ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR
ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

16 An Inter Vivos Irrevocable Trust

HEARING DATE: May 9, 2019

HEARING TIME: 9:30 a.m.

17 Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP's Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs
18 ("Motion") came on for hearing on May 9, 2019 at 9:30 a.m. Kirk B. Lenhard, Esq., appearing
19 on behalf of Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP ("BHFS"); Russel J. Geist, Esq., appearing
20 on behalf of the Trustee; Joseph J. Powell, Esq., and Matt Park, Esq., appearing on behalf of
21 Kathryn A. Bouvier and Jacqueline M. Montoya; and Alex G. Leveque, Esq., appearing on behalf
22 of Eleanor Ahern.

23 Upon consideration of the briefing, relevant legal authority and oral arguments of counsel,
24 and good cause appearing therefor, the Court finds as follows:

- 25 1. BHFS satisfied the Brunzell factors necessary to award attorneys' fees and costs, as
26 BHFS has demonstrated that its fees were reasonable in light of the following: (1)
27 its professional qualities, including the attorneys' ability, training, education, 28 experience, professional standing and skill; (2) the nature of the litigation or character of the work performed, including its difficulty, its intricacy, its

1 importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed, and the
2 prominence and character of the parties where they affect the importance of the
3 litigation; (3) the work actually performed by the BHFS attorneys, including the
4 skill, time and attention given to the work; and (4) the result BHFS achieved for
5 Ms. Ahern;

6 2. Historically, spendthrift provisions are intended to protect the beneficiaries, such
7 as Ms. Ahern, from situations where they are indebted to an outside party;

8 3. Here, however, Ms. Ahern was, as a Trustee and as a beneficiary, retaining
9 counsel – BHFS – specifically with relation to the Trust itself and to keep her from 10 being disinherited;

11 4. Ms. Ahern has never been deemed incompetent, and she entered into a contract
12 with BHFS;

13 5. Consequently, Ms. Ahern's obligation to pay the attorneys' fees and costs due and
14 owing to BHFS is not an obligation from outside, such as child support or the like.
15 It's her very right to the Trust;

16 6. BHFS' attorneys' fees and costs incurred in relation to its representation of Ms.
17 Ahern benefited Mrs. Ahern and is appropriately her debt to be paid from her share
18 of the Trust proceeds;

19 7. BHFS' fees and costs are not administrative expenses of the Trust and shall not be
20 borne by the Trust as a whole; rather, they shall only be paid from, and attributable
21 to, Ms. Ahern's share of the Trust proceeds;

22 8. Such a distribution does not violate the spendthrift provision of the Trust and the 23 Trustee can be directed to pay those debts that are for her benefit; and

24 9. Ms. Ahern waived her objection to any such distribution.

25 WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck,
26 LLP's Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs is GRANTED.

27 ///

28 ///

19211691

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Trustee make a distribution from Ms. Ahern's
2 beneficial interest in the Trust to Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP, in the amount of 3 $311,784.12.

CASE NO.: P-09-066425-T
DEPT. NO.: XXVI

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR
ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

HEARING DATE: May 9, 2019
HEARING TIME: 9:30 a.m.

16 Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP's Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs
17 ("Motion") came on for hearing on May 9, 2019 at 9:30 a.m. Kirk B. Lenhard, Esq., appearing
18 on behalf of Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP ("BHFS"); Russel J. Geist, Esq., appearing
19 on behalf of the Trustee; Joseph J. Powell, Esq., and Matt Park, Esq., appearing on behalf of
20 Kathryn A. Bouvier and Jacqueline M. Montoya; and Alex G. Leveque, Esq., appearing on behalf
21 of Eleanor Ahern.

22 Upon consideration of the briefing, relevant legal authority and oral arguments of counsel,
23 and good cause appearing therefor, the Court finds as follows:

- 24 1. BHFS satisfied the Brunzell factors necessary to award attorneys' fees and costs, as
25 BHFS has demonstrated that its fees were reasonable in light of the following: (1)
26 its professional qualities, including the attorneys' ability, training, education,
27 experience, professional standing and skill; (2) the nature of the litigation or 28 character of the work performed, including its difficulty, its intricacy, its

1 importance, time and skill required, the responsibility imposed, and the
2 prominence and character of the parties where they affect the importance of the
3 litigation; (3) the work actually performed by the BHFS attorneys, including the
4 skill, time and attention given to the work; and (4) the result BHFS achieved for
5 Ms. Ahern;

6 2. Historically, spendthrift provisions are intended to protect the beneficiaries, such
7 as Ms. Ahern, from situations where they are indebted to an outside party;

8 3. Here, however, Ms. Ahern was, as a Trustee and as a beneficiary, retaining
9 counsel – BHFS – specifically with relation to the Trust itself and to keep her from
10 being disinherited;

11 4. Ms. Ahern has never been deemed incompetent, and she entered into a contract
12 with BHFS;

13 5. Consequently, Ms. Ahern's obligation to pay the attorneys' fees and costs due and
14 owing to BHFS is not an obligation from outside, such as child support or the like.
15 It's her very right to the Trust;

16 6. BHFS' attorneys' fees and costs incurred in relation to its representation of Ms.
17 Ahern benefited Mrs. Ahern and is appropriately her debt to be paid from her share
18 of the Trust proceeds;

19 7. BHFS' fees and costs are not administrative expenses of the Trust and shall not be
20 borne by the Trust as a whole; rather, they shall only be paid from, and attributable
21 to, Ms. Ahern's share of the Trust proceeds;

22 8. Such a distribution does not violate the spendthrift provision of the Trust and the
23 Trustee can be directed to pay those debts that are for her benefit; and

24 9. Ms. Ahern waived her objection to any such distribution.

25 WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck,
26 LLP's Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs is GRANTED.

19211691

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Trustee make a distribution from Ms. Ahern's

HEARING DATE: May 9, 2019

HEARING TIME: 9:30 a.m.

7 as Ms. Ahern, from situations where they are indebted to an outside party;

8 3. Here, however, Ms. Ahern was, as a Trustee and as a beneficiary, retaining
9 counsel – BHFS – specifically with relation to the Trust itself and to keep her from
10 being disinherited;

11 4. Ms. Ahern has never been deemed incompetent, and she entered into a contract
12 with BHFS;

13 5. Consequently, Ms. Ahern's obligation to pay the attorneys' fees and costs due and
14 owing to BHFS is not an obligation from outside, such as child support or the like.
15 It's her very right to the Trust;

16 6. BHFS' attorneys' fees and costs incurred in relation to its representation of Ms.
17 Ahern benefited Mrs. Ahern and is appropriately her debt to be paid from her share
18 of the Trust proceeds;

19 7. BHFS' fees and costs are not administrative expenses of the Trust and shall not be
20 borne by the Trust as a whole; rather, they shall only be paid from, and attributable
21 to, Ms. Ahern's share of the Trust proceeds;

22 8. Such a distribution does not violate the spendthrift provision of the Trust and the
23 Trustee can be directed to pay those debts that are for her benefit; and

24 9. Ms. Ahern waived her objection to any such distribution.

25 WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck,
26 LLP's Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Costs is GRANTED.

granddaughters, Jacqueline Montoya, trustee of the MTC Living Trust, and Kathryn Bouvier, were attempting to reform and reconstruct the prior confirmation of the trust by changing the terms of the allocation of the oil and gas proceeds between the parties. Mr. Powell argued that the percentage allocation has been the same for the past 33 years and he urged the Court to issue a declaratory judgment either stating that the granddaughters 65% and the petitioner's 35% was accurate or to at least go back to the status quo until the situation can be brought before the Court because his clients rely upon the proceeds for their income. Counsel stated that an attorney in Texas informed the oil and gas companies that there is a dispute as to the terms of the pay-out and they have ceased distribution of any proceeds into the Trust at all according to either common practice or Texas law.

