8. Indicate whether appellant was granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis, and the date of entry of the district court order granting such leave:

Appellants did not request leave to proceed in forma pauperis.

9. Indicate the date of proceedings commenced in the district court:

May 3, 2013.

10. Provide a brief description of the nature of the action and result in the district court, including the type of judgment or order being appealed and the relief granted by the district court:

At issue is the enforceability of a purported naming rights agreement and a $500,000 Bequest from Milton I. Schwartz to “the Hebrew Academy for the purpose of funding scholarships to educate Jewish children only.” On May 3, 2013, after Mr. Schwartz’s son and the executor of his estate, Jonathan Schwartz, refused to make the Bequest to the School, the School filed a Petition to Compel

1 Distribution of the Bequest, in addition to seeking other relief. On May 28, 2013, the Estate filed its
2 own petition for declaratory relief, raising claims for breach of contract, fraud in the inducement,
3 Bequest void for mistake, offset of the Bequest, revocation of gift and constructive trust, and 4 construction of the Will. On May 28, 2014, the Estate filed a supplemental petition for declaratory
5 relief adding causes of action for specific performance and injunctive relief.

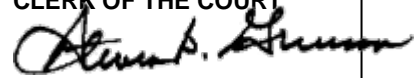

6 A jury trial commenced in August 2018. The jury found that Milton Schwartz did not have an 7 enforceable naming rights contract with the school. The jury also found that Mr. Schwartz had intended
8 a bequest in his will to go only to a school known as the “Milton I. Schwartz Hebrew Academy” based 9 on his mistaken belief that he had a perpetual naming rights agreement.

10 The parties then conducted post-trial briefing on the remaining equitable issues. The Court
11 denied the School’s Petition and granted the Estate’s competing claims (affirmative defenses) for 12 construction of will and bequest void for mistake. The Court further denied the Estate’s claims for 13 promissory estoppel and revocation and constructive trust regarding Milton I. Schwartz’s lifetime gifts
14 to the School. Judgments were entered accordingly. The Estate appealed and the School cross-appealed 15 the various Judgments regarding the parties’ claim in Nevada Supreme Court Case No. 78341, which 16 is currently pending.

17 Subsequently, both parties moved for an award of their costs. On July 19, 2019, the district
18 court issued its Decision and Order denying the School’s request for costs, granting the Estate’s request
19 for costs, and granting in part the School’s Motion to Re-Tax and Settle Costs, which the School appeals 20 herein.

CASE NO.: 07-P-061300

15
16 DEPARTMENT XXVI

17 DECISION AND ORDER

18
19 This matter was tried to a jury on the Petition to Compel Distribution pursuant to the 20 provisions of a will (will contest) brought by the Adelson Educational Institute (hereinafter the 21 School) against the Estate of Milton I. Schwartz seeking to enforce the provisions of the decedents'
22 will with respect to funds left to the Milton I. Schwartz Hebrew Academy. The Estate counter
23 petitioned for declaratory relief on its equitable claims for either enforcement of a "naming rights
24 agreement" or in the alternative for return of all contributions made to the school during Mr.
25 Schwartz's lifetime.¹

26 After hearing the evidence the jury answered several questions of fact: that Milton I

27
28 ¹ As the decedent's son Jonathan Schwartz is the Executor of the Estate, he will be referred to herein as the Executor, while "Mr. Schwartz" refers to Milton I. Schwartz.

1 Schwartz did not have an agreement for naming rights to the school “in perpetuity;” that when he
2 drafted his will he intended the bequest to only go to a school known as the Milton I. Schwartz
3 Hebrew Academy; and that the bequest was premised on his mistaken belief that he had such
4 naming rights. With respect to the Estate’s claims the jury found that the School did nothing to
5 induce Mr. Schwartz to detrimentally rely on the purported naming rights contract, and finally, that
6 Mr. Schwartz believed he had such an agreement but was mistaken.

7 Based on these factual findings, the Petition filed by the Adelson School for enforcement of
8 the provisions of the will was denied. In post trial motions on the declaratory relief claim, the Court
9 ruled on the equitable issues raised by the Estate, and holding that by the jury’s Verdict, ruled out
10 recovery on the claim to enforce the purported naming rights agreement. Further, the Estate
11 acknowledged it was required to distribute the $500,000 bequest to “scholarships” for Jewish
12 children; however, the Estate had no right to repayment of the amounts donated to the school during 13 Mr. Schwartz’ lifetime on the grounds that there was no evidence any of the inter vivos gifts were
14 made contingent on the school bearing his name.²

15 Subsequently both parties petitioned for an award of costs. The School’s theory is that
16 although its petition to enforce the $500,000 bequest failed, they nevertheless prevailed in their
17 defense to the Estate’s claims to either rename the school after Mr. Schwartz at the risk of losing the
18 millions of dollars donated by the Adelson family subject to a written contract for naming rights or
19 to return the more than $2 million in donations made during Mr. Schwartz’ life on the mistaken
20 belief he had naming rights. The Estate claimed it was the prevailing party as it was successful in its
21 defense of the will contest even though it did not recover on its declaratory relief claims.

22 23 CROSS-MOTIONS FOR AN AWARD OF COSTS

24 The cross-motions present the question of what is a prevailing party for purposes of recovery
25 of costs pursuant to NRS 18.020:

26
27 ² Mr. Schwartz made various donations starting with the initial $500,000 to start the school in 1989, and allegedly
28 totaling approximately $2.8 million dollars by time Mr. Schwartz passed away in 2007.

1 This decision turns on the definition of prevailing party as used in NRS
2 18.020(3) and NRS 18.050. A prevailing party must win on at least one of its claims.
3 See, Golightly & Vannah v TJ Allen, LLC, 132 Nev. Av. Op. 41, 373 P.3d 103, 107 (2016). In
4 Golightly a law firm interplead funds to which it claimed priority, although the district court
5 awarded the firm some money, the medical provider was entitled its full pro-rata share, so the law
6 firm was not a prevailing party. See NRS 18.020:

7 Costs must be allowed of course to the prevailing party against any adverse party
8 against whom judgment is rendered, in the following cases:

3. In an action for the recovery of money or damages, where the plaintiff seeks to recover more than $2,500.

10 Further, NRS 18.050 provides that costs may also be awarded at the discretion of the Court;
11 however, both statutes require a finding that the party seeking recovery is a prevailing party:

12 Except as limited by this section, in other actions in the district court, part or all of the 13 prevailing party's costs may be allowed and may be apportioned between the parties,
14 or on the same or adverse sides. If, in the judgment of the court, the plaintiff believes
15 he or she was justified in bringing the action in the district court, and the plaintiff recovers at least $700 in money or damages, or personal property of that value, the court may allow the plaintiff part or all of his or her costs.

