OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S APPLICATION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY DEFENDANT SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT OF COURT ORDER

Defendant EDWARD BAYUK, individually and as Trustee of the EDWARD WILLIAM BAYUK LIVING TRUST (collectively, "Bayuk") hereby opposes Plaintiff's Motion for Order to Show Cause Why Defendant Bayuk Should Not Be Held in Contempt of Court Order. This Opposition is made and supported by the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the 1 Declaration of Frank C. Gilmore, Esq., the Declaration of Edward Bayuk, and the pleadings and 2 papers on file herein.

3 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN OPPOSITION

4 I. INTRODUCTION

5 Plaintiff filed the instant Motion knowing full well that Bayuk does not have the 6 documents Plaintiff has requested. Bayuk's counsel explained to Plaintiff's counsel, as plainly as 7 can be explained – in writing and over the telephone -- that no responsive documents exist, and 8 precisely why Defendants opposed the Motion to Compel.

9 The instant Motion presents no evidence that Bayuk (or his counsel) knowingly, willfully, 10 or intentionally violated a Court Order. Instead, the Motion complains that it was required to brief 11 the Motion to Compel, only to be told afterward that Bayuk possesses no responsive documents.
12 An Order to Show Cause cannot issue unless Plaintiff has met his burden with credible and 13 admissible proof that this issue was caused by something other than Bayuk's misunderstanding of 14 the scope of Plaintiff's original request for insurance documents. Bayuk and his counsel attach 15 their own respective declarations repeating, again, why no responsive documents can be produced 16 pursuant to the Order. The reason no documents can be produced is because no responsive 17 documents exist in Bayuk's care, custody, or control, and no responsive documents have existed in 18 Bayuk's possession for some years prior to the request. The Motion never had any basis in law or 19 fact, and Plaintiff knew that before he filed it. This Motion exacerbates the precise problem 20 Plaintiff complains of. It should be denied without a hearing.

21 II. STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

22 This case is an off-shoot from a dispute between the original Plaintiffs to this case, JH, 23 INC., JERRY HERBST, and BERRY-HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES ("Herbst"), and their long-time 24 adversary, PAUL MORABITO ("Morabito"). That original dispute centered around disagreement 25 as to the post-closing obligations related to the purchase and sale of BERRY-HINCKLEY 26 INDUSTRIES, which owned and managed several gas stations and convenience stores in Northern 27 Nevada. That original dispute – which is commonly referred to as the Herbst Litigation – was 28 commenced in 2007, and tried to Department 6 in the summer of 2009. Edward Bayuk ("Bayuk")

1 and Salvatore Morabito (“Salvatore”) were counter-defendants in the Herbst Litigation, but were 2 exonerated and dismissed from the case at trial. See Declaration of Edward Bayuk, EXHIBIT 1 3 hereto, at ¶ 3.

4 After the trial resulted in a substantial judgment against Paul Morabito, both Bayuk and 5 Salvatore, who were found to have no liability to Herbst whatsoever, undertook to separate their 6 businesses and jointly-owned properties from Paul Morabito so as to avoid the post-trial 7 entanglements with the Herbsts that were sure to occur. Exhibit 1, at ¶ 4.

8 In furtherance of their effort to separate their business lives from Paul Morabito, Bayuk and 9 Salvatore hired Dennis Vacco, Esq., an attorney of unimpeachable credentials<sup>1</sup>, to facilitate the 10 business division. Exhibit 1, at ¶ 5. Using certified appraisers and business valuers, Mr. Vacco 11 assisted Bayuk and Salvatore with valuing their respective interests in the jointly-held entities and 12 interests, and dividing them equitably and transparently. Paul Morabito took title to some property 13 and Bayuk and Salvatore took title to others. Exhibit 1, at ¶ 6.

14 As Mr. Vacco and his partners have testified under oath, the process was done with an eye 15 toward separating Bayuk and Salvatore from the now 9-year old dispute between Paul Morabito 16 and the Herbsts, and with the goal of ensuring that the transfers were done fair, commercially 17 reasonable, and not subject to subsequent challenge. Unfortunately, neither Mr. Vacco nor Bayuk 18 or Salvatore understood the lengths the Herbsts would be willing to go in order to destroy Paul 19 Morabito and his erst-while business partners. The Herbst promptly used their judgment in 20 Department 6<sup>2</sup> to obtain a Confession of Judgment from Paul Morabito in settlement – in which 21 neither Bayuk nor Salvatore were involved – which they then used to direct Paul Morabito into 22 Involuntary Bankruptcy, a move quite obviously designed to use the power of the United States 23 Trustee to collect their debts.

24 After the bankruptcy was initiated, Herbst sued Bayuk and Salvatore in this action, 25 contending that the property division was fraudulent, and was done for less than equivalent value.

27 <sup>1</sup> Mr. Vacco had previously served as the United States Attorney for the Western District of New 28 York, and was the former elected New York Attorney General.

1 Exhibit 1, at ¶ 7. Herbst has challenged each and every division of assets that Mr. Vacco 2 facilitated, even those where Herbst own expert witnesses have concluded that exchange was for 3 fair value. Herbst then convinced the bankruptcy trustee to sue Dennis Vacco and his firm. Herbst 4 served demands and subpoenas on Bayuk and Salvatore's lawyers (including the undersigned) to 5 turn over their entire files, without regard for any work-product or attorney-client privilege. In 6 other words, this case, and the dispute from which it stems, is a scorched-earth, no-holds-barred,
7 "grind him into the dirt," battle to the death. A cursory review of the Herbst conduct in this case 8 reveals that these superlatives are not over-dramatization of the dispute. Bayuk and Salvatore are 9 the collateral damage, caught in the middle.

10 The present Motion arises from a simple dispute. William Leonard, as the bankruptcy 11 trustee (who substituted into this case as Plaintiff for Herbst), served a Request for Production on 12 January 29, 2016, which sought production of all insurance policies held by Bayuk and the Bayuk 13 Living Trust, for a 7-year time period (2005-2011), without limitation in scope.

14 In February 2016, Bayuk, Salvatore Morabito, and their counsel met in Los Angeles.
15 Among other things, the three of them discussed four sets of requests for production that had been 16 served by Plaintiff and were pending. During the meeting, the issue of the request for "all 17 documents" related to "all insurance policies" was discussed. The scope of the request (2005-18 2011) was not discussed. However, as the other RFP's served on Bayuk and Salvatore Morabito 19 that were discussed in that meeting consistently requested for documents from various years "to 20 the present," it was mistakenly assumed by Bayuk that the request for insurance documents was 21 from 2005 to the present. The meeting contained discussion about the overly broad scope of the 22 request; it was decided at that meeting, that the requests would be objected to on that basis and that 23 a Court order compelling the request would be necessary before any documents would be 24 produced. Exhibit 1, at ¶8; see also EXHIBIT 2, Declaration of Frank C. Gilmore at ¶2.

25 At no time during the discussion was Bayuk ever questioned if he possessed responsive 26 documents to the scope of the actual request – 2005-2011 – instead of the scope he had assumed, 27 which was 2005 to the present. Bayuk's counsel assumed, without inquiring, that Bayuk had 28 responsive documents. Otherwise, there would have been no cause for the discussion at all; the 1 response would have simply indicated that no responsive documents were available. Exhibit 1, at 2 ¶ 9; see also Exhibit 2, at ¶ 4.

3 Ultimately, Bayuk objected to the request because the demand sought confidential and 4 personal information, was overbroad, was not narrowly tailored, and the bulk of the information 5 that Leonard sought was not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
6 See Exhibit 1, at ¶ 10; see also Exhibit 2, at ¶ 4. Moreover, the information Leonard sought - “the 7 value ascribed to that property by Bayuk” (Motion to Compel, p. 9:16-18) is available from other 8 sources without resort to invading Bayuk’s personal and confidential information to obtain it.
9 Bayuk urged the Commissioner to agree that this trial is not a debtor’s exam, and to prevent the 10 disclosure of personal and confidential information. Exhibit 1, at ¶ 11; see also, Exhibit 2, at ¶ 14.

11 On September 1, 2016, the Commissioner issued his decision. He agreed with Bayuk that 12 the requests were objectionably overbroad. However, he ultimately agreed with Leonard’s post-13 request limitation as to the scope of the insurance documents, and recommended that documents 14 be produced by September 16. After Bayuk’s counsel returned from out of the country following 15 Labor Day weekend, he sent the recommendation to Bayuk and Salvatore Morabito, explaining the 16 recommendation and the timing requirement. (A redacted copy of the September 6, 2016, email is 17 attached hereto as EXHIBIT 3; see also Exhibit 2, at ¶ 5). About a week later, Bayuk and his 18 counsel spoke about the Recommendation; it was during that conversation that Bayuk realized, for 19 the first time, that the scope of the request was 2005-2011. Bayuk immediately and candidly 20 explained to counsel that he thought the request was from 2005 to the present and that while he 21 was sure he had the last few years of insurance documents, he was absolutely positive that he had 22 nothing as old as 2011. It was then that counsel realized that Bayuk had misapprehended the scope 23 of the original request. At no time was there any desire for gamesmanship, unnecessary expense, 24 or wasting of the Court’s time. This was a misunderstanding, and nothing more. Exhibit 1, at ¶ 25 12; see also Exhibit 2, at ¶ 6.

1 III. ARGUMENT

2 A. The Undisputed Proof Establishes That Neither Defendants Nor Their 3 Counsel Intentionally or Knowingly Violated Any Court Order.

4 Where a party commits a violation of a Decree which is not “in the immediate view and 5 presence of the court or judge,” then the appropriate remedy is to seek an Order compelling the 6 violator to appear and show cause why a contempt order should not issue. NRS 22.040. This 7 Court has authority to issue a civil contempt order for displayed disobedience of an order or decree 8 that spells out clear and specific requirements to be met. See Southwest Gas v. Flintkote, 99 Nev.
9 127 (1983). However, “An order on which a judgment of contempt is based must be clear and 10 unambiguous, and must spell out the details of compliance in clear, specific and unambiguous 11 terms so that the person will readily know exactly what duties or obligations are imposed on him.” 12 Div. of Child & Family Services v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 120 Nev. 445, 454-55. Moreover, 13 the violation must be a knowing and willful disregard for that party’s obligations under the Order.
14 The burden of proof with regard to civil contempt is clear and convincing evidence. “To establish 15 civil contempt, a movant must show by clear and convincing evidence that a specific order of court 16 has been violated.” Toussaint v. McCarthy, 597 F. Supp. 1427, 1430 (N.D. Cal. 1984). No such 17 violation occurred here, and no Order to Show Cause is warranted.

