Case No: 78295

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY  DEPUTY CLERK

Motion To Remove Counsel
Request To Receive Records
And Documents

Comes, appellant Anthony Barr, prose to complain upon appellant counsel Jeannie Hua because there has been no communications via mail or phone, no responses given after numerous attempts to call and letters written.

This complaint pertains with myself requesting my "Opening Brief, Appendix and Court Transcripts," etc. I was not provided with any of these documents and entitled pursuant to N.R.A.P. and Supreme Court Rules and Rules of Professional Conduct.

It is being requested that this court provide this appellant with these appeal filings so he may conduct his own research litigations and be able to prepare for habeas corpus and sentencing motions, or direct counsel to provide these filings and records of this prior to the filing of this Opening Brief and doesn't even know what it contains as issues raised. There has been ineffective assistance of counsel in violation of U.S. 6th Const. Amendments, that is being ignored.

Conclusion And Remedy

Appellant only wishes and requests to be provided with these filed, Opening Brief, Appendix and Trial Trans. may they be provided please, this is very important to my case and rights to be involved with appeals process, or at least to know what it contains, as in Evitts-v-Lucey 105 S.Ct. 830 (1988), and U.S.-v-Cronic, 104 S.Ct. 2039 (1984) also Strickland-v-Washington standards.

If I cannot be involved with my own appeal issues, or be made aware of its contents, myself would like to have this court resolve this complaint fairly with counsel, and if this matter cannot be corrected, then appellant wishes to dismiss this appeal, based upon conflict of interest that are prejudicing this appellants rights, and forward the entire record to myself in accordance with Supreme Court Rule-46.
