IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF
THE STATE OF NEVADA IN AND FOR THE
COUNTY OF WASHOE

STEVEN FLOYD VOSS,

Petitioner,

Case No. CR96-1581

vs.

Dept. No. 1

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Respondent.

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Presently before the Court is a Motion for Leave to Proceed in Forma Pauperis ("Motion") filed by Steven Floyd Voss ("Petitioner") on May 22, 2019 and submitted to the Court for consideration on August 7, 2019. No opposition was filed.¹

The Petitioner is currently serving a sentence in a correctional institution. Pursuant to Nevada Supreme Court's Order ADKT No. 411, a person who is unable, without substantial hardship to himself or his dependents, to obtain competent qualified legal counsel on his own will be deemed indigent. Under this standard, a presumption of substantial hardship attaches to those persons currently serving a sentence in a correctional institution or housed in a mental health facility.

¹ This Court's review of the file indicates that the Motion pertains to Mr. Voss' Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus also filed May 22, 2019. This clarification is needed since on August 13, 2019 this Court issued an order granting Mr. Voss' Motion to Withdraw Court Appointed Trial Counsel (related to this Court's Order for Resentencing issued August 29, 2018).

Accordingly, and good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion for Leave to Proceed in Forma Pauperis is GRANTED.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the Court allow Steven Floyd Voss to bring such action without costs and file or issue any necessary writ, process pleading or paper without charge, with the exception of jury fees.

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED that the Sheriff or any other appropriate officer within the state make personal service of any necessary writ, process, pleading or paper without charge for Steven Floyd Voss.

DATED this 16th day of August, 2019.

District Judge

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Dept. No. 1

STEVEN FLOYD VOSS,

Defendant.

ORDER DENYING (FIRST AMENDED) PRESENTENCING PETITION FOR WRIT OF
HABEAS CORPUS AND DENYING MOTION FOR ORDER DIRECTING STATE TO
FILE A RETURN TO THE DEFENDANT'S PRESENCING [SIC] PETITION FOR WRIT
OF HABEAS CORPUS, SPECIFYING THE TRUE CAUSE OF THE DEFENDANT'S
INCARCERATION BY THE NEVADA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Currently before the Court is Defendant Voss' ("Petitioner") (First Amended) Presentencing Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Petition") and associated Motion for Order Directing State to File a Return to the Defendant's Presencing [sic] Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Specifying the True Cause of the Defendant's Incarceration by the Nevada Department of Corrections ("Motion") filed August 1, 2019. On August 20, 2019, the State of Nevada filed a Response to (First Amended) Presentencing Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and Motion for Order Directing State to File a Return to the Defendant's Presencing [sic] Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Specifying the True Cause of the Defendant's Incarceration by the Nevada Department of Corrections. Petitioner submitted the Petition to the Court for consideration on August 28, 2019.

1 I. Background

2 In 1996, Petitioner was convicted by a jury of six felonies as follows: Burglary, two counts of
3 Uttering a Forged Instrument, two counts of Forgery, and Attempted Theft. Ex. 1. Thereafter,
4 Petitioner was sentenced and on November 27, 1996, a judgment of conviction was entered. Amd.
5 Pet. at 3:14–18. On August 9, 2001, the district court granted in part Petitioner’s request for an
6 amended judgment of conviction requiring that the Petitioner be resentenced. Ex. 1. On August 15,
7 2018, the Court of Appeals of the State of Nevada (“Court of Appeals”) in its Order Granting Petition,
8 found that Petitioner had never been resentenced, granted Petitioner’s request for extraordinary relief,
9 and ordered the district court to vacate the November 27, 1996 judgment of conviction, resentence
10 Petitioner and enter an amended judgment of conviction to reflect the new sentence. Order Granting 11 Pet. Nev. App. Ct. Case No. 74227 at 2–3 (Aug. 15, 2018).

12 In his Petition, Petitioner asserts that because he never received a new sentencing hearing, the 13 only equitable relief available was to vacate the judgment of conviction entered in CR96-1581 and 14 enter a judgment of acquittal. Amd. Pet. at 6:24–7:9. The Court of Appeals disagreed that a judgment
15 of acquittal is appropriate since, when issuing its order on August 9, 2001, the district court did not
16 find that the conviction itself was invalid; rather, the district court only determined there were errors
17 at sentencing. Order Granting Pet. Nev. App. Ct. Case No. 74227 at 2.

