Citations to the joint appendix will include a page number, which refers to the "NV Sup Ct CQ – Joint Appendix00001" page numbering. This is to prevent any confusion, as many of the documents were previously numbered as exhibits in support of the briefing on this issue before the Ninth Circuit. The volumes of the Joint Appendix are labeled in Roman Numerals to prevent confusion with the volumes of the two underlying sets of exhibits. Tabs are only provided for the volumes of the Joint Appendix, not for the underlying sets of exhibits. Indices of the underlying exhibit volumes can be found at NV Sup CT CQ – JointAppendix00053, 00800.

Attn: Robert Wood

RE:     Company:       Nautilus Insurance Company
          Claim Number: 10067276
          Insured:       Access Medical, LLC
          Plaintiff:     Ted Switzer
          Policy Number: BN952426
          Date of Loss:   07/25/2011 (arbitrary)
          Policy Period: 01/15/2011 - 01/15/2012

Dear Mr. Robert Wood:

Please allow the following to supplement Nautilus Insurance Company's 04/30/2013 correspondence to your office. Since that time, McCormick Barstow, LLP corresponded with this office, while also providing Nautilus Insurance Company with a Cross-Cross-Complaint filed in the matter styled: Ted Switzer v. Flournoy Management, LLC; Robert Clark Wood, II (also known as Robert "Sonny" Wood); Access Medical, LLC; Kravitz, Schnitzer, Sloan & Johnson, CHTD; Jordan P. Schnitzer; McCormick, Barstow, Sheppard, Wayte & Carruth, LLP; Gordon M. Park; Dana B. Denno; Irene V. Fitzgerald; and Roes I through 50, inclusive. The Cross-Complaint was filed in the Superior Court of California - County of Fresno Central Division, under case number 11 CE CG 04395 JH.

It is Nautilus Insurance Company's understanding that Access Medical, LLC and Robert Wood are now being represented by Jordan P. Schnitzer of Kravitz, Schnitzer, Sloan & Johnson, who is copied on this letter. If this letter should be directed to someone else, please advise Nautilus Insurance Company immediately. This letter will serve to outline Nautilus Insurance Company's position regarding coverage for the defense of, and indemnity for, the above referenced matter under policy number BN952426.

The subject Cross-Complaint alleges that the plaintiff, Ted Switzer, is a member of record and a holder of a 50% voting interest in Flournoy Management, LLC (§ 1) while also a principal of Charlie Medical, LLC f/k/a Omega Solutions, LLC, as well as Switzer Medical, Inc. (§ 1). Those entities reportedly sell medical implants to various hospitals in the states of California and Oregon (§ 47).

In or about November of 2010, Robert Wood and Ted Switzer discussed forming a business to market and sell medical implants in Tennessee and Georgia (§ 47), thus forming Flournoy Management, LLC in December of 2010 (§ 49). In or about May of 2011, Robert Wood and Ted Switzer orally agreed to use Flournoy Management, LLC to sell medical implants and associated hard goods in the markets previously reserved to Robert Wood and Ted Switzer, and not serviced by Flournoy Management, LLC (§ 50). The Cross-Complaint alleges that Flournoy Management, LLC is a nominal cross-defendant (§ 2) against who Ted Switzer is making derivative claims (§ 14).

We draw your attention to the following relevant allegations directly made by Ted Switzer against Access Medical, LLC and Robert Wood, which are contained in the subject Cross-Complaint:

7233 East Butherus Drive   Scottsdale, Arizona 85260   Phone 800.842.8972   480.951.0905   Fax 480.951.9730

In the Second Cause of Action for Breach of Contract, Ted Switzer alleges that both he and Robert Wood orally agreed to form a partnership for the purpose of selling medical implants and associated hard goods (the Partnership Agreement). Robert Wood allegedly breached the Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. Ted Switzer alleges that these relationships were developed and enjoyed with hospitals previously serviced by Epsilon Distribution I, LLC and the business entities associated with Ted Switzer (§ 43). This alleged irreparable behavior damaged the business reputation of Ted Switzer (§ 44). Ted Switzer allegedly incurred damages in excess of $6,000,000 for the loss of his business relationships and the income reasonably anticipated to be derived therefrom in the future, and the damage to his ability to do business and derive income from the business entities associated with him.

In the Third Cause of Action for Fraud, Ted Switzer alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer and Epsilon Distribution I, LLC in California (§ 53). Ted Switzer also asserts Causes of Action against Access Medical, LLC and Robert Wood for Breach of Fiduciary Duty / Constructive Fraud, Conversion, Unjust Enrichment, and Accounting.

The Thirteenth through Sixteenth Causes of Action assert Interference with Prospective Economic Advantage. Specifically, the Cross-Complaint alleges that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt the business relationship between Ted Switzer and Alta Bates Hospital by his wrongful acts (§ 107). Similar allegations are made in the subsequent Causes of Action for Interference with Prospective Economic Advantage, which involves different hospitals (§§ 114, 121, 128).

The Twenty-First Cause of Action in the Cross-Complaint is for Negligence against Robert Wood and Access Medical, LLC, wherein it is alleged that Robert Wood owed Ted Switzer a duty not to unreasonably interfere with Ted Switzer's existing business relationships as well as his ability to conduct medical implant business in the future (§ 152).

Lastly, the Cross-Complaint states Causes of Action against Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood for Dissolution of Flournoy Management, LLC, Unfair Competition, and Treble Damages and Attorney's Fees. Wherefore, Ted Switzer prays judgment against cross-defendants, and each of them, and:

- 1) For an order commanding a full and complete accounting by defendants, and each of them, for the period from December 1, 2010 through and including the date of entry of judgment in this action, which determines, lists and values the assets and liabilities of Flournoy, the income received and expenditures made by cross-defendants, and the secret profits, gifts and other benefits wrongfully obtained by cross-defendants;
- 2) For a decree that Flournoy is dissolved, and ordering the winding up of Flournoy's business and affairs by Mr. Switzer and the payment to Mr. Switzer of reasonable compensation for his efforts in winding up the business and affairs of Flournoy, and ordering the distribution of Flournoy's remaining assets to Flournoy's members in accordance with law and equity;
- 3) For a decree enjoining cross-defendants' unfair competition, appointing a receiver at cross-defendants' expense to oversee cross-defendants' business activities in California to ensure that cross-defendants cease and engage in no further unfair competition in this State, and ordering cross-defendants to disgorge to Flournoy and Mr. Switzer all of the money and property that cross-defendants obtained by means of unfair competition;
- 4) For compensatory damages and disgorgement in an amount according to proof, but believed to be in excess of $14,000,000.00;

