9 MR. ALBRIGHT: Good morning again ladies
10:01 10 and gentlemen. My name is Brandon Albright. I'm the 11 deputy district attorney this morning will be presenting 12 case number 18AGJ225X, the State of Nevada versus Sean
13 Michael McKendrick. Mr. McKendrick in the proposed
14 Indictment includes battery by prisoner, two counts,
10:01 15 attempt murder, and attempt battery with substantial
16 bodily harm. My first witness will be Officer Coyne,
17 C-O-Y-N-E.

18 THE FOREPERSON: Please raise your right
19 hand.

10:02 20 You do solemnly swear the testimony you are
21 about to give upon the investigation now pending before
22 this Grand Jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and
23 nothing but the truth, so help you God?

24 THE WITNESS: I do.

10:02 25 THE FOREPERSON: You may be seated.

10:02 1 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

2 THE FOREPERSON: You are advised that you

3 are here today to give testimony in the investigation

4 pertaining to the offenses of battery by prisoner,

10:02 5 attempt murder, and attempt battery with substantial

6 bodily harm, involving Sean Michael McKendrick.

7 Do you understand this advisement?

8 THE WITNESS: Yes.

9 THE FOREPERSON: Please state your first

10:02 10 and last name and spell both for the record.

11 THE WITNESS: Daniel Coyne. D-A-N-I-E-L,

12 C-O-Y-N-E.

13 MR. ALBRIGHT: Ladies and gentlemen, just

14 briefly I do want to point out that Exhibit 1 is the

10:03 15 proposed Indictment and Exhibit 2 are the instructions

16 for the charges included in that Indictment. I would

17 exhort you to read through those instructions prior to

18 and during deliberations after you've heard from the 19 witnesses today.

10:03 20 DANIEL COYNE,

21 having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the

22 Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth,

23 and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

10:03 25 ///

10:03

EXAMINATION

BY MR. ALBRIGHT:

Q. Officer Coyne, how are you employed?

10:03

A. As a corrections officer in the house

arrest section of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police

Q. How does a house arrest officer differ from a patrol officer?

10:03

10

A. We're responsible for pretty much inmates

11 out on house arrest. We have a little over 800 inmates who are released on the electronic monitoring program.

12

13

We go to their house for random checks, we give them

14 permission to go to places, we pretty much make sure that they're abiding by the conditions of their release,

10:03

16

making sure they're not a danger to the public, random

17 urinal tests.

18

Q. And you specifically, do you have specific inmates who you're assigned to?

19

10:04

20

A. Yes. We have a caseload, there's 16

21 officers on our section that split all 800 inmates but I

22 work, my partner and I work swing shift with only two

23 officers on swing shift so we're responsible for our

24 caseload and everybody else's caseload at night. So if anything comes up we have to go handle their inmates as 10:04 1 well.

10:04

2 Q. You mentioned your partner. Who is he?

3 A. Daniel Webb.

4 Q. And what hours are the swing shift that you

10:04 5 mention?

6 A. From noon till 10:00 p.m. Day shift

7 they're done by 4:00 p.m.

8 Q. And so you also mentioned that you're the 9 only two that work the swing shift?

10:04 10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So do you receive calls all night from 12 other officers needing help with their assigned inmates?

13 A. Yes, we do.

14 Q. You mentioned that you give permission to 10:04 15 inmates to do certain things. So do they have to ask to 16 do certain things?

17 A. Yeah. So inmates on electronic monitoring

18 program, they can't leave their house without prior

19 permission from their officer. So if they need to go

10:05 20 anywhere except for doctor's appointment or medical

21 emergency really, they have to get permission. If they

22 want to go their parents' house for dinner they call us

23 and ask and we either say yes or no based on the 24 circumstances.

10:05 25 Q. Do the inmates sign a contract?

10:05 1 A. Yes, they sign an inmate contract for house
2 arrest.

3 Q. And does that contract kind of list the 4 things you just mentioned, restriction of movement,
10:05 5 where and when they're allowed to go places, curfew,
6 things like that?

7 A. Yes, it does.

8 Q. And in fact is it called a Clark County
9 Detention Center House Arrest Inmate Contract?

10:05 10 A. Yes, it is.

11 Q. And in that contract does it refer to 12 whoever it is as an inmate?

13 A. Yes. Yes, the, we make it clear to the 14 people who go out on the program that they are still 10:06 15 inmates of Clark County, they still are in our custody, 16 they're just given certain, you know, they're allowed to 17 do their time at home because the courts gave them that 18 condition of release. But they're still considered
19 inmates. They sign away their Fourth Amendment as well
10:06 20 stating they don't have a right to privacy because 21 they're inmates and we need to check their house, make 22 sure there's no weapons, drugs or contraband, just like
23 we're allowed to search the inmates' cells.

24 Q. Were you on duty in your capacity as a
10:06 25 house arrest officer on January 20, 2019?

10:06 1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you mentioned previously that you work
3 from 4:00 to 10:00 or noon to 10:00?

4 A. From noon till 10:00.

10:06 5 Q. On this evening were you with your partner
6 Officer Webb?

7 A. Yes, I was.

8 Q. Did you receive a call from another officer
9 regarding his inmate Sean Michael McKendrick?

10:06 10 A. So yes we did. Officer Araiza called 11 Webb's cell phone and relayed the information that he 12 had gotten from inmate McKendrick's sister stating that 13 he was acting erratic, possibly under the influence of 14 methamphetamines, and that she was scared.

10:07 15 Q. You mentioned his sister. Is it your 16 understanding that he was living at his sister's house?

17 A. Yes, he was living at his sister's
18 apartment.

19 Q. As per his inmate house arrest agreement,
10:07 20 that was the house he was supposed to be living in;
21 correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did you at approximately 7:00 p.m. go to 24 that apartment?

10:07 25 A. Yes.

10:07 1 Q. And was contact made with Mr. McKendrick?

2 A. Yes. We knocked on his door. When he
3 opened the door, he violently opened the door as fast as 4 he could yelling who is it. I said Metro house arrest.

10:07 5 He looked at me and invited us in. At that point he was 6 speaking very fast, he was sweating profusely and his
7 eyes were pinned. Based on my training and experience I
8 recognized him to be under the influence of narcotics.

9 Q. When you say his eyes were pinned, what 10:08 10 does that mean?

11 A. I mean they were just laser focused on you,
12 pupils just, I mean kind of small pupils just looking 13 right at you, not much movement in them.

14 Q. Did you see anybody else in the house?

10:08 15 A. Yes, there was a teenager, I think late
16 teens, early twenties, later identified as McKendrick's
17 nephew.

18 Q. You mentioned earlier that it was the 19 sister who had called the police. Was she at home at 10:08 20 the time?

21 A. No.

22 Q. You also mentioned that he invited you in?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What happened next as you entered the

10:08 25 apartment?

10:08 1 A. Due to me noticing that he was under the
2 influence of narcotics I told him to turn around, place
3 his hands behind his back. He started arguing with me,
4 refusing to do so. Told him again place your hands
10:08 5 behind your back, you're under arrest, and I physically
6 turned him around. Then he placed his hands behind his 7 back, I took out my handcuffs to place one handcuff on 8 his left wrist, it ratcheted. As soon as that it
9 ratcheted he violently turned, spun towards me pushing
10:09 10 me away and yanking his hand back. So now the handcuff
11 is stuck on his left wrist and my left two fingers are 12 stuck in the other cuff and he's violently yanking back
13 causing excruciating pain with my fingers cause he's 14 twisting and pulling. Once he realizes I have hold of 10:09 15 the handcuff, he starts violently swinging his fists and 16 pushing myself on Officer Webb. I was struck multiple 17 times with his right fist in my body and legs and so was 18 Officer Webb that I observed. I was eventually able to 19 get my fingers free from the cuff. At that point both 10:10 20 his hands were free, he turned towards the door where 21 Officer Webb was and he pushed him through a glass and 22 wooden table by the doorway.

23 Q. When you say he pushed him through, did he 24 push him down and the officer landed on the table?

10:10 25 A. He threw him towards the table, Webb hit

10:10 1 the table, it broke, and he ended up on the floor. Webb
2 immediately goes back to his feet, he's in the doorway
3 now and the door is open.

4 Q. When you say -- I apologize. When you say
10:10 5 the doorway, is that the front door?

6 A. Yes. And we're on a second floor apartment
7 where there's a balcony here and a stairwell going down.

8 Q. Let me draw that picture real quick. So
9 you just used your hands to paint that. If you're 10:10 10 looking, if you're inside the apartment and looking out 11 the open front door, is there a staircase directly in 12 front of you?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And to the left is there a balcony?

10:10 15 A. It would be to our right is a balcony and 16 the left is a balcony and in the middle is the stairs.

17 Q. Is there a metal railing?

18 A. Yes, about waist high.

19 Q. About three feet high?

10:11 20 A. Yes, about waist height.