18 II. Relevant Legal Authority

19 NRS 34.724(1) provides the definition of those persons who may file a post-conviction
20 petition for habeas corpus:

21 Any person convicted of a crime and under sentence of death or imprisonment
22 who claims that the conviction was obtained, or that the sentence was imposed,
23 in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution or laws
24 of this State, or who claims that the time the person has served pursuant to the 25 judgment of conviction has been improperly computed, may, without paying a
26 filing fee, file a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus to obtain
27 relief from the conviction or sentence or to challenge the computation of time
28 that the person has served.

27 NRS 34.724(2) further provides that such a Petition “[c]omprehends and takes the place of all other
28 common-law, statutory or other remedies which have been available for challenging the validity of

1 the conviction or sentence, and must be used exclusively in place of them.” As such, a Petition that
2 challenges a judgment of conviction or sentence that does not fit easily within any of the other
3 categories is construed as a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

4 NRS 34.430(1)–(5) provides that a return and answer must be filed in the following
5 circumstances:

- 6 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 1 of NRS 34.745, the respondent
7 shall serve upon the petitioner and file with the court a return and an answer that
8 must respond to the allegations of the petition within 45 days or a longer period
9 fixed by the judge or justice.
- 10 2. The return must state plainly and unequivocally whether the respondent has 11 the party in custody, or under the respondent’s power or restraint. If the 12 respondent has the petitioner in the respondent’s custody or power, or under the 13 respondent’s restraint, the respondent shall state the authority and cause of the 14 imprisonment or restraint, setting forth with specificity the basis for custody.
- 15 3. If the petitioner is detained by virtue of any judgment, writ, warrant or other
16 written authority, a certified or exemplified copy must be annexed to the return.

14 III. Analysis

15 In the Petition, Petitioner challenges the jurisdiction and discretion of the District Court to 16 resentence Petitioner because he has already served to completion and discharge each of the six
17 sentences imposed in the Judgment of Conviction dated November 27, 1996. Pet. at 2:5–20.
18 Petitioner makes five arguments: (1) this Court lacks jurisdiction and discretion to conduct
19 resentencing; (2) this Court is prohibited from resentencing Petitioner under double jeopardy, due
20 process, and equal protection secured by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments and Article 1 § 8 of 21 the Nevada Constitution; (3) this Court is prohibited from resentencing Petitioner under the 22 constitutional guarantees of speedy trial, due process, equal protection secured by the Sixth and
23 Fourteenth Amendments, NRS 176.015(1), and Article 1 § 8 of the Nevada Constitution; (4)
24 Petitioner was deprived of a fair trial in violation of the Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments and
25 Article 1 § 8 of the Nevada Constitution due to judicial bias and disproportionate sentences imposed;
26 (5) Petitioner cannot be convicted or sentenced for the charge of uttering a forged instrument; and,
27 (6) Petitioner cannot be convicted or sentenced for forgery. See generally Pet.

28 ///

1 In the Motion, Petitioner argues the State must file a Return which specifies and certifies the
2 true cause of Defendant Voss's restraint. Mot. at 2:21–3:3. Petitioner argues the Return will assist
3 the Court in determining the merits of Petitioner's habeas corpus claims. Id. at 3:4–7. Petitioner
4 argues this Court's Order is essential because his requests to the Nevada Department of Corrections
5 for specific documentation of his custody status have been denied by prison officials. Id. at 3:11–25.

6 The State responds to the Petition by arguing the First Amended Petition is untimely,
7 procedurally barred, and subject to the law of the case doctrine. Resp. at 4:16–17. The State argues
8 NRS 34.810(1)(b)(3) requires a court to dismiss a petition if the conviction was the result of a trial
9 and grounds for the Petition could have been raised in any other proceeding that the Petitioner has 10 taken to secure relief from conviction and sentence. Id. at 4:18–23. The State also argues that
11 appellate court determinations on appeal are the law of the case and the issues raised by the Amended
12 Petition have already been disposed of by the Court of Appeals. Id. at 4:23–5:2. The State pointed 13 out that the Court of Appeals concluded that there has not been a valid judgment of conviction and 14 ordered the district court to resentence Petitioner and enter an amended judgment of conviction. Id.
15 at 5:2–12. The State argues that the Court of Appeals ruling is the law of the case and that Petitioner
16 must be resentenced. Id. at 5:15–16.