16 It is not necessary that the party seeking the award of fees initiated the lawsuit. Further, the
17 Supreme Court has held that recovery on a crossclaim or counterclaim may also provide a basis for
18 recovery. See, Valley Electric Assoc. v Overfield, 121 Nev. 7, 10, 108 P.3e 1198, 1200 (2005),
19 holding in the context of an award of attorneys fees in a condemnation action that "the term
20 "prevailing party" is broadly construed so as to encompass plaintiffs, counterclaimants, and
21 defendants." It is not necessary for an award of costs that the recovery be monetary, as the Supreme
22 Court found that a party who was granted access to records requested from the police department
23 was a prevailing party entitled to an award of costs:

24 A party prevails "if it succeeds on any significant issue in litigation which achieves
25 some of the benefit it sought in bringing suit."... To be a prevailing party, 26 a party need not succeed on every issue... (observing that "a plaintiff [can be]
27 deemed 'prevailing' even though he succeeded on only some of his claims for relief").

1 See, LVMPD v Blackjack Bonding, Inc., 131 Nev. Adv. Op 10, 343 P.3d 608, 615 (2015) (internal
2 citations omitted, emphasis added to the quoted language in the opinion).

3 Here, both parties claim to have “prevailed.” The School did not achieve the benefit it
4 sought in bringing the suit as it did not succeed in compelling distribution of funds from the Estate;
5 however, it did defend against the Estate’s declaratory relief and equitable claims. The Estate
6 successfully defended against the Petition for Distribution but was unsuccessful on its counter-
7 petition for declaratory and equitable relief.

8 It is impossible to determine which costs either party claimed are related to issues presented
9 to the jury versus the equitable issues decided by the Court. The School brought the Petition for 10 distribution and the Jury found that the bequest was based on Mr. Schwartz’ mistaken belief he had 11 naming rights, so the bequest failed. Therefore the School was not successful with respect to the
12 benefit it sought in bringing the Petition for Distribution. Although the School defended the Estate’s
13 equitable claims, this does not overcome the fact that it was unsuccessful on its affirmative claims
14 for relief. Therefore, the Court finds that the School was not the prevailing party and denies its 15 motion for costs.

16 While the Estate also did not recover on its counterclaims, it successfully defended against
17 the School’s claims and was successful in its defense. It is impossible to parse out which costs were
18 related solely to the unsuccessful equitable claims as opposed to the successful defense of the 19 Petition for distribution. Therefore, under the circumstances of this case, the Court finds that the 20 Estate is the prevailing party for purposes of an award of costs pursuant to NRS 18.020.

21 22 CROSS-MOTIONS TO RETAX COSTS

23 The Estate filed a memorandum of costs claiming the following costs:³

26 ³ The Court notes that both parties provided documentation for their respective memoranda of costs such that the Court
27 can determine whether any specific item of costs was reasonable necessary and actually incurred. See, The Cadle
28 Company, v. Woods & Erickson, LLP, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345.3d 1049, (2015) and NRS 18.110(1).

The Motions to Retax were taken under consideration to determine which party was the “prevailing party” as well as the issues raised in the Motion to Retax. Recoverable costs are defined in NRS 18.005.⁴

The School raises the following issues in its Motion to Retax Costs:

Outside Professional Fees ($8,698.65)

Mediation fees ($3,660) –mediation costs are not permitted within NRS 18.005, although

⁴ 18.005: For the purposes of NRS 18.010 to 18.150, inclusive, the term “costs” means:

1. Clerks' fees.
2. Reporters' fees for depositions, including a reporter's fee for one copy of each deposition....
4. Fees for witnesses at trial, pretrial hearings and deposing witnesses, unless the court finds that the witness was called at the instance of the prevailing party without reason or necessity....
7. The fee of any sheriff or licensed process server for the delivery or service of any summons or subpoena used in the action, unless the court determines that the service was not necessary.
8. Compensation for the official reporter or reporter pro tempore....
11. Reasonable costs for telecopies.
12. Reasonable costs for photocopies.
13. Reasonable costs for long distance telephone calls.
14. Reasonable costs for postage.
15. Reasonable costs for travel and lodging incurred taking depositions and conducting discovery.
16. Fees charged pursuant to NRS 19.0335.
17. Any other reasonable and necessary expense incurred in connection with the action, including reasonable and necessary expenses for computerized services for legal research.

1 both parties listed this fee, which was split between the parties, mediation fees are not specifically
2 recoverable, this cost will not be awarded.

3 Videotaped deposition of Sheldon Adelson ($1,857.89) and deposition transcript costs for the
4 Estate's experts ($586.75) –the School argues that NRS 18.005 does not permit an award of costs for
5 videotaped depositions, especially when they were not played at trial. The School also objects to
6 transcript costs for Layne Rushforth and Rabbi Wyne, as these witnesses were precluded from
7 testifying as experts at trial.⁵ The Court agrees that cost of videotaping depositions is not
8 specifically permitted. NRS 18.005 provides that the cost of the original and one copy of a
9 transcript is awardable. The use of the video recording of deposition testimony is a useful trial
10 technique, such as here where counsel for the Estate played excerpts of Mr. Adelson's deposition
11 during closing arguments, but the cost is not chargeable to the other party. The costs of the 12 transcripts for the witnesses who were precluded from testifying at trial, however, will be awarded.

13 Process Server Fees ($4,727.50) –the School challenges $1,920 for unnecessary expedited
14 service charges without any explanation. The School also argues $310 for ineffective attempts to 15 serve Paul Schiffman in New York is not a recoverable cost. Similarly, $510 in fees to serve Dr.
16 Miriam Adelson, who was not deposed, is not recoverable. The Court denies these objections except 17 to the extent the Estate concedes that $540 should be deducted for witnesses who did not testify.

18 Westlaw ($8,730.93) – the School objected on the grounds that the method of allocating
19 Westlaw charges was not clear. The Estate explained that each entry represents the Estate's pro-rata
20 share of the total monthly Westlaw charge incurred by SDF based on the total number of search
21 transactions per month. The Court finds this explanation sufficient under Cadle and finds the
22 Westlaw charges reasonable, necessary, and actually incurred.

23 Travel Expenses/Parking ($768.40) –the School objected to missing documentation for $132
24 and double charged for Aug. 28, 2018, for a total reduction of $156. However, none of the "travel 25 expenses/parking" appear to be related to traveling to conduct depositions or otherwise related to 26

27 ⁵ Rabbi Wynne did testify at trial, but only as a percipient witness.

1 discovery, so the entire category is disallowed.

