Revised July 1, 2018

Temporary Restraining Order
(CLETS—TRO)
(Domestic Violence Prevention)

DV-110, Page 4 of 6

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Person in ②*If You Do Not Obey This Order, You Can Be Arrested And Charged With a Crime.

- If you do not obey this order, you can go to jail or prison and/or pay a fine.
- It is a felony to take or hide a child in violation of this order.
- If you travel to another state or to tribal lands or make the protected person do so, with the intention of disobeying this order, you can be charged with a federal crime.

You Cannot Have Guns, Firearms, And/Or Ammunition.

You cannot own, have, possess, buy or try to buy, receive or try to receive, or otherwise get guns, other firearms, and/or ammunition while the order is in effect. If you do, you can go to jail and pay a $1,000 fine. You must sell to or store with a licensed gun dealer or turn in to a law enforcement agency any guns or other firearms that you have or control. The judge will ask you for proof that you did so. If you do not obey this order, you can be charged with a crime. Federal law says you cannot have guns or ammunition while the order is in effect.

Service of Order by Mail

If the judge makes a restraining order at the hearing, which has the same orders as in this form, you will get a copy of that order by mail at your last known address, which is written in ②. If this address is incorrect, or to find out if the orders were made permanent, contact the court.

Child Custody, Visitation, and Support

- Child custody and visitation: If you do not go to the hearing, the judge can make custody and visitation orders for your children without hearing from you.
- Child support: The judge can order child support based on the income of both parents. The judge can also have that support taken directly from a parent's paycheck. Child support can be a lot of money, and usually you have to pay until the child is age 18. File and serve a Financial Statement (Simplified) (form FL-155) or an Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150) if you want the judge to have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.
- Spousal support: File and serve an Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150) so the judge will have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Pen. Code, §§ 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6.

This is a Court Order.

Case Number:

19FL000267

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, the orders remain in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, §13710(b).)

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced according to the following priorities (see Pen. Code, § 136.2, and Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h), 6405(b)):

1. EPO: If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), and it is more restrictive than other restraining or protective orders, it has precedence in enforcement over all other orders.
2. No-Contact Order: If there is no EPO, a no-contact order that is included in a restraining or protective order has precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order.
3. Criminal Order: If none of the orders includes a no-contact order, a domestic violence protective order issued in a criminal case takes precedence in enforcement over any conflicting civil court order. Any nonconflicting terms of the civil restraining order remain in effect and enforceable.
4. Family, Juvenile, or Civil Order: If more than one family, juvenile, or other civil restraining or protective order has been issued, the one that was issued last must be enforced.

Child Custody and Visitation

- The custody and visitation orders are on form DV-140, items ③ and ④. They are sometimes also written on additional pages or referenced in DV-140 or other orders that are not part of the restraining order.
- Forms DV-100 and DV-105 are not orders. Do not enforce them.

Certificate of Compliance With VAWA

This temporary protective order meets all "full faith and credit" requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2265 (1994) (VAWA), upon notice of the restrained person. This court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been or will be afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and entitled to enforcement in each jurisdiction throughout the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories, commonwealths, and possessions and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction.

Right to Cancel Hearing: Information for the Person in 1

- If item 4(a)(2) or 4(a)(3) is checked, the judge has denied some or all of the temporary orders you requested until the court hearing. The judge may make the orders you want after the court hearing. You can keep the hearing date, or you can cancel your request for orders so there is no court hearing.
- If you want to cancel the hearing, use form DV-112, Waiver of Hearing on Denied Request for Temporary Restraining Order. Fill it out and file it with the court as soon as possible. You may file a new request for orders, on the same or different facts, at a later time.
- If you cancel the hearing, do not serve the documents listed in item 6 on the other person.
- If you want to keep the hearing date, you must have all of the documents listed in item 6 served on the other person within the time listed in item 6.
- At the hearing, the judge will consider whether denial of any requested orders will jeopardize your safety and the safety of children for whom you are requesting custody or visitation.
- You must come to the hearing if you want the judge to make restraining orders or continue any orders already made. If you cancel the hearing or do not come to the hearing, any restraining orders made on form DV-110 will end on the date of the hearing.

