1 One of claims brought by the Estate of Milton I. Schwartz against The Dr.
2 Miriam and Sheldon G. Adelson Educational Institute is for revocation of the 3 $500,000 bequest and all other gifts made during the lifetime of Milton I. Schwartz 4 under the theory of promissory estoppel. I will now instruct on the law relating to 5 this claim.

1 If there is no consideration for a promise but the promisor acted in a matter 2 in which the promisor should reasonably expect to induce reliance and which does 3 induce detrimental reliance that is foreseeable, reasonable and serious, the promise 4 is enforceable if injustice can be avoided only by enforcing the promise.

1 The promise giving rise to a cause of action for promissory estoppel must be clear 2 and definite, unambiguous as to essential terms, and the promise must be made in a 3 contractual sense.

1 The doctrine of promissory estoppel, which embraces the concept of detrimental 2 reliance, is intended as a substitute for consideration, and not as a substitute for an 3 agreement between the parties.

One of claims brought by The Estate of Milton I. Schwartz against School is that the bequest is void for mistake. I will now instruct on the law relating to this claim.

3 A testator's unilateral mistake in executing a bequest may warrant relief from 4 that bequest.

5 An invalidating mistake occurs when but for the mistake the transaction in 6 question would not have taken place. The testator's mistake must have induced the gift; 7 it is not sufficient that the testator was mistaken about the relevant circumstances.

8 A finding of unilateral mistake in the execution of a bequest depends on the 9 testator's intent at the time of the execution of the testamentary instrument.

10 The party advocating the mistake has the burden of proving the testator's intent 11 and the alleged mistake by clear and convincing evidence.

1 When construing the language of the will the Jury must determine what Milton 2 I. Schwartz meant by words used in or omitted from his will. When construing what 3 Milton I. Schwartz meant, you may consider any evidence that explains what he has 4 written or omitted. The question before the Jury is not what the testator actually intended 5 or what he meant to write, but rather it is confined to a determination of the meaning of 6 the words he used or omitted in the will.

1 It is your duty as jurors to consult with one another and to deliberate with a view 2 toward reaching an agreement, if you can do so without violence to your individual 3 judgment. Each of you must decide the case for yourself, but should do so only after a 4 consideration of the case with your fellow jurors, and you should not hesitate to change 5 an opinion when convinced that it is erroneous. However, you should not be influenced 6 to vote in any way on any question submitted to you by the single fact that a majority of 7 the jurors, or any of them, favor such a decision. In other words, you should not surrender 8 your honest convictions concerning the effect or weight of evidence for the mere purpose 9 of returning a verdict or solely because of the opinion of the other jurors. Whatever your 10 verdict is, it must be the product of a careful and impartial consideration of all the 11 evidence in the case under the rules of law as given you by the court.

1 If, during your deliberation, you should desire to be further informed on any point 2 of law or hear again portions of the testimony, you must reduce your request to writing 3 signed by the foreperson. The officer will then return you to court where the information 4 sought will be given to you in the presence of the parties or their attorneys.

5 Read backs of testimony are time consuming and are not encouraged unless you 6 deem it a necessity. Should you require a read back, you must carefully describe the 7 testimony to be read back so that the court reporter can arrange his or her notes.
8 Remember, the court is not at liberty to supplement the evidence.

1 When you retire to consider your verdict, you must select one of your number 2 to act as foreman, who will preside over your deliberation and will be your 3 spokesman here in court.

4
5 During your deliberation, you will have all the exhibits which were admitted 6 into evidence, these written instructions and a special verdict form which has been 7 prepared for your convenience.

8
9 In civil actions, three-fourths of the total number of jurors may find and return 10 a verdict. This is a civil action. As soon as six or more of you have agreed upon 11 each answer required by the directions in the special verdict form, you must have 12 the verdict signed and dated by your foreman, and then return with it to this room.