2 Courier Fees ($872) – the School objected on the grounds of missing documentation for $376
3 and double billed on two days; the Estate conceded $16 should be properly deducted for total
4 reduction of $392. The Court grants the objection pursuant to Cadle.

5 Long Distance Charges ($41.45) –no supporting documentation, the Estate agreed to waive
6 this item of costs due to the expense of responding.

8 CONCLUSION

9 WHEREFORE, based on pleadings and papers on file herein, the arguments of counsel and
10 the law that applies in this case as set forth above, the Court hereby finds that the prevailing party in
11 this matter is the Estate. Therefore, the School's Motion for Costs is DENIED; the Estate's Motion
12 for Costs is GRANTED.

13 FURTHER, the School's Motion to Retax Costs is GRANTED IN PART: Of the $66,777.34
14 in costs requested by the Estate, the Court disallows $41.45 (Long Distance Telephone Charges);
15 $768.40 (Travel Expenses); $540 (Process Server Fees); $392 (Courier Service – In House);
16 $5517.82 (Outside Professional Services) for a total reduction of $7,259.67; thereby leaving the 17 Estate's Motion for Costs granted in the amount of $59,517.67.

18
19 This matter was tried to a jury on the Petition to Compel Distribution pursuant to the
20 provisions of a will (will contest) brought by the Adelson Educational Institute (hereinafter the 21 School) against the Estate of Milton I. Schwartz seeking to enforce the provisions of the decedents'
22 will with respect to funds left to the Milton I. Schwartz Hebrew Academy. The Estate counter
23 petitioned for declaratory relief on its equitable claims for either enforcement of a "naming rights
24 agreement" or in the alternative for return of all contributions made to the school during Mr.
25 Schwartz's lifetime.¹

26 After hearing the evidence the jury answered several questions of fact: that Milton I

27
28 ¹ As the decedent's son Jonathan Schwartz is the Executor of the Estate, he will be referred to herein as the Executor, while "Mr. Schwartz" refers to Milton I. Schwartz.

1 Schwartz did not have an agreement for naming rights to the school “in perpetuity;” that when he
2 drafted his will he intended the bequest to only go to a school known as the Milton I. Schwartz
3 Hebrew Academy; and that the bequest was premised on his mistaken belief that he had such
4 naming rights. With respect to the Estate’s claims the jury found that the School did nothing to
5 induce Mr. Schwartz to detrimentally rely on the purported naming rights contract, and finally, that
6 Mr. Schwartz believed he had such an agreement but was mistaken.

7 Based on these factual findings, the Petition filed by the Adelson School for enforcement of
8 the provisions of the will was denied. In post trial motions on the declaratory relief claim, the Court
9 ruled on the equitable issues raised by the Estate, and holding that by the jury’s Verdict, ruled out
10 recovery on the claim to enforce the purported naming rights agreement. Further, the Estate
11 acknowledged it was required to distribute the $500,000 bequest to “scholarships” for Jewish
12 children; however, the Estate had no right to repayment of the amounts donated to the school during 13 Mr. Schwartz’ lifetime on the grounds that there was no evidence any of the inter vivos gifts were
14 made contingent on the school bearing his name.²

15 Subsequently both parties petitioned for an award of costs. The School’s theory is that
16 although its petition to enforce the $500,000 bequest failed, they nevertheless prevailed in their
17 defense to the Estate’s claims to either rename the school after Mr. Schwartz at the risk of losing the
18 millions of dollars donated by the Adelson family subject to a written contract for naming rights or
19 to return the more than $2 million in donations made during Mr. Schwartz’ life on the mistaken
20 belief he had naming rights. The Estate claimed it was the prevailing party as it was successful in its
21 defense of the will contest even though it did not recover on its declaratory relief claims.

22 23 CROSS-MOTIONS FOR AN AWARD OF COSTS

24 The cross-motions present the question of what is a prevailing party for purposes of recovery
25 of costs pursuant to NRS 18.020:

26
27 ² Mr. Schwartz made various donations starting with the initial $500,000 to start the school in 1989, and allegedly
28 totaling approximately $2.8 million dollars by time Mr. Schwartz passed away in 2007.

1 This decision turns on the definition of prevailing party as used in NRS
2 18.020(3) and NRS 18.050. A prevailing party must win on at least one of its claims.
3 See, Golightly & Vannah v TJ Allen, LLC, 132 Nev. Av. Op. 41, 373 P.3d 103, 107 (2016). In
4 Golightly a law firm interplead funds to which it claimed priority, although the district court
5 awarded the firm some money, the medical provider was entitled its full pro-rata share, so the law
6 firm was not a prevailing party. See NRS 18.020:

7 Costs must be allowed of course to the prevailing party against any adverse party
8 against whom judgment is rendered, in the following cases:

3. In an action for the recovery of money or damages, where the plaintiff seeks to recover more than $2,500.

10 Further, NRS 18.050 provides that costs may also be awarded at the discretion of the Court;
11 however, both statutes require a finding that the party seeking recovery is a prevailing party:

12 Except as limited by this section, in other actions in the district court, part or all of the 13 prevailing party's costs may be allowed and may be apportioned between the parties,
14 or on the same or adverse sides. If, in the judgment of the court, the plaintiff believes
15 he or she was justified in bringing the action in the district court, and the plaintiff recovers at least $700 in money or damages, or personal property of that value, the court may allow the plaintiff part or all of his or her costs.

16 It is not necessary that the party seeking the award of fees initiated the lawsuit. Further, the
17 Supreme Court has held that recovery on a crossclaim or counterclaim may also provide a basis for
18 recovery. See, Valley Electric Assoc. v Overfield, 121 Nev. 7, 10, 108 P.3e 1198, 1200 (2005),
19 holding in the context of an award of attorneys fees in a condemnation action that "the term
20 "prevailing party" is broadly construed so as to encompass plaintiffs, counterclaimants, and
21 defendants." It is not necessary for an award of costs that the recovery be monetary, as the Supreme
22 Court found that a party who was granted access to records requested from the police department
23 was a prevailing party entitled to an award of costs:

24 A party prevails "if it succeeds on any significant issue in litigation which achieves
25 some of the benefit it sought in bringing suit."... To be a prevailing party,
26 a party need not succeed on every issue... (observing that "a plaintiff [can be]
27 deemed 'prevailing' even though he succeeded on only some of his claims for 28 relief").

1 See, LVMPD v Blackjack Bonding, Inc., 131 Nev. Adv. Op 10, 343 P.3d 608, 615 (2015) (internal
2 citations omitted, emphasis added to the quoted language in the opinion).

3 Here, both parties claim to have “prevailed.” The School did not achieve the benefit it
4 sought in bringing the suit as it did not succeed in compelling distribution of funds from the Estate;
5 however, it did defend against the Estate’s declaratory relief and equitable claims. The Estate
6 successfully defended against the Petition for Distribution but was unsuccessful on its counter-
7 petition for declaratory and equitable relief.