To the Person in ①:

- The court cannot make the restraining orders after the court hearing unless the person in ② has been personally given (served) a copy of your request and any temporary orders. To show that the person in ② has been served, the person who served the forms must fill out a proof of service form. Form DV-200, Proof of Personal Service, may be used.
- For information about service, read form DV-200-INFO, What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?
- If you are unable to serve the person in ② in time, you may ask for more time to serve the documents. Read form DV-115-INFO, How to Ask for a New Hearing Date.

To the Person in ②:

- If you want to respond in writing, mail a copy of your completed form DV-120, Response to Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order, to the person in ① and file it with the court. You cannot mail form DV-120 yourself. Someone age 18 or older — not you — must do it.
- To show that the person in ① has been served by mail, the person who mailed the form must fill out a proof of service form. Form DV-250, Proof of Service by Mail, may be used. File the completed form with the court before the hearing and bring a copy with you to the hearing.
- For information about responding to a restraining order and filing your answer, read form DV-120-INFO, How Can I Respond to a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order?
- Whether or not you respond in writing, go to the hearing if you want the judge to hear from you before making an order. You may tell the judge why you agree or disagree with the orders requested. You may bring witnesses and other evidence.
- At the hearing, the judge may make restraining orders against you that could last up to five years.
- The judge may also make other orders about your children, child support, spousal support, money, and property and may order you to turn in or sell any firearms that you own or possess.

This is a Court Order.

Revised July 1, 2016.

Temporary Restraining Order
(CLETS—TRO)
(Domestic Violence Prevention)

DV-110, Page 4 of 6

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Person in ②*If You Do Not Obey This Order, You Can Be Arrested And Charged With a Crime.

- If you do not obey this order, you can go to jail or prison and/or pay a fine.
- It is a felony to take or hide a child in violation of this order.
- If you travel to another state or to tribal lands or make the protected person do so, with the intention of disobeying this order, you can be charged with a federal crime.

You Cannot Have Guns, Firearms, And/Or Ammunition.

You cannot own, have, possess, buy or try to buy, receive or try to receive, or otherwise get guns, other firearms, and/or ammunition while the order is in effect. If you do, you can go to jail and pay a $1,000 fine. You must sell to or store with a licensed gun dealer or turn in to a law enforcement agency any guns or other firearms that you have or control. The judge will ask you for proof that you did so. If you do not obey this order, you can be charged with a crime. Federal law says you cannot have guns or ammunition while the order is in effect.

Service of Order by Mail

If the judge makes a restraining order at the hearing, which has the same orders as in this form, you will get a copy of that order by mail at your last known address, which is written in ②. If this address is incorrect, or to find out if the orders were made permanent, contact the court.

Child Custody, Visitation, and Support

- Child custody and visitation: If you do not go to the hearing, the judge can make custody and visitation orders for your children without hearing from you.
- Child support: The judge can order child support based on the income of both parents. The judge can also have that support taken directly from a parent's paycheck. Child support can be a lot of money, and usually you have to pay until the child is age 18. File and serve a Financial Statement (Simplified) (form FL-155) or an Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150) if you want the judge to have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.
- Spousal support: File and serve an Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150) so the judge will have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Pen. Code, §§ 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6.

This is a Court Order.

Case Number:

19FL000267

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, the orders remain in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, §13710(b).)

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced according to the following priorities (see Pen. Code, § 136.2, and Fam. Code, §§ 6383(h), 6405(b)):

1. EPO: If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), and it is more restrictive than other restraining or protective orders, it has precedence in enforcement over all other orders.
2. No-Contact Order: If there is no EPO, a no-contact order that is included in a restraining or protective order has precedence in enforcement over any other restraining or protective order.
3. Criminal Order: If none of the orders includes a no-contact order, a domestic violence protective order issued in a criminal case takes precedence in enforcement over any conflicting civil court order. Any nonconflicting terms of the civil restraining order remain in effect and enforceable.
4. Family, Juvenile, or Civil Order: If more than one family, juvenile, or other civil restraining or protective order has been issued, the one that was issued last must be enforced.

