of Defendant.

21 The Court directs Defendant to pay Cheyanne Nalder the policy limits on Gary Lewis's
22 implied insurance policy at the time of the accident.

23 The Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment accordingly.

24 Dated this 30th of October, 2013.

2 Plaintiff Gary Lewis ("Lewis") is a resident of Clark County,
3 Nevada. (Compl. ¶ 2 (#1).) Plaintiff James Nalder ("Nalder"),
4 Guardian ad Litem for minor Cheyanne Nalder, is a resident of Clark
5 County, Nevada. (Id. at ¶ 1.) Defendant United Automobile
6 Insurance Co. ("UAIC") is an automobile insurance company duly
7 authorized to act as an insurer to the State of Nevada and doing
8 business in Clark County, Nevada. (Id. at ¶ 3.) Defendant is 9 incorporated in the State of Florida with its principal place of
10 business in the State of Florida. (Pet. for Removal ¶ VII (#1).)

11 Lewis was the owner of a 1996 Chevy Silverado insured, at 12 various times, by Defendant. (Compl. at ¶ 5-6 (#1).) Lewis had an 13 insurance policy issued by UAIC on his vehicle during the period of 14 May 31, 2007 to June 30, 2007. (MSJ at 3 (#17).) Lewis received a
15 renewal statement, dated June 11, 2007, instructing him to remit
16 payment by the due date of June 30, 2007 in order to renew his
17 insurance policy. (Id. at 3-4.) The renewal statement specified
18 that "[t]o avoid lapse in coverage, payment must be received prior 19 to expiration of your policy." (Pls.' Opp. at 3 (#20).) The 20 renewal statement listed June 30, 2007 as effective date, and July
21 31, 2007 as an "expiration date." (Id.) The renewal statement also 22 states that the "due date" of the payment is June 30, 2007, and
23 repeats that the renewal amount is due no later than June 30, 2007.
24 (MSJ at 7-8 (#17).) Lewis made a payment on July 10, 2007. (Id.)

25 Defendant then issued a renewal policy declaration and 26 automobile insurance cards indicating that Lewis was covered under
28

1 an insurance policy between July 10, 2007 to August 10, 2007. (Pls'
2 Opp. Exhibit 1 at 35-36; MSJ at 4.)

3 On July 8, 2007, Lewis was involved in an automobile accident
4 in Pioche¹, Nevada, that injured Cheyanne Nalder. (MSJ at 3 (#17).)
5 Cheyanne Nalder made a claim to Defendant for damages under the
6 terms of Lewis's insurance policy with UAIC. (Compl. at ¶ 9 (#1).)
7 Defendant refused coverage for the accident that occurred on July 8,
8 2007, claiming that Lewis did not have coverage at the time of the 9 accident. (Id. at ¶ 10.) On October 9, 2007, Plaintiff Nalder, as 10 guardian of Cheyanne Nalder, filed suit in Clark County District
11 Court under suit number A549111 against Lewis. (Mot. to Compel at 3
12 (#12).) On June 2, 2008, the court in that case entered a default
13 judgment against Lewis for $3.5 million. (Id.)

14 Plaintiffs then filed their complaint in this action in Nevada
15 state court on March 22, 2009 against Defendant UAIC. On July 24,
16 2009, Defendant removed the action to federal court, invoking our 17 diversity jurisdiction. (Petition for Removal (#1).)

18 On March 18, 2010, Defendant filed the MSJ (#17). On April 9,
19 2010, Plaintiffs opposed (#20), and on April 26, 2010, Defendant
20 replied (#21). We granted leave for Plaintiffs to file a supplement
21 (#26), and Defendant filed a supplement (#33) to its reply (#21).

24

25 ¹ Plaintiffs' complaint originally alleged that the accident
26 occurred in Clark County, Nevada. It is unclear from the documents
27 which site is the correct one, but neither party disputes jurisdiction and the actual location of the accident is irrelevant to the disposition of this motion.

28

II. Summary Judgment Standard

Summary judgment allows courts to avoid unnecessary trials where no material factual dispute exists. N.W. Motorcycle Ass'n v. U.S. Dep't of Agric., 18 F.3d 1468, 1471 (9th Cir. 1994). The court must view the evidence and the inferences arising therefrom in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party, Bagdadi v. Nazar, 84 F.3d 1194, 1197 (9th Cir. 1996), and should award summary judgment where no genuine issues of material fact remain in dispute and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. FED. R. Civ. P. 56(c). Judgment as a matter of law is appropriate where there is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find for the nonmoving party. FED. R. Civ. P. 50(a). Where reasonable minds could differ on the material facts at issue, however, summary judgment should not be granted. Warren v. City of Carlsbad, 58 F.3d 439, 441 (9th Cir. 1995), cert. denied, 116 S.Ct. 1261 (1996).

The moving party bears the burden of informing the court of the basis for its motion, together with evidence demonstrating the absence of any genuine issue of material fact. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986). Once the moving party has met its burden, the party opposing the motion may not rest upon mere allegations or denials in the pleadings, but must set forth specific facts showing that there exists a genuine issue for trial. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). Although the parties may submit evidence in an inadmissible form — namely, depositions, admissions, interrogatory answers, and affidavits — only evidence which might be admissible at trial may be considered

2 R. Civ. P. 56(c); Beyene v. Coleman Sec. Servs., Inc., 854 F.2d
3 1179, 1181 (9th Cir. 1988).

4 In deciding whether to grant summary judgment, a court must
5 take three necessary steps: (1) it must determine whether a fact is
6 material; (2) it must determine whether there exists a genuine issue
7 for the trier of fact, as determined by the documents submitted to 8 the court; and (3) it must consider that evidence in light of the 9 appropriate standard of proof. Anderson, 477 U.S. at 248. Summary
10 judgment is not proper if material factual issues exist for trial.
11 B.C. v. Plumas Unified Sch. Dist., 192 F.3d 1260, 1264 (9th Cir.
12 1999). "As to materiality, only disputes over facts that might
13 affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law will properly
14 preclude the entry of summary judgment." Anderson, 477 U.S. at 248.
15 Disputes over irrelevant or unnecessary facts should not be 16 considered. Id. Where there is a complete failure of proof on an 17 essential element of the nonmoving party's case, all other facts
18 become immaterial, and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a
19 matter of law. Celotex, 477 U.S. at 323. Summary judgment is not a
20 disfavored procedural shortcut, but rather an integral part of the

24 Defendant seeks summary judgment on all claims on the basis
25 that Lewis had no insurance coverage on the date of the accident.
26 Plaintiff contends that Lewis was covered on the date of the 27 accident because the renewal notice was ambiguous as to when payment
28

1 must be received in order to avoid a lapse in coverage, and any
2 ambiguities must be construed in favor of the insured. Defendants
3 request, in the alternative, that we dismiss Plaintiffs' extra-
4 contractual claims, or bifurcate the claim of breach of contract
5 from the remaining claims. Finally, if we deny all other requests,
6 Defendant requests that we grant leave to amend

7 A. Contract Interpretation Standard

8 In diversity actions, federal courts apply substantive state
9 law. Erie R.R. Co. v. Tompkins, 304 U.S. 64, 78 (1938); Nitco
10 Holding Corp. v. Boujikian, 491 F.3d 1086, 1089 (9th Cir. 2007).
11 Under Nevada law, "[a]n insurance policy is a contract that must be 12 enforced according to its terms to accomplish the intent of the 13 parties." Farmers Ins. Exch. v. Neal, 64 P.3d 472, 473 (Nev. 2003).
14 When the facts are not in dispute, contract interpretation is a
15 question of law. Grand Hotel Gift Shop v. Granite State Ins. Co.,
16 839 P.2d 599, 602 (Nev. 1992). The language of the insurance policy
17 must be viewed "from the perspective of one not trained in law," and 18 we must "give plain and ordinary meaning to the terms." Farmers
19 Ins. Exch., 64 P.3d at 473 (internal quotation marks omitted).
20 "Unambiguous provisions will not be rewritten; however, ambiguities
21 are to be resolved in favor of the insured." Id. (footnote
22 omitted); see also Fed. Ins. Co. v. Am. Hardware Mut. Ins. Co., 184
23 P.3d 390, 392 (Nev. 2008) ("In the insurance context, we broadly
24 interpret clauses providing coverage, to afford the insured the 25 greatest possible coverage; correspondingly, clauses excluding
26 coverage are interpreted narrowly against the insurer.") (internal 27 quotation marks omitted); Capitol Indemnity Corp. v. Wright, 341 F.

1 Supp. 2d 1152, 1156 (D. Nev. 2004) (noting that "a Nevada court will
2 not increase an obligation to the insured where such was
3 intentionally and unambiguously limited by the parties"). "When a
4 contract is unambiguous and neither party is entitled to relief from 5 the contract, summary judgment based on the contractual language is
6 proper." Allstate Ins. Co. v. Fackett, 206 P.3d 572, 575 (Nev.

8 B. Plaintiff Lewis' Insurance Coverage on July 8, 2007

9 Plaintiffs contend that Lewis was covered under an insurance
10 policy on July 8, 2007, the date of the accident, because Lewis'
11 payment on July 10, 2007 was timely. Plaintiffs rely on the 12 sentence "[t]o avoid lapse in coverage, payment must be received
13 prior to expiration of your policy" contained in the renewal
14 statement. Defendant contends that "expiration of your policy" did
15 not refer to the expiration date of the renewal policy listed on the 16 renewal statement, but to the expiration of Lewis' current policy,
17 which coincided with the listed due date on the renewal statement.
18 Plaintiffs contend that Lewis reasonably believed that while there
19 was a due date on which UAIC preferred to receive payment, there was 20 also a grace period within which Lewis could pay and avoid any lapse
21 in coverage.

22 The renewal statement cannot be considered without considering
23 the entirety of the contract between Lewis and UAIC. Plaintiff
24 attached exhibits of renewal statements, policy declarations pages,
25 and Nevada automobile insurance cards issued by UAIC for Lewis. The 26 contract, taken as a whole, cannot reasonably be interpreted in 27 favor of Plaintiffs' argument.

1 Lewis received a "Renewal Policy Declarations" stating that he
2 had coverage from May 31, 2007 to June 30, 2007 at 12:01 A.M. (Pls'
3 Opp., Exhibit A at 29 (#20-1); Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 11-12 (#26-
4 1); Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 15 (#26-1).) The declarations page
5 stated that "[t]his declaration page with 'policy provisions' and
6 all other applicable endorsements complete your policy." (Pls'
7 Opp., Exhibit A at 29 (#20-1).) Lewis also received a Nevada
8 Automobile Insurance Card issued by UAIC stating that the effective
9 date of his policy was May 31, 2007, and the expiration date was
10 June 30, 2007. (Id. at 30; Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 11-12 (#26-1).)
11 The renewal statement Lewis received in June must be read in light
12 of the rest of the insurance policy, contained in the declarations
13 page and also summarized in the insurance card.

14 "In interpreting a contract, 'the court shall effectuate the 15 intent of the parties, which may be determined in light of the 16 surrounding circumstances if not clear from the contract itself.'" Anvui, LLC v. G.L. Dragon, LLC, 163 P.3d 405, 407 (Nev. 2007).
17 Plaintiffs contend that there was a course of dealing between Lewis
18 and UAIC supporting a reasonable understanding that there was a
19 grace period involved in paying the insurance premium for each
20 month-long policy. In fact, the so-called course of dealing tilts,
21 if at all, in favor of Defendant. Lewis habitually made payments
22 that were late. UAIC never retroactively covered Lewis on such
23 occasions. Lewis' new policy, clearly denoted on the declarations
24 page and insurance cards Lewis was issued, would always become 25 effective on the date of the payment.
26
27
28

1 Plaintiffs point to the fact that in April 2007, Lewis was
2 issued a revised renewal statement stating that the renewal amount
3 was due on May 6, 2007, a date after the effective date of the 4 policy Lewis would be renewing through the renewal amount. This
5 isolated occasion occurred due to the fact that Lewis added a driver
6 to his insurance policy, resulting in an increase in the renewal
7 amount, after UAIC had previously sent a renewal notice indicating
8 that a lower renewal amount was due on April 29, 2007. UAIC issued
9 a revised renewal statement dated April 26, 2007, and gave Lewis an 10 opportunity to pay by May 6, 2007, instead of April 29, 2007, when 11 the original renewal amount had been due upon expiration of his 12 April policy. In that case, Lewis made a timely payment on April
13 28, 2007, and therefore there is not a single incident Plaintiffs
14 can point to in which Lewis was retroactively covered for a policy
15 before payment was made, even in the single instance UAIC granted
16 him such an opportunity due to a unique set of circumstances.

17 C. Statutory Arguments

18 Plaintiffs' arguments that Lewis had coverage due to Nev. Rev.
19 Stat. § 687B.320 and § 687B.340 are untenable. Section 687B.320
20 applies in the case of midterm cancellations, providing that:

21 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, no
22 insurance policy that has been in effect for at least 70
23 days or that has been renewed may be cancelled by the 24 insurer before the expiration of the agreed term or 1 year
25 from the effective date of the policy or renewal,
26 whichever occurs first, except on any one of the following
27 grounds:

28

1 (a) Failure to pay a premium when due;

2 . . .

3 2. No cancellation under subsection 1 is effective until
4 in the case of paragraph (a) of subsection 1 at least 10
5 days and in the case of any other paragraph of subsection
6 1 at least 30 days after the notice is delivered or mailed
7 to the policyholder.

8 The policies at issue in this case were month-long policies
9 with options to renew after the expiration of each policy. Lewis'
10 June policy expired on June 30, 2007, according to its terms. There
11 was no midterm cancellation and Nev. Rev. Stat. § 687B.320 simply 12 does not apply. Plaintiffs' arguments that between terms is 13 equivalent to "midterm" simply defies the statutory language and the 14 common definition of midterm. In a Ninth Circuit case interpreting 15 Montana law, the Ninth Circuit noted that the district court's
16 observation that "the policy expired by its own terms; it was not 17 cancelled" was proper, and the Montana statute at issue in the case,
18 similar to the Nevada statute here, "appl[ies] only to cancellation
19 of a policy, not to its termination." State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins.
20 Co. v. White, 563 F.2d 971, 974 (9th Cir. 1977). The Ninth Circuit
21 went on to note that situations in which "the policy terminated by 22 its own terms for failure of the insured to renew" is controlled by 23 a different statute, which "does not require any notice to the 24 policy-holder when the reason for the non-renewal of the policy is 25 the holder's failure to pay the renewal premiums." Id.

26 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 687B.340 provides:
27
28

1 1. Subject to subsection 2, a policyholder has a right to
2 have his or her policy renewed, on the terms then being
3 applied by the insurer to persons, similarly situated, for 4 an additional period equivalent to the expiring term if the
5 agreed term is 1 year or less, or for 1 year if the agreed
6 term is longer than 1 year, unless:

8 (b) At least 30 days for all other policies,
9 before the date of expiration provided in the policy the 10 insurer mails or delivers to the policyholder a notice of 11 intention not to renew the policy beyond the agreed
12 expiration date. If an insurer fails to provide a timely
13 notice of nonrenewal, the insurer shall provide the insured
14 with a policy of insurance on the identical terms as in the 15 expiring policy.