8 It is impossible to determine which costs either party claimed are related to issues presented
9 to the jury versus the equitable issues decided by the Court. The School brought the Petition for 10 distribution and the Jury found that the bequest was based on Mr. Schwartz’ mistaken belief he had
11 naming rights, so the bequest failed. Therefore the School was not successful with respect to the
12 benefit it sought in bringing the Petition for Distribution. Although the School defended the Estate’s
13 equitable claims, this does not overcome the fact that it was unsuccessful on its affirmative claims
14 for relief. Therefore, the Court finds that the School was not the prevailing party and denies its 15 motion for costs.

16 While the Estate also did not recover on its counterclaims, it successfully defended against
17 the School’s claims and was successful in its defense. It is impossible to parse out which costs were
18 related solely to the unsuccessful equitable claims as opposed to the successful defense of the 19 Petition for distribution. Therefore, under the circumstances of this case, the Court finds that the 20 Estate is the prevailing party for purposes of an award of costs pursuant to NRS 18.020.

21 22 CROSS-MOTIONS TO RETAX COSTS

23 The Estate filed a memorandum of costs claiming the following costs:³
25

26 ³ The Court notes that both parties provided documentation for their respective memoranda of costs such that the Court
27 can determine whether any specific item of costs was reasonable necessary and actually incurred. See, The Cadle
28 Company, v. Woods & Erickson, LLP, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345.3d 1049, (2015) and NRS 18.110(1).

The Motions to Retax were taken under consideration to determine which party was the “prevailing party” as well as the issues raised in the Motion to Retax. Recoverable costs are defined in NRS 18.005.⁴

The School raises the following issues in its Motion to Retax Costs:

Outside Professional Fees ($8,698.65)

Mediation fees ($3,660) –mediation costs are not permitted within NRS 18.005, although

⁴ 18.005: For the purposes of NRS 18.010 to 18.150, inclusive, the term “costs” means:

1. Clerks' fees.
2. Reporters' fees for depositions, including a reporter's fee for one copy of each deposition....
4. Fees for witnesses at trial, pretrial hearings and deposing witnesses, unless the court finds that the witness was called at the instance of the prevailing party without reason or necessity....
7. The fee of any sheriff or licensed process server for the delivery or service of any summons or subpoena used in the action, unless the court determines that the service was not necessary.
8. Compensation for the official reporter or reporter pro tempore....
11. Reasonable costs for telecopies.
12. Reasonable costs for photocopies.
13. Reasonable costs for long distance telephone calls.
14. Reasonable costs for postage.
15. Reasonable costs for travel and lodging incurred taking depositions and conducting discovery.
16. Fees charged pursuant to NRS 19.0335.
17. Any other reasonable and necessary expense incurred in connection with the action, including reasonable and necessary expenses for computerized services for legal research.

1 both parties listed this fee, which was split between the parties, mediation fees are not specifically
2 recoverable, this cost will not be awarded.

3 Videotaped deposition of Sheldon Adelson ($1,857.89) and deposition transcript costs for the
4 Estate's experts ($586.75) –the School argues that NRS 18.005 does not permit an award of costs for
5 videotaped depositions, especially when they were not played at trial. The School also objects to
6 transcript costs for Layne Rushforth and Rabbi Wyne, as these witnesses were precluded from
7 testifying as experts at trial.⁵ The Court agrees that cost of videotaping depositions is not
8 specifically permitted. NRS 18.005 provides that the cost of the original and one copy of a
9 transcript is awardable. The use of the video recording of deposition testimony is a useful trial
10 technique, such as here where counsel for the Estate played excerpts of Mr. Adelson's deposition
11 during closing arguments, but the cost is not chargeable to the other party. The costs of the 12 transcripts for the witnesses who were precluded from testifying at trial, however, will be awarded.

13 Process Server Fees ($4,727.50) –the School challenges $1,920 for unnecessary expedited
14 service charges without any explanation. The School also argues $310 for ineffective attempts to 15 serve Paul Schiffman in New York is not a recoverable cost. Similarly, $510 in fees to serve Dr.
16 Miriam Adelson, who was not deposed, is not recoverable. The Court denies these objections except 17 to the extent the Estate concedes that $540 should be deducted for witnesses who did not testify.

18 Westlaw ($8,730.93) – the School objected on the grounds that the method of allocating
19 Westlaw charges was not clear. The Estate explained that each entry represents the Estate's pro-rata
20 share of the total monthly Westlaw charge incurred by SDF based on the total number of search
21 transactions per month. The Court finds this explanation sufficient under Cadle and finds the
22 Westlaw charges reasonable, necessary, and actually incurred.

23 Travel Expenses/Parking ($768.40) –the School objected to missing documentation for $132
24 and double charged for Aug. 28, 2018, for a total reduction of $156. However, none of the "travel 25 expenses/parking" appear to be related to traveling to conduct depositions or otherwise related to 26

27 ⁵ Rabbi Wynne did testify at trial, but only as a percipient witness.

1 discovery, so the entire category is disallowed.

2 Courier Fees ($872) – the School objected on the grounds of missing documentation for $376
3 and double billed on two days; the Estate conceded $16 should be properly deducted for total
4 reduction of $392. The Court grants the objection pursuant to Cadle.

5 Long Distance Charges ($41.45) –no supporting documentation, the Estate agreed to waive
6 this item of costs due to the expense of responding.

8 CONCLUSION

9 WHEREFORE, based on pleadings and papers on file herein, the arguments of counsel and
10 the law that applies in this case as set forth above, the Court hereby finds that the prevailing party in
11 this matter is the Estate. Therefore, the School's Motion for Costs is DENIED; the Estate's Motion
12 for Costs is GRANTED.

13 FURTHER, the School's Motion to Retax Costs is GRANTED IN PART: Of the $66,777.34
14 in costs requested by the Estate, the Court disallows $41.45 (Long Distance Telephone Charges);
15 $768.40 (Travel Expenses); $540 (Process Server Fees); $392 (Courier Service – In House);
16 $5517.82 (Outside Professional Services) for a total reduction of $7,259.67; thereby leaving the
17 Estate's Motion for Costs granted in the amount of $59,517.67.

As to FIRST ACCOUNTING AND REPORT, Court noted that a copy of said report had been delivered to Chambers.

PETITION TO COMPEL DISTRIBUTION, FOR ACCOUNTING, AND FOR ATTORNEY FEES involved the accounting report that was first produced six years after the decedent's death. Argument by counsel over whether the report was detailed enough or whether the Adelson School had standing to request or dispute the accounting. Colloquy on whether there were adequate funds in the estate to meet the bequest of the deceased towards the school. Counsel argued the economic costs to their client if the accounting was ordered first or the objector's standing was decided first.

