The Court heard arguments on the instant Motion and continued the matter for two weeks to allow supplemental briefing and a decision in chambers. On March 28, 2019, Defendant filed its supplemental brief. On April 3, 2019, the Parties submitted a Stipulation and Order allowing Plaintiff until April 4, 2019 to file Supplemental briefing on Defendant's Motion In Limine No. 4. The Stipulation and Order was signed April 3, 2019, and filed April 4, 2019. On April 5, 2019 Plaintiff filed its supplemental brief. After review of the moving papers, arguments of counsel, the supplemental briefing, and the documents on file the Court finds as follows: The workers compensation statutes, in general, were designed to both protect the worker as well as the employer in return for both parties giving up certain rights. In this case the defendant is neither employer or employee. NRS 116C.215(10) is to benefit reimbursement to an employer if a third party recovery is made. Defendant in this case cannot use the statute as a sword to reduce the Plaintiff's recovery. The section was enacted to prevent a double recovery not to reduce the amount claimed to benefit a potential tortfeasor. Therefore, the Plaintiff may introduce the actual amounts billed by the provider and the total amount paid to the Plaintiff or to be paid. Therefore, Defendant's Motion in Limine No. 4 is DENIED. This Decision sets forth the Court's intended disposition on the subject but anticipates further Order of the Court to make such disposition effective as an Order. Such Order should set forth a synopsis of the supporting reasons proffered to the Court in briefing and argument. Plaintiff's counsel to prepare the Order and submit to Chambers for consideration in accordance with EDCR 7.21. Said order then must be filed in accordance with EDCR 7.24 CLERK'S NOTE: A

REQUIRED to produce all videos, photographs or whatever taken at the time of this. Pltf. is also REQUIRED to produce rebuttal expert for deposition and Pltf. REQUIRED to pay for expert's time. If disclosure made two weeks prior to the rebuttal experts deposition and he needs to review and that is what he is relying on, the Court does not think it is late to allow supplementing and testing. As far as the testing, the Court DISAGREES and testing was done in the most recent case. More often, it is the Deft's doing an accident reconstruction and calculating the Delta V, using a similar car and whether it is the exact same type, it is always the same model and the use that to calculate the Delta V. This is all subject to cross examination at the time of trial whether the exemplar was identical or not which never seems to be the case and the Court is not quite sure the length of the forks themselves and counsel will be able to comment on that . Mr. Kahn argued he will need to either have a live crash test in front of the jury. Court stated there WILL NOT BE a live crash test during trial. Further, Mr. Kahn argued counsel will do his own crash test, not invite Pltf's counsel and then counsel will disclose and Pltf. can do what they need to do. COURT SO ORDERED. Mr. Prince argued they will then produce all available data and produce expert. FURTHER ORDERED, Deft. REQUIRED to produce

DISTRICT COURT
CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

Bahram Yahyavi,
Plaintiff,

Case No.: A-15-718689-C

Dept.: XXVIII

v.

Capriati Construction Corp., Inc.,
Defendant.

DECISION AND ORDER

On September 9, 2019 through September 27, 2019, this Court conducted a jury trial in the case of Bahram Yahyavi v. Capriati Construction Corp., Inc. Plaintiff Bahram Yahyavi was represented by Dennis M. Prince and Kevin T. Strong and Defendant Capriati Construction was represented by David S. Kahn and Mark James Brown. On September 26, 2019, this Court conducted a hearing to address sanctions for Defense counsel's misconduct during the jury trial.

The factual history of this case is as follows: On June 19, 2013, Defendant's employee was driving a fork lift truck with the forks sticking out and collided with Plaintiff who was driving a company-owned vehicle on city streets. Plaintiff filed the complaint on May 20, 2015 and trial commenced on September 9, 2019. On September 25, 2019, during his case in chief, Defense counsel asked Defendant's corporate representative Cliff Goodrich, "Between the date of the accident and today, did anything major happen to your company?"

1 The witness responded, "Yes, we filed for a reorganization in 2015" and Plaintiff's counsel
2 immediately objected. This Court has concluded that Defense counsel intentionally solicited
3 testimony from the witness concerning Defendant's bankruptcy.

