1 First of all, if an employer ever told you that they were
2 going to fire you because you were serving on a jury, let me
3 know. I've got a place for that individual. It's across the
4 street. It's called jail. Okay?

5 It is illegal for an employer to tell you they were going
6 to terminate you or somehow adversely affect your employment
7 for serving on a jury. Okay? Once in a while I get an 8 employer who decides they're going to tell some employee that.
9 It usually takes about one phone call and that employer's
10 either no longer employed or that employer gets the drift of 11 my decision and my statement to him very quickly. Okay?

12 We all have those things that are going to come up. The 13 thing that the computer didn't know, and this happens, believe
14 it or not, is if you had an open-heart surgery scheduled for 15 tomorrow, there's no way the computer would know that; okay?

16 We actually had a gentleman in here a couple months ago
17 who showed up with his air tank and everything. And was,
18 "Your Honor, I'm proud to serve. But I have open-heart
19 surgery tomorrow. Can we postpone it a couple days." I
20 really thanked him for his gusto and his desire. I let him go
21 because he had open-heart surgery planned for the very next
22 day. Okay? There are circumstances that prevent us from 23 being able to serve.

24 If I release you here, what I do is I send you back down

1 to floor three, where the jury pool is and, yes, you could get
2 assigned to that six-month construction defect case. So think
3 about what you ask or what you talk about or request because 4 you never know how bad the answer's gonna be.

5 So what I'm gonna do right now is I'm gonna have all you
6 rise and raise your right hand. My clerk is going to swear
7 you in.

8 [THE PROSPECTIVE JURY WAS DULY SWORN.]

9 THE COURT: Thank you. Now, what I'm going to do is 10 there's basically kind of a division in here in regards to 11 what's going on. As you'll notice, we have certain
12 individuals who are sitting at a table called the Plaintiff
13 and we have certain individuals sitting at a table called the 14 Defendant. Okay?

15 What I'm going to do is I'm going to basically have both 16 sides introduce themselves; okay? The reason I do that now is 17 I want you to listen to their names. 'Cause they're also 18 going to give you the name of the witnesses they believe
19 they're going to call in this case. Okay?

20 Even though there's 2.6 million of us here in Las Vegas,
21 I can tell you that there's people in this audience that I
22 know; okay? Okay. There are people that you look at and you
23 go, "Ah, that person looks familiar." Or you hear a name and 24 you say, "That sounds familiar." Okay?

1 If a name sounds familiar, remember it. And when I ask
2 you, "Does any of those names sound familiar?" You can say,
3 "Your Honor, yeah, he said so-and-so. I think that might have
4 been my neighbor from 20 years ago. We weren't really close."
5 We can find out whether or not that individual and you have 6 some type of relationship that prevents you from being on the 7 jury. Okay?

8 Just because you happen to know someone doesn't mean you
9 cannot sit on a jury. Like I say, it's amazing, even with
10 2.6 million people, I don't go through a single day in a jury
11 pool without someone saying, "I know him," being me, the 12 judge. Okay. It might just be because of some billboard I
13 had to be on or it happens to be we went to school together.
14 Okay? Whatever that is.

15 That's not an automatic conflict just because we went to
16 school together or we happen to of, quote, "Had a case
17 30 years ago together." I was a practicing attorney in town
18 for 25 or 27 years. Every time I go out to eat, someone
19 always says, "I recognize you." And I really hope I did a
20 good job for 'em before they make my food.

21 [Laughter]

22 THE COURT: Okay? But that happens. So what I'll
23 have done is I'll have the State introduce themselves, tell
24 you their prospective witnesses. Please listen up, see if any

1 of those names sound familiar. Just keep it in the back of 2 your mind if it does.

3 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 Good afternoon, everyone. My name is Bryan Schwartz with
5 the District Attorney's office. This is Genevieve Craggs,
6 also with the DA's office. And we're here to prosecute the 7 State of Nevada versus Ramon Dorado, the Defendant in this
8 case.

9 Just a little rundown of what the case is about. About
10 20 years ago, April 24th, 1999, the victim, Michelle Lah, met
11 the Defendant at the Silver Saddle Saloon here in 12 Clark County. They were hanging out and ultimately left
13 together, went back to his residence, and that is where he
14 proceeded to rape her and sexually assault her that day.