17 The State responds to the Motion by arguing it is premature. Id. at 4:2. The State argues that 18 although Defendant does not cite any authority for his request, the State infers that Petitioner is 19 referring to NRS 34.430 which requires the State to serve the Petitioner with a return and answer that
20 states the authority and cause of the imprisonment and restraint, setting forth the basis for custody
21 with specificity. Id. at 4:5–12. The State argues that a return is not yet required because this Court
22 has not yet granted the Petition but if the Court does grant the Petition the State will be happy to 23 comply with the requirements of NRS Chapter 34. Id. at 4:12–14.

24 Petitioner replies by arguing the State failed to address the merits of Petitioner's claims in the 25 Petition. Reply at 2:14–20. Petitioner argues the State's law of the case argument is misguided
26 because the Court of Appeals did not address whether Petitioner had served the six terms of
27 imprisonment to completion nor what impact the completion of those terms had upon Petitioner's
28 resentencing. Id. at 5:1–27. Petitioner points out that he completed the six terms of imprisonment

1 six months prior to the Court of Appeals August 15, 2018 Order. Id. at 6:17–25. Petitioner argues
2 the jurisdictional argument was not available to him in his original appeal. Id. at 7:2–14. Petitioner
3 contends there is no procedural bar in NRS Chapter 34 that would prevent this Court from reviewing
4 Petitioner’s other claims. Id. at 8:17–26. Petitioner replies to the State’s argument regarding the
5 Motion by arguing that there is no statute or rule governing the time period in which a Motion
6 requesting the State file a Return must be filed. Id. at 3:8–19.

7 Having reviewed the pleadings on file and having reviewed the facts and the legal support set
8 forth therein, this Court finds good cause to deny the Petition and the Motion. The Court of Appeals
9 unambiguously stated “there is currently no valid judgment of conviction entered in CR96-1581.”
10 Order Granting Pet. Nev. App. Ct. Case No. 74227 at 2. The Court of Appeals determined the 11 appropriate relief was “resentencing, as originally ordered in the August 9, 2001, order, and entry of 12 an amended judgment of conviction.” Id. In a footnote the Court of Appeals noted “although there
13 is no valid judgment in CR96-1581, Voss has not been subject to illegal restraint because since 1998
14 he has also been held and been serving a concurrent prison term of life without the possibility of 15 parole pursuant to a judgment of conviction entered in district court case number CR97-2077.” Id. at 16 2, n 1.

17 This Court finds that the Petition for Habeas Corpus is not ripe for review at this time because 18 Petitioner has not been convicted or sentenced in relation to the crimes charged in CR96-1581.
19 Pursuant to NRS 34.724(1), in order to file a post-conviction habeas corpus petition the person must 20 have been “convicted of a crime and under sentence of death or imprisonment.” Pursuant to the Court
21 of Appeals Order, there is no valid judgment of conviction in this case and because the Court of
22 Appeals ordered Petitioner to be resentenced, he is not currently under a sentence for the crimes
23 committed in CR96-1581. .

24 As it pertains to the Motion, in order to comply with the requirements set forth in NRS 34.430
25 the State would have to “state the authority and cause of the imprisonment or restraint, setting forth
26 with specificity the basis for custody” as well as provide a certified copy of “any judgment, writ,
27 warrant, or other written authority.” NRS 34.430(2)–(3). The State would be unable to comply with 28 either of these requirements. There is currently no valid judgment of conviction and as such the State

1 cannot provide the authority and cause of the imprisonment, much less state the basis for custody
2 with specificity. Court of Appeal's Order. Order Granting Pet. Nev. App. Ct. Case No. 74227 at 2.
3 This Court reasons that NRS 34.430 does not contemplate the unique circumstances that are present
4 in this case and attempting to mechanically apply the statute to the facts of this case would be
5 improper.

6 This Court notes that Petitioner is scheduled for resentencing on November 20, 2019. This 7 Court anticipates entering an amended judgment of conviction and resentencing Petitioner on that
8 date.

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

vs.

Dept. No. 1

STEVEN FLOYD VOSS,

Defendant.

