ORDER DENYING MOTIONS

Petitioner has filed three motions to transmit sealed transcripts of district court hearings that reflect respondents' procedure regarding the resolution of petitions to seal criminal records at issue in these matters. Respondents oppose the motions on the ground that the transcripts are redundant and not relevant; and petitioner has filed a reply, noting that respondents have referred to the district court hearings at issue in their answer to the petition. Having considered the arguments of the parties, this court concludes that it appears this court's review of the transcripts is warranted. However, petitioner has not demonstrated that the transcripts cannot be included in a supplemental appendix accompanied by a motion to seal.¹ Accordingly, the motions to transmit the transcripts are denied without prejudice.

It is so ORDERED.
