JURY TRIAL JURY ABSENT. Court advised counsel how they are going to address the objections placed on the record last night. Ms. McNeill requested statement of witness Sotelo be admitted as a Court's exhibit. COURT SO ORDERED. Arguments by counsel regarding reference as a "group". COURT ORDERED, a Motion for Mistrial is DENIED, HOWEVER, she does not want counsel go down this road any further with this line of questioning. Mr. Landis advised there is another issue as there was a discovery violation and a "proffer" made to witness Figueroa. Arguments by counsel. COURT noted detective said there was not a proffer, so they would need to get Mr. Brown in, Deft. Figueroa's prior counsel, in to testify and clear up this issue. FURTHER, Court sustains objection to last question asked of witnesses yesterday as it may be more prejudicial than probative and jurors will be admonished to disregard the last question. JURY PRESENT. Court admonished jury to disregard the last question. Testimony and exhibits per worksheets. State rested. JURY ABSENT. At 1:06 PM, David Brown, sworn and testified. Deft. Mendoza advised of his right to testify. Arguments by counsel regarding testimony and whether there was a proffer. COURT stated findings and ORDERED, Objection overruled. JURY PRESENT. Testimony and exhibits per worksheets. JURY ABSENT. Deft's Murphy and Laguna advised of their right to testify. Counsel noted for the record the reasoning for not cross examining Deft. Mendoza. Ms. McNeill renewed motion to sever and objected to cell phone records. Arguments by counsel. COURT will allow counsel to submit supplemental briefs regarding motion to sever. EVENING RECESS CONTINUED TO: 10/3/16 1:30 PM ;

Testimony and exhibits per worksheets. JURY ABSENT. Counsel put on the record an objection that was made on the record. Court advised of her reasoning for her ruling. JURY PRESENT. Testimony resumed. JURY ABSENT. Ms. McNeill objected to "pinging" of phone local as to her client as pinging dates was not provided. Arguments by counsel. COURT finds there was nothing hidden intentionally by the State, it is not trial by ambush, and there is nothing on this that is exculpatory. Further arguments by counsel. COURT finds the best evidence rule wasn't implicated or a violation that would rise to a mistrial and ORDERED, Motion for mistrial DENIED. Mr. Landis clarified he did not directly request mistrial. JURY TRIAL JURY ABSENT. Counsel waived the present of Deft's for this hearing. Mr. Landis noted one of the co-Deft. is going to testify, and advised the Guilty Plea Agreement (GPA) needs to be admitted and she will have to testify truthfully. Arguments by counsel. State advised if after testimony it has to be redacted, then it will be. MATTER RECALLED: Court reviewed case law cited by counsel. COURT finds if on cross examination if credibility is attacked and a redaction is required, State will have to amend without redaction. Mr. Landis advised he just received email from the State with more text messages and requested it be excluded as presented late. Ms. McNeill joined in request. State advised they just received the information. Arguments by counsel. Court advised she will allow a short continuance if needed but does not find this prejudicial as custodian of records is going to testify, and they can ask her where she got the information. Upon Court's inquiry as to how much time needed to review this information, Mr. Landis stated he will talk with his expert. Deft's present. JURY PRESENT. Testimony and exhibits per worksheets. JURY ABSENT. Juror number 12 provided note to Marshal regarding last witness. Juror 12 brought in, without the other jurors, and upon Court's inquiry stated he may have known the last witnesses when he was a child. Upon Court's inquiry, juror advised this fact would not affect his ability to be a fair juror. Juror 12 left courtroom. Counsel advised they have no opposition to leaving juror 12 on the panel. State advised the co-Deft. is the next witness and requested Court admonish Deft. that she is not allowed to mention any gang affiliation of co-Deft., the fact that Deft. Murphy was in Federal custody, and to listen carefully to the question before answering. COURT ADMONISHED witness Larsen as requested by State. JURY PRESENT. Testimony continued. 18 SCARBOROUGH, Chief Deputy District Attorney, without argument, and the Court having 19 considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, and documents on file herein, now therefore, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

20 PROCEDURAL HISTORY

21 On February 27, 2015, Petitioner Joseph Laguna ("Laguna") was charged by way of 22 Superseding Indictment, with the following: CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT ROBBERY (a 23 Category B Felony - NRS 199.480, 200.380 - NOC 50147); BURGLARY WHILE IN 24 POSSESSION OF A DEADLY WEAPON (a Category B Felony - NRS 205.060-NOC
25 50426); HOME INVASION WHILE IN POSSESSION OF A DEADLY WEAPON (a
27 DEADLY WEAPON (a Category B Felony- NRS 193.330, 200.380, 193.165 – NOC

1 50145); MURDER WITH USE OF A DEADLY WEAPON (a Category A Felony – NRS
2 200.010, 200.030, 193.165 - NOC 50001) and ATTEMPT MURDER WITH USE OF A
3 DEADLY WEAPON (a Category B Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.330, 193.165 -
4 NOC 50031). Laguna was charged alongside four co-defendants; Jorge Mendoza, Robert 5 Figueroa, Summer Larsen, and David Murphy in cases C-15-303991-1, C-15-303991-2, C-6 15-303991-3, and C-15-303991-4, respectively.

7 On April 9, 2015, Laguna filed a pre-trial Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. The 8 State filed its Return to Laguna's pre-trial Petition on May 4, 2015. On June 1, 2015, the 9 District Court denied the Petition. After the District Court denied Laguna's Petition, the 10 State advised that it was taking the case back to the Grand Jury to amend the indictment. At 11 the request of counsel, the court entered a plea of Not Guilty to the Second Amended 12 Indictment on behalf of Laguna, but noted the trial date still stood. On May 29, 2015, Laguna 13 was charged by way of Second Superseding Indictment with the same counts as listed in the 14 Superseding Indictment.

15 On September 12, 2016, Laguna's jury trial began. On October 7, 2016, the jury
16 returned its verdict, finding Laguna guilty of Conspiracy to Commit Robbery, Burglary
17 While In Possession of a Deadly Weapon, Home Invasion While In Possession of a Deadly
18 Weapon, two counts of Attempted Robbery with Use of a Deadly Weapon, Second Degree
19 Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon, and Attempt Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon.

20 Laguna was sentenced November 28, 2016 as follows: as to COUNT 1, to a
21 MAXIMUM of SEVENTY TWO (72) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of TWENTY EIGHT
22 (28) MONTHS; as to COUNT 2, to a MAXIMUM of ONE HUNDRED FIFTY (150)
23 MONTHS and a MINIMUM of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS, Count 2 to run
24 CONCURRENTLY with Count 1; as to COUNT 3 - to a MAXIMUM of ONE HUNDRED
25 EIGHTY (180) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of SIXTY SIX (66) MONTHS, Count 3 to run
26 CONCURRENTLY with Count 2; as to COUNT 4, to a MAXIMUM of ONE HUNDRED 27 TWENTY (120) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS, plus a

1 CONSECUTIVE term of ONE HUNDRED TWENTY (120) MONTHS and a MINIMUM
2 of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS for the Use of a Deadly Weapon, Count 4 to run
3 CONCURRENTLY with Count 3; as to COUNT 5, to a MAXIMUM of ONE HUNDRED
4 TWENTY (120) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS, plus a
5 CONSECUTIVE term of ONE HUNDRED TWENTY (120) MONTHS and a MINIMUM
6 of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS for the Use of a Deadly Weapon, Count 5 to run
7 CONCURRENTLY with Count 4; as to COUNT 6, to LIFE with a possibility of parole after 8 a term of TEN (10) YEARS have been served, plus a CONSECUTIVE term of TWO
9 HUNDRED FORTY (240) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of THIRTY SIX (36) MONTHS
10 for the Use of a Deadly Weapon, Count 6 to run CONCURRENTLY with COUNT 5; as to 11 COUNT 7, to a MAXIMUM of TWO HUNDRED FORTY (240) MONTHS and a
12 MINIMUM of EIGHTY FOUR (84) MONTHS, plus a CONSECUTIVE term of TWO 13 HUNDRED FORTY (240) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of EIGHTY FOUR (84) MONTHS
14 for the Use of a Deadly Weapon, Count 7 to run CONSECUTIVELY to Count 6; with SIX
15 HUNDRED FIFTY FIVE (655) days credit for time served. Laguna's AGGREGATE 16 TOTAL SENTENCE was thus LIFE with a MINIMUM of TWENTY SEVEN (27) YEARS.
17 Laguna's Judgment of Conviction was filed December 2, 2016.

18 Laguna filed a Notice of Appeal on December 9, 2016. On January 31, 2018, the 19 Nevada Supreme Court issued an Order affirming Laguna's Judgment of Conviction.
20 Remittitur also issued January 31, 2018.

21 On November 30, 2018, Laguna filed a post-conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas 22 Corpus in case A-18-785267-W. The State's filed its Opposition on January 22, 2019. On 23 February 4th, this court made the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

24 FACTS OF THE SUBJECT OFFENSES

25 At sentencing, the district court judge relied on the following factual synopsis set 26 forth in Petitioner's Pre-Sentencing Investigation Report ("PSI") as well as the 27 // facts which were presented at the jury trial
28 // where the undersigned was the presiding judge.

1 On September 21, 2014, Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department
2 dispatch received a call from a citizen who reported hearing
3 gunshots near her home. She also reported seeing a male wearing a 4 ski mask and holding a rifle, and another male who was lying near the front door of a residence. Victim #1 then called to report two armed men wearing ski masks kicked in the front door of his home.

5 Upon arrival, officers located victim #1 inside the residence. They 6 also discovered victim #2, dead from apparent gunshot wounds,
7 lying over the threshold of the front door. Officers located a blood 8 trail in front of the residence and followed the trail looking for 9 suspects or additional victims. A rifle and gloves were located in the 10 bed of a truck parked near the residence. Officers then observed a 11 male inside of a vehicle and ordered him to exit with his hands up.
12 The male, later identified as co-offender Jorge Mendoza, refused to 13 exit and was extracted from the vehicle by officers. Mr. Mendoza 14 was suffering from a gunshot wound to his left thigh. Upon 15 questioning, Mr. Mendoza told officers he was forced out of his 16 vehicle by two men who shot him in the leg. He also stated he 17 knocked on several doors in the neighborhood looking for help. He 18 told the officers he thought he was being chased and hid in an 19 unlocked car to hide. An officer noticed a white cloth with blood, as 20 well as an orange ski mask on the front driver's side floorboard. Mr.
21 Mendoza was then transported to a hospital.

22 Officers continued to follow a separate blood trail for .2 miles which 23 eventually ended on a separate street. It appeared to the officers that 24 the person bleeding may have been picked up by a vehicle. A crime
25 scene analyst examined the crime scene for evidence and discovered 26 two bullet strikes on the stucco black wall across the street from the 27 residence. Additionally, a bullet fragment was found in the street, 28 along with three casings each stamped with "FC 9mm Luger." There were five casings outside, near the front door of the home and a noticeable blood trail leading from the front of the home to the street.
Inside the residence there were bullet strikes in the walls and multiple casings. The downstairs front door was obviously forced open and the interior frame was broken, lying on the floor.
Detectives questioned Mr. Mendoza at the hospital. He claimed he was alone that night; however, when detectives told him his "buddy" was also shot he stated, "I don't know what he's gonna tell you. I don't know-I don't know him." Mr. Mendoza's version of events was very disconnected and vague and detectives believed he was being deceptive throughout the interview. Detectives executed a

1 search warrant at Mr. Mendoza's residence where they located a 2 Jennings .22 caliber semi-auto pistol, a .22 caliber AK-47 style rifle
3 and numerous cartridges in a gun safe. On September 22, 2014, 4 detectives spoke with victim #1 who stated his father called him and 5 said he heard victim #1 was going to be robbed in the next few days.
6 Victim #1 stated he then went home and retrieved his gun and 7 waited. As he waited, his roommate, victim #2, came home. Victim 8 #1 then heard a loud boom at the front door.

9 There was a second bang and the door opened. Victim #1 looked 10 around the wall of the kitchen and saw a man wearing an orange ski 11 mask, carrying a rifle style gun and another person behind him.
12 Victim #1 stated he fired two shots from his Glock 40 and believed 13 he struck one of the men. The men then began firing at the victims.
14 Victim #1 continued to fire several more rounds and the men 15 eventually left the residence and the shooting stopped for 16 approximately 30 seconds. The victims then made their way to the 17 front door. As victim #2 reached to close the door, victim #1 heard a 18 gunshot and victim #2 dropped in the doorway. Victim #1 retreated 19 back and began to look for a phone. He located a phone and called 20 his father and then 911.

21 Detectives then spoke with a woman who stated the co-offender, 22 Summer Larsen asked her to pick her up a few days prior to the 23 incident and take her to the store. When they arrived, an unknown 24 male got into her vehicle. She stated she then heard Ms. Larsen and 25 the male discussing a robbery that would occur on Sunday. The 26 woman believed they were planning on robbing Ms. Larsen's 27 husband, victim #1, who she was separated from. Ms. Larsen also 28 told her she was responsible for prior burglaries at the home of victim #1.

On October 16, 2014, detectives received information from an individual who stated he buys marijuana from a male, later identified as the co-offender Robert Figueroa. He stated that around the time of the home invasion Mr. Figueroa went missing. Approximately one week later, the male made contact with Mr. Figueroa who told him the following: Mr. Figueroa kicked in the door of the residence and entered with Mr. Mendoza and another male. The home owner shot at them as they forced their way into the home. Mr. Figueroa was shot in the face and left side of his body and Mr. Mendoza was shot in the leg. He stated the third male ran away unharmed and Mr.
Mendoza was caught by police a short distance from the house. Mr.

1 Figueroa also told the male, his girlfriend drove him to California to 2 receive medical attention to avoid detection by LVMPD. The male
3 also told detectives that Mr. Figueroa buys marijuana from victim #1 4 and that the victim supposedly had multiple pounds of marijuana at 5 the time of the home invasion. On October 20, 2014, detectives with 6 the LVMPD Criminal Apprehension Team (CATS) set up
7 surveillance at Mr. Figueroa's apartment. A short time later, Mr.
8 Figueroa exited the apartment and was taken into custody.
9 Detectives immediately noticed a bullet wound on his lower lip area
10 and bullet wounds to his left torso and back. Upon questioning, Mr.
11 Figueroa told detectives he arrived at the residence to buy marijuana 12 and noticed the front door open. As he neared the open door, he was 13 shot and fled the area. He then returned a short time later and drove 14 his car away. Detectives explained to him that police were on the 15 scene in a very short time and questioned his story about returning to 16 get his car. Mr. Figueroa just stared blankly into space and did not 17 offer any more to his version of events. When asked where he was 18 treated for his injuries, Mr. Figueroa stated he was going to need an 19 attorney.

20 On October 24, 2016, detectives met with Mr. Figueroa and his 21 attorney at the Clark County Detention Center. Mr. Figueroa stated 22 he was contacted by his friend, "Maton," later identified as the 23 defendant Joseph Laguna. Mr. Figueroa was told that Mr. Laguna 24 and a male he knew as "DuBoy," later identified as co-offender 25 David Murphy, knew the location of a "stash house" and planned to 26 commit a robbery there. Mr. Figueroa stated Mr. Murphy picked him 27 up with Mr. Laguna in the front seat, while he and Mr. Mendoza
28 were in the backseat. Mr. Figueroa said he was armed with a .40
29 caliber, Mr. Mendoza had a rifle and Mr. Laguna had a .38 caliber 30 revolver. Mr. Figueroa stated he kicked the door of the residence 31 open and all three men entered the stash house. Mr. Murphy stayed 32 in the vehicle which was parked down the street. As he entered the 33 house, he was shot in the mouth and went down. He then got up and 34 began to run out of the house and was shot again in the left side of 35 his back. He eventually ran away and hid in a backyard before he 36 called his sister to pick him up. Mr. Figueroa said he believed Mr.
37 Murphy's girlfriend, identified as Ms. Larsen, told Mr. Laguna about 38 the stash house and also believed there was 30 pounds of marijuana
39 in the stash house. Further, Mr. Figueroa said the .40 caliber pistol 40 he used during the home invasion was at his girlfriend's apartment.

1 On November 18, 2014, Ms. Larsen was arrested on a warrant for 2 charges related to the home invasion. While in custody, detectives 3 heard Ms. Larsen speaking with a male she referred to as 4 "Doughboy." During one of her calls, Ms. Larsen asked Doughboy
5 for his address, which was determined to match the address of Mr.
6 Murphy. On December 10, 2014, detectives spoke with victim #1
7 who positively identified Mr. Murphy as Doughboy and stated Mr.
8 Murphy and Ms. Larsen were friends. Detectives then spoke with the 9 father of victim #1 who also positively identified Mr. Murphy as 10 Doughboy. He also stated he heard rumors that after Ms. Larsen and 11 victim #1 separated; Ms. Larsen began dating Mr. Murphy.

12 On December 11, 2014, officers located Mr. Murphy during a traffic 13 stop. Mr. Murphy was transported to LVMPD Homicide and 14 questioned by detectives. Mr. Murphy stated he knew he was there 15 because of something between Ms. Larsen and victim #1 and 16 admitted he knew them both. Further, Mr. Murphy denied any 17 involvement with the murder and home invasion that occurred at the 18 victim's residence.