PETITION FOR DECLARATORY RELIEF, Mr. Freer stated the circumstances of the decedents intentions when making the contributions to the school and whether the school had breached an agreement to receive the funds in return for naming the school after the decedent. Mr. Couvillier argued that the specific items mentioned were not written down within the Will itself and could not be concluded that they were his intentions. Argument by Counsel on whether the Adelson Education Institute had standing to demand information on the bequest to the Milton I. Schwartz Academy. Mr. Couvillier requested an appraisal of the stocks shown in the accounting; provide tax returns; and produce any other accounting information within thirty (30) days in order to verify there are funds in the estate to pay the bequest before pursuing any other disputes. Mr. Freer requested the Court stay the accounting requirement and first determine the Adelson Education Institution has any standing in this matter and conduct such discovery on this matter and the bequests to kin and spouses that have priority, and issue a scheduling over to set this matter for an evidentiary hearing before a jury.

Court noted there is a Motion to Dismiss the Petition for Declaratory Relief set on the Court's calendar on July 9, 2013. In order to consider the matter as a whole, COURT ORDERED Petition to Compel and Petition for Declaratory Relief CONTINUED.

- DR. MIRIAM AND SHELDON G. ADELSON EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION'S MOTION TO DISMISS EXECUTORS PETITION FOR DECLARATORY RELIEF PETITION ADELSON CAMPUS' PETITION TO COMPEL DISTRIBUTION, ACCOUNTING, AND ATTORNEY FEES

Counsel advised the Court that they had attempted to settle the matter but had been unsuccessful. Mr. Couvillier went through his Motion to Dismiss explaining that a Will found to clear and unambiguous cannot be argued with parol evidence and none of Executor's claims can be proven without admitting such evidence. Mr. Freer argued that the Will specifically makes the bequest to the Milton I. Schwartz Hebrew Academy which does not exist anymore as the school changed its name to the Adelson Educational Academy after Mr. Schwartz's death so there was latent ambiguity that needed to be fully realized through Discovery. As to the Motion to Compel, the Executor did not believe Adelson Educational Academy had any standing to make such a request to which Mr. Couvillier stated the school still has a building named for Mr. Schwartz.

- Argument by counsel on RESPONDENT JONATHAN SCHWARTZ' MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION as to the scope of Discovery allowed by the Court as shown in the Order Denying Adelson Campus' Motion To Dismiss Executor's Petition For Declaratory Relief Without Prejudice & Allowing Limited Discovery filed on November 13, 2013. Following argument, Court clarified its Order and intention to limit scope of Discovery only as to the Motion to Dismiss and not to all claims in Respondent's Petition for Declaratory Relief in the interest of judicial economy and expense to the two parties. The Court reminded the parties that during the hearing on the Motion to Dismiss, argument focused on Milton Schwartz' intent when he made the bequest and all theories as to how to prove that intent can be examined and any disputes as to being outside this limited discovery need to be heard by the Discovery Commissioner; claims of fraud and breach of contract may even be answered during this discovery but if not they can go forward at a later time.

Mr. Freer advised that respondent withdraws his claim that the bequest is abated due to insufficient funds; an amount equal to the bequest will be set aside as discussed this with opposing counsel rendering the accounting issue moot. Mr. Freer requested the 90-day limited Discovery be started over from today and COURT SO ORDERED; Discovery to end on 3/11/14. Mr. Freer advised the Court Mr. Schwartz was concerned after reading the transcript of the previous hearing that the Court may have been involved in an earlier lawsuit involving the school. Argument by counsel over whether the Estate's posting of $500,000 for the disputed bequest in a blocked account renders all other discovery on the financial status of the estate moot. Colloquy on interest accruing from the original date of the bequest would have been effective and attorney fees. Following argument, COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS that the establishment of a blocked account renders discovery on the estates ability to fund to the bequest moot and parties should now begin discovery on whether or not the Adelson Educational Institute is entitled to the bequest.

COURT ORDERED Motion to Modify GRANTED; COURT FURTHER ORDERED establishment of blocked account within ten (10) days, funded with investment grade bonds, in a separate account

- Counsel argued on whether the Court should grant Adelson Educational Institute's MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT and release the bequest made by Milton I. Schwartz. Mr. Couvillier, on behalf of the Institute, argued the deceased did not specify in his Will that the bequest was contingent on the school being named after him but, rather, his stated bequest was to provide scholarships to educate Jewish children. Intent of the deceased is not to be considered under Frei v. Goodsell. The school still exists today as a Jewish educational institution and the bequest does not lapse with a name change. He stated that in granting this partial summary judgment, the case would continue on the counterclaims raised by the Executor.

Mr. Freer argued the case is all about the bequest and the intent of the deceased is a determination for the jury to decide. Whether it was more important to provide scholarships or to provide scholarships for attending the school named after him, depends on an interpretation of the facts, sayings, actions and any other extrinsic evidence that must be found through Discovery and trial.

Following argument, COURT STATED ITS FINDINGS that there were genuine issues of material fact to be decided by the trier of fact and that this is disagreement falls under the Cy-Pres Doctrine.

COURT ORDERED Motion for Partial Summary Judgment DENIED and status check SET.

- Mr. Douvillier argued on behalf of the Adelson Educational Institute for the MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF DENIAL OF MOTION FOR PARTIAL JUDGMENT requesting the Court reconsider its earlier ruling. Adelson is requesting the Court determine as a matter of law that the corporation still exists as Mr. Schwartz' bequest was intended even though the corporation changed its name, much as a married person is still the same beneficiary even if her last name changes. Mr. Freer argued the Court rightfully denied the partial summary judgment finding that Mr. Schwartz' intent to leave a bequest to the Milton I. Schwartz Hebrew Academy evidences his peculiar affection and his intent which is a question of fact and not law. COURT STATED ITS FINDING this is the ultimate question; what was Mr. Schwartz' intention when he left the money to the Hebrew Academy--was it specifically for a school named for him or was it for the general education scholarships for Jewish children. COURT ORDERED Motion for Reconsideration DENIED.

Colloquy on setting a jury trial date. COURT FURTHER ORDERED jury trial SET for July trial stack, trial order to issue.

Counsel argued whether service was made on the Adelsons; whether the process server made enough attempts of service; and whether the law firm could accept service on behalf of the Adelsons. Counsel also argued whether under NRCP 30(b)1 if personal service was required to be made on individual board members. Upon inquiry of the Court, Mr. LeVeque explained the need to depose Dr. Adelson was because she was on and off the Board during the relevant time period and has knowledge as to the future direction of the school. Schwartz's name and picture were removed from the campus building. Following argument and discussion, COURT ORDERED Motion to Quash Service of Process DENIED; FINDING service was perfected and GRANTING the Petitioner's Countermotion.

