MOTION FOR EXTENSION TO FILE
ANSWER TO PETITION FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW

Respondent Babylyn Tate requests an extension of two weeks, through November 4, 2021, to file her answer to the petition for judicial review. This is the third request. Without an extension, the answer would be due October 21, 2021.

Although the answer is nearly complete, respondent must request a little more time. Undersigned counsel has continued to dedicate more time than he anticipated—and over a longer period of time than the foresaw—managing the affairs of his elderly mother with her power of attorney, as she has transferred between three medical facilities over the last two weeks. When in the office, moreover, he has been shouldering an increased caseload while his partner Abraham Smith is out on paternity leave. Respondent appreciates the Court's patience.

Dated this 21st day of October, 2021.