16 Plaintiffs argues that Nev. Rev. Stat. § 687B.340 indicates how 17 favorable the law is to the insured, and that there is no mention in 18 the statute that payment is a prerequisite to a policyholder's
19 "right to have his or her policy renewed." It is true that the 20 Nevada statute does not include a provision similar to the one in 21 the Montana statute providing that the section does not apply when 22 the insured has "failed to discharge when due any of his obligations
23 in connection with the payment of premiums for the policy, or the 24 renewal therefor" White, 563 F.2d at 974 n.3. The Montana
25 statute also stated that the section does not apply "[i]f the 26 insurer has manifested its willingness to renew." Id.

1 Plaintiffs, however, fail to give credit to the entirety of the
2 Nevada statute. The statute does not say that the policyholder's
3 policy must be renewed, it says that the insurer shall provide the
4 insured with a policy on "the identical terms as in the expiring
5 policy." One of the terms of the expiring policy was payment of the 6 renewal amount. UAIC did provide Lewis, the policyholder, with a
7 renewal statement indicating that UAIC would renew the insurance
8 policy as long as all the terms of the previous policy were met,
9 i.e., payment.

10 Defendant correctly points out that this statute does not fit
11 the circumstances of this case. Lewis' policy was not renewed not 12 because UAIC had an intention not to renew, but because Lewis failed
13 to carry out his end of the contract, that is, to pay a renewal
14 amount. Lewis' policy was renewed on the date payment was received,
15 but this date was after the date of the accident. Plaintiffs'
16 statutory arguments, therefore, do not pass muster.

18 IV. Conclusion

19 Defendant's motion for summary judgment on all claims shall be 20 granted because Lewis had no insurance coverage on the date of the 21 accident. The renewal statement was not ambiguous in light of the 22 entire contract and history between Lewis and UAIC. The term
23 "expiration of your policy" referred to the expiration of Lewis'
24 current policy, and Lewis was never issued retroactive coverage when 25 his payments were late. His renewal policy would always begin on 26 the date payment was received. We cannot find that Lewis was 27 covered between the expiration of his policy in June and payment for 28

1 his next policy without straining to find an ambiguity where none
2 exists, and creating an obligation on the part of insurance
3 companies that would be untenable, i.e., to provide coverage when 4 the insured has not upheld his own obligations under the contract to 5 submit a payment.

6 The statutes cited by Plaintiffs simply do not apply. The
7 expiration of Lewis' policy was not a midterm cancellation, and UAIC
8 was not obligated to provide an insurance policy despite Lewis'
9 failure to adhere to the terms of that policy.

10 Defendant's other requests are moot in light of our decision
11 granting summary judgment.

13 IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant's motion for 14 summary judgment on all claims (#17) is GRANTED with respect to all
15 of Plaintiffs' claims.

16 The Clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.

ORDER

Currently before the Court are a Motion for Summary Judgment (#88) and a Counter-Motion for Summary Judgment (#89). This case, originally ruled upon by the Honorable Edward C. Reed, is on partial remand from the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. The Court heard oral argument on October 22, 2013.

BACKGROUND

In July 2009, Defendant United Automobile Insurance Company ("UAIC") filed a petition for removal based on diversity jurisdiction. (Pet. for Removal (#1) at 1-2). Defendant attached Plaintiffs James Nalder, guardian ad litem for minor Cheyanne Nalder, real party in interest, and Gary Lewis's (collectively "Plaintiffs") complaint which had been filed in the Eighth Judicial District in Clark County, Nevada. (Compl. (#1) at 5-16).

The complaint alleged the following. (Id. at 5). Lewis was the owner of a 1996 Chevy Silverado and had an automobile insurance policy with Defendant on July 8, 2007. (Id. at 6). On July 8, 2007, Lewis drove over top of Cheyanne while Cheyanne was a pedestrian in a residential area and caused Cheyanne serious personal injuries. (Id. at 7). Cheyanne made

1 a claim to Defendant for damages and offered to settle the claim for personal injuries and
2 damages against Lewis within the policy limits. (Id.). Defendant refused to settle and denied
3 the claim all together indicating that Lewis did not have coverage at the time of the accident.
4 (Id.). Defendant was required to provide insurance coverage under the policy. (Id. at 9).
5 Defendant never informed Lewis that Cheyanne was willing to settle the claim for the sum of
6 $15,000, the policy limit. (Id.). Due to the dilatory tactics and failure of Defendant to protect
7 its insured, Cheyanne filed a complaint on October 9, 2007 against Lewis for her personal
8 injuries and damages. (Id.). Cheyanne procured a default judgment in the amount of 9 $3,500,000 against Lewis. (Id.). Plaintiffs alleged breach of contract, breach of the implied
10 covenant of good faith and fair dealing, bad faith, breach of Nev. Rev. Stat. § 686A.310, and 11 fraud against Defendant. (Id. at 9-14).

12 In March 2010, Defendant filed a motion for summary judgment on all claims. (See 13 Mot. for Summ. J. (#17)). In December 2010, Judge Reed issued an order granting
14 Defendant's motion for summary judgment on all claims and directed the Clerk of the Court
15 to enter judgment accordingly. (Order (#42) at 13). The order provided the following factual
16 history:

17 Lewis was the owner of a 1996 Chevy Silverado insured, at various times,
18 by Defendant. Lewis had an insurance policy issued by UAIC on his vehicle
19 during the period of May 31, 2007 to June 30, 2007. Lewis received a renewal
20 statement, dated June 11, 2007, instructing him to remit payment by the due
21 date of June 30, 2007 in order to renew his insurance policy. The renewal
22 statement specified that "[t]o avoid lapse in coverage, payment must be received
prior to expiration of your policy." The renewal statement listed June 30, 2007
as effective date, and July 31, 2007 as an "expiration date." The renewal statement also states that the "due date" of the payment is June 30, 2007, and repeats that the renewal amount is due no later than June 30, 2007. Lewis made a payment on July 10, 2007.

23 Defendant then issued a renewal policy declaration and automobile
24 insurance cards indicating that Lewis was covered under an insurance policy between July 10, 2007 to August 10, 2007.

25 (Id. at 2-3).¹

26 The order stated the following. (Id. at 5). Defendant sought summary judgment on all 27

28 ¹ Record citations omitted.

1 claims on the basis that Lewis had no insurance coverage on the date of the accident. (Id.).
2 Plaintiffs argued that Lewis was covered on the date of the accident because the renewal
3 notice was ambiguous as to when payment had to be received in order to avoid a lapse in
4 coverage and that any ambiguities had to be construed in favor of the insured. (Id. at 5-6).
5 Defendants, in the alternative, requested that the Court dismiss Plaintiffs' extra-contractual
6 claims or bifurcate the claim of breach of contract from the remaining claims. (Id. at 6).

7 The order stated the following regarding Lewis's insurance coverage on July 8, 2007:

8 Plaintiffs contend that Lewis was covered under an insurance policy on 9 July 8, 2007, the date of the accident, because Lewis' payment on July 10, 2007
10 was timely. Plaintiffs rely on the sentence "[t]o avoid lapse in coverage, payment
11 must be received prior to expiration of your policy" contained in the renewal
12 statement. Defendant contends that "expiration of your policy" did not refer to 13 the expiration date of the renewal policy listed on the renewal statement, but to 14 the expiration of Lewis' current policy, which coincided with the listed due date
15 on the renewal statement. Plaintiffs contend that Lewis reasonably believed that 16 while there was a due date on which UAIC preferred to receive payment, there
17 was also a grace period within which Lewis could pay and avoid any lapse in 18 coverage.

19 The renewal statement cannot be considered without considering the 20 entirety of the contract between Lewis and UAIC. Plaintiff attached exhibits of 21 renewal statements, policy declarations pages, and Nevada automobile
22 insurance cards issued by UAIC for Lewis. The contract, taken as a whole,
23 cannot reasonably be interpreted in favor of Plaintiffs' argument.

24 Lewis received a "Renewal Policy Declarations" stating that he had 25 coverage from May 31, 2007 to June 30, 2007 at 12:01 A.M. (Pls' Opp., Exhibit
26 A at 29 (#20-1); Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 11-12 (#26-1); Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 27 15 (#26-1).) The declarations page stated that "[t]his declaration page with 28 'policy provisions' and all other applicable endorsements complete your policy."
(Pls' Opp., Exhibit A at 29 (#20-1).) Lewis also received a Nevada Automobile
Insurance Card issued by UAIC stating that the effective date of his policy was
May 31, 2007, and the expiration date was June 30, 2007. (Id. at 30; Pls' Supp., Exhibit A at 11-12 (#26-1).) The renewal statement Lewis received in June must be read in light of the rest of the insurance policy, contained in the declarations
page and also summarized in the insurance card.

"In interpreting a contract, 'the court shall effectuate the intent of the parties, which may be determined in light of the surrounding circumstances if not clear from the contract itself.'" Anvui, LLC v. G.L. Dragon, LLC, 163 P.3d 405,
407 (Nev. 2007). Plaintiffs contend that there was a course of dealing between Lewis and UAIC supporting a reasonable understanding that there was a grace period involved in paying the insurance premium for each month-long policy. In fact, the so-called course of dealing tilts, if at all, in favor of Defendant. Lewis habitually made payments that were late. UAIC never retroactively covered Lewis on such occasions. Lewis' new policy, clearly denoted on the declarations
page and insurance cards Lewis was issued, would always become effective on the date of the payment.

Plaintiffs point to the fact that in April 2007, Lewis was issued a revised renewal statement stating that the renewal amount was due on May 6, 2007, a date after the effective date of the policy Lewis would be renewing through the

1 renewal amount. This isolated occasion occurred due to the fact that Lewis
2 added a driver to his insurance policy, resulting in an increase in the renewal
3 amount, after UAIC had previously sent a renewal notice indicating that a lower
4 renewal amount was due on April 29, 2007. UAIC issued a revised renewal
5 statement dated April 26, 2007, and gave Lewis an opportunity to pay by May 6 6, 2007, instead of April 29, 2007, when the original renewal amount had been due upon expiration of his April policy. In that case, Lewis made a timely payment on April 28, 2007, and therefore there is not a single incident Plaintiffs can point to in which Lewis was retroactively covered for a policy before payment was made, even in the single instance UAIC granted him such an opportunity due to a unique set of circumstances.

7 (Id. at 7-9).

8 Plaintiffs appealed. (Notice of Appeal (#46)). In a two-page memorandum disposition,
9 the Ninth Circuit held, inter alia, the following:

10 We reverse the district court's grant of United Automobile Insurance
11 Company's motion for summary judgment with respect to whether there was 12 coverage by virtue of the way the renewal statement was worded. Plaintiffs
13 came forward with facts supporting their tenable legal position that a reasonable
14 person could have interpreted the renewal statement to mean that Lewis's
15 premium was due by June 30, 2007, but that the policy would not lapse if his premium were "received prior to expiration of [his] policy," with the "expiration date" specifically stated to be July 31, 2007. We remand to the district court for trial or other proceedings consistent with this memorandum. The portion of the order granting summary judgment with respect to the statutory arguments is affirmed.

16 (Ninth Cir. Mem. Dispo. (#82) at 2-3).

17 The pending motions now follow.

18 LEGAL STANDARD

19 In reviewing a motion for summary judgment, the court construes the evidence in the 20 light most favorable to the nonmoving party. Bagdadi v. Nazar, 84 F.3d 1194, 1197 (9th Cir.
21 1996). Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 56, a court will grant summary judgment "if the movant shows
22 that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to judgment
23 as a matter of law." Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(a). Material facts are "facts that might affect the outcome
24 of the suit under the governing law." Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248, 106
25 S.Ct. 2505, 2510, 91 L.Ed.2d 202 (1986). A material fact is "genuine" if the evidence is such 26 that a reasonable jury could return a verdict for the nonmoving party. Id.

27 The moving party bears the initial burden of identifying the portions of the pleadings and
28 evidence that the party believes to demonstrate the absence of any genuine issue of material

1 fact. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323, 106 S.Ct. 2548, 2553, 91 L.Ed.2d 265
2 (1986). A party asserting that a fact cannot be or is genuinely disputed must support the
3 assertion by “citing to particular parts of materials in the record, including depositions,
4 documents, electronically stored information, affidavits or declarations, stipulations (including
5 those made for purposes of the motion only), admissions, interrogatory answers, or other
6 materials” or “showing that the materials cited do not establish the absence or presence of a
7 genuine dispute, or that an adverse party cannot produce admissible evidence to support the
8 fact.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c)(1)(A)-(B). Once the moving party has properly supported the 9 motion, the burden shifts to the nonmoving party to come forward with specific facts showing
10 that a genuine issue for trial exists. Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475
11 U.S. 574, 587, 106 S.Ct. 1348, 1356, 89 L.Ed.2d 538 (1986). “The mere existence of a 12 scintilla of evidence in support of the plaintiff’s position will be insufficient; there must be
13 evidence on which the jury could reasonably find for the plaintiff.” Anderson, 477 U.S. at 252,
14 106 S.Ct. at 2512. The nonmoving party cannot defeat a motion for summary judgment “by 15 relying solely on conclusory allegations unsupported by factual data.” Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d
16 1040, 1045 (9th Cir. 1989). “Where the record taken as a whole could not lead a rational trier
17 of fact to find for the nonmoving party, there is no genuine issue for trial.” Matsushita, 475
18 U.S. at 587, 106 S.Ct. at 1356.

20 I. Plaintiff James Nalder’s Motion for Summary Judgment (#88)

21 Nalder moves for partial summary judgment as to liability against Defendant. (Mot. for 22 Summ. J. (#88) at 1). Nalder makes three arguments which will be addressed in turn.

23 A. Ambiguous Contract

24 Nalder argues that because the renewal statement was ambiguous it must be strictly 25 construed against the insurance company pursuant to Nevada law and, thus, Lewis had 26 coverage at the time of the accident. (Mot. for Summ. J. (#88) at 10).

27 In response, Defendant argues that Lewis’s renewal statement is not ambiguous and 28 clearly demanded remittance of the policy premium for the subsequent term by the expiration

1 of the present policy period. (Opp'n to Mot. for Summ. J. (#90) at 15). Defendant argues that
2 a material issue of fact remains over whether the renewals were ambiguous. (Id.).

3 Nalder filed a reply. (Reply to Mot. for Summ. J. (#95)).

4 "Summary judgment is appropriate in contract cases only if the contract provision or the
5 contract in question is unambiguous." Econ. Forms Corp. v. Law Co., Inc., 593 F.Supp. 539,
6 540 (D. Nev. 1984). A contract is ambiguous if it is reasonably susceptible to more than one
7 interpretation. Shelton v. Shelton, 78 P.3d 507, 510 (Nev. 2003). Whether a contract is
8 ambiguous is a question of law. Margrave v. Dermody Properties, Inc., 878 P.2d 291, 293
9 (Nev. 1994). "The interpretation of an ambiguous contract is a mixed question of fact and
10 law." Econ. Forms Corp., 593 F.Supp. at 541. However, in Nevada, "any ambiguity or 11 uncertainty in an insurance policy must be construed against the insurer and in favor of the 12 insured." United Nat'l Ins. Co. v. Frontier Ins. Co., Inc., 99 P.3d 1153, 1156 (Nev. 2004).

13 In this case, the Court finds that the renewal statement is ambiguous based on the 14 Ninth Circuit's reverse and remand. The Court finds that the renewal statement is reasonably
15 susceptible to more than one interpretation as demonstrated by both Judge Reed and the 16 Ninth Circuit's conflicting interpretations. As such, the Court finds that, pursuant to Nevada
17 law, this ambiguity is construed against Defendant and in favor of the insured such that Lewis
18 was covered by the insurance policy on the date of the accident. The Court grants summary
19 judgment on this issue in favor of Plaintiffs.