1 Now you will listen to the arguments of counsel who will endeavor to aid you to 2 reach a proper verdict by refreshing in your minds the evidence and by showing the 3 application thereof to the law; but, whatever counsel may say, you will bear in mind 4 that it is your duty to be governed in your deliberations by the evidence as you 5 understand it and remember it to be and by the law as given you in these instructions, 6 and return a verdict which, according to your reason and candid judgment, is just

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

ALTERATION: MODIFICATION

Parties to a contract may modify the contract, but all parties to the contract must agree to the new terms. An oral agreement can modify a written contract even if the written contract states that any modification of its terms must be in writing.

To prove modification, there must be clear and convincing evidence of:

1. A written or oral agreement of the parties to modify the contract; or
2. Conduct of the parties that recognizes the modification, such as a course of performance that reflects the modification; or
3. Other evidence sufficient to show the parties' agreement to modify their contract, such as acquiescence in conduct that is consistent with the modification and a failure to demand adherence to the original contract terms.

INSTRUCTION NO. _____

PERFORMANCE/BREACH: IMPLIED COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING

In every contract there is an implied promise of good faith and fair dealing, obligating the parties to pursue their contractual rights in good faith and not engage in arbitrary, unfair acts that interfere with any other party receiving the benefits of the contract. This obligation is independent of the express provisions of the contract. Consequently, if the terms of the contract are literally complied with, but one party to the contract deliberately contravenes the intention and spirit of the contract, or performs their contractual obligations in a way that is unfaithful to the purpose of the contract and the justified expectations of the other party to the contract are thereby denied, there is a breach of the implied duty of good faith and fair dealing.

RECORDED BY: KERRY ESPARZA, COURT RECORDER

1 Las Vegas, Nevada, Thursday, October 4, 2018

2
3 [Case called at 9:58 a.m.]

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. JONES: Morning, Your Honor.

6 MR. FREER: Good morning, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Good morning. All right, so we'll get 8 appearances.

9 MR. FREER: Alan Freer and Alex LeVeque on behalf of the 10 executor for the estate.

11 MR. JONES: Randall Jones and Madison Zornes-Vela on 12 behalf of the school.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right, I have your status report, I 14 have some orders that Mr. -- these came from Mr. Jones' office, and I 15 have a proposed judgment on the verdict that I got from Mr. Freer. I 16 don't know if you've seen that, so I made some copies and we can 17 discuss --

18 MR. JONES: May I approach? Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Here you go you guys --

20 MR. FREER: Oh, that's the proposed judgment --

21 THE COURT: Yeah.

22 MR. FREER: -- from Mr. Jones's office. I don't think --

23 THE COURT: Is that --

24 MR. FREER: I don't think we --

25 THE COURT: Oh yeah, that's Mr. --

1 MR. LeVEQUE: We haven't submitted --

2 THE COURT: Okay, that's Mr. Jones's office, beg your 3 pardon. So these -- I've got all these --

4 MR. JONES: Actually I have -- they should -- yeah, you all do 5 have that, right?

6 MR. FREER: Right.

7 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So we've got your status
8 report, but I did want to go through these because these are all pending 9 and just make sure, Mr. Freer, that you've reviewed them and that no 10 opposition to them as they read.

11 So with respect to the judgment, which is simply -- basically 12 attaches the verdict and indicates that the claims by the estate are 13 dismissed on the merits with prejudice. Takes nothing by way of his 14 claim for breach of contract, breach void for mistake, specific 15 performance, injunctive relief --

16 MR. FREER: Right. Well with respect to the bequest for -- 17 the bequest void for the mistake, I mean that -- that's the issue that I 18 think the jury came back with and said with questions eight and nine that 19 at the time he executed the will that he thought he had a binding 20 agreement and that he intended it only go --

21 THE COURT: Right, but for purposes of getting a judgment in 22 place, I understand that you think that there's an error with that, but we 23 have to get a judgment in place that can then be because you need to 24 do your post-trial motions.