21 Q. Generally what most apartment complexes
22 look like; correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You said the door was open. What happens
10:11 25 next?

10:11 1 A. He charged him like a football player and 2 pushed him towards that balcony.

3 Q. When you say he --

4 A. McKendrick.

10:11 5 Q. McKendrick charged Webb?

6 A. Charged Webb, yes.

7 Q. What happened next?

8 A. So now Webb's going backwards and

9 McKendrick's going forward. I was right there. I

10:11 10 thought that McKendrick was going to push Webb over the 11 railing and I had to act. I was able to get my left arm
12 around his neck and applied a department approved
13 lateral vascular neck restraint. He kept going forward
14 so I pushed all my weight down to the ground to bring 10:11 15 him down with me. That --

16 Q. I'm sorry to keep cutting you off.

17 When you say he kept going, do you mean
18 that McKendrick was continuously pushing Webb against 19 that railing?

10:11 20 A. Still pushing after I had him in the neck
21 restraint.

22 Q. And was Webb backed up against the railing?

23 A. So as soon as I got him to the ground,

24 that's when I saw Webb hit that railing and then slip

10:12 25 and his foot fell down the stairs and then Webb fell to 10:12 1 the ground.

2 Q. And were you able to subdue McKendrick?

3 A. At that point I had him in the neck

4 restraint and he was pushing up against my elbow and 10:12 5 pulling his head, that's how you would escape it.

6 Trying to escape. He was kicking. I applied pressure

7 until his body went limp. At that point I yelled at 8 Webb to put him in the handcuffs. So his one hand was

9 already in handcuff, he grabbed the other one, put the 10:12 10 other hand in handcuffs. At that point he was secured.

11 I sat him up and at that point he was already back

12 conscious and began kicking again and struggling until

13 he realized he was in cuffs. Then we escorted him down

14 to the car and requested medical attention to check him

10:13 15 out because he was sweating so profusely I thought we 16 should get him checked out.

17 Q. Did you transport him in your vehicle to 18 CCDC?

19 A. Yes. We transported him to the hospital

10:13 20 first to get his wrist checked out because when he was

21 pulling the cuffs with my hand and his wrist, his wrist

22 was swollen from how hard he was pulling. They checked

23 him out. It was just a bruised wrist, no substantial

24 injuries.

10:13 25 Q. What if anything did he do or say in the 10:13 1 patrol car on the way to the hospital?

2 A. On the way to the hospital he apologized
3 for fighting us. He said I fought you guys cause I
4 wanted us to kill me. And then he asked me several 10:13 5 times to shoot him. Then after we cleared him at the 6 hospital he said I'm sorry for what I'm about to do,
7 just kill me, and he started trying to kick the windows
8 out of the car. He kicked the window probably eight
9 times with his feet.

10:14 10 Q. Was he able to break it?

11 A. No.

12 Q. And then you were able to successfully
13 transport him to the jail?

14 A. Yes.

10:14 15 MR. ALBRIGHT: I have no further questions
16 for this witness. Any questions?

17 BY A JUROR:

18 Q. I may have misheard. What day in January 19 was this?

10:14 20 A. Was it 20 -- was it 20th or the 29th?

21 BY MR. ALBRIGHT:

22 Q. January 20, 2019, does that sound correct?

23 A. Twenty, yes.

24 Q. And the address that you responded to, was 10:14 25 that 8400 West Charleston?

10:14 1 A. 8400 West Charleston, yes, apartment
2 complex.

3 Q. Apartment number 210, does that sound
4 correct?

10:14 5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Is that located in Clark County, Las Vegas,
7 Nevada?

8 A. That's Clark County.

9 MR. ALBRIGHT: Any other questions?

10:14 10 BY A JUROR:

11 Q. You identified, you said when you first 12 knocked on the door you identified yourself as a 13 corrections officer. I assume that you are also in 14 uniform --

10:15 15 A. In full uniform and we identify ourselves
16 as Metro house arrest.

17 Q. So it was obvious, okay.

18 A. Yes. So he knows that we're his house
19 arrest officers.

21 Q. Briefly, Officer. Showing you Exhibit
22 Number 3. Who is that?

23 A. This is inmate McKendrick.

24 Q. This is the --

10:15 25 A. The same person we came in contact with 10:15 1 that night.

2 Q. The person we've been talking about today?

3 A. Yes.

4 THE FOREPERSON: Any other questions?

10:15 5 By law, these proceedings are secret and 6 you are prohibited from disclosing to anyone anything
7 that has transpired before us, including evidence and 8 statements presented to the Grand Jury, any event
9 occurring or statement made in the presence of the Grand

17 Do you understand this admonition?

18 THE WITNESS: I understand.

19 THE FOREPERSON: Thank you. You're

10:16 20 excused.

21 THE WITNESS: Thank you guys for your time.

22 A JUROR: Thank you.

23 MR. ALBRIGHT: My next and last witness
24 will be Officer Webb.

10:16 25 THE FOREPERSON: Please raise your right

10:16 1 hand.

2 You do solemnly swear the testimony you are
3 about to give upon the investigation now pending before
4 this Grand Jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and
10:16 5 nothing but the truth, so help you God?

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, I do.

7 THE FOREPERSON: You may be seated.

8 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

9 THE FOREPERSON: You are advised that you
10:16 10 are here today to give testimony in the investigation
11 pertaining to the offenses of battery by prisoner,
12 attempt murder, attempt battery with substantial bodily

14 Do you understand this advisement?

10:17 15 THE WITNESS: Yes, I do.

16 THE FOREPERSON: Please state your first
17 and last name and spell both for the record.

18 THE WITNESS: Daniel Webb. D-A-N-I-E-L,
19 W-E-B-B.

10:17 20 DANIEL WEBB,
21 having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the
22 Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth,
23 and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

10:17 25 ///

3 BY MR. ALBRIGHT:

4 Q. Officer Webb, how are you employed?

10:17 5 A. I'm a corrections officer with Las Vegas

6 Metropolitan Police.

7 Q. Specifically in what capacity?

8 A. I'm assigned to the house arrest section.

9 Q. And do you work in partners?

10:17 10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. Who is your assigned partner?

12 A. Officer Daniel Coyne.

13 Q. What shift do you work?

14 A. We work a swing shift, the hours of 12:00

10:17 15 noon to 10:00 p.m.

16 Q. And were you on duty on January 20, 2019?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you receive a call regarding an inmate

19 by the name of Sean Michael McKendrick?

10:17 20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Who contacted you?

22 A. Another officer in our section, Officer

23 Antonio Araiza, contacted us to do a check on him.

24 Q. Officer Araiza, is that what you said?

10:18 25 A. Yes. A-R-A-I-Z-A.

10:18 1 Q. Is Officer Araiza actually assigned to
2 Mr. McKendrick?

3 A. Yes, he is.

4 Q. Because of the difference in shifts he 10:18 5 called you because you were on duty?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Did you respond to the apartment where it
8 was your understanding McKendrick was serving his house
9 arrest?

10:18 10 A. Yes, we did.

11 Q. Is that 8400 West Charleston, apartment
12 210?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14 Q. And how did you initially make contact with
10:18 15 Mr. McKendrick?

16 A. After receiving the information that was 17 given to Officer Araiza, we were instructed to or asked
18 to go do a check on him. Officer Araiza received a call
19 from the actual tenants that McKendrick was living with,
10:18 20 which was actually his brother and sister-in-law,
21 earlier in the day or prior to our arrival, Officer
22 Araiza received a call from his sister stating that Sean 23 was acting bizarre, possibly under the influence of 24 controlled substance. And if that was the case he 10:19 25 needed to be removed from the property.

10:19 1 Q. And ladies and gentlemen, what you just
2 heard in regards to what was said by Officer Araiza is 3 hearsay so it's not introduced for the truth of the 4 matter, but simply to learn what Officer Webb did next,
10:19 5 what it caused him to do.

6 So based on that you made contact with
7 McKendrick; is that right?

8 A. Yes, we did.

9 Q. How was that contact made?

10:19 10 A. Approximately 7:40 p.m. on that date we 11 arrived at the residence of 8400 West Charleston,
12 knocked on the door of apartment 210. Sean McKendrick
13 answered the door. At that time he abruptly opened the 14 door, pulling the door inward in an aggressive manner.
10:19 15 At that point we observed him to be profusely sweating
16 and possibly under the influence of a controlled
17 substance based on my experience.

18 Q. Did you and/or Officer Coyne attempt to 19 place him under arrest?

10:19 20 A. Yes. Officer Coyne initiated a, informed 21 him that he's going back to jail, placed him under 22 arrest. He complied with the left cuff being placed on,
23 became argumentative, why am I going back to jail. We 24 instructed him that he's going back to jail, I don't
10:19 25 remember if any reason was given other than house arrest

10:20 1 rule violations. At that point he become very agitated,
2 very outspoken, abruptly turned to his left
3 counterclockwise position, swinging a closed fist
4 striking me in the lower abdomen.

