Following arguments by Mr. Hardiman and Mr. Monteverde, COURT ORDERED, based on the allegations against the members of the special committee, it does not appear that the allegations of the complaint are sufficient for the Court to make a determination that they were not interested, and therefore, there should be a respect under the business judgment rules as to the decision made. If the Plaintiff believes there are any other allegations they can make in good faith add related to the disinterestedness of the special committee, the Court will give the Plaintiff an opportunity to amend. However, based upon the current allegations in the complaint, the motion is GRANTED. Upon Mr. Monteverde's request for discovery, Court suggested counsel may want to make the allegations and if counsel want some discovery, the Court may allow it, but based upon the current allegations in the complaint, the Court FINDS it has to enforce the business judgment rule.;

PARTIES

PRESENT: Albright, George Mark Attorney
Fetaz, Maximilien D. Attorney
Hardiman, John Attorney
Monteverde, Juan Attorney

JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Following arguments by Mr. Hardiman and Mr. Monteverde, COURT ORDERED, based on the allegations against the members of the special committee, it does not appear that the allegations of the complaint are sufficient for the Court to make a determination that they were not interested, and therefore, there should be a respect under the business judgment rules as to the decision made. If the Plaintiff believes there are any other allegations they can make in good faith add related to the disinterestedness of the special committee, the Court will give the Plaintiff an opportunity to amend. However, based upon the current allegations in the complaint, the motion is GRANTED.

Upon Mr. Monteverde's request for discovery, Court suggested counsel may want to make the allegations and if counsel want some discovery, the Court may allow it, but based upon the current allegations in the complaint, the Court FINDS it has to enforce the business judgment rule.
