No. 79526

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Docket No. 79526 is an appeal from a district court order granting a motion for summary judgment and a postjudgment order awarding attorney fees. Initial review of the docketing statement and documents before this court reveals a potential jurisdictional defect. Specifically, the notice of appeal appears to be untimely filed under NRAP 4(a) as to the order granting summary judgment because it appears that it was filed more than 30 days after service of written notice of entry of the judgment or order. See NRAP 4(a)(1); NRAP 26(c); Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 426, 996 P.2d 416, 417 (2000) (providing that an order is appealable as a final judgment when it "disposes of all the issues presented in the case, and leaves nothing for the future consideration of the court, except for post-judgment issues such as attorney's fees and costs"). There can only be one final judgment in any action. See Greene v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 115 Nev. 391, 395, 990 P.2d 184, 186 (1999). Written notice of entry of the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and judgment was served electronically on April 22, 2019. Appellants filed their notice of appeal on August 29, 2019, well after the expiration of 30 days of the service of written notice of entry.

A post-judgment order awarding attorney fees and costs is independently appealable as a special order after final judgment. See Campos-Garcia v. Johnson, 130 Nev. 610, 331 P.3d 890 (2014) (noting that an order for attorney fees and costs entered post-judgment is independently appealable as a special order). The notice of appeal therefore appears to be timely as to the order awarding attorney fees.

Appellants in Docket No. 79526 shall have 30 days from the date of this order within which to show cause why their appeal from the order granting summary judgment should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. Failure to demonstrate that this court has jurisdiction may result in this court's partial dismissal of the appeal in Docket No. 79526. The deadlines for filing documents in these appeals shall be suspended pending further order of this court. Respondent in Docket No. 79526 may file any reply within 14 days from the date that appellants' response is served.

It is so ORDERED.