10:20 5 Q. You said striking you?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So did a fight ensue involving you and 8 Officer Coyne and McKendrick?

9 A. Yes. It become, actually become very
10:20 10 violent fight trying to restrain him. Very sweaty, hard 11 to control. Clothing was torn off McKendrick during the 12 struggle. Slippery skin, profusely sweating. He 13 continued to strike. I was struck in the left side of 14 the face at some time during the incident. During that 10:20 15 incident I lost control of my radio. I was able to gain
16 control of my radio and called for assistance calling a 17 444.

18 Q. What is a 444?

19 A. Officer in an emergency. Emergency call.

10:20 20 For responding units to come because the situation
21 became very violent and very aggressive, almost out of 22 control.

23 Q. At any point was any furniture in the 24 apartment damaged?

10:21 25 A. Yes. Just outside, I would say as you're

10:21 1 facing inward, there's a glass curio table. At that
2 point I was thrown backwards into that smashing myself
3 against that, falling to the floor and smashing the 4 glass.

10:21 5 Q. When you say you were thrown backwards, who 6 or how were you thrown backwards?

7 A. Just the momentum of the force involved of 8 the struggle. I'm not sure exactly how or who, but 9 during the struggle I was pushed backwards into the 10:21 10 corner where I came in contact with the glass table
11 cabinet smashing that and falling on the floor.

12 Q. At some point did the struggle end up
13 outside of the front door?

14 A. Yes, it did. As I regained my footing, I
10:21 15 stood back up and my, I'm in the doorway now, McKendrick
16 tried to rush out. I felt that he rushed me in an 17 aggressive manner, made contact with me, and I went, his 18 momentum pushed me backwards almost over the railing and 19 down the stairs.

10:21 20 Q. So when you say that you kind of made a
21 bear hug motion. Are you motioning that McKendrick kind
22 of grabbed you?

23 A. Like a football tackle, yes.

24 Q. And you mentioned that that forced you
10:22 25 towards the stairs and the balcony?

10:22 1 A. Yes.

2 Q. At some point did your back make contact
3 with that balcony?

4 A. I made contact with the balcony. At first 10:22 5 my foot slipped down the stairs, probably two or three 6 steps down the, my right leg, and my back against the 7 balcony, and I was able to regain my footing and pushed
8 myself back upwards.

9 Q. At any point, after that fact did you
10:22 10 become aware of any injuries on your body from hitting
11 that railing?

12 A. Yes. I mean because of, as I said the 13 adrenaline in the situation you don't realize until 14 everything settles down, I felt a little swollen on the 10:22 15 left side of my jaw. Two, three days later I noticed
16 bruising from probably my mid calf up to my mid thigh
17 where I possibly made contact with the stairs.

18 Q. How was it that McKendrick stopped pushing 19 you towards the balcony?

10:23 20 A. Once McKendrick had, I don't know if he 21 still had control of me or not, but Officer Coyne
22 engaged in an LVNR, lateral ventricular neck restraint,
23 rendered him unconscious.

24 Q. Okay. And until that happened was he 10:23 25 actively pushing you?

10:23 1 A. Yes, he was. He was actively pushing and 2 the struggle was still on the very top of the decking,
3 just right above the stairs there, and he, at that point
4 he fell downward and I was able to grasp his left hand
10:23 5 which the cuff was already there and restrain him with 6 his right hand.

7 Q. Showing you Exhibit 3. Who is that?

8 A. That's Sean McKendrick.

9 Q. This is the individual we've been talking
10:23 10 about this morning?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 MR. ALBRIGHT: I have no further questions
13 for this witness.

14 BY A JUROR:

10:24 15 Q. Officer Webb, did you feel your life was in 16 danger at any point?

17 A. I would say yes, absolutely. In that 18 situation you never know which direction it's going to 19 go. After we restrained, we found three knives on him.

10:24 20 Q. Thank you.

21 BY MR. ALBRIGHT:

22 Q. Was that found during a search incident to
23 arrest?

24 A. Yes, it was.

10:24 25 THE FOREPERSON: By law, these proceedings

10:24 1 are secret and you are prohibited from disclosing to 2 anyone anything that has transpired before us, including
3 evidence and statements presented to the Grand Jury, any 4 event occurring or statement made in the presence of the 10:24 5 Grand Jury, and information obtained by the Grand Jury.

6 Failure to comply with this admonition is a
7 gross misdemeanor punishable by up to 364 days in the 8 Clark County Detention Center and a $2,000 fine. In 9 addition, you may be held in contempt of court
10:24 10 punishable by an additional $500 fine and 25 days in the 11 Clark County Detention Center.

12 Do you understand this admonition?

13 THE WITNESS: Yes, I do.

14 THE FOREPERSON: Thank you. You're

10:25 15 excused.

16 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

17 MR. ALBRIGHT: Just one very minor
18 amendment to the Indictment. I believe to conform to 19 the testimony that we heard today, line 23 on page 1
10:25 20 should read the 20th day of January, not the 29th.

21 With that I'll hand it to you to 22 deliberate.

23 (At this time, all persons, other than
24 members of the Grand Jury, exit the room at 10:25 a.m.

10:25 25 and return at 10:28 a.m.)

10:27 1 MR. ALBRIGHT: I just need to very briefly
2 recall a witness to correct something on the Indictment.

3 THE FOREPERSON: Okay.

4 You're still under oath from the previous 10:28 5 swearing in.

6 THE WITNESS: Okay. Daniel Coyne.

7 DANIEL COYNE,

8 having been previously duly sworn by the Foreperson of 9 the Grand Jury to testify to the truth, the whole truth,
10:28 10 and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

11 FURTHER EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. ALBRIGHT:

14 Q. Officer Coyne, the event we were speaking 10:28 15 about earlier, is it correct that it occurred on 16 January 29, 2019?

17 A. Yes. I just confirmed with my records it
18 happened on the 29th. He was released into our custody
19 from the jail on the 20th.

10:28 20 Q. So the confusion stemmed from the fact that 21 he started house arrest on the 20th. January 29th is 22 the event we've been discussing today.

24 Q. Okay. Thank you, Officer.

10:29 25 THE FOREPERSON: Same admonition about the 10:29 1 secrecy.

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

3 MR. ALBRIGHT: With that being said, ladies
4 and gentlemen, the aforementioned amendment is no longer
10:29 5 relevant so the Indictment is correct. The 29th is the 6 day.

7 THE FOREPERSON: Okay.

8 MR. ALBRIGHT: I'm sorry for that.

9 THE FOREPERSON: No worries.

10:29 10 (At this time, all persons, other than 11 members of the Grand Jury, exit the room at 10:29 a.m.
12 and return at 10:32 a.m.)

13 THE FOREPERSON: Mr. District Attorney, by 14 a vote of 12 or more grand jurors a true bill has been
10:32 15 returned against defendant Sean Michael McKendrick
16 charging the crimes of two counts battery by a prisoner,
17 one count attempt murder, one count attempt battery with 18 substantial bodily harm, in Grand Jury case number 19 18AGJ225X. We instruct you to prepare an Indictment in 10:32 20 conformance with the proposed Indictment previously
21 submitted to us.

22 MR. ALBRIGHT: Thank you ladies and 23 gentlemen.

18 hereto as Exhibit "1".

19 My decision to plead guilty is based upon the plea agreement in this case which is as 20 follows:

21 The State retains the right to argue.

22 I agree to the forfeiture of any and all weapons or any interest in any weapons seized 23 and/or impounded in connection with the instant case and/or any other case negotiated in 24 whole or in part in conjunction with this plea agreement.

25 I understand and agree that, if I fail to interview with the Department of Parole and 26 Probation, fail to appear at any subsequent hearings in this case, or an independent magistrate, 27 by affidavit review, confirms probable cause against me for new criminal charges including 28 reckless driving or DUI, but excluding minor traffic violations, the State will have the

1 unqualified right to argue for any legal sentence and term of confinement allowable for the 2 crime(s) to which I am pleading guilty, including the use of any prior convictions I may have
3 to increase my sentence as an habitual criminal to five (5) to twenty (20) years, life without 4 the possibility of parole, life with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years, or a definite 5 twenty-five (25) year term with the possibility of parole after ten (10) years.

6 Otherwise I am entitled to receive the benefits of these negotiations as stated in this 7 plea agreement.

8 CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLEA

9 I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts which support all the elements of 10 the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit "1".

11 I understand that as a consequence of my plea of guilty The Court must sentence me to 12 imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for a minimum term of not less than 13 ONE (1) year and a maximum term of not more than SIX (6) years. The minimum term of 14 imprisonment may not exceed forty percent (40%) of the maximum term of imprisonment. I
15 understand that I may also be fined up to $10,000.00. I understand that the law requires me to 16 pay an Administrative Assessment Fee.