Following further argument, COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS that the W.N. Connell and Marjorie T. Connell Living Trust, dated May 18, 1972, is under this Court's jurisdiction. COURT ORDERED all proceeds from the Texas oil and gas leases are to be resumed immediately and deposited with the trust; the trustee and beneficiary, Eleanor C. Ahern, is entitled to receive her undisputed 35% share; the 65% disputed portion is to be held in the Trust until this Court makes a determination as to its proper distribution. COURT FURTHER ORDERED matter SET for EVIDENTIARY HEARING on the February trial stack and understands that Mr. Powell is reserving his petition for fees, costs, and damages.

Mr. Powell to prepare proposed Order; Mr. Mugan to review as to form and content.

STATED ITS FINDINGS that the elements for claim preclusion have not been met since there is no way to anticipate that four years later the trustee would change the distribution for those issues to have been raised in 2009. COURT ORDERED Motion to Dismiss DENIED.

HEARING ON PETITION TO COMPEL TRUSTEE TO DISTRIBUTE ACCRUED INCOME AND FUTURE INCOME RECEIVED FROM OIL, GAS, AND MINERAL LEASES AND DECLARATION OF THE APPLICABILITY OF THE DOCTRINE OF LACHES . . . . Counsel argued the Court's previous ruling that granted Trustee Ahern the 35% income from the Texas oil and gas leases and the 65% income in dispute to be held until a hearing could be held, the effect of spoliation and Doctrine of Laches on Trustee Ahern's change of distribution, and irreparable harm/success on the merits as to all parties. Upon inquiry of the Court as to bringing this petition now, Mr. Powell stated he felt the issues raised could be dealt with today which would make the upcoming evidentiary hearing unnecessary. COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS that sworn testimony needed to be heard since the facts of distribution from the original trust are in dispute and to decide if Laches is applicable. COURT ORDERED Petition to Compel DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

- At CALENDAR CALL, counsel announced ready to proceed. Mr. Mugan advised the Court of one potential problem dealing with the Texas probate matter. He stated the matter was stayed due to the health problems of the expert witness, a witness he also intended use, and didn't know the effect of the stay on this case but wanted to bring the Court's attention to this problem. Mr. Powell disagreed saying the Will doesn't need to be probated and this is another delaying tactic against his clients who have not been receiving any distribution since the stay was imposed. Court stated the bench trial will

- BENCH TRIAL - DAY

Mr. Powell raised concerns about the counter-claims included in Respondent's Answer filed last week, specifically the no-contest clause and the tortious interference with a contract and asked that they be dismissed for lack of notice. Colloquy as to whether the trial could proceed on the petition or whether all issues had to be litigated at one time. Following the discussion, COURT STATES ITS FINDINGS that the counter-claims are valid affirmative defenses arising from the same occurrence.

Court resumed and counsel stated they were in agreement to continue the trial and a new trial date was given for the August stack. Court mentioned they might also want to bifurcate the tort issue if Discovery could not be completed. Mr. Powell requested fees and costs for preparing for today's trial and Court directed him to prepare an Affidavit. He also requested the matter be returned to status quo in which the trust was distributed 65/35 for the last 33 years. Court requested the request be put in writing. Court returned all exhibits to counsel and stated an amended trial order would be sent.

- Discussion by counsel on PETITION FOR RELEASE OF TRUST FUNDS FOR THE PAYMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES, INSURANCE PREMIUMS AND TAXES ATTRIBUTABLE TO TRUST PROPERTY on Mr. Muga's statement that the objections raised involved misunderstandings as to the petition's intent. He explained that Ms. Ahern had paid the October Ad Valorem taxes out of her share since the 65% was temporarily blocked pending trial and this Petition was to reimburse her now that the trial has been delayed. Also, the Petition is not requesting attorney fees and accounting fees are not being assessed against work done on behalf of Ms. Ahern personally. Mr. Powell agreed Ms. Montoya had no objections with the clarification presented by Mr. Mugan as long as there was full transparency for the administrative expenses. Counsel also discussed the selection of Gamett & King) as the accounting firm for the Trust and there was no objection.

JACQUELINE M. MONTOYA'S AMENDED NOTICE OF HEARING ON PETITION TO COMPEL TRUSTEE TO DISTRIBUTE ACCRUED INCOME AND FUTURE INCOME RECEIVED FROM OIL, GAS, AND MINERAL LEASES, AND DECLARATION OF THE APPLICABILITY OF THE DOCTRINE OF LACHES AND ADDENDUM TO SAID PETITION. . . . Argument by counsel as to whether or not the 65% lease income should be paid to beneficiaries of Marjorie T. Connell's Living Trust or continued to be sequestered now that the trial has been moved to the first of next year. Counsel argued resulting repercussions to either party depending on whether Mrs. Connell's will is found to be or not be valid. Following the Court's indication the Court was to allow distribution, counsel then argued about the posting of a bond or other personal security. COURT ORDERED Motion to Compel Distribution GRANTED IN PART; distribution to begin as of this month with the June check; bond or alternate security posted upon motion as parties agree. Upon further argument, COURT STATED NO FINDING was being made on burden of proof or any other issues raised by counsel not set for hearing.

Mr. Powell to prepare proposed Order; Mr. Mugan to review as to form and content.

PREJUDICE as this motion is premature; alternative relief discussed re: what should be turned over. Colloquy re: Form 706 estate tax return was produced but redacted. Arguments by counsel. Colloquy re: status of relationship of the parties. If Ms. Ahern wants to make a Motion an accounting at a later time, Commissioner will revisit the issue; however, it is highly unlikely that Commissioner would ever order production of financial documents, or distribution of the Trust that didn't involve 65/35 split.

Commissioner advised Mr. Lum to check what you have, and discuss information with Mr. Powell. Commissioner highly RECOMMENDED Ms. Ahern turn over information on the 35 percent so everyone knows what was reported from the oil leases.

COMMISSIONER RECOMMENDED, the Motion cannot be brought back to Commissioner's attention until the District Court Judge orders an accounting of the MTC Living Trust (include Caveat in Recommendation).

Mr. Powell to prepare the Report and Recommendations, and Mr. Lum to approve as to form and content. A proper report must be timely submitted within 10 days of the hearing. Otherwise, counsel will pay a contribution. Mr. Powell to appear at status check hearing to report on the Report and Recommendations.

- MOTION TO ENFORCE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Mr. Warnick explained the events leading up to Oct. 22, which included a Nevada Supreme Court (NSC) settlement conference that did not resolve the dispute but counsel left agreeing to continue to try and resolve the issues. The arbitrator held off reporting to the NSC in hope the parties could reach a resolution. On Oct. 22, all parties and their counsel met at attorney Jeffrey Burr's offices to take Jacqueline Montoya's deposition. Instead, they began to settle the matter and caucused back and forth with the family members, who were in separate offices, and with all the attorneys. Finally, at the end of the day, the parties reached a settlement agreement and the terms were put on the record by the court reporter. The NSC arbitrator was notified and submitted a report showing the matter settled. However, six (6) days later, Ms. Ahern fired her counsel and refused to accept the settlement. Counsel requested the Court enforce the settlement.

Ms. Renka argued the settlement was a conversation among attorneys and was not reduced to writing, was not signed by Ms. Ahern, and was not entered into the Court's record. Additionally, Ms. Ahern was not in the room when the terms were read into the record and the agreement is deficient in resolving back payments, delayed payments, Texas attorney's fees, and there are no provisions for handling Federal taxes. Ms. Renka concluded there was clearly no meeting of the minds and asked the Court to deny the Motion to Enforce. Upon the Court's questioning as to counsel's reliance on attorneys ability to negotiate with and bind their clients, Ms. Renka advised that there is a rebuttal presumption and Ms. Ahern's is that she never agreed to vacate Jacqueline Montoya's deposition; she was never able to visit with her Texas Advisors; and she did not know the current cost of gas and the tax consequences.

COURT FINDS the fact that Ms. Ahern was not present in the room when the terms were being announced and did not verbally agree to the settlement. The Court did express concern that Ms. Ahern does not realize the full implications should the case not go her way; for example, she may be required to pay attorney fees for her daughters and all costs. Further, the advice she is receiving from her Texas counsel regarding oil and gas law may not be in her best interest as to Nevada's probate law. COURT ORDERED Motion to Enforce DENIED.

