I don't remember." Those are, I think, the three possible answers to that question, "Yes, I don't remember," and "no," all in one sentence. THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. THE COURT: That's okay. The form of the question, Mr. Anderson, called for possibly a hearsay response anyway because you were asking him	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Livadas that Mr. Skarpelos is aware of, so we'll just strike that. MR. ANDERSON: I'll move on to something else, your Honor. THE COURT: You could ask him the question in a different way but I'm just going to strike that answer. BY MR. ANDERSON: Q. You were asked questions by Mr. Nork and I think he asked you the question, You canceled the stock certificate because you didn't trust Mr. Livadas. Do you remember that? A. One of those reasons, yes. Q. And you testified yesterday there were multiple reasons, correct? A. Correct. Q. And he asked you about the volume or number of conversations you had with Mr. Livadas and it sounds like there were quite a few of them. A. Correct. Q.
