And all them flash-laws, that you guys are gonna through something on me, that he's pressing charges. You know, and, that's, that's the only thing I can think of. That's the only thing I've done wrong that I know of. You know, and uh he might have pressed charges against me maybe for that.

? 7 ?8	Q.	Okay, both of them told us what occurred while you were babysitting them.

34 35	Α.	Well I owe their father $400.00 bucks. Is he saying this, or
13 16 17 18	Q.	Well, we didn't stop there. We did some other investigating. We had the girls checked out this morning. They didn't go to school.

Α.	Uh, yeah. But, then you're gonna place me under arrest.
Q.	No, that's not true at all. That's not true at all.
Α.	But I don't,
Q.	The thing is, if we weren't interested in letting you give your side of the story about wo occurred, we would have came and placed you under arrest. Do you understand the
Α.	Not really. I mean inaudibleshame but,
Q.	Chuck, we interviewed both girls separately, okay?
Α.	Yeah.
Q.	Okay?
Α.	Okay.
Q.	Both girls gave testimony about what occurred at your apartment and at their hound individually. They're not lying, they're telling the truth.

- 1 A. Okay, then let's see what they're saying.
 - Q. Okay. Both girls claim that you placed your penis in their vaginas and were humping them.
 - A. No way.
- 8 Q. Well, that's what they both said. And Chuck, I do this for a living. Det. Bohach does 9 this for a living. We do nothing else but se crime cases, okay? Now, I taped the girls 10 interviews. Now, we wanna play those interviews for people, and we'll let them decide 11 if you're lying, okay? Cuz I'll tell you what, we do this for a living. We know how to catch the girls when they're lying. And the girls aren't lying. Chuck, I'm telling you, 12 they aren't lying. I'm telling you straight out, they are not lying. The reason you're 13 here right now, is so you can give your story about what happened. I don't know if you 14 15 were drinking that day. I don't know what occurred. But, I'm not here to ask you if it 16 happened. If that's what you're thinking I'm here to do, you're totally long. That's not even a question in my mind. I'm here to let you tell me what happened. Why it 17 18 happened. 19
- 20 A. Okay, let's continue with what ya got. Go ahead.
- 22 Q. Well, I'm gonna tell you right now, I just told you the allegations. As far as the evidence that we have,....
- 25 A. I'm having a hard time comprehending these allegations, but,.... 26
- 27 Q. I don't think you are, bud. You're having a hard time comprehending that two Police Officers are sitting in front of you right now,....
- 30 A. That's true.
- 32 Q. who specialize in this field. 33
- 34 A. True.
- 35 36 Q. And, who are confronting you with these allegations.
- 38 A. That's true.39
- 40 Q. But, you're not having a hard time comprehending the allegations themselves, because

1		you remember them. Very clearly what happened.
3	A.	Okay.
•	Q.	And, neither one of these girls, Chuck, are saying that you hurt them or forced then into doing anything. Neither on of them said that. Otherwise, uh, there would have been no talking.
8 9	Α.	Yeah.
10 11 12 13 14	Q.	Okay. Det. Bohach and I depending on what happened, have a lot options. Some of those options, obviously, are arrest. But, then that's not the only way you can go. If we wanted to make an arrest, we had our opportunity when we were out with you in the field.
15 16 17	A.	Inaudible
18 19 20 21 22 23	Q.	There are reports that can be written about what occurred and submitted to the District Attorney's Office and let them decide whether or not charges are going to be filed. But we have two young girls here, right now, that told us what occurred. They're taking apart of the blame it themselves. But, they'; re not by any stretch of the imagination saying they were kidnapped, forced, threatened,none of those words even came into play.
24 25	A.	I was uh,
26 27	Q.	What happened?
28 29 30	A.	I don't know.
31	Q.	Yeah you do.
32 33	A.	Who?
34 35	Q.	Yeah you do. You know what happened.
36 37	A.	I,\ldots
38 39 40	Q.	Chuck. Chuck, let me tell you this. Maybe this might make you feel a little bit better. If we weren't interested and giving you the opportunity of telling us what happened, okay? Let me tell you, we had enough right out there in the field just to say, hey Chuck, turn around and put your hands behind your back. But, we're, we're not about that. We're too busy to be about that. We gotta hear. And, we owe it to you. everybody. To give everybody the opportunity to find out. Make sure that those same people do not have contact with those kids again. That's our main priority, obviously.

I told Gary I didn't wanna babysit them anymore. Um, I borrowed money from Gary Α. alot and uh, the kids and I drove. Uh, what exactly do you want me to say?

Q. I want you to tell me what happened. The truth. Tell you what. This is what's gonna happen. So, this is what you have to understand. Is that right now it's a quarter after 1:00, and the only thing we're doing again, is here to get the truth out. We know what occurred. And, when we interview people Chuck, who are in your position and it ends up taking up sometimes one minute, sometimes it takes them 3 to 4 hours. But, the thing is, it always comes around to what happened. And, I'm asking you to work with us this, okay? Cuz, if you weren't working with us Chuck, and we weren't working with you, we wouldn't even be here right now. We would have ended this out there, okay? But, the thing is, if you aren't working with us, you, you,.....

18

- A. So,....
- Q. and tell us your side of the story.

23 24

A. Okay. Alright.

25 26

27

Q. and, and your side of the story Chuck, has to be the truth.

28 29 A. Okay, so now you're saying if I tell you my supposed side of the side story, you,.....

30 31

Q. No, no, no Chuck, if you tell the truth. That's what I want.

32 33 Α. Okay, if I tell the truth to you as you want to hear it, and it comes out like uh, like some kind of confession or something, is that what you wanna hear?

34 35

Q. No. I don't wanna hear nothing from you Chuck, except the truth. Okay, now look it, we can end this real quick.

36 37 38

Wēl17.....

39 40

Okay, no, no, Chuck, let-me_explain this, okay?—Like-L said, you've-been-around-the_

and-if-these-girls-are-so-way-off, if these girls,....listen-to-me=now,... Tam-Q.

If these girls are just out of their minds, then tell me that, okay? Tell me that they're out of their minds, and then we have nothing more to talk about, okay? We have nothing more to talk about. This is your opportunity. The reason you were brought here was to tell me what occurred.

-But, so have-we = So, what we're gonna-do-is, if you don't have nothing to say Chuck.

You know what? I can't lie to you. I just can't do that. Not to those girls, I can't. A. I was buzzed.

0. What happened.

- I'm gonna hate myself for this. It's, uh,...I don't really know. I swear to God I don't Α. really know. I was...I had a buzz on that morning. And, I'm ashamed of it no doubt.
- Q. Your head is not clear that morning. Is that right?
- A. Not really. I mean, I was drinking fucking alcohol. I was drinking tequila and Jack Daniels the night before. And, I inaudible....the same morning. Gary come over and he wanted me to watch his girls for 20 bucks or something. Uh, it was after school or something. And, I'm not really sure. Then I know, I know uh, wh, Desiree,....I don't know if it was Summer.
- I did touch her. Uh, I didn't actually touch her, she touched me. A_{\cdot}
- How did she touch you? Q_{i}

What happened?

Well she said,.... I was telling her I was gonna take a shower. And she was watching A. t.v. on my couch, and she just some how or another, she mentioned something about how she gave her dad a shower and washed his back or something. And, I just jokingly said something about uh, do wanna wash my back. You know, just as a joke. She came back with yeah, yeah inaudible....but, don't tell my sister or something. And, I said whatever, and I went in the shower. And she come in and washed my legs and uh, my back.

8

Q. Did it give you an erection when she did that?

- A. No. No, she did not give me an erection. She did not. Um, it wasn't her fault. I'm an adult, and I should have known better. The girl should have,...she's only like 7 or 8 years old. I know,....it's never happened. I don't know why I even did it. I'm not that kind of person. I,....honest to fucking God am not that kind of person.
- Q. So, when you said that she was washing you? Was she washing your, your genitals?
- A. No. Well, she washed around there. She didn't actually wash them. Well yeah she might have. She grabbed everything. She might of washed around my balls or something. Basically she washed my legs right here and here. And she washed my back. My lower back. Uh, she probably, she might of,....yeah she might of even given me a hard on. I don't think so. But, yeah she possibly could have. Inaudible.....
- A. She was not. No. No she was not. She was standing by outside. And, it was probably for about 15 seconds give or take. I don't know. But, yeah. Yeah, she did.
- Q. But, it didn't arouse you at all?
- A. No it did not.
- 28 Q. Why do think, why do you think it happened?
 - A. You know, to be honest, I really don't know. I ask myself that question in my own mind that too. I've had ta,...I've felt guilty. I don't even know why. You know, I've had two daughters of my own. I, I enjoy women, you know. Um, I don't,....I have no answer. I've asked myself that too. Because, I am not that type of person. I, I'm not. I never have been. I've never even thought about shit like that. You know, I mean I beaten dudes up when I was in the joint for-shit-like-that. I've kicked guy's-ass-for-doing-that. You know, you-know, I-really-couldn't-tell-you-though. Because-this-has-never-happened you know. When it did happen, it wasn't you know, uh, it wasn't satisfactory in no way. So, don't even think that. I mean professionally, okay fine be professional. I don't know how to clue you in on something that you know, that has never happened, and I hope to God never fucking happens again because I have no answer for it. I don't know. You know. And, you can believe what you think. And I have no,....I don't know. 1 2 3 What were you drinking that morning? Were you drinking? Q. 4 5 A. No. Not really drinking. I just had a beer to get rid of the hangover. I had a bad 6 hangover. I was hot and I had some tequila and Jack Daniels and probably a couple of 7 other beers. And uh, I, I, don't work so I get an occasion,....occasional I get a buzz. 8 I drink with their dad next door you know, occasionally. Um, 9 10 Q. Look here Chuck, I, I appreciate you sharing that with us, alright? Because, I'm telling you, we weren't here to ask you if it happened. We were here to hear your side of the IIstory and give us an explanation basically what you just did. 12 13 No I can't. That, inaudible.....I don't know what the fuck that is you know, but, with 14 A. Simmer I was guilty. You know, I had, you know, I, I, couldn't,...it's hard for me to 15 16 even face her. You know, and she looks at me and she still has that happy smile you 17 now. 18 19 Q. The only thing is,.... 20 21 A. It wasn't her that did nothing wrong. 22 23 Q. Chuck? There's some more stuff that happened. 24 What? 25 Α. 26 There' some more stuff that happened between you and Summer. 27 Q. 28 29 A. There's no way. 30 31 Q. There's some more stuff that happened between you and Summer. Think about it. 32 What? There's nothing that I know of that could of happened. I mean it. 33 A. 34 35 Q. There's not. And uh uh,.... 7 36 37 A. $I, I, uh, uh, you, uh, \dots$ 38 39 Q_{\cdot} Something. It's out bud. It's out. Lay it out and uh,....

Yeah I know. You think I'm bullshiting? You think I;m going through the dramatics.

2 -	-	I know, I've been through this too. It's hard to get it right out. Cuz I'm just sitting here fucking around. It had to come out sooner or later. Yeah, it was all in the same day.
3 4 =	Q.	What happened Chuck?
5 6 7 8	A . €	The two girls were talking about it and wouldn't let each other know about it. And, I don't know exactly what happened. Then said something to me. I bent over and I just, I don't know. Goddamn it.

32 33	Α.	I, I think it was sometime in December.
34 35	Q.	Okay.
36 37	Α.	Uh, uh, oh yeah. I mean I can't live with the bullshit. I don't know,
38 39	Q.	What did you say to her when you were doing it?
40	Α.	I, I, I, don't know. I don't really remember saying anything. Um, she said something

I ·		to me. I said something to her I guess. I, I, really don't know.
2 3	Q.	How did you take her panties off?
4 5	А.	Uh, I think I just took them off.
6 7	Q.	Okay. Do you remember what she was wearing?
8 9	Α.	No.
10 11 12	Q.	What do you think she was wearing? Was she wearing clothes? Was she wearing pajamas?
13 14 15	Α.	Uh, probably. Fuck I don't know. To answer that, I don't know. I really don't know. They um, they uh, I don't know. I don't know what them girls were wearing.
16 17	Q.	Okay.
18 19 20	Α.	I only babysat them a couple of times.
20 21 22	Q.	Right. So, you take her panties down. What, what were you wearing?
23 24	Α.	My robe. I was wearing my robe.
25 26	Q.	Were you wearing anything underneath?
27 28	Α.	Um, probably, probably my drawers. It was anything it would be my underwear I'm sure. It might even of been my pants.
29 30	Q_{\cdot}	So, what, what part of the house were you in, in her house?
31 32 33	Α.	Her bedroom.
3 4 3 5	Q.	Okay, and what piece of furniture in her bedroom?
35 36 37	Α.	Uh, she had a bed there.
38	Q.	Okay. Were they bunk beds type beds?

