No. 79673 ✓

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

These related but unconsolidated appeals challenge a single district court order entered in district court case A-19-786962. Initial review of the available docketing statements reveals potential jurisdictional defects.¹

First, the challenged order, entered on August 23, 2019, appears to be filed only in case A-19-786962-B (on appeal in Docket No. 79668).² Although an amended notice of entry of the challenged order bearing all six of the underlying district court case numbers and captions was filed in each of the cases, the order itself bears only a single case number and the corresponding caption. Where the order was not filed in the other five district court cases (A-18-786357-W; A-19-787726-C; A-19-787540-W; A-19-787004-B; A-18-785818-W), it appears that the order is not subject to challenge in the context of a notice of appeal filed in those cases.³

Second, it appears that in Docket No. 79673 (district court case A-19-787540-W) Nevada Wellness Center, LLC, filed a timely tolling motion to amend the district court's decision regarding the preliminary injunction.

¹Respondents/cross-appellants' untimely motion for an extension of time to file a docketing statement in Docket No. 79669 is granted. The clerk shall detach the docketing statement from the motion filed on November 14, 2019, and file it separately.

To date, appellant/cross-respondent GreenMart of Nevada NLV, LLC, has failed to file a docketing statement in Docket No. 79669. Appellant/cross-respondent GreenMart of Nevada, NLV, LLC and respondents/cross-appellants in Docket No. 79670 have also failed to file docketing statements. These parties shall have 7 days from the date of this order to file and serve their docketing statements or face sanctions. See NRAP 14(c).

²It appears that the district court cases were not consolidated at the time the order was entered.

³It appears this defect may be remedied by filing a copy of the August 23, 2019, order in each of the other five district court cases.

See NRAP 4(a)(4). It further appears that no written, file-stamped order has been entered resolving the motion in case A-19-787540-W and the motion remains pending in the district court. It thus appears that the notice of appeal may have been prematurely filed in Docket No. 79673. See NRAP 4(a)(6).

Accordingly, appellants and respondents/cross-appellants in these matters shall each have 30 days from the date of this order to show cause why their appeals and cross-appeals should not be dismissed.⁴ Respondents in Docket No. 79671, 79672, and 79673, may file any replies within 14 days of service of appellant's response in each appeal. Respondents in Docket No. 79669 and 79670 may file any replies within 14 days of service of the latest-filed response in each appeal. Given this order, this court defers ruling upon the motions to consolidate these appeals with each other and Docket No. 79668. The briefing schedules in these appeals shall be suspended pending further order of this court.

It is so ORDERED.