25 MR. FREER: Right.

1 THE COURT: So do you believe this is an accurate statement 2 of what the jury's verdict -- what their verdict came out as, whether 3 there's a mistake internally in that verdict or not, would this -- so that 4 there's something that starts the clock running.

5 MR. FREER: Right. Well, and here's my point is with request 6 -- with respect to the bequest void for mistake, I mean I read that as 7 question number 9, do you find that Milton Schwartz made the bequest 8 was based on his belief that he had a naming rights agreement which 9 was in perpetuity and they answered yes. And so how do we have a 10 judgment that says the bequest is void for mistake when they answered 11 that he believed that he had a naming rights agreement that was in 12 perpetuity with respect to the bequest?

13 Now number 12 is do you believe he had a naming rights 14 contract with the school. Number 12 doesn't deal with the bequest.
15 Number 12, as Mr. Jones points out, they're saying that deals with the 16 contract.

17 So I mean if you take out the bequest void for mistake, I agree 18 that's what the jury said, but I do have an issue with finding that we take 19 nothing by way of the bequest being void for mistake because I think 20 that's directly contrary to what number 9 says.

21 THE COURT: So --

22 MR. JONES: So, Your Honor, if I -- just briefly to respond. As 23 Mr. Freer pointed out and it kind of begs the question of and this was -- 24 these were issues they wanted to put in about the mistake because 25 that's their issues. I wanted -- primarily what I wanted was the question

1 number 1 because that was really the contract claim. They were the 2 claims for -- related to mistake.

3 So to the extent there are ambiguities in the verdict form, I 4 certainly think that that was more of an issue that was proposed by the 5 estate as opposed to us, but -- and as Mr. Freer points out, one goes 6 directly to the contract claims, question 12; question 9 goes to void by -- 7 void for mistake. The problem with that assuming you agree that there 8 is inconsistencies and I don't know that there are because one goes to 9 one legal issue, one goes to a different issue, or different claim, they're 10 addressing different claims. The problem is the case law we haven't -- 11 we haven't necessary -- well we haven't --

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MR. JONES: -- briefed this at all --

14 THE COURT: I'm just trying to -- for purposes of getting the 15 judgment recorded so that all the times can start running, is this an 16 accurate statement of what the jury said? Regardless of whether --

17 MR. FREER: Right.

18 THE COURT: -- they misunderstood or made a mistake, is 19 this accurate? Well --

20 MR. FREER: And I believe the answer is no --

21 MR. JONES: Well, Your Honor, just to follow up -- I'm sorry.

22 MR. FREER: Yeah.

23 MR. JONES: I just want to -- my main point I wanted to make 24 that I didn't quite get to, maybe too slow to say it, but the rules are that if 25 you believe there's an inconsistency in the verdict form and the jury's

1 done something that is inconsistent, you are required at that time before 2 the jury's released --

3 THE COURT: Correct.

4 MR. JONES: -- to point it out to the Court, ask the jury -- and 5 then ask the Court if the Court would ask the jury to go back and 6 address that issue. Since that was not done by the estate and the jury 7 was released, we are now in a position where I believe -- I guess 8 consistent with your comment we now have a verdict form that I believe 9 is consistent with what the jury found.

10 THE COURT: To the extent if you're analyzing this, the final 11 language that the -- that these three claims of the estate be dismissed 12 on the merits with prejudice and that they take nothing, the jury did in 13 answer to question number 10 which was the money damages say 14 there's no money damages. They further said also specifically that the 15 naming rights contract is unenforceable so there's no relief there.

16 To me it seems like the what happens next because that didn't 17 -- that did -- that jury didn't answer all the questions. There was -- 18 always was this ultimate question of if the jury does one thing, how does 19 that affect the probate issues? They were only considering his mental -- 20 not status, his personal belief, his mental state as he was doing his 2004 21 will. They answered that.

