ROGICH DEFENDANTS' RENEWED MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

Pursuant to Nev. R. Civ. P. 54 and NRCP 68(f), as well as this Court's equitable authority, Defendants SIGMUND ROGICH, as Trustee of The Rogich Family Irrevocable Trust ("The Rogich Trust"), Sigmund Rogich individually ("Rogich") and Imitations, LLC ("Imitations" and collectively with the Rogich Trust and Rogich referred to herein as the "Rogich Defendants"), are entitled to attorneys' fees and costs incurred in defending against NANYAH VEGAS, LLC's ("Plaintiff" or "Nanyah") lawsuit.

This Motion is based upon the papers and pleadings on file herein, the attached exhibits, including the Declaration of Brenoch R. Wirthlin, Esq. ("Wirthlin Declaration"), set forth below, and any oral argument of counsel permitted at the time of hearing, all of which demonstrate that the Rogich Defendants are entitled to an award against Plaintiff of costs in the amount of $39,748.55 and attorneys' fees in the amount of $954,453.50<sup>1</sup>. Alternatively, the Rogich Defendants are entitled to fees in the amount of $541,021.50, the total incurred from the Rogich Defendants' offer of judgment to Plaintiff.

<sup>1</sup> As set forth more fully below, this amount includes a discount provided to the Rogich Defendants by counsel. The total amount of incurred fees is $1,354,453.50.

1 Nevada courts.

2 THE FEES INCURRED TO SUCCESSFULLY LITIGATE
3 THIS ACTION ARE REASONABLE

4 11. To date, Fennemore Craig, P.C. has billed the Rogich Defendants a total of 5 3094.10 attorney/paralegal hours, representing a total fee expenditure of $954,453.50.<sup>2</sup>

6 12. In this fee application, the Rogich Defendants seek recovery after a discount by the 7 undersigned firm.

8 13. This amount is reasonable given the Rogich Defendants' primary litigation goals
9 were achieved – to obtain Judgment in their favor and against Plaintiff.

10 14. Each of the attorneys/paralegal working on this file, including myself, only took 11 those actions throughout this case that were necessary to insure that Defendants' litigation goals
12 were achieved.

13 15. Moreover, discrete tasks on this file were assigned to an attorney/paralegal based 14 on the experience level needed to achieve the desired result.

15 16. This, too, resulted in a lowering of the Rogich Defendants' fees, as attorneys with 16 higher billing rates were not employed to conduct menial tasks that could just as easily have been 17 accomplished by a lower-level attorney or employee.

18 17. Even though all such cost-savings measures above were followed on this matter,
19 the difficulties and intricacies required in building Defendants' defenses and claims against 20 Plaintiff required this office to participate in discovery and also drafting various motions,
21 oppositions and reply briefs, consisting of hundreds of pages of briefing/exhibits/orders.

22 18. In my professional opinion, the fees expended by the Rogich Defendants and this 23 office to accomplish the Rogich Defendants' litigation goals are reasonable.

24 19. I am competent to testify to each of the facts asserted herein.

25 _____
26 <sup>2</sup> In computing such total, each attorney/paralegal working on the file would directly enter his/her
27 own time into Fennemore Craig, P.C.'s billing program. This program then logs all of the time
28 spent by each attorney/paralegal, multiplies that time spent by the appropriate attorney's/paralegal's billing rate for this file, and renders a total. These totals are then tallied each month, and a bill is generated for the client. It is from these detailed records that the total attorneys' fees are generated.

2 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

3 I. INTRODUCTION

4 Plaintiff filed two (2) lawsuits against Defendant The Rogich Trust, with the most recently
5 lawsuit being filed on November 4, 2016 (“2016 Lawsuit”). Plaintiff included Rogich
6 individually and Imitations to the 2016 Lawsuit. Demonstrating the frivolous nature of the instant
7 lawsuit against the Rogich Defendants, just days before filing the 2016 Lawsuit – itself highly 8 duplicative of the 2013 litigation commenced against Rogich – Plaintiff Nanyah, through its sole
9 manager Harlap, questioned whether it even had claims against the Rogich Defendants! Yet,
10 Plaintiff continued through years of litigation against the Rogich Defendants, causing them to 11 incur unnecessary fees and costs to defend against Plaintiff’s claims. Accordingly, the Rogich
12 Defendants are entitled to all their fees and costs incurred in this matter from inception of the 13 2016 Lawsuit.

14 Further, in an effort to avoid continued litigation and to resolve this matter, on October 29,
15 2018, 2018, the Rogich Defendants extended an offer of judgment to the Plaintiff in the amount
16 of $50,000.00 (the “Offer”). Unfortunately, Plaintiff rejected the Offer and did not propose a 17 counter-offer. Due to Plaintiff’s decision, this matter had to continue through the motions in 18 limine, trial preparation and proceeding to trial, causing the Rogich Defendants to incur
19 substantial fees and costs when this matter could have reasonably been settled much earlier. As a
20 result of Plaintiff’s refusal to accept a reasonable Offer, Defendant The Rogich Trust requested
21 the Court to take judicial notice of NRS 163.120 on April 15, 2019 (the “Judicial Notice
22 Request”). After Plaintiff requested the Court to address Defendant The Rogich Trust’s Judicial 23 Notice Request and giving the parties an opportunity to fully brief the issue, the Court dismissed
24 Defendant The Rogich Trust from the lawsuit on April 22, 2019. The Court enter its Order
25 dismissing Defendant The Rogich Trust from the lawsuit on April 30, 2019. Subsequently, this 26 Court entered summary judgment in favor of Rogich individually and Imitations.

27 As judgment has been entered in favor of the Defendant the Rogich Defendants, the 28 Rogich Defendants are prevailing parties in this action. Therefore they are entitled to an award of

1 reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to NRS § 18.010(1), NRS § 18.020(3), and NRCP
2 68.

3 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

4 1. Mr. Harlap (Nanyah's sole managing member) sent an e-mail to Mr. Huerta on 5 November 1, 2016 – just two (2) days before filing the 2016 Lawsuit – in which he questioned the 6 validity of Nanyah's claims against Defendant The Rogich Trust. See November 1, 2016 e-mail,
7 attached as Exhibit 2.

8 2. In that email, sent by Mr. Harlap only two days before filing the 2016 Lawsuit, it
9 is clear that Mr. Harlap himself does not even know if he had any legitimate basis to sue the 10 Rogich Defendants:

11 I still need to read though [sic] the material you already sent me. I need to get to 12 the bottom of how my money and interest first was recorded, then supposedly 13 shifted from Canamex to Eldorado Hills LLC as that process is yet unclear to 14 me so as to see how secure, evidence and strong my case against him is or my 15 rights at Eldorado Hills.

16 See Exhibit 2 hereto (emphasis added).

17 3. Despite Mr. Harlap's clear trepidation and lack of knowledge of whether he even 18 could sustain a legitimate claim against the Rogich Defendants, Plaintiff charged ahead filing the 19 instant action on November 3, 2016.

20 4. Defendant The Rogich Trust filed its Answer.

21 5. While denying all liability, in an attempt to resolve this matter, Defendants served 22 an Offer of Judgment on Plaintiff on October 29, 2018. See Offer of Judgment, attached as 23 Exhibit 3.<sup>3</sup>

24 6. Defendant The Rogich Trust requested the Court to take judicial notice of NRS
25 163.120 on April 15, 2019.

26 7. On April 16, 2019, Plaintiff filed its Emergency Motion to Address Defendant The 27 Rogich Trust's NRS 163.120 Notice and/or Motion to Continue Trial for Purposes of NRS

---

28 <sup>3</sup> The Rogich Defendants also served a subsequent offer of judgment on Plaintiff on April 1, 2019. See Exhibit 4 hereto.

1 163.120.

2 8. On April 18, 2019, Defendant The Rogich Trust filed its Opposition to Plaintiff's
3 Emergency Motion to Address Defendant The Rogich Trust's NRS 163.120 Notice and/or Motion
4 to Continue Trial for Purposes of NRS 163.

5 9. At the telephonic hearing held on April 18, 2019 at 4:00 p.m., the Court denied
6 Plaintiff's Motion to Continue Trial and requested the parties to file supplemental briefing as to 7 the NRS 163.120.

8 10. After hearing arguments from the parties, on April 22, 2019, the Court dismissed
9 Defendant The Rogich Trust from the lawsuit.

10 11. The Court enter its Order dismissing Defendant The Rogich Trust from the lawsuit
11 on April 30, 2019.

12 12. Subsequently, on October 1, 2019, this Court entered its order granting summary
13 judgment in favor of Rogich individually and Imitations.

14 III. LAW & ARGUMENT

15 A. The Rogich Defendants are entitled to recovery of costs.

16 Section 18.020(3) of the Nevada Revised Statutes provides as follows:

17 Costs must be allowed of course to the prevailing party against any adverse party
18 against whom judgment is rendered, in the following cases:

19 ...

20 3. In an action for the recovery of money or damages, where the plaintiff
21 seeks to recover more than $2,500.

22 ...

23 Nev. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 18.020 (West). There is no dispute Plaintiff sought “[g]eneral damages in 24 an amount in excess of $15,000”, triggering NRS § 18.020(3). See Complaint at p. 6. Further,
25 pursuant to this statute, the Supreme Court of Nevada has determined that in order to be a 26 prevailing party a party “must win on at least one of its claims.” Golightly & Vannah, PLLC v.
27 TJ Allen, LLC, 132 Nev. Adv. Op. 41, 373 P.3d 103, 107 (2016). There is no dispute that the 28 Rogich Defendants are prevailing parties on all of the Plaintiff's claims. The Rogich Defendants

1 timely filed their Amended Memorandum of Costs in this matter, demonstrating its entitlement to
2 its costs in the amount of $39,748.55. See Amended Memorandum of Costs, Exhibit 5 hereto.