1.	Q.	Okay. And so what happened?
2 3 4	Α.	I don't know. I don't know. I just uh, I guess it just happened. I don't know what happened. I walked in her bedroom and I guess uh, I don't know.
5 6	JB	You pulled her pants down? Or her panties?
7 8 9	Α.	Yeah.
9 0 1	JB	Then you lifted up whatever she was wearing on top?
2 3	Α.	I guess. I don't know if she was wearing something on top or not. I really don't know. I don't think so. Um,
4 5 6	Q.	Do you remember kissing her chest?
7	A .	No.
9 20	Q.	You don't remember kissing Desiree's chest?
21	Α.	Not at all.
?2 ?3	JB	Come on Chuck.
?4 ?5 ?6	Α.	Why would I kiss her chest? What would I do to her chest?
27	Q.	Did you uh, did you end up ejaculating?
28 29	Α.	No, not that I can recall.
30 31	Q.	So uh, did you put your penis in her mouth?
32 3 3	Α.	No.
34 35	Q_{\cdot}	On that one?
36 37 38	Α.	On that one? No. No.

4 5	Α.	Not at all, no, no.
6 7	Q.	I believe you.
8 9	A.	No.
10 11 12 13	Q.	I believe you. I'll tell you what, I believe you cuz I know what happened. And, that's and that's not one of the things that happened. I'm just telling you so you have no idea, so you can realize what about what I'm telling you, sitting here saying that I know what happened.
15 16	A.	Yeah.
17 18	Q.	That's not one of the things that happened.
19 20	A.	No. No. No.
21 22	Q.	Okay. Uh, here's the deal, is uh, I need for you to be totally honest about everything.
23 24	Α.	Well I've heen as honest as I can fucking be now. Jesus Christ.
25 26 27 28 29	Q.	Well, let me tell you this though. Because uh, Summer and uh, Desiree made some allegations, uh, concerning you, we wanted to come to you to get your side of the story, okay? And, we asked you to come here and you came here. And, you're sitting in front of me Chuck, and I appreciate you're being honest. But, now you're being honest,
30 31	Α.	Now, I'm under arrest?
32 33 34	Q.	No, not at all. Now that you're being honest, we appreciate you're being honest, I have to advise you of your rights.
35 36	Α.	Yeah, I know. I'm under arrest, I know.
37 38	Q.	Just,nothat's not true at all.

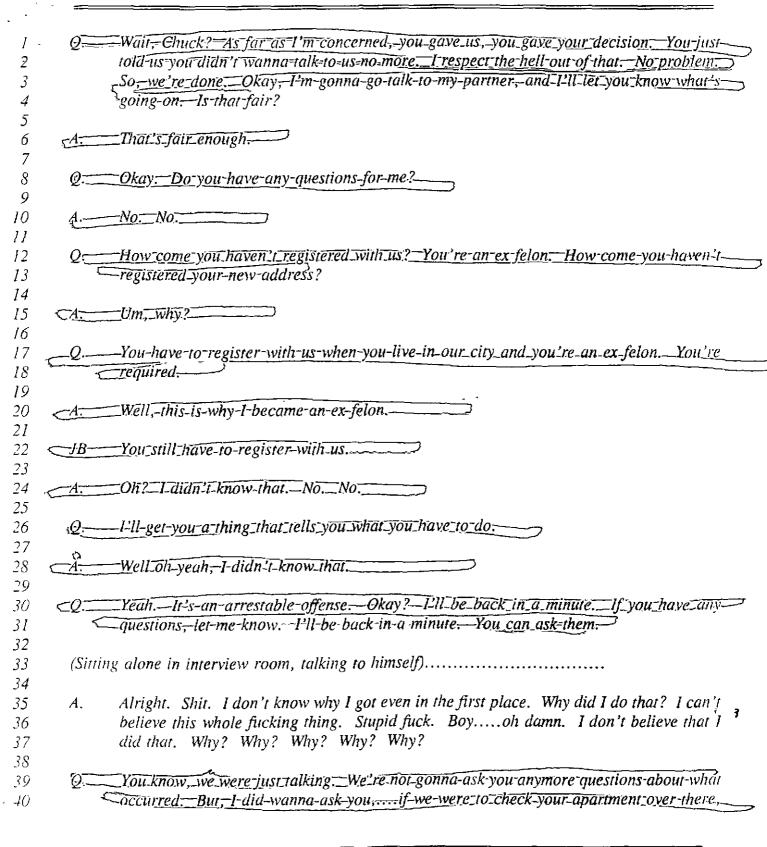

You're not under arrest man.

DISTRICT JUDGE

You have heard evidence with respect to Mr. Maki's reputation for good character. Such evidence should be considered with the other facts of this case. When so considered, it may, like the other facts, generate a reasonable doubt which would justify acquittal.

ISTRICT JUDGE

It is a constitutional right of a defendant in a criminal trial that he or she may not be compelled to testify.

Thus, the decision as to whether he or she should testify is left to the defendant on the advice and counsel of his or her attorney. You must not draw any inference of guilt from the fact that he or she does not testify, nor should this fact be discussed by you or enter into your deliberations in any way.

YSTRICT JUDGE

Each count charges a separate and distinct offense. You must decide each count separately on the evidence and the law applicable to it, uninfluenced by your decision as to any other count. The defendant may be convicted or acquitted on any or all of the offenses charged. Your finding as to each count must be stated in a separate verdict.

ASTRICT JUDGE

The word "willfully," when applied to the intent with which an act is done or omitted and as used in my instructions, implies simply a purpose or willingness to commit the act or to make the omission in question. The word does not require in its meaning any intent to violate law, or to injure another, or to acquire any advantage.

ISTRICT JUDGE

Statements of the defendant have been admitted into evidence. Before the Jury may take such statements into consideration it must decide whether or not they were given voluntarily. If the jury decides that the statements were made voluntarily then it may consider them in determining the guilt or innocence of Mr. Maki. If the jury decides that the statements were not made voluntarily, then it may not consider them in determining the guilt or innocence of Mr. Maki.

DISTRICT FUDGE

The evidence which you are to consider in this case consists of the testimony of the witnesses, the exhibits, and any facts admitted or agreed to by counsel.

Statements, arguments and opinions of counsel are not evidence in the case. However, if the attorneys stipulate as to the existence of a fact, you must accept the stipulation as evidence and regard that fact as proved.

You must not speculate to be true any insinuations suggested by a question asked a witness. A question is not evidence and may be considered only as it supplies meaning to the answer.

You must disregard any evidence to which any objection was sustained by the court and any evidence ordered stricken by the court.

Anything you may have seen or heard outside the courtroom is not evidence and must also be disregarded.

THE COURT: State of Nevada versus Charles Maki.

MS. SCHMUCK: Janet Schmuck here on behalf of Mr. Maki, your Honor.

THE COURT: Morning, Miss Schmuck.

All right. Let the record show that Charles Maki is present with counsel, Miss Janet Smuck--Schmuck. Excuse me. Mr. Dan Greco is representing the State.

We're here on two matters. One, a motion to confirm an April 11th trial date; and, two, a motion to dismiss--excuse me--motion to suppress statements made by Mr. Maki.

I want to take the motion to suppress up first.

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, there have been some negotiations in this matter, and I think Miss Schmuck wants to address you on that. I think we have a resolution.

THE COURT: Okay. I was going to say I was ready to hear the arguments and summation because I'm ready to decide on the motion. But go ahead.

MS. SCHMUCK: Your Honor, that's true. We do have negotiations. I have spoken to Mr. Maki about this yesterday and today. At this point we're prepared to go forward.

If the Court would like, I would state the negotiations at this point. And that is that Mr. Maki will be pleading guilty to two counts of sexual assault on a child below the age of 14 and two counts of lewdness, your Honor.

The negotiations are that the State and the defense will be free to argue at sentencing, and the State will not be pursuing the habitual criminal charge at sentencing. And all other charges will be dropped at the time of sentencing, your Honor.

MR. GRECO: That's correct, your Honor.

And specifically the counts he's going to be pleading to are Count I, which is sexual assault on Desiree; Count V, which is sexual assault on Summer; Count VI, which is lewdness involving Desiree; and Count IX, which is lewdness involving Summer.

THE COURT: Okay. If you would, please, Ms.

Schmuck, repeat--just repeat the negotiations. They just flew by me. I was following along with something else.

Number one, guilty to Count I, Count V, Count VI, Count IX. And that covers the sexual assault on each child and that covers the lewdness on each child.

MS. SCHMUCK: That is correct, your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Now, the negotiations are, again, please?

24

The negotiations are, first of all. MS. SCHMUCK: that the State and the defense will be free to argue at sentencing.

> THE COURT: Okay.

MS. SCHMUCK: The State has agreed to dismiss all other charges at the time of sentencing.

And the State has agreed not to pursue the habitual criminal charge.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Maki, do you understand the negotiations?

THE DEFENDANT: I don't understand nothing here, your Honor. I understand--

THE COURT: One of the reasons that I asked that Miss Schmuck repeat is because you're shaking your head no. It's my duty, my obligation, to make sure that you understand everything that's going on right now.

Now, you shake your head no. Why are you shaking your head no? Let me kind of define it. Are you shaking your head no, I can't believe I'm here under these circumstances? Or are you shaking your head no, you don't understand? Do you see the difference? Do you see what I'm saying?

You got five minutes I can explain THE DEFENDANT: it to you?

THE COURT: Go ahead.

THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, my lawyer is doing the best she can. I have no doubt. I've been telling people I've been innocent. There's no facts to what I can see. I mean, there's no medical evidence. There's no physical evidence. I didn't do a damn thing. The kids over here even said nothing happened. And now, because I have a criminal history, I'm being threatened with all this here.

My lawyer is telling me I'm looking at 60 years plus a habitual criminal act of life without because I've been convicted twice before. And the best deal I can come up with is two life sentences.

If I plead to this because of a scare bargain--and I'm scared to death. I don't want the bitch for something I didn't do. I'm man enough to, if I did something, your Honor, hey, I can admit that I did something wrong. I'm not afraid of that.

I took a shower in my own house. A girl came in.

She washed my back. I'm man enough to admit that. I'll take the punishment for that. I have no problem with that.

But this other stuff that's going on, I can't deal with that, your Honor. That's what I'm shaking my head about. I don't understand what's going on with this.

That's why I'm shaking my head.

THE COURT: You've got one of two choices. You go to trial April 11th, tell the jury exactly what you said--

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor, I understand that. She's telling me--

THE COURT: No. No. But she's your lawyer.

THE DEFENDANT: I understand that, your Honor. She is telling me I would lose because of there's--doesn't matter if there's any medical evidence or any other kind of evidence. Doesn't matter in this trial.

I have a tatoo that's nine inches long and four inches wide. It's as bright as orange as I have on. That is inadmissible because I have tatoos that is up above my body. No one can mention the one down below. No one has ever mentioned that one. You can see it from right where you're at, your Honor, with sunglasses on. But because somebody said I have tatoos from up above me and all over my arms, then it's inadmissible. I don't understand.

THE COURT: You're taking things out of context.

You're taking things totally--you're being a little bit desperate right now. I can respect that. I understand.

You are facing nine felony charges.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am.

THE COURT: You are facing two little girls that I've already said that are going to be--videotape is going to make some credible witnesses. You're facing a--you've got a motion. You've got a motion right now to suppress this.

I will tell you this: Exactly what you're doing right now is exactly what you did with the police. You see what I'm saying? You're talking. You're expressing yourself. You're out there telling the world what's going on.

You better start facing up to some reality. And I think that's what your attorney is trying to have you do.

THE DEFENDANT: I understand that, your Honor. I'm facing reality the best I can.

When I talked to the cops, I was high. Hey, I can't help that. That's not an excuse. That's just a reality, as you put it. What's going on now, my problem is maybe I do face things in a different perspective. I talk because that's the only thing I know.

I'm not scared to face something that I did wrong, your Honor. I'm man enough to admit, hey, I did something wrong, fine. I have no problem with that. But I'm also man enough to say if I didn't do something wrong, don't accuse me of something. Because someone comes out and they are mad at me, for whatever reason they did it I don't know, and say "Prove me wrong," I have no witnesses to come to my defense. That's what I was told. They can't find nobody.

And the people they did find will say: Hey, even though we know him, we are not going to come to his defense. I don't understand that.

THE COURT: It's a tough nut to crack. Tough to swallow. I understand that.

THE DEFENDANT: I don't know. That's why I'm shaking my head.

THE COURT: I'm not arguing with you. I'm not--you know, if I were in your position, I'd probably feel the same way. But you've got to sit there and take the best advice you possibly can get from Miss Schmuck, a good lawyer. She knows what she's doing. If this--personally, if this saves a habitual criminal on your part, you've got to take a look at that as being positive.

THE DEFENDANT: I have no sexual history of any type at all in 40 years I've been born, your Honor.

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, with what he is saying here I'm uncomfortable going forward. If he's innocent, he's innocent. I agree with him-- Well, I don't agree with him. If he's innocent, though, he should not go forward with the plea.

The State is prepared to go forward with the motion hearing, your Honor. The State is prepared to go forward with the trial in this matter. In my assessment, the proof of guilt is overwhelming.

But, your Honor, if he thinks he is innocent, we should simply go forward. Given what he said, I don't think we should go forward with the plea at this time because he says he's not guilty. And that's his right, and he has the right to a trial. I think we should simply proceed to trial.

One last thing. I should apprise you that the negotiations, the offer was made, and it expires as soon as we commence the suppression hearing, because, of course, both sides will be rolling the dice a little bit, like in any other hearing. And so I wanted to make that clear to him. I know Janet Schmuck has already made that clear to him.