4 In the third week of trial, after the same witness who was Defendant's corporate
5 representative testified at length in Plaintiff's case in chief, Mr. Goodrich was called as a
6 witness in Defendant's case. The very first question was "Between the date of the accident
7 and today, did anything major happen to your company?" At that point, Mr. Goodrich's
8 immediate answer was "Yes, we filed for reorganization in 2015." This Court attached as a 9 court's exhibit the JAVS video which clearly shows that the question and answer were 10 prepared in advance.

11 After Plaintiff's counsel objected, the jury was excused and Defense counsel
12 proffered that he thought bankruptcy was a legitimate issue since the file for the employee
13 who drove the forklift that caused the accident was missing possibly due to the bankruptcy.¹
14 This explanation is simply not credible. This is one of the most severe abuses by counsel that 15 this Court has seen.

16 A. Defense Counsel's Misconduct Warrants a Curative Instruction to the Jury.

17 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that when an attorney commits misconduct and 18 the opposing party objects, the district court should admonish the jury and counsel about the 19 impropriety of counsel's misconduct and should reprimand counsel for their misconduct.
20 Gunderson v. D.R. Horton, Inc., 130 Nev. 67, 75, 319 P.3d 606, 611–12 (2014). Here, 21 Defense counsel committed misconduct when he intentionally solicited testimony about 22 Defendant's bankruptcy. On February 6, 2018, Defendant filed a motion for final decree in 23 bankruptcy court to close its Chapter 11 case because it "was able to turn itself profitable"
24 and paid all outstanding fees to its debtors. The bankruptcy court granted Defendant's motion 25 in its entirety on March 26, 2018. Now, eighteen months later, Defense counsel chose to 26
27

28 ¹ Although not addressed, it stretches credulity to believe that a bankruptcy would result in the loss of computer records to an ongoing business.

1 bring up the bankruptcy, leading the jury to consider the Defendant's financial position
2 despite its irrelevance and the closing of the bankruptcy.

3 Given Defense counsel's misconduct, this Court found it necessary to admonish the 4 jury about the impropriety of such misconduct and to reprimand Defense counsel.

5 Accordingly, this Court admonished the jury on September 26, 2019:

6 You were instructed to disregard the question and answer, which is hereby 7 stricken from these proceedings. Defendant is no longer in bankruptcy and is 8 now profitable. You are further instructed not to consider whether the 9 Defendant filed for bankruptcy for any reason, and it should have no effect on 10 your verdict. You should not even discuss that when you go back to 11 deliberate. Further by seeking to introduce such irrelevant evidence, counsel 12 for the Defendant, Mr. Kahn, committed willful misconduct. Mr. Kahn is 13 hereby reprimanded for his misconduct and admonished not to engage in any 14 further misconduct.

15 B. The Young v. Ribiero Factors Weigh Heavily in Favor of Sanctions for 16 Defense Counsel's Misconduct.

17 The Nevada Supreme Court has stated: "Courts by their nature have 'inherent 18 equitable powers to dismiss actions or enter default judgments...for abusive litigation
19 practices.'" Young v. Johnny Ribeiro Building, 106 Nev. 88, 92, 787 P.2d 777, 779 (1990).
20 When a court does not impose ultimate discovery sanctions such as dismissal, it may hold a 21 hearing to consider matters that are important to the imposition of sanctions. Bahena v.
22 Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., 126 Nev. 243, 256, 235 P.3d 592, 600-01 (2010). The district
23 court should exercise its discretion to ensure that there is sufficient information to support
24 these sanctions. Id. Further, the district should make its conclusions based on the factors set 25 forth in Young. Id.

26 The court in Young states which factors are relevant to determine whether to strike an 27 answer. The factors a court might consider include, but are not limited to: 1) the degree of 28 willfulness of the offending party, 2) the extent to which the non-offending party would be prejudiced by a lesser sanction, 3) the severity of the sanction of dismissal relative to the severity of the discovery abuse, 4) whether any evidence has been irreparably lost, 5) the feasibility and fairness alternative, less severe sanctions, 6) the policy favoring adjudication

1 on the merits, 7) whether sanctions unfairly operate to penalize a party for misconduct of his
2 or her attorney, 8) the need to deter both the parties and future litigants from similar abuses.
3 Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780.