- 5) For treble the amount of actual damages found and for reasonable attorney's fees;
- 6) For prejudgment interest at the legal rate on the compensatory damages;
- 7) For punitive or exemplary damages in an amount sufficient to punish the cross-defendants, and each of them, for their fraudulent, faithless and despicable conduct and to deter the occurrence of similar conduct by them and others similarly situated in the future;
- 8) For reimbursement of the reasonable expenses incurred by Mr. Switzer in connection with this action, including attorneys' fees, in an amount according to proof;
- 9) For costs of suit herein incurred; and,
- 10) For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Although the Cross-Complaint is entirely devoid of any allegations of covered disparagement, an email string dated 07/25/2011 was provided by your counsel as evidence that Access Medical, LLC's alleged wrongful acts could potentially include the disparagement of Ted Switzer's goods and/or services. The subject email is from Jacquie Weide, Operations Manager for Access Medical, LLC, to Deborah Fanning, Clinical Manager Materials, Surgery for Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital. The email states that Jacquie Weide is interested in obtaining a contract with Cottage Hospital to provide spinal implants. In response, Deborah Fanning asked for more information, to which Jacquie Weide responded as follows:

"We use Alphatec Spine Products... I believe Dr. Early & Dr. Kahmann were using Alphatec's implants but their Distributor in the California area is now banned from selling Alphatec's implants. We are in Las Vegas and have been using their products here for two years. Alphatec recently contacted us and asked that we take over the California region as well(.)"

To the extent that it is determined that the above referenced email constitutes conduct that triggers the duty to provide a defense under the policy, Nautilus Insurance Company agrees to participate in the defense of Access Medical, LLC and Robert Wood subject to a full and complete reservation of rights as set forth below. Please be advised that Nautilus Insurance Company has assigned the following law firm to protect your interests pursuant to the terms and conditions of your insurance policy:

Wolfe & Wyman, LLP
2301 Dupont Drive - Suite #300
Irvine, CA 92612
(949) 475-9200

Please be advised, however, that while Wolfe & Wyman, LLP will be defending the allegations and Counts in the Cross-Complaint, there are certain damages claimed, which may not be covered under the referenced policy with Nautilus Insurance Company. Therefore, Nautilus Insurance Company will be unable to make any payment or pay any judgment based on any non-covered damages.

While we do not have all the information relating to the facts and circumstances surrounding this loss, our correspondence and request for same should not be construed as a waiver of any provision of the policy. The defense of the Cross-Complaint will again be conducted under a full and complete reservation of rights as outlined in the remainder of this letter. Should Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood choose to retain other counsel to remain involved in its defense, any retention of such counsel will be at their own expense from hereto forward.

Nautilus Insurance Company's agreement to defend is under a reservation of rights, including the right to seek declaratory relief that there is no duty to defend or indemnify under the policy issued. Nautilus Insurance Company further reserves the right to seek reimbursement for any and all attorney fees, expert fees, defense costs, indemnification payments, and any other litigation-related expenses that it pays in connection with its defense and indemnification.

Nautilus Insurance Company reserves the right to withdraw from the defense of defendant Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood upon appropriate written notification to them, if at any time it becomes apparent that none of the damages being claimed by the plaintiff are covered under the policy with Nautilus Insurance Company.

Nautilus Insurance Company provides general liability insurance to its named insured, Access Medical, LLC, with policy limits of liability of $1,000,000 per occurrence, $3,000,000 in the aggregate and effective dates of 01/15/2011 to 01/15/2012.

Please refer to the Insuring Agreement found in Form CG 0001 (12/04), "Commercial General Liability Coverage Form", under "Coverage A. Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability", which reads in part:

"SECTION I - COVERAGES

COVERAGE A BODILY INJURY AND PROPERTY DAMAGE LIABILITY

1. Insuring Agreement

- a. We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance applies. We will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking those damages. However, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking damages for "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance does not apply. We may, at our discretion, investigate any "occurrence" and settle any claim or "suit" that may result. But:

- (1) The amount we will pay for damages is limited as described in Section III - Limits Of Insurance; and
- (2) Our right and duty to defend ends when we have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments or settlements under Coverages A or B or medical expenses under Coverage C.

No other obligation or liability to pay sums or perform acts or services is covered unless explicitly provided for under Supplementary Payments - Coverages A and B.

- b. This insurance applies to "bodily injury" and "property damage" only if:
- (1) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" is caused by an "occurrence" that takes place in the "coverage territory";
  - (2) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs during the policy period; and
  - (3) Prior to the policy period, no insured listed under Paragraph 1. Of Section II – Who Is An Insured and no "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of an "occurrence" or claim knew that the "bodily injury" or "property damage" had occurred, in whole or in part. If such a listed insured or authorized

"employee" knew, prior to the policy period, that the "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurred, then any continuation, change or resumption of such "bodily injury" or "property damage" during or after the policy period will be deemed to have been known prior to the policy period."

The definitions, which pertain to Coverage A, found in Section V - Definitions, more specifically, numbers 3, 13, 17 and 18, which provide:

"SECTION V – DEFINITIONS

3. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.
13. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.
17. "Property damage" means:
  - a. Physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use of that property. All such loss of use shall be deemed to occur at the time of the physical injury that caused it; or
  - b. Loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. All such loss of use shall be deemed to occur at the time of the "occurrence" that caused it.

For the purposes of this insurance, electronic data is not tangible property.

As used in this definition, electronic data means information, facts or programs stored as or on, created or used on, or transmitted to or from computer software, including systems and applications software, hard or floppy disks, CD-ROMS, tapes, drives, cells, data processing devices or any other media which are used with electronically controlled equipment.

18. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of "bodily injury", "property damage" or "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance applies are alleged. "Suit" includes:
  - a. An arbitration proceeding in which such damages are claimed and to which the insured must submit or does submit with our consent; or
  - b. Any other alternative dispute resolution proceeding in which such damages are claimed and to which the insured submits with our consent."