3 B. The Rogich Defendants are entitled to attorneys' fees from inception of the 4 2016 Lawsuit pursuant to NRS 18.010.

5 NRS 18.010 governs an award of attorneys' fees and states, in relevant part, as follows:

6 "2. In addition to the cases where an allowance is authorized by specific
7 statute, the court may make an allowance of attorney's fees to a prevailing party:

8 (a) When the prevailing party has not recovered more than 9 $20,000; or

10 (b) Without regard to the recovery sought, when the court finds that 11 the claim...of the opposing party was brought or maintained without reasonable 12 ground or to harass the prevailing party. The court shall liberally construe the 13 provisions of this paragraph in favor of awarding attorney's fees in all appropriate
14 situations. It is the intent of the Legislature that the court award attorney's fees
15 pursuant to this paragraph and impose sanctions pursuant to Rule 11 of the Nevada
16 Rules of Civil Procedure in all appropriate situations to punish for and deter
17 frivolous or vexatious claims and defenses because such claims and defenses
18 overburden limited judicial resources, hinder the timely resolution of meritorious
19 claims and increase the costs of engaging in business and providing professional 20 services to the public."

21 NRS 18.010(2)(Emphasis Added).

22 Here, it is clear that the Rogich Defendants have not recovered more than $20,000.
23 Further, just days prior to filing this action, Plaintiff's own managing member (Yoav Harlap)
24 questioned the validity of its claims. Based upon Mr. Harlap's e-mail, this lawsuit was and is the 25 statutory definition of frivolous that NRS 18.010(2)(b) was intended to prevent from being filed.

26 As set forth below, the Rogich Defendants have incurred the amount of $954,453.50<sup>4</sup>
27 from inception of the 2016 Lawsuit and $541,021.50 from the date of the Offer of judgment. See 28 Exhibit 1; see also Redacted Billing History, Exhibit 6 hereto. Such fees were reasonably and necessarily incurred, as demonstrated below, the Rogich Defendants are entitled to the entirety of their attorneys' fees incurred herein.

<sup>4</sup> As noted above, this amount includes a discount provided to the Rogich Defendants by counsel.
The total amount of incurred fees is $1,354,453.50.

1 C. Alternatively, the Rogich Defendants are entitled to the portion of their fees
2 incurred after the rejection of the Offer on the additional bases set forth in 3 NRCP 68.

4 As set forth above, the Rogich Defendants are entitled to their entire attorneys' fees and 5 costs incurred herein. In addition, the Rogich Defendants are entitled to all attorneys' fees and 6 costs incurred after service of the Offer pursuant to the additional bases set forth in NRCP 68,
7 which provides as follows:

8 (e) Failure to Accept Offer. If the offer is not accepted within 14 days after service, 9 it will be considered rejected by the offeree and deemed withdrawn by the offeror.
10 Evidence of the offer is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs,
11 expenses, and fees. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not 12 preclude a subsequent offer. With offers to multiple offerees, each offeree may serve a separate acceptance of the apportioned offer, but if the offer is not accepted by all offerees, the action will proceed as to all. Any offeree who fails to accept the offer may be subject to the penalties of this rule.

13 (f) Penalties for Rejection of Offer.

14 (1) In General. If the offeree rejects an offer and fails to obtain a more
15 favorable judgment:

16 (A) the offeree cannot recover any costs, expenses, or attorney fees 17 and may not recover interest for the period after the service of the offer and before the judgment; and 18 (B) the offeree must pay the offeror's post-offer costs and 19 expenses, including a reasonable sum to cover any expenses

20 incurred by the offeror for each expert witness whose services
21 were reasonably necessary to prepare for and conduct the trial
22 of the case, applicable interest on the judgment from the time of 23 the offer to the time of entry of the judgment and reasonable
24 attorney fees, if any be allowed, actually incurred by the offeror from the time of the offer. If the offeror's attorney is collecting a contingent fee, the amount of any attorney fees awarded to the party for whom the offer is made must be deducted from that contingent fee.

25 (2) Multiple Offers. The penalties in this rule run from the date of service
26 of the earliest rejected offer for which the offeree failed to obtain a more favorable judgment.

27 Nev. R. Civ. P. 68 (emphasis added).

28 On October 29, 2018, the Rogich Defendants extended an offer of judgment to the

1 Plaintiff in the amount of $50,000.00 (i.e., the Offer). See Exhibit 3. Plaintiff rejected such offer
2 and failed to obtain a more favorable judgment. Accordingly, pursuant to NRCP 68, the Rogich
3 Defendants are entitled to fees incurred after service of the Offer of Judgment, totaling 4 $541,021.50.

5 D. The Rogich Defendants' attorneys' fees incurred are reasonable.

6 In determining whether fees expended are reasonable, the Nevada Supreme Court has 7 considered the following factors, often referred to as the Brunzell factors:

8 (1) the qualities of the advocate; his ability, training, education, experience,
9 professional standing and skill; (2) the character of the work to be done; its 10 difficulty, intricacy, importance, the time and skill required, the responsibility 11 imposed and the prominence and character of the parties when they affect the 12 importance of the litigation; (3) the work actually performed by the lawyer; the skill, time and attention given to the work; and (4) the result: whether the attorney was successful and what benefits were derived.

13 Schouweiler v. Yancy Company, 101 Nev. 827, 834, 712 P.2d 786, 790 (1985) (citing Brunzell v.
14 Golden Gate Nat'l Bank, 85 Nev. 345, 349, 455 P.2d 31 (1969)).

15 1. Qualities of Advocate

16 The qualities of the advocates support the requested fee amount. Fennemore Craig, P.C.
17 is as an AV-law firm by Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating available from that respected
18 service. Exhibit 1, at ¶ 7. The lead attorney, Samuel Lionel, has practiced in the areas of 19 commercial litigation since being admitted to practice in Nevada in 1954 and has an AV
20 Preeminent Rating from Martindale Hubbell. Id. at ¶ 8. Brenoch Wirthlin, the attorney assisting 21 Mr. Lionel in this matter, has practiced for nearly thirteen years, including as a partner in 22 Fennemore Craig's Business Litigation, and has been recognized as Mountain States' Super
23 Lawyers Rising Star in Business Litigation from 2014-2018, Nevada Business Magazine's "Best 24 Up and Coming Attorneys" for 2014-2015, Benchmark Litigation's Under 40 Hot list for 2018, 25 and Nevada Business Magazine's "Legal Elite" for 2018. Id.

1                               2.       Character of Work and Work Actually Performed

2               During the course of representing Defendants in this particular matter, Fennemore Craig
3 expended a total of 3094.10 attorney/paralegal hours, representing a total fee expenditure of 4 $1,354,453.50<sup>5</sup>. The fees incurred in the prosecution of this matter are authenticated by the 5 Declaration of Brenoch R. Wirthlin, Esq. Id.

6               Defendants' attorney's fees are itemized in the redacted history bill for Fennemore Craig
7 (Exhibit 6). These fees were determined by multiplying the total hours worked by the attorneys
8 handling the file by the applicable hourly rate. In computing these billings, daily time was entered
9 into Fennemore Craig's billing program and turned over to the accounting department. Id.. Each 10 attorney who devoted time to the case, at or about the time the services were rendered, noted the 11 time spent, and prepared a description of the work completed. Id. The time was submitted to the 12 accounting department to prepare monthly billing invoices. Id. It is through this accounting
13 process that the total fee amount expended on this matter was reached. Id.

14               Fennemore Craig's prevailing rates on this matter were: $360-$650 per hour for directors,
15 $300-$330 per hour for associate attorneys, and $190-$220 per hour for paralegals working on the 16 case. Id.. It is submitted that Fennemore Craig's normal hourly billing rate is commensurate for 17 attorneys of the same experience and reputation in this market and is similar to the rates charged
18 to other clients for similar work. Id..

19               The fees incurred were reasonable and necessary to obtain a successful result in this 20 matter. The fees incurred during this time period were necessary to allow the Rogich Defendants 21 to fully research the claims against them, to investigate their defenses to this action and fully 22 defend against the claims. Id. at ¶ 13.

23       ///

24       ///

25       _____
26       <sup>5</sup> In computing such total, each attorney/paralegal working on the file would directly enter his/her
27 own time into Fennemore Craig, P.C.'s billing program. This program then logs all of the time
28 spent by each attorney/paralegal, multiplies that time spent by the appropriate attorney's/paralegal's billing rate for this file, and renders a total. These totals are then tallied each month, and a bill is generated for the client. It is from these detailed records that the total attorneys' fees are generated.

1                   3.       The Difficulty of the Work

2           This case was somewhat complex in nature in that it required extensive legal research and
3   synthesis of large amounts of information and data. As a result, the fees incurred by the Rogich
4   Defendants and this office to achieve a successful result were both reasonable and necessary
5   given the circumstances and the subject matter involved. Id. at ¶ 16. In addition, as set forth
6   above, due to Plaintiff's unwillingness to accept the Rogich Defendants' reasonable offer, or 7   provide a counteroffer, the litigation was extended through the entirety of the discovery period, to 8   dispositive motions.

9                   4.       The Result Obtained

10          The undersigned counsel achieved the most favorable possible result for the Rogich
11   Defendants – dismissal of the Rogich Trust and summary judgment in favor of Rogich
12   individually and Imitations.