22 So on the one hand I agree with respect to breach of contract, 23 specific performance and injunctive relief, yes, he -- they can't make 24 these people put his name back on the building, there's no damages. I 25 was similarly concerned with respect to the bequest void for mistake

1 because that's really --

2 MR. FREER: An equitable --

3 THE COURT: -- probate and that was just about the intent.

4 So I agree with respect to the petition for declaratory relief as 5 to -- well, breach of contract, specific performance and injunctive relief, 6 those I totally agree. I mean there is no remedy for the estate with 7 respect to the school. The question is -- and that's the void for mistake 8 issue which is the last part of the declaratory relief petition which I think 9 is a probate issue. I don't think they answered it. I think what they did 10 was they put down this was Milton's belief. He believed it. Was it 11 enforceable? No, it wasn't enforceable. I think that's what the jury told 12 us. But he believed it.

13 So that was my concern. I just -- I was concerned about 14 putting bequest void for mistake in there and I thought we might need to 15 add something about that the -- that that -- that particular cause of 16 action, that being a probate cause of action, equitable cause of action, 17 the findings of the jury inform the ultimate outcome, but they don't make 18 that final decision the way I looked at it.

19 MR. FREER: Right, I -- and that's kind of the fallback is the 20 bequest void for mistake, if at anything, would have been a advisory 21 opinion, but in terms of it appearing as a judgment that we take nothing 22 by way of -- that's an equitable claim that Your Honor's going to be 23 determining --

24 THE COURT: That's what I always thought. So I agree with 25 everything but that part of it.

1 MR. FREER: So if you want to interlineate the bequest void 2 for mistake, that is what the jury -- in terms of the breach of contract, the 3 other three claims --

4 THE COURT: It's -- yeah.

5 MR. FREER: The only other thing I need to bring up though 6 with respect to the judgment is if we're going to enter the judgment there 7 before the Court enters any other issues with respect to the equitable 8 relief, then we're going to be stuck in a situation where we do have -- is 9 this going to be a final judgment? Are we going to be required to file an 10 appeal under 155.190 and so are we going to be having multiple 11 appeals on this issue or are we going to consolidate everything and 12 have it done?

13 And so that's the other question for this Court is how do you 14 want to proceed in the most efficacious manner, because if we -- 15 obviously I understand we got to get off the ball, we got to get going 16 here, but do we want to have a situation where we're going to be filing 17 multiple appeals with respect to this because of 155.190? And so I just 18 want to kind of see how the Court wants to proceed with that. Are we 19 going to enter a judgment here and then while we're still trying to 20 determine what the Court's doing with respect to the probate claims?

21 THE COURT: Okay. Thanks.

22 MR. JONES: Your Honor, and I guess to make sure I'm 23 understanding what the Court is thinking about is that you would 24 interlineate and we -- because it was not clear -- well, I guess we 25 thought it was clear enough that about void for mistake, but I understand

1 that is a legal or I mean an equitable issue the Court needs to look at.
2 The Court is inclined to interlineate that part of the proposed judgment 3 out or take that out.

4 And then addressing Mr. Freer's comment, I have been in 5 other cases, and I -- and me -- he may have other different experience, 6 where we've had legal and equitable claims. In fact I had -- last trial I 7 had -- jury trial I had was in front of Judge Denton where we had those 8 same kind of issues. And what Judge Denton did and this is consistent 9 what I've seen the past -- and it does create an awkward circumstance 10 so I can appreciate the dilemma, but the judge entered the judgment on 11 the verdict and it was -- Pisanelli Bice was on the other side and they 12 said well, to protect ourselves we're filing a notice of appeal as relates to 13 that judgment, but we still need to get these other issues resolved and I 14 said I understand that and I've been in that dilemma myself and I always 15 did the cautionary thing and filed the notice of appeal on the first 16 judgment because we had post-judgment issues we had to deal with 17 anyway and then there was a subsequent judgment entered by the court 18 post trial I should say.

