On October 9, 2019, this Court graciously granted a motion/stipulation to extend the Appellant's Opening Brief for 30 days, making the due date December 4, 2019. The October 9, 2019 Notice/Motion Stipulation Approved stated that no further extensions of time would be permitted except on a motion clearly demonstrating good cause.

The Appellant comes before this Court in a timely manner, one week before the opening brief is due, to request an additional two weeks to file the Opening Brief and Appendix. The Respondent has not opposed our request for an additional two weeks and, in fact, was willing to stipulate to allow the Appellant the additional time. The case before this Court concerns an interpretation of statute. No party will suffer prejudice based on an extension of time.

Good cause in this case is based on Appellant's counsel's unusual and unexpected heavy workload as well as the Thanksgiving holiday closure of the office. This motion is not being filed for purposes of delay. The Appellants have been diligently working on the Opening Brief and Appendix but due to the present workload have simply run out of time and respectfully request a two week extension for the Opening Brief and Appendix.

Respectfully submitted this 26th day of November, 2019.