17 I understand that, if appropriate, I will be ordered to make restitution to the victim of 18 the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty and to the victim of any related offense which is 19 being dismissed or not prosecuted pursuant to this agreement. I will also be ordered to 20 reimburse the State of Nevada for any expenses related to my extradition, if any.

21 I understand that I am eligible for probation for the offense to which I am pleading
22 guilty. I understand that, except as otherwise provided by statute, the question of whether I
23 receive probation is in the discretion of the sentencing judge.

24 I understand that I must submit to blood and/or saliva tests under the Direction of the 25 Division of Parole and Probation to determine genetic markers and/or secretor status.

26 I understand that if I am pleading guilty to charges of Burglary, Invasion of the Home,
27 Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Sell, Sale of a Controlled Substance, or 28 Gaming Crimes, for which I have prior felony conviction(s), I will not be eligible for probation

1 and may receive a higher sentencing range.

2 I understand that if more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed and I am
3 eligible to serve the sentences concurrently, the sentencing judge has the discretion to order
4 the sentences served concurrently or consecutively.

5 I understand that information regarding charges not filed, dismissed charges, or charges
6 to be dismissed pursuant to this agreement may be considered by the judge at sentencing.

7 I have not been promised or guaranteed any particular sentence by anyone. I know that 8 my sentence is to be determined by the Court within the limits prescribed by statute.

9 I understand that if my attorney or the State of Nevada or both recommend any specific 10 punishment to the Court, the Court is not obligated to accept the recommendation.

11 I understand that if the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty was committed while I
12 was incarcerated on another charge or while I was on probation or parole that I am not eligible 13 for credit for time served toward the instant offense(s).

14 I understand that if I am not a United States citizen, any criminal conviction will likely 15 result in serious negative immigration consequences including but not limited to:

- 16 1. The removal from the United States through deportation;
- 17 2. An inability to reenter the United States;
- 18 3. The inability to gain United States citizenship or legal residency;
- 19 4. An inability to renew and/or retain any legal residency status; and/or
- 20 5. An indeterminate term of confinement, with the United States Federal 21 Government based on my conviction and immigration status.

22 Regardless of what I have been told by any attorney, no one can promise me that this 23 conviction will not result in negative immigration consequences and/or impact my ability to 24 become a United States citizen and/or a legal resident.

25 I understand that the Division of Parole and Probation will prepare a report for the 26 sentencing judge prior to sentencing. This report will include matters relevant to the issue of 27 sentencing, including my criminal history. This report may contain hearsay information 28 regarding my background and criminal history. My attorney and I will each have the

1 opportunity to comment on the information contained in the report at the time of sentencing.
2 Unless the District Attorney has specifically agreed otherwise, the District Attorney may also 3 comment on this report.

4 WAIVER OF RIGHTS

5 By entering my plea of guilty, I understand that I am waiving and forever giving up the 6 following rights and privileges:

- 7 1. The constitutional privilege against self-incrimination, including the right 8 to refuse to testify at trial, in which event the prosecution would not be allowed to comment to the jury about my refusal to testify.
- 9 2. The constitutional right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury, 10 free of excessive pretrial publicity prejudicial to the defense, at which 11 trial I would be entitled to the assistance of an attorney, either appointed or retained. At trial the State would bear the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt each element of the offense(s) charged.
- 12 3. The constitutional right to confront and cross-examine any witnesses who 13 would testify against me.
- 14 4. The constitutional right to subpoena witnesses to testify on my behalf.
- 15 5. The constitutional right to testify in my own defense.
- 16 6. The right to appeal the conviction with the assistance of an attorney, 17 either appointed or retained, unless specifically reserved in writing and 18 agreed upon as provided in NRS 174.035(3). I understand this means I
19 am unconditionally waiving my right to a direct appeal of this conviction, 20 including any challenge based upon reasonable constitutional, jurisdictional or other grounds that challenge the legality of the proceedings as stated in NRS 177.015(4). However, I remain free to challenge my conviction through other post-conviction remedies including a habeas corpus petition pursuant to NRS Chapter 34.

21 VOLUNTARINESS OF PLEA

22 I have discussed the elements of all of the original charge(s) against me with my 23 attorney and I understand the nature of the charge(s) against me.

24 I understand that the State would have to prove each element of the charge(s) against 25 me at trial.

26 I have discussed with my attorney any possible defenses, defense strategies and 27 circumstances which might be in my favor.

28 All of the foregoing elements, consequences, rights, and waiver of rights have been

1 thoroughly explained to me by my attorney.

2 I believe that pleading guilty and accepting this plea bargain is in my best interest, and
3 that a trial would be contrary to my best interest.

4 I am signing this agreement voluntarily, after consultation with my attorney, and I am 5 not acting under duress or coercion or by virtue of any promises of leniency, except for those 6 set forth in this agreement.

7 I am not now under the influence of any intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance or 8 other drug which would in any manner impair my ability to comprehend or understand this 9 agreement or the proceedings surrounding my entry of this plea.

10 My attorney has answered all my questions regarding this guilty plea agreement and its 11 consequences to my satisfaction and I am satisfied with the services provided by my attorney.

DECLARATION

KARA M. SIMMONS makes the following declaration:

1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada; I am the Deputy Public Defender assigned to represent the Defendant in the instant matter, and I am familiar with the facts and circumstances of this case.
2. Mr. McKendrick was sentenced on July 15, 2019 in front of this Court. At that time, this Court ordered he be credited fifty-nine (59) days for the time Mr. McKendrick had previously served.
3. Mr. McKendrick was in custody on this case from January 29, 2019 until March 31, 2019 when he posted bond, which would have been sixty-two days.
4. As he unfortunately missed his first sentencing date, Mr. McKendrick was arrested on a bench warrant on June 26th and remained in custody until his sentencing, which was an additional twenty (20) days.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. (NRS 53.045).

LEGAL ARGUMENT

Pursuant to NRS 176.055, a criminal defendant is entitled to credit toward any sentence imposed upon him as long as he was not already serving a sentence pursuant to a judgment of conviction for a different case. A criminal defendant sentenced to prison is entitled to credit for the time he serves in the county jail. Slack v. State, 528 P.2d 703, 90 Nev. 373 (1974). As Mr. McKendrick was in custody at the Clark County Detention Center on the additional dates, he is entitled to that time being credited to his prison sentence.

CONCLUSION

As such, Mr. McKendrick asks this Court to grant this motion and order that he be credited the additional twenty-three (23) days credit toward his prison sentence.

DATED this 6th day of August, 2019.

Las Vegas, Nevada, Wednesday, March 27, 2019

[Hearing began at 10:13 a.m.]

THE COURT: Page 7 is State of Nevada versus Sean Michael McKendrick, who is present, in custody. Public Defender case, status check on negotiations, and it would appear it's been resolved.

MS. SIMMONS: It has been, Your Honor. The only thing, I guess, logistically, to note is that on the back the District Attorney had attached a copy of the full indictment versus an amended information.

Mr. McKendrick is going to be pleading to one count of battery by prisoner. So, for efficiency sake, I was suggesting to Mr. Stanton this morning that maybe we just strike all counts but count one.

THE COURT: We'll go through count one, and then we'll dismiss the rest of them.

MS. SIOMMONS: Thank you, --

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. SIMMONS: -- Your Honor.

THE COURT: That's fine.

Mr. McKendrick -- that is your correct name, Sean Michael McKendrick; right?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. I have a guilty plea agreement here that indicates that this case has been resolved. Is that right?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: As to the category B felony offense, battery by

1 prisoner, one count, how are you going to plea to that charge?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

3 THE COURT: Did read through this guilty plea agreement?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Did you discuss it with your attorney?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: You feel confident you understand the terms

8 and conditions of this agreement?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir,

10 THE COURT: On page 4 of this agreement, there's a section

11 entitled waiver of rights, did you read through that section carefully?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: Did you discuss those rights with your 14 attorney?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: You feel confident that you thoroughly

17 understand the rights that you would be giving up or waiving in order to 18 plead guilty?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: I want to run through them real quickly with 21 you. On a criminal case the State has to prove that the defendant, you,

22 are guilty beyond a reasonable doubt of the charge that you're charged

23 with. You don't have to prove that you're innocent. You have the right

24 to confront and cross-examine the State's witnesses against you. You

25 have the right to subpoena witnesses on your behalf, if you chose to do

1 that. You're also protected by the 5th Amendment of the Constitution
2 against self-incrimination, meaning you could not be compelled to testify
3 in a criminal case where you're the defendant. You can waive that right,
4 and get on the witness stand and testify just like any other witness. If 5 you do that you'll be subject to being cross-examined by the State of 6 Nevada and if you have any prior criminal history the State gets to go
7 into your prior criminal history, to a certain degree.