19 On February 13, 2015, Mr. Laguna was arrested and transported to 20 LVMPD Homicide and interviewed by detectives. During the 21 interview, Mr. Laguna related the following: he recognized the 22 photos of Mr. Mendoza, Mr. Murphy and Mr. Figueroa and did not 23 recognize the photos of the victims. Additionally, Mr. Laguna denied 24 any knowledge of the home invasion and stated he was never there.
25 Based on the above facts, Mr. Mendoza, Mr. Figueroa, Mr. Laguna, 26 Mr. Murphy and Ms. Larsen were booked accordingly at the Clark
27 County Detention Center.

28 Pre-Sentence Investigation Report at 6-8.

ANALYSIS

29 Laguna has brought seven grounds for relief in his Petition for Writ of Habeas 30 Corpus, all of which allege ineffective assistance on the part of trial and/or appellate counsel.
31 For the reasons set forth below, all of Laguna's claims of ineffective assistance of counsel
32 are without merit. As none of Laguna's claims have merit, he is not entitled to an evidentiary 33 hearing. Finally, Laguna has failed to show that he should be appointed counsel. For the

1 following reasons, Laguna's post-conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, his Request
2 for Evidentiary Hearing, and his Motion to Appoint Counsel are denied.

3 The Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution provides that, "[i]n all
4 criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right . . . to have the Assistance of Counsel
5 for his defense." The United States Supreme Court has long recognized that "the right to 6 counsel is the right to the effective assistance of counsel." Strickland v. Washington, 466
7 U.S. 668, 686, 104 S. Ct. 2052, 2063 (1984); see also State v. Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1138, 8 865 P.2d 322, 323 (1993).

9 To prevail on a claim of ineffective assistance of trial counsel, a defendant must prove 10 he was denied "reasonably effective assistance" of counsel by satisfying the two-prong test
11 of Strickland, 466 U.S. at 686-87, 104 S. Ct. at 2063-64. See also Love, 109 Nev. at 1138, 12 865 P.2d at 323. Under the Strickland test, a defendant must show first that his counsel's 13 representation fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and second, that but for 14 counsel's errors, there is a reasonable probability that the result of the proceedings would 15 have been different. 466 U.S. at 687-88, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2065, 2068; Warden, Nevada
16 State Prison v. Lyons, 100 Nev. 430, 432, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984) (adopting the Strickland 17 two-part test). "[T]here is no reason for a court deciding an ineffective assistance claim to 18 approach the inquiry in the same order or even to address both components of the inquiry if 19 the defendant makes an insufficient showing on one." Strickland, 466 U.S. at 697, 104 S. Ct.
20 at 2069.

21 The court begins with the presumption of effectiveness and then must determine 22 whether the defendant has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that counsel
23 was ineffective. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1011, 103 P.3d 25, 32 (2004). "Effective 24 counsel does not mean errorless counsel, but rather counsel whose assistance is '[w]ithin the 25 range of competence demanded of attorneys in criminal cases.'" Jackson v. Warden, 91 26 Nev. 430, 432, 537 P.2d 473, 474 (1975).

1 Counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or arguments. See 2 Ennis v. State, 122 Nev. 694, 706, 137 P.3d 1095, 1103 (2006). Trial counsel has the 3 “immediate and ultimate responsibility of deciding if and when to object, which witnesses, if 4 any, to call, and what defenses to develop.” Rhyne v. State, 118 Nev. 1, 8, 38 P.3d 163, 167 5 (2002).

6 Based on the above law, the role of a court in considering allegations of ineffective 7 assistance of counsel is “not to pass upon the merits of the action not taken but to determine 8 whether, under the particular facts and circumstances of the case, trial counsel failed to 9 render reasonably effective assistance.” Donovan v. State, 94 Nev. 671, 675, 584 P.2d 708, 10 711 (1978). This analysis does not mean that the court should “second guess reasoned 11 choices between trial tactics nor does it mean that defense counsel, to protect himself against 12 allegations of inadequacy, must make every conceivable motion no matter how remote the 13 possibilities are of success.” Id. To be effective, the constitution “does not require that 14 counsel do what is impossible or unethical. If there is no bona fide defense to the charge, 15 counsel cannot create one and may disserve the interests of his client by attempting a useless 16 charade.” United States v. Cronin, 466 U.S. 648, 657 n.19, 104 S. Ct. 2039, 2046 n.19 17 (1984).

18 “There are countless ways to provide effective assistance in any given case. Even the 19 best criminal defense attorneys would not defend a particular client in the same way.”
20 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S. Ct. at 689. “Strategic choices made by counsel after 21 thoroughly investigating the plausible options are almost unchallengeable.” Dawson v.
22 State, 108 Nev. 112, 117, 825 P.2d 593, 596 (1992); see also Ford v. State, 105 Nev. 850, 23 853, 784 P.2d 951, 953 (1989). In essence, the court must “judge the reasonableness of 24 counsel's challenged conduct on the facts of the particular case, viewed as of the time of 25 counsel's conduct.” Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S. Ct. at 2066.

1 Even if a defendant can demonstrate that his counsel's representation fell below an 2 objective standard of reasonableness, he must still demonstrate prejudice and show a 3 reasonable probability that, but for counsel's errors, the result of the trial would have been 4 different. McNelson v. State, 115 Nev. 396, 403, 990 P.2d 1263, 1268 (1999) (citing
5 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687, 104 S. Ct. at 2064). "A reasonable probability is a probability 6 sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome." Id. (citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-7 89, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2064-65, 2068).

8 The Nevada Supreme Court has held "that a habeas corpus petitioner must prove the 9 disputed factual allegations underlying his ineffective-assistance claim by a preponderance 10 of the evidence." Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1012, 103 P.3d 25, 33 (2004).
11 Furthermore, claims of ineffective assistance of counsel asserted in a petition for post-12 conviction relief must be supported with specific factual allegations, which if true, would 13 entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove v. State, 100 Nev. 498, 502, 686 P.2d 222, 225
14 (1984). "Bare" and "naked" allegations are not sufficient, nor are those belied and repelled 15 by the record. Id. NRS 34.735(6) states in relevant part, "[Petitioner] must allege specific 16 facts supporting the claims in the petition[.] . . . Failure to allege specific facts rather than 17 just conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed." (Emphasis added). A defendant 18 who contends his attorney was ineffective because he did not adequately investigate must 19 show how a better investigation would have rendered a more favorable outcome probable.
20 Molina v. State, 120 Nev. 185, 192, 87 P.3d 533, 538 (2004).

21 I. COUNSEL WAS NOT INEFFECTIVE FOR THE DECISION NOT TO 22 CALL WITNESS JOSEPH LARSEN

23 Laguna argues in Ground One of his Petition that trial and appellate counsel were 24 ineffective for failing to call witness Joseph Larsen¹ to testify, as Larsen "could have proven

27 _____
28 ¹ In the Pre-Sentence Investigation Report, Joseph Larsen is referred to as "Victim 1," one of the occupants of 1661 Broadmere, the home in which the subject crimes occurred. "Victim 2" refers to the deceased victim Monty Gibson, roommate of Joseph Larsen.

1) petitioner was not the perpetrator he had seen and 2) that petitioner was not at the scene of the crime at night of question.” Petition at 6.

First, while Laguna inexplicably claims appellate counsel was ineffective for actions that occurred at trial, Laguna sets forth no facts or argument in support of that claim. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance of appellate counsel, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle Laguna to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim that appellate counsel was ineffective for failure to call a witness at trial is suitable for summary dismissal.

Second, both of Laguna’s conclusory statements fail to specifically identify any helpful statements Larsen would have given, and merely allege that Larsen’s testimony “could” have helped Laguna at trial. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

However, even assuming arguendo that Laguna’s bare and naked assertions were factually sufficient, such assertions are belied by the record and thus Laguna cannot demonstrate that he was prejudiced by trial counsel’s strategic decision not to call Larsen as a witness. Larsen first testified before the Grand Jury on January 29, 2015. Grand Jury Transcript, Volume 2 at 67-95. From the first question posed of him, Larsen revealed himself to be a hostile and unhelpful witness:

EXAMINATION

BY MS. LEXIS:

Q. Mr. Larsen, on September 21, 2014, did you live at an address called 1661 Broadmere Street here in Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada?

A. Ma'am, I refuse to testify.

1 Q. Okay. Mr. Larsen, you are a witness for the State of Nevada so 2 I'm going to need you to please answer my questions. Okay? Joey?

3 A. I refuse to, ma'am.

4 Q. Okay. Why do you refuse to testify before this Grand Jury, Joey?

5 A. I just don't want to.

6 Q. You have to Joey. You're here by order of the District Court and 7 by this Grand Jury. You have to be here today.

8 A. I'm here.

9 Q. Joey, why is it that you do not want to testify before this Grand 10 Jury? Did something happen on September 21, 2014 that you're not 11 wanting to testify about?

12 A. I'm sorry, ma'am, I don't want to answer any questions.

13 Q. Joey, did something happen on September 21, 2014 that caused 14 us to subpoena you today?

15 A. I'm sorry, ma'am, I don't want to answer any questions.

16 Q. Joey, I'm going to ask you to leave the room. I need to speak with 17 the Grand Jury.

18 (At this time, witness Joseph Larsen exits the proceedings.)

19 20 MS. LEXIS: Mr. Foreperson, at this point I will be contacting the 21 chief judge, Judge Barker, and I will be asking to bring Mr. Joey 22 Larsen before Judge Barker to hold a contempt hearing.

23 Id at 67-68.

24 It was only after Larsen was made aware that failing to testify to the Grand Jury could 25 result in a finding of contempt that he eventually capitulated and gave his testimony.
26 Contrary to Laguna's assertions that Larsen's testimony would have provided some sort of 27 alibi defense by proving that Laguna was not at the scene of the crime, Larsen's testimony 28 showed that as he was in the house during the occurrence of the crime, he could not have

1 testified as to Laguna's presence at any other location during the crime. Id at 76-96. While 2 Laguna's assertion that Larsen saw only two people at the home is correct, the resultant
3 inference that Laguna could not have been one of the co-defendants is fatally flawed. Larsen
4 testified that he saw two people wearing masks enter the home that evening. Id at 76-84.
5 Larsen thus could not have testified that Laguna was not at the scene; given the masks worn 6 by the two people who entered the home, Larsen had no factual basis to testify that either of 7 those people were or were not Laguna. At best, Larsen's testimony would have indicated that 8 he could not verify that Laguna was present at the home on the night of the subject crimes, 9 which is insufficient to support an alibi defense.

10 Further, even if Larsen testified that he could not be 100% certain that Laguna was at 11 the home that evening, there was overwhelming evidence presented at trial that Laguna was 12 at the home and intricately involved with the criminal conspiracy. Larsen's excited 13 utterances to his family about what he saw at the scene were introduced into evidence
14 through his wife, Summer Larsen, and his father, Steven Larsen, as well as Larsen's 911
15 calls made shortly after the subject crimes. Trial Transcript, Day 5-19. Further, cell phone 16 tracking data, introduced through State's expert Detective Gandy, placed Laguna in the 17 neighborhood of 1661 Broadmere at the time of the subject crimes. Trial Transcript, Day 9.
18 Finally, Laguna's own co-defendant Robert Figueroa testified that Laguna called him and 19 told him he had a "lick (robbery)" lined up, and that he wanted Figueroa to help him with it.
20 Trial Transcript, Day 10, at 218-219. Laguna even called Figueroa later in the day to ensure 21 that Figueroa would help with the robbery. Id at 234. Figueroa's testimony ultimately places 22 himself, Laguna, and the two other male co-defendants at the scene of the crimes together on 23 that night. Id at 241.

24 In the face of the overwhelming evidence that Laguna was indeed at the scene and 25 intricately involved in the subject crimes, the strategic decision of choosing not to call Jason 26 Larsen, a hostile and unhelpful witness with no factual basis to rebut testimony that Laguna 27 was present at the scene, does not constitute ineffective assistance of counsel as Laguna

1 cannot show that he was prejudiced by the absence of Larsen's testimony. As set forth in 2 Dawson, 108 Nev. at 117, 825 P.2d at 596, strategic decisions, including which witnesses
3 counsel decides to call at trial, are almost unchallengeable. Further, trial counsel was not 4 required to call a witness whose testimony would have been futile to support an alibi
5 defense. See Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 1103 (noting counsel cannot be ineffective
6 for failing to make futile objections or arguments); Rhyne, 118 Nev. at 8, 38 P.3d at 167 7 (2002). (noting trial counsel has the "immediate and ultimate responsibility of deciding if 8 and when to object, which witnesses, if any, to call, and what defenses to develop.").

9 The court finds Laguna's bare, naked assertions regarding ineffective assistance of 10 counsel in regards to the strategic decision not to call witness Joseph Larsen are thus without 11 merit and belied by the record. Thus, the court finds Laguna has failed to show that trial 12 counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that 13 he suffered prejudice from the absence of Larsen's testimony, nor has he shown that the 14 results of the trial would have been different had Larsen testified. For these reasons, Ground 15 One of Laguna's Petition is hereby denied.

17 ELICIT TESIMONY FROM A CELLULAR PHONE EXPERT

18 Laguna argues in Ground Two of his Petition that trial and appellate counsel were 19 ineffective for failing to call a better cellular phone expert than the expert called by the State, 20 as "[t]his expert knew more on the subject of this subject than non-experts on this subject 21 and could have presented evidence that would have been positive for defense." Petition at 7.

22 First, while Laguna inexplicably claims appellate counsel was ineffective for actions 23 that occurred at trial, Laguna sets forth no facts or argument in support of that claim. Such 24 conclusory statements of ineffective assistance of appellate counsel, unaccompanied by 25 claims of specific factual information, do not entitle Laguna to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 26 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna's claim that

1 appellate counsel was ineffective for failure to call an expert witness at trial is suitable for 2 summary dismissal.

3 Second, although it appears Laguna was referring to a specific expert in his reference
4 to “[t]his expert,” Laguna does not identify a specific expert by name, nor does he set forth
5 any specific factual information as to what such an expert would have testified to. Laguna 6 only makes the bare, naked allegations that such an expert “could have presented evidence
7 that would have been positive for defense.” Petition at 7. Just as in Ground One, Laguna’s 8 conclusory statement fails to specifically identify any helpful testimony that a competing 9 cellular phone expert would have given, and merely allege that such an expert’s testimony
10 “could” have helped Laguna at trial. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance, 11 unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle the petitioner to 12 relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS
13 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

14 Third, the substance of Laguna’s claim is more properly brought as a failure to 15 investigate claim, in that Laguna alleges further investigation of the cell tower records would 16 have uncovered evidence showing that Laguna was not in the vicinity of the crimes on the 17 night in question. However, this claim also fails, as Laguna offers nothing but vague 18 supposition that expert witness testimony would have provided “evidence that would have 19 been positive.” Petition at 7. Laguna offers no argument that the State’s expert witness’s 20 testimony was factually inaccurate, nor that the State’s expert came to an inaccurate
21 conclusion regarding the whereabouts of Laguna on the night of the subject crimes. Such a 22 bare, naked assertion is not sufficient to warrant relief under Hargrove. Further, pursuant to 23 Molina, 120 Nev. at 192, 87 P.3d at 538, a defendant who contends his attorney was 24 ineffective because she did not adequately investigate must show how a better investigation 25 would have rendered a more favorable outcome probable. Laguna’s vague assertions do not 26 establish how a better investigation would have rendered a more favorable trial outcome 27 more probable.

1 Fourth, just as in Ground One, the decision whether to call certain witnesses is 2 counsel's prerogative, and such strategic decisions are "virtually unchallengeable." Dawson, 3 108 Nev. at 117, 825 P.2d at 596. Laguna fails to allege a flawed methodology in how the 4 State's expert interpreted the cell tower information to show Laguna's whereabouts on the 5 night of the subject crimes, therefore it would have been a futile argument to suggest that 6 competing expert's testimony would have been helpful to Laguna's case; counsel cannot be 7 ineffective for failing to advance futile arguments. See Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 8 1103.

9 Just as in Ground One, the court finds Laguna has not shown that trial counsel's 10 actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that he suffered 11 prejudice from the absence of expert witness testimony regarding cellular phones, nor has he 12 shown that the results of the trial would have been different had trial counsel called a 13 competing expert to rebut the State's expert testimony. For these reasons, Ground Two of 14 Laguna's Petition is denied.

16 TO TESTIMONY FROM STEVEN LARSEN

17 Laguna argues in Ground Two of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 18 failing to object to statements made at trial by Steven Larsen, father of victim Joseph Larsen.
19 Laguna alleges that such statements were improper as "[t]hese statements that witness was 20 stating were made by a still-living individual that could have been at trial and stated under 21 sworn testimony." Petition at 8. It appears Laguna is arguing that portions of Steven 22 Larsen's testimony were hearsay, and that counsel was ineffective to failing to object to such 23 hearsay.

24 First, although it appears Laguna was referring to hearsay statements, Laguna does 25 not identify a specific hearsay statement or set of hearsay statements made by Steven Larsen, 26 thus it is effectively impossible to determine whether such statements were or were not 27 hearsay. Laguna only makes the bare, naked allegations that "[i]f the jurors would not have

1 heard this statement by non-testifying witness² outcome could have been different either by 2 hearing from this person or being instructed to not take in last statements made....” Petition at 3 8. Just as in Grounds One and Two, the court finds Laguna’s conclusory statement fails to 4 specifically identify any hearsay statements allegedly given, and merely allege that the 5 absence of such statements “could” have helped Laguna at trial. Such conclusory statements 6 of ineffective assistance, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not 7 entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to 8 Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on this issue is suitable for summary 9 dismissal.