15 Now, the case at that time was ultimately closed, as the 16 investigation could not identify the Defendant. There was a
17 sexual assault kit taken -- this is just a little preview of 18 the case. So you'll hear more about it. But there's a sexual 19 assault kit taken, where they took samples from the victim.
20 And they store that kit.

21 At the time, Metro did not have the funds to test all
22 these kits. About 18 years later, 2015, they received lots of 23 funding. These kits were tested from years ago and the 24 Defendant's DNA was found from the vaginal swab on the victim.

1 So listen up now. This is the part where the judge was
2 telling you listen to the witnesses. We'll call some, but not
3 all, of these witnesses in our case-in-chief:

4 Mitchel William; Maria Perez, also goes by the nickname of
5 Candy; Detective Nadawick (phonetic); Rachel Ekroos;
6 Police Officer Virginia Williams with the Metropolitan Police
7 Department; Kendall Wiley, also with Metro; Sean Fletcher is a
8 CSA with Metro; Dana Warren; Detective Lora Cody with Metro;
9 Detective Corey Dunkworst (phonetic), actually a Winnemucca
10 detective; Kelly Dothier (phonetic), is a lab manager at the 11 Metropolitan Forensic Lab; Kimberly Dannenberger,
12 Metropolitan Police Department forensic analyst;
13 Charley Howl (phonetic); and Crista Broke (phonetic).

14 Thank you for your time.

15 THE COURT: Thank you, Counsel.

16 Counsel for Defense.

17 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 My name's Mace Yampolsky. This is my partner,
19 Jason Margolis. Marina Alvarez works in my office, as does
20 Theresa Monzia (phonetic), and Kaitlynn Stella (phonetic).

21 Our position is no sexual assault took place. And our
22 witnesses are potentially two expert witnesses. One's 23 Robert Bub and the other is Carry Caruso (phonetic). And 24 that's it. Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 Now, ladies and gentlemen, just speaking over those
3 names, listen to them in your mind, do any of those names
4 sound familiar to any of the individuals sitting in the box
5 right here? Just go ahead and raise your hand.

6 Okay. Hold on a second. We'll get the microphone to 7 you. We have to kind of do this karaoke style because 8 everything's that said in here is actually transcribed and 9 written down.

10 So go ahead and introduce yourself. Give us your last
11 name and the last four digits on your badge number.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1164: Hi. My name is [JUROR NO.
13 1164]. And my last four digits are 1164.

14 THE COURT: Okay. [JUROR NO. 1164], who do you
15 sound -- or which individual sounds familiar to you?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1164: Warren and Caruso. I
17 believe they used to be clients for my family's cleaning
18 business.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Did you actually have -- did you
20 work for the cleaning business?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1164: Yeah.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1164: I worked for --

24 THE COURT: Did you have any relationship with those

1 individuals, as far as --

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1164: As far as personal, no, I
3 do not have.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any understanding or 5 do you have any kind of belief in your mind as to whether or 6 not those people are honest, good people, bad people, or would
7 you even know 'em if you walked into 'em today?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1164: Probably not. I just 9 have, like, a personal bias and bitterness because they're 10 messy.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. So basically you believe
12 if those people are the ones your family would have serviced,
13 you have at least an understanding that they're kind of messy.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1164: Yeah. That's it.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Other than their own personal
16 hygiene or anything like that, is there anything else about
17 them that you remember?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1164: No.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go ahead and pass the 20 microphone, next, to the young woman next to you -- oh, nobody
21 else? Okay. Just want to make sure.

22 All right. What we're gonna do is I want to kind of walk
23 through the processes here; okay? The individuals right here
24 in the box, it's kind of a fancy word of saying "the box,"

1 that includes the people that are in those two rows are the
2 fancy seats. The front row that's right here, but a special
3 little addition, the very first row right here in the box
4 behind us. Okay?

5 Those individuals are what we call "in the box."
6 Unfortunately, this courtroom's not big enough to have all of
7 you sit in the actual box. But what we do is we qualify 32
8 potential jurors; okay?

