ORDER

This is an appeal from a district court order granting in part respondent's pretrial motion to suppress evidence. On August 27, 2019, this court entered an order directing entry and transmission of written order. On September 16, 2019, the district court entered a written order.

Although NRS 177.015(2) authorizes such an appeal, the statute contemplates that the State must make a preliminary showing of good cause why this court should entertain the appeal. Accordingly, appellant shall have 14 days from the date of this order to file points and authorities setting forth more fully the basis for the district court's order and addressing the propriety of the appeal and whether there may be a miscarriage of justice if the appeal is not entertained. NRS 177.015(2). Respondent shall have 14 days thereafter to file opposing points and authorities. Upon receipt of these authorities, the court will determine whether to entertain the appeal.

It is so ORDERED.