8 Do you understand all those rights?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

10 THE COURT: At the end of that trial, if you're convicted, you
11 have the right to appeal that conviction to the Supreme Court. You 12 understand that?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Now are you sure you want to waive all those 15 rights so that you can plead guilty?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Okay. What is your understanding of the 18 maximum sentence that can be imposed upon you as a result of this 19 plea of guilty?

20 THE DEFENDANT: 28 to 72 months.

21 THE COURT: That is correct. You've been paying attention.

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: That's 1 to 6 is the range, but the maximum 24 sentenced would be 28 to 72 months.

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: You understand that what happens to you at 2 the time of sentencing -- the State retains the right to argue so they're
3 going to be arguing, I have no doubt, for prison time. And what happens
4 to you at the time of sentencing is completely and totally up to the Court,
5 and no one can promise, or predict, what kind of sentence the Court's 6 going to impose, except that that's the maximum sentence that the court
7 can impose, so you're aware of that; right?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Did anybody promise you anything
10 that's not contained in this guilty plea agreement in order to get you to 11 plead guilty?

12 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

13 THE COURT: Anybody threat or coerces you in order to get 14 you to plead guilty?

15 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

16 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty because in truth and 17 fact you're actually are guilty and you're freely and -- voluntarily entering 18 this plea; is that correct?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: I'm going to read to you from the indictment,
21 just the first count; we're going to dismiss the rest of the counts.

22 According to the information contained in count one, it says that on or 23 about the 29th of January 2019 you did willfully, unlawfully, feloniously,
24 and knowingly use force or violence upon another person, to wit: D.
25 Webb, by punching -- said D. Webb, and at that time you were a

1 prisoner lawfully in custody. Are those allegations contained in the 2 indictment true and correct?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: And just one last time, I'm not going to see you
5 back here in a few months, or 6 months, asking -- saying I didn't
6 understand what I was doing, and I want to withdraw my plea; anybody
7 sitting on the bench gonna hear that from you?

8 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. The court will accept your plea of guilty
10 as have been freely and voluntarily entered. Counts 2, 3 and 4 in this 11 matter are gonna be dismissed.

12 What else is he in custody on?

13 THE DEFENDANT: That's --

14 MS. SIMMIONS: This is --

15 THE DEFENDANT: -- it.

16 MS. SIMMONS: -- the only case holding him, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Oh, it is?

18 MS. SIMMONS: It is.

19 THE COURT: Okay. P&P's gonna be here down at the jail to 20 interview you. They'll do it by remote -- I don't know if they have to go to 21 the jail, or if they can do it by some other remote fashion. I'm not sure.
22 But be aware that you're gonna be in contact by P&P, because they 23 need personal background information to prepare the PSI.

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, Your Honor, my lawyer was 25 explaining to me, if I were to get out on bail, or I get an O.R., that to be

1 contact with them, and --

2 MS. SIMMONS: We explained to him his obligations with 3 P&P, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: What's happened to all these other charges?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Dismissed.

6 MS. SIMMONS: They're getting dismissed.

7 THE COURT: I mean --

8 MS. SIMMONS: The other -- oh, you mean the other case?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 MS. SIMMONS: The other case was dismissed.

11 THE COURT: Battery by prisoner, attempt murder --

12 MS. SIMMONS: That's this case, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Oh, it is this case?

14 MS. SIMMONS: Yes.

15 THE COURT: I was thinking they were all the charges were 16 battery. That is an attempt murder -- yeah, okay, he's getting a good 17 deal.

18 So are you wanting the court to address his custody status?

19 MS. SIMMONS: If you're willing to do it right now, I was 20 planning on filing a --

21 THE COURT: I would --

22 MS. SIMMONS: -- motion on Friday.

23 THE COURT: -- prefer that you file a motion, and let the State
24 respond. The normal method of addressing bail in these situations is 25 have your counsel file a motion so the State has a chance read it, and

1 then file a response if they chose too. Okay?

2 THE DEFENDANT: I understand that, Your Honor. I just --
3 there's any way to do it today, I want to do it today. My boss has been 4 holding my job for over two months now. You know, I'm a fulltime
5 student at CSN. You know --

6 MS. SIMMONS: So, I guess, the only thing I would ask today,
7 because he has plead just one count, if Your Honor would consider
8 modifying the bail to reflect the charge the he is currently plead to versus 9 the multiple charges he originally had.

10 MR. STANTON: I don't have an objection to that, but would 11 request that anything other than that be in writing.

12 THE COURT: I don't -- I'm just asking the question. What's 13 his background look like?

14 MS. SIMMONS: He has 3 prior felonies.

15 THE DEFENDANT: That are 10 years old.

16 MS. SIMMONS: That's true, Your Honor. In looking at -- and 17 I can show Your Honor a copy of my risk assessment if you'd like. It 18 does show that the last felony conviction he had -- was in 2008.

19 THE COURT: How many points? I'm just getting a custom to 20 the risk assessment that --

21 MS. SIMMONS: The risk assessment is four.

22 THE COURT: Oh, that's not so terrible bad. Here's what I'll 23 do, under the circumstances of a three prior felony convictions and --
24 even though that is -- and with his finally plea, I'll set the bail appropriate
25 for the charge. In my opinion it's $10,000. So I'll set bail on the one

1 count that he's plead guilty to in the sum of $10,000.

2 MS. SIMMONS: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Then they can file a motion to reduce the bail
4 or give you an O.R., but, as of now, the bails 10,000. Okay?

6 MR. STANTON: The sentencing date, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Yep.

8 THE CLERK: May 13th at 8:30.

9 THE COURT: May 13th.

25 RECORDED BY: De'AWNA TAKAS, COURT RECORDER

1 Las Vegas, Nevada, Monday, July 15, 2019

3 [Hearing began at 10:13 a.m.]

4 THE COURT: C338224 State of Nevada versus Sean
5 Michael McKendrick. Mr. McKendrick is present, in custody, Ms.
6 Simmons on his behalf, Mr. Albright on behalf of the State.

7 This is a time and date set for sentencing. This was on on 8 June 10th of 2019, the defendant wasn't present, a bench warrant was 9 issued. The negotiations were the State has the right to argue.

10 Are both sides ready to proceed today?

11 MS. SIMMONS: I'm prepared, Your Honor, I did want to 12 clarify one thing though. The State had submitted police reports for two 13 incidents that are not part of the negotiation here. They're not at all 14 related to this event. And I had objected to, Your Honor, considering 15 those as part of the sentencing for today.

16 THE COURT: Right.

17 MS. SIMMONS: So I did want to make sure the record was 18 clear I was objecting, because those are incidents that are not -- one
19 was dismissed and one is screening. Neither of them are actually 20 factually part of this case. So I was objecting for relevance and 21 prejudicial purposes. Deferring to Your Honor as to whether or not --
22 and the only thing I need to make clear is, whether or not, Your Honor, 23 did -- use them, and are going to consider them today.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Albright?

25 MR. ALBRIGHT: I'll just refer to Nevada v. Morfin, that's M-O-

1 R-F-I-N. It says a sentencing proceeding is not a second trial, and the 2 court is privileged to consider facts and circumstances, which would not
3 be admissible at trial. Other criminal conduct may properly be 4 considered at the sentencing hearing even though the defendant was 5 never charged or convicted of it. And that -- it says the purpose is to 6 allow the sentencing judge to gain a further assessment of the 7 defendant so that the punishment will fit offender and not merely the 8 crime for which he was convicted.

9 Another reason is because I'm seeking habitual --

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 MR. ALBRIGHT: -- treatment, which incubuses his criminal 12 history, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Understood.

14 MR. ALBRIGHT: And takes into account judgments of 15 conviction from prior convictions.

16 MS. SIMMONS: And my only response to that, specially, is 17 that, obviously, I already know in a PSI Your Honor's always made
18 aware -- well, specifically, factually in this case he was on house arrest
19 at the time. Obviously there was a prior case; however, that case was 20 dismissed. Obviously Your Honor would know if he had picked up a 21 new case, otherwise the State wouldn't have regained the right -- the full 22 right to argue.

23 THE COURT: Yeah.

24 MS. SIMMONS: However, the factual circumstances of those 25 cases and those allegations, especially when one of those cases was

1 voluntarily dismissed by the State, and the State has yet to file in the 2 other case, I think that is going beyond what should be considered in 3 sentencing Mr. McKendrick here today.

4 As far as the JOC goes, those are things that we can't really 5 argue against.

6 THE COURT: Sure.

7 MS. SIMMONS: Those already happened. But the police
8 reports for the other two cases, I do believe are being inappropriately 9 used here.