ORDER DENYING (FIRST AMENDED) PRESENTENCING PETITION FOR WRIT OF
INCARCERATION BY THE NEVADA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Currently before the Court is Defendant Voss' ("Petitioner") (First Amended) Presentencing Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Petition") and associated Motion for Order Directing State to File a Return to the Defendant's Presencing [sic] Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Specifying the True Cause of the Defendant's Incarceration by the Nevada Department of Corrections ("Motion") filed August 1, 2019. On August 20, 2019, the State of Nevada filed a Response to (First Amended) Presentencing Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and Motion for Order Directing State to File a Return to the Defendant's Presencing [sic] Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, Specifying the True Cause of the Defendant's Incarceration by the Nevada Department of Corrections. Petitioner submitted the Petition to the Court for consideration on August 28, 2019.

1 I. Background

2 In 1996, Petitioner was convicted by a jury of six felonies as follows: Burglary, two counts of
3 Uttering a Forged Instrument, two counts of Forgery, and Attempted Theft. Ex. 1. Thereafter,
4 Petitioner was sentenced and on November 27, 1996, a judgment of conviction was entered. Amd.
5 Pet. at 3:14–18. On August 9, 2001, the district court granted in part Petitioner’s request for an
6 amended judgment of conviction requiring that the Petitioner be resentenced. Ex. 1. On August 15,
7 2018, the Court of Appeals of the State of Nevada (“Court of Appeals”) in its Order Granting Petition,
8 found that Petitioner had never been resentenced, granted Petitioner’s request for extraordinary relief,
9 and ordered the district court to vacate the November 27, 1996 judgment of conviction, resentence
10 Petitioner and enter an amended judgment of conviction to reflect the new sentence. Order Granting 11 Pet. Nev. App. Ct. Case No. 74227 at 2–3 (Aug. 15, 2018).

12 In his Petition, Petitioner asserts that because he never received a new sentencing hearing, the 13 only equitable relief available was to vacate the judgment of conviction entered in CR96-1581 and
14 enter a judgment of acquittal. Amd. Pet. at 6:24–7:9. The Court of Appeals disagreed that a judgment
15 of acquittal is appropriate since, when issuing its order on August 9, 2001, the district court did not
16 find that the conviction itself was invalid; rather, the district court only determined there were errors
17 at sentencing. Order Granting Pet. Nev. App. Ct. Case No. 74227 at 2.

18 II. Relevant Legal Authority

19 NRS 34.724(1) provides the definition of those persons who may file a post-conviction
20 petition for habeas corpus:

21 Any person convicted of a crime and under sentence of death or imprisonment
22 who claims that the conviction was obtained, or that the sentence was imposed,
23 in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution or laws
24 of this State, or who claims that the time the person has served pursuant to the
25 judgment of conviction has been improperly computed, may, without paying a
26 filing fee, file a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus to obtain
27 relief from the conviction or sentence or to challenge the computation of time
28 that the person has served.

27 NRS 34.724(2) further provides that such a Petition “[c]omprehends and takes the place of all other
28 common-law, statutory or other remedies which have been available for challenging the validity of

1 the conviction or sentence, and must be used exclusively in place of them.” As such, a Petition that
2 challenges a judgment of conviction or sentence that does not fit easily within any of the other
3 categories is construed as a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

4 NRS 34.430(1)–(5) provides that a return and answer must be filed in the following
5 circumstances:

- 6 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 1 of NRS 34.745, the respondent
7 shall serve upon the petitioner and file with the court a return and an answer that
8 must respond to the allegations of the petition within 45 days or a longer period
9 fixed by the judge or justice.
- 10 2. The return must state plainly and unequivocally whether the respondent has 11 the party in custody, or under the respondent’s power or restraint. If the 12 respondent has the petitioner in the respondent’s custody or power, or under the 13 respondent’s restraint, the respondent shall state the authority and cause of the 14 imprisonment or restraint, setting forth with specificity the basis for custody.
- 15 3. If the petitioner is detained by virtue of any judgment, writ, warrant or other
16 written authority, a certified or exemplified copy must be annexed to the return.