9 Now, people say, "Thirty-two? That sounds like a huge
10 number." It's a large number. But what happens is that 32
11 then gets whittled down to exactly 14. Of that 14, 12 will be 12 the actual jury, 2 will be alternates.

13 Even though this trial is only slated to go during this
14 week, I always choose a larger number of alternates than some 15 judges because things do happen. I'd hate to have something
16 happen to a jury, such as a family emergency, and a case has 17 to be retried because we ran out of jurors; okay?

18 So what will happen is we will qualify -- so what's going
19 to happen is I'm gonna talk right now to the entire pool of 20 all of you about timing. And then I'm going to start asking
21 questions specifically about the people that are in the box.
22 And when I ask you those questions, what I'm gonna do is I'm
23 just gonna ask you in the box over here, and the front row,
24 and the front row right there, to basically listen to my

1 make sure it's not a loud, crunchy potato chip or something
2 like that. And if you have drinks, make sure it's a clear
3 liquid. If you spill on my carpet, it stays on my carpet.
4 The County does not replace this carpet.

5 This carpet is older than some of my prospective jurors.
6 And it's going to be here long after I'm dead. Okay? So if
7 you spill, it becomes part of your courtroom. Because it
8 belongs to you.

9 Now, I'm going to address everybody that's in the box in 10 that first row. Is there anyone in the box and in that first
11 row that as a conflict to the point where they cannot serve
12 their community, community of Clark County for the remainder
13 of this week as a prospective juror? If so, raise your hand.

14 Okay. Go ahead, sir. Go ahead. Again, it's badge
15 number, last four digits, please.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1099: 1099.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And last name?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1099: [JUROR NO. 1099].

19 THE COURT: [JUROR NO. 1099]. I always love when 20 people look at the ID to see what their last name is.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1099: Yeah; right?

22 THE COURT: It's okay. All right.

23 [JUROR NO. 1099], what seems to be the issue with serving your 24 community for the remainder of the week?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1099: What does the remainder of
2 the week mean?

3 THE COURT: It will be basically from about
4 10:00 o'clock until 5:00 o'clock each day until Friday.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1099: Not Saturday.

6 THE COURT: That's not a problem?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1099: As long as it's not
8 Saturday.

9 THE COURT: No, it will not be. They don't allow me
10 to have my staff work Saturday. Only judges get to work
11 Saturday.

12 Anyone else in the box?

13 Anyone in that front row?

14 Okay. Oup, I got some over here. Don't be shy. Raise 15 your hand.

16 Okay. Last name and badge number, ma'am.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: My last name is
18 [JUROR NO. 1157].

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: My badge number is 1157.

21 THE COURT: 1157. Ma'am, what seems to be the
22 difficulty?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: I'll be traveling to --

24 THE COURT: Okay. Where are you traveling to?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: To Texas.
2 THE COURT: Okay. And is that for business?
3 Pleasure?
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: No.
5 THE COURT: Why are you traveling to Texas?
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: Graduation.
7 THE COURT: A graduation? A family graduation?
8 Okay.
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: Yeah.
10 THE COURT: And is that a family member that's 11 graduating or who's graduating?
12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: Me.
13 THE COURT: You're going to graduate in Texas and 14 you're here?
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: Yeah.
16 THE COURT: Okay. What school are you graduating
17 from in Texas?
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: No, it's like -- it's a
19 program for --
20 THE COURT: Okay.
21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: -- a church.
22 THE COURT: Okay.
23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: So -- and the program is
24 going to start from Wednesday and I have to be there tomorrow.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: I already booked my
3 ticket. So --

4 THE COURT: So you already have your tickets booked.
5 You already paid for. You're supposed to be in Texas starting 6 tomorrow?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: Tomorrow, yeah.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And how long you gonna be in 9 Texas?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: From -- till Saturday.

11 THE COURT: Till Saturday?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: Yeah.

13 THE COURT: Okay. What part the beautiful state of 14 Texas do you get to go to?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1157: Dallas.