10 THE COURT: So I think that I understand your position Ms.
11 Simmons, I think that, you know, it's a little bit different then when it's a 12 judge hearing these things versus a jury; right? I think that I can look at 13 evidence and give evidence the appropriate weight that I see fit, were 14 as, you know, we get nervous with lay people, such as jury that are they 15 gonna be so prejudice by these types of things that they're not gonna be 16 able to, you know, make a determination based on the facts.

17 So, yes, I read them. Yes, I considered them. I don't give the 18 cases that you're -- discussing right now the type of weight that I'd give 19 the cases that are in the PSI, and cases that I have judgments of 20 convictions for. But I think that globally I should look at everything, and 21 then it's up to me to determine what weight is appropriate. So that's 22 what I'll say in regards to that; okay?

23 MS. SIMMONS: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: You're welcome.

25 MS. SIMMONS: Other than that, we are prepared to go

1 forward today.

2 THE COURT: All right. And Mr. Albright are you -- also?

3 MR. ALBRIGHT: I am, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Okay, Mr. Albright?

5 MR. ALBRIGHT: I will just briefly -- Your Honor, I mentioned
6 that I'll be seeking habitual treatment. On the State's notice to seek 7 habitual, there is one small amendment on page 1 line 26 it mentions an 8 assault with a deadly weapon. The actually charge per the JOC, which 9 I'll be entering shortly as an exhibit, is an assault upon an officer is the 10 actual name of the charge.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. ALBRIGHT: It doesn't change the felony or the case
13 number.

14 THE COURT: Sure.

15 MR. ALBRIGHT: It was also in January of 2005; where as my 16 notice on line 25 says, 2004.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. ALBRIGHT: So, I think, because the JOC takes a little 19 while, as you know, it became a 2005 case.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. ALBRIGHT: So I just wanna make sure those 22 amendments were on the record.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 MR. ALBRIGHT: The State is requesting today that the --
25 court adjudicate the defendant on the large habitual pursuant to NRS

1 207.010, and that you sentence him to 10 years to life in prison at the 2 Nevada Department of Corrections. As such I'll enter these three 3 exhibits -- prior judgements of convictions exhibit number 1, these have 4 been previously marked by your court. Exhibit 1 is case CR04-1800 a
5 judgment of conviction, 2005, for Sean Michael McKendrick for assault
6 upon an officer. Proposed exhibit number 2 is from case CR08-1349
7 filed in July of 2008 for Sean Michael McKendrick for battery by a
8 prisoner, a felony. And exhibit number 3, the sticker here says it's a
9 proposed exhibit, is a judgment of conviction from June of 2008 for Sean
10 Michael McKendrick case number CR08-0323 the charge of battery with 11 a deadly weapon causing substantially bodily harm.

12 With that, Your Honor, I wanna go a little bit through his 13 criminal history, most of which, obviously, is in the PSI, which you have 14 before you. On page 4, his first conviction was a gross misdemeanor,
15 drug related in 2003. He was 19-years-old, and he was given 12
16 months in jail. Less than a year later, he picks up his next gross 17 misdemeanor; he's barely 20-years-old, it's taking a vehicle without 18 owner's consent. Again, he's given 12 months in jail. Interestingly 19 enough, the next case he picks up is only a month later, which -- its 20 assault with a deadly weapon on a police officer is what he pleads to.
21 The charges included, PSV, eluding police, endangering persons, and 22 property. He's given -- this is his first felony, he's given 12 to 48 months.
23 He's dishonorably discharged in November of 2006. 14 months later
24 he's charged with attempt murder with a deadly weapon. He pleads
25 guilty to battery with a deadly weapon resulting in substantially bodily

1 harm, there's over $100,000 in restitution. He's 24-years-old at this
2 point, and he's sent to prison for 6 to 15 years. Now before he actually 3 pleads to that, he picks up another case while in custody, which is,
4 according to the PSI, a battery on police officer. He pleads to a battery 5 by prisoner and gets a 16 to 48 consecutive to his 6 to 15 years, so
6 bottom there is about 7½ years. I don't know how much of that 7 to 20
7 years he served, or 7 to 19 years, but the next case that he does pick-up
8 is in January 19 -- 2019, just this year. And this was the case earlier
9 referenced that was dismissed. It's a -- domestic violence related, the 10 victim is his girlfriend, and her friend. It involves robbery with a deadly 11 weapon of him by gun point taking her phone, her wallet, and her tablet,
12 with a firearm, telling her and her friend, with a gun pointed to the friends
13 head, today all three of us are going to die. Eventually he's taken into 14 custody. In his car, is found that firearm with an obliterated serial
15 number. For whatever reason, such as the nature with domestic cases, 16 as you're fully aware, for lack of cooperation on the victim's part, that 17 case was ultimately dismissed.

18 But very shortly after getting arrested he posted bail and was 19 put on house arrest. He was sent to live with -- or permission from the 20 court and his brother, was living with his brother and sister-in-law at their 21 apartment on house arrest. Three days after being on house arrest his 22 brother calls the police, and says I need you to come -- and this is in the 23 report for this case -- the instant case he's on house arrest, and his 24 brother and sister-in-law call the police and say, we need you to do a 25 random check at our house, we want our brother to be drug tested and if

1 tests dirty he's not allowed to live at our house anymore. They leave the 2 house when the -- both the house arrest officers arrive, he's there, he's 3 acting erratic, he's sweating. Because of that they attempt to put him in 4 hand cuffs, and he starts to resist after they've got one hand cuff on. He 5 starts swinging at them, hitting both of them, including being hit by the 6 other half of the hand cuffs. At one point, per the arrest report, as well
7 as the -- they both testified at grand jury, one of the officers is charged
8 and thrown into a table that breaks. At one point the fight ends up
9 outside on the balcony. This is out front there on the second floor, and 10 the defendant charges one of the officers and attempts to push him over 11 the balcony off the second floor. The only way that doesn't happen is 12 that the other officer comes to his rescue, puts him in a headlock where 13 eventually he's rendered unconscious. When he comes to again he 14 immediately starts fighting. He's put into custody, and eventually makes 15 his way to jail.

16 He's charged, in that case, with attempt murder on that police
17 officer, two counts of battery by prisoner, and an attempt battery with -- 18 resulting in substantial bodily harm. He ultimately pleads to a battery by 19 prisoner. Which as I've made clear, he's already got one of those 20 convictions in his past, as well as another assault with a deadly weapon
21 on a police officer. His bail is at $100,000 after he enters his plea, 22 unfortunately as you're fully aware, the State's case load does not allow 23 me to be present for every entry of plea for my cases, so I'm not present
24 for that. The defense argues for lowering the bail to $10,000. You were 25 not on the bench, Judge Bixler is, he bites at that argument and bail is

1 lowered to -- $10,000 even though the only thing that's changed is that
2 assumption of guilt, innocence is gone, now he has plead guilty. So that 3 is what it is, it's an argument for another time.

4 But, unfortunately, he makes bail and is released. And to the 5 surprise of no one, he fails to appear at his rendition of sentence here on 6 the 10th of June 2019, a bench warrant is issued. We find out later,
7 actually I only found out a couple days ago, part of the reason he was 8 here is that on June 7th 2019 he picks a new case. He's inside of Your 9 Stop Liquor when police call to the scene, this is case 19F12275X,
10 what's concerning about this case -- although right now it's plead as a 11 trafficking, he's eventually caught with 10.5 grams of methamphetamine
12 on his person, but in the police report, again, as he's -- as officers -- 13 multiple officers are trying to take him in custody, he's fighting, he's 14 swinging, he's assaulting multiple officers, a code red is called, three 15 other units have to be called off the street, which obviously puts the 16 community at risk pulling those -- men and woman off the streets, but 17 again as -- his criminal history is shown, again, he's combative with 18 officers, assaulting them, swinging at them, battering them. So that one 19 is yet to be filed, although probable cause has been found by a
20 magistrate, there's a status check on filing.

21 Also, important to note in that case, after he swung -- he's put 22 in hand cuffs, they're running his record to see who this man is, he 23 jumps up in the middle of the street and flees, ultimately escaping. At 24 that point he's -- a prisoners and hasn't been charged as an escape, but 25 it certainly could. He runs across the street into a 7-Eleven parking lot,

1 officers have to run through a street, with traffic, and catch him again
2 and put him in custody.

3 So one -- there's a couple patterns that we see here, multiple 4 incidences of eluding, of running, failing to appear, but another thing we 5 see is violence in every charge, deadly weapons are part of each
6 charge. But most concerning to the State is his tendency to zero in on 7 law enforcement officers. I've never seen a criminal history so over-
8 pleat with instances where whatever's happening whether he's on drugs
9 or not, on house arrest or not, in jail or in prison or not, he's assaulting 10 and victimizing law enforcement officers. It's concerning to the State for 11 -- obvious reasons.

