1 Singh. Andrew L. Kynaston, Esq. appeared with Defendant, Rajwant Kaur.
2 Nevada registered Punjabi interpreter, Muir Qureshi, was also present to interpret 3 for Plaintiff and Defendant. The Honorable Sandra Pomrenze presided over the 4 matter.

5 Testimony and exhibits were presented. There was argument and 6 discussion regarding the relative issues for this hearing. Testimony and exhibit
7 presentation resumed. There was argument and discussion regarding the Court 8 taking judicial notice that entry of a Decree of Divorce ends a marriage and that 9 being the issue before the Court in these proceedings. Court advised counsel it 10 was taking judicial notice that a Decree of Divorce was entered on September 04, 11 2004. Testimony and exhibit presentation resumed. There was colloquy at the 12 bench. Testimony and exhibit presentation resumed. The matter was trialed and 13 then recalled with all present as before.

14 Court advised counsel it received documents (Plaintiff's Petition for writ 15 relief filed in the Nevada Supreme Court) in chambers and it conferred with the 16 Presiding Judge and it was agreed the documents did not divest this Court of 17 jurisdiction and the matters would proceed. Counsel concurred with the Court.
18 Testimony and exhibit presentation resumed. Upon Court's inquiry both counsel 19 agreed to conduct a conference with the Court. The matter was trailed for the 20 Court to conduct a conference with counsel off the record and outside of the 1 courtroom. The matter was recalled with all present as before. Testimony and 2 exhibit presentation resumed.

3 Defendant testified. Mr. Kynaston finished his examination and passed
4 the witness. Mr. James moved the Court for Judgment on the Evidence. Court
5 observed it questioned Vaile v. Eighth Judicial District Court, 118 Nev. 262, 44
6 P.3d 512 (2002), as it seemed to be illogical and it seemed to say it was okay to 7 “pull a scam and get away with it” but it was Nevada law.

8 The Court further observed the testimony of the Defendant is not a far 9 distance from the facts of the Vaile case. There was argument and discussion 10 regarding the fraudulent divorce, both parties’ testimony about the divorce, the 11 Vaile case decision, the facts of the Vaile case, and Mr. Kynaston appealing this 12 case to have the Supreme Court review of the Vaile case. There was argument 13 and discussion regarding neither party understanding what they were doing, 14 Plaintiff's beliefs about getting a Nevada divorce, the California requirements for 15 divorce, and Nevada divorce law. There was argument and discussion regarding 16 the decision regarding the fraudulent divorce, Defendant not receiving any 17 benefits after the last 15 years with Plaintiff, California making the decision, and 18 the Court's discretion under the Vaile case. Mr. Kynaston requested the Court 19 exercise its discretion and rule on the facts of the case.

1 There was discussion regarding the Court's obligation to rule on the facts
2 and the law. There was argument and discussion regarding the provisions of Rule
3 60(b), the provisions of the Vaile case, Defendant's testimony, and counsel
4 appealing this case. Court advised counsel it would be exceeding its obligation
5 if it did not rule on Plaintiff's motion for judgment based on the evidence 6 presented, and Defendant's deposition was not published so it could not review
7 the deposition. There was argument and discussion regarding the facts presented 8 today being on point with the Vaile case and Defendant not meeting her burden 9 of proof.

10 The Court, having read the papers and pleadings on file herein, being well 11 advised in the premises, having heard the testimony, having considered the 12 evidence, being well advised in the premises, and for sufficient cause shown, 13 hereby finds and orders as follows:

14 THE COURT HEREBY FINDS that Plaintiff was not credible in any 15 portion of his testimony. Based on the evidence presented Defendant was more 16 credible; therefore, the Court does find that the parties perpetrated a fraud on the 17 State of Nevada by entering into a Decree of Divorce without the requisite 18 residency. Were that to be the end of the inquiry, but because of the Vaile vs.
19 Eighth Judicial District case, it was not the end of the inquiry. If sufficient time 20 has passed, the Court is obligated to make a decision on the merits as to how the