But, Judge, if he's innocent, he should not enter a plea. If he has any questions, he should not enter a plea. We should simply go forward with the suppression hearing.

THE DEFENDANT: I don't know, Judge. Hey, my lawyer says that's the best thing for me to do, because she feels that in my behalf the best interest because there's nothing that I can say or do; that I should go with this deal.

THE COURT: All right. Why don't you listen to these questions that I'm asking you and answer them as intelligently as you can. What I mean by "As intelligently as you can," just listen to the question, because I think the questions are proper under the circumstances. Listen to my questions. And if you have any questions, ask me. We'll discuss them. But try not to get confused with what is happening versus what these questions are.

THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

THE COURT: Because they're designed, if you--they are designed to make sure that you understand what you're doing. Okay.

THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

THE COURT: Do you feel that you-- Do you have any questions about the negotiations? In other words, what does it mean? What do the negotiations mean? Do you have any questions about that, or do you understand them?

THE DEFENDANT: I'm not sure I understand them fully. My lawyer explained to me--

THE COURT: What don't you understand about the negotiations? In other words, free to argue. Do you know what free to argue means?

THE DEFENDANT: Kind of.

THE COURT: Okay. That means that if you change your plea to guilty, you will be investigated by the Division of Parole and Probation. This gentleman I'm pointing at, Mr. Rountree. He's going to interview you. He is going to run a background check on you. He is going to run a criminal check on you, an educational check on you, military check on you, family check, whatever, to come up with a recommendation to me.

THE DEFENDANT: Right.

THE COURT: I follow recommendations, because, you know, they're the people that work with you.

THE DEFENDANT: Right. I understand that.

THE COURT: Give you about a month. You'll see him a couple times, that type of thing. They send that to me about a day or two before the sentencing. And I read it before I go--before I come in in court.

THE DEFENDANT: Right.

THE COURT: So what free to argue means is your attorney may argue as freely as she wishes. "Judge, don't follow the recommendation." "Judge, follow the recommendation." See, we can't talk about it before it happens.

THE DEFENDANT: Right.

THE COURT: We've got to talk about it in a vacuum.

Let's say he recommends prison. Your attorney says, "Judge, this person doesn't deserve prison. He needs some counseling. He needs some help. Judge, don't send him to prison." You know, that kind of thing.

The district attorney is also free to argue.

That's what free to argue means. The district attorney is going to get up there and, "Send him to life in prison, Judge. This is no good. This is terrible. Send him--" Do you follow me? That's what free to argue means.

THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

THE COURT: That's exactly what it means. Now, do you have any questions about what free to argue means?

THE DEFENDANT: No. That wasn't explained to me quite like that yesterday. It was explained to me that what I understood--maybe I misunderstood--but from what I understood is that I'm going to get 10 years minimum, and she is going to say she is--my lawyer was going to try to get both these life sentences to run together.

THE COURT: Well, that's what--that's free to argue. You see, I can run them consecutive or concurrent. Consecutive means you serve one life, and then when that life is done--that's pretty stupid, isn't it? But that's the way it is--when that life term is done, you serve the other life. So it's double time. You've got to serve something like 12 years, I think--

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, I think what he was referring to, on a sexual assault on a child under the age of 14 there is only one possible sentence you can impose, and that's life.

Now, the statute provides that parole eligibility begins to run when 10 years is served. So on those two sentences the time is already cast in stone. It's just a matter of: Do you want to run them consecutively or concurrently?

On the lewdness charges--

THE COURT: Hang on just a second.

Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: I'm not sure what he said.

THE COURT: Two lifes. Let's say it's a recommendation, two lifes. You say we are going to get to the statute, is what it is. The district attorney is going to explain it. But you have to serve at least 10 years--

> THE DEFENDANT: Right.

THE COURT: -- on the life. If I run it consecutive, I can tack on another ten years. If I run it concurrent, meaning at the same time, you only serve 10 That is what concurrent and consecutive mean.

Free to argue means she is going to try to convince me to run it concurrent. He's going to try to convince me to run it consecutive. Division of Parole and Probation is going to make a recommendation.

THE DEFENDANT: So either way, whether I'm right or wrong, I'm going to have to do at least 10 years.

THE COURT: Yes. Yes.

THE DEFENDANT: See, that's what I don't understand. I see a guy in here who gets 200 sexual assaults, admits to it, and he gets six years. I admit to one lewdness thing or whatever because some girl washed my back, which I admit was wrong -- And I even told the dad: Hey, I didn't think it was right. That is why I told him I didn't want the kids around me no more, so they didn't have freedom to walk in there. And here I'm getting 10 years minimum.

THE COURT: I have to tell you that sentencing has nothing to do with trial. You go to trial, found not quilty, you walk out of that door.

> THE DEFENDANT: Sure.

THE COURT: You go to trial, be found guilty, you're in the same position--excuse me--not in the same position--

> THE DEFENDANT: I'd be in 60 years or more.

THE COURT: Nine positions worse than you were in

THE COURT: Well, of course, it's a catch-22.

That's what you have to determine in your mind. Nobody is playing games.

THE DEFENDANT: I understand that, your Honor. This is very serious to me.

THE COURT: That's right. That's why we are going through it.

THE DEFENDANT: I know it's no game. It's my life
I'm looking at here. I'm either going to take a chance, you know, that the evidence that's presented, someone is going to believe me, which he dresses these kids up to make them look nice, and they're going to believe them over someone who looks like me.

Or I have got to plead guilty to something that never happened and go to prison anyway. No matter what, I am going to prison for something I didn't do.

THE COURT: Mr. Maki, if you start believing that stuff, then you're in Never Never Land already.

THE DEFENDANT: Well, your Honor, all I know-THE COURT: Listen to me. I know this record--

THE DEFENDANT: I admit--

THE COURT: It's between you and your maker.

Between you and your maker. If you want to go to trial, go to trial. If you want to plead guilty to this, plead guilty to this. Because you and your maker are the ones that are 1 2 the important ones, period. Do you understand what I am saying? 3 THE DEFENDANT: I understand that, your Honor. asked me a question why I was shaking my head. I tried to 5 answer the best I could. 6 THE COURT: You do understand what free to argue 7 means, right? 8 THE DEFENDANT: Basically, yes. 9 THE COURT: Now, you do understand what they mean 10 They'll dismiss the other charges? 11 by: THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. If I plead to two of these 12 here, then they get rid of the rest of them. I understand 13 14 that. Basically one sexual assault for each 15 THE COURT: child and one lewdness for each child. The rest of them go 16 away. Okay. 17 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. 18 THE COURT: And then--now, do you have any other 19 20 questions about the negotiations? Do you want me to continue? Do you want to change your plea today? 21 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor. It don't matter. 22 I've already been told. I can see the facts coming up in my 23 There's nothing I can do about it. There ain't no 24 one going to come to my defense. I live by myself, me and my dog. I have some girl that says: Hey, I'm mad at him. Prove me wrong. Nobody is going to come to my defense and say: Well, we didn't see him, or we did see him.

I have tatoos all over me. Nobody can identify me properly. The best thing I'm going to get out of this no matter what is go with this thing here. So, yeah. Whatever she wants I'm going to have to do. I have no choice. It's whatever the courts feel they can do. I just ask the Court will do whatever is fair. And I'm sure you will. You seem like a fair judge.

THE COURT: Do you feel that you have had enough time to discuss this whole thing with your attorney?

THE DEFENDANT: Well, yeah. I mean, she discussed it with me yesterday, and she discussed it with me last night on the phone, and she again discussed what she told me here. I have no way to defend myself. She is doing the best she can. I have no gripe with that. For what she's got to work with, and, you know, no one can come and help me, and like she says, hey, no one is going to believe me. So I just--whatever, whatever. You know.

THE COURT: Are you satisfied with the legal services by the Public Defender's Office?

THE DEFENDANT: I don't want to say yes, I don't want to say no, your Honor, because I know she's trying to do what she can. But I just feel that for some reason I can get-- I don't know. I just feel that for some reason I can do better. I don't know why. But I just feel that I am--it's not right for me.

I'm not saying she's a bad attorney. Don't get me wrong, Judge. I'm saying she does what she can. She's never had a case like this before. And I'm not saying she's a bad attorney, by no means. I'm sure she is doing what she can with what she has. But for some reason I just think with the evidence that I see in my mind, there should be something better than this. When I see other people going—you know, I don't know.

THE COURT: You know, you're not other people.

THE DEFENDANT: That's true. I'm not.

THE COURT: This is this case.

THE DEFENDANT: That's true. I'm not.

THE COURT: A lot of people live their whole life and not realize that. This is this case, not other people. Don't know what you're talking about when it says 200 charges. You know what I mean. I know you're exaggerating. But it's not in the paper. You're not reading anybody. This is Charles Maki.

THE DEFENDANT: I understand that, your Honor.

THE COURT: And you've got to do what you've got to do. Your attorney has done a good job from the standpoint of filing a suppression motion to—as far as whether or not the girls are credible. I decided they were. I'm the bad guy, if you want to look at it that way.

THE DEFENDANT: No, no. I have no gripe with that.

THE COURT: She's filed--

THE DEFENDANT: If I were you, your Honor, I would agree with that, too, even.

THE COURT: She has filed a motion to suppress some of the statements you made. We have not heard that because of this revelation that you might change your plea.

THE DEFENDANT: I don't know, your Honor. I just--I'm not saying she's a bad attorney. I can't say that. I am pleased with what she's doing. I have got to give her credit where credit goes. She has done what she could with what she has.

THE COURT: You have the absolute right to a jury trial on all nine of these counts. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: I understand that, your Honor.

THE COURT: You have the right to an attorney to represent you at that trial. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: I understand that.

THE COURT: You have the right to confront the witnesses. That means you have the absolute right to bring the witnesses here on this witness stand and have your attorney cross-examine the girls. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: You have also the right to use the Court's powers to subpoena witnesses on your own behalf.

That means that if you have witnesses out there, the Court can drag them in here basically. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Everybody who says they know me already said they don't want to either get involved or they don't know me. So--

THE COURT: You understand you have that right?
THE DEFENDANT: I understand that.

THE COURT: Now, if you change your plea today, you're giving up those rights. Do you understand that? You're not going to have a trial. You're not going to confront the witnesses. You're giving those up. Do you understand that?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: And also you have the privilege against self-incrimination. That means that at the trial, if you maintain your not-guilty plea, at the trial the district attorney cannot make you take the witness stand, cannot force you to take the witness stand. They've got to have

1 independent evidence to convict you. Something other than 2 out of your mouth. Do you understand that? 3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. THE COURT: Even if you don't take the witness 4 5 stand, the district attorney cannot comment to the 12 people that are sitting there: Ladies and gentlemen, he must be 6 quilty because he didn't even take the witness stand in his 7 defense. See how devastating that is? He can't do that. 8 But if you change your plea today, you are 9 incriminating yourself, and you don't have to do that. Do 10 you understand that? 11 THE DEFENDANT: If I change my plea, I am 12 incriminating myself? 13 THE COURT: Yes, sir. You're telling me you're 14 15 quilty. If you change your plea right this second, you're 16 telling me you're quilty. And you don't have to do that. 17 But if you do, you are incriminating yourself. You're Judge, I'm guilty. 18 saying: THE DEFENDANT: I'm not guilty. 19 20 THE COURT: Then why are you going to change your 21 plea? 22 THE DEFENDANT: I don't understand that. Now I'm confused on that. I don't know, Judge. Whatever she says--23 24 THE COURT: No. See, you're not going to lay it on her. See?

THE DEFENDANT: I'll just go with whatever the recommendation is. I'll plead to these things here.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to ask you a magic question. And it's very difficult, it's very difficult to answer if you're not being honest with yourself.

THE DEFENDANT: I'm being as honest with everybody, and including myself mostly, Judge.

THE COURT: We are going to go on with this thing.

I mean, as long as you understand that if you change your plea today, you are incriminating yourself. Do you understand that? Does it sound like a bad word or something?

THE DEFENDANT: Kind of, because I don't want to incriminate myself with something I didn't do. I don't want to put myself saying that I did this and this, and plead to this and this when it didn't happen. But then if I change my plea to not guilty, then all of a sudden I am guilty. It just--

THE COURT: Listen. You come to court on April 11th, 1994. The burden of proof is on the State of Nevada to prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt in front of 12 people. You can sit there and do nothing. You can take the witness stand if you want. Whatever you want to do that day. This is your trial.

THE DEFENDANT: Right. I understand that.

THE COURT: Parade those two little girls on the witness stand, they say what you did, what they say you did.

> THE DEFENDANT: Yeah.

THE COURT: Your attorney can cross-examine them. "That didn't happen, did it?" Whatever. I'm not making this stuff up. You're putting the show on in front of 12 people. It's totally up to the 12 people. If they think you did it twelve-oh, then you're guilty. If they're hung up, or if they feel that you didn't do it, the district attorney didn't prove beyond a reasonable doubt, it's all totally up to them. That's our system. There is no way. We can't ask God. We can't ask you. Do you see what I'm saying?