Child Custody and Visitation

- The custody and visitation orders are on form DV-140, items (3) and (4). They are sometimes also written on additional pages or referenced in DV-140 or other orders that are not part of the restraining order.
- Forms DV-100 and DV-105 are not orders. Do not enforce them.

Certificate of Compliance With VAWA

This temporary protective order meets all "full faith and credit" requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2265 (1994) (VAWA), upon notice of the restrained person. This court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been or will be afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and entitled to enforcement in each jurisdiction throughout the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories, commonwealths, and possessions and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction.

*****NOTE Eric Thomas Mesi HAS NEVER BEEN SERVED WITH THIS CLAIMED PROPOSED RESTRAINING ORDER**.

Plaintiff Vanessa Mesi, Aka Battaglia, Aka Reynolds is simply requesting this restraining order to be Vindictive and Vexatious. Furthermore; stated Defendant Eric Thomas Mesi caused her diabetes, which is NOT possible. Defendant Eric Thomas Mesi has no intension on harming her or anyone in her family and has no history of violence or any history of police reports of violence. All Vanessa Mesi, Aka Battaglia, Aka Reynolds had to do was asked for a divorce and both sign the Decree in the Las Vegas case D-19-585846-D and the Divorce would be completed in two weeks. There is no cause for a restraining order. When Defendant lived in Sparks Nevada Vanessa Mesi, Aka Battaglia, Aka Reynolds spent most of the Marriage in San Jose California living with either her Ex Husband or his father Russell Battaglia Junior (See DMV Drivers License shows Ex Husbands address Exhibit "2"), the very two Vanessa Mesi, Aka Battaglia, Aka Reynolds claimed abuse against in her previous divorce. When Social Security cancelled Defendants payments in 2016 Plaintiff Vanessa Mesi, Aka Battaglia, Aka Reynolds was aware of NO income. February of 2017 per Plaintiff Vanessa Mesi, Aka Battaglia, Aka Reynolds birthday, she took the Lane Bryant Store credit card out of Defendant Eric Thomas Mesi's wallet and bought herself birthday presents totaling almost $400. When Defendant confronted her regarding this stating this is banking and Bankruptcy fraud, she responded it is my birthday and my husband owes me a birthday present. In reality Eric Thomas Mesi requires a restraining order from Plaintiff, but getting a Restraining Order regarding creditors in NOT legal, that is NOT what Restraining Orders are for. ****Note see attached restraining order reply.

Re: Accepted service of civil process on behalf of Vanessa Marie Mesi

Dear Ms. Darby,

I am writing in response to your letter dated April 8, 2019 regarding the rejection of documents originally accepted by your office on April 3, 2019.

I contacted the plaintiff to advise him of your letter and asked if he had any other locate information for the defendant so that we may attempt to effectuate service personally. He stated he wanted the service to remain as is. In addition he requested that we produce an Affidavit of Service in lieu of a Declaration (see NRS 53) which we commonly generate for Nevada Courts.

Although I understand your stance on the acceptance of the documents, proof of service has already been submitted to the court and cannot be rescinded. The Washoe County Sheriff's office is not a party to the action so I advise you to contact the plaintiff or the court. The plaintiff is Eric Mesi and he can be reached at (775) 980-7635.

Eight years later, Fernley flood victims win $18.1M settlement

Scott Sonner, Associated Press Published 11:46 a.m. PT April 10, 2016 | Updated 1:02 p.m. PT April 11, 2016

FERNLEY — Eight years, dozens of lawyers and hundreds of thousands of documents later, Nevada flood victims are finally going to be paid for damages suffered when a century-old irrigation canal burst and sent a wall of water into their homes in 2008.

No one was killed or seriously injured but 590 homes in Fernley were flooded when water burst through a 50-foot breach in the canal's earthen embankment on Jan. 5, 2008.

A 2-foot-tall wave swamped the neighborhood and water collected 8 feet deep in some parts of the rural town 30 miles east of Reno. More than a dozen residents were rescued from rooftops by helicopter, while others were taken to safety by boats.