20 B. Bad Faith

21 Nalder argues that Defendant's actions constitute bad faith. (Mot. for Summ. J. (#88)
22 at 19). Specifically, Nalder argues that Lewis properly renewed his policy pursuant to the 23 policy's renewal statements, Defendant renewed Lewis's policy, and then Defendant claimed
24 that there was a lapse in coverage. (Id.). Nalder asserts that Defendant never investigated
25 to determine whether Lewis was covered, made a snap decision that there was no coverage,
26 and left Lewis bereft of protection against Cheyanne's lawsuit. (Id.). Nalder contends that 27 these facts constitute bad faith which requires Defendant to compensate Lewis, pay for the 28 judgment currently entered against him, and pay for compensatory and punitive damages.

1 (Id.).

2 In response, Defendant argues that every case cited by Nalder involves a situation
3 where there existed a policy in force at the time of the loss. (Opp'n to Mot. for Summ. J. (#90)
4 at 21). Defendant asserts that, in this case, Nalder asks the Court to find an implied policy
5 from an ambiguity in the renewal. (Id. at 22). Defendant argues that Nevada law provides that 6 a court may review an insurer's actions at the time they were made to determine whether the 7 insurer's actions were reasonable as a matter of law and that bad faith cannot be premised
8 upon an honest mistake, bad judgment, or negligence. (Id. at 25). Defendant asserts that
9 Nevada law provides that an insurer cannot be found liable for bad faith, as a matter of law,
10 if it had a reasonable basis to contest coverage. (Id.). Defendant contends that if an insurer's
11 actions are reasonable the court can decide as a matter of law to dismiss the extra-contractual
12 claims. (Id. at 26). Defendant asserts that because Lewis admits that he did not make any 13 policy payments between June 12, 2007 and July 10, 2007 its actions were reasonable. (Id.).
14 Defendant contends that even if it may be found to owe coverage on an implied contract,
15 Plaintiffs must admit that a genuine dispute existed as to coverage at the time of the accident.
16 (Id.).

17 Nalder filed a reply. (Reply to Mot. for Summ. J. (#95)).

18 Nevada law imposes the covenant of good faith and fair dealing on insurers. Allstate
19 Ins. Co. v. Miller, 212 P.3d 318, 324 (Nev. 2009). A violation of the covenant gives rise to a
20 bad-faith tort claim. Id. The Nevada Supreme Court has defined "bad faith as 'an actual or 21 implied awareness of the absence of a reasonable basis for denying benefits of the [insurance]
22 policy.'" Id. (quoting Am. Excess Ins. Co. v. MGM, 729 P.2d 1352, 1354-55 (Nev. 1986). "To
23 establish a prima facie case of bad-faith refusal to pay an insurance claim, the plaintiff must
24 establish that the insurer had no reasonable basis for disputing coverage, and that the insurer
25 knew or recklessly disregarded the fact that there was no reasonable basis for disputing
26 coverage." Powers v. United Servs. Auto. Ass'n, 962 P.2d 596, 604 (Nev. 1998) opinion
27 modified on denial of reh'g, 979 P.2d 1286 (Nev. 1999).

28 In this case, the Court denies Nalder's motion for summary judgment on the bad faith

1 claims. The procedural history of this case demonstrates that Defendant had a reasonable
2 basis for disputing coverage during the time of the incident. As demonstrated by Judge
3 Reed's original order, there was arguably sufficient evidence to find a basis for Defendant to
4 deny Lewis benefits of the insurance policy. Even though the Ninth Circuit reversed and
5 remanded Judge Reed's original order, this Court finds that the procedural history of this case
6 demonstrates that Defendant had a reasonable basis to dispute coverage and, on one
7 occasion, had succeeded in that argument. The Court denies Nalder's motion for summary
8 judgment on this issue.

9 C. Pre and Post-Judgment Interest

10 Nalder argues that because there was arguable or possible coverage under the policy,
11 Defendant had a duty to defend Lewis. (Mot. for Summ. J. (#88) at 20). Nalder asserts that 12 Defendant's failure to provide coverage and its breach of the duty to defend was the proximate
13 cause of the default judgment being entered against Lewis. (Id.). Nalder contends that 14 Defendant has the duty to indemnify Lewis. (Id.).

15 In response, Defendant argues that there are court cases where an insurer who 16 investigated coverage and based its decision not to defend on a reasonable construction of 17 the policy was not liable for bad faith breach of the duty to defend even after the court resolved
18 the ambiguity in the contract in favor of the insured. (Opp'n to Mot. for Summ. J. (#90) at 33).

19 Nalder filed a reply. (Reply to Mot. for Summ. J. (#95)).

20 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that primary liability insurance policies create a
21 hierarchy of duties between the insurer and the insured. Allstate Ins., 212 P.3d at 324. One
22 of these contractual duties is the duty to defend. Id. A breach of the duty to defend is a
23 breach of a contractual obligation. See id. at 324-25. An insurer bears a duty to defend its 24 insured whenever it ascertains facts which give rise to the potential of liability under the policy.
25 United Nat'l Ins. Co. v. Frontier Ins. Co., Inc., 99 P.3d 1153, 1158 (Nev. 2004). Once the duty
26 to defend arises, it continues through the course of litigation. Id. "If there is any doubt about 27 whether the duty to defend arises, this doubt must be resolved in favor of the insured." Id.
28 "The purpose behind construing the duty to defend so broadly is to prevent an insurer from

1 evading its obligation to provide a defense for an insured without at least investigating the facts
2 behind a complaint.” Id. However, the duty to defend is not absolute. Id. “A potential for
3 coverage only exists when there is arguable or possible coverage.” Id. “Determining whether
4 an insurer owes a duty to defend is achieved by comparing the allegations of the complaint
5 with the terms of the policy.” Id. If an insurer breaches the duty to defend, damages are
6 limited to attorneys’ fees and costs incurred by the insured to defend the action. See Home
7 Sav. Ass’n v. Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co., 854 P.2d 851, 855 (Nev. 1993) (holding that an insured
8 was not barred from further pursuing recovery from insurance company for fees and costs
9 incurred in defending an action); Reyburn Lawn & Landscape Designers, Inc. v. Plaster Dev.
10 Co., Inc., 255 P.3d 268, 278 (Nev. 2011) (discussing damages related to an indemnitor’s duty 11 to defend an indemnitee).

12 In this case, as discussed at oral argument, the Court finds that Defendant breached
13 its contractual duty to defend Gary Lewis in the underlying action. As such, Gary Lewis’s
14 damages are limited to the attorneys’ fees and costs he incurred in defending that action.
15 However, the Court awards no damages to Gary Lewis because he did not incur any fees or 16 costs in defending the underlying action because he chose not to defend and, instead, took 17 a default judgment.

18 As such, the Court grants in part and denies in part Nalder’s motion for summary
19 judgment. The Court grants summary judgment for Nalder on the ambiguity issue and finds
20 that there is an ambiguity in the renewal statement and, thus, the policy is construed in favor
21 of coverage at the time of the accident. Defendant must pay the policy limits of the implied
22 insurance policy. The Court denies summary judgment for Nalder on the remaining bad-faith
23 claims. The Court grants in part and denies in part summary judgment for Nalder on the duty
24 to defend issue. The Court finds that Defendant did breach its contractual duty to defend but 25 denies Nalder’s request for damages for that breach.

26 II. Defendant’s Counter-Motion for Summary Judgment on All Extra-Contractual
27 Claims or Remedies (#89)

28 Defendant seeks summary judgment on all of Plaintiff’s claims for extra-contractual

1 remedies and/or bad faith claims because there was a genuine dispute as to whether
2 coverage existed at the time and its actions were reasonable. (Counter Mot. for Summ. J.
3 (#89) at 15). Defendant argues that because it had a reasonable basis to deny coverage there
4 can be no bad faith. (Id. at 16).

5 Nalder filed a response and Defendant filed a reply. (Opp'n to Counter Mot. for Summ.
6 J. (#96); Reply to Counter Mot. for Summ. J. (#97)).

7 The Court grants Defendant's counter-motion for summary judgment on Plaintiffs' extra-
8 contractual claims and/or bad faith claims. As discussed above, the procedural history of this 9 case demonstrates that Defendant had a reasonable basis for disputing coverage during the 10 time of the accident and, thus, there is no bad faith on the part of Defendant.

11 CONCLUSION

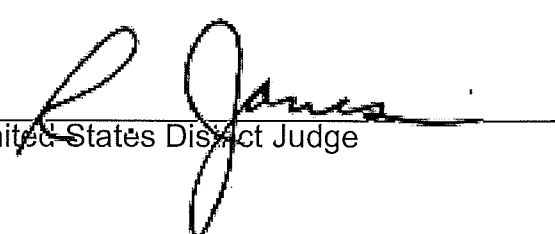

12 For the foregoing reasons, IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiff James Nalder's Motion for
13 Summary Judgment (#88) is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. The Court grants
14 summary judgment in favor of Nalder and finds that the insurance renewal statement
15 contained an ambiguity and, thus, the statement is construed in favor of coverage during the 16 time of the accident. The Court denies summary judgment on Nalder's remaining bad-faith
17 claims.

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant's Counter-Motion for Summary Judgment
19 on All Extra-Contractual Claims or Remedies (#89) is GRANTED. The Court grants summary
20 judgment on all extra-contractual claims and/or bad faith claims in favor of Defendant.

21 The Court directs Defendant to pay Cheyanne Nalder the policy limits on Gary Lewis's
22 implied insurance policy at the time of the accident.

23 The Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment accordingly.

24 Dated this 30th of October, 2013.

PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO UAIC'S MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT

Date: 12/12/2018
Time: 9:00 a.m.

Cheyenne Nalder, through her attorney, David A. Stephens, Esq., opposes UAIC's Motion for Relief from Judgment, as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

United Automobile Insurance Company's, ("UAIC"), motion should be denied because the tolling statutes, NRS 11.200, NRS 11.250 and NRS 11.300, apply to the statute of limitations for judgments contained in the same chapter at NRS 11.190(a)(1)
and extend the time for filing an action on the judgment or for renewal under NRS 17.214.

1 UAIC argues that the tolling statutes, NRS 11.200, NRS 11.250, and NRS 11.300, do
2 not apply to the statute of limitations for judgments contained in the same chapter at 3 NRS 11.190(a)(1). UAIC provides no legal authority for this unreasonable position.
4 Unfortunately for UAIC, this position is not supported in Nevada's statutory scheme,
5 case law or common sense. NRS 11.200 specifically refers to NRS 11.190. The other 6 two statutes are part of chapter 11 and deal specifically with when the statute of 7 limitations is tolled. UAIC's position is frivolous and must be met with a firm rejection.

11 II. FACTS

12 A. FACTS ON UNDERLYING CASE

13 The underlying matter arises from an auto accident that occurred on July 8, 2007,
14 where Gary Lewis, ("Lewis"), accidentally ran over Nalder. Nalder was born April 4, 15 1998 and was a nine-year-old girl at the time. At the time of the accident Lewis
16 maintained an auto insurance policy with United Auto Insurance Company ("UAIC"), 17 which was renewable on a monthly basis.
18

19 Following the accident, Nalder's father, James Nalder, extended an offer to UAIC
20 to settle Nalder's injury claim for Lewis's policy limit of $15,000.00. UAIC never 21 informed Lewis that Nalder offered to settle Cheyenne's claim. UAIC never filed a 22 declaratory relief action. UAIC rejected Nalder's offer. UAIC rejected the offer because 23 it believed that Lewis was not covered under his insurance policy given that he did not 24 renew his policy by June 30, 2007.
26
27
28

1 After UAIC rejected James Nalder's offer, James Nalder, on behalf of Cheyenne 2 Nalder, filed this lawsuit against Lewis in the Nevada state district court.

4 UAIC was notified of the lawsuit but declined to defend Lewis or file a 5 declaratory relief action regarding coverage. Lewis failed to appear and answer the 6 complaint. As a result, Nalder obtained a default judgment against Lewis for 7 $3,500,000.00. Notice of entry of judgment was filed on August 26, 2008.

9 Nalder recently obtained an amended judgment in this matter. She amended the 10 judgment to get it into her name because she is not longer a minor.

11
12 Nalder wants to maintain her judgment against Lewis. This intention is 13 irrespective of its enforceability against UAIC. Lewis and Nalder are still involved in 14 ongoing claims handling litigation against Lewis's insurance company, UAIC, because 15 of its failure to defend Lewis in the original case.

17 Because the statute of limitations on Nalder's personal injury action may have 18 been approaching, Nalder recently took action in both Nevada and California to maintain 19 her judgment against Lewis, who resides in California, or, in the alternative, to 20 prosecute her personal injury action against Lewis to judgment.

21
22 Cheyenne Nalder reached the age of majority on April 4, 2016. Nalder hired 23 David A. Stephens, Esq., to maintain her judgment. First, counsel obtained an amended 24 judgment in this case in Cheyenne's name as a result of her reaching the age of majority.
25 This amended judgment was obtained appropriately, by demonstrating to the Court that 26
28

1 the judgment, as a result of the tolling provisions, was still within the applicable statute
2 of limitations.

4 Nalder then filed a separate action with three distinct claims for relief, pled in the 5 alternative. (See Case No. A-18-8772220-C). The first claim is an action on the 6 amended judgment which will result in a new judgment which will have the total
7 principal and post judgment interest reduced to judgment, so that interest would now run 8 on the new, larger principal amount.

11 The second alternative claim is for declaratory relief seeking a determination of 12 when a renewal under NRS 17.214 must be filed and when the statute of limitations, 13 which is subject to tolling provisions, will run on the judgment.

15 And finally, the third claim, should the Court determine that the judgment is 16 invalid, is an action on the injury claim within the applicable statute of limitations for 17 injury claims, that is, two years after her reaching the age of majority.

19 Nalder also retained California counsel, who filed a judgment in California, which 20 has a ten-year statute of limitations regarding actions on a judgment. Nalder maintains 21 that all of these actions are unnecessary to the questions on appeal, and most are 22 unnecessarily early; however, out of an abundance of caution, she brings them to 23 maintain a judgment against Lewis and to demonstrate the actual way this issue should 24 have been litigated in the Eighth Judicial District Court of Nevada, not midway into an 25 appeal by a self-serving affidavit of counsel for UAIC.
26
28

1 UAIC has inserted itself into these actions trying to assert the simple, but flawed,
3 concept that unless a judgment renewal pursuant to NRS 17.214 is brought within six 4 years, a judgment is no longer valid. UAIC's motivation for bringing this argument is 5 not in good faith and is to avoid payment of damages arising from its claims handling
6 failures that occurred in the first Nalder v. Lewis injury case.

8 UAIC made representations that it would be responsible for any judgment entered
10 in this case in order to gain intervention into this case and the case filed by Nalder in 11 2018.