18 Bayuk has shown, as evidenced in his attached Declaration, that he did not 19 willfully engage in gamesmanship. He genuinely believed that the scope of the request 20 included documents which he possesses, and he rightfully instructed his counsel to object.
21 Bayuk has also declared, under oath, that he does not possess responsive documents. No 22 violation of any Court Order occurred. Exhibit 1, at ¶ 13; see also Exhibit 2 at ¶ 7.

23 B. The Objection to the Motion to Compel Was Not Wasteful, as the 24 Request for Production of “Any and All Insurance Policies” from 25 January 2005 to December 2011 was Overbroad and Clearly Sought 26 Irrelevant Information and Is Pertinent to the Trustee’s Current 27 Discovery Requests.

28 Plaintiff contends that Motion to Compel briefing and Recommendation was wasteful in light of the fact that Bayuk should have known he did not possess responsive documents. First,

1 Bayuk has declared he did not realize he had no responsive documents when he requested the 2 objection. Second, as set forth in Plaintiff's Motion, the determination of the appropriate scope of 3 Plaintiff's request for tax and insurance information was not a redundant determination. The fact 4 is that Plaintiff sought documents which were clearly overbroad and clearly not relevant. The 5 Chapter 7 Trustee continues to seek such documents from non-party Paul Morabito, and, as of the 6 date of this filing, from third-party insurance providers and brokers.<sup>3</sup> Determination of the 7 appropriate scope of those requests was accomplished by way of the Motion and briefing. Plaintiff 8 initially believed he was entitled to "all documents" regarding "all insurance policies" held by 9 Bayuk, irrespective of whether the policies had any bearing on the property at issue. The Motion 10 and resulting Recommendation solidified the appropriate scope to be used for all current and 11 future requests for insurance documents. Although it is not relevant to Bayuk, as he does not 12 possess responsive documents, the clear guidance given by the Commissioner in the 13 Recommendation will guide the parties in the pending and future requests by Plaintiff on the 14 subject.

15 C. Plaintiff Has Not Made An Adequate Showing To Obtain a Spoliation
16 Instruction.

17 Plaintiff requests the Court enter, as a sanction, a spoliation instruction to the extent that an 18 "inference" can be reached by the Court that the information contained in the requested documents 19 contained information unfavorable to the opponent.

20 Myriad issues preclude this Court from issuing such an instruction here. First, there is no 21 credible evidence suggesting that the Defendants, or their counsel, engaged in any intentional or 22 willful conduct to destroy or lose the documents. Plaintiff's insinuation that the passage of time 23 from the request to the Recommendation provided Defendants extra time to dispose of the 24 documents is a non-sense accusation. If Defendants were inclined to destroy or negligently lose 25 documents, they could have done so before the initial objection letter was sent to the Plaintiffs.

26 <sup>3</sup> On December 13, 2016, the Plaintiff petitioned the United States Bankruptcy Court for 27 permission to depose and subpoena insurance documents from AIG PROPERTY CASUALTY 28 COMPANY and BENCHMARK CAPITAL REALTY, LLC, who Plaintiff believes to have provided policies of insurance to Bayuk and Paul Morabito at relevant times.

1 Indeed, had Defendants desired to make the documents disappear, they would have done so 2 immediately, and then simply indicated that they did not possess the records. The fact that they 3 instructed counsel to oppose the request, and then oppose the Motion, indicates just the opposite – 4 that they believed they had responsive documents which they wished to protect from disclosure.

5 Second, there is only marginal relevance between the insurance documents and the claims 6 asserted. Even if Plaintiff could convince the Court what they suspect they will find on old 7 insurance policies was even remotely possible, Plaintiff could not adequately tie that information 8 to any probative evidence that could be used to support their allegations. Presumably, Plaintiff 9 expects to see insurance policies which identify policy limits for various real and personal property 10 that was owned by Bayuk at the time just prior to the property exchange in 2010. Plaintiff no 11 doubt will suggest that the policy limits for these insurance policies is somehow competent 12 evidence of the “fair market value” of the assets which Plaintiff complains were improperly 13 transferred. (See NRS112.170). The very basis of this presumption is flawed. There is no 14 showing, here in this Motion, or in anything else that has occurred in this case, that a policy limit 15 of insurance is probative and relevant evidence of the fair value of anything. Plaintiffs do not 16 even attempt to make that connection here; nor could they, because there is no such reasonable and 17 logical conclusion, making the request for the insurance policies of dubious sincerity.

18 Third, Plaintiff has not explained why he thinks it is so unreasonable that Defendants 19 would not have insurance records more than 11 years old. Regular human beings, who do not live 20 their life in anticipation of litigation, have absolutely no practical reason to maintain insurance 21 documents well past the policy period. This is particularly true when there are several properties 22 and several policies over that time period. It is not reasonable to conclude, without a more definite 23 showing, why this Court should simply infer that Bayuk has 11 years worth of insurance records, 24 and that he is simply refusing to provide them. The more reasonable and rational conclusion is 25 that normal people do not keep insurance records for more than 5 years, and that they are simply 26 not in Bayuk’s possession to produce them.

27 Lastly, the inference Plaintiff seeks is reserved for those instances when it is shown to the 28 satisfaction of the Court that evidence was negligently lost or destroyed. Bass-Davis v. Davis, 122

1 Nev. 442, 448–49, 134 P.3d 103, 106–07 (2006 “An inference has been defined as “[a] logical and 2 reasonable conclusion of a fact not presented by direct evidence but which, by process of logic and 3 reason, a trier of fact may conclude exists from the established facts.” Id. No such evidence exists 4 here.

5 III. CONCLUSION

6 For the reasons set forth above, Bayuk respectfully requests this Court enter its Order 7 denying the Motion for Order to Show Cause in its entirety without a hearing.

2                   DECLARATION OF EDWARD BAYUK IN SUPPORT OF OPPOSITION
3                   TO PLAINTIFF'S APPLICATION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY
4                   DEFENDANT SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT OF COURT ORDER

5                   I, EDWARD BAYUK, being first duly sworn under penalty of perjury, depose and say:

6                   1.       I am an individual above the age of 18 and make the following statements on my 7                   own personal knowledge, except where stated to be on my information and belief.

8                   2.       I am one of the Defendants and am represented by Frank C. Gilmore, Esq. and 9                   Robison, Belaustegui, Sharp & Low in this action.

10                  3.       This case is an off-shoot from a dispute between the original Plaintiffs to this case, 11                  JH, INC., JERRY HERBST, and BERRY-HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES ("Herbst"), and their long-12                  time adversary, PAUL MORABITO ("Morabito"). That original dispute centered around 13                  disagreement as to the post-closing obligations related to the purchase and sale of BERRY-14                  HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES, which owned and managed several gas stations and convenience 15                  stores in Northern Nevada. That original dispute – which is commonly referred to as the Herbst 16                  Litigation – was commenced in 2007, and tried to Department 6 in the summer of 2009. Salvatore 17                  Morabito and I were counter-defendants in the Herbst Litigation, but were exonerated and 18                  dismissed from the case at trial.

19                  4.       After the trial resulted in a substantial judgment against Paul Morabito, both 20                  Salvatore Morabito and I were found to have no liability to Herbst whatsoever. I undertook to 21                  separate my businesses and jointly-owned properties from Paul Morabito so as to avoid the post-22                  trial entanglements with the Herbsts that were sure to occur.

23                  5.       In furtherance of my effort to separate my business life from Paul Morabito, I hired 24                  Dennis Vacco, Esq., to facilitate the business division.

25                  6.       Using certified appraisers and business valuers, Mr. Vacco assisted me and 26                  Salvatore Morabito with valuing our respective interests in the jointly-held entities and interests, 27                  and dividing them equitably and transparently. Paul Morabito took title to some property and 28                  Salvatore Morabito and I took title to others.

                  7.       After the bankruptcy was initiated, Herbst sued Salvatore Morabito and I in this

1 action, contending that the property division with Paul Morabito was fraudulent, and was done for 2 less than equivalent value.

3 8. In February 2016, Salvatore Morabito and I met with our lawyer, Frank Gilmore, in 4 Los Angeles. Among other things, the three of us discussed four sets of requests for production 5 that had been served by Herbst and were pending. During the meeting, the issue of the request for 6 "all documents" related to "all insurance policies" was discussed. The scope of the request (2005-7 2011) was not discussed. However, as the other RFP's served on Salvatore Morabito and I that 8 were discussed in that meeting consistently requested for documents from various years "to the 9 present," I assumed that the request for all my insurance documents was from 2005 to the present.
10 I believed the request was overreaching and not fair. In our meeting, we discussed with our lawyer 11 the overly broad scope of the request. I decided at that meeting, after consult with my lawyer, that 12 the requests should be objected to and that a Court order compelling the request would be 13 necessary before any documents would be produced. I instructed my lawyer to make the objection.
14

15 9. At no time during the discussion with my lawyer was I ever questioned if I 16 possessed responsive documents to the scope of the actual request – 2005-2011 – instead of the 17 scope I had assumed, which was 2005 to the present. I can only conclude that my counsel 18 assumed, without inquiring, that I had responsive documents from 2005-2011. Otherwise, there 19 would have been no cause for the discussion at all; I would have simply told him that I did not 20 have any responsive documents from those dates.

21 10. Ultimately, I decided to object to the request because the demand sought 22 confidential and personal information.

23 11. Moreover, I agree that the information Leonard sought - "the value ascribed to that 24 property by Bayuk" (Motion to Compel, p.9:16-18) is available from other sources without resort 25 to invading my personal and confidential information to obtain it. I urged my lawyer to argue that 26 this trial is not a debtor's exam, and to work to prevent the disclosure of personal and confidential 27 information.

28 12. About a week after receiving the recommendation and order sent by my counsel,

1 my counsel and I spoke about the Recommendation; it was during that conversation that I realized, 2 for the first time, that the scope of the request was 2005-2011. I immediately and candidly 3 explained to counsel that I thought the request was from 2005 to the present and that while I was 4 sure I had the last few years of insurance documents, I was absolutely positive that I had nothing as 5 old as 2011. It was then that counsel realized that I had misapprehended the scope of the original 6 request. At no time was there any desire on my part for gamesmanship, unnecessary expense, or 7 wasting of the Court's time. This was a misunderstanding, and nothing more.

8 13. I did not, and never have, willfully engage in litigation gamesmanship. I genuinely 9 believed that the scope of the request included documents which I possessed, and I rightfully 10 instructed my counsel to object. I also declare, under oath, that I do not possess responsive 11 documents. No violation of any Court Order occurred.

2                   TO PLAINTIFF'S APPLICATION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY
3                   DEFENDANT SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT OF COURT ORDER

4                   I, Frank C. Gilmore, declare under penalty of perjury as follows:

5                   1.       I am an attorney licensed to practice law in all courts in the State of Nevada, and am
6                   counsel of record for the Defendants in this action. I am a shareholder in the law firm of Robison,
7                   Belaustegui, Sharp & Low, and have been licensed to practice law in this State since 2006.