12 I -- want to point out a couple things from the PSI that I expect 13 we'll hear in the defenses argument, and that's his mental health. So on 14 page 3 of the PSI it talks about diagnosed dyslexia, it also says -- 15 allegedly he has bipolar disorder, post-traumatic stress disorder, and 16 schizophrenia. So this is unfortunate, and mental health is nothing to be 17 taken lightly, and I'm the first to admit that, but what I want to make clear
18 is that not only would he not be admitted to mental health, and I don't 19 think that's appropriate and I would oppose it if it's on the table, but 20 because of the violent nature I don't think would be accepted, but there 21 are thousands of people living in our city that suffer from schizophrenia,
22 PTSD and bipolar disorder and many, if not the vast majority, of them 23 live productive lives, hold down jobs, have families and struggle with that 24 personally without trying to kill law enforcement officers every time they 25 have the chance.

1 The next point, from the PSI, are drugs. On that same page,
2 page 3, he claims to be addicted to marijuana from age 12 and addicted
3 methamphetamine from 14. Again, I don't think he's a candidate for 4 drug court. I don't think he would be accepted because of the violent
5 nature of these charges and his past. I would oppose any sort of 6 program in that regard. But, again, the State deals with meth addicts on 7 a daily basis, and the vast, vast majority, although -- self-destructive,
8 and self-harming, maybe thieves to feed their need, the vast, vast 9 majority do not victimize other people violently, certainly not police 10 officers, while they're being taken into custody, whether they're high at 11 the time or not.

12 And then finally, I want to speak to the fact that -- of why I'm 13 asking for 10 to life versus 10 to 25. I'm well aware of the different
14 structure in the habitual statute, and why I feel that life on the end as a 15 possibility versus 25 is important here. I've made clear that his criminal 16 history started at 19, at least his adult criminal history, and that every 17 time he's out of custody, even for a short number of months, he picks up
18 another violent concerning charge. I think 10 to 25 versus 10 to life he'll 19 likely -- actually probably get out along the same amount time he'll serve 20 initially the same amount of time, but keeping him on parole for life 21 prospectively, at least gives him that motivation and that, kind of,
22 hammer hanging over his head to try to give him the motivation to be 23 better. It's to protect, not only, the members of our community to maybe 24 people that his family, obviously, were victimized in some of these 25 cases. Law enforcement officers, obviously, but also to protect himself,

1 the defendant, as something that would possible be a motivating factor
2 to be better once he gets out. And with that, I'll submit.

3 THE COURT: I know that the murder that he was charged
4 with in Reno was ultimately -- he was convicted to a bat with deadly with 5 substantial. Does anybody know the underlying circumstances? It's 6 hard to get those records, so I'm blaming anybody for not having them.
7 But does anybody know the underlying circumstances related to the 8 murder?

9 MR. ALBRIGHT: It was hard enough for me to get the 10 judgments of convictions, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. ALBRIGHT: And I was hoping the JOC's would include a 13 little bit more factual detail, which they don't.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So, sir, in a moment I'm going to have 15 the opportunity to hear from Ms. Simmons on your behalf, is there
16 anything that you would like to say to the Court before I sentence you?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 THE DEFENDANT: First and foremost everything that the DA
20 has said, it's pretty much true ma'am. I have a really bad history, and no
21 way, shape or form, am I saying that anything right now is an excuse. I 22 am guilty of the crime of resisting arrest, arguing with those officers,
23 when I'm being tried for right now. The only thing is, ma'am, I would like 24 to explain my situation where I was at mentally.

25 I had just did 9½ years solitary confinement in Ely max prison.

1 I was released, I have PTSD I couldn't be around no-body, but I still
2 gainfully had a job. I fell in love with somebody, I was with them for 8
3 months, I found out they were HIV positive. I did not know what to do. I
4 left my apartment, went to my brother's house, cried, went right back to 5 my apartment. Then I was arrested. Do to allegations that were 6 completely false, I was out on bail, this did happen.

7 Your Honor, the only thing I ask of you, is to please give me a
8 chance. Even when I was out on bail I was still gainfully employed. I
9 still got a new apartment. I did not show up for sentencing because I,
10 myself, had gave my girl my money for a new lawyer to show up. I was 11 at work, my lawyer called me, why didn't you show up? I told her what 12 happened. She said you need to get ahold of a lawyer now so they can 13 file a motion to expunge it. Honestly, ma'am, I was so scared I didn't 14 know what to do I just started getting high again.

15 In no way shape or form am I saying that it's right. And no
16 way shape or form am I saying that I'm not guilty, I am. But I'm begging 17 you, please, show me some leniency. I do not even know how to 18 explain the things that I was going through mentally. Even officers that 19 took me to UMC that I got in a fight with I explained it to them while we 20 were there, I told them, look I'll pee in a cup; they were like well it's too
21 late. You know, it was too late. And I understand that I did make 22 mistakes, but I could not function right, but I was trying to get the help
23 that I needed.

24 I'm begging you please don't throw me away like an animal.
25 Please don't give me the habitual. And if you do, ma'am, please

1 suspend it. Give me 5 years probation. Give me intensive house arrest,
2 I will show you that I can be a better man. I'm begging you. And I know
3 that you probably hear this all the time, you used to be a prosecutor
4 yourself, but sometimes, some people just get the bad deal, and that 5 was me. I'm not saying that it was --

6 THE COURT: Got --

7 THE DEFENDANT: -- right.

8 THE COURT: -- the bad --

9 THE DEFENDANT: I'm not --

10 THE COURT: -- deal? What do you mean you got the bad
11 deal? Listen, I --

12 THE DEFENDANT: No, no --

13 THE COURT: No, no, no. I'm all about giving people
14 chances. You have literally tried to kill people, and killed somebody,
15 over, and over, and over again. This isn't about you getting a bad deal.
16 This is about you making bad decisions and trying to hurt people over,
17 and over, and over again. This isn't about me being a prosecutor. This 18 isn't about you being a defendant. This is about you are dangerous, and 19 if you think you are getting probation you are delusional. You have 20 made --

21 THE DEFENDANT: Excuse me --

22 THE COURT: -- no. You have got your chances. You have 23 been given the chances of probation. You've been given the chances of 24 parole. And what you do is you get out, and even when you're not out,
25 you continue to hurt people. And that is going to stop. And it's gonna

1 stop here today. Ms. Ross. Ms. --

2 MS. SIMMONS: Ms. --

3 THE COURT: -- Simmons.

4 MS. SIMMONS: -- Simmons. It's okay, I understand.

5 Obviously, I had previously explained to him if he's treated as 6 a habitual criminal, that's not like -- we can't suspend it, its mandatory
7 prison. I'd also explained to him, obviously, it's a long shot in asking for 8 probation. More than a long shot like the longest shot ever based on his 9 criminal history.

10 But in looking -- so I'm gonna start with I'm asking for. Parole
11 and Probation, when he showed up for his PSI when he went and got 12 the evaluation done by them, they recommended based on all of his 13 criminal history, and the facts at that time, I recognize they are slightly
14 different now, but at that time their recommendation was a 12 to 48. I
15 would, at a minimum, ask that, Your Honor, consider that, but if not, 16 simply not treating him as habitual criminal.

17 In this case -- what we have here is a situation where Mr.
18 McKendrick was, unfortunately at the time, on house arrest. Although I
19 do not agree with it, it was definitely something I was going to writ had 20 we not negotiated the case. Mr. Albright and I actually had negotiated 21 this case prior to him going to the grand jury. Then he had gone to the 22 grand jury, and we done the deal up here in District Court. I think it was 23 going to be actually next to impossible to actually -- substantiate the 24 attempt murder charge in this case. In this case what I think is very 25 clear just based on reading the police report that this was a situation

1 where somebody who was being monitored by house arrest, who was 2 scared of going back to jail, had officer's show up, and maybe he was 3 high, maybe he wasn't, but he definitely was not acting normal, and he
4 panicked. Mr. McKendrick tried to flee. He hurt those officers,
5 unfortunately, in his attempt to flee, but there was no intent by Mr.
6 McKendrick to actually kill one of those officers, which is something the 7 State would have actually had to of proven. And I do think that in and of 8 itself is one charge that probably went a little bit too far. However, he 9 did still plea to the battery by prisoner, because that is, in fact, what 10 happened.

11 As far as the bail goes, Mr. Albright was not here that day, I
12 was here that day, mister -- or Judge Bixler was on the bench, and Mr.
13 Stanton was here for the District Attorney's Office. At that time -- just so 14 that it's clear how it happened, Mr. McKendrick had asked the judge to 15 consider an O.R. I told -- Judge Bixler that I had explained that that has 16 to be in writing, but he would consider reducing the bail based on the 17 charge that he's pleading guilty too. Mr. Stanton did not object, he said 18 that it seemed appropriate to modify the bail based on the charge he's 19 actually pleaing to. And so that's how the bail got set that way.