THE DEFENDANT: I don't understand, Judge, what one girl says--both girls at first say I did something, then one girl says I didn't do nothing, and now you said that we have to use these tapes because the girls might not be here or whatever. I'm not even sure because I can't hear half of that. That's what confuses me.

I don't know. I don't know anymore. I just don't know. I mean, I just don't know.

THE COURT: Do you want me to go on with these questions, or do you want to--

THE DEFENDANT: No. Let's just go on with this here, Judge, because it's just going to go to a dead-end, I believe, no matter what. My lawyer is--

THE COURT: But, remember, if you plead to this, you're the one that's going to have to live with it the rest of your life. That's number one.

Number two, you can't come back because of these questions, you can't come back and say: Well, the judge is a fool. My lawyer is lousy. The D.A. made me do this. Do you follow me? Because my questions are designed to make sure that you understand that you don't have to do this.

THE DEFENDANT: No, Judge, I wouldn't say you were a fool.

THE COURT: That was my words.

THE DEFENDANT: You know, I got better respect for the Court than that. And my lawyer, she does fine. I'm sure the D.A. is doing what he thinks is right. I just have--I have no defense.

THE COURT: You're caught between a rock and a hard spot.

THE DEFENDANT: Very much so. Very much so.

THE COURT: I understand.

THE COURT: Okay. Now, do you understand that if you change your plea today, you are incriminating yourself?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I guess so, your Honor. It just--like you say, I'm caught between a rock and a hard spot. And I have nobody to come to my defense. I have no way of proving-- I'm just wondering, in three months, you know, when somebody comes up, and they both say, "Hey, well, ha, ha, the joke's on you," what am I going to do then? Do I still have to be in prison?

THE COURT: Oh, absolutely.

THE DEFENDANT: Yeah?

THE COURT: I mean, absolutely. That's part of this whole thing. That's what you have to face. That's what you have to realize. Whether you're going to make a better deal for yourself by accepting this, or whether or not you maintain your innocence and face a jury.

THE DEFENDANT: Well, apparently, your Honor, like my lawyer stated, that with a jury I'm going to have no chance because there's nobody that can come to my defense. So this here apparently is supposed to be the best deal I can get for something that—for something that didn't even happen.

MR. GRECO: Your Honor --

THE DEFENDANT: So--

1 MR. GRECO: If I could--2 THE COURT: Mr. Maki, you've said enough. If it 3 didn't happen, you're going to trial. Okay. Let's go on with the suppression hearing. 4 Let's take about a 10-minute break. 5 MS. SCHMUCK: Thank you, your Honor. 6 THE COURT: In other words, I am not going to 7 accept a guilty plea right now. 8 9 (Recess.) THE COURT: All right. We're on the record in 10 CR94-0345, State of Nevada versus Charles Maki. 11 Mr. Maki is present with counsel, Ms. Janet Schmuck 12 from the Public Defender's Office. And Mr. Dan Greco is 13 representing the State. 14 This is a hearing on a motion to suppress 15 statements pursuant to Jackson v. Denno and Miranda versus 16 Arizona. 17 I received the motion on the 25th of March. 18 19 received the response on the 31st of March. I am prepared, 20 after having read the motion and the response and the law on this matter, I am prepared to go forward. And I've asked 21 22 the attorneys to go ahead and sum up their arguments. 23 So with that in mind, go ahead, Mr. Greco.

MR. GRECO: Your Honor--

THE COURT: Excuse me. I'm sorry. The moving party is the defendant, so I'll ask the defendant to sum up first.

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, we have a stipulation regarding the evidence to be presented at the suppression hearing. And that stipulation is this, your Honor: The parties stipulate that the preliminary hearing transcript regarding Detective Stegmaier's testimony is admissible for the purposes of this suppression hearing and it comes in for the purposes of this suppression hearing as if he had been on the stand here. We are stipulating that that is the evidence to be presented.

THE COURT: Is that right, Miss Schmuck?

MS. SCHMUCK: That is correct, your Honor.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MS. SCHMUCK: Thank you, your Honor.

I will be brief.

Basically our argument on the motion to suppress is that my statements, my client's statements to the police, were not made voluntarily, your Honor.

I divided the argument into statements that were made to the police prior to the Miranda warning and arguments for after the Miranda warnings were given.

Basically the argument for prior to the Miranda warning is that my client was contacted, he was asked if he would come to the police station because his name had come up in an investigation. He agreed to go to the police station. On the tape it's—it becomes very clear that my client thought he had gone down to the police station for a totally different matter than anything involving this offense that we're here on today. And through the course of the time in talking to the police he had to be told why he was there.

It's also clear from the questions that were asked by the police that he was the subject of the investigation. That there was no one else who was subject to investigation here. It was the police. They were there questioning him about this particular incident.

Prior to that the police had talked to the two girls. They had made statements saying that my client had sexually molested them. They were unequivocal in their statements. They did not identify anyone else. Only Mr. Maki. The police were not investigating anyone else.

It is our contention because of that the police had probable cause to arrest Mr. Maki. They stated that on the tape. I believe Detective Stegmaier stated several times on the tape: We have enough to arrest you out in the field. We just want to hear what you have to say about this.

So our argument is that this indeed was a custodial interrogation. That because of that my client should have been Mirandized immediately. Given that he wasn't, any statements that he made were done involuntary because, one, he didn't know why he was there; and, two, he was the subject of the investigation, and that wasn't told to him until much later on.

Our argument for the statements that were made following Miranda is that my client was informed of his Miranda rights. He immediately invoked. He said: I don't want to talk to you anymore.

The police did stop questioning him except to ask questions—they did—had some comments, they questioned him about searching his apartment. I'm not so concerned about that.

My concern goes to the fact that all of this was on videotape. The police left. The videotape was still running. The videotape should have been stopped, your Honor. And my client was talking to himself.

Any of those statements that he made talking to himself when the police left the room should not be shown to the jury because he had invoked his rights under Miranda.

Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you, Miss Schmuck.

Mr. Greco.

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, in regard to the first prong of Miss Schmuck's argument, all the statements prior to the invocation of his rights, your Honor, in terms of the voluntariness argument, I don't see much of an issue here.

When Stegmaier approached him out by--when he was working on his truck, they simply asked him: Would you be willing to come down to the station, answer some questions? He responded: Yes, right away. They also told him: You don't have to come down if you don't want to. He got into their vehicle because his truck was being worked on, and they drove down.

Your Honor, once they get there the tape is begun.

Again at the very beginning of the tape Detective Stegmaier asked him if he was here voluntarily, and he responded:

Yes. He asked him: And you don't have to answer any questions if you don't want to. He says: Yes.

And the tape is remarkable in the first half because prior to the invocation the questioning is very calm, very polite, given how serious the discussions are. There's none of the type of coercion or lack of sleep or deprivation of food or anything like that going on like there was in Jackson v. Denno and in all the cases under Jackson v. Denno. This defendant speaks matter-of-factly and answers all the questions asked.

Judge, I don't think there's much of an issue there, either on voluntariness or custodial interrogation. It was not custodial interrogation. It was only when he started making all of these admissions that Stegmaier started thinking about arresting him. He testified at the preliminary hearing, your Honor, that once he had heard all these admissions, he started to think about arresting him, and so as a courtesy, he provided him with his Miranda warnings. So he clearly was not under custodial interrogation. I don't think there's any voluntariness issue whatsoever.

Your Honor, I think the more difficult issue is the second issue, and that is after the invocation, what happens then?

Your Honor, the two segments after the invocation where he makes most of his admissions, in fact, virtually all of them, are in two parts. One, where he's left alone in that room, and then, two, at the end of the interview after he has been placed under arrest Detective John Bohatch comes in and asks him the routine questions to fill out his booking or probable-cause form, his name, date of birth, Social Security, all those things you need for the booking form.

Judge, in regard to those statements made when he was alone, the Fifth Amendment and Miranda and its progeny only apply to police-initiated questioning. And the cases I've cited in my brief, your Honor, talk about that.

If somebody simply makes spontaneous statements, your Honor, that are made when he's alone, or even when the police are there, but are not responding to the questioning by the police, that is not custodial interrogation.

Judge, the cases I cite talk about spontaneous statements that don't answer the questions that the police asked. So the police are saying one thing; he's talking about something else. That didn't even happen here, Judge. They weren't even in the room. This is as spontaneous as you can get.

And the case law clearly allows that. I've cited-Miranda allows it and numerous other cases allow it from the circuit courts. I've cited you all those cases in my brief.

When someone is alone simply looking up in the sky, as he was, and saying, "Oh, my God, why did I do this? Why did I do this?" that is as spontaneous as you can get. Of course, your Honor, like in every other interview-- Well, strike that, your Honor.

As to the second part, your Honor, the statements made to John Bohatch, the cases I cite in my brief, your Honor, of course, explain the routine booking exception.

And that routine booking exception as well is approved. I know of no cases from any jurisdiction that have disregarded that exception.

Your Honor, that exception applies at answers given in response to routine booking questions, name, date, location, residence, are admissible. But, Judge, we don't even have that here. He didn't respond to Bohatch's questions. He started making spontaneous statements again, general admissions of guilt. They weren't even responding to Bohatch's. They come under the case law I cited earlier about spontaneous admissions. Even if they were not spontaneous admissions, even if they were responses to Bohatch's questioning, they still come in under the routine booking exception, your Honor.

Your Honor, other than that, I would submit it.

May I just have a moment with counsel?

And, Judge, when I gave you our stipulation earlier, I neglected to mention the second half.

The second half of our stipulation is that the tape of the interview also be admissible in evidence. Miss Schmuck mentioned it several times, and I believe I mentioned it once or twice. So we've stipulated that be

1	deemed admissible in evidence for the purposes of this
2	hearing.
3	THE COURT: Okay. Let's go ahead and roll the
4	tape.
_
5	MR. GRECO: Your Honor, the record should probably
6	reflect that I have fast-forwarded it to the portion where
7	the interview begins. The first two-thirds of the tape is
8	the little girls' interviews.
9	THE COURT: How long is it; do you know?
10	MR. GRECO: Your Honor, total running time is about
11	40 minutes, although I think we'll be able to fast-forward
12	through the various spots where there's no sound or he's
13	sitting alone and not saying anything.
14	(Whereupon the videotape was
15	played.)
16	THE COURT: Do you have the booking statements on
17	tape?
18	MR. GRECO: Your Honor, what I was referring to
19	there is Detective Bohatch was filling out the booking
20	probable-cause form. The defendant made those spontaneous
21	statements. Those are the ones you saw.
22	THE COURT: At the very end.
23	MR. GRECO: Yes, your Honor.
24	THE COURT: I thought for some reason there was

1 something maybe upstairs or at the jail as far as booking. 2 MR. GRECO: No, your Honor. THE COURT: That is the booking statement. 3 MR. GRECO: Yes. Detective Bohatch is filling out the booking probable-cause form. Those are the only 5 statements I was referring to. 6 THE COURT: Anything else, either one of you? 7 MS. SCHMUCK: I have nothing further, your Honor. 8 MR. GRECO: Nothing further, your Honor, other than 9 10 that the playing of the tape corroborates I think the arguments I made earlier and the factual assertions I made 11 earlier. 12 The motion to suppress the statement is 13 THE COURT: 14 denied. 15 I feel that all of the statements made by Mr. Maki 16 are admissible. The tape is admissible. We could separate into three different stages, but 17 I'm allowing the entire tape to come in. 18 First stage is clearly admissions voluntarily, 19 20 getting it off his chest kind of thing. Even after the Miranda, Mr. Maki continued to make 21 statements that were voluntary, getting it off his chest. I 22 think when he was alone, he is talking to nobody in 23 particular. But very clear, no questions. He's again 24 trying to cleanse--my word--cleanse himself, get it off his chest, get it off his chest.

Clearly the last part, again he's continuing on the conversation.

Very similar -- this is not criticism, but this helped me in my decision -- very similar to what went on this morning.

You want to talk; you want to talk; you want to talk; you want to talk. You want to get it off your chest.

And I find that all of that is voluntary.

All right. Trial for April 11th is confirmed.

Any motions in limine we'll have at 9:00 a.m. prior to the trial. Voir dire will start at 10:00 a.m.

I have to say this because I am a human being, and I want to say it. If you want to continue the negotiations, I understand. I understand that you withdrew—the district attorney withdrew that particular offer. But if you want to continue negotiations, feel free to do so. What I mean by that is, you know, I'll be gone next week, but, of course, you can communicate with the secretary.

MR. GRECO: May the tape admitted in evidence at this hearing be released to the State pending trial?

THE COURT: You don't have any objection?

MS. SCHMUCK: I don't have any problems.

THE COURT: Of course.

MS. SCHMUCK: Your Honor, I did have one other matter that I just need to bring to the Court's attention. And that is that Mr. Maki, as we talked about before, is hard of hearing, has a hearing loss.

At this point he has one functioning hearing aid in his right ear. From what he told me, he has another hearing aid in his left ear--for his left ear. He doesn't have it now.

I would just like for the Court to on the record order that if the hearing aid is in his personal property, that it be given to him from the people in the jail. It's unclear to me exactly where the hearing aid is at this point.