12 B. CLAIMS HANDLING CASE AGAINST UAIC

13
14 On May 22, 2009, James Nalder, on behalf of Cheyenne Nalder, and Lewis filed
15 suit against UAIC alleging breach of contract, breach of the implied covenant of good 16 faith and fair dealing, bad faith, fraud, and violation of NRS 686A.310. Lewis assigned 17 to Nalder his right to "all funds necessary to satisfy the Judgment" and retaining to 18 himself any funds recovered above the judgment. Lewis left the state of Nevada and 19 relocated to California prior to 2010. Neither Lewis, nor anyone on his behalf, has been 20 subject to service of process in Nevada since 2010.
21

23 Once UAIC removed the insurance case to federal district court, UAIC filed a 24 motion for summary judgment as to all of Lewis and Nalder's claims, alleging Lewis did
25 not have insurance coverage on the date of the subject collision. The federal district
26 court granted UAIC's summary judgment motion because it determined the insurance 27
28

1 contract was not ambiguous as to when Lewis had to make payment to avoid a coverage
2 lapse. Nalder and Lewis appealed this decision to the Ninth Circuit. The Ninth Circuit
3 reversed and remanded the matter because Lewis and Nalder had facts to show the 4 renewal statement was ambiguous regarding the date when payment was required to 5 avoid a coverage lapse.

8 On remand, the U.S. District Court concluded the renewal statement was 9 ambiguous and therefore, Lewis was covered on the date of the incident because the 10 court construed this ambiguity against UAIC. The U.S. District Court also determined 11 UAIC breached its duty to defend Lewis, but did not award damages because Lewis did 12 not incur any fees or costs in defense of the Nevada state court action. Based on these 13 conclusions, the district court ordered UAIC to pay the policy limit of $15,000.00.
14 UAIC then made three payments on the judgment: June 23, 2014; June 25, 2014; and 15 March 5, 2015.

18 Both Nalder and Lewis appealed that decision to the Ninth Circuit, which 19 ultimately led to the certification of the first question to the Nevada Supreme Court,
20 namely whether an insurer that breaches its duty to defend is liable for all foreseeable 21 consequential damages of the breach.

24 After the first certified question was fully briefed and pending before the Nevada
25 Supreme Court, UAIC had the idea that the underlying judgment could only be renewed
26 pursuant to NRS 17.214. Even though UAIC knew at this point that they owed a duty 27

1 to defend Gary Lewis, they did not undertake to investigate the factual basis or the legal 2 grounds, or discuss this idea with Lewis, or seek declaratory relief on Lewis' behalf
3 regarding the statute of limitations on the judgment. All of these actions would have 4 been a good faith effort to protect Lewis. Instead, UAIC filed a motion to dismiss Lewis
5 and Nalder's appeal with the Ninth Circuit for lack of standing. This allegation had not 6 been raised in the trial court. It was something UAIC concocted solely for its own
7 benefit. This allegation was brought for the first time in the appellate court. If UAIC's
8 self-serving affidavit is wrong, this action will leave Lewis with a valid judgment against 9 him and no cause of action against UAIC.
10
12

13
14 UAIC ignored all of the tolling statutes and presented new evidence into the 15 appeal process, arguing Nalder's underlying $3,500,000.00 judgment against Lewis is 16 not enforceable because the six-year statute of limitation to institute an action upon the 17 judgment or to renew the judgment pursuant to NRS 11.190(1)(a) expired. The only 18 proof that it expired was UAIC counsel's affidavit that no renewal pursuant to NRS
19 17.124 had been filed. As a result, UAIC contends Nalder can no longer recover 20 damages above the $15,000.00 policy limit for breach of the contractual duty to defend 21 because the judgment lapsed after the judgment (in the case against UAIC) was entered 22 in the U.S. District Court. This would be similar to arguing on appeal that a plaintiff is 23 no longer entitled to medical expenses awarded because the time to file a lawsuit to 24 recover them expired while the case was on appeal.
27
28

1 Even though Nalder believes the law is clear that UAIC is bound by the judgment,
2 regardless of its continued validity against Lewis, Nalder, in an abundance of caution,
3 took action in Nevada and California to demonstrate the continued validity of the 4 judgment against Lewis. These Nevada and California state court actions will 5 demonstrate that UAIC has again tried to escape responsibility by making 6 misrepresentations to the Federal and State Courts.

10
11 UAIC seeks to set aside the amended judgment based on NRCP 60(b) arguing it 12 the judgment was void prior to the court amending it.
13

14 NRCP 60(b)(3), which allows the court to relieve a party from a final judgment
15 if it is void, “is normally invoked . . . in a case where the court entering the challenged 16 judgment was itself disqualified from acting, [citation omitted], or did not have 17 jurisdiction over the parties, [citation omitted], or of the subject matter of the litigation.”
18 Misty Management Corp. v. First Judicial District Court, 83 Nev. 180, 426 P.2d 728, 19 729 (1967).

22 None of those grounds apply unless, UAIC is arguing that if the judgment was not 23 timely renewed it was disqualified from acting. UAIC provides no support for that 24 position.

26 However, assuming, arguendo, that position is correct, UAIC still fails establish 27 that the judgment had to be renewed or even that the time for renewal had expired.
28

1 A. The Judgment is not expired because the statute of limitation is tolled

2 The Nevada six-year statute of limitations for bringing an action on a judgment
3 is provided for in NRS 11.190(1)(a). That time period has either not expired, or it has 4 been tolled.

7 i. The six-year time period was tolled by the three payments UAIC made on the 8 judgment.

9 NRS 11.200, states:

11 “The time in NRS 11.190 shall be deemed to date from the last 12 transaction or the last item charged or last credit given; and whenever any 13 payment on principal or interest has been or shall be made upon an existing 14 contract, whether it be a bill of exchange, promissory note or other 15 evidence of indebtedness if such payment be made after the same shall have 16 become due, the limitation shall commence from the time the last payment 17 was made.”
19

20 NRS 11.200 is specifically made applicable to the statutes of limitation set forth
21 in NRS 11.190

23 UAIC made its last payment on the judgment on March 5, 2015. Thus, as a result 24 of this statute, the six-year statute to file suit to enforce the judgment began running on 25 March 6, 2016 and would not expire until March 6, 2021, which is six years from the last 26 payment.
28

1 ii. The Nevada statute of limitations to bring an action on a judgment was also
2 tolled during the period of time that Nalder was a minor.

4 NRS 11.250 states:

5 “If a person entitled to bring an action other than for the recovery of
7 real property be, at the time the cause of action accrued, either:

8 1. Within the age of 18 years;

9 * * *

11 “the time of such disability shall not be a part of the time limited for the 12 commencement of the action.”

14 Nalder reached the age of majority on April 4, 2016. The statute of limitation to 15 enforce a judgment was tolled until she reached the age of 18. As a result, the statute of 16 limitations to file an action to enforce the judgment does not run until April 4, 2022.

18 iii. Lewis’ residency in California since 2010 tolls the statute of limitations.

19 Pursuant to NRS 11.300, the absence of Lewis from the State of Nevada tolls the 20 statute of limitations to enforce a judgment and it remains tolled because of his absence.

22 See Bank of Nevada v. Friedman, 82 Nev. 417, 421, 420 P.2d 1, 3 (1966).

23
24 Pursuant to NRS 11.300, Lewis’ California residency also tolls the six-year statute
25 of limitations to enforce a judgment because Lewis has not been subject to service of 26 process in the State of Nevada from 2010 to the present.

27
28 iv. The time to renew the judgment has not run

1 NRS 17.214 provides that the renewal must be brought within 90 days of the 2 expiration of the statute of limitations. If that 90-day period is strictly construed, any 3 renewal attempt pursuant to NRS 17.214 by Nalder at the present time, or earlier as 4 argued by UAIC, would be premature and therefore ineffective because it would not be 5 filed within the 90-day window prior to expiration of the statute of limitations.

8 v. The renewal statute is optional, rather than mandatory

10 NRS 17.214 was enacted to give an optional, not “mandatory,” statutory 11 procedure in addition to the rights created at common law for an action on the judgment.
12 UAIC claims the plain, permissive language of NRS 17.214: “A judgment creditor 13 . . . may renew a judgment,” (emphasis added), mandates use of NRS 17.214 as the only 14 way to renew a judgment. This is contrary to the clear wording of the statute and the 15 case law in Nevada. See Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 24 Nev. 154, 161, 50 P. 849, 851 16 (1897) and general statutory interpretation.
17

19 UAIC cites no authority for this mandated use of NRS 17.214. The legislative 20 history demonstrates that NRS 17.214 was adopted to give an easier way for creditors
21 to renew judgments. This was to give an option for renewal of judgments that was easier
22 and more certain, not make it a trap for the unwary and cut of rights of injured parties.

25 UAIC cites Leven v. Frey, 123 Nev. 399, 168 P.3d 712 (2007), for the proposition 26 that judgment renewal is mandatory. However, that is not what the case held. It held that 27 strict compliance with the statute was necessary to renew a judgment. That is not the 28

1 same as holding that a judgment must be renewed by this statutory process. Id., 168
2 P.3d at 719. The issue of enforcing a judgment by a suit was never considered by the 3 Nevada Supreme Court in the Leven case.

5 Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 24 Nev. 154, 161, 50 P. 849, 851 (1897), specifically 6 allowed a judgment creditor to file a suit to enforce a judgment fifteen years after it was 7 entered. The Nevada Supreme Court stated:

9 “The averments of the complaint and the undisputed facts are that at the 10 time of the rendition and entry of the judgment in 1882, the appellant was 11 out of the state, and continuously remained absent therefrom until March, 12 1897, thereby preserving the judgment and all right of action of the 13 judgment creditor under the same. Notwithstanding nearly fifteen years
14 had elapsed since the entry of the judgment, yet, for the purpose of action, 15 the judgment was not barred - for that purpose the judgment was valid.”

19

20 Where as here, the timing of the expiration is in doubt, the best way to renew the 21 judgment is the common law method, which is only supplemented by the statutory 22 method, not replaced.
24

25 Though the statute of limitations on Nalder’s judgment is not even close to 26 running, this action was taken because Nalder’s tort statute of limitations was about to 27 run. If the judgment is deemed not valid, then Nalder still wants to protect her tort 28

1 claim. Also, this action is the appropriate way to litigate and clarify the Nevada
2 statutory scheme for actions on a judgment and judgment renewal.

4 B. The Statute of Limitations in California on a Judgment of a Sister State is 5 Ten Years

6 Lewis now resides in California. In California, an action upon a judgment must 7 be commenced within 10 years of entry of the judgment. See Cal. Code Civ. P. § 337.5.
8 Alternatively, a judgment must be renewed within 10 years of entry of the judgment.
9 Kertesz v. Ostrovsky, 115 Cal. App. 4th 369, 372, 8 Cal. Rptr. 3d 907, 911 (Cal. Ct. App.
10 2004); see also, Cal. Code Civ. P. §§ 683.020, 683.120, 683.130. Out of an abundance 11 of caution, Nalder has incurred the expense to renew her judgment by filing actions in 12 both Nevada and California. In spite of this action, Nalder contends that she timely 13 instituted an action on the judgment or, alternatively, that the six-year limitations period 14 has not yet expired.
15

16 C. The Underlying Judgment Did Not Expire As To Lewis Because Nalder Was 17 Not Required to Institute an Action on the Judgment and Renew the 18 Judgment

19 An action on a judgment is distinguishable from the treatment of an application
20 to renew the prior judgment. Pratali v. Gates, 4 Cal. App. 4th 632, 637, 5 Cal. Rptr. 2d
21 733, 736 (Cal. Ct. App. 1992). This distinction is inherently recognized in the Nevada
22 Revised Statutes' treatment of both courses of action. "A judgment creditor may enforce 23 his judgment by the process of the court in which he obtained it, or he may elect to use
26
27
28

1 the judgment as an original cause of action and bring suit thereon and prosecute such
2 suit to final judgment.” Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 24 Nev. 154, 161, 50 P. 849, 851
3 (1897) (emphasis added). NRS 11.190(a)(1) provides the option that either an action
4 upon the judgement or a renewal of the judgment be commenced. The limitation period
5 for judgments runs from the time the judgment becomes final. Statutes of limitations
6 are intended to ensure pursuit of the action with reasonable diligence, to preserve
7 evidence and avoid surprise, and to avoid the injustice of long-dormant claims. Petersen
8 v. Bruen, 106 Nev. 271, 273-74, 792 P.2d 18, 19-20 (1990).

12 NRS 17.214 provides the procedural steps necessary to renew a judgment before
13 the expiration of the statute of limitations set forth in NRS 11.190(1)(a). NRS 17.214
14 provides that a judgment creditor may renew a judgment that has not been paid by filing
15 an affidavit with the clerk of the court where the judgment is entered, “...within 90 days
16 before the date the judgment expires by limitation.” NRS 11.190(a)(1), NRS 11.200, 17 NRS 11.250, NRS 11.300 must be read together with NRS 17.214 because they relate 18 to the same subject matter and are not in conflict with one another. Piroozi v. Eighth 19 Judicial Dist. Court, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 100, 363 P.3d 1168, 1172 (2015). When these 20 five statutes are read together, they establish that a party must either file an action on the 21 judgment or renew the judgment under NRS 17.214 before the statute of limitations runs.

26 The Nevada Supreme Court expressly adopted this result in Levin v. Frey, 123
27 Nev. 399, 403, 168 P.2d. 712, 715 (2007): “An action on a judgment or its renewal must 28

1 be commenced within six years under NRS 11.190(1)(a); thus a judgment expires by 2 limitation in six years.”

4 The Nevada Supreme Court held that the time to file a renewal under NRS 17.214
5 is subject to statutory and equitable tolling provisions. See O’Lane v. Spinney, 110 Nev.
6 496, 874 P.2d 754 (1994). The statute of limitation tolling provisions in NRS 11.200, 7 NRS 11.250, NRS 11.300 apply to the computation of the time for filing for renewal
8 under NRS 17.214.

11 The Nevada Supreme Court also recognizes the well-established rule that it will 12 not look beyond the plain language of the statute when the words “have a definite and 13 ordinary meaning.” Harris Associates. v. Clark County School. District, 119 Nev. 638, 14 642, 81 P.3d 532, 534 (2003). “Normal principles of statutory construction also 15 preclude interpreting a statute to render part of it meaningless.” United States v. Bert, 16 292 F.3d 649, 652 n.11 (9th Cir. 2002).

19 UAIC’s apparent position is that even though Nalder filed an action upon the 20 judgment, she was also required to file a renewal of the judgment. This interpretation
21 ignores the clarity of the disjunctive “or”. UAIC’s proposed interpretation of the statute
22 effectively renders the “or” used NRS 11.190(1)(a) meaningless. If the Nevada 23 Legislature intended to require a judgment creditor to file an action on the judgment and 24 renew the judgment, then the Nevada Legislature would have used the word “and”.
25
26 However, the Nevada Legislature uniquely understood that a party was only required to 27

1 proceed with one course of action to ensure the validity of a judgment. This
2 understanding is reflected in the permissive language of NRS 17.214(1), which states
3 that a judgment creditor “may renew a judgment which has not been paid. . . .”

5 Based on the unambiguous language of NRS 11.190(1)(a), NRS 11.200, NRS
6 11.250, NRS 11.300 and NRS 17.214, the underlying judgment did not expire in this 7 matter. Indeed, any renewal pursuant to NRS 17.214 filed by Nalder would be 8 premature and possibly held to be ineffective. Nalder timely commenced her action on 9 the judgment before the statute of limitations expired. As a result, the judgment does not 10 have to be renewed and any renewal under NRS 17.214 is not possible at this time. This 11 is the reason for the declaratory relief allegation in Nalder’s 2018 complaint.