19 THE COURT: Right. And the problem that Mr. Freer's 20 referencing is that in probate, certain issues are appealable in probate 21 before they're appealable in any other area of law. They just they get --

22 MR. FREER: It's a trap for the unwary.

23 THE COURT: -- they get to -- they get immediate appeals.
24 And like that previous one there's like four appeals in that case that have 25 gone on just serially. So --

1 MR. JONES: Well I would just --

2 THE COURT: -- that's part of our problem here is do -- would 3 this be your typical -- I mean do you certify it as 54(b)? I mean I don't 4 know what would you do. You've got a partial outcome and the only 5 thing remaining is the equitable question of what's the result of the jury's 6 factual findings on bequest void for mistake.

7 MR. JONES: And so I guess I would then if -- and I am not 8 familiar with the probate issues that the Court just referred to so I 9 appreciate that point. And I guess my question is with appeals, we all 10 know you can't take a chance that parties say well we'll stipulate to do 11 something and the supreme court says well that -- that's fine you did 12 that, but that doesn't work for us.

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MR. JONES: So I certainly don't want to put -- and I know 15 they wouldn't do that to themselves, but I don't want to do that to them 16 either and put them in a bad position on appeal.

17 So I guess with that in mind, Your Honor, I would then -- in 18 light of that comment, I would join Mr. Freer's question to you is how do 19 you think we best proceed? I would like to get the judgment signed as 20 relates to the legal issues. I don't know if those -- since those -- I don't 21 know if those would be implicated in the probate appellate concerns that 22 you both raised. If not, then I would like -- I would just like to get that 23 judgment entered and then we can address the others as quickly as the 24 Court wants to address them. I'm happy to do that with all haste.

25 THE COURT: Right.

1 MR. JONES: But as you said, we do -- I would like to get this 2 process moving along.

3 THE COURT: Yeah, and that's my question, Mr. Freer. I 4 mean aren't we kind of used to that?

5 MR. FREER: We are. And so -- I mean the only reason I 6 bring it up is I didn't know if Your Honor wanted to have one judgment 7 that took care of everything or if we just piecemeal it. I mean I'm fine 8 doing -- doesn't take much to file a notice of appeal.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. FREER: We can always stipulate to stay it if we want to 11 do that --

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MR. FREER: -- but I just wanted to be clear of --

14 THE COURT: Right.

15 MR. FREER: -- where we were going beforehand.

16 THE COURT: Right. So the language that we've got here I 17 would just strike out bequest void for mistake. Now do we want to then 18 interlineate that the equitable slash probate issues of the bequest void 19 for mistake claim are to be determined by the Court?

20 MR. JONES: We can -- Your Honor, if you want, we can get a 21 new proposed judgment that says that, takes out bequest void by 22 mistake and makes reference to the fact at the bottom of this 23 paragraph --

24 THE COURT: Right.

25 MR. JONES: -- that the Court will address the issue of 1 bequest void by mistake in the ordinary course or whatever we want to 2 say and run it by counsel for the estate --

3 THE COURT: Yeah.

4 MR. JONES: -- and then if they're okay with it, then we can 5 forward it to the Court for review and execution.

6 MR. FREER: I think we're -- I mean I think we're better off if 7 we just strike that and then we can just have the -- deal with the 8 equitable issues. I mean -- because I think we've got -- our position is 9 we've got more than one equitable issue for this Court to determine --

10 THE COURT: Right. Well because this --

11 MR. FREER: -- because we also have the inter vivos gifts.

12 THE COURT: Right. Well this is -- this as it reads without the 13 bequest void for mistake I think is a hundred percent accurate.

14 MR. FREER: Right.

15 THE COURT: I mean that is the outcome.

16 MR. FREER: Yep.

17 THE COURT: So I'm prepared to sign with respect to this 18 much of it so that we can get the clock running. No offense, I do think 19 that we have to do it.