16 THE COURT: Be ready to have sticky and bugs.
17 All right. Thank you, ma'am.

18 Anyone else in the box that has a scheduling issue?

19 Okay. Just the first row. Not the second row, just the 20 first row behind here.

21 All right. Let's go ahead and have that first row, last
22 name and your last four digits.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: My last name is
24 [JUROR NO. 1189].

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: Digit -- four digit, 1189.

3 THE COURT: [JUROR NO. 1189], what seems to be the
4 difficulty?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: Your Honor, I can't -- can
6 I please be excused --

7 THE COURT: For what reason?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: -- for -- 'cause I can't
9 be -- I cannot be an impartial juror.

10 THE COURT: Why? Why is it --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: Because I've --

12 THE COURT: You don't even know what the facts are,
13 sir.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: I was a victim of the 15 system.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So, basically, you were a victim
17 of a crime?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: No, the police --

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: -- came to my house.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: Six of them. And they
23 told me I have to vacate my house.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So, basically, you believe

1 because of something that happened in your past with the
2 Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department --

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: No, I think my ex-wife
4 called the police.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Was that here in Clark County?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: No, it's San Bernardino.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: And I told them, what's
9 the reason? And they didn't tell me. What they told me, I
10 have to have five minutes to vacate the house.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: So I did -- I didn't want
13 to -- you know.

14 THE COURT: All right. So because of that incident
15 that happened in San Bernardino, do you believe that all
16 police officers -- you have a bias against all police officers
17 no matter where they're from?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: Probably, yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Have you ever had any positive
20 contact with law enforcement?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: I used to work with the 22 Las Vegas Metro Police as a volunteer --

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: -- for four years.

1 THE COURT: So you had positive --

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: I have positive --

3 THE COURT: -- impact with them?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: Yeah.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: I work at the lobby
7 there --

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1189: -- as a team leader.

10 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

11 Anyone else on that first row? Just go ahead and pass it
12 down.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: Hi. Last name is
14 [JUROR NO. 1203], 1203.

15 I'm a small business owner, pretty new. And I would love
16 to do this, I just have nobody that runs my business.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: I own a dog grooming
19 salon, new dog grooming salon. And, frankly, I have -- I
20 don't know who to run the business. I have groomers that
21 don't run the business. They cut dogs all day. And it's a
22 hardship for me because the one person that can do it, it's 23 more money out of my pocket. I'm losing money all week, but
24 I'm also the face of my business. And it's just something

1 that's very difficult for me. And I truly would love to go
2 through this process.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: I just am not sure how
5 that's going to work for me.

6 THE COURT: Okay. What time does your shop normally
7 open? What are the hours that you --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: I'm 7:30 to 3:00.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: I'm the first one in; I'm 11 the last one to leave.

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: And I have her up front if
14 need be, but never this many days in a row. And I get a
15 little bit of complaint from certain customers because I'm the 16 face. I'm the one that understands everything. I'm the one
17 that interprets.

18 It sounds silly. It's just a dog grooming shop. It's my
19 whole life right now. So I -- you know, I don't really know
20 what else to do about that. But I really wanted to bring it
21 up.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: I can't have this for one
24 week crash. I'm concerned.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: So --

3 THE COURT: And just for disclosure of all parties,
4 I know [JUROR NO. 1203]. [JUROR NO. 1203] and I went to
5 school together, I believe -- I won't disclose --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: Sixth grade.

7 THE COURT: I won't disclose how long ago it's been.
8 But probably back since --

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: Please don't.

10 THE COURT: -- elementary school forward.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: And I don't -- this has --
12 I didn't even know what courtroom we were walking in to. So I
13 was shocked when I saw you.

14 THE COURT: That is okay.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: But nice to see you, Dave.

16 THE COURT: I just wanted to make sure that
17 everybody understands that I never represented
18 [JUROR NO. 1203].

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: No.

20 THE COURT: But I do recognize her from schooling.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1203: Yes.

22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, [JUROR NO. 1203].
23 Go ahead -- anyone else on that first row?
24 Okay. Badge number and last name.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: Badge number is 1209.
2 Last name, [JUROR NO. 1209].