8                   2.       In February 2016, Bayuk, Salvatore Morabito, and I met in Los Angeles. Among 9                   other things, the three of us discussed four sets of requests for production that had been served by 10                  Plaintiff and were pending. During the meeting, the issue of the request for "all documents" 11                  related to "all insurance policies" was discussed. The scope of the request (2005-2011) was not 12                  discussed. However, as the other RFP's served on Bayuk and Salvatore Morabito that were 13                  discussed in that meeting consistently requested for documents from various years "to the present," 14                  I can only conclude that Bayuk had read the request carefully and that he was aware that the 15                  request for insurance documents was from 2005 to the present. The meeting contained discussion 16                  about the overly broad scope of the request; it was decided at that meeting that the requests would 17                  be objected to on that basis and that a Court order compelling the request would be necessary 18                  before any documents would be produced.

19                  3.       At no time during the discussion was Bayuk did I ever question if he possessed 20                  documents from 2005-2011. I assumed, without inquiring, that Bayuk had responsive documents 21                  and was aware of the actual scope of the request. Otherwise, there would have been no cause for 22                  the discussion at all; the response would have simply indicated that no responsive documents were 23                  available.

24                  4.       Ultimately, Bayuk instructed me to object to the request because the demand sought 25                  confidential and personal information, was overbroad, was not narrowly tailored, and the bulk of 26                  the information that Leonard sought was not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 27                  admissible evidence.

28                  5.       On September 1, 2016, the Commissioner issued his decision. He agreed with 1 Bayuk that the requests were objectionably overbroad. However, he ultimately agreed with 2 Leonard's post-request limitation as to the scope of the insurance documents, and recommended 3 that documents be produced by September 16. After I returned from out of the country following 4 Labor Day weekend, I sent the recommendation to Bayuk and Salvatore Morabito, explaining the 5 recommendation and the timing requirement. A true and accurate copy of the redacted copy of 6 the September 6, 2016, email is attached to this Motion as Exhibit 3.

7 6. About a week later, Bayuk and I spoke about the Recommendation; it was during 8 that conversation that Bayuk realized, for the first time, that the scope of the request was 2005-9 2011. Bayuk immediately and candidly explained to me that he thought the request was from 10 2005 to the present and that while he was sure he had the last few years of insurance documents, 11 he told me he was absolutely positive that he had nothing as old as 2011. It was then that I 12 realized that Bayuk had misapprehended the scope of the original request.

13 7. At no time did I or my client discuss a desire for gamesmanship, unnecessary 14 expense, or wasting of the Court's time. This was a misunderstanding, and nothing more.

15 8. I would not, and have not, ever willfully engage in a wasteful practice or engage in 16 gamesmanship like I am being accused of in the instant Motion. I objected to the request because I 17 genuinely believed that it was objectionable under the Rules, and I believed that Bayuk had 18 responsive documents. Only when the Recommendation was received was I made aware of the 19 misconception, and I explained this precise scenario to Plaintiff's counsel.

20 Dated this 16th day of December, 2016.

Attachments: 117 Masters Recommendation LEONARD REC 9-1-16.pdf

Gents,

The Discovery Judge entered a recommendation for order on the Motion to Compel the production of the insurance policies related to the houses. The Court agreed that their initial request was overbroad, but has agreed that the limitation on the request -- that Edward provide only those insurance policies that deal with the three houses (El Camino, Los Olivos, and Mary Fleming), and that it be done by the end of next week, Sept 16.

Edward, I will call you in a minute to discuss the ruling and how we need to respond.

31 RESPONSE: (1) TO OPPOSITION TO APPLICATION FOR ORDER TO SHOW 32 CAUSE WHY DEFENDANT SHOULD NOT BE HELD IN CONTEMPT OF THE 33 COURT ORDER AND (2) IN SUPPORT OF ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

34 William Leonard, Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee"), by and through his counsel, the law 35 firm of Garman Turner Gordon LLP, hereby submits this response (the "Response") to the 36 Opposition to Plaintiff's Application for Order to Show Cause Why Defendant Should Not be

1 Held in Contempt of Court Order (the “OSC Opposition”), filed by Edward Bayuk, individually
2 and as Trustee of the Edward William Bayuk Living Trust (collectively, “Bayuk”) on December 3 19, 2016, and in support of the Order to Show Cause Why Defendant Should Not be Held in 4 Contempt of Court Order (the “OSC”) issued by this Court on December 19, 2016, filed on 5 December 23, 2016, and set for hearing on January 19, 2017 (the “Hearing”).

6 This Response is made and based on Plaintiff’s Application for Order to Show Cause 7 Why Defendant Edward Bayuk Should Not Be Held in Contempt of Court Order (the 8 “Application”),<sup>1</sup> the memorandum of points and authorities set forth below, the pleadings, 9 papers, and other records on file with the clerk of the above-captioned Court, judicial notice of 10 which is hereby respectfully requested, and any oral argument this Court entertains at the 11 Hearing.

12 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

13 I.

14 LEGAL ARGUMENT<sup>2</sup>

15 Bayuk’s argument in opposition to the OSC can be summed up quite easily: Bayuk 16 apparently never bothered to closely review the Requests (1) when he refused to respond to the 17 Requests, (2) when he prepared his objections to the Requests, (3) after an alleged “good faith” 18 meet and confer to narrow the Requests, and (4) after full briefing and submission for nearly five 19 months of the Motion to Compel. Bayuk now argues that, after all that, he simply never had the 20 responsive documents (the “Insurance Documents”) that he fought so hard against turning over.
21 Bayuk further contends, “No harm, no foul.” Bayuk’s position is at worst, unbelievable, or at 22 best, highlights the complete disregard that Bayuk has for this case and this Court’s processes 23 and authority. The OSC and requested sanctions are abundantly reasonable in light of Bayuk’s

24 <sup>1</sup> Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have those meanings ascribed to them in 25 the Application.

26 <sup>2</sup> Bayuk spends the majority of the Opposition on the “Statement of Relevant Facts” which does 27 little more than recite his disputed position regarding the merits of this case and the case against 28 Paul Morabito giving rise to this case. As it is not relevant to the merits of the Application, Plaintiff has not addressed each allegation and reserves his rights with respect thereto. However, for the avoidance of doubt, Plaintiff disagrees with Bayuk’s recitation of the “relevant facts.”

actions in this matter.

A. Bayuk's Argument That He Simply Did Not Know What Was Requested Lacks Credibility.

Bayuk suggests in his OSC Opposition that he viewed the Requests when they were initially propounded, believed they included requests from 2005 through the present and therefore, instructed his attorney to object and not produce anything. See OSC Opposition at p. 4, ll. 21-24, p. 6, ll. 18-22. Bayuk's contention ignores Bayuk's duties in responding to the Requests and the multiple times the Requests were addressed even after they were initially propounded.

1. Nevada Rules require that Bayuk identify those documents to which he objects and the reasons therefore before refusing to respond to the Requests and certainly before opposing the Motion to Compel.

As Plaintiff initially pointed out in his Reply in support of the Motion to Compel, when responding to requests for production, Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure ("Rule") 34(b)(2)(C) requires that Bayuk identify responsive documents that are not produced pursuant to an objection. Specifically, Rule 34(b)(2)(C) provides:

(C) Objections. An objection must state whether any responsive materials are being withheld on the basis of that objection. An objection to part of a request must specify the part and permit inspection of the rest.

Nev. R. Civ. P. 34(b)(2)(C)(emphasis added). Interpreting the parallel Federal Rule, Wright & Miller states:

The producing party does not need to provide a detailed description or log of all documents withheld, but does need to alert other parties to the fact that documents have been withheld and thereby facilitate an informed discussion of the objection.

8B Fed. Prac. & Proc. Civ. § 2213 (3d ed.) (citing Committee Note to 2015 Amendment to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34).

Thus, in order to maintain his initial objection, Bayuk was required to first conduct an analysis of what documents he had that were responsive to the Requests. Presumably, Bayuk conducted such a search as required by the Nevada Rules. Even if Bayuk's contentions are true –

1 that he misunderstood the Requests as being from 2005-present instead of 2005-2011 – he must 2 have determined that responsive documents from 2005 to the present existed. Otherwise, 3 Bayuk’s response would have been something to the effect that Bayuk only had responsive 4 documents from 2014 to the present and was objecting to the production of those documents. As 5 Bayuk is no doubt aware of his obligations under the Nevada Rules, it is not credible that he did 6 not conduct a search and locate responsive documents prior to objecting to the Requests.

7 2. Bayuk’s position that he failed to understand the Requests is further illogical 8 given the multiple occasions on which the Requests were specifically 9 addressed.

10 Bayuk contends that because he only quickly reviewed the Requests once in Los Angeles, 11 he was justified in maintaining his forceful opposition to production of the Insurance Documents.
12 Bayuk’s argument has no merit when the facts of the entire proceeding are considered.

13 First, Bayuk contends that his initial confusion was justified, “as the other RFP’s served 14 on Salvatore Morabito and I that were discussed in the meeting consistently requested for [sic] 15 documents from various years ‘to present,’ I assumed the request for all my insurance documents 16 was from 2005 to the present.” See Bayuk Decl., ¶ 8, Exhibit “1” to OSC Application. Bayuk’s 17 argument crumbles entirely when one views the RFP’s mentioned, all of which cover the same 18 time-period, 2005-2011 or 2005-2012. See Application, Exs. 10-13 of Exhibit “4.” It is unclear 19 what requests Bayuk refers to that requested documents “to present.”

20 Furthermore, Bayuk ignores the multiple times the Requests were addressed. This again, 21 at best, shows a complete disregard for the discovery process, and at worst, an intentional 22 decision to suppress and withhold documents ordered to be produced. Specifically:

- 23 a. On January 29, 2016, the Requests were served requesting all Insurance 24 Documents from January 1, 2005 through December 31, 2011. See Application, 25 Exs. 10, 12 to Exhibit “4.”
- 26 b. On March 9, 2016, Bayuk responded to the Requests, objecting to production of 27 the Insurance Documents. See id., Exs. 11, 13 to Exhibit “4.”
- 28 c. On or about March 25, 2016, counsel for Plaintiff and counsel for Bayuk held a meet and confer and, around that time, exchanged multiple correspondence where the requests were further discussed, with specific emphasis on the relevant time periods for the Insurance Documents. See id., Ex. 14 to Exhibit “4.”

- 1           d.     On April 8, 2016, Plaintiff filed the Motion to Compel identifying the need for the 2           Insurance Documents as they specifically related to the time-period of the 3           transfers. See id., Exhibit “4.”
- 4           e.     On April 25, 2016, Bayuk filed the Opposition, noting that the Requests covered 5           the time-period of 2005-2011. See id., Exhibit “5.”
- 6           f.     On May 9, 2016, Plaintiff filed the Reply in support of the Motion to Compel, 7           again identifying the relevant time-period of the Requests. See id., Exhibit “6.”