Ms. Renka to prepare proposed Order; opposing counsel to review as to form and content.

- EVIDENTIARY HEARING ON PENDING MOTIONS

Court and counsel discussed the outstanding Petitions and Motions that were stayed when the Will contest in the related probate case was set. Counsel agreed that certain responsive pleadings are subsumed in Countermotions for Summary Judgment and will be designated as moot. Counsel argued their respective positions. Ms. Wakayama showed a power point presentation during opening statements; a hard copy of which has been marked as Court Exhibit 1. Mr. Warnick and Mr. Powell prepared a notebook of all relevant information and that will be designed Court Exhibit 2.

COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS the record is replete with the fact that Eleanor received approximately 35% of the Texas oil and gas leases and Marjorie received approximately 65% for 30 years. Additionally, for four years following Marjorie's death, Eleanor continued to receive approximately 35% of the asset and Marjorie's heirs received her share. Eleanor did not assert any claim or right, and there is no mention in the record, that upon Marjorie's death she would receive 100% of the income from that asset. W.C.'s separate property changed between the initiation of the Trust and his death 7 years later and some property was conveyed directly to Eleanor. Additionally, the Trust terms that refer to separate property do not mean only the Texas oil and gas leases--that was the only separate property he had at the time of his death; all other separate property having been previously conveyed to Eleanor. Additionally, tax records do not support Eleanor's position as the percentage claimed by Marjorie was not reported as a gift. Court further notes that W.C. prepared a sound Trust document that kept this valuable income producing asset in his family, protected from taxes, and third party outsiders.

COURT ORDERED Opposition to Eleanor C. Ahern's Motion to Dismiss Petition for Declaratory Judgment for Failure to State a Claim Upon Which Relief Can Be Granted; and, Countermotion of Kathryn A. Bouvier and Jacqueline M. Montoya for Summary Judgment on Petition for Declaratory Judgment, for Damages and Assessment of Penalties, and for Other Relief GRANTED. Subsumed in this motion are the original Petition for Declaratory Judgment Regarding Limited Interest of Trust Assets filed 9/27/13; Petition for Construction and Effect of Probate Court Order, filed 3/26/14; Petition for Determination of Construction and Interpretation of Language Relating to Trust No. 2, filed 3/27/14, and Petition to Compel Trustee to Distribute Accrued Income and Future Income Received From Oil, Gas, and Mineral Leases and Declaration of the Applicability of the Doctrine of Laches, which will all be resulted as Granted. As to the claims asserted in Jacqueline and Kathryn's Motion for Summary, COURT FURTHER ORDERED Breach of Fiduciary Duty claim DENIED; Removal of Eleanor as Trustee RESERVED RULING for further briefing; and request for attorney's fees RESERVED RULING as this request is premature.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED Eleanor Ahern's Answer to Petition for Declaratory Judgment Regarding Limited Interest of Trust Assets and for Failure to State a Claim Upon Which Relief Can Be Granted and Counterclaims Against Jacqueline M. Montoya DENIED. Specifically, COURT FINDS neither side violated the No-Contest provisions as the Court was the property entity to deal with the complicated good faith disputes. COURT FURTHER FINDS Intentional Interference claim DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Additionally, Motion to Dismiss and Motion to Strike Counterclaims Raised by Eleanor C. Ahern Pursuant to NRCP 15 and NRCP 12(B) and Motion to Dismiss Counterclaims of Eleanor C. Ahern GRANTED.

As a result of the rulings on the above-referenced Motions, Petitions, and Counter motions, COURT ORDERED oil and gas revenues held pending the resolution of this matter RELEASED and DISTRIBUTED to Jacqueline and Kathryn thirty (31) days after Notice of Entry of Order.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED Motion for Leave to Amend Pleadings of Jacqueline M. Montoya and Kathryn A. Bouvier for Claims, Defenses, Damages, and Assessment of Penalties, and for Other Relief Against Eleanor Connell Hartman Ahern MOOT. Ms. Renka raised an objection to the claims raised by Jacqueline and Kathryn stating they were not raised in the original Petition and never properly asserted in a mandatory responsive pleading. They never answered nor raised any affirmative defenses within the time allowed. Mr. Powell argued the claims were raised in various motions and petitions. COURT OVERRULED the objection, finding the stay imposed while the Will contest was underway left some responsive pleadings pending but the parties' agreement to subsume responsive motions renders this objection moot.

Court and counsel discussed the possibility of filing the final Order under seal in order to protect any confidential financial information. Both parties agreed they would abide by NSC Rule 3 and submit an Order.

COURT ORDERED hearing SET; further issues to finalize are accounting of the money from the time disbursements ceased to when the money was ordered held; removal of Eleanor as trustee; attorney fees; and the best way for the Trust to continue. Parties can submit briefs on the respective issues.

- PROBATE HEARING

Court clarified the items to be discussed and resolve at today's hearing include finalizing accounting from time disbursements stopped to date when Court ordered money held; request to remove Eleanor Ahern as Trustee; request for attorney fees, and the future structure of the trust.

As to the accounting, Counsel argued the scope of the Court's prior Order granting payment of Administrative Expenses, Insurance Premiums, and taxes paid on a pro rata basis. Mr. Warnick argued the 6% trustee fees were excessive, the overhead expenses were unnecessary, the deposit with Capital Fidelity Investment questionable, money deposited in Eleanor's personal Texas attorney's trust fund comingled, and money invested in a California firm for a foundation self-serving. Ms. Wakayama defended the accounting saying Ms. Ahern was personally involved in several transactions in Texas that resulted in $3.6 million for the Trust. It is an acceptable practice to reimburse a trustee for such costs as travel, computers, time, etc., and 6% is a common charge. The overhead charge includes office space for her and advisors who have been assisting her with tax problems and investment opportunities, and that she acted in good faith in assessing these reasonable expenses.

As to Eleanor's removal as trustee, Counsel argued whether she breached her fiduciary duties. Mr. Powell argued that Eleanor's actions in stopping beneficiary distributions without Court approval was self-dealing and she should have recused herself as Trustee and let a third-party neutral act while she sought to have herself named as the sole beneficiary. Ms. Wakayama pointed out that Eleanor had been co-trustee of Marjorie's trust since 1980 and the objectors were designated contingent beneficiaries. She simply asserted her rights to take the entire income. Following the Court's Order, Eleanor has made sure that $2 million is being held and once this situation is resolved the money will be distributed as ordered. She concluded that Eleanor has only taken her 35% of the income and the balance less 65% expenses is being held.

As to the future of the trust, Counsel stated they agreed that splitting the trust would cause unnecessary administrative expenses and could possible jeopardize dealings with oil companies.

As to attorney fees, Ms. Wakayma argued counsel did not analyze their request against the Brunzell standards.

As to the administrative fees in the accounting, COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS that while Eleanor may be entitled to be paid for her time, the amount she accounts for as her fee is excessive and unreasonable, being more in line with a corporate trustee, and that also charging overhead for staff and office space is not appropriate. Additionally, COURT FINDS that Capital Fidelity Investments does not satisfy the standards of the Uniform Prudent Investors Act. Finally, the Court also finds the $37,000 payment was already accounted for and should be credited to the 65% trust. COURT ORDERED accounting expenses AMENDED AND REDUCED by $218,000 for administrative expenses and $24,000 for double billing. COURT FURTHER ORDERED the $500,000 investment in Capital Fidelity withdrawn and immediately placed in a more appropriate, federally insured vehicle.

As to the removal of Eleanor as Trustee for breach of fiduciary duties, COURT FINDS a breach of fiduciary duties to the 65% trust beneficiaries since she acted without Court permission in stopping distribution without proper notice or Court approval. COURT ORDERED Eleanor Ahern REMOVED as Trustee as to the 65% trust.

Notice: Journal entries are prepared by the courtroom clerk and are not the official record of the Court.