Judy Kroshus, lead plaintiff in the class-action lawsuit the local irrigation district recently agreed to settle for $18.1 million, and her 2-year-old grandchild were stranded by water "up to our windshield" before her son waded several blocks to rescue them.

"We were lucky to get out," she said.

The aging, 31-mile canal is a key component of the nation's first federal reclamation project, started in 1903. It's owned by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation but managed by the Truckee-Carson Irrigation District (TCID). The bureau concluded within two months of the breach that burrowing rodents had weakened the canal, causing it to fail.

ADVERTISEMENT

In July 2012, a federal jury returned a verdict during the liability phase of the trial finding the district's history of negligence in maintaining the canal was primarily to blame. Soon after, the district agreed to a $10 million settlement, but then backed out.

5/31/2019

Eight years later Fernley flood victims win $18.1M settlement

The damages phase of the trial was scheduled to resume two months ago, but the district agreed to the new settlement terms after its members voted in February to raise money to finance the damage award by selling off some water rights to the Truckee Meadows Water Authority. Judge Lloyd George approved the deal March 31.

"The settlement finally brings closure to those who were harmed through no fault of their own," said Patrick Lavery, lead co-counsel for the plaintiffs.

Kroshus, who's the director of a tribal health service resource center in Fernley, said she had to short-sell her flood-damaged home and bought a new one just a year ago. "It's not in the flood area," she said.

A similar rupture in the same vicinity flooded 60 homes in December 1996.

The $18.1 million settlement includes about $7.8 million in attorney fees and expenses.

Lavery said no one in the class objected to that part of the deal.

RE: Russell J Battaglia

Dear Vanessa Battaglia:

Thank you for giving Renown Regional Medical Center the opportunity to meet your health care needs.

Our records indicate that you may be covered by a government sponsored medical program. This qualifies you for a simplified billing process which involves no hospital-initiated claim forms or charge itemizations. This letter is a courtesy bill summarizing your current account balance.

You may examine your bill and receive an explanation of the bill whether or not you are personally responsible for payment. A summary of all charges will be sent to the processing agent for your program. In the event this service is denied because of ineligibility of all or part of the total charges or a share of cost is applied, a bill will be forwarded to you. At that time we will need to discuss the manner in which you would like to satisfy the new account balance.

Should you have any questions or require additional information please do not hesitate to contact our Customer Service Representatives at 775-982-4130 or 775-322-8828.

Sincerely,
The Staff at Renown Regional Medical Center's

Thank you for choosing Renown Regional Medical Center for your healthcare services.

Here are some things to know about Renown's billing process:

Enclosed you will find your summarized bill. For your information, a separate account is created each time you receive services. You will receive a monthly statement for each account until the account is paid in full.

Payment options are available for patient responsibilities. Uninsured patients are eligible for a 30% discount under Nevada state law as long as reasonable payment arrangements are made within 30 days of receipt of this statement otherwise payment in full is expected.

If you are a Washoe County resident, you may contact the Washoe County Department of Social Services at (775) 784-7301 for financial assistance. All non-Washoe County residents seeking assistance should contact their local department of social services.

We will be billing for Renown Regional Medical Center only. Physicians and radiologists, pathologists, ambulance companies and others will bill you separately for their services. Please call their offices if you have questions.

Renown Regional Medical Center provides charity care after qualification to those in medical need. This should be explored after all other assistance options have been exhausted. To find out if you qualify, please call (775) 322-8828.

If you need more information on your current balance, need to request an itemized statement, or need to verify insurance billing, please call (775) 982-4130 to use our "Patient Automated Line" (available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week). #### THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING RENOWN REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER

If you send us a check for payment, it will be converted into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will scan copy your check and use the account information to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually occur within 24 hours, and will show on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check and keep an electronic copy. If the EFT cannot be processed for technical reasons, you are authorizing us to process the copy in place of your original check. If the EFT cannot be completed because of insufficient funds, all applicable bank penalty fees will apply against your checking account.

