ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY  DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DIRECTING ANSWER

This original, emergency petition for a writ of mandamus challenges respondents' compliance with the writ of mandamus that issued as a result of our opinion in Anselmo v. Bisbee, 133 Nev. 317, 396 P.3d 848 (2017).

Having reviewed the petition, it appears that an answer will assist this court in our review of this matter. Therefore, respondents shall have 14 days from the date of this order within which to file an answer, including authorities, against issuance of the requested writ.¹ No extensions of time will be granted.

It is so ORDERED.

, A.C.J.

¹For purposes of complying with this order, respondents' answer shall be filed personally with the clerk of this court in Carson City or by facsimile or electronic transmission; the provisions of NRAP 25(a)(2)(B)(ii), (iii), and (iv) governing other methods of delivery are suspended. See NRAP 2.