8           Bayuk wants this Court to believe that, at no time when he was refusing to respond to the 9           Requests, actively opposing the Requests, and causing all parties to incur significant costs 10          relating to the Motion to Compel, did Bayuk ever actually review the Requests that were being 11          made. This position is simply illogical.

12                   3.     If Bayuk’s contentions are true, his conduct raises significant cause for 13                   concern as to all other discovery responses.

14          Bayuk’s allegations, if true, raise concern beyond the instant OSC. If Bayuk is 15          indicating, in the best-case scenario, that he simply failed to carefully read the Requests (1) after 16          the Requests were propounded; (2) after drafting objections to the Requests; (3) after an alleged 17          “good-faith” meet and confer, and (4) after a Motion to Compel, Plaintiff and the Court must 18          wonder how he has treated the other requests made in this case. Of concern, Plaintiff has been 19          entrenched in a more than year-long battle following the production of only approximately 400 20          pages of documents after a subpoena to Dennis Vacco, Morabito’s attorney. In December of this 21          year, Vacco finally turned over tens of thousands of pages of previously wrongfully withheld 22          documents containing, among other things, thousands of e-mails on which Bayuk was copied.
23          Bayuk has never turned over a single such communication despite the fact that they certainly 24          would have been responsive to previous requests.<sup>3</sup> Plaintiff’s concern is heightened by the 25          nonchalant statement by Bayuk’s counsel that Bayuk cannot be found to have destroyed the 26          Insurance Documents after the Confirming Order because, “[i]f Defendants were inclined to 27          destroy or negligently lose documents, they could have done so before the initial objection letter 28          was sent to the Plaintiffs. Indeed, had Defendants desired to make the documents disappear, they

---

<sup>3</sup> Plaintiff is still in the process of reviewing the additional production and determining how best to address Bayuk’s apparent failure to produce those additional documents.

1 would have done so immediately, and then simply indicated that they did not possess the 2 records.” See OSC Opposition, at p. 7, l. 24 – p.8, l. 4. Bayuk must be forced to explain to this 3 Court his cavalier attitude about responding the Requests so Plaintiff and this Court can further 4 understand how Bayuk has treated all discovery in this case.

5 B. Bayuk’s Tortured Attempt to Justify the Motion to Compel as Some Sort of 6 Appropriate Advisory Opinion Is Unconvincing.

7 Attempting to divert attention from the fact that Bayuk has willfully failed to either (1) 8 review the Requests to adequately respond thereto or (2) produce Insurance Documents in his 9 possession, Bayuk argues that no sanctions are appropriate because the Motion to Compel was 10 justified as a useful exercise in setting ground rules for future disputes. See OSC Opposition at 11 p. 6, l. 26 – p. 7, l.14. This is nonsense. Motions to Compel are not meant to be motions seeking 12 advisory opinions but rather, are reserved for those cases where, among other things, “. . . a party 13 . . .in response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, fails to respond that 14 inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested . . .” Nev. R.
15 Civ. P. 37(a)(2). There is simply no support, nor has Bayuk provided any, that would suggest 16 that a party may appropriately force a motion to compel, and oppose the same, for the sole 17 purpose of determining whether discovery requests are, in theory, proper.

18 Furthermore, Bayuk’s argument that the Motion to Compel was nonetheless a prudent 19 use of resources in light of Bayuk’s new found position that Insurance Document do not exist is 20 unavailing. Specifically, Bayuk focuses on the alleged overbreadth of the Requests for “any and 21 all insurance policies” to contend that the Motion to Compel was necessary to limit the scope.
22 The Requests, however, and as addressed by the Discovery Commissioner in his 23 Recommendation for Order, had properly been limited in scope prior to Plaintiff filing the 24 Motion to Compel. Therefore, Bayuk was not seeking a ruling as to whether “any and all 25 insurance policies” was appropriate. The issue in the Motion to Compel was whether Bayuk was 26 required to produce Insurance Documents from 2005-2011 relating to the real and personal 27 property transferred following the announcement of a significant judgment against Morabito.
28 Through the Recommendation for Order and Confirming Order both by the Discovery

Commission and this Court found the answer to that question to be an unequivocal “yes.”

C. Plaintiff Is Entitled to an Adverse Inference Because of Bayuk’s Conduct.

As a result of Bayuk’s failure to produce Insurance Documents after months of contested proceedings relating to the Requests and entry of the Confirming Order requiring production of the same, Plaintiff has requested an adverse inference as to what the Insurance Documents would show if produced. This is because, considering Bayuk’s conduct, there is no other explanation as to why the Insurance Documents have not been produced other than they were intentionally or willfully suppressed, or have otherwise been negligently lost or destroyed. Bayuk makes several arguments in opposition, each of which must fail.

Rule 37(b)(2) allows for sanctions:

if a party...fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery . .
. the court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others, the following . .
(A) An order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be taken as established for the purpose of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order.

Nev. R. Civ. P. 37(b)(2)(A). Here, this is exactly what Bayuk has done; he has failed to obey the Confirming Order requiring the production of Insurance Documents and as such, the requested adverse inference is proper and appropriate.

Bayuk contends that “there is only marginal relevance between the insurance documents and the claims asserted.” See OSC Opposition at p. 8, ll. 5-6. This ignores the findings by the Discovery Commissioner in ordering the Insurance Documents be produced. To be sure, the Discovery Commissioner found:

The Court agrees with Plaintiff that the value ascribed to that property by Defendant Bayuk, and the amount of coverage he sought and obtained, are relevant to his beliefs about the value of that property. When compared with the value of consideration actually exchanged for that property, it may constitute evidence about whether the transfers of that property to Defendant Bayuk were made in good faith, or whether they were fraudulent. Therefore, Plaintiff is entitled to the insurance policies he seeks.

See Recommendation for Order at p. 6, ll. 6-11. As noted by the Discovery Commissioner, this

1 case addresses the transfer of property from Morabito to, among others, Bayuk following the 2 announcement of a judgment in excess of $88 million dollars. Despite Morabito and Bayuk 3 repeatedly listing the value of personal property on personal financial statements at well over a 4 million dollars (See Application, Ex. 5 to Exhibit “4.”), Morabito transferred an apparent 5 majority of his personal property to Bayuk for approximately $87,000. See id., Exs. 2-4 to 6 Exhibit “4.” There are, and remain, significant questions as to the value of the property 7 transferred, as well as the consideration provided therefor, which goes to the very heart of 8 Plaintiff’s Complaint

9 Bayuk also argues that a spoliation “instruction”<sup>4</sup> is not appropriate because it is not 10 unreasonable for a party not to have insurance records that are eleven years old. See OSC 11 Opposition at p. 8, ll. 18-26. Bayuk ignores that it was he who initially represented when the 12 Requests were first propounded that he did have the Insurance Documents. Then, Bayuk 13 embarked on a lengthy battle to protect against production thereof. Furthermore, while Bayuk 14 argues “Regular human beings, who do not live their life in anticipate of litigation, have 15 absolutely no practical reason to maintain insurance documents well past the policy period,” 16 Bayuk was not a person who was not living in anticipation of litigation. See OSC Opposition at 17 pg. 8, ll. 19-21. In fact, shortly after the transfer of assets, Bayuk was aware of the allegations 18 made by the Herbst parties that that the transfers were fraudulent. The transfers were referenced 19 in letters and other documents in 2011 and 2012. Indeed, the Complaint was filed in 2013, just 20 three years after the transfers and at a time when Bayuk was likely unquestionably still in 21 possession of the Insurance Documents (Bayuk has indicated he does have insurance documents 22 from at least 2014, indicating a habit of keeping insurance documents for a period of at least two 23 years following the end of the policy period).

24 Finally, Bayuk argues that an inference is not appropriate here. In support, Bayuk relies 25 on Bass-Davis v. Davis, 122 Nev. 442, 134 P.3d 104 (2006), which he quotes: “[a]n inference

---

26
27 <sup>4</sup> Bayuk repeatedly references and discusses a spoliation “instruction.” This matter is set for a 28 bench trial in October 2017 and, as there will not be a jury, Plaintiff is not seeking an “instruction.”

1 has been defined as “[a] logical and reasonable conclusion of a fact not presented by direct 2 evidence but which, by process of logic and reason, a trier of fact may conclude exists from the 3 established facts.” See OSC Opposition at p. 9, ll. 1-3. As Bass-Davis further makes clear, and 4 as Bayuk points out, an inference is appropriate where evidence has been negligently lost or 5 destroyed. See Bass-Davis v. Davis, 122 Nev. at 448-49, 134 P.3d at 106-07. Bass-Davis 6 further instructs that, “when evidence is willfully suppressed, NRS 47.250(3) creates a rebuttable 7 presumption that the evidence would be adverse if produced.” See id. at 448. 134 P.3d at 106.

8 Here, relying only on self-surviving declarations, Bayuk contends that despite 9 vehemently opposing the Requests in the first instance, again after the alleged “good-faith” meet 10 and confer, and finally throughout the Motion to Compel, he has determined that, only after the 11 Confirming Order was entered, the Insurance Documents never existed. Bayuk’s contentions, 12 for the reasons set forth in Section A herein, are simply not credible and can lead only to the 13 conclusion that the Insurance Documents are being willfully suppressed and a rebuttable 14 presumption is warranted. Regardless, the Court must find that, at a minimum, the Insurance 15 Documents were negligently lost or destroyed and a negative inference is appropriate.

16 D. The Additional Requested Sanctions Are Appropriate.

17 If a party fails to permit inspection pursuant to a Rule 34 request, after being served with 18 a proper notice, the court in which the action is pending on motion may make such orders 19 regarding the failure as are just. See Nev. R. Civ. P. 37(d). In the Application, Plaintiff requested 20 that the Court require (1) that Bayuk pay all fees and costs incurred in connection with the 21 dispute over the Requests, including those arising out of the Motion to Compel and this 22 Application, (2) that Bayuk’s counsel provide a sworn statement under the penalty of perjury as 23 offered in the e-mail Exchange, (3) that Bayuk provide a sworn statement under the penalty of 24 perjury that no responsive documents exist, and (4) that Bayuk provide all documents that would 25 otherwise be responsive under the Confirming Order for the date range of 2011 through 2015 so 26 that Plaintiff may attempt to determine the scope of insurance coverage during the relevant time-27 period. See Application at p. 7, ll. 18-26. Through the OSC Opposition, Bayuk has provided 28 items two and three, the requested declarations. However, Bayuk has refused the remaining 1 requests, both of which are entirely appropriate under these circumstances.