13   IV.   CONCLUSION

14          For all these reasons, the Rogich Defendants respectfully request that the Court enter
15   Judgment in their favor and against Plaintiff Nanyah Vegas, LLC, for costs in the amount of 16   $39,748.55 and attorneys' fees in the amount of $954,453.50. The Rogich Defendants
17   respectfully request this Court enter judgment in their favor in these principal amounts, along
18   with statutory interest as allowed by law, and grant such other and further relief as the Court
19   deems appropriate.

Carlos,

I will not come to Vegas before next Wednesday earliest so if you are back by Tuesday if I remember right then this is not a problem at all. In the meantime I assume we can conduct that phone call with Mark as planned?

I still need to read though the material you already sent me. I need to get to the bottom of how my money and interest first was recorded, then supposedly shifted from Canamex to Eldorado Hills LLC as that process is yet unclear to me so as to see how secure, evident and strong my case against him is or my rights at Eldorado Hills. I need to understand if my interest in Eldorado Hills LLC was established in a form that would have reasonably required him to pass through me when he "gave away" the company and to either pay me/us and/or perhaps give it to us for example once "giving for free" was the case. Did he ever for example give us any written notice that he intends to give it away? Did he actually officially inform us in retrospect? Did he have to? What was the set of documents that supported the transition of my funds to be routed the way they were, etc.

These are some basic questions that I intend to get to the bottom of.

Yoav

I read this letter.

Eldorado Hills was Sig's deal. He brought it to me and asked me to help with the development and to raise capital for it. The biggest mistake I made was having friends and trusted people invest, along with me, in a deal that Sig Rogich put together and asked me to be involved in. When he first brought me into this, I had no idea that he would behave this way, mostly because he had made so much money with Jacob and I previously. Once he hired Sam Lionel, began treating Jacob the way that he did, and my lawyer was able to obtain those emails and we found the check that he received and the property he now owns, it became clear.

We have pages and pages of documents that show what he is about. If and when you're ready to see more, I'll start sending them to you.

You and I should talk again, before our ConCall with Mark Simons. I would have preferred to have gone to Mark's office and be there while we speak with you, but I am not going to delay my trip back east. A dear friend of mine from elementary school, junior high school, and high school passed away last week at age 47. He was in need of a heart transplant and never received it. Paying my respects to the family is more important than Sig Rogich and his bullshit.

HUERTA 000635

DECISION

Pending before the Court are (1) Defendant Eldorado Hills, LLC's Motion for Dismissal with Prejudice Under Rule 41(e); (2) Defendant Eldorado Hills, LLC's Motion for Summary Judgment; and (3) Defendants Sigmund Rogich and Imitations, LLC's Motion for Summary Judgment, or Alternatively for Judgment as a Matter of Law Pursuant to NRCP 50(e). The matter came on for hearing on Motions Calendar on September 5, 2019 and following arguments of counsel, as well as the pleadings and papers on file herein, the Court took the matter under advisement. This decision follows.

I. Eldorado Hills LLC's Motion for Dismissal Under Rule 41(e)

On July 22, 2019, Defendant Eldorado Hills, LLC ("Eldorado") filed its Motion for Dismissal Under N.R.C.P 41(e)(4)(B). Eldorado argues that dismissal is warranted because three years have elapsed since the remittitur was filed with the Court and that Nanyah Vegas, LLC ("Nanyah") failed to prosecute its case within the applicable limitations. This Court agrees.

Applicable Standard

N.R.C.P. 41(e)(4)(B), in pertinent part, provides that “[i]f a party appeals a judgment and the judgment is reversed on appeal and remanded for a new trial, the court must dismiss the action for want of prosecution if a plaintiff fails to bring the action to trial within 3 years after the remittitur was filed in the trial court (emphasis added).” In order to avoid dismissal, the parties may stipulate, in writing, to extend the time in which to prosecute the action. See, N.R.C.P. 41(e)(5).

Discussion

The Complaint in the instant action was filed on July 31, 2013. On July 25, 2014, Eldorado filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment seeking to dismiss the unjust enrichment claim, which this Court granted. Nanyah appealed this Court’s dismissal to the Nevada Supreme Court. The Nevada Supreme Court issued an Order of Reversal and Remand, finding that there was a question of fact with respect to Nanyah’s unjust enrichment claim. On April 29, 2016, the Nevada Supreme Court’s remittitur was filed with this Court, thus, triggering the limitations imposed under N.R.C.P. 41(e)(4)(B). Given this remittitur, Nanyah must have brought the action to trial by April 29, 2019, or otherwise stipulated to extend for purposes of N.R.C.P. 41(e).

The instant case was not brought to trial within the time limits of Rule 41(e); moreover, the parties did not agree to stipulate the proceedings for purposes of N.R.C.P 41(e).

The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the swearing of a witness who gives testimony is sufficient to commence trial and thus toll the limitations period specified in N.R.C.P. 41(e). See Lipitt v. State, 103 Nev. 412, 413 (1987). Alternatively, examining a juror satisfies the limitations in N.R.C.P. 41(e) and avoids dismissal. See Smith v. Timm, 96 Nev. 197, 200 (1980).

1 In Prostack v. Lowden, the Nevada Supreme Court interpreted N.R.C.P. 41(e) in the 2 context of the 5-year rule embedded therein and held that “an oral stipulation, entered into in 3 open court, approved by the judge, and spread upon the minutes, is the equivalent of a written
4 stipulation for the purposes of this rule.” 96 Nev. 230, 231 (1980). However, the Prostack Court
5 also held that a stipulation that is silent as to the 5-year rule is not sufficient to satisfy N.R.C.P.
6 41(e)’s written-stipulation requirement. Id. at 231. The Prostack Court further held that “words
7 and conduct, short of a written stipulation, cannot estop a defendant from asserting the 8 mandatory dismissal rule.” Id. (quoting Thran v. District Court, 79 Nev. 176, 181 (1963)).

10 Here, in order to avoid mandatory dismissal, Nanyah must have either (1) called a 11 witness; (2) examined a juror; or (3) stipulated to extend trial expressly for purposes of 12 N.R.C.P. 41(e). None of the three scenarios occurred because the jury trial was halted before 13 voir dire even began. First, not a single witness was called nor has a single juror been examined.
14 As such, this Court finds that trial has not begun for purposes of surviving a N.R.C.P. 41(e)
15 dismissal. Second, the April 22, 2019 oral stipulation that was made on the Court’s record was 16 silent as to N.R.C.P. 41(e)(4)(B)’s 3-year rule. Moreover, the Stipulation and Order Suspending
17 Jury Trial filed on May 16, 2019 with this Court was also silent as to N.R.C.P. 41(e)(4)(B)’s 3-18 year rule. Rather, the jury trial was suspended to allow Nanyah to file an emergency writ with 19 the Supreme Court with respect to this Court’s Order dated April 30, 2019.<sup>1</sup> Therefore,
20 under Prostack, this Court finds that the stipulations that were made were not sufficient to 21 satisfy the rule’s express written-stipulation requirement.
22

23 Accordingly, mandatory dismissal is warranted under N.R.C.P. 41(e)(4)(B).
24

26 ///

27

28 <sup>1</sup> In its Order, the Court dismissed the Rogich Trust defendants with prejudice.

1                   II.     Eldorado Hills, LLC's Motion for Summary Judgment

2                   In addition to its Motion to Dismiss discussed supra, Eldorado filed a Motion for
3                   Summary Judgment on May 22, 2019.<sup>2</sup> Eldorado argues that Nanyah's only remaining claim
4                   against it for unjust enrichment should be dismissed because Nanyah once had an adequate
5                   remedy at law against the Rogich Trust. This Court disagrees.

7                                   Applicable Standard

8                   Summary judgment is proper if the pleadings and all other evidence on file demonstrate
9                   that no genuine issue of material fact exists and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as
10                  a matter of law. See, N.R.C.P. 56 et seq. When deciding a summary judgment motion, this 11                  Court views the evidence in a light most favorable to the nonmoving party. Id.
12

13                                  Discussion

14                  "Unjust enrichment exists when the plaintiff confers a benefit on the defendant, the 15                  defendant appreciates such benefit, and there is acceptance and retention by the defendant of 16                  such benefit under circumstances such that it would be inequitable for him to retain the benefit
17                  without payment of the value thereof." Certified Fire Prot. Inc. v. Precision Constr., 128 Nev.
18                  371, 381 (2012). "An action based on a theory of unjust enrichment is not available when there
19                  is an express, written contract, because no agreement can be implied when there is an express
20                  agreement." Leasepartners Corp. v. Robert L. Brooks Trust Dated November 12, 1975, 113
21                  Nev. 747, 755 (1997).
22

23                  Here, it is undisputed that Nanyah wired Eldorado $1,500,000 as memorialized in the 24                  October 30, 2008 Membership Interest Purchase Agreement (the "MIPA"). In this MIPA, the 25                  Rogich Trust agreed to solely assume the obligation to pay Nanyah's debt. However, this Court
26

28                  

                  <sup>2</sup> In light of this Court's ruling on Eldorado's Motion for Dismissal Pursuant to N.R.C.P. 41(e), Eldorado's Motion for Summary Judgment is moot. Nevertheless, this Court will analyze the motion on the merits.