3 THE COURT: Okay. What's the difficulty,
4 [JUROR NO. 1209]?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: My concern is
6 transportation.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: I currently don't know how 9 to drive.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: I was only able to come
12 today because one of my parents was off.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: And their working hours
15 are from about 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: So I'm not sure how I
18 would be able to make it --

19 THE COURT: To get to and from? Okay. And what
20 general area do you live in Las Vegas?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: I live in Henderson.

22 THE COURT: Okay. And if you're not gonna be here,
23 what are you going to be doing during the days?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: I work right now at the --

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: -- at a fast food place.

3 THE COURT: And how do you get to your employment?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1209: I usually walk.

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.

6 Anyone else in that first row?

7 Okay.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1217: Last name is
9 [JUROR NO. 1217]. And my badge number's 1217.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1217: I'm speaking at a
12 graduation at 3:00 p.m. today. I came up with a tentative
13 back-up plan, but I'm the program director of the -- it's a

5 [BENCH CONFERENCE]

6 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, at this time the
7 Court would like to excuse badge number 0186,
8 [JUROR NO. 1086] -- 1086, [JUROR NO. 1086]. You may be
9 excused. Thank you, sir.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1086: You're welcome.

11 THE COURT: Badge number 1157, [JUROR NO. 1157].
12 Thank you, ma'am.

13 Badge number 1209, [JUROR NO. 1209].

14 And badge number 1217, [JUROR NO. 1217]. Thank you,
15 ma'am.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1217: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: All right. Now, that doesn't mean the 18 rest of you are automatically in here. That just means that,
19 as a result of some basically rules and laws of the State of 20 Nevada, I'm gonna now ask very general questions. What I'm 21 gonna ask is, basically, I'm just gonna start with the 22 gentleman in the back row.

23 So wherever my fancy Mr. Microphone is, if we'll pass it
24 back there. While we're doing that, my clerk is gonna fill in

1 the empty seats. Okay? But I'm just gonna start with general
2 questions and we're gonna go from the gentleman in the back
3 and go all the way around.

4 THE CLERK: In seat number seven will be badge
5 number 1218, [JUROR NO. 1218].

6 THE COURT: You'll go to the very back, ma'am.

7 THE CLERK: Seat number 19 will be badge 1224,
8 [JUROR NO. 1224]. Seat number 30 will be badge 1226,
9 [JUROR NO. 1226].

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1226: [JUROR NO. 1226].

11 THE CLERK: I apologize.

12 And in seat number 32 will be badge 1228,
13 [JUROR NO. 1228].

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

15 All right. And, Marshal, if you'll hand the microphone
16 right up there. Last four digits of your badge number and 17 your last name, sir.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: 1066, [JUROR NO. 1066].

19 THE COURT: Okay. [JUROR NO. 1066], I'm gonna ask
20 you some general questions. Have you ever served on a jury
21 before?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: I have not, sir.

23 THE COURT: Okay. How long have you been here in
24 Clark County?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: Since 2002. When I was
2 14, I moved here.

3 THE COURT: Okay. You don't have to rub in how
4 young you are. "Since I was 14." I got socks that old.
5 That's okay. There's some 18- and 19-year-olds in here that
6 are just really gonna rub it in here in a second.

7 All right. Sir, you currently employed?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: Yes, sir, I am.

9 THE COURT: What do you do?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: I'm a staff accountant at 11 a CPA firm in town.

12 THE COURT: Okay. And how far did you go in school?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: I have a bachelor's in 14 accounting for UNLV.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Now, the next question that I'm
16 gonna ask you is gonna deal with, basically, some of your life
17 experiences. Have you ever been a victim of a violent crime?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: No, sir.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Have you ever had a family member
20 that's been a victim of violent crime?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: Not to my knowledge.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Have you or direct family member
23 or person that you consider a very close friend, a person who
24 basically is not just an acquaintance but someone that you

1 basically kind of know their whole life history about, have
2 they ever been a victim of a sexual assault?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: Not to my knowledge.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any member of your
5 family that you know that have ever been accused of committing
6 a sexual assault?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: Again, not to my
8 knowledge.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Have you or any of your family
10 members ever worked in law enforcement?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1066: No.