2 As to attorney's fees, if a party fails to permit inspection pursuant to a Rule 34 request, 3 after being served with a proper notice, the court in which the action is pending on motion may 4 make such orders regarding the failure as are just. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the 5 court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising that party or both to pay the 6 reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that 7 the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses
8 unjust. See Nev. R. Civ. P. 37(d)(emphasis added). Bayuk has failed to present any evidence 9 that would suggest his failure to respond is substantially justified or any other circumstances that 10 might make an award unjust.

11 Furthermore, Bayuk has indicated that he has documents from 2014 to the present. See 12 E-Mail Exchange, Ex. 7 to Application. Considering Bayuk's failure to produce the Insurance 13 Documents from 2005-2011, Bayuk should be required to produce the insurance documents that 14 he does have so that Plaintiff may attempt to determine what information could have been 15 included in the missing Insurance Documents. Bayuk has failed to state any reason as to why this 16 request should not be granted in his OSC Opposition and, therefore, the Court should order 17 Bayuk to produce the 2014-present insurance documents.

18 II.
19 CONCLUSION

20 Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court issue the appropriate sanctions, as requested 21 in the Application following its hearing on the OSC. Plaintiff requests such other relief as this 22 Court deems just a proper.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Plaintiff, William Leonard, Jr., Trustee Of Estate Of Paul A. Morabito, not present and represented by Teresa Pilatowicz, Esq.
Defendant, Edward Bayuk, present and represented by Frank Gilmore, Esq.

6/29/17 at
1:30 p.m. for PTC

Court convened at 3:49 p.m.

10/09/17 at 9:30 a.m. for Non-Jury Trial

Court referenced her latest order and the Discovery Commissioner's order.

Counsel Gilmore denied all allegations, explained what happened to Plaintiff's Counsel and also filed a declaration with the Court. He explained his side of the situation.

Court questioned if Defendant Bayuk had been deposed since the order; Counsel Gilmore indicated Counsel Murtha had done so back in October. He believed it was a witch hunt as it related to Mr. Morabito.

Court addressed Commissioner's Ayres' ruling.

Counsel Pilatowicz also addressed said ruling. She indicated it was a limited request following an appropriate ruling. She requested attorney fees for both the Motion to Compel and the Order to Show Cause hearings.

Court was not inclined to grant any notion of spoliation of evidence. She referenced the Plaintiff's pleadings.

Counsel Gilmore referenced depositions regarding the insurance issue and addressed the contempt fine.

Court understood the miscommunication and addressed the situation.

COURT ORDERED: Defendant Bayuk will not be held in contempt, but will be sanctioned attorney's cost and fees as it relates to the Order to Show Cause hearing only. All parties to report to Commissioner Ayres' office to answer motions, and for Defendant Bayuk to be deposed immediately at the conclusion of the instant hearing. Further the Motion to Compel was denied. Matter concluded at 4:31 p.m.

\*Subsequent to the hearing Court directed court reporter, Lesly Clarkson to report to Commissioner Ayres' office in order for her to report the hearing taking place in the matter. The Court did not want to rely on JAVS.***

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendants seek an order from this Court quashing the subpoena issued to non-party law firm Hodgson Russ LLP, on the basis that the subpoena was issued more than eight months after the close of discovery, and the Trustee cannot show good cause for extension of the close of discovery to obtain the discovery that could have obtained during discovery. Discovery was open for more than two years, and the Trustee knew, or should have known, of the role HR attorneys played in the facts giving rise to this case. Alternatively, Defendants request that this Court enter a protective order precluding the Trustee from seeking from Hodgson Russ more than was expressly agreed to in the meet and confer with counsel that occurred in January 2017, provided the Trustee reimburse Defendants the costs and fees associated with another deposition.<sup>1</sup>

Notwithstanding counsel's meet and confer on the HR subpoena which resulted in an agreement to limit the scope of the HR deposition, the Trustee sandbagged the Defendants by disavowing the meet and confer agreement and attempting to expand the scope of the deposition.

<sup>1</sup> Defendants properly seek this alternative relief from this Court in this motion. See WDCR 10(9) (permitting motions to be filed in the same document if the motions are "pleaded in the alternative").

1 The Trustee attempted to expand the limitation agreement to include topic areas which the Trustee 2 could have explored during discovery but which he inexcusably failed to do so. Because the 3 Trustee now departs from the agreement reached at the meet and confer, and seeks discovery 4 which could have been obtained during discovery, an order quashing the HR subpoena is 5 appropriate.

6 II. RELEVANT FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND.

7 This dispute arises from the Trustee's contention that certain conveyances made by non-8 party Paul Morabito to Defendants were fraudulent transfers intended to hide assets from the 9 creditors of Mr. Morabito's bankruptcy estate. The case was originally filed by the law firm of 10 Gordon Silver, on behalf of JH, INC., JERRY HERBST, and BERRY HINCKLEY INDUSTRIES.
11 (See Complaint, filed December 17, 2013). Then, after a Chapter 7 trustee was appointed in the 12 Morabito bankruptcy case, the Trustee was substituted in as the Plaintiff, and the Gordon Silver 13 law firm was retained to represent the Trustee. (See Stipulation and Order, filed May 15, 2015).

14 After the substitution of the Plaintiff, the Gordon Silver firm, of which current Trustee's 15 counsel was a member, was dissolved and the file was transitioned to the newly created firm of 16 Garman Turner and Gordon, which was formed with former members of Gordon Silver, including 17 its named partner, Jerry Gordon. Along with Mr. Gordon, Mark Weisenmiller, and Teresa 18 Pilatowicz (who were each members of Gordon Silver before it dissolved) were substituted in as 19 Trustee's counsel by way of a Substitution filed on May 26, 2015. The trial was then continued 20 and the original discovery deadlines were reset by Stipulation and Order on June 12, 2015. Ms.
21 Pilatowicz signed the Stipulation on behalf of the Trustee, and has been lead trial counsel ever 22 since. At the time the Stipulation was entered, discovery had been open since the Joint Case 23 Conference Report was filed on November 6, 2014. In other words, prior to the first extension of 24 the close of discovery, discovery had already been open and ongoing for nearly seven months. In 25 the Stipulation, the parties agreed to a close of discovery of March 31, 2016.

26 Prior to March 8, 2016, counsel discussed a limited extension of the close of discovery in 27 order to facilitate the calendars of a few witnesses that the Trustee wished to depose, and to permit 28 some discovery disputes that had arisen in the bankruptcy court to be resolved. Undersigned

1 counsel explained in an email, "I believe we need to reach a stipulation that if any statements are 2 made, or documents produced, which require additional discovery that could not have been 3 reasonably known or knowable prior to the disclosure, a limited purpose extension of 4 discovery should be given." See EXHIBIT 1 (emphasis added). This email resulted in a follow-5 up discussion with counsel about a limited extension to the close of discovery. Based on those 6 conversations, Trustee's counsel circulated a draft stipulation.

7 On March 23, 2016, undersigned counsel provided redline changes to the Trustee's 8 counsel's proposed stipulation, with the explanation that "I intended my changes to make it 9 explicit that the discovery cut-off is not extended for general purposes but only for the Vacco 10 documents and deposition. Please advise if you are willing to accept the changes." See EXHIBIT 11 2. The proposed changes are reflected in the attachment to the Exhibit 2 email, and reflect that the 12 stipulation to extend the close of discovery was intended to address only the Vacco<sup>2</sup> deposition and 13 to follow-up on those items which could not have been discovered during the course of discovery.
14 The Trustee's counsel accepted the proposed changes and on March 24, 2016, the Stipulation was 15 filed.

16 For reasons that are not germane to this Motion, throughout the remainder of 2016, Dennis 17 Vacco and his law firm Lippes made several rolling productions of documents to the Trustee. The 18 final production occurred in December 2016 or January 2017. Vacco was not deposed in 2016.
19 The parties entered several stipulations to permit the limited extension of the close of discovery to 20 permit the Vacco deposition to occur when the documents were produced and the calendars 21 permitted.

22 On January 3, 2017, the Trustee filed a Notice of Deposition and Notice of Issuance of 23 Subpoena on Hodgson Russ, LLP ("HR"). HR had been Mr. Paul Morabito's long-time New 24 York-based counsel. HR was not covered by the agreement to a limited extension of the close of 25 discovery. The same day, undersigned counsel sent an email to Trustee's counsel which asked,

26 _____
27 <sup>2</sup> Dennis Vacco and his New York law firm of Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman ("Lippes") 28 represented Defendants at times relevant to this action. Vacco was being pursued for documents and a deposition by the Trustee's counsel in the bankruptcy action and in this action throughout 2016.

1 “Please explain why this deposition is being noticed in violation of the close of discovery? I 2 request a meet and confer on the subject.” See EXHIBIT 3. Trustee’s counsel responded that 3 “As you may recall, the discovery period remained open for information discovered from the 4 Vacco production. In the e-mails just disclosed in January, it was made clear that, although not 5 previously disclosed as a party with discoverable information, Hodgson Russ was very much 6 involved in coordinating the transfers.” Id.

7         Thereafter, counsel convened a meet and confer. During the meet and confer, counsel 8 reiterated their respective positions as set forth in Exhibit 3. As a compromise of the dispute, and 9 in an effort to avoid motion practice on the subject, the Trustee’s counsel promised to provide 10 Defendants’ counsel with the emails that she intended to use in the anticipated deposition of the 11 HR attorneys. See Declaration of Frank C. Gilmore, Esq., ¶ 6, attached hereto as EXHIBIT 4
12 (hereinafter “Gilmore Decl.”). Defendants’ counsel agreed to await receipt of the emails before 13 deciding if a formal motion to quash the subpoena was appropriate.

14         As discussed and promised at the meet and confer, on January 24, 2017, Trustee’s counsel 15 provided Defendants’ counsel with an email which said:

16                 Attached please find the e-mails that I intend to discuss at the 17 deposition of Hodgson Russ. I intend to provide Hodgson Russ with 18 the notice of waiver of privilege tomorrow. If you have any questions, please let me know.

19 See EXHIBIT 5. Attached to the email were 16 documents that had been produced by Vacco in 20 December 2016. Defendants and counsel reviewed the emails and determined that based on the 21 representation of Trustee’s counsel that the intended scope of the HR deposition was to be limited 22 to the 16 emails provided, Defendants’ counsel agreed to not object to the HR deposition notice 23 and subpoena. Defendants agreed they would not oppose a HR deposition during the same trip to 24 New York in which Vacco would be deposed. Nothing further was ever discussed between 25 counsel about the HR deposition or subpoena. Gilmore Decl., ¶ 7. As far as Defendants’ counsel 26 was concerned, the representation from Trustee’s counsel about the emails that she “intended to 27 discuss as the deposition of Hodgson Russ” was a confirmation that the subpoena and deposition 28 notice had been voluntarily limited and that any deposition would be proceeding on that basis. Id.

1 at ¶ 8.