1 dismissed the Rogich Trust because Nanyah's written demand for a list of beneficiaries was
2 untimely under N.R.S. 163.120 as such notification would not permit interested beneficiaries of 3 the trust an opportunity to intervene in this action pursuant to N.R.S. 12.130(1). Given this 4 dismissal, Nanyah does not currently have an adequate remedy at law in which to pursue. Thus,
5 in light of this Court's decision, unjust enrichment is appropriate as an alternative equitable 6 basis.

8 The Court disagrees with Eldorado's argument that Nanyah once had an adequate
9 remedy at law, which bars it from pursuing a claim against it for unjust enrichment. The case
10 law in Nevada is consistent in holding that recovery based on unjust enrichment is unavailable
11 if the party has an adequate remedy at law. Thus, the test is not past tense—as Eldorado
12 suggests—but rather present perfect tense.

14 Viewing facts in light most favorable to Nanyah, questions of fact exist as to whether the 15 Certified Fire Prot. Inc. test is met. First, Nanyah has established, for purposes of surviving 16 summary judgment, that Eldorado received a benefit from the $1,500,000 investment in made in 17 Eldorado. Second, Nanyah has shown that Eldorado accepted the funds and that it had a 18 reasonable expectation of payment. And, Nanyah has demonstrated that it would be inequitable
19 for Eldorado to retain Nanyah's investment without payment.

20
21 For these reasons, summary judgment on Nanyah's unjust enrichment claim is 22 premature.

HONORABLE NANCY L. ALLF

DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

DEPT XXVII

1                   III.    Defendants Sigmund Rogich and Imitations, LLC's Motion for Summary
2                   Judgment, or Alternatively for Judgment as a Matter of Law Pursuant to
3                   NRCP 50(e)

4                   On May 10, 2019, Defendants Sigmund Rogich and Imitations, LLC filed their Motion
5 for Summary Judgment, or alternatively, for judgment as a matter of law pursuant to N.R.C.P.
6 50(a) with the Court seeking dismissal of (1) the breach of contract claim against Mr. Rogich,
7 individually; (2) the breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing claim against Mr.
8 Rogich, individually; and (3) the conspiracy claim against Mr. Rogich, individually, and 9 Imitations, LLC. This Court agrees with Defendants Sigmund Rogich and Imitations, LLC that 10 summary judgment is warranted.
11

12   Applicable Standard

13                   Summary judgment is proper if the pleadings and all other evidence on file demonstrate
14 that no genuine issue of material fact exists and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as
15 a matter of law. See, N.R.C.P. 56.
16

17   Discussion

18                   A. Breach of Contract and Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair
19                   Dealing

20                   The elements necessary for breach of contract are as follows: (1) formation of a valid
21 contract; (2) performance or excuse of performance by the plaintiff; (3) material breach by the 22 defendant; and (4) damages. Bernard v. Rockhill Dev. Co., 103 Nev. 132, 134 (1987). In 23 Nevada, an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing exists in every contract. A.C. Shaw
24 Const., Inc. v. Washoe County, 105 Nev. 913, 915 (1989). When a party seeks only contractual
25 damages, that party must show that the breaching party acted in bad faith. Nelson v. Heer, 123
26 Nev. 217, 226 (2007) ("It is well established that all contracts impose upon the parties an 27

1 implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, which prohibits arbitrary or unfair acts by one
2 party that work to the disadvantage of the other.”

4 Here, no contractual relationship between Mr. Rogich—individually—and Nanyah
5 exists. While Mr. Rogich was the Trustee of the Rogich Trust, “a trustee is not personally
6 liable on a contract properly entered into in the capacity of representative in the course of 7 administration of the trust unless the trustee fails to reveal the representative capacity or identify 8 the trust in the contract.” See, NRS 163.120. One of the fundamental elements of a breach of 9 contract claim is for a valid contract—oral or otherwise—to exist.

10
11 In its opposition, Nanyah argues that there are questions of fact related to whether Mr.
12 Rogich is personally liable under the alter ego doctrine. “A party who wishes to assert an alter
13 ego claim must do so in an independent action against the alleged alter ego with the requisite 14 notice, service of process, and other attributes of due process (emphasis added).” Callie v.
15 Bowling, 123 Nev. 181, 185 (2007). Nanyah has not alleged alter ego as a separate independent
16 action against Mr. Rogich. Thus, its assertion that there are questions as fact under the alter ego
17 doctrine is without merit.<sup>3</sup>

19 Similarly, Nanyah argues that there are questions of fact as to the existence of a “special 20 relationship” between Nanyah and Mr. Rogich, individually. This Court disagrees. First, the 21 special relationship requirement is for tortious conduct, which are only available “in rare and 22 exceptional cases when there is a special relationship between the victim and tortfeasor,” or 23 where one party holds “‘vastly superior bargaining power’ ” over another. See K Mart Corp. v.
24 Ponsock, 103 Nev. 39, 49 (1987). The relationships between the parties here are memorialized
25 in contractual agreements. Specifically, this dispute arises out of an investment by Nanyah in 26

28 <sup>3</sup> Further, this Court cannot grant Nanyah leave to amend if it so seeks it at this juncture because the applicable statute of limitations bars alter ego claims.

1 Eldorado Hills. Eldorado Hills owned 161 acres of real property in Boulder City that was
2 intended to be developed into commercial mixed-use facilities. Nanyah invested in Eldorado
3 $1,500,000. Agreements in October, 2008 affirm that the Rogich Trust solely owed Nanyah its 4 $1,500,000 investment. The Court does not find that any party had "superior bargaining
5 powers" over another. Thus, the relationship is not a special relationship that gives rise to 6 recovery of tort damages; rather, it is a contractual relationship. See Nelson v. Heer, 123 Nev.
7 217, 226 (2007).

9 Accordingly, because there is no contract between Nanyah and Mr. Rogich individually,
10 the Court finds that summary judgment is appropriate on Nanyah's causes of actions for breach
11 of contract and breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing against Mr.
12 Rogich.
13

14 B. Civil Conspiracy

15 An actionable civil conspiracy "consists of a combination of two or more persons who,
16 by some concerted action, intend to accomplish an unlawful objective for the purpose of 17 harming another, and damage results from the act or acts." Consol. Generator-Nevada, Inc. v.
18 Cummins Engine Co., 114 Nev. 1304, 1311 (1998).
19

20 Here, Nanyah's conspiracy claims are primarily premised on agreements in which the 21 Rogich Trust agreed to indemnify Nanyah. Imitations, LLC was not a party to any of these 22 agreements. Nevertheless, the Court does not find that there was intent to pursue an unlawful 23 objective based on (1) Mr. Rogich's declaration; and (2) the agreements at issue. While Nanyah
24 cites to Mr. Rogich's deposition as evidence of his unlawful intent, the testimony does not
25 expressly state that he intended to accomplish an unlawful object for the purpose of harming
26 Nanyah. Similarly, there is no evidence in the record that Defendant Imitations, LLC neither
27 intended to accomplish an unlawful objective nor was Defendant Imitations, LLC even a party 28

1 to the agreements at issue. Finally, there are not facts in dispute of an illegal agreement amongst
2 the parties. Without the necessary intent requirement under Consol. Generator-Nevada, Inc.,
3 Nanyah's conspiracy claims cannot succeed.

5 As such, summary judgment is appropriate on the civil conspiracy cause of action.

6 ORDER

7 Accordingly, COURT ORDERS for good cause appearing and after review that the 8 Motion Defendant Eldorado Hills, LLC's Motion for Dismissal with Prejudice Under Rule
9 41(e) is hereby GRANTED.

10 COURT FURTHER ORDERS for good cause appearing and after review that
11 Defendant Eldorado Hills, LLC's Motion for Summary Judgment on the unjust enrichment
12 claim is hereby DENIED.

13 COURT FURTHER ORDERS for good cause appearing and after review that 14 Defendants Sigmund Rogich and Imitations, LLC's Motion for Summary Judgment, or 15 Alternatively for Judgment as a Matter of Law Pursuant to NRCP 50(e) is hereby GRANTED.

VEGAS, LLC'S MOTION FOR
NRCP 15 RELIEF

1 Nanyah Vegas, LLC's ("Nanyah") Motion for NRCP 15 Relief (the "Motion to
2 Amend") came before the Court on April 22, 2019.

3 APPEARANCES

4 The Parties appeared as follows:

- 5 ➤ For Eldorado Hills, LLC ("Eldorado Hills"): Dennis Kennedy, Esq. and 6 Joseph Liebman, Esq. of Bailey ♦ Kennedy, LLP.
- 7 ➤ For Sig Rogich, individually ("Rogich") and as Trustee of the Rogich Family
8 Irrevocable Trust (the "Rogich Trust"), and Imitations, LLC (collectively, the 9 "Rogich Defendants"): Samuel Lionel, Esq., Thomas Fell, Esq., and 10 Brenoch Wirthlin, Esq. of Fennemore Craig, P.C.
- 11 ➤ For Nanyah: Mark G. Simons, Esq. of Simons Law, PC.

12 ORDER

13 The Court, having heard oral argument, having reviewed the papers, exhibits, and 14 pleadings on file, and having considered the same, and for the reasons stated upon the 15 record, DENIES the Motion to Amend for the following reason.

- 16 ➤ Nanyah moved the Court to amend its pleading to assert an implied-in-fact contract
17 against Eldorado Hills. In Case No. A-13-686303-C, Nanyah pled an implied-in-18 fact contract claim against Eldorado Hills in its original Complaint. However, on 19 October 21, 2013, Nanyah filed a First Amended Complaint and voluntarily omitted
20 its implied-in-fact contract claim against Eldorado Hills. Thus, the Court finds that 21 Nanyah voluntarily abandoned its implied-in-fact contract claim against Eldorado 22 Hills.
- 23 ➤ The Court also finds that the Motion to Amend is untimely.