14 VII. CONCLUSION

15 Nevada has two methods for dealing with the expiration of statutes of limitation.
16 Both methods are dependent on the expiration of the statutes of limitation and the 17 associated tolling statutes. The statute of limitations in this matter is tolled until well 18 past the time Cheyenne Nalder, (“Nalder”), amended the judgment and filed an action 19 on the judgment. The initial judgment never expired. The judgment does not have to 20 be revived. This Court did not make a mistake. The amended judgment is not void.
21 UAIC’s motion must be denied.

24 For the reasons set forth above, Nalder respectfully requests that this Court deny 25 the Motion to Set Aside the Judgment brought by Gary Lewis, (without his consent).

13 JAMES NALDER,

14 Plaintiff,

15 v.

16 GARY LEWIS and DOES I through V,
17 inclusive,

18 Defendants.

CASE NO.: 07A549111

DEPT: 20

OPPOSITION TO GARY LEWIS' MOTION TO STRIKE MOTION TO SET ASIDE JUDGEMENT

19 Defendant, Gary Lewis, by and through his counsel, Randall Tindall of the law firm of 20 Resnick & Louis, P.C., opposes Gary Lewis' motion to strike, as follows:

21 I, Randall Tindall, and my firm, Resnick & Louis, P.C., was retained by Mr. Lewis'
22 insurance carrier, UAIC, to defend Mr. Lewis in this lawsuit and another case filed more recently
23 on the same issues. That case currently is pending before Judge W. Kephart. Mr. Lewis has a 24 $3,500,000 stipulated judgement pending in that case but it apparently has not yet been entered.
25 Mr. Lewis has two other counsel, Breen Arntz and Tom Christensen.

26 In what appears to be one of the most serious cases of gamesmanship I have seen, Mr.
27 Christensen has filed against me and Resnick & Louis, P.C. a third-party complaint.
28

1 According to paragraph 82, attached as Exhibit A, Mr. Lewis filed against me with the State Bar
2 an ethics complaint. Also according to paragraph 82, to the State Bar dismissed it. According to 3 what Tom Christensen argued before Judge David Jones on the day Judge Jones recused, the 4 State Bar immediately dismissed the ethics complaint because it recognized that it was being 5 made in an attempt to create a hammer to influence the litigation, and it was not going to allow 6 that. This motion to strike is frivolous.

8 A. *The motion must be denied because it violates EDCR 2.20(c) and EDCR 2.20(i).

9 EDCR 2.20(c) reads:

10 A party filing a motion must also serve with it a memorandum of points and 11 authorities in support of each ground thereof. The absence of such 12 memorandum may be construed as an admission that the motion is no
13 meritorious, as cause for its denial or as a waiver of all grounds not so 14 supported.

15 EDCR 2.20(i) reads, in pertinent part:

16 A memorandum which consists of bare citations to statutes, rules or case 17 authority does not comply with this rule and the court may decline to consider 18 it.

19 Although Mr. Arntz has written the title "POINTS AND AUTHORITIES" there actually 20 are none. Or, if his vague reference to "see" a few ethical rules is considered compliance with 21 EDCR 2.20(c), it certainly still violates EDCR 2.20(i). There is no indication about what those 22 rules read and no explanation about how they allegedly were violated. The court should deny 23 this frivolous motion for this reason alone.

1 B. The ethical rules Mr. Arntz cites do not provide authority to strike the motion that has 2 been filed. Mr. Tindall has been expressly authorized, pursuant to the insurance contract, to 3 defend Mr. Lewis in this lawsuit.

4 Mr. Arntz vaguely refers to NRPC 1.2, 1.4 and 3.3. None of those apply to the situation.

5 NRPC 1.2 has no provision that allows the court to strike the motion. It actually provides 6 authorization for me to represent Mr. Lewis. It reads, in pertinent part: "A lawyer may take such 7 action on behalf of the client as is impliedly authorized to carry out the representation." In this 8 case, the representation actually is EXPRESSLY authorized, however. The express authority is 9 the insurance contract into which Mr. Lewis entered. The pertinent provision is attached as 10 Exhibit B, which reads at [page 2, in Part I – LIABILITY, second paragraph: "We will defend 11 any suit or settle any claim for damages as we think appropriate." Of course, "We" is noted in 12 the definitions section to mean "the Company providing this insurance." The company 13 providing Mr. Lewis' insurance had duly retained me and Resnick & Louis, P.C. to defend the 14 suit and claim for damages.

15 NRPC 1.4 has no provision that allows the court to strike the motion. Further, as can be 16 seen from Exhibit C, Mr. Lewis has requested that I never contact him.

17 NRPC 3.3 address candor toward the tribunal. Mr. Arntz' motion does not set forth any 18 alleged violation of this rule.

3 81. Tindall has refused to comply and continues to violate ethical rules regarding 4 Gary Lewis.

6 82. Gary Lewis filed a bar complaint against Tindall, but State Actors Daniel Hooge
7 and Phil Pattee dismissed the complaint claiming they do not enforce the ethical rules if there is 8 litigation pending.

9 83. This is a false statement as Dave Stephens was investigated by this same state

11 84. The court herein signed an order granting intervention while still failing to sign 12 the judgment resolving the case.
13

14 85. UAIC, and each of the defendants, and each of the state actors, by acting in 15 concert, intended to accomplish an unlawful objective for the purpose of harming Gary Lewis.

OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO STRIKE

I.

Introduction

Here we are presented with odd circumstance of a party, Defendant Lewis, seeking to strike his own Motion. Even more strange is the fact that the Motion sought to be stricken is one that seeks relief for that same party (Lewis) from a multi-million dollar “amended judgment.” UAIC begs that this outlandish situation requires close scrutiny by this court. In short, to bring the Court up to speed, this is a very old case with many issues raised herein already on appeal before the United States Court of Appeal for the Ninth Circuit and, further, on a certified question to the Nevada Supreme Court. Specifically, it is currently before the Nevada Supreme Court on a certified question as to whether Plaintiff’s original judgment herein, from 2008, has expired as it was not renewed per statute in 2014. However, while this appellate issue was pending, Plaintiff filed an ex parte Motion earlier this year and “amended” the judgment. UAIC argues can only be seen as a clear attempt to try and fix their expired judgment and, potentially, circumvent the Appellate courts’ jurisdiction and forum shop. Regardless, when UAIC, the insurer for Mr. Lewis (per ruling of the U.S. District court for Nevada) sought to retain counsel to appear for Mr. Lewis and get relief from this “amended judgment”, they were met with demands and directives from Mr. Tom Christensen, Counsel for Plaintiff, who claimed to 1 represent Mr. Lewis (through assignment) and refused retained counsel from speaking with Mr.

 2 Lewis and forbade him from filing the pending Rule 60 Motion. Thereafter, new counsel retained
 3 for Lewis appeared and filed the pending Rule 60 Motion – seeking to vacate a multi-million
 4 dollar judgment – and, in response, Plaintiff’s Counsel (Tom Christensen) arranged for Mr.
 5 Arntz to also appear on Lewis’ behalf and file the instant Motion. Clearly, despite the 6 protestations of professional conduct rule violations by Plaintiff, this completely unsupported
 7 Motion only serves to advance Plaintiff’s (and her counsel, Tom Christensen’s) interests and not
 8 Mr. Lewis and, thus should be denied. Moreover, UAIC again raises the argument that this Court
 9 vacate the Amended judgment on its own authority and hold an evidentiary hearing for what 10 UAIC sees at a fraud upon the court.

12 Factual Background

13 This action was originally filed back in 2007 in regard to an automobile accident that 14 occurred in July 2007 between Cheyanne Nalder and Gary Lewis. Intervenor will not re-state the 15 entire history as it is adequately set forth in Order Certifying a Second Question to the Nevada
 16 Supreme Court by United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, which was filed on 17 January 11, 2018. A copy of the Order certifying the second question of law is attached hereto as
 18 Exhibit ‘A.’ Rather, the salient points are that Plaintiff’s “amended judgment”, entered recently
 19 in 2018, is premised on an original judgment which had been entered against Gary Lewis on 20 August 26, 2008. After obtaining the judgment, Counsel for Plaintiff¹ then filed an action against 21 Mr. Lewis’ insurer, United Automobile Insurance Company (“UAIC”), Intervenor herein.
 22 Despite the prohibition against direct actions against an insurer, Plaintiff failed to obtain an
 23 assignment prior to filing that action against UAIC and, only later, during the litigation obtained
 24 an assignment from Lewis.
 26
 27

28 ¹ At that time, in 2008, Ms. Nalder was a minor so the judgment was entered in favor of her through her Guardian Ad Litem and, father, James Nalder.

In any event, that action - on coverage for the 2008 judgment by Nalder against UAIC - has proceeded in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada and, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, since 2009. During the pendency of those appeals it was observed that Plaintiff had failed to renew her 2008 judgment against Lewis pursuant to Nevada law. Specifically, under N.R.S. 11.190(1)(a) the limitation for action to execute on such a judgment would be six (6) years, unless renewed under N.R.S. 17.214. Upon realizing the judgment had never been timely renewed, UAIC filed a Motion to Dismiss the Appeal for Lack of Standing with the Ninth Circuit on March 14, 2017. On December 27, 2017 the Ninth Circuit certified a second question to the Nevada Supreme Court - specifically certifying the following question:

“Under Nevada law, if a plaintiff has filed suit against an insurer seeking damages based on a separate judgment against its insured, does the insurer’s liability expire when the statute of limitations on the judgment runs, notwithstanding that the suit was filed within the six-year life of the judgment?”

See Exh. ‘A.’

On February 23, 2018 the Nevada Supreme Court issued an order accepting this second certified question and ordered Appellants to file their Opening brief within 30 days, or by March 26, 2018. A copy of the Order accepting the second certified question is attached hereto as Exhibit ‘B.’ In accepting the certified question, the Nevada Supreme Court rephrased the question as follows:

In an action against an insurer for breach of the duty to defend its insured, can the plaintiff continue to seek consequential damages in the amount of a default judgment obtained against the insured when the judgment against the insured was not renewed and the time for doing so expired while the action against the insurer was pending?

On August 2, Plaintiff (Appellant therein) filed her Opening Brief on this question and, UAIC has yet to file its Response Brief and, accordingly, the above-quoted question and, issue, remains pending before the Nevada Supreme Court.

1 Despite the above, in what appears to be a clear case of forum shopping, Plaintiff retained
 2 additional Counsel (Plaintiff's Counsel herein, David Stephens, Esq.) who filed an ex parte
 3 Motion on March 22, 2018 seeking, innocently enough, to "amend" the 2008 expired judgment
 4 to be in the name of Cheyenne Nalder individually. A copy of the Ex Parte Motion is attached
 5 hereto as Exhibit 'C.' Thereafter, the Court obviously not having been informed of the above-
 6 noted Nevada Supreme Court case, entered the amended judgment and same was filed with a 7 notice of entry on May 18, 2018. A copy of the filed Amended Judgment is attached hereto as 8 Exhibit 'D.'

10 Furthermore, Plaintiff then initiated a "new" action, under case no. A-18-772220-C² in a 11 thinly veiled attempt to have this Court rule on issues pending before the Nevada Supreme Court
 12 and "fix" their expired judgment. This intent appears clearly evidenced by paragraph five (5) of 13 Plaintiff's prayer for relief herein which states Plaintiff is seeking this Court to make "a 14 declaration that the statute of limitations on the judgment on the judgment is still tolled as a 15 result of Defendant's continued absence from the state." A copy of Plaintiff's Complaint for that 16 action is attached hereto as Exhibit 'E.' Plaintiff then apparently served Lewis and, on July 17, 17 2018, sent a letter to UAIC's counsel with a copy of a "three Day notice to Plead", and, as such,
 18 threatening default of Lewis on this "new" action. A copy of Plaintiff's letter and three day
 19 notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 'F.'

22 Upon learning of this "amended judgment" and "new" action and, given the United States
 23 District Court's ruling that Gary Lewis is an insured under an implied UAIC policy for the loss 24 belying these judgments and, present action, UAIC immediately sought to engage counsel to 25 appear on Lewis' behalf in the present action. A copy of the Judgment of the U.S. District Court
 26 finding coverage and implying an insurance policy is attached hereto as Exhibit 'G.' Following 27

28 ² This case is currently pending, but a new judge has not been assigned. UAIC has intervened in that case and filed a Motion to dismiss that action which is pending. Interestingly, Mr. Tom Christensen has now appeared in that case for Mr. Lewis and has filed a third party complaint.

retained defense Counsel's attempts to communicate with Mr. Lewis to defend him in this action and vacate this improper amendment to an expired judgment as well as defend in him in the newly filed action – retained defense counsel was sent a letter by Tom Christensen, Esq. – the Counsel for Plaintiff judgment-creditor in the above-referenced action and appeal – stating in no uncertain terms that Counsel could not communicate with Mr. Lewis, nor appear and defend him in this action and take action to get relief from this amended judgment. A copy of Tom Christensen's letter of August 13, 2018 is attached hereto as Exhibit 'H.'

Despite the apparent contradiction of counsel representing both the judgment-creditor and judgment-debtor in the same action, it is also clear that Mr. Christensen's letter has caused the need for UAIC to intervene in the present action. Moreover, it also creates the completely absurd situation we have now where counsel for Lewis, through Mr. Christensen, has filed a Motion to strike retained defense counsel's Motion for relief from judgment - a multi-million dollar judgment against his own client. As will be set forth in detail below, besides denying this Motion, we see an attempt of fraud upon the court which should not be countenanced and an evidentiary hearing should be held.

II.

ARGUMENT

A. Opposition to Motion to Strike

In short, Mr. Arntz, additional Counsel for Defendant Lewis' Motion to strike is improper, unsupported and, may be a fraud upon the Court. No case law whatsoever is supplied in support of the Motion. Instead there is an unverified allegation that Mr. Lewis does not want the amended judgment, for over $3.5 million dollars against him, vacated and citation to 3 rules of professional conduct. Despite the audacity of raising rules of professional conduct in this circumstance given Plaintiff's counsel's actions (noted herein), it also true these serve as no basis to grant the Motion. The fact is, UAIC has a duty to retain counsel to defend Lewis, per earlier

1 court rulings, and such Counsel has appeared and filed a Motion seeking to vacate this judgment
 2 and protect Lewis. Accordingly, said Motion for Relief from judgment is proper and, the Court
 3 should deny this Motion.

4 1. UAIC has a duty to defend Lewis and, accordingly, seek relief from this 'amended
 5 judgment' on his behalf.

6 As noted above, although UAIC initially contested coverage for Mr. Lewis, the Ninth
 7 Circuit and, then, the United States District Court, found an ambiguity in a renewal statement to 8 Lewis and, implied a policy of insurance covering the date of loss belying this "amended
 9 judgment." See Exh. "G." Accordingly, as of that 2013 ruling, UAIC was found to have a policy
 10 in effect and, an attendant duty to defend. Although Plaintiff and/or Lewis will undoubtedly 11 argue UAIC breached its duty to defend previously, in allowing the original judgment in 2007, 12 the fact remains UAIC's duty to defend was only established, at law, in 2013 and, thus, UAIC is 13 trying to comply with same here. The issues surrounding the emending of the 2008 judgment
 14 and, new suit filed, only arose this year and, thus, UAIC's duty to defend these new judgments
 15 and claims only arose now.