Headline: 20-YEAR-OLD IS JAILED FOR ASSAULT ON HIS MOTHER
Byline: BY DARITH KEO, BEE STAFF WRITER

Text: A man was arrested Monday after trying to strike his mother with a wooden rod and ramming his car into her house and pickup, Modesto police said.

Russell Battaglia, 20, of Modesto was booked into Stanislaus County Jail on two counts of assault with a deadly weapon after the 8:03 a.m. incident in the 1100 block of Durant Street, police said. He remained in jail Monday night in lieu of $17,000 bail.

Battaglia's mother, Jennifer Hernandez, reported to officers that her son became angry when she asked him to get out of bed before his stepfather arrived home.

She said he told her, "You wanna see what I can do? I'll break your neck."

Then, according to a police, Battaglia took a wooden rod from the closet and swung it at Hernandez, barely missing her.

Hernandez told police that after she fled her son's bedroom, Battaglia went to the living room and declared that he was going to destroy the house.

She said Battaglia got into his red Camaro parked in the driveway and drove forward twice into the house, then scraped his car against her 1978 Chevrolet truck. Later, Hernandez said, Battaglia crashed his car into the pickup head-on and fled.

Officer Tom Rhea reported that he was on his way to Hernandez's house when Battaglia drove past. Rhea said he made a U-turn and followed Battaglia, who, according to Rhea, tried to hit the officer's car twice by putting his vehicle in reverse.

Police said Battaglia also tried to crash head-on into the vehicle of officer James Rokaitis, who was on his way to assist Rhea.

The chase ended when Battaglia drove back to his mother's house. He was arrested as he headed toward the front door.

The officers said Battaglia resisted arrest and had to be subdued by force. Battaglia's left shin was struck with a baton.

He was checked at Stanislaus Medical Center for the injury before he was brought to the jail, where he also was booked for evading police officers, obstructing and resisting arrest and vandalism.

DECLARATION

(This form must be attached to another form or court paper before it can be filed in court.)

6th Attempt to Serve Mr. Eric Mesi on the 3rd day of February, 2018 at 12:00 noon. Not Successful again no answer at the door.

It should be noted by the court that each time service was attempted the Defendant's vehicle was parked in from of the garage door and movement was noted in the apartment. I could hear someone scolding the dog for barking. The defendant lives with his mother and both the mother's car and the Defendant's car were parked in front of the garage door every time service was attempted.

The Plaintiff provided a phone number for the Defendant which I called during the last attempt without getting an answer even though the Defendant was in the residence. On the last attempt a surveillance was conducted from 12:00 noon until 3:00pm. During that time the Defendant nor his co-resident failed to exit the residence.

Affiance believes that the Defendant is avoiding service and therefore service can not be effected.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

To Whom It May Concern,

This patient is currently under my care. I do not recommend that she flies or sits in a car for longer than one hour due to several medical conditions that are not controlled currently including COPD, asthma, and bilateral lower extremity swelling. I also do not recommend that she travels to high altitudes as this worsens her breathing. She has had multiple hospitalizations for these issues and is under the care of multiple specialists.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Melissa Huck Nguyen". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

Ok good. I can't help but to get upset. I need a home not only because I'm being tossed out of where I am, but the home contains mold. My wife and I are sick from it. The owner sleeps in the front room not his bedroom has mold in it.

*This shows
Eric Mesi and his mother Betty Mesi purchased a home
through Guild Mortgage closed escrowed on 11/30/2018. I moved into this home with them and they still still there.*

I know my sister very well and is in a divorce with three children. She has to use their college money for the down. Last Thursday when she saw over $13,000 she wants to pull out. I knew that would happen. So my sister and I need a time to talk to you see where we are at currently.

Thanks

Eric Mesi

OK, please do not contact Beazer anymore though because I did negotiate 1% from Ed towards your closing costs, but the stipulation is that there is no more drama where Beazer is concerned. We will reconcile the fees on the loan estimate once all of the other fees are in. We have to log every, single loan estimate that goes out. You are not contractually obligated on any of the loan estimates as they are subject to change as fees come in. Please complete the signature on the loan estimate and we will reduce the transaction coordination fee on the next disclosure. ALL DISCLOSURES MUST BE SIGNED to prove that we provided them to you.