1 > Finally, the Court finds that it would be unfair and prejudicial to require Eldorado
2 Hills to be prepared to defend against an implied-in-fact contract claim that was
3 abandoned in 2013 and was not reasserted until immediately before trial.

HONORABLE NANCY L. ALLF

DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

DEPT XXVII

1           COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that on April 15, 2019, the Request for
2 Judicial Notice was filed with the Court requesting, pursuant to NRS 47.140(3), that the Court
3 take judicial notice of NRS 163.120, which provides the following:

5           NRS 163.120 Claims based on certain contracts or obligations:
6           Assertion against trust; entry of judgment; notice; intervention; personal 7           liability of trustee; significance of use of certain terms.

8           1. A claim based on a contract entered into by a trustee in the capacity of 9 representative, or on an obligation arising from ownership or control of trust
10 property, may be asserted against the trust by proceeding against the trustee in the 11 capacity of representative, whether or not the trustee is personally liable on the 12 claim.

13           2. A judgment may not be entered in favor of the plaintiff in the action
14 unless the plaintiff proves that within 30 days after filing the action, or within 30
15 days after the filing of a report of an early case conference if one is required, 16 whichever is longer, or within such other time as the court may fix, and more than 17 30 days before obtaining the judgment, the plaintiff notified each of the 18 beneficiaries known to the trustee who then had a present interest, or in the case
19 of a charitable trust, the Attorney General and any corporation which is a 20 beneficiary or agency in the performance of the charitable trust, of the existence
21 and nature of the action. The notice must be given by mailing copies to the 22 beneficiaries at their last known addresses. The trustee shall furnish the plaintiff a 23 list of the beneficiaries to be notified, and their addresses, within 10 days after 24 written demand therefor, and notification of the persons on the list constitutes 25 compliance with the duty placed on the plaintiff by this section. Any beneficiary, 26 or in the case of charitable trusts the Attorney General and any corporation which 27 is a beneficiary or agency in the performance of the charitable trust, may 28 intervene in the action and contest the right of the plaintiff to recover.

          3. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter or in the contract, a trustee is not personally liable on a contract properly entered into in the capacity of representative in the course of administration of the trust unless the trustee fails to reveal the representative capacity or identify the trust in the contract. The addition of the word "trustee" or the words "as trustee" after the signature of a trustee to a contract are prima facie evidence of an intent to exclude the trustee from personal liability.

23           COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that on April 16, 2019, Nanyah Vegas,
24 LLC's Emergency Motion to Address Defendant the Rogich Family Irrevocable Trust's NRS
25 163.120 Notice and/or Motion to Continue Trial for Purposes of NRS 163.120 was filed with 26 the Court.

27           ///
28

1           COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that a telephonic hearing was convened on 2 April 18, 2019 wherein the Court took judicial notice of NRS 163.120.

3           COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that at the commencement of trial on April
4 22, 2019, Defendant Sigmund Rogich as Trustee of The Rogich Family Irrevocable Trust
5 (“Defendant Rogich Trust”) orally moved the Court to dismiss this action as to Defendant
6 Rogich Trust for failure to comply with NRS 163.120 (“Motion to Dismiss”).

8           COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that NRS 163.120 contemplates notice
9 required thereunder being provided in the early stages of an action in order to permit the 10 beneficiaries of a trust the opportunity to intervene in such action and meaningfully participate 11 therein.
12

13           COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that NRS 12.130 provides that an interested
14 person must intervene in an action “[b]efore the trial.” NRS 12.130(1)(a); see also Am. Home
15 Assur. Co. v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court ex rel. Cty. of Clark, 122 Nev. 1229, 1244, 147 P.3d
16 1120, 1130 (2006).

18           COURT FURTHER FINDS after review that, because the trial in this action
19 commenced on April 22, 2019, Plaintiff Nanyah’s written demand for a list of beneficiaries
20 submitted to the Defendant Rogich Trust on April 15, 2019 was untimely under NRS 163.120
21 as such notification would not permit interested beneficiaries of the trust an opportunity to 22 intervene in this action pursuant to NRS 12.130(1).

THEREFORE, COURT ORDERS for good cause appearing and after review that the Motion to Dismiss is hereby GRANTED and Defendant Rogich Trust is hereby DISMISSED with prejudice.

COURT FURTHER ORDERS for good cause appearing and after review that, within 10 days of the Notice of Entry of this Order, the parties are directed to submit to the Court a stipulation and order with respect to the agreed upon stay of this action.

2                   RE: DATE OF DISCOVERY

3                   Nanyah Vegas, LLC's ("Nanyah") Motion in Limine # 6 Re: Date of Discovery (the "Date
4 of Discovery MIL") came before the Court on March 20, 2019.

5                   APPEARANCES

6                   The Parties appeared as follows:

- 7                   ➤ For Eldorado Hills, LLC ("Eldorado Hills"): Joseph Liebman, Esq. of Bailey ♦ Kennedy,
8                   LLP.
- 9                   ➤ For Sig Rogich, individually ("Rogich") and as Trustee of the Rogich Family Irrevocable
10                  Trust (the "Rogich Trust"), and Imitations, LLC (collectively, the "Rogich Defendants"):
11                  Samuel Lionel, Esq. and Brenoch Wirthlin, Esq. of Fennemore Craig, P.C.
- 12                  ➤ For Plaintiff Nanyah: Mark G. Simons, Esq. of Simons Law, PC.

13                  ORDER

14                  The Court, having heard oral argument, having reviewed the papers, exhibits, and
15                  pleadings on file, and having considered the same, and for the reasons stated upon the record,
16                  DENIES the Date of Discovery MIL for the following reasons:

- 17                  1. The Rogich Defendants have denied paragraph 83 of the plaintiff's complaint in their 18                  answer. They should be permitted to present evidence in support of their defense.
- 19                  2. Also with regard to the date of discovery, that is a factual determination for the jury. The 20                  defendants have claimed that plaintiff should have known about its alleged claims in in 21                  2007 or 2008 and the Court will not preclude them from raising that defense. Questions

PAROL EVIDENCE RULE

CONSOLIDATED WITH:

Case No. A-16-746239-C

1 Nanyah Vegas, LLC's ("Nanyah") Motion in Limine # 5 Re: Parol Evidence Rule (the "Parol
2 Evidence MIL") came before the Court on March 20, 2019.

3 APPEARANCES

4 The Parties appeared as follows:

- 5 ➤ For Eldorado Hills, LLC ("Eldorado Hills"): Joseph Liebman, Esq. of Bailey ♦ Kennedy,
6 LLP.
7 ➤ For Sig Rogich, individually ("Rogich") and as Trustee of the Rogich Family Irrevocable

9 Samuel Lionel, Esq. and Brenoch Wirthlin, Esq. of Fennemore Craig, P.C.
10 ➤ For Nanyah: Mark G. Simons, Esq. of Simons Law, PC.

11 ORDER

12 The Court, having heard oral argument, having reviewed the papers, exhibits, and pleadings
13 on file, and having considered the same, and for the reasons stated upon the record, DENIES the 14 Parol Evidence MIL for the following reasons:

- 15 ➤ The parol evidence rule is only applicable if there is a written contract. Ringle v. Bruton, 120
16 Nev. 82, 91, 86 P.3d 1032, 1037 (2004). Because Eldorado Hills is not a party to any of the 17 written contracts at issue in the case (including, but not limited to, the October 30, 2008
18 Amended and Restated Operating Agreement), and because Nanyah only has pled an unjust
19 enrichment claim against Eldorado Hills, the parol evidence rule does not apply to Eldorado
20 Hills.<sup>1</sup>

21 ///

22 ///

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

26 <sup>1</sup> The written contracts at issue in the case are enumerated in this Court's October 5, 2018 Order: (1) Granting 27 Defendants Peter Eliades, Individually and as Trustee of the Eliades Survivor Trust of 10/30/08, and Teld, LLC's Motion

Countermotion for Summary Judgment (the "Countermotion for Summary Judgment"). The Parties appeared as follows:

- For the Eliades Defendants and Eldorado Hills, LLC ("Eldorado"): Joseph Liebman, Esq. of Bailey♦Kennedy, LLP.
- For Sig Rogich, individually ("Rogich") and as Trustee of the Rogich Family Irrevocable Trust (the "Rogich Trust"), and Imitations, LLC (collectively, the "Rogich Defendants"): Samuel Lionel, Esq. of Fennemore Craig, P.C.
- For Nanyah: Mark G. Simons, Esq. of Simons Law, PC.

The Court, having heard oral argument, having reviewed the papers, exhibits, and pleadings on file, and having considered the same, and for the reasons stated upon the record, finds as follows:

UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS

The Relevant History of Eldorado

1. Eldorado was formed in 2005 for the purpose of owning and developing approximately 161 acres of land near Boulder City, Nevada. Eldorado was originally comprised of Go Global, Inc. (100% owned by Carlos Huerta) and the Rogich Trust.
2. In 2007, Huerta contacted Nanyah to invest. In December of 2007, Nanyah wired $1,500,000.00 which eventually was deposited into Eldorado's bank account. At this time, the Eliades Defendants had no involvement with Eldorado.
3. In October of 2008, approximately ten months later, Teld purchased a 1/3 interest in Eldorado for $3,000,000.00. Concurrently, The Flangas Trust also purchased a 1/3 interest in Eldorado for $3,000,000.00, which was subsequently transferred to Teld when the Flangas Trust backed out of the deal. Because Teld ended up with a larger percentage of Eldorado than originally contemplated, it was later agreed that the Rogich Trust would re-acquire 6.67% of Eldorado from Teld. As a result of these transactions, Go Global (i.e., Huerta) no longer owned an Eldorado membership interest, Teld owned 60% of Eldorado, and the Rogich Trust owned approximately 40% of Eldorado.
4. These transactions were memorialized in various written agreements. Nanyah was not

1 included as a named signatory on the agreements, however, the agreements identified that
2 The Rogich Trust specifically agreed to assume the obligation to pay Nanyah its percentage
3 interest in Eldorado or to pay Nanyah its $1,500,000 invested into Eldorado.