20 MR. JONES: That's fine, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: So with --

22 MR. FREER: Just interlineate the --

23 THE COURT: -- with that -- those four words stricken, I'll -- 24 I've signed it and the -- I think probably it makes more sense then to just 25 -- perhaps one other thing that -- these claims only? Only these claims

1 are -- and that these claims only?

2 MR. JONES: I -- that's fine, Your Honor, if you want to put 3 that in there. I don't know that it would make any kind of material 4 difference because I think by the language and especially interlineating 5 void by mistake it makes that point, but if the Court thinks it would be 6 better to put the word only in there as well, I don't have an objection to 7 that.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So I put it these claims by the estate 9 only be and hereby are dismissed on the merits with prejudice. So the 10 legal claims are done and if we have an issue, we don't want to have an 11 issue buy problems for ourselves, that's the legal claims. They are 12 done.

13 So Mr. Jones, you can have back your judgment. We've got 14 that one. That one's resolved.

15 MR. JONES: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: And so yeah, we are going to have some other 17 issues that come following this. Okay. So then the other things that 18 we've got going on here I have three orders and these were I think on 19 the interim, like the pretrial motions that just never got orders entered 20 and I don't know if you've seen those?

21 MR. FREER: I think those are ones that Mr. LeVeque signed 22 off on.

23 THE COURT: They're agreed on? So -- because we only got 24 them last night. So for the record the Court will sign an order approved 25 by both sides which is the order denying the Adelson Campus's motion

1 to strike the jury demand on an order shortening time. So I'll sign that.
2 That one was denied.

3 The next order is again signed off on by both parties and that 4 is the order denying the estate's motion for reconsideration of the order 5 granting summary judgment on the claim of breach of oral contract.

6 And then finally, the third order signed off on both -- by both 7 parties is the order denying the Adelson Campus's motion for summary 8 judgment regarding breach of contract and again, that was denied and 9 signing the order in open court as agreed upon by parties.

10 Okay. So I've signed those three orders and those can be 11 returned. Those are all set.

12 All right. So now we have your status report. Thank you both 13 for the status report.

14 MR. FREER: I mean with respect to the status report that we 15 filed, I think the main issue is do we want to have -- probably just need 16 to have a briefing schedule with respect to the various issues with 17 respect to the equitable claims. You know, we talked about the 18 proposed judgment already. The Rule 50, you know, I will concede Mr.
19 Jones is correct that if -- once the judgment's entered, if we feel that 20 there's an issue with that, we'll renew it by way of a 50(b) motion. And 21 then that just leaves with respect to the inconsistent findings and 22 whether or not there's a new trial. I mean obviously we're well aware of 23 NRCP 49. There's also the McGovern (phonetic) case and so my guess 24 -- I mean my take would be if Your Honor wants us to do a post-trial 25 motion or post-trial briefing with respect to the equitable claims and then

1 we just file any post-trial motions we deem necessary, I think that's 2 probably where we're at and we just need a scheduling order.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. JONES: That's -- I assumed we would probably do
5 something like that today as well, Your Honor?

6 THE COURT: Okay. And then there is apparently one other 7 order outstanding which, you know, I don't know what it is, August 28th.

8 MR. FREER: Oh. Let me check the --

9 THE COURT: The order on the motion for partial summary 10 judgment regarding statute of limitations.

11 MR. FREER: Oh that's where we had the competing orders.
12 I've asserted the arguments enough that everybody's tired of hearing.
13 Your Honor can probably just go ahead and --

14 THE COURT: Okay, I will look for it.

15 MR. FREER: -- look at it and enter whatever order you think 16 is appropriate.

17 THE COURT: Yeah. That's maybe sitting on my desk.

18 Okay. All right. So at this point in time I think that we are all 19 in agreement that the -- we have a verdict as to the legal claims that is 20 final and that no recovery was granted on those particular claims. If you 21 wish to brief that, then -- once Mr. Jones has entered his judgment on 22 the verdict, then that's the appropriate way to do that --