4 1. The degree of willfulness of the offending party

5 Defense counsel's intentional misconduct in soliciting testimony concerning
6 Defendant's bankruptcy is one of the most serious abuses this Court has seen. Defense
7 counsel's question was phrased in a way to elicit testimony from Mr. Goodrich that the 8 Defendant filed for bankruptcy. This case was already two weeks into trial when Defense
9 counsel alerted the jury about Defendant's financial state by soliciting testimony regarding 10 the bankruptcy. Defense counsel's actions lead the Court to believe that Defense counsel 11 wanted to force a mistrial or wanted to influence the jury by way of sympathy for the 12 Defendant.

13 At the hearing for sanctions, Defense counsel stated that the purpose of the question 14 was related to the reduction of workforce to respond to information during Plaintiff's case in 15 chief that the Defendant willfully destroyed documents. The Court does not find this 16 testimony credible. There was no time between the question and the answer for this Court to 17 conclude anything else other than that Defense counsel solicited the testimony about the 18 bankruptcy. Further, Defense counsel is a senior partner at a national firm and should have 19 known that he could not solicit testimony about irrelevant evidence that would prejudice the 20 Plaintiff. It is important to note that liability was never an issue because the forklift driver 21 admitted that he was not authorized to drive the forklift and testified that the accident was his 22 fault. Thus, Defense counsel's actions were willful.

23 2. The extent to which the non-offending party would be prejudiced by a lesser 24 sanction

25 To sanction Defense counsel's conduct, this Court is striking the answer as to 26 liability, striking witness Mr. Goodrich's testimony about the bankruptcy, and striking 27 Defendant's remaining witnesses. Since liability was not an issue, striking the answer as to 28 liability was no sanction at all, and therefore the additional sanction of excluding Defendant's

1 rebuttal witness was a reasonable and minimal sanction. Further, since the Plaintiff argued it
2 would suffer substantial harm if a mistrial was declared, Plaintiff requested a curative jury 3 instruction that if any damages were awarded there was insurance to cover the verdict.
4 Insurance coverage should generally be excluded and this Court gave the standard jury
5 instruction that jurors are not to consider whether Plaintiff or Defendant have insurance.
6 Nonetheless, this Court felt that the only way to cure the issue was to give the added 7 instruction.

8 This Court is not imposing the ultimate sanction of striking the Defendant's Answer 9 and proceeding to a prove-up hearing. Nonetheless, Plaintiff has been prejudiced because the 10 jury became aware of the Defendant's bankruptcy and Plaintiff cannot make the jurors forget
11 that information. This is a case about damages against a company. The fact that the company
12 underwent bankruptcy is extremely prejudicial to the Plaintiff because it directly impacts the 13 juror's decision regarding the amount of damages to award. Any lesser sanction than what 14 this Court has imposed would further prejudice the Plaintiff and thus the sanctions here are 15 appropriate.

16 3. The severity of the sanction relative to the abuse

17 This Court is striking the defense of liability and allowing the parties to try the case
18 on damages. The severity of the sanction is equal to Defense counsel's intentional
19 misconduct when soliciting testimony about Defendant's bankruptcy. Further, Defense
20 counsel concedes that this Court's sanctions against the Defendant are appropriate: "I believe 21 what Mr. Prince has proposed as curative is sufficient, striking the answer. And even if the 22 answer is stricken, I still think Capriati Construction should have the ability to argue
23 damages with these curative instructions." Therefore, Defense counsel's intentional 24 misconduct warrants the severity of the sanctions imposed.

25 4. Whether any evidence had been irreparably lost

26 So far as this Court is aware, there is no evidence that has been lost.
27
28

1 5. The feasibility and fairness of less severe sanctions

2 This Court is imposing a lesser sanction than striking the answer completely and 3 proceeding to a prove-up hearing. This Court's decision to strike the answer as to liability, to 4 strike the witness who testified about the bankruptcy, and to strike Defendant's remaining 5 witnesses is fair in light of Defense counsel's misconduct.