4 The Relevant Agreements

5 5. The relevant agreements at issue in this case state as follows:

6 a. October 30, 2008 Purchase Agreement between Go Global, Carlos Huerta, and 7 the Rogich Trust:

8 i. "[Go Global and Huerta] owns a membership interest ... in Eldorado Hills,
9 LLC ... equal or greater than thirty-five percent and which may be as high as 10 forty-nine and forty-four one hundredths (49.44%) of the total ownership
11 interests in the Company. Such interest, as well as the ownership interest
12 currently held by [the Rogich Trust], may be subject to certain potential 13 claims of those entities set forth and attached hereto in Exhibit 'A' and 14 incorporated by this reference ('Potential Claimants'). [The Rogich Trust]
15 intends to negotiate such claims with [Go Global and Huerta's] assistance so
16 that such claimants confirm or convert the amounts set forth beside the name
17 of each said claimants into non-interest bearing debt, or an equity percentage
18 to be determined by [the Rogich Trust] after consultation with [Go Global and 19 Huerta] as desired by [Go Global and Huerta], with no capital calls for 20 monthly payments, and a distribution in respect of their claims in amounts 21 from the one-third (1/3rd) ownership interest in [Eldorado] retained by [the 22 Rogich Trust]."

23 ii. The October 30, 2008, Purchase Agreement states at Section 4 the following:
24 Seller [Go Global], however, will not be responsible to pay the Exhibit A
25 Claimants their percentage or debt. This will be Buyer's [The Rogich Trust's] 26 obligation. . . ." The Exhibit A Claimants include Nanyah and its 27 $1,500,000.00 investment.
28

2                   b. October 30, 2008 Membership Interest Purchase Agreement between Rogich,
3                   the Rogich Trust, Teld, Go Global and Huerta:

- 4                   i. The October 30, 2008, Membership Interest Purchase Agreement identifies 5                   Nanyah's $1,500,000 investment into Eldorado at Exhibit D which clearly and 6                   unequivocally states the following: Seller [Rogich and the Rogich Trust]
7                   confirms that certain amounts have been advanced to or on behalf of the 8                   Company [Eldorado] by certain third-parties [including Nanyah], as 9                   referenced in Section 8 of the Agreement. Exhibit D also memorializes
10                  Nanyah's $1,500,000 investment into Eldorado.
- 11                  ii. Section 8(c) of this agreement again states that "Seller [Rogich and the Rogich 12                  Trust] shall defend, indemnify and hold Buyer [Teld] harmless from any and 13                  all the claims of . . . Nanyah . . . each of whom invested or otherwise
14                  advanced . . . funds . . . (i) It is the current intention of Seller [Rogich and the 15                  Rogich Trust] that such amounts be confirmed or converted to debt . . . .
- 16                  iii. Eliades acknowledged that he was aware of the Rogich Trust's obligation to 17                  Nanyah contained in the October 30, 2008, Purchase Agreement when he
18                  entered into the October 30, 2008 Membership Interest Purchase Agreement
19                  and that he understood that Teld's acquisition of the Rogich Trust's 20                  membership interests in Eldorado was subject to the terms and conditions of 21                  the October 30, 2008, Purchase Agreement.
- 22                  iv. Eliades acknowledges that it was always the responsibility of Rogich and the 23                  Rogich Trust to repay Nanyah for its investment in Eldorado.
- 24                  v. "[The Rogich Trust] is the owner, beneficially and of record, of the 25                  Membership Interest, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, security
26                  agreements, equities, options, claims, charges, and restrictions, and [Teld] will 27                  receive at Closing good and absolute title thereto free of any liens, charges or 28                  encumbrances thereon."
- vi. "[The Rogich Trust] shall defend, indemnify, and hold [Teld] harmless from any and all the claims of Eddyline Investments, LLC, Ray Family Trust, Nanyah Vegas, LLC, and Antonio Nevada, LLC, each of whom invested or otherwise advanced the funds, plus certain possible claimed accrued interest."

vii. "It is the current intention of [the Rogich Trust] that such amounts be confirmed or converted to debt, with no obligation to participate in capital calls or monthly payments, a pro-rata distribution at such time as [Eldorado's] real property is sold or otherwise disposed of. Regardless of whether this intention is realized, [the Rogich Trust] shall remain solely responsible for any claims by the above referenced entities set forth in this section above."

viii. "The 'pro-rata distributions' hereinabove referenced shall mean equal one-third shares pursuant to the ownership set forth in Section 3 above, provided, that any amounts owing to those entities set forth on Exhibit 'D,' or who shall otherwise claim an ownership interest based upon contributions or advances directly or indirectly to [Eldorado] made prior to the date of this agreement, shall be satisfied solely by [the Rogich Trust]."

ix. "The parties agree that [the Rogich Trust] may transfer [the Rogich Trust's] ownership interest in [Eldorado] to one or more of the entities set forth in Exhibit 'D' to satisfy any claims such entity may have."

c. October 30, 2008 Amended and Restated Operating Agreement between the Rogich Trust, the Flangas Trust, and Teld:

i. "The Rogich Trust will retain a one-third (1/3rd) ownership interest in [Eldorado] (subject to certain possible dilution or other indemnification responsibilities assumed by the Rogich Trust in the Purchase Documents)."

ii. "The Rogich trust shall indemnify and hold the Flangas Trust and Teld harmless from and against the claims of any individuals or entities claiming to be entitled to a share of profits and losses other than the Rogich Trust, the Flangas Trust and Teld, so as not to diminish the one-third (1/3rd) participation in profits and losses by each of the Flangas Trust and Teld."

- 2                                   iii. The terms and conditions of the October 30, 2008 Membership Interest
- 3                                   Purchase Agreement were incorporated by reference into the October 30,
- 4                                   2008 Amended and Restated Operating Agreement. Recital A.
- 5                   d. January 1, 2012 Membership Interest Assignment Agreement between the
- 6                   Rogich Trust and the Eliades Trust:
- 7                                   i. The January 1, 2012, Membership Interest Assignment Agreement was not
- 8                                   executed until sometime in August, 2012.
- 9                                   ii. As of August, 2012, the debt owed to Nanyah of $1,500,000.00 had not been
- 10                                  paid.
- 11                                  iii. "Rogich has acquired a forty percent (40%) interest in Eldorado Hills, LLC, a
- 12                                  Nevada limited-liability company...as of the date hereof...(Within the Rogich
- 13                                  40% is a potential 1.12% interest of other holders not of formal record with
- 14                                  Eldorado)."
- 15                                  iv. "Rogich has not, other than as previously stated, transferred, sold, conveyed
- 16                                  or encumbered any of his Forty Percent (40%) to any other person or entity
- 17                                  prior to this Agreement, except for the potential claims of .95% held by The
- 18                                  Robert Ray Family Trust and .17% held by Eddyline Investments, L.L.C."
- 19                                  v. "Rogich will cause the satisfaction of the Teld note at Closing and Eliades
- 20                                  will receive at closing good and absolute title free of any liens, charges or
- 21                                  encumbrances thereon."
- 22                                  vi. The Eliades Defendants never informed Nanyah of this agreement and/or that
- 23                                  they were acquiring the remainder of the Rogich Trust's interest in Eldorado.
- 24                                  vii. The Eliades Defendants have no knowledge or understanding when Nanyah
- 25                                  discovered or was informed of the d. January 1, 2012 Membership Interest
- 26                                  Assignment Agreement.
- 27                                  viii. Nanyah was not a party to this agreement.
- 28                   6. Any finding of fact set forth herein more appropriately designated as a conclusion of law
- shall be so designated.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

7. The October 30, 2008, Purchase Agreement states that The Rogich Trust specifically agreed to assume the obligation to pay Nanyah its percentage or debt. However, there is nothing in the Purchase Agreement that states Eliades, the Eliades Trust or Teld specifically agreed to assume those obligations from the Rogich Trust.
8. Nanyah's contract theory rests upon a successors and assigns provision contained in the October 30, 2008 Purchase Agreement between Go Global, Huerta, Rogich and the Rogich Trust.
9. The language in the October 30, 2008 Purchase Agreement indicating that this agreement will be binding on the Eliades Defendants, absent any specific agreement to be liable for the Rogich Trust's obligation to Nanyah, is not itself sufficient to impose liability on the Eliades Defendants to pay the Nanyah debt.
10. Under Nevada law, "[t]he fact that a contract or agreement contains a provision, as in the case at bar, 'binding the successors, heirs, and assigns of the parties hereto,' is not of itself, as a general rule, sufficient to impose personal liability upon the assignee, unless by specific agreement to that effect or by an agreed substitution of the assignee for the vendee. Southern Pac. Co. v. Butterfield, 39 Nev. 177, 154 P. 932, 932 (1916).<sup>1</sup>
11. Further, "[a]n assignment 'cannot shift the assignor's liability to the assignee, because it is a well-established rule that a party to a contract cannot relieve himself of his obligations by assigning the contract. Neither does it have the effect of creating a new liability on the part of the assignee, to the other party to the contract assigned, because the assignment does not bring them together, and consequently there cannot be a meeting of the minds essential to the formation of a contract.'"<sup>2</sup> Id. at 933 (citation omitted).
12. None of the Eliades Defendants were parties to the October 30, 2008 Purchase Agreement with the successors and assigns provision relied on by Nanyah, and even if they were, the explicit language contained in the October 30, 2008 Membership Interest Purchase Agreement (whereby Teld purchased some of the Rogich Trust's membership interests) confirms that the Eliades Defendants would not be responsible for the Rogich Trust's obligations to Nanyah's to pay Nanyah is percentage of Eldorado or the debt to Nanyah.