10 Second, contrary to Laguna’s assertions, trial counsel did object—three separate 11 times—to Steven Larsen’s testimony on the grounds that his statements constituted hearsay:

12 Q. And what is the - - what does your son tell you about what 13 occurred inside the residence?

14 MS. McNEILL: Objection.

15 MR. LANDIS: Can we approach?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 (Off-record bench conference)

19 BY MR. DiGIACOMO: I’ll ask it again. What did your son sort of 20 tell you about what happened inside the house?

21 ***

22 Q. Based upon all of that, you felt comfortable or at least you 23 believed
24 that Summer’s involved? Is that fair?

25 A. Oh, yeah. I have no doubt in my mind.

28

2 Presumably Joseph Larsen.

1 Q. So let me ask you, did Joseph at least initially believe that 2 Summer had anything to do with it?

3 MR. LANDIS: Objection.

4 MS. McNEILL: Objection. Speculation and hearsay.

5 MR. DiGIACOMO: Let me rephrase.

6 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm going to sustain that so go ahead.

9 Q. Did you see Joseph doing things or behaving in certain manners 10 that indicated to you that he's still in a relationship with Summer?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. What did he do?

13 A. He told me that - -

14 MS. McNEILL: Objection.

15 Q. Without telling us what he told you.

16 A. Oh.

18 Trial Transcript, Day 9, at 27-34.

19 Laguna's claims that counsel failed to object to hearsay statements is plainly belied by 20 the record. Trial counsel Monique McNeill objected on multiple occasions to statements that 21 could be construed as hearsay. Further, the court sustained one of those objections, and the 22 State agreed after other objections to either rephrase its questions or direct the witness not to 23 answer in a way that such an answer would constitute hearsay. Thus, even if those statements 24 were hearsay, trial counsel's timely objections, as well as the court and state's responses to 25 such objections, removed any prejudice that such statements would have had. Laguna's 26 claim is belied by the record; further, as counsel's proper objections prevented the jury from 27 considering hearsay testimony, Laguna cannot show that he was prejudiced by such

1 statements. As Laguna cannot show prejudice, he has failed to establish the second prong of 2 McNelson, which requires he demonstrate prejudice and show a reasonable probability that,
3 but for counsel's alleged errors, the result of the trial would have been different. 115 Nev. at 4 403, 990 P.2d at 1268.

5 Third, even assuming arguendo that Laguna's claim in Ground Three establishes a 6 claim that counsel was ineffective for failing to call Joseph Larsen to testify as to what 7 Steven Larsen testified to at trial, such a claim has already been addressed in Ground One of 8 Laguna's Petition.

9 Just as in Grounds One and Two, the court finds that Laguna has not shown that trial 10 counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that 11 he suffered prejudice from Steven Larsen's alleged hearsay statements. Further, the court 12 finds Laguna cannot show that the results of the trial would have been different had trial
13 counsel objected to Steven Larsen's hearsay statements, as the record shows that trial
14 counsel did exactly that. Laguna's claims in Ground Three are belied by the record and fail
15 to establish ineffective assistance of counsel for multiple reasons. For these reasons, Ground 16 Three of Laguna's Petition is denied.

18 TO TESTIMONY FROM DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

19 Laguna argues in Ground Four of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 20 failing to object to statements made at trial by Detective Tod Williams concerning what he 21 was told by Amanda Mendoza regarding an iPhone location app. Laguna alleges that "a part 22 of being affective [sic] trial counsel is objecting at all times during trial." Petition at 8. It 23 appears that Laguna is arguing that Detective Williams's testimony regarding what Ms.
24 Mendoza told him was hearsay, rather than the nonsensical assertion that trial counsel is 25 under some duty to object "at all times during trial."

26 First, just like in Grounds One, Two, and Three, although it appears Laguna was 27 referring to hearsay statements, Laguna does not identify a specific hearsay statement or set

1 of hearsay statements made by Detective Williams, thus it is effectively impossible to 2 determine whether such statements were or were not hearsay. Laguna only makes the bare,
3 naked allegations that “[t]he outcome of trial could have been different by juror members not 4 hearing this from this detective.” Petition at 9. Also, just as in Grounds One, Two, and Three, 5 Laguna’s conclusory statement fail to specifically identify any hearsay statements allegedly 6 given, and merely allege that the absence of such statements “could” have helped Laguna at 7 trial. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance, unaccompanied by claims of 8 specific factual information, do not entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 9 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on 10 this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

11 Second, Laguna’s claims that counsel was ineffective for failing to object to a hearsay 12 statement by Detective Williams is without merit, as Detective Williams’ statements made at 13 trial were not hearsay. The court finds Laguna’s claim is meritless because Williams neither 14 relayed a statement Amanda made to him, nor was Williams’ observation given for the truth 15 of the matter asserted.

16 At trial, Michelle Estavillo testified that Amanda Mendoza used an app on her phone 17 to ping Mendoza’s location in an attempt to find him after he disappeared with his car and 18 would not return her phone calls. Trial Transcript, Day 7 at 95-141. At the time, co-19 defendant Jorge Mendoza had already been apprehended by police from the scene of the 20 crime and was receiving treatment at University Medical Center. Id. Murphy later came to 21 pick Amanda up and take her to the car, which was present by 2:00 a.m. the next day when 22 police arrived. Id.

23 Later, Detective Williams testified about his experience interviewing Amanda 24 Mendoza. Trial Transcript, Day 9 at 113-150. Detective Williams testified that he observed a 25 location on an iPhone app on Amanda’s phone, and that he later went to that location. Id.
26 The State introduced a map and asked Detective Williams if the map showed the location
27 that he observed on the app. Id.

1 It is unclear how Laguna believes this could be hearsay. Hearsay requires a 2 “statement,” and a “statement” must be an oral or written assertion, or some nonverbal
3 conduct by a person intended to make an assertion. NRS 51.035-45. Moreover, hearsay
4 requires a declarant, which must be a person. NRS 51.025. Laguna cites to no authority that 5 an inanimate object makes an “assertion” subject to the hearsay rule, and an inanimate object
6 is certainly not a “person,” and so can neither be a declarant nor can it make a nonverbal
7 assertion. The California Supreme Court and some federal courts have held that machines are 8 not declarants for purposes of the Confrontation Clause. See People v. Lopez, 55 Cal. 4th
9 569, 286 P.3d 469, 478 (Cal. 2012) (noting agreement with federal courts). Regardless, 10 Detective Williams’ observation of the information displayed on the phone screen would not 11 be excluded as hearsay under the silent witness doctrine since the image on the phone 12 “speaks for itself” in much the same way as a video does. See, Rogers v. State, 902 N.E.2d
13 871, 876 (Ind. Ct. App. 2009); McHenry v. State, 820 N.E.2d 124, 128 (Ind. 2005); Edwards
14 v. State, 762 N.E.2d 128, 136 (Ind. Ct. App. 2002); Wagner v. State, 707 So. 2d 827, 830
15 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1998).

16 Although Laguna makes no cogent arguments regarding hearsay in his Petition, the 17 State assumes that Laguna is arguing that in some manner Amanda was making a statement 18 through her phone. Petition at 9. Even assuming, arguendo, that this could be the case, where 19 Amanda went to retrieve her car was not what Detective Williams testified to. Detective 20 Williams said that he went to a location that he saw on Amanda’s phone. Trial Transcript, 21 Day 9 at 113-150. Defense counsels objected, on differing grounds, when Williams was 22 asked whether he recognized on a map the location that he went to after observing a location 23 on a phone. Id. None of these are statements, and the Court overruled the objection. Id. Even 24 if, somehow, this could be construed as a “statement,” it was not offered for the truth of the 25 matter asserted (presumably that is where Amanda went to retrieve the car) but to explain 26 why Detective Williams went to that location. Under no plausible analysis, then, is an 27 observation of a phone hearsay.

1 Laguna's argument on this claim has, in fact, already been examined by the Nevada
2 Court of Appeals. Order of Affirmance, Dec. 27, 2017, case 71939. The relevant analysis
3 and holding are as follows:

4 Laguna next argues the district court improperly allowed hearsay
5 evidence by admitting Detective Williams' testimony of Amanda
6 Mendoza's statements regarding the app she used to locate
7 accomplice Jorge Mendoza's phone. Defense counsel did not object 8 to this testimony below, and we therefore review for plain error.
9 Rimer v. State, 351 P.3d 697, 715 (2015) (holding that to prevail
10 under a plain error review a defendant must show both that the error 11 is apparent from a casual inspection of the record and that the error 12 was prejudicial, affecting the defendant's substantial rights). We 13 conclude Laguna has failed to show plain error in this instance, because even assuming, arguendo, this is hearsay apparent from a casual inspection of the record, Laguna has not shown how this evidence prejudiced his case in light of the substantial evidence placing him at the scene of the crime, including the accomplices'
testimonies and the cell phone records.

14 Order of Affirmance at 3-4 (emphasis added).

15 The Court of Appeals' holding that Laguna did not demonstrate prejudice even if 16 Detective Williams' statements were hearsay is significant, as the level of prejudice 17 necessary to establish an ineffective assistance of counsel claim is the same as that necessary 18 to find plain error. See Gordon v. United States, 518 F.3d 1291, 1300 (11th Cir. 2008) ("the 19 'substantial rights' standard of plain error review is identical to the 'prejudice' standard of an 20 ineffective assistance claim.") Thus, regardless of whether trial counsel should have objected 21 Detective Williams' statement, Laguna cannot show the level of prejudice necessary to 22 establish an ineffective assistance of counsel claim.

23 Fourth, Laguna's claim in Ground Four is procedurally barred. NRS 34.810 provides 24 in pertinent part that:

- 25 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:
26 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or 27 guilty but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an 28

1 allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or 2 that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

3 (b) The petitioner's conviction was the result of a trial and the 4 grounds for the petition could have been:

5 (1) Presented to the trial court;

6 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of 7 habeas corpus or postconviction relief; or

8 (3) Raised in any other proceeding that the petitioner has 9 taken to secure relief from the petitioner's conviction and sentence, 10 unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the 11 grounds and actual prejudice to the petitioner.

12 3. Pursuant to subsections 1 and 2, the petitioner has the burden of 13 pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate:

14 (a) Good cause for the petitioner's failure to present the claim 15 or for presenting the claim again; and

16 (b) Actual prejudice to the petitioner.

17 (emphasis added).

18 Laguna was found guilty pursuant to jury verdict on October 7, 2016. Thus, as his 19 claim in Ground Four could have been—and was—raised in his direct appeal, Laguna must 20 show both good cause for bringing this claim again in the instant Petition and that he would 21 suffer actual prejudice if the court did not consider his claim pursuant to NRS 34.810(3). As 22 the Court of Appeals has already determined that Laguna failed to show that he suffered 23 actual prejudice, he has already failed to meet his burden under NRS 34.810(3). Further,
24 Laguna advances no argument whatsoever that he has good cause for presenting this claim
25 again in the instant Petition. For those reasons, Laguna's claim that counsel was ineffective
26 for failing to object to hearsay statements from Detective Williams is procedurally barred 27 pursuant to NRS 34.810.

28 Just as in all grounds alleged thus far, the court finds Laguna has not shown that trial counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that he suffered prejudice from Detective Williams' alleged hearsay statements. Further, the court finds Laguna cannot show that the results of the trial would have been different had those alleged hearsay statements regarding information shown on the iPhone app had not been presented before the jury, as the record shows that there was overwhelming evidence that

1 Laguna was present at the scene of the crimes. The court finds Laguna's claims in Ground
2 Four are without legal merit, are procedurally barred, and fail to establish ineffective
3 assistance of counsel for multiple reasons. For these reasons, Ground Four of Laguna's 4 Petition is denied.

5 V. TRIAL COUNSEL WAS NOT INEFFECTIVE FOR THE DECISION NOT 6 TO ARGUE THAT DETECTIVE GANDY SHOULD BE LIMITED TO 7 LAY TESTIMONY

8 Laguna argues in Ground Five of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 9 failing to object to statements made at trial by Detective Christopher Gandy, who testified as 10 an expert regarding how cellular phones work, how phones interact with towers, and the 11 interpretation of that information. Laguna alleges that "trial counsel should have argued the 12 fact that Detective Gandy was limited to offering lay testimony." Petition at 9.

13 First, keeping with Laguna's pattern of unsubstantiated claims, just as in Grounds
14 One, Two, Three, and Four, it appears Laguna is challenging Detective Gandy's designation
15 as an expert witness under NRS 50.275 and Hallmark v. Eldridge, 124 Nev. 492, 499, 189
16 P.3d 646, 650 (2008). However, Laguna fails to set forth any specific claim that the trial
17 court somehow wrongly concluded that Detective Gandy was qualified to testify as an expert 18 witness. Laguna only makes the bare, naked, and vague allegations that "[t]rial counsel has a 19 duty to argue certain facts during trial and should have argued this issue, but because she 20 didn't petitioner suffered from this testimony with no argument [sic] on this subject."
21 Petition at 9. Just as in Grounds One, Two, Three, and Four, Laguna's conclusory statement 22 fails to specifically identify any reasons why Detective Gandy should not have been 23 permitted to render expert testimony, and merely alleges that the trial outcome "could" have 24 been different if this was argued. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance, 25 unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle the petitioner to 26 relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS
27 34.735(6), Laguna's claim on this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

1 Second, just as in Ground Four, Laguna's argument on this claim has already been 2 examined by the Nevada Court of Appeals. Order of Affirmance, Dec. 27, 2017, case 71939.
3 The relevant analysis and holding are as follows:

4 Laguna first contends Detective Gandy's expert testimony was 5 improper because he was limited to testifying as a lay witness and 6 his
7 testimony pinpointing cell phone locations exceeded this scope. Laguna notes that prior to trial the State failed to provide to him with 8 the evidence upon which Detective Gandy testified. We generally 9 review the district court's decision to admit testimony for an abuse of 10 discretion, Brant v. State, 130 Nev. __, __, 340 P.3d 576, 579 (2014), 11 but will review for plain error if the defendant failed to object to the 12 alleged error below. See Green v. State, 119 Nev. 542, 545, 80 P.3d
13 93, 95 (2003). If the State intends to offer expert testimony, the State 14 must provide opposing counsel with notice of the witness and the 15 proposed testimony. Burnside v. State, 131 Nev. __, __, 352 P.3d 627, 637 (2015); see also NRS 174.234(2). Failure to endorse a witness will be procedural error but will not warrant reversal unless the error prejudiced the defendant. Jones v. State, 113 Nev. 454, 473, 9:37 P.2d
55, 67 (1997).

16 Laguna's arguments are belied by the record. The State noticed 17 Detective Gandy as an expert who would testify to "how cellular 18 phones work, how phones interact with towers, and the interpretation
19 of that information." Nothing in the record suggests Detective Gandy 20 was not qualified to offer that testimony, or that his testimony at trial
21 exceeded the scope of that disclosure. Further, defense counsel did 22 not argue at trial that Detective Gandy was limited to offering lay 23 testimony. The objections in the record on which Laguna now relies 24 regarded allegedly undisclosed trial exhibits summarizing the data, 25 and arguments against allowing Detective Gandy to draw certain 26 conclusions based on that data. However, defense counsel eventually 27 conceded they had received all of the data upon which Detective 28 Gandy relied, and NRS 52.275(1) allows a party to compile and summarize the "contents of voluminous writings ... which cannot conveniently be examined in court" so long as the originals are made available to the opposing party, as was the case here. We therefore conclude Laguna fails to show any error warranting reversal.

1 The record before us shows that the State presented Detective Gandy 2 as an expert witness, that he set forth his qualifications in support of 3 his expertise, and that defense counsel did not contest Detective
4 Gandy's qualifications.

5 Id at 2-3, fn. 3.

6 Thus, the Court of Appeals has already found that Detective Gandy could offer expert 7 testimony as presented at trial, and that Laguna failed to show any error requiring reversal.
8 As the level of prejudice necessary to establish an ineffective assistance of counsel claim is 9 the same as that necessary to find plain error, regardless of whether trial counsel should have 10 objected to Detective Gandy's qualifications to render expert testimony, Laguna cannot show 11 the level of prejudice necessary to establish an ineffective assistance of counsel claim. See 12 Gordon, 518 F.3d at 1300.

13 Third, Laguna's claim in Ground Five is procedurally barred. As noted above, NRS 14 34.810 provides in pertinent part that:

15 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

16 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or 17 guilty but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an 18 allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or 19 that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

20 (b) The petitioner's conviction was the result of a trial and the 21 grounds for the petition could have been:

22 (1) Presented to the trial court;

23 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of 24 habeas corpus or postconviction relief; or

25 (3) Raised in any other proceeding that the petitioner has 26 taken to secure relief from the petitioner's conviction and sentence, 27 unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the 28 grounds and actual prejudice to the petitioner.

3. Pursuant to subsections 1 and 2, the petitioner has the burden of pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate:

(a) Good cause for the petitioner's failure to present the claim
or for presenting the claim again; and

(b) Actual prejudice to the petitioner.

(emphasis added).

