EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

LAS VEGAS REVIEW-JOURNAL,

Case No.: A-18-775378-W

Petitioner,

Dept. No.: Department 15

vs.

PUBLIC RECORDS ACT
APPLICATION PURSUANT TO
NRS § 239.001/ PETITION FOR
WRIT OF MANDAMUS

LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT,

EXPEDITED MATTER PURSUANT
TO NEV. REV. STAT. § 239.011

Respondent.

COMES NOW Petitioner the Las Vegas Review-Journal (the "Review-Journal"), by and through its undersigned counsel, and hereby brings this Petition for Writ of Mandamus for declaratory and injunctive relief. The Review-Journal seeks a writ of mandamus requiring the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department ("Metro") to provide Petitioner access to the public records concerning sex trafficking set forth below—without delay and without requiring exorbitant costs. This Petition is brought pursuant to Nev. Rev.
Stat. §§ 34.160, 239.010, and 239.011. Further, the Review-Journal respectfully asks that this matter be expedited pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.011(2). Petitioner also requests an award for all fees and costs associated with its efforts to obtain withheld and/or improperly redacted public records as provided for by Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.011(2).

Petitioner hereby alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Petitioner brings this application for relief pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.011. See also Reno Newspapers, Inc. v. Gibbons, 127 Nev. 873, 884, 266 P.3d 623, 630, n.4 (2011).

2. The Review-Journal's application to this court is the proper means to secure Metro's compliance with the Nevada Public Records Act ("NPR"). Reno Newspapers, Inc. v. Gibbons, 127 Nev. 873, 884, 266 P.3d 623, 630 n.4 (2011); see also DR Partners v. Bd. Of Cty. Comm'rs of Clark Cty., 116 Nev. 616, 621, 6 P.3d 465, 468 (2000) (citing Donrey of Nevada v. Bradshaw, 106 Nev. 630, 798 P.2d 144 (1990)) (a writ of mandamus is the appropriate procedural remedy to compel compliance with the NPR).

3. Petitioner is entitled to an expedited hearing on this matter pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.011(2), which mandates that "the court shall give this matter priority over other civil matters to which priority is not given by other statutes."

PARTIES

4. Petitioner, the Review-Journal, a daily newspaper, is the largest newspaper in Nevada. It is based at 1111 W. Bonanza Road, Las Vegas, Nevada 89125. The Review-Journal has historically engaged in investigative reporting on important matters such as Metro's use of force policies,<sup>1</sup> and has more recently created an investigative reporting team.<sup>2</sup> Obtaining timely access to public records is a necessary part of the Review-Journal's work and is especially important to the work of its investigative team. Mr. Brian Joseph is a reporter and part of the investigative team. He made the public records requests detailed herein on behalf of the Review-Journal and at the direction of his editor, Ms. Karisa King. Before he joined the Review-Journal, Mr. Joseph reported for several California news

1 organizations with a special focus on systems like foster care services and workplac
2 hazards in the recycling industry. Ms. King was formerly an investigative journalist wit
3 the Chicago Tribune, and has extensive experience reporting on important issues pertainin
4 to health and medical care, affordable housing programs, and other issues of public concern

5 5. Respondent Metro is a public agency in the County of Clark
6 Nevada, and the joint city-county police force for the City of Las Vegas and Clark County
7 Nevada. Metro is subject to the Nevada State Public Records Act pursuant to Nev. Rev. Sta
8 § 239.005(5)(b).

9 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10 6. This Court has jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus. Nev
11 Const., Art. 6, § 6; Nev. Rev. Stat. § 34.160.

12 7. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.011
13 as the court of Clark County where all relevant public records sought are held.

14 8. Venue is proper in the Eighth Judicial District Court of Nevad
15 pursuant to Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.011. All parties and all relevant actions to this matter wer
16 and are in Clark County, Nevada.

17 STANDING

18 9. Petitioner has standing to pursue this expedited action pursuant to 19 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.011 because Metro has unjustifiably withheld and refused access to 20 public records requested by the Review-Journal and has improperly demanded payment fo
21 costs not permitted under the NPRA, which has the effect of denying access to the records

22 FACTS

23 The February Requests (Sex Trafficking Records and Unit Assignments)

24 10. On February 23, 2017, Review-Journal reporter Brian Joseph sen
25 Metro a request pursuant to the NPRA, Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.001 et seq. (the “February
26 Request”). (Exhibit (“Exh.”) 1.)

27 ///

28 ///

11. The request sought the following records:

- All investigative case files for all Metro sex trafficking cases that were closed in calendar years 2014, 2015, and 2016;
- All Metro arrest reports for solicitation or trespass that were produced in calendar years 2014, 2015, and 2016; and
- All names, badge numbers, and unit assignments of all Metro officers for calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016.

(Id.) Mr. Joseph attempted to facilitate access to the records by explicitly stating that he was willing to accept copies of the records in redacted form to protect juveniles' names. (Id.)

12. Metro did not respond to the February 23, 2017 request in the manner required by Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.0107(1), which specifically mandates that, within five (5) business days of a request, a governmental entity must respond to a request by taking one of the four courses of action delineated—(a) providing records immediately; (b) explaining in writing that another entity has the records; (c) providing written notice with a future date certain by which the records will be provided; or, (d) if any records or parts thereof will be withheld, providing written notice of specific authority for the reasons for doing so.

13. Instead of responding within five (5) business days as required by the NPRA, on February 28, 2017, Metro Public Information Officer (“PIO”) Laura Meltzer sent an email acknowledging receipt February 23 Request. (Exh. 2.) Ms. Meltzer indicated that Metro was “in the process of collecting the information” the Review-Journal requested. (PIO Meltzer indicated it would take “at least 30 days to compile any public records” responsive to the request. (Id. at p. 2.) PIO Meltzer did not cite any statute, case law, or privilege which allowed Metro to withhold the requested arrest reports.

14. Metro subsequently told Mr. Joseph that the District Attorney’s Office had legal custody of the records. (Exh. 3, p. 2 (noting that a Metro official told him he needed to request records from the District Attorney’s Office).) Accordingly, on March 6, 2017, Mr. Joseph attempted to obtain the requested arrest records from the District

1 Attorney. (Id.)

2 15. On March 8, 2017, Mr. Joseph received an email from Assistant
3 District Attorney Christopher Lalli that indicated the District Attorney's Office did not have
4 "legal custody" of the requested arrest reports and directed him back to Metro to obtain the
5 records from Metro. (Exh. 3, p. 1.)

6 16. On March 9, 2017, Mr. Joseph forwarded Mr. Lalli's email to PIO
7 Meltzer on March 9, 2017 to request clarification. (Id.)

8 17. PIO Meltzer emailed Mr. Joseph about his request for grand larceny
9 reports on March 23. (Exh. 4, pp. 3-4) In her email, PIO Meltzer stated she was seeking
10 legal advice. (Id. at p. 4.)

11 18. Mr. Joseph responded on March 23, 2017, that same day, and again
12 followed up about his request for sex trafficking records. (Exh. 4, p. 3.) He again provided
13 a copy of the email he sent on March 9, 2017, forwarding Mr. Lalli's response. Mr. Joseph
14 also asked why Metro could not identify records by charge, noted that PIO Meltzer never 15 cited any specific statute to justify its refusals to provide records and pointed out that, while
16 Metro stated that the District Attorney had custody of records, the District Attorney's Office
17 stated that it was not the legal custodian. (Id. at p. 1.)

18 19. In her 11:57 a.m. response to Mr. Joseph's March 23, 2017 email,
19 PIO Meltzer reiterated that Metro does not release arrest report and that Mr. Joseph needed
20 to obtain those records from the District Attorney's Office. (Exh. 4, p. 1.) In her response,
21 PIO Meltzer still did not cite any statute, case law, or privilege which authorized Metro to
22 withhold the requested arrest reports. (Id.)

23 20. On March 28, 2017, Mr. Joseph again followed up about the request
24 by emailing PIO Meltzer. (Exh. 5, p. 1.)

25 21. PIO Meltzer responded on March 29, 2017 by simply attaching to 26 an email a letter which contained language identical to the letter she sent to Mr. Joseph on 27 February 28, 2017. (Compare Exh. 5, p. 7 and Exh. 2, p. 2.)

28 ///

1                   22.     On April 14, 2017, Metro sent Mr. Joseph a letter from Ms.
2 Freedman, Metro's General Counsel, regarding the three categories of documents in the 3 February 23 Request. (Exh. 6.)

4                   23.     Regarding arrest reports, while she failed to cite to any statute or
5 other legal authority, Ms. Freedman also asserted that arrest reports are not considered
6 public records until they are introduced or filed in court or become part of a closed case.
7 (Id.)