12 THE COURT: Okay. That was easy. Go ahead and pass
13 it down next door.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Okay. My name is
15 [JUROR NO. 1067]. My number is 1067.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: My excuse is not
18 understand too much English.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And that's what we're gonna talk
20 about. All right. But it's kind of funny 'cause the 21 Mr. Microphone, it's -- I think we did get it at the swap
22 meet. So it only works if you're really, really close. If
23 you pull it away, I can't hear you; okay?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Okay.

1 THE COURT: All right. [JUROR NO. 1067], so what is
2 your native language?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: It is Spanish.

4 THE COURT: Okay. How long have you been here in
5 Clark County?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: In Vegas?

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Sixteen years.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And prior to Las Vegas, where did
10 you live?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: No, I'm retirement.

12 THE COURT: What's that?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: I'm retirement.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And are you currently employed?
15 Do you work?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Harris.

17 THE COURT: What's that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Harris.

19 THE COURT: Okay. What do you do for them?

24 THE COURT: Sixteen years? Okay.

1 Are you currently married?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: No.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Forgot to ask you that. I'm
4 gonna have to come back to ya.

5 All right. Do you have any grown children here in
6 Clark County?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Grandchild?

8 THE COURT: Do you have any children that live here
9 in Las Vegas?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Only one.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And how old is he or she?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: It's he -- it's Sammy.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And do you know if your family
14 members or anyone that's really closely related to you ever
15 been a victim of a violent crime?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: No.

17 THE COURT: Okay. To your understanding, has anyone
18 in your family or any close friends been a victim of a sexual 19 assault?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: No.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: I don't remember.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know whether or not any 24 members of your direct family have ever been accused of

1 committing a sexual assault?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: I don't understand.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Now, the term "sexual assault"
4 basically means things like a rape; okay? Or a case in which
5 someone basically groped or touched someone else.

6 Do you know of any family members of yours that have ever
7 been accused of doing that? Where a crime has been committed
8 or, at least, they've been alleged to commit a crime?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: No.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Your English language, in regards
11 to that, when you're working at housekeeping, the back of the 12 house, mainly Spanish?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Yeah. Because all the 14 time we speak Spanish. No practice English.

15 THE COURT: I understand.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: I understand a little.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Do you understand hearing the 18 English language better or the written English language?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Hear, depend if they speak
20 up -- they use we may -- we --

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: -- practice -- only
23 practice -- I going to speaking a little people, different
24 things, I don't understand.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So if too many people are
2 speaking at the same time, does it become confusing?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1067: Uh-huh.

4 THE COURT: Okay. All right. If you go ahead and
5 pass the microphone down.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1074: Last name is
7 [JUROR NO. 1074]. 1074, badge ID.

17 but you've never been actually chosen to sit as a juror.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1074: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And all three times, has that

5 years ago.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Was that here in Clark County?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1075: Yes.

8 THE COURT: All right. Without telling us what the 9 verdict was, did your jury, in fact, reach a verdict in that
10 case?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1075: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Were you the foreperson in that
13 jury? Were you the foreperson --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1075: No.

15 THE COURT: -- that came in and talked --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1075: No, I was not.

17 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Any other

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1075: Just that one.

20 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead and pass it to --
21 anybody else in the back row?

22 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Your Honor, should the Court inquire
23 whether it was a criminal or a civil jury?

24 THE COURT: I can do that. Go ahead and -- ma'am,

1 was that case that you were a juror member a criminal or civil
2 case?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1075: Criminal.

4 THE COURT: All right. Perfect. Go ahead and pass
5 it down.

6 Go ahead, ma'am. Last name and last four numbers.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: [JUROR NO. 1218], 1218.

8 THE COURT: Okay. [JUROR NO. 1218], where -- you
9 were a jury member, where at?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: Spokane County,
11 Washington.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Spokane, Washington.

14 THE COURT: And about how long ago was that, ma'am?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: Oh, it was mid 90s.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Without telling us what the
17 verdict was, did your jury, in fact, reach a verdict in that
18 case?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: No, they settled after a
20 couple days of --

21 THE COURT: Okay. So basically the case got
22 resolved prior to it being submitted to you?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: Correct.

24 THE COURT: All right. And was that a civil case,

1 then, ma'am?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: It was civil.