23 MR. FREER: Right.

24 THE COURT: -- but we have, as we've been discussing here, 25 this equitable issue which was always the issue of the Court's going to

1 have to decide what do their findings mean with respect to the probate 2 questions that we had that were all -- we always I think all -- I thought we 3 all understood were always going to have to be decided by the Court.
4 So -- which are kind of -- that's technically different from post trial and it's 5 not on the same schedule. I would --

6 MR. FREER: Right.

7 THE COURT: -- propose it's not on the usual post-trial motion 8 schedule. It's just not. It's a different kind of an issue so it's totally 9 equitable and has to be submitted and you need just how much time and 10 I think then we can do a -- you can agree on some times how much time 11 you think you're going to need respectively. Are you going to need 12 transcripts or is that going to be an issue?

13 MR. FREER: I think we've already got the -- we've got the --

14 THE COURT: You've got -- you had your --

15 MR. JONES: Actually, because we had real time, we have -- 16 pretty much have the transcripts.

17 THE COURT: You had your real time, yeah. So there's no 18 delay there.

19 MR. JONES: Your Honor, the -- and I can work with counsel 20 on scheduling. I just have a jury trial in front of Judge Gonzalez that 21 starts in the end of November, so that's down the road a couple months, 22 or almost two months. So, you know, that's my only scheduling issue.
23 So I'll work with them to come up with a schedule that works with your 24 schedule --

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. JONES: -- I guess is what I would say.

2 MR. FREER: Yeah. And I guess the only thing we need -- 3 should we just do cross-briefs at the -- have a deadline where we're 4 doing cross-briefs at the same time with respect to what we're proposing 5 for the Court? I mean I almost look at it as we did a closing argument 6 for the jury these -- these briefs would be more kind of like a closing 7 argument with respect to the equitable issues and --

8 MR. JONES: I leave that to the Court's discretion. I'm fine 9 with that process. It's -- I think the arguments have certainly been made 10 to the jury and the Court was obviously present when those arguments 11 were made so you've heard -- I don't think that we're coming up with any 12 -- either side's coming up with anything new --

13 MR. FREER: No, it's just a matter of reorganizing and 14 refocusing with respect to the equitable issues I think, so --

15 THE COURT: Right. If you want to file those by a certain 16 date and you'll just get an -- a date in the ordinary course --

17 MR. JONES: That's fine.

18 THE COURT: -- if you -- how much time do you think you 19 need to file them? Two weeks, three weeks? Four weeks? How much 20 time?

21 MR. JONES: Three weeks?

22 MR. FREER: Yeah, I'd probably prefer three weeks.

23 MR. JONES: Three weeks, Your Honor.

24 MR. FREER: Does that give you enough time with your trial 25 prep? Would you rather do four?

1 MR. JONES: Three -- well, depends on when we're going to 2 have the hearing and actually yeah, that's true is Mr. Freer's looking 3 over at Madison that's probably more accurate concern to look at the 4 person who's going to write the briefs --

5 THE COURT: Right.

6 MR. JONES: -- as opposed to person --

7 THE COURT: Right, because if they had to be filed by say 8 Monday, the 29th, just picking a date, and you -- there were going to be 9 no reply briefs, it's just that that's -- that's it and there's just going to --

10 MR. JONES: That's fine.

11 THE COURT: -- be an argument, you know, setting it in the 12 ordinary course, it would land right in the middle of your trial, because 13 the clerk's office will do 30 days. So --

14 MR. JONES: Right, right.

15 THE COURT: -- that's just ordinary course. That would put 16 you right in -- right into like that first week of December.