16
 17 It is axiomatic that a policy a liability insurance comes with a duty to defend and, that 18 same duty is broader than the duty to indemnify. United Nat'l Ins. Co. v. Frontier Ins. Co., 120
 19 Nev. 678 (2004). It is further well-settled in Nevada that when an insurer retains defense counsel 20 to defend its insured, same counsel represents both the insurer and insured and has duties to 21 both. Nev. Yellow Cab Corp. v. Eight Jud. Dist. Court of Nev., 123 Nev. 44 (2007). Such dual 22 representation is allowed as long as no actual conflict exists. Id.

23
 24 Accordingly, under the above noted case law, UAIC has a duty to defend this action on 25 Lewis' behalf – and attempt to relieve Lewis from this "amended judgment- and has retained 26 counsel to do just that.
 28

Moreover, in the case at bar, although Lewis (through Counsel) claims he does not wish to have the Motion filed or, the judgment vacated, there is no actual attestation from Mr. Lewis that this is his wish – much less that he has fully been advised of the potential consequences for not vacating the judgment. Furthermore, it is also true that there has been no showing that an actual conflict exists. Mr. Christensen, Counsel for Plaintiff, is seeking on the one hand to enforce an invalid judgment and, with the other, prevent anyone from contesting it – by representing both sides. This is the definition of a conflict of interest. After all, Plaintiff's is attempting to improperly "fix" an expired multi-million judgment, while at the same time Counsel for Plaintiff is also claiming to represent the judgment-debtor (Lewis) and advising retained counsel not to vacate the amended judgment. How could this possibly benefit Mr. Lewis? Is having a multi-million dollar judgment against him which had expired be resurrected by an improper amendment of the judgment to his benefit? Is preventing anyone from vacating or setting aside this improper amended judgment to his benefit? In short, it does not – it only benefits Plaintiff and her counsel. UAIC argues these questions underline the argument that there is no actual conflict here anyway and, thus, again, this Motion should be denied.

2. The Rules of professional conduct cited offer no basis to strike the Motion and, rules of professional conduct 1.7 and 1.8 appear to be violated by Plaintiff's Counsel.

Although allegedly claiming Mr. Tindall's Motion, on Mr. Lewis' behalf, violates N.R.C.P. 1.2, 1.4 and 3.3, the Motion offers absolutely no support that same would serve as a basis to strike the Motion for Relief from Judgment. Indeed, it appears hypocritical for Counsel retained for Lewis by Mr. Christensen to lodge such allegations when Mr. Christensen appears to be in violation of N.R.P.C. 1.7 and 1.8 given his clear conflict of interest in representing both the judgment-creditor and judgment-debtor. Accordingly, overall, these purported issues serve as no basis for this Motion and same should be denied.

In any event, each rule can be examined, as follows:

Rule 1.2. Scope of Representation and Allocation of Authority Between Client and Lawyer.

(a) Subject to paragraphs (c) and (d), a lawyer shall abide by a client's decision concerning the objectives of representation and, as required by Rule 1.4, shall consult with the client as to the means by which they are to be pursued. A lawyer may take such action on behalf of the client as is impliedly authorized to carry out the representation. A lawyer shall abide by a client's decision whether to settle a matter. In a criminal case, the lawyer shall abide by the client's decision, after consultation with the lawyer, as to a plea to be entered, whether to waive jury trial and whether the client will testify.

(b) A lawyer's representation of a client, including representation by appointment, does not constitute an endorsement of the client's political, economic, social or moral views or activities.

(c) A lawyer may limit the scope of the representation if the limitation is reasonable under the circumstances and the client gives informed consent.

(d) A lawyer shall not counsel a client to engage, or assist a client, in conduct that the lawyer knows is criminal or fraudulent, but a lawyer may discuss the legal consequences of any proposed course of conduct with a client and may counsel or assist a client to make a good faith effort to determine the validity, scope, meaning or application of the law.

In regards to N.R.P.C. 1.2, although not flushed out in any detail, it seems the Motion is attempting to suggest Mr. Tindall is not abiding by the client's decision or, has not consulted with Mr. Lewis, in advancing a Motion to relieve him from a multi-million dollar judgment that, per Plaintiff's counsel and, now Mr. Arntz, Lewis does not want filed. First, it must be pointed out that in regards to consulting with Mr. Lewis – Mr. Christensen has forbade communication – in obvious attempt to manufacture this alleged violation. As such, this cannot serve as a violation. Finally, and most importantly, as noted above, Nevada law in this situation (insurer retained counsel) provides for dual representation. Nev. Yellow Cab Corp. v Eight Jud. Dist. Court of Nev., 123 Nev. 44 (2007). This scenario is contemplated in the rule, in section (a), where it states "A lawyer may take such action on behalf of the client as is impliedly authorized to carry out the representation". As such, there is no violation.

Rule 1.4. Communication.

(a) A lawyer shall:

(1) Promptly inform the client of any decision or circumstance with respect to which the client's informed consent is required by these Rules;

(2) Reasonably consult with the client about the means by which the client's objectives are to be accomplished;

(3) Keep the client reasonably informed about the status of the matter;

(4) Promptly comply with reasonable requests for information; and

(5) Consult with the client about any relevant limitation on the lawyer's conduct when the lawyer knows that the client expects assistance not permitted by the Rules of Professional Conduct or other law.

(b) A lawyer shall explain a matter to the extent reasonably necessary to permit the client to make informed decisions regarding the representation.

(c) Lawyer's Biographical Data Form. Each lawyer or law firm shall have available in written form to be provided upon request of the State Bar or a client or prospective client a factual statement detailing the background, training and experience of each lawyer or law firm.

(1) The form shall be known as the "Lawyer's Biographical Data Form" and shall contain the following fields of information:

- (i) Full name and business address of the lawyer.
- (ii) Date and jurisdiction of initial admission to practice.
- (iii) Date and jurisdiction of each subsequent admission to practice.
- (iv) Name of law school and year of graduation.
- (v) The areas of specialization in which the lawyer is entitled to hold himself or herself out as a specialist under the provisions of Rule 7.4.
- (vi) Any and all disciplinary sanctions imposed by any jurisdiction and/or court, whether or not the lawyer is licensed to practice law in that jurisdiction and/or court. For purposes of this Rule, disciplinary sanctions include all private reprimands imposed after March 1, 2007, and any and all public discipline imposed, regardless of the date of the imposition.

(vii) If the lawyer is engaged in the private practice of law, whether the lawyer maintains professional liability insurance, and if the lawyer maintains a policy, the name and address of the carrier.

(2) Upon request, each lawyer or law firm shall provide the following additional information detailing the background, training and experience of each lawyer or law firm, including but not limited to:

(i) Names and dates of any legal articles or treatises published by the lawyer, and the name of the publication in which they were published.

(ii) A good faith estimate of the number of jury trials tried to a verdict by the lawyer to the present date, identifying the court or courts.

(iii) A good faith estimate of the number of court (bench) trials tried to a judgment by the lawyer to the present date, identifying the court or courts.

(iv) A good faith estimate of the number of administrative hearings tried to a conclusion by the lawyer, identifying the administrative agency or agencies.

(v) A good faith estimate of the number of appellate cases argued to a court of appeals or a supreme court, in which the lawyer was responsible for writing the brief or orally arguing the case, identifying the court or courts.

(vi) The professional activities of the lawyer consisting of teaching or lecturing.

(vii) The names of any volunteer or charitable organizations to which the lawyer belongs, which the lawyer desires to publish.

(viii) A description of bar activities such as elective or assigned committee positions in a recognized bar organization.

(3) A lawyer or law firm that advertises or promotes services by written communication not involving solicitation as prohibited by Rule 7.3 shall enclose with each such written communication the information described in paragraph (c)(1)(i) through (v) of this Rule.

(4) A copy of all information provided pursuant to this Rule shall be retained by the lawyer or law firm for a period of 3 years after last regular use of the information.

[Added; effective May 1, 2006; as amended; effective November 21, 2008.]

In regards to N.R.P.C. 1.4, again not flushed out in any detail, it seems the Motion is attempting to suggest Mr. Tindall is not communicating or, consulting, with Mr. Lewis, in advancing a Motion to relieve him from a multi-million dollar judgment. Again, it must be pointed out that in regards to consulting with Mr. Lewis – Mr. Christensen has forbade communication – in obvious attempt to manufacture this alleged violation. As such, this cannot serve as a violation.

Rule 3.3. Candor Toward the Tribunal.

(a) A lawyer shall not knowingly:

(1) Make a false statement of fact or law to a tribunal or fail to correct a false statement of material fact or law previously made to the tribunal by the lawyer;

(2) Fail to disclose to the tribunal legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction known to the lawyer to be directly adverse to the position of the client and not disclosed by opposing counsel; or

(3) Offer evidence that the lawyer knows to be false. If a lawyer, the lawyer's client, or a witness called by the lawyer, has offered material evidence and the lawyer comes to know of its falsity, the lawyer shall take reasonable remedial measures, including, if necessary, disclosure to the tribunal. A lawyer may refuse to offer evidence, other than the testimony of a defendant in a criminal matter, that the lawyer reasonably believes is false.

(b) A lawyer who represents a client in an adjudicative proceeding and who knows that a person intends to engage, is engaging or has engaged in criminal or fraudulent conduct related to the proceeding shall take reasonable remedial measures, including, if necessary, disclosure to the tribunal.

(c) The duties stated in paragraphs (a) and (b) continue to the conclusion of the proceeding, and apply even if compliance requires disclosure of information otherwise protected by Rule 1.6.

(d) In an ex parte proceeding, a lawyer shall inform the tribunal of all material facts known to the lawyer that will enable the tribunal to make an informed decision, whether or not the facts are adverse.

[Added; effective May 1, 2006.]

In regard to N.R.C.P. 3.3 which, again, the Motion fails to explain exactly what the alleged violation is in regards to, it would seem that the Motion is alleging Mr. Tindall has somehow made a false statement, under sub-paragraph (a)(1) to the Court by filing the Motion Plaintiff's Counsel and, Mr. Arntz, claim he does not want filed. However, as noted above, Nevada law in this situation (insurer retained counsel) provides for dual representation as boted above. Nev. Yellow Cab Corp. v Eight Jud. Dist. Court of Nev., 123 Nev. 44 (2007).

For all of the above, these cursory allegations of violations of the rules of professional conduct are baseless and, serve as no basis to strike the Motion anyway and, thus, the Motion should be denied.

B. Counter-Motion for Evidentiary Hearing on a Fraud upon the Court and/or set aside amended judgment on the Court's own Motion.

Additionally, UAIC argues that the circumstances set forth above also offer grounds for this Court to hold a hearing on attempt to perpetrate a fraud upon the court. That is, the clear conflict of interest by Plaintiff. As noted above, Plaintiff is represented by Mr. Christensen. Mr. Christensen also purports to be counsel for Lewis and has informed UAIC's first retained counsel for Lewis that he may not appear and attempt to vacate this judgment. Now, counsel retained by UAIC for Lewis files a Motion for Relief from this 'amended judgment', Counsel secured by Mr. Christensen for Lewis, Mr. Arntz, files a Motion to Strike claiming Lewis does not want this multi-million dollar judgment vacated. So, per Plaintiff, UAIC's retained defense counsel cannot move to vacate this amended judgment which would benefit Plaintiff. This is clearly an attempt at a fraud upon the court solely to benefit Plaintiff and her counsel - and same should not be tolerated.³

In NC-DSH, Inc. v Garner, 125 Nev. 647 (2009) the Nevada Supreme Court set forth the definition of a fraud upon the Court in considering motion for relief from judgment under NRCp 60. In NC-DSH, Inc. the lawyer for a plaintiff's malpractice case forged settlement documents and disappeared with the settlement funds. Id. In allowing the Plaintiff's Rule 60 motion to set aside the dismissal (and settlement) the Court set forth the following definition for such a fraud, as follows:

"The most widely accepted definition, which we adopt, holds that the concept embrace[s] only that species of fraud which does, or attempts to, subvert the integrity of the court itself, or is a fraud perpetrated by officers of the court so that the judicial machinery cannot perform in the usual manner its impartial task of adjudging cases ... and relief should be denied in the absence of such conduct.

Id. at 654.

In the case at bar it seems clear that Plaintiff's counsel (Mr. Christensen) is attempting just such a fraud. That is, besides the original judgment being expired and, the effect of its expiration on appeal before both the Nevada Supreme Court and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, Plaintiff still attempted this 'amendment of judgment'. Moreover, Mr. Christensen (Plaintiff's additional Counsel) represents both the judgment-creditor and judgment-debtor. Further, in his role as counsel for Plaintiff and Defendant, Mr. Christensen is attempting, as an officer of the court, to prevent UAIC from exercising its contractual and legal duty to defend Mr. Lewis and vacate this farce of a judgment by telling UAIC's first retained counsel to not file the motion for relief from this judgment. Additionally, Plaintiff is now seeking to strike the Motion of new retained counsel for Lewis seeking relief from this judgment. UAIC pleads this clearly a fraud perpetrated by officers of the court so that the judicial machinery cannot perform in the usual manner its impartial task of adjudging cases. In other words, Mr. Christensen, Counsel for Plaintiff, is seeking on the one hand to enforce an invalid judgment and, with the other, prevent anyone from contesting it – by representing both sides. This is the definition of a conflict of interest. After all, Plaintiff's is attempting to improperly "fix" an expired multi-million judgment, while at the same time Counsel for Plaintiff is also claiming to represent the judgment-debtor (Lewis) and advising retained counsel not to vacate the amended judgment. How could this possibly benefit Mr. Lewis? Is having a multi-million dollar judgment against him which had expired be resurrected by an improper amendment of the judgment to his benefit? Is preventing anyone from vacating or setting aside this improper amended judgment to his benefit? In short, it does not – it only benefits Plaintiff and her counsel. UAIC argues this is clear fraud and collusive conduct and, at the very least, the Court should therefore exercise its equitable power and allow UAIC's intervention and, thereafter, hold an evidentiary hearing on this fraud.

UAIC further pleads, in the alternative, that this Court vacate the 2018 "amended judgment" on its own Motion given the clear fraud that appears to have been perpetrated and is set forth herein. As this Court is aware, District Courts have the inherent power to set aside judgments procured by extrinsic fraud. Lauer v District Court, 62 Nev. 78, 140 P.2d 953. In the case at bar the potential extrinsic fraud abounds. Besides the inherent conflict of interest of Plaintiff's Counsel, it also true that Plaintiff failed to advise this court that 1) the 2008 judgment had expired and, 2) that the issue over the effect of same expired judgment was before both the Nevada Supreme Court and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit when it filed its ex parte Motion to amend this judgment. Extrinsic fraud is usually found when conduct prevents a real trial on the issues or, prevents the losing party from having a fair opportunity of presenting his/her defenses. Murphy v Murphy, 65 Nev. 264 (1948). The Court may vacate or set aside a

1 judgment under Rule 60 on its own Motion. A-Mark Coin Co. v. Estate of Redfield, 94 Nev. 495
 2 (1978).

3 Given the fairly egregious attempt to prevent UAIC, or Counsel retained on Lewis'
 4 behalf, from vacating the improper attempt to amend an expired judgment, when such judgment
 5 was procured without notice, while these issues were on appeal and, with Plaintiff's counsel
 6 representing both sides – UAIC pleads with this Court to exercise its own discretion and 7 authority to vacate the amended judgment based on all of the above.