3 THE COURT: All right. Any other jury services?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: I have been in Austin,
5 Texas, and a couple other times up in Spokane.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: But that was the only one
8 I've ever been seated for.

9 THE COURT: Okay. So you've been in this process
10 multiple times but --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: Correct.

12 THE COURT: -- sat as a juror once.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1218: Right.

14 THE COURT: Perfect. Go ahead and pass it down to 15 the gentleman next to you.

16 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Your Honor, would the Court ask if 17 it was civil or criminal?

18 THE COURT: That one was a civil case, sir.

19 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Oh, okay. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: She did answer that question.
21 Go ahead.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: [JUROR NO. 1088], 1088.

23 THE COURT: Okay. [JUROR NO. 1088], let's go with 24 the most -- more than one?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: I've been summoned three
2 times.

3 THE COURT: Okay. How many times have you sat as an
4 actual juror?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: Sat once.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: And in a domain case.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Let's go with that one. Was that
9 here in Clark County?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: Yes, it was.

11 THE COURT: Okay. How long ago?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: Fifteen years ago.

13 THE COURT: Okay. And it was a condemnation or 14 eminent domain case?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: Correct.

16 THE COURT: All right. Would be a civil case. Was 17 the State of Nevada or the Clark County District Attorney
18 involved in that, the Civil District Attorneys involved, do
19 you know?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: I don't believe so.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: It had to do with the 23 freeway, so --

24 THE COURT: Right. Without telling us what the

1 verdict was, did your jury, in fact, reach a verdict in that
2 case?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: Yes, we did.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Were you the foreperson in that
5 case?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: No.

7 THE COURT: Is that the only jury service that
8 you've actually done, where you've been chosen as a juror?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1088: Yes.

10 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

11 Anybody else, the back row?

12 All right. Anybody in the front row of the box, main
13 box?

14 Let's go ahead. Last name, four digits.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1113: [JUROR NO. 1113], 1113.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1113: Hillsborough County.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Hillsborough in New Hampshire?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1113: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Without telling us what the
2 verdict was in that case, did your jury, in fact, reach a
3 verdict in that case?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1113: Yes, we did.

5 THE COURT: And was it a civil or criminal matter?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1113: Civil.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And were you the foreperson in 8 that case?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1113: I was not.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Any other jury duties?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #1113: Negative.

12 THE COURT: All right. Anybody else in that front
13 row in the box?

14 Okay. Anybody in my front row right here?

15 All right. Perfect.

16 Ladies and gentlemen, at this time, what we're going to 17 do is we're going to take our afternoon recess. What I didn't
18 speak to you about, but I'm going to talk to you right now,
19 there's gonna be a couple things that we do. They're called
20 admonitions. Okay?

21 First of all, there are attorneys in this room. There
22 are also members of my staff, including myself. If I see you
23 walking out in the hallway or one of the attorneys sees you
24 walking out in the hallway, or happen to be in the elevator or

1 going to Capriotti's or wherever you choose to lunch at,
2 please understand this: We're gonna ignore ya. Okay?

3 And the reason we have to do that is all of us, as
4 officers of the court, took an oath that basically says we
5 will have no contact with the jury. That includes the judge.
6 The only person that's going to have contact with you during
7 this process will be one of my Marshals; okay? No one else is 8 allowed to speak to you.

9 So basically, if you walk past one of the attorneys or 10 you walk past one of my staff members, outside of my Marshal,
11 and you give them a "hello," they're gonna put their head down
12 and walk right past you. Please understand, they're not
13 trying to be rude or discourteous. It is a requirement.

14 All the attorneys know that if they as so much as simply
15 look at you or waived at you or even smiled back at you, it
16 would be a violation of the oath they took. And it could 17 become very troublesome for them in front of this judge. But 18 it also becomes troublesome in the case.

19 So understand, they're not trying to be rude. They're 20 not trying to be what you may think, antisocial. They're just 21 not allowed to acknowledge you; okay? And you'll see that a
22 lot. You have a little white badge on. Most of the attorneys
23 know that makes you a very special person. So other attorneys
24 that will walk down the hallway will basically see your white

1 badge, put their head down, and walk right past you, even
2 though they're not in their courtroom. It's just by habit
3 they automatically do that.