17 MR. JONES: And that case --

18 THE COURT: December 6th.

19 MR. JONES: -- unfortunately is probably going to go --

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MR. JONES: -- towards right up to Christmastime so I'd --

22 THE COURT: Yeah.

23 MR. JONES: -- be happy to hear it sooner than that since --

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. JONES: -- we're doing -- we're just exchanging briefs --

1 THE COURT: Right.

2 MR. JONES: -- the Court has heard these arguments for the 3 most part already. If we want to do it a week later or two weeks later, it's 4 fine with me.

5 MR. FREER: Yeah. The only issue I've got in November is I 6 am going -- traveling out to see my daughter that week of Thanksgiving.
7 That's the only time --

8 THE COURT: Right. So the probate hearings that we have -- 9 it's an odd month because I miss a week for a probate conference and 10 then we've got Thanksgiving the following week. We've got -- really the 11 only day would be November 8th.

12 MR. JONES: Eight?

13 THE COURT: November 8.

14 MR. JONES: That's fine with me, Your Honor.

15 MR. FREER: I think that's --

16 THE COURT: Because then we lose --

17 MR. JONES: I'm okay with that.

18 THE COURT: -- two weeks and the -- and then the next one 19 -- and this may be when your trial starts is the 29th of November.

20 MR. JONES: Your Honor, I would -- if it works for everyone, 21 the 8th would be better for me because and I don't think -- no, again we 22 -- we made -- both sides have made these arguments, the Court's 23 familiar with them and we could just reiterate our high points and see 24 what you want to do.

25 MR. FREER: Yeah. You have any conflicts?

1 MR. LeVEQUE: I'll be here for Chay v. Chen (phonetic) the 2 same day, Your Honor, so --

3 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

4 MR. LeVEQUE: All right.

5 MR. JONES: What time would you want to set that, Your 6 Honor?

7 THE COURT: So on that one we should probably do -- give 8 them their -- probably their own time like 10, 10:30 we don't have 9 anything?

10 MR. JONES: Ten, 10:30? Great.

11 THE COURT: Looks like we don't have anything at 10:30 on 12 that one yet.

13 MR. FREER: And then how far in advance would Your Honor 14 like the briefs presented?

15 THE COURT: The Monday after the holiday --

16 MR. JONES: The 29th.

17 THE COURT: -- which is the 29th.

18 MR. FREER: 29th?

19 MR. JONES: Yeah.

20 MR. JONES: All right.

21 MR. FREER: Sounds good.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So that's the plan and since 23 you're -- you probably need to put something on there indicating that -- 24 and we'll put it in for --

25 THE CLERK: I'll create a session.

1 THE COURT: Yeah, so we'll create a special session for it so 2 that they'll know where to put it that it's -- and what do they need to put 3 on their pleadings when they file them so that they get filed for that 4 10:30 on the 8th that the clerk's office knows they don't -- they don't get 5 to set it, it's already been set.

6 MR. FREER: The other issue is if we do file any post-trial 7 motions, do we want to have those heard the same day or --

8 THE COURT: Yeah, you'll have to file those and see what 9 happens. I'm just -- on this particular one I'm just --

10 MR. FREER: All right.

11 THE COURT: -- we're doing that. So we just need some sort 12 of a name for it so that you can label it and say this is the brief the Court 13 -- court-ordered brief for hearing on whatever.

14 MR. JONES: Maybe that's the -- hearing on --

15 MR. FREER: Remaining claims.

16 MR. JONES: -- on or claim --

17 MS. ZORNES-VELA: On equitable.

18 MR. JONES: On equitable -- hearing on equitable claims?

19 THE CLERK: I just put Milton Schwartz equitable issues.

20 THE COURT: Okay, Milton Schwartz equitable issues. Okay, 21 got it.

22 MR. FREER: Okay.

23 THE COURT: So yeah, and that the Court's already set the 24 date which is November 8th at 10:30. Okay. All right.

25 MR. FREER: Thank you, Your Honor.