2 On July 10-11, 2017, the parties and their counsel participated in the deposition of Vacco 3 and his partner in Buffalo, New York. The parties had agreed for the HR deposition to occur the 4 following day, on July 12, 2017. Defendants' counsel arrived prior to the deposition and observed 5 Trustee's counsel reviewing a substantial stack of documents which were obviously potential 6 deposition exhibits. Gilmore Decl., ¶ 9. Defendants' counsel immediately inquired of Trustee's 7 counsel as to the stack of proposed exhibits and asked why the stack was significantly larger than 8 the 16 emails which Defendants' counsel had brought with him to the deposition pursuant to the 9 limitation counsel had agreed to. Id. at ¶ 10. Trustee's counsel then explained that she disagreed 10 that she had limited the scope of the HR deposition, and that she intended to use documents which 11 had not been provided to Defendants' counsel during the meet and confer. Id. Trustee's counsel 12 also explained that she intended to inquire as to all of the topic areas identified in the original 13 deposition notice and subpoena. Id. at ¶ 11.

14 However, rather than suspend the deposition, Defendants' counsel elected to wait until 15 Trustee's counsel had identified the scope of her deposition before taking additional action.
16 Trustee's counsel then reviewed with the first HR witness the scope of the original HR subpoena 17 and deposition notice. Once it became clear that the Trustee was intending to inquire as to all the 18 topic areas in the subpoena, and to ignore the agreement reached in the meet and confer, 19 Defendants' counsel interjected the Defendants' objections to the scope of the deposition, 20 including an objection to being "sandbagged" by Trustee's counsel having agreed to limit the 21 scope of the deposition and then ignoring the agreement. After Trustee's counsel responded to 22 Defendants' objection, a recess was taken whereon Defendants' counsel was instructed by his 23 client to suspend the deposition and to seek a protective order. The deposition was suspended and 24 this Motion shortly followed.

25 III. RELIEF REQUESTED

26 Defendants seek an Order quashing the HR deposition notice and subpoena. The Trustee 27 has known about HR and their role in the alleged transfers since before this lawsuit was filed. The 28 Trustee could have easily subpoenaed and deposed HR during the course of discovery, but failed

1 to do so. The Trustee cannot show good cause to obtain discovery from HR after the close of 2 discovery. An Order quashing the subpoena and notice of deposition should be entered.

3 Alternatively, a protective order should be entered limiting the scope of the HR 4 deposition(s) to only those emails which were agreed to in January when counsel met and 5 conferred. Although this option was acceptable in January in order to avoid motion practice, now 6 that Trustee's counsel has broken her agreement with Defendants' counsel, and the parties 7 incurred the cost of an extra day in Buffalo, this alternative should not be ordered unless 8 appropriate reimbursements are made to Defendants to cover the costs of returning to Buffalo for 9 the limited purpose of deposing HR on the 16 emails.

10 Lastly, Defendants seek attorney's fees and costs incurred in the suspended HR deposition 11 as a result of Trustee's counsel's sand-bagging Defendants with proposed HR deposition exhibits 12 and questions which exceeded the limited scope counsel had agreed to. This Motion would not 13 have been necessary but for the conduct of Trustee's counsel in breaching her agreement with 14 Defendants' counsel.

15 IV. LAW

16 NRCP 26(c) provides that a party, or a person from whom discovery is sought, may file a 17 motion, asking that the Court make any Order the Court determines is just, in order to save a party 18 or other witness from "annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden, or expense." 19 Upon that motion, the court may enter an order that, among other things, the discovery not be had, 20 or that discovery be limited in scope. Rule 26(b) provides the scope and limits of discovery.
21 Parties may obtain discovery "subject to the limitations imposed by Rule 26(b)(2)(i), (ii), and 22 (iii)," which provide, among other things, that "the discovery methods otherwise permitted under 23 these rules and by any local rule shall be limited by the court if it determines that: (ii) the party 24 seeking discovery has had ample opportunity by discovery in the action to obtain the information 25 sought." NRCP 26(b)(2)(ii).

26 The close of discovery should not be ignored. See Jackson v. United Artists Theatre 27 Circuit, Inc., 278 F.R.D. 586, 594 (D. Nev. 2011)(applying Federal Counterpart, FRCP 26). The 28 parties are obligated to conduct the discovery they desire prior to the expiration of the time period

1 afforded them under the Rules. See Freemon v. Fischer, 281 P.3d 1173 (Nev. 2009).

2 District courts in Nevada may sanction abusive litigation practices through their inherent 3 powers. Young v. Johnny Ribeiro Bldg., Inc., 106 Nev. 88, 92, 787 P.2d 777, 779 (1990). A court's 4 inherent power to sanction is designed "to protect the dignity and decency of its proceedings and to 5 enforce its decrees, and thus it may issue contempt orders and sanction or dismiss an action for 6 litigation abuses." Halverson v. Hardcastle, 123 Nev. 245, 261, 163 P.3d 428, 440 (2007).

7 V. ARGUMENT

8 A. The Trustee Had Ample Time and Opportunity To Conduct the HR Discovery 9 But Inexcusably Failed to Do So Prior to the Close of Discovery.

10 The Trustee cannot deny that the HR subpoena was issued well after the close of discovery.
11 Discovery closed on March 31, 2016, and the HR subpoena was filed on January 3, 2016. More 12 than three years lapsed between the filing of the Complaint and the HR subpoena. The Trustee 13 cannot show good cause for why the HR subpoena could not have been served, and the deposition 14 taken, prior to the close of discovery.

15 The Trustee will not dispute that HR was transactional counsel for Paul Morabito during 16 the Berry Hinckley Industries sale to the Jerry Herbst entities back in 2007, and related post-17 closing issues. See, e.g., Jones Vargas letter to HR and Paul Morabito, dated August 16, 2010, 18 attached as EXHIBIT 6. The law firm of Jones Vargas (Brian Irvine and John Desmond) were 19 Herbst counsel during the litigation that led to the 2010 Herbst multi-million dollar judgment 20 against Paul Morabito, and in the post-judgment related issues. Id. Jones Vargas dealt directly 21 with the HR lawyers during that lengthy litigation.

22 By March 2013, John Desmond and Brian Irvine had left Jones Vargas and had joined the 23 Gordon Silver law firm. They noticed their appearances on behalf of the Herbst. See, e.g. Notices 24 of Appearance, CV07-02764, filed March 22, 2012. From that time until Gordon Silver was 25 dissolved in approximately June 2015, Gerry Gordon, John Desmond, and Brian Irvine represented 26 the Herbst entities in the Morabito matters, including this one. Gordon, and his current firm, 27 Garman Turner Gordon, continued to represent the Herbsts after Gordon Silver was dissolved.
28 Thus, although the names of the law firms have changed, the Herbst's (who filed this action) have 1 been consistently represented by Gerry Gordon since as early as 2013.

2 Gordon and his partners have known that the HR firm represented Paul Morabito since 3 before 2007. Gordon's partner Brian Irvine was present during a deposition of Sujata 4 Yalamanchili, an HR partner, on July 26, 2011. Ms. Yalamanchili testified that she represented 5 Paul Morabito. See Yalamanchili Depo Transcript, p. 7:9-10, attached hereto as EXHIBIT 7.
6 Throughout 2011, HR engaged in communications with John Desmond and Brian Irvine on 7 Morabito related issues. See EXHIBIT 8. On August 9, 2013, Defendants' counsel transmitted a 8 letter to HR explaining that it represents Paul Morabito, and acknowledging that HR also 9 represented Paul Morabito. See EXHIBIT 9. Gordon Silver was copied on that email. Id. Put 10 simply, the Trustee's counsel has known since before this lawsuit was filed that HR represented 11 Morabito during the times relevant to this lawsuit.

12 Trustee's counsel is likely to contend that while they were aware that the HR lawyers 13 represented Paul Morabito in September 2010 when the alleged fraudulent transfers were made, 14 they were unaware that HR was involved in any way with the transfers. This contention is 15 demonstrably false.

16 First, during a July 23, 2014, deposition of Paul Morabito which was taken pursuant to the 17 bankruptcy action, the Gordon Silver lawyers – Desmond and Gordon – asked Morabito if the HR 18 lawyers and Ms. Yalamanchili had represented Morabito. He replied in the affirmative. See 19 Morabito Deposition Transcript, p. 113, attached hereto as EXHIBIT 10.

20 Second, on February 13, 2015, the Trustee's counsel sent a letter to Vacco and Lippes 21 demanding turnover of the firm's trust records and billing records related to Paul Morabito. On 22 April 3, 2015, Lippes responded with a letter to the Trustee's counsel and provided heavily 23 redacted copies of the Lippes trust records and billing records to Gordon Silver and the Trustee.
24 See EXHIBIT 11. On July 10, 2015, the billing records were re-produced to the Trustee with 25 limited redactions approved by the bankruptcy court. See EXHIBIT 12; Gilmore Decl., ¶ 18.
26 These billing records, which the Trustee has had since July 2015, plainly and clearly provided the 27 Trustee with proof that the HR lawyers had represented Paul Morabito in the allegedly fraudulent 28 transfers and that they worked side-by-side with Vacco and Lippes in advising, directing, and

1 facilitating the alleged fraudulent transfers. See EXHIBIT 12 (LMWF 000533-535, 540). These 2 billing records, which the Trustee received more than eight months prior to the close of discovery, 3 placed the Trustee on notice to commence investigation into HR's role in the transfers. However, 4 despite this information, the Trustee did nothing to pursue the discovery for another 18 months, on 5 January 3, 2017. The Trustee's lack of diligence, and nothing more, led to its untimely subpoena 6 and deposition notice to HR. Had the Trustee wished to take discovery from HR, it could have 7 done so, and would have had ample time to commence the discovery process prior to the close of 8 discovery. Moreover, just as with Vacco, even if the HR discovery could not have been completed 9 prior to the close of discovery, had the Trustee even commenced the effort before the close of 10 discovery, the limited extension of discovery would have applied to HR just like it did for Vacco 11 and others. The Trustee cannot show good cause for not commencing the HR discovery prior to 12 the close of discovery.

13 Third, the Trustee took Morabito's deposition (formally a Section 341 meeting of 14 creditors) on June 25, 2015, in the bankruptcy case. There, Trustee's counsel asked Morabito 15 which attorneys he had previously used. Morabito identified Ms. Yalamanchili as the attorney in 16 Buffalo, New York, "who I used as a personal attorney, corporate attorney, prior to hiring Mr.
17 Vacco's firm." See 341 Meeting Transcript, p. 150:10-12, attached as EXHIBIT 13. The Trustee 18 was on notice that HR was Morabito's attorneys during the times relevant to this action. It is clear 19 that the Trustee's counsel asked the question specifically so the Trustee could know which of 20 Morabito's attorneys might possess information related to the case. The Trustee could have 21 exercised diligence in following up on that answer during discovery. The Trustee neglected to do 22 so.