As the above referenced policy language reflects, the policy provides coverage only if there is "bodily injury" or "property damage" caused by an "occurrence", which is defined as an accident. The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. It further alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer. It is also alleged that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt Ted Switzer's business relationships. The Cross-Complaint goes on to assert that Robert Wood owed Ted Switzer a duty not to unreasonably interfere with Ted Switzer's existing business relationships as well as his ability to conduct medical implant business in the future.

In addition to the above, and as previously advised, an email from Jacquie Weide of Access Medical, LLC to Deborah Fanning of Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital revealed that Jacquie Weide told Deborah Fanning that Access Medical, LLC uses a specific spine product that Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital can only get from Access Medical, LLC versus a competitor that was alleged banned from selling a particular spine product.

Such alleged conduct is inherently intentional in nature and not accidental, and would therefore not constitute an "occurrence" as defined in the policy. Should it be determined through the investigation of this matter that there is no claim of "bodily injury" or "property damage" arising from an "occurrence" as defined in the policy, Nautilus Insurance Company reserves the right to refuse to continue to investigate, indemnify or defend Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood for the claims being made.

Notwithstanding the above, there also exists other policy language, endorsements or exclusions, which may apply as well. Even if the allegations in the Cross-Complaint could be construed to have arisen from an "occurrence" and constituted "bodily injury" or "property damage" as defined in the policy, coverage for such allegations is subject to the following exclusions under Form CG 0001 (12/04), "Commercial General Liability Coverage Form", under Section I – Coverages, Coverage A. Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability, 2. Exclusions, which provides as follows:

"2. Exclusions

This insurance does not apply to:

a. Expected Or Intended Injury

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" expected or intended from the standpoint of the insured. This exclusion does not apply to "bodily injury" resulting from the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property."

The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. It further alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer. It is also alleged that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt Ted Switzer's business relationships. The Cross-Complaint goes on to assert that Robert Wood owed Ted Switzer a duty not to unreasonably interfere with Ted Switzer's existing business relationships as well as his ability to conduct medical implant business in the future.

In addition to the above, and as previously advised, an email from Jacquie Weide of Access Medical, LLC to Deborah Fanning of Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital revealed that Jacquie Weide told Deborah Fanning that Access Medical, LLC uses a specific spine product that Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital can only get from Access Medical, LLC versus a competitor that was alleged banned from selling a particular spine product.

Pursuant to the above referenced exclusion 2.a., no coverage is provided for any "bodily injury" or "property damage" under the policy resulting from intentional conduct. Even if the allegations in the Cross-Complaint could potentially be construed to allege "bodily injury" or "property damage" as defined in the policy, no coverage would be provided for any damages that arose from any intentional conduct.

Please again refer to the Commercial General Liability Coverage Form CG 0001 (12/04), specifically Section I – Coverages, Coverage B. Personal and Advertising Injury Liability, which contains the following insuring agreement that states:

"COVERAGE B PERSONAL AND ADVERTISING INJURY LIABILITY

1. Insuring Agreement

- a. We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance applies. We will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking those damages. However, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking damages for "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance does not apply. We may, at our discretion, investigate any offense and settle any claim or "suit" that may result. But:

- (1) The amount we will pay for damages is limited as described in Section III - Limits Of Insurance; and
- (2) Our right and duty to defend end when we have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments or settlements under Coverages A or B or medical expenses under Coverage C.

No other obligation or liability to pay sums or perform acts or services is covered unless explicitly provided for under Supplementary Payments - Coverages A and B.

- b. This insurance applies to "personal and advertising injury" caused by an offense arising out of your business but only if the offense was committed in the "coverage territory" during the policy period."

Please again refer to Section V – Definitions, which contains the following definitions of the words "advertisement" and "personal and advertising injury" as follows:

"SECTION V – DEFINITIONS

1. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about your goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers or supporters. For the purposes of this definition:
  - a. Notices that are published include material placed on the Internet or on similar electronic means of communication; and
  - b. Regarding web-sites, only that part of a web-site that is about your goods, products or services for the purposes of attracting customers or supporters is considered an advertisement.
14. "Personal and advertising injury" means injury, including consequential "bodily injury", arising out of one or more of the following offenses:
  - a. False arrest, detention or imprisonment;

- b. Malicious prosecution;
- c. The wrongful eviction from, wrongful entry into, or invasion of the right of private occupancy of a room, dwelling or premises that a person occupies, committed by or on behalf of its owner, landlord or lessor;
- d. Oral or written publication, in any manner, of material that slanders or libels a person or organization or disparages a person's or organization's goods, products or services;
- e. Oral or written publication, in any manner, of material that violates a person's right of privacy;
- f. The use of another's advertising idea in your "advertisement"; or
- g. Infringing upon another's copyright, trade dress or slogan in your "advertisement".

As the above referenced policy language reflects, this policy provides coverage for those sums that you are legally obligated to pay as damages because of "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance applies. The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. It further alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer. It is also alleged that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt Ted Switzer's business relationships. The Cross-Complaint goes on to assert that Robert Wood owed Ted Switzer a duty not to unreasonably interfere with Ted Switzer's existing business relationships as well as his ability to conduct medical implant business in the future.

In addition to the above, and as previously advised, an email from Jacquie Weide of Access Medical, LLC to Deborah Fanning of Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital revealed that Jacquie Weide told Deborah Fanning that Access Medical, LLC uses a specific spine product that Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital can only get from Access Medical, LLC versus a competitor that was alleged banned from selling a particular spine product.

As previously advised, while Nautilus Insurance Company reserves the right to refuse to continue to investigate, indemnify or defend Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood for the claims being made as they relate to no claim of damages because of "personal and advertising injury" as defined in the policy, Nautilus Insurance Company may defend all the allegations and Counts in the Cross-Complaint as they relate to slander, libel, or disparagement of goods, products or services.

To the extent that it is deemed that the Cross-Complaint contains allegations that may constitute "personal and advertising injury" as defined in the policy, the coverage provided under the policy is subject to certain exclusions and endorsements that excludes or limits coverage for certain conduct and/or damages. Please again refer to the Commercial General Liability Coverage Form CG 0001 (12/04), specifically the Exclusion under Coverage B. Personal and Advertising Injury Liability, 2. Exclusions, which contains the following exclusionary language regarding coverage for "personal and advertising injury":

"Personal and advertising injury" caused by or at the direction of the insured with the knowledge that the act would violate the rights of another and would inflict "personal and advertising injury".