COURT FURTHER FINDS that an officer or board member of a party, identified as potential witnesses for that party, who refuse to be available for discovery is not allowed to testify at trial. Given the Court's findings, Mr. Blake advised the objectors did not oppose continuing discovery. Court and counsel discussed whether the depositions could be taken soon enough for the trial to go forward in September. The parties reached an agreement to discuss the trial at the scheduled Calendar Call on August 18th.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Mr. Jones argued the Schwartz estate had indicated they were not sure if they would go forward with the deposition of Dr. Adelson; however they had since filed a notice of taking deposition. Mr. Jones argued regarding the relevancy of a video taken at an appreciation dinner where Mr. Schwartz made self-serving statements, that there was no evidence that the video supported their theory, that the schools name changed after it was agreed it would be for perpetuity, and that by taking the deposition of Mr. Adelson they should be able to get anything they need as Dr. Adelson had no knowledge of the claims in this matter. Mr. LeVeque argued discovery was very broad, that the deposition of Dr. Adelson should only take about three hours, that there was nothing oppressive about a deposition that imposed an undue burden, and that they needed to fill in the gaps regarding the naming agreement. Mr. Jones argued the resolution involving the naming of the school had nothing to do with the breach of contract claim, that there were 22 witness depositions taken so far and none of them said Dr. Adelson had anything to do with this. Mr. Jones stated they should take the deposition of Mr. Adelson and if something came up they could request Dr. Adelson's deposition. COURT FINDS they needed to determine if the deposition was needed, that Dr. Adelson was not on

- Mr. Jones stated they prepared a jury questionnaire and further requested a pool of 250 jurors.

Mr. Hood stated there was a discovery issue regarding Miriam Adelson and that notices would go out this week.

Mr. Carlson argued discovery was closed and that all parties had 10 months since the remand from the supreme court. Mr. Carlson stated he'd objected to deposition in the first place as the supreme court authorized written interrogatories.

Mr. Jones stated he would discuss this with counsel later.

Court stated concern as Miriam Adelson wasn't on the board, was not a decision maker, and that there was privilege regarding conversations with Nathan Adelson.

- Mr. Freer stated they were at this point because they only had one opportunity to depose Dr. Adelson, that they'd been working on a date for Mr. Adelson and wanted to depose him prior to Dr. Adelson so they could ask follow up questions. Mr. Freer argued there was no delay as they received Milton Schwartz's deposition transcript and served counsel with the questions about a week later. Mr. Freer argued his client would be prejudiced if opposing counsel's request to admit part of the video was granted, as they wanted to question Dr. Adelson in the context of that video. Mr. Freer further argued they wished to question Dr. Adelson regarding her knowledge of the school's name change, her understanding of perpetuity, and her knowledge of the adopted bylaws from the 1999 board meeting.

Mr. Jones argued Mr. Adelson's deposition was noticed shortly before the close of discovery when it could not be completed within the 15 day deadline, that Mr. LeVeque had advised they should wait until after the writ came back, that he had a right to rely on the fact that discovery was complete, that there was only one question regarding the video in the list and they didn't need her deposition to

As to: DR. MIRIAM ADELSON AND SHELDON G. ADELSON EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE S
MOTION TO STRIKE JURY DEMAND:

Colloquy held between the Court and counsels as to what issues required a legal decision and could not be decided by a jury, those decisions that should be left to the decision of the Court, and those issues that could be decided by a jury. Discussion was held as to the possibility of an advisory jury and as to a bifurcation of those issues. COURT NOTED this is a thirty-year-long dispute and there are legal issues requiring a Court decision; Mr. Schwartz's intention is not known and the Rabbi should be questioned as to Mr. Schwartz's intent.

Mr. Jones presented arguments in support of the motion. He reiterated that all matters must be tried by the Court. That this is only a breach of contract issue, it is a claim for the Estate, not for enforceability of a will, and a will contest does not fit. The Court should decide if the bequest was ambiguous. Mr. Jones further argued that there are no facts that Milton was going to make his bequest on a bait and switch and there is no evidence of fraud regarding the school name. He reiterated there is nothing for the jury to decide. He reiterated his request to strike the jury demand.

Mr. Freer argued in support of Jonathan Schwartz's Opposition. He argued that Mr. Jones failed to timely file an objection to a jury demand, which is implied consent. At this last minute, Mr. Jones has raised issues of a jury trial. Mr. Freer also argued that the Estate has a substantive right to a jury trial and he is asking the jury to make factual determinations.

He proposed that the issues for a jury's consideration could be: 1) What was the intent of Milton Schwartz? 2) Did he intend to donate to a school named for him for a lasting legacy? 3) Is there a school that bears his name? 4) Does it lapse if the answer to #3 is no? Mr. Freer noted that if the gift fails, then we are back to probate administration and a next step would be a petition for distribution of funds.

COURT COMMENTED that the intent of his donation could have been for a school with his name, to pay off the mortgage, or for the education of Jewish children, regardless. The Rabbi needs to be questioned as to Mr. Schwartz's intent. COURT CITED the Peterson case and ADVISED the intent is ambiguous, the Rabbi is relevant; the intent should be left for a jury. COURT NOTED that the will construction is not appropriate to go before a jury.

Mr. Jones reiterated that this is not a will contest, it is a breach of contract and only the Court should make that determination, the jury cannot decide if it is ambiguous or not. Any claims re lack of capacity or fraud or inducement to leave money to the school, is time-barred. Mr. Freer interjected that he never asserted this was a will contest.

Following further colloquy, COURT ADVISED that if we are not having a will contest, we have an issue of a contract. If breach of contract, then a jury trial. COURT ORDERED, MOTION TO STRIKE JURY DEMAND, DENIED.

COURT ADVISED that a BIFURCATED TRIAL IS NEEDED and further discussion must be held as to the separation of issues.

COURT NOTED that there has not yet been a discussion as to jury instructions or verdict forms and we now need to shift to our pretrial conference since that is the key now.

As to the MOTIONS IN LIMINE: Upon agreement of counsels, COURT ORDERED, ALL MOTIONS

IN LIMINE CONTINUED TO 8/16/18 AT 1:45 P.M.