1 Laguna was found guilty pursuant to jury verdict on October 7, 2016. Thus, as his 2 claim in Ground Five could have been—and was—raised in his direct appeal, Laguna must 3 show both good cause for bringing this claim again in the instant Petition and that he would 4 suffer actual prejudice if the court did not consider his claim pursuant to NRS 34.810(3). As 5 the Court of Appeals has already determined that Detective Gandy was qualified to give 6 testimony as an expert, and that Laguna failed to show error requiring reversal, he has 7 already failed to meet his burden of establishing prejudice under NRS 34.810(3). Further,
8 Laguna advances no argument whatsoever that he has good cause for presenting this claim 9 again in the instant Petition. For those reasons, the court finds Laguna's claim that counsel 10 was ineffective for failing to object to Detective Gandy's expert qualifications and/or 11 testimony is procedurally barred pursuant to NRS 34.810.

12 Just as in all Grounds alleged thus far, the court finds Laguna has not shown that trial 13 counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that 14 he suffered prejudice from the introduction of Detective Gandy's expert testimony. Further, 15 the court finds Laguna cannot show that the results of the trial would have been different had 16 such testimony regarding Laguna's location as evidenced by the cell tower records not been 17 presented before the jury, as the record shows that there was overwhelming evidence that 18 Laguna was present at the scene of the crimes. The court finds Laguna's claims in Ground
19 Five are without legal merit, are procedurally barred, and fail to establish ineffective
20 assistance of counsel for multiple reasons. For these reasons, Ground Five of Laguna's 21 Petition is denied.

23 TO HEARSAY TESTIMONY FROM DETECTIVE JENSEN

24 Laguna argues in Ground Six of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 25 opening the door to alleged hearsay statements from Detective Barry Jensen, who testified as 26 to his various observations regarding his investigation of the crime scene. Laguna alleges

1 that "Detective Jensen was cross-examined by trial counsel when trial counsel opened the 2 door to hearsay, therefore inviting error." Petition at 7.

3 First, Laguna brings another unsubstantiated claim in Ground Six, just as in Grounds
4 One, Two, Three, Four, and Five. Again, Laguna fails to set forth any specific claim that any 5 specific statement or set of statements constituted hearsay, or that any specific statement or 6 set of statements constituted opening the door to such hearsay statements. Laguna only 7 makes the bare, naked, and vague allegations that "[p]etitioner was prejudiced by this 8 hearsay that counsel allowed in by line of questioning. Petitioner could have had a different 9 outcome in trial if this line of cross-examination would have never been heard by jurors."
10 Petition at 7. Just as in Grounds One, Two, Three, Four, and Five, Laguna's conclusory 11 statement fails to specifically identify any reasons why Detective Jensen's statement was 12 hearsay, nor how counsel allegedly opened the door to such hearsay testimony, and merely 13 alleges that the trial outcome "could" have been different if this was argued. Such conclusory 14 statements of ineffective assistance, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual 15 information, do not entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 16 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna's claim on this issue is suitable 17 for summary dismissal.

18 Second, even assuming arguendo that Laguna's factual allegations are sufficient to 19 support a claim for ineffective assistance of counsel, Laguna is still not entitled to relief. It
20 appears Laguna is characterizing the following exchange between trial counsel Monique 21 McNeill and Detective Jensen as opening the door to double hearsay:

22 Q. Okay. And so, the - - and then your answer to my question was 23 that it was in this location sort of near Mr. Laguna's house, right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. You were also made aware by Amanda Mendoza that she found 26 the car in a location near the Lucky Horseshoe address, right?

1 A. Detective Williams was made aware of that, and then I learned - -

2 Q. But you learned that?

3 A. Then I learned about it.

4 Trial Transcript, Day 13, at 121-122.

5 Laguna already brought the claim on direct appeal that Detective Jensen's statements 6 constituted double hearsay; the problem with any argument that this constitutes double 7 hearsay, however, is that Laguna's counsel asked the question and elicited the answer. Order
8 of Affirmance at 4. Further, no party objected to the question, and so the trial court below 9 never had the opportunity to address any alleged error. The Court of Appeals found as 10 follows regarding Detective Jensen's statements in regards to double hearsay:

11 We conclude Laguna has failed to show plain error in this instance, 12 because even assuming, arguendo, this is hearsay apparent from a 13 casual inspection of the record, Laguna has not shown how this 14 evidence prejudiced his case in light of the substantial evidence 15 placing him at the scene of the crime, including the accomplices' 16 testimonies and the cell phone records. (fn. 5)

17 ***

18 (fn. 5) We reject Laguna's argument that Detective Jensen's
19 testimony also warrants reversal. To the extent that testimony
20 included inadmissible hearsay within hearsay, we note any hearsay 21 was occasioned by defense counsel's questioning during cross-22 examination. Therefore, it was invited error and we will not reverse.
23 See Pearson v. Pearson, 110 Nev. 293, 297, 871 P.2d 343, 345
24 (1994) ("The doctrine of 'invited error' embodies the principle that a 25 party will not be heard to complain on appeal of errors which he 26 himself induced or provoked the court or the opposite party to 27 commit.").

28 Order of Affirmance at 4, fn. 5.

As shown in the Order of Affirmance, even assuming arguendo that Detective Jensen's statements did constitute hearsay, Laguna failed to show plain error, nor did he show that he was prejudiced by such alleged hearsay. As Laguna failed to show prejudice, his claim that counsel was ineffective necessarily fails, as Laguna must show that he suffered

1 actual prejudice and show a reasonable probability that the result of his trial would have been 2 different to support a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel. See Gordon, 518 F.3d at 3 1300; McNelson, 115 Nev. at 403, 990 P.2d at 1268. Thus, regardless of whether counsel 4 opened the door to a statement that may have been hearsay, counsel's actions did not 5 constitute ineffective assistance of counsel.

6 Third, Laguna's underlying claim in Ground Six is procedurally barred. As noted 7 above, NRS 34.810 provides in pertinent part that:

8 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

9 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or 10 guilty but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an 11 allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or 12 that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

13 (b) The petitioner's conviction was the result of a trial and the 14 grounds for the petition could have been:

15 (1) Presented to the trial court;

16 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of 17 habeas corpus or postconviction relief; or

18 (3) Raised in any other proceeding that the petitioner has 19 taken to secure relief from the petitioner's conviction and sentence, 20 unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the 21 grounds and actual prejudice to the petitioner.

22 3. Pursuant to subsections 1 and 2, the petitioner has the burden of 23 pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate:

24 (a) Good cause for the petitioner's failure to present the claim 25 or for presenting the claim again; and

26 (b) Actual prejudice to the petitioner.

27 (emphasis added).

28 Laguna was found guilty pursuant to jury verdict on October 7, 2016. Thus, as his claim in Ground Six could have been—and was—raised in his direct appeal, Laguna must show both good cause for bringing this claim again in the instant Petition and that he would suffer actual prejudice if the court did not consider his claim pursuant to NRS 34.810(3). As the Court of Appeals has already determined that Detective Jensen's statements did not constitute error requiring reversal due to Laguna's failure to establish that such statements

1 prejudiced him, he has already failed to meet his burden of establishing prejudice under NRS
2 34.810(3). Further, Laguna advances no argument whatsoever that he has good cause for 3 presenting this claim again in the instant Petition. For those reasons, Laguna's claim that 4 counsel was ineffective for opening the door to alleged hearsay statements from Detective
5 Jensen is procedurally barred pursuant to NRS 34.810.

6 Just as in all Grounds alleged thus far, the court finds that Laguna has not shown that 7 trial counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown
8 that he suffered prejudice from opening the door to the introduction of Detective Jensen's
9 statements that allegedly constituted hearsay. Further, the court finds Laguna cannot show 10 that the results of the trial would have been different had such testimony not been presented 11 before the jury, as the record shows that there was overwhelming evidence that Laguna was 12 present at the scene of the crimes and committed the crimes charged. The court finds 13 Laguna's claims in Ground Six are without legal merit, are procedurally barred, and fail to 14 establish ineffective assistance of counsel for multiple reasons. For these reasons, Ground 15 Six of Laguna's Petition is denied.

17 TO CALL WITNESS DARCY LAGUNA

18 Laguna argues in Ground Seven of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 19 failing to call character and/or alibi witness Darcy Laguna, who would have "testif[ied] to 20 the whereabouts of petitioner on the night in question." Petition at 6. Laguna also alleges 21 that "[i]f this person would have been called to the stand, petitioner's chances at trial could 22 have been different due to the fact that this witness could have provided information to 23 petitioner" Petition at 7.

24 First, Laguna's final claim in Ground Seven is as unsubstantiated as those claims set 25 forth in Ground One, Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six. Again, Laguna fails to set forth any 26 specific testimony that Darcy Laguna would have given regarding where Laguna was on the 27 night of the crimes in question. Laguna only makes the bare, naked, and vague allegations

1 that “trial outcome could have been different by providing petitioner with an alibi.” Petition
2 at 6. Just as in Grounds One, Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six, Laguna’s conclusory
3 statement merely alleges that Darcy Laguna—possibly a relative of Laguna—“could” have 4 testified as to Laguna’s character and “could” have provided testimony placing Laguna at 5 another location on the night in question. Further, Laguna merely alleges that the trial 6 outcome “could” have been different if Darcy Laguna testified. Laguna does not allege that 7 he was actually not present at the scene of the crimes, nor does he allege that Darcy Laguna
8 would have had first-hand knowledge of Laguna’s whereabouts otherwise. Such conclusory 9 statements, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle the 10 petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove
11 and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

12 Second, as set forth in Section I supra, the decision of whether to call certain 13 witnesses falls under the purview of strategic decisions by counsel. As Darcy Laguna has the 14 same last name as Joseph Laguna, it is a fair assumption that Darcy is related to Joseph. As 15 referenced in Section I supra, there was an overwhelming amount of evidence introduced at 16 trial placing Laguna at the scene of the crime on the night in question. Placing a relative of 17 Laguna to testify contrary to the overwhelming factual evidence of Laguna’s whereabouts 18 would likely have caused serious credibility issues for counsel and Laguna.

19 In the face of the overwhelming evidence that Laguna was indeed at the scene and 20 intricately involved in the subject crimes, the strategic decision of choosing not to call Darcy 21 Laguna, to rebut testimony that Laguna was present at the scene does not constitute 22 ineffective assistance of counsel, as Laguna cannot show that he was prejudiced by the 23 absence of Laguna’s testimony. As set forth in Dawson, 108 Nev. at 117, 825 P.2d at 596, 24 strategic decisions, including which witnesses counsel decides to call at trial, are almost 25 unchallengeable. Further, trial counsel was not required to call a witness whose testimony 26 would have been futile to support an alibi defense. See Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 27 1103 (noting counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or

1 arguments); Rhyne, 118 Nev. at 8, 38 P.3d at 167 (2002). (noting trial counsel has the 2 “immediate and ultimate responsibility of deciding if and when to object, which witnesses, if 3 any, to call, and what defenses to develop.”).

4 The court finds Laguna’s bare, naked assertions regarding ineffective assistance of 5 counsel in regards to the strategic decision not to call witness Darcy Laguna are thus without 6 merit and belied by the record. Thus, the court finds Laguna has failed to show that trial
7 counsel’s actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that 8 he suffered prejudice from the absence of Laguna’s testimony, nor has he shown that the 9 results of the trial would have been different had Laguna testified. For these reasons, 10 Ground Seven of Laguna’s Petition is denied.

11 VIII. LAGUNA IS NOT ENTITLED TO THE APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

12 In addition to the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and Request for Evidentiary 13 Hearing, Laguna also filed a Motion for Appointment of Counsel on November 30, 2018 in 14 case A-18-785267-W. For the reasons listed below, Laguna’s Motion to Appoint Counsel is 15 denied.

17 post-conviction proceedings. Coleman v. Thompson, 501 U.S. 722, 752, 111 S. Ct. 2546, 18 2566 (1991). In McKague v. Warden, 112 Nev. 159, 163, 912 P.2d 255, 258 (1996), the 19 Nevada Supreme Court similarly observed that “[t]he Nevada Constitution...does not 20 guarantee a right to counsel in post-conviction proceedings, as we interpret the Nevada 21 Constitution’s right to counsel provision as being coextensive with the Sixth Amendment to 22 the United States Constitution.” McKague specifically held that with the exception of NRS 23 34.820(1)(a) (entitling appointed counsel when petitioner is under a sentence of death), one 24 does not have “any constitutional or statutory right to counsel at all” in post-conviction
25 proceedings. Id. at 164, 912 P.2d at 258.

26 However, the Nevada Legislature has given courts the discretion to appoint post-27 conviction counsel so long as “the court is satisfied that the allegation of indigency is true 28

1 and the petition is not dismissed summarily.” NRS 34.750. NRS 34.750 reads:

2 A petition may allege that the petitioner is unable to pay the costs of the 3 proceedings or to employ counsel. If the court is satisfied that the 4 allegation of indigency is true and the petition is not dismissed
5 summarily, the court may appoint counsel to represent the petitioner. In 6 making its determination, the court may consider, among other things, 7 the severity of the consequences facing the petitioner and whether:

- 8 (a) The issues are difficult;
- 9 (b) The Defendant is unable to comprehend the proceedings; or
- 10 (c) Counsel is necessary to proceed with discovery.

11 Under NRS 34.750, the court has discretion in determining whether to appoint counsel when 12 the petition is not summarily dismissed.

13 However, the issues presented in the instant Petition are not difficult, there is no 14 indication that Laguna is unable to comprehend the proceedings, and Laguna is not entitled 15 to counsel. As such, appointment of counsel is unwarranted under the NRS 34.750(1)(a)-(c) 16 factors, and thus Laguna’s Motion to Appoint Counsel is denied.

17 IX. LAGUNA IS NOT ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING

18 NRS 34.770 determines when a defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing:

- 19 1. The judge or justice, upon review of the return, answer and all 20 supporting documents which are filed, shall determine whether an 21 evidentiary hearing is required. A petitioner must not be discharged 22 or committed to the custody of a person other than the respondent 23 unless an evidentiary hearing is held.
- 24 2. If the judge or justice determines that the petitioner is not entitled 25 to relief and an evidentiary hearing is not required, he shall dismiss 26 the petition without a hearing.
- 27 3. If the judge or justice determines that an evidentiary hearing is 28 required, he shall grant the writ and shall set a date for the hearing.

29 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that if a petition can be resolved without 30 expanding the record, then no evidentiary hearing is necessary. Mann v. State, 118 Nev. 351, 31 356, 46 P.3d 1228, 1231 (2002); Marshall v. State, 110 Nev. 1328, 1331, 885 P.2d 603, 605
32 (1994). A defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing if his petition is supported by 33 specific factual allegations, which, if true, would entitle him to relief unless the factual

1 allegations are repelled by the record. Marshall, 110 Nev. at 1331, 885 P.2d at 605; Hargrove
2 v. State, 100 Nev. 498, 503, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984) (holding that “[a] defendant seeking 3 post-conviction relief is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing on factual allegations belied or 4 repelled by the record”). “A claim is ‘belied’ when it is contradicted or proven to be false by 5 the record as it existed at the time the claim was made.” Mann, 118 Nev. at 354, 46 P.3d at 6 1230 (2002).

7 This Court can resolve the issues raised by Laguna’s claims without expanding the 8 record. Laguna has failed to demonstrate prejudice by any of counsel’s actions, thus all 9 claims of ineffective assistance of counsel are without merit and there is nothing in the 10 Petition that would require testimony from counsel. The evidence necessary to resolve all of 11 Laguna’s claims are contained entirely within the trial court record and are necessarily 12 limited to the trial record, as all claims address the actions of counsel at trial. Thus, Laguna 13 has failed to show that an evidentiary hearing is warranted pursuant to NRS 34.770, and his 14 request for such is denied.

16 THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Post-Conviction Petition for Writ
17 of Habeas Corpus shall be, and it is, hereby denied.

10 FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF 11 LAW AND ORDER

12 DATE OF HEARING: FEBRUARY 4, 2019
13 TIME OF HEARING: 9:00 AM

14 THIS CAUSE having come on for hearing before the Honorable JUDGE CAROLYN 15 ELLSWORTH, District Judge, on the 4th day of FEBRUARY, 2019, the Petitioner not being 16 present, PROCEEDING IN PROPER PERSON, the Respondent being represented by 17 STEVEN B. WOLFSON, Clark County District Attorney, by and through JORY 18 SCARBOROUGH, Chief Deputy District Attorney, without argument, and the Court having 19 considered the matter, including briefs, transcripts, and documents on file herein, now

21 PROCEDURAL HISTORY

22 On February 27, 2015, Petitioner Joseph Laguna ("Laguna") was charged by way of 23 Superseding Indictment, with the following: CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT ROBBERY (a 24 Category B Felony - NRS 199.480, 200.380 - NOC 50147); BURGLARY WHILE IN 25 POSSESSION OF A DEADLY WEAPON (a Category B Felony - NRS 205.060-NOC
26 50426); HOME INVASION WHILE IN POSSESSION OF A DEADLY WEAPON (a
27 Category B Felony- NRS 205.067 - NOC 50437); ATTEMPT ROBBERY WITH USE OF A 28 DEADLY WEAPON (a Category B Felony- NRS 193.330, 200.380, 193.165 - NOC

1 50145); MURDER WITH USE OF A DEADLY WEAPON (a Category A Felony – NRS
2 200.010, 200.030, 193.165 - NOC 50001) and ATTEMPT MURDER WITH USE OF A
3 DEADLY WEAPON (a Category B Felony - NRS 200.010, 200.030, 193.330, 193.165 -
4 NOC 50031). Laguna was charged alongside four co-defendants; Jorge Mendoza, Robert 5 Figueroa, Summer Larsen, and David Murphy in cases C-15-303991-1, C-15-303991-2, C-6 15-303991-3, and C-15-303991-4, respectively.