8                   24.     Ms. Freedman also represented that the Review-Journal did not
9 request the arrest reports in a manner that Metro could easily search because arrest reports
10 "may generally be searched by event number and/or arrestee name." (Id.) Ms. Freedman did
11 admit that it could search for particular categories of crimes and calls for services by address,
12 but that conducting a search in that manner would require "extraordinary use of resources."
13 (Id.)

14                   25.     Regarding sex trafficking investigative case files, Ms. Freedman
15 stated Metro's Gangs/Vice Bureau would provide an estimate of the time it would take to 16 identify responsive files. (Id., p. 1.) Ms. Freedman further indicated that once the 17 Gangs/Vice Bureau had identified responsive files, each file would be reviewed to (1)
18 ensure the matters had been fully adjudicated, and (2) redact confidential and personal
19 identifying information. (Id.) She also stated the Review-Journal would need to pay for the 20 costs associated with pulling, reviewing, and redacting files.

21                   26.     While Ms. Freedman speculated the sex trafficking investigative 22 files may contain "personal and identifying information" and "identifying information for 23 confidential informants, investigative techniques and/or intelligence," she did not cite any 24 statutory or legal authority for withholding the files.

25                   27.     With regard to unit assignment information, Ms. Freedman asserted
26 Metro would not provide unit assignments because of officer safety concerns. (Id., p. 3.)
27 Again, Ms. Freedman failed to cite to any authority exempting unit assignments from 28 disclosure under the NPRA.

1                   28.     On April 27, 2017, Metro produced three lists of officer names and
2 personnel numbers for all officers employed by Metro on January 1 of 2014, 2015, and
3 2016. (Exh. 7.) Without officer assignments, however, the lists did not provide the Review-
4 Journal with the information it was seeking.

5                   29.     In a letter accompanying the April 27, 2017 production, Ms.
6 Freedman reiterated its position that investigative files and arrest reports are not public
7 records until a prosecutor has “used the investigative document[s] in court.” (Exh. 7, p. 2.)

8                   30.     In support of this assertion, Ms. Freedman only cited the Nevada
9 Supreme Court’s opinion in Donrey v. Bradshaw, 106 Nev. 360, 798 P.2d 144 (1990).
10 Donrey does not make any specific records confidential. It just sets forth a balancing test,
11 which has subsequently been strengthened in favor of disclosure, as detailed below.

12                   31.     On February 27, 2017, Mr. Joseph sent another request to Metro, 13 this time requesting access to and digital copies of “the record layout and data dictionary of 14 the LVMPD’s SCOPE (Shared Computer Operations for Protection and Enforcement)
15 database.” (Exh. 8.)

16                   32.     On March 1, 2017, Officer Danny Cordero responded that Metro
17 “is not the owner of the SCOPE system” and told Mr. Joseph to contact the Information
18 Technology Department for Clark County. (Exh. 9.)

19                   33.     After receiving this response from Officer Cordero, Mr. Joseph
20 contacted Dan Kulin with the Clark County Office of Public Communications to discuss
21 this request. (Exh. 60.) Mr. Kulin emailed Mr. Joseph on March 14, 2017 that Clark County
22 was “not the custodian of records” and directed Mr. Joseph to request the SCOPE records
23 from Metro. (Id.)

24                   The March Request

25                   34.     On March 3, 2017, Mr. Joseph submitted an additional records
26 request to Metro requesting “access to and digital copies (PDFs if available) of: All LVMPD
27 arrest reports for Category B grand larcenies in casinos that were produced in calendar years
28 2014, 2015 and 2016.” (the “March Request”) (Exh. 10.)

1                   35. As with the February Request, Metro failed to comply with Nev.
2 Rev. Stat. § 239.0107(1)(d). Instead, on behalf of Metro, PIO Meltzer just acknowledged
3 receipt of the March Request via an email March 8, 2017. (Exh. 11.)

4                   36. While Ms. Meltzer represented that she was working on the March
5 Request in her March 8, 2017 email (Exh. 11), Metro did not actually begin compiling 6 records.

7                   37. Instead of providing records, twenty (20) days after the request, on 8 March 23, 2017, PIO Meltzer informed Mr. Joseph via email that due to the scope of his
9 request, she had forwarded it to Metro's General Counsel for advice. (Exh. 4, pp. 3-4.)

10                  38. On March 23, 2017 PIO Meltzer also asked Mr. Joseph to provide
11 specific addresses for the grand larceny reports he had requested. (Exh. 4, p. 4.)

12                  39. Mr. Joseph provided PIO Meltzer a list of addresses on March 27,
13 2017. (Exh. 5.) PIO Meltzer responded on March 28, 2017, stating that extraordinary
14 resources would be required, and indicating that Metro would send a cost estimate. (Id., p.
15 1.)

16                  40. On April 20, 2017, almost two months after the March Request was 17 made, Metro Assistant General Counsel Ms. Charlotte Bible sent Mr. Joseph a letter
18 addressing the March Request. (Exh. 12.) Ms. Bible stated "LVMPD does have a specific 19 document responsive to your request," and indicated that fulfilling the request would require
20 a Metro analyst to dedicate 16 hours of "dedicated effort" to compile the requested
21 information. (Id.) To conduct this research, Metro demanded the Review-Journal remit
22 payment in the amount of $843.04, reflecting an hourly rate of $52.69 per hour for 16 hours
23 of time. (Id.)

24                  41. Unlike its April 14 correspondence, Metro did not indicate that 25 arrest reports are confidential until they are introduced in a court proceeding.

26                  42. Metro did not provide a date when the requested records would be 27 available.

1     The Review-Journal's Extensive Attempts to Obtain Access to the Records Requested
2     (February Requests, March Request)

3             43. Counsel for the Review-Journal has repeatedly contacted and met
4 and conferred with counsel for Metro to attempt to resolve disputes over access to the
5 requested records. Counsel for the Review-Journal offered several ideas for reducing costs,
6 including asking Metro to allow the Review-Journal to conduct an in-person inspection of 7 the records. The parties have been unable to reach any resolution because Metro asserts that 8 it can charge extensive costs for just reviewing and redacting records, and that it can take 9 years to produce the requested records.

10            44. On May 9, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal sent counsel for 11 Metro a letter summarizing the Review-Journal's efforts to obtain the requested records at 12 issue in the February Requests and the March Request, and the issues with Metro's
13 responses to its requests. (Exh. 13.)

14            45. In its May 9, 2017 letter, the Review-Journal asked Metro to 15 provide a "date certain for the production of each category of documents requested." (Exh.
16 13, p. 5.)

17            46. In the year since counsel for the Review-Journal sent the May 9,
18 2017 letter, counsel for the Review-Journal has extensively endeavored to resolve the issues
19 pertaining to the Review-Journal's records requests. The parties have been unable to reach 20 a resolution.

21            47. On June 2, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal followed up on 22 the status of record productions. (Exh. 14.)

23            48. On June 5, 2017, counsel for Metro responded by providing a list
24 of officer names and badge numbers for 2014, 2015, and 2016. (Exh. 15.)

25            49. In response, on June 5, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal
26 inquired whether counsel for Metro also intended to send her unit assignments. (Exh. 16.)
27 Counsel for Metro did not respond to that inquiry.

28     ///

1                   50.     On June 6, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal emailed counsel
2 for Metro to request that they confer about the status of the Review-Journal's requests. (Exh.
3 17.)

4                   51.     On June 9, 2017, counsel for Metro emailed counsel for the
5 Review-Journal indicating that Metro had completed a review of a closed sex trafficking
6 case, and that it took approximately three hours to review a file for redaction. (Exh. 18, p.
7 1.)

8                   52.     Counsel for Metro also indicated Metro had identified 675 files that
9 were potentially responsive to the Review-Journal's February request regarding sex
10 trafficking cases that were closed in calendar years 2014, 2015, and 2016, and estimated it
11 would take approximately 2,000 hours to complete a redaction review of those records. (Id.)

12                   53.     On June 13, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal called counsel
13 for Metro and also sent him an email to follow up on the status of the records request. (Exh.
14 19.) Counsel for Metro did not respond.

15                   54.     On July 5, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal and counsel for 16 Metro had a phone conference. During that phone conference, counsel for Metro stated
17 Metro would not provide unit assignments or SCOPE information. (Exh. 20.)

18                   55.     During the same July 5, 2017 phone call, counsel for Metro agreed
19 to provide counsel for the Review-Journal a sample redacted investigative file. (Id.)

20                   56.     Counsel for Metro also indicated that Metro was unsure whether
21 arrest reports are public. (Id.)