As to PRETRIAL CONFERENCE: COURT NOTED that this all started with Jonathan Schwartz not wanting distribution made to the School. Mr. Jones requested both parties referred to as Petitioners instead of Plaintiff and Defendant. Following a brief discussion and agreement, COURT ADVISED THAT THE JURY WILL BE TOLD THAT BOTH PARTIES FILED PETITIONS AND WILL BE REFERRED TO AS FOLLOWS: PETITIONER 1 IS THE ESTATE and PETITIONER 2 IS THE SCHOOL

As to the TRIAL PROCEEDING: Both Mr. Freer and Mr. Jones agreed that the Estate is to present its case first and the School second. COURT ADVISED that the Estate will go first to put on their case, then defense to that case, then wrap up with closing. Then we will go into the School's case, the defense to that, then the closing. There is to be one opening each and one closing each concerning each case. The rebuttal is to be presented for each in their closing.

As to TRIAL EXHIBITS: Counsels agreed they will have exhibits separated into blocks of numbers, as submitted to the regular clerk this morning.

As to JUROR QUESTIONNAIRES, CHALLENGES FOR CAUSE, AND EXCUSALS: Discussion, agreements, and arguments were heard as to those listed as potential jurors. Linda, the Judicial Executive Assistant for Department 26 was present and after conclusion, she stated she will notify the Jury Commissioner of the excusals and will send out the list to everyone.

As to VOIR DIRE AND JURY SELECTION AT TRIAL: COURT ADVISED counsel of the seating arrangement. Upon the agreement of both sides, COURT ORDERED THERE WILL BE TWO (2) ALTERNATES. Mr. Freer and Mr. Jones stated they will confer to agree on how and when they want to select the Alternate Jurors.

As to EQUIPMENT REQUIRED FOR TRIAL: Both counsels agreed that a Projector and Screen will be required at trial so they can show enlarged exhibits. COURT ADVISED them to contact the Court Recorder, Kerry, to arrange that.

OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURY PANEL:

Mr. Freer argued the jury was tainted by Mr. Jones saying scholarship money was taken from the kids. Mr. Freer argued juror's No. 47, 41, and 70 all expressed that opinion and as such he requested they re-panel or strike the jurors.

Mr. Jones argued that was an issue, that the will stated if there was no mortgage then the money went to the kids, and that was the reason the school filed the lawsuit. Mr. Jones argued it was a central issue in the case.

Mr. Freer argued he needed to be able to put it in context; however the school brought the statement up when he was selecting jurors. Mr. Freer argued the issue was if the bequest was valid or not.

Court stated this was a case in part to be decided by the jury and in part by the court and the jury needed to be selected before counsel could make their opening statements or clarifications. Court stated it was possible to give a pre-instruction.

Mr. Jones argued there was more potential for harm with a pre-instruction, that nothing was said that wasn't true, and that he had a right to present his case. Mr. Jones argued if the Court were to give a pre-instruction it would indicate that he misspoke or said something incorrect which was grounds for a mistrial.

Court stated her approach would be to wait to see if any other jurors brought it up AND THEREFORE ORDERED, Motion to Strike Jury DENIED; reserved for later point that we may need to say this isn't about scholarships, rather it was about a more complicated issue.

Court stated Mr. Freer's request for Jurors No. 004, 044, and 049 could be considered cause excusals

Mr. Jones objected to the estate adding Juror No. 41 to their list of cause challenges.

PROSPECTIVE JURY PANEL PRESENT:

Voir dire by Mr. Jones begins.

OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURY PANEL:

Further arguments by counsel regarding Jurors 049, 004, 041, and 044. Counsel drew numbers to determine the Alternate Jurors would be numbers six and eight and agreed they would select from the entire pool for their four peremptory challenges. COURT ORDERED, Trial CONTINUED.

OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY PANEL:

Mr. LeVeque argued slide 12 was prejudicial.

Mr. Jones argued it was an admission by a party in opposition to a Motion for Summary Judgment, that it was a material term of the agreement, that it was a statement of counsel, and they cannot deny they said it. Mr. Jones argued it was a two minute segment of Mr. Schwartz's interview at the gala and he stated "I had an agreement that I would give $500,000 and raise $500,000" and that was an admission by the party.

Mr. LeVeque argued the issue wasn't authenticity rather that it was not a stipulated exhibit, that it was inappropriate to argue at this time, and that it cannot be used in opening statements.

Court stated if it was relevant, admissible, and authentic that was one thing; however that had not been placed on the record yet. Court stated an unverified pleading would just be a statement by counsel and inquired what the basis was for showing the jury any pleading, Mr Jones stated the basis was judicial estoppel, that it was representing what was stated to the court, and that he did not know what the harm was.

Court stated CONCERN as there were thousands of pleadings in the case and counsel was taking a paragraph out of one pleading to show to the jury as evidence of proof and that it gave the impression of emphasis or weight placed upon it. COURT FINDS this was just a pleading, as it was argument of counsel, and that judicial estoppel was argument for another day AND THEREFORE ORDERED, the document would NOT COME IN as a demonstrative.

JURY PANEL PRESENT:

Testimony and Exhibits presented (see worksheets). DEPOSITIONS PUBLISHED IN OPEN COURT. Mr. LeVeque RESTED his case. Mr. Jones reserved his right to make his Rule 50(b) Motion after the testimony was completed in an effort to save time. Following further testimony Mr. Jones RESTED his case. Jury panel ADMONISHED, and EXCUSED for the evening with instructions to return Tuesday at 1:00 PM.

OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY PANEL:

Mr. Jones argued regarding contract claims, the mutual mistake claim, and the specific performance claim. Mr. Jones argued all witnesses stated it was an oral contract, the Statute of Limitations had run, that Jonathan Schwartz was on notice in 2008 when he visited the campus with the Adelson Campus monument already established, and he further argued regarding the Statute of Frauds, NRS 111.220(1).

Mr. Freer argued there was sufficient evidence and under Rule 50 there cannot be conflicting evidence, that there was a contract, that the material terms were to be supplied later, and that only minimal terms must be in writing. Mr. Freer further argued tolling and estoppel were questions of fact, that a contract can be put together with multiple writings, and that the Statute of Limitations was six years.

Mr. Jones argued regarding the reliance issue, that there were no specific performance claims, that there was no written agreement, that none of the witnesses were able to consistently say what the terms of the contract were, and that all the documents the estate had cannot be cobbled together to make a contract as there must be ascertainable terms.

Mr. Jones argued regarding the interpretation of the intent of the will, paragraph 2.3 of the will, and that all witnesses from the estate side said there was an oral contract and the Pet.'s were trying to contradict that.

Upon inquiry by the Court regarding whether counsel had any objections to jury instructions 1-45, Mr. Freer and Mr. Jones stated they did not.

Mr. Freer argued to not include jury instruction page 34 regarding alteration: modification, and page 41 regarding performance/breach: implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, was in error.