7 On April 9, 2015, Laguna filed a pre-trial Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. The 8 State filed its Return to Laguna's pre-trial Petition on May 4, 2015. On June 1, 2015, the 9 District Court denied the Petition. After the District Court denied Laguna's Petition, the 10 State advised that it was taking the case back to the Grand Jury to amend the indictment. At 11 the request of counsel, the court entered a plea of Not Guilty to the Second Amended
12 Indictment on behalf of Laguna, but noted the trial date still stood. On May 29, 2015, Laguna
14 Superseding Indictment.

15 On September 12, 2016, Laguna's jury trial began. On October 7, 2016, the jury
16 returned its verdict, finding Laguna guilty of Conspiracy to Commit Robbery, Burglary
17 While In Possession of a Deadly Weapon, Home Invasion While In Possession of a Deadly
18 Weapon, two counts of Attempted Robbery with Use of a Deadly Weapon, Second Degree
19 Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon, and Attempt Murder with Use of a Deadly Weapon.

20 Laguna was sentenced November 28, 2016 as follows: as to COUNT 1, to a
21 MAXIMUM of SEVENTY TWO (72) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of TWENTY EIGHT
22 (28) MONTHS; as to COUNT 2, to a MAXIMUM of ONE HUNDRED FIFTY (150)
23 MONTHS and a MINIMUM of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS, Count 2 to run
24 CONCURRENTLY with Count 1; as to COUNT 3 - to a MAXIMUM of ONE HUNDRED
25 EIGHTY (180) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of SIXTY SIX (66) MONTHS, Count 3 to run
26 CONCURRENTLY with Count 2; as to COUNT 4, to a MAXIMUM of ONE HUNDRED 27 TWENTY (120) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS, plus a

1 CONSECUTIVE term of ONE HUNDRED TWENTY (120) MONTHS and a MINIMUM
2 of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS for the Use of a Deadly Weapon, Count 4 to run
3 CONCURRENTLY with Count 3; as to COUNT 5, to a MAXIMUM of ONE HUNDRED
4 TWENTY (120) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS, plus a
5 CONSECUTIVE term of ONE HUNDRED TWENTY (120) MONTHS and a MINIMUM
6 of FORTY EIGHT (48) MONTHS for the Use of a Deadly Weapon, Count 5 to run
7 CONCURRENTLY with Count 4; as to COUNT 6, to LIFE with a possibility of parole after 8 a term of TEN (10) YEARS have been served, plus a CONSECUTIVE term of TWO
9 HUNDRED FORTY (240) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of THIRTY SIX (36) MONTHS
10 for the Use of a Deadly Weapon, Count 6 to run CONCURRENTLY with COUNT 5; as to 11 COUNT 7, to a MAXIMUM of TWO HUNDRED FORTY (240) MONTHS and a
12 MINIMUM of EIGHTY FOUR (84) MONTHS, plus a CONSECUTIVE term of TWO 13 HUNDRED FORTY (240) MONTHS and a MINIMUM of EIGHTY FOUR (84) MONTHS
14 for the Use of a Deadly Weapon, Count 7 to run CONSECUTIVELY to Count 6; with SIX
15 HUNDRED FIFTY FIVE (655) days credit for time served. Laguna's AGGREGATE 16 TOTAL SENTENCE was thus LIFE with a MINIMUM of TWENTY SEVEN (27) YEARS.
17 Laguna's Judgment of Conviction was filed December 2, 2016.

18 Laguna filed a Notice of Appeal on December 9, 2016. On January 31, 2018, the 19 Nevada Supreme Court issued an Order affirming Laguna's Judgment of Conviction.
20 Remittitur also issued January 31, 2018.

21 On November 30, 2018, Laguna filed a post-conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas 22 Corpus in case A-18-785267-W. The State's filed its Opposition on January 22, 2019. On 23 February 4th, this court made the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

24 FACTS OF THE SUBJECT OFFENSES

25 At sentencing, the district court judge relied on the following factual synopsis set 26 forth in Petitioner's Pre-Sentencing Investigation Report ("PSI") as well as the 27 // facts which were presented at the jury trial

1 On September 21, 2014, Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department
2 dispatch received a call from a citizen who reported hearing
3 gunshots near her home. She also reported seeing a male wearing a 4 ski mask and holding a rifle, and another male who was lying near the front door of a residence. Victim #1 then called to report two armed men wearing ski masks kicked in the front door of his home.

5 Upon arrival, officers located victim #1 inside the residence. They 6 also discovered victim #2, dead from apparent gunshot wounds,
7 lying over the threshold of the front door. Officers located a blood 8 trail in front of the residence and followed the trail looking for 9 suspects or additional victims. A rifle and gloves were located in the 10 bed of a truck parked near the residence. Officers then observed a 11 male inside of a vehicle and ordered him to exit with his hands up.
12 The male, later identified as co-offender Jorge Mendoza, refused to 13 exit and was extracted from the vehicle by officers. Mr. Mendoza
14 was suffering from a gunshot wound to his left thigh. Upon 15 questioning, Mr. Mendoza told officers he was forced out of his 16 vehicle by two men who shot him in the leg. He also stated he 17 knocked on several doors in the neighborhood looking for help. He 18 told the officers he thought he was being chased and hid in an 19 unlocked car to hide. An officer noticed a white cloth with blood, as 20 well as an orange ski mask on the front driver's side floorboard. Mr.
21 Mendoza was then transported to a hospital.

23 eventually ended on a separate street. It appeared to the officers that 24 the person bleeding may have been picked up by a vehicle. A crime
25 scene analyst examined the crime scene for evidence and discovered 26 two bullet strikes on the stucco black wall across the street from the 27 residence. Additionally, a bullet fragment was found in the street, 28 along with three casings each stamped with "FC 9mm Luger." There were five casings outside, near the front door of the home and a noticeable blood trail leading from the front of the home to the street.
Inside the residence there were bullet strikes in the walls and multiple casings. The downstairs front door was obviously forced open and the interior frame was broken, lying on the floor.
Detectives questioned Mr. Mendoza at the hospital. He claimed he was alone that night; however, when detectives told him his "buddy" was also shot he stated, "I don't know what he's gonna tell you. I don't know-I don't know him." Mr. Mendoza's version of events was very disconnected and vague and detectives believed he was being deceptive throughout the interview. Detectives executed a

1 search warrant at Mr. Mendoza's residence where they located a
2 Jennings .22 caliber semi-auto pistol, a .22 caliber AK-47 style rifle
3 and numerous cartridges in a gun safe. On September 22, 2014, 4 detectives spoke with victim #1 who stated his father called him and 5 said he heard victim #1 was going to be robbed in the next few days.
6 Victim #1 stated he then went home and retrieved his gun and 7 waited. As he waited, his roommate, victim #2, came home. Victim
8 #1 then heard a loud boom at the front door.

9 There was a second bang and the door opened. Victim #1 looked 10 around the wall of the kitchen and saw a man wearing an orange ski 11 mask, carrying a rifle style gun and another person behind him.
12 Victim #1 stated he fired two shots from his Glock 40 and believed 13 he struck one of the men. The men then began firing at the victims.
14 Victim #1 continued to fire several more rounds and the men 15 eventually left the residence and the shooting stopped for 16 approximately 30 seconds. The victims then made their way to the 17 front door. As victim #2 reached to close the door, victim #1 heard a 18 gunshot and victim #2 dropped in the doorway. Victim #1 retreated 19 back and began to look for a phone. He located a phone and called 20 his father and then 911.

21 Detectives then spoke with a woman who stated the co-offender, 22 Summer Larsen asked her to pick her up a few days prior to the 23 incident and take her to the store. When they arrived, an unknown 24 male got into her vehicle. She stated she then heard Ms. Larsen and 25 the male discussing a robbery that would occur on Sunday. The 26 woman believed they were planning on robbing Ms. Larsen's 27 husband, victim #1, who she was separated from. Ms. Larsen also 28 told her she was responsible for prior burglaries at the home of victim #1.

On October 16, 2014, detectives received information from an individual who stated he buys marijuana from a male, later identified as the co-offender Robert Figueroa. He stated that around the time of the home invasion Mr. Figueroa went missing. Approximately one week later, the male made contact with Mr. Figueroa who told him
the following: Mr. Figueroa kicked in the door of the residence and entered with Mr. Mendoza and another male. The home owner shot at them as they forced their way into the home. Mr. Figueroa was shot in the face and left side of his body and Mr. Mendoza was shot in the leg. He stated the third male ran away unharmed and Mr.
Mendoza was caught by police a short distance from the house. Mr.

1 Figueroa also told the male, his girlfriend drove him to California to 2 receive medical attention to avoid detection by LVMPD. The male
3 also told detectives that Mr. Figueroa buys marijuana from victim #1 4 and that the victim supposedly had multiple pounds of marijuana at 5 the time of the home invasion. On October 20, 2014, detectives with 6 the LVMPD Criminal Apprehension Team (CATS) set up
7 surveillance at Mr. Figueroa's apartment. A short time later, Mr.
8 Figueroa exited the apartment and was taken into custody.
9 Detectives immediately noticed a bullet wound on his lower lip area
10 and bullet wounds to his left torso and back. Upon questioning, Mr.
11 Figueroa told detectives he arrived at the residence to buy marijuana 12 and noticed the front door open. As he neared the open door, he was 13 shot and fled the area. He then returned a short time later and drove 14 his car away. Detectives explained to him that police were on the 15 scene in a very short time and questioned his story about returning to 16 get his car. Mr. Figueroa just stared blankly into space and did not 17 offer any more to his version of events. When asked where he was 18 treated for his injuries, Mr. Figueroa stated he was going to need an 19 attorney.

20 On October 24, 2016, detectives met with Mr. Figueroa and his 21 attorney at the Clark County Detention Center. Mr. Figueroa stated 22 he was contacted by his friend, "Maton," later identified as the 23 defendant Joseph Laguna. Mr. Figueroa was told that Mr. Laguna
24 and a male he knew as "DuBoy," later identified as co-offender
25 David Murphy, knew the location of a "stash house" and planned to 26 commit a robbery there. Mr. Figueroa stated Mr. Murphy picked him
27 up with Mr. Laguna in the front seat, while he and Mr. Mendoza
28 were in the backseat. Mr. Figueroa said he was armed with a .40
29 caliber, Mr. Mendoza had a rifle and Mr. Laguna had a .38 caliber
30 revolver. Mr. Figueroa stated he kicked the door of the residence 31 open and all three men entered the stash house. Mr. Murphy stayed 32 in the vehicle which was parked down the street. As he entered the 33 house, he was shot in the mouth and went down. He then got up and 34 began to run out of the house and was shot again in the left side of 35 his back. He eventually ran away and hid in a backyard before he 36 called his sister to pick him up. Mr. Figueroa said he believed Mr.
37 Murphy's girlfriend, identified as Ms. Larsen, told Mr. Laguna about 38 the stash house and also believed there was 30 pounds of marijuana
39 in the stash house. Further, Mr. Figueroa said the .40 caliber pistol 40 he used during the home invasion was at his girlfriend's apartment.

1 On November 18, 2014, Ms. Larsen was arrested on a warrant for 2 charges related to the home invasion. While in custody, detectives 3 heard Ms. Larsen speaking with a male she referred to as 4 "Doughboy." During one of her calls, Ms. Larsen asked Doughboy
5 for his address, which was determined to match the address of Mr.
6 Murphy. On December 10, 2014, detectives spoke with victim #1
7 who positively identified Mr. Murphy as Doughboy and stated Mr.
8 Murphy and Ms. Larsen were friends. Detectives then spoke with the 9 father of victim #1 who also positively identified Mr. Murphy as 10 Doughboy. He also stated he heard rumors that after Ms. Larsen and 11 victim #1 separated; Ms. Larsen began dating Mr. Murphy.

12 On December 11, 2014, officers located Mr. Murphy during a traffic 13 stop. Mr. Murphy was transported to LVMPD Homicide and 14 questioned by detectives. Mr. Murphy stated he knew he was there 15 because of something between Ms. Larsen and victim #1 and 16 admitted he knew them both. Further, Mr. Murphy denied any 17 involvement with the murder and home invasion that occurred at the 18 victim's residence.

19 On February 13, 2015, Mr. Laguna was arrested and transported to 20 LVMPD Homicide and interviewed by detectives. During the 21 interview, Mr. Laguna related the following: he recognized the 22 photos of Mr. Mendoza, Mr. Murphy and Mr. Figueroa and did not 23 recognize the photos of the victims. Additionally, Mr. Laguna denied 24 any knowledge of the home invasion and stated he was never there.
25 Based on the above facts, Mr. Mendoza, Mr. Figueroa, Mr. Laguna, 26 Mr. Murphy and Ms. Larsen were booked accordingly at the Clark
27 County Detention Center.

28 Pre-Sentence Investigation Report at 6-8.

ANALYSIS

29 Laguna has brought seven grounds for relief in his Petition for Writ of Habeas 30 Corpus, all of which allege ineffective assistance on the part of trial and/or appellate counsel.
31 For the reasons set forth below, all of Laguna's claims of ineffective assistance of counsel
32 are without merit. As none of Laguna's claims have merit, he is not entitled to an evidentiary 33 hearing. Finally, Laguna has failed to show that he should be appointed counsel. For the

1 following reasons, Laguna's post-conviction Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, his Request
2 for Evidentiary Hearing, and his Motion to Appoint Counsel are denied.

3 The Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution provides that, "[i]n all
4 criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right . . . to have the Assistance of Counsel
5 for his defense." The United States Supreme Court has long recognized that "the right to 6 counsel is the right to the effective assistance of counsel." Strickland v. Washington, 466
7 U.S. 668, 686, 104 S. Ct. 2052, 2063 (1984); see also State v. Love, 109 Nev. 1136, 1138, 8 865 P.2d 322, 323 (1993).

9 To prevail on a claim of ineffective assistance of trial counsel, a defendant must prove 10 he was denied "reasonably effective assistance" of counsel by satisfying the two-prong test
11 of Strickland, 466 U.S. at 686-87, 104 S. Ct. at 2063-64. See also Love, 109 Nev. at 1138,
12 865 P.2d at 323. Under the Strickland test, a defendant must show first that his counsel's 13 representation fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, and second, that but for 14 counsel's errors, there is a reasonable probability that the result of the proceedings would 15 have been different. 466 U.S. at 687-88, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2065, 2068; Warden, Nevada
16 State Prison v. Lyons, 100 Nev. 430, 432, 683 P.2d 504, 505 (1984) (adopting the Strickland 17 two-part test). "[T]here is no reason for a court deciding an ineffective assistance claim to 18 approach the inquiry in the same order or even to address both components of the inquiry if 19 the defendant makes an insufficient showing on one." Strickland, 466 U.S. at 697, 104 S. Ct.
20 at 2069.

21 The court begins with the presumption of effectiveness and then must determine 22 whether the defendant has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that counsel
23 was ineffective. Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1011, 103 P.3d 25, 32 (2004). "Effective 24 counsel does not mean errorless counsel, but rather counsel whose assistance is '[w]ithin the 25 range of competence demanded of attorneys in criminal cases.'" Jackson v. Warden, 91 26 Nev. 430, 432, 537 P.2d 473, 474 (1975).

1 Counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or arguments. See 2 Ennis v. State, 122 Nev. 694, 706, 137 P.3d 1095, 1103 (2006). Trial counsel has the 3 “immediate and ultimate responsibility of deciding if and when to object, which witnesses, if 4 any, to call, and what defenses to develop.” Rhyne v. State, 118 Nev. 1, 8, 38 P.3d 163, 167 5 (2002).

6 Based on the above law, the role of a court in considering allegations of ineffective 7 assistance of counsel is “not to pass upon the merits of the action not taken but to determine 8 whether, under the particular facts and circumstances of the case, trial counsel failed to 9 render reasonably effective assistance.” Donovan v. State, 94 Nev. 671, 675, 584 P.2d 708, 10 711 (1978). This analysis does not mean that the court should “second guess reasoned 11 choices between trial tactics nor does it mean that defense counsel, to protect himself against 12 allegations of inadequacy, must make every conceivable motion no matter how remote the 13 possibilities are of success.” Id. To be effective, the constitution “does not require that 14 counsel do what is impossible or unethical. If there is no bona fide defense to the charge, 15 counsel cannot create one and may disserve the interests of his client by attempting a useless
16 charade.” United States v. Cronin, 466 U.S. 648, 657 n.19, 104 S. Ct. 2039, 2046 n.19 17 (1984).

18 “There are countless ways to provide effective assistance in any given case. Even the 19 best criminal defense attorneys would not defend a particular client in the same way.”
20 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 689, 104 S. Ct. at 689. “Strategic choices made by counsel after 21 thoroughly investigating the plausible options are almost unchallengeable.” Dawson v.

23 853, 784 P.2d 951, 953 (1989). In essence, the court must “judge the reasonableness of 24 counsel's challenged conduct on the facts of the particular case, viewed as of the time of 25 counsel's conduct.” Strickland, 466 U.S. at 690, 104 S. Ct. at 2066.