22                   57.     On July 11, 2017, counsel for Metro provided counsel for the 23 Review-Journal the sample redacted file he had indicated Metro would provide, as well as
24 a copy of Metro's service charge schedule. (Exh. 21.)

25                   58.     On July 14, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal emailed counsel
26 for Metro to request a phone conference. (Exh. 22.)

27                   59.     Counsel for the Review-Journal and counsel for Metro spoke over
28 the phone again on July 19, 2017. (Exh. 23.) During that call, counsel for Metro indicated

1 that Metro did not believe that the NPRA established a deadline for producing public
2 records. (Id.) Counsel for the Review-Journal also asked whether Metro would be willing
3 to provide some arrest reports. (Id.)

4           60. On August 24, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal sent an email
5 to counsel for Metro to inquire on the status of the Review-Journal's records requests and
6 the matters counsel had discussed during their July 19, 2017 phone call. (Id.) Counsel for 7 the Review-Journal reiterated her offer to work with Metro to obtain the requested records,
8 including paying under protest. (Id.)

9           61. On August 25, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal sent a letter
10 to counsel for Metro offering once again to work with Metro to resolve issues pertaining to 11 the Review-Journal's records requests. (Exh. 24.)

12           62. Counsel for Metro responded to this letter on September 19, 2017.
13 (Exh. 25.) Counsel for Metro stated that Metro had identified 231 potentially responsive
14 arrest reports, and that in order to process the request for those arrest reports, Metro required
15 payment of $2,079.00. (Id.)

16           63. On November 14, 2017, counsel for the Review-Journal sent 17 counsel for Metro an email to follow up on the status of the records request. (Exh. 26.)
18 Counsel for Metro responded that he was out of the office and would contact counsel for 19 the Review-Journal the next day. (Id.) After counsel for Metro did not call, counsel for the 20 Review-Journal sent him a follow up email on November 20, 2017. (Id.)

21           64. On January 11, 2018, counsel for the Review-Journal and counsel
22 for Metro had a telephone conference to discuss the records request. (Exh. 27.)<sup>3</sup> During that
23 conversation, counsel for Metro agreed to speak to Metro about obtaining the investigative
24 files that were part of the February request. (Id.) Counsel for both parties agreed that Metro
25 would select a single month and perform a "test run" to determine how long it would take

26
27 <sup>3</sup> Due to the 1 October mass shooting and extensive litigation over access to records
28 pertaining to that tragic event, the parties were not able to discuss the instant records requests for several months.

1 to produce the requested records. (Id.)

2                   65. Counsel for the Review-Journal emailed counsel for Metro several
3 times after the January 11, 2018 phone conversation to follow-up on the status of the records
4 requests.

5                   66. On January 18, 2018, counsel for the Review-Journal emailed
6 counsel for Metro to see if Metro would perform the “test run” they had discussed during
7 their January 11, 2018 phone call. (Exh. 28.)

8                   67. On January 22, 2018, counsel for the Review-Journal emailed
9 counsel for Metro follow up on the status of the records requests and the proposed test run.
10 (Exh. 29.)

11                   68. Counsel for Metro responded on January 22, 2018 that Metro was 12 assessing the number of cases in December 2016 that were responsive to the requests. (Exh.
13 30.)

14                   69. Counsel for the Review-Journal responded on January 22, 2018 and 15 suggested that it might be easier for Metro to search for responsive cases from January 2016.
16 (Exh. 31.)

17                   70. On January 24, 2018, counsel for the Review-Journal emailed
18 counsel for Metro to follow up on the status of the request. (Exh. 32.) Counsel for Metro
19 did not respond to this inquiry.

20                   71. On February 5, 2018, counsel for the Review-Journal again emailed
21 counsel for Metro to inquire about the status of the requests. (Exh. 33.)

22                   72. On February 6, 2018, after receiving no response from counsel for 23 Metro, counsel for the Review-Journal again emailed to inquire about the status of the 24 records requests. (Exh. 34.)

25                   73. Counsel for Metro responded on February 6, 2018 that he had not
26 heard back from Metro about the status of the Review-Journal’s requests. (Exh. 35.)

27                   74. On February 20, 2018, counsel for the Review-Journal again
28 emailed counsel for Metro to request a status update. (Exh. 36.)

1                   75. Counsel for Metro did not respond for a week. Finally, on February
2 27, 2018, he emailed counsel for the Review-Journal that he would follow up with Metro
3 regarding the status of the records requests. (Exh. 37.)

4                   76. On March 19, 2018, counsel for Metro notified counsel for the 5 Review-Journal that Metro had finally completed a review of sex trafficking cases for 6 December of 2016. (Exh. 38.) Counsel for Metro stated there were 35 closed cases for 7 December 2016 with about 2,000 pages of documents. (Id.) Counsel for Metro further stated
8 approximately half of the investigative files for December 2016 were juvenile cases. (Id.)

9                   77. On May 16, 2018, counsel for the Review-Journal again emailed
10 counsel for Metro to inquire whether Metro had performed the “test run” on the documents
11 counsel had discussed during their January 11, 2018 phone call. (Exh. 39.) Counsel for the 12 Review-Journal also inquired whether counsel for Metro believed there was any way to 13 reduce costs associated with fulfilling the records requests, including allowing the Review-
14 Journal to inspect the records in person. (Id.)

15                   Other Requests

16                   78. At the same time counsel for the Review-Journal was trying to 17 work with Metro to obtain the records that were the subject of the February Request and the 18 March Request, Mr. Joseph made other public records requests, which Metro has only 19 partially fulfilled. In fact, Metro has become even less responsive to requests.

20                   79. On May 19, 2017, Mr. Joseph requested “[a]ll investigative case
21 files for all LVMPD pandering and accepting earnings of a prostitute investigations that
22 were closed in calendar years 2014, 2015, and 2016;” along with arrest reports for “loitering,
23 being a minor in a gaming establishment, acting as a masseuse without a permit, pandering,
24 advertising prostitution, transporting a prostitute, attempted loitering, attempted being a 25 minor in a gaming establishment, attempted acting as a masseuse without a permit,
26 attempted pandering, attempted advertising prostitution, attempted transporting a prostitute,
27 attempted soliciting, attempted trespass, sex trafficking, attempted sex trafficking, giving
28 false information to a police officer, attempting to give false information to a police officer,

1 obstructing an officer, attempting to obstruct an officer, aid and abetting a prostitute and
2 attempted aid and abetting a prostitute” that were produced in calendar years 2014, 2015,
3 and 2016. (Exh. 40 (the “May 19, 2017 Request”).) Mr. Joseph also requested any records
4 Metro had pertaining to a particular criminal defendant. (Id.)

5           80. As with Mr. Joseph’s other requests, Metro did not provide a
6 specific response, instead sending him a form letter via email on May 19, 2017
7 acknowledging receipt of the request and indicating it would take “at least 30 days” to
8 compile responsive records. (Exh. 41, p. 2.)

9           81. On May 31, 2017, Mr. Joseph sent another records request to 10 Metro, this time for “[a]ll police reports, filed by citizens, in which the home address is 11 listed as 1 West Owens, North Las Vegas, NV 89030, from Jan. 1, 2014 through the 12 present.” (Exh. 42 (the “May 31, 2017 Request”).)

13           82. PIO Meltzer acknowledged receipt of the May 31, 2017 request on 14 June 2, 2017. (Exh. 43.) Ms. Meltzer’s acknowledgment did not include any information
15 about when Metro intended to produce the records.

16           83. On July 7, 2017, Mr. Joseph emailed PIO Meltzer to follow up on 17 the May 19, 2017 Request and May 31, 2017 Request. (Exh. 44.) PIO Meltzer responded
18 that she had “sent for a status check.” (Id.)

19           84. On July 12, 2017, Mr. Joseph sent another records request to Metro
20 asking for “[a]ll LVMPD arrest reports for attempted Category B grand larcenies in casinos
21 that were produced in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016” and “[a]ll LVMPD incident
22 reports for Category B grand larcenies and attempted grand larcenies in casinos that were 23 produced in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016[.]” (Exh. 45 (the “July Request”).)

24           85. On July 27, 2017, Mr. Joseph emailed Metro’s PIO to inquire
25 regarding the status of his many outstanding records requests. (Exh. 46.)

26           86. On August 2, 2017, PIO Meltzer told Mr. Joseph that another PIO
27 officer she identified as “Officer Rodriguez” was working on one of Mr. Joseph’s May 28 requests—although she did not specify which one. (Exh. 47.) Ms. Meltzer also included in

1 her response a letter acknowledging receipt of the July 27, 2017 inquiry and stating that it
2 would take “at least 30 days” for Metro to compile responsive records. (Id. at pp. 2-3.)