9 III.

10 CONCLUSION

11 Based on the foregoing, UAIC asks this Court to deny Defendant's Motion to Strike.
 12 Further, and additionally, that this court grant UAIC's Counter-Motion and hold an evidentiary 13 hearing on the potential fraud upon the court or, alternatively, that this court exercise its inherent 14 authority and discretion to vacate or set aside the improperly obtained amended judgment for the 15 reasons set forth above.

SUMMARY

Certified Question to Nevada Supreme Court

The panel certified the following question of law to the Nevada Supreme Court:

Under Nevada law, if a plaintiff has filed suit against an insurer seeking damages based on a separate judgment against its insured, does the insurer's liability expire when the statute of limitations on the judgment runs, notwithstanding that the suit was filed within the six-year life of the judgment?

Plaintiffs-appellants, James Nalder, guardian ad litem for Cheyanne Nalder, and Gary Lewis will be the appellants before the Nevada Supreme Court. Defendant-appellee, United Automobile Insurance Company ("UAIC"), a Florida corporation with its principal place of business in Florida, will be the respondent.

The names and addresses of counsel for the parties are as follows:

Thomas Christensen, Christensen Law Offices, LLC, 1000 South Valley View Boulevard, Las Vegas, Nevada 89107, and Dennis M. Prince, Eglet Prince, 400 South Seventh Street, Suite 400, Las Vegas, Nevada 89101, for appellants.

Thomas E. Winner, Susan M. Sherrod and Matthew J. Douglas, Atkin Winner & Sherrod, 1117 South Rancho Drive, Las Vegas, Nevada 89102, for respondent.

II

The question of law to be answered is:

Under Nevada law, if a plaintiff has filed suit against an insurer seeking damages based on a separate judgment against its insured, does the insurer's liability expire when the statute of limitations on the judgment runs, notwithstanding that the suit was filed within the six-year life of the judgment?

The Nevada Supreme Court may rephrase the question as it deems necessary.

This is the second order in this case certifying a question to the Nevada Supreme Court. We recount the facts essentially as in the first order.

On July 8, 2007, Gary Lewis ran over Cheyanne Nalder. Lewis had taken out an auto insurance policy with UAIC, which was renewable on a monthly basis. Before the accident, Lewis had received a statement instructing him that his renewal payment was due by June 30, 2007. The statement also specified that "[t]o avoid lapse in coverage, payment must be received prior to expiration of your policy." The statement listed June 30, 2007, as the policy's effective date and July 31, 2007, as its expiration date. Lewis did not pay to renew his policy until July 10, 2007, two days after the accident.

James Nalder ("Nalder"), Cheyanne's father, made an offer to UAIC to settle her claim for $15,000, the policy limit. UAIC rejected the offer, arguing Lewis was not covered at the time of the accident because he did not renew the policy by June 30. UAIC never informed Lewis that Nalder was willing to settle.

Nalder sued Lewis in Nevada state court and obtained a $3.5 million default judgment. Nalder and Lewis then filed the instant suit against UAIC in state court, which UAIC removed to federal court. Nalder and Lewis alleged breach of contract, breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, bad faith, fraud, and breach of section 686A.310 of the Nevada Revised Statutes. UAIC moved for summary judgment on the basis that Lewis had no insurance coverage on the date of the accident. Nalder and Lewis argued that Lewis was covered on the date of the accident because the renewal notice was ambiguous as to when payment had to be received to avoid a lapse in coverage, and that this ambiguity had to be construed in favor of the insured. The district court found that the contract could not be reasonably interpreted in favor of Nalder and Lewis's argument and granted summary judgment in favor of UAIC.

We held that summary judgment "with respect to whether there was coverage" was improper because the "[p]laintiffs came forward with facts supporting their tenable legal position." Nalder v. United Auto. Ins. Co., 500 F. App'x 701, 702 (9th Cir. 2012). But we affirmed "[t]he portion of the order granting summary judgment with respect to the [Nevada] statutory arguments." Id.

On remand, the district court granted partial summary judgment to each party. First, the court found the renewal statement ambiguous, so it construed this ambiguity against UAIC by finding that Lewis was covered on the date of the accident. Second, the court found that UAIC did not act in bad faith because it had a reasonable basis to dispute coverage. Third, the court found that UAIC breached its duty to defend Lewis but awarded no damages "because [Lewis] did not incur any fees or costs in defending the underlying action” as he took a default judgment. The court ordered UAIC “to pay Cheyanne Nalder the policy limits on Gary Lewis’s implied insurance policy at the time of the accident.” Nalder and Lewis appeal.

Nalder and Lewis claim on appeal that they should have been awarded consequential and compensatory damages resulting from the Nevada state court judgment because UAIC breached its duty to defend. Thus, assuming that UAIC did not act in bad faith but did breach its duty to defend Lewis, one question before us is how to calculate the damages that should be awarded. Nalder and Lewis claim they should have been awarded the amount of the default judgment ($3.5 million) because, in their view, UAIC’s failure to defend Lewis was the proximate cause of the judgment against him. The district court, however, denied damages because Lewis chose not to defend and thus incurred no attorneys’ fees or costs. Because there was no clear state law and the district court’s opinion in this case conflicted with another decision by the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada on the question of whether liability for breach of the duty to defend included all losses consequential to an insurer’s breach, we certified that question to the Nevada Supreme Court in an order dated June 1, 2016. In that order, we also stayed proceedings in this court pending resolution of the certified question by the Nevada Supreme Court.

After that certified question had been fully briefed before the Nevada Supreme Court, but before any ruling or oral argument, UAIC moved this court to dismiss the appeal for lack of standing. UAIC argues that the six-year life of the default judgment had run and that the judgment had not been renewed, so the judgment is no longer enforceable. Therefore, UAIC contends, there are no longer any damages above the policy limit that Nalder and Lewis can seek because the judgment that forms the basis for those damages has lapsed. For that reason, UAIC argues that the issue on appeal is moot because there is no longer any basis to seek damages above the policy limit, which the district court already awarded.

In a notice filed June 13, 2017, the Nevada Supreme Court stayed consideration of the question already certified in this case until we ruled on the motion to dismiss now pending before us.

IV

In support of its motion to dismiss, UAIC argues that under Nev. Rev. Stat. § 11.190(1)(a), the six-year statute of limitations during which Nalder could enforce his default judgment against Lewis expired on August 26, 2014, and Nalder did not renew the judgment. Therefore, says UAIC, the default judgment has lapsed, and because it is no longer enforceable, it no longer constitutes an injury for which Lewis or Nalder may seek damages from UAIC.

In response, Nalder and Lewis do not contest that the six-year period of the statute of limitations has passed and that they have failed to renew the judgment, but they argue that UAIC is wrong that the issue of consequential damages is mooted. First, they make a procedural argument that a lapse in the default judgment, if any, may affect the amount of damages but does not affect liability, so the issue is inappropriate to address on appeal before the district court has evaluated the effect on damages. Second, they argue that their suit against UAIC is itself “an action upon” the default judgment under the terms of Nev. Rev. Stat. § 11.190(1)(a) and that because it was filed within the six-year life of the judgment it is timely. In support of this argument, they point out that UAIC has already paid out more than $90,000 in this case, which, they say, acknowledges the validity of the underlying judgment and that this suit is an enforcement action upon it.

Neither side can point to Nevada law that definitively answers the question of whether plaintiffs may still recover consequential damages based on the default judgment when six years passed during the pendency of this suit. Nalder and Lewis reach into the annals of Nevada case law to find an opinion observing that at common law “a judgment creditor may enforce his judgment by the process of the court in which he obtained it, or he may elect to use the judgment, as an original cause of action; and bring suit thereon, and prosecute such suit to final judgment.” Mandlebaum v. Gregovich, 50 P. 849, 851 (Nev. 1897); see also Leven v. Frey, 168 P.3d 712, 715 (Nev. 2007) (“An action on a judgment or its renewal must be commenced within six years.” (emphasis added)). They suggest they are doing just this, “us[ing] the judgment, as an original cause of action,” to recover from UAIC. But that precedent does not resolve whether a suit against an insurer who was not a party to the default judgment is, under Nevada law, an “action on” that judgment.

UAIC does no better. It also points to Leven for the proposition that the Nevada Supreme Court has strictly construed the requirements to renew a judgment. See Leven, 168 P.3d at 719. Be that as it may, Nalder and Lewis do not rely on any laxity in the renewal requirements and argue instead that the instant suit is itself a timely action upon the judgment that obviates any need for renewal. UAIC also points to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 21.010, which provides that “the party in whose favor judgment is given may, at any time before the judgment expires, obtain the issuance of a writ of execution for its enforcement as prescribed in this chapter. The writ ceases to be effective when the judgment expires.” That provision, however, does not resolve this case because Nalder and Lewis are not enforcing a writ of execution, which is a direction to a sheriff to satisfy a judgment. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 21.020.

Finally, apart from Nalder and Lewis’s argument that it is inappropriate to address on appeal the effect of the statute of limitations on the size of damages they may collect, neither side squarely addresses whether the expiration of the judgment in fact reduces the consequential damages for UAIC’s breach of the duty to defend. Does the judgment’s expiration during the pendency of the suit reduce the consequential damages to zero as UAIC implies, or should the damages be calculated based on when the default judgment was still enforceable, as it was when the suit was initiated? Neither side provides Nevada law to answer the question, nor have we discovered it.

It appears to this court that there is no controlling precedent of the Nevada Supreme Court or the Nevada Court of Appeals with regard to the issue of Nevada law raised by the motion to dismiss. We thus request the Nevada Supreme Court accept and decide the certified question. “The written opinion of the [Nevada] Supreme Court stating the law governing the question[] certified . . . shall be res judicata as to the parties." Nev. R. App. P. 5(h).

If the Nevada Supreme Court accepts this additional certified question, it may resolve the two certified questions in any order it sees fit, because Nalder and Lewis must prevail on both questions in order to recover consequential damages based on the default judgment for breach of the duty to defend.

The clerk of this court shall forward a copy of this order, under official seal, to the Nevada Supreme Court, along with copies of all briefs and excerpts of record that have been filed with this court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Respectfully submitted, Diarmuid F. O'Scanlain and William A. Fletcher, Circuit Judges.

CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER ACCEPTING SECOND CERTIFIED QUESTION AND DIRECTING SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING

The United States Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals previously certified a legal question to this court under NRAP 5, asking us to answer the following question:

Whether, under Nevada law, the liability of an insurer that has breached its duty to defend, but has not acted in bad faith, is capped at the policy limit plus any costs incurred by the insured in mounting a defense, or is the insurer liable for all losses consequential to the insurer's breach?

Because no clearly controlling Nevada precedent answers that legal question and the answer could determine part of the federal case, we accepted that certified question and directed the parties to file briefs addressing that question. After briefing had been completed, respondent United Automobile Insurance Company informed this court that it had filed a motion to dismiss in the federal case. We then stayed our consideration of the certified question because a decision by the Ninth Circuit granting the motion to dismiss would render the question before this court advisory.

The Ninth Circuit has now certified another legal question to this court under NRAP 5. The new question, which is related to the motion to dismiss pending in the Ninth Circuit, asks us to answer the following:

Under Nevada law, if a plaintiff has filed suit against an insurer seeking damages based on a separate judgment against its insured, does the insurer's liability expire when the statute of limitations on the judgment runs, notwithstanding that the suit was filed within the six-year life of the judgment?

That question is focused on the insurer's liability, but elsewhere in the Ninth Circuit's certification order, it makes clear that the court is concerned with whether the plaintiff in this scenario can continue to seek the amount of the separate judgment against the insured as consequential damages caused by the insurer's breach of the duty to defend its insured when the separate judgment was not renewed as contemplated by NRS 11.190(1)(a) and NRS 17.214 during the pendency of the action against the insurer. We therefore choose to accept the Ninth Circuit's invitation to "rephrase the question as [we] deem necessary." Consistent with language that appears elsewhere in the certification order, we rephrase the question as follows:

In an action against an insurer for breach of the duty to defend its insured, can the plaintiff continue to seek consequential damages in the amount of a default judgment obtained against the insured when the judgment against the insured was not renewed and the time for doing so expired while the action against the insurer was pending?

As no clearly controlling Nevada precedent answers this legal question and the answer may determine the federal case, we accept this certified question as rephrased. See NRAP 5(a); Volvo Cars of N. Am., Inc. v. Ricci, 122 Nev. 746, 749-51, 137 P.3d 1161, 1163-64 (2006).

Appellants shall have 30 days from the date of this order to file and serve a supplemental opening brief. Respondent shall have 30 days from the date the supplemental opening brief is served to file and serve a supplemental answering brief. Appellants shall then have 20 days from the date the supplemental answering brief is served to file and serve any supplemental reply brief. The supplemental briefs shall be limited to addressing the second certified question and shall comply with NRAP 28, 28.2, 31(c), and 32. See NRAP 5(g)(2). To the extent that there are portions of the record that have not already been provided to this court and are necessary for this court to resolve the second certified question, the parties may submit a joint appendix containing those additional documents. See NRAP 5(d). Given the relationship between the two certified questions, we lift the stay as to the first certified question.

It is so ORDERED.¹

DISTRICT OF

Nevada

Nalder et al.,

Plaintiffs,

JUDGMENT IN A CIVIL CASE

V.

United Automobile Insurance Company,

Case Number: 2:09-cv-01348-RCJ-GWF

Defendant.

☐ Jury Verdict. This action came before the Court for a trial by jury. The issues have been tried and the jury has rendered its verdict.

☒ Decision by Court. This action came to trial or hearing before the Court. The issues have been tried or heard and a decision has been rendered.

☐ Notice of Acceptance with Offer of Judgment. A notice of acceptance with offer of judgment has been filed in this case.

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED

The Court grants summary judgment in favor of Nalder and finds that the insurance renewal statement contained an ambiguity and, thus, the statement is construed in favor of coverage during the time of the accident. The Court denies summary judgment on Nalder's remaining bad-faith claims.

The Court grants summary judgment on all extra-contractual claims and/or bad faith claims in favor of Defendant. The Court directs Defendant to pay Cheyanne Nalder the policy limits on Gary Lewis's implied insurance policy at the time of the accident.

Re: Gary Lewis

Dear Stephen:

I am in receipt of your letter dated Friday, August 10, 2018. I was disappointed that you have chosen to disregard my request that you communicate with me and not directly with my client. You say you have "been retained to defend Mr. Lewis with regard to Ms. Nalder's 2018 actions." Would you be so kind as to provide me with all communications written or verbal or notes of communications you have had with UAIC, their attorneys and/or Mr. Lewis from your first contact regarding this matter to the present?

Please confirm that UAIC seeks now to honor the insurance contract with Mr. Lewis and provide a defense for him and pay any judgment that may result? This is the first indication I am aware of where UAIC seeks to defend Mr. Lewis. I repeat, please do not take any actions, including requesting more time or filing anything on behalf of Mr. Lewis without first getting authority from Mr. Lewis through me. Please only communicate through this office with Mr. Lewis. If you have already filed something or requested an extension without written authority from Mr. Lewis, he requests that you immediately reverse that action. Please also only communicate with UAIC that any attempt by them to hire any other attorneys to take action on behalf of Mr. Lewis must include notice to those attorneys that they must first get Mr. Lewis' consent through my office before taking any action including requesting extensions of time or filing any pleadings on his behalf.