As to the future of the trust, COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS that ultimately the only resolution may be to split the trust and allow each party to manage their own money; however for the present, the trust needs to remain whole through this litigation. COURT ORDERED Eleanor Ahern TEMPORARILY REMOVED as Trustee over the 35% Trust; Court will APPOINT an independent third party as trustee over the entire trust. Counsel discussed either Premier Trust or Fred Waid and they will each provide the Court with their client's choice by Tuesday, March 24, 2015.

As to attorney fees, COURT ORDERED request GRANTED; counsel to file appropriate motion with redacted billing statements in ten (10) days including an analysis of the Brunzell factors; opposition due ten (10) days following; reply due five (5) days following. COURT FURTHER ORDERED hearing SET.

Mr. Warnick to prepare proposed Order; Ms. Wakayama to review as to form and content.

Also present Dale Hayes, Esq. for Petitioner and Jeff Johnston, Esq., Texas counsel for Petitioner. opposing counsel was reluctant to stipulate to the confidentiality aspect. Mr. Johnston advised that Texas law vests title to the property in the trustee. The leases in question are due for renewal the first part of April and he expressed concern that a new trustee would not be in place when the agreements needed to be executed.

COURT STATED Mr. Johnston's competency in representing the trust in these negotiations was not in question and appreciated the hard work he was doing on behalf of this family. COURT ORDERED Frederick Waid APPOINTED as trustee. As to the problems the parties raised, the COURT FURTHER ORDERED beneficiaries Montoya and Bouvier be kept informed of all negotiations; that Montoya and Bouvier be cautioned they cannot discuss or convey in any way confidential information told to them by their attorney to other family members; and that Mr. Johnston is to proceed in his negotiations and work with Mr. Waid once he is in place. Court clarified that if any agreements need to be signed prior to Mr. Waid's placement, whoever is so authorized at the time may sign.

Mr. Warnick to prepare Order appointing Frederick Waid as Trustee. Ms. Wakayama to prepare proposed Order regarding this hearing and/or the confidential agreement as discussed.

funds into a bank account with the assumption she will be given a line of credit to post a supersedeas bond. He asked the Court to issue an Order to Show Cause if all the monies he has traced thus far are not immediately returned to the trust. Ms. Renka advised she only learned of this situation prior to today's hearing.

Following discussion by counsel, COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS that Eleanor Ahern, as former trustee of the W. N. Connell and Marjorie T. Connell Living Trust, has not acted in good faith in complying with the Court's previous orders. Particularly, Ms. Ahern has not turned over all trust funds to the trustee, Fred Waid, and has not shown good faith in her representations to her counsel. COURT ORDERED former trustee, Eleanor Ahern, by close of business, Friday 17, 2015 to turn over all trust funds to trustee Fred Waid. FURTHER COURT ORDERED Ms. Ahern is to agree to a time within the next two weeks to be deposed by the trustee, as well as anyone she has designated as her power of attorney. Additionally, Ms. Ahern is to bring all records, accounts, and any other relevant material with her to the deposition. COURT FURTHER ORDERED an Order to Show Cause Hearing SET; if needed, in the event all trust funds are not given to the trustee by the Friday deadline.

Ms. Renka to prepare proposed Order withdrawing her motion; Mr. Moody to prepare proposed Order to Show Cause.

Montoya, Jacqueline

Ms. Wakayama stated the law firm is everyday learning more and more information from the newly appointed trustee that was never known before and every day the law firm is placed into the most uncomfortable of circumstances and can no longer ethically represent Mrs. Ahern s interests and can no longer present evidence to this Court that it has no way of determining its accuracy. Ms. Wakayama invoked counsels rights and stated they are honoring their duty under Rule 1.16(a) to immediately withdraw as counsel.

Court noted received a written opposition from Mr. Waid and inquired of the other parties. Mr. Powell stated he did not have a position.

Mr. Guist argued regarding EDCR 7.40(c) and Rule 1.16 (b)(1) and stated there are deadlines forthcoming, and Mrs. Has a show cause hearing on 4/22/15 regarding the unreturned funds to the Trust. Lastly, this Court ordered a deposition of Mrs. Ahern to be taken by 4/28, regarding the Trust funds. Mr. Guist stated he is prepared to take the deposition and stated his concern if Mrs. Ahern is left without counsel, she might act against her own best interests if she were to be deposed and if she were to appear at the show cause hearing, unrepresented. Mr. Guist further argued any delay in the upcoming deadlines would be adverse to the other beneficiaries of the Trust. Mr. Guist stated now is not the right time and argued there should be a substitution of counsel in place and argued for denial of the motion, pending substitution.

Court stated Marquis Aurbach Coffing s position is, their withdrawal is mandatory under the rules and inquired regarding the Court s options. Mr. Guist the motion did not need to be denied permanently and in the interim of substitution of counsel, Marquis Aurbach Coffing could facilitate the deposition without compromising what they believe to be representations to the Court. As to appearing for the hearing, although there would be some advocacy there, that advocacy would not necessitate making any representations that are false and haven t already been aware of. Lastly, Mr. Guist stated there is a possibility that funds from the Trust were possibly used to pay a retainer to Marquis Aurbach Coffing and there is a concern about not being able to investigate that.

Ms. Wakayama argued their ethical obligations trump any local rule. Further, Ms. Wakayama stated it does not believe this Court is in a position to force this law firm to continue to represent Mrs. Ahern and put the law firm in a position where it may be violating the ethical rules so that Mr. Waid can do his investigation. Ms. Wakayama stated Mrs. Ahern cannot be adequately defended due to the complete breakdown in communication and stated the law firm has done what they can to get Mrs. Ahern substitute counsel, and Mrs. Ahern has recently met with counsel. As for certain fees paid to the firm, Ms. Wakayama stated, again, that is brand new information and it is the law firm s position that they are a bona fide purchaser and had no knowledge of the source of this income.

Following further arguments of counsel regarding records for the Trust. Representations by Mr. Waid. Ms. Renka raised concerns regarding a former trustee appealing decisions of this Court and a new successor trustee appointed and the serious potential conflict as well as the concerns with jurisdictional issues. Mr. Guist argued this Court has jurisdiction over the Trust and all its records and over Mrs. Ahern as the former trustee and to compel her to turn over those records.

COURT ORDERED, Motion to Withdraw GRANTED.

COURT FURTHER SIGNED in OPEN COURT, Order Confirming Successor Trustee and Order Compelling Eleanor Ahern To Turn Over Trust Records To Acting Successor Trustee, SIGNED in OPEN COURT. COURT FURTHER ORDERED, with respect to any documents being held in the file Marquis Aurbach Coffing they are to be turned over in the form of any documents that should be in the possession of the trustee and any documents that counsel feels has an attorney/client privilege, should be noted in a privileged index.

Mr. Waid requested to be present via Court Call for the Order to Show Cause hearing, and requested the hearing be conducted under seal. COURT SO ORDERED.

- ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY ELEANOR AHERN SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT OF COURT

Mr. Moody advised the Court that the former trustee, Eleanor Ahern, failed to deliver to the successor trustee the trust information and assets this Court ordered. He added Mr. Waid discovered she has given power of attorney to two individuals described as her spiritual advisors. Additionally, the money vested in Fidelity Capital was not returned to the trust and the Texas attorney handling the Trust's interests will not cooperate with Mr. Waid. In an effort to preserve the assets, the successor trustee is proposing a Guardian Ad Litem be appointed over Eleanor's estate. Mr. Waid stated that his investigation of the Texas attorney is ongoing but he has uncovered some potential problems with respect to the recent agreements entered into for leases and attorney fees.