3 87. Meanwhile, on July 28, 2017, Metro General Counsel Charlotte
4 Bible sent Mr. Joseph a letter regarding the May 19, 2017 Request. (Exh. 48.)

5 88. In her July 28, 2017 letter, Ms. Bible indicated Metro had located
6 304 closed cases for 2014 that were responsive to his request for “[a]ll investigative case
7 files for all LVMPD pandering and accepting earnings of a prostitute investigations that
8 were closed in calendar years 2014, 2015, and 2016,” but did not indicate whether Metro
9 had determined how many responsive closed cases it had for 2015 or 2016. (Id.) Ms. Bible
10 also indicated that with regard to Mr. Joseph’s request for arrest reports for a number of 11 offenses, Metro had researched only four of the offenses and determined it had thousands
12 of responsive arrest reports, each of which would cost $9.00 pursuant to Metro’s fee
13 schedule. (Id. at p. 2.)

14 89. On August 18, 2017, Mr. Joseph sent another records request to 15 Metro, this time requesting copies of “arrest reports, audio and video records, interview
16 transcripts, investigatory records, incidents reports, notes, records, documents and memos
17 related to all incidents or reports of trespassing at the Aria Resort and Casino on May 28,
18 2014,” as well as the same records related to the arrest and investigation of Robert Sharpe,
19 III and Kariah Heiden. (Exh. 49 (the “August Request”).)

20 90. PIO Meltzer responded via letter on August 23, 2017. (Exh. 50.)
21 As with her other responses, PIO Meltzer only indicated that it would “take at least 30 days”
22 for Metro to compile responsive records. (Id.)

23 91. On September 7, 2017, Mr. Joseph sent another records request to 24 Metro for records pertaining to an individual named Branden Johnson. (Exh. 51 (the 25 “September 7, 2017 Request”).)

26 92. On September 15, 2017, Mr. Joseph sent a records request for 27 statistical information pertaining to the total numbers of men and women arrested for 28 engaging in prostitution, soliciting for prostitution, and sex trafficking for 2014, 2015, and

1 2016. (Exh. 52.)

2 93. Metro never responded to this records request.

3 94. Mr. Joseph sent another records request on September 15, 2017
4 asking for “arrest reports, audio and video recordings, interview transcripts, investigatory
5 records, incident reports, records, documents and memos” for two individuals: Poppy
6 Wellman and Kariah Heiden. (Exh. 53.) (Exh. 52 and 53 are collectively referred to as the 7 “September 15, 2017 Requests”)

8 95. PIO Meltzer emailed Mr. Joseph on September 21, 2017. (Exh. 54,
9 p. 2.) PIO Meltzer did not address Mr. Joseph’s latest request but indicated that with respect
10 to the multiple records requests Mr. Joseph had requested a status report for on July 27,
11 2017, Metro General Counsel was forwarding a response to undersigned counsel. (Id. at p.
12 2.)

13 96. Mr. Joseph responded via email on September 21, 2017, noting that
14 Metro had not responded to several of his records requests, and asking for a status update
15 on multiple pending requests. (Id., p. 1.)

16 97. Subsequently, on November 15, 17, and 28, 2017, Mr. Joseph sent
17 emails to the PIO requesting an update on his multiple pending requests. (Exh. 55.)

18 98. Between December 4, 2017 and December 15, 2017, Mr. Joseph
19 exchanged multiple emails with PIO Jennifer Knight inquiring about the status of multiple
20 pending requests. (Exh. 56.)

21 99. On December 12, 2017, Mr. Joseph sent another request asking for 22 “arrest reports, audio and video recordings, interview transcripts, investigatory records, 23 incident reports, records, documents and memos” for two individuals: Brittani Stugart and
24 Megan Lundstrom. (Exh. 57 (the “December Request”).)

25 100. On January 23, 2018, Mr. Joseph sent another email to PIO Knight
26 to inquire about the status of multiple requests. (Exh. 58, pp. 2-3.)

27 101. On January 26, 2018, PIO Knight responded that she had forwarded
28 his request to legal counsel. (Id., p. 2.)

102. To date, Metro has provided very few responsive documents to any of the requests Mr. Joseph made between May and December of 2017.<sup>4</sup>

LEGAL AUTHORITY

Legal Framework

103. The NPRA reflects that records of governmental entities belong to the public in Nevada. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.010(1) mandates that, unless a record is confidential, “all public books and public records of a governmental entity must be open at all times during office hours to inspection by any person, and may be fully copied...” The NPRA reflects specific legislative findings and declarations that “[its] purpose is to foster democratic principles by providing members of the public with access to inspect and copy public books and records to the extent permitted by law” and that it provisions “must be construed liberally to carry out this important purpose.” Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.010(1) and (2).

104. The NPRA provides that a governmental entity must provide timely and specific notice if it is denying a request because the entity determines the documents sought are confidential. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.0107(1)(d) states that, within five (5) business days of receiving a request,

[i]f the governmental entity must deny the person’s request because the public book or record, or a part thereof, is confidential, provide to the person, in writing: (1) Notice of that fact; and (2) A citation to the specific statute or other legal authority that makes the public book or record, or a part thereof, confidential.

105. More generally, the NPRA dictates that a governmental entity must provide a meaningful response within five business dates of a request. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.0107(1).

<sup>4</sup> On information and belief, Metro did provide some records responsive to the portion of the May 19, 2017 Request requesting documents related to a particular criminal defendant. (See Exh. 40 (the May 19, 2017 Request).)

1                   106. The NPRA also limits the fees a governmental entity can charge.
2                   Metro Has Failed to Timely Assert Claims of Confidentiality, and Has Waived Such
3                   Claims.

4                   107. Here, Metro failed to provide the Review-Journal with sufficient
5 and timely citations to any specific statute or legal authority which renders any of the 6 requested records confidential.

7                   108. Metro's failure to timely provide sufficient and timely statutory or 8 legal bases for withholding the documents should be construed as a waiver of the ability to 9 assert any privilege justifying withholding public records.

10                  109. Metro sent Mr. Joseph form letters regarding the February
11 Requests, the March Request, the May 19, 2017 Request, and the August 18, 2017 Request.

12                  110. These form letters do not comply with the requirements for a 13 response to an NPRA request set forth in Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.0107.

14                  111. Metro effectively ignored the May 31, 2017 Request, the 15 September 7, 2017 Request, the September 15 Requests, and the December 12, 2017
16 Request. This is so despite the efforts by Mr. Joseph detailed above to get information.

17                  The Records Sought by the Review-Journal Are Subject to Disclosure

18                  112. In accordance with the presumption of openness and "emphasis on 19 disclosure," both the NPRA and the Nevada Supreme Court place a high burden on a 20 governmental entity to justify disclosure.

21                  113. First, the law requires that if a governmental entity seeks to 22 withhold or redact a public record in its control, it must prove by a preponderance of the 23 evidence that the record or any portion thereof it seeks to redact is confidential. See Nev.
24 Rev. Stat. § 239.0113; see also Reno Newspapers, Inc. v. Gibbons, 127 Nev. 873, 882, 266
25 P.3d 623, 629 (2011); accord Nevada Policy Research Inst., Inc. v. Clark Cty. Sch. Dist.,
26 No. 64040, 2015 WL 3489473, at *2 (D. Nev. May 29, 2015). It is of note that, as a general
27 matter, "[i]t is well settled that privileges, whether creatures of statute or the common law, 28 should be interpreted and applied narrowly." DR Partners v. Bd. of Cty. Comm'rs of Clark

1 Cty., 116 Nev. 616, 621, 6 P.3d 465, 468 (2000) (citing Ashokan v. State, Dept. of Ins., 109
2 Nev. 662, 668, 856 P.2d 244, 247 (1993)). This is especially so in the public records context
3 because any restriction on disclosure “must be construed narrowly.” Nev. Rev. Stat. §
4 239.001(3).

5 114. Second, in addition to first establishing the existence of the 6 privilege it asserts and applying it narrowly, unless the privilege is absolute, the 7 governmental entity bears the burden of establishing “interest in nondisclosure clearly
8 outweighs the public’s right to access.” Reno Newspapers, Inc. v. Gibbons, 127 Nev. 873,
9 880, 266 P.3d 623, 628 (2011) (citation and internal quotation marks omitted; emphasis 10 added).

11 115. Metro has not—and cannot—meet this heavy burden.