23 It is demonstrably clear that the Trustee was in possession of sufficient information to 24 know that HR was involved in the transfers, and the Trustee was in possession of sufficient 25 information to have performed discovery on HR prior to the close of discovery had they been 26 diligent about it. The Trustee neglected to do so. Only after the close of discovery did the Trustee 27 decide to pursue HR for discovery. The stipulation for a limited extension of discovery was only 28 for those things which "could not have been reasonably known or knowable prior to the close

1 of discovery.” See EXHIBIT 1. HR’s involvement and role in the alleged fraudulent transfers 2 was not only knowable, but known by the Trustee months before the close of discovery. The 3 Trustee should not be rewarded for his lack of diligence in performing the discovery that he could 4 have done during the allocated timeframe. An Order quashing the HR subpoena should be 5 entered.

6 B. Trustee’s Counsel Attempted To Sandbag the Defendants, Leaving Defendants 7 No Choice But to Suspend the Deposition Pending a Decision on this Motion.

8 The day the HR subpoena was filed, Defendants’ counsel demanded a meet and confer, 9 because the subpoena was issued after the close of discovery. During the meet and confer, both 10 counsel considered the other’s position. For sake of economy and timing, Defendants’ counsel 11 agreed to consider the Trustee’s anticipated scope of the HR deposition before deciding whether or 12 not to seek a protective order. Once the Trustee’s counsel confirmed in writing that the scope of 13 the HR deposition would be limited to the 16 exhibits in the email (Exhibit 5), Defendants agreed 14 not to object to the HR deposition. It was exclusively in reliance on this meet and confer 15 agreement that Defendants agreed to participate in the HR deposition. Had the Trustee’s counsel 16 not provided the agreement as to the limited scope, or had provided other documents intended to 17 be used, Defendants would have immediately filed a Motion for Protective Order and raised the 18 contentions that have been briefed in this Motion. However, based on the Trustee’s agreement to 19 limit the scope of the HR deposition(s), and the Defendants impressions as to the general 20 irrelevance of the content of the 16 HR documents the Trustee intended to inquire about, 21 Defendants decided not to incur the time and expense of seeking a protective order.

22 Accordingly, Defendants and their counsel were shocked when the Trustee’s counsel 23 explained moments before commencing the HR deposition that she did not believe she was bound 24 by the meet and confer agreement and that she intended to explore the entire realm of issues set 25 forth in the original subpoena which prompted the meet and confer. Once Trustee’s counsel 26 opened the HR deposition record and confirmed to the witness that she intended to explore a full-27 scope deposition, Defendants were left with no choice but to suspend the deposition and seek 28 Court relief.

1           The Trustee cannot be rewarded for sandbagging the Defendants. Defendants are entitled 2 to strict reliance on an agreement among counsel as to the limitations of a deposition after a meet 3 and confer. Indeed, the precise reason why a meet and confer is required under the Rules of Civil 4 Procedure prior to filing a discovery motion is to facilitate voluntary discovery agreements and 5 limitations so as to avoid motion practice and Court involvement. On this precise issue, counsel 6 met and conferred and then reached an agreement. Defendants relied on that agreement in 7 participating in the HR deposition. Defendants forbore their right to seek a protective order only 8 because the Trustee's counsel confirmed the precise limited scope of the HR deposition. The 9 Trustee should not be rewarded for its conduct. Defendants seek an order reimbursing them the 10 cost of an extra day in Buffalo and a morning of wasted attorneys' fees as a result of the Trustee's 11 sandbagging.

12           Further, if the Court is inclined to permit the Trustee to explore those 16 documents to 13 which Defendants had previously agreed in the meet and confer, then that Order should be 14 accompanied by a requirement that the Trustee bear the cost and fees associated with another trip 15 to Buffalo to participate in a limited scope deposition of the HR attorneys.

16 V. CONCLUSION

17           For the foregoing reasons, Defendants respectfully request that this Court enter an order 18 quashing the HR subpoena, or in the alternative, enter a protective order, limiting the scope of the 19 HR deposition pursuant to the meet and confer, along with an award of costs and fees to 20 Defendants associated with another trip to Buffalo to complete the HR depositions.

Teresa,

Can you please confirm that we have altered the dates for the deposition of Stan Bernstein and Gurse Schneider? I understand the plan is to renotice Stan for March 30, and Gurse for March 16? That vacates March 15 entirely.

If Stan is deposed on March 30, I believe we need to reach a stipulation that if any statements are made, or documents produced, which require additional discovery that could not have been reasonably known or knowable prior to the disclosure, a limited purpose extension of discovery should be given. Please advise if you disagree.

Also please serve notices of the depositions so I can confirm my travel plans.

25 Superpumper, Inc., Edward Bayuk, individually and as trustee of Edward William Bayuk Living

27 together with Trustee, the "Parties"), by and through their counsel, Robison Belaustegui Sharp & 28

1 Low, through this Stipulation and Order Regarding Continued Discovery Dates (Second 2 Request) (the "Stipulation") as follows:

3 1. WHEREAS on September 29, 2015, Trustee caused a subpoena (the "Subpoena")
4 to be issued to Dennis Vacco ("Vacco") requesting the production of documents on or before 5 October 13, 2015, and scheduling the deposition of Vacco for October 20, 2015.

6 2. WHEREAS on or about October 15, 2015, Vacco produced approximately 200 7 pages of documents in response to the Subpoena.

8 3. WHEREAS on October 20, 2015, the deposition of Vacco was held at which time 9 Paul Morabito ("Debtor"), debtor in a pending bankruptcy case in the United States Bankruptcy 10 Court for the District of Nevada (the "Bankruptcy Court"), asserted the attorney-client privilege 11 as to various questions.

12 4. WHEREAS Trustee filed a Motion to Compel Responses to Deposition Questions 13 (the "Motion to Compel") in the Bankruptcy Court seeking an order determining the scope of 14 Debtor's privilege, which Motion to Compel was heard on December 22, 2015 and granted on or 15 about February 2, 2016.

16 5. WHEREAS on February 18, 2016, after consultation with Vacco and the 17 Defendants' counsel, Trustee filed the Notice of Continued Deposition of Dennis Vacco (the 18 "Vacco Deposition Notice") and demanded the production of any documents that had been 19 withheld based on the attorney-client privilege. As set forth in the Vacco Deposition Notice, the 20 Vacco Deposition was continued to March 18, 2016 (the "Continued Vacco Deposition").

21 6. WHEREAS on or about February 23, 2016, Trustee's counsel was informed there 22 were as many as thirteen banker's boxes of potentially responsive documents in Vacco's 23 possession that had not been previously produced (the "Additional Documents").

24 7. WHEREAS on March 10, 2016, Defendants' counsel demanded that the 25 Additional Documents not be produced pending resolution of a dispute regarding attorney-client 26 privilege issues.

27 8. WHEREAS on March 10, 2016, Defendants' counsel filed the Motion to Partially 28 Quash, or, in the Alternative, for a Protective Order Precluding Trustee from Seeking Discovery

1 Protected by the Attorney-Client Privilege (the "Motion to Quash") in the above-captioned case, 2 to which Trustee will file an opposition.

3 9. WHEREAS discovery closes in this case on March 31, 2016 (the "Discovery Cut-4 Off")

5 10. WHEREAS as a result of the dispute over the Additional Documents including 6 the pending Motion to Quash, Trustee's counsel cannot proceed with the Continued Vacco 7 Deposition as scheduled and does not anticipate being able to conduct the Continued Vacco 8 Deposition prior to the Discovery Cut-Off

9 NOW THEREFORE, the Parties hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

10 1. The Discovery Cut-Off shall be extended to April 29, 2016 for the limited and 11 sole purpose of Vacco producing the Additional Documents and conducting the Continued 12 Vacco Deposition.

13 2. If additional discovery is required based on new information contained in or 14 discovered from the Additional Documents or Continued Vacco Deposition, the Discovery Cut-15 Off shall be again extended to up to and including May 13, 2016 for the sole and limited 16 purposes of conducting discovery on those additional items discovered in the Additional 17 Document or in the Continued Vacco Deposition.

18 3. This Stipulation shall be without prejudice to seeking an additional extension of 19 time for good cause.

Frank,

I am available any time tomorrow for a meet and confer. As you may recall, the discovery period remained open for information discovered from the Vacco production. In the e-mails just disclosed in January, it was made clear that, although not previously disclosed as a party with discoverable information, Hodgson Russ was very much involved in coordinating the transfers.

As for dates, I understand from John Murtha that Kevin Burke informed him that Dennis Vacco is not in town at the end of January and will be requesting the deposition and 2004 exam be rescheduled. My intention was to have everything completed in one trip to Buffalo so that may change timing. We can discuss tomorrow.

Let me know what time works best for you.

Thanks,

Teresa

2       SUBPOENA, OR, IN THE ALTERNATIVE, FOR A PROTECTIVE ORDER 3       PRECLUDING TRUSTEE FROM SEEKING DISCOVERY FROM 4       HODGSON RUSS LLP

5           I, Frank C. Gilmore, declare under penalty of perjury as follows:

6           1.       I am an attorney licensed to practice law in all courts in the State of Nevada, and am
7       counsel of record for the Defendants in this action. I am a shareholder in the law firm of Robison, 8       Belaustegui, Sharp & Low, and have been licensed to practice law in this State since 2006.

9           2.       Attached to the Motion to Quash Subpoena, or, in the Alternative, for a Protective 10       Order Precluding Trustee from Seeking Discovery from Hodgson Russ LLP ("Motion") as Exhibit 11       1 is a true and accurate copy of is an email from Trustee's counsel to me dated March 8, 2016.

12           3.       Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 2 is a true and accurate copy of my email dated 13       March 23, 2016 with attached redlined discovery extension stipulation.

14           4.       Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 3 is a true and accurate copy of an email string 15       dated January 3-4, 2017.

16           5.       Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 5 is a true and accurate copy of Trustee's 17       counsel's email of January 24, 2017.

18           6.       During the meet and confer, counsel reiterated their respective positions as they 19       explained to each other in Exhibit 3. As a compromise of the dispute, and in an effort to avoid 20       motion practice on the subject, Trustee's counsel promised to provide me with the emails that she 21       intended to use in the anticipated deposition of HR attorneys.

22           7.       Attached to Exhibit 5 were 16 documents that had been produced Vacco in 23       December. I reviewed the emails and determined that based on the representation of Trustee's 24       counsel that the intended scope of the HR deposition was to be limited to the 16 emails provided, I 25       agreed to not object to the HR deposition notice and subpoena, and that Defendants would not 26       oppose a HR deposition during the same trip to New York in which Vacco would be deposed.
27       Nothing further was ever discussed between counsel about the HR deposition or subpoena.

28           8.       As far as I was concerned, the representation from Trustee's counsel about the emails that she "intended to discuss as the deposition of Hodgson Russ" was a confirmation that

1 the subpoena and deposition notice had been voluntarily limited and that any deposition would be 2 proceeding on that basis.