14 III. Analysis

15 In the Petition, Petitioner challenges the jurisdiction and discretion of the District Court to 16 resentence Petitioner because he has already served to completion and discharge each of the six
17 sentences imposed in the Judgment of Conviction dated November 27, 1996. Pet. at 2:5–20.
18 Petitioner makes five arguments: (1) this Court lacks jurisdiction and discretion to conduct
19 resentencing; (2) this Court is prohibited from resentencing Petitioner under double jeopardy, due
20 process, and equal protection secured by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments and Article 1 § 8 of 21 the Nevada Constitution; (3) this Court is prohibited from resentencing Petitioner under the
22 constitutional guarantees of speedy trial, due process, equal protection secured by the Sixth and
23 Fourteenth Amendments, NRS 176.015(1), and Article 1 § 8 of the Nevada Constitution; (4)
24 Petitioner was deprived of a fair trial in violation of the Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments and
25 Article 1 § 8 of the Nevada Constitution due to judicial bias and disproportionate sentences imposed;
26 (5) Petitioner cannot be convicted or sentenced for the charge of uttering a forged instrument; and,
27 (6) Petitioner cannot be convicted or sentenced for forgery. See generally Pet.

28 ///

1 In the Motion, Petitioner argues the State must file a Return which specifies and certifies the
2 true cause of Defendant Voss's restraint. Mot. at 2:21–3:3. Petitioner argues the Return will assist
3 the Court in determining the merits of Petitioner's habeas corpus claims. Id. at 3:4–7. Petitioner
4 argues this Court's Order is essential because his requests to the Nevada Department of Corrections
5 for specific documentation of his custody status have been denied by prison officials. Id. at 3:11–25.

6 The State responds to the Petition by arguing the First Amended Petition is untimely,
7 procedurally barred, and subject to the law of the case doctrine. Resp. at 4:16–17. The State argues
8 NRS 34.810(1)(b)(3) requires a court to dismiss a petition if the conviction was the result of a trial
9 and grounds for the Petition could have been raised in any other proceeding that the Petitioner has
10 taken to secure relief from conviction and sentence. Id. at 4:18–23. The State also argues that
11 appellate court determinations on appeal are the law of the case and the issues raised by the Amended
12 Petition have already been disposed of by the Court of Appeals. Id. at 4:23–5:2. The State pointed 13 out that the Court of Appeals concluded that there has not been a valid judgment of conviction and 14 ordered the district court to resentence Petitioner and enter an amended judgment of conviction. Id.
15 at 5:2–12. The State argues that the Court of Appeals ruling is the law of the case and that Petitioner
16 must be resentenced. Id. at 5:15–16.

17 The State responds to the Motion by arguing it is premature. Id. at 4:2. The State argues that 18 although Defendant does not cite any authority for his request, the State infers that Petitioner is
19 referring to NRS 34.430 which requires the State to serve the Petitioner with a return and answer that
20 states the authority and cause of the imprisonment and restraint, setting forth the basis for custody
21 with specificity. Id. at 4:5–12. The State argues that a return is not yet required because this Court
22 has not yet granted the Petition but if the Court does grant the Petition the State will be happy to 23 comply with the requirements of NRS Chapter 34. Id. at 4:12–14.

24 Petitioner replies by arguing the State failed to address the merits of Petitioner's claims in the 25 Petition. Reply at 2:14–20. Petitioner argues the State's law of the case argument is misguided
26 because the Court of Appeals did not address whether Petitioner had served the six terms of
27 imprisonment to completion nor what impact the completion of those terms had upon Petitioner's
28 resentencing. Id. at 5:1–27. Petitioner points out that he completed the six terms of imprisonment

1 six months prior to the Court of Appeals August 15, 2018 Order. Id. at 6:17–25. Petitioner argues
2 the jurisdictional argument was not available to him in his original appeal. Id. at 7:2–14. Petitioner
3 contends there is no procedural bar in NRS Chapter 34 that would prevent this Court from reviewing
4 Petitioner’s other claims. Id. at 8:17–26. Petitioner replies to the State’s argument regarding the
5 Motion by arguing that there is no statute or rule governing the time period in which a Motion
6 requesting the State file a Return must be filed. Id. at 3:8–19.

7 Having reviewed the pleadings on file and having reviewed the facts and the legal support set
8 forth therein, this Court finds good cause to deny the Petition and the Motion. The Court of Appeals
9 unambiguously stated “there is currently no valid judgment of conviction entered in CR96-1581.”
10 Order Granting Pet. Nev. App. Ct. Case No. 74227 at 2. The Court of Appeals determined the 11 appropriate relief was “resentencing, as originally ordered in the August 9, 2001, order, and entry of
12 an amended judgment of conviction.” Id. In a footnote the Court of Appeals noted “although there
13 is no valid judgment in CR96-1581, Voss has not been subject to illegal restraint because since 1998
14 he has also been held and been serving a concurrent prison term of life without the possibility of 15 parole pursuant to a judgment of conviction entered in district court case number CR97-2077.” Id. at 16 2, n 1.