The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. It further alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer. It is also alleged that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt Ted Switzer's business relationships. Pursuant to the above referenced exclusion 2.a., no coverage is provided for any "personal and advertising injury" under the policy resulting from any conduct that was a knowing violation of the rights of another that would inflict "personal and advertising injury".

In addition to the Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, this policy also includes other forms or endorsements that provide for, exclude or amend policy coverage in some fashion. Please refer to the policy, specifically Endorsement Form CG 2147 (07/98) Employment-Related Practices Exclusion, which reads:

- (2) The spouse, child, parent, brother or sister of that person as a consequence of "bodily injury" to that person at whom any of the employment-related practices described in Paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) above is directed.

This exclusion applies:

- (1) Whether the insured may be liable as an employer or in any other capacity; and
(2) To any obligation to share damages with or repay someone else who must pay damages because of the injury.

B. The following exclusion is added to Paragraph 2., Exclusions of Section I – Coverage B – Personal And Advertising Injury Liability:

This insurance does not apply to:

"Personal and advertising injury" to:

- (1) A person arising out of any:

This exclusion applies:

- (1) Whether the insured may be liable as an employer or in any other capacity; and
(2) To any obligation to share damages with or repay someone else who must pay damages because of the injury."

Pursuant to the above endorsement, no coverage is provided for any "bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury" to a person arising out of refusal to employ that person or termination of that person's employment. The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. It further alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer. It is also alleged that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt Ted Switzer's business relationships. The Cross-Complaint goes on to assert that Robert Wood owed Ted Switzer a duty not to unreasonably interfere with Ted Switzer's existing business relationships as well as his ability to conduct medical implant business in the future.

Even if the allegations being made or the damages being sought could be construed to constitute "bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury", pursuant to the above referenced endorsement, no coverage would be provided for any "bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury" arising out of employment-related practices.

We refer you back to the policy, specifically Endorsement Form L217 (06/07) Exclusion – Punitive or Exemplary Damages, which reads:

EXCLUSION - PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the following:

COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY COVERAGE PART
LIQUOR LIABILITY COVERAGE PART
OWNERS AND CONTRACTORS PROTECTIVE LIABILITY COVERAGE PART
PRODUCTS/COMPLETED OPERATIONS LIABILITY COVERAGE PART

The following exclusion is added to 2. Exclusions of Section I:

This insurance does not apply to punitive or exemplary damages."

The subject Cross-Complaint contains Ted Switzer's prayer for judgment against all cross-defendants to include punitive or exemplary damages in an amount sufficient to punish the cross-defendants, and each of them, for their alleged fraudulent, faithless and despicable conduct and to deter the occurrence of similar conduct by them and others similarly situated in the future. Pursuant to Endorsement Form L217 (06/07) Exclusion – Punitive or Exemplary Damages, punitive or exemplary damages are specifically excluded, and as such, Nautilus Insurance Company reserves the right to refuse to further defend or indemnify Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood for those damages.

We finally refer you to Form CG 0001 (12/04), "Commercial General Liability Coverage Form", specifically, Section II – Who is an Insured, which states:

"SECTION II - WHO IS AN INSURED

1. If you are designated in the Declarations as:

- c. A limited liability company, you are an insured. Your members are also insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of your business. Your managers are insureds, but only with respect to their duties as your managers.

2. Each of the following is also an insured:

- a. Your "volunteer workers" only while performing duties related to the conduct of your business, or your "employees", other than either your "executive officers" (if you are an organization other than a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company) or your managers (if you are a limited liability company), but only for acts within the scope of their employment by you or while performing duties related to the conduct of your business. However, none of these "employees" or "volunteer workers" are insureds for:

(2) "Property damage" to property:

- (a) Owned, occupied or used by,
- (b) Rented to, in the care, custody or control of, or over which physical control is being exercised for any purpose by

- b. Any person (other than your "employee" or "volunteer worker"), or any organization while acting as your real estate manager.*
- 3. Any organization you newly acquire or form, other than a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company, and over which you maintain ownership or majority interest, will qualify as a Named Insured if there is no other similar insurance available to that organization. However:*
  - a. Coverage under this provision is afforded only until the 90th day after you acquire or form the organization or the end of the policy period, whichever is earlier;*
  - b. Coverage A does not apply to "bodily injury" or "property damage" that occurred before you acquired or formed the organization; and*
  - c. Coverage B does not apply to "personal and advertising injury" arising out of an offense committed before you acquired or formed the organization.*

No person or organization is an insured with respect to the conduct of any current or past partnership, joint venture or limited liability company that is not shown as a Named Insured in the Declarations."

The definitions, which pertain to the above exclusion, found in Section V - Definitions, more specifically, numbers 5, 19 and 20, which provide:

"SECTION V - DEFINITIONS

- 5. "Employee" includes a "leased worker". "Employee" does not include a "temporary worker".*
- 19. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to you to substitute for a permanent "employee" on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.*
- 20. "Volunteer worker" means a person who is not your "employee", and who donates his or her work and acts at the direction of and within the scope of duties determined by you, and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation by you or anyone else for their work performed for you."*

The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. It further alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer. It is also alleged that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt Ted Switzer's business relationships. The Cross-Complaint goes on to assert that Robert Wood owed Ted Switzer a duty not to unreasonably interfere with Ted Switzer's existing business relationships as well as his ability to conduct medical implant business in the future.

In addition to the above, and as previously advised, an email from Jacquie Weide of Access Medical, LLC to Deborah Fanning of Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital revealed that Jacquie Weide told Deborah Fanning that Access

As previously reported, McCormick Barstow, LLP corresponded with this office, while also providing Nautilus Insurance Company with a Cross-Cross-Complaint filed in the matter styled: Ted Switzer v. Flournoy Management, LLC; Robert Clark Wood, II (also known as Robert "Sonny" Wood); Access Medical, LLC; Kravitz, Schnitzer, Sloan & Johnson, CHTD; Jordan P. Schnitzer; McCormick Barstow, Sheppard, Wayte & Carruth, LLP; Gordon M. Park; Dana B. Denno; Irene V. Fitzgerald; and Roes I through 50, inclusive. The Cross-Complaint was again filed in the Superior Court of California – County of Fresno Central Division, under case number 11 CE CG 04395 JH.