1 fraudulent divorce was implemented and what the parties' roles were. In the 2 Vaile case, both spouses were willing participants and they both knew that they 3 did not have residency. They both knew they wanted a divorce sooner rather than 4 later. It is not uncommon, unfortunately, because we have such generous divorce 5 laws, that people take advantage of those divorce laws and they come here 6 thinking they will get a quick divorce and they pretend to be residents. The 7 Courts see that on a regular basis. Sometimes they get away with it, sometimes 8 they do not, but certainly, in this instance, the presiding judge had no reason to 9 question the validity of the documents that were submitted and, therefore, 10 executed the Decree. What Vaile says is, if they make a distinction where there 11 is a very old divorce and one party seeks to set it aside based on fraud, that party
12 must prove they were free from fault. You have 2 parties at fault and the Court 13 in Vaile applied an equitable standard that they were not going to reward a 14 "wrong doer" and that is why there is a requirement of some equitable reason 15 why a "co-wrong doer" should be permitted relief even though they are equally 16 as much of a wrong doer as the other party. So, they set the standard that there 17 has to be some threat, duress, or coercion or an equitable reason why that party 18 is free from fault. In the instant case the Court finds the Defendant to be very 19 credible, unlike the Plaintiff. However, what is missing from Defendant's 20 testimony is that she was forced to sign those papers and, in fact in this instance,

1 she knew there was a divorce in Nevada whether Plaintiff told her it was a piece
2 of paper or not. This is a person who is a competent adult and who knew there 3 was a divorce in Nevada until such time as she became upset with the Plaintiff, 4 upon his allegation he had married someone else. She was content to “let 5 sleeping dogs lie” and live together with the Plaintiff. Ironically, they are still 6 living together and, ironically, Plaintiff has not remarried. But it requires, in this 7 instance, evidence of an unequal bargaining position at a minimum. There was 8 nothing in Defendant’s testimony that was evidence of an unequal bargaining 9 position between the Plaintiff and Defendant. Plaintiff said, “we’re going to 10 Nevada, we’re going to sign some paperwork, it is going to be a divorce, it is 11 going to be a paper divorce, we’re going to continue to live together.” This was 12 not a person with a mental defect or an inability to understand what was being 13 told to her. Defendant knew it, and in fact at his request, not a demand according 14 to her own testimony, she in fact went to India to marry Plaintiff’s brother. Was 15 it a “sham” marriage? Of course it was. Did it assist the parties in their “end 16 game”? No, because Plaintiff’s brother never got a Visa and did not come to the 17 U.S. But at the end of the day, there is simply insufficient evidence that the 18 Defendant acted under duress. So as much as the Court finds the facts of this 19 case offensive, it cannot rule on what it finds offensive—it has to rule on the law
20 and precedent and Vaile is still precedent in this state. Should the Supreme Court

1 choose to take a second look on appeal, they are free to do so, and, if in fact, they 2 say that Vaile is not good law then the Court is happy to have the parties come 3 back and the Court will even set a second hearing. On the testimony and the 4 evidence, the Court is compelled to grant the motion for judgment on the 5 evidence and it is compelled to deny the motion to set aside.

6 THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that, because neither party comes to 7 this court with clean hands, neither party shall receive an award of attorney's fees 8 against the other. The Plaintiff is not entitled to an award of attorney's fees. He 9 is equally, if not greater, at fault than the Defendant, so he may be the prevailing 10 party, but the Court will not reward someone with extremely unclean hands with 11 an award of attorney's fees. The Defendant is not the prevailing party here and 12 as much as there is some sympathy here, the Court does not rule on sympathy. It 13 must rule on the law and insofar as Defendant is not the prevailing party the Court 14 cannot award her any attorney's fees either. The Court was surprised when 15 Defendant rested, but counsel did, and did not get to the heart of the Vaile case 16 standard. It is not a criticism of counsel. The Court believes that Defendant was 17 honest and candid with the Court, and counsel was left with the case he had.
18 Defendant knew what her husband wanted her to do, and she went ahead and did 19 it. There is no evidence that she refused or that he demanded or that he threatened 20 her or anything else, just like the parties did in the Vaile case. Because of that,

1 and the Vaile precedent, the Court is compelled to deny the motion to set aside.
2 There is an appealable issue there. The Court does not know what the Supreme 3 Court will do. It is a question that has been answered in a way that most of us 4 might not appreciate, but it is the question that has been answered and 5 Defendant's testimony does not rise to the level for the Court to set aside the 6 Decree of Divorce. Counsel need to decide what they wish to do, because the 7 Court does believe there is an issue here. This Court does not have the ability to 8 "jump over" the Supreme Court and decide.

9 Therefore,

10 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion for Judgment on the 11 Evidence is GRANTED.

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant's Motion to Set Aside the 13 Decree of Divorce is DENIED.

14 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, as neither party is the prevailing 15 party, there shall be no award of attorney's fees to either party.