Regarding your statement that Mr. Lewis would not be any worse off if you should lose your motions. That is not correct. We agree that the validity of the judgment is unimportant at this stage of the claims handling case. UAIC, however, is arguing that Mr. Lewis' claims handling case should be dismissed because they claim the judgment is not valid. If you interpose an insufficient improper defense that delays the inevitable entry of judgment against Mr. Lewis and the Ninth Circuit dismisses the appeal then Mr. Lewis will have a judgment against him and no claim against UAIC. In addition, you will cause additional damages and expense to both parties for which, ultimately, Mr. Lewis would be responsible.

www.injuryhelpnow.com

Could you be mistaken about your statement that "the original Judgment expired and cannot be revived?" I will ask your comment on just one legal concept -- Mr. Lewis' absence from the state. There are others but this one is sufficient on its own. There are three statutes applicable to this narrow issue: NRS 11.190; NRS 11.300 and NRS 17.214.

NRS 11.190 Periods of limitation. ... actions .. may only be commenced as follows:

1. Within 6 years:

(a) ... an action upon a judgment or decree of any court of the United States, or of any state or territory within the United States, or the renewal thereof.

NRS 11.300 Absence from State suspends running of statute. If, ... after the cause of action shall have accrued the person (defendant) departs from the State, the time of the absence shall not be part of the time prescribed for the commencement of the action.

NRS 17.214 Filing and contents of affidavit; recording affidavit; notice to judgment debtor; successive affidavits.

1. A judgment creditor or a judgment creditor's successor in interest may renew a judgment which has not been paid by:

(a) Filing an affidavit with the clerk of the court where the judgment is entered and docketed, within 90 days before the date the judgment expires by limitation.

These statutes make it clear that both an action on the judgment or an optional renewal is still available through today because Mr. Lewis has been in California since late 2008. If you have case law from Nevada contrary to the clear language of these statutes please share it with me so that I may review it and discuss it with my client.

Your prompt attention is appreciated. Mr. Lewis does not wish you to file any motions until and unless he is convinced that they will benefit Mr. Lewis -- not harm him and benefit UAIC. Mr. Lewis would like all your communications to go through my office. He does not wish to have you copy him on correspondence with my office. Please do not communicate directly with Mr. Lewis.

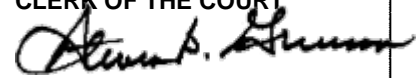

Very truly yours,

Tommy Christensen

6. on October 24, 2018, for a hearing, Additional Counsel for Gary Lewis in Case No. A-18-772220-C, Thomas Christensen, Esq., asked the Court to recuse itself for what Counsel perceived as a conflict.
7. At that time, Judge Jones recused himself on both cases and the matters were sent to the Clerk to be re-assigned and, thereafter, on October 29, 2018, the Clerk randomly re-assigned this action to this Department, but re-assigned Case No. A-18-772220-C to Department 1. However, following a challenge, Case No. A-18-772220-C was then re-assigned to Department 19, Judge Kephart, on October 31, 2018 and, accordingly, these to cases are proceeding in different Departments.

1 expired and, was not renewed prior to the loss. The Federal District Court judge hearing
2 that case agreed with UAIC and granted summary judgment. Plaintiff appealed to the 3 Ninth Circuit and that court found an ambiguity in the renewal statement and 4 remanded. Back in the district Court, on subsequent cross-Motions for summary
5 judgment, the Court found that, due to the ambiguity in the renewal, the Court implied
6 a policy at law as between UAIC and Lewis for the July 2007 loss – however, the Court
7 also specifically found no bad faith on the part of UAIC as they had issued a reasonable 8 denial. UAIC paid its applicable $15,000 to Nalder, plus her attorney’s fees of nearly 9 $90,000.00.

11 15. Plaintiff, however, appealed to the Ninth Circuit again, claiming, among other things, 12 that UAIC owed them the 2008 default judgment (for $3.5 million) as a consequential 13 damage of their breach of the duty to defend and, the Ninth Circuit certified this 14 question to the Nevada Supreme Court. While that matter was pending before the 15 Nevada Supreme Court UAIC noticed that Plaintiff had failed to renew the 2008
16 judgment against Lewis in 2014 and, thus, moved to dismiss the appeal as the judgment
17 had expired. The Ninth Circuit then certified that issue to the Nevada Supreme Court, 18 where it remains pending.

20 16. While Plaintiff’s other counsel in the appeals moved for extensions to file their brief 21 earlier this year, Plaintiff here filed her ex-parte motion to “amend the judgment” in 22 March 2018 in this case. Thereafter, Plaintiff then filed a “new” action against Lewis in 23 Case No. A-18-7722220-C.

25 17. As this Court can see, both actions involve the same parties, for issues regarding 26 damages for the same loss and, indeed, regarding issues of the legitimacy of the 27 judgment in this case.
28

18. The cases that are the subject of Intervenor's Motion to Consolidate are both at appropriate stages of litigation to accommodate consolidation as both have dispositive motions pending – for similar issues – that have not been ruled upon.
19. Judicial economic efficiency requires these matters to be consolidated.
20. No prejudice will come to any party if these matters are consolidated at this time.
21. Intervenor's Motion to Consolidate is brought for good cause and not for purposes of unnecessary delay.

Further Affiant Sayeth Naught.

GOOD CAUSE EXISTS FOR AN ORDER SHORTENING TIME

The grounds necessitating the present Motion to Shorten time relate to the timing of the first motion hearing in Case No. A-18-7722220-C, which is currently set for November 8, 2018. Time is of the essence and thus an Order Shortening Time is appropriate.

LR IA 6-1 governs Orders Shortening Time states that:

(a) A motion or stipulation to extend time must state the reasons for the extension requested and must inform the court of all previous extensions of the subject deadline the court granted.

1 In the present matter the reasons for the Order are set forth and this is the first such 2 request for an Order shortening time. No other previous extensions have been sought.

4 For all of the above reasons, an Order Shortening Time is necessary and this Motion
5 should be granted.

7 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES FOR MOTION TO 8 CONSOLIDATE

9 I.

10 INTRODUCTION

11 Both of the cases that are the subject of this Motion to Consolidate (Case No.
12 07A549111, and Case No. A-18-772220-C, hereinafter as “subject cases”) involve the same
13 vehicle versus pedestrian accident, which occurred on July 8, 2007, in Pioche, Nevada.
14 (hereinafter, “subject accident”).² The Plaintiff in both cases is the same, Cheyanne Nalder. The 15 Defendant in both cases is the same, Gary Lewis. The damages sought are the same in both 16 cases, namely a $3.5 million default judgment, plus interest.
17

18 Additionally, as noted herein, some of the issues in both cases are presently on appeal
19 before the Nevada Supreme Court, in James Nalder, Guardian ad Litem on behalf of Cheyanne
20 Nalder; and Gary Lewis v United Automobile Insurance Co., case number 70504 and, in the U.S.
21 Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit under case no. No. 13-17441. Accordingly, given that 22 there are the same parties in an ongoing appeal dealing many of the same issues herein, further 23 good cause is shown that these actions proceed in one court herein.
24

25 No parties to either case will be prejudiced by consolidation. Moreover, because these 26 cases involve the exact same motor vehicle accident, the exact same parties and, indeed, the 27

28 ² See Affidavit of Blake A. Doerr, ¶ 4-5, attached hereto.

1 same damages and issues, judicial economy will be served by the consolidation.

2 II.

3 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

4 This action was originally filed back in 2007 in regard to an automobile accident that
 5 occurred in July 2007 between Cheyanne Nalder and Gary Lewis. Intervenor will not re-state the
 6 entire history as it is adequately set forth in Order Certifying a Second Question to the Nevada
 7 Supreme Court by United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, which was filed on
 8 January 11, 2018. A copy of the Order certifying the second question of law is attached hereto as 9 Exhibit 'D.' Rather, the salient points are that Plaintiff's "amended judgment", entered recently
 10 in 2018, is premised on an original judgment which had been entered against Gary Lewis on 11 August 26, 2008. After obtaining the judgment, Counsel for Plaintiff³ then filed an action against 12 Mr. Lewis' insurer, United Automobile Insurance Company ("UAIC"), Intervenor herein.
 13 Despite the prohibition against direct actions against an insurer, Plaintiff failed to obtain an 14 assignment prior to filing that action against UAIC and, only later, during the litigation obtained
 15 an assignment from Lewis.

16 In any event, that action - on coverage for the 2008 judgment by Nalder against UAIC -
 17 has proceeded in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada and, the United 18 States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, since 2009. During the pendency of those appeals 19 it was observed that Plaintiff had failed to renew her 2008 judgment against Lewis pursuant to 20 Nevada law. Specifically, under N.R.S. 11.190(1)(a) the limitation for action to execute on such 21 a judgment would be six (6) years, unless renewed under N.R.S. 17.214. Upon realizing the 22 judgment had never been timely renewed, UAIC filed a Motion to Dismiss the Appeal for Lack 23

 25
 26
 27 ³ At that time, in 2008, Ms. Nalder was a minor so the judgment was entered in favor of her of Standing with the Ninth Circuit on March 14, 2017. On December 27, 2017 the Ninth Circuit certified a second question to the Nevada Supreme Court – specifically certifying the following

“Under Nevada law, if a plaintiff has filed suit against an insurer seeking damages based on a separate judgment against its insured, does the insurer’s liability expire when the statute of limitations on the judgment runs, notwithstanding that the suit was filed within the six-year life of the judgment?”

See Exh. ‘D.’

On February 23, 2018 the Nevada Supreme Court issued an order accepting this second certified question and ordered Appellants to file their Opening brief within 30 days, or by March 26, 2018. A copy of the Order accepting the second certified question is attached hereto as Exhibit ‘E.’ In accepting the certified question, the Nevada Supreme Court rephrased the question as follows:

In an action against an insurer for breach of the duty to defend its insured, can the plaintiff continue to seek consequential damages in the amount of a default judgment obtained against the insured when the judgment against the insured was not renewed and the time for doing so expired while the action against the insurer was pending?

On August 2, Plaintiff (Appellant therein) filed her Opening Brief on this question and, UAIC has yet to file its Response Brief and, accordingly, the above-quoted question and, issue, remains pending before the Nevada Supreme Court.

Despite the above, in what appears to be a clear case of forum shopping, Plaintiff retained additional Counsel (Plaintiff’s Counsel herein, David Stephens, Esq.) who filed an ex parte Motion on March 22, 2018 seeking, innocently enough, to “amend” the 2008 expired judgment to be in the name of Cheyenne Nalder individually. A copy of the Ex Parte Motion is attached hereto as Exhibit ‘F.’ Thereafter, the Court obviously not having been informed of the above-noted Nevada Supreme Court case, entered the amended judgment and same was filed with a notice of entry on May 18, 2018. A copy of the filed Amended Judgment is attached hereto as Exhibit 'G.'

Furthermore, Plaintiff then initiated a “new” action, under case no. A-18-772220-C⁴ in a thinly veiled attempt to have the Court there rule on issues pending before the Nevada Supreme Court and “fix” their expired judgment. This intent appears clearly evidenced by paragraph five (5) of Plaintiff’s prayer for relief herein which states Plaintiff is seeking this Court to make “a declaration that the statute of limitations on the judgment on the judgment is still tolled as a result of Defendant’s continued absence from the state.” A copy of Plaintiff’s Complaint for that action is attached hereto as Exhibit 'H.' Plaintiff then apparently served Lewis and, on July 17, 2018, sent a letter to UAIC’s counsel with a copy of a “three Day notice to Plead”, and, as such, threatening default of Lewis on this “new” action. A copy of Plaintiff’s letter and three day notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 'I.'

Upon learning of this “amended judgment” and “new” action and, given the United States District Court’s ruling that Gary Lewis is an insured under an implied UAIC policy for the loss belying these judgments and, present action, UAIC immediately sought to engage counsel to appear on Lewis’ behalf in the present action. A copy of the Judgment of the U.S. District Court finding coverage and implying an insurance policy is attached hereto as Exhibit 'J.' Following retained defense Counsel’s attempts to communicate with Mr. Lewis to defend him in this action and vacate this improper amendment to an expired judgment as well as defend in him in the newly filed action – retained defense counsel was sent a letter by Tom Christensen, Esq. – the Counsel for Plaintiff judgment-creditor in the above-referenced action and appeal – stating in no uncertain terms that Counsel could not communicate with Mr. Lewis, nor appear and defend ⁴ This case is currently pending before Judge Kephart, Department 19. UAIC has intervened in that case and filed a Motion to dismiss that action which is pending. Interestingly, Mr. Tom Christensen has now appeared in that case for Mr. Lewis and has filed a third party complaint.

1 him in this action and take action to get relief from this amended judgment. A copy of Tom
 2 Christensen's letter of August 13, 2018 is attached hereto as Exhibit 'K.'"

3 Despite the apparent contradiction of counsel representing both the judgment-creditor and 4 judgment-debtor in the same action, it is also clear that Mr. Christensen's letter has caused the 5 need for UAIC to intervene in the present action. Moreover, it also creates the completely absurd
 6 situation we have now where counsel for Lewis, through Mr. Christensen, has filed a Motion to 7 strike retained defense counsel's Motion for relief from judgment - a multi-million dollar
 8 judgment against his own client.

10 As will be set forth in detail below, besides granting this Motion to consolidate, because 11 of all the issues raised above have a common nucleus of fact and issues, we see an attempt of 12 fraud upon the court which should not be countenanced and an evidentiary hearing should be 13 held and, same should be held before one judge in both matters.

16 LEGAL ARGUMENT

17 NRCP 42(a) states;

18 When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the 19 court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the 20 actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.⁵

21 Consolidation is permitted for a variety of reasons including, but not limited to, judicial 22 discretion, avoidance of unnecessary costs or delay, convenience, and/or economy in 23 administration.⁶ In the State of Nevada, several actions can be combined into one case, tried all 24 at once, with each matter retaining its separate character and the trial court can enter separate

27 ⁵ Nev. R. Civ. P. 42(a).

28 ⁶ Mikulich v. Carner, 68 Nev. 161, 169, 228 P. 2d 257, 261 (1957).

1 judgments as appropriate.⁷ Further, pursuant to the Eighth Judicial District Court Rules,
 2 “[m]otions for consolidation of two or more cases must be heard by the judge assigned to the 3 case first commenced. If consolidation is granted, the consolidated case will be heard before the 4 judge ordering the consolidation.”⁸

5 The Complaint in Case No. 07A549111 was filed in 2007. The Complaint in Case No.
 6 A-18-7722220-C was filed in 2018. Pursuant to EDCR 2.50(a), those cases, if consolidated,
 7 must be consolidated into the earlier case, Case No. 07A549111, which was the first 8 commenced.

9 The subject cases meet the requirements for consolidation mandated by NRCP 42(a), in 10 that they arise out of the same motor vehicle accident, they involve the same defendant and, they 11 involve the same damages and issues (i.e. a $3.5 million default judgment); therefore each case
 12 involves the same questions of fact. Additionally, as noted herein, some of the issues in both 13 cases are presently on appeal before the Nevada Supreme Court, in James Nalder, Guardian ad
 14 Litem on behalf of Cheyanne Nalder; and Gary Lewis v United Automobile Insurance Co., case
 15 number 70504 and, in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit under case no. No. 13-16 17441. Accordingly, given that there are the same parties in an ongoing appeal dealing many of 17 the same issues herein, further good cause is shown that these actions proceed in one court 18 herein.

19 The consolidation of these matters will avoid unnecessary costs and delay, and will 20 promote convenience and judicial economy.