So I would just like the Court to recognize that

THE COURT: That's fair. If it's in his property, in the inventory, in his property, have it produced so we have it at the trial. Or has it now. What I mean by "now," from now on after it's released. If it isn't, maybe you can make a phone call or something like that, Miss Schmuck, as far as finding it or something like that.

MS. SCHMUCK: Thank you, your Honor.

MR. GRECO: Since the bailiff is here, could we ask her quidance?

Is it possible for you to check on that, call them or tell them that? I can do it if you want.

THE BAILIFF: It's not going to be any easier whether you call to inquire or whether I call to inquire.

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, I will call. If it's in her property, I will tell them that you've ordered--if it's in his property, that you order he receive that. If it's not in his property, then I will let your Honor and Miss Schmuck know.

MS. SCHMUCK: Thank you.

THE COURT: We'll be in recess.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

FACTS

On or about April 29, 1994, the undersigned was contacted by telephone by Joslyn Coombes. Ms. Coombes is the half-sister of the defendant herein, Charles Joseph Maki. Ms. Coombes related to the undersigned that she had just learned of the prosecution and conviction of Charles Joseph Maki. She learned of the case through a relative who had in turn learned of the case through the Reno media coverage of the trial. See Affidavit of Daniel J. Greco, attached hereto.

Ms. Coombes relayed that she had important information to give to the undersigned that she felt was relevant in this matter. She then went on to relay in some detail numerous instances of sexual assault committed upon her by Charles Joseph Maki during the period when she was approximately four to nine years old.

The undersigned then instructed Ms. Coombes to immediately reduce her memories of the events to a detailed, written statement and to send it to the undersigned as soon as it was completed. Said statement was received by the undersigned on May 9, 1994, and a Xeroxed copy was immediately provided to defense counsel, JANET SCHMUCK, by interoffice mail. On the same date the undersigned also informed Ms. SCHMUCK of his intent to draft and file the instant Notice. The written statement of Ms. Coombes sets forth in great detail the incidents of sexual assault that she was subjected to by Charles Joseph Maki. It is attached hereto and hereby incorporated by reference into the instant Notice as well as the attached Affidavit of DANIEL J. GRECO. The State intends to place Ms. Coombes on the stand at sentencing to testify to the foregoing matters.

DISCUSSION

Uncharged misconduct evidence is admissible at Williams v. New York, 337 U.S. 241 (1949); sentencing. Williams v. Oklahoma, 358 U.S. 576 (1959); U.S. v. Gracon, 438 U.S. 41 (1978). In Buschauer v. State, 106 Nev. 890 (1990), the Nevada Supreme Court held the due process requires that reasonable notice of the prior acts and an opportunity to cross-examine the declarant must be provided to the defendant prior to the admission of the uncharged misconduct evidence at sentencing. Although Buschauer was limited by its facts to the situation where the uncharged misconduct evidence was in the form of victim impact evidence pursuant to NRS 176.015, the State believes that in fairness it should be extended to other forms of uncharged misconduct evidence offered at sentencing. Thus, the instant Notice is being provided to the defendant in this case.

CONCLUSION

Pursuant to the foregoing, the defense is hereby put on notice that the State, subject to Court approval, will put

111

0511-7161

Ms. Coombes on the stand at the penalty/sentencing hearing, to testify to the foregoing matters.

re:

Charles J. Maki, Criminal Sentencing, May 17, 1994

Dear Sirs:

This letter comes to the attention of the Washoe County Court, following the conviction of the above referenced criminal. My name is Mrs. Joslyn Michele Coombes. The referenced is a relative - we have the same mother. I have never in any way had a brother-sister relationship with this person. I have held such disregard for him, to the point that I have never in my adult life referred to him nor acknowledged him as a relative or brother.

I am responding to the case and conviction of Chuck after hearing only days ago of the horrors he continues to commit against young girls. I am also his victim as a young girl. Following are examples of the many incidents and betrayals he held against me. The emotional task which now lies before me in writing the graphic details of theses hideous acts is the most difficult writing I have ever encountered. I write this as witness to the fact that Chuck is Pedophile. Not only in the most recent year or years, but has been such for at least twenty five years. I am thirty years old as of the date of this writing.

My earliest recollection of fondling by Chuck was at the age of four. My family was still living in Oceanside, California. I remember him standing and bouncing on the bed in my parents bedroom, and he'd ask me to jump on the bed with him. I bounced along with him, he then pushed me down onto the bed. Lying next to me he put his hand up my dress, touching me chest and putting his hands into my underpants. It was upsetting to me at the time and I remember getting anxious. He told me he was just playing and stopped immediately.

According to my father and mother Chuck has been delinquent in his behavior since a very young child. Accordingly, my father and mother sought advise from many child psychiatrists. In following the advise of one psychologists, Chuck was sent away to a juvenile delinquent camp somewhere in Texas. According to my father, guilt set in for both of my parents and they brought Chuck home to live with my family again. By this time, I was in kindergarten and my family was living in Illinois. I was five.

There were frequent encounters of abuse in the next two years to follow. Initially, much of the molesting occurred while I was in the bathroom, when taking a bath or using the toilet. Chuck would use the standard threats given to a child to keep them quiet, such as, 'If you tell mom I will hurt you real bad' or 'mom will hate you for making her mad'. While I bathed he would come into the bathroom and disrobe from the waist down, exposing himself to me and have me perform oral sex or watch him jerk himself off. He would make a game of ejaculating and have me pull the plug on the bathtub and he'd have wide eyes while grinning and watching the sperm float toward and eventually down the drain. This type of 'bathroom visit' was frequent. I eventually learned to lock the door so he could not let himself in. He would stand outside the door and tell me how bad he'd beat me if I didn't unlock the door. One time I decided not to give in to his threats and never unlocked the door. He stood outside the bathroom until I had to come out, then he chased me down the hall and into the bedroom I shared with my younger brother, who was still an infant, and my older sister. I was afraid of him and he knew it. He closed the door and I tried to hide under the bed, but I could not get away. Afterall, he is at least ten years older than me. He sprawled himself on top of me and stroked my vagina, calling it a pussy. I remember asking him why he called it a pussy, he said it (my vagina) is called a pussy because it soft like a pussy cat. I was able to get out from under his hold and hid under the crib. My older sister and older brother must have heard the commotion, they came barging into the room and my sister was very angry...at me. So angry in fact she used the threat of telling our mother what 'I was doing with Chuck' over my head for many years to come. It was at that point, through all the confusion, I was convinced that all of this was my fault and felt no strength to resist. The fondling and molesting by him became more daring. He would use foreign objects like sticks, magnifying glasses and bobby-pins in more daring places like the backyard, basement and kitchen. Once he even tried to take me out of school, coming directly to my kindergarten classroom. Of course the teacher did not allow me to leave, but I remember becoming so distraught the teacher sent me to the nurses office to calm down. It was at that point I believe my studies became my strength and private solace.

On into the first grade, the molesting continued. I was now six. I remember the time he used a small tree branch and inserted it into my anus; naturally I was torn and sore. I could not sit comfortably in class and remember being so embarrassed because I would constantly fidget. Then there was the time he had forced his penis painfully into my throat and forced me to perform oral sex on him. The next day me jowls, cheeks and throat were so swollen, my teacher and school nurse thought I had contracted the mumps. I wasn't sure when, where or why he left, but I know there was a time when Chuck was no longer living with my family.

I was in the second grade when Chuck reappeared into our lives. We were living in Camp Legune, North Carolina. He would come into my bedroom at night and fondle me, or kneel next to my low bed and have me perform oral sex on him. The most horrible of these nights was my first night at home after being in the hospital for a tonsillectomy. He made his usual visit to my bed and forced his penis into my throat with hard continued thrusting. When he noticed blood coming from my mouth he said with wide eyes, 'It's like your on the rag' I woke up the next morning with my pillow covered in blood.

My father returned from duty, some time later and for whatever reasons, kicked Chuck out. Perhaps he was usually kicked out of the house, but this was the first time I remember my father yelling at him. Chuck struck down my father, and wanted to fight him. I remember my father grabbed a huge chain to defend himself. Chuck backed off and left, vowing he'd return whenever he wanted.

We moved again to Moses Lake, Washington. My best friend was the little girl next door, Kitty. One day, as quick as he had vanished, Chuck reappeared. Knowing my father was now overseas he stayed with my family, against my mothers wishes. Chuck quickly acquainted himself with Kitty and would always track us down and interrupt us during our play sessions. He used dildox and other foreign objects on each of us; usually whatever he could find on the dresser or in the cupboard (candlesticks, bottles..). He spoke with lewd language to us about his girlfriends, sexual acts & hitchhiking. Kitty and I were in the third grade. For whatever reason, Chuck vanished again, and I did not see him again until we were living in Quantico, Virginia.

I was in the fifth grade by now, and he did not try to live with my family, but would always come to our house to wash his clothes, shower or mooch whatever he could. He no longer made attempts to molest me, but was always attempting to glamorize his life by telling tales of his thefts and fights. One time he had hot-wired and stolen a car. Since he had no key for the ignition, he just left it running in our driveway, and verentually drove off. Chuck vanished again, and I am not really sure where he was for the many years to come.

My father retired and we moved to Reno, Nevada. It was at the age of thirteen when I next saw Chuck. He had a wife and two little girls. He always smoked pot, even around his children. I saw him make the oldest girl, Dina, inhale pot smoke from a bong.

At the age of thirteen, I was very withdrawn and shy and to be around boys made me very confused. As I grew older I would not accept dates from boys at school and even into my young adulthood, my relationships with men have always beg strained. The years and uncountable incidents of sexual abuse altered my childhood, girlhood and an important piece of my womanhood. It has only been these most recent years of my life, and after ongoing therapy am I able to know these tragic sexual acts he forced upon me were not my fault.

It is only out of pure unselfishness that I am sending this letter, this being the most difficult emotional task I, or my husband, have ever faced. I want those little girls to know it wasn't their fault. I would like the Court to acknowledge that it was not just one tragic day out of their little lives, but that this violent act has altered the course of their lives, forever.

Sincerely

Joslyn M. Coombes

- Ms. Coombes relayed that she had important information to give to affiant that she felt was relevant in this matter. She then went on to relay in some detail numerous instances of sexual assault committed upon her by Charles Joseph Maki during the period when she was approximately four to nine years old.
- 3. Affiant then instructed Ms. Coombes to immediately reduce her memories of the events to a detailed, written statement and to send it to affiant as soon as it was completed. Said statement was received by affiant on May 9, 1994, and a Xeroxed copy was immediately provided to defense counsel, JANET SCHMUCK, by interoffice mail. 1	RENO, NEVADA, TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1994, 9:00 A.M.
2	THE COURT: Let the record show that we're here on
3	case number CR94-0345, State of Nevada versus Charles Maki.
4	Mr. Maki is present with counsel, Miss Janet
5	Schmuck. The State is represented by Mr. Dan Greco. The
6	Division of Parole and Probation is represented by Mr.
7	Tucker, Mr. Robert Tucker.
8	This is the time and place set for sentencing based
9	on a verdict of guilty to sexual assault on a child under
10	the age of 14 and lewdness with a child under the age of 14,
11	various counts.
12	Now, I have been alerted. Mr. Maki, can you hear
13	me okay?
14	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.
15	THE COURT: So let's go ahead and proceed with the
16	sentencing.
17	I have Mr. Tucker's report and recommendation.
18	I also have a letter in the file from Mr. Menees.
19	And I also have Mr. Maki's letter to me.
20	And I havewe're here in regards towe also have
21	a statement.
22	Go ahead and pick that up, Mr. Greco.
23	MR. GRECO: Your Honor, I provided notice of intent
24	to introduce other-acts evidence at this hearing, the formal pleading, some time ago. And the other-acts evidence is in the form of witness Joslyn Coombes, your Honor. She is outside. I'd like at this time to call her in and have her sworn in and have her take the stand.

THE COURT: Okay. Any comments, Miss Schmuck?

MS. SCHMUCK: Your Honor, I would like to be heard on that prior to the testimony by Miss Coombes.

THE COURT: Go ahead, please.

MS. SCHMUCK: Your Honor, I'd indicate to this Court that I have been given notice, the defense has been given notice by the State that Miss Coombes would be testifying. I do have a copy of her letter.

Your Honor, I direct your attention to Nevada

Revised Statute 176.015, which provides the statutory guidelines for the imposition of sentence on a defendant.

In that particular statute, in Subsection 3 it says that before imposing sentence the Court can afford the victim an opportunity to, A, appear personally or by counsel, and, B, to reasonably express any views concerning the crime, the person responsible, the impact of the crime on the victim, and the need for restitution.

Your Honor, Subsection 3 is, of course, what we refer to as the victim impact statement. And in the case of Buschauer v. State, which is a 1990 Nevada Supreme Court case, that particular court held that a victim impact statement can be introduced at sentencing in two ways. One it can be written in the pre-sentence report. That's pursuant to the Nevada Revised Statute 176.145. Or it can be given in an oral statement to the Court. And that's pursuant to 176.015 (3), as I've just noted.

Now, pursuant to, your Honor, to dictates of Buschauer, the State provided me and Mr. Maki notice of what it intends to do today. We would indicate to you that we are totally in objection to Ms. Coombes testifying primarily because under what we have just--I have just outlined for this Court, she's not a victim in this case, your Honor.

