Case No.: 79689

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE
REAL PARTY IN INTEREST PETITION FOR REVIEW
(Second Request)

Real Party in Interest, Joyce Sekera (“Sekera”), by and through her counsel of record, Claggett & Sykes Law Firm, hereby moves this Honorable Court for an extension of two weeks to file Sekera’s petition for review.

Sekera’s petition for review was originally due June 23, 2020. This Court previously granted one 14-day telephonic extension of time to July 21, 2020. No request for additional time has been denied or denied in part. If this Court grants this request for an extension of two weeks, Sekera’s petition for review will be due on Tuesday, August 4, 2020. Good cause exists for allowing Sekera to extend the filing deadline until August 4, 2020:

On July 9, 2020, all individuals in the Claggett & Sykes Law Firm building were abruptly evacuated, due to a positive COVID-19 test from one of the firm’s receptionists. The firm had partially reopened with alternating days for different groups of staff members, with the option to work remotely. However, the receptionists have not had the option to work remotely in order to receive mail and other deliveries. In an abundance of caution, no one was permitted to re-enter the building until after a deep cleaning had been performed. In addition, Mr. Echols and his team were mandated to self-quarantine at home for 14 days before returning to the office.

On July 14, 2020, Claggett & Sykes building was again exposed to a positive COVID-19 test from an employee of a firm that shares office space with Claggett & Sykes.

Despite these setbacks, Mr. Echols has worked diligently to meet the current deadline to file and serve Sekera's petition for review. However, this unexpected building evacuation and mandated quarantine have caused an unforeseen delay. Given the complex nature and numerous issues raised by this original proceeding, it is vital that Sekera have sufficient time to review and address the issues prior to filing.

This motion is submitted in good faith and for good cause shown in accordance with NRAP 26(b). Therefore, Sekera respectfully request that this Court grant this motion for an extension of two weeks to file and serve the petition for review, until August 4, 2020.

DATED this 21st day of July, 2020.