Mr. Jones argued pursuant to the Hilton case, jury instruction page 22 regarding ambiguity was COURT FINDS the alteration: modification instruction was not relevant; and as to the performance/breach: implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, there was no claim for breach which is a specific business tort that doesn't apply here; and as to ambiguity the COURT FINDS the will to be ambiguous; therefore there would not be an instruction as to that and lastly, there were other instructions regarding missing terms so the ambiguity instruction was not needed AND THEREFORE ORDERED, these three instructions would not be given.

Court made a three-way phone call with both counsel to discuss a jury question.

Mr. Jones objected and stated they had all the exhibits and they may have to dig through them to figure it out.

Mr. LeVeque stated no objection; however stated it was his understanding that it was outside the scope.

Court stated the response would have to be they aren't in evidence and cannot be provided. Court stated the naming of a building was an equitable remedy and the contract claim was money damages; further, the equitable damages were for the Court to decide.

Mr. LeVeque stated this was why they wanted specific performance and he was unsure if they could amend the verdict form.

Mr. Jones stated he did not think they could allow that.

Court stated that was not an option, that the jury was mediators and they were the fact finders, and that the Court could not take a suggestion from a jury. Court further stated that was not a remedy, that specific performance was just that and they cannot suggest alternatives to specific performance. Court stated they can only answer with the verdict the verdict form provides for.

Mr. Jones argued the verdict form was agreed to by the parties and cannot be changed.

Following further arguments by counsel, COURT ADVISED they would be told the Court approved of the verdict form for their use and need to follow that form.

JURY PANEL PRESENT:

At the hour of 2:59 PM the jury returned with verdict in accordance with written verdict which was FILED IN OPEN COURT.

JURY FOUND:

Milton I. Schwartz did not have a naming rights contract.

He intended that the Bequest be made only to a school known as the "Milton I. Schwartz Hebrew Academy" for the purposes set forth in the Bequest.

and Milton I. Schwartz made the Bequest based on his belief that he had a naming rights agreement with the School which wa in perpetuity.

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- HEARING: EQUITABLE ISSUES:

Mr. Freer argued the Evidentiary Hearing determined Milton Schwartz's bequest, that Milton had a belief that he had an agreement regarding the $500,000 contribution and that it included naming rights, that everyone who testified agreed Milton understood he had naming rights, that the jury finding supported the bequest having lapsed, and that the Court could declare the bequest void by mistake as Milton believed the Academy would be named after him.

Court stated the Court must interpret the jury findings and the intent of the will and that the will stated if there was no mortgage at the time of Milton's death then the $500,000 would go to pay for the education of Jewish children. Court further stated if the testator gave the gift based on a false belief then it was void as he never intended for the money to go anywhere other than a school with his name.

Mr. Freer argued the Inter Vivos gifts Milton gave were made with that same understanding and that the estate was requesting a refund of the lifetime gifts. Mr. Freer further argued under the law of donative transfers it doesn't matter that they started in 1989 as it wasn't determined until after his death that it was a mistaken belief.

Mr. Jones argued these issues were not raised at the time of trial and under Rule 50 and 52(c) and the burden was on them. Mr. Jones argued regarding the pre and post the 1993 time period when Milton's name came off the organization, that his name wasn't on the building; however in 1996 the Academy received a letter from Milton and he then continued to make contributions again which were clear and convincing evidence of his intent. Mr. Jones argued the $500,000 gift was the only gift where Milton states naming rights, that Milton was a litigious person and when he was removed from the board he sued for control; however he never sued to get his money back and there was nothing in the record indicating that was his intent. Mr. Jones argued at the time of Milton's death the school and the corporation were named the Milton I Schwartz Academy and it wasn't changed until later, that the gift had not lapsed, and that Milton's estate received the tax deduction. Mr. Jones argued the trustee admitted they had an obligation to give the money to someone and so the question was why take away that gift as the money was strictly for education of Jewish children.

COURT FINDS the jury finding on the will indicated that Milton's intent was for the money to go to a school named after him in perpetuity, that pursuant to section 2.3 of the will, if there was no mortgage then the entire gift went to the Hebrew Academy for the education of Jewish children; however he never had an enforceable agreement and the point is he wouldn't have made the gift if he didn't have the naming rights; further, the agreement did not appear to apply to the Inter Vivos gifts, AND THEREFORE GRANTED IN PART as to the $500,000; DENIED IN PART as to the Inter Vivos gifts.

MOTION TO RETAX COSTS PURSUANT TO NRS 18.110(4) AND TO DEFER AWARD OF COSTS UNTIL ALL CLAIMS ARE FULLY ADJUDICATED:

COURT FINDS the billings to be timely filed and clearly documented.

Mr. Freer noted the Court had indicated the ruling would be delayed until the equitable relief was determined.

Mr. Jones stated both sides won some of the claims and that the Court looked at who won the majority of the claims; however the motion may be premature. Mr. Jones stated a majority of their costs were related to the trial not the equitable claims.

Mr. Freer requested the opportunity to brief the matter.

COURT ORDERED, Motion OFF CALENDAR to allow counsel time to brief the issues and place the motion back on calendar.

ENTERED October 4, 2018:

Mr. Freer briefly argued a trial was warranted on the summary judgment regarding the oral contract, that they were not able to emphasize the oral contract, that they were prejudiced based on the jury instruction with respect to modification of the contract, that the jury did not follow the instructions, and that the evidence was so overwhelming that had they followed the instructions they would have found an enforceable agreement. Mr. Freer further stated he was not abandoning any of his other claims, rather he was just standing on the briefs.

Mr. Jones argued Rule 52(c) does apply even to equitable claims, that Rule 50 applied and that counsel cannot raise new issues post trial that were not argued at trial, that the directed verdict was only as to the first claim for relief regarding construction of will. Mr. Jones further argued regarding the oral contract and then stood on the briefs.

COURT FINDS the statute ran on the oral contract and the rest falls into place AND THEREFORE ORDERED, Motion DENIED as the jury followed the instructions very well.

- Court inquired if it was possible for both parties to prevail on a claim, what was a prevailing party, and was there only one prevailing party. Court further inquired who the prevailing party was and stated it was not clear if there was case law.

Mr. LeVeque argued regarding the Parity case, that they must look to the affirmative claims, and that the school did not prevail on any of the claims.

Mr. Jones argued regarding the Valley Electric case where the prevailing party included claims and counterclaims. Mr. Jones argued both sides won something and the question was what was the most substantial claim, that the Pltf. succeeded on the most substantial claim, and the majority of the attorney's fees were incurred during the jury trial and his client succeeded on that portion.

Mr. LeVeque argued the Supreme Court looked for on prevailing party as to cases, that a party need not succeed on all parts, rather the Court must look to the affirmative claims. Mr. LeVeque argued a