The statute I've just cited to, which we are obviously noting the victim impact statement, says that the word "victim" will be defined according also by statute in 213.005. I would quote for the Court that it defines a victim as a person against whom a crime has been committed, a person who has been injured or killed as a direct result of the commission of a crime, or the surviving spouse, parents or children of such a person. Miss Coombes does not fit into any of these categories, your Honor.

The crimes for which Mr. Maki has been convicted by a jury were not committed against her. She has not been injured as a direct result of these crimes, nor is she a surviving spouse, parent or child of such a person.

Now, your Honor, what the State is asking is that you take a really expansive view of the Buschauer case. It does not cite to any case law, particularly in Nevada, for providing an expansive view of Buschauer. Buschauer is directly on point with the victim impact statement. It does not address bringing people into court who are, one, not victims, and particularly addressing the subject of uncharged prior misconduct.

For that reason, your Honor, we object very strongly to Miss Coombes testifying at this hearing.

Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Mr. Greco.

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, NRS 176.015 is a victimspecific statute. When the Nevada legislation adopted that statute, they gave victims of a crime certain mandatory rights. If a victim of a crime wants to speak to you at sentencing, even if the D.A. and defense attorney don't want them to, even if your Honor does not want them to, that statute gives them the right to. But, your Honor, that statute does not preclude and contains no language whatsoever precluding the State from putting on other evidence that is important for your Honor in terms of general background, general nature, general character of the defendant, all things that are relevant at every sentencing.

Judge, I would submit to you that every day such other-acts evidence comes in in the form of PSI reports. As I mentioned in my brief, Buschauer by its very own facts is that it's specifically talking about a victim impact situation in NRS 176.015.

But, Judge, other-acts evidence is admissible at sentencing so long as it's relevant. Judge, I don't know what could be more relevant for you to determine whether or not this gentleman can be rehabilitated than to hear that he did similar things to his own sister some time ago. I think it's very relevant for that purpose.

But, your Honor, NRS 176.015 does not preclude the State from introducing other-acts evidence involving someone other than the victim. And I challenge Miss Schmuck to show you where in that statute such a preclusion exists. It does not.

Judge, most importantly, I gave her notice as soon as I heard from Miss Coombes about these events. She's going to tell you, Judge, that she heard about this through a relative, and then she contacted me. I didn't even know such a woman existed until about two weeks ago. I then

1 filed my notice. I attached a copy of her statement to that 2 notice. She is going to be testifying here, Judge, just to 3 those things. It's going to be no surprise to defense. I 5 am not going to ask her about any additional matters that are outside of that statement. The defense has had it since 6 I've had it. They're on notice. They now have the 7 opportunity to cross-examine her. I'm sure that they will 8 do that effectively. 9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. 10 I'll overrule the objection. I think it's relevant 11 testimony. We'll go ahead and call her in. 12 MR. GRECO: The State would call Joslyn Coombes. 13 THE DEFENDANT: Oh, she's gotten older. 14 15 MR. GRECO: Your Honor, would you instruct the defendant to not talk to this witness, to not open his mouth 16 while she's testifying. And please ask him to make no 17 interruptions like he did at the trial in front of those 18 little girls. 19 THE COURT: I so instruct. 20 21 Would you please face the clerk and raise your right hand, Miss Coombes. 22 (Witness sworn.) 23

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, may I remain seated during

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, can the record reflect she identified the defendant?

THE COURT: Yes.

Mr. Maki, can you hear? Can you hear?

THE DEFENDANT: I can hear her just fine, sir.

THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Greco.

BY MR. GRECO:

- Q. Miss Coombes, when you were a child, did Mr. Maki live with you during your childhood years?
- A. When I was about four years old, my parents, after seeking advice from child psychiatrists, according to my parents, they sent him to some type of boys' camp in Texas when I was four.

And Chuck, into his teenage years, would hitchhike,

I'm assuming, across country and track the family down wherever we were living and make it his own decision to live with us, and would vanish periodically and then show back up.

- Q. Do you recall a time when you were four living in Oceanside, California?
 - A. Yes, I do.
 - Q. During the time that you lived in Oceanside, did

Chuck ever live with you while you lived there?

- A. It was--that was the period when--just previous to his being sent to Texas.
 - Q. So he did live with you for a period of time?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. While he lived with you in Oceanside, California, did the defendant ever touch you improper in a sexual way?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. Tell the judge what happened as best as you can remember.
- A. I remember Chuck was jumping on the bed in one of the bedrooms, and he asked me to play with him. And I was jumping on the bed with him. And he pushed me down and laid down next to me. And I remember his hands up--him placing his hands under my dress and into my underpants. I became very frustrated and left the room. That was the extent of the touching at that point.
- Q. And that was prior to the defendant being sent to Texas?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. Can you recall where you-- Well, did you move often as a child?
 - A. Yes, we did.
 - Q. Why was that?

A. My father was in the service.

A. Initially, in the beginning, when he moved back in with the family, there--the encounters took place in the bathroom. And I believe I referred them--referred to them in my letter to you as bathroom visits. And these were 1 guite frequent.

There were games that he would play while I was taking a bath or on the toilet, letting himself into the bathroom. There was many incidents where he made a game out of ejaculating into the bathtub and having me pull the plug, and he would, with wide eyes, and appeared to be very excited, watch the sperm float toward the drain.

There were other incidents as well.

- Q. In regard to the activity you just explained, roughly how many times did that happen while you were living in Wheaton, Illinois?
 - A. I don't recall a specific number of incidents.
 - Q. Was it more than a few?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. When Chuck played these games with you, did he ever instruct you in terms of whether or not you could tell other people what he had done?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. What did he tell you?
- A. That he would get very mad at me or that my mother would get very mad at me and hate me.
 - Q. Oh. And how old are you now?
 - A. I'm 30 years old.
 - Q. And how many years older than you is Charles Maki?

9	A. Yes.
10	Q. Describe what happened to the judge.
11	A. During many of the bathroom visits Chuck would
12	disrobe from the waist down and have me perform oral sex
13	while I was in the bathtub.
14	Q. Did you want to do that?
15	A. No.
16	Q. Did you try and stop him from doing it?

18	THE COURT: Let's take a recess.
19	Get some tape and put some tape over his mouth.
20	You can go ahead and go out in the hall.
21	THE WITNESS: Thank you.
22	MR. GRECO: Your Honor, I don't know if the
23	reporter was able to get that last comment, but I heard it
24	very clearly, and it was "Lying ass" or "Lying asshole." T

1	think, words to that effect.
2	THE COURT: I heard the very same thing. That's
3	why I said put some tape over his mouth.
4	MR. GRECO: Thank you, your Honor.
5	THE COURT: We'll wait for her. We'll take a brief
6	recess.
7	(Recess.)
8	THE COURT: All right. Let the record show that
9	Mr. Maki is present with counsel. His mouth is taped.
10	Anything that he wants to communicate with his attorney he
11	can do so in writing.
12	Mr. Greco is present. Mr. Tucker is present. The
13	witness is present.
14	Miss Coombes Is it Coombes?
15	THE WITNESS: Coombes, yes.
16	THE COURT: Excuse me. Miss Coombes is present.
17	We can proceed.
18	Go ahead, Mr. Greco.
19	CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION
20	BY MR. GRECO:
21	Q. Miss Coombes, in regard to these bathroom
22	incidents, did you ever try and keep the defendant outside
23	of that bathroom?
24	A. Yes. I eventually learned to lock the door.

- Q. And did that work?
- A. It did. However, he would wait until I would have to come out of the bathroom.
 - Q. And then what would happen?
- A. Well, there's one specific incident where he chased me down the hallway and into the bedroom that I shared with my then-infant younger brother and sister.
 - Q. And what happened?
- A. I tried to hide under the bed, but I couldn't fit.

 It was a low bed. And he chased me around the room, and at one point was lying on top of me.
 - Q. And what did he do to you?
 - A. He would stroke my body and my vagina.
 - Q. Did you want him to do that?
 - A. Of course not.
- Q. Now, did you remain in Illinois when you moved on into the first grade?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. Did the incidents you have described so far continue on into the first grade?
- A. They became more--more involved, I guess is the word.
 - Q. Describe how they became more involved.
 - A. With frequency and different objects, locations.

- Q. Where was the next location?
- A. I'm sorry. Could you repeat the question?
- Q. Where was the next location the family moved to after Illinois?
- A. I was in the second grade in Camp Legune, North Carolina.
 - Q. And did Chuck live with you at that point?
- A. He did not move with the family, but he did come and stay with the family at some point.
 - Q. Was that still while you were in the second grade?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. Did he ever force you to perform oral sex in the second grade when you were living at Camp Legune, North Carolina?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Describe what happened.
- A. I believe that was during the--it was during that point at that age I had a tonsillectomy. And Chuck had frequent visits to my bedroom in the middle of the night and would wake me up. And the one--one incident that I'll describe was the evening of my arrival from the hospital following the tonsillectomy, and he forced me to perform oral sex on him.
 - Q. Was your mouth injured as a result of that?

1	A. Well, I was still healing from a tonsillectomy, so,
2	yes.
3	Q. Did you start bleeding when he did that?
4	A. Yes. I woke up the next morning, and my pillow was
5	covered in blood.
6	Q. Now, at some point while you were still in the
7	second grade did Chuck leave the home?
8	A. Yes. That was the first confrontation that I
9	recall him having with my father.
10	Q. I just want to focus on what he did to you. At 11	some point did the family move to Moses Lake, Washington?
12	A., Yes.
13	Q. When was that?
14	A. I was going into the third grade.
15	Q. And did the molesting continue at that location in
16	Washington?
17	A. Yes. He reappeared to live with the family. I'm
18	assuming he hitchhiked across country.
19	Q. And what specifically did the defendant do to you
20	once he arrived in Moses Lake, Washington?
21	A. The same type of behavior continued. I had a
22	littlemy friend, who was also in the third grade, was my
23	next-door neighbor. And he would interrupt our play
24	sessions when we would be having tea parties or other games

1	that girls play, and he would interrupt them and
2	Q. Tell the judge what he did.
3	A. He would perform the same acts or have us perform
4	the same acts.
5	Q. Did he use any foreign objects to penetrate you?
, 6	A. Yes. He used what he called dildos. And those
7	being any kind of object that might be on a dresser or a
8	table. Anything from candlesticks toI remember the
9	container of a Leggs' pantyhose, the egg-shaped pantyhose
١٥	container. Just odd things.
L1	Q. Where did he insert these objects?
12	A. Vaginally. 'And encouraged us to play with each
L3	other
L 4	Q. While he watched?
15	Ain a sexual fashion. Yes.
L6	Q. And did those activities in Moses Lake, Washington,
L7	occur with frequency?
L8	A. Frequency meaning what?
19	Q. More than once or twice?
20	A. Yes.
21	Q. At some point did the family move from there to
22	Quantico, Virginia?
23	A. Yes.
24	Q. Approximately when was that?

1	A. I started the fourth grade in Quantico, Virginia.
2	And it was
3	Q. Was Mr. Maki with you when you moved there?
4	A. No, he did not move with the family.
5	Q. Did he show up at some point later?
6	A. Yes, he did.
7	Q. Did the molestations continue?
8	A. I can't recall.
⊹9	Q. Was it at about this time that the molestations
10	beganwell, ceased?
11	A. I don't recall any occurring. But I just remember
12	he would become quite a braggart about places he had
13	hitchhiked, how he survived on crab apple trees, and talk
14	about theft and stealing cars.
15	Q. Okay. Where did the family move after that?
16	A. My father retired, and we moved to Reno, Nevada.
17	Q. In what year?
18	A. 1975, I believe.
19	Q. Did Charles visit the family in Reno?
20	A. Yes.
21	Q. By this point had he married?
22	A. Yes.
23	Q. Did he bring his wife with him when he visited in
24	Reno?

.1	Α.	Yes.
2	Q.	Did he have any children?
3	A.	Yes.
4	Q.	And did any sexual assaults or molestations occur
5	in Reno?
6	Α.	No.
7	Q.	Now, Miss Coombes, did I contact you regarding
8	coming he	ere to court to testify about what Charles Maki did
9	to you?
10	A.	No, you did not.
11	Q.	How is it that it came about that you're here
12	today?
13	Α.	I have a brother named Mike, and he wasmade many
14	attempts	to contact me. Once he did, he informed me that
15	Chuck was	s either going through at the time or the trial was
16	finished	regarding sexual molestation of two young girls.
17	Q.	And who was Mikewhat is Mike's last name?
18	Α.	Maki.
19	Q.	Is he also Charles Maki's brother?
20	Α.	Yes.
21	Q.	And based upon what you heard, did you then contact
22	me?
23	A.	Yes.

And can you recall approximately when that was?