1 Even if a defendant can demonstrate that his counsel's representation fell below an 2 objective standard of reasonableness, he must still demonstrate prejudice and show a 3 reasonable probability that, but for counsel's errors, the result of the trial would have been 4 different. McNelson v. State, 115 Nev. 396, 403, 990 P.2d 1263, 1268 (1999) (citing
5 Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687, 104 S. Ct. at 2064). "A reasonable probability is a probability
6 sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome." Id. (citing Strickland, 466 U.S. at 687-7 89, 694, 104 S. Ct. at 2064-65, 2068).

8 The Nevada Supreme Court has held "that a habeas corpus petitioner must prove the 9 disputed factual allegations underlying his ineffective-assistance claim by a preponderance 10 of the evidence." Means v. State, 120 Nev. 1001, 1012, 103 P.3d 25, 33 (2004).
11 Furthermore, claims of ineffective assistance of counsel asserted in a petition for post-12 conviction relief must be supported with specific factual allegations, which if true, would 13 entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove v. State, 100 Nev. 498, 502, 686 P.2d 222, 225
14 (1984). "Bare" and "naked" allegations are not sufficient, nor are those belied and repelled 15 by the record. Id. NRS 34.735(6) states in relevant part, "[Petitioner] must allege specific 16 facts supporting the claims in the petition[.] . . . Failure to allege specific facts rather than 17 just conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed." (Emphasis added). A defendant 18 who contends his attorney was ineffective because he did not adequately investigate must 19 show how a better investigation would have rendered a more favorable outcome probable.

22 CALL WITNESS JOSEPH LARSEN

23 Laguna argues in Ground One of his Petition that trial and appellate counsel were 24 ineffective for failing to call witness Joseph Larsen¹ to testify, as Larsen "could have proven

27
28 ¹ In the Pre-Sentence Investigation Report, Joseph Larsen is referred to as "Victim 1," one of the occupants of 1661 Broadmere, the home in which the subject crimes occurred. "Victim 2" refers to the deceased victim Monty Gibson, roommate of Joseph Larsen.

1) petitioner was not the perpetrator he had seen and 2) that petitioner was not at the scene of the crime at night of question.” Petition at 6.

First, while Laguna inexplicably claims appellate counsel was ineffective for actions that occurred at trial, Laguna sets forth no facts or argument in support of that claim. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance of appellate counsel, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle Laguna to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim that appellate counsel was ineffective for failure to call a witness at trial is suitable for summary dismissal.

Second, both of Laguna’s conclusory statements fail to specifically identify any helpful statements Larsen would have given, and merely allege that Larsen’s testimony “could” have helped Laguna at trial. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

However, even assuming arguendo that Laguna’s bare and naked assertions were factually sufficient, such assertions are belied by the record and thus Laguna cannot demonstrate that he was prejudiced by trial counsel’s strategic decision not to call Larsen as a witness. Larsen first testified before the Grand Jury on January 29, 2015. Grand Jury Transcript, Volume 2 at 67-95. From the first question posed of him, Larsen revealed himself to be a hostile and unhelpful witness:

EXAMINATION

BY MS. LEXIS:

Q. Mr. Larsen, on September 21, 2014, did you live at an address called 1661 Broadmere Street here in Las Vegas, Clark County, Nevada?

A. Ma'am, I refuse to testify.

1 Q. Okay. Mr. Larsen, you are a witness for the State of Nevada so 2 I'm going to need you to please answer my questions. Okay? Joey?

3 A. I refuse to, ma'am.

4 Q. Okay. Why do you refuse to testify before this Grand Jury, Joey?

5 A. I just don't want to.

6 Q. You have to Joey. You're here by order of the District Court and 7 by this Grand Jury. You have to be here today.

8 A. I'm here.

9 Q. Joey, why is it that you do not want to testify before this Grand 10 Jury? Did something happen on September 21, 2014 that you're not 11 wanting to testify about?

12 A. I'm sorry, ma'am, I don't want to answer any questions.

13 Q. Joey, did something happen on September 21, 2014 that caused 14 us to subpoena you today?

15 A. I'm sorry, ma'am, I don't want to answer any questions.

16 Q. Joey, I'm going to ask you to leave the room. I need to speak with 17 the Grand Jury.

18 (At this time, witness Joseph Larsen exits the proceedings.)

19 20 MS. LEXIS: Mr. Foreperson, at this point I will be contacting the 21 chief judge, Judge Barker, and I will be asking to bring Mr. Joey 22 Larsen before Judge Barker to hold a contempt hearing.

23 Id at 67-68.

24 It was only after Larsen was made aware that failing to testify to the Grand Jury could 25 result in a finding of contempt that he eventually capitulated and gave his testimony.
26 Contrary to Laguna's assertions that Larsen's testimony would have provided some sort of 27 alibi defense by proving that Laguna was not at the scene of the crime, Larsen's testimony 28 showed that as he was in the house during the occurrence of the crime, he could not have

1 testified as to Laguna's presence at any other location during the crime. Id at 76-96. While 2 Laguna's assertion that Larsen saw only two people at the home is correct, the resultant
3 inference that Laguna could not have been one of the co-defendants is fatally flawed. Larsen
4 testified that he saw two people wearing masks enter the home that evening. Id at 76-84.
5 Larsen thus could not have testified that Laguna was not at the scene; given the masks worn 6 by the two people who entered the home, Larsen had no factual basis to testify that either of 7 those people were or were not Laguna. At best, Larsen's testimony would have indicated that 8 he could not verify that Laguna was present at the home on the night of the subject crimes, 9 which is insufficient to support an alibi defense.

10 Further, even if Larsen testified that he could not be 100% certain that Laguna was at 11 the home that evening, there was overwhelming evidence presented at trial that Laguna was 12 at the home and intricately involved with the criminal conspiracy. Larsen's excited 13 utterances to his family about what he saw at the scene were introduced into evidence
14 through his wife, Summer Larsen, and his father, Steven Larsen, as well as Larsen's 911
15 calls made shortly after the subject crimes. Trial Transcript, Day 5-19. Further, cell phone 16 tracking data, introduced through State's expert Detective Gandy, placed Laguna in the 17 neighborhood of 1661 Broadmere at the time of the subject crimes. Trial Transcript, Day 9.
18 Finally, Laguna's own co-defendant Robert Figueroa testified that Laguna called him and 19 told him he had a "lick (robbery)" lined up, and that he wanted Figueroa to help him with it.
20 Trial Transcript, Day 10, at 218-219. Laguna even called Figueroa later in the day to ensure 21 that Figueroa would help with the robbery. Id at 234. Figueroa's testimony ultimately places 22 himself, Laguna, and the two other male co-defendants at the scene of the crimes together on 23 that night. Id at 241.

24 In the face of the overwhelming evidence that Laguna was indeed at the scene and 25 intricately involved in the subject crimes, the strategic decision of choosing not to call Jason
26 Larsen, a hostile and unhelpful witness with no factual basis to rebut testimony that Laguna 27 was present at the scene, does not constitute ineffective assistance of counsel as Laguna

1 cannot show that he was prejudiced by the absence of Larsen's testimony. As set forth in 2 Dawson, 108 Nev. at 117, 825 P.2d at 596, strategic decisions, including which witnesses
3 counsel decides to call at trial, are almost unchallengeable. Further, trial counsel was not 4 required to call a witness whose testimony would have been futile to support an alibi
5 defense. See Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 1103 (noting counsel cannot be ineffective
6 for failing to make futile objections or arguments); Rhyne, 118 Nev. at 8, 38 P.3d at 167 7 (2002). (noting trial counsel has the "immediate and ultimate responsibility of deciding if 8 and when to object, which witnesses, if any, to call, and what defenses to develop.").

9 The court finds Laguna's bare, naked assertions regarding ineffective assistance of 10 counsel in regards to the strategic decision not to call witness Joseph Larsen are thus without 11 merit and belied by the record. Thus, the court finds Laguna has failed to show that trial 12 counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that 13 he suffered prejudice from the absence of Larsen's testimony, nor has he shown that the 14 results of the trial would have been different had Larsen testified. For these reasons, Ground 15 One of Laguna's Petition is hereby denied.

17 ELICIT TESIMONY FROM A CELLULAR PHONE EXPERT

18 Laguna argues in Ground Two of his Petition that trial and appellate counsel were 19 ineffective for failing to call a better cellular phone expert than the expert called by the State, 20 as "[t]his expert knew more on the subject of this subject than non-experts on this subject 21 and could have presented evidence that would have been positive for defense." Petition at 7.

22 First, while Laguna inexplicably claims appellate counsel was ineffective for actions 23 that occurred at trial, Laguna sets forth no facts or argument in support of that claim. Such 24 conclusory statements of ineffective assistance of appellate counsel, unaccompanied by 25 claims of specific factual information, do not entitle Laguna to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 26 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna's claim that

1 appellate counsel was ineffective for failure to call an expert witness at trial is suitable for 2 summary dismissal.

3 Second, although it appears Laguna was referring to a specific expert in his reference
4 to “[t]his expert,” Laguna does not identify a specific expert by name, nor does he set forth
5 any specific factual information as to what such an expert would have testified to. Laguna 6 only makes the bare, naked allegations that such an expert “could have presented evidence
7 that would have been positive for defense.” Petition at 7. Just as in Ground One, Laguna’s 8 conclusory statement fails to specifically identify any helpful testimony that a competing 9 cellular phone expert would have given, and merely allege that such an expert’s testimony
10 “could” have helped Laguna at trial. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance, 11 unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle the petitioner to 12 relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS
13 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

14 Third, the substance of Laguna’s claim is more properly brought as a failure to 15 investigate claim, in that Laguna alleges further investigation of the cell tower records would 16 have uncovered evidence showing that Laguna was not in the vicinity of the crimes on the 17 night in question. However, this claim also fails, as Laguna offers nothing but vague 18 supposition that expert witness testimony would have provided “evidence that would have 19 been positive.” Petition at 7. Laguna offers no argument that the State’s expert witness’s 20 testimony was factually inaccurate, nor that the State’s expert came to an inaccurate
21 conclusion regarding the whereabouts of Laguna on the night of the subject crimes. Such a 22 bare, naked assertion is not sufficient to warrant relief under Hargrove. Further, pursuant to 23 Molina, 120 Nev. at 192, 87 P.3d at 538, a defendant who contends his attorney was 24 ineffective because she did not adequately investigate must show how a better investigation
25 would have rendered a more favorable outcome probable. Laguna’s vague assertions do not 26 establish how a better investigation would have rendered a more favorable trial outcome 27 more probable.

1 Fourth, just as in Ground One, the decision whether to call certain witnesses is 2 counsel's prerogative, and such strategic decisions are "virtually unchallengeable." Dawson, 3 108 Nev. at 117, 825 P.2d at 596. Laguna fails to allege a flawed methodology in how the 4 State's expert interpreted the cell tower information to show Laguna's whereabouts on the 5 night of the subject crimes, therefore it would have been a futile argument to suggest that 6 competing expert's testimony would have been helpful to Laguna's case; counsel cannot be 7 ineffective for failing to advance futile arguments. See Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 8 1103.

9 Just as in Ground One, the court finds Laguna has not shown that trial counsel's 10 actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that he suffered 11 prejudice from the absence of expert witness testimony regarding cellular phones, nor has he 12 shown that the results of the trial would have been different had trial counsel called a 13 competing expert to rebut the State's expert testimony. For these reasons, Ground Two of 14 Laguna's Petition is denied.

16 TO TESTIMONY FROM STEVEN LARSEN

17 Laguna argues in Ground Two of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 18 failing to object to statements made at trial by Steven Larsen, father of victim Joseph Larsen.
19 Laguna alleges that such statements were improper as "[t]hese statements that witness was 20 stating were made by a still-living individual that could have been at trial and stated under 21 sworn testimony." Petition at 8. It appears Laguna is arguing that portions of Steven 22 Larsen's testimony were hearsay, and that counsel was ineffective to failing to object to such 23 hearsay.

24 First, although it appears Laguna was referring to hearsay statements, Laguna does 25 not identify a specific hearsay statement or set of hearsay statements made by Steven Larsen, 26 thus it is effectively impossible to determine whether such statements were or were not 27 hearsay. Laguna only makes the bare, naked allegations that "[i]f the jurors would not have

1 heard this statement by non-testifying witness² outcome could have been different either by 2 hearing from this person or being instructed to not take in last statements made....” Petition at 3 8. Just as in Grounds One and Two, the court finds Laguna’s conclusory statement fails to 4 specifically identify any hearsay statements allegedly given, and merely allege that the 5 absence of such statements “could” have helped Laguna at trial. Such conclusory statements 6 of ineffective assistance, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not 7 entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to 8 Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on this issue is suitable for summary 9 dismissal.

10 Second, contrary to Laguna’s assertions, trial counsel did object—three separate 11 times—to Steven Larsen’s testimony on the grounds that his statements constituted hearsay:

12 Q. And what is the - - what does your son tell you about what 13 occurred inside the residence?

14 MS. McNEILL: Objection.

15 MR. LANDIS: Can we approach?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 (Off-record bench conference)

19 BY MR. DiGIACOMO: I’ll ask it again. What did your son sort of 20 tell you about what happened inside the house?

21 ***

22 Q. Based upon all of that, you felt comfortable or at least you 23 believed
24 that Summer’s involved? Is that fair?

25 A. Oh, yeah. I have no doubt in my mind.

28

2 Presumably Joseph Larsen.

1 Q. So let me ask you, did Joseph at least initially believe that 2 Summer had anything to do with it?

3 MR. LANDIS: Objection.

4 MS. McNEILL: Objection. Speculation and hearsay.

5 MR. DiGIACOMO: Let me rephrase.

6 THE COURT: Yeah. I'm going to sustain that so go ahead.

9 Q. Did you see Joseph doing things or behaving in certain manners 10 that indicated to you that he's still in a relationship with Summer?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. What did he do?

13 A. He told me that - -

14 MS. McNEILL: Objection.

15 Q. Without telling us what he told you.

16 A. Oh.

18 Trial Transcript, Day 9, at 27-34.

19 Laguna's claims that counsel failed to object to hearsay statements is plainly belied by 20 the record. Trial counsel Monique McNeill objected on multiple occasions to statements that 21 could be construed as hearsay. Further, the court sustained one of those objections, and the 22 State agreed after other objections to either rephrase its questions or direct the witness not to 23 answer in a way that such an answer would constitute hearsay. Thus, even if those statements 24 were hearsay, trial counsel's timely objections, as well as the court and state's responses to 25 such objections, removed any prejudice that such statements would have had. Laguna's 26 claim is belied by the record; further, as counsel's proper objections prevented the jury from 27 considering hearsay testimony, Laguna cannot show that he was prejudiced by such

1 statements. As Laguna cannot show prejudice, he has failed to establish the second prong of 2 McNelson, which requires he demonstrate prejudice and show a reasonable probability that,
3 but for counsel's alleged errors, the result of the trial would have been different. 115 Nev. at 4 403, 990 P.2d at 1268.

5 Third, even assuming arguendo that Laguna's claim in Ground Three establishes a 6 claim that counsel was ineffective for failing to call Joseph Larsen to testify as to what 7 Steven Larsen testified to at trial, such a claim has already been addressed in Ground One of 8 Laguna's Petition.

9 Just as in Grounds One and Two, the court finds that Laguna has not shown that trial 10 counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that 11 he suffered prejudice from Steven Larsen's alleged hearsay statements. Further, the court 12 finds Laguna cannot show that the results of the trial would have been different had trial
13 counsel objected to Steven Larsen's hearsay statements, as the record shows that trial
14 counsel did exactly that. Laguna's claims in Ground Three are belied by the record and fail
15 to establish ineffective assistance of counsel for multiple reasons. For these reasons, Ground 16 Three of Laguna's Petition is denied.

18 TO TESTIMONY FROM DETECTIVE WILLIAMS

19 Laguna argues in Ground Four of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 20 failing to object to statements made at trial by Detective Tod Williams concerning what he 21 was told by Amanda Mendoza regarding an iPhone location app. Laguna alleges that "a part 22 of being affective [sic] trial counsel is objecting at all times during trial." Petition at 8. It 23 appears that Laguna is arguing that Detective Williams's testimony regarding what Ms.
24 Mendoza told him was hearsay, rather than the nonsensical assertion that trial counsel is 25 under some duty to object "at all times during trial."

26 First, just like in Grounds One, Two, and Three, although it appears Laguna was 27 referring to hearsay statements, Laguna does not identify a specific hearsay statement or set

1 of hearsay statements made by Detective Williams, thus it is effectively impossible to 2 determine whether such statements were or were not hearsay. Laguna only makes the bare,
3 naked allegations that “[t]he outcome of trial could have been different by juror members not 4 hearing this from this detective.” Petition at 9. Also, just as in Grounds One, Two, and Three,
5 Laguna’s conclusory statement fail to specifically identify any hearsay statements allegedly 6 given, and merely allege that the absence of such statements “could” have helped Laguna at 7 trial. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance, unaccompanied by claims of 8 specific factual information, do not entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 9 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on 10 this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

11 Second, Laguna’s claims that counsel was ineffective for failing to object to a hearsay 12 statement by Detective Williams is without merit, as Detective Williams’ statements made at 13 trial were not hearsay. The court finds Laguna’s claim is meritless because Williams neither 14 relayed a statement Amanda made to him, nor was Williams’ observation given for the truth 15 of the matter asserted.