Ms. Patterson explained her firm was retained yesterday to represent Mr. Ahern and she is authorized to release information Mr. Waid requests. Additionally, without a written motion to appoint a guardian ad litem, she requested the Court defer any further argument on that request. As to the Order to Show Cause and any possible criminal sanctions against Ms. Ahern, Ms. Patterson clarified that, since the contempt did not occur in the Court's presence, an affidavit is required and the matter heard by a different district court judge. She concluded that she intends to work with the trustee and counsel to resolve all concerns. Court acknowledged Ms. Patterson's understanding and explained the defiance their client has exhibited in her reaction to orders. The purpose of this hearing was to impress on Ms. Ahern the serious consequences of her oppositional behavior. The Court also stated that the consequences imposed come from the Court and not from her daughters or the successor trustee. COURT ORDERED oral motion for appointment of guardian ad litem DENIED; any such request needs to be put in writing with an Affidavit. Ms. Patterson and Mr. Waid agreed to meet on Friday, April 24 to go over the missing trust information and assets. If the meeting is not successfully resolved to Mr. Waid's satisfaction, he can pursue other avenues no earlier than May 4, 2015. Mr. Powell also stated that the beneficiaries are also retaining their rights to pursue action against Ms. Ahern if necessary.

as are the original documents. Mr. Moody stressed that Mr. Waid filed his Affidavit in response to the Court's directive after discovering money missing from the trust account while Ms. Ahern was trustee. Court gave a brief history prior to Mr. Waid and Ms. Ahern's present counsel's appearances. Court ordered Ms. Ahern to set aside 65% of the income from the Texas Oil and Gas leases until a final determination was made as to the rightful owner of that percentage. When Ms. Ahern was replaced as trustee, Mr. Waid discovered insufficient funds to cover the set aside and Court signed a second Order giving Ms. Ahern a time certain to recover the funds and place them in a segregated account. Ms. Ahern failed to abide by the Court's second order.

Mr. Lenhard objected to the trustee's Affidavit saying Ms. Ahern was not given proper notice and due process of her contempt. The first order to set aside 65% of the income was not mentioned and the second order of her contempt lacked specificity. Following argument, COURT FINDS sufficient cause exists to REFER matter to Civil Chief Judge Gonzalez for an evidentiary hearing regarding contempt. The referring Judge will determine whether notice and due process were met.

Mr. Moody to prepare proposed Order; Mr. Lenhard to review as to form and content.

Colloquy on the Motion currently scheduled for 7/22/15 continued to 8/05/15. COURT SO ORDERED and each side will take an additional week to oppose and reply.

Mr. Lenhard stated the hearing will take one day at the minimum and they will need to resolve an issue preliminarily; he intends to file a motion but is also waiting for a transcript of Judge Sturman's ruling, which he will not get until Monday; it does not matter when the motion will be set, as long as it is before the hearing because it is a significant jurisdictional issue. Mr. Geist advised the actions that give rise to the matter before this Court took place before his client was appointed; from his perspective, he does not think they are a prosecutor. Court noted it understands counsel's position but here it has a referral from Judge Sturman. Mr. Geist advised his client still has issues against Ms. Ahern. Court explained its procedure for show cause hearings. After hearing this, Mr. Geist stated they will cooperate and participate in whatever way necessary. Mr. Lenhard noted incarceration is being sought and he does take this matter very seriously. Mr. Geist inquired as to whether this Court will entertain appointing a special prosecutor. Mr. Lenhard objected. COURT ORDERED, it will handle the motion before setting the contempt hearing. Status Check on Mr. Lenhard's motion SET on July 17, 2015 in Chambers.

COURT FURTHER ORDERED, when the motion is heard, a date for the contempt hearing will be discussed. Court NOTED it is only handling the contempt issue and everything else is still before Judge Sturman.

if she is not disinherited. Mr. Lenhard argued there was no due process and advised the Court he had filed a Motion to Strike the supplement to this motion and his motion is set to be heard on August 19. Court stated this motion is premature as the contempt hearing against Ms. Ahern has not been held. Court also directed counsel to Rogler v Millard, a recently decided Nevada Supreme Court opinion upholding this Court's granting of a no-contest dispute on a Motion for Summary Judgment.

Mr. Waid advised he was still working on recovering trust assets but had IRS issues to resolve and could not depose Ms. Ahern until the criminal proceedings against her were finalized. COURT ORDERED matter SET for EVIDENTIARY HEARING on the issues of damages, punitive damages, surcharge, and no-contest clause; discovery deadline is October 16. COURT FURTHER ORDERED status check SET.

- Following a BENCH CONFERENCE, Court made a disclosure to counsel that in reading the brief it appeared there might be someone with a similar name to one of the potential beneficiaries; however it was established it was not the same person based on their residence. Mr. Lenhard argued the two orders referenced in Mr. Waid's affidavit were orders from the Bench and not reduced to writing until a later date; refer to a transfer for funds and return of funds to the trust; and argued that an oral order cannot be the basis of a contempt citation. Furthermore, Judge Sturman indicated that the violating order was that Ms. Ahearn failed to keep in the Trust's possession 65% of the trust assets owed to the two daughters, which is contrary to the violations referenced in the Waid affidavit. Argued that it would be inappropriate to find Ms. Ahearn in contempt as the order was not clear and unambiguous. While Ms. Ahearn may have contemptible conduct by allowing a false affidavit/accounting to be filed, but that is not what is before the Court today. Mr. Lenhard argued that contempt is not appropriate; that the matter be remanded back to Judge Sturman and the Trustee proceed with the appropriate discovery they deem necessary. Mr. Moody stated that the affidavit filed by Mr. Waid at Judge Sturman's request was not intended to be a charging affidavit but rather in response to Judge Sturman's inquiry as to what Mr. Waid had discovered following his appointment as the Trustee. Mr. Moody indicated they were not advocating contempt of Ms. Ahearn, rather cooperation and accountability by Ms. Ahearn. Court stated its FINDINGS and ORDERED, Motion to Dismiss Contempt Proceedings, GRANTED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Court directed Mr. Lenhard to prepare an order.

the issues but that may change depending on whether Mr. Waid receives all requested information timely. Upon Mr. Waid's inquiry as to whether he should file another Affidavit since he cannot account for the half a million dollars that went to Fidelity, Mr. Lenhard conceded that point and the Court stated another Affidavit was not required.

Also present James Shapiro, Esq. Mr. Shapiro advised the Court he represented Petitioner Ahern in another civil case filed by David Mann for a Breach of Contract over this same attorney fee. He requested the Court transfer these two motions over to Dept. 20. Mr. Moody objected saying Mr. Mann has nothing to collect until he has a lien. He also stated that countermotion to unseal records was the Trustee's attempt to secure the Trust file that Mr. Mann refuses to turn over until he is paid. Court noted that Mr. Mann has never come to this Court to explain his possession of the Trust file and his actions have hampered the Trustee and Ms. Ahern's counsel in resolving this case. Court also explained that she has no authority to unseal records in a case before another Judge. COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS that David Mann has failed to honor the subpoena for Trust records and is in contempt of this Court. To the extent the records are sealed, then Mr. Mann needs to take whatever steps he can to respond to the subpoena. Following discussion with counsel, Court concurred with Trustee's plan to file a Motion to Compel and give Mr. Mann ten (10) days to produce the requested documents or an Order to Show Cause will issue for Mr. Mann to appear before this Court in five (5) days . COURT ORDERED Countermotion to Unseal Records GRANTED IN THE ALTERNATIVE RELIEF; Motion for Adjudication of Attorney's Lien OFF CALENDAR since Mr. Mann chose to pursue this matter in a civil case.

Mr. Moody to prepare documents.

- FREDRICK P. WAID'S MOTION TO COMPEL ELEANOR AHERN'S AUTHORIZATION TO ALLOW TRUSTEE TO OBTAIN INFORMATION FOR ATTORNEYS AND OTHER PROFESSIONALS ON OST . . . Court stated that the State of Nevada acknowledges a fiduciary exception to attorney/client privilege and this Court has always upheld that exception to the extent that a trustee receives legal advice relevant to the trust. Court then addressed Mr. Moody explaining concerns regarding the phrase "individually and as trustee" in the current trustee's search for information. Mr. Moody explained that Texas law does not have a fiduciary exception and several protective orders have been filed to deny Mr. Waid access to trust records. After some discussion, Court and counsel agreed to substitute the overbroad phrase with "any information acquired by payments made from the trust funds; and/or anything having to do with Eleanor Ahern in her capacity as trustee." COURT ORDERED Motion to Compel GRANTED with this change.