12 Metro Must Produce the Sex Trafficking Records.

13 116. The Review-Journal has sought investigative files pertaining to sex
14 trafficking cases that were closed in calendar years 2014, 2015, and 2016. (February 15 Request).

16 117. The Review-Journal has also sought investigative case files
17 pertaining to Robert Sharpe, III, Kariah Heiden, Branden Johnson, Poppy Wellman, Brittani
18 Stugart, and Megan Lundstrom. (Exhs. 40, 49, 51, 53, and 57.)

19 118. Metro has conceded that these investigative files are public records.
20 (See Exh. 5, p. 2 (April 14, 2017 letter from Metro General Counsel).)

21 119. In its February Request, the Review-Journal explicitly stated that it
22 would accept redactions of juveniles’ names. (Exh. 1.)

23 120. The Review-Journal also understands that victims who have not 24 testified in court regarding a sex trafficking offense are provided confidentiality protections.
25 See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 200.3771.

26 121. However, if a victim has testified in court regarding a sex
27 trafficking offense, it would be nonsensical to require that their identifying information must 28 remain confidential. See, e.g., Nev. Rev. Stat. § 200.3771(4)(a) (mandating that nothing in

1 § 200.3771 prohibits “[a]ny publication or broadcast by the media concerning a sexual
2 offense, an offense involving a pupil or sex trafficking.”).

3 122. Given that Metro has conceded investigative files are public
4 records, it should produce the investigative files for sex trafficking cases, with the names
5 and identifying information of juveniles and sex trafficking victims who have not testified
6 redacted. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.010(3) (“A governmental entity that has legal custody or 7 control of a public book or record shall not deny a request made pursuant to subsection 1 to 8 inspect or copy or receive a copy of a public book or record on the basis that the requested
9 public book or record contains information that is confidential if the governmental entity
10 can redact, delete, conceal or separate the confidential information from the information
11 included in the public book or record that is not otherwise confidential.”)

12 Metro Must Produce the Arrest Reports and Police Reports.

13 123. The Review-Journal has sought arrest reports pertaining to both sex
14 trafficking (February Request) and grand larceny (March Request).

15 124. The Review-Journal has also requested arrest reports pertaining to 16 loitering, being a minor in a gaming establishment, acting as a masseuse without a permit,
17 pandering, advertising prostitution, transporting a prostitute, attempted loitering, attempted
18 being a minor in a gaming establishment, attempted acting as a masseuse without a permit,
19 attempted pandering, attempted advertising prostitution, attempted transporting a prostitute,
20 attempted soliciting, attempted trespass, sex trafficking, attempted sex trafficking, giving
21 false information to a police officer, attempting to give false information to a police officer,
22 obstructing an officer, attempting to obstruct an officer, aid and abetting a prostitute and
23 attempted aid and abetting a prostitute. (See Exh. 40 (May 19, 2017 Request).)

24 125. The Review-Journal also requested police reports filed by citizens
25 in which the home address is listed as 1 West Owens, North Las Vegas, Nevada 89030 from 26 January 1, 2014 through the present. (Exh. 42 (May 31, 2017 Request).)

27 126. The Review-Journal has also requested arrest reports for Robert
28 Sharpe, III, Kariah Heiden, Branden Johnson, Poppy Wellman, Brittani Stugart, and Megan

Lundstrom. (Exhs. 40, 49, 51, 53, and 57.)

127. Arrest reports are public records.

128. Police reports are public records.

129. Metro has not established otherwise.

130. Nevada law explicitly mandates that agencies of criminal justice must disseminate “records of criminal history” to reporters.

131. Chapter 179A of the Nevada Revised Statutes governs dissemination of “records of criminal history.”

132. Arrest reports fall within the definition of a “record of criminal history:”

[I]nformation contained in records collected and maintained by agencies of criminal justice, the subject of which is a natural person, consisting of descriptions which identify the subject and notations of summons in a criminal action, warrants, arrests, . . . detentions, decisions of a district attorney or the Attorney General not to prosecute the subject, indictments, informations or other formal criminal charges and dispositions of charges, including, without limitation, dismissals, acquittals, convictions, sentences, information . . . concerning an offender in prison, any postconviction relief, correctional supervision occurring in Nevada, information concerning the status of an offender on parole or probation, and information concerning a convicted person who has registered as such pursuant to chapter 179C of NRS. The term includes only information contained in a record, maintained in written or electronic form, of a formal transaction between a person and an agency of criminal justice in this State, including, without limitation, the fingerprints of a person who is arrested and taken into custody and of a person who is placed on parole or probation and supervised by the Division of Parole and Probation of the Department.

(Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.070 (1) (Emphasis added.)

133. Metro likewise falls within the definition of “agency of criminal justice” set forth in Chapter 179A, which includes “[a]ny governmental agency or subunit of any governmental agency which performs a function in the administration of criminal justice pursuant to a statute or executive order, and which allocates a substantial part of its budget to a function in the administration of criminal justice.” Nev. Rev. Stat. § 179A.030(2).

134. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 179A.100(7) in turn mandates that “records of criminal history must be disseminated by an agency of criminal justice, upon request, to the following persons or governmental entities: ... (l) Any reporter for the electronic or printed media in a professional capacity for communication to the public.”

135. This provision does not allow for an agency of criminal justice to levy fees or costs on those who request records of criminal history.

136. Despite the statute’s mandatory language, Metro has resisted the disclosure of public records, including those pertaining to open matters.

137. Even if Nev. Rev. Stat. § 179A.100(7) were not clear, Nev. Rev. Stat. § 179A.100(1)(b), also explicitly permits dissemination of records of criminal history for open matters—to any person. It provides that records of criminal history “may be disseminated by an agency of criminal justice without any restriction pursuant to this chapter: (a) Any which reflect records of conviction only; and (b) Any which pertain to an incident for which a person is currently within the system of criminal justice, including parole or probation.” (Emphasis added). This makes clear that arrest reports may be disseminated without restriction, to any person, if the person who is the subject of the record is currently within the system of criminal justice.

138. Accordingly, all arrest reports are public records—not just fully adjudicated matters as Metro indicated in its April 14 and April 27 letters. (See Exhs. 6 and 7.)

139. Thus, Metro must provide arrest reports to the Review-Journal without delay, and without costs.

140. The Nevada Attorney General opined that arrest reports are public records in a 1983 Opinion. See 1983 Nev. Op. Atty. Gen. 9, Nev. Op. Atty. Gen. 3, 1983 WL 171440. Even under the less robust version of the NPRA in effect in 1983, the Attorney General concluded that arrest reports are public records subject to the provisions of the NPRA. Thus, Metro has not met—and cannot meet—its burden of demonstrating by a preponderance of the evidence that officer unit assignments are confidential, or that any

1 claim of confidentiality clearly outweighs the presumption in favor of access.

2 141. Accordingly, Metro must provide access to the requested arrest
3 reports without delay—and without cost.

4 Metro Must Produce the Officer Unit Assignments.

5 142. The Review-Journal sought information about officer unit
6 assignments (February 23, 2017 Request).

7 143. Metro has asserted that it does not provide office unit assignments
8 but has not provided any legal or statutory authority to support its position. Thus, Metro has 9 not met its burden of demonstrating by a preponderance of the evidence that officer unit
10 assignments are confidential, or that any claim of confidentiality clearly outweighs the 11 presumption in favor of access.

12 144. Accordingly, Metro should produce officer unit assignments as 13 requested.

14 Metro Is Not Entitled to the Costs Fees It Is Demanding, and Exorbitant and Illegal Fees
15 Operate as a Denial.

16 145. The NPRA does not allow for fees to be charged for a governmental 17 entity's privilege review, or for inspection of public records.

18 146. As set forth above, no fees are permitted for copies of arrest reports
19 pursuant to Chapter 179A.

20 147. The only fees permitted for copies of other public records are set
21 forth in Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.052 and Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.055(1).

22 148. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.052(1) provides that “a governmental entity
23 may charge a fee for providing a copy of a public record.” (Emphasis added.)

24 149. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.055(1), the provision Metro appears to rely 25 on for its demand for fees, also permits governmental entities to charge fees for the 26 “extraordinary use” of personnel or resources.

27 150. None of the requests set forth herein require extraordinary use of 28 personnel or resources.

1                   151. Metro cannot ignore public records requests, let them accumulate,
2 and then claim that extraordinary use is required to respond to them.

3                   152. Even assuming these requests constitute extraordinary use, which 4 they do not, the NPRA provides that "... if a request for a copy of a public record would
5 require a governmental entity to make extraordinary use of its personnel or technological 6 resources, the governmental entity may, in addition to any other fee authorized pursuant to 7 this chapter, charge a fee not to exceed 50 cents per page for such extraordinary use...."
8 (emphasis added). Thus, even if the requests at issue herein required "extraordinary use,"
9 Metro cannot seek more than 50 cents per page for hard copies.