6 6. The policy favoring adjudication on the merits

7 The Supreme Court favors adjudication on the merits but abusive litigation practices
8 must face sanctions. Under these facts of this case any lesser sanctions would encourage 9 further abuse. Defense counsel's misconduct was willful and thus warrants sanctions.

10 7. Whether sanctions unfairly operate to penalize a party for misconduct of his 11 or her attorney

12 In this case, the sanctions for Defense counsel's misconduct do not unfairly penalize
13 Defendant Capriati Construction because Defendant faces no monetary loss whatsoever. This 14 matter is the subject of an order from the bankruptcy court to lift the stay in order to proceed 15 against the insurance policies. Capriati Construction is only a figurehead in this case and 16 does not face any monetary loss. The fact that the bankruptcy stay has been lifted does not 17 allow the Plaintiff to proceed for money against Capriati Construction. Accordingly, this 18 Court's decision to impose sanctions for Defense counsel's misconduct does not operate to 19 unfairly penalize Defendant.

20 8. The need to deter both parties and future litigants from similar abuses

21 Defense counsel's misconduct was intentional and serious; therefore, there must be 22 serious and far reaching sanctions in order to deter Defense counsel from even considering 23 repeating their actions again. Information about the Defendant's financial condition distracts 24 the jury from reaching an impartial decision regarding the amount of damages, if any, to 25 award the Plaintiff in a personal injury trial. A jury must fairly evaluate the evidence 26 presented to them without regard to the financial position of the parties. A party's attempt to 27 secure a verdict not based on the evidence will have major consequences. This Court finds 28

1 that deterrence is necessary to prevent future abuse and thus the sanctions imposed are 2 necessary and appropriate.

v.

Capriati Construction Corp., Inc.,
Defendant.

On September 9, 2019 through September 27, 2019, this Court conducted a jury trial in the case of Bahram Yahyavi v. Capriati Construction Corp., Inc. Plaintiff Bahram Yahyavi was represented by Dennis M. Prince and Kevin T. Strong and Defendant Capriati Construction was represented by David S. Kahn and Mark James Brown. On September 26, 2019, this Court conducted a hearing to address sanctions for Defense counsel's misconduct during the jury trial.

The factual history of this case is as follows: On June 19, 2013, Defendant's employee was driving a fork lift truck with the forks sticking out and collided with Plaintiff who was driving a company-owned vehicle on city streets. Plaintiff filed the complaint on May 20, 2015 and trial commenced on September 9, 2019. On September 25, 2019, during his case in chief, Defense counsel asked Defendant's corporate representative Cliff Goodrich, "Between the date of the accident and today, did anything major happen to your company?"

1 The witness responded, "Yes, we filed for a reorganization in 2015" and Plaintiff's counsel
2 immediately objected. This Court has concluded that Defense counsel intentionally solicited
3 testimony from the witness concerning Defendant's bankruptcy.

4 In the third week of trial, after the same witness who was Defendant's corporate
5 representative testified at length in Plaintiff's case in chief, Mr. Goodrich was called as a
6 witness in Defendant's case. The very first question was "Between the date of the accident
7 and today, did anything major happen to your company?" At that point, Mr. Goodrich's
8 immediate answer was "Yes, we filed for reorganization in 2015." This Court attached as a 9 court's exhibit the JAVS video which clearly shows that the question and answer were 10 prepared in advance.

11 After Plaintiff's counsel objected, the jury was excused and Defense counsel
12 proffered that he thought bankruptcy was a legitimate issue since the file for the employee
13 who drove the forklift that caused the accident was missing possibly due to the bankruptcy.¹
14 This explanation is simply not credible. This is one of the most severe abuses by counsel that 15 this Court has seen.