17 This Court finds that the Petition for Habeas Corpus is not ripe for review at this time because 18 Petitioner has not been convicted or sentenced in relation to the crimes charged in CR96-1581.
19 Pursuant to NRS 34.724(1), in order to file a post-conviction habeas corpus petition the person must 20 have been “convicted of a crime and under sentence of death or imprisonment.” Pursuant to the Court
21 of Appeals Order, there is no valid judgment of conviction in this case and because the Court of
22 Appeals ordered Petitioner to be resentenced, he is not currently under a sentence for the crimes
23 committed in CR96-1581. .

24 As it pertains to the Motion, in order to comply with the requirements set forth in NRS 34.430
25 the State would have to “state the authority and cause of the imprisonment or restraint, setting forth
26 with specificity the basis for custody” as well as provide a certified copy of “any judgment, writ,
27 warrant, or other written authority.” NRS 34.430(2)–(3). The State would be unable to comply with 28 either of these requirements. There is currently no valid judgment of conviction and as such the State

1 cannot provide the authority and cause of the imprisonment, much less state the basis for custody
2 with specificity. Court of Appeal's Order. Order Granting Pet. Nev. App. Ct. Case No. 74227 at 2.
3 This Court reasons that NRS 34.430 does not contemplate the unique circumstances that are present
4 in this case and attempting to mechanically apply the statute to the facts of this case would be
5 improper.

6 This Court notes that Petitioner is scheduled for resentencing on November 20, 2019. This 7 Court anticipates entering an amended judgment of conviction and resentencing Petitioner on that
8 date.

9 Accordingly, and good cause appearing,

MOTION TO SET ASIDE JURY VERDICT

Deputy District Attorney Egan Walker was present on behalf of the State. The Defendant was not present but represented by Deputy Public Defenders Maizie Pusich and Cotter Conway. Barbara Jewett was present on behalf of the Division of Parole and Probation.

Counsel Pusich for the Defendant addressed the Court advising that the Defendant had not been transported by NSP and moved for a continuance. Counsel for the State addressed the Court indicating he would contact NSP to confirm transport for tomorrow; Counsel Pusich will do the same. Counsel Pusich also addressed the Court with concerns over access to the Defendant. Counsel for the State further addressed the Court advising that investigative reports provided to the Defense involve additional prior bad acts, but the State will not refer to those in opening argument (in the companion case CR97-2077 set for trial 5/26/98) until the Court has made its ruling.

COURT ORDERED: Matter continued until tomorrow. Defendant to remain in the County Jail over the weekend pending trial.

MOTION TO SET ASIDE JURY VERDICT

Deputy District Attorney Egan Walker represented the State.

Defendant was present with counsel, Deputy Public Defender Cotter C.

Conway and Deputy Public Defender Maizie Pusich. Erin Gallagher was present on behalf of the Division of Parole and Probation.

Deputy Public Defender Conway addressed the Court regarding the testimony of Edward Vilardi stating it was material to the defense because the evidence against Defendant Voss was circumstantial and the credibility of the detectives who testified at the trial was impeachable to the extent that the defense could have used the undisclosed information to challenge the methods of the police investigation and argued in support; response and argument by Deputy District Attorney Walker.

COURT ORDERED: State's failure to produce information violates the discovery rules and took the matter under advisement. The State will not be permitted to refer to prior convictions.

Defendant is to be maintained in custody at the Washoe County Jail until and through his trial on May 26, 1998.