16 At trial, Michelle Estavillo testified that Amanda Mendoza used an app on her phone 17 to ping Mendoza’s location in an attempt to find him after he disappeared with his car and 18 would not return her phone calls. Trial Transcript, Day 7 at 95-141. At the time, co-19 defendant Jorge Mendoza had already been apprehended by police from the scene of the 20 crime and was receiving treatment at University Medical Center. Id. Murphy later came to 21 pick Amanda up and take her to the car, which was present by 2:00 a.m. the next day when 22 police arrived. Id.

23 Later, Detective Williams testified about his experience interviewing Amanda 24 Mendoza. Trial Transcript, Day 9 at 113-150. Detective Williams testified that he observed a 25 location on an iPhone app on Amanda’s phone, and that he later went to that location. Id.
26 The State introduced a map and asked Detective Williams if the map showed the location 27 that he observed on the app. Id.

1 It is unclear how Laguna believes this could be hearsay. Hearsay requires a 2 “statement,” and a “statement” must be an oral or written assertion, or some nonverbal
3 conduct by a person intended to make an assertion. NRS 51.035-45. Moreover, hearsay
4 requires a declarant, which must be a person. NRS 51.025. Laguna cites to no authority that 5 an inanimate object makes an “assertion” subject to the hearsay rule, and an inanimate object
6 is certainly not a “person,” and so can neither be a declarant nor can it make a nonverbal
7 assertion. The California Supreme Court and some federal courts have held that machines are 8 not declarants for purposes of the Confrontation Clause. See People v. Lopez, 55 Cal. 4th
9 569, 286 P.3d 469, 478 (Cal. 2012) (noting agreement with federal courts). Regardless,
10 Detective Williams’ observation of the information displayed on the phone screen would not 11 be excluded as hearsay under the silent witness doctrine since the image on the phone
12 “speaks for itself” in much the same way as a video does. See, Rogers v. State, 902 N.E.2d
13 871, 876 (Ind. Ct. App. 2009); McHenry v. State, 820 N.E.2d 124, 128 (Ind. 2005); Edwards
14 v. State, 762 N.E.2d 128, 136 (Ind. Ct. App. 2002); Wagner v. State, 707 So. 2d 827, 830
15 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1998).

16 Although Laguna makes no cogent arguments regarding hearsay in his Petition, the 17 State assumes that Laguna is arguing that in some manner Amanda was making a statement 18 through her phone. Petition at 9. Even assuming, arguendo, that this could be the case, where 19 Amanda went to retrieve her car was not what Detective Williams testified to. Detective 20 Williams said that he went to a location that he saw on Amanda’s phone. Trial Transcript, 21 Day 9 at 113-150. Defense counsels objected, on differing grounds, when Williams was 22 asked whether he recognized on a map the location that he went to after observing a location
23 on a phone. Id. None of these are statements, and the Court overruled the objection. Id. Even 24 if, somehow, this could be construed as a “statement,” it was not offered for the truth of the 25 matter asserted (presumably that is where Amanda went to retrieve the car) but to explain 26 why Detective Williams went to that location. Under no plausible analysis, then, is an 27 observation of a phone hearsay.

1 Laguna's argument on this claim has, in fact, already been examined by the Nevada
2 Court of Appeals. Order of Affirmance, Dec. 27, 2017, case 71939. The relevant analysis
3 and holding are as follows:

4 Laguna next argues the district court improperly allowed hearsay
5 evidence by admitting Detective Williams' testimony of Amanda
6 Mendoza's statements regarding the app she used to locate
7 accomplice Jorge Mendoza's phone. Defense counsel did not object 8 to this testimony below, and we therefore review for plain error.
9 Rimer v. State, 351 P.3d 697, 715 (2015) (holding that to prevail
10 under a plain error review a defendant must show both that the error 11 is apparent from a casual inspection of the record and that the error 12 was prejudicial, affecting the defendant's substantial rights). We 13 conclude Laguna has failed to show plain error in this instance, because even assuming, arguendo, this is hearsay apparent from a casual inspection of the record, Laguna has not shown how this evidence prejudiced his case in light of the substantial evidence placing him at the scene of the crime, including the accomplices'
testimonies and the cell phone records.

14 Order of Affirmance at 3-4 (emphasis added).

15 The Court of Appeals' holding that Laguna did not demonstrate prejudice even if 16 Detective Williams' statements were hearsay is significant, as the level of prejudice 17 necessary to establish an ineffective assistance of counsel claim is the same as that necessary 18 to find plain error. See Gordon v. United States, 518 F.3d 1291, 1300 (11th Cir. 2008) ("the 19 'substantial rights' standard of plain error review is identical to the 'prejudice' standard of an 20 ineffective assistance claim.") Thus, regardless of whether trial counsel should have objected
21 Detective Williams' statement, Laguna cannot show the level of prejudice necessary to 22 establish an ineffective assistance of counsel claim.

23 Fourth, Laguna's claim in Ground Four is procedurally barred. NRS 34.810 provides 24 in pertinent part that:

- 25 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:
26 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or guilty but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an

1 allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or 2 that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

3 (b) The petitioner's conviction was the result of a trial and the 4 grounds for the petition could have been:

5 (1) Presented to the trial court;

6 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of 7 habeas corpus or postconviction relief; or

8 (3) Raised in any other proceeding that the petitioner has 9 taken to secure relief from the petitioner's conviction and sentence, 10 unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the 11 grounds and actual prejudice to the petitioner.

12 3. Pursuant to subsections 1 and 2, the petitioner has the burden of 13 pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate:

14 (a) Good cause for the petitioner's failure to present the claim 15 or for presenting the claim again; and

16 (b) Actual prejudice to the petitioner.

17 (emphasis added).

18 Laguna was found guilty pursuant to jury verdict on October 7, 2016. Thus, as his 19 claim in Ground Four could have been—and was—raised in his direct appeal, Laguna must 20 show both good cause for bringing this claim again in the instant Petition and that he would 21 suffer actual prejudice if the court did not consider his claim pursuant to NRS 34.810(3). As 22 the Court of Appeals has already determined that Laguna failed to show that he suffered 23 actual prejudice, he has already failed to meet his burden under NRS 34.810(3). Further,
24 Laguna advances no argument whatsoever that he has good cause for presenting this claim
25 again in the instant Petition. For those reasons, Laguna's claim that counsel was ineffective
26 for failing to object to hearsay statements from Detective Williams is procedurally barred 27 pursuant to NRS 34.810.

28 Just as in all grounds alleged thus far, the court finds Laguna has not shown that trial counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that he suffered prejudice from Detective Williams' alleged hearsay statements. Further, the court finds Laguna cannot show that the results of the trial would have been different had those alleged hearsay statements regarding information shown on the iPhone app had not been

1 Laguna was present at the scene of the crimes. The court finds Laguna's claims in Ground
2 Four are without legal merit, are procedurally barred, and fail to establish ineffective
3 assistance of counsel for multiple reasons. For these reasons, Ground Four of Laguna's 4 Petition is denied.

5 V. TRIAL COUNSEL WAS NOT INEFFECTIVE FOR THE DECISION NOT
6 TO ARGUE THAT DETECTIVE GANDY SHOULD BE LIMITED TO 7 LAY TESTIMONY

8 Laguna argues in Ground Five of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 9 failing to object to statements made at trial by Detective Christopher Gandy, who testified as 10 an expert regarding how cellular phones work, how phones interact with towers, and the 11 interpretation of that information. Laguna alleges that "trial counsel should have argued the 12 fact that Detective Gandy was limited to offering lay testimony." Petition at 9.

13 First, keeping with Laguna's pattern of unsubstantiated claims, just as in Grounds
14 One, Two, Three, and Four, it appears Laguna is challenging Detective Gandy's designation
15 as an expert witness under NRS 50.275 and Hallmark v. Eldridge, 124 Nev. 492, 499, 189
16 P.3d 646, 650 (2008). However, Laguna fails to set forth any specific claim that the trial
17 court somehow wrongly concluded that Detective Gandy was qualified to testify as an expert 18 witness. Laguna only makes the bare, naked, and vague allegations that "[t]rial counsel has a 19 duty to argue certain facts during trial and should have argued this issue, but because she 20 didn't petitioner suffered from this testimony with no argument [sic] on this subject."
21 Petition at 9. Just as in Grounds One, Two, Three, and Four, Laguna's conclusory statement 22 fails to specifically identify any reasons why Detective Gandy should not have been 23 permitted to render expert testimony, and merely alleges that the trial outcome "could" have 24 been different if this was argued. Such conclusory statements of ineffective assistance, 25 unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle the petitioner to 26 relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS
27 34.735(6), Laguna's claim on this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

1 Second, just as in Ground Four, Laguna's argument on this claim has already been 2 examined by the Nevada Court of Appeals. Order of Affirmance, Dec. 27, 2017, case 71939.
3 The relevant analysis and holding are as follows:

4 Laguna first contends Detective Gandy's expert testimony was 5 improper because he was limited to testifying as a lay witness and 6 his
7 testimony pinpointing cell phone locations exceeded this scope. Laguna notes that prior to trial the State failed to provide to him with 8 the evidence upon which Detective Gandy testified. We generally 9 review the district court's decision to admit testimony for an abuse of 10 discretion, Brant v. State, 130 Nev. __, __, 340 P.3d 576, 579 (2014), 11 but will review for plain error if the defendant failed to object to the 12 alleged error below. See Green v. State, 119 Nev. 542, 545, 80 P.3d
13 93, 95 (2003). If the State intends to offer expert testimony, the State 14 must provide opposing counsel with notice of the witness and the 15 proposed testimony. Burnside v. State, 131 Nev. __, __, 352 P.3d 627, 637 (2015); see also NRS 174.234(2). Failure to endorse a witness will be procedural error but will not warrant reversal unless the error prejudiced the defendant. Jones v. State, 113 Nev. 454, 473, 9:37 P.2d
55, 67 (1997).

16 Laguna's arguments are belied by the record. The State noticed 17 Detective Gandy as an expert who would testify to "how cellular 18 phones work, how phones interact with towers, and the interpretation
19 of that information." Nothing in the record suggests Detective Gandy 20 was not qualified to offer that testimony, or that his testimony at trial
21 exceeded the scope of that disclosure. Further, defense counsel did 22 not argue at trial that Detective Gandy was limited to offering lay 23 testimony. The objections in the record on which Laguna now relies 24 regarded allegedly undisclosed trial exhibits summarizing the data, 25 and arguments against allowing Detective Gandy to draw certain 26 conclusions based on that data. However, defense counsel eventually 27 conceded they had received all of the data upon which Detective 28 Gandy relied, and NRS 52.275(1) allows a party to compile and summarize the "contents of voluminous writings ... which cannot conveniently be examined in court" so long as the originals are made available to the opposing party, as was the case here. We therefore conclude Laguna fails to show any error warranting reversal.

1 The record before us shows that the State presented Detective Gandy
2 as an expert witness, that he set forth his qualifications in support of 3 his expertise, and that defense counsel did not contest Detective
4 Gandy's qualifications.

5 Id at 2-3, fn. 3.

6 Thus, the Court of Appeals has already found that Detective Gandy could offer expert 7 testimony as presented at trial, and that Laguna failed to show any error requiring reversal.
8 As the level of prejudice necessary to establish an ineffective assistance of counsel claim is 9 the same as that necessary to find plain error, regardless of whether trial counsel should have 10 objected to Detective Gandy's qualifications to render expert testimony, Laguna cannot show 11 the level of prejudice necessary to establish an ineffective assistance of counsel claim. See 12 Gordon, 518 F.3d at 1300.

13 Third, Laguna's claim in Ground Five is procedurally barred. As noted above, NRS 14 34.810 provides in pertinent part that:

15 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

16 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or 17 guilty but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an 18 allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or 19 that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

20 (b) The petitioner's conviction was the result of a trial and the 21 grounds for the petition could have been:

22 (1) Presented to the trial court;

23 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of 24 habeas corpus or postconviction relief; or

25 (3) Raised in any other proceeding that the petitioner has 26 taken to secure relief from the petitioner's conviction and sentence, 27 unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the 28 grounds and actual prejudice to the petitioner.

3. Pursuant to subsections 1 and 2, the petitioner has the burden of pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate:

(a) *Good cause for the petitioner's failure to present the claim
or for presenting the claim again; and*

(b) Actual prejudice to the petitioner.

(emphasis added).

1 Laguna was found guilty pursuant to jury verdict on October 7, 2016. Thus, as his 2 claim in Ground Five could have been—and was—raised in his direct appeal, Laguna must 3 show both good cause for bringing this claim again in the instant Petition and that he would 4 suffer actual prejudice if the court did not consider his claim pursuant to NRS 34.810(3). As 5 the Court of Appeals has already determined that Detective Gandy was qualified to give 6 testimony as an expert, and that Laguna failed to show error requiring reversal, he has 7 already failed to meet his burden of establishing prejudice under NRS 34.810(3). Further,
8 Laguna advances no argument whatsoever that he has good cause for presenting this claim 9 again in the instant Petition. For those reasons, the court finds Laguna's claim that counsel 10 was ineffective for failing to object to Detective Gandy's expert qualifications and/or 11 testimony is procedurally barred pursuant to NRS 34.810.

12 Just as in all Grounds alleged thus far, the court finds Laguna has not shown that trial 13 counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that 14 he suffered prejudice from the introduction of Detective Gandy's expert testimony. Further, 15 the court finds Laguna cannot show that the results of the trial would have been different had 16 such testimony regarding Laguna's location as evidenced by the cell tower records not been 17 presented before the jury, as the record shows that there was overwhelming evidence that 18 Laguna was present at the scene of the crimes. The court finds Laguna's claims in Ground
19 Five are without legal merit, are procedurally barred, and fail to establish ineffective
20 assistance of counsel for multiple reasons. For these reasons, Ground Five of Laguna's 21 Petition is denied.

23 TO HEARSAY TESTIMONY FROM DETECTIVE JENSEN

24 Laguna argues in Ground Six of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 25 opening the door to alleged hearsay statements from Detective Barry Jensen, who testified as 26 to his various observations regarding his investigation of the crime scene. Laguna alleges

1 that "Detective Jensen was cross-examined by trial counsel when trial counsel opened the 2 door to hearsay, therefore inviting error." Petition at 7.

3 First, Laguna brings another unsubstantiated claim in Ground Six, just as in Grounds
4 One, Two, Three, Four, and Five. Again, Laguna fails to set forth any specific claim that any 5 specific statement or set of statements constituted hearsay, or that any specific statement or 6 set of statements constituted opening the door to such hearsay statements. Laguna only 7 makes the bare, naked, and vague allegations that "[p]etitioner was prejudiced by this 8 hearsay that counsel allowed in by line of questioning. Petitioner could have had a different 9 outcome in trial if this line of cross-examination would have never been heard by jurors."
10 Petition at 7. Just as in Grounds One, Two, Three, Four, and Five, Laguna's conclusory 11 statement fails to specifically identify any reasons why Detective Jensen's statement was 12 hearsay, nor how counsel allegedly opened the door to such hearsay testimony, and merely 13 alleges that the trial outcome "could" have been different if this was argued. Such conclusory
14 statements of ineffective assistance, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual 15 information, do not entitle the petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 16 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna's claim on this issue is suitable 17 for summary dismissal.

18 Second, even assuming arguendo that Laguna's factual allegations are sufficient to 19 support a claim for ineffective assistance of counsel, Laguna is still not entitled to relief. It
20 appears Laguna is characterizing the following exchange between trial counsel Monique 21 McNeill and Detective Jensen as opening the door to double hearsay:

22 Q. Okay. And so, the - - and then your answer to my question was 23 that it was in this location sort of near Mr. Laguna's house, right?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. You were also made aware by Amanda Mendoza that she found 26 the car in a location near the Lucky Horseshoe address, right?

1 A. Detective Williams was made aware of that, and then I learned - -

2 Q. But you learned that?

3 A. Then I learned about it.

4 Trial Transcript, Day 13, at 121-122.

5 Laguna already brought the claim on direct appeal that Detective Jensen's statements 6 constituted double hearsay; the problem with any argument that this constitutes double 7 hearsay, however, is that Laguna's counsel asked the question and elicited the answer. Order
8 of Affirmance at 4. Further, no party objected to the question, and so the trial court below 9 never had the opportunity to address any alleged error. The Court of Appeals found as 10 follows regarding Detective Jensen's statements in regards to double hearsay:

11 We conclude Laguna has failed to show plain error in this instance, 12 because even assuming, arguendo, this is hearsay apparent from a 13 casual inspection of the record, Laguna has not shown how this 14 evidence prejudiced his case in light of the substantial evidence 15 placing him at the scene of the crime, including the accomplices' 16 testimonies and the cell phone records. (fn. 5)

17 ***

18 (fn. 5) We reject Laguna's argument that Detective Jensen's
19 testimony also warrants reversal. To the extent that testimony
20 included inadmissible hearsay within hearsay, we note any hearsay
21 was occasioned by defense counsel's questioning during cross-22 examination. Therefore, it was invited error and we will not reverse.
23 See Pearson v. Pearson, 110 Nev. 293, 297, 871 P.2d 343, 345
24 (1994) ("The doctrine of 'invited error' embodies the principle that a 25 party will not be heard to complain on appeal of errors which he 26 himself induced or provoked the court or the opposite party to 27 commit.").