16 A. Defense Counsel's Misconduct Warrants a Curative Instruction to the Jury.

17 The Nevada Supreme Court has held that when an attorney commits misconduct and 18 the opposing party objects, the district court should admonish the jury and counsel about the 19 impropriety of counsel's misconduct and should reprimand counsel for their misconduct.
20 Gunderson v. D.R. Horton, Inc., 130 Nev. 67, 75, 319 P.3d 606, 611-12 (2014). Here, 21 Defense counsel committed misconduct when he intentionally solicited testimony about 22 Defendant's bankruptcy. On February 6, 2018, Defendant filed a motion for final decree in 23 bankruptcy court to close its Chapter 11 case because it "was able to turn itself profitable"
24 and paid all outstanding fees to its debtors. The bankruptcy court granted Defendant's motion 25 in its entirety on March 26, 2018. Now, eighteen months later, Defense counsel chose to 26
27

28 ¹ Although not addressed, it stretches credulity to believe that a bankruptcy would result in the loss of computer records to an ongoing business.

1 bring up the bankruptcy, leading the jury to consider the Defendant's financial position
2 despite its irrelevance and the closing of the bankruptcy.

3 Given Defense counsel's misconduct, this Court found it necessary to admonish the 4 jury about the impropriety of such misconduct and to reprimand Defense counsel.

5 Accordingly, this Court admonished the jury on September 26, 2019:

6 You were instructed to disregard the question and answer, which is hereby 7 stricken from these proceedings. Defendant is no longer in bankruptcy and is 8 now profitable. You are further instructed not to consider whether the 9 Defendant filed for bankruptcy for any reason, and it should have no effect on 10 your verdict. You should not even discuss that when you go back to 11 deliberate. Further by seeking to introduce such irrelevant evidence, counsel 12 for the Defendant, Mr. Kahn, committed willful misconduct. Mr. Kahn is 13 hereby reprimanded for his misconduct and admonished not to engage in any 14 further misconduct.

15 B. The Young v. Ribiero Factors Weigh Heavily in Favor of Sanctions for 16 Defense Counsel's Misconduct.

17 The Nevada Supreme Court has stated: "Courts by their nature have 'inherent 18 equitable powers to dismiss actions or enter default judgments...for abusive litigation
19 practices.'" Young v. Johnny Ribeiro Building, 106 Nev. 88, 92, 787 P.2d 777, 779 (1990).
20 When a court does not impose ultimate discovery sanctions such as dismissal, it may hold a 21 hearing to consider matters that are important to the imposition of sanctions. Bahena v.
22 Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., 126 Nev. 243, 256, 235 P.3d 592, 600-01 (2010). The district
23 court should exercise its discretion to ensure that there is sufficient information to support
24 these sanctions. Id. Further, the district should make its conclusions based on the factors set 25 forth in Young. Id.

26 The court in Young states which factors are relevant to determine whether to strike an 27 answer. The factors a court might consider include, but are not limited to: 1) the degree of 28 willfulness of the offending party, 2) the extent to which the non-offending party would be prejudiced by a lesser sanction, 3) the severity of the sanction of dismissal relative to the severity of the discovery abuse, 4) whether any evidence has been irreparably lost, 5) the feasibility and fairness alternative, less severe sanctions, 6) the policy favoring adjudication

1 on the merits, 7) whether sanctions unfairly operate to penalize a party for misconduct of his
2 or her attorney, 8) the need to deter both the parties and future litigants from similar abuses.
3 Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780.

4 1. The degree of willfulness of the offending party

5 Defense counsel's intentional misconduct in soliciting testimony concerning
6 Defendant's bankruptcy is one of the most serious abuses this Court has seen. Defense
7 counsel's question was phrased in a way to elicit testimony from Mr. Goodrich that the 8 Defendant filed for bankruptcy. This case was already two weeks into trial when Defense
9 counsel alerted the jury about Defendant's financial state by soliciting testimony regarding 10 the bankruptcy. Defense counsel's actions lead the Court to believe that Defense counsel 11 wanted to force a mistrial or wanted to influence the jury by way of sympathy for the 12 Defendant.