4 For some reason, some juror always wants to ask some
5 attorney, "What do you think about this?" "What do think
6 about that?" The attorney's gonna walk right past ya; okay?
7 They know that if they were to speak to you and it came to one
8 of the judges that they spoke to a potential juror, it's ugly.
9 Okay? So understand that.

10 The other thing that's gonna happen, it's most
11 importantly, I'm gonna read for you -- I actually read this.
12 No matter how many times I say this and no matter how many 13 times I've actually got it memorized, I read it. And it's 14 very important that you understand it.

15 Back in the good old days, we never worried about social 16 media posting. Someone's gonna ask me, "Judge, can I call my 17 employer" or my spouse or someone else, "and say, 'Hey, I'm in 18 Department 29 in front of Judge Jones and we're talking about 19 this case.'" You may tell your employers, significant other,
20 or just your nosey friend, you are in Department 29 in front
21 of Judge Jones. That's it. Okay?

22 To post anything on social media about this case would be
23 a violation of the oath you took. And, again, causes all
24 sorts of bad things to happen; okay? What's amazing is the

1 Clark County courts -- and I didn't even know this until not
2 too long ago -- monitor social media. It is amazing how many
3 times I get Googled after the jury process.

4 If you want to Google "David Jones," knock yourself out.
5 Make sure you have a very large phone capacity. Last I
6 checked, there are 13,000 of us just in the west. I do not
7 know where my locker is nor do I know where the rest of the 8 monkeys are, for the rest of you old people. Okay?

9 Understand, please understand, don't post on social
10 media. Don't part of it -- it's not part of the process. If 11 you were to look up names on social media, it would be a
12 violation of the oath you took.

13 Ladies and gentlemen, we are going to take a recess until 14 2:15.

15 During this recess, you are you're admonished not to talk

19 connected with this trial by any medium of information,
20 including without limitation: Newspapers, television, radio,
21 the Internet, the Internet, the Internet or form or express
22 any opinion on any subject connected with the trial until the 23 case is finally submitted to you.

24 You're not to do any experiments or investigation

1 regarding any matters raised in this trial. Nor are you to

5 We will see you back here at ten after. We'll begin
6 right then after.

7 THE MARSHAL: All rise for the jury.

8 [OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURY.]

9 THE COURT: Counsel, anything that needs to come
10 before the bench before we break for lunch?

11 MS. CRAGGS: No, Your Honor.

12 MR. YAMPOLSKY: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Simple rule in my courtroom, if I
14 say be back here at 2:00 o'clock, attorneys and their clients
15 always be back here ten minutes before that; okay? I don't 16 wait on attorneys. So if I come back and we're supposed to be 17 back here and starting at 2:10 and you're not here at 2:10, we 18 may start without you.

19 See you back here after lunch.

20 THE MARSHAL: Court's in recess.

21 [RECESS AT 1:05 P.M.; PROCEEDINGS RESUMED AT 22 2:12 P.M.]

23 [OUTSIDE THE PRESENCE OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURY.]

24 MS. CRAGGS: Judge, they're back talking with the

1 Defendant. We made an offer.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MS. CRAGGS: I don't anticipate it resolving the 4 case, though.

5 THE COURT: Ready? We'll give 'em time. Tell 'em
6 they got about five minutes, at the most.

7 [DISCUSSION OFF THE RECORD.]

8 THE COURT: Counsel, anything that needs to come
9 before the bench before we get our jury in here?

10 MS. CRAGGS: Can I just put the offers on the 11 record, Your Honor?

12 THE COURT: Absolutely.

13 MS. CRAGGS: The offers were two attempts sex
14 assaults with right to argue. My understanding is that was 15 rejected. Me made another offer that would be two attempts
16 sex assaults, but it would be estimated 8 to 20 and that is 17 also rejected as well.

18 THE COURT: Is that correct, Counsel?

19 MR. YAMPOLSKY: Correct, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Let's get our jury in here.

21 [DISCUSSION OFF THE RECORD.]

22 THE MARSHAL: All rise for the jury.