28 Order of Affirmance at 4, fn. 5.

As shown in the Order of Affirmance, even assuming arguendo that Detective Jensen's statements did constitute hearsay, Laguna failed to show plain error, nor did he show that he was prejudiced by such alleged hearsay. As Laguna failed to show prejudice, his claim that counsel was ineffective necessarily fails, as Laguna must show that he suffered

1 actual prejudice and show a reasonable probability that the result of his trial would have been 2 different to support a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel. See Gordon, 518 F.3d at 3 1300; McNelson, 115 Nev. at 403, 990 P.2d at 1268. Thus, regardless of whether counsel
4 opened the door to a statement that may have been hearsay, counsel's actions did not 5 constitute ineffective assistance of counsel.

6 Third, Laguna's underlying claim in Ground Six is procedurally barred. As noted 7 above, NRS 34.810 provides in pertinent part that:

8 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court determines that:

9 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or 10 guilty but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an 11 allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or 12 that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.

13 (b) The petitioner's conviction was the result of a trial and the 14 grounds for the petition could have been:

15 (1) Presented to the trial court;

16 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of 17 habeas corpus or postconviction relief; or

18 (3) Raised in any other proceeding that the petitioner has 19 taken to secure relief from the petitioner's conviction and sentence, 20 unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the 21 grounds and actual prejudice to the petitioner.

22 3. Pursuant to subsections 1 and 2, the petitioner has the burden of 23 pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate:

24 (a) Good cause for the petitioner's failure to present the claim 25 or for presenting the claim again; and

26 (b) Actual prejudice to the petitioner.

27 (emphasis added).

28 Laguna was found guilty pursuant to jury verdict on October 7, 2016. Thus, as his claim in Ground Six could have been—and was—raised in his direct appeal, Laguna must show both good cause for bringing this claim again in the instant Petition and that he would suffer actual prejudice if the court did not consider his claim pursuant to NRS 34.810(3). As the Court of Appeals has already determined that Detective Jensen's statements did not constitute error requiring reversal due to Laguna's failure to establish that such statements

1 prejudiced him, he has already failed to meet his burden of establishing prejudice under NRS
2 34.810(3). Further, Laguna advances no argument whatsoever that he has good cause for 3 presenting this claim again in the instant Petition. For those reasons, Laguna's claim that 4 counsel was ineffective for opening the door to alleged hearsay statements from Detective
5 Jensen is procedurally barred pursuant to NRS 34.810.

6 Just as in all Grounds alleged thus far, the court finds that Laguna has not shown that 7 trial counsel's actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown
8 that he suffered prejudice from opening the door to the introduction of Detective Jensen's
9 statements that allegedly constituted hearsay. Further, the court finds Laguna cannot show 10 that the results of the trial would have been different had such testimony not been presented 11 before the jury, as the record shows that there was overwhelming evidence that Laguna was 12 present at the scene of the crimes and committed the crimes charged. The court finds 13 Laguna's claims in Ground Six are without legal merit, are procedurally barred, and fail to 14 establish ineffective assistance of counsel for multiple reasons. For these reasons, Ground 15 Six of Laguna's Petition is denied.

17 TO CALL WITNESS DARCY LAGUNA

18 Laguna argues in Ground Seven of his Petition that trial counsel was ineffective for 19 failing to call character and/or alibi witness Darcy Laguna, who would have "testif[ied] to 20 the whereabouts of petitioner on the night in question." Petition at 6. Laguna also alleges 21 that "[i]f this person would have been called to the stand, petitioner's chances at trial could 22 have been different due to the fact that this witness could have provided information to 23 petitioner" Petition at 7.

24 First, Laguna's final claim in Ground Seven is as unsubstantiated as those claims set 25 forth in Ground One, Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six. Again, Laguna fails to set forth any 26 specific testimony that Darcy Laguna would have given regarding where Laguna was on the 27 night of the crimes in question. Laguna only makes the bare, naked, and vague allegations

1 that “trial outcome could have been different by providing petitioner with an alibi.” Petition
2 at 6. Just as in Grounds One, Two, Three, Four, Five, and Six, Laguna’s conclusory
3 statement merely alleges that Darcy Laguna—possibly a relative of Laguna—“could” have 4 testified as to Laguna’s character and “could” have provided testimony placing Laguna at 5 another location on the night in question. Further, Laguna merely alleges that the trial
6 outcome “could” have been different if Darcy Laguna testified. Laguna does not allege that 7 he was actually not present at the scene of the crimes, nor does he allege that Darcy Laguna
8 would have had first-hand knowledge of Laguna’s whereabouts otherwise. Such conclusory 9 statements, unaccompanied by claims of specific factual information, do not entitle the 10 petitioner to relief. Hargrove, 100 Nev. at 502, 686 P.2d at 225. Thus, pursuant to Hargrove
11 and NRS 34.735(6), Laguna’s claim on this issue is suitable for summary dismissal.

12 Second, as set forth in Section I supra, the decision of whether to call certain 13 witnesses falls under the purview of strategic decisions by counsel. As Darcy Laguna has the 14 same last name as Joseph Laguna, it is a fair assumption that Darcy is related to Joseph. As 15 referenced in Section I supra, there was an overwhelming amount of evidence introduced at 16 trial placing Laguna at the scene of the crime on the night in question. Placing a relative of 17 Laguna to testify contrary to the overwhelming factual evidence of Laguna’s whereabouts
18 would likely have caused serious credibility issues for counsel and Laguna.

19 In the face of the overwhelming evidence that Laguna was indeed at the scene and 20 intricately involved in the subject crimes, the strategic decision of choosing not to call Darcy 21 Laguna, to rebut testimony that Laguna was present at the scene does not constitute 22 ineffective assistance of counsel, as Laguna cannot show that he was prejudiced by the 23 absence of Laguna’s testimony. As set forth in Dawson, 108 Nev. at 117, 825 P.2d at 596, 24 strategic decisions, including which witnesses counsel decides to call at trial, are almost 25 unchallengeable. Further, trial counsel was not required to call a witness whose testimony 26 would have been futile to support an alibi defense. See Ennis, 122 Nev. at 706, 137 P.3d at 27 1103 (noting counsel cannot be ineffective for failing to make futile objections or

1 arguments); Rhyne, 118 Nev. at 8, 38 P.3d at 167 (2002). (noting trial counsel has the 2 “immediate and ultimate responsibility of deciding if and when to object, which witnesses, if 3 any, to call, and what defenses to develop.”).

4 The court finds Laguna’s bare, naked assertions regarding ineffective assistance of 5 counsel in regards to the strategic decision not to call witness Darcy Laguna are thus without 6 merit and belied by the record. Thus, the court finds Laguna has failed to show that trial
7 counsel’s actions fell below an objective standard of reasonableness, nor has he shown that 8 he suffered prejudice from the absence of Laguna’s testimony, nor has he shown that the 9 results of the trial would have been different had Laguna testified. For these reasons, 10 Ground Seven of Laguna’s Petition is denied.

11 VIII. LAGUNA IS NOT ENTITLED TO THE APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

12 In addition to the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and Request for Evidentiary 13 Hearing, Laguna also filed a Motion for Appointment of Counsel on November 30, 2018 in 14 case A-18-785267-W. For the reasons listed below, Laguna’s Motion to Appoint Counsel is 15 denied.

17 post-conviction proceedings. Coleman v. Thompson, 501 U.S. 722, 752, 111 S. Ct. 2546, 18 2566 (1991). In McKague v. Warden, 112 Nev. 159, 163, 912 P.2d 255, 258 (1996), the 19 Nevada Supreme Court similarly observed that “[t]he Nevada Constitution...does not 20 guarantee a right to counsel in post-conviction proceedings, as we interpret the Nevada 21 Constitution’s right to counsel provision as being coextensive with the Sixth Amendment to 22 the United States Constitution.” McKague specifically held that with the exception of NRS 23 34.820(1)(a) (entitling appointed counsel when petitioner is under a sentence of death), one 24 does not have “any constitutional or statutory right to counsel at all” in post-conviction
25 proceedings. Id. at 164, 912 P.2d at 258.

26 However, the Nevada Legislature has given courts the discretion to appoint post-27 conviction counsel so long as “the court is satisfied that the allegation of indigency is true 28

1 and the petition is not dismissed summarily.” NRS 34.750. NRS 34.750 reads:

2 A petition may allege that the petitioner is unable to pay the costs of the 3 proceedings or to employ counsel. If the court is satisfied that the 4 allegation of indigency is true and the petition is not dismissed
5 summarily, the court may appoint counsel to represent the petitioner. In 6 making its determination, the court may consider, among other things, 7 the severity of the consequences facing the petitioner and whether:

- 8 (a) The issues are difficult;
- 9 (b) The Defendant is unable to comprehend the proceedings; or
- 10 (c) Counsel is necessary to proceed with discovery.

11 Under NRS 34.750, the court has discretion in determining whether to appoint counsel when 12 the petition is not summarily dismissed.

13 However, the issues presented in the instant Petition are not difficult, there is no
14 indication that Laguna is unable to comprehend the proceedings, and Laguna is not entitled
15 to counsel. As such, appointment of counsel is unwarranted under the NRS 34.750(1)(a)-(c) 16 factors, and thus Laguna’s Motion to Appoint Counsel is denied.

17 IX. LAGUNA IS NOT ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING

18 NRS 34.770 determines when a defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing:

- 19 1. The judge or justice, upon review of the return, answer and all 20 supporting documents which are filed, shall determine whether an 21 evidentiary hearing is required. A petitioner must not be discharged 22 or committed to the custody of a person other than the respondent
23 unless an evidentiary hearing is held.
- 24 2. If the judge or justice determines that the petitioner is not entitled 25 to relief and an evidentiary hearing is not required, he shall dismiss 26 the petition without a hearing.
- 27 3. If the judge or justice determines that an evidentiary hearing is 28 required, he shall grant the writ and shall set a date for the hearing.

29 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that if a petition can be resolved without 30 expanding the record, then no evidentiary hearing is necessary. Mann v. State, 118 Nev. 351, 31 356, 46 P.3d 1228, 1231 (2002); Marshall v. State, 110 Nev. 1328, 1331, 885 P.2d 603, 605
32 (1994). A defendant is entitled to an evidentiary hearing if his petition is supported by 33 specific factual allegations, which, if true, would entitle him to relief unless the factual

1 allegations are repelled by the record. Marshall, 110 Nev. at 1331, 885 P.2d at 605; Hargrove
2 v. State, 100 Nev. 498, 503, 686 P.2d 222, 225 (1984) (holding that “[a] defendant seeking 3 post-conviction relief is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing on factual allegations belied or 4 repelled by the record”). “A claim is ‘belied’ when it is contradicted or proven to be false by 5 the record as it existed at the time the claim was made.” Mann, 118 Nev. at 354, 46 P.3d at 6 1230 (2002).

7 This Court can resolve the issues raised by Laguna’s claims without expanding the 8 record. Laguna has failed to demonstrate prejudice by any of counsel’s actions, thus all 9 claims of ineffective assistance of counsel are without merit and there is nothing in the 10 Petition that would require testimony from counsel. The evidence necessary to resolve all of 11 Laguna’s claims are contained entirely within the trial court record and are necessarily 12 limited to the trial record, as all claims address the actions of counsel at trial. Thus, Laguna 13 has failed to show that an evidentiary hearing is warranted pursuant to NRS 34.770, and his 14 request for such is denied.

16 THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Post-Conviction Petition for Writ
17 of Habeas Corpus shall be, and it is, hereby denied.

-- DEFENDANT LAGUNA'S MOTION IN LIMINE TO CONCEAL DEFENDANT'S TATTOOS. Court noted there was no opposition to the tattoo motion and Mr. DiGiacomo argued it is not an evidentiary issue and further argued in opposition. Court agreed it is not an evidentiary issue. Arguments by Ms. McNeill in support of the motion. Court stated its findings and ORDERED, motion DENIED.

As to DEFENDANT LAGUNA'S MOTION IN LIMINE TO PRECLUDE ANY REFERENCE TO THE DEFENDANT AND ROBERT FIGUEROA AS "CELLIES" OR CELL MATES set to be heard on 9/12/16, COURT ORDERED, motion advanced to today. Mr. DiGiacomo noted what Robert Figueroa will state. Court noted it will admonish Defendant Figueroa outside the presence and before his testimony. Matter RESOLVED. Ms. McNeill to prepare the order.

Noting the Courts ruling the day prior as to co-defendant Summer Larsen, Mr. Landis argued he intends to bring a motion to exclude and stated his arguments. Arguments by Mr. DiGiacomo in opposition. Arguments by Ms. McNeill. Further arguments by Counsel. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, oral motion to exclude, DENIED; matter SET for hearing on Order Shortening Time; Mr. Landis to file the motion by 9/8/16. DAY 2 - TRIAL BY JURY

OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURY PANEL - Mr. DiGiacomo noted argument made by the defense on Friday regarding Summer Larsen's jail calls/kites; advised he was able to get the jail calls on Friday and provided them to Mr. Landis Saturday morning and Ms. McNeil on Sunday. Further noting his review of the kites, Mr. DiGiacomo stated there was nothing in the kites that would be discoverable, but to be safe he would provide the kites to the defense.

Further, Mr. DiGiacomo advised he had photos taken during the execution of the search warrant at

Mr. Mendoza's house pulled and that he would provide them by e-mail to the defense attorneys.

Mr. Landis acknowledged receipt of the phone calls. Upon inquiry of the Court, Mr. Landis advised that there were many and that he is working on getting a number. COURT SO NOTED.

JOURNAL ENTRIES- JURY TRIAL

JURY ABSENT. Counsel waived the present of Deft's for this hearing. Mr. Landis noted one of the co-Deft. is going to testify, and advised the Guilty Plea Agreement (GPA) needs to be admitted and she will have to testify truthfully. Arguments by counsel. State advised if after testimony it has to be redacted, then it will be. MATTER RECALLED: Court reviewed case law cited by counsel. COURT finds if on cross examination if credibility is attacked and a redaction is required, State will have to amend without redaction. Mr. Landis advised he just received email from the State with more text messages and requested it be excluded as presented late. Ms. McNeill joined in request. State advised they just received the information. Arguments by counsel. Court advised she will allow a short continuance if needed but does not find this prejudicial as custodian of records is going to testify, and they can ask her where she got the information. Upon Court's inquiry as to how much time needed to review this information, Mr. Landis stated he will talk with his expert. Deft's present. JURY PRESENT. Testimony and exhibits per worksheets. JURY ABSENT. Juror number 12 provided note to Marshal regarding last witness. Juror 12 brought in, without the other jurors, and upon Court's inquiry stated he may have known the last witnesses when he was a child. Upon Court's inquiry, juror advised this fact would not affect his ability to be a fair juror. Juror 12 left courtroom. Counsel advised they have no opposition to leaving juror 12 on the panel. State advised the co-Deft. is the next witness and requested Court admonish Deft. that she is not allowed to mention any gang affiliation of co-Deft., the fact that Deft. Murphy was in Federal custody, and to listen carefully to the question before answering. COURT ADMONISHED witness Larsen as requested by State. JURY PRESENT. Testimony continued.

JURY ABSENT. Ms. McNeill objected to "pinging" of phone local as to her client as pinging dates was not provided. Arguments by counsel. COURT finds there was nothing hidden intentionally by the State, it is not trial by ambush, and there is nothing on this that is exculpatory. Further arguments by counsel. COURT finds the best evidence rule wasn't implicated or a violation that would rise to a mistrial and ORDERED, Motion for mistrial DENIED. Mr. Landis clarified he did not directly request mistrial.

JURY ABSENT. Counsel placed on the record the conference at the bench yesterday about prior consistent statements. Court believes there has to be a specific obligation. Mr. Landis advised if transcripts come in, he would like the tape also admitted. COURT SO ORDERED, State to redact any portions that need redacted. Ms. McNeill objected to witness referring to her client by his nickname, instead of his last name. Arguments by counsel. COURT googled Deft. Laguna's nickname and found nothing referring to "Killer" and ORDERED, objection overruled although State does not need to call him by his nickname. JURY PRESENT. Testimony and exhibits per worksheets. JURY ABSENT. Counsel confirmed redactions in transcript. Court stated she did not want to admit the whole thing unless used to impeach. Further arguments by counsel. COURT ORDERED, it is not hearsay based on series of interviews, finds it is relevant and goes to the credibility of this witness. Ms. McNeill advised she wants information to come in. Further arguments by counsel. COURT ORDERED, objection overruled, and State to redact portions that are more probative than prejudicial.

JURY ABSENT. Court advised counsel how they are going to address the objections placed on the record last night. Ms. McNeill requested statement of witness Sotelo be admitted as a Court's exhibit. COURT SO ORDERED. Arguments by counsel regarding reference as a "group". COURT ORDERED, a Motion for Mistrial is DENIED, HOWEVER, she does not want counsel go down this road any further with this line of questioning. Mr. Landis advised there is another issue as there was a discovery violation and a "proffer" made to witness Figueroa. Arguments by counsel. COURT noted detective said there was not a proffer, so they would need to get Mr. Brown in, Deft. Figueroa's prior counsel, in to testify and clear up this issue. FURTHER, Court sustains objection to last question asked of witnesses yesterday as it may be more prejudicial than probative and jurors will be admonished to disregard the last question. JURY PRESENT. Court admonished jury to disregard the last question. Testimony and exhibits per worksheets. State rested. JURY ABSENT. At 1:06 PM, David Brown, sworn and testified. Deft. Mendoza advised of his right to testify. Arguments by counsel regarding testimony and whether there was a proffer. COURT stated findings and ORDERED, Objection overruled. JURY PRESENT. Testimony and exhibits per worksheets. JURY ABSENT.