13. Likewise, the explicit language of the relevant agreements also make it crystal clear that the Eliades Defendants purchased all of their Eldorado membership interests free and clear from any type of encumbrance. Nanyah was not a party to this agreement.

14. Because the relevant agreements are clear and unambiguous, this Court may determine the intent of the parties as a matter of law, and is precluded from considering any testimony to determine the Eliades Defendants' so-called contractual liability. Krieger v. Elkins, 96 Nev. 839, 843, 620 P.2d 370, 373 (1980) (holding that testimony used to contradict or vary the written terms of an agreement is a violation of the parol evidence rule).

15. Based on the above, the Eliades Defendants never assumed the Rogich Trust's debt or obligation to Nanyah, and therefore, there is no contractual basis for Nanyah—as an alleged third-party beneficiary—to sue the Eliades Defendants. See Lipshie v. Tracy Inv. Co., 93 Nev. 370, 379-80, 566 P.2d 819, 825 (1977).

16. A tortious implied covenant claim will only arise in "rare and exceptional circumstances." Ins. Co. of the West v. Gibson Tile Co., Inc., 122 Nev. 455, 461, 134 P.3d 698, 702 (2006) (citation omitted).

17. Further, "the implied covenant or duty of good faith and fair dealing does not create rights or duties beyond those agreed to by the parties." 17A C.J.S. Contracts § 437.

18. Nanyah's tortious implied covenant claim fails because the Court concludes there is nothing within the relevant agreements which imposes any sort of obligation on the Eliades Defendants for Nanyah's benefit.

19. "[C]ivil conspiracy liability may attach where two or more persons undertake some concerted action with the intent to commit an unlawful objective, not necessarily a tort." Cadle Woods v. Woods & Erickson, LLP, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d 1049, 1052 (2015).

20. Nanyah's conspiracy theory relates to the transactions whereby the Eliades Defendants obtained membership interests in Eldorado allegedly subject to repayment obligations owed to Nanyah and the Eliades Defendants supposedly pursued their own individual advantage by seeking to interfere with the return of Nanyah's alleged investment in Eldorado.

21. Because the Court concludes that that Eliades Defendants did not specifically assumed the Rogich Trust's obligation to repay Nanyah its $1,500,000.00 investment into Eldorado, there is no unlawful objective to support a civil conspiracy claim. The Court also finds that the intracorporate conspiracy doctrine does not apply because the claim does not involve the Eliades Defendants conspiring with Eldorado.

22. Any conclusion of law set forth herein more appropriately designated as a finding of fact shall be so designated.

ORDER

Based upon the foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion for Summary Judgment is GRANTED. The Court enters summary judgment in favor of the Eliades Defendants and against Nanyah, and dismisses, with prejudice, Nanyah's following claims for relief against the Eliades Defendants:

1. First Claim for Relief – Breach of Contract;
2. Second Claim for Relief – Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing;
3. Third Claim for Relief – Tortious Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing;
4. Sixth Claim for Relief – Civil conspiracy;
5. Eighth Claim for Relief – Declaratory Relief; and
6. Ninth Claim for Relief – Specific Performance.

As a result of this Order, the Eliades Defendants are completely dismissed from this litigation.

ORDER DENYING NANYAH VEGAS, LLC'S MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

THIS MATTER came before the Court, in chambers, on July 10, 2018 on Nanyah Vegas, LLC's Motion for Reconsideration (the "Motion"). The Court, having reviewed the papers, exhibits, and pleadings on file, and having considered the same, and for the reasons stated upon the record, finds as follows:

The Court may only reconsider a previous decision if the moving party introduces substantially different evidence or the decision is clearly erroneous. This Court previously entered summary judgment dismissing Nanyah's fifth claim for relief (fraudulent transfer) and seventh claim for relief (constructive trust). The internal accounting ledger submitted by Nanyah with its Motion does not support a ruling contrary to the Court's previous decision. It is ORDERED that the Motion is denied.

Nanyah's apportionment argument is illogical considering that all four of the Eliades Defendants have now fully prevailed against Nanyah's various claims for relief. Further, all of the Eliades Defendants' incurred costs were appropriately verified as required by NRS 18.110—through a Verified Memorandum of Costs. PETE ELIADES, THE ELIADES
SURVIVOR TRUST OF 10/30/08, TELD,
LLC and ELDORADO HILLS, LLC

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

On October 5, 2018, this Court entered summary judgment in favor of Eliades, the Eliades Trust, and Teld on all of Nanyah’s remaining claims against them. Nanyah’s claims were dismissed “with prejudice” and Eliades, the Eliades Trust, and Teld were “completely dismissed from this litigation.”<sup>1</sup> Approximately one year later, on October 4, 2019, this Court dismissed Eldorado Hills with prejudice under N.R.C.P. 41(e)(4)(B).<sup>2</sup> Accordingly, every single one of the Eliades Defendants—the only parties represented by Bailey ♦ Kennedy, LLP—have fully prevailed over Nanyah in this consolidated action.<sup>3</sup> Under NRS 18.020, “[c]osts must be allowed of course to the prevailing party against any adverse party against whom judgment is entered....” Thus, under the plain language of the statute, all of the Eliades Defendants are entitled to an award of costs from Nanyah.

Nanyah’s argument that the Eliades Defendants are not entitled to costs because they did not apportion them between each Eliades Defendant is completely illogical. Every single one of the Eliades Defendants have now fully prevailed over Nanyah. Apportionment principles only apply if only some of the defendants prevailed, which is not the case here. Nanyah is responsible for the full amount of the Eliades Defendants’ incurred costs, and it is up to the Eliades Defendants how those funds are later divided in order to reimburse them for incurred costs.<sup>4</sup>

Nanyah’s attempt to challenge specific categories of costs also fails. For example, Nanyah argues that the Eliades Defendants could not have incurred Westlaw research costs for a certain amount because its counsel internally paid less. Respectfully, that is irrelevant to the analysis. The fact remains that the Eliades Defendants necessarily incurred these costs and that they are a

---

<sup>1</sup> Order: (1) Granting Defendants Peter Eliades, Individually and as Trustee of the Eliades Survivor Trust of 10/30/08, and Teld LLC’s Motion for Summary Judgment; and (2) Denying Nanyah Vegas, LLC’s Countermotion for Summary Judgment, 9:11-23, filed Oct. 5, 2018.

<sup>3</sup> At Nanyah’s urging, on March 31, 2017, Case No. A-16-746239-C was consolidated with Case No. A-13-686303-C. (Stipulation for Consolidation, filed March 31, 2017.)

<sup>4</sup> Even if apportionment was required (which it is not), the entire amount should be awarded due to the intertwined nature of Nanyah’s various claims against the Eliades Defendants. Mayfield v. Koroghli, 124 Nev. 343, 353, 184 P.3d 362, 369 (2008).

1 recoverable cost under NRS 18.005(17). Likewise, the remainder of the Eliades Defendants' costs
2 are authorized by NRS 18.005. Accordingly, the Motion should be denied, and the Eliades
3 Defendants should be awarded their incurred costs from Nanyah in the amount of $93,683.23.

4 II. ARGUMENT

5 A. Legal Standard.

6 "Costs must be allowed to the prevailing party against any adverse party against whom
7 judgment is rendered . . . [i]n an action for the recovery of money or damages, where the plaintiff
8 seeks to recover more than $2,500." NRS 18.020(3). The proper procedure to recover costs is 9 through the filing of a verified memorandum of costs under NRS 18.110. "[I]f the items appear to 10 be proper charges, the verified memorandum is prima facie evidence that the costs, expenses, and 11 services therein listed were reasonably incurred by the defendant, and the burden of showing that an 12 item is not properly chargeable or is unreasonable is upon the objecting party." Nelson v. Anderson, 13 84 Cal.Rptr.2d 753, 766 (Cal. Ct. App. 1999) (citations omitted).

14 B. Apportionment Principles Do Not Apply Since All Four Eliades Defendants Fully 15 Prevailed Over Nanyah.

16 Nanyah—without citing any legal authority—claims that four prevailing Defendants (the 17 Eliades Defendants) must apportion their incurred costs between them in their Memorandum of 18 Costs in order to recover those costs from an unsuccessful Plaintiff (Nanyah). Nanyah is wrong.
19 Although apportionment is sometimes appropriate under Nevada precedent, those principles are only 20 applicable when there are prevailing parties on both sides of the dispute. See, e.g., Mayfield v.
21 Koroghli, 124 Nev. 343, 353-54, 184 P.3d 362, 368-69 (2008).

