Re: Martinez Guzman v. Second Judicial Dist. Court,
136 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 12 (filed on March 26, 2020)

Dear Ms. Brown:

Enclosed is the original Writ of Mandamus issued by the Court in the above referenced matter.

I served true and correct copies of both the Court's Opinion and the Court's Writ of Mandamus on the Hon. Connie J. Steinheimer as follows: On April 2, 2020 I emailed copies of both documents to Marci Trabert, the Court Clerk in Department 4 of the Second Judicial District Court. In that email I asked her if Judge Steinheimer would accept service of the Writ of Mandamus by email or if Judge Steinheimer preferred a different method of service. Later that day, Ms. Trabert answered in an email that Jackie Bryant, Court Administrator and Clerk of Court, would be in contact.

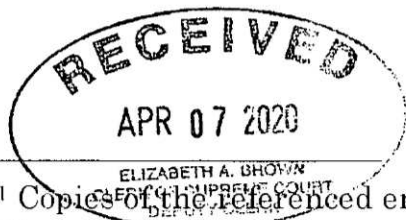

On April 3, 2020 Ms. Bryant contacted me by email. In response I emailed to her copies of the Court's Opinion and Writ of Mandamus and asked if she would accept service on behalf of Judge Steinheimer. A short while later Ms. Bryant answered that she would and that I should "Consider [the Writ] served."<sup>1</sup>

Accordingly, I represent to you and the Supreme Court that on today's date I served Judge Steinheimer a true and correct copy of the Writ of Mandamus.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, enclosed in an oval shape.

JOHN REESE PETTY
Chief Deputy