13 At the hearing for sanctions, Defense counsel stated that the purpose of the question
14 was related to the reduction of workforce to respond to information during Plaintiff's case in 15 chief that the Defendant willfully destroyed documents. The Court does not find this 16 testimony credible. There was no time between the question and the answer for this Court to 17 conclude anything else other than that Defense counsel solicited the testimony about the 18 bankruptcy. Further, Defense counsel is a senior partner at a national firm and should have 19 known that he could not solicit testimony about irrelevant evidence that would prejudice the 20 Plaintiff. It is important to note that liability was never an issue because the forklift driver 21 admitted that he was not authorized to drive the forklift and testified that the accident was his 22 fault. Thus, Defense counsel's actions were willful.

23 2. The extent to which the non-offending party would be prejudiced by a lesser 24 sanction

25 To sanction Defense counsel's conduct, this Court is striking the answer as to 26 liability, striking witness Mr. Goodrich's testimony about the bankruptcy, and striking 27 Defendant's remaining witnesses. Since liability was not an issue, striking the answer as to 28 liability was no sanction at all, and therefore the additional sanction of excluding Defendant's

1 rebuttal witness was a reasonable and minimal sanction. Further, since the Plaintiff argued it
2 would suffer substantial harm if a mistrial was declared, Plaintiff requested a curative jury
3 instruction that if any damages were awarded there was insurance to cover the verdict.
4 Insurance coverage should generally be excluded and this Court gave the standard jury
5 instruction that jurors are not to consider whether Plaintiff or Defendant have insurance.
6 Nonetheless, this Court felt that the only way to cure the issue was to give the added 7 instruction.

8 This Court is not imposing the ultimate sanction of striking the Defendant's Answer 9 and proceeding to a prove-up hearing. Nonetheless, Plaintiff has been prejudiced because the 10 jury became aware of the Defendant's bankruptcy and Plaintiff cannot make the jurors forget
11 that information. This is a case about damages against a company. The fact that the company
12 underwent bankruptcy is extremely prejudicial to the Plaintiff because it directly impacts the 13 juror's decision regarding the amount of damages to award. Any lesser sanction than what 14 this Court has imposed would further prejudice the Plaintiff and thus the sanctions here are 15 appropriate.

16 3. The severity of the sanction relative to the abuse

17 This Court is striking the defense of liability and allowing the parties to try the case
18 on damages. The severity of the sanction is equal to Defense counsel's intentional
19 misconduct when soliciting testimony about Defendant's bankruptcy. Further, Defense
20 counsel concedes that this Court's sanctions against the Defendant are appropriate: "I believe 21 what Mr. Prince has proposed as curative is sufficient, striking the answer. And even if the 22 answer is stricken, I still think Capriati Construction should have the ability to argue
23 damages with these curative instructions." Therefore, Defense counsel's intentional 24 misconduct warrants the severity of the sanctions imposed.

25 4. Whether any evidence had been irreparably lost

26 So far as this Court is aware, there is no evidence that has been lost.
27
28

1 5. The feasibility and fairness of less severe sanctions

2 This Court is imposing a lesser sanction than striking the answer completely and 3 proceeding to a prove-up hearing. This Court's decision to strike the answer as to liability, to 4 strike the witness who testified about the bankruptcy, and to strike Defendant's remaining 5 witnesses is fair in light of Defense counsel's misconduct.

6 6. The policy favoring adjudication on the merits

7 The Supreme Court favors adjudication on the merits but abusive litigation practices
8 must face sanctions. Under these facts of this case any lesser sanctions would encourage 9 further abuse. Defense counsel's misconduct was willful and thus warrants sanctions.

10 7. Whether sanctions unfairly operate to penalize a party for misconduct of his 11 or her attorney

12 In this case, the sanctions for Defense counsel's misconduct do not unfairly penalize
13 Defendant Capriati Construction because Defendant faces no monetary loss whatsoever. This 14 matter is the subject of an order from the bankruptcy court to lift the stay in order to proceed
15 against the insurance policies. Capriati Construction is only a figurehead in this case and 16 does not face any monetary loss. The fact that the bankruptcy stay has been lifted does not 17 allow the Plaintiff to proceed for money against Capriati Construction. Accordingly, this 18 Court's decision to impose sanctions for Defense counsel's misconduct does not operate to 19 unfairly penalize Defendant.