Mr. Moody to prepare proposed Order; opposing counsel to review as to form and content.

ELEANOR CONNELL HARTMAN AHERN'S MOTION FOR DISTRIBUTION OF TRUST INCOME IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COURT'S SUMMARY JUDGMENT DATED APRIL 16, 2015 ON OST . . . Counsel argued on the present day financial condition of Ms. Ahern of someone who shops at a food pantry and the Salvation Army to someone who flies in private jets and went on a world cruise. Counsel also argued whether Ms. Ahern should be entitled to pay legal fees from the trust given the Judgment she owes to her daughters. After hearing arguments from both sides and an explanation of the trust's current fiscal situation, COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS the main goal is to find out where the trust money has gone and, if possible, restore it to the trust. There is one person who has the information that will allow us to reach this goal but can she assist if she is without counsel. To that end, some compromise must be reached that will ultimately benefit all parties. COURT ORDERED Motion for Distribution of Trust Income GRANTED IN PART; Ms. Ahern will receive $5,000 per month for living expenses; counsel for Ms. Ahern will receive $10,000 per month for attorney fees; and counsel will be paid $30,000 in past fees, either as a lump sum or in installments, as the trustee decides. The trustee agreed to provide an interim accounting of the trust but emphasized that he was not ready to provide a final accounting. COURT FURTHER ORDERED these payments effective from this date through to the current trial date of February, 2016; subject to renewal at the attorney's written request. COURT CLARIFIED this money is to be paid back and colloquy over the exact wording whether this was an advancement, loan, distribution, etc. and Court left the exact wording to the trustee.

Mr. Lenhard to prepare proposed Order; opposing counsel to review as to form and content.

MOTION TO COMPEL DEPOSITION OF ELEANOR AHERN . . . Mr. Moody outlined the four areas the Trustee still needs information on in order to complete his work. Mr. Lenhard explained he had not had the opportunity to discuss this with his client but offered to sign the order as having disapproved as to form and content. Court interlineated the two Orders with a disapproval for Mr. Lenhard to sign and stated that Court will not require the Orders be approved by opposing counsel. COURT ORDERED the following two Orders GRANTED. The first Order is to require Eleanor Ahern to submit to a physical exam and a mini-mental state exam to evaluate her ability to sit for a deposition. The second Order directed Jeffrey M. Johnston, Esq. and firm, Ryan Scharar, Esq., and firm, and Marquis Aurbach Coffin law firm to provide Trust information under the fiduciary exception to attorney-client privileges. Colloquy on the reasonableness of holding the evidentiary hearing on February 11 in light of these two Orders. COURT ORDERED evidentiary hearing VACATED and RESET.

Orders SIGNED IN OPEN COURT.

UNDER SEAL. Court noted Mr. Waid was not comfortable in his efforts for a formal report. There is a request to take evidence regarding how to account for the income from the trust and request for a surcharge and enforce the no contest clause and deprive Ms. Ahern of the interest in the Trust altogether. Court wished to discuss what happened to the funds and what remains and is accounted for. Arguments by counsel whether Ms. Ahern was under undue influence or not. Mr. Keifer lodged a standing objection to that evidence.

There were subsequent arguments over one year ago information from Mr. Waid that might call that into question. Mr. Keifer insisted there was no undue influence on Ms. Ahern because the arguments from Ms. Montoya and Ms. Bouvier in June 2013 deviated from the discussed documents.

The Court did not want to discuss anything dealing with the IRS. Mr. Moody advised what Mr. Waid could testify to. An IME examination was taken but there is no report at this time. Court noted that may limit what is done today. Court noted Mr. Waid could not state definitively what the numbers are. The Court will use information from Mr. Waid to help it make a Decision on Mr. Powell's Motion that has been pending for several months. Colloquy regarding Mr. Waid being a Trustee which is a fiduciary for both sides and not an adverse party to either party. This Hearing is informational gathering to make a record for both sides. Mr. Moody advised of what Mr. Waid would testify to today. Power Point presentation marked and Admitted as Court's Exhibit 1. (See Worksheet.) Opening Statements by Mr. Rushforth. Opening Statements by Mr. Lenhard. COURT ORDERED, Petitioner's Exhibits A through H are ADMITTED as there were no objections. Exhibit G is TO BE SEALED. (See Worksheet.) The Trial Brief is to be FILED UNDER SEALED. Testimony and Exhibits presented. (See Worksheets.) Mr. Lenhard's Exhibits were marked as Respondent's Exhibits. COURT ORDERED, Respondent's Exhibits F and G marked and ADMITTED. Respondent's Exhibit G is TO BE SEALED. (See Worksheet.) Further testimony and Exhibits presented. (See Worksheets.) COURT ORDERED, page 9 ONLY of Respondent's Exhibit K is ADMITTED and TO BE SEALED. (See Worksheet.) Above matter CONTINUED. Counsel to determine after the IME report is received if Ms. Ahern will testify, whether Mr. Waid will testify further, or how they wish to proceed. Counsel estimate Closing Arguments will take one and one-half hours. Mr. Lenhard advised he would not call Ms. Bouvier as a witness.

Mr. Moody reminded the Court of the 65th day Rule which will run for the accounting which is due 3/4/16. Colloquy regarding when to hear this matter as Mr. Waid was awaiting instructions from the Court. A similar issue arose in 2014 where liability at the Trust level was fixed and Mr. Waid could not Amend that as to income distributions. Counsel requested to address the issue on 3/3/16.

MOTION TO SUBMIT DOCUMENTS IN CAMERA ON OST . . . Ms. Peterson reported Dr. Joseph Jeppson, D.O.'s, Independent Medical Evaluation (IME) of Eleanor Ahern, performed in response to a Motion to Compel, concludes that Ms. Ahern is physically able to sit for a deposition. Mr. Rushforth raised no objection as long as the IME was not being offered for evidence. Ms. Peterson stated that apart from her physical health, Dr. Jeppson made a recommendation for further evaluation. CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH. COURT ORDERED Motion to Submit Documents In Camera GRANTED; the Court reviewed the documents and RETURNED THE IME TO COUNSEL. Counsel was shown the final page of the IME regarding the physician's conclusion and future recommendation, which Ms. Peterson will file under seal. Mr. Moody stated the Trustee will proceed with Ms. Ahern's recommendation.

Ms. Peterson to prepare proposed Order.

STATUS CHECK: 65TH DAY RULE . . . Mr. Geist, on behalf of Trustee Waid, filed a PETITION FOR INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING ALLOCATION OF ELEANOR AHERN'S 2015 TRUST UNPAID DISTRIBUTIONS (Filed Under Seal.) The Petition offered four options for the Court to review and instruct the Trustee on allocation of unpaid revenue for tax purposes. Mr. Lenhard offered Respondent's option for Court's consideration. He also asked why the Trustee has not complied with the Court's Order filed 1/5/16 after being instructed to advance funds to Ms. Ahern for living expenses and to her counsel for fees. Mr. Geist stated the Trustee has not advanced funds due to the appeal on file as well as being unsure of the tax ramifications until all accounting information is provided. Court inquired as to the possibility of advancing funds as previously Ordered, crediting the balance to the MTC Trust as a payment on the Judgment owed by Ms. Ahern, at the least adverse tax consequences to all parties. CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH. Following the CAB, Mr. Geist clarified the instructions to the Trustee are for Mr. Waid to advance payments net of her income tax liabilities to Ms. Ahern for living expenses as previously ordered and pay the income tax; pay her attorney fees as an expense of the trust and credit that amount against any future distributions she may be entitled to receive. Mr. Rushforth lodged an objection that Ms. Ahern is not entitled to any payment until the Court has determined she is entitled to a share. COURT SO ORDERED as to Mr. Geist's understanding. Mr. Geist further clarified the balance of the funds on hand is suspended as to Ms. Ahern, the amount credited to and paid for the MTC Trust; the beneficiaries to account for that money and pay the tax. Further, whatever amount Eleanor Ahern is ultimately assessed, she should pay the tax liabilities.