It is still Nautilus Insurance Company's understanding that Access Medical, LLC and Robert Wood are now being represented by Jordan P. Schnitzer of Kravitz, Schnitzer, Sloan & Johnson, who is copied on this letter. If this letter should be directed to someone else, please advise Nautilus Insurance Company immediately. This letter will serve to outline Nautilus Insurance Company's position regarding coverage for the defense of, and indemnity for, the above referenced matter under policy number BN952426.

The subject Cross-Complaint alleges that the plaintiff, Ted Switzer, is a member of record and a holder of a 50% voting interest in Flournoy Management, LLC (§ 1) while also a principal of Charlie Medical, LLC f/k/a Omega Solutions, LLC, as well as Switzer Medical, Inc. (§ 1). Those entities reportedly sell medical implants to various hospitals in the states of California and Oregon (§ 47).

In or about November of 2010, Robert Wood and Ted Switzer discussed forming a business to market and sell medical implants in Tennessee and Georgia (§ 47), thus forming Flournoy Management, LLC in December of 2010 (§ 49). In or about May of 2011, Robert Wood and Ted Switzer orally agreed to use Flournoy Management, LLC to sell medical implants and associated hard goods in the markets previously reserved to Robert Wood and Ted Switzer, and not serviced by Flournoy Management, LLC (§ 50). The Cross-Complaint alleges that Flournoy Management, LLC is a nominal cross-defendant (§ 2) against who Ted Switzer is making derivative claims (§ 14).

We draw your attention to the following relevant allegations directly made by Ted Switzer against Access Medical, LLC and Robert Wood, which are contained in the subject Cross-Complaint:

In the Second Cause of Action for Breach of Contract, Ted Switzer alleges that both he and Robert Wood orally agreed to form a partnership for the purpose of selling medical implants and associated hard goods (the Partnership Agreement). Robert Wood allegedly breached the Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. Ted Switzer alleges that these relationships were developed and enjoyed with hospitals previously serviced by Epsilon Distribution I, LLC and the business entities associated with Ted Switzer (§ 43). This alleged irreparable behavior damaged the business reputation of Ted Switzer (§ 44). Ted Switzer allegedly incurred damages in excess of $6,000,000 for the loss of his business relationships and the income reasonably anticipated to be derived therefrom in the future, and the damage to his ability to do business and derive income from the business entities associated with him.

In the Third Cause of Action for Fraud, Ted Switzer alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer and Epsilon Distribution I, LLC in California (§ 53). Ted Switzer also asserts Causes of Action against Access Medical, LLC and Robert Wood for Breach of Fiduciary Duty / Constructive Fraud, Conversion, Unjust Enrichment, and Accounting.

The Thirteenth through Sixteenth Causes of Action assert Interference with Prospective Economic Advantage. Specifically, the Cross-Complaint alleges that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt the business relationship between Ted Switzer and Alta Bates Hospital by his wrongful acts (§ 107). Similar allegations are made in the subsequent Causes of Action for Interference with Prospective Economic Advantage, which involves different hospitals (§§ 114, 121, 128).

The Twenty-First Cause of Action in the Cross-Complaint is for Negligence against Robert Wood and Access Medical, LLC, wherein it is alleged that Robert Wood owed Ted Switzer a duty not to unreasonably interfere with Ted Switzer's existing business relationships as well as his ability to conduct medical implant business in the future (§ 152).

Lastly, the Cross-Complaint states Causes of Action against Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood for Dissolution of Flournoy Management, LLC, Unfair Competition, and Treble Damages and Attorney's Fees. Wherefore, Ted Switzer prays judgment against cross-defendants, and each of them, and:

- 1) For an order commanding a full and complete accounting by defendants, and each of them, for the period from December 1, 2010 through and including the date of entry of judgment in this action, which determines, lists and values the assets and liabilities of Flournoy, the income received and expenditures made by cross-defendants, and the secret profits, gifts and other benefits wrongfully obtained by cross-defendants;
- 2) For a decree that Flournoy is dissolved, and ordering the winding up of Flournoy's business and affairs by Mr. Switzer and the payment to Mr. Switzer of reasonable compensation for his efforts in winding up the business and affairs of Flournoy, and ordering the distribution of Flournoy's remaining assets to Flournoy's members in accordance with law and equity;
- 3) For a decree enjoining cross-defendants' unfair competition, appointing a receiver at cross-defendants' expense to oversee cross-defendants' business activities in California to ensure that cross-defendants cease and engage in no further unfair competition in this State, and ordering cross-defendants to disgorge to Flournoy and Mr. Switzer all of the money and property that cross-defendants obtained by means of unfair competition;

- 4) For compensatory damages and disgorgement in an amount according to proof, but believed to be in excess of $14,000,000.00;
- 5) For treble the amount of actual damages found and for reasonable attorney's fees;
- 6) For prejudgment interest at the legal rate on the compensatory damages;
- 7) For punitive or exemplary damages in an amount sufficient to punish the cross-defendants, and each of them, for their fraudulent, faithless and despicable conduct and to deter the occurrence of similar conduct by them and others similarly situated in the future;
- 8) For reimbursement of the reasonable expenses incurred by Mr. Switzer in connection with this action, including attorneys' fees, in an amount according to proof;
- 9) For costs of suit herein incurred; and,
- 10) For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Although the Cross-Complaint is entirely devoid of any allegations of covered disparagement, an email string dated 07/25/2011 was provided by your counsel as evidence that Access Medical, LLC's alleged wrongful acts could potentially include the disparagement of Ted Switzer's goods and/or services. The subject email is from Jacquie Weide, Operations Manger for Access Medical, LLC, to Deborah Fanning, Clinical Manager Materials, Surgery for Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital. The email states that Jacquie Weide is interested in obtaining a contract with Cottage Hospital to provide spinal implants. In response, Deborah Fanning asked for more information, to which Jacquie Weide responded as follows:

"We use Alphatec Spine Products... I believe Dr. Early & Dr. Kahmann were using Alphatec's implants but their Distributor in the California area is now banned from selling Alphatec's implants. We are in Las Vegas and have been using their products here for two years. Alphatec recently contacted us and asked that we take over the California region as well(.)"