1	A. I believe it was about three weeks ago.
2	Q. Now, after you contacted me, did Mr. Charles Maki
3	attempt to threaten you or intimidate you in any way to
4	avoid you from coming out here, to make you avoid coming out
5	here?
6	A. My husband checked the mail, and there was a letter
7	from Chuck about early last week.
8	THE CLERK: State's Exhibit 1 for identification.
9	(State's Exhibit 1 was marked for 10	identification.)
11	BY MR. GRECO:
12	Q. Now, showing you a letter and an attached envelope
13	that has been marked State's Exhibit 1, would you take a
14	moment to look those over.
15	A. This letter was in this envelope when we received
16	it.
17	Q. Is that the one you referred to about receiving a
18	week and a half ago?
19	A. Yes.
20	Q. Did Mr. Maki make certain threats in that letter?
21	A. There are many statements that I interpret as
22	threatening, yes.
23	Q. Do you think it would be important for the judge to
24	see that letter for the purposes of sentencing?

1	A. Yes, I do.
2	MR. GRECO: Your Honor, at this point I would move
3	for admission of the letter and ask that the witness be
4	allowed to read it into the record.
5	THE COURT: Any comments, Miss Schmuck?
6	MS. SCHMUCK: Your Honor, I'm going to object to
7	this letter being admitted right now. We have no foundation
8	this was written by Mr. Maki.
9	THE COURT: Go ahead and lay the foundation, Mr.
10	Greco.
11	BY MR. GRECO:
12	Q. Was there a return address on the envelope?
13	A. Yes, there is.
14	Q. And what was the return address?
15	A. The top line, which was scratched out, says "Washoe
16	County Sheriff's Office." Second line reading, "Detention
17	Facility." Third line, "911 Parr Boulevard." Final line,
18	"Reno, Nevada, 89512-1000."
19	Q. Were you aware when you received the letter that
20	Mr. Maki was, in fact, at that location in jail?
21	A. Yes.
22	Q. Did someone sign the letter?
23	A. Yes.
24	Q. Who signed the letter?

Α.	It is signed "Chuck."
Q.	And did the letter contain various phrases, unique phrases,	that you recognize as Chuck Maki having used in the past?
A.	Yes.
	MR. GRECO: Your Honor, again, before she gets into any furt	her content, I would move to admit the letter at this poin	nt.
	THE COURT: Can I see it, please?
	THE WITNESS: Yes.
	THE COURT: I've got a letter written to me by Mr.
Maki. I	'm going to compare the handwriting.
	It's the same writing.
	I'll admit the letter.
	(State's Exhibit 1 was admitted into evidence.)
BY MR. G	RECO:
Q.	Now, Miss Coombes, first referring your attention to the e	nvelope, is that envelope addressed to you?
A.	Yes, it is.
Q.	Read the first line of the address to you.
A.	"Joslyn Coombes." Then there's a percentage sign,
"DOA."

A.	Yes,	they	are.
----	------	------	------

- Q. What did you take the letters DOA to mean when you received this letter from Mr. Maki?
- A. The same term that is used if someone arrives to a hospital dead on arrival.
 - Q. May I see that for a moment?

Other than the address to you and a return address, were there any other markings or designations or writings on the front of that envelope?

- A. Yes. On the front of the envelope is written and circled "Chuck Maki, Unit 2-4A," I believe, is what the number reads. Also a quotation, "Remember me? Game player."
- Q. And I think the judge was interrupted for a second. Would you please read that quotation again that is on the front of the envelope.
 - A. "Remember me? Game player."
- Q. Referring your attention to the back of that envelope, were there any writings inscribed on the back?
- A. Yes. Underlined, it says, "See you soon," with two exclamation points.
- Q. Now, would you go ahead and read the letter in its entirety into the record.
 - A. "From Reno, Nevada, April 30th, dash, '94. You always did have a good imagination, Joslyn, but you are a better liar. I give you that.

"To Joslyn and the D.A. So you want to play stupid, eh? Now this is your payback to me. For what?

"Number one, when you were four years old, stupid bitch, you were in California." Or Calif. It's abbreviated.

"Also when you think al this bullshit in your mind took place. Think about it now. I was in Texas, 2,800 miles away," exclamation point.

"Also remember, Joslyn, by of age in Reno you were pimped out in Tahoe by the bartender.

"Also when you stole Dad's car and took it to Wash. State, I and Munch went to get it. Plus you being a coke whore for many years, got pregnant, still on drugs, and couldn't have the drugs and responsibility of motherhood, so you gave your baby up at two years old or so. And the family disowned you. So now what's this? A payback for what?" Underlined, "Cause you fucked up your own life. Cause you were a whore at 13 with a pimp doing drugs and getting drugs from niggers for many years, Jos.

"Hell, I came to Reno to fight Harry, Munch's husband, from Wash. State because you said he was trying to fuck you for his truck. I found out you wanted to fuck him, but Munch found out, so you used me as a scapegoat.

Remember? Come on down, Joslyn.

"Col"-- I believe he's trying to spell Colonel-"and Chicken Bob would like to see you. You telling the D.A. all this made-up," underlined, capital letters,
"bullshit. I will have some real facts and people in court to show what and who you really are and why the family disowned you 17 to 18 years ago. So come on down, Joslyn, with your lies and imagination both," exclamation point.

"Oh, yeah. This case was a railroad job also.

There was no evidence to prove I did anything at all." I believe he's trying to spell tatoo. T-a-t dash t-o-e. "On my stomach and back was what got me in this shit. No med evidence cause I was set up and did nothing at all, period.

Their own dad been doing them, Jos. Sorry to disappoint

you. My lawyer was no good and didn't want the case."

Underline, "She thought like you. And I am appealing all this, then suing my attorney and State for false imprisonment and so on," exclamation point. Underline, "I got damn good grounds, too," with three exclamation points.

And then circled, it says, "I be out in two-four years." And then there's, "I'll be waiting, little sis, and so will other people in Reno from old days," underline, "with bells on," exclamation point. "Call D.A., Joslynn," spelled with two N's.	"I could care less.	The family still won't take you back,"	underline, exclamatio	n point. And then "Chuck" is writte	en, underlined.

- Q. Miss Coombes, when the defendant wrote on the second page, "I'll be waiting, little sis, and so will other people in Reno," what did you take that to mean?
 - A. I thought that that would infer bodily harm.
 - Q. Did you take that as a threat?
 - A. Yes, I did.
- Q. When he wrote, "I'll be out in two to four years," and then capitalized it in a three-quarters triangle, what did you take that statement to mean?
 - A. I took that to infer that he would look for me.
- Q. Did you feel this entire letter was an attempt to intimidate you into not coming out here and telling the judge what you knew about Mr. Maki?
- A. Considering that the entire contents were basically lies and threats, I felt that it was an attempt to intimidate me.
- Q. Now, I want to go over just a couple of specific phrases in the letter and ask if you have any explanation for them.

At the top of the first page, when he says, "Number one, when you were four years old, you stupid bitch, you

1	were living in California," is that true, or is that not
2	true?
3	A. Yes, I was four years old when I lived in
4	California.
5	Q. Okay. And did you also live somewhere else when
6	you were four years old?
7	A. You mean, during that year?
8	Q. Yes.
9	A. Yes. We left California just before my fifth
10	birthday to move to Nebraska.
11	Q. And again in your testimony you referred to living
12	in Oceanside, California, when you were four, correct?
13	A. Yes. That is when my youngest brother was born and
14	where he was born.
15	Q. And you referred to certain acts of sexual
16	misconduct that occurred there while you were living in
17	Oceanside, California, at age four.
18	A. Yes.
19	Q. Do you have any idea what Mr. Maki is getting at
20	when he says, "Number one, when you were four years old, you
21	stupid bitch, you were living in California"? Do you have
22	any idea why he's putting that in the letter?
23	A. His next reference is that he was in Texas. So I
24	believe his recollection is that he was always in Texas.

- A. No, I have not.
- Q. Did you associate with pimps or panderers when you were 13?
 - A. No, I did not.
- Q. Did you ever perform prostitution services in exchange for cocaine?
 - A. No, I did not.
- Q. Now, towards the bottom of that first page refers to a Colonel and Chicken Bob. Do you have any idea who those characters are?
 - A. No, I have not.
 - Q. Have you ever heard Charles Maki use those names?
 - A. No, I haven't.
- Q. How is your relationship with the other members of your family besides Mr. Maki today?
- A. I have two brothers, Mike and Steven. Mike being five years older; Steven being five years younger. They are two of my best friends.
 - Q. Have you been disowned by your family?
 - A. No, I have not.

- A. Yes, I do.
- Q. Miss Coombes, why did you contact me and tell me over the phone the various things that Charles Maki had done to you?
- A. When I heard about the trial from my brother, I realized that this obviously has been an ongoing thing, and I wanted to testify that it was not a one-time incident or an isolated incident for him to commit this type of crime.
- Q. Are you aware that in the underlying offense he was convicted of here last month there were two little girls involved?
 - A. Yes.
- Q. Was your purposes in coming forward, did it have anything to do with those two little girls?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. What specifically did it have to do with them?
- A. I want them to know that it is not their fault and that they should not feel guilty.
- Q. And when you were four and five and Charles Maki was doing these things to you, did you feel guilty at that time?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Did you feel ashamed?

- Q. Did you tell your parents immediately what had happened?
 - A. No, I did not.
 - Q. Why was that?
- A. For several reasons. Feeling ashamed and feeling guilty. And also my sister knew of one of the incidences, and she would use that as a threat. For instance, when I caught her smoking cigarettes, she said, "If you tell Mom and Dad, I'll tell them what you were doing with Chuck."
- Q. Now, in recent years have you been receiving some therapy for--to deal with these problems from your childhood?
 - A. I made the step to take therapy at 25 and 26.
- Q. Miss Coombes, in regards to the events that you testified to here today, are those memories independent of the therapy you've received?
- A. The only references that I made in the letter are memories that I had prior to therapy.
- Q. Now, since we've had you here, the judge doesn't have that letter because you've been here live testifying, so I just want you to focus on what you testified to here today.
 - A. Yes.

1	Q. Do you remember all those events that you've
2	testified to here today independent of therapy?
3	A. Yes. Clearly.
4	Q. And as a result of your therapy, did you then
5	remember some additional events?
6	A. Yes, I did.
7	Q. Events that we have not had you testify to here

- A. Not officially. He did not relocate and move with the family. He would track the family down and show up and, so to speak, stay with us.
- Q. When you used the term, "Track the family down," that indicates to me that possibly Mr. Maki would not know where the family was.
- A. It indicates that because he did not move with us, he would have to, I guess, follow us.
- Q. Would he know where you were at any given time?
 Were you aware--would he know what your address was?
- A. I believe he had ongoing communication with my mother.

2	Q. Kindergarten. I'm sorry.
´3	A. Halfway through kindergarten. I started
4	kindergarten in Nebraska, and we were there for only a six-
5	month period living with an aunt. And we moved to Illinois
6	halfway through kindergarten.
7	Q. During that period of time was Mr. Maki living with
8	your family?
9	A. Yes. From what my parents indicate, guilt set in,
LO	and they brought him back to live with the family.
ι1	Q. How long did he live with the family?
12	A. For about a year.
13	Q. And this was in Illinois?
14	A. Yes, it is.

23	living in Moses Lake, Washington.

Last place with reference to what?

- Q. Did she ask what had happened?
- A. She related it to the tonsillectomy.
- Q. You indicated that your brother, Mike, was a very close friend of yours.
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Do you know why Mike called you?
 - A. Yes.
 - Q. Why?
 - A. He wanted to tell me himself.
 - Q. Why would he want you to be told by him?
- A. Because he's very--he's very well informed what I've been through. And he wanted me to know that the--there was a trial going on, or that it was just over. I am not sure what phase the trial was in. But he wanted me to know that he was continuing his crimes against young girls.
 - Q. Were you ever examined by a doctor?
 - A. For?
- Q. As a result of any of the alleged assaults that you're saying Mr. Maki committed on you. A physician.
- A. Well, there was the one incident where he had me perform oral sex on him, and it was such violent thrusting that my throat, jowls and cheeks were swollen. The school nurse, my mother, thought that I had the mumps. And the physician verified that I did not.

12	Q.	Miss Coombes, I neglected to establish a time frame

14		When you were four years old and living in
15	Oceanside	e, California, when these events first started, what
16	year was	that?
17	A.	It was going intoit was the summer of 1967.
18	Q.	And so how old are you now?
19	A.	I'm 30.
20	Q.	So you were born in what year?
21	A.	1963.
22		MR. GRECO: That's all I have, your Honor.
23		THE COURT: Anything else, Miss Schmuck?
24		MS. SCHMUCK: Nothing further, your Honor.

1	THE COURT: Thank you, Mrs. Coombes. You can step
2	down.
3	THE WITNESS: Thank you.
4	(Witness excused.)
5	THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Greco?
6	MR. GRECO: I have no further evidence, your Honor.
7	THE COURT: Let's address the report and
8	recommendation, Miss Schmuck.
9	MS. SCHMUCK: Thank you, your Honor.
10	Your Honor, first of all, I wouldI'm going to
11	need to make some corrections to the report.
12	THE COURT: Excuse me a minute.
13	Officer, go ahead and take the tape off Mr. Maki.
14	THE DEFENDANT: Thank you, Judge.
15	THE COURT: Go ahead, Miss Schmuck.
16	MS. SCHMUCK: Your Honor, I have had an opportunity
17	to go over the report in some depth with Mr. Maki. And he
18	has indicated to me the following corrections.
19	First of all, on page 2, under the arrest date of
20	January 24th, 1981, under the disposition for that case, it
21	indicates that on November 3rd, 1986, that Mr. Maki was
22	paroled.
23	Mr. Maki wishes me to make the Court aware that he 24	was paroled from one sentence to another. At that point he did not leave the prison.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

MS. SCHMUCK: Also, your Honor, on the date 5/13/88, which shows "Expired sentence," Mr. Maki indicates to me that that date should actually be 5/22/88.