20 Obviously Mr. Albright was much more familiar with the case,
21 so I understand his position.

22 THE COURT: Sure.

23 MS. SIMMONS: But that is what happened when it came to 24 the bail -- bail reduced at that time.

25 THE COURT: I understand.

1 MS. SIMMONS: As far as the other cases go, I mean, Your
2 Honor, already knows my position. Those are cases were either
3 voluntarily dismissed by the State, or have not yet been filed. So while I
4 do understand that there's still an issue, there's clearly even based on 5 the allegations concerns for the State and Your Honor, based on the 6 simple allegations placed in those new cases -- or, well one older case
7 and then the quote-unquote new case.

8 But what's also clear from the yet -- unyet -- or the yet to be 9 filed case.

10 THE COURT: Sure.

11 MS. SIMMONS: Is that there's still a drug problem. And Mr.
12 Albright's right that is something I'm definitely going to talk about. Mr.
13 McKendrick has a very severe mental health and substance abuse
14 problem. He's been using methamphetamine since 14 and on a regular 15 basis. That doesn't excuse -- and a lot of people are able to not be in 16 the position were Mr. McKenrick is at. But he was also, as Mr. Albright 17 pointed out, 19 when he picked up his first case and shortly thereafter
18 went to prison for 9 or more years before he was ever eligible for parole
19 or released in any fashion. Those are formative years for young people, 20 especially men, because they develop a little bit slower than women do.
21 But those are formative years, and at that time being placed in isolation
22 in max prison, unfortunately as Your Honor's probably aware, people
23 don't always come out of prison being a better person, especially for that 24 amount of time, at that age. It's based on the history. It's clear that 25 there are reasons why Mr. McKendrick became the type of person he is.

1 That he is distrustful. That he is running.

2 Now the violence that is another situation, obviously, I
3 understand all the concerns there. But there are reasons that people
4 who have spent a long -- or large amount of time in prison become 5 distrustful of the system. Become people who flee, who run, who panic,
6 and don't have the appropriate ability to control their impulses. That's 7 why a lot of our clients have to take those impulse control classes when 8 they are still down in Justice Court and they have -- we, hopefully, have 9 the ability to intervene at that time. We having meet Mr. McKendrick at 10 a later stage in life where many things had previously occurred don't 11 have that ability to help him or intervene for him.

12 I do believe habitual treatment is inappropriate in this case.
13 Mr. McKendrick has never been treated as a habitual criminal before.
14 So jumping from zero to large does seem a little bit inappropriate, even 15 when you consider the way that things move. Obviously the way that 16 the law is currently written allows for anything two or more, or three or 17 more. But it's very clear from the intent of a legislature based on the 18 recent changes, which aren't in affect now, but do clearly indicate the 19 way that the State is wanting to treat what is considered a habitual -- 20 criminal. And at this stage, Mr. McKendrick, if that law were in place, he 21 would not qualify based on the history that he has. Because of that, I do 22 believe that habitual criminal is inappropriate, and the fact that he has 23 three prior felonies, obviously, very serious prior felonies, but that does 24 not mandate a large habitual criminal sentences in this case.

25 When -- Mr. McKendrick failed to appear at his sentencing, we

1 had been in contact since he had posted bail. We discussed trying to 2 set-up treatment. We has discussed trying to get him evaluated, so that 3 he could come in here before Your Honor and explain what he had been 4 working on. Still even knowing then that it was an extremely long shot at 5 getting probation at that time, but at least to show that he was taking 6 those steps. He had contacted me briefly before -- or just prior to the 7 original sentencing day, I had emailed the Court and Mr. Albright
8 informing everyone, that Mr. McKendrick had contacted -- an attorney. I 9 contacted him the day he missed his sentencing to find out what was 10 going on, because not even another attorney had been here. He 11 explained to me that he had given that money to his girlfriend, that she 12 had set-up a private attorney for him. It turns out, because she shortly 13 thereafter fled that state, that she had actually taken his money and ran.
14 So that's why he was not been here that day. He's already explained
15 why and what happened shortly after that as he panicked.

16 I do believe that based on his mental health, the substance
17 abuse issues that he has, that a more appropriate sentence would be 18 something, which is simply not be habitual treatment, a 28 to 72 is more 19 appropriate then a habitual treatment in this case, because that's not 20 what we should be doing in this society based on the changes that the 21 legislature has made. That's not what a habitual criminal is suppose to 22 be. The type of charges, or the number of convictions, that Mr.
23 McKendrick has at this stage, there's also clearly mitigating issues that 24 we simply cannot address at this stage. That had we had intervened or 25 had somebody intervened at a much younger age for Mr. McKendrick

1 we probably would never have been here.

2 So I'd be asking, Your Honor, to consider a 28 to 72, which, I
3 believe, is the high end of a regular sentence.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So I've taken a lot of time to go through 5 this case, look up the other cases, look up the underlying police reports.
6 Like I stated when I began discussing this case that I -- don't really give 7 a lot of weight in regards to the cases that were either dismissed or 8 haven't been filed yet. Because, quite honestly, we have enough to 9 work with in regards to page 4 of the PSI. And do I agree that this 10 defendant has a drug addiction, yes. Do I agree that to a certain degree 11 there's probably mental health issues, yes I do.

12 But -- what I have to balance out with is the safety of the 13 community. And when I look at assault with a deadly weapon, 14 obstructing a police officer, murder with a deadly weapon, battery with 15 substantial bodily harm, battery on a police officer, battery by prisoner, 16 two counts, attempt murder, attempt battery resulting in substantial 17 bodily harm, there's only so many passes that you get until someone 18 has to call you out on it, and we have to start protecting people that work
19 to protect us. And when we have these constant attacks on police
20 officers, and even attacks of violence on people who are -- lay people,
21 that just has to stop. So I actually agree with the State today. I am 22 going to be sentencing him under the habitual statute.

23 So in accordance with the laws of the State of Nevada, you
24 are hereby judged guilty of the crime of battery by prisoner.

25 In addition to the $25 Administrative Assessment, the $150

1 DNA fee, the $3 DNA collection, the $250 Indigent Defense fee, and the 2 fact that you must submit to genetic marker testing.

3 You're sentenced under the habitual statute of NRS 207.010,
4 to life in the department -- Nevada Department of Corrections. The first 5 opportunity at parole will be after 10 years has been served.

6 Pursuant to case law it does discuss the fact that I must -- that 7 this isn't just an automatic thing that must be done. That the court must 8 weight the appropriate factors, for and against, the criminal 9 enhancement. I have discussed the constant attacks on people, both 10 that are police officers, that are not police officers, the fact that even 11 while in custody the defendant commits -- continues to commit acts of 12 violence while in custody. And that the court has grave concerns about 13 the safety of the community with the defendant out.

14 The reason why I think that life -- a life sentence is 15 appropriate, is I agree with the State in regards to that I do think that 16 whether it's a 10 to 25 or a 10 to life the defendant probably gets out 17 around the same time, but this thing -- this opportunity that we have of 18 parole hanging over his head will hopefully keep him, we can only hope, 19 will keep him in line and making better decisions.

20 So, the amount of credit for time served is -- I had --

21 THE DEFENDANT: So when I'm 50-years-old it -- that --

22 MS. SIMMONS: Sean. Sean.

23 THE DEFENDANT: -- will be considered --

24 MS. SIMMONS: Sean stop.

25 THE DEFENDANT: -- a better -- judgment for me?

1 MS. SIMMONS: Sean --

2 THE COURT: I really think you're proving me wrong at this 3 point.

4 So I'm showing 26 days for credit for time served, which I
5 don't think is correct, because that was in February of 23.

6 MS. SIMMONS: It's should be 59 days as of today. The only
7 other thing I would ask is, and I don't know if -- he can qualify it, if he's 8 treated as a large habitual defendant, is whether or not he can 9 participate in the drug treatment program --

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MS. SIMMONS: -- if that's something, Your Honor, could 12 consider --

13 THE COURT: Of course.

14 MS. SIMMONS: -- allowing him to patriciate in.

15 THE COURT: So I believe it's called the -- Program 184, --

16 MS. SIMMONS: Yes.

17 THE COURT: -- and if he is allowed to partake in that that, I
18 think, would be a great option.

19 MS. SIMMONS: Thank you, Your Honor.

20 MS. SISOLAK: Your Honor, I have Ms. Riffle on page 12.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Just one second.

22 THE CLERK: Counselor, are you offering any exhibits for 23 admission?

24 MR. ALRBRIGHT: Correct, Your Honor. I wasn't sure if they
25 were -- suppose to be proposed, or if they automatically -- but yes I

1 would move for their admission.

2 THE COURT: So they were attached originally, or sent over
3 to the court, but yes they are going to be admitted.

4 MR. ALBRIGHT: And those are the certified originals that I've 5 given over.

6 MS. SIMMONS: And I had received a copy of those 7 previously from Mr. Albright.