To the extent that it is determined that the above referenced email constitutes conduct that triggers the duty to provide a defense under the policy, Nautilus Insurance Company again agrees to participate in the defense of Access Medical, LLC and Robert Wood subject to a full and complete reservation of rights as set forth below. Please be advised that Nautilus Insurance Company has assigned the following law firm to protect your interests pursuant to the terms and conditions of your insurance policy:

Wolfe & Wyman, LLP
2301 Dupont Drive – Suite #300
Irvine, CA 92612
(949) 475-9200

Please be advised, however, that while Wolfe & Wyman, LLP will be defending the allegations and Counts in the Cross-Complaint, there are certain damages claimed, which may not be covered under the referenced policy with Nautilus Insurance Company. Therefore, Nautilus Insurance Company will be unable to make any payment or pay any judgment based on any non-covered damages.

While we do not have all the information relating to the facts and circumstances surrounding this loss, our correspondence and request for same should not be construed as a waiver of any provision of the policy. The defense of the Cross-Complaint will again be conducted under a full and complete reservation of rights as outlined in the remainder of this letter. Should Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood choose to retain other counsel to remain involved in its defense, any retention of such counsel will be at their own expense from hereto forward.

Nautilus Insurance Company's agreement to defend is under a reservation of rights, including the right to seek declaratory relief that there is no duty to defend or indemnify under the policy issued. Nautilus Insurance Company further reserves the right to seek reimbursement for any and all attorney fees, expert fees, defense costs, indemnification payments, and any other litigation-related expenses that it pays in connection with its defense and indemnification.

Nautilus Insurance Company reserves the right to withdraw from the defense of defendant Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood upon appropriate written notification to them, if at any time it becomes apparent that none of the damages being claimed by the plaintiff are covered under the policy with Nautilus Insurance Company.

Nautilus Insurance Company provides general liability insurance to its named insured, Access Medical, LLC, with policy limits of liability of $1,000,000 per occurrence, $3,000,000 in the aggregate and effective dates of 01/15/2011 to 01/15/2012.

Please refer to the Insuring Agreement found in Form CG 0001 (12/04), "Commercial General Liability Coverage Form", under "Coverage A. Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability", which reads in part:

"SECTION I - COVERAGES

1. Insuring Agreement

- a. We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance applies. We will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking those damages. However, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking damages for "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance does not apply. We may, at our discretion, investigate any "occurrence" and settle any claim or "suit" that may result. But:

- (1) The amount we will pay for damages is limited as described in Section III - Limits Of Insurance; and
- (2) Our right and duty to defend ends when we have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments or settlements under Coverages A or B or medical expenses under Coverage C.

No other obligation or liability to pay sums or perform acts or services is covered unless explicitly provided for under Supplementary Payments - Coverages A and B.

- b. This insurance applies to "bodily injury" and "property damage" only if:

- (1) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" is caused by an "occurrence" that takes place in the "coverage territory";
- (2) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs during the policy period; and

- (3) Prior to the policy period, no Insured listed under Paragraph 1. Of Section II – Who Is An Insured and no "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of an "occurrence" or claim knew that the "bodily injury" or "property damage" had occurred, in whole or in part. If such a listed insured or authorized "employee" knew, prior to the policy period, that the "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurred, then any continuation, change or resumption of such "bodily injury" or "property damage" during or after the policy period will be deemed to have been known prior to the policy period."

The definitions, which pertain to Coverage A, found in Section V - Definitions, more specifically, numbers 3, 13, 17 and 18, which provide:

"SECTION V – DEFINITIONS

3. "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.
13. "Occurrence" means an accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

17. "Property damage" means:

- a. Physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use of that property. All such loss of use shall be deemed to occur at the time of the physical injury that caused it; or
- b. Loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. All such loss of use shall be deemed to occur at the time of the "occurrence" that caused it.

For the purposes of this insurance, electronic data is not tangible property.

As used in this definition, electronic data means information, facts or programs stored as or on, created or used on, or transmitted to or from computer software, including systems and applications software, hard or floppy disks, CD-ROMS, tapes, drives, cells, data processing devices or any other media which are used with electronically controlled equipment.

18. "Suit" means a civil proceeding in which damages because of "bodily injury", "property damage" or "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance applies are alleged. "Suit" includes:
- a. An arbitration proceeding in which such damages are claimed and to which the insured must submit or does submit with our consent; or
  - b. Any other alternative dispute resolution proceeding in which such damages are claimed and to which the insured submits with our consent."

As the above referenced policy language reflects, the policy provides coverage only if there is "bodily injury" or "property damage" caused by an "occurrence", which is defined as an accident. The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC.

The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. It further alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer. It is also alleged that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt Ted Switzer's business relationships. The Cross-Complaint goes on to assert that Robert Wood owed Ted Switzer a duty not to unreasonably interfere with Ted Switzer's existing business relationships as well as his ability to conduct medical implant business in the future.

In addition to the above, and as previously advised, an email from Jacquie Weide of Access Medical, LLC to Deborah Fanning of Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital revealed that Jacquie Weide told Deborah Fanning that Access Medical, LLC uses a specific spine product that Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital can only get from Access Medical, LLC versus a competitor that was alleged banned from selling a particular spine product.

Such alleged conduct is inherently intentional in nature and not accidental, and would therefore not constitute an "occurrence" as defined in the policy. Should it be determined through the investigation of this matter that there is no claim of "bodily injury" or "property damage" arising from an "occurrence" as defined in the policy, Nautilus Insurance Company reserves the right to refuse to continue to investigate, indemnify or defend Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood for the claims being made.

Notwithstanding the above, there also exists other policy language, endorsements or exclusions, which may apply as well. Even if the allegations in the Cross-Complaint could be construed to have arisen from an "occurrence" and constituted "bodily injury" or "property damage" as defined in the policy, coverage for such allegations is subject to the following exclusions under Form CG 0001 (12/04), "Commercial General Liability Coverage Form", under Section I – Coverages, Coverage A. Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability, 2. Exclusions, which provides as follows:

"2. Exclusions

This insurance does not apply to:

a. Expected Or Intended Injury

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" expected or intended from the standpoint of the insured. This exclusion does not apply to "bodily injury" resulting from the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property."

Pursuant to the above referenced exclusion 2.a., no coverage is provided for any "bodily injury" or "property damage" under the policy resulting from intentional conduct. Even if the allegations in the Cross-Complaint could potentially be construed to allege "bodily injury" or "property damage" as defined in the policy, no coverage would be provided for any damages that arose from any intentional conduct.