EVIDENTIARY HEARING

Petitioner present with counsel, Scott Edwards.
Deputy D.A. Gary Hatlestad represented the State.
Counsel for Petitioner addressed the Court and invoked the rule of exclusion; SO ORDERED.
Respective counsel presented opening statements.
The following witnesses were called by counsel for Petitioner, sworn, testified and cross-examined:

Steven Floyd Voss
Mary Duplin
Gary Clifford

The following witnesses were called by counsel for State, sworn, testified and cross-examined:

Stacey Hill
Larry Canfield
John Yarhan
Cotter Conway

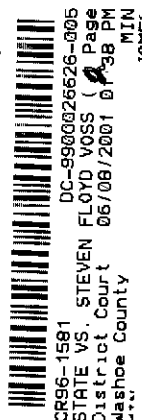

Closing arguments were waived by respective counsel.
The Court addressed Petitioner's claims and stated findings as follows:

Regarding Petitioner's claim that prospective jurors were exposed to Petitioner in prison clothing and/or during in-custody transportation, the Court finds no credibility to Petitioner's testimony and indicated that no corroborating testimony existed.
COURT ORDERED: The Petition is hereby denied as to this claim.

Regarding Petitioner's claim of ineffective assistance of counsel at trial, the Court finds that no credible evidence exists to support this claim.

COURT ORDERED: The Petition is hereby denied as to this
claim.

Regarding Petitioner's claim that the State failed to properly disclose Edward Villardi's witness statement, the Court finds that the State did fail to properly disclose said information. The

Court does not find that the witness's statement would have impacted the issue of guilt; however, the Court does find that by the State not properly disclosing Edward Villardi's testimony, the State may have impassioned the sentencing court to impose a more severe sentence than which may have been rendered if that court had knowledge of said information.

COURT ORDERED: The Petition is hereby granted as to this claim insofar as it relates to sentencing. The Petitioner shall receive a new sentencing hearing.

The Court directed counsel for State to prepare appropriate findings of fact, conclusions of law and order in accordance with the Court's rulings herein.

Counsel for State expressed concerns with the Court's ruling and how said ruling was reached; further discussion between the Court and counsel for State. Counsel for State discussed the reliance by the sentencing court on the Pre-Sentence Investigation Report as well as the Petitioner's criminal history. The Court confirmed said ruling.

Petitioner remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.

SENTENCING ON REMAND BY NEVADA S.C. - CONTD.

Deputy D.A. Amos Stege represented the State.
Defendant present with John Petty, Esq.
Parole and Probation Specialist, Jenny Lopez, also present.
Court referenced the Order by the Nevada Supreme Court to resentence the Defendant, but prior to the hearing date, the Defendant filed some appeals with the Nevada Supreme Court, so that would leave the jurisdiction of the case with the Nevada
Supreme Court.
Counsel Petty agreed with the Court's assessment that she did not have jurisdiction in the case, although he believed she did have jurisdiction on deciding Defendant's Motion for Withdrawal of Court Appointed Attorney.
Counsel Stege spoke as to his concerns regarding the fugitive documents filed by the Defendant. He believed the only issue that may be addressed by the Court was the issue as to Defendant's counsel.
Court referenced a past District Court Order and indicated she would not go forward with the resentencing, however was inclined to hear argument on Defendant's Motion for Withdrawal of Court Appointed Attorney.
Counsel Stege deferred to the Court and to Counsel Petty regarding any future litigation on the issue.
Counsel Petty did not oppose the removal of the Public Defender's Office, however he did not agree with some of the Defendant's allegations within the motion. He requested the Court remove his office and appoint the Alternate Public Defender's Office.
Court questioned the Defendant directly regarding the situation;
Defendant expressed his concerns with the conflict as to the Public Defender's Office.
Counsel Stege joined in the assessment of the claims with the Defendant's motion, he noted there was no finding as to ineffective assistance of counsel.
Court believed the Defendant's Motion for Withdrawal of Court Appointed Attorney was collateral to the case and accepted the representations of counsel regarding the conflict. She would not rule on the merits as to the performance of counsel, but solely base her decision on the conflict issue.

COURT granted Defendant's Motion for Withdrawal of Court Appointed Attorney, removed the Public Defender's Office and appointed the Alternate Public Defender's Office.

Court noted the Alternate Public Defender's Office would have significant time to meet with the Defendant, since the Defendant's appeals were pending with the Nevada Supreme Court.

Counsel Stege addressed the issue of a new presentence investigation report (PSI), he believed it was collateral to the case.

Court addressed the Nevada Supreme Court Order, her interpretation of said order was that the Court was to step into shoes of the sentencing Judge with the original PSI. Court indicated a supplemental PSI would not be ordered and the case would be treated as if it were 1996.

Defendant remanded to the custody of the Nevada Department of Corrections.