22 Here, there are not prevailing parties on both sides of the dispute. Bailey❖Kennedy, LLP
23 represented four Defendants in this action—Eliades, the Eliades Trust, Teld, and Eldorado Hills—
24 and all four have completely prevailed against Nanyah. There is nothing to apportion between 25 them with respect to Nanyah's liability under NRS 18.020. Although the Nevada Supreme Court
26 has not explicitly addressed this issue, the Nevada Supreme Court looks to California for guidance
27 on statutory costs reimbursement. See Mayfield, 124 Nev. at 353, 184 P.3d at 369 (adopting 28 apportionment principles from the California Supreme Court). California courts have repeatedly confirmed that apportionment is not necessary when one side fully prevails over the other. See, e.g., Jonkey v. Carignan Constr. Co., 42 Cal.Rptr.3d 399, 404 (Cal. Ct. App. 2006) (rejecting the notion that two prevailing defendants who shared counsel and split costs must file separate memorandums of costs in order to recover); Acosta v. SI Corp., 29 Cal.Rptr.3d 306, 310 (Cal. Ct. App. 2005) (“We have found no California authority to support the proposition that a defendant who is sued by several plaintiffs and who fully prevails against all of them bears the burden of apportioning costs where the plaintiffs were represented by the same law firm and pursued a single cause of action in a joint trial.”); South Pacific Import v. Gillian Chi-Liang Ho, 2003 WL 651557, at *6 (Cal. Ct. App. Feb. 27, 2003) (“The principles she cites supporting apportionment of costs apply in circumstances where a plaintiff sues multiple defendants, but prevails against less than all of them. Since the trial court found plaintiffs prevailed against all three defendants, these cases are distinguishable.”). Similarly, the Eliades Defendants fully prevailed against Nanyah on all of Nanyah’s claims against them, and thus there is no basis or reason to apportion costs between them.<sup>5</sup>

C. The Eliades Defendants’ Memorandum of Costs Sufficiently Proves the Amount of Recoverable Costs.

Nanyah’s attempt to retax the Eliades Defendants’ costs is also without merit. The Memorandum of Costs sufficiently breaks down all of the incurred costs and provides the necessary backup to show they were incurred. Further, as contemplated by NRS 18.110(1), undersigned counsel verified that these costs were incurred. As stated above, “if the items appear to be proper charges, the verified memorandum is prima facie evidence that the costs, expenses, and services therein listed were reasonably incurred by the defendant, and the burden of showing that an item is not properly chargeable or is unreasonable is upon the objecting party.” Nelson, 84 Cal.Rptr.2d at 766 (citations omitted).

With respect to Nanyah’s specific complaints about various categories of costs, they are

<sup>5</sup> Nanyah appears to argue that this so-called duty to apportion is based on a hypothetical scenario that the Nevada Supreme Court may reverse the dismissal of one or more of the Eliades Defendants. (Mot., 2:19-26.) Neither the Eliades Defendants nor this Court is obligated to apportion merely based on what the Nevada Supreme Court may or may not do. If the Nevada Supreme Court does issue such a ruling, a corresponding ruling regarding costs may be made at a later time.

likewise without merit for the following reasons.

- Online legal research – In 1995, the Nevada legislature amended NRS 18.005 and added the following language to subsection 17—“including reasonable and necessary expenses for computerized services for legal research.” NRS 18.005(17). Thus, online legal research expenses are a recoverable cost if they are incurred by the client. Id.; see also Mackall v. Jalisco Intern., Inc., 28 P.3d 975, 977-78 (Col. Ct. App. 2001) (“Generally, when computerized legal research expenses are not commingled with other costs of conducting business or costs of litigation, they may be recovered as costs.”). As set forth in the Memorandum of Costs, the amount that the Eliades Defendants are seeking in Westlaw charges is the amount that the Eliades Defendants were billed by Bailey ♦ Kennedy. Therefore, these costs were certainly incurred by the Eliades Defendants. While Mr. Simons may have been able to secure a more competitive internal rate from Westlaw, it has no bearing on what the Eliades Defendants incurred in Westlaw charges at Bailey ♦ Kennedy. To the extent there is any uncertainty, attached are the monthly bills that were sent to the Eliades Defendants confirming these amounts were billed (i.e., incurred).<sup>6</sup>
- Summary Judgment filing fees – Nanyah criticizes Eldorado Hills for filing a Motion to Extend Dispositive Motion Deadline and Motion for Summary Judgment on January 25, 2019, and then filing the same Motion again on March 13, 2019, thereby incurring approximately $400.00 in filing fees due to the Eighth Judicial District Court’s $200.00 filing fee for summary judgment motions. For background purposes, this was because the original hearing date was vacated due to scheduling issues, and in order to get the Motion back on calendar, the Court requested that the Motion be refiled.<sup>7</sup> Nanyah claims that these are not reasonable costs because the Court ultimately deemed the Motion to be untimely. Nanyah’s

<sup>6</sup> (Monthly Invoices, attached as Exhibit 1.) Further, all of the legal research that was conducted for the Eliades Defendants is set forth in the billing entries attached as Exhibit 4 to the pending Motion for Attorney’s Fees (filed Oct. 17, 2019). As set forth therein, legal research regarding numerous different legal issues (identified therein) was conducted on twenty-eight different occasions during Bailey Kennedy’s representation of the Eliades Defendants. (Id.). That is precisely why the computerized Westlaw research expenses reached the amount that they did.

position is rather hypocritical since Nanyah did the exact same thing.<sup>8</sup> It is extremely disingenuous for a party who incurred the exact same costs to argue that these are not reasonable and recoverable costs under the mandatory language of NRS 18.020(3).

- Parking – To the extent parking costs are not covered by NRS 18.005(15), they are included under NRS 18.005(17), because they were related to the lawyers’ attendance at various court hearings in this case. To the extent there was any doubt, the Eliades Defendants’ monthly invoices confirm they were incurred.<sup>9</sup>
- PACER – The PACER fees of $20.20—which relate to bankruptcy records for Carlos Huerta, a key witness—were not for documents filed in this lawsuit. Accordingly, they were not obtained from the Eliades Defendants’ former counsel when undersigned counsel took over this particular case.
- Photocopies – The Eliades Defendants’ photocopy costs do not relate to obtaining the file from former counsel. Even if it did, there is no legal basis to claim that Nanyah is not responsible for that necessary cost under NRS 18.005 and NRS 18.020. Although the body of the Memorandum of Costs only lists the outside copying costs, the Transaction Listing Report details each and every other internal photocopy cost, thereby supporting the total amount of $4,876.85.<sup>10</sup> Accordingly, the Memorandum is in compliance with Cadle Co. v. Woods & Erickson, LLP, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 15, 345 P.3d 1049, 1054-55 (2015). Further, it is unclear why Nanyah is claiming that the 4/29/19 copy costs are an attempt to recast older costs. The 4/29/19 copy costs—as clearly set forth in the Memorandum of Costs and accompanying exhibits—were copy costs for trial exhibits and demonstrative exhibits, and were incurred specifically for trial.<sup>11</sup> Finally, highlighting Nanyah’s overreaction to some of

<sup>8</sup> Nanyah filed a Motion to Extend Dispositive Motion Deadlines and Motion for Summary Judgment on January 30, 2019, and then refiled the exact same Motion on March 14, 2019 to get the hearing date back on calendar. Just like Eldorado’s Motion, it was ultimately denied as untimely. (Order Striking Filings, filed March 22, 2019.)

<sup>11</sup> (Id. at 233-236.) Nanyah also complains about two sets of demonstrative exhibits. The second set was ordered because the stipulated exhibit numbers on the underlying exhibits were changed at Nanyah’s request, so the demonstrative exhibits had to be redone with the correct exhibit numbers.

the Eliades Defendants’ costs, Nanyah claims that a $14.00 charge for a full Secretary of State file on one of the entities at issue in this case is “abusive.” Nanyah claims that the Eliades Defendants should not have ordered this file from the Secretary of State because some of the documents had already been produced. Well, the Eliades Defendants were certainly entitled to obtain the remainder.<sup>12</sup>

- Courier fees – The Memorandum of Costs details what the courier fees were for—specifically, to obtain signatures for Receipts of Copy and to deliver trial materials to the Court.<sup>13</sup> These costs are recoverable under NRS 18.005(17), as they are a “reasonable and necessary expense incurred in connection with the action.” To the extent there was any doubt, the Eliades Defendants’ monthly invoices confirm they were incurred.<sup>14</sup>

D. There is no Basis for an Evidentiary Hearing.

Under NRS 18.110(4), “[w]ithin 3 days after service of a copy of the memorandum, the adverse party may move the court, upon 2 days’ notice, to retax and settle the costs, notice of which motion shall be filed and served on the prevailing party claiming costs. Upon the hearing of the motion the court or judge shall settle the costs.” Id. (emphasis added). There is nothing within Chapter 18 regarding an evidentiary hearing or oral testimony. On the contrary, NRS 18.110(1) only requires that the Memorandum of Costs be verified. It is. Nanyah has not presented any legal authority authorizing an evidentiary hearing, nor has it adequately raised a question of fact with respect to any of the costs. Instead, Nanyah has simply concluded that it should not be responsible for these costs. NRS 18.020 and NRS 18.050 say differently.

III. CONCLUSION

Each and every one of the Eliades Defendants’ incurred costs is recoverable under NRS 18.005. Thus, the Motion should be denied, and the Eliades Defendants should be awarded their incurred costs from Nanyah in the amount of $93,683.23.

<sup>12</sup> The produced documents were limited to the Canamex Nevada, LLC Articles of Organization. (Ex. 4 to Mot., p. 2, ¶ 18.) The Eliades Defendants obtained more documents from the Secretary of State than the Articles of Organization.