Please again refer to the Commercial General Liability Coverage Form CG 0001 (12/04), specifically Section I – Coverages, Coverage B. Personal and Advertising Injury Liability, which contains the following insuring agreement that states:

"COVERAGE B PERSONAL AND ADVERTISING INJURY LIABILITY

1. Insuring Agreement

a. We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance applies. We will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking those damages. However, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking damages for "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance does not apply. We may, at our discretion, investigate any offense and settle any claim or "suit" that may result. But:

(1) The amount we will pay for damages is limited as described in Section III - Limits Of Insurance; and

(2) Our right and duty to defend end when we have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments or settlements under Coverages A or B or medical expenses under Coverage C.

No other obligation or liability to pay sums or perform acts or services is covered unless explicitly provided for under Supplementary Payments - Coverages A and B.

b. This insurance applies to "personal and advertising injury" caused by an offense arising out of your business but only if the offense was committed in the "coverage territory" during the policy period."

Please again refer to Section V – Definitions, which contains the following definitions of the words "advertisement" and "personal and advertising injury" as follows:

"SECTION V – DEFINITIONS

1. "Advertisement" means a notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about your goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers or supporters. For the purposes of this definition:

a. Notices that are published include material placed on the Internet or on similar electronic means of communication; and

- b. Regarding web-sites, only that part of a web-site that is about your goods, products or services for the purposes of attracting customers or supporters is considered an advertisement.
- 14. "Personal and advertising injury" means injury, including consequential "bodily injury", arising out of one or more of the following offenses:
  - a. False arrest, detention or imprisonment;
  - b. Malicious prosecution;
  - c. The wrongful eviction from, wrongful entry into, or invasion of the right of private occupancy of a room, dwelling or premises that a person occupies, committed by or on behalf of its owner, landlord or lessor;
  - d. Oral or written publication, in any manner, of material that slanders or libels a person or organization or disparages a person's or organization's goods, products or services;
  - e. Oral or written publication, in any manner, of material that violates a person's right of privacy;
  - f. The use of another's advertising idea in your "advertisement"; or
  - g. Infringing upon another's copyright, trade dress or slogan in your "advertisement".

As the above referenced policy language reflects, this policy provides coverage for those sums that you are legally obligated to pay as damages because of "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance applies. The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. As previously advised, while Nautilus Insurance Company reserves the right to refuse to continue to investigate, indemnify or defend Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood for the claims being made as they relate to no claim of damages because of "personal and advertising injury" as defined in the policy, Nautilus Insurance Company may defend all the allegations and Counts in the Cross-Complaint as they relate to slander, libel, or disparagement of goods, products or services.

To the extent that it is deemed that the Cross-Complaint contains allegations that may constitute "personal and advertising injury" as defined in the policy, the coverage provided under the policy is subject to certain exclusions and endorsements that excludes or limits coverage for certain conduct and/or damages. Commercial General Liability Coverage Form CG 0001 (12/04), specifically the Exclusion under Coverage B. Personal and Advertising Injury Liability, 2. Exclusions, which contains the following exclusionary language regarding coverage for "personal and advertising injury":

This insurance does not apply to:

a. Knowing Violation Of Rights Of Another

"Personal and advertising injury" caused by or at the direction of the insured with the knowledge that the act would violate the rights of another and would inflict "personal and advertising injury".

The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. Pursuant to the above referenced exclusion 2.a., no coverage is provided for any "personal and advertising injury" under the policy resulting from any conduct that was a knowing violation of the rights of another that would inflict "personal and advertising injury".

In addition to the Commercial General Liability Coverage Form, this policy also includes other forms or endorsements that provide for, exclude or amend policy coverage in some fashion. Please refer to the policy, specifically Endorsement Form CG 2147 (07/98) Employment-Related Practices Exclusion, which reads:

"Bodily injury" to:

- (1) A person arising out of any:
  - (a) Refusal to employ that person;
  - (b) Termination of that person's employment; or
  - (c) Employment-related practices, policies, acts or omissions, such as coercion, demotion, evaluation, reassignment, discipline, defamation, harassment, humiliation or discrimination directed at that person; or
- (2) The spouse, child, parent, brother or sister of that person as a consequence of "bodily injury" to that person at whom any of the employment-related practices described in Paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) above is directed.

This exclusion applies:

- (1) Whether the insured may be liable as an employer or in any other capacity; and
- (2) To any obligation to share damages with or repay someone else who must pay damages because of the injury.

B. The following exclusion is added to Paragraph 2., Exclusions of Section I – Coverage B – Personal And Advertising Injury Liability:

This insurance does not apply to:

"Personal and advertising injury" to:

- (1) A person arising out of any:
  - (a) Refusal to employ that person;
  - (b) Termination of that person's employment; or
  - (c) Employment-related practices, policies, acts or omissions, such as coercion, demotion, evaluation, reassignment, discipline, defamation, harassment, humiliation or discrimination directed at that person; or
- (2) The spouse, child, parent, brother or sister of that person as a consequence of "personal and advertising injury" to that person at whom any of the employment-related practices described in Paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) above is directed.

This exclusion applies:

- (1) Whether the insured may be liable as an employer or in any other capacity; and
- (2) To any obligation to share damages with or repay someone else who must pay damages because of the injury."

Pursuant to the above endorsement, no coverage is provided for any "bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury" to a person arising out of refusal to employ that person or termination of that person's employment. The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flourmoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. Medical, LLC uses a specific spine product that Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital can only get from Access Medical, LLC versus a competitor that was alleged banned from selling a particular spine product.

Even if the allegations being made or the damages being sought could be construed to constitute "bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury", pursuant to the above referenced endorsement, no coverage would be provided for any "bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury" arising out of employment-related practices.

We refer you back to the policy, specifically Endorsement Form L217 (06/07) Exclusion – Punitive or Exemplary Damages, which reads:

"COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY

OWNERS AND CONTRACTORS PROTECTIVE LIABILITY COVERAGE PART
PRODUCTS/COMPLETED OPERATIONS LIABILITY COVERAGE PART

*The following exclusion is added to 2. Exclusions of Section I:
This insurance does not apply to punitive or exemplary damages."*

The subject Cross-Complaint contains Ted Switzer's prayer for judgment against all cross-defendants to include punitive or exemplary damages in an amount sufficient to punish the cross-defendants, and each of them, for their alleged fraudulent, faithless and despicable conduct and to deter the occurrence of similar conduct by them and others similarly situated in the future. Pursuant to Endorsement Form L217 (06/07) Exclusion – Punitive or Exemplary Damages, punitive or exemplary damages are specifically excluded, and as such, Nautilus Insurance Company reserves the right to refuse to further defend or indemnify Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood for those damages.