To Whom It May Concern,

This patient is currently under my care. I do not recommend that she flies or sits in a car for longer than one hour due to several medical conditions that are not controlled currently including COPD, asthma, and bilateral lower extremity swelling. I also do not recommend that she travels to high altitudes as this worsens her breathing. She has had multiple hospitalizations for these issues and is under the care of multiple specialists.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Melissa Huck Nguyen, MD

Re: Accepted service of civil process on behalf of Vanessa Marie Mesi

Dear Ms. Darby,

I am writing in response to your letter dated April 8, 2019 regarding the rejection of documents originally accepted by your office on April 3, 2019.

I contacted the plaintiff to advise him of your letter and asked if he had any other locate information for the defendant so that we may attempt to effectuate service personally. He stated he wanted the service to remain as is. In addition he requested that we produce an Affidavit of Service in lieu of a Declaration (see NRS 53) which we commonly generate for Nevada Courts.

Although I understand your stance on the acceptance of the documents, proof of service has already been submitted to the court and cannot be rescinded. The Washoe County Sheriff's office is not a party to the action so I advise you to contact the plaintiff or the court. The plaintiff is Eric Mesi and he can be reached at (775) 980-7635.

Sincerely,

Dear HYUNDAI FINANCE:

I have contacted your office on several occasions and requested a returned call from a manager. I have called your office on several occasions stating "I DID NOT" sign or agree to cancel the said Lease Contract. Your office claims you will place a bad debt on my credit report because of the Cancellation of Contract, which is an incorrect mark by stating I cancelled a Contract that related to early term fees. Although I updated my address after the move, I have NOT received any notices from your office.

I require a SUV replacement as I am disabled and need to get to my doctor visits. Your office is hindering my medical health by stealing my transportation. I demand to be contacted by your Corporate Legal Office ASAP.

Sincerely,

Dear HYUNDAI FINANCE:

I need an update on the fraudulent landing of my vehicle and where I stand. In 2018 my right eye retina tore and I had surgery to fuse the retina back on. After my move to 4500 Pencester ST., Las Vegas Nevada 89115 in February 2019 the left eye Gel separated, leaving both eyes with bad vision. My intention was to rent a U-Haul go to San Jose California to pick my belongings up and tow the vehicle to Las Vegas Nevada where I reside. I have not been able to see to drive that far (See Exhibit Doctors Letter).

I am now able to drive short distances to get to the doctor offices; does your office plan to replace my vehicle after this fraud occurrence? I logged in to my Hyundai Finance account and it says money is owed for some apparent reason. I reported to your office after my new address last December 2018, so far I have NOT received any bills from your office to my new address at 4500 Pencester ST., Las Vegas Nevada 89115.

Please update me of what is happening with my reported fraud.

Sincerely,

Eric Thomas Mesi

Message: I would like to know what your office did with my SUV? I lost my eyesight for several months I am still recovering. I am the registered owner, no one else has the rights to do anything with the vehicle. I have received nothing in the mail according to my family that reads and gets my mail. In December I updated my new address with your office 4500 Pencester ST. Las Vegas Nevada 89115. Since then nothing has come in the mail regarding my SUV.

NEVADA CASE NO.: D-19-585846-D

RE: COMPLAINT ABOUT A NEVADA JUDGE Rhonda K. Forsberg, COURT COMMISSIONER OR REFEREE BIAS JUDGE FRAUD UPON
THE COURT
Confidential under California Constitution Article VI, Section 18, and (Commission, Rule 102

Dear Commission:

Honorable Judge Rhonda K. Forsberg is very Bias; I have not been allowed to defend myself as all efiled documents get stricken by her staff. My wife and I moved to Las Vegas Nevada after buying a new home. My wife got into a debt argument with my Mother and Sister from the money my wife borrowed from them. My wife asked me to take her to the Airport in Las Vegas Nevada and that was the last I have ever seen her. I began to lose my eyesight as soon as I turned 55. Last year my retina tore in my right eye and I had surgery but my eye gained no vision. Soon as I moved to Las Vegas with my wife my left eye the gel separated leaving me with horrible eyesight. I have attended the self help center on several occasions and fulfilled all court requests. Honorable Judge Rhonda K. Forsberg completely ignored my Objection Efiled on June 18th 2019 and dismissed my case because of a California case I have never been served. In addition: the California case has no standing as follows.

Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi and Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi both moved to Las Vegas Nevada on November 29th 2018. This broke up the Defendants residency in California required under California Section 2320. Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi has falsified her residency to The Superior Court of California County of Santa Clara Family Court and the District Court Clark County, Nevada Family Court, as all of her belonging are located at 4500 Pencester Street, Las Vegas Nevada 89115. Furthermore; the Defendants Bankruptcy Chapter 13 Case Number: 16-50642-gwz is located in "Nevada". In California the Defendant failed to meet eligibility requirements to file for divorce in any California court. First, at least one of the two parties to the divorce must have lived in California for at least six-months prior to filing for divorce. Second, for Defendant to be eligible to file in any county in California, at least one of the spouses must have lived in that county for three-months before filing for divorce, which leaves her California Divorce filing with "NO-STANDING", including any and all spousal support or any requested assets or debts either party is to pay, as California has no authority across state line into Nevada. Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi was the driving force to buy said property at 4500 Pencester Street, Las Vegas Nevada 89115, Beazer the home has full record of Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi ordering warranty repairs to the said property.

FAMILY CODE - FAMILY DIVISION 6. NULLITY, DISSOLUTION, AND LEGAL SEPARATION 2320

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a judgment of dissolution of marriage may not be entered unless one of the parties to the marriage has been a resident of this state for six months and of the county in which the proceeding is filed for three months next preceding the filing of the petition.

Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi was originally served by mail on March, 25th 2019 to her Bankruptcy Attorney. There has been “40 working days” to respond to this case, referencing the original mailing US Mail stamped March 25th 2019. Defendant and her council Attorney Tricia Darby Bar #: 7956 was served on April, 10th 2019. Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi has never been served from the California Case 19FL000267. Furthermore; Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi has never seen any of the documents from the stated Divorce and or Restraining Order Defendants proclaims, as Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi has never been SERVED by any said documents Defendant claims. An “un-served” Restraining Order cannot be “Granted”, which is a further lie to the Court systems. If a Restraining Order was ever Granted and local police thought Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi had any weapons such as Guns as Defendant Purports, authorities would have gotten a search warrant to confiscate any and all weapons from the Plaintiff.

As stated previously, Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi has a Pathological lying disorder, also known as mythomania and pseudologia fantastica, is the chronic behavior of compulsive or habitual lying. Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi in the Nevada Bankruptcy Case 16-50642-gwz goes by the name Vanessa Marie Mesi, but to the Divorce Court in Santa Clara goes by the name Vanessa Marie Battaglia. Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi as well when applying for credit goes by the name Vanessa Marie Battaglia or in some cases Vanessa Marie Reynolds her born name, Per the Department of Motor Vehicles Defendant goes by the name Vanessa Marie Battaglia. This Court is required to take Note of the two different addresses Defendant has used to file in this court, this is an attempt to confuse this court. Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi purported that Betty Mesi (Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi's Mother) told a deputy Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi did not live at said property 4500 Pencester Street, Las Vegas Nevada 89115, which is absolutely untrue. Betty Mesi resides in Salinas California and has had no contact with any deputies in Nevada, as Betty Mesi is 77 years old and works four Car Dealerships delivering new automobiles and has no time for any extra activities. Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi has lied to this Court regarding a restraining order placed on Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi. Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi's SUV towed to a Dealership lying having the lease ended, which Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi never signed. Hyundai Finance is now collecting $4,487.80 for cancelling an early term lease contract. In addition, Defendant Vanessa Marie Mesi has ordered $1,500 worth of cell phone equipment underneath an AT&T account of the Plaintiff Eric Thomas Mesi.