Mr. Geist to prepare proposed Order; opposing counsel to review as to form and content.

EVIDENTIARY HEARING ON MOTION TO ENFORCE NO CONTEST CLAUSE . . . Mr. Lenhard advised he would not be calling any witness. Court directed counsel to proceed with closing arguments. Mr. Rushforth made closing argument on behalf of the Petitioners using a Power Point presentation marked and admitted as Court's Exhibit 2. Mr. Rushforth argued the no-contest clause of the Trust must carry out the intent of the settlor and that Eleanor Ahern's actions necessitated this litigation. He reminded the Court that she withdrew Trust assets after she was removed as Trustee, breaching her fiduciary duty. Alternatively, Mr. Rushforth requested if the Court finds Ms. Ahern not in contempt of the no-contest clause, to deny her receiving any further money until the beneficiaries and the Trust have been made whole. He also asked the Court apply treble damages and/or punitive damages. Mr. Lenhard made closing arguments on behalf of Ms. Ahern. He pointed out significant funds have been returned to the Trust. He also mentioned Petitioner's letters to the Trustee directing him to cease his efforts to locate Trust assets. Finally, Mr. Lenhard pointed out the undue influence exerted over Ms. Ahern and asked the Court to take that circumstance into consideration. He concluded by requesting the Court not remove Ms. Ahern from the Trust but surcharge her for the damages until such time as the money owed has been paid off in full. The Trustee took no position at the hearing and Mr. Rushforth made rebuttal arguments.

Following argument, COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS that Eleanor Ahern has shown for contempt of this Court and failed to properly apply her duty as Trustee. Further, due to the gross misuse of Trustee funds, this case is appropriate for a surcharge, with the imposition of treble damages and/or punitive damages. Counsel should brief and argue these additional monetary sanctions during the damages phase of this hearing. COURT ORDERED Eleanor Ahern be surcharged on her distributions beginning thirty (30) days from notice of entry of this Order; and clarified she will receive no further advances of living expenses beyond what was previously ordered.

Mr. Rushforth for prepare proposed Order; Mr. Lenhard to review as to form and content.

- MOTION FOR CITATION REQUIRING ELEANOR AHERN TO AUTHORIZE PRODUCTION OF RECORDS ON OST

release, pointing out she is still under the Court's jurisdiction. Counsel argued whether Texas counsel and the local firm of Marquis Aurbach and Coffing (MAC) would provide any information as the result of a coerced release. Counsel also discussed the status of the trust accounting, the appeal, and Orders outstanding from this Court.

Following discussion of whether Ms. Ahern, in her individual capacity, has a duty to waive her privilege, Court and counsel discussed including in an Order from today's hearing with explicit findings that the Court found that Eleanor Ahern, in her capacity as Trustee, perpetuated a fraud upon the Court. Further finding, she does not hold a privilege to anything in her capacity as Trustee. Any attorney assisting her has a professional obligation to assist her in mitigating the fraud and help her when she is unable to help herself. Court and counsel decided a specific finding should require MAC and possibly Texas counsel to turn over all documents pertaining to and paid for by Trust funds and give the Court a privilege log for those matters that Ms. Ahern sought individual assistance. Following discussion, COURT ORDERED Motion for Citation CONTINUED to see if a Court Order including these specific findings resolves the issue.

Court and counsel discussed whether the Order regarding the 65-day rule should be sealed.

Ms. Ahern appearing via video conference. Upon Court's inquiry, counsel indicated there were no additional witnesses. Ms. Ahern requested that Larry Semenza's retainer of $50,000.00 be paid by the Trust. Additionally, she sent a copy of the invoice for her glasses at approximately $680.00 and requested that it be paid by the Trust. Court advised that Mr. Waid is not present today and that she would have to communicate directly with Mr. Waid as he has the authority to act. Regarding, Mr. Semenza, the Court did authorize the funds to be paid to allow Mr. Semenza to represent Ms. Ahern and that Mr. Semenza indicated he did not have adequate time to prepare and would not be entering an appearance for her at this time and that the Court had not seen a request for a $50,000.00 retainer and Mr. Waid would need to ask for that authority if he thinks it is appropriate. Mr. Moody reiterated what the court stated earlier that Mr. Semenza appeared but was not willing to enter an appearance; that Mr. Waid stands ready, willing and able to serve and meet Ms. Ahern's needs as directed by previous and future court orders as well as what is contained in the Trust documents themselves; that based on Mr. Waid's findings, he is reluctant to release any funds directly to Ms. Ahern. COURT ORDERED, Ms. Ahern is to have the providers contact Mr. Waid directly with their bill and anything not covered by Medicaid, the Trust stands ready to provide.

Mr. Moody indicated that it is Mr. Waid's position that there is no need to speak through counsel as to the complex tax issues and requested that Ms. Ahern communicate directly with Mr. Waid. COURT DIRECTED Ms. Ahern to speak with Mr. Waid and if he feels it appropriate, he can request the Court to authorize that counsel be appointed to represent her.

Closing argument by Mr. Kiefer. Court stated its findings and ORDERED $2,581,994.00 AWARDED in Compensatory Damages, a portion of which has been recovered and paid in the amount of $839,941.92, and should be deducted from that amount; that certain actions appear to warrant punitive damages intended to punish and discourage this kind of conduct and AWARDED $3,600,000.00 in Punitive Damages; and the remaining beneficiaries are entitled to their attorney's fees and costs for this hearing and the Court will entertain a motion for fees and costs.

to pay for the dental surgery from the trust providing Ms Ahern sign an agreement indicating the funds were not an income distribution, rather they would be a gift or accommodation to be backed up with invoices. Colloquy regarding the hearing aid expenses requested by Ms. Ahern. The parties STIPULATED there would be no hearing regarding the request for hearing aids providing both parties were to able to agree to the arrangements. Mr. Powell stated there was some confusion regarding the appeal Ms. Ahern filed against the order awarding fees to Brownstein Hyatt as it appeared to be an attempt to negate the order. Mr. Powell inquired if Ms. Ahern wanted Mr. Lenhard to remain as her attorney or if she was no pro se. Ms. Ahern stated he remained as her attorney. Mr. Powell stated he also received requests from Mont Tanner, Esq., who indicated he was her counsel of record; therefore Mr. Powell inquired if he was her attorney, upon which Ms. Ahern stated he was not. Court ADVISED Ms. Ahern to submit a request to the court for any payments to counsel and further noted it would be in the form of a petition for the trustee to submit funds on your behalf. Court further ADVISED any requests by Ms. Ahern must be noticed to all parties or they would be exparte and not considered.