10                   153. Metro appears to be demanding payment simply for locating
11 documents responsive to a request and redacting them. Not only is this interpretation belied
12 by the plain terms of the NPRA, requiring a requester to pay a public entity to withhold
13 documents (or parts thereof) would be an absurd result. See S. Nevada Homebuilders Assn
14 v. Clark Cty., 121 Nev. 446, 449, 117 P.3d 171, 173 (2005) (noting that courts must 15 "interpret provisions within a common statutory scheme harmoniously with one another in 16 accordance with the general purpose of those statutes and to avoid unreasonable or absurd
17 results, thereby giving effect to the Legislature's intent") (quotation omitted); see also Cal.
18 Commercial Enters. v. Amedeo Vegas I, Inc., 119 Nev. 143, 145, 67 P.3d 328, 330 (2003)
19 ("When a statute is not ambiguous, this court has consistently held that we are not 20 empowered to construe the statute beyond its plain meaning, unless the law as stated would 21 yield an absurd result.")

22                   154. In any event, Metro cannot charge for redaction. Interpreting Nev.
23 Rev. Stat. § 239.055 to limit public access by requiring requesters to pay public entities for 24 undertaking a review for responsive documents and confidentiality would be inconsistent
25 with the plain terms of the statute and with the statutory mandate to interpret the NPRA
26 broadly.

27                   155. Metro is legally obligated to undertake a search and review of 28 responsive records free of charge when it receives an NPRA request. See, e.g. Nev. Rev.

1 Stat. § 239.0107(1)(d). Further, allowing a public entity to charge a requester for legal fees
2 associated with reviewing for confidentiality is impermissible because “[t]he public official
3 or agency bears the burden of establishing the existence of privilege based upon
4 confidentiality.” DR Partners v. Bd. of Cty. Comm’rs of Clark Cty., 116 Nev. 616, 621, 6
5 P.3d 465, 468 (2000).

6 156. Allowing a governmental entity to charge fees for searching for,
7 reviewing, withholding, and redacting records is not consistent with the mandates regarding
8 statutory construction contained in the NPRA, which require this Court to interpret the terms
9 of the NPRA liberally in favor of access (Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.001(2)) and any restrictions
10 on access to public records narrowly (Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.001(3)).

11 157. Here, Metro has demanded payment for staff time just to begin
12 making any records available.

13 158. Metro’s interpretation of Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.055 would create a 14 strong disincentive for individuals to make public records requests. If a requester was 15 required to pay a governmental entity an hourly rate for privilege review, the steep price tag
16 would discourage or effectively cease future public records requests. This is contrary to the 17 stated purpose of the NPRA: “foster[ing] democratic principles by providing members of 18 the public with access to inspect and copy public books and records to the extent permitted
19 by law.” Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.001(1).

20 159. When a governmental entity demands impermissible and excessive
21 fees before it will produce public records, as Metro has done here, it operates as a denial of 22 a request—and constitutes bad faith.

23 160. Even if Respondent could, as it has asserted, charge for its privilege
24 review as “extraordinary use,” such fees would be capped at 50 cents per page for copies.
25 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.055(1).

26 161. Metro has not provided sufficient support for its claimed copying
27 and other costs.

28 ///

1                   162. For electronic copies, there is no copying cost, other than the cost
2 of the medium and the costs to transfer the records to the medium.

3                   163. Thus, the fees Metro is demanding the Review-Journal pay before
4 it even begins compiling the requested records conflicts with the NPRA.

5                   164. Although not binding on this Court, a recent order from another
6 court provides some guidance regarding the fees Metro can and cannot charge in producing 7 records pursuant to the NPRA. On March 9, 2017 the Honorable Richard Scotti issued an 8 order in American Broadcasting Companies, Inc., et al. v. Las Vegas Metropolitan Police
9 Department, et al., Dist. Ct. Case No. A-17-764030-W, outlining the fees Metro is permitted
10 to charge in responding to requests from the Review-Journal and other media entities for 11 public records pertaining to the 1 October shooting (“1 October Costs Order”). A copy of 12 that order is attached as Exhibit 59.

13                   165. In that case, as here, Metro asserted that it could charge its actual 14 cost for compiling and reviewing responsive records and its copying costs. (Id. at p. 3:26-15 27.)

16                   166. In the 1 October Costs Order, Judge Scotti found that with regard
17 to records such as evidence logs and interview reports, the plain language of the NPRA only
18 permits Metro to charge the actual costs for copying the responsive records and the 50-cent-
19 per-page “extraordinary use” fee set forth in Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.055 and could not charge
20 the media entities for time Metro staff expended in gathering and reviewing the requested
21 records. (Id., pp. 5:12-6:9; see also id. at p. 8:9-11.)

22                   167. Judge Scotti also found that Metro cannot charge costs for 23 electronic copies, other than the actual costs to transfer records to an electronic medium.
24 (Id., p. 8:11:13.)

25                   Metro Must Provide Timely Access to Records.

26                   168. Counsel for Metro has indicated to counsel for the Review-Journal
27 that the NPRA does not set a deadline for producing public records. (Exh. 23 (August 24, 28 2017 email).)

1                   169. This position, however, conflicts with the plain language of Nev.
2 Rev. Stat. § 239.0107.

3                   170. As discussed above, the NPRA mandates that “[n]ot later than the
4 end of the fifth business day after the date on which the person who has legal custody or
5 control of a public book or record of a governmental entity receives a written or oral request
6 from a person to inspect, copy or receive a copy of the public book or record,” the 7 governmental entity must allow the person to inspect the requested record, or provide such
8 a copy to the requestor. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 2309.0107(1)(a).

9                   171. If the governmental entity cannot provide the public record or make 10 it available for inspection within that five-day period, it must provide the requester written 11 notice of that fact, and “[a] date and time after which the public book or record will be
12 available for the person to inspect or copy or after which a copy of the public book or record
13 will be available to the person.” Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.0107(1)(c)(1-2).

14                   172. Metro has failed to comply with this requirement. Although it
15 acknowledged receipt of both the February and March Requests within the five-day period
16 mandated by the NPRA, it did not provide a specific date when the requested records would
17 be available as required by Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.0107(1)(c) and has yet to make any records
18 available, other than one sample of an investigative file.

19                   173. Regarding the February Request, Metro only told Mr. Joseph that 20 it would take “at least 30 days to compile any public records.” (Exh. 2, p. 2.)

21                   174. Regarding the March Request, Metro provided an estimate of the 22 time it would take to compile the requested records but did not provide a date when the 23 records would be available. (Exh. 9, p. 1.)

24                   175. Metro also used this same verbiage in responding to Mr. Joseph’s
25 May 19, 2017 request (Exh. 41, p. 2), his July 27, 2017 request (Exh. 47, pp. 2-3), and his 26 August 18, 2017 request (Exh. 50).

27                   176. Metro entirely ignored Mr. Joseph’s September requests.

28 ///

177. Delays are at odds with the mandates and plain language of § 239.0107, which is designed to facilitate speedy access to public records.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

178. Petitioner re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1-177 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

179. The Review-Journal must be provided with the records it has requested pursuant to the NPRA.

180. The records sought are subject to disclosure, and Respondent has not met its burden of establishing otherwise.

181. A writ of mandamus is necessary to compel Respondent's compliance with the NPRA.

182. The NPRA does not permit the fees Metro is demanding.

183. Metro either does not understand its obligations to comply with the law or it is engaging in bad faith intentionally disregarding the plain terms of the NPRA to discourage reporters and individuals from accessing public records.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court

1. Handle this matter on an expedited basis as mandated by Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.011 and conduct an expedited hearing;

2. Order Metro to immediately make available complete copies of all records requested for inspection without charging fees;

3. Order that Metro is not entitled to extraordinary use or other fees or costs for reviewing, compiling, or redacting records;

4. Order that Metro provide electronic copies at no fee or costs, other than the actual cost of the medium and actual costs associated with transferring the records to the medium;

1                   5.       Order that, should the Review-Journal request hard copies, limit the
2 costs Metro can charge to its actual copying costs;

3                   6.       Require Metro to prove that it actually incurs any costs for hard
4 copies and electronic copies;

5                   7.       Award Petitioners' reasonable costs and attorney's fees; and

6                   8.       Any further relief the Court deems appropriate.

