ORDER DENYING MOTION

Appellant has filed an "emergency" pro se motion to stay the remittitur pending application to the Supreme Court of the United States for a writ of certiorari.<sup>1</sup> The remittitur issued in this matter on November 26, 2019. Accordingly, the motion is denied as moot.

It is so ORDERED.

cc: Matthew Travis Houston
Attorney General/Carson City
Clark County District Attorney

<sup>1</sup>The motion does not comply with NRAP 27(e), which governs emergency motions, and does not explain why emergency relief is necessary. Accordingly, the motion was handled in the ordinary course.

The motion also lacks a certificate of service. See NRAP 25(d). This court waives the requirement to file a certificate of service in this instance. See NRAP 2.