We finally refer you to Form CG 0001 (12/04), "Commercial General Liability Coverage Form", specifically, Section II – Who is an Insured, which states:

"SECTION II - WHO IS AN INSURED

(2) "Property damage" to property:

(a) Owned, occupied or used by,

(b) Rented to, in the care, custody or control of, or over which physical control is being exercised for any purpose by you, any of your "employees", "volunteer workers", any partner or member (if you are a partnership or joint venture), or any member (if you are a limited liability company).

b. Any person (other than your "employee" or "volunteer worker"), or any organization while acting as your real estate manager.

3. Any organization you newly acquire or form, other than a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company, and over which you maintain ownership or majority interest, will qualify as a Named Insured if there is no other similar insurance available to that organization. However:

a. Coverage under this provision is afforded only until the 90th day after you acquire or form the organization or the end of the policy period, whichever is earlier;

b. Coverage A does not apply to "bodily injury" or "property damage" that occurred before you acquired or formed the organization; and

c. Coverage B does not apply to "personal and advertising injury" arising out of an offense committed before you acquired or formed the organization.

No person or organization is an insured with respect to the conduct of any current or past partnership, joint venture or limited liability company that is not shown as a Named Insured in the Declarations."

The definitions, which pertain to the above exclusion, found in Section V - Definitions, more specifically, numbers 5, 19 and 20, which provide:

"SECTION V - DEFINITIONS

5. "Employee" includes a "leased worker". "Employee" does not include a "temporary worker".

19. "Temporary worker" means a person who is furnished to you to substitute for a permanent "employee" on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

20. "Volunteer worker" means a person who is not your "employee", and who donates his or her work and acts at the direction of and within the scope of duties

The subject Cross-Complaint again alleges that Robert Wood allegedly breached a Partnership Agreement by taking money that reportedly belonged to Ted Switzer and/or Flournoy Management, LLC, and keeping it for Robert Wood and/or for Access Medical, LLC. The Cross-Complaint also alleges that Robert Wood kept lucrative business relationships and income developed by Ted Switzer away from him. It further alleges that Robert Wood stole away accounts, customers and business relationships of Ted Switzer. It is also alleged that Robert Wood, intentionally and without justification or privilege, and for his own individual benefit and to promote his own individual personal interests, acted to disrupt Ted Switzer's business relationships. The Cross-Complaint goes on to assert that Robert Wood owed Ted Switzer a duty not to unreasonably interfere with Ted Switzer's existing business relationships as well as his ability to conduct medical implant business in the future.

In addition to the above, and as previously advised, an email from Jacquie Weide of Access Medical, LLC to Deborah Fanning of Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital revealed that Jacquie Weide told Deborah Fanning that Access Medical, LLC uses a specific spine product that Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital can only get from Access Medical, LLC versus a competitor that was alleged banned from selling a particular spine product.

Pursuant to the above policy language, Access Medical, LLC and its members are only insureds to the extent that your acts were conducted with respect to the conduct of Access Medical, LLC's business.

Please be advised that Nautilus Insurance Company has identified a possible conflict of interest with respect to Nautilus Insurance Company's reserved rights on the policy's definition of Knowing Violation Of The Rights Of Another Exclusion. In California, an insured has a right to independent counsel to represent it if a possible conflict of interest with the insurer may arise or does exist. Civil Code Section 2860. Therefore, since this matter is being litigated in California, [Wood and Access / Flournoy] has the option of selecting independent counsel or authorizing Nautilus to assign counsel.

Should [Wood and Access / Flournoy] opt to select independent counsel, please be advised that under the above-cited statute, Nautilus Insurance Company is only obligated to pay fees at rates that are actually paid by the insurer to attorneys retained by it in the ordinary course of business in the defense of similar actions in the community where the claim arose or is being defended.

Nautilus Insurance Company's panel rates for such cases are $170/hour for partners and $165/per hour for associate attorneys. [Wood and Access / Flournoy] will be responsible for any defense fees paid to independent counsel in excess of Nautilus Insurance Company's panel rates. Please be further advised that Nautilus Insurance Company reserves its right to assign counsel to participate in its insured's defense subject to the cooperation provisions of Civil code Section 2860 should [Wood and Access / Flournoy] opt to select independent counsel.

The information contained in this correspondence is based on information and investigation we have gathered to date. Such information and investigation will not waive or set aside any of the terms or conditions of the policy, or policies issued to the named insured, or any other insured claiming coverage in the above referenced matter. Nor will such review and evaluation of information or additional information, or material provided or obtained from any source, waive, or set aside any policy conditions or positions taken in this letter or any other correspondence from Nautilus Insurance Company on this claim.

Nautilus Insurance Company reserves the right to disclaim coverage and to bring an action in an appropriate state or federal court of competent jurisdiction and venue in order to limit, obtain a declaration, or interplead, to enforce the limitations mentioned herein and declare the obligations and responsibilities of the parties hereto under the contract of insurance.

Nautilus Insurance Company, by this letter and by its providing a defense of this matter Access Medical, LLC and/or Robert Wood does not waive nor invalidate any of the other terms, conditions or exclusions of the policy.

Fresno County Superior Court Case No. 11 CE CG 04395
Our File No. : 3891.35805
Insured : Access Medical
Claim No. : 10067276
Policy No. : BN952426
Policy Period : 1/15/11 -- 1/15/12

Dear Mr. Schnitzer:

As you are aware, this office represents Nautilus Insurance Company ("Nautilus") as coverage counsel in the above-referenced matter. We write to detail Nautilus' payment for costs and fees related to the defense of Nautilus's insured, Access Medical and Robert Wood (collectively "Access").

Your invoices dated November 24, 2013, December 20, 2013, January 24, 2014, February 24, 2014, and March 24, 2014 for a combined $16,921.00 are for fees and costs incurred from October 21, 2013 through March 18, 2014. Nautilus's enclosed payment in the amount of $10,013.50 represents Nautilus' payment for covered fees and costs less $6,907.50 in non-covered amounts.

The enclosed spreadsheet identifies the $6,907.50 in entries Nautilus declined to pay as non-covered. If you disagree with any of Nautilus's deductions, please advise and provide any further information needed for our reconsideration.