8                   DATED this the 31st day of May, 2018

Las Vegas, NV 89106

To Whom It May Concern:

This is a public records request. Pursuant to the state open records law, Nev. Rev. Stat. Secs. 239.001 to 239.330, I request access to and digital copies (PDF format if available) of:

- All investigative case files for all LVMPD sex trafficking investigations that were closed in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016;
- All LVMPD arrest reports for solicitation or trespass that were produced in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016; and
- All the names, badge numbers and unit (vice, gang, etc.) assignments of all LVMPD peace officers for calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016.

For any record that includes juvenile information, I agree to have the juvenile's name redacted, but ask that the records preserve all other information, including the juvenile's DOBs and all event numbers.

If your agency does not maintain these public records, please let me know who does and include the proper custodian's name and address.

I agree to pay any reasonable copying and postage fees of not more than $200. If the cost would be greater than this amount, please notify me. Please provide a receipt indicating the charges for each document.

As provided by the open records law, I will expect your response within five (5) business days as provided by Nev. Rev. Stat. Sec. 239.0107.

LVRJ001

If you choose to deny this request, please provide a written explanation for the denial including a reference to the specific statutory exemption(s) upon which you rely. Also, please provide all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material.

Thank you for your assistance.

Hi, Laura. I received the following email from the DA's office, re: LVMPD arrest reports. That office is insisting that I need to request arrest reports from your office, as the DA does not have "legal custody" of the records. How can we move forward on my requests? Thanks.

Dear Mr. Joseph,

We are in receipt of your email dated March 6, 2017. This Office does not have "legal custody" of the documents you are requesting. NRS 239.0107(1)

Although we receive case submissions from over twenty-five law enforcement agencies, the majority of the records you are requesting are in the "legal custody" of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. The address of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department is 400 South Martin Luther King Boulevard, Las Vegas, Nevada 89106.

Very truly yours,

Hi, this email is for Allison Williams. Brian Joseph here with the Review-Journal newspaper. We just spoke on the phone. As I mentioned, I filed a request with the LVMPD and an official there said I needed to obtain arrests reports from your office.

I'm looking to obtain all LVMPD arrest reports for solicitation and trespass and so-called "trick rolls" (which I understand are typically arrested as grand larcenies or robberies) that were produced in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016.

My question for you is whether you can pull arrest reports by arresting charge -- say enter the charge and produce a list of files. Or do you need an event numbers to pull every one of those files? (Regarding "trick rolls" I understand that may be more complicated to search for. Do you have any suggestions on that front?)

A secondary question is why is your office the releasing agency on arrest reports produced by LVMPD? I'm not familiar with a scenario like this, where one agency produces a record but a second agency is responsible for releasing it.

Really appreciate the help. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Brian Joseph

As for the DA's office, they almost always release arrest reports so not sure where the disconnect is. The only exception I have heard of is when we have someone arrested in connection with a sexual offense against a juvenile.

As we talked about earlier, we can look up charges based on type, but you asked for specific addresses....in other words, I can have an analyst pull all grand larcenies in the valley for 2014, 2015, and 2016. But you want them for specific addresses, they have to run a query for each address. Then they would have to run the query for which of those cases resulted in an arrest, not just a report. You further indicated to me on the phone that you are looking specifically for "trick rolls". That is not an official charge, therefore the report and/or arrest may be for a grand larceny, a robbery, a battery, or whatever other crime was alleged to have occurred. The officers have to articulate elements of the crime and the in case of an arrest, establish probable cause.

Casinos are located in almost every area command as well, so some of our maps do show crimes in a particular area command, but again, special queries need to be run to pull stats for a particular address. I'm assuming when you are talking about maps produced, you are talking about the crime mapping function on our website. That is very generic and is based on calls when a report is taken for a particular offense.

Give me a call if you need further clarification as I'm not sure I'm answering the right questions....

Officer Meltzer, I forwarded you the email below from Christopher Lalli of the DA's office on March 9. It clearly states that the DA's office is not the legal custodian of LVMPD arrest records and that I need to go through your office in order to get them. LVMPD creates the arrest reports. That makes them your records. I requested the arrest reports from your office and the official response to my records request (attached) makes no mention of a specific citation stating that your office is not the custodian of those records or will not be providing them.

As for your differentiation between records and information based on geography, I'm unclear as to why your office cannot look up cases based on charges. Are you telling me that your office does not have the ability to look up every case in a given year in which charge x was filed? How could your office produce maps showing concentrations of specific crimes if you cannot look up cases by charges?

Thank you.

Sounds good – let me know the addresses and I can move that forward. There is a difference in a request for records (reports) and a request for information (location, crimes, disposition, elements, etc). In order to receive records, we have to have reports responsive to your request – they have to be specific. In other words, to request reports, you must request specific cases, designated by arrestee or event number.

If you contact Audrie Locke at the DA's office, she can help you get the arrest reports. We do release Declarations of Arrest (DOA) and Incident Crime Reports (ICR), but not arrest reports. I would imagine though, you would have to request arrest reports for specific arrestees or case numbers as they would not be able to fulfill your request based on the above criteria of arrestees in grand larcenies at casinos.

In regards to your other requests, they are still being worked on if you have not received an extension letter or a final response. All open records requests go through our Office of General Counsel and they will ask a PIO to send an extension letter or to send the final response. I have not heard back from them on the request from February 23, so I will more than likely be asked to send an extension letter today.

Hi, Officer Meltzer. Thanks for getting back to me. I'm happy to put together a list of addresses for you. It may take me a couple of days to do so, but I can do it.

In the meantime, can you tell me the status of my other records requests?

- On February 23, 2017, I requested sex trafficking investigations and arrest reports for solicitation and trespass. There was some discussion about who is the custodian of arrest reports. I was sent to the DAs office for them; the DAs office says the records should come from your office. I believe you're handling that records request.
- On February 27, 2017, I requested the record layout, data dictionary and the data contained in the SCOPE database. There was some discussion about who is the custodian of the database. I was sent to Clark County; Clark County said the database is controlled by your office. I believe Officer Cordero is handling that records request.
- On March 20, 2017, I requested receipts of payment to the LVMPD. I believe Officer Hadfield is handling that records request.

Really appreciate the help. Thank you.

I forwarded your open records request for grand larcenies at casinos to General Counsel for advice on how to proceed (due to the large scope of the request). In order to facilitate the request, I will need you to provide specific addresses for grand larceny reports you are requesting for 2014, 2015 and 2016. Once we receive a specific request, we can provide you with an estimate for any research fees that may be incurred.

Re: Public records 170223-14 dated 02/23/2017

Dear Mr. Joseph:

Your E-mail dated 2/23/2017 in which you requested:

- "All investigative case files for all LVMPD sex trafficking investigations that were closed in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016;
- All LVMPD arrest reports for solicitation or trespass that were produced in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016; and
- All the names, badge numbers and unit (vice, gang, etc.) assignments of all LVMPD peace officers for calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016.

For any record that includes juvenile information, I agree to have the juvenile's name redacted, but ask that the records preserve all other information, including the juvenile's DOBs and all event numbers.

If your agency does not maintain these public records, please let me know who does and include the proper custodian's name and address."

-has been received by the Office of Public Information.

Please be advised the department is still in the process of determining if there are any public records responsive to your request.

Thank you for your courtesy in this matter.

Sincerely,

Joseph Lombardo, SHERIFF

Re: Email dated April 13, 2017

Dear Mr. Joseph:

Your email dated April 13, 2017 addressed to Sheriff Lombardo has been forwarded to me for reply.

I am aware of your request to the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department's (LVMPD) Public Information Office on February 23, 2017.

Request for "All investigative case files for all LVMPD sex trafficking investigations that were closed in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016". An inquiry is out to LVMPD's Gangs/Vice Bureau. The Bureau has been asked for an estimate of the time that would be needed to pull investigative files for cases meeting your request criteria. Once files have been pulled, individual files will have to be reviewed to ensure that the matters have been fully adjudicated. Further review will have to be done to redact all personal identifying and confidential information. Confidential information may include identifying information for confidential informants, investigative techniques and/or intelligence. Prior to any work being done you will be provided with an estimate of the cost.

Request for "All LVMPD arrest reports for solicitation or trespass that were produced in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016". LVMPD records may generally be searched by event number and/or arrestee name (or other personal identifiers). With use of extraordinary resources (GIS, CAD, human analysts and/or IT) categories of crime calls for service may be identified by address. You have not requested documents in a manner that LVMPD can easily search. Inquiries have been made to several Bureaus regarding our ability to produce documents in the manner in which you have requested. Additionally, should responsive records be retrieved, arrest reports are considered investigative documents which do not become public until they are (1) introduced or filed in court or (2) become part of a closed file. When I receive information regarding the feasibility of fulfilling your request you will be notified.