On page 3, your Honor, under the arrest of 9/16/87, the disposition in that case indicates that Mr. Maki was sentenced to two years in the Nevada State Prison and that was suspended for two years probation. Mr. Maki has indicated to me that he was not placed on probation.

On page 5, your Honor--I'm sorry--page 4, your Honor, under "Probation adjustment," the first sentence says, "Mr. Maki was found guilty of the felony offense of burglary on January 30th, 1974, in Ashland, Wisconsin, sentenced to serve a two-year prison term, the term was suspended, and he was placed on three years probation."

Mr. Maki wishes to make the Court aware that he was 18 years old at that time.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. SCHMUCK: And I--just above that, your Honor, on--under "Criminal history continued," it says, "In addition to the above, Mr. Maki has sustained five prior arrests and convictions: 1987, for a bench warrant for failure to pay fine." He indicates to me that those were traffic fines.

Again, on the final paragraph, under "Probation adjustment," where it says, "The defendant was granted an honorable discharge from his probation of December 10th, 1989," Mr. Maki has indicated to me that there was no probation.

On page 5--

THE COURT: So was there prison instead?

MS. SCHMUCK: I believe that there was, your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

MS. SCHMUCK: On the fourth paragraph, the last sentence, Mr. Maki wishes to make the Court aware he did not feel the term "jokingly" was given proper emphasis in that sentence.

THE COURT: Where are we?

MS. SCHMUCK: The last sentence on paragraph four.

On page 6--

THE COURT: Okay. Then give me the connotation.

MS. SCHMUCK: Your Honor, Mr. Maki felt as though that the statement he made was made in a joking manner. He just simply felt that the way the Department had stated it, that the joking was not given the proper emphasis, and he asked me to make the Court aware of that, that his remarks were made in a joking fashion.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. SCHMUCK: On page 6, your Honor, on the third paragraph, it indicates in the last sentence, "Mr. Maki related that he babysat the victims twice, and the father would go to the Gold Dust Casino to drink approximately five times per week."

Mr. Maki indicates to me that he babysat the victims eight to ten times.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. SCHMUCK: On that same page, your Honor, under the fifth paragraph, where it states that "Mr. Maki was taking a shower, and the younger victim came in saying, 'I'll come in and wash your back. I do it all the time for my dad,'" Mr. Maki has indicated to me that in actuality what happened was that the younger child came in while he was in the shower and that she offered to wash his back.

And finally, your Honor, on page 7, the first paragraph, the second sentence, the word "panties," Mr. Maki has indicated it should be "pants," your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MS. SCHMUCK: At this time, your Honor, I would ask that the Court consider a recommendation from the defense as far as the sentencing in this case.

And I would indicate that one of the first things that I did when I became involved in this case was to have a very long conversation with Mr. Maki, which he basically told me the story of his life. And I would submit to you, your Honor, that clearly this has been a troubled life.

Mr. Maki has indicated to this Court previously, and I don't think that he's made any sort of bones about it, is that he's a violent person. I believe he told this Court that prior to trial.

maintained his innocence. Mr. Maki has indicated—has told the Court, as he did to the police officers involved in this, that there was an incident in the shower with one of the victims in this case. But he has maintained his innocence throughout that he did not commit the sexual assaults or the lewdnesses as charged and for which he was convicted.

For that reason, your Honor, we would ask this Court to consider a sentence as follows: that Mr. Maki be sentenced to life with the possibility of parole on Count
III as charged, with concurrent life penalties with parole on Counts IV and V. And that each of the lewdness counts, he receive five years in prison. And that the lewdness counts, the five should run concurrent to Count III.

I would indicate to this Court, your Honor, that Mr. Maki is 39 years old. He would be at least 50 by the time he gets out of prison. He would be taken out of society for a significant period of time. And the defense would submit that that is sufficient in this case.

Your Honor, the one last thing I would ask for--Excuse me, your Honor. Mr. Maki has given me another letter which he wishes this Court to see prior to his addressing the Court. I have made copies available to Mr. Greco and to the Department of Parole and Probation. If I may approach.

THE DEFENDANT: If you please, your Honor, I wish you would read it. I think it would explain a little bit more.

THE COURT: I've read every one so far.

THE DEFENDANT: Well, I appreciate that, Judge.

THE COURT: So, yes, I will read it.

MS. SCHMUCK: And finally, your Honor, again with respect to Miss Coombes' testimony, she has made some very serious charges here, as I'm sure the Court is aware. There's no corroboration of her claims. They're basically unfounded. They are highly prejudicial given the nature of this case and the trial that we've just recently concluded.

We would ask this Court to totally disregard that testimony in sentencing Mr. Maki and direct the Court's Attention to Goodson v. State at 98 Nevada 493 in which the Nevada Supreme Court said, referring to its decision in its--in the Silks decision, "That an abuse of discretion will be found when the defendant's sentence is prejudiced from consideration of information or accusations founded on impalpable or highly suspect evidence."

Thank you, your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you, Miss Schmuck.

Mr. Greco.

MR. GRECO: Your Honor, you heard the facts in this case of the trial, so I'm not going to waste time going over the offense in detail. I would simply submit to your Honor that the proof in this case was very strong on the counts the defendant was convicted of, particularly in light of his admissions to those various lewdness acts that you heard on the videotape.

But, Judge, that brings up an important point, and that is the progression of this defendant's lies from the beginning of this case until the end. Because, of course, now he is--in his letters he has taken a stance that he's totally innocent and has been railroaded.

Judge, you may recall at the beginning of that interview by Detective Stegmaier this defendant denied all culpability. For the first 15 or 20 minutes of that interview he says he didn't do anything wrong, didn't commit any lewd acts. Then when you see, Judge, as the interview progresses, he begins admitting various acts of lewdness on a child.

Now, Judge, he doesn't go any further. Of course, he never admitted penetration, never admitted sexual assaults in that tape. But, of course, you heard the girls' testimony on the stand. They stood up well to cross-examination. I thought their testimony was very compelling. They were extremely believable. Of course, Summer's testimony, the little girl's testimony, was corroborated by the evidence of the hymenal damage, the hymen being folded over on itself and enlarged.

But now we have him going backwards from what he said in the tape, Judge. Now he is saying he didn't do anything at all. Remember in the tape he specifically admitted rubbing his penis over the exterior of Desiree, the older girl's, vagina, a very serious action. Now he's taking the stance that that didn't happen.

So, Judge, as you consider this barrage of letters from Mr. Maki protesting his innocence, I would just ask you to consider, one, the proof at trial, but, two, the progression of his lies and how they have now gone full circle to: I didn't do anything at all.

Judge, one of the factors you have to consider in sentencing is rehabilitation and prospects for rehabilitation. Your Honor is well aware with the minimal success rates of rehabilitating child sex offenders. But what is important here is he is taking his total denial stance. The first step toward successful rehabilitation has to be the offender admitting he did it. This defendant isn't doing that. He's not going to do that. And that's going to make his rehabilitation even more difficult than it would otherwise be.

And, of course, you hear this testimony from Miss Coombes today, which goes to the rehabilitation issue as well.

If he was doing these things 20 years ago with great frequency, it makes his prospects for rehabilitation much less likely.

Judge, the most important factor I've already gone over, and that's the seriousness of the offense. This offense is extraordinarily serious, involving innocent child victims that can't protect themselves.

But, Judge, the other key factor in sentencing is, of course, his prior criminal history. His prior criminal history is abominable. He has four previous felony convictions, including, among other things, battery with a deadly weapon. Now, with these eight felony convictions, he's up to an even dozen convictions. He is a career criminal, your Honor. He also has numerous misdemeanor convictions as set forth in the PSI report.

Judge, his record does not mitigate anything in this case. In fact, his record speaks for a maximum sentence because it's atrocious and because he simply--his previous prison terms, his previous paroles, his previous probationary periods have obviously done nothing to affect this individual's criminal activity. He is not going to change, Judge. He is not going to be rehabilitated.

So the issue is: How do you protect other little children? I submit to your Honor you protect them by taking this man off the streets for as long as is humanly possible.

Judge, you heard the little girls' testimony, and they told you about their pain, and Desiree told you why she didn't come forward right away, why it took 30 days.

Remember, she told you she was embarrassed and she was ashamed. You heard a little bit of that today from Joslyn as well. It's a very normal thing to expect a little child to have happen to them.

Plus, of course, remember that both girls told you Mr. Maki said, "Don't tell anyone, or else I will go to jail." They had these directives from this much older man, who to a little child looks like a very large person, and would be intimidating and frightening.

Judge, at the end of my closing argument you heard me tell the jury to let Mr. Maki know that those little girls were not just sexual aides or sexual tools. You heard me ask the jury to let Mr. Maki know that those little girls had some value. And you heard me ask the jury to let Mr. Maki know that his brand of love as he called it is not going to be tolerated, should not be tolerated by the jury.

Judge, I would ask you to draw the same conclusions. The offense is horrendous. His record is horrendous. I see no mitigating factors whatsoever in this case. I would ask your Honor to sentence the defendant to life terms on Counts III, IV and V; to 10-year terms on Counts VI, VIII, VIII, IX and X; and that each and every one of those eight counts be ordered to run consecutive to one another.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Greco.

Mr. Tucker, do you have anything to add to your report?

MR. TUCKER: Yes, your Honor.

I'd like to clarify the reference to the probation grant on page 3, 1987, and also on page 4.

I have before me the progress report submitted to

1.	Department 8 of this court at the time Mr. Maki was on that
2	probation.
3	It reads as follows: "Upon Mr. Maki being granted
4	probation in this case, he was arrested for parole
5	violation, and eventually his parole was revoked. Mr. Maki
6	served his probation while in prison."
7	THE COURT: Thank you.
8	MR. TUCKER: Nothing further to add.
9	And I would urge the Court to follow the
10	recommendation of the Division, your Honor.
11	THE COURT: Any legal reason why sentence should
12	not be imposed at this time?
13	MS. SCHMUCK: No, your Honor.
14	THE COURT: Give me a couple minutes to read this
15	letter from Mr. Maki.
16	Mr. Maki, do you have anything to say before
17	sentencing?
18	THE DEFENDANT: Well, your Honor, I wrote out a
19	little speech here for you, but I don't think it's going to
20	make much difference actually, what it is.
21	I would like to say one thing, though, one or two
22	things, if you don't mind.
23	You know, everybody knows I'm not too pleased the
24	way my lawyer handled things, which I guess is not here nor

1:0

there either.

But I don't like the way the D.A. keeps putting me down, telling me I'm some kind of a damn child molester, because, Mr., I'm not. I don't care what the Court thinks or how you want to put it to me.

I can understand that he's doing his job. I don't want him to get the wrong idea when I just said that. I mean, he did his job, which he's supposed to do.

I have no priors, I'm not no criminal history, you know, of any of this stuff. I'm not a criminal--I'm not--What did he call me? Whatever that is he was trying to say, that I am never going to change.

Well, if he looks at my record, I did try to change after I got out of prison. Only one time I did a prison term, not two. I got out on parole and didn't want to be on parole, so I wanted back in. I'm not a career criminal. That's what I'm trying to say.

I want to get on with my life, Judge. No matter what it is, whether you send me to prison for the rest of my life or for five years or five months, it doesn't matter. I just want to get on with my life, get this over with.

I've wrote you, I've talked to you the best I can.

I've tried to explain myself the best I can. I don't know how--I don't know how to defend myself other than what I've done. I guess I just say, you know: Hey, Judge, do what you feel you've got to do and the best reason you know how, and whatever happens happens. I just don't know-- I don't know.

I'm not a child molester, and I want to make that clear to this world, the Court and everybody else.

Everybody can think what they want. I didn't do it. I admitted what I did. I did take a shower. I admitted that. It was wrong. I have no problem with that. If I go to prison for the rest of my life for that, fine.

But I didn't touch his daughters. He's the one that should be brought up on the charges, if anybody, because it's proof that wasn't brought up. He has the priors, not me. But everybody is telling me it don't have nothing to do with my case, it has nothing to do with proving my innocence. Well, that's fine, too. One day his turn will come. Twice he has had the brush with the law, twice he got off. That's fine. His day will come.

I don't mean to sound angry, but I am. I can't help that. Through this whole ordeal I have been wanting to try to say something. Nobody wants to listen to me.

Everybody is calling me an ugly son of a bitch and a nasty dude and a pervert, all this other stuff. Fine. Everybody is entitled to their opinion. I'm not. Never have been.

1'	Never will be.
2	Now that I got my anger out, I guess I'll say:
3	Judge, do what you have to do. JustI don't know. I don't
4	know what else to say.
5	THE COURT: Okay.
6	THE DEFENDANT: I justI'm straight up with
7	everything, your Honor. I don't know what to tell you other
8	than that. I just don't know how to say anything.
9	THE COURT: Got you. I understand. I'm straight
10	up, too.