3 9. On July 10-11, 2017, the parties and their counsel participated in the deposition of 4 Vacco and his partner in Buffalo, New York. The parties had agreed to the HR deposition to occur 5 the following day, on July 12, 2017 pursuant to an amended Notice of Deposition that was filed 6 and served. I arrived prior to the deposition and observed Trustee's counsel reviewing a 7 substantial stack of documents which were obviously potential deposition exhibits.

8 10. I immediately inquired of Trustee's counsel as to the stack of proposed exhibits and 9 asked why the stack was significantly larger than the 16 emails which I had brought with me to the 10 deposition.

11 11. Trustee's counsel then explained that she disagreed that she had limited the scope 12 of the HR deposition, and that she intended to use documents which had not been provided to me 13 during the meet and confer. Trustee's counsel also explained that notwithstanding the limitation 14 on the scope of the deposition that counsel had agreed to, she intended to inquire as to all of the 15 topic areas identified in the original deposition notice and subpoena.

16 12. Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 6 is a true and accurate copy of the Jones Vargas 17 letter to HR and Paul Morabito, dated August 16, 2010.

18 13. Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 7 is a true and accurate copy of a portion of 19 Yalamanchili Depo Transcript.

20 14. Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 8 are true and accurate copies of the 2011, 21 Hodgson Russ ("HR") communications with John Desmond and Brian Irvine on Morabito related 22 issues.

23 15. Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 9 is a true and accurate copy of my August 9, 24 2013, transmitted a letter to HR explaining that we represent Paul Morabito, and acknowledging 25 that HR also represented Paul Morabito.

26 16. Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 10 is a true and accurate copy of a portion of the 27 Morabito Deposition Transcript.

28 17. Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 11 is a true and accurate copy of the Lippes April 1 3, 2015 letter.

2 18. Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 12 are true and accurate copies of the July 10, 3 2015, the billing records that were re-produced to the Trustee with limited redactions approved by 4 the bankruptcy court.

5 19. Attached to the Motion as Exhibit 13 is a true and accurate copy of a portion of the 6 341 Meeting Transcript.

7 20. After January 3, 2017, counsel met and conferred, which resulted in an agreement.
8 When Trustee's Counsel breached that agreement, a subsequent meet and confer occurred, in 9 which counsel were not able to resolve the issues and this Motion followed.

Re: Desi Moreno v. Berry-Hinckley Industries
Case No. CV10-02329

Dear Mr. Morabito and Ms. Yalamanchili:

Pursuant to Article 9 of the Amended and Restated Stock Purchase Agreement ("ARSPA") dated June 28, 2007, JH, Inc. ("JH") hereby gives notice to Consolidated Nevada Corporation that a third-party claim has been filed against Berry-Hinckley Industries ("BHI") for which JH is entitled to indemnification from CNC under the express terms of the ARSPA. Specifically, pursuant to Article 9.1(b) of the ARSPA, CNC agreed to "defend, indemnify and hold harmless [JH] and its shareholders, directors, officers, employees, affiliates and successors" from certain "Losses suffered or incurred by any of them."

On August 4, 2010, BHI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of JH, was served with a Complaint filed by Plaintiffs, Desi Moreno, Trustee of the Desi Moreno 2001 Trust, Mill Ohm Pasada, LLC, and 788 Mallory, LLC (collectively, "Plaintiffs"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Plaintiffs allege that BHI is the Lessee under a written Lease Agreement, which was amended in December of 2006 by written Amendment to Lease Agreement, for certain real property located at 8995 La Posada Drive, Sparks, Nevada. Plaintiffs further allege that Section 6 of the Lease Amendment obligates BHI to construct a sports bar and restaurant on the leased premises. Because BHI has not constructed a sports bar and restaurant, Plaintiffs allege that BHI has breached the lease. Plaintiffs are seeking, among other things, specific performance under the lease, special damages in excess of $17,000 and costs and attorney's fees.

This letter shall serve as notice, pursuant to Section 9.1(d), of the commencement of the action referenced in Exhibit 1. This letter shall further serve as notice to CNC that a claim for indemnification will be made by JH pursuant to the ARSPA.

Pursuant to Article 9.1(d)(ii), CNC is entitled to participate in the defense of the action described herein. CNC further has the right, subject to certain conditions, to assume the defense of the third-party claim with counsel satisfactory to JH. If CNC does not, within ten days after the date of this letter, give JH notice of its election to assume the defense of BHI, CNC "will be bound by any determination made in such third-party claim or any compromise or settlement effected by [JH]."

Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Re: Morabito

Dear Sir or Madam:

This office represents Paul A. Morabito. I am in receipt of a copy of a Subpoena that was allegedly served upon you in a case proceeding in the United States Bankruptcy Court District of Nevada, Case No. BK-N-13-51237. It is our position that this Subpoena was not properly noticed and served upon my office as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45, as well as applicable Bankruptcy Rules. Moreover, this Subpoena was served pursuant to an Involuntary Petition for Bankruptcy which was filed by a client of the law firm that provided you with the improperly noticed Subpoena. Mr. Morabito has moved the Bankruptcy Court to dismiss the Involuntary Petition as being in violation of applicable Bankruptcy Codes and Rules, and because the Involuntary Petition is meant as a vehicle to harass, annoy, and cause unnecessary expense to Mr. Morabito.

My office intends to prepare and file a Motion for Protective Order forthwith, seeking an Order from the Bankruptcy Court preventing disclosure of the information which is being sought by this Subpoena. We intend to obtain a Protective Order on the basis that the Subpoena violates Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as well as Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. We therefore request, on behalf of our client Mr. Morabito, that you assert your right under Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and object to the request for production of documents as set forth in the Subpoena.

We will provide you a copy of the Motion for Protective Order once it has been lodged with the Court.

Please contact me if you would like to discuss further.

Sincerely,

FRANK C. GILMORE

Re: In re PAUL A. MORABITO, an individual Alleged Debtor--Response to Subpoena dated Jan. 8, 2015

Dear Brian,

Enclosed please find Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP's ("LMWF's") responses to the Subpoena issued on behalf of your clients Jerry Herbst, JH, Inc., and Berry-Hinckley Industries (collectively the "Petitioning Creditors"). Written responses and objections to your Subpoena are included as Enclosure A. Responsive documents are included on the enclosed CD-R disk (Enclosure B).

With regard to the letter dated February 13, 2015 to LMWF from John Murtha, counsel for Chapter 7 Trustee William Leonard (Enclosure C), it is LMWF's position that Mr. Leonard does not possess the power to waive the attorney-client privilege relating to communications between LMWF and Mr. Morabito in his individual capacity. Similarly, to the extent Mr. Murtha purports to waive Mr. Morabito's attorney-client privilege in an email dated April 1, 2015 (Enclosure D), such waiver is also ineffectual. See eg In re Eddy, 304 B.R. 591, 598, 2004 Bankr. LEXIS 169, 15-17 (Bankr. D. Mass. 2004). Finally, it is LMWF's position that Mr. Leonard does not hold the privilege for communications that occurred between LMWF and corporate client-entities that are not a party to these proceedings.

Because confidential communications between LMWF and Mr. Morabito are subject to the attorney-client privilege, and because Mr. Morabito has not waived that privilege, LMWF has redacted sensitive information subject to the attorney-client privilege or attorney work product doctrine in the enclosed CD-R disk. Furthermore, even if Mr. Leonard had the power to waive Mr. Morabito's privilege or the privilege of certain corporate client-entities not a party to these proceedings, which he does not, the redactions are still valid because they conceal confidential information which is not relevant here.

Our investigation is ongoing and has required obtaining information from offsite storage. As our document review identifies more responsive documents, they will be provided at that time. Given that LMWF has now complied with the subpoena via this letter and its enclosures, Gordon Silver should immediately withdraw its motion to compel as moot. Although LMWF does not concede that its delay in production has been prejudicial to any party, I apologize for any inconvenience that may have been caused by our delay in production. As intimated in a previous email, LMWF's production was delayed because my colleague, Stacey Moar, went on maternity leave earlier than expected.

Very truly yours,

1 what with Roberta.

2 MR. MURTHA: Pardon me?

3 MR. MORABITO: I haven't seen her for 4 years so I don't remember.

5 MR. MURTHA: Could she have prepared
6 the Arcadia Living Trust or any of the four 7 missing amendments?

8 MR. MORABITO: She could have prepared
9 the trust. She wouldn't have done the amendments 10 but she is not completely competent so I didn't 11 use her for very much and I don't even know in 12 the end if she did the Arcadia Living Trust.

13 MR. MURTHA: I'm trying to find out the 14 names of any attorneys that you've used in the 15 last seven or ten years or so.

16 MR. MORABITO: Yes, sir.

17 MR. MURTHA: And I know that you've 18 used Mr. Hartman.

19 MR. MORABITO: Yes.

20 MR. MURTHA: And Holland and Hart.

21 MR. MORABITO: I've never used Holland
22 and Hart.

23 MR. MURTHA: Okay. They were the Bank
24 of America. Okay. I'm sorry.

25 You used Mr. Jeff Langin (phonetic)?

1 MR. MORABITO: As general counsel and 2 provide me personal advice and Mr. Vacco and 3 before that Sujata Yalamanchila.

4 MR. MURTHA: Who?

5 MR. MORABITO: Sujata Yalamanchila.

6 MR. MURTHA: You are going to have to 7 spell that one.

8 MR. GILMORE: S-u-j-a-t-a 9 Y-a-l-a-m-a-n-c-h-i-l-a.

10 MR. MORABITO: She's the woman in 11 Buffalo, New York who I used as a personal 12 attorney, corporate attorney, prior to hiring 13 Mr. Vacco's firm and her name is Sujata 14 Yalamanchila, it's a T.

15 MR. MURTHA: Okay. And you are using 16 Robberson Bielecki?

17 MR. MORABITO: Yes.

18 MR. MURTHA: And you've mentioned John 19 Richmond and Robert Burke.

20 MR. MORABITO: Yes.

21 MR. MURTHA: I saw references to a 22 Lewis and Roca trust deposit being made.

23 MR. MORABITO: Yeah, Reid.

24 MR. MURTHA: What did Mr. Reid do for 25 you?

1 CERTIFICATE OF REPORTER

2 STATE OF NEVADA )

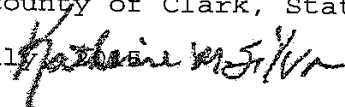

SS:

3 COUNTY OF CLARK )

4 I, Katherine M. Silva, a certified court
5 reporter, Clark County, State of Nevada, do 6 hereby certify: That I reported the taking of the 7 341 Creditors meeting, commencing on THURSDAY, 8 JUNE 25, 2015, at 1:01 o'clock p.m.

9 That prior to being examined the witness was