LVRJ019

Request for "All the names, badge numbers and unit (vice, gang, etc.) assignments of all LVMPD peace officers for calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016". LVMPD experiences employee separations daily. I am unable to provide you with a list of officers for a whole calendar year. Please choose a date and reports will be run for 2014, 2015 and 2016. LVMPD does not issue badge numbers but does use personnel numbers. First initials, last names and personnel numbers will be provided. LVMPD does not provide unit assignments for its officers due to safety concerns.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH LOMBARDO, SHERIFF

Re: Email dated April 13, 2017

Dear Mr. Joseph:

This correspondence is in response to your email dated April 17, 2017 addressed to Officer Laura Meltzer. In your email you list six (6) questions/requests for clarification in regards to my letter to you dated April 14, 2017.

Please see the following responses to your questions:

- 1) Your request is still being researched. At this time it is unknown how much time it will take to fulfill your request as written. A meeting has been held with the responsible section and they will be researching what cases exist and the status of the cases. When identified, closed cases will have to be reviewed for confidential information. If you are interested in a specific case, your request could be fulfilled much quicker.
- 2) Sex trafficking cases are exclusively investigated by one unit - Vice. The number of sex trafficking cases is much smaller than solicitation or trespass. Solicitation arrests are likely to be done by Vice, however any officer could make an arrest or issue a citation for solicitation. The same research that is being done for sex trafficking is being done for solicitation. However, this will not capture solicitation cases done by officers who are not assigned to Vice. We do not have an electronic solution to fulfill your "all" request in regards to solicitation cases. Again, if you have a specific case, we would be able to determine responsive documents much quicker.

Trespass is a misdemeanor crime that can be initiated by virtually any officer. It is possible that you are thinking of trespass in relation to prostitution, but in fact, the crime of trespass involves anyone who is asked to leave private property and refuses to do so. We have not been able to identify an electronic solution to fulfill your "all" request in relation to trespass. As I previously stated, LVMPD records are generally kept by event number or defendant name. If you have a specific request for an arrest report for a specific person, we are happy to fulfill your request.

- 3) Under Donrey v. Bradshaw, 106 Nev. 360, 798 P2d 144 (1990), a balancing test is conducted to determine whether or not an investigative file/document is public. Several factors are considered. The underlying bases for confidentiality is the integrity of an ongoing investigation and/or the due process rights of a defendant. Also protected are specific law enforcement techniques, the identities of confidential sources and any other matters that if released may jeopardize law enforcement safety. Once a prosecutor has used the investigative document in court, most of those bases no longer exist. Likewise, if a case has been fully adjudicated, the underlying bases for confidentiality are not likely to exist. Even when that analysis is conducted and a document is determined to be public, confidential information within the document must be redacted prior to release.
- 4) See response to your follow up question 1.
- 5) Please see the PDF attachments.
- 6) See Item #5.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH LOMBARDO, SHERIFF

Re: Public Records Request for LVMPD Arrests for Grand Larcenies at 213
Different Casino Addresses

Dear Mr. Joseph:

This correspondence is in response to your public records request originally dated March 6, 2017. You have attempted to narrow down your public records request for "all LVMPD arrest reports for Category B grand larcenies in casinos that were produced in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016." According to the LVMPD Office of Public Information you recently provided a list of 213 casino addresses where you want all larcenies in a one (1) year period with a list of arrestees.

LVMPD does not have a specific document responsive to your request. Your request will require research from a geographic information system by an Analyst to compile the information requested. There is a fee for the provision of information from the geographic information system pursuant to NRS 239.054. The manpower to conduct this type of research would take one person approximately 16 hours of dedicated effort to compile the information. Pursuant to NRS 239.052, LVMPD posts a list of fees it charges for reproducing public records (see attachment). Such fees include charges for non-standard requests that require extraordinary research. The fee to complete this process will be approximately $843.04 (Analyst hourly rate of $52.69 times an approximate 16 hours of time).

Before LVMPD proceeds with this process, we will need a deposit of $843.04 in the form of a money order or cashier's/business check made payable to the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. Upon receipt of payment, we will proceed with the research and analysis of the information. We will inform you of any further fees for additional research time or copying once the research is completed.

Thank you for your courtesy in this matter.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH LOMBARDO, SHERIFF

To Whom It May Concern:

This is a public records request. Pursuant to the state open records law, Nev. Rev. Stat. Secs. 239.001 to 239.330, I request access to and digital copies (PDFs if available) of the record layout and data dictionary of the LVMPD's SCOPE (Shared Computer Operations for Protection and Enforcement) database.

If your agency does not maintain these public records, please let me know who does and include the proper custodian's name and address.

I agree to pay any reasonable copying and postage fees of not more than $50. If the cost would be greater than this amount, please notify me. Please provide a receipt indicating the charges for each document.

As provided by the open records law, I will expect your response within five (5) business days as provided by Nev. Rev. Stat. Sec. 239.0107.

If you choose to deny this request, please provide a written explanation for the denial including a reference to the specific statutory exemption(s) upon which you rely. Also, please provide all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Brian,

In reviewing your request, it is unclear exactly what you are needing. LVMPD is not the owner of the SCOPE system. Clark County IT is the owner of the system and will most likely have the information you are needing.

I do not have a contact at Clark County IT, but I'm sure it can be easily found on their website. I attempted to call your office and cell phone but received a voicemail. Please let me know you received this email.

Respectfully,

Re: Public Records Request for LVMPD Arrests for Grand Larcenies at 213
Different Casino Addresses

Dear Mr. Joseph:

This correspondence is in response to your public records request originally dated March 6, 2017. You have attempted to narrow down your public records request for "all LVMPD arrest reports for Category B grand larcenies in casinos that were produced in calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016." According to the LVMPD Office of Public Information you recently provided a list of 213 casino addresses where you want all larcenies in a one (1) year period with a list of arrestees.

LVMPD does not have a specific document responsive to your request. Your request will require research from a geographic information system by an Analyst to compile the information requested. There is a fee for the provision of information from the geographic information system pursuant to NRS 239.054. The manpower to conduct this type of research would take one person approximately 16 hours of dedicated effort to compile the information. Pursuant to NRS 239.052, LVMPD posts a list of fees it charges for reproducing public records (see attachment). Such fees include charges for non-standard requests that require extraordinary research. The fee to complete this process will be approximately $843.04 (Analyst hourly rate of $52.69 times an approximate 16 hours of time).

Before LVMPD proceeds with this process, we will need a deposit of $843.04 in the form of a money order or cashier's/business check made payable to the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. Upon receipt of payment, we will proceed with the research and analysis of the information. We will inform you of any further fees for additional research time or copying once the research is completed.

Thank you for your courtesy in this matter.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH LOMBARDO, SHERIFF

Hi, thank you for this response. I have some questions and comments.

- I'm unclear as to why the letter states that I "want all larcenies in a one (1) year period with a list of arrestees." As indicated in my initial request, I am looking for information from "calendar years 2014, 2015 and 2016." That has not changed. Please adjust accordingly.
- I had several conversations with Officer Laura Meltzer regarding what I was looking for with this request. As I explained to her, I am attempting to capture arrests for so-called "trick rolls" over the three-year period indicated. Last we had talked, Officer Meltzer had indicated that "trick rolls" would encompass more than just larceny charges and that she would adjust my request to reflect the variety of charges that may be involved. If you have since determined that larcenies do indeed cover the full universe of "trick rolls" then this response is fine. However, no one has indicated to me since that last conversation with Officer Meltzer that larcenies do in fact cover the extent of my intended request. Please advise.
- What is the name of the geographic information system you intend to use to collect and compile this information from?
- What is the structure of this GIS? (i.e. relational database, key-value stores, graph stores, column stores, and document stores)
- How many tables are in this GIS? How many rows? How many fields?
- Mechanically, what exactly would an analyst have to do in order to compile information from your geographic information system? Please provide a specific, step-by-step explanation of the process you intend to use to collect and compile this information.
- How many responsive records would this research produce?
- Please explain how you developed the estimate that this research would require "16 hours of dedicated effort." I am unclear how you can estimate how many hours of research this effort would require if you have not determined how many responsive records there are.
- Please explain where the hourly rate of $52.69 comes from. The attached "Service Charges" sheet does not include any line item with the value of $52.69. If the line item you are referring to is "Research Fee (Extraordinary Use of Personnel or Technology," which lists its value as "Varies****" with **** explained as "Charged at the hourly rate of the position required to conduct the research," please provide the specific job title necessary to conduct this research and why a person of this title is specifically necessary.

Thank you for your assistance. I look forward to your response.