appearing by video. Mr. Moody argued Ms. Ahern had top shelf representation to work out her settlements and now she was requesting for $100,000 from the trust to pay for another attorney. Mr. Moody stated he had not opposed; however he did not think it would be helpful and that it was his belief a guardian at Litem should be appointed. Mr. Powell agreed and further stated that Ms. Ahern had ample quality counsel to litigate her issues, that she had received a 65/35 split from the Supreme Court decision, and now it appeared she was seeking to re-litigate. Ms. Ahern argued that without an attorney she would be denied legal representation, that her current counsel was not representing her adequately, and that she needed protection from the lies and injustice her daughters had done to her. Court inquired what she needed an attorney to do for her at this time since the evidentiary hearing regarding damages resulted in the 65/35 split. Ms. Ahern stated her pleadings were sufficient. Mr. Moody stated today's pleadings did not appear to be prepared by the same person as they were hearing from today, that they were inflammatory, and that it appeared Ms. Ahern was surrounding herself with people who were taking advantage of her. Mr. Moody stated her age, sight, and hearing issues were additional reasons for a Guardian At Litem and noted Ms. Ahern also had looming Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issues. Mr. Moody stated Ms. Ahern sent a request for $170,000 for expenses in July and it appeared she needed assistance with a budget, someone to coordinate her medical care, and to make sure she wasn't taken advantage of. Court ADVISED Ms. Ahern regarding the duties of a guardian at Litem (GAL). Mr. Moody recommended Ms. Woods be appointed GAL and reviewed her credentials. Mr. Lenhard stated the trust settlement fell apart and he withdrew as counsel; however he'd stayed on in the appeal where her daughters were attempting to remove Ms. Ahern as a result of her misdeeds as trustee. Mr. Lenhard further stated that without his reply brief to protect her interest she would have been removed. Court ADVISED Ms. Ahern that Mr. Lenhard stayed on to represent her when her daughters where unhappy and wanted to disinherit her and now it appeared she was seeking to set aside this Court's decision to keep her in the trust and if they were to prevail, Ms. Ahern would be disinherited. Ms. Ahern argued she didn't need a GAL, she needed an attorney to protect her, that she took care of herself, and that poor hearing was not a crime. Ms. Ahern argued if a GAL was appointed she would be denied due process. Mr. Waid reviewed Ms. Ahern's expenses including the dental request and advised the Court of her significant IRS issues. Mr. Waid stated if Ms. Ahern were allowed to independently interact with the IRS without the advice of a GAL it would cause an undue burden on the trust. Mr. Waid further stated that based on Ms. Ahern's actions he would not release, without direction from the Court, confidential and sensitive financial business information to Ms. Ahern. COURT ORDERED, Kristin K. Woods APPOINTED as Temporary Guardian At Litem; Motion DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Mr. Waid requested the Countermotion regarding the return of property action be granted. Court ADVISED the GAL review and sign off on the motion AND FURTHER ORDERED, matter STAYED.

however a letter was received in chambers at 8:50 PM last night requesting a transcript and CD of today's hearing. Court READ Ms. Ahern's letter into the record and noted it appeared Ms. Ahern was requesting the Court reconsider the Court's decision. Mr. Moody argued there was a lot in the letter; however it did not mention the $370,000 paid to her spiritual advisor, Suzanne Nounna (or her company) or the $500,000 allegedly on deposit in an account located at the same address as Ms. Nounna's. Mr. Moody argued the missing funds from the trust had been discovered and that it was in Ms. Ahern's best interest to enforce the recovery from Ms. Nounna since any recovery would reduce Ms. Ahern's liability to the trust and increase her income stream. Ms. Woods stated she unsuccessfully attempted to contact Ms. Ahern multiple times by phone and later drove to Mesquite and was unsuccessful in meeting her at her home. Ms. Woods stated she'd since made contact with Ms. Ahern, that she had an appointment to meet her in Mesquite tomorrow; however at this point it did not appear Ms. Ahern was willing to accept her as counsel. Ms. Woods stated after a review of the case, without Ms. Ahern's input, it appeared pursuing the funds would be in Ms. Ahern's best interest. COURT FINDS any recovery of funds due to the unreasonable disbursements made by Ms. Ahern as trustee appeared to be in her best interest as it would decrease the debt she owed to the trust and would increase her income stream AND THEREFORE ORDERED, Motion GRANTED; ORDER SIGNED IN OPEN COURT.

Ms. Renka stated MAC had a judgment based on an attorney's lien and as part of the appeal the judgment stood and therefore they were looking to enforce the lien.

Ms. Woods stated she'd been in communication with Ms. Ahern, who had moved to Texas, however she only had a Post Office Box. Ms. Woods requested the Court require Ms. Ahern provide contact information.

Mr. Powell stated he'd filed a brief and was just waiting on the reply brief and for the motions to be scheduled for oral argument. Mr. Powell stated that Mr. Waid was honoring the judgment in place.

Upon inquiry by the Court regarding the trustee's position on requests for funds, Mr. Moody stated he was working with Ms. Woods to have Ms. Ahern's expenses paid, that they make a judgment call and if the request fits under the directive then the request is paid. Ms. Moody stated Ms. Ahern's interest remain suspended pending the payoff of the daughters.

Ms. Woods indicated Ms. Ahern was not forthcoming with details; however she had contacted her with bills to be paid. Ms. Woods stated Ms. Ahern wanted full control of everything but there were still issues of influence by someone and that it may be something to be looked at when the money was released to her.

Mr. Moody stated they had an order to seek recovery of additional funds from Suzanne Noonan and that Ms. Ahern may still be under her influence and/or that of others. Mr. Moody stated they wanted to be sure Ms. Ahern was fully protected when the funds were released to her.

Mr. Waid requested clarification regarding the judgment to be satisfied, first would be to the beneficiaries and then there was the IRS issue outstanding and the judgment for MAC and Mr. Lenhard's firm, both of which wanted to be paid. Mr. Waid inquired if the Court wanted to be informed when the judgment was satisfied and bring the matter up for a status check.

Colloquy regarding the IRS issues and a plan for moving forward.

Mr. Waid noted Ms. Ahern was only an income beneficiary and that she didn't have access to the entire trust.

Mr. Powell stated he wanted the funds going to Ms. Ahern be separated from those of his clients. Mr. Powell stated it was not clear from the hearing what the full extent was of the IRS liability for the trust and that after the judgment was satisfied, there would have to be money withheld for taxes.

Mr. Moody stated he anticipated it to be paid off in 60-90 days and they could then file a proposal of how to protect Ms. Ahern.

Mr. Geist stated the entire judgment would likely be satisfied by the end of the month, that the Supreme Court was hearing the appeal regarding exemplary damages, that the Marjorie Connell Trust had accepted the accounting, and that it was their hope that the parties would be able to proceed in a more private manner in the future. Mr. Geist requested the trustee be ordered to satisfy the attorney lien and that it would only come from Eleanor Ahern's share. Mr. Geist further stated it was now appropriate to segregate the royalties as they come in, that they would go to the Marjorie Connell Trust, and that Eleanor Ahern's share would be held in the McConnell Trust until resolved. Mr. Geist requested Ms. Ahern be directed to cooperate with the order regarding the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issue.

Mr. Waid stated Ms. Ahern was residing in Texas, that he'd visited her there, and that it was his belief that she was still not being fully cooperative. Mr. Waid stated Ms. Nunna, who had removed funds from the trust, was now deceased and that they'd filed against her estate; however he did not believe there was any money. Mr. Waid stated he believed Ms. Ahern was still being unduly influenced. Mr. Waid further stated the IRS issue was a potential liability for the trust and the Marjorie Connell Trust must be protected.

Mr. Powell stated the Marjorie Connell Trust beneficiaries had concerns regarding the IRS issues, that they needed protection before they settled with the IRS, and that there may be potential liability to the Marjorie Connell Trust beneficiaries if the IRS lien was not paid.

Ms. Wakayama requested any order please differentiate between the law firms as there were multiple firms involved.

Me. LeVeque noted he was representing Ms. Ahern in the appeal; however he was not representing her in her beneficiary status.

Mr. Waid welcomed Mr. LeVeque to continue representing Ms. Ahern as beneficiary counsel.

quality of work or the actual billing itself. Mr. Lenhard stated he noticed in his brief they made an allegation that if Ms. Ahern's interest in the estate did not pay the fees then it should come out of the estate, i.e., the daughters should pay part of the fees. Mr. Lenhard stated that was not correct, noting the two daughters were not responsible for the payment of his fees. Mr. Lenhard argued in support of motion. Court advised that Ms. Ahern was never found to be incompetent and entered into the contracts knowingly, and she had benefited throughout this litigation from the best attorneys in town. COURT ADVISED, there is no challenge as to the fees, noting the Brunzell factors have been fully satisfied. It is simply the issue of how to pay. COURT FURTHER ADVISED, it benefited Ms. Ahern and it is her debt to be paid from her share of the trust proceeds; it does not violate the spendthrift trust. Additional statements by the Court regarding its findings. Court noted Mr. LeVeque filed a petition which has not been noticed. CONFERENCE AT THE BENCH. COURT ORDERED, hearing SET on the petition; oppositions DUE 6/5/19 and Reply DUE 6/19/19.