20 8. The need to deter both parties and future litigants from similar abuses

21 Defense counsel's misconduct was intentional and serious; therefore, there must be 22 serious and far reaching sanctions in order to deter Defense counsel from even considering
23 repeating their actions again. Information about the Defendant's financial condition distracts 24 the jury from reaching an impartial decision regarding the amount of damages, if any, to 25 award the Plaintiff in a personal injury trial. A jury must fairly evaluate the evidence 26 presented to them without regard to the financial position of the parties. A party's attempt to 27 secure a verdict not based on the evidence will have major consequences. This Court finds 28

1 that deterrence is necessary to prevent future abuse and thus the sanctions imposed are
2 necessary and appropriate.

3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant's Answer and Affirmative Defenses on 4 Liability are STRICKEN. The Jury Trial on damages will proceed as scheduled.

5 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that witness Cliff Goodrich's testimony is STRICKEN 6 and that Defendant's remaining witnesses are STRICKEN.

Following arguments by counsel, Court stated FINDINGS and ORDERED, motion DENIED. Pltf. REQUIRED to produce all videos, photographs or whatever taken at the time of this. Pltf. is also REQUIRED to produce rebuttal expert for deposition and Pltf. REQUIRED to pay for expert's time. If disclosure made two weeks prior to the rebuttal experts deposition and he needs to review and that is what he is relying on, the Court does not think it is late to allow supplementing and testing. As far as the testing, the Court DISAGREES and testing was done in the most recent case. More often, it is the Deft's doing an accident reconstruction and calculating the Delta V, using a similar car and whether it is the exact same type, it is always the same model and the use that to calculate the Delta V. This is all subject to cross examination at the time of trial whether the exemplar was identical or not which never seems to be the case and the Court is not quite sure the length of the forks themselves and counsel will be able to comment on that. Mr. Kahn argued he will need to either have a live crash test in front of the jury. Court stated there WILL NOT BE a live crash test during trial. Further, Mr. Kahn argued counsel will do his own crash test, not invite Pltf's counsel and then counsel will disclose and Pltf. can do what they need to do. COURT SO ORDERED. Mr. Prince argued they will then produce all available data and produce expert. FURTHER ORDERED, Deft. REQUIRED to produce expert and Deft. required to pay for expert's time. Court further FINDS testing is not out of the ordinary and counsel can question expert during deposition as to qualifications.

- On March 19, 2019 this Court heard arguments on both Plaintiff's and Defendant's Motions in Limine. The Court heard arguments on the instant Motion and continued the matter for two weeks to allow supplemental briefing and a decision in chambers. On March 28, 2019, Defendant filed its supplemental brief. On April 3, 2019, the Parties submitted a Stipulation and Order allowing Plaintiff until April 4, 2019 to file Supplemental briefing on Defendant's Motion In Limine No. 4. The Stipulation and Order was signed April 3, 2019, and filed April 4, 2019. On April 5, 2019 Plaintiff filed its supplemental brief.

After review of the moving papers, arguments of counsel, the supplemental briefing, and the documents on file the Court finds as follows:

The workers compensation statutes, in general, were designed to both protect the worker as well as the employer in return for both parties giving up certain rights. In this case the defendant is neither employer or employee. NRS 116C.215(10) is to benefit reimbursement to an employer if a third party recovery is made.

Defendant in this case cannot use the statute as a sword to reduce the Plaintiff's recovery. The section was enacted to prevent a double recovery not to reduce the amount claimed to benefit a potential tortfeasor.

Therefore, the Plaintiff may introduce the actual amounts billed by the provider and the total amount paid to the Plaintiff or to be paid.

Therefore, Defendant's Motion in Limine No. 4 is DENIED.

This Decision sets forth the Court's intended disposition on the subject but anticipates further Order of the Court to make such disposition effective as an Order. Such Order should set forth a synopsis of the supporting reasons proffered to the Court in briefing and argument.

Plaintiff's counsel to prepare the Order and submit to Chambers for consideration in accordance with EDCR 7.21. Said order then must be filed in accordance with EDCR 7.24

CLERK'S NOTE: A copy of this minute order was e-served to counsel. kt 04/09/19.
